Cooperation Received from Readers Away from Home Town

Subscribers Pass Along Their News, Views and Comments

News seems scarce some weeks. Maybe it's us, with hot weather coming on and everything. Could be that too much time has been taken off to find out what is going on around the community. Anyhow our friends, most of them formerly of Hico who have scattered out around the world, often take time to add a friendly note to their remittances for subscription. In this matter, too, we have been rather careless in not saving all of them after enjoying reading them, but on file at present are a few typical examples that will spread light to others as to their friends' comings, goings and doings.

"Sixty-six years is a long time to be in business in one place," writes W. F. Hooker, now a resident of Stephenville. "But I can remember when the business was started—or about the first of its career. Clarence Crews was a young man then when he published the paper. His place of business was just south of the railroad from the Petty store building. . . . Enough of this ancient history—good luck to you."

After a vigorous and intensive search Robert Phillips of Lake Charles, La., located his Schaeffer pen but found it dry and had to use a pencil to write a check for three years' subscription and a chatty note which accompanied it. Bob has been away from Hico so long he is remembered only by old-timers like the Holtdors, but his too infrequent visits back here are always enjoyed by those he meets. At the risk of getting raked over the coals for printing a personal message, we pass along a few of Bob's jottings: "For the past five months I have been commuting between Lake Charles and the hospital at St. Louis for the extraction of all my teeth and cataracts on both eyes. This may account for the disorder of my affairs. If you can't read this you're no worse off than I—it is a foregone conclusion that I surely can't. Want it distinctly understood that there is no connection between my Hico correspondent (my sister Mae) and the News Review. Red Bird Rambles and Here in Hico may be imitated in time but never equalled. That is where the News Review comes in. Soon I am expecting the arrival of a complete new set of dentures and the medic warns me that I shall have to learn again to eat and talk. I sincerely hope that by taking a short course I shall be able to eliminate certain adjectives from my vocabulary, no matter how apt they are. My inability to read stems from the fact that the right eye has been worked upon and to date no lens has been prescribed. Nothing has been done to the left one. So you see I am 'blind in one eye and can't see out of the other.' After five months in the old rocking chair, that I cannot read is my 'mainest peeve.' Warm personal regards to each of you."

"Hi, how is everybody?" inquires E. G. Burkett in renewing his subscription from his adopted home in San Pedro, Calif., where he declares he is still working, and getting along fine. June and his wife (the former Jessie Stegall) hope everyone is well and send their regards.

"Pardon me for being so neglectful," apologizes Mrs. A. G. Holloway of Dumas, Texas, in sending her check. She is the former Martha Aiton, whose father once published the News Review. "Since we had a mild winter, I can't give the customary excuse that I'm just thawing out," Martha added with her usual good humor.

Mrs. J. S. Waldrop of Lubbock writes: "I am an old-timer from your community, having moved to a place 7 miles east of Hico when I was 7 years old—and that was 45 years ago. I was Beulah B. Kolt before my marriage." Who said all women try to hide their age?

"May I take the pleasure of saying I enjoy my hometown paper more each time I receive same?" inquires Dorothy Walker of Dallas. Certainly, Dot, the pleasure's ours. The secretary for Constable Kal Segrist, the Hico Kid now operating around Oak Cliff and Dallas, sent some information that would have been interesting to local law enforcement officers if we hadn't overlooked the dates of the Constables' Association Convention held at the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth around the first part of May. In this connection we read in the Dallas Snooze where Constable Kal has entered the race for Justice of the Peace in Oak Cliff. First time we knew there was any justice in West Dallas, much less peace.

In writing for some back copies of the issue containing the obituary of her brother, Frank Wiseman, Mrs. R. L. Parks of Whittier, Calif., adds: "As Miss Lulu Wiseman I taught in the Hico schools for seven years. I had lived there since childhood."

John D. Higgins, now of Gateville, who is missed particularly around his old home town every St. Patrick's Day, sent a note along with his renewal subscription: "The Centennial really was good. I now have my whiskers off and am getting back to normal again."

Enclosing payment for a subscription sent to her son, Weldon Houston, at Campbell, Calif., Mrs. Lewis Pendleton now of Winters, Texas, adds some news: Weldon and another Hico boy, Charles Spaulding are partners in sheet-rock construction and they want to see what is going on in Hico. They got away from Hico, but don't seem to be able to get Hico away from them. There are seven of my children in adjoining towns—five in San Jose and Weldon and Wayne in Campbell, Wayne drives a school bus.

"We are at Hico every week end now, so it will be O. K. to send our paper there," recently wrote Mrs. Lee Roy Hatcock from Fort Worth. They are getting to the finishing stage on their new house between Hico and Iredell, and the lady who runs our subscription department evidently sympathizes with anyone who has to pay bills for a job like this. At any rate she let the Hatcocks out a little cheaper by reminding them that the rate on papers mailed to Hico is four bits cheaper than when it is sent to Cowtown.

"Hello, Holtdors," begins a brief note from Doris Williamson, former local gal now living in Fort Worth. "Sorry I've been so long in mailing a check for the paper, but kept thinking I could thumb my way down some week end. So far no luck." Doris must have seen a change in luck last week end, for read on another page of this issue where she visited here.

A. D. Shipley Jr., who moved last year to Pottsville, Ark., had some trouble getting his mail straightened out. But the trouble has cleared up now, he says, adding that he is glad we have been getting a little rain here. "We have really been blessed with plenty of moisture this year as it has been raining every few days and things are really looking good. We sure want the paper for we still enjoy knowing what is going on around there. Dad said tell you that a dollar of this money was his and if we didn't get the paper he would have to come down there and straighten that place out. Really we do enjoy the NR very much and hope some postmaster along the way keeps it headed in the right direction. May this be a prosperous year for you good people of Hico."

Besides these chatty comments from readers away from home, things around the office are kept from appearing dull by comments of subscribers in renewing their subscriptions at the office there.

Arthur Burden stepped in to pay his "water rent" the other day, but we let him out lighter on the subscription than the city charged for the water we used last month. Arthur said a friend of his from Colorado wanted to subscribe but got the mistaken idea that the price was $5.00 per year. Heck, we'd be willing to send the paper three years for that price, and are expecting Arthur to correct his friend and head him this way for a bargain.

"You'll have to excuse my dirty hands—I had to get out of the car and kill a rattlesnake on my way to town" calmly said Mrs. J. W. Abel while writing out a check for another year's subscription.

Mrs. Shiny Lane advised us in paying a subscription for the John Crofts at Procter that her niece, the former Mary Helen Hollis, had been postmaster there for several months.

"This could go on forever, but before we tell too much confidential information we will shut off quotes and comments with sincere thanks for the consideration shown the hometown paper by all friends."

Mrs. W. M. Horsley, Raymond Lowe, and Mrs. Bernell Jernigan were appointed to the finance committee at a meeting Monday night, and will make plans for the Reunion concession.

The next Band Parents Club meeting was set for Thursday night, Sept. 2.

Home Town Club Plans Annual Reunion Here This Week End

Arrangements are being made for the annual gathering of members of the Home Town Club at the Bluebonnet Country Club here Friday and Saturday, June 4 and 5. The group is composed of former early-day residents of Hico.

The meetings began seven years ago when the Hico High School Class of 1898 held a reunion here. Members of this class, eight of whom are living, have returned each year and have been joined by members of the Class of 1899 and other Hico residents of that period. Alsey Alford of Loving, N. M., of the Class of 1898, serves as corresponding secretary for the group.—Waco News-Tribune.

SINGERS TO MEET

The Erath County Singing Convention will meet Sunday, June 6, at 1:30 p. m. for its regular monthly meeting.

The public is invited to attend the singing which will be held in the Court House in Stephenville.

Hico's Little Leaguers To Play First Game in New Uniforms Soon

Hico's Little League Baseball team will open the season here next week, probably Tuesday or Wednesday in a game with Hamilton's Little Leaguers, according to a statement made by Fred Red Harris at Wednesday's Lions Club luncheon.

Harris and Sherman Roberson, who have been putting in intensive work with the little leaguers, report remarkable progress and cooperation.

The Lions heard a report of progress including an expression of appreciation for the generosity of merchants and individuals in providing 32 uniforms for as many players so they could all be suited out.

Harris, who is working with the larger boys on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, declared that "their enthusiasm just can't be beat—I have never seen a more enthusiastic group." He issued a special invitation for businessmen and the public in general to visit the lot by the old swimming pool and see for themselves the work being done.

There are 14 Little League ball clubs in a radius of 30 miles of Hico, Harris said, with most of them operating independently as does Hico's. Later it is expected to seek affiliation with the national organization which is a vast setup.

"Come down and watch us work out, then attend our games," Harris urged. "I guarantee that you will get a big bang out of it if you will take the time and trouble."

Other matters occupying the business session of the Lions Club meeting concerned plans for placards outlining holiday closing dates, and reservations for the ladies' night and installation ceremonies set for Thursday night of this week at the school cafeteria.

O. C. Stamey, President of Cisco Junior College and Deputy Gov. of Lions District 2E, was scheduled to officiate at the ceremonies and to make an address.

Local Troop of 14 Scouts Plan Busy Summer at Tahuaya

Buddy Teague will serve on the staff at Camp Tahuaya, according to an announcement from Col. Sterling Wright, camping and activities chairman for the Heart O' Texas Council. The camp is located southwest of Belton and owned and operated by the Council as a year-round camp for Scouts and Explorers. The summer camp season officially opened Sunday, May 30.

The local troop and Scoutmaster Weldon Pierce will leave Sunday, June 20, for a week at Camp Tahuaya.

Scouts and Explorers may choose from the many activities offered in camp, including archery, swimming, canoeing, rowing, trail trips, pioneering, craft work, marksmanship, nature lore, campfire and many others. Scouts will learn to live together, planning their own activities under their own unit leadership, aided by the central camp staff, in carrying out their own plans.

WITH THE COLORS

Local Cleaners Join In Drive to Brighten Up Colors for Flag Day

Drycleaners of Hico have agreed to join in a nationwide drive in which all American flags will be cleaned without charge in return for the owners' promise to display the colors on Flag Day, June 14.

The appeal was made by Bertice Barnett Jr., post commander of Byrd-King Post 333, American Legion, at Carlton, on behalf of A. O. Thalacker, President of the Detrex Corporation of Detroit, Michigan, a leading manufacturer of dry-cleaning equipment.

Window posters, identifying dry-cleaning stores as participating in the program, have been provided for display at both local establishments. Everett Cleaners and Buckhorn Cleaners. The people of this area are asked by Commander Barnett to bring their flags to such shops as soon as possible. The offer holds good until Saturday of next week, June 12.

"Along with Mr. Thalacker, I feel confident that the drycleaners of America will respond to this appeal," Commander Barnett said. "I think the time is especially fitting that more flags than ever before be displayed on this Flag Day and on the holidays that follow, too."

"But let's make sure we show our true colors—a bright and sparkling red, white and blue."

Sgt. Earle W. Nole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nole, Hico Route 1, has recently attained that rank. He has also been transferred from the 42nd Infantry Division to the 9th Infantry Division, where he is now serving with Headquarters Battery, 26th FA Battalion.

Wommack Implement Appointed Local Dealer For Goodyear Tires

In this issue appears an advertisement of a special sale on Goodyear Tires over the signature of Wommack Implement.

H. C. Wommack, who has had the Goodyear franchise since March of this year, says he plans an extensive advertising campaign on this popular brand. Included in his stock are tires for passenger cars, tractors, trucks and pickups.

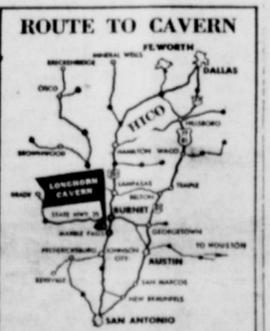

Vacationers Find Trips to Nearby Longhorn Cavern Very Fascinating

Burnet, Texas.—Sightseeing Texans have "discovered" a spectacular scenic wonder within the state's own borders—Texas Longhorn Cavern, the third largest in the world.

A trickle of visitors to the giant cave became a flood last year, Manager H. H. (Hob) Galloway said, and a record number of vacationers, tourists and just folks driving by are expected this summer. Over a quarter of a million sight-seers from all over the country already have explored the cavern.

Longhorn Cavern State Park and the adjacent Inks State Park are particularly beautiful at this time of year, when the wild flowers are in bloom. Mr. Galloway pointed out. The road to the cavern from U. S. Highway 281, is six miles of pavement that winds and dips through rolling fields of colorful daisies, black-eyed Susans, Indian paint-brush, gallardia, purple sage, yucca and cacti of various types.

The cavern country has likewise grown in popularity as a refreshing new vacationland. Mr. Galloway said. Four beautiful lakes have been created as an integral part of the Lower Colorado River Authority's flood control, irrigation and power system. Lake Buchanan, largest of the group, is 32 miles long, a sail-boater's delight and a fisherman's dream lake.

Longhorn Cavern, third largest in the world, and the beautiful hill country which surrounds it, can be reached over excellent paved highways from every section of Texas. The huge cavern is one of the state's great scenic wonders.

Inks, Granite Shoals and Marble Falls lakes lie like jewels in a lovely string among the wooded hills. Hundreds of public vacation cottages are sprinkled along the shore

Meat Trade Drags,

Hurling Live Prices.
Major population centers in the Midwest and on the Eastern Seaboard reported movement of most kinds of meat at wholesale and retail levels last week were spotty and disappointing and in the main prices worked lower.

This condition was reflected in prices of most kinds of livestock in lowered prices. The beef trade was burdened with an influx of medium and low grade calf meat from the farms and plantations of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Pork prices tumbled from five to 14 cents per pound in New York area as consumers shied away from the highest pork loin prices in years. Finicky buyers with nothing else to criticize about it, were making enough of an issue about the way the pork was trimmed and the amount of fat on it, to call for a report of that fact on the national news circuits.

At virtually all points packers and wholesalers complained that cattle and calves were making unsatisfactory kills because of the evidence of "grassy" finish and fat.

Lamb buyers complained that old crop shorn lambs were showing more yearling than lamb characteristics and the "horsey" sizes and failures to "break joint" created additional hurdles. Spring lambs were reportedly in rather liberal supply, and off grades were reportedly numerous.

The Southeastern lambs were reported in heavier volume. All of this set the stage for the "June break" in cattle prices, which on Monday averaged around 50 cents to $1 per hundred, some more and some less. On top of the break of a week earlier, this moved prices nearer to levels of a year ago.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $18-$22, common and medium kinds $12-$18. Fat cows $10-$13, a few heiferish kinds to $13.50 and above. Canners and cutters largely $7-$10. Bulls $9-$14.50, a few higher. Good and choice slaughter calves $18-$22; culls, common and medium kinds from $10-$17.

Listen as the Redbird Rambles

By Carolyn Holford

OVERLOOKED... mention of storm damage about a month ago at the place of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brummett near the Fairy community. This occurred when a small twister dipped down at several farms and homes in that area.

Mr. Brummett tells that his wife went into another room when the wind started blowing, and he couldn't get her to answer his call. Finally she started calling him, evidently in a plea for help. "Don't call me now," he admonished. "Call on your Lord; he'll be of more help."

OVERHEARD... is a rather amusing story that is told for the truth. It's told about a local girl who reportedly asked a preacher a rather unusual question. He was chewing gum, and she asked him if the chewing gum would go to Heaven.

Puzzled, the preacher replied that he didn't guess it would. "Well, I just wondered," she said. "You're chewing the H... out of it!"

OVERSHOT... the goal last week in criticizing the appearance of a little triangular park at the intersection of three highways entering our town. So many persons took the remark as one meant personally that they all got busy to find out who could get the job done. Don't know who did it, but the little park was neatly mowed in time for Memorial Day traffic to get a favorable glimpse of it.

We stand corrected on our statement that the park had been kept all the time by the late R. F. Wiseman. After sticking out back out, we learned that Ed Ford, who recently retired from yard work, has been doing this job for the past nine years or more, with payment by the Garden Club.

Seems the Garden Club has adopted upkeep of this park as one of their projects, and the civic committee had not known that arrangement had affected this job as well as private lawns. Word from this committee also indicates that they might plant some flowers there some time in the near future, if spare time allows.

The triangular park belongs to the city of Hico, with a provision that it shall not be used for anything commercial and must therefore remain a park. The Redbird would like very much to hear the remainder of the history of this little park, and who decided it to the public. And what of a rumor that it was intended as a site for a clubhouse for the Review Club, if it were used for anything other than a park?

Funny, isn't it, that we people go along enjoying things such as this as long as someone else is taking care of them, with hardly any thought of praise. And then when it is left undone, the blame comes quickly.

OVERDUE... lest we forget, is credit to W. R. Hampton for his neat job well done in maintaining the large City Park, which will be the scene of an estimated 100 or more family reunions in the next few months, in addition to the annual old settlers reunion in August.

The grass in this park is always well mowed, you may have noticed; croquet courts are well kept and the new pecan trees set out early this year are thriving nicely.

This lower rate will be effective throughout the ten county territory served by offices at Stephenville, Fort Worth, Cleburne, Decatur, Eastland and Comanche. With the headquarters in Stephenville, the association serves the following counties: Eastland, Erath, Comanche, Hamilton, Hood, Johnson, Parker, Somervell, Tarrant and Wise.

Loans are available to farmers, ranchers and dairymen for all types of agricultural needs such as operating expenses, livestock purchases, machinery purchases and other items related to farm and ranch operations.

Members of the board include R. Cal McCurdy, Wise County; F. B. Shannon, Erath County; James W. Crouch, Tarrant County; C. M. McCala, Eastland County and T. W. Winters, Hamilton County.

OF THE PEOPLE By Jean de la Motte

OLD Si Bates had always wanted to be a politician. So when the railroad pensioned him off several years ago, he started looking around for alliances.

At first the organization boys refused to take Si seriously. But the old man was persistent. Real politicians are made that way, he had once heard, so every meeting found him sitting there on the front row and seconding motions.

That's how he happened to be around when it occurred one day to the fellows who ran the show that they could use just such an old fumbler as Si.

The old railroader was exactly what they needed to put up against Bill Higgins. Running against Higgins added up to outright political suicide—everyone in the district realized that, of course—everyone except old Si. So they endorsed him.

Si was grateful. And he was proud, so almighty proud that not even his best friends had the heart to tell him he didn't have a chance.

But he won. Everybody on the ticket won. The election turned out to be one of those landfalls not even the most active precinct scufflers had dared to hope for. After it was all over but the official count, every member of the party was glad they had filled the slate, even down to old Si's place.

The retired railroader had been so busy shaking hands and taking folks down to the roundhouse to show them old faithful No. 78—queen of an engine, he would tell them, while passing out his campaign cards through the cab window—he had had no time to even consider the possible cost of holding office.

Living in Washington might turn out to be expensive, Si thought. He confided that apprehension to the county captain. The boss smiled and told the old man in a kind way that he hadn't been running for Congress anyway, but for the state assembly. It hurt Si's pride, but the boss pointed out that he could afford Capital City.

The assembly moved rapidly. Si went to all the lobby dinners and sat around watching the other lawmakers doing this and that and talking about all sorts of things he didn't realize he understood until they told him so.

And he voted, too. His single vote defeated one measure the caucus had decided to support. It wasn't that Si was disloyal, because he had promised to back it, too, but he hadn't recognized the bill when it came up on the floor for a vote.

"Oh, well," he told the chairman, "it probably wasn't a very good bill, anyway."

It was only two weeks until adjournment when old Si woke up to the fact that he hadn't introduced a bill of his own yet. So he began looking around for something which could still stand some more legislation.

The others hadn't left much. But old Si found one thing. It turned out to be the little handcars which had always been the source of such irritation during all those years he had spent on the railroad. Every handcar should be equipped with tail lights, the old engineer was convinced.

Senator Waters drafted the bill for him, and the next day there was old Si's name on the official record. He collected 300 copies and mailed them to all his relatives, friends on the railroad, and other constituents.

Adjournment day arrived and the session ended. Old Si had forgotten about his bill in the excitement of those closing days. But after the frenzy subsided, he began to wonder what had happened.

Finding its number among those killed, the old railroader fumed with indignation. He read through the roll call to find the names of those who had voted against his bill.

Anderson... Appleton... Atwell... Bates... He had voted "No."

Fly Control Measure Is a Community And Individual Duty

Austin, June 1.—The Texas State Department of Health urges strict attention to sanitation as a fly control measure. The main sanitation problems responsible for fly production are neglected phases of community clean up, like garbage storage, disposal, animal shelters and insanitary disposal of decaying industrial wastes.

Now is a good time to clean up the insanitary conditions around your town and home. Every time you destroy a breeding place, you stop whole colonies of flies before they can start. Insecticide spraying is effective only after a complete clean-up job and only if sanitary conditions are maintained throughout the year.

Proper garbage storage is one of the most important factors in good sanitation. Garbage should be stored in water tight, galvanized metal containers with a tight lid. Dispose of all cans, bottles and other rubbish. Proper disposal of garbage collected is equally important in the prevention of fly breeding areas.

Another measure in proper fly control is proper screening of homes. Each householder should check the screens on his house for holes that will allow flies to enter. Repairing of screens will help to protect food from contamination by fly borne disease organisms.

The importance of fly control can be realized when it is known that flies carry and spread such diseases as typhoid fever, the dysenteries, infant diarrhea and other diseases. Fly control is an individual and community duty. It is the job of every person and every locality and the results will benefit everyone.

CONGRESSIONAL

What are the largest committees in Congress—that is, the ones with the most members?

The Appropriations Committees of both houses have the most members assigned to them. The Senate group has 23 members, and at present includes 12 Republicans and 11 Democrats. The House Committee has 50 Representatives, divided 30-20 in favor of the GOP. Total committee membership is determined by the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, but party ratios on committees are subject to informal agreement among leaders, then ratified by vote of the chamber.

Does the Senate regularly revise its rules?

There has been no general revision of Senate rules in this century and only four in U. S. history, according to a Jan. 18 statement of Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D., N. M.), who is co-sponsoring a resolution that would make it easier to invoke cloture (limit debate). Anderson said general revisions were made in 1806, 1820, 1865 and 1884. The Constitution gives each house of Congress the right to formulate its own rules.

I notice that many Members of the House have introduced bills providing for a memorial to Christopher Columbus, and that each Member offered his own bill. Why couldn't they have introduced just one multi-sponsored measure, as Senators do?

The interpretation placed on the Rules of the House of Representatives prevents multi-sponsored bills in that chamber. A special House committee unanimously recommended in 1909 that the sometimes-used practice should not be allowed, and the House adopted its recommendation, according to an annotation, clause 4, rule XXII. By March 9 of this year, 77 Representatives had introduced measures for a Columbus memorial.

"As It Looks From Here"

OMAR BURELSON Congressman 17th District

Action is shaping up on the Number One Texas problem—water.

There is an increasing awareness of the vital need for a solution to this issue.

I have been working on this problem ever since I entered the Senate. My first major act as a Senator was a request for a comprehensive study of Texas Water reports by the Reclamation Bureau. That study remains today the only over-all attempt to solve our water difficulties. It has led to all of the other programs that have been put forward in the last two years.

At this time, I am seeking action on my proposals to build small, upstream dams. These would tackle the problem at the source of most of our difficulties.

Meanwhile, pending long range measure, action is proceeding on other fronts.

At the time this is written, there is a bill pending before the Senate to release 15 million dollars for wind erosion payments. Its chances for passage are excellent—it may be law by the time you read this letter!

This measure has been urged by the Governors of the "dust bowl" states. It would authorize payments for "deep plowing" (sometimes called "chiseling") of the soil. Payments would cover cost but could not exceed one dollar per acre.

The bill would be a healthy first step towards recovery from soil erosion. But other steps are needed. Farmers have exhausted their capital in months of battling drought. Some form of rehabilitation is in order! Neither must we forget the communities which have been set back by the long, dry weather.

But above all, we must realize that any break in the drought is only part of a cycle! What has happened before, can happen again. The drought can return and reap another harvest of misery—unless we are prepared.

We must get down to some basic fundamentals. The good Lord has entrusted to us a certain amount of natural resources. The most precious are soil and water. Without them, we cannot live. Without them, there can be no future for ourselves and our children.

We cannot increase those resources no matter what we do. We can only make intelligent use of the resources we have! If we exercise our God-given intelligence, they will last indefinitely for ourselves and our children. We can even increase their yield. But if we sit idly while they blow away, there will be no future! At the present rate of population expansion, we will feel the pinch in less than a generation!

What can we do? We can build dams that will hold back the flood waters and leave our topsoil intact. We can build reservoirs that will store water as though it were more precious than rubies—which it is! We can step up our research into converting fresh water from sea water. We can investigate rain-making further—so we can dump the moisture in the air on dry—rather than sodden—land.

Above all, we can become water conscious! We have plenty of plans. We have plenty of skill. What we need is action! Action will come when we are determined and that can't be too soon!

OFFICE RECORD: On a recent Thursday, we signed and mailed 2,037 letters to Texans in all parts of Texas, an all-time record for the office of your Senator. We hope you folks will continue to write. Your views and suggestions are most helpful to me in my work here.

HENRY GRADY MITCHELL

Henry Grady Mitchell was born at Iredell on Feb. 17, 1871, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mitchell, now deceased, and passed away May 24, 1954 at Galveston. He was better known as "Uncle Bud". He was in bad health for a long time. He was operated on and seemed to be doing fine but something went wrong and he passed on.

He was a good Christian man, and was a member of the Iredell Baptist Church. He spent his life in Iredell and had many friends, and he was a friend to all and would render aid to any and every one, for he did what he could. He was a regular attendant at all the church services of his church. He is greatly missed by his wife, who is lonely without him, and the children will miss him. He also is missed in town, for he came most every day. But now he is gone. He lived out his days and God called him and he was ready to go, where he will never suffer any more. I regarded him as a good friend. I knew him when he was a young man.

He married Miss Ida Guinn in 1895 in the fall. He was retired from his profession of farming. He would keep up some of the graves at the old cemetery as long as he was able and he did his work well.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Iredell Baptist Church. Rev. Ray Ellis conducted the services. The floral offerings were large and beautiful. The pallbearers were Charlie and Howard Myers, Homer Gosdin, Wick Simpson, Gilbert and Bill Helm. A large crowd of relatives and friends attended. The store closed for respect for him. Interment was in the new cemetery with Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home of Hico in charge.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Mitchell; one daughter, Mrs. H. B. Tuscen of Hot Springs, New Mexico; three sons, Loll Mitchell, Oakland, Calif., Randall Mitchell, Odessa and Claude Mitchell, Arlington; one sister, Mrs. George Addie Brownwood; one brother, C. A. Mitchell, Iredell; also seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends. A large number from out of town attended the funeral.

Mrs. Mitchell and other relatives have the sympathy of their many friends.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. George Addie and daughter, Katharine, Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mitchell, Garland; Rex Mitchell, Ranger; Ralph Mitchell and son, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell and daughter, Mae, of Springtown; Claude Mitchell, Arlington and two children of Waco; Randall Mitchell, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hubbard, Mrs. Ruby Miller, Mr. Will Conley and son, Lesley, and Mrs. Wilda Mitchell, Stephenville, and Mr. W. Guinn of Collin County, and also a host of friends from out of town.

Mr. Mitchell was the third child of the late Daniel Loll and Eliza Jane Mitchell.

Texans Urged Against Making Pets of Newborn Animals, Birds

Austin, June 1.—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said Texans have a good opportunity to prove their real friendship for wildlife during the coming weeks by not trying to make pets of baby animals and birds.

He said many persons still have the mistaken impression that newborn animals, such as fawn deer, are frequently abandoned by their mothers. This, he explained, usually leads to well-meant, but costly efforts to adopt the little ones.

"Much of this misunderstanding compromises city folks," said the Executive Secretary. "On their outings to the country, they come upon fawns and other wildlife babies. They do not understand that the mothers of the 'abandoned' species usually are standing by just out of sight to reclaim their youngsters as soon as the visitors depart."

The Executive Secretary suggested those in doubt should check with their local game warden. The warden usually convinces the persons concerned that they are merely interfering with wildlife affairs. In any event, a permit is required to retain the game. "If possession does seem reasonable," he said, "the animals ultimately make a nuisance of themselves and some of them actually become dangerous."

Yet, despite this potential menace, hundred of persons each spring "adopt" wild animals. One medium-sized city in Texas had seven pet deer reported within a short period last year. The local game warden had great difficulty in convincing the well-intentioned benefactors that they were interfering with natural processes.

"The best policy," cautioned the Executive Secretary "is to leave the young animals alone and let nature take its course."

BERRY-WALLER VOWS Miss Patricia Ann Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Berry of 831 Athens Ave., San Antonio and Charles Fred Waller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Waller of Corrigan, were united in marriage last Saturday, May 29, at 8:00 p. m. at the South San Antonio Church of Christ, with Minister Harold V. Trimble officiating.

A quartet sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" preceding the impressive double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin, with nylon lace trim and satin covered buttons. The groom wore a tuxedo and his hair set with seed pearls was shoulder length. She carried a white Bible covered with her bride's bouquet, the center of which was corsage of white carnations and a touch of blue satin ribbon streamers to wear on her going away trip. The groom wore a navy blue business suit.

Miss Peggy Thomas was maid of honor and Miss Laura Helen Andrews was bridesmaid. Miss Thomas' gown was a pastel pink nylon net and Miss Andrews wore a pastel blue nylon net. Ben Adams, a former roommate of the groom while attending Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches, was best man, with Jesse Buffington of Caldwell as groomsman. Ushers were Luther Upton of Oklahoma City and Stan Berry Jr., brother of the bride.

The church was beautifully decorated with lacy fern. At the conclusion of the ceremony the quartet sang "My God and I". As the mothers of the bride and groom were ushered from the church the quartet sang "Blest Be the Tie."

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The serving table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth with a center decoration of white carnations, gladioli and blue delphiniums with a miniature bride and groom a three-tier in snow white with lacy fern. The wedding cake was decorated. Two other cakes used in serving bore decorations of "Good Luck Charlie" and "Best Wishes Pat". Delicious fruit punch was served from a crystal punch bowl with a pure silver dipper. Ladies who served were Mrs. A. J. Skiles, Mrs. K. C. Thomas, Mrs. Bill Dube and Mrs. Alice Kleiser, long-time friends of the bride and family. Miss Kay Shirley was in charge of the brides book.

The bride graduated from South San Antonio High School May 25, 1964. She has been rather popular in her school work having been chosen to represent the school at several conventions, one of which was a two weeks trip to Monolton, Ark., last summer representing the Junior Red Cross. She attended the FHA convention at Fort Worth recently as a voting delegate. The groom is a graduate of Corrigan High School. After graduating from high school he received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from Stephen F. Austin College. He is at present a trainee instructor at San Antonio of which he has 2 more years service. After June 15, they will be at home at 415 Wilcox Ave., San Antonio.

Many people from out of town attended the wedding. Those from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lackey and Harold of Fairy, Mr. and Mrs. Don Beck of Stephenville, the ladies being aunts of the bride, and Mr. O. P. Berry of Hamilton, grandfather of the bride. The bride's mother is the former Miss Velma (Bob) Sills of near Fairy.

This finds most everyone rushing around with farm work, canning and such like. The intermittent showers last week greatly retarded farm work, especially combining, however much of the grain has been combined and the yield is very good considering the dry weather in the early spring. We only received about two-tenths of an inch of rain during these showers. We learned Sunday that about one and a half inches of rain and considerable hail was received in the south part of the county last Friday afternoon. The A. H. Sumnerfords stated they were in the path of this rain and hail and received like amounts.

Our school closed Wednesday of last week with a large crowd present to enjoy the program for the day and all enjoyed a beautiful basket lunch at the school sym. Letter "F" awards were presented to a number of pupils. We will try and give a list of these later, as soon as the names of the recipients are available. The senior commencement exercises were held last Thursday night week, with five class members. These being Ruth McKandless, salutatorian, Joyce Fields, valedictorian, Bobby Prater, Kenneth Knapp and Glenn Arrant. Mr. Robert Jackson of Hico addressed the class with Prof Hanes presenting the diplomas.

The elementary commencement exercises were held Tuesday night of last week with six members of the class, these being Gay Gordon, valedictorian and Kay Gordon, salutatorian, Frank Fields, Harry Thornton, Joe Knapp and Joyce Sullivan. Rev. Bill Stone of Fort Worth, pastor of the Fairy Baptist Church addressed the class, with presentation of diplomas by Prof Hanes. B. A. Gleason gave the invocation and Miss Martha Hanes played the processional and recessional.

Preparations are getting under way to begin work on the school project within a few days. A new elementary school building will be built with a lot of much needed improvements on other buildings. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Ercy Parks was a patient in the Hico Hospital the first of the week and while there received a physical examination.

The writer attended singing at Hasse near Comanche, Sunday afternoon, accompanying the Sumnerfords from Hamilton. On our return to Hamilton we visited in the Willis Oglesby home and were very sorry to find that Mrs. Oglesby had been confined to bed for a week due to what doctor thought to be a possible heart ailment. Mrs. Oglesby, who is the former Miss Verla Penny of Fairy, has many friends in this section who will be hoping to hear of her improvement soon. Her mother, Mrs. Minnie (Penny) McCarty makes her home with her daughter. She has been bedridden for several years. The Oglesby's daughter-in-law and baby, Mrs. Valvin Oglesby of Florence is staying with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited a while Sunday night in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton. Birthdays for this month are Mrs. T. L. Betts, June 2; Mrs. D. E. Allison, Dublin, June 5; Mrs. Gladys Cox and our late husband, J. O. Richardson, June 9; Carolyn Sellers, June 14; Mrs. J. J. Leeth, Hico, June 18; Mrs. Leeth, who is in her 94th year has been bedridden for several years due to a hip fracture and greatly enjoys cards, letters and her local papers, and is a former resident of Fairy, and we are asking all who know her to make her heart glad by remembering her with a card or letter on her birthday. We hope you keep this in mind and don't forget her.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Ted Bankston of Temple a patient in the Kings Daughters Hospital at Temple. Mrs. Bankston is the former Miss Irene Blakley of near Fairy. Her two children are at present staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakley. We hope she is soon much improved.

A large crowd was present last Saturday night at the Agee Church to attend a wedding shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Burt Lewis of Fort Worth, with Mrs. J. W. Ballard, Mrs. J. A. Edwards, Mrs. Marvin Noland and Mrs. Randall Campbell as hostesses. Sacred singing by choir and prayer by Mrs. Herbert Thornton preceded the presentation of gifts, which were opened by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and passed for inspection. They received a nice assortment of nice and useful gifts. Refreshments of iced punch and cake was served to those present.

Mr. Leslie and Ted Arrant and his sister, Mrs. John Abel and son Louis of Fort Worth spent the week end at Colorado City visiting their sister and aunt and family. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shepherd and family. Mrs. Shepherd has been seriously ill, having undergone major surgery recently, but we are glad to report her able to be up a little now.

Agee Baptist Church Auditorium Will Be Dedicated Sunday

The new church auditorium at Agee Baptist Church will be dedicated this coming Sunday, June 6, with Dr. T. C. Gardner, General Director of the Baptist Training Union Department; Dr. W. A. Todd, Chairman of the Bible Department of Howard Payne College; Dr. D. D. Tidwell, Professor of Bible at Howard Payne College; and Rev. Clifford Nelson, District Sixteen Missionary, as guest speakers throughout the day. The new auditorium has been built in order to have a more complete worship program and meet the demand for more room. With maximum use of the new building, the seating capacity is double that of the old auditorium. Specialists in the field of church buildings were consulted to assure proper floor space and design. The efforts put forth by the church have resulted in one of the finest rural church buildings in this section of the state. The building, fixtures, and additional seats are free of any debt.

The Agee Baptist Church wishes to take this opportunity to thank the many friends who made contributions to the new church. The church is also indebted to the Southern Baptist Convention and to Dr. T. C. Gardner, Appreciation contractor to the building contractor, Don Cameron of Meridian, for a fine job.
