SENIOR NEWS

Come One! Come All! Mom, pop, bring the kids to see "The Campbells Are Coming", 7:30 Friday night, April 10.

Everyone in the play seems to really be in a tussle this week learning lines and studying for six weeks tests.

We certainly hope they do as well on the tests as they are going to do on the play.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Junior class has been working on their play that is to be given April 21. The cast is as follows:

- Mrs. Dickson—Edna Shaffer
- Dexter Charles—Don Ross
- Genevieve—Martha Britton
- Crutches Bard—James Lewis
- Mamie—Edna Walker
- Pearl Gifford—Carol Harris
- Ruby Gifford—Frances Latham
- William George—Jimmy Ables
- Lois Kingsley—Peggy Goodloe
- Lyle Norman—Orville Templeton
- Merrill Talbot—Dennis Stipe
- Mrs. M. A. Kingsley—Margaret Brown

Let's everyone make plans now to attend "The Fortune Hunters." The Junior-Senior banquet will be May 8. We have chosen the theme for the banquet and are working hard to make it a success.

Congratulations to the one-act play characters for bringing back a bright red ribbon from the district meet in Meridian. Also to Carol Harris for making the all-star cast and Mrs. Brummett for being such an excellent director.

Edna Walker is going to enter the spelling events in Meridian in two weeks. She won first place last year and hopes to do the same this year.

Junior boys who are coming out for track this year are Don Ross, James Lewis and Ross Baldwin.

Junior girls who are out for Volleyball and softball are Martha Britton, Jean Sherrard and Frances Latham.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophs (that is most of them) have just finished their English test. And are all looking around with sad faces. Among the ones that are still going after it are our junior and senior friends, James Lewis, E. W. Leath and Ross Baldwin. I know James isn't a sophomore but being he is so well liked around this school I will say something about him. James is 6 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs around 185 pounds. (All of that is friendliness). He has brown hair and gray-blue eyes. "Pearl" was on the football team last year and was also out for basketball. He ran the mile in track this year. He is quite an athlete around here. We hope to have something interesting to tell you about next week.

FRESHMAN NEWS

In our class there are several students entering in the district track meet. In track those entering are Wayne Duncan and Jerry Needham. Kathy Sparks entered in the one act play. Trying out for number sense are Norman Norrod, Joyce Lowe, Kathy Sparks, and Betty Booth. Trying out for declamation are Gay Sandlin and Kathy Sparks. Also a junior baseball team composing mostly of Freshman girls will be entered.

In class work this week we have been reviewing for six-weeks tests. Tuesday tests will begin. They will probably end on Wednesday of this week. Everyone's fingers are crossed as usual.

SPOTLIGHT

Another week has passed by in a hurry and everyone is getting excited about plays, banquets and everything. The Juniors and Seniors are really working hard on their plays and they seem to be something to really look forward to going to see.

Tuesday night as I was roaming around I saw Linda Cox and Bobby Sawyer enjoying the movie. Then I decided to go to Stephenville and enjoying a movie there were Loretta Hyles, Doak Simpson, Peggy Warren, Fred Weidenbauch, Billy Luckie and Helen Haynes were at the show too.

Wednesday night Jimmy Tooley and Mary Jo McKandies were together. The basketball teams and track team had their pictures made for the Annual this week. The Annual Staff is really working hard on the Annual, trying to put out the best that Hico has ever had.

Thursday night in Stephenville at the show were Loretta Hyles, Doak Simpson, Peggy Warren, Fred Weidenbauch, Georgia Holladay, Ronald McKenzie, Jean Rainwater and Donald Mayfield.

Friday night was a great night because the Hico School won second place in one-act plays at Meridian. Congratulations kids. That is the best that Hico has ever done. Carol Harris was also chosen by the judges, who were from the Dramatics Department at Baylor, to be on the all-star cast of 3 boys and 3 girls. Here's hats off to you, Carol. Other people who participated in the play were Katherine Sparks, Peggy Goodloe, Roy McWilliams, Thomas Hughes, Bruce Slaughter, Buck Terry who the curtain puller and without Mrs. Brummett's directing, it could have never been a success.

In Stephenville Friday night were Linda Cox and Bobby Sawyer. The Hico Annual Livestock Show was a big success. To celebrate Saturday night FFA boys were given a dance at the Country Club. Couples there were Joyce Lowe, Hubert Johnson, Betty Booth, Orville Templeton, Karon Higginbotham, Don Ross, Roy McWilliams and Buck Terry with their Iredell girl friends, Deborah Pruitt, John Haley, Georgia Holladay, Ronald McKenzie. Couples at the mid night show were Billy Luckie, Helen Haynes, Peggy Goodloe, O. J. Clark, June Hamilton, Rusty Roberson. Other couples were Linda Cox, Bobby Sawyer, Peggy Ellis, Ronald McKenzie.

Peggy Goodloe and O. J. Clark seemed to be having lots of fun driving around Sunday afternoon.

CUES FOR YOU

Personality Improvements

Feeling fine?—You're a big girl now and you have to learn to act that way. No sulking, pouting or drifting off into blue moods of depression if everything doesn't go your way or the way you think things should go. Don't let yourself be a mass of sensitive, easy-to-hurt feelings. Remember that people don't want to hurt your feelings and if they do, it's a mistake. You can forgive and forget a mistake, can't you? If John doesn't call you by seven as he promised, if your mother tells you sharply to take your feet off the davenport cushions, and if some thing goes to a Friday evening movie with you—don't give yourself the old "nobody loves me" routine. There are a few rough spots in everyone's life—and it's up to you to learn to smooth things over.

MOSTLY FUN—Fun is doing things—not just sitting around watching. So next time the gang gets together for some outdoor sport or dance you get into your swim suit or dress and join the fun. Even though you aren't another Pavalova or can't do an Esther Williams high dive you can learn and do your very best, can't you. And maybe you can't hit a home run at a picnic ballgame, but you can at least take a swing at the ball. You'll be surprised how fast you can learn to do anything you are willing to try just once. And whether it's sports, singing, dancing, or just walking around the block—if a person is willing to try anything, that person is fun.

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

Concluding a study of Mexico, the fifth grade pupils of Mrs. L. S. Chandler, gave a Mexican party Friday afternoon. The room was decorated with Mexican scenes, and several of the children wore native costumes. A feature of the party was a pinata, a large decorated jar from which the children received candy and small gifts. Games of volley ball and football, the Mexican form of football, were played. After a Mexican song, refreshments consisting of tortillas, frijoles and chili, pralines, and punch were served.

The fifth grade pupils will present a play, entitled "Touring Latin America," at the school assembly next Friday afternoon.

The pupils of the fifth grade are Carrol Aikman, Carol Akin, Elam Berna, Netty Jo Chew, Wanda Chew, Freddy Coleman, Floyd Drake, Linda Driver, Judy Griffite, Alan Hedges, Shelly Hoopfer, Clara Hyles, Jerry Jackson, Jerry Johnson, Tommy Johnson, Jarrel Moon, Judy Beth Moore, Billy Morgan, Judy Ogle, Carolyn Patterson, Roy Petty, Diana Williams, Patsy Williams, Cora Jean Williams, Elvora Watkins, Wayland Wooten.

Clairette

— By — Mrs. Henry Mayfield

Rev. Joe Stamey of Dallas filled his regular appointment Sunday at the Methodist Church. His friend, Miss Sarah Cook of Laurel, Miss, accompanied him here and were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Artie Thompson.

The Clairette annual cemetery working will be as usual the first Saturday in May. Those interested keep this date in mind. Come, bring a basket lunch and tools. The ladies of the Busy Bee Club are raising money and arranging to have a cement table built and ready to spread lunch on by that date. Anyone who is interested and want to help may send your contribution to the Busy Bee Club, before May 1st. Funds left over expenses of this project will go to the upkeep of the cemetery.

The Busy Bee Club members and families enjoyed a party celebrating their 19th anniversary April 1st in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reno Dunbar. One visitor, Mrs. Minnie Havens of Dallas, was present.

A few from here attended the Woods Furniture Store program in Stephenville Thursday afternoon.

Franklin D. Roberson left with a group of Erath County boys April 2, for Dallas to enter service.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Duncan and daughter of Fort Worth spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield.

Herman Roberson was called back to the Veterans Hospital for a physical examination Monday.

Mrs. Roberson, Buster, Dorothy and sons accompanied him to Temple Sunday.

Henry Vincent of California visited with his cousins, Mrs. Zenith Johnson, Mrs. Arvy Dowdy and Mr. Zeph Carter recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and family of Stephenville visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hub Alexander and Mrs. Nita Denton and boys.

The little folks of the Methodist Sunday School had an Easter Egg hunt Sunday morning at the Tabernacle. Little visitors were here from Fort Worth, Hico and Stephenville. We want to invite these little visitors back and their parents to Sunday services any time they are visiting in our community.

Mrs. Ray Boone visited sick folks in Waco last week. We are proud to report Clairette went over the top on the Red Cross quota. We had rather go over the top than to fall short on our quota. Thanks to Mrs. Reno Dunbar, chairman of this community and thanks to everyone who contributed.

Mrs. Mollie Cook had her two sisters, Mrs. Williams of Crane, and Mrs. Hatley of San Antonio, her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cox Penwell and a nephew, Don Hatley of Grand Prairie on a recent visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Little and family of Fort Worth and Mrs. Fay Greater visited the week end with Mrs. Fieldon Haley and children.

Miss Louise Knight of Lampasas visited W. E. Mayfield and mother Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Littleton and son of Fort Worth visited over the week end in the Earl Mayfield home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Kay and David of Port Arthur spent Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pruett and Deborah.

Light showers fell here Sunday and Sunday night, which is needed. The old saying is if it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for 7 Sundays in succession. We hope this sign doesn't fail this year.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hanshaw and Mrs. J. T. Appleby of Hico, were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Hanshaw's mother, and Mrs. Appleby's husband.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas A public service Bureau of the State Bar of Texas

HOUSEHOLD WORKERS SOCIAL SECURITY TAX EXPLAINED

April 30th is the deadline on which social security payments for household workers for the first quarter of 1953 are due at the office of your collector of Internal Revenue.

The federal law bringing household workers under the old-age and survivors insurance system went into effect January 1, 1951. However, lawyers say that many persons who employ help in their homes are still in the dark about requirements of the law.

Here are some provisions everyone should know. Household workers covered by the law include maids, laundresses, housekeepers, cooks, nursemaids, gardeners, handymen, valets, footmen, grooms, chauffeurs of privately owned cars, practical nurses, and others.

Whether or not a household worker is included in the law depends on how many days she works and how much money she is paid. If the person works 24 days and earns $50 during any one of the three month periods into which the calendar year has been divided, a tax report must be filed and payment made.

Only cash wages are considered, which includes bus fare if paid in cash, but does not include bus tokens, clothing, room and board, or other non-cash items furnished the employee. A domestic worker does not have to put in a full day to count on the 24 day rule—any portion of the day worked counts as a full day.

The rule is different for domestic workers on farms operated for profit. In such cases the domestic is considered a farm worker and is covered only if he or she meets the test for farm labor.

The tax in all amounts is 3 per cent of the cash wages paid. You, as an employer, must deduct 1 1/2 per cent from your household worker's cash wages if the person meets the 24 day, fifty dollar test. Then you include another 1 1/2 per cent which the employer's contribution. After the close of each specified three-month period you should send the tax, with a report of the wages paid, to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

These three-month periods, or quarters, end on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th and December 31st. Reports and payments are due by the last day of the month following the close of each quarter. During any quarterly period that a household worker does not work 24 day nor earn $50, the employer need not be concerned. You need not consider the work your employee performs for any other employer.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue has a special household report form, printed on the back of a return envelope, which can be obtained from your Collector upon request. Just ask for Form 942.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

LISTEN As the Red Bird Rambles

By Carolyn Holford

THANKS TO TWO . . . who combined to inspire the title of this column. Mrs. Benn Gleason (who thought of RAMBLES) and R. V. Johnson (who named the REDBIRD) will receive duplicate prizes of a year's subscription each. Thanks also to the many others who submitted suggestions, and who have indicated that they like to read such writing.

RAMBLES, IT SAYS . . . and ramble we did. This newspaper family made a trek up to old stomping grounds, and the redbird (frightly that way) remained to stay the week with her grandmother in Garland.

STOREROOM SEARCHING . . . by family members brought out some old issues of The Garland News, published weekly by the late Bill Holford, my grandfather. One of the issues uncovered was a special edition of four sections, published in 1930 to promote the continuance of home ownership of the public utilities in that town—then small, but now bulging at the sides. It was one of the last special issues of that type before the veteran fighting editor sold his sheet and his youngest son Roland was called in from his new location in Hico to help on this venture.

ALONG WITH EFFORT . . . time and talent, the youngest Holford newspaperman then contributed type from his Hico plant to tie in with an advertisement which blared out the news of a motion picture with sound (you could almost hear the ad talking through this old and bold lettering). Indeed if the addition of sound to movies required so much fanfare in 1930, it does seem difficult to imagine what more ornament could be used to dramatize and publicize third-dimensional movies. Last reports, however, indicated that this newest Hollywood creation might walk up and shake hands with you, hence eliminating any need for publicity.

HAND-SHAKING TIME . . . is over for awhile in cities now, and communities may settle at ease for another spell. Dallas papers and Fort Worth papers put in a plug for their candidates as time drew near to go to the polls in city elections. This local organ of current affairs made no attempt to tell you how to vote—merely asking that you vote in the school and city elections for which you were qualified and privileged to do so. Here's hoping we're all happy over the results now.

TALKING IN . . . with the congratulations to those elected to serve, it might be permissible to compliment the losers on their willingness to serve, and their apparent interest in local government. It's always a healthy condition when there is some interest, and opposition does not always indicate personal aspirations.

Another election out of this area concerned Hico in that the major candidate was an old hometown boy. This year it might seem that Hico had an agreement with Dallas—we let one of their citizens run for office here, and Big D. citizens drafted a native Hicoan for the mayor's campaign in that metropolis. More about that as we ramble on below.

HOMEPOKES SHOW UP . . . in the most unexpected places. Reading a column in the Dallas News Monday, I saw a name that looked familiar. Sure enough, Paul Crume in his "Big D" column was telling an incident that happened in Pierce McBride's court of justice. Pierce McBride is the husband of the former Mary Bob Malone of Hico.

ANOTHER NAME . . . in the columns of the D-News was that of a man who has become prominent since being reared in a dugout on the banks of the Bosque near Hico. (If you don't believe it, ask him some time).

Candidate for mayor in Tuesday's Dallas election, this man has given a lot of credit to Hico for his early upbringing and announced in his opening campaign publicity that he was proud of his heritage. The gentleman has been president of the Mercantile National Bank in Dallas for some time, and has managed the business of building the State Fair of Texas into its present outstanding stature—as a fair go.

The past interest that this man, R. L. (Bob) Thornton, displayed in Hico and in civic enterprises has made me wish I had paid poll tax in Dallas this year just so I could've voted for him. Don't believe it would have been worth forfeiting the privilege of voting in the old home town, though.

GAL WHO'S BEEN . . . active on the Chamber of Commerce official magazine will be leaving Dallas soon. Miss Bettye Elrod has made a lot of friends in this big city and has been quoted several times in "Big D." After her marriage this month, however, Bettye and her husband will live in Abilene, where they both attended Abilene Christian College. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Beck, Gainesville, and visited them frequently when they lived here.

SO IT SEEMS . . . that there are connections with the community of Hico anywhere one might travel. You're just bound to see someone from home.

Egg Plays Important Role in Fight Against Many Virus Diseases

Pearl River, N. Y.—The ordinary hen's egg, so popular on America's breakfast tables, is playing a vital role in medical science's efforts to eradicate many virus-caused diseases.

Scientists here at Lederle Laboratories Division, American Cyanamid Company, use over 14,000,000 eggs a year in researching and producing modified live virus vaccines.

Already on the market are modified live virus vaccines to immunize dogs against distemper and rabies, ming against distemper, and poultry against several killing diseases.

The egg may eventually play an important part in combating crippling polio. Late last year, Lederle scientists announced that they had been able to grow a modified strain of polio virus in the hen's egg. If an egg-produced vaccine for polio can be perfected, production would hardly be a problem, since eggs are always in good supply.

It is only right that chickens should benefit from their handiwork. Vaccines for three deadly poultry diseases—fowl pox, Newcastle disease, and fowl laryngotracheitis—are produced in embryonated hen's eggs. So in one sense, you can say that the egg is protecting and insuring future generations of eggs. These three diseases, all caused by filterable viruses, annually inflict millions of dollars in losses among the nation's chicken and turkey crops.

Production of these vaccines, now that the years of hard research and millions of dollars have been spent, seems a simple thing. The procedure is this: a skilled worker uses a dentist's drill to make a tiny hole in the shell of the fertile egg, taking care not to break the membrane. Through this opening, some of the live virus is injected with a needle, and the hole is immediately sealed with collodion. The eggs are then placed in a huge incubator and the virus allowed to multiply. Before hatching, the shells are tapped and the tissues removed. From these the vaccines are made.

It's a long and tedious process, since each one of the millions of eggs used every year has to be handled individually.

Scientists here believe that the egg is one of the best media ever discovered for growing modified viruses, and many feel confident that other virus strains will be adapted to the egg in man's continuing effort to "tame" deadly viruses which can't be seen, but which kill at an amazingly high rate.

nection with operations against the enemy while serving with a Marine infantry battalion in Korea on 22 September 1952.

Serving as a company commander, Captain Barrow displayed exceptional courage, initiative and professional skill in the performance of his duties. During the morning hours, he received a report that a patrol, dispatched by him, was engaged with the enemy and was having difficulty retrieving a wounded member of the patrol. Faced with a situation that demanded immediate action, he unhesitatingly moved to the forward outpost position to take charge of disengaging the patrol. Leading the patrol in an assault that carried them to within fifty yards of their objective, he personally crawled forward through the intense enemy fire, recovered the body of the wounded Marine and returned to the unit. Captain Barrow's indomitable spirit and heroic actions served as an inspiration to all who observed him and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

Captain Barrow is authorized to wear the Combat "V".

ADVERTISING IN THE NEWS REVIEW IS AN INVESTMENT—NOT AN EXPENSE

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain! Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own! For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually. The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on. Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them. Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able. If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it. So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid your interest as current income—invest in 3% Series H If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $50 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $20,000.

Now even better! Invest more in Savings Bonds!

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From C. W. McFrederick, Creston, Ohio: I remember seeing thousands of wild pigeons in the spring of the year flying from one feeding ground to another so near the ground you could throw a stone up into their midst.

From Grace Schmidt, Cambridge, Nebraska: I remember the good, old butchering time when beef liver sold for one cent per pound, pork livers were thrown away, and a 10 lb. turkey sold for $1.00. Arbuckle coffee was 10 cents a pound with a stick of candy thrown in.

From Mrs. Gladys Markie, Underhill, Vermont: I remember at the so called Lee River place, my grandmother had a barrel of soft soap making in the rear of the wood house. A cat jumped on the cover of the barrel. It tipped and dumped the cat into the barrel. What a time grandmother had with that poor cat. Although grandmother washed the cat and did all she could, every bit of hair came off the animal. But the cat lived out the rest of its nine lives in spite of the lye bath.

From Mrs. Hallie Colson, Canby, Ky.: I remember when we didn't have a stove and sat by the open fire in the winter, burning our shins and freezing our backs. We cooked over the fire and the best biscuits I ever ate were cooked in a skillet with legs. Coals from the fire were pulled under the skillet and on the iron top. Think I'll try my hand next summer when I can make a fire in the yard and see if my biscuits will taste like my grandmothers'.

From C. E. Peck, Ottawa, Kansas: I remember seeing Lieutenant Governor F. P. Elder of Franklin county Kansas living at Ohio City, Kansas, plowing with a team of horses and a yoke of oxen attached to a walking gear plow.

Chip Pulls a "Pip"

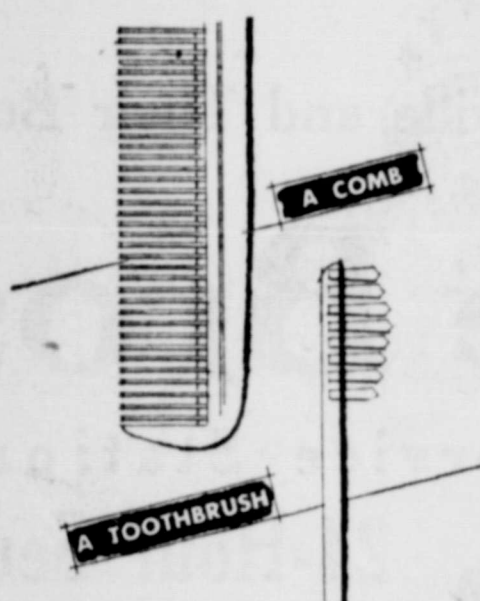

Chip Hanson is a clever commercial artist. Beside doing cartoons on our paper, he picks up "free lance" drawing jobs. Right now he's whipping up posters for the Safety Campaign. They all have headlines like "PLAY IT SAFE!" . . . or, "A LIVE WIRE CAN START A FIRE!"

Chip looked a bit sheepish yesterday. Didn't want to tell me why. Finally he blurted out, "I feel like a dope. Here I am on this safety program and the fire inspectors tell me my own studio's a fire trap. I've been storing paint there for years . . ."

From where I sit, what happened to Chip could happen to anyone. He was just too busy informing everyone else about safety — not realizing his safety was threatened. Like those who fret about their neighbors — whether they can afford a new house, whether they should have coffee or a glass of beer with lunch — Chip simply forgot to "draw" some obvious conclusions about himself!

Fairy

By Mrs. Eunice Massengale

We had somewhat cooler temperatures over the week end with a fine mist falling intermittently throughout the day Sunday, which produced a damp atmosphere for many of the sheer Easter frocks.

We were very sorry to learn of the passing of Mrs. Effie Porter, Mr. Bert Chenault and Mr. John Davis of Hico. Many of this section failed to learn of either of the deaths until after funeral services and most learned of their passing when they received the Hico paper. It seems with a telephone system out our way, news of this nature would at least reach some one in the community and probably did but seems few, if any learned of the Porter and Chenault funerals until after funeral services. We extend deepest sympathy to all in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyley Jones and little son of Stephenville spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lee Rowe and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were in Dublin Friday night to meet their daughter, Miss Daphne of Midland, who spent the week end here with her parents and other relatives. While in Dublin they visited in the home of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Enger of Brady spent the week end in the home of the writer. While here they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Heyroth, the ladies being sisters of Mrs. Enger.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited Sunday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton and to be with his sister, Charlie Wilson of Houston who spent the week end with her parents and other relatives.

Miss Ovie Parks of Stephenville spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Parks, Audie and Elsie.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison visited a while Thursday afternoon of last week in Dublin with their son and grandson, D. E. Allison and Darrel. Mrs. Allison and daughter, Ruby Jean were away with the Dublin senior class on a tour of South Texas towns including tours of Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Houston. They left Tuesday and returned late Sunday afternoon. Darrel and two of his little friends, Aswald Baugh and Louis Hall, accompanied the Allison home. Darrel's father came down Thursday night and spent the night. The boys returned home with him Friday morning.

Mrs. Maude Whitson of Fort Worth and Mrs. Emma Lackey of Hico were visiting friends and former neighbors here last Friday.

Mrs. Gladys Cox and the writer were in Hamilton Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Heyroth attended church at the First Baptist Church in Picocks Sunday and spent the remainder of the day in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leckhart and Barbara of Picocks, who also attend church at the Baptist Church of Picocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Audie Clark went to Galveston last week, where Mrs. Clark will continue a physical examination at John Sealy Hospital.

Mr. Corb Edminson of near Hico was here the first of last week in the interest of employment at the Fairy Cemetery and seems some seem to be under the impression that the writer has charge of this part of the work, which is incorrect. The Cemetery Committee consists of Ernest McCoy, Audie Clark and Frank Tyler, with Audie Clark as treasurer. In a short conversation with Audie last week he stated that there was probably funds enough in the treasury to burn the cemetery off one time.

As stated in a past write up the cemetery is in very good condition at this time, however, we feel that a burning off at this time will be cheaper in the long run than to wait until it would probably take two burnings to get the growth of weeds. We trust that you who are on the committee will inspect the cemetery and should you feel as others do about burning it off now, let some one get on the job. We have had two applicants for the job prior to Mr. Edminson, who were Carl Lackey and Dewey Wilson. So if those having loved ones buried here and others who might be interested, will continue to send in your donations, we feel sure we can acquire some one to do the work. Here's hoping that the cemetery committee will look after this matter in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jacobs of near Granbury visited Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Betts. Mrs. Betts prepared a birthday dinner honoring her sister's birthday, which was Saturday, April 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Agie Duncan had several of their children home for the Easter holidays. Those present were Fred Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKandies and family of Fort Worth and Mrs. Myrtle Luskie and girls of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield, who have been residing in Fort Worth for the past year or more, have moved to the Livingston place in the Lanham community. Both were employed in Fort Worth. Marvin has been in ill health for several years and his condition became such as to be forced to resign his position. We were sorry to learn of his condition, but hope after a period of rest he will be much better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bridges of McGregor visited Sunday in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blackley and Lera Jane.

INDIANS GET ITALIAN PITCHER . . . Giulio Glorioso, 22, pitching star of Rome's Lazio baseball team, is training at Daytona Beach with Cleveland Indians minor league club. Giulio, 175 lb. 6-footer, is studying law at University of Rome and plans to return after spring training.

BASEBALL FACTS

ROBERT ROBERTS of the Phillies was the lone 20-game winner in the National League last season with a record of 28 and 7 for his third straight campaign as a 20-game winner . . . Only six hitters active last year have lifetime marks over 300—Stan Musial, Jackie Robinson, Richie Ashburn, Enos Slaughter, Tommy Holmes and Monte Irvin . . . Of all 20-game hurlers, Christy Mathewson is probably the most sensational since he won 29 games or more thirteen times in fourteen years, four seasons the victory total was 30 games or more . . . The Cardinals didn't lose a double-header last year and had the highest percentage of games decided by the margin of only one run . . . One hundred and seventy-seven homers were hit at the Polo grounds last year while 154 went over the fence at Ebbets Field .

Death Brings Release From Long Suffering To John Davis, 67,

A familiar character is missing from Hico since last Friday morning when John Davis quietly passed away at his little home on the old Ireddell road.

Mr. Davis, who was born in North Texas July 23, 1885, came here when about two years old and since that time had made his home in and around Hico. He was a hard worker, independent and strong-willed almost to a fault. It was this independence that caused him to bear his suffering from a malignant disease, patiently and alone, unheeding of advice and offers to help from relatives, kind neighbors and friends. He was heard to complain only at times that his feet hurt.

Until last week he had gone about his customary rounds over town, assisting business men in keeping their stores clean, clearing away their rubbish, and tending their premises. Shortly before illness prevented him from working as usual, he was worrying about cutting the weeds alongside the News Review office.

Honest and reliable in all his dealings, his word was his bond. For his intense affection for and loyalty to his son and family he expected nothing in return, unselfishly concerned only with their well-being and safety.

He also loved growing things, having farmed a lot in his life, and his interest in crops and weather conditions showed up in his daily chats with those he met on his rounds. He lavished provender and affection on his horses, and took care of them as best he could.

It was upon attempting to deliver a load of feed Mr. Davis had ordered that one of his friends found his lifeless form in the bed at his home. His son, who early that morning had taken breakfast to his father, had come back to town believing him better. But the fight was over, and the Grim Reaper had taken his toll again. A unique character had passed from the local scene. Peace to his ashes.

Funeral services for Mr. Davis were held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Chapel. Rev. D. R. McCauley, Methodist minister, officiated. Burial was in Hico Cemetery. Pallbearers were Ernie Lester, Charlie Meador, Willard Leach, Milton Dunlop, Sherman Robertson and Roy French.

He is survived by a son, Ollie L. Davis, of Hico; a step-sister, Mrs. Bert Trantham, of Fort Worth; and three grandchildren.

SEVENTEENTH BIRTHDAY . . . Mrs. Lee Whelan, 66, wife of Philadelphia truck driver, holds baby Mary, her seventeenth child.
