New Utility Building At Reunion Grounds Ready for Cattle Show

Construction of the livestock shed and utility building at Re-union Park has been completed. according to the chairman of the building committee, Fred Red Harris. Other members of the com-mittee are Odis Petsick and J. B. Woodard from the Chamber of Commerce, and S. W. Everett, H. D. Walker, and M. I. Knudson from the Lions Club.

The building is 40x100 feet, and has a metal roof with sturdy creosoted poles for the framework. Construction was speeded so hat the facilities might be ready for the two-day show of the Hamilon County Registered Beef Catle Breeders Association, to be held at Hico for the first time on February 20 and 21. It will also be worthy organizations at various

SPOTLIGHT

Everyone had better get comforhave a lot to tell this week. With Old Santa coming and all, there seems to be a great deal of excitement in and around the little city of Hico.

First of all there was a band available to the FFA and other party at school Monday night. If you have ever been to one of Hico's times, as well as being used as an band parties you know what all exhibit building during the Hico can happen. As I drove by it seem time. Tuesday night there were two points of interest. A music pro gram and a ball game at Meridian. At the program I see Betty Booth, Orville Templeton and Hubert Johnson. As I tip toed in I heard someone sigh and as I turn going mad over Joyce Lowe's pia-no playing. Also enjoying the music was Linda Cox and Bruce Slaugh

After Hico came back with two victories from Meridian, there seemed to be several couples. I see Betty Bolton, Virgil Gray, Wilma Woodard, Derel Fillingim, Quata Lowrey, Carel Filingim, Shirlene Witt, Steve Garrison, Latham and Gene Simpson

You know, ever so often a certain bunch of girls get together and have a slumber party. Well, Thursday night was, the night. signed up to close Jan. 1 for the New Year's holiday. Although he had not rechecked on the position. he assumed that most of those ard, June Hamilton, Doris Filinwho ordinarily observe the holidays named on the display cards pushing a little black Ford. They sure did have a lot of trouble especially in the rain. I guess this Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rich and brings up Friday night and andaughters of Carrollton. Mr. and other ball game. After the ball Mrs. James Hicks and boys of game the kids always go to the "Shack" so I got a head start. I see Pat Little, Harold Prater, Jean Sherrard, Bill Jones, Betty Bolton, Virgil Gray, Wilma Woodard, Derel Filingim, Betty Booth, Orville were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hicks Templeton, Joyce Lowe, and Hu and son Mack, and Mr. and Mrs. bert Johnson. Also Karon Higgin Templeton, Joyce Lowe, and Hubotham, Don Ross, June Hamilton, Rusty Roberson, Patsy Edge man, Jimmy Tooley, Shirlene Witt, Steve Garrison, Francis Latham and Gene Simpson.

It seems a tradition now a days to have a dance every Saturday night. I feel sorry for the parents of these kids. They have to buy many shoes. Some of those at he dance were Linda Cox, Bruce Slaughter, Betty Bolton, Karon Higginbotham, Don Ross, Monette Salmon, Billy Luckie, Francis Latham, Simpson, Wilma Woodard, Derel Filingim, Kay Jernigan, Roger Musick, June Hamilton, Rusty Also Patsy Edgeman, my Toley, Shirlene Witt, Steve Garrison, Mary Ogle, Pearl Lewis, Peggy Goodlee and O. J. Clark. At other places of interest I see Pat Little, Harold Prater, Jean Sherrard, Bill Jones, Jean Clark, Bivin Dunklin, Jimmy Herrod, Jimmy Ables, Quata Lowery, Carel Filingim, Jo Ann Johnson and Billy Loden.

You know every year the pupils select the favorites. This year they are: Freshman, Betty Booth, Norman Norrod, Sophomore, Beth Ogle, John Haley; Junior Peggy Goodioe, Pearl Lewis; Sen-ior, Shirley Prater, Jimmy Tooley. The High School Favorites are Betty Bolton and Steve Garrison. I was elected as favorite snooper.

GETS OUT THE VOTE

In renewing her subscription and wishing Happy Holidays to all, Miss Kathryn Alford added an interesting note: "While I was living in Fabens, near El Paso, my paper was read with interest by paper was read with interest by Mrs. John S. Burgess, wife of the manager of Tornillo Oil Co., where I was employed. She was able to use the article you printed about the importance of one vote, as chairman of the Rio Valle Women's Club Get-Out-The-Vote Committee.

mittee. Due to their efforts, the votes cast in Clint, Fabens and Tornillo were increased about 40 per cent. At least we believe their efforts helped."
