

CTCOG To Meet Here Thursday Noon

The Executive Committee of the Central Texas Council of Governments will hold meeting at the Chateau Ville Restaurant in Gatesville, Thursday, July 31.

Executive Director, Charles Cass, announced the meeting last Friday.

The CTCOC is the regional planning organization for a six-county area including Hamilton, Coryell, Bell, Lampasas, Milam, and Falls Counties.

The 12:00 noon meeting will discuss several topics of regional interest. A discussion of Housing Urban Development Regional Water and Sewer Master Plan requirements will be reviews. Deadline for the Plans is October 1, 1969.

Cass noted that committee reports from City Managers, Law Enforcement Council, Chamber of Commerce, and Comprehensive Health Planning will be presented.

A progress report on 701

Planning Funds will be presented to the executive committee. Gatesville Master Plan program is financed under 701 federal funds.

A briefing on Law Enforcement Action Funds to be received will also be presented.

The Executive Director will develop an administration procedure plan required by the Housing Urban Development agency.

STATE TAX BILL COULD BE LARGEST SINCE 1961

AUSTIN (AP) - Texas legislators convene Monday for a 30-day called session that may produce the state's biggest tax bill since 1961, when the sales tax was first passed.

Three major developments are expected the first day of the session.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert will issue his updated general revenue estimate for the 1970-71 financing period. It is expected to be around $300 million less than the $1.2 billion forecast he gave the lawmakers in January. The decrease is mostly to the teacher pay bill and other education measures passed during the regular session.

Gov. Preston Smith, who forced the special session by vetoing the regular session's $2.8 billion one-year budget, will present his taxing and spending recommendations.

A two-year general appropriations bill and Smith's tax bills will be introduced.

The session will open at 11 a.m., and Smith is scheduled to speak to a joint meeting of the House and Senate at 11:30 a.m.

There is some chance the lawmakers may repeat the one-year budget and postpone new taxes until 1970 if the voters pass a constitutional amendment August 5 calling for annual sessions and appropriations.

Smith said last week he would not oppose a one-year bill "if that's what the people want." Until the voters change the constitution, he believes a one-year appropriation bill is illegal.

Estimates of the new taxes required to balance a two-year budget range from around $300 million to more than $500 million. The highest tax bill this decade was $363 million in 1961—the year of the sales tax.

Leaders of the two houses have spent weeks working behind the scenes with legislators, lobbyists and influential citizens to lay the groundwork for the session.

Speaker Gus Mutscher has a tentative timetable that calls for House passage of an appropriations bill before the end of the first week and action on a tax bill midway in the second week.

Senators are expected to pass their own versions of the two measures, leaving the final details of both bills to 10-men conference committees that probably will work closely to make sure that taxes balance spending.

Mutscher, whose House must initiate tax legislation, said about $200 million of a tax bill should come from a "broad-based" source. Possibilities, he said, include a 1/2 percent sales tax increase, removal of the sales tax exemption for food or a corporation income tax.

The business lobby has been putting the squeeze on for a major change in the sales tax and obviously, wants desperately to avoid a corporation profits tax.

The House Appropriations Committee has met privately several times during the past few weeks to reach advance agreement on the spending bill in order to save time during the session.

A source said the bill probably will be smaller than the two-year bill the House passed in the regular session.

There are advantages to the lawmakers in getting taxes and spending out of the way early. Smith has promised to open the session to other issues once these two matters are disposed of, including the 37 late bills he vetoed because the presiding officers did not sign them in the presence of the two houses.

Three Plead Guilty In 52nd District Court

Three criminal cases were completed Monday in 52nd District Court.

All three plead guilty to charges and Judge Truman Roberts released the 45 petit jurors called for Monday's court session.

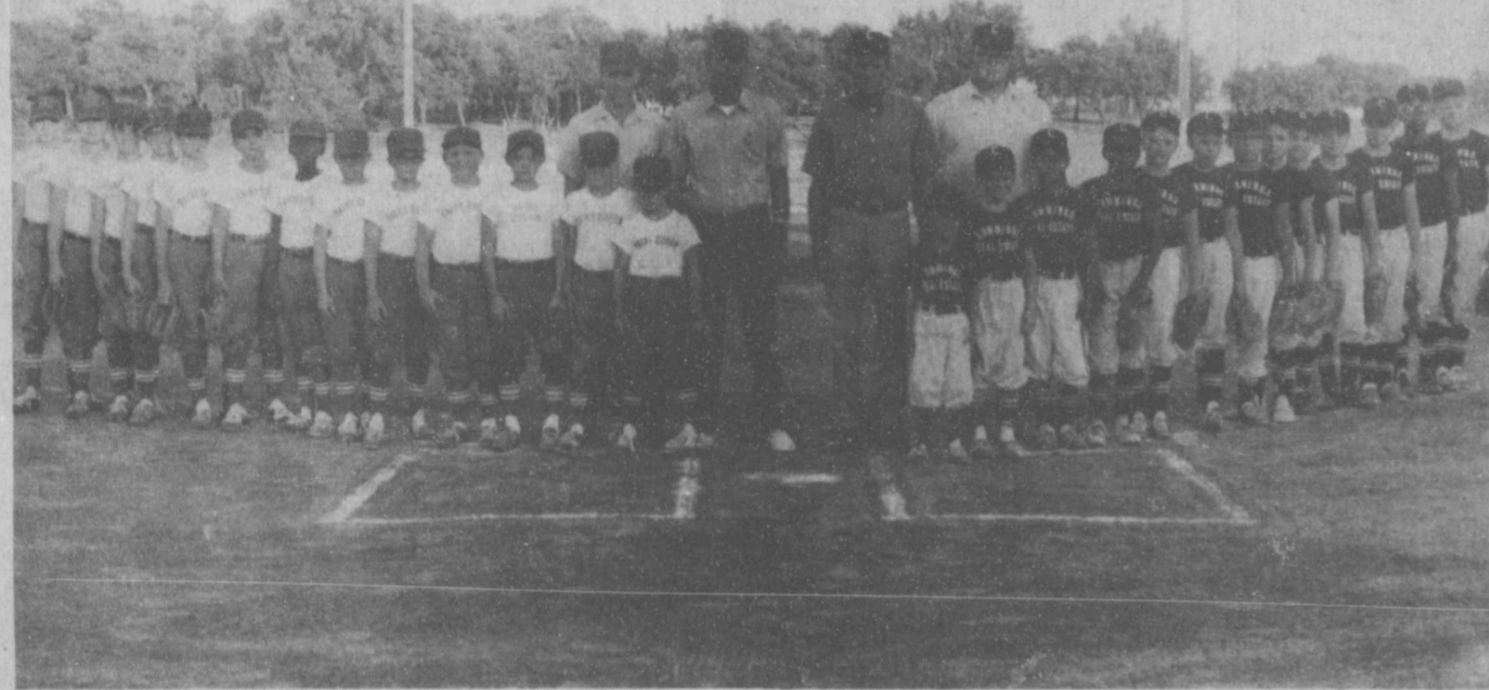

Joe Huggins plead guilty to charges of Arson and was sentenced to two years in the Texas Department of Correction in Huntsville.

Walter L. Loper received a three-year probated sentence on charges of theft following a guilty plea.

Vernon B. McLaughlin plead guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated and was fined $300 and court cost.

Last week, Johnny Pruett entered a plea of Nolo Contendere to charges of sodomy and was assessed punishment of two years in prison. Pruett was given ten-days in which to enter an appeal.

The 1969 Freshman League Play-Off series between Cummings Insurance and Dairy Queen was held over the weekend with Dairy Queen winning the three game series in two games. The two teams are pictured above during player introduction before the Friday night game.

DAIRY QUEEN TAKES PLAYOFF IN TWO GAMES

Purpose Of Rural Water Corp. Pointed Out

"The basic purpose for the development of the Texas Association of Rural Water Corporations is to work for progress in the rural Texas," says Jerry K. Johnson of Nacogdoches, president.

More than 200 of Texas' rural water supply corporations are members of the Association, and the membership is gaining eight to ten systems weekly.

Judge Roberts Is Reappointed To Key Committees

Reappointment of District Judge Truman E. Roberts of Hamilton to two key committees of the State Bar of Texas was announced by Bar President, Josiah Wheat of Woodville.

These include the Bar-Press Conference Committee for Texas and the committee on revision of the penal code. The latter group is headed by Dean Page Keeton of the University of Texas School of Law.

Judge Roberts is chairman of the State Bar's judicial section.

The Association's members and directors feel that if the state's economy continues to grow, ample services, including water, must be made available to the rural areas. "At the present time, states Johnson, there is over-crowding in the major urban areas and if adequate utility services develop, many of the large city residents will have an opportunity to move into the nearby country-side and enjoy improved living conditions."

The non-profit rural water systems are serving in areas where well water is not adequate or available sources of water are undesirable. The systems, like those that are municipally operated, are owned by those they serve. Only a limited few have adequate sources to hire the desired services of operation employees. Rather, most are operated by the rural residents that are pledged to the ideal of having good, fresh water in the country.

The Association's opinion is that the systems can play important roles in rural Texas development, but they require, for that role, the same tax advantage as the city-owned systems enjoy. Most municipal systems are exempt from taxation. In meetings throughout the state, the Texas Association of Rural Water Corporations is attempting to inform the public about this need and is asking for support and vote favorable on position four of the August 5 ballot.

Petty, Niemier, and Sanders To Play With Dairy Queen

Dairy Queen Manager, Jerry Sullivan picked up three all-star boys for the State Play-Off Tournament in Eules this week.

Selected to play were: Leon Petty, Cummings Insurance; Charles Niemier, Fire Department; and David Sanders, Jackson Insurance.

The Dairy Queen team left Monday to play in the Freshman League State Tourney in Eules. First game for the DQ team was at 6:15 p.m., Monday against the Eules Americans.

Dairy Queen took charge on the Freshman League pennant Friday night following their second one-run victory over a hard-hitting Cummings Insurance.

The two division winners squared off Thursday night in the play-off opener with James Taylor pitching for Cummings and Bobby Hamilton pitching for the Dairy Queen.

Cummings Insurance broke in to the scoring column first when Leon Petty singled and scored on three errors in the second inning.

Then in the third inning James Taylor ran into pitching problems and loaded the bases. Leon Petty then took over the mound chores for Cummings and allowed only one run for the Dairy Queen bunch.

Cummings scored in the top of the fourth inning to regain the lead. The CI score came when James Taylor doubled then stole third base and came home on a sacrifice play by Leon Petty.

Behind two to one in the bottom of the fourth, the Dairy Queen boys charged back with Kyle Powell singling, then stealing second base. Randy Kennedy then singled to score Powell from second base and tie the score.

Hamilton pitched Dairy Queen past the Cummings hitters, in the top of the fifth inning.

In the bottom of the fifth Dairy Queen started with a single by Kerry McGee. Gary Marshall was walked to first base, pushing McGee to second.

Jimmy Don Ray then hit a single which scored McGee from second base for the game's winning run. Kyle Powell then connected for a single which scored Marshall to give Dairy Queen a 4 to 2 win in the Play-Off Opener.

Friday night, the Dairy boys managed to hold off the charging Cummings team after taking an early game lead.

Dairy Queen picked up two runs in the first inning.

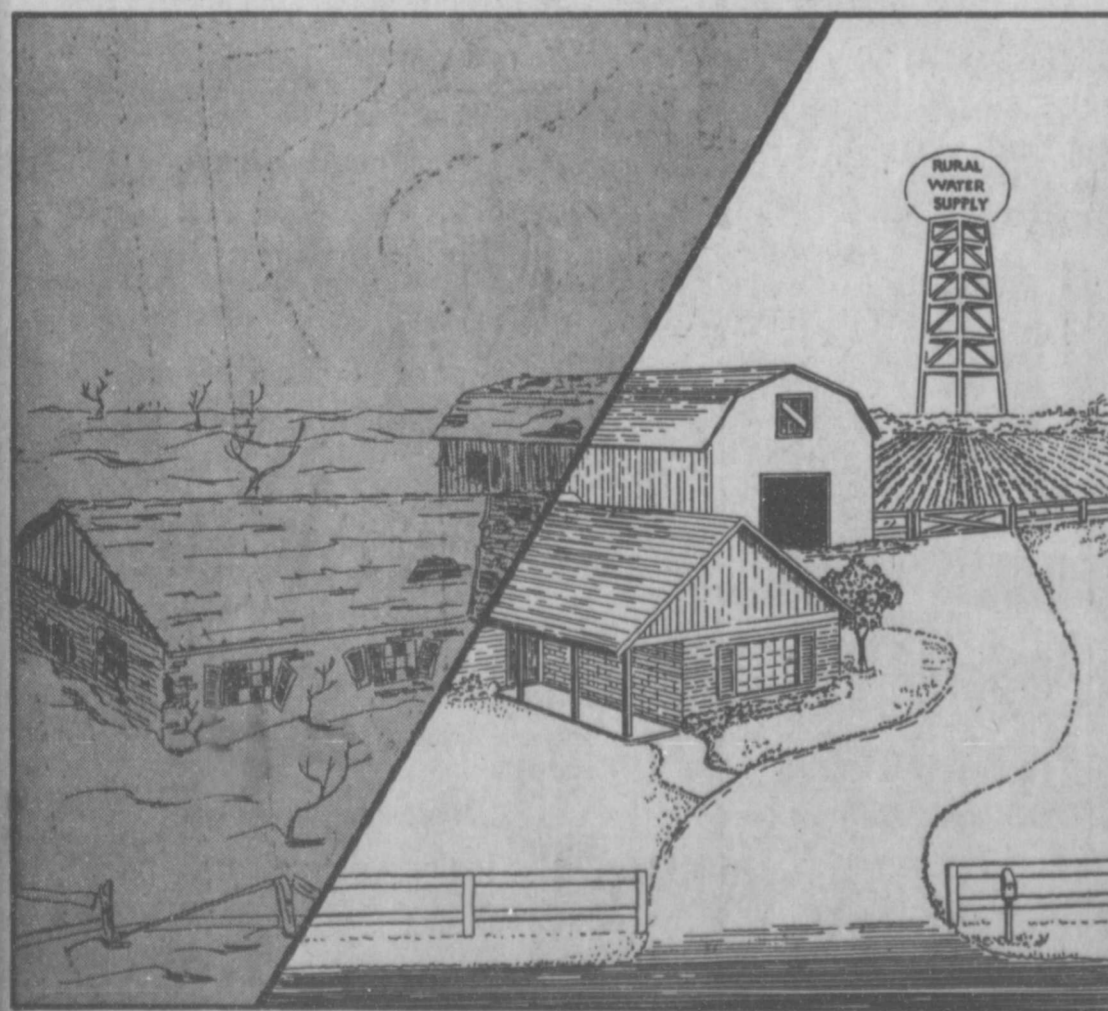

Cummings Insurance scored one run in the third inning and Dairy Queen then picked up two runs in the top of the fourth.

Leading 4 to 1 in the fourth Dairy Queen defended their lead as Cummings picked up runs in both the fourth and fifth innings.

Cummings pitcher, Leon Petty, held the Dairy boys scoreless in the top of the sixth inning. Trailing by only one run the Cummings nine fired away in the last half of the last inning.

The Dairy Queen defense stiffened and stopped the Cummings charge at third base.

The 4 to 3 victory gave the Dairy Queen team the Freshman league title and an undefeated season.

Gatesville To Benefit From Manpower Grant

A $76,312 grant for a manpower development program in undergraduate social work has been awarded to Sam Houston State University's Institute of Contemporary Corrections and the Behavioral Sciences.

The grant is from the Office of Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Development of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Its primary purpose is to improve the social rehabilitation and social services program of the Institute.

Part of the grant will be used to employ a new associate professor of social work, a field service supervisor and two secretaries by the fall, 1969, semester. Also to be employed is Dr. Dorothy Hayes, professor and coordinator of research and curriculum development for the Institute, who will devote half her time to her new position as manpower program director.

Funds will also be used for the addition of "tutorials" for "educationally disadvantaged" employed personnel enrolled part-time in sociology courses offered by the Institute in Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Gatesville, Houston and Dallas.

Dr. George G. Killinger, Institute director, explained that there are many persons employed in social welfare agencies, children's institutions, juvenile probation and parole, and detention homes who participate in these courses, but "find the content difficult to grasp and are in need of improved communication skills." Under the terms of the grant, highly skilled graduate and post graduate students who are also taking courses at these locations will be selected to act as "tutors" to the educationally disadvantaged.

Other purposes to be achieved by the grant include additional field experience internship in social work, curriculum development and integration and preparation of undergraduate students for graduate study in professional social work.

The manpower development program is projected over a four year period. The initial $76,312 grant is for the first year, July 1, 1969, to July 1, 1970. Funding for the entire four years is projected at $313,140.

Vote Aug. 5 And Vote FOR Amendment No. 4

Nonprofit water supply corporations perform a vital function for many parts of Coryell County that would not otherwise have adequate water supplies. The corporations to be exempted are nonprofit and perform a public service—in Coryell County alone, they provide water for 1,700 families. Therefore, their property should be like public property and exempt from taxation.

With approval of Amendment No. 4, rural water supply corporations will be given the same tax break as the municipal systems—no taxes.

Yarborough Says

1969 INTEREST RATE INCREASE CAUSE OF INFLATION

The recent increases in the interest rates are supposed to help cause inflation because what they do is cause you to pay higher prices for a home, but I say they

a car, or just about everything else you buy.

Recently, what they call the prime interest rate jumped to 8 1/2 percent. Now, the prime interest rate is the interest rate the big banks charge their preferred customers. But that interest rate would be higher if an individual went in to borrow money.

When the big banks announced that the interest rate was going to 8 1/2 percent, the cost of a home loan jumped to 9 1/2 percent in some states, while in other states the loan companies announced that they were not raising their interest rates for mortgages quite that high. They charged bigger service fees. This means you have less money to pay the contractor for him to pay materials, and to pay the workers. So, you've got less home for the amount of money you borrowed.

This latest jump in the interest rate was the fifth since December. Now we have the highest interest rates since the Civil War.

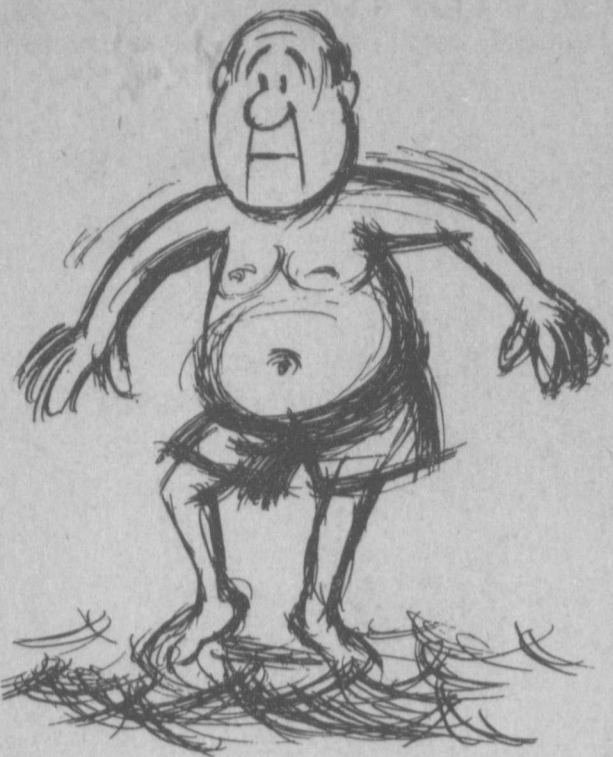

Now when a big loan company borrows money and has to pay 8 1/2 percent on the loan, it has ways of getting that money back. It simply raises the prices and passes on to you that extra cost.

So you're hit from several sides with these new interest rates. You have to pay more interest if you borrow money or buy something on credit, and you also have to pay higher prices if you pay cash.

These new interest rates hurt cities and towns and school districts and all other public authorities because these high interest rates hurt any public governing body which sells bonds. The interest rates on the school bonds and city bonds and other public bonds are higher, and you, the taxpayer, have to pay higher taxes on your home and business, farm and ranch to make up for the higher interest rates.

Some school districts, even with the higher interest rates, are now unable even to sell tax exempt bonds because bank can make more off of 8 1/2 percent prime loans than they can on bonds. This means the high interest rates are holding back education. They're holding back building city halls and all kinds of public development.

Now there are some people in our economy who are not suffering from these higher interest rates. They are the big banks who are reporting big increases in their earnings. Compared with what they

By Marjorie Marsh

Your traveling friend Marjorie recently went to New Orleans for the big, annual conference of the National Home Furnishings League. They're a professional group of hundreds of women who work in my wonderful world of home furnishings.

There were meetings and lively seminars, one of which I'm sure that those of us who attended will never forget. The subject was discrimination against women in business. As the audience was made up of all women (plus two stray males) you can imagine how the three-man panel had its back against the wall!

New Wool Carpet Shown I also went to a lovely reception for that pretty "Gambol" Woolmark carpet I first spotted at the furniture showings this spring. And how the interior designers and "communicators" of the NHFL loved it.

Everyone agreed that this new method of manufacturing has produced a yummy carpet that will make every owner feel like a movie star. When I was chatting with the host, he told me that "Gambol" is being used wall-to-wall in bedrooms where its fleecy, furry look goes so well with modern or rattan furniture. And since the wool carpet is a "look-alike" for Greek Flokatis, it's "gamboling" into living rooms as area rugs.

Another highlight of my trip was a fashion show that had dramatic clothes created by top dress designers. The twist was that all were made from home fashions fabrics that you'd use for curtains or upholstery. As I often say, there's always something new under the sun!

Mrs. Weldon Elliott, organist, and Roy Finney, soloist, provided traditional wedding music. Vows were exchanged under an arch flanked by candelabra holding lighted tapers. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The gown was designed by the bride and made by her mother. It was made of a bridal white peau de soie sheath with the bodice covered with Chantilly lace, which swept into a train bordered with clipped lace.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham of Route 3, Gatesville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Rainer of 2502 Osage Road in Gatesville.

Two brass cathedral candelabra graced the altar. Arrangements of yellow and white gladioli, ribbon and greenery completed the setting. Pews were marked by white satin bows. Wedding music was provided by Miss Kathy Sims, organist, and by Mrs. Rolland McLean of Gatesville, soloist, who sang, "I Love You Truly," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal A-line gown with a shaped back hemline of white peau de soie and lace which was designed by her mother. The empire bodice and the bell shaped elbow length sleeves were of re-embroidered scalloped lace. The double scalloped lace chapel train was attached to a scalloped yoke in the back. Tiny peau de soie covered buttons accented the back opening from the Victorian neckline down to the yoke. Her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a headpiece covered with tiny petals of peau de soie and seed pearls. The bride carried out the tradition of wearing something old, new, borrowed, and blue and a penny in her shoe. Yellow rosebuds surrounding a yellow throated white orchid forming her wedding bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a blue double knit dress with blue and bone accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink lace two piece dress with white and pink accessories, and also a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Vicki Lynn Rainer, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the Bride's Book. The registry was adorned with the three attendants long stemmed yellow roses alongside an arrangement of greenery and yellow poms poms, which was centered with a lighted candle. Miss Lori Powell, niece of the bride, and Miss Tammy Jo Hale, cousin of the bride, assisted with the rice bags. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Cecil R. Dorsey, Mrs. Robert J. Hunt, and Mrs. D. F. Powell.

Parents of the bride were hosts for a reception following the ceremony in the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham on Dodds Creek Drive, Creek Cliff Estates, in Gatesville. The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth overlaid with white tulle edged with a ruffle, also of tulle. The bridal bouquet, and the three tiered wedding cake were on the table. Misses Diane Spurlock, and Jackie Fry both of Gatesville laded punch from the crystal punch bowl and Miss Wanda Fowler also of Gatesville served cake. Appointments were of silver and crystal.

For traveling, the bride wore an apricot colored coat dress with bone accessories and wore the orchid corsage from her bouquet.

After a wedding trip to Salado and other places, of interest, the couple will be residing in Stephenville, Texas where both will continue their studies this fall, at Tarleton State College.
