

VISITING SGT. G. S. DAWSON TELLS INTERESTING STORY OF VOLCANIC ERUPTION

The E. E. Dawsons have their two sons visiting them, M/Sgt. G. S. Dawson of Alaska, and Joe W. Dawson of Palm Springs, California. Sergeant Dawson leaves Saturday for the return trip to his base near Anchorage, Alaska, and will travel by train to Seattle and then by government airlift.

His is an interesting story of the recent eruption of Mt. Spurr, which is located about 75 miles from the base. The cloud that followed the eruption made it as dark as night and put volcanic ash all over everything, changing the appearance of the whole earth.

PVT. FERN GENE JORDAN VISITING AT HOME AFTER TRAINING IN MISSOURI

Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Aug. 15.—Pvt. Fern G. Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fern Jordan, Route 6, Hico, is at home for a visit after completion of a 16-week training cycle here with a unit of the 6th Armored Division.

As a trainee, he received eight weeks basic training in the fundamentals of Army life and the use of infantry weapons. He then completed an additional eight weeks engineer training.

Private Jordan was taught the use of pioneer and power tools, construction of fixed and floating bridges and related subjects besides additional combat skills.

At the end of the 16-week training cycle with the famed "Super Sixth" the men completing training here are sent either to specialist schools or as replacements to other units.

Private Jordan has orders to report to Seattle, Wash., when his leave is up.

OUT OF REFRIGERATOR INTO THE FRYING PAN

If Airman First Class Don Williams, our appreciated correspondent from Anchorage, Alaska, doesn't get the discharge he's heard something about by the 15th of next month, he's up against a typical case of military procedure. He is being transferred to Laredo—just to see if he can take the sudden change in temperature, maybe.

During leave after 22 months in Alaska, Don was visiting here and at Carlton last week. Accompanied by a friend, Al Earl Woolard of Houston, he has been traveling around a lot during the appreciated leave, and expects to continue doing so until time to report at Laredo on Sept. 12.

REPORTS FROM KOREA

The following letter is from Pvt. John W. Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Walton, Hico Route 2. John is now stationed in Korea, and keeps up a regular correspondence with neighbors in Carlton and surrounding area, among them Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus King of Hico Route 6, to whom the letter was addressed.

Dear Mr. and Mr. King: I received your letter today dated July 25. You don't know how much I enjoy your letters and they really make the time pass lots faster. It has really been hot today but not very damp so we made it all right. The days that have rather heavy humidity are really bad.

Tonight is my time to go on guard duty. We have four hours on and eight hours off for 24 hours. We have to sleep in a guard house and there aren't any screens on the windows so the mosquitoes really are bad. In our barracks there are screens and we have mosquito nets to put over our cots. We have rubber mattresses and just folding cots to sleep on, so we don't have it too bad.

The Korean gardens are really getting pretty now. They have planted turnips, lettuce and horseradish. The way they prepare the ground is with oxen and wooden plows and then they take hoses about like grubbing hoses only they have long handles and are about a foot long. They level the ground down with these hoses and get it about like the beds we use to plant tomatoes in for seeds. When they plant the seeds they use their hands and drop the seed, so you can imagine how even they get them. The fields are built about a foot off the ground where they get women to get on their hands and knees and use little hoses to cut up the grass. It sure looks funny to see them do this as it is so much different from anything we do in the States.

My job is really easy but I still would rather be in the States. When you get this letter I will have been in the army one year, August 7. It doesn't seem that long.

I have to close and go on guard. Write soon and I will answer right back.

With love, a friend,
JOHN WALTON.

Sunday's Game Will Make Hico or Iredell B-V League Winner

By LEON LEWIS

Sunday is time for the last and final game of the season in the Bosque Valley League. Iredell is still leading by one-half game. Boy, oh boy, what a crowd there will be at Meador Field in Hico Sunday for this final game between the two top teams—Iredell and Hico.

If Hico can win this game she is in first place and will go into the play-off games with Glen Rose. Otherwise she will start the play-off against Dublin—and vice versa with Iredell.

Who will play whom in the first game of the play-off? Both teams are tops. It will depend largely on who gets the breaks. There will be literally hundreds out to see this game. The fans will be nervous on both sides.

Don't fail to see this, the best game of the year, at Meador Field in Hico Sunday. The game will begin promptly at 2:30 p. m. Come early—plenty of shade.

Dublin goes to Bluff Dale next Sunday, and Glen Rose to Tolar.

Team	GP	W	L	Pct.
Iredell	19	16	3	.850
Hico	18	15	3	.824
Dublin	18	11	7	.624
Glen Rose	18	4	14	.224
Tolar	18	3	15	.167

See these games. Play-off games will be announced in next week's paper.

Iredell Schools Will Open September 4 With Many Improvements

The Iredell Schools will open for the fall term Friday, September 4, according to announcement this week by Supt. J. M. McCroskey. Registration will begin after a 9:00 o'clock assembly, and will continue until noon. Class work will not begin until Tuesday, Sept. 8.

A number of improvements have been made in the school plant since last term. The lunchroom has been completely remodeled and the grade school building refurnished inside. A new school bus has been ordered and is expected to be ready for the opening of school. Superintendent McCroskey expects the enrollment to be about the same as last year.

Parents of new students and of beginners are urged to be present Friday especially, and all parents and friends are invited to be present.

Here are five of the more than a score of farm implements which can be used with the new Farmall Fast-Hitch. The average farmer, says local IH dealer, can hitch and unhitch from all implements in less time and with far less work than was required up to now.

Texas Truckers Must Observe Two New Laws Beginning August 26

Texas truckers have a pair of new laws to hone up on within the next few days.

Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that the two measures, which were enacted by the 53rd Texas Legislature, will go into effect on August 26.

One of the laws provides that if a trucker overloads his vehicle in excess of the gross weight for which he is registered and is caught by the officers, he will be required to apply to the nearest available county tax assessor-collector for additional registration in an amount sufficient to take care of his overload before he can continue his trip. If he is over the maximum legal weight, Garrison said, he can still be unloaded on the spot, under the old law, before being allowed to proceed. Exception is made in the case of livestock or perishable merchandise, in which instances the operator shall be permitted to seek the nearest practical point along his route where his load may be protected from damage or destruction before being required to secure the additional registration.

The other law, Garrison explained, provides, generally, that any operator, other than the registered owner or his agent, of a commercial motor vehicle or truck tractor must file with the State Safety Department a copy of the lease or other agreement under which the vehicle is being operated. In addition, he must carry copies of the lease and of the letter of transmittal to the Department in the vehicle.

Kent Odom, Chief of the License and Weight Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that this law is designed to curb "outlaw" truckers who afford no protection to shippers. He said that a copy of a booklet, giving detailed explanations of the law's provisions, will be sent to any trucker who requests it by writing to him at Austin.

Summer Is Good Time To Shed Extra Weight, Health Officer Says

Summer with its abundance of low-calorie fruits and vegetables is a good time to shed those few extra pounds put on during the winter months, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, states.

People do not need as many starchy foods which produce energy in warm weather as they do in the winter, he said, because in the summer the warmth which starchy foods give to the body is not needed.

"Green leafy and yellow vegetables and all types of fruit which are plentiful during the summer months provide an excellent, low-calorie diet for the person who is overweight," Dr. Cox said. "Many of these foods can be eaten raw and are very nutritious this way provided the food is carefully washed to remove all dirt and insecticides which may be present."

Dr. Cox stressed the importance of properly storing food during the summer. He explained that certain foods such as cold cuts, cream desserts, potato salad, and sandwich spreads have a tendency to spoil quickly during hot weather. Foods of this type should be kept in the refrigerator until just before they are served.

"By using good common sense in choosing and serving the proper kinds of food, you'll feel better and have a much more enjoyable summer," Dr. Cox concluded.

Church of Christ Schedules Summer Meeting at Fairy

Bro. H. W. McClish of Burnet will be in charge of services during the gospel meeting at Fairy Church of Christ, according to an announcement from their minister, Bro. Stanley Giescke.

The meeting is scheduled to begin next Monday evening, August 24, and will continue through Wednesday of the following week, September 2.

Services will be held each day at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., said Brother Giescke, as he issued an invitation to the public to attend.

Hico Will Have Chance To 'Roll Up Sleeves' For Bloodmobile Visit

Enthusiasm has been revived in the visit of a Bloodmobile unit from the American Red Cross to the community of Hico, and plans have now been made for the unit to stop here Wednesday, September 9.

Although the visit had previously been postponed for lack of a chairman, Mrs. B. B. Gamble, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter has agreed to head the activities again this year. She will be assisted by Mrs. Paul Neel and a crew of volunteer workers to be selected during the coming week.

"Let's hope that we will receive the same cooperation that we had last year in securing workers for this cause," Mrs. Gamble stated. The need for blood is as necessary as ever, especially with this year's emphasis through the Red Cross on the use of gamma globulin.

In cases where this blood product has been used for inoculation against polio, results have proved favorable, and as a result the number of cases of polio reported has been decreased during this summer.

Blood donations also find other uses, of course, and it is hoped that the citizens of Hico and surrounding communities will participate wholeheartedly with this call.

Basically the same procedure as was used last year will be followed in organizing the donors and scheduling their time. Workers will be coming around to bring donor cards which can be filled out with the preferred time the donor would like to make his contribution.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Educational Building at First Baptist Church between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m.

Self-Styled Winners in Lions Club Hungrier Than Contest Losers

Confronted with score board used in a not-too-recent attendance contest carried on in the Hico Lions Club, Ray Cheek hollered and agreed through his attorney, Truman Roberts, to feed the cocky winners captained by Milburn Knudson. Roberts, an old hand at barbecuing and arranging these affairs, cagily left the date open for a promised ladies' night, and the losers only inquired meekly what year he meant, since he said the month would be September or October or maybe November.

The guests also were left in suspense about the menu for the affair, which was to have been built around a goat which mysteriously disappeared—likewise a successor. If the winners are averse to eating chevon and have been absconding with the piece de resistance, they may be surprised at what shows up as a replacement.

During this week's business session, held following the luncheon in the dining room at Loudermilk Cafe, Wayne Rutledge reported a clear profit for the club of $163.14 on the drink concession at the Reunion, despite stiff competition which he suggested should be eliminated next year. After being complimented by President Harold Walker for a good job, Rutledge was reappointed to serve again next year, along with Lions Roberts, Woodard and Hooper.

Supt. O. C. Cook announced that Hico Schools would open Sept. 8, unless it developed that the new grade school building would be ready for use the following week, which he considers unlikely.

A suggestion from last year's Lions Variety Show chairman that plans for the next show be started earlier to avoid conflicts brought appointment of a committee with instructions to heed the suggestion. Chairman of the committee will be Lion Cook, with Lions Salmon and Jackson to assist him.

L. R. Evans and Jack Williams of the Gulf Oil Corporation at Waco were guests of their local consignee, Lion Hooper. Lion Texo Woodard brought his company's representative, Cliff Brogdon of Lampasas, or vice versa, as the case may have been.

Stephenville National Farm Loan Association Holds Annual Meeting

Approximately 175 member-stockholders of the National Farm Loan Association from Erath County and that portion of Hood County served by the local association met at the Stephenville City Recreation Hall last Friday morning.

V. N. Johnson, vice-president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, spoke to the group on "The Agricultural Outlook."

A. F. Anderson of Stephenville and E. G. Russell of Dublin were elected directors in the association and will serve three-year terms of office.

The current financial statement of the body was presented by T. H. Benson of Stephenville, secretary-treasurer. The report indicated a 20 percent increase in total volume of loans made during the past year by the association.

Approximately 25 door prizes were awarded to members present at the meeting.

The association's board of directors met after the stockholders' meeting in the afternoon and elected A. F. Anderson president, H. H. Ramage of Iredell vice-president and T. H. Benson secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board of directors are A. C. Ward of Lipan, J. L. Kiker of Green Creek, and Russell.—Stephenville Daily Empire.

School Term Set to Begin Here Sept. 8

Tentative opening date for the 1953-54 school term at Hico Public Schools was set for Tuesday, September 8, at a meeting of the board of trustees Tuesday of this week. At this meeting also, board members voted to buy a new school bus for transportation of Clairette students recently added to the enrollment of Hico schools. This brings to six the total number of buses operated by the local school.

Other routine matters were discussed at the board meeting, including plans for the opening of school, purchase of equipment for the new elementary school building and completion of the faculty.

W. M. Horsley, president of the board, said that at present the faculty of both schools includes 15 teachers, with one position left to be filled. It is expected that the band director will be hired by next week, thus completing the list of teachers. The board also has named Roy French to supervise the upkeep and operation of school buses, and H. D. Knight to resume his job of custodian.

Announcement of the opening date of this school term has been delayed, as the school officials hoped to ascertain a definite date of completion of the new elementary school building. However, arrangements now are being made to hold classes in local churches and in the gymnasium and extra high school rooms until such time as the first eight grades can be moved into their new quarters.

In line with discussion of the new school building, the board members authorized the hauling of 100 loads of fill dirt by County Commissioner Fern Jordan. This will enhance the landscaping of the area around the front and at the side of the new building, and will level the playground off so that grass can be planted there later.

Coinciding with the opening of school, it is hoped that the lunch room will be finished and meals will be served the first week. Purchase of 200 new chairs for this room was made recently.

The classrooms in the grade school will be furnished with new individual desks for each student. These desks are designed similar to the teacher's desk, and each one may be moved. None of the old equipment will be used in the new building, as it has all been sold to other schools.

Farm Implement Show Scheduled by Neel Wednesday, August 26

Neel Truck & Tractor will sponsor a demonstration next Wednesday afternoon, August 26, from 1:00 o'clock until 5:00 o'clock, which will show the uses of various equipment used with the new Farmall Super C tractor.

Outstanding feature of this machine, said Paul Neel, local International Harvester dealer, is the "fast" trailer hitch yet devised, and can be operated by hydraulic lever while riding the tractor." Three big trucks from the main office of International Harvester Co. in Dallas will be on hand for this demonstration at the John Haines farm, across from City Park, and special sound equipment will be used to tell more about the demonstration.

Gate prizes will be offered, and refreshments will be served to those who attend. Neel said he expected a large number of people, and issued a special invitation to all businessmen as well as farmers in this area.

For further details on the nature and location of this event, see the advertisement on another page of this issue.

"As It Looks From Here"
OMAR BURELSON
Congressman
17th District

Anson Tex., Aug. 20.—It is, of course, always a happy time when I can return home. In the first place, it is good just to get out of Washington. City life is not for me and, in fact, I could not be happy in any city unless I was exceedingly busy, which is always the case in the Capital. Back home, my first pleasure is a visit with my mother in Anson. The second thing I always do is go to the cemetery to the graves of my father and brother, and of my wife's parents and her brother. After these things, I do a little "windshield" farming and look at the few head of stock I have on my place between Stamford and Anson.

Those who may wish to contact me can find me in Anson on Mondays, but during other days of the week, I expect to be traveling around over my twelve-county Congressional District to see as many people as I possibly can. As I have stated in my questionnaires, I feel it very much my duty to contact as many of you folks as possible to get your views regarding issues of national interest, and particularly those likely to be dealt with in the next Session of Congress.

Much of the time will be spent in visiting in the smaller communities. Naturally, it is possible to see more people in the towns, but too often I miss seeing folks whom I might contact at the "crossroads." There are always a lot of things to be done and sometimes I feel I should be in five places at once, but find it is hardly possible to do it, although I sometimes try. There's the trip to the dentist, which is one of the things I am not looking forward to. I have never been to a chiropractor, but find that I need an arch propped up—which reminds me that it is not just a grandma's saying that a few little things are likely to go wrong with the human machine when we are past forty-five. It is something like my three-year-old car—I find it is needing something pretty often now. Let me remind you again that on each Monday for the next few weeks I shall be in my office in the basement of the post office in Anson, and anyone is welcome to contact me there.

Texan of Distinction

Recipient of the second annual "Texan of Distinction" award by the State Fair of Texas is L. L. (Tex) Colbert, president of the Chrysler Corporation, a native of Oakwood, Texas, a Leon County farm boy who made good in a big way. Mr. Colbert will receive his award and make the principal address at the 1953 State Fair annual banquet in Dallas Tuesday night, October 13.

Boy Scout Troop from Gatesville State School True to Trust in Camp

Scouts honor passed a rigid test last week near the Central Texas town of Belton.

Forty-two youngsters from the Gatesville State School for Boys—members of newly-formed Scout Troop 170—exchanged the confinement of institutional life for a boisterous outdoor week of swimming, hiking, scoutcraft, and campfires at 122-acre Camp Tahuaya on the old Chisholm Trail.

They were given only the same friendly guidance as other troops sharing the area, even at night, when the temptation to run away must have been strongest no extra precautions were taken.

And not a single boy betrayed his trust.

The successful experiment was a joint effort by Dr. H. Sapier, superintendent of the school, and Harvey Price, Scout Executive of the 9-county Heart O' Texas Council. Sapier supplied the campers, aged 11 to 17. Price arranged for the use of Camp Tahuaya. Both contributed lots of faith in the 42 white, Negro and Latin American youngsters who made the trip. Members of the State School staff, including Chaplain Keith Willis, acted as counselors under the general charge of Scoutmaster Jimmy Ray Smith. They were assisted, as are all troops at Tahuaya, by the regular camp director, aquatics coach, and scoutcraft instructor.

Since the boys brought along the commissary supplies they would have eaten at the School, there was no extra expense involved. Shelters and camp facilities were provided at no cost.

"I'm very pleased that it worked out as planned," said Sapier, who was staff psychologist at the School before accepting his present post. "The boys respected our confidence. They're already looking forward to the privilege next year."

Boys at the School are no longer "hired out" as formerly, but work solely on various civic projects near Gatesville. They have volunteered to return the favor to the Heart O' Texas Council by working on campsite improvements at Tahuaya.

Price praised the showing of Troop 170. "They were real Scouts," he said, "and their competitive spirit was something to see. The formation of Troop 170, and others like it, one of the most satisfactory aspects of our whole Scout program."

Funds to support the Boy Scouts of America in Hico are raised in the Annual Boy Scout Budget Campaign.

Fishing and Hunting Licenses Ready for Distribution by Sept. 1

Austin, Aug. 17.—Fishing and hunting licenses for the new fiscal year beginning September 1 will be distributed soon, according to the License Clerk for the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

He said the supplies, totaling over one million separate licenses, will be shipped to approximately 1,800 county clerks and licensed deputies in 254 Texas counties by August 20.

Both hunting and fishing licenses must be renewed for the new fiscal year which begins at midnight, August 31.

First sizeable demand for the hunting licenses will center around the north zone mourning dove season beginning September 1.

The twenty-eight different kinds of licenses cover all phases of hunting and fishing, ranging in cost from fifty cents for a duplicate license to $200 for a wholesale fish dealer's license.

The License Clerk said a new addition to the hunting licenses, which is expected to prove popular in the coastal areas, calls for a $5 five-day, non-resident license to hunt migratory waterfowl. Heretofore, non-residents desiring to hunt ducks and geese had to buy a regular $25 non-resident hunting license.

This new non-resident hunting permit is in conformity with the previously arranged five-day non-resident fishing licenses for $1.65 or a season's non-resident fishing license for $5.25. Resident fishing licenses are $1.65.

The main hunting permit costing $2.15 is the popular one for resident Texans because it covers both big game and small game.

The License Clerk noted that the paper tags will be used for big game since the proposed metal tags are still being tested as to their practicability.

Vocalist Is Serious In Inviting People To Padre Island

Corpus Christi, Aug. 17.—Lorraine Daly, the featured vocalist with Ken Harris' orchestra, apparently wasn't kidding when she named a song hit which she and a friend composed.

The song is "Come With Me to Padre Island." A few days ago, Miss Daly, currently appearing with the Harris orchestra in Biloxi, Miss., wrote a letter to John L. Tompkins, Corpus Christi real estate developer. Tompkins has begun a million-dollar resort development on the south end of Padre Island near Fort Isabel. Her reason for writing: She wants to buy some Padre Island real estate.

Traffic Signs Can Be 'Signs of Life' When Obeyed by Motorists

"Know their shapes, and be safe."

Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, President of the Texas Safety Association, and Services Advisor for Gulf Oil Corporation was referring to traffic sign shapes when he offered this advice to motorists today.

"Traffic signs," he explained, really can be 'signs of life' to motorists who heed them. Sign locations are determined by careful engineering studies, to guide and protect users of our streets and highways.

"These signs are designed in five basic shapes, and each shape carries a different type of message," he said.

Motorists should learn to recognize the shapes, Col. Tilley pointed out, so that they can tell at a glance what type of problem they are about to meet on the highway. This will prepare them in advance to act on the sign's message when they get close enough to read it.

Col. Tilley listed the five basic sign shapes and their meanings, as follows:

1. EIGHT-SIDED, painted yellow and black or red and white. This sign means Stop—no message, one requirement—never anything else.

2. DIAMOND, also yellow and black This sign indicates danger ahead, carries such messages as Slow-School, Narrow Bridge, Men Working, or the directional symbols describing curves, intersections, side roads, etc. They mean: slow down, stay alert.

3. RECTANGULAR, painted white with black or colored lettering. These tell of speed limits, mark no passing zones, give other regulatory information such as parking rules. Obey their message.

4. ROUND, yellow and black, signs warn of a highway-railroad intersection 300 to 500 feet ahead. These signs call for reduced speed and extra caution, so the driver can make sure no train is coming before he drives across the tracks.

5. RAILROAD CROSSBUCK marks the intersection of highway and railway. Cross only when the way is clear.

"These signs and traffic signals and pavement markings for both motorists and pedestrians, deserve the same attention as is given a traffic officer," he said.

Many traffic accidents would not happen if people using the streets and highways obeyed the signs, signals and pavement markings put there for their guidance and protection, according to Col. Tilley.

He called special attention to the slogan, "Signs of Life—Know Them, Obey Them!" which is being featured in this month's traffic safety program by the Texas Safety Association and the Department of Public Safety.

Observing Simple Rules Can Mean Relief from This Sweltering Heat

Austin, Aug. 17.—Beat by the heat? Is this torrid weather sapping your energy from every body pore? Then State Health Officer George W. Cox has news for you.

"Observing a few simple hot weather living rules can mean relief from this sweltering heat," the doctor says. For instance:

Cut down on the amount of food eaten at any one time. Eat a few crackers or some fruit between meals if you get hungry. Many people feel better in hot weather if they eat fewer protein foods such as eggs, fish, and meat. Fruit and vegetables in season makes fine "cool comfort" diets.

Water is constantly being lost through perspiration and has to be replaced or painful heat cramps will result. Office workers probably get enough salt through ordinary eating, but laborers may need 2 or 3 extra teaspoonsful each hot day.

Children who play hard and perspire freely need a little extra salt. Salted nuts or crackers is an agreeable way for them to get it. They won't object at all.

Don't wear clothes that hinder evaporation of perspiration because that's the way body temperatures are kept normal. Wear loose, light clothing, preferably light in color. Suit your exercise to your strength. Swimming is unquestionably the best summer sport, since it cools rather than overheats the body.

Take a warm bath before bedtime, and get eight hours of sleep regularly. An oscillating electric fan which keeps the air in motion without harmful direct drafts will make sleeping more comfortable and the next day's heat less oppressive.

Sun rays are most intense between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. so stay out of their way during those hours if possible. If not, be sure your head is covered.

Observing these rules can make for more summertime comfort, Dr. Cox points out. A June-to-October vacation in Alaska would help, too.

NEWS REVIEW ADVERTISING BRINGS RESULTS

From The Webster Times, Webster, Massachusetts: The Korean Armistice has been signed. The attitude of the man in the street is a far cry from the frenzied joy of such news after World War I and World War II. Perhaps we have learned the great lesson of preparedness.

Radio and television broadcasts immediately after the signing brought into full focus the change in the thinking of the customarily unwary Americans. Announcers questioning passersby asked "How do you feel about the Armistice?" And while the answers were invariably "Thank God," many persons added sage remarks that the United States should be careful now and keep up defense measures.

It was of especial note that mothers of Korean veterans were frequently quoted as believing this. After the last war, mothers were blamed for wanting their boys home from Europe and Asia, thus bringing about demobilization too soon.

As in all wars, the permanent scars will be borne by those who have lost their loved ones, and by the thousands of Korean veterans who will spend much of their future in hospitals. For that group who must go on forever wondering about the fate of their "missing" sons and husbands, our sympathy is especially deep.

We have an Armistice. There will be no true peace until more momentous events take place—until peoples all over the world learn to share the God-given resources of their different spheres, until they learn to live without envy of other nations, until the peoples of the earth return to Faith in God and their fellowmen.

From the Harvard Herald, Harvard, Illinois: People who play the races have nothing on the farmer. Even the most avid of them are pickers by comparison.

Horses are predictable; the elements . . . and insects . . . and plant diseases . . . and farm market prices are not.

Quietly, without fanfare the farmer places his bets. Day in and day out, year after year he does so every time he seeds a crop or puts in a batch of broilers. The market may be fine when they mature; or the bottom may have dropped out. The boll weevil or the army worm or blight may hit him, or it may not.

There may be a flood, a drought, or a windstorm. Excessive rain may ruin his plantings. Disease may hit his hogs; excessive heat may endanger his chickens. He never knows the odds.

Farm folks often look upon the farmer's life as an easy one; as something to retire to some day. Yes, who else would run the risks, would do as much for as little?

They were married at the home of his sister, Mrs. Biaby. Mrs. Edwards finished high school here in 1951 and went to Fort Worth to work. She has many friends here who wish for the couple a life of joy and happiness.

Mrs. C. N. Davenport and children, Carol and Gary, will celebrate her first birthday Saturday, Aug. 22; this also happens to be the birthday of her great-great-grandmother, the late Mrs. L. P. Richardson; D. E. Allison, Dublin, Aug. 28 which is also the Allison's wedding anniversary.

The revival at the Church of Christ will begin Monday night, August 24. Minister McClish of Burnet, Texas, will officiate. Services will extend through Sunday, August 31.

The Methodist revival will begin here Sunday, August 30 and will run through Sunday, September 6. All have a cordial invitation to attend these revival services. The services will be conducted by Rev. G. C. Williams of Clyde, Texas, who is a former pastor of the local church.

Misses Wilma Grace and Linda Goyno and friends, Walter Deel and Dale King of Weatherford, were recent Dublin visitors.

Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin; their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sellheimer and little sons of Fort Worth and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Doris Allison and her sister, Miss Shirley Streater, of Lanham.

We are very sorry to learn of the misfortune of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Brummitt of near Fairy and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Massengale of Fort mother, Mrs. Benn McNeil of Miles, who had been visiting them for a few days, met relatives at Buchanan Dam last Saturday for a week-end reunion of the Springer families.

The Methodist revival at Lanham closed Sunday night. There was good attendance throughout the meeting. On Saturday night, following the service, home-made ice cream, cake and cookies were served on the church lawn to all who remained to enjoy the hospitality of these good people. Some 100 members and visitors enjoyed the fellowship and refreshments.

The writer attended singing at Warrens Creek Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis McAdams of Cranfills Gap visited Sunday with their son, R. W. McAdams, and family and her father, Uncle Bob Parks, and other relatives.

Our school will open Monday, September 7. We understand several new teachers have been employed. Four of our former teachers will be returned. These are Prof. Haines, Mrs. Willie Bradley, Mrs. Evelyn Sorenson and Junior Jones. We have not learned the names of the new teachers, but hope to be able to list them next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley are having their garage apartment farm home completely redecorated on the interior, by having the ceilings sheet-rocked and the walls and ceilings textured. V. H. Heyroth applied the sheetrock, while Dewey Wilson is doing the painting and texturing. Mr. Blakley has also had a large hay shed on his ranch nearby painted, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Birthdays for August which we know of are: Mrs. Evelyn Enger Smith, Brady, Aug. 3; Grady Enger, Aug. 13; Little Donna Jean Betts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Betts, Searcy, Ark., will celebrate her first birthday Saturday, Aug. 22; this also happens to be the birthday of her great-great-grandmother, the late Mrs. L. We are very sorry to learn of the misfortune of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Brummitt of near Fairy and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Massengale of Fort Worth, who were injured in a car wreck near Hillsboro or Jackboro while returning from a vacation trip. Mr. and Mrs. Massengale were brought to a Fort Worth hospital and the Barrow-Rutledge ambulance went up and conveyed Mr. and Mrs. Brummitt to the Hico Hospital. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Brummitt are suffering of shock and bruises. Mrs. Massengale received a broken hip and other injuries. Elton, who was driving, received lesser injuries. Elton's car was badly damaged. We sincerely hope all will soon be fully recovered.

Mrs. W. E. Goyno finished work on her master's degree at Baylor University last Friday and will return to Waco for commencement exercises Thursday night of this week to receive her diploma. Congratulations, Mrs. Goyno.

The work on the cemetery had to be discontinued because of lack of funds. We have tried, as best we knew how, to stress the need of funds for this work but so far only two donations have been received. We trust that all who can will visit the cemetery and see the need of work there and will send in a donation to help complete the work. Those wide-awake people of the Lanham community have purchased a power rotary mower for their cemetery adjoining the church lawn. They are putting up a new fence and all is looking quite nice. We are very glad to see such interest manifested in the cemetery there, for in times past it seems only a part of the plots were kept. We have such a wide territory here at Fairy, and if all would take an interest it would mean very little expense or labor to any one family. Plans are beginning to be discussed whether a power mower could be used here. If so, it is thought the cost of op-

Cloudy, sultry weather prevails at this writing (Tuesday). There is very little breeze and what we have is on a low altitude and not sufficient to run windmills. We have had some rain since our last writing, which was a life-saver to us in time of a water shortage.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Benn Cunningham a patient in the Hico Hospital. She underwent major surgery Saturday morning and is reported to be doing nicely afterward. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

We have also been informed that Erey Parks underwent surgery at a Brownwood hospital last week and is reported to be doing fine. We hope he will soon be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer and Randy spent several days last week on a prospecting tour of West Texas. They plan to sell, rent or lease their farm here.

The C. W. Vaughn place, better known as the former Jim Blakley place, sold recently to a Mr. Smith, J. A. Edwards, who had the place rented for the coming year, will move to the place when it is vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn. We have not learned where Mr. Smith is from, or where the Vaughns plan to locate. We regret to lose them, but wish for them much happiness and success in their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Heyroth were in Temple Monday to be with their daughter, Mrs. Guy Lockhart of Pidgeon, who underwent major surgery at Scott & White Hospital. She was reported to be resting well late Monday following the operation. Mrs. Heyroth remained with her. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

CHECKS AND BANK ACCOUNTS

Here are the answers to a few of the general questions on checks and on bank accounts that people ask. Should a check be made payable to "cash," "bearer" or to a designated payee? The answer is that it should be made payable to a designated payee. If made payable to cash or bearer, and the drawer loses the check or it is stolen, anyone finding it might cash it, and in the hands of an innocent holder it may be enforced.

What if a check is made payable to one or more payees, can any one of the named cash the check? That depends upon the way it is written. If it is payable to John Doe, Richard Doe, and Mary Doe, then either may obtain the cash by a single endorsement.

Every depositor has certain contractual relations with his bank. In the case of a "checking account," the contract is contained in the signature card which the depositor signs when he opens his account with the bank and in the deposit slip which he uses to enter his deposit. These instruments govern the duties and obligations of the bank, as well as the rights of the depositor.

A "Demand deposit" is subject to withdrawal at any time by the depositor on checks written and delivered by him to others. Such deposits, under the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, are not permitted to draw interest. If the deposit is a "Time Deposit," the money is deposited in the bank or a certain specified time for which a certain rate of interest is paid if the money is left there for such specified time. The depositor receives a certificate of deposit as evidence of his deposit.

A "savings account" is money deposited at a certain rate of interest for no specified time, but which can be withdrawn in accordance with the rules and regulations set forth in the depositors pass book in which the various deposits are entered as made.

If a checking account stands in the name of two persons in a joint account, payable to the survivor in case of the death of one of such depositors, may the bank pay out the money on the demand of the survivor? Yes, under Texas law, part or all of the deposit may be paid to or on order of the survivor. And under the terms of a contract for use of a safe deposit box two or more persons may jointly lease a box and provide for access and entry and right to remove the contents from such box whether the other person or persons be living incompetent or dead; and in case of such removal the bank shall not be liable.

What if the safe deposit box is in the name of one who does? In the event that only one person is named in the lease agreement and that person dies then, the box may be opened at the request of persons claiming an interest in the contents. The contents are carefully inventoried and are delivered into the custody of the administrator or executor of the estate of the deceased who is appointed by and acts under the supervision and direction of the probate court and who distributes the estate as provided by law.

THE FIFTH PLATE

The present birthrate in the United States indicates that one extra person will be sitting at every American table for four by 1975. People are now asking: "Where is the food coming from to fill this fifth plate?"

If population forecasters are right, our agricultural production will have to increase 20 per cent to feed the next generation as well as we are eating now. This means a big demand for additional food.

In the past, such demands have led to drastic changes in the lives of many people. When the Irish potato crop failed in 1845, hundreds of thousands left their native country to find homes in the United States. As the population increased in the eastern states, people moved west, opening new land and advancing the frontier.

In World War I, American farmers expanded their production by putting vast acreages of land into cash crops. And you all know the years of distress that followed when the war-time market collapsed in the 20's.

When a second World War again demanded the utmost of farmers, they increased production by nearly one-third. This was about the limit of our production capacity at that time.

Today, each farmer now raises enough to feed himself and about 15 others. And there are 7,000 new babies to be fed in the United States every morning of the year. New farmers and new farms can't be created fast enough to keep the ratio balanced.

If we have to raise our sights to feed a permanently expanding population, where shall we turn this time? There are no new frontiers of first-rate land to be opened up. Only a little more than one-fifth of our land area is now being used for crops, so millions more acres could be put into cultivation—but the investment or irrigation alone would be staggering.

The problem is not a new one. About 150 years ago, Thomas Malthus, a brilliant but rather shortsighted English economist, forecast starvation for the human race because the world population, he said, was outstripping agricultural production. But Malthus was wrong. He underestimated the farmer's ingenuity in constantly improving his crop raising methods.

The answer, then, lies in a greater application of science to agriculture. We must find new ways to apply research to agricultural production and teach approximately the present number of farmers to use new scientific knowledge on approximately the present area of cropland.

We have nothing to fear from the "fifth plate" as long as the farmer continues to increase his per-acre yields, improve his soil conservation practices and work for better plant and animal breeding.

Fort Worth—While Southwest livestock movement held about level with a week ago at the start of this week, the clangor of late Summer shipments of cattle to market reached a crescendo of 123,300 cattle and 14,400 calves at the Nation's 12 major markets Monday. This was 28,500 more cattle and calves than a week ago, and 27,700 above the same day last year.

At Fort Worth, canners, cutters, bulls and choice stockers held firm. Most other kinds of cattle and calves were weak to 50c lower.

The strength of the canners and cutters and other boning types reflected to some degree the liquid condition of that portion of the market aided by government purchases of canned and ground meat. Latest reports indicated this program was taking five to six million lbs. per week. (5,375,260 lbs. the week ended Aug. 10). Vast expansion of this buying is expected soon.

The government paid $38.76 per cwt. for canned beef, and bought nearly a million and a half lbs. of hamburger at $33.34. (Fort Worth packers quoted hamburger to this writer at $27.00 per cwt. the same week). Frozen carcass beef for Greece was bought at $23.93 and frozen carcass mutton at $14.70, delivered Port of New York.

While these prices may appear stronger than current wholesale levels, some of this is to be delivered in September and after, all it is bought in an effort to RAISE prices. This should do it.

For Worth's hog price Monday climbed back to the year's high of $25.25-25.50 for top hogs. This was 25c to 50c higher. Sows were steady to 50c higher, selling $18.00-21.50.

Sheep and lambs ruled steady at Fort Worth. Top lambs at $20, indicated that strictly choice kinds could bring $1 or $2 more. Medium, good and choice fat lambs sold from $14.00-20.00, cull to medium $10.00-14.00. Feeder lambs were held around $13.00-15.00. Old ewes $5.00-6.00, solid-mouthed ewes $7.00-10.00. Old wethers $7.00-10.00. Old bucks $2.00-3.00. Two's $10.00-12.00. Slaughter yearlings $10.00-17.00.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings $18.00-23.50; common and medium grassers and shortfeds $11.00-17.00; ratty yearlings $8.00-10.00.

Butcher and beef cows $9.50-12.00; canners and cutters $7.00-9.50. Bulls $8.00-13.00. Good and choice fat calves $13.50-16.50, few higher. Common and medium butcher sorts $10.00-13.00, culls $7.00-10.00. (Grassy calves and yearlings are at the lowest time since the third week in June).

Good and choice stocker steer calves $13.00-18.00, heifers $15.50 down and good and choice stocker steer yearlings $13.00-16.00. Stocker cows $8.00 to $14.00.

Some criticism is being made of the feed-making industry because of their stand against certain practices in the drouth feed program. Feed men are being pilloried by some producers for trying to get a program set up whereby the feed making industry can participate.

Most of this is grossly unfair. After all this program will bankrupt many small businessmen (feed dealers) in its present form. We can hardly blame an important segment of our national economy for fighting for its life.

THE FIFTH PLATE

Today, each farmer now raises enough to feed himself and about 15 others. And there are 7,000 new babies to be fed in the United States every morning of the year. New farmers and new farms can't be created fast enough to keep the ratio balanced.

If we have to raise our sights to feed a permanently expanding population, where shall we turn this time? There are no new frontiers of first-rate land to be opened up. Only a little more than one-fifth of our land area is now being used for crops, so millions more acres could be put into cultivation—but the investment or irrigation alone would be staggering.

The problem is not a new one. About 150 years ago, Thomas Malthus, a brilliant but rather shortsighted English economist, forecast starvation for the human race because the world population, he said, was outstripping agricultural production. But Malthus was wrong. He underestimated the farmer's ingenuity in constantly improving his crop raising methods.

The answer, then, lies in a greater application of science to agriculture. We must find new ways to apply research to agricultural production and teach approximately the present number of farmers to use new scientific knowledge on approximately the present area of cropland.

We have nothing to fear from the "fifth plate" as long as the farmer continues to increase his per-acre yields, improve his soil conservation practices and work for better plant and animal breeding.

Trophies Offered for Best Restored Cars at State Fair Exhibit

The growing popularity of the antique automobile hobby in Texas will be demonstrated with the fifth annual exhibition of the ancient beauties at the 1953 State Fair of Texas Oct. 10 through 25.

Members of the North Texas Horseless Carriage Club are already busy preparing for the fair—refurbishing and reactivating the classics of yesteryear, ranging from Stanley Steamers to Hupmobiles, he said.

Trophies will be awarded for best restored cars, cars with best mechanical operation, cars from the longest distance away and most popular cars.

Driving contests to be held Sunday, Oct. 11, will include cranking, backing, blindfold driving, and saw balancing events. Plus a contest where the driver spears oranges with a lance while his car is in motion.

Back for the 1953 fair will be a 1907 Hupmobile Model 20 Roadster which was shown just outside the exhibit tent last year in a dilapidated condition. It has been completely restored and is as dashing as the day it left the factory.

Most of the ancient autos are fitted with new bodies and special machine-tooled parts. All are in perfect running condition.

The veterans of the road usually get around under their own power but the car is particularly aged and the distance great, some owners transport them via trailer, Williams said.

However, a 1920 Stanley Steamer was driven from Houston to the fair last year by J. Pabst, a member of the fair's antique auto committee.

Progress of the antique car craze in Texas can be measured by the size of the fair's show, which has grown each year, Williams says. In the 1949 show only about seven cars were shown. Last year there were 39. The North Texas Horseless Carriage Club, organized in 1931 with five members, now has 50. There is also a South Texas Club.

All antique cars are licensed in the regular manner. Texas safety inspection laws pose no problem for the antiques. They are approved if "everything that is supposed to be operating, is operating". For example, they pass the inspection without windshield wipers because they didn't come equipped with them. Besides, since they are now in the pampered darling class, they don't get out in the rain.

LOCUSTS WIPED OUT

A locust plague was effectively dispelled for the first time in the history of the Middle East recently, the American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook for 1953 reports. U. S. and British aircraft were used to spray insecticide over areas teeming with locusts in Iraq and Iran. The operation was completed in two weeks and damage to grazing and cultivated areas was held to a minimum.

'Scratch My Back, Call Me Allergic'

Offending Substances in Diet Should Be Removed

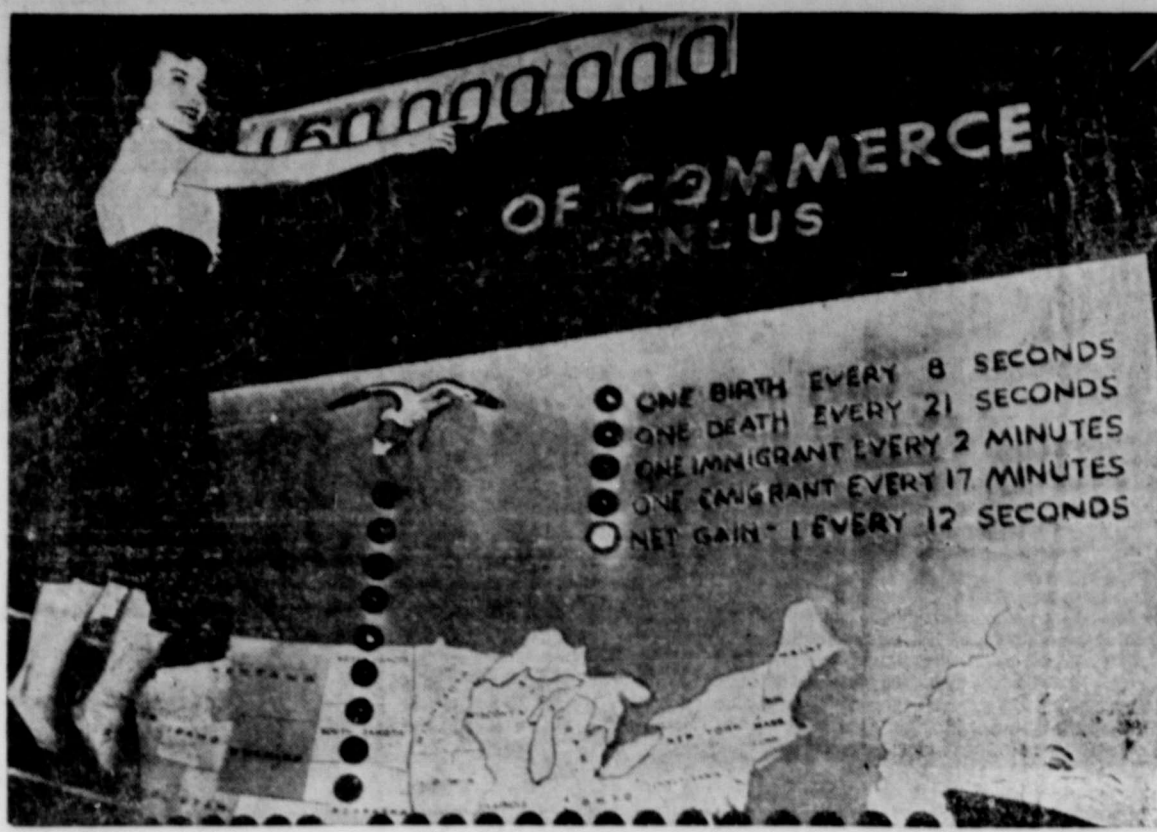

"Well, scratch my back, and call me allergic!"

Being allergic is no joke. Allergy is defined as being sensitive to a substance touched, eaten, or breathed and may take the form of a skin "rash," hay fever, asthma, an upset stomach, or headache.

The allergic patient may be treated by his family doctor, or if his case is especially complex, may need the services of a dermatologist or allergist. A dermatologist is a skin expert, and an allergist specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of any allergy, whether it involves the skin, the food tract, or the respiratory system.

Regardless of what doctor tackles the problem of allergy, he must try to find out the offending substance and remove it from the patient's diet or surroundings. This may be easier said than done. Sometimes careful history of the patient's life and habits must be taken, numerous skin tests carefully done and interpreted, and close observation of the patient carried out. In the case of foods, a rigid diet may be necessary. When food substances like milk, eggs, and wheat are concerned, the patient sometimes can be made less sensitive to these foods.

It is amazing the kinds of materials that can cause allergies. Patients may be sensitive not only to one food but a group such as the entire bean family. Contact dermatitis is a condition in which the skin shows sensitivity to something touching it; the condition has been caused by such commonplace things as face powder, leather, or rubber and by such rare ones as strike-anywhere matches or paint finishes on paring knives or toilet seats. Extrasensitive patients have been known to break out if they smell certain foods like eggs or fish, and others by coming in contact with the hair lotion or perfume of a spouse! It is known that an allergic man or woman may have an allergic child, and if both are sensitive, the chances that their offspring will be sensitive are even greater.

CENSUS CHART . . . Lucille Collins, U. S. Commerce dept. employee, checks census "pinball machine" in Washington, D. C., which registers births, deaths, immigration and emigration. U. S. population is now 160,000,000, 2 million more than in 1950.

Experience Teaches There Is No Natural Resistance to Impetigo

Most parents know exactly what State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox means when he says "there is no such thing as natural resistance to impetigo."

They know, perhaps from bitter experience, that the same child can suffer repeated attacks of what Dr. Cox calls an "offensive, annoying skin infection."

Impetigo, a purulent, highly infectious ailment, can be found in any age group at any time of the year. But children are unusually susceptible, and most cases occur during summer. It isn't too serious, except in new born babies, but it can cause days of itching misery to afflicted youngsters and adults alike.

It's caused by a pus-forming bacteria called staphylococcus—the same sort of germ found in boils and sores where pus is present. Usually it forms an unsightly crust over wide areas of the body.

It can easily be transmitted to anyone who uses the towel of an infected person, since towel moisture permits the germ to survive.

Children living in the most hygienic homes frequently get impetigo, although it probably is more common in homes where personal sanitation isn't considered too important.

The best way to minimize the ill effects of impetigo is to keep the infection localized by preventing the serum under crusts from exuding into "clean" skin surfaces.

The family physician is the infected child's best friend, since he will advise mother how best to combat the disease and how to keep it from spreading like a grass fire through the whole family.
