PROPOSED CITY BUDGET

Budget Includes Capital Improvements

A proposed city budget with $139,000 in capital improvements was discussed at Tuesday night's regular city council meetings.

"The budget will have to be trimmed by over $67,000 to match revenues," noted City manager Skipper Wallace. The budget will undergo some changes and modifications in the next few weeks.

Included in the proposed capital expenditures are 12 major items with the largest single item being the paving, curb and gutter for streets in Westview Addition totaling $52,800. Other expenditures include paving curb gutter for 26th Street of $15,500; Garbage truck, $10,000; Backhoe, $13,000; 3000 feet of sewer line along Bridge Street, $24,700; Dump Truck, $6000; Posting machine, $7000; Office Machines, $1000; Reservoir Repair, $2200; Codify Ordinances, $5000; and Welding equipment, $500.

The 1970 tax roll includes $5,994,046 in real estate valuation and $2,452,322 in personal property with the total of $8,446,368. Wallace estimates that $108,334.68 in tax revenue will be realized from the tax roll at the present $1.35 per 1/3 of $100 valuation.

Along with ad valorem revenue the city estimates $133,000 in water revenue and total revenue of $416,559.68. Wallace has proposed an overall 10% increase in employee wages in the new budget. Presently 33 full time employees work for the city.

Total expenditures under the proposed budget total $483,000 and city council will have to trim $67,000 to reach the balanced budget.

Wallace noted that "internal transfers" make the city budget appear larger than in reality.

School Year Gets Underway With 1,801 Students

Gatesville public schools are officially open and the 1970-71 school year is now in its fourth day. School officials have reported that up to now, operation has gone smoothly and there were no major problems during the system's opening.

The local education centers have tallied their enrollment figures thus far. Each grade is well into the 100 plus number of students.

High school principal, Sid Pruitt, released these figures for the school's four grades. The senior class has 141 members. Juniors number 138, sophomores 180 and the freshman class has an enrollment of 147.

Also, the news came from high school that Mrs. Nancy Patton has assumed the duty of drill team instructor for the Stingers. She also teaches Algebra I at the system. Mrs. J. B. Martin has moved back to high school as girl's physical education and health teacher. Mrs. Martin had worked last year in the junior high system.

No new courses have been added to the high school curriculum, but the co-operative vocational academic courses (the newest addition) is still operating in the school. These courses provide auto mechanic training, office training, homemaking training and on-the-job training. There are several specific courses under this curriculum.

From the office of junior high principal, Glen Whittenberg, comes news of that school's 70-71 enrollment figures. With a total of 460 students in the three grades, the breakdown looks like this: 6th grade, 155 students; 7th grade, 168 students; and 8th grade, 137 students. New faces on the junior high campus include those of Mrs. Don Edwards, health teacher; Ronald Ray, remedial science and math teacher and 7th grade coach; and Mrs. Ronald Ray as teacher aid.

The first day of classes at Gatesville's elementary school showed an increase over last year's figures. 709 pupils attended the 69-70 opening day with 726 students there for Monday's classes. After four days of classes, the elementary school's total figure has risen to 735. A breakdown of this figure shows grade 5 having the largest amount of students with 163, 4th grade 138, 3rd grade 147, 2nd grade 144, and 1st grade 143.

According to principal Don Edwards, new teachers include Mrs. Glenda Ferris, 1st grade; Mrs. Irma Taylor, 4th grade; and a change moves Mrs. Jimmy Wicker to the 3rd grade classes from 4th grade.

With an overall total of 1,801 students attending classes in Gatesville public schools, the 1970-71 school year is off and running.

Hospital Construction Bid Termed "Too High"

K. A. Sparks Contractor Inc. of Hamilton entered the only bid of $83,011 for proposed Coryell Memorial Hospital improvements at the second bid opening. Sparks listed 200 calendar days for completion of the work.

The second Sparks' bid was nearly $8000 higher than the first bid entered by the Contractor on July 13. Reported changes in the labor schedule caused the $8,000 added expense in the bid.

County Judge, Norman Storm, indicated this week "I think the bid is too high." Commissioners plan to make a decision on the improvement project by September 14.

Storm indicated that a contract could be negotiated with a contractor hopefully at a cost below $80,000.

Hood Soldier Injured In Auto-Pedestrian Accident

A Fort Hood soldier escaped serious injury Sunday night in an auto pedestrian mishap on Texas Highway 36 south of Gatesville.

Joseph Hande, 18, of Ft. Hood was treated at Coryell Memorial Hospital for cuts and bruises. He was released after treatment.

The mishap occurred approximately three miles south of Gatesville near the Dyer Restaurant, as Hande and a fellow Hood soldier, Jasper Anderson, were walking north on the highway shoulder, reported investigating DPS Patrolman J. K. Hamilton. Patrolman Hamilton listed Mrs. Carmella Cantrell of De Leon as the driver of the auto involved. Mrs. Cantrell, also traveling north, pulled her auto onto the shoulder to allow another car to pass and was unable to avoid striking the man.

Dr. A.R. Bertrand, Local Grad, Accepts Tech Dean Post

Dr. Anson Rabb Bertrand, former Purmela resident and Gatesville graduate, has been appointed to the staff of Texas Technological University as Dean of the College of Agriculture.

Bertrand is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bertrand of Purmela and brother of Mrs. Antonee Oglesby. He was born in the Purmela community and was reared in the area on his parent's farm. He attended Gatesville schools and graduated here in 1941. Bertrand attended Tarleton College in Stephenville and Texas A & M University. His college career was interrupted by World War II and Bertrand dropped from school to serve in the army. After the war, he returned to A & M and received his bachelor's degree. He and his wife returned to Gatesville where he taught in the Veterans Vocational Program and his wife taught in the Turnersville school system.

To further his education, he went to the University of Illinois where he received his master's degree and from there he attended Purdue University and received his PhD. After obtaining his doctorate, he taught for many years at the Purdue institution.

Bertrand joined forces with the United States Department of Agriculture and became Chief of the Piedmont Division, a geographical area including nine southeastern states and Puerto Rico. His work here included agronomy research which called for extensive travel.

Dr. Bertrand resigned his post with the USDA to become chairman of the Agronomy Division at the University of Georgia. At the present time he and his wife are in Pakistan working on a project which Dr. Bertrand proposed to the USDA for the University of Georgia. The pair are in the east, "paving the way" for a University of Georgia team to go to the country and carry on project work which will aid the progression and education of those people. The project involves schooling for the children and new methods of agriculture to replace primitive ways now used.

The Bertrands arrived in Pakistan June 15 and will return to the states in October. The pair's two children, Cynthia, 20, and Leslie, 16, remained at their Athens, Georgia home. Cynthia will return to Bloomington, Indiana in the fall to resume her studies at the university there. Leslie will be a high school junior.

Effective January 1, Dr. Bertrand will assume his duties at the Lubbock campus. There he succeeds Dr. Gerald Thomas who resigned to become president of New Mexico State University at Las Cruces.

Representatives of the Mountain Community Water Supply Corp. met with the City Council Tuesday to discuss the possibilities of the system being indirectly tied to the Gatesville Water system.

The Mountain Water system has had trouble during the hot summer months staying up with the demand for water.

The Corporation representatives are going to make an engineering feasibility study in the near future and the Gatesville Council will inquire with the State Health Department concerning other aspects of the project.

Presently one other water system, Creek Cliff, is indirectly connected to the Gatesville system. Such hook-ups are designed to supply volume of water and not pressure.

Bowlin's Donate Painting To Baylor Library Dept.

WACO--Baylor University's Department of Library Science has received a gift of two color prints of early presses, which will decorate the departmental offices in the Moody Memorial Library building.

The large, vividly colored prints are of two of the earliest printing presses in history. A Milo Winter mural-graph depicts William Caxton's press and a Von E. Grazioli print of an original portraiture Gutenberg's press and workers.

The gifts were presented to Mrs. Zula Zon MacDonald, chairman of the department, and her staff by Maj. (ret.) and Mrs. William Bowlin of Gatesville. Maj. Bowlin is the proprietor of Bowlin's Paint and Art Center in Gatesville.

Mrs. Bowlin discovered the prints while she was enrolled in a library science course at Baylor in the summer of 1963, and saw them again in 1963. She then decided to try to display them for other students to see. Her husband built the gold frames for the prints.

Mrs. MacDonald said the prints were "a lovely surprise" and will "form an appropriate display in the entrance to the Department of Library Science" where they will be hung.

Other gifts in the room include facsimile pages from the Gutenberg Bible, given by James H. Rogers, university librarian; and a plaque "I Am the Library," given by Mrs. Clarence Lander, a former student and first president of the Baylor Library Science Club.

EARLY PRINTING PRESS--Maj. (ret.) and Mrs. William Bowlin of Gatesville admire a Milo Winter print of Caxton's printing press, which along with a Von E. Grazioli print of Gutenberg's early press, Mrs. Bowlin discovered in 1963 in Baylor University's Department of Library Science. She and her husband, who designed and built the frames, recently presented the prints to Mrs. Zula Zon MacDonald, chairman of the department, and her staff. The prints are to be displayed in the entrance to the department in the Moody Memorial Library building on the Baylor campus.

Black Wins By Two Points Over White In Intersquad Tilt

Hard hitting and competitive drive played a big roll in Saturday night's Black and White intersquad scrimmage. The Black team won a two point victory 18 to 16 behind touchdowns by Ricky Thompson, Ronald Brown and Larry Moore. The White team scored two touchdowns and four extra points. James McCarley and Steve Palmer scored touchdowns for the Whiteteam. Talent runs deep this season for the Hornets and the intersquad proves it with both offensive teams moving the ball. With two minutes to play and the score at 18 to 16 the White team moved on a Steve Braziel to Mike Williams pass to inside the 10 yard line. With victory for the White team less than ten yards away the Black defense came alive and stopped a couple of running plays. On the last play of the game, Braziel fired a pass complete to Williams at the goal line. Williams had to come back to catch the pass and fell on the two yard line. The game ended at that point. Coach Jack Moss seemed pleased with the team's first outing under game conditions. He noted offensively and defensively the Hornets had enthusiasm, hustle and good hitting but on both offense and defense he termed the team's execution as fair. The intersquad scrimmage was arranged with the defensive talent split between the two squads and offenses kept intact. Moss noted that the defensive split made evaluation of defensive personnel difficult. Action came from all over the field as the Hornets passing and running machines looked impressive. Saunders and Braziel both found the mark on pass plays for substantial yardage. Top ball carrying came from Ronald Brown, Chris and Phil Bone, Larry Moore, Billy Hord, Steve Palmer and James McCarley. Coach Moss was pleasantly surprised with McCarley's hard hitting. McCarley at 5' 3" and pounds blasted through the defense for many key yardage plays. The Black offensive line was in good shape with Mike Mathews, Trey Tatum, Randy Schoenewolf, Larry Harrington, Terry King and Ricky Thompson opening up holes for the runners. The overall scrimmage was highly successful and displayed a real "Hornet Pride." The hard hitting and enthusiasm will be assets in the victory column. Fans can recall last year's Hornets inspired play up through the Belton game. The test of the 1970 Hornets will be their reaction to defeat should such a thing ever occur. The Hornets will go up against La Vega Friday night in McKemie Stadium in the first of two pre-season scrimmages. Moss will have his starting backfield of Saunders, Chris Bone, Moore and Brown with the line consisting of Mathews, Schoenewolf, Ronnie Jones, Harrington, Tatum, King and Thompson. Depth in both line and backfield talent will be the trade mark of the 1970 Hornets.

Head Knocking

HEAD TO HEAD. Ronald Brown, in the dark jersey at right, crashes head on into Steve Braziel in the white jersey. The Hornets are taught to use their head tackling and use their head on offense. In that case, head knocking will be common on the fall battlefield. Also pictured are linebackers Steve Palmer, No. 30, and Phil Bone, No. 44, with cornerback Billy Hord, No. 33, at left.

Out of Bounds

O. B. Hornet Football fans can look forward to a hard hitting team this season as evidenced in the intersquad scrimmage. Throughout the ranks Saturday night was a head knocking time and when these kids join forces against 13AAA opponents it will amount a even stronger combination. O. B. Coach Moss pointed out this week that he could field a "mini backfield" with Ray Ortega, 5' 4", Ronald Brown, 5' 4", and James McCarley, 5' 3". There would be no loss of power in the backfield because these three block-busters have proved their toughness last year and in pre-season drills this season. O. B. Moss could also call on a Backfield of Bone, Bone and Moore. That combination can be described as "double power with flash." O. B. Larry Harrington is almost indescribable as an offensive and defensive lineman. Through two-a-days and intersquad contests, Harrington has been a king of the mountain in his position as center and linebacker. O. B. Gatesville swimmers Tonya and Tina Price placed high in the Fort Hood AAU swimming meet last week. Along with nine other Gatesville swimmers on the Gatesville Agua Jets, they turned in a fine first outing record. Four swimmers racing in class B for Gatesville beat the class cut-off times and their finishes were not counted. O. B. B-Team power running seems to be coming from Ricky Snoddy and Bobby Jones. Both boys ran well in the B-Team part of the Black-White scrimmage. O. B. Allen Bell, Ronnie Jones, Trey Tatum, Terry King and Randy Schoenewolf got praise this week from Hornet coaches. "They look better" said Coach Moss. O. B. Looking better includes Gary Davis and Joe Hale for the Hornets. O. B. Jim Smith, Mike Williams and Ricky Thompson are top receivers for the Hornets right now. They will join Mike Mathews in the pass grabbing duties. O. B. Who is Number 1? It is a little too early to tell and way too early to claim such a distinction. Hornets, Number Un-Known.

Bee House Homecoming A Success

The first homecoming held at Bee House on August 15 will be one to remember. The attendance record gives some 250 guests who registered and enjoyed the day at the Methodist tabernacle which is located not far from Bee House Point, which is rapidly taking on some fame itself, as that is the area of the annual Easter service, which has about doubled in size each succeeding year since its beginning in 1967.

Bee House Homecoming officers for another year include Bill Price, president; Spurgeon Lovell, vice-president; Mrs. John H. Conner Jr., secretary. The time for the 1971 meeting has been set for the second Saturday in July, to enable those who are so active in making grounds ready to not be crowded in their schedule in preparation for school opening.

The guest from the greatest distance was the former May Ola Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary O. Edwards, who left Bee House in the "thirties". She now lives in the state of Mississippi.

One of the outstanding achievements for the community meeting is that money was raised to re-cover the Methodist tabernacle, before another year, to better care for community activities between the reunions and leave in memory of the "good old days" a memorial for the coming generations.

Among the former teachers present was Mrs. Mable Stoddard Gerald, now of Houston. She was accompanied by her husband, Jule Gerald. The barbecue dinner was served under a special tent created for the purpose of preparing that part of the bountiful meal.

Recent guests of Mrs. Milton Miller were her son, Lynnwood and family, Texas City, her sisters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Turman Gober.

Mrs. Amy England enjoyed a visit from her daughter Emily and son, Scotty, of New Jersey, last week. They only lacked her son-in-law and one grandson of having "all the family" present, and upon meeting them, no one questions why mother and grandmother is so fond of them. The MacAfee's attended church with Mrs. England Sunday morning.

Word has been received by the Leith Youngblood family that their son, Lt. James L. Youngblood and family, are enjoying living in Germany. Lt. Youngblood is stationed at Kizerslanen. They have one daughter, Heidi.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brooks and Mrs. Evant Brooks attended the commencement program in Waco Hall Friday for Baylor University. Miss Karon Nita Brooks was candidate for the degree of Master of Science in Education. Karon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brooks, Marble Falls.

Mr. Harve Roberts, 82, was killed Sunday afternoon in an auto accident at the intersection near Weldon Hodo's home, as the road enters High 84 coming from Vista Mountain. Mr. Hodo lived some thirty or forty minutes after reaching Hamilton County General Hospital, by E-vant Funeral Home ambulance. HOW WOULD YOU LIKE A BACKYARD RODEO?...If you are driving down the Strawmill Road to Texas Highway 36 and see a cloud of dust rise from behind a row of houses, don't be alarmed. It's just a backyard rodeo in progress at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Moore of Gatesville.

According to Mrs. Moore each afternoon as soon as the work day is done, a parade of autos stream into their driveway just in time for afternoon roping in the arena behind the Moore home. Each cowpoke gives hours of time working his horse to perfect the timing and performance of the animal for competition. Some of the cowpokes come by for pointers on championship roping or just to watch the men and horses work together.

Among the ropers are Gaylon Simmons, Wayne May, Wayne Holden, Neeley Adair, Clayton Lynch, Sam Patterson and of course all the Moores! Right in there taking in all the excitement---and dust are the wives and children of the rodeo performers and horse enthusiasts.

PEOPLE, PLACES, FASCINATING FOR GATESVILLEITE... Exciting places to visit and fascinating people to meet filled the vacation time for Mrs. Ruby Smith of Gatesville this summer. Mrs. Smith, a jolly, pleasant person to know, carried her bubbling personality west to California.

In July, the traveling Gatesvilleite began her journey to Bakersfield, California and a visit with sister, Mrs. Clara Miller of that sunny California city. En route to the west coast, Mrs. Smith was shocked by the devastation still visible in Lubbock after the killer tornado that struck that west Texas city in the spring.

She based on to Flagstaff, Arizona, and a visit to the beautiful Grand Canyon National Park. A nature lover by nature, Mrs. Smith was thrilled by the rugged majesty of the canyon. Coupled with the Grand Canyon tour was a trip through the scenic desert area near the park. For Mrs. Smith, half of the joy in her journey was meeting interesting folks along the way. At the canyon she enjoyed a delightful conversation with a couple from Canada, a captain in the Thailand army, 14 Japanese college students on a tour of America, and a foreign exchange student from Belgium. One Japanese youth honored Mrs. Smith with a traditional oriental bow.

Her trip continued to Bakersfield and a stay in sister Clara's home for a week. The sisters and Mrs. Smith's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Miller Jr., Tammie and Kirk traveled to B. K.'s cabin at Bass Lake in the famous Yosemite National Park area. The group enjoyed all the fun that goes with lake vacationing---fishing, hiking and just spaking up nature in its most beautiful state.

When the group returned to Bakersfield, Mrs. Smith became reacquainted with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dale, also of Bakersfield. Mrs. Dale is the daughter of Mrs. Theilma Thoms of Corpus Christi. Mrs. Smith also visited with one of the three Dale children---Nancey, 11, Karen Dale, 15, was attending Glorietta Baptist Encampment and Jeff Dale, 13, was visiting relatives in Lubbock.

The "Gatesvilleite gone west" returned to Coryell County just in time for some gala Centennializing!

McCutchen Tours Western States

Miss Ozelma McCutchen has just returned to Gatesville after an extensive tour of California and Idaho. She had a grand time visiting her many relatives in those states and making new friends.

Ozelma arrived in San Francisco via airplane and was welcomed to California with a July 4th barbecue in her honor at the home of a nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCutchen, in Walnut Creek. She was driven to Sacramento by her niece, the former May Allen McCutchen, and her husband, Harry Towne and remained in their home for a total of two weeks.

While in Sacramento, Ozelma and friends took a chartered boat tour of the Sacramento and American Rivers. The tour carried her through much beautiful country not seen by automobile and also through the Port of Sacramento. The Port is of importance to the entire Sacramento Valley because it allows sea going vessels to dock at Sacramento and load farm products for shipment to foreign ports.

Another trip holding much enjoyment for Ozelma was through the gold mining country in northern California including breakfast at an historic hotel in Jackson with her niece and nephew, May Allen and Donald, and their families. She was particularly impressed with the efforts of local citizens to preserve the rich heritage of the gold mining area. To make her stay in Sacramento even more enjoyable a dinner was given in her honor in the home of her niece, May Allen Towne, and another in the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brunkow.

After leaving Sacramento, Ozelma visited another nephew, Minery, and his family in Riverbank and her brother, Otha, in Ceres. She also visited in the home of A. L. McCutchen in Atwater but the visit came at a time when there was much sadness in the McCutchen family in Waco. This was caused by the untimely death of Jewel McCutchen, A. L.'s mother. Ozelma was able to be of great help to her nephew and family as she cared for the children while A. L. and wife attended the funeral.

After returning from Waco, A. L. and family took Ozelma for a tour of some scenic mountain country in Mariposa County and the A. L. McCutchen property.

Ozelma enjoyed visiting for a week with Donald McCutchen and family in Walnut Creek. She took part in a number of activities with the family but enjoyed most showing Donald's wife, Linda, how to can peaches. Those of us who know her well all agree Ozelma is happiest when helping others.

Ozelma could not leave California without seeing another nephew, Aaron McCutchen, who lives in Santa Monica. May Allen Towne and her husband helped with travel arrangements for the trip to Santa Monica and accompanied Ozelma to that city. During their two day stay in Santa Monica, they toured the beautiful California coastline and had a delightful picnic on the shores of the Pacific Ocean. In view of the fact that she had not seen Aaron for 30 years, it is understandable that they had much reminiscing to do.

She returned with the Townes to their home in Sacramento and departed for Boise, Idaho a day later. Ozelma visited for a week with Gene and Wayne McCutchen and families. While in Boise, she toured several interesting places and did some shopping for antiques. May Allen and her husband were most pleased over the results of Ozelma's shopping. She located, in Boise, an antique steamer trunk of a kind that May Allen had not been able to find in northern California, and shipped it to the Townes in Sacramento.

Ozelma had a nice time, saw much interesting country, met many fine people and enjoyed her relatives and friends thoroughly. But she says it is good to be back in Gatesville.

Miss Lynn McLaughlin And Robert Keith Grubb Marry In Eastwood Baptist

Miss Lynn McLaughlin and Robert Keith Grubb were united in marriage Friday, August 21, at 8 p.m. in the Eastwood Baptist Church. Reverend Joe Broadway, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Alton McLaughlin of Gatesville. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. George Grubb of Cushing, Oklahoma.

Centering the scene at the altar was a mass arrangement of white gladioli. To each side of the floral piece stood a golden tree candelabrum holding crystal votive cups.

Miss Joan Sayetta of Gatesville provided wedding music and accompanied soloist, Mrs. Lois Jones, also of Gatesville. She sang "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white peau de soie. The gown, fashioned by the bride in the empire silhouette, featured long slender sleeves, cuffed with lace, a round neckline and A-line skirt. Matching lace edged the neckline and two vertical bands of lace extended from the elevated waist to the hemline. A narrow band of peau de soie tied in a bow in front defined the waistline. Her chapel length train of white peau de soie fell in fullness. A cluster of daisies accented with pearls and white lace leaves held the bride's shoulder length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and pink feathered carnations. White satin streamers fell from the floral creation.

Miss Sharon Brown of Gatesville served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alice Buckner and Mrs. Linda Thompson, both of Gatesville. They wore formal gowns of pink brocade in an empire silhouette. A deep pink sash tying in a large bow in the back defined the high waistline. The gowns featured a rounded neckline and puff sleeves. For headpieces the attendants wore deep pink bows anchoring deep pink tulle. They carried colonial bouquets of pink and white pom pom chrysanthemums with pink satin streamers.

Miss Deann Gordon of Waco was flower girl. She wore a formal gown identical to those of the bridesmaids. She carried a basket filled with white petals.

Darrell Schafer of Ogden, Utah attended the groom as best man. Groomsman were Cary McCarty of Sherrodsville, Ohio and Wayne Buckner of Gatesville. Carl Beechley of Gatesville, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Larry Jones and James Ingram, cousin of the bride, both of Gatesville, ushered the wedding guests.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a reception in Fairchild Fellowship Hall. A white lace cloth over a pink undershirt draped the reception table. A silver candelabrum holding three slender pink tapers and encircled with the bridal and bridesmaids' bouquets centered the table. To one side stood a three tier wedding cake topped with a bride and groom figurine. Pink roses cascaded down the front and encircled the base of the confection. Pink fruit punch was ladled from a crystal punch bowl. Mixed nuts and pink and white party mints were also served. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

A white lace cloth covered the registry table which held the bride's book and pen. A slender pink candle in a silver candlestick accented the table. Carolyn Delano presided at the registry.

Rice bags made with pink rice in white net tied with a pink bow and rice in pink net tied with a white bow were distributed by the bridal attendants. Miss Sharon Buckner and Miss Delano presided at the reception table.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will live in Cushing, Oklahoma.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Gatesville High School and was employed at Coryell Memorial Hospital. The groom is a 1956 high school graduate. He is employed with Morton Foods in Cushing.

Household Accidents Take Toll, 1200 Die From Falls

by Wanda Weber, County H.D. Agent

Home accident deaths totaled approximately 27,000 in 1969. Four million persons were disabled in home accidents, at a cost, including wage losses, medical expenses and administrative and claim settlements of insurance, of $1.6 billion.

There are about 12,000 people who die annually, just from household falls alone, and countless others are seriously injured each year.

Two of the most common household hazards that result in disastrous falls are a slippery bathtub and an uncarpeted stairway. A small investment in nonslip tapes could prevent or lessen the danger of slipping. The tape comes in rolls, strips or patches. Some is very decorative in bright colors and shapes.

Stairs of tape protect effectively, especially when applied at right angles to the probable direction of the fall. Both strips and patches can be used in bathtubs. Many people prefer the patches as they seem to give somewhat better protection and are more attractive.

Few tapes will adhere to a damp, porous surface, so before applying strips or patches to a bathtub, clean and apply them dry to the tub. It should be allowed to stay dry for several hours after applying the tape.

Tests have shown that tape adheres best to varnished or sealed wood surfaces, and tape of a textured surface with embedded particles of grit are the most slip resistant for slippery walking surfaces.

Get rid of these hazards in your home by using these inexpensive methods, so that you can reduce your chances of becoming one of this year's statistics.

To mend a pot cover that has lost its knob, push a stainless steel screw up from the bottom, attach a cork on top, and you have a Mediterranean pot cover!

For best value in detergents, choose one with a high phosphate content; no substitute is as good as phosphate for gently cleaning out the dirt. A good brand name is your best assurance of a high phosphate content.
