MR. S. F. BOND of Cross Plains has long had a reputation for weather forecasting, and he has throughout the years had better than average success in telling folks what they might expect in the way of weather for a certain day and even for the year. People in the Cross Plains area have formed a habit of hearing what Stichter of the Abilene Weather Bureau has to say about it, then going to Mr. Bond to hear his forecast. If they agreed, well and good. If they did not agree, they did their planning around what Mr. Bond had to forecast.

IN ADDITION TO serving as the local forecaster, Mr. Bond has been a Cooperative Weather Observer for United States Weather Bureau, which is a Department of Commerce function. In April, 1963, he rounded out 20 years as an observer, and recently he received the following letter from Mr. David S. Hill, who is a supervisor for this area:

"Dear Mr. Bond: In April 1963 you have completed 20 years as a cooperative weather observer. We join with the Secretary of the Department of Commerce, the Chief of the Weather Bureau and many weather bureau employees in congratulating you.

This is a creditable record of public service. The results of your efforts are used every day by many organizations and individuals in governmental activities as well as private enterprise.

Please accept the enclosed emblem as a token of the high esteem with which your work is held. We hope that you continue to find your weather work interesting, and that you add many more years to your worthwhile record of public service."

It was a well deserved letter of praise, and we join all the others in congratulating Mr. Bond on his fine service to his country.

WE FEEL SURE that all of you have noticed the improvement in the lawns surrounding the Callahan County Court House and the Callahan County Hospital. We had wondered why more attention hadn't been paid to the lawns since they are viewed by thousands of tourists on Highway 80 and by local people. The present county commissioners and County Judge Byron Richardson had the same thought, and did something about it. They had a number of loads of sand hauled in and the area well fertilized. The water was applied, and the result is very noticeable. Mr. Bonnie Thompson, building and grounds supervisor at the court house, and Mr. Red Meadows, building and grounds supervisor at the hospital, have done a fine job in seeing that the lawns and flowers are attractive at all times. It adds greatly to the attractiveness of our town.

JUST ABOUT THE lowest form of humanity is a dog poisoner, and unfortunately, there is one in Baird. Last week, Dutchman, the pet dog and constant companion of Mike Tollett, son of Jackie Tolletts, died of poison thrown out by some unthinking person. Anyone who would poison a dog will probably be happy to know that Mike cried all night following Dutchman's death.

LAST WEEK THE FOLKS who have charge of the very fine Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford sent out a picture showing John Selmon presenting a miniature chuck wagon to Mrs. Martha Worley of Clifton, who was described as being the only living child of a Texas war of Independence veteran. Isn't so, according to people who know. Mrs. Lee Ivey reports that Mr. Ode Berry and Mr. Grover Berry of Baird and Mrs. Pearl Gaines of Abilene are children of the late Mr. Andrew Jackson Berry who served in the war and

Callahan County Farm Bureau To Aid In Fighting Of Rural Fires

The Callahan County Farm Bureau is participating in a program to assist local volunteer fire departments in fire prevention and protection in rural areas, according to Hilton Tarrant of Clyde, president. The County FB leader said representatives of the volunteer fire department in the county will attend a Fireman's Training School to be held July 21-26 at Texas A&M College with the Farm Bureau helping defray their expenses. The Farm Bureau will pay $45 of the $50 registration fee which also covers lodging and meals. The annual school provides up to date training on fire protecting and prevention and fire fighting techniques.

The statewide program is limited to a total of 110 persons. Those attending from this county will be: Randall C. Ivey, Baird; Bill Shelton, Clyde; and Billy M. Coppinger, Cross Plains. The Farm Bureau will also pay local volunteer fire departments for answering calls outside of the city limits to fight fires involving the property of Farm Bureau members carrying fire insurance with the Farm Bureau insurance company, the county Farm Bureau president said. The amount of payment will be $75 per call. The county farm leader said local volunteer fire departments are being urged to cooperate in the plan to reduce fire losses in the rural areas of the county.

Cross Plains Man To Head Eula Schools

Billy Mac Coppinger, a teacher and administrator in the Cross Plains school system for the past nine years, has been named superintendent of the Eula schools for the 1963-64 school year, it was reported by members of the Eula board of trustees following their Tuesday night meeting.

He is to take over the reins of the Eula system Monday, taking the place of James Lancaster who resigned to accept the superintendency of the schools at Blanket.

He is a native of Cross Plains and a graduate of Cross Plains High School. He attended Tarleton State College for two years and then entered the armed services. He has a bachelors degree from Abilene Christian College and a Masters from McMurry. He and Mrs. Coppinger, the former Emma Dee Worthing, and their two year old son Paul plan to move to Eula in July where they will live in a home provided for superintendents on the school campus.

Wayne Gibbens Is At Meeting

Speaker Byron Tunnell announced the appointment of Representative Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge to represent the State of Texas at the Southern Conference of the Council of State Governments, meeting in Oklahoma City, June 25-29.

"In Rep. Gibbens' two terms of service here in the House, he has," Tunnell said, "demonstrated excellent ability and strong interest in the many facets of legislative problems."

"This ability and interest will make Rep. Gibbens an able contributor to the Conference. Texas will indeed be well represented," added Tunnell.

In accepting the appointment, Rep. Gibbens accepted the responsibility of being the only Representative from the West Texas area saying, "I appreciate the confidence that the Speaker has placed in me and eagerly look forward to being a participant in a very constructive conference."

fought at San Jacinto. In fact, he helped guard Santa Anna.

MR. ANDREW JACKSON BERRY, incidentally, fought in the Texas War of Independence and the Civil War, and survived without injury. He came to this area and settled on a ranch south of town and was killed in an accident involving a runaway horse and buggy. He is buried in Ross Cemetery here.

THE RAY BLACK family will be moving into a brand new home in a couple of months or so. Workmen began construction early this week.

County Library Receives Many Book Additions

A large order of books has been received at the Callahan County Library at Baird in time for summer reading. For the Memorial Shelf a copy of the story of Callahan County, "Nubbin Ridge" has been presented by several friends in memory of Mr. L. L. Blackburn, who was a longtime friend of the Library.

Other new books especially interesting to adults are these: "Grandmother and The Priests" by Taylor Caldwell; "Beyond Ourselves" by Catherine Marshall; "Lawrence of Arabia" by A. Maclean; "Follow Your Heart" by E. Loring; "To Kill A Mockingbird" by H. Lee; "The Autobiography of Eleanor Roosevelt"; "Flower Arranging" by H. Dunlap; "How to Make Pottery" by M. Turoff; and "The Complete Book of Camping" by Miracle and Decker.

For teenagers fifty new books of biography, history, sports, mystery, westerns and romance will be popular. Two of special appeal are Tiffany's "Table Manners for Teenagers" and "Teenagers Guide for Living" by Landis.

Mrs. Rosa Ryan, librarian, reports that many juvenile readers have enrolled in the Texas State Library Reading Club in order to secure the Reading Award offered at the end of the summer.

Remember the library hours: 9 to 12 and 1 to 5 Monday through Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Hopper and family of Farmington, N. M., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevenson.

Local Athletes To Enter Abilene Meet

A number of young Baird athletes, both boys and girls, are working out this week in preparation for entry in the annual Abilene Recreational Department Invitational Track and Field meet to be held in Abilene on Saturday, July 13.

The meet will be divided into four age sections. The Midget group will be composed of boys and girls 11 years old and under; the Junior Division will have 12 and 13 year olds; the Intermediate group will have 14 and 15 year olds and the Senior division will consist of boy and girl athletes 16 and 17 years old who have a year of high school eligibility left.

L. B. Howard, who is working out with the team, said that boys or girls of all ages would be welcomed to the practice sessions. Work sessions are held for the younger boys and girls at 5 p.m. on the same three days.

He urged all boys and girls interested in participating in the meet to be at the high school track for practice at all sessions.

CofC Directors Meet On Monday

The directors of the Baird Chamber of Commerce met at breakfast at Bibbs Cafe in the first of a series of early morning meetings aimed at increased attendance at directors meetings. Eight members of the board were in attendance, according to Manager Claud Holley.

The group voted to sponsor Miss Sue Miller as Baird's entry in the Sponsors Contest at the annual Cowboy Reunion to be held July 2, 3 and 4 in Stamford.

The directors discussed the change of ownership of the Premier Oil Company properties in this area with particular emphasis on the Baird refinery property. Manager Holley reported that the office had been in contact with company officials with reference to the opening of the Baird plant, and the officials of the company reported to his office that they were studying the question.

The directors voted to instruct C of C president Raymond Young to appoint a committee of three to study possibilities of a zoning ordinance in Baird. The committee appointed will study the problems of zoning and will work with city officials in working out any plans along that line.

Mrs. Charles Carr of Spencer, Okla., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clay Long the past week. Last Sunday they went to Killeen to visit another daughter of Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Evelyn Doman.

County Remains In Low Bond Bracket

Bond sales in Callahan County totaled $1,987,000 during May, according to Howard E. Farmer, Chairman of Callahan County Savings Bonds Committee.

"I was happy to note the sales increase in Texas during May and feel confident that this is a direct result of the outstanding support given to the Freedom Bond Drive by bond volunteers, newspapers, radio and TV stations, organizations and others. The Texas Bond Committee salutes these groups for their patriotic support of the Bond Program," Chairman Farmer said.

State Dept. In Need Of Aides

"The wisdom with which our foreign policies are framed and skill with which they are carried out depend upon the men and women who conduct our foreign affairs day by day. In no other field is it more urgent that our Government attract and develop the ablest public servants."

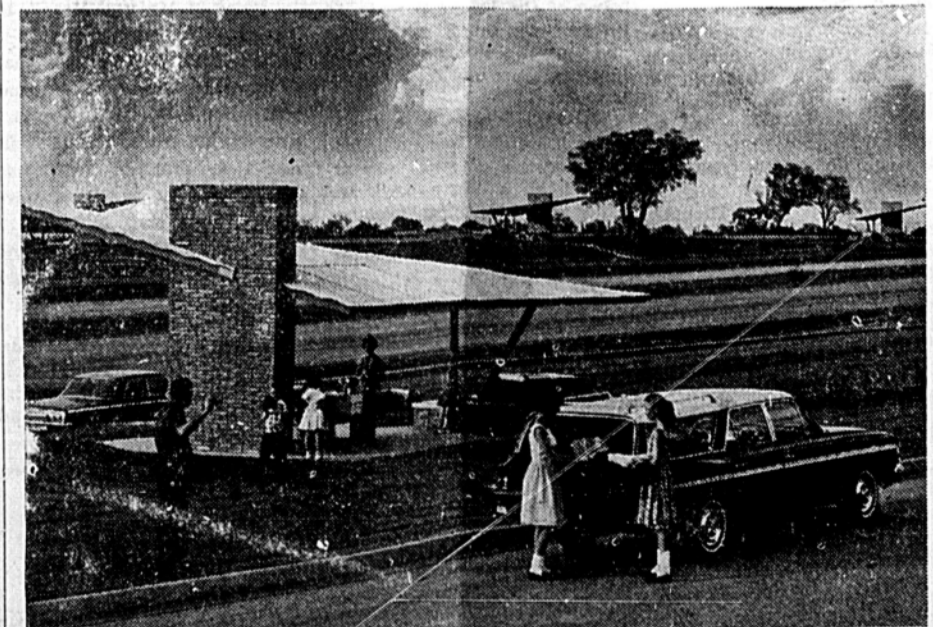

This statement, from a recent report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs Personnel, well illustrates the importance of both recruiting and retaining highly qualified individuals as Foreign Service Officers.

In an effort to attract dedicated and intelligent young men and women, representatives of colleges and universities in the country. We also seek to attract the many well qualified candidates who have completed their education and are already engaged in law, business, and other professions.

In addition to those with backgrounds in political science, history, government, and the liberal arts, the Foreign Service requires men and women trained in such diverse specialties as: budget and fiscal work, management, personnel, labor relations, law, banking and finance, industry, foreign trade and all other aspects of economics and administration.

Junior Foreign Service Officers are selected on a competitive basis. The next written examination is scheduled for September 7, 1963 at selected cities throughout the country and at diplomatic and consular posts abroad. Applicants who are 21 and under 31 years of age as of July 1, 1963 and who will have been citizens of the United States for at least 9 years as of that date, are eligible to take this examination. Applications and pertinent information may be obtained from the Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service, Room 2533, Department of State, Washington 25, D.C. The closing date for filing completed application forms is July 22.

Motorists can now relax and refresh themselves in the first of these rest areas (roadside parks) designed and built on the Interstate Highway System in Texas. This new rest area contains eight arbors equipped with fire places for family cooking, incinerators, fire wood, and big spacious tables and benches for picnicking. Letters To The Editor

Dear Bobby, Johnnie, Mike and the Little One:

Was a nice day, this Fathers Day, June 16, 1963. Your package and pictures received, many thanks. What will I do you ask this day? Well, fact is, I never went to Snyder for the reunion of the clan. Your Aunts and Uncles from Houston and Cow Town were not in the mood for another since last year so I stayed at home.

And Having pressure used upon me, went, after force was threatened, down and had Fathers Day dinner with some good friends of mine. You know something, they just twist my arms and make me go very often, thank them. Anyway was sorta a combination Fathers Day and Birthday for the hostess' husband and a friend from Abilene.

By gosh, I never saw people enjoy the goodly supply of eats as that bunch did. I never knew just how many dropped in but must have been many more than I knew that were there. For the table, stove, buffet and drain board that was loaded upon my arrival was darn near empty upon my departure. No I couldn't have eaten all the food.

I have been on the mashed potato and English pea circuit many times and in many cafes and Greasy Spoon Beanerys, and ate slum in the jungles near a water tank or under a R.R. bridge. Ate in the Bridge Gang. Dirt moving camps, upon the Miss. river boats and on our country's ships at sea and in the old country, ate frog legs A-la Delmonica in the famous street of New Orleans. Yet I have never seen so many folks eat and drink of the good coffee and tea, think they even had goat milk for us old folks, me, I am the old folks I mention. Ah, that platter of broiled home cooked ham, the chicken, fried, and with dumplings, vegetables from the garden, and the good friendship that filled the house to the cell-ing and almost out in the yard, fact is it did just that. I am sorry that I never mentioned to the hostess that my birthday was in the near future. Then perhaps I could have been on the honored list. Fact is, how much more honor could a man want than to be a part of this aggregation that was gathered there Sunday at the Fred Estes home.

Fred, I think, admits to 69 years of youthful living and many men would be envious of the friends that lad has made and retains to this day. Troy Stevens says he is 47, but who, born in Baird can believe anything anyone from Taylor County says?

Among those present that I could get the names of are: (And I missed a big lot of them for they would dart in and out and Old Fred and Bertha and Cloe would smile and accept greetings of the day and shove a plate at them. This shoving I noticed never had to be with a great deal of strength either.) Mrs. Geo Ray, 901 Fannin, Abilene; C. E. (Tip) Walker, 425 Vine Street, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Stevens, 526 Locust, Abilene; Mmes. Nola Bordo and Kay Boyd, Abilene; Art Campbell, Baird; Mrs. R. L. (Cookie) Griggs, Baird; and Mr. Lamber of Baird. And I think all the neighbors that could walk, drive or crawl were there also. Of course the Old Granddad was there, you bet. After I filled up till my eyes were almost closed went home and then my little friend Linda Dill came by with the most gorgeous cake of her manufacture, UM UM, and the nicest package. Ah, tis nice to have friends any age, but much nicer when the young don't forget you when you get to the well, 3 score plus era. Thanks again Fred and Bertha for a nice day and Linda, my special thanks to you. My love to all, and may we enjoy another Fathers day as nice next year and years to come. By kids, way out in California.

Love from Granddad,
Joe Ellis

Miss Marylin Grace Reynolds Becomes Bride Of W. A. Sweet In Ceremony At Las Cruces

Marriage vows of Miss Marylin Grace Reynolds and Wayne Alan Sweet were solemnized at 4 p.m. Saturday, June 15 in St. James' Episcopal Church in Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Presley Reynolds of 1045 Calle del Encanto, Las Cruces, New Mexico and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sweet, Nyack, N. Y.

Rev. Konrad Kelley, Jr., officiated at the double-ring ceremony before a background of white gladioli arranged with lemon leaves and daisies along with white tapers in cathedral candelabra.

Traditional wedding music was presented by George Warner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floorlength gown of Chantilly lace, the figurine bodice featuring long tapered sleeves and a rounded neckline outlined with scallops of lace.

Her fingertip veil was caught to a queen's crown of lace studded with pearls and she carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis with ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Phillip Kaltenbach and bridesmaid was Mrs. Larry McCaw. They were attired in soft blue satin frocks styled with rounded necklines, elbow-length sleeves and full skirts. Their veils of blue illusion were attached to small blue satin caps. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

Serving the groom as best man was his father. Ushers were Phillip Kaltenbach and James Michael (Mike) Reynolds, brother of the bride. Candlelighters were Marc R. Reynolds, another brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in a linen dress of aqua hue worn with bone-colored accessories and her corsage was yellow glamelias.

A pink lace was choice of the groom's mother with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, his parents, the bride's mother and the bridal attendants.

The bride's table, spread with white linen and lace cloth, held a centerpiece of pink roses arranged in a silver bowl and white tapers in silver candelabra. The tiered wedding cake in pink and white and silver appointments completed the setting.

Assisting with courtesies were Mrs. Jack Weatherford, cousin of the bride; Mrs. James Wyche, and Miss Dora Evans, aunts of the bride.

When the couple left on a wedding trip, bride was wearing a maize colored linen suit with print blouse, beige accessories and the corsage from her bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Sweet will reside in San Jose, Calif.

Among out-of-town guests were the groom's parents from Nyack, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James Wyche, Mrs. Jack Weatherford and Rusty from Lubbock, Texas; Dora Evans, Midland, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McPherson, Miss Penny McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Link, Deming; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walslager, San Angelo, Texas, Bill Vanderland of Alamogordo.

Mrs. Sweet is a former Baird resident, beginning her school attendance here, when her father was County Treasurer of Callahan County in 1947-48, resigning to move to Monahans and later to Las Cruces, N. M., and his sister, Miss Hazel Reynolds was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Sweet is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. M. Reynolds of Baird.

First I must apologize for failing to report a death. This person that I will mention was one time a resident of this area and later moved back to the State of Miss.

L. V. Harris' sister, Lonnie, had been confined to a rest home in Jackson, Miss., for more than year and passed away June 13th. Van was not physically able to make the trip over there to attend the funeral services of his sister.

We sympathize with Van and all the Harris survivors but especially Van since he is so far away from his loved ones in times like these.

Larry Magill, Coolidge, Arizona visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Crawford and Lynda, Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Crawford, Dana and Christi visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sherrod in Abilene Sunday.

The special occasion was that Mr. and Mrs. James McNeil and children from Garland were visiting the Sherrods. The McNells have three children, Pat, Steve and Debbie. Pat and Steve were thrilled that they had had a paid vacation to Lubbock and the fun of riding a Greyhound Bus to Abilene Sunday.

Jan Cullar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cullar of Abilene, is spending a few days visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cox in Baird.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Several thousands of Texans are proof that stroke victims need not lead lives of permanent invalidism. Even after suffering severe "cerebral vascular accidents," they have been totally or partially rehabilitated and have returned to their jobs or other worthwhile vocations.

There was a time — not long ago in terms of years — when they would have lain helpless and dependent until death released them from their torment.

The key to this dramatic advance is in starting rehabilitation early, as soon as the patient is able to communicate, and methodically continuing a prescribed series of exercises. The exercises are usually directed by a physio-therapist who works under the supervision of the patient's physician.

Today, more and more progressive hospitals, nursing and convalescent homes no longer consider themselves custodians of stroke victims, but institution of education and training for the patient and his family. As soon as the immediate task of saving the patient's life has been completed, the rehabilitation process begins.

First the patient is helped to overcome his anxiety about his condition. Often this can be done by using as examples other patients who have made recoveries or noticeable progress.

The patient is then motivated to lead as close to a normal life as possible. His accomplishments are noted and complimented. A system of communications is arranged for the patient whose speech is impaired or who cannot talk at all.

A series of simple exercises consisting of massage, movement of the limbs, hands, feet and head are begun under the direction of the attending physician.

As soon as the patient is able to move his limbs, the exercises are increased. He is encouraged to do the exercises without assistance, and to add others as is prescribed by his doctor.

He is encouraged to assist in feeding and bathing himself — first with assistance and then on his own. Finally, he is encouraged to sit, stand and eventually to walk. He is taught to open doors and dial phones. The patient is now on his way toward rehabilitation.

Past practices have been to give this sort of patient care in hospitals, and many patients are still hospitalized. But the trend is shifting toward home care, since the plan of rehabilitation can be carried out just as beneficially — perhaps more so — amidst familiar surroundings.

But whether at home or hospitalized, most patients will recover quicker and more completely when rehabilitation is begun early and continued.

Crutsinger - Canada Wedding Vows Said At Rites Held Here Saturday Evening

Virginia Sue Crutsinger became the bride of David Lynn Canada in an impressive double ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Clyde, Saturday evening, June 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Merriel Abbott, pastor, performing the rites.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crutsinger and Mr. and Mrs. Selam Canada of Clyde.

Organist was Mrs. Blanton Scott, and soloist was Mrs. Buddy Crutsinger.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace dress over taffeta, with seed pearls and sequined bodice. The scalloped neckline dipped to a modest V in the back, which was accented by rosettes. Her flowers were a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis, atop a lace covered white Bible. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and crystals. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant, gift of the groom. She had a penny in her shoe for luck, given her by Mrs. M. C. Lofton.

Mrs. Bob White of Ft. Worth, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a light orchid satin dress, with matching head piece and carried white mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jean West of Ft. Worth and Miss Shirley Webb of Abilene. They wore identical dresses and flowers as the Matron of honor.

Flower girl was Janice Canada, sister of the groom. Candelights were Geary Crutsinger, brother of the bride, and Marie Canada, sister of the groom.

Best man was Dwayne Canada, brother of the groom. Ushers were Buck McClure, Eula and Novice Kniffen, who also served as groomsmen.

For a wedding trip to Austin, the bride wore a beige two-piece

AUSTIN — Former Railroad Commissioner Bill Murray has been exonerated by the Travis County grand jury of any criminal wrong-doing in his personal business relations with the oil industry while a member of the Commission.

Murray's duties as one of the commissioners included the drafting of rules regulating the oil industry.

It was the feeling of the grand jury that his personal investments in the oil business had in no way influenced his decisions as a commissioner.

Gov. John Connally had released a report, presented to him by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, to the effect that an investigation of Murray's personal income tax reports had revealed that he had made more than $1,600,000 from his oil investments while serving on the commission.

This report was turned to the grand jury.

Murray resigned from the commission several weeks ago when the conflict of interest question arose. He admitted at the time that he had been making such investments but emphatically declared they in no way influenced his decisions.

DISREGARDING Disregards — Governor Connally says the Senate - House appropriations conference committee, which came up with the state budget bill that he has protested so vigorously, never bothered to look at his budget recommendation.

Connally claims this was one reason higher education was "short changed" in the appropriations bill.

In a recent meeting of the Legislative Budget Board Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said the same sort of situation, were in legislators disregard governor's recommendation, could apply to the Governor's Committee To Study Education Beyond the High School. (No legislators serve on the 25-member committee.)

So the Legislative Budget Board, made up of state Senators and Representatives, set up its own college study committee, and ordered its staff to study problems of financing the state's 20 colleges.

Sen. Galloway Calhoun of Tyler, who asked for the board study, said he was afraid the state might run private colleges out of business by creating more tax-supported colleges. He also said that students should bear "a more reasonable portion of the cost" of their college education.

This statement could be interpreted as a preface to state-college tuition increases in the fall of 1965.

INDUSTRIAL PICTURE Looks Good — Texas fell from second to fourth among the Top Ten States in Industrial Development last month.

But B. R. Shelton, assistant director of the Texas Industrial Commission said the report does not show a clear picture.

Actually, says Shelton, industry is developing in Texas at a more rapid pace than it did in 1962. At this time the state finished third among the 50 states contending for new industries.

In the month preceding the report, 24 new plants were opened in 15 cities. These included small towns like Georgetown, Refugio, Littlefield and Lewisville, as well as metropolitan cities.

DEATH KNELL FOR Bracero Program — Congress killed the Bracero program and set a burial date of December 31, when it refused to extend the agreement to import Mexican farm laborers for two more years.

It may help agriculture workers in other states, but Henry LeBlanc, Director of the Texas Employment Commission's farm labor division, says it won't help Texas' farm workers.

It might even hurt local workers, LeBlanc allowed, "because the Bracero program has kept the pay rate up."

It is rumored that Colorado lawmakers plan to introduce a bill to extend the Bracero program there for one year. Purpose is to allow more time for readjustment of the farm labor system.

COSTAL PARK PIER Planned — State Parks Board has granted a permit for an elaborate, 900 foot fisherman's pier which would stretch across narrow Velasco State Park into the Gulf of Mexico.

Park is a 26 mile long stretch of sand of undetermined width, covering the coastal front of Brazoria County in the Freeport area.

Developers expect to complete the $40,000 pier and connect it with a $25,000 acre land development in two months.

Bidwinner was Mustang Beach Development Corporation. It is the same organization (owned by Piper Aircraft Corporation) that intends to develop 900 acres of Mustang Island into a Marina City, complete with homes, personal boat slips, industry and recreation facilities.

Channel is expected to cost $100,000 and will be available, free, for public use.

SUPREME COURT HOLDS FIRM — State Supreme Court overruled Attorney General Carr's motion for a rehearing of the case, Government Services Insurance Underwriters et al vs 53rd District Judge Herman Jones.

It stood firm on its earlier ruling that legislative continuances are constitutional.

Texas' 20 year old legislative continuance law provides automatic postponement of court hearings and trials for parties represented by legislator-lawyers when the Legislature is in session.

Carr has been backing Judge Jones contention that the law is unconstitutional.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Ruling — Attorney general has ruled that a recently passed bill by Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo gave the State Highway Commission authority to alter maximum speed limits. Commission could set them as high as 70 miles per hour.

Also it could set minimum speed limits, regardless of any speed limit set by city ordinance.

ESCHEAT PROCESS SLOW — It took the 1961 Legislature two special sessions to pass escheat-reporting laws to insure the state's right to dormant personal property and bank accounts, unclaimed for more than seven years by owners whose whereabouts are unknown.

To date more than $1,600,000 has been collected by the state.

Most came from the "bank escheat" law, which became effective on May 3, 1962. Law requires banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions to publicize dormant accounts in an attempt to uncover lost owners. Unclaimed deposits then are turned over to the state.

So far, this has totaled $1,340,493.15. A provision in the law allows a person claiming interest in escheated properties to recover his money. This has caused $1,686.68 to be refunded.

Originally, utility companies, county treasurers, insurance firms, court officers and others affected by first escheat-reporting law reported more than $3,300,000 worth of unclaimed holdings.

However, by the time publicity was given, the amount dwindled to $2,260,691.88. Newspaper publicity relative to the new act resulted in numerous inquiries and claims.
