Austin, Oct. 6.—Secretary of State C. E. Fulgham has certified names for the state's November election ballot with two contests arising over who'll be on the fall marker sheets.

Not certified by Fulgham was Gerald Weatherly of Rio Grande City. Attempting to file as an independent candidate for district attorney in the Duval-Jim Wells-Starr County contest of boss George Farr, Weatherly was turned down by Fulgham, who said his petition for a place on the ballot contained numerous inaccuracies.

Other contests were between Eugene C. Williams and Adrian Spears for the Democratic nomination for judge of the Thirty-seventh District Court in Bexar County. It is due for a quick hearing by the Supreme Court.

Williams was certified by Fulgham, but a San Antonio court later ordered Williams' name off the ballot in favor of Spears. Spears was the choice of a Bexar County district delegation that failed to get seated at the state Mineral Wells Convention.

Insurance.
Who is the Liquidator for the State Board of Insurance Commissioners responsible to—the state or the courts that appoint him?

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd answered the question and also poked some light into a current insurance feud by ruling that the state employs the Liquidator.

Renne Alfred, chief counsel for Liquidator J. D. Wheeler, had refused to vacate his post upon an order from the Board. Alfred claimed that he was responsible to the courts which appointed him as counsel.

Shepperd's ruling was expected to have some bearing on the controversy which has already seen the Insurance Board halt Alfred's $1,000 per month salary.

Water Conservation.
Two plans calling for state financing of water conservation dams in Texas are due to be presented to the legislature in January.

Rep. Harold B. Parish of Portland announced he will sponsor a constitutional amendment calling for a state bond issue and a state tax to finance building of dams by local governments.

Employment.
Texas' employees will total record numbers by mid-October if expectations hold true, the Texas Employment Commission reports.

Hospital Volunteers.
A tribute to state volunteer workers caring for 24,000 patients and pupils in Texas state hospitals has come from James A. Bethea, director of the hospital and special school system.

The taxpayer furnishes most of the necessities, he pointed out, but extras like television sets and friendly visitors must come from the outside.

Consumers Spending.
Consumers' spending over the state in August averaged above seasonal expectations with some goods establishing definite sales jumps.

The Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas also noted that sales of older automobiles had improved while new car sales continued slow.

Garden Clubs.
A "don't be a litterbug" campaign to keep highways and roadside parks clean has drawn a commendation for the Texas Garden Clubs from the Texas Highway Commission.

In adopting a resolution commending the organization for the cleanliness drive, the Department stated that "expressions of praise from tourists and motorists" for attractive state road-side results resulted from the club effort.

Fire Losses.
Texas will lose 8,000 homes to fire during 1954, an insurance industry official has estimated.

Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Industry Advisory Association, said fire ruins 20 Texas homes per day.

Other losses during the first nine months of 1954 averaged one school every three days, one church every six days, a hotel every two and a half days and a hospital every three weeks, Parker said.

Drought.
Texas' drought problems continue to grow over most of the state, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Numbers of wheat farmers in the High Plains area have stopped their fall planting, hesitating to risk more grain unless rain comes, the USDA said.

Oats plantings also were reported moving slowly. Cotton harvest in South Texas are completed with harvesting now beginning in the irrigated High Plains districts.

Rice harvesting is about three-fourths complete and peanut harvesting has just begun, the USDA reported.

Hico Wins B-V Pennant, Hot Game Due Sunday With Lewis' All-Stars

By LEON LEWIS

Well, Billy Jo Stasey does it again! Wins the 1954 Bosque Valley Baseball League pennant in a hard-fought game at City Park in Dublin Sunday, the game going eleven-innings, with the score 3 to 2 in Hico's favor.

Young went all the way for Hico, Wimpy Salyer all the way for Dublin. This is four out of six seasons that Joe has won the pennant. The other winners were Alexander and Iredell.

Joe does a lot of fooling around in the regular season but always manages to get in the play-off games, and seems to always do the right thing at the right time. His players stick with him like leeches and play their heart out.

But wait until you see my game Sunday at Meador Field in Hico. I am going to show the fans how to beat Joe and his Bombers. This will be the last game this season and I am personally going to manage this game.

You have not yet seen a ball game or a crowd until you see the All-Star vs. Hico game Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Be there. Starts promptly at 2:30 p. m.

Two Exciting Games Due on Next Week's Humble TV Program

The most exciting plays from two of the games to be played Saturday by Southwest Conference teams will be featured on Humble Oil & Refining Company's TV program, Texas in Review. Kern Tins, who heads Humble's football announcing staff, will comment on key plays from the Texas-Oklahoma, and Baylor-Arkansas games.

Other items of interest to Texans will be the crowning of the Rose Queen at Tyler's famous annual Rose Festival; and Kerrville's bustling Park Improvement Day, during which the citizens use bulldozers and equipment lent from all over the hill country, to beautify the built-in-a-day Park.

Texas in Review can be seen Monday, Oct. 11, on KRLD-TV, Dallas, at 7:30 p. m., and WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, at 8:00 p. m., and several other stations.

The program will be carried again Tuesday, Oct. 12, over KCEN-TV, Temple, at 8:30 p. m.

Gustine Defeats Iredell in First Conference Game

The Gustine power-laden club, led by Denny Pettijohn pulled ahead in the fourth quarter to subdue a stubborn Iredell club by a score of 44 to 19 last Thursday night.

The Iredell club had made two fine goal line stands and had played an excellent game until finally worn down by the superior weight and speed of the Gustine team.

Pettijohn passed for three touchdowns in the fourth period to put the game on ice. It was anybody's ball game at the end of the third quarter, with the score 24 to 19 in favor of Gustine. This was the first conference game for both clubs.

The Dragons take on Jonesboro on the Iredell field Thursday night of this week. Jonesboro is due to have only a fair club and Iredell is expected to win this one. Game time is 7:30 and fans are promised a fine, flashy game.

Local Schools Observe Fire Prevention Week As Community Benefit

Much interest is being demonstrated in the observance of Fire Prevention Week here. The school participates in this program for two reasons:

1. To make the school students more fire conscious.
2. To satisfy serving requirements set up by the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Students in the 3rd, 5th, 6th, 8th, 10th, and 12th grades are asked to make a poster or write a theme. The posters will be exhibited throughout next week at the school.

Special recognition will be given to the winners in each grade for the best theme and poster in the two separate schools.

The Hico Volunteer Fire Dept. is giving special recognition to the first, second, and third place winners of both Elementary and High Schools.

— H H S — THE WHEEL OF PROGRESS

The following is the original script prepared by Mrs. Bryan Angell for the "Wheel of Progress" that was formed during half-time at the Homecoming game Friday night.

The public schools system of Hico within a period of 73 years has developed into a plant of five buildings where courses are taught by a faculty of 16. In the high school units 29 affiliated credits are offered. The present enrollment in elementary school is 218, in high school 118, making a total of 336.

The most important group—the school board—represents the hub of our educational wheel of progress. Without whom there would be no beginning, no progress, no present or future. The members are W. M. Horsley, chairman; J. B. Woodard, secretary; Grady Hooper, Conda Salmon, Wayne Rutledge, Milburn Knudson and V. H. Jenkins. It is the responsibility of the board to act as a policy making body, to appoint a competent superintendent, appoint teachers and approve their qualifications, and determine the objectives of various school programs. One of the most important duties is to administer an $85,000 budget—no simple matter.

The founding fathers of Hico, realizing the importance of education for their children, erected in 1881 a wooden frame building of two stories—the upper one reserved for use of the Masonic order. Finding this building inadequate, an L was added. Only elementary grades were taught. Mrs. Will Autrey enrolled in this school the first day it opened. Mr. and Mrs. Autrey represent the first spoke of the educational wheel.

In 1893 (12 years later) a new public school was erected to care more adequately for Hico's educational needs. The courses were held by the Hico Future Homemakers and six members were awarded junior degrees at the P-TA meeting Monday night at the high school auditorium. The degrees will go to Jerre Dunklin, Bonnie Pierce, Betty Booth, Joyce Rae Lowe, Julia Ann Hedges and Wanda Roberson.

Officers that were installed are Joyce Rae Lowe, president; Nancy Stephens, vice-president; Betty Booth, secretary; Margo Partain, treasurer; Julia Ann Hedges, reporter; Peggy Warren, song-leader; Jerre Dunklin, parliamentarian; Katherine Sparks, historian; Deborah Pruett, pianist; Georgia Holladay, program chairman, and Jean Clark, sergeant-at-arms, and the sponsor is Mrs. Sammie Tate Pittman.

The retiring president is Linda Cox. Mrs. Pittman and Julia Hedges attended the area IV executive planning meeting in Stephenville on September 25. The members of the third year homemaking class are re-upholstering the furniture in the home-making cottage. The first and second year classes are studying food preparation.

— H H S — HIGH SCHOOL ROOM MOTHERS

The high school room mothers met with each class last week and planned the first parties of the year. The freshmen will have a hayride and Weiner roast Oct. 8; the sophomores have planned a hayride and Weiner roast Nov. 18; the junior class will have a hayride and Weiner roast in November; and the senior class will have a Weiner roast Nov. 22.

The high school room mothers are as follows: Freshman class, Mrs. W. M. Horsley, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. H. W. Sherrard and Mrs. Cecil Aycock; Sophomore class, Mrs. Ray Stipe, Mrs. J. J. Teague, and Mrs. Leland Johnson; Junior class, Mrs. C. W. Salmon, Mrs. Raymond Lowe, and Mrs. James Sparks; Senior class, Mrs. Jess Rainwater, Mrs. Jack Mayfield and Mrs. Wayne Rutledge.

Prison System.
Costs of maintaining the Texas Prison System increased slightly during last year because of a 500-inmate boost in population, State Auditor C. H. Cavness has reported.

However, he noted that the average daily cost per inmate was cut from $1.20 to 70 cents during the year.

In 1953 the old grammar school building was raised to make way for a truly dream elementary school, a building of beauty and efficient planning for all elementary school needs. The faculty consists of Mrs. R. B. Jackson, Mrs. John Appleby, Mrs. O. C. Cook, Mrs. Bernell Jernigan, Mrs. Leroy Chandler, Mrs. Joe B. Taylor, Roy Reese, and Mr. Leroy Chandler, principal.

Forming the rim of our wheel is the public school band, organized in 1937. It has continued from year to year under able instruction.

Tigers Toss Away Early Lead to Lose Evant Game 19 to 7

By BUCK MEADOR

The local Tiger football team, playing before the annual homecoming crowd, dropped their fourth game of the season last Friday night, losing in the second half to the Evant Elks by a score of 19-7.

The Tigers jumped into a 7-0 first quarter lead, only to see Evant storm back with a touchdown in the second stanza to cut Hico's lead to one point at the intermission.

The Tigers got every break in the books and still wouldn't take advantage of them in the second half. The boys simply gave the ball game away, as they have the previous three games that they have played this year. Some of the boys kept trying to hold the Evant team down, but the others on the field didn't seem to care whether they won or lost. It takes team work to win ball games—something that Hico doesn't have. If the boys will quit loafing and play the brand of football they are capable of playing, they can still win two or three games.

Hico's first touchdown came in the first quarter after Sherrel Kirk intercepted a pass on the Elk eleven yard line. On the first play after the interception, Kirk fumbled but teammate John Haley was there to pounce on the ball at the Elk 9. Jerry Needham picked four yards to the 5 and hit the line for 3 more yards to the 2, from where Ronald McKenzie slipped over on a quarterback sneak for the first score. Kirk plunged over for the extra point to make the score 7-0.

Buddy Teague stopped an Elk march down on Hico's 25 yard line when he intercepted a pass and ran back out to the 36. Three plays later and Evant had possession on Hico's 34, after a bad pass from center on fourth down never got to the kicker. A pass completion good for 20 yards and a 12 yard run put the ball on the Tiger 2 yard line, from where Bobby Whitcraft plowed over for the touchdown. Try for point was no good and Hico still led 7-4 at the end of the half.

In the third quarter, Teague again stopped an Evant scoring threat when he recovered a fumble on Hico's 8 yard line. Evant came back to block the Tigers' kick and took over on the 4 yard line. On the first play Evant drove over the goal line, but the ball carrier fumbled in the end zone and Hico recovered for a touchback. No points were involved on the play but Hico got the ball on their own 20. On the first play from this point McKenzie ran 31 yards to the Evant 49 but Hico could never move beyond that point and Evant took the kick on their own 26. Five plays later, Bob Sawyer went over from the 8 yard line to cap a 76 yard march. Extra point was good and the Elks led 13-7 at the end of the third quarter.

Following the kickoff Evant intercepted a Tiger pass on the 36 to set up their final tally of the evening. Two plays later and it was again Bob Sawyer who broke over right tackle for 28 yards to run the score to 19-7, and that was the ball game.

The Tigers were playing at Gatesville Thursday night so no report of this game was available for this issue. Their next game will be Oct. 15, when they open district play at Cranfills Gap.

SCANNING THE NEWS

WHILE nobody yet knows just what the new Federal tax law passed by the 83rd Congress will actually do, generally speaking corporations come in for the lions share of the reductions, or about 75c out of every dollar of cuts. Individuals with incomes over $5,000 will get about 18c out of that dollar reduction with those under $5,000 getting about 9c.

The administration in rewriting the tax law to provide for some tax relief has been caught on the horns of a dilemma... either cut taxes, and take a chance, or continue the higher tax rate and meet the military problem. It decided to take a chance. And it looks like now that in so doing the budget deficit next year will further be out of balance than it is today. The deficit at the end of the fiscal year was something under $3 billion. Under the new tax law, most certainly revenues will be considerably lower next year. On top of this there is every indication that defense expenditures must be considerably stepped up and as a matter of fact there may be some difficulty in remaining under the debt limit, now upped $6 billions to $281 billion.

The only saving factor is that the government has approximately $61.4 billions of dollars on hand in appropriated money, not yet spent, from which it can draw for defense spending. Some of these unexpended balances date back as far as fiscal 1949.

Here are the figures: Congress in fiscal 1949 appropriated $40.8 billion and the government spent $39.5 billion; in 1950 congress appropriated $50.2 billion and government spent $39.6 billion; in 1951 $84.1 was appropriated and $44.1 spent; in 1952 $92.9 billions appropriated, $65.4 spent; in 1953, $80.2 billions appropriated, $74 billions spent; in 1954 $61.3 billions appropriated, $67.6 spent; in fiscal 1955, $47.7 appropriated, estimated expenditures $65.6. Total appropriations $487.2 billions; expenditures $395.8 billions. Balance in unexpended funds $61.4 billions.

In spite of, or perhaps, because of a 13-day filibuster, two conference committee hearings and weeks of testimony, the congress came up with a workable and practicable law in opening up the titanic atomic energy development to private monopolists dream, but was almost completely rewritten by the committee and in conference as a result of amendments from the floor so that the principal defects were corrected. The final bill has these objectives in mind: (1) to make sure the national safety and security is maintained; (2) to direct development of atomic energy so as to strengthen free competition; (3) to prevent monopoly; (4) to provide for compulsory cross-licensing of patents for five years so that patents are open to every corporation upon payment of adequate royalty fee; (5) to keep title to all atomic energy material in the United States; (6) to prevent any one licensee from obtaining sufficient uranium or other nuclear material to make an atomic weapon, and (7) to provide public power bodies may be licensed as well as private.

ACROSS THE DESK

From the Seville Chronicle, Seville, Ohio: Saturday afternoon was pretty dull downtown, and oldtimers were threatening to get out the depression checkerboards.

Fact is, people seemed to be shopping out of town. One place we were led out to the street to see all the expensive two-hour parking signs surrounded by no potential violators.

The general consensus was that the give-away programs and carnival atmosphere of the shopping centers were attracting a lot of people who don't want that sort of thing in Seville.

One merchant thought we ought to have something here to entertain any chance shoppers who drifted into Seville... an outdoor movie or something.

We said Seville was too pretty a town to clutter up with riff raff for a movie, so the merchants said they'd settle for a well-advertised lynching.

Now we know how a local merchant is asked to, and who gives, to all things that make a community a good place to live, feels when people ignore solid home values to pursue a will-o-wisp. We feel the same way when we see local merchants advertising in out-of-town throw-aways and handbills, which contribute nothing to the community in service or taxes. And we know that price and value isn't as big a factor as novelty.

So we came back to the office feeling depressed—ready to sell out to "interests." We aren't sure what "interests" are, but they are what poor but honest newspaper men sell out to in the books we read. (pronounced read)

Then, doggone it, customers started to come in. There were three in a row, and we must have taken in almost a dollar altogether!

And right away we brightened up and reached a remarkable conclusion.

It isn't altogether the money loss that hurts a man when his neighbors go down those crowded, dangerous highways to contribute to some other school district's tax dollar. No sir! Part of it is sheer loneliness.

From the Lenoir Times, Lenoir, North Carolina: Who can remember the "old fashioned days" when Lenoir had comfortable benches located in some of the city's shaded uptown (Court-house, Main St., etc.) areas for convenience of out-of-town shoppers and visitors. How about restoring this custom? We certainly think the benches would be for the benefit of the merchants. Mind you, we're not referring to benches for the so-called "town loafers"—but for visitors.

Fairy
By
Mrs. Eunice Massengale
This community has been wonderfully blessed with some two or more inches of rain. Some of the grain that was sown before the rain is coming up. Fields and pastures are beginning to look green. The rain has also afforded some water in pastures. It seems quite a change to have a little mud around, but we feel sure all are glad to have to bring out mud scrapers and door mats. We have been informed that Raymond Jones of the Lanham community had to kill his two valuable stock dogs, as both were thought to be rabid. They had not bitten anything that they knew of. A goodly number from Fairy attended funeral services for Mr. A. R. (Albert) Hoover of Dublin last Thursday afternoon.

Another huge rattlesnake was killed Monday of last week by Mrs. Carl Laird, at the city dump grounds near Hamilton. Mrs. Laird and her small son were hunting rabbits when she came upon the six-foot reptile with fourteen rattles and a button. Mrs. Laird shot it with a 410 gauge shotgun loaded with a slug. The first shot failed to kill the snake and their little dog, to help out, tackled the monster and was bitten. Mrs. Laird rushed the dog for serum treatment but the dog lived only a short while. A four and one-half foot rattler was found recently a block from the square in Hamilton. It was killed also. Another was found at Whiteway, on Hamilton and Jonesboro highway. This one measured five and one-half feet. So it will be well for everyone to keep on the lookout until cold weather.

Cotton pulling is almost over, however there are some farmers who have a little to pull yet. We stated last week that cotton on our place made one-fourth bale to the acre, but have since learned there was less average than we thought, and the yield was one third of a bale. T. L. Betts tells us he got a yield of one-fourth bale on his crop. And we expect the yield has been good considering the extreme dry year.

We noticed in last week's news that Ermin Jackson's arm was broken just above the elbow. It should have read just below the elbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Reubin Anderson were here Thursday of last week, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brummett and other relatives, and Mr. Anderson attended burial services for Mr. Hoover at Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Laceywell of Beaumont are visiting at this writing with his mother, Mrs. Ada Laceywell and Pat and other relatives.

Miss Ruby Jameson and niece, Misses Barbara and Jackie Lewis attended a pink and blue shower honoring their niece and cousin, Mrs. Syl Dyer of Hamilton recently. Mrs. Dyer is the former Miss Deanie May Lewis of Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison had as guests Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cason and children of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Patterson of Alexander. The ladies are the former Misses Betty and Aleene Adams of Fairy. They also visited the Fairy Cemetery while here. They are daughters of the late Ellis Adams and Mrs. Addie Adams of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison of Fort Worth came down Friday of last week. Mrs. Allison underwent minor surgery at the Hamilton Hospital on Saturday morning and is doing nicely and expected to be able to return home this week end.

We are glad to report Mrs. Byrd Slater now able to walk with the aid of a crutch. She has been confined to bed and a wheel chair for the past several months due to a paralytic stroke.

Mrs. Gladys Cox visited a while Sunday night with Mrs. Minnie McCarty at the Hurley rest home in Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver visited last Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox and watched television.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abel and Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Vance and baby daughter, Cindy, of Grand Prairie were week end guests of the ladies parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson and their sister, Gwen. Mr. and Mrs. Abel also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Abel.

Mrs. J. T. Jackson visited Mrs. C. A. Vance in the Hico Hospital Monday night. Mrs. Vance underwent surgery Monday morning.

Walter McConnell of Fort Worth visited during the week end with Miss Wilma Grace Goynes of Tarleton Station. They attended services at the Methodist Church here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellers and family of Hamilton visited Sunday in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don.

Dewey Wilson visited Sunday afternoon with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Priest of Hico.

Mrs. Clyde Blackburn and Mrs. Eunice Massengale attended singing at Stephenville Sunday afternoon. The Phillips Quartet was present, along with a large crowd from a wide territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Parks and son of Fort Worth spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Parks of Fairy and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Whitehead of Carlton.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Riley of the Lanham community was bitten on the leg by a rattlesnake Tuesday afternoon. He was rushed to Hamilton for first aid and then taken to the Hico Hospital.

Listen as the Redbird Rambles

By Carolyn Holford

PEPETE THE PYTHON is back in his cage at Forest Park Zoo, and Fort Worth residents can rest more easily.

Obviously all the reports that the 18-foot snake might swim the Trinity and endanger the lives of Dallasites was unfounded, since Pete was discovered right in his own back yard by an ambitious and loud-mouthed chimpanzee.

One question still remains for this bird-brain. Who gets the $500 reward? The chimpanzee?

A LOCAL STORY that spread as far as did the news of Pete's escape was the one carried in the Hico News Review about the painting, "The Day the Bosque Froze Over."

She believes that the painting was taken from this picture on the post card, and says that her mother, Mrs. C. R. Conley, has one of these old post cards.

Mrs. Clara McDonald Williamson was born and reared in Tredell, Charlene told us. And once again it seems that anyone who once had fond memories of that part of the country always keeps them in mind.

FURTHER EVIDENCE of this nostalgia for Hico and vicinity was seen recently when ex-students of Hico schools gathered for their annual school homecoming.

Carlton Rams Playing Turnersville This Week, Won First Three Games

Carlton's Rams, a six-man football team, went to Mt. Calm last week but rain interfered and the game was forfeited.

Improper use of gasoline was third on the list, and the improper use of kerosene was fourth. Improper installation and maintenance of gas heaters, stoves and appliances was the fifth major cause of fire deaths.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas. A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas.

FREE PRESS PRESERVED BY CONSTITUTION, COURTS. With October 1 to 8 being observed this year as National Newspaper Week, public attention is focused upon the important part which a fully informed, free and uncensored press plays in all our lives.

The right of freedom of the press is secured by the first amendment to the Federal Constitution, which says, "Congress shall make no law... abridging the freedom of... the press."

Why did the framers of New England, the planters of the South and the small storekeepers of Philadelphia, New York, and Boston insist some 180 years ago that the original Constitution be amended so that the people would be specifically guaranteed freedom of the press?

It was because the founders of our country had an abiding faith that enlightened citizens could be entrusted with the job of governing themselves.

Of course, all rights entail correlative obligations and duties. Freedom of the press is not unlimited. It does not permit license, libel, violation of the law nor interference with the orderly running of the government.

With but a few insignificant exceptions, the press of the free world has admirably justified the faith of the philosophy of the framers of the Constitution.

This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change (the application of the law).

Peace Plan for you... and 160 million others! THIS is what a country is made of. Not skyscrapers and bridges and highways—but this, the people you love. Peace is for the strong! Help keep the peace by investing in U. S. Savings Bonds!

Olin Community Youth Organize 'Sing-Song Night'

The Olin community youth have had several meetings for the purpose of singing and playing instrumental music.

Results of these get-togethers were the organizing of a community choir.

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 19, seventeen boys and girls and their sponsors, Rev. Moody Smith, pastor of the Olin Baptist Church, and Mrs. James Sparks, met in the Olin Church and organized, naming themselves, "The Lamplighters." They chose as their theme song, "Give Me Oil in My Lamp," or "Sing, Hozanna."

A contest for new members was started with the one inviting and winning the most new members to receive a song book.

Two practice nights have followed with the attendance numbering 19 and 20 respectively. This count did not include sponsors or parents who brought their children for practice.

An enrollment of 24 boys and girls has been reached. The goal is every youth in Olin community as a member.

Plans are in progress for a program where the public will be invited to hear them, and also that the "Lamplighters" may visit and sing for shut-ins and the sick of the community.

PRIZE WINNING PARTNER

By Brad Monroe

JOHNNY and Jerry walked hastily away from the railroad station and made their way up a narrow, dark street that ran parallel to the main one. They knew well enough the reception accorded vagrants by the town police, but they had to eat. And eating was much more likely in a small town than it was in the open country.

Jerry took the lead being the brains of the pair, and because his partner knew from past experience that when there was food to be gotten no one could get it more skillfully. Proceeding unobserved for several blocks they turned into a wider street. Then suddenly, Johnny was yanked bodily to the protection of a thick hedge.

"What th—", he started and then he heard voices. He peered through the branches and gasped. "Holy Smoke! Didja see that? Pirates n' knights n' Indians."

His partner grunted. "Ya sap. It's a party. A masquerade."

"With plenty to eat," Johnny moaned.

Jerry grabbed his arm. "How would ya like some of that fancy grub?"

"I'd like it fine but those people ain't good for a hand-out."

"No? Listen. It's a cinch. They'll think we're in costume with our beads and all. Get it?"

Johnny shook his head. "They'd get wise to me sure. I'll stay out here and keep a lookout."

"Okay. I'll sneak some grub out the window to you and scam out of there. So long."

Johnny watched his pal walk boldly up to the front door, knock, and when it was opened, wave his hand airily at a bored maid and pass into the house.

"Some crust," Johnny muttered. Keeping to the shadows, he crossed the lawn and reached an open window. He could see Jerry at the refreshment table drinking punch and casting sidelong glances at the sandwiches and cake. It took quite a while because the food was so popular, but finally Jerry seemed to have gathered enough. He strolled toward the open window and gazed out into the night.

Johnny hissed up at him. "Pass it down." He grabbed the food as it was dropped to him and dove back into the shadows. Any moment he expected Jerry to join him but the minutes passed and he didn't come. He made his way back to the window and peered in.

"Good gosh," he gasped. "They got him." Sure enough. The only two men who had not been in costume had Jerry firmly by the arms and were leading him toward the center of the room. He saw one man raise his arm and call for quiet. That was enough for Johnny. He decided to go while the going was good.

A disquieting thought suddenly entered his rather slow mind. If he hopped the next freight out of town and left Jerry in the lurch, his not always ample diet would become even less ample. What Jerry lacked in ambition he made up for in ability to detect free food with all the skill of a hound sniffing out rabbits. On second thought, Johnny decided, he'd lurk around town for a couple of days.

"Hey," somebody called and Johnny choked on a mouthful.

The voice came again. "Wait. It's me. Jerry. Where's my grub?"

Johnny sighed with relief. "How did you get away? I thought you were headed for the pokes."

"Naw. They didn't catch on. What about those sandwiches? Did you save me any?"

"Here. But what about those guys that grabbed you?"

"Oh, them. They were judges."

"Was it one of them that gave us ten days last time?"

"Not that kind of judge, you dummy. They gave me first prize because my costume was the most re-realistic."

"What'd they give you? Huh? What was it? Dough?"

"No dough. They gave me a lectric razor."

Recreation Building Made Possible for College at Belton

Belton, Oct. 1—A gift to Mary Hardin-Baylor College of properties valued at $125,000 was announced today by Dr. Grady Metcalf of Temple, president of the board of trustees. The gift comes from M. T. Goodman of Fort Isabel, a wealthy South Texas real estate broker and active Baptist layman, who said he was making it "because I think the nation needs more Christian mothers."

He stipulated that a recreation building costing at least $100,000 be built on the campus, construction to begin not later than March 1, 1936. The new structure will be known as the Goodman building in honor of his parents. Today's announcement came exactly 20 years from the date of a $250,000 gift to Baylor college by the late Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hardin of Burkburnett. The name of the college was changed at that time to Mary Hardin-Baylor in honor of Mrs. Hardin. Announcement of the Goodman gift came during a meeting of trustees in which L. T. Daniels of Dallas, executive secretary of the Baptist Endowment department, explained the provisions of conveyance of certain properties to the Baptist Foundation of Texas for an annuity for Mr. Goodman's lifetime. The remainder of the principal of the trust estate upon his death will be transferred and paid over to Mary Hardin-Baylor college.

FARM FIRE PREVENTION

Fire is still one of the most costly drains on a farmer's income. Last year, fires cost the American farmer an estimated $139 million in property loss alone. And more than 3,000 farm people died as a result.

The week of Oct. 3-9 is designated as National Fire Prevention week. The Texas farmer owes it to himself and his family to safeguard farm life and property.

The minimum of fire-fighting equipment on a farm should include: An adequate supply of water available in any season of the year; approved fire extinguishers conveniently placed near all hazardous locations such as the barn, machine shed and gas and kerosene storage tanks, and a garden hose or filled water barrels and buckets strategically located. Also needed are safe ladders long enough to rescue persons from the highest farm roof top, a back-pack pump, fire swatter, wet brooms or wet burlap bags to fight field fires.

Does all this sound overly cautious? It shouldn't! Below are nine major "hot spots" or main causes of farm fires. And every Texas farm is endangered by at least one, and probably more, of them. Lightning-Rod System should be checked for rods or wires that are damaged or worn. Be sure ground connections are secure. Chimneys that are defective should be replaced and heating apparatus properly installed and insulated. Keep chimneys and stoves clean.

Combustible Roofs should be protected with spark arresters on chimneys. When re-roofing, fire-resistant material is preferred.

Defective Heating Apparatus should be overhauled, cleaned and repaired. Careless Smoking and Matches cause major fires. Cultivate careful smoking habits and keep matches in metal containers away from children.

Flammable Liquids should never be stored in the house. Do not use kerosene, gasoline or any flammable liquid to start or boost fires in stoves, rangers or fireplaces.

Spontaneous Ignition often occurs in barns stored with wet hay. Rubbish should be removed from house and barns regularly and never let oily rags accumulate.

Electrical Defects should be repaired. Replace or repair defective electrical appliances and use proper fuses for your electrical circuits.

State Fair Will Name Native of Deport as Texan of Distinction

Maurice Thompson Moore, a native of Deport, Texas, and chairman of the Board of Time, Inc., publishers of some of America's most popular magazines, will receive the third annual "Texan of Distinction" award of the State Fair of Texas.

The award will be presented to the 38-year-old Texan Oct. 12 at the annual State Fair banquet.

Each year a native-born Texan who has distinguished himself in industry, science or the arts on a national scale, is named "Texan of Distinction."

Lester Lum (Tex) Colbert, president of the Chrysler Corporation, was last year's recipient, and Eugene Holman, president of Standard Oil of New Jersey, won the award in 1932.

"We feel that this award already recognized as one of the most prized honors that can be bestowed on any man by his native state," State Fair President R. L. Thornton declared. He said Moore is "a Texan really worthy of this badge of honor."

Moore is chairman of the corporation which publishes Time, Life, Fortune, Architectural Forum, House and Home, and the new magazine, Sports Illustrated. He was born in Deport, Lamar County, on March 16, 1896, son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Moore.

In 1915 he was graduated from Trinity University when the school was still located at Waxahachie. In 1920 he received a Bachelor of Laws degree from Columbia University. In 1945 he came back to Texas to receive from Trinity an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

He was admitted to the New York Bar in 1920 and has been a member of the New York law firm of Cravath, Swaine and Moore since 1926.

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Cattle Prices Better As Marketing Showed Fort Worth, Oct. 5.—The receipts of cattle and calves at Fort Worth were curtailed on the opening of the week Monday by rains in some sections of the territory which in some cases hindered movement and in others gave promise of some grazing and put out some stock water.

The prices were very mixed in the highly uneven trade with some sales fully steady to strong, and some spots 50 cents to $1 higher. Cows, slaughter calves and stockers had the better of the stronger prices, while bulls and fat steers and yearlings were fully steady to strong.

Stocker demand for cows was considerably better and some of the better kinds of plain stocker cows were up sharply compared with last week. Whether this was entirely due to firm orders, or represented some hopeful buying in view of the prospects for winter grain field grazing development, could not be ascertained immediately.

High quality stocker calves and yearlings were moving readily at stronger prices, some spots $1 up. Slaughter buyers also were pressed to get their share of the offerings and with their current killing operations geared to high levels were in need of numbers even at higher prices.

Consumer demand was apparently still at high levels despite the increased competition from beef from cheaper broilers and turkeys, as well as the swelling tide of butcher hogs that were moving into Cornbelt points.

Good and choice fat steers and yearlings cashed at $19 to $24, and common and medium sorts bulked at $10 to $18, with a few rannihan yearlings below $10 still.

Fat cows cleared at $8.50 to $11, with a few smooth high yielders to $12. Cannors and cutters sold largely at $5 to $8.50, some high yielders to $9, and still some unmailed carners of light weights below $5. Bulls cashed at $8 to $13.

Sheep and Lambs Open Fully Steady Trade was active and prices were fully steady on sheep and lambs at Fort Worth Monday as the first week of October livestock trade got underway. The run was made up largely of old ewes, with some 75 per cent of the offering of this class.

Slaughter ewes sold mostly from $4 to $5.50 and some solid mouthed ewes went back to the country at $6 to $8, with some stocker yearling ewes to $10 and better. Fat shorn lambs sold at $17 to $18, when good and choice, and the cull, common and medium varieties of lambs sold from $8 to $16. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $11 to $14. Old wethers cashed at $6 to $10, and slaughter yearlings cashed at $8 to $12.50. Old bucks drew $3 to $4, a few higher for stocker purposes.

"Blind Man's" Bluff

You know how Handy Turner down at the hardware store goes in for weird advertising stunts. Well, when it came to plugging his new Venetian blind department, his enthusiasm nearly landed him in trouble.

From where I sit, I agree—the highway is no place for jokes. We all ought to be considerate of the other fellow when we're driving. In fact, let's respect our neighbor's right of way always. Then, when we have differences of opinion—say about the best route to Centerville, or whether beer or buttermilk is better with lunch—there will be less chance of anybody developing any "blind" spots.

WHAT TO DO with TAIL-END CALVES

What to do with "tail-end" calves is a big question. And the answer is Purina Fat Calf Chow. A complete feed, it puts on fast daily gains at low cost, upgrades them, puts them in class that's in demand on the market.

Calves convert feed into beef cheaper than older animals. Calves go for Fat Calf Chow. Feeding Fat Calf Chow is a dry-lot operation—requires little space and equipment.

Purina Research Farm tests and reports from feeders show that the amount of Fat Calf Chow needed to make 100 lbs. of beef is amazingly low. Ask us to tell you more about Fat Calf Chow.

Congress Wonders if Individual Americans Would Support Strong Indochina Policy Which Risks War

By WALTER SHEAD, Washington Correspondent, National Weekly Newspaper Service (This is the last of four articles on Indochina and the Far East.)

WILL individual Americans support a strong policy in Indochina and in southeast Asia which might risk a shooting war?

It was under the belief that they would not support such a policy that some congressional leaders in this administration refused to back up Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and the policy he advocated... either united action or massive retaliation. Particularly was this true this year with a congressional election coming up in November.

And so it remains to be seen whether or not, as Mr. Dulles predicts, failure to follow a resolute policy now, will result in greater war danger within a few years.

And so without accomplishing real peace, the American taxpayer will go on spending his tax money in both Indochina and Korea, in Japan, in Formosa... to maintain the huge military and naval bases we have extending from Alaska and the Aleutian islands down through Japan, Korea, Formosa, Okinawa, the Philippines and other Pacific islands.

loans, economic aid and Point Four assistance in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Afghanistan, Indonesia and Arabia.

Our federal budget for 1954 included $800,000,000, exclusive of military-end items, programmed for Indochina. The budget for 1955 asks for $712,000,000 exclusive of military-end items. We have given and will continue to give technical assistance through the Foreign Operations Administration on repair and improvement of roads, airports, seaports, seed and crop improvement and other assistance.

We are the biggest importer of raw natural rubber from Indochina, importing some 72,000 metric tons last fiscal year. Already teams of FOA technical experts are in Indochina making a reappraisal for Point Four and economic assistance needs in the remaining free area. There are those in the isolationist group in Congress who declare, as they have on all the economic aid programs, that this American money is just being poured down a drain.

So aside from the human element these are some of the stakes the American people have in Indochina. Up to this day it has not been the American way to desert an ally nor a weak nation seeking its own liberty as is Indochina.

There is clear evidence that as a result of the uneasy Korean truce, both Russia and the Chinese Reds were able to divert huge quantities of ammunitions and the materials of modern warfare to the Indochinese front. And both nations furnished some manpower at the division level in experienced officers. While there is no open proof any Chinese army was used in the invasion of Laos, or in the fighting in north Vietnam, there is plenty of evidence that the cease-fire in Korea permitted the Reds to step up their aggression and support of Ho chi Minh with powerful artillery, tanks and ammunition.

It also must be admitted that French failures in Indochina were not only military, but political as well. Some Far East experts believe that only a miracle can save Laos and Cambodia from being swallowed up without much trouble. The guarantees of their security and independence were so weakened in the final Geneva agreement they probably cannot be saved from Communist penetration without open intervention.

That's the Indochina-Far East stake. If the American people support Secretary Dulles in his firm, resolute policy there's the chance the Reds may back down, and communist aggression may be halted in its tracks. That's the best that could happen. The worst would mean world war III... An atomic-hydrogen bomb war.

If we back down and further appease the power-hungry Reds, it could mean the loss of all for which we fought in the Pacific... the Philippines, for instance. Japan and Korea would become other Red satellites behind the iron curtain and the U. S. perimeter of defense would be withdrawn eastward in the Pacific.

The question is, do we have the leadership for such resoluteness now, and will the American people back up that leadership?

Sleeping Sickness Epidemic Curbed in South Texas

Austin, Oct. 7.—The epidemic of encephalitis which struck some 400 persons in the Rio Grande Valley during August and September has been declared at an end, but exhaustive studies by state and federal laboratory experts still have failed to show the specific agent which caused it.

"We are still conducting tests here and at the U. S. Public Health Service Laboratory in Montgomery, Alabama," State Health Officer Henry A. Holle said.

"But the possibility persists that this is something new or at least highly unusual."

Dr. J. V. Irons, director of the State Health Department's laboratory activities, said the epidemic "may have been due to an entirely new type of virus or to a known virus appearing in epidemic form for the first time in this country."

The epidemic began in August in Hidalgo County. Two deaths were definitely attributable to the disease, and three others "probably" were.

When it first took shape, county, state and federal health officials took immediate steps to curb it. Insect control experts reduced mosquito populations to practically zero.

But investigators were confronted with many confusing factors. For example:

Most known types of primary encephalitis are transmitted by mosquitoes. But Hidalgo County's mosquito populations were below normal due to intensive spraying operations after heavy rains last April.

The reservoir of the three most common types of encephalitis in the United States is in wild birds, and the hosts of these same types are man and horses. Thus, if a mosquito feeds on an infected wild bird, and later feeds on a horse or human, the infection is passed on.

But Valley veterinarians say they haven't seen any horse involvement which ordinarily would be concurrent with the human epidemic.

The distinction between non-paralytic polio and mild encephalitis is a difficult one to make, which adds to the uncertainty.

Dr. Irons said laboratory attempts to identify the causative agent would be continued indefinitely.

'Operation Hotdog' to Attract Fair Visitors For Rural Youth Day

Mammoth "Operation Hotdog" will take place at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas Saturday, October 16, when rural youth make their annual visit to the exposition. R. L. (Bob) Thornton, Jr., Rural Youth Day chairman, says his committee of 50 men is setting up facilities to feed some 60,000 of the 100,000 boys and girls expected from all sections of the state.

Purchases for the big feeding project resemble an order of groceries required for a large body of Uncle Sam's troops in the field, according to Carlton Lawler, co-chairman of the committee and specialist in mass feeding. He has called for five tons of hotdogs and 60,000 buns, 160 gallons of mixed relish and mustard, 60,000 packages of potato chips, 60,000 candy bars and 6,600 gallons of grapeade to be cooled in 120 barrels by 24,000 pounds of ice.

The hotdog cooking operation will take place at the Swift and Company meat packing plant at 2300 South Lamar Street in Dallas. The "dogs" will be placed in big metal barrels into which live steam, generated by gas boilers in the packing plant basement, will be injected after the containers have been capped to retain the heat. Then the big barrels will be rushed by truck to the Fair Grounds where the hot dogs will be served "red hot".

The boys and girls will line up for their food on either side of the ten booths especially constructed for the serving operation. The booths will be located behind the State Fair grandstand and picnic pavilion, adjacent to the mammoth parking area. Thornton said the "come and get it" signal will be sounded around 11 a. m. and it will probably be 1:30 o'clock before the final youngster is fed. He anticipates numerous calls for "seconds," but assured the visitors "there will be plenty of food to satisfy all appetites."

The rural guests will travel to the Fair in school buses and many living long distances from Dallas will start Friday afternoon and ride all night in order to be on hand early Saturday morning. Buses will start arriving at day-break and each will be met by members of Thornton's committee who will provide Fair entrance tickets and "operation hotdog" tickets to those who did not get in on the distribution at their schools.

The Rural Youth Day activity, sponsored and paid for by Dallas business firms and individuals through the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, is carried out by the State Fair of Texas. This year's project will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000. Thornton estimates, left-over food, if any, he said, will be delivered to the Buckner Orphan Home in Dallas.

D. A. Hulcy of Dallas, Lone Star Gas Co. president, is general chairman of the Fair's over-all youth activities for 1954.
