now, since we don't hear much from him, but we don't want him to stop coming by unless he has had news like he did that time he informed us of a tragedy that happened right in front of our office, late last December.

Mrs. V. L. Spaulding, wife of a pioneer family of painters and decorators in Hico, came by Monday (apparently sensing that it was the manager's birthday) and renewed their subscription for the umpteenth time since the paper has been under the present management. Mrs. Spaulding uses our classified column frequently, and we hope and trust she feels satisfied with results achieved.

O. O. Marchant, Kemp, has been credited with another year's extension of subscription since an office visit Tuesday from Mrs. John Trammell of Hico who had spent the week in the Marchant home after accompanying Mrs. Marchant to Kemp after a two weeks' visit here in the home of her father, W. A. Stubblefield.

Bill George, Box 102, has been entered on our list as a new subscriber since receipt of a neatly typed letter with accompanying check. We welcome him into the fold.

D. H. Persons, Box 283, Haskell, Texas, is an old Hico-reared boy who never forgets his home town. Writing on stationery of the Haskell County Vocational School, where he is listed as a director, Dave ordered a renewal this week and added a note of interest to show that he is reading the paper: "Several issues back I noticed the plans for the First Methodist Church homecoming, however have not seen or heard any more about it since. Mrs. Persons and I will be very happy to visit our old home church again, if possible, on this occasion. Would like to know more of the details and plans before that time." With the assistance of the church publicity committee we shall try to keep Mr. and Mrs. Persons informed, along with a multitude of other home-towners scattered over the face of the earth.

Band Trip Planned This Week End to Game in Fort Worth

The Hico School Band, under the direction of A. H. McCommon, accompanied the football team to Strawn last Friday night and marched at halftime, playing several pieces. This Friday night, the band will go to Hamilton to the football game.

One of the highlights of the year for the band is a scheduled trip to Fort Worth, Saturday, Sept. 22, to attend the football game between Texas Christian University and Kansas, for which several other high school bands will be present.

The band has elected officers for the coming year. They are the following: president, Shirley Fraier; vice-president, Wilma Woodard; secretary-treasurer, Kay Jernigan; lieutenant-in-arms, Eugene Smith; reporter, Linda Cox.

A Band Parents meeting has been called for next Monday night, Sept. 24, at 7 o'clock in the school gymnasium. All members and others interested are urged to be present.

Next Sunday's Crucial B-V League Game to Be Played at Dublin

By LEON LEWIS

Shiloh took the second game of the Shaughnessy play-off over Iredell by a score of 15 to 5. This leaves these two teams tied with one game each, third game to be played in Dublin Park next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Duffau took two straight games over Johnsonville and still is in No. one place in the play-off finals, which will begin at Duffau Sunday week. It is now a toss-up of whether it will be Iredell or Shiloh who goes in to the finals with Duffau. It all depends on next Sunday's game to be played at Dublin Park, which is the only game scheduled for that day. This game will draw a large crowd as all other four teams and their fans will be out to see who will go into the finals with Duffau. Let me say here, it is an even bet now—it can be either team! Come out to see this game at Dublin Park at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Hico Florist Invites Public to Opening In New Location

On Tuesday Sept. 25, from 5 p. m. until 9 p. m. the general public is invited to the formal opening of the Hico Florist in its new location on the corner of North Mesquite and North streets.

Three sisters, Mrs. J. D. Farris of Gatesville and Mrs. B. N. Strong and Mrs. H. Williamson of Hico purchased the shop last March from Mrs. May D. Bates and Jack Schrott and continued to operate in the same location until recently. They have built a lovely new shop at the side of the former Julius Jones' home and moved the greenhouse and other equipment to the shop.

An advertisement in this issue of the News Review carries the information on the opening of their new place.

Tiger-Bulldog Game Tonight Will Renew Traditional Rivalry

The Tigers went to Strawn Friday night and won their second game in a row for this season against no defeats.

The Hico team showed much improvement since the week before when they defeated Evans 13-6. The backs were all running harder and cutting to pick up down field blockers. The line did good blocking and gave the passer plenty of time on his passes.

The Hico defense looked good against passes and running plays and the Strawn backs were thrown for several losses and had several passes intercepted.

Hico's five touchdowns were scored by Jones, one, Loden, two, and Terry, two. From the five touchdowns, only one extra point try was successful.

The Hico team goes to Hamilton Friday night to play the big, tough Hamilton team at 8:00 p. m. This will be the first time in the last four years that the two teams have played each other. Up until four years ago, Hamilton and Hico played each other each year because they were in the same district. This will be a non-conference game.

Probable starting Hico lineup will be: LE Luckie, LT Tooley, LG Churchill, C Garrison, RG Leeth, RT McLean, RE Terry, J. QB Knight, HB Loden, HB Jones, FB Terry, B.

Hico Garden Club Opens Season at President's Home

An arrangement of zinnias formed the serving table centerpiece at a tea which opened the season for the Hico Garden Club, at the home of the president, Mrs. Paul Noel, Friday afternoon.

Marigold arrangements decorated the living rooms. The hostesses were Mrs. J. W. Fairley, Mrs. Alvin Casey, Mrs. Vernon H. Jenkins, Mrs. Weldon Pierce, and Mrs. Noel. After the president's message, Mrs. E. H. Randals outlined the year's program. "Preparation of Flowers for Exhibition" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. E. H. Randals Jr.

Members voted to postpone the Fall flower show until next May because of scarcity of flowers. Mrs. E. H. Randals, Mrs. Fairley and Mrs. Noel were appointed to a committee to make recommendations for cemetery improvements. Eighteen members, two new members, Mrs. J. E. Lincoln and Mrs. Guy Eakins, and four visitors, Mrs. T. A. Randals, Mrs. H. V. Hedges, Mrs. J. N. Russell, and Mrs. Wayne Rutledge attended the meeting.

Veterans Class Tours Interesting Places in Fort Worth Tuesday

The Hico veterans vocational class toured the Fort Worth stockyards Tuesday with Mr. Rice, the stockyards field representative. Their educational trip also included a guided tour through the Swift and Co. packing plant.

Swift and Co. served as host to a delicious dinner for the class at their lunchroom.

At noon the group attended the radio broadcast of Texo Ted Goudy and his Hired Hands.

The class trip was planned by their instructor, C. A. Giesecke.

Over Half Century Lived in Texas

Young Couple Celebrates 64th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie F. Young observed their 64th wedding anniversary Tuesday. A family reunion in their honor Sunday at their home was attended by 50 persons, including five of their nine children.

The couple has 56 descendants, and no death has ever occurred within the immediate family.

Mr. Young, who is now 85, and his wife, 79, the former Miss Elizabeth White, were married in Morgan Co., Ala., Sept. 18, 1887. Ten years later they chartered a railroad car for their move to Texas and loaded it with everything they owned, including furniture, foxhounds, four mules, two new wagons, and household goods.

"That was a mistake," says Mr. Young. "The car cost us $100—a lot of money in those days. We should have sold everything before we left, but we didn't know then that you could buy anything in Texas."

They and their four children were met in Hico by relatives who had preceded them here. Next they bought a farm in the Altman community, 8 miles west of Hico, where they remained 41 years and raised their nine children. The Youngs now have 23 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren. Eight years ago they moved to Hico.

F. F. A. Sweetheart Elected As Chapter Makes Future Plans

The Hico Chapter of Future Farmers of America had a special meeting last Tuesday evening to elect the chapter sweetheart and to discuss plans for the trip to the State Fair. Dennis Stipe, the chapter president, called the meeting to order and after the opening ceremony accepted nominations from the four high school classes for the sweetheart. Helen Nachtigall of the senior class was chosen and will be presented at a future date.

The F.F.A. day at the fair is October 6. A large number of local boys expect to make the trip. A free lunch will be served to the boys at the fair. After the meeting homemade ice cream and cookies were served as refreshments and some very good volley ball games were played.

Mr. Walker reports that there are thirty-four boys enrolled in Vocational Agriculture classes, and five others have paid membership dues into the chapter. A program of work is being planned by the classes, including the annual livestock show, the building of a more permanent type hog house and pen for the chapter's garbage feeding project, rock pillars in front of the gym, completion of the pasture improvement demonstration, Father and Son Banquet and other activities.

O. C. Cook, Superintendent of Schools, said the necessary rock for the pillars and hog house construction could be picked up around the school grounds and the boys will gain some practical experience in the building.

To help finance these activities the chapter plans a coat hanger drive. Those wishing to contribute in this way may leave their hangers in front of the gym at any time and they will be taken care of. The boys will also canvass the town in case someone cannot bring them to the school. Also the cold drink and peanut concession at the football games will be operated by the F.F.A.

Special Election to Fill Representative's Office Is Ordered

John Ben Shepperd, Secretary of State, recently mailed to the County Judges of Hamilton and Coryell Counties, which composes the 94th Representative District of Texas, the Governor's Proclamation ordering a Special Election to fill the unexpired term of the Honorable Earl Huddleston, resigned. This Special Election will be held jointly with the election on Constitutional Amendments on November 13, 1951.

Shepperd stated in a letter to the County Judges that it was the duty of each County Judge to get together and set a final filing date. The Judges of each County must make provisions for drawing for places on the ballot and all other necessary arrangements. He further stated that the returns of the election must be mailed to the Office of Secretary of State within 48 hours after the returns have been canvassed by the Commissioners Court.

The children present Sunday were C. H. Young of Stamford, Mrs. Gene Hammit of Hale Center, Mrs. O. E. Duncan of Muleshoe, Mrs. Cecil Prater of Dallas, and Loll Young of Sagerton. The four unable to attend were Bailey Young and Mrs. A. D. Salmon, both of Moses Lake, Wash., Mrs. Vera Simmons of Glendale, Calif., and S. G. Young of Stamford. Other relatives here Sunday were Mrs. C. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen, Ann and Blake Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Young, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stanley, and Mary Beth Stanley, all of Stamford; Gene Hammit, Hale Center; O. E. Duncan, Muleshoe; Cecil and Byron Prater, Dallas; Mrs. Loll Young, Sagerton; Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth, Sharon and Eddie, of Anson; Mrs. Wilson Barnett, Centralia, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pierce and W. C. Young of Carlton.

Fairy

By
Mrs. Eunice Massengale

We received about one half inch of rain on Wednesday of last week, making a total of two inches received since last Sunday night week. The first real cool spell of the season was received here over the week end, which sent all in search of the fire-side and heavier clothing.

Our hearts were made sad Monday morning when word was received here of the death of Mrs. Liza Fulbright of Stephenville, who passed away Sunday night of a heart attack. Mrs. Fulbright was the widow of the late Austin Fulbright who passed away about a year ago and was an aunt of E. M. Hoover, Bryn and Bos Gann of Fairy. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at Stephenville with burial at a family cemetery near Spurlin. Mrs. Fulbright, who was the former Mrs. Liza Gann is survived by one son, Boyce Fulbright of Kerrville and two daughters, whose address we do not have. Also one sister, Mrs. A. R. Hoover of Dublin and a number of nieces and nephews.

We extend deepest sympathy to all those bereaved in her passing.

We also received word Sunday that Mr. Jim Moss of Monahans had passed away Thursday of last week. Mr. Moss, who died of peritonitis following a ruptured appendix operation, was a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley, Mrs. Moss being the former Miss Electra Elder of near Fairy and sister of Mrs. Blakley. Mr. and Mrs. Blakley were notified of his serious illness and they and their daughter, Mrs. Paul Hutton of Hico left for Monahans soon after receiving the message, but Mr. Moss had passed away before they reached his bedside. They remained for his funeral service the following day, which was held at Monahans. He was somewhere in 60 years of age and is survived by his wife and two daughters and their families. We extend deepest sympathy to all in this time of sorrow.

Mrs. Harlon Guinn and two children of Richmond are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Anderson, and Virginia, while her husband is attending a highway department school. Mr. Guinn is an employee of the highway department near Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited Sunday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin. Other visitors in the home were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and Texie of Fairy and Miss Doris Aleene Streater of Lanham.

Miss Daphne Hoover of Midland spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover.

Leon Springer spent several days at Miles last week looking after business interest there.

Mrs. Eunice Massengale and mother, Mrs. A. L. Newman attended singing at Littleville last Sunday afternoon and visited after singing hours in the Willis Oglesby and John D. Newsom homes. Mr. Newsom has been ill for some time. Other visitors in the Newsom home were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks, also of Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Betts, Judy and Cheryl of Austin spent the week end here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Betts. Mrs. Betts, who had been visiting them for the past several weeks, returned home with them.

We received a remittance of $1.00 by mail today (Tuesday) from Mr. W. H. Woolley of Stephenville, accompanied by a short note stating that he had noticed in last weeks news that the cemetery funds were running low. Mr. Woolley stated that he had no relatives buried here but that he wanted to make the donation in behalf of old friends who had passed away and were buried here. We appreciate the interest shown by Mr. Woolley and trust he will receive many blessings in return. Mrs. Maude Whitson also made a recent donation of $1.50 for which please accept our thanks for each of these donations.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Turner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Parks of Fort Worth spent the week end here in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks.

Employees of Frank Craig of Hamilton recently dug a dirt stock tank on the Betts place near Fairy and did some much needed work on a branch on the farm of the writer.

Many are planting fall gardens since the rain, but since the ground was so very dry, we are really in need of more rain.

Mrs. Vernon Moore and little daughter of Meridian are visiting at present in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Massingill and family. Her husband is employed at Blum and is unable at present to secure living quarters there and too, she thought she could be of help to her mother, who has had a great burden of taking care of her duties as cook at the school lunch room and visiting her son, Billie D., who is now a patient at the Hamilton Hospital and who has been ill for more than a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield have opened their cafe, which will be known as the Fairy Cafe, so drop by folks and have a cup of coffee and eat with them and help promote the upbuilding of this much needed enterprise.

Several from this community attended district court at Hamilton last week.

Those from here attending funeral services at Stephenville for Mrs. Liza Fulbright Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover, Mrs. Eunice Massengale and mother, Mrs. A. L. Newman, Mrs. M. E. Parks and son, Elzie Lee. Mrs. Fulbright was 67 years of age. She was married to Mr. Austin Fulbright in 1902. Rev. Ernest Rippeteo of Stephenville conducted the services. Burial was at Spurlin.

Mrs. J. J. Jones Jr. entertained Monday afternoon with a Stanley party, with Mrs. Jim Carmean of Hico, as demonstrating representative. Refreshments of delicious fruit punch, cake and cookies were served to the guests.

Visitors during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan and Archie were their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKandless and children of Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Luckie and girls of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Derden and girls of Forrester. HOW TO OUTLAW DRUDGERY

Work in this kitchen was really work! Primitive facilities—and a few of those—made the homemaker's work real drudgery. The appearance of the tiny sink, old fashioned faucets, and rotting wood—counter top certainly provided no incentive for neatness. Lack of elbow space aggravated the problem. When it came to remodeling, a new sink was essential. To see how it was achieved with standard steel units, see below.

Now look! Neat, clean and attractive, this brand new kitchen has everything the old one didn't. It takes up no more space, but provides abundance of work and storage space. Why the 66-inch steel sink is a kitchen in itself! In achieving beauty and efficiency, no special were used and few structural room changes were made, keeping cost at a minimum.

ACHES AND PAINS SERVE AS WARNING TO PROTECT YOU FROM WORSE ILLNESS

Though there are a few illnesses which spread their poisons and destruction in a silent manner, one of the most common of the signs of sickness is a hurting. These Signs of Sickness are your body's SOS, a warning signal in the form of aches and pains.

Aches and pains are the body's communication system of danger, reporting to you that some part of your anatomy is not able to carry on the function it is supposed to without difficulty. Pain is usually the warning of a definite area, normally associated with the soreness or hurting near the surface, while ache is more often a deep pain and seems to defy pointing to one small spot and saying "This is where I hurt." With an ache, you usually cover a wide area, whereas you can point out a pain.

The way you describe a hurting to your doctor and the changes from normal that led up to that hurting are frequently important. Pain seldom sets in without some other symptoms preceding it; a headache, dizziness, belching, or just a general fatigue which may be overlooked will usually herald the approach of pain. You ignore those forerunners in most cases and you even ignore the pain if some mild medication such as aspirin drives it away; but if the pain keeps coming back and particularly if it comes back hard, those little flickering caution lights that led up to the red light of pain may play an important part in finding out where the pain is coming from.

The source of pain, especially inside pain, is not always easy to locate. If you cut your finger and it stings and throbs, it's obvious what caused the pain. But if your fingers sting and throb when you didn't cut them, not only must the source be located, but you're inclined to be much more worried about the pain from your fingers when you don't know its cause. Your first thought may be to stop the pain, but in the long run your main interest is in knowing what caused it, whether it will come back again, and what type of damage the cause might do to your fingers. It is that fear of not knowing and not understanding the cause of the pain that contributes to the distress of pain.

That fear comes under the heading of reaction to pain; you not only feel pain, but you also react to it. Sometimes the feel of the pain is hard to separate from the reaction it arouses when you are trying to describe pain to your doctor. "I feel bad all over" could be considered reaction whereas "my nose and teeth hurt" might lead your doctor to suspect something definite, in that case, maybe it would be sinus. If you used adjectives to describe that hurt, such as stinging and burning, those particular types of hurting are associated with an interference of the mechanism or structure of nerves. Other pains such as a sharp, cutting or stabbing pain which comes in spasms, are also associated with nerves, but not with damage to the nerve or nerves.

Bones, when they send out a message of distress, usually produce a deep aching or boring pain, and muscles have a particular kind of ache that is called a "soreness."

The skin, which perhaps has the most variety of painful signals, will communicate with a burning feeling when the top layer is scraped off and a stinging when that same layer is cut with a knife.

Sometimes a number of aches and pains in different parts of the body will all add up to a definite sign of one special disease. These specific symptoms or signs are called a syndrome in medicine. Probably the most discussed syndrome is that associated with angina pectoris, a heart condition. The feeling of a great weight on the chest which accompanies a tightness and agony to the point of impending death, with pains perhaps radiating from the left shoulder down the arm, paint the picture of agina pectoris so vividly that that cause will be the first thought, and action, frequently life-saving action, to relieve that cause will be begun before further examination is undertaken.

Pains actually serve as a protection. They are the burglar alarm system against forces which would rob you of your health.

Austin, Sept. 17.—A water conservation program must be started immediately by towns, water districts, ranchers, and farmers declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The present situation is extremely grave and immediate action is necessary to relieve drought areas and prevent such conditions occurring in the future.

Dr. Cox said, "Our diminishing water supply, and in many places in Texas the total lack of sufficient water, brings about an emergency that imperils the life and health of the citizenship and brings about a substantial economic loss.

"Without water—industry can not operate—homes can not exist—crops can not grow—forests would disappear—game and fish would die—the earth would become a desert—and the human race would perish!

"Municipalities must make plans for additional water supplies. These may come from the construction of dams to impound water during the time of rains and with additional wells. However, the construction of dams is the more practical as the water level in Texas is getting lower each year.

"An immediate water conservation program throughout the state that will provide for the impounding of flood and rain water will contribute more to protecting the health of our people and add more to our economy than any other known project that could be undertaken. To wait three to five years to develop such a program could prove to be our greatest domestic tragedy."

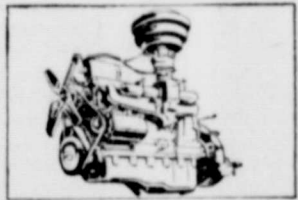

Patrolman's Warning Is Part of Permanent Records for Drivers

Austin, Sept. 17 (Spl).—Remember that last Highway Patrolman who stopped you for a traffic violation and warned you but didn't write you a ticket because you "talked him out of it"? Well! don't be so sure that you got off scott free!

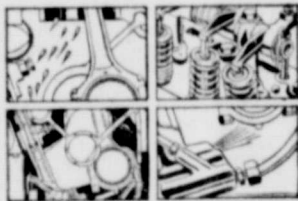

W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, announced today in Austin that every time one of his men stops a motorist and lets him off with a warning the officer makes out a warning ticket which contains the operator's name and address, his driver's license number, the vehicle type and registration, the date, location and nature of the violation. The motorist doesn't get a copy of this ticket, Chief Elliott says, but a copy of it is forwarded to the headquarters of the Texas Department of Public Safety where it becomes a part of his permanent driving record.

And, here's the hitch—too many of these warnings, just like too many arrests or traffic accidents will bring the motorist up on the carpet to see whether his driving privileges should be revoked. The procedure was placed into effect on September 1st and according to Elliott the best way to avoid having your record catch up with you is to refrain from having accidents, from getting tickets, or getting warnings.

"Safe, sane and courteous driving comes through observance of the traffic laws is the way to avoid this unpleasantness," says the Chief.

HOUSE AND HOME

COPPER-BOTTOMED utensils can be easily cleaned if you sprinkle the bottoms with salt, then rub with lemon juice or vinegar. A half lemon used for this makes easy work of the rubbing. Rinse with clear water.

Carry a small, stiff-bristled brush as you go about your household work, and you'll find it handy for brushing off pieces of lint on the upholstery, fluffy rugs or bedding.

When storing your pressure saucapan in the cupboard, invert the lid loosely in the pan. Never close the pressure pan with the lid as musty odors can easily develop.

Glasses which have had iced beverages in them should be first rinsed in cool water which is then gradually warmed for washing so the glasses do not break.

Only soap with water should be used to wash rubber pieces like pads, storage racks, sink drainers or drainboard pads. Let them dry thoroughly and let some sunlight through to them so they will not mildew.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Liver Sandwich Spread

- 1 chopped onion
1 tablespoon butter
2 hard-cooked eggs
1/2 pound steamed pork liver
1/2 cup cream
Salt and pepper

Steam liver for 25 minutes in tightly covered pan. Cool and put liver through meat grinder. Mince eggs. Brown onion in melted butter. Mix all ingredients together, seasoning to taste with salt and pepper. Keep spread refrigerated until ready to use, then spread on white or whole wheat bread.

For musty mattresses, use a solution of water and disinfectant and brush on the mattress, set standing up. Let one side dry before doing the other side. Dry in the sunlight.

To prevent dish cloths from acquiring an odor, wash and rinse in clear water after each use, and hang to dry. If you are looking for a remedy for the dish cloth problem, place in a bleaching solution with water and let stand for an hour. Wash in suds, then boil in soapy water for 10 minutes. Rinse and dry in the sun.

PISTOL SHOT... SCREAM... SHATTERING GLASS... CLATTER OF SPLINTERED DOOR. FALLING CORPSE WEIRD BACKGROUND MUSIC...

I always tune in on my favorite murder, IVA CLUE, PRIVATE EYEBALL!!!! (Exclamation points courtesy of the sponsor, Vulcanized Victrolas, makers of dehydrated spinach - "It's kilndried!")

Although my attention wanders and misses the complete story, my ears pick up the thematic high points in sound effects and plot, which never vary.

Program opens with Iva, female sleuth, of whom there is none sleuther, known as "Prison Ivy" to the crooks, lounging in her swivel chair and cogitating upon the cipher "O," not because it's the key to murder, but because zero—or the mysterious nothing—has a peculiar hold upon her mind. Crime is slack, and so are the cops between the ears, but Iva isn't slack in the swivel.

PISTOL SHOT... ETC... "Eat 10 packages of Vapid Vegetables right away, and if you don't regain your lost vigor in a couple of years, we'll refund your health."

Commercial dies in eerie echo. Iva emerges from velvet chair, preceded by foot-long gold cigarette holder, and slinks to the window overlooking the laneway. Lol, the announcer whispers as she wiggles across the room, the swivel doesn't belong to the chair, but to Iva. Through the murky miasma (mysterious word for "stink") she spies a staged stranger hiding beneath a horsehide. Who would hide beneath a horsehide? A horse, of course.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER Fellowship in the Church Lesson: Philippians 1: 27-2: 16 Memory Selection: 1 John 3: 16

PAUL WROTE his letter to the Philippians from Rome, while he was a prisoner in his own hired house, chained to a Roman soldier. He wrote to thank the Philippians for some kindness they had shown him. It is thought that Paul particularly loved the church in Philippi, the first church that had been founded in Europe.

He wrote of the Christian behavior that should distinguish a church of Christ. The manner of life of Christians should be worthy of the gospel. And they should be found, not in factions, but in complete harmony, in which lowliness of mind and unselfishness should lead Christians to seek the good of others above their own.

The incomparable example of Christ is given to who, how and why Christians should be loving and kind in their relations to their fellows. The mind which was in Christ Jesus must be in Christians. It led him to divest himself of his kindly glory and come to earth as a Saviour unto men. It was the mind to serve. If we would be like Christ, we must serve. Because of the sacrifice that he offered of himself, God has highly exalted him, and we may share his glory by and by if we will.

Christian Fellowship then depends upon lowly and loving hearts. They who have such hearts will mind set high things but condescend to men of low estate. Let us seek such a love toward Jesus and our fellows that we shall be good fellows unto others.

Kitchens Featured in State Fair Exhibit at Natural Gas Building

A "heart-saver" kitchen and three other luxurious kitchens fully equipped with time and labor-saving appliances and projecting ultramodern trends in planning and decorating will be featured at the Natural Gas Building during the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 6-21. Other attractions will be display of 30 different brands of gas ranges with automatic features available in dealer stores and a giant "recipe box" where a home economist will prepare individualized recipes and homemaking helps upon request.

Three of the four kitchens are taken from pages of national women's magazines and all are rich in new color and designing ideas which any woman might like for her own home. The Heart-Saver kitchen is copied from the October issue of the Woman's Home Companion which, in cooperation with the American Heart Association, planned the kitchen especially for persons afflicted with heart trouble or high blood pressure. This kitchen minimizes exertion and brings all facilities to within twenty inches of arm's length of the occupant of a kitchen stool equipped with casters to make it easily movable. Secret of this "work saving" kitchen is that each utility has its own place in cabinets, drawers, etc. and each is returned to place after use. An automatic gas range with oven and broiler at elbow height minimizes stooping and reaching.

A complete new idea is encompassed within the Imperial Maple kitchen featured in September McCall's Magazine. This kitchen has become a part of the living room because it has no hall, dining room or pantry to separate it. Colors complement the dining room and the kitchen is actually a part of the living area, following the modern trend to "move the party to the kitchen!" The Imperial Maple has a soft-toned green and melon color in line with new decoration ideas. There is a new in-a-wall oven and built-in counter surface cooking unit to complete this modern planning.

Another of the "living" kitchens is copied from American Home Magazine's October issue. This kitchen incorporates a dining area with laundry and sewing facilities making for ultraconvenience. The fourth kitchen, by St. Charles, is a deluxe small kitchen designed for a bachelor apartment. The Natural Gas Building provides spacious lounges, comfortable chairs, free ice water and clean rest rooms. It is air conditioned by units that use a gas flame for cooling or heating.

PEEK at the STARS

By LYN CONNELLY

A MONTH AGO, the biggest excitement in the life of pretty, 17-year-old Eugene Sanders was the senior prom at high school and her forthcoming graduation... Then something else happened... Eugene was chosen to be the star of CBS-TV's new video series, "Meet Corliss Archer"...

The only theatrically-minded member in her family, Eugene had previously done a limited amount of Little Theatre work on the west coast and, before that, in Oklahoma City where she was born... She played her first role a scant four years ago at the age of 13, appearing as Amy in a Little Theatre production of "Little Women"...

A willowy, hazel-eyed brownette, TV's Corliss measures in at five feet, five, and 112 pounds... She makes no claim to being the outdoor-girl type and her one hobby is in the sit-by-the-fire category, ceramic modeling... She admits to "almost going steady" but is still young enough to call her pet cat, Delilah, her number one love.

As for her number one thrill, being the star of a big-time television show isn't it... It was her recent graduation from high school. "But," she stipulates quickly, "playing Corliss Archer comes in as an awful close second."

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmont, W. Va.: I remember when nibbling a bit of dried orange peel in a sick room "prevented" you from contracting a dread disease.

From Margaret Ementer, Niles, Mich.: I remember when a school girl we children drank from a wooden pail out of the same tin cup; when we had to walk on wooden sidewalks; when spring came in March and we had no sewers, causing the water to run deep in the gutters, and we children would wade in it; when the milkman rang his bell out front and you could take your pitcher and get a pint for a penny; when mother would make soft soap from lye and fat rinds; when the cows could roam the streets at will.

From E. C. Wyatt, Elkins, W. Va.: I remember when all barrels, kegs, tubs, churns and milk vessels were made by hand. The man who made them was called a cooper. Gallon milk vessels were called piggins and the two gallon sizes were called kesters.

From Mrs. Lily S. Radley, Peoria, Ill.: I remember when men and women wore only closed-face patches which they would wiggle a key. These keys fitted into two small metal square pegs in the face of the watch.

AUCTION BLOCK

By Richard Hill Wilkins

GRETCHEN RIKERT faced her mother across the kitchen table and said: "Mother, this afternoon I'm going down to the auction block and auction myself off to the highest bidder." Mrs. Rikert looked startled. "Auction? I don't believe I understand."

"It isn't as bad as it sounds. The Welfare Board has conceived the idea of placing members of the unemployed on an auction block and auctioning them off to people who will pay the highest wages. So far the idea has attracted a good deal of attention because of its originality, and proved quite successful, too." She hesitated. "It's a way of getting a job."

"But—do you have to work for whoever offers the highest wages? Suppose you don't like your employer?" "Naturally one is sort of honor bound," Gretchen replied. "And one, I suppose, should count oneself fortunate to get any kind of work at all." She patted her mother's hand. "Don't worry, darling. Who knows? I may come home and tell you I'm secretary to the President."

As she stood in line, the drone of the auctioneer in her ears, the great amused crowd in the street below, Gretchen was suddenly beset by misgivings. Somehow the idea of being publicly auctioned off to the highest bidder wasn't comforting. Suppose she didn't like her employer? Suppose he didn't live in the city and wanted her to go away? All sorts of horrible pictures began to conjure themselves in her mind.

She had an impulsive urge to turn and run. After all, when a girl is young and pretty she does have a sense of pride. And then, almost before she knew it had happened, Gretchen found herself on the auction block, found hundreds of curious faces staring up at her, found herself blushing prettily as the auctioneer began his monotonous drone.

"Miss Gretchen Rikert, 23, has served as stenographer for four years in the insurance office of R. P. Browning and Sons. References excellent. First class typist. Takes dictation." Etc., etc., etc. "How much, ladies and gentlemen, am I offered? How much? Former salary $29 per week. Will work for half that amount. How much, ladies and gentlemen, will you pay?"

Gretchen held her breath. Then from somewhere in the crowd came a low, masculine voice: "Eleven dollars a week."

Immediately the auctioneer took up the cry. "Eleven dollars. Eleven. Who'll make it twelve?"

Eleven. Eleven. Do I hear twelve? Twelve? Twelve—the gentleman for $11 per week. Gretchen's heart began to thump. Sold for $11 a week, whom? For what purpose? Someone touched her arm. "Way, please."

She followed the man who spoken, to the outskirts of the crowd, where he stopped. Gretchen looked at him askance. "Mr. Harris," said the man, "asked me to give you this address of your new employer. But Mr. Harris' Where is he?" "Mr. Harris was bidding for a friend," explained the man. "I happened to know someone needed a stenographer, and this opportunity of bidding for a friend, apparently you impressed strongly."

Gretchen took the slip, glanced at the address, found it to be a respectable section of the city, and set out to walk half dozen blocks.

En route she experienced sensations of fear and curiosity, hoped that the owner of the house who had made the bid was her employer. No one, she herself, who had a voice like could be anything but kind.

She wondered what kind man would greet her at the address. She wondered whether he was old or young, pleasant or unpleasing, and romantic, aged, decrepit. She conjured a picture of a dashing young hero, a picture of romance and love and happiness. And in the next instant the cruel, evil, cruel face, a hideous, long pair of eyes that had looked upon her youth as she stood on the auction block and who had bid for her with fiendish plans as to the future.

She came to the address, found it to be a pretentious building block. An elevator whisked to the tenth floor of the building. Timidly she opened the door.

A young man arose from behind a desk. He was good looking, kindly.

Gretchen presented the waiting while he disappeared an inner office. It seemed an eternity. But at last she found her being ushered into the presence of her new employer, found her staring at a broad back and a face with thick, black hair.

She paused uncertainly. At the broad back moved, the turned and Gretchen found her staring into the face of her employer.

She gasped, felt herself weak. Her new employer was a woman!

Punch and cookies were served to a large number of friends who attended the "come-and-go" shower. Miss Decker presided at the bride's book, and Mrs. Graves served the punch. The many lovely gifts were displayed by the bride to those present. Others in the house party were Mrs. Cecil Segrest and Mrs. J. W. Graves, mothers of the betrothed couple, and Kenneth Graves.

Arrangements of pink flowers were used throughout the house in decoration.

Miss Segrest was also honored at a shower in Tyler, on Wednesday of this week.

Fall Home Fashions To Be Presented in Texas Sept. 23-Oct. 1

Dallas, Sept. 17.—A statewide program for Texas "Fall Home Fashion Time" will be observed in all sections of the Lone Star State from Sept. 23 through Oct. 1, under the direction of a special committee, announced by officials of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas.

The event will be highlighted in most cities and towns of Texas with the aim of making it possible and easier for Texans to have more attractive, friendly, homes, association leaders said.

This will be the purpose of the special program to be carried out by all segments of the furniture and home furnishings industry, including manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, according to F. C. Allen, Jr., of Corpus Christi, President of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas, and chairman of the special state committee for the event. Other members are: V. P. Ryder, Dallas, president of the Texas Floor Covering Club; Guy Dorsey, Austin, of the Woodward Furniture Manufacturing Co.; Bob Ostler, Dallas, president of the Southwest Furniture Salesmen's Association; and H. E. Dill, Dallas, executive vice-president, Retail Furniture Association of Texas and editor of the Southwest Furniture News.

Theme of Fall Home Fashion time during the nine days of the event is "Friendly Texans Like Friendly Homes." With a distinct Texas flair, the event will demonstrate to Mr. and Mrs. Texas that through new, more modestly priced furniture and home furnishings of all kinds, old and outdated pieces and furnishings can now be easily replaced to make the average Texas home more liveable and friendly.

Special observances of Texas Fall Home Fashion Time have been arranged in most cities and towns, with "open house" programs scheduled in retail and home furnishings stores.

B. L. Mitchell

Bascom L. Mitchell was born Dec. 3, 1901 in Iredell and passed away Sept. 12, 1951 at an early hour, with a heart attack.

He was united in marriage to Miss Wilda Carley, May 8, 1925, and to this union two sons were born, Bascom Jr. and Donald Berly.

Bascom's death was a great surprise to all. He seemed to be well. His wife heard him making a noise, got up and turned on the light, and saw that he was dying. A neighbor was called, and the doctor also, but he was dead. It is very sad, but this is a debt that all will have to pay, and for which all must be ready.

He and his wife had been in the grocery and feed business for a good many years. He had many friends, having honest dealings with all, and he will be greatly missed. His wife and sons are lonely without him. He was a good husband and father, also a good neighbor. He always stood ready to help one and all.

He was converted and joined the Methodist church at an early age and attended services just as regularly as he could. At the time of his death he was a steward in the church. He was for everything that was for the good of the town.

Besides his wife and two sons he is survived by his father, C. A. Mitchell; three brothers, Tom and Levelland, Don of Bryson and Ralph of Snyder; one sister, Mrs. Alva Anderson of Fort Worth; one half-brother, Charles Mitchell Jr., and two half-sisters, Dorris and Ethel Mitchell, and many other relatives and a host of friends. By his good influence all know he is at rest for ever more.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Iredell Methodist church, Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home of Hico had charge of all arrangements. Rev. G. M. Greenon, a former pastor but now of Waco, officiated. The message was timely and impressed all. Mrs. Wilma Loader and Mrs. Neatherlin sang "Does Jesus Care?"

The floral offerings were very large and beautiful, which told of the high esteem in which he was held. He was a friend to all and all were his friends. Iredell and community feel lost without Bascom. But his life was ended and God called him to be forever with Him.

Messrs. J. W. Parks, Howard Myers, Roy Thompson, Elvis Lott, Ralph Bradley and Word Main served as pallbearers.

All were permitted to take the last sad look. A good many would stop and look at him for a moment for it was hard for all to believe that it was Bascom lying there, he looked so natural. The remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery.

Wilda and her sons and the rest of the family have the sympathy of their many friends. Bascom is gone, but not forgotten. A host of friends and relatives from out of town attended the funeral.

A NEW DESERT UNIFORM FOR THE U. S. ARMY is being designed by the famed aviator and explorer, Sir Hubert Wilkins, which is to be camouflaged to blend with desert terrain and plant life. The new uniform, when completed will be tested in the Yuma desert test station in southeastern Arizona, by a special unit assigned for that purpose.

"SNORKELS" ARE NOT ALL CONFINED TO THE NAVY... the latest type jeeps, capable of traveling under water, have been dubbed "snorkel" jeeps, although they are known technically as a truck, 1/2 ton. The new vehicles, equipped with 700x16 tires, ride over sand dunes just like a passenger car and then, with intake and exhaust extensions, waterproofing under the hood, and other major improvements, can take to the water like a duck.

THE MAN WITH AN ARMY APPETITE need not worry. Food budgets for the coming year total $603,000,000 according to the Defense Department... and that "aint hay."

THE PLANNED INDUCTION IN SEPTEMBER OF 152 MEDICAL OFFICERS (Priority 1) who received their medical education at government expense or were deferred from World War II service to attend medical school, has been delayed at the request of the Defense Department. The Department of Defense emphasized that the request was based on a sustained volunteer rate of doctors applying for Reserve Commissions in the Armed Forces and does not represent a reduction in requirements for medical officers. If the number applying for reserve commissions in the Armed Forces becomes insufficient to fill requirements, it will be necessary to make up the shortage by induction.

THE ARMY IS REDOUBLING ITS EFFORTS to secure women medical specialists and has reduced tours of duty to 12 months as extra inducement... also the Army's need for 3,000 more nurses will not be cut, even if the Korean conflict ends, as the expansion of the armed forces will continue under present congressional authority.

A RECENT ARMY PHOTOGRAPH showed a "polka-dot" ammunition and gun bearer being used in Korea... being in fact, a native black and white spotted horse.

Millionth Automobile Casualty for Nation Is Expected in December

New York.—"GI-X," the unknown millionth soldier to die in all wars in 176 years of the nation's history, was killed on a Korean battlefield early in September. Delayed for weeks by extremely light casualties averaging 66 fatalities weekly since the Kaesong cease-fire negotiations began early in July, compared with a peak rate of 375 weekly during June, the historic millionth U. S. military death since the first Minute Man fell in the Battle of Lexington on April 19, 1775, probably occurred on Labor Day or September 4.

This estimate was made today by the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, which has conducted a comparative study of war and traffic casualties in connection with the forthcoming millionth automobile death in the nation's history, now expected to occur next December. An intensive traffic safety campaign started last January by the Association's accident prevention department to postpone until early in 1952 the death of "Victim X," civilian counterpart of "GI-X," has since enlisted the support of the National Safety Council, law enforcement agencies and other groups endeavoring to end public apathy toward the mounting toll of automobile accidents.

As America's millionth war death was recorded in Korea, the Association said, a record Labor Day week-end toll of 461 traffic deaths in three days sent the all-time total of highway dead to 987,500 since the turn of the century. At the end of the week in which "GI-X" fell in battle after 176 years and 19 weeks of American history, the traffic death toll, now averaging more than 100 fatalities a day, had passed 988,000, some 12,000 short of the historic million mark.

From the start of the Korean war on June 25, 1950, to last August 31, a total of 13,707 U. S. combat deaths occurred, according to the Defense Department. The Association's study indicates that during the first 63 weeks of the Korean war, more than 44,000 men, women and children were killed in automobile accidents. This total includes an estimated 875 traffic deaths during the first seven days of September, an unusually high figure because of the record Labor Day week-end toll of 461 fatalities.

A gap of 42,000 between the all-time totals of war and traffic dead at the start of the Korean conflict, when highway fatalities stood at 944,000, was narrowed to about 12,000 in 14½ months, as traffic tragedies increased at an alarming rate. The pre-Korea total of 986,247 war deaths since 1775 was equaled by automobile fatalities in mid-August, less than 52 years after the nation's first traffic death at the turn of the Spending is the No. 1 target of the Association's traffic safety campaign, with nearly half of the automobile deaths resulting from this type of violation in many states, according to Mr. Harvey. Drinking drivers are a close second as public enemies on the streets and highways, he declared. He appealed to the nation's families to help reduce speeding, drinking and driving and other major violations of traffic laws before a fatal or serious accident, which usually results from such lapses, casts a tragic shadow on their own family circle. Last year, he declared, 23,500 of the nation's 35,000 traffic deaths were caused by four types of violations—speeding, drinking and driving, driving on the wrong side of the road, and failure to give right of way at intersections to pedestrians or other vehicles or failing to observe "stop" signs. Nearly nine out of every 10 automobile deaths and most traffic injuries are caused by drivers violating traffic laws, Mr. Harvey asserted in appealing to all motorists to realize their driving responsibilities and obey the laws that protect them and the public generally. "If the nation's 60,000,000 motorists are awakened at last to the serious increase in accidents that may cost 37,500 lives and injure 1,250,000 persons before 1951 ends, and this public reawakening is backed up by strong law enforcement, then 'Victim X' may be given a few more weeks or months to live," said Mr. Harvey. "Every motorist must remember that he or she may become one of the nation's first million traffic victims, or cause the death of 'Victim X' or some man, woman or child unless the rules of the road are obeyed."

worry and indifference OVERANXIETY, particularly about health, is a disease in itself. Physicians call it hypochondria. Those who "enjoy" ill health only make themselves and those about them miserable. Opposed to chronic worry is complete indifference, to the point of disregard of common-sense health rules and contempt for medical care. Between these two absurd extremes lies the sane middle road. Petty, transient discomforts need not cause grave concern and frequent trips to the doctor. When symptoms persist or recur with annoying frequency, it is then time to seek professional assistance. Indifference under these circumstances only invites more serious trouble. Visit our modern prescription department. We are prescription specialists. HOWARD DRUG COMPANY W. C. Howard, Prop. Gonzales Warm Springs Campaign for Funds Is Now Under Way

Gonzales, Sept. 17.—A state-wide campaign to raise funds for the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children started yesterday in all portions of the state. It is slated to continue through September 30, according to plans announced by Ross Boothe, Foundation President. Governor Allan Shivers is general chairman of the fund raising drive which is being conducted simultaneously in every Texas county. In accepting the chairmanship and agreeing to spearhead the campaign, Governor Shivers called this work the most vital humanitarian task before the people of Texas today. "We must provide a treatment center for our physically handicapped little ones that is second to none," he said. Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation is a non-profit, non-sectarian hospital, offering a program of physical medicine and rehabilitation to crippled youngsters from everywhere in Texas, regardless of color, creed or financial condition. The fund drive starting today seeks to enable the Foundation to expand its facilities, thus extending its medical program to a greater number of physically handicapped youngsters. "The people of Texas are deeply concerned with the welfare of our crippled children," Ross Boothe, Foundation President said. "They know the money contributed in this campaign will be used in Texas to help Texas children. I know they will respond generously."

Humble's '51 Football Broadcasts to Start With Five Big Games

Humble Oil & Refining Co. will kick off its eighteenth consecutive season of Southwest Conference football broadcasts on Friday, September 21, at 9:20 P. M. The game will feature the Texas Aggies versus U. C. L. A. in Los Angeles, and will be the first of 45 football broadcasts which the Humble Company will bring to Texas listeners during the 1951 season. On Saturday, four other broadcasts will provide fans with a complete picture of football action during this first weekend of the season. These contests are: S. M. U. versus Georgia Tech and Texas U. versus Kentucky on Saturday afternoon; Baylor versus the University of Houston and T. C. U. versus Kansas that same evening. A full schedule of Conference games, plus all highlight inter-sectional games played by Conference schools, will be broadcast over networks comprising 56 radio stations over the state. Schedules are arranged so that fans have a choice of several different broadcasts each week end. Familiar microphone personalities will describe the games direct from the stadiums where the action takes place; Humble's veteran staff of announcers—Kern Tips, Ves Box, Charlie Jordan and Bill Michaels—will handle the play-by-play portions of the broadcasts. Well-known and experienced "color" men will second these announcers and describe the pre-game and half-time activities. Jerry Doggett, Alec Chesser, Eddie Barker, Dave Russell, Bob Walker and John Ferguson comprise the "color" staff. In order to present the complete radio coverage to which Texas fans have become accustomed, Humble broadcasting crews will be kept moving on close-connection schedules throughout the season.

Frozen Desserts Sold In Texas after Oct. 1 Must Be Identified

Austin, Sept. 17.—Texans now will know whether they are eating ice cream or the competitive vegetable fat frozen dessert—mellorine.

State Health Officer George W. Cox has issued an order that defines, sets standards and gives a legal status to the vegetable fat product.

After October 1 all frozen dessert sold in Texas made with vegetable or other edible fats—rather than with butterfat must be called "mellorine."

With the order, the millions of ice cream eaters in the State will be assured of getting real ice cream when they ask for ice cream—not a vegetable fat substitute product.

George M. Clarke, executive vice president of the Dairy Products Institute of Texas, this week praised Dr. Cox for his action in clearing a problem that has plagued the dairy industry—and confused the public—for many months.

He said Dr. Cox's order was the result of recommendations submitted by the Texas ice cream industry. The ice cream manufacturers made a six months study of the problem during which time they held numerous conferences with technical experts from Texas A. & M. College, Texas Tech, and the State Health Department.

"Mellorine is a good product," Clarke said, "but it is ice cream what margarine is to butter."

"The important thing about Dr. Cox's order, however, is that it legalizes the manufacture and sale of the product Mellorine. The public now will have a clear-cut choice. Junior won't be buying a product sold as ice cream when in reality it is not. Ice cream—historically and by law—is made from butterfat."

Clarke emphasized that "mellorine" is not a trade name. All companies will use the word to label their frozen food products made with vegetable oils.

He predicted that the Health Department order will meet with wide-spread approval of the ice cream buying public.
