From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

They Travel "In Class"

Our high school correspondent says that Economics and Geography students are going in for "grass roots" studying.

They're going to charter buses and take off on Operation See-For-Yourself—have a ten-day look at some of the things they've been studying about.

As I remember, it was hard to keep your mind on schoolbooks at this time of year. Today's kids can give in to that old urge to bust out of the classroom—with a clear conscience. Wish they'd take me along.

From where I sit, it doesn't hurt us adults, either, to get out and see how the rest of the country lives. We find the "typical American" doing everything from herding cattle to flying planes... with everything from steak to chowder for his favorite dish... everything from beer to butter-milk for his favorite beverage. And the more we study our differences the more we learn how alike everyone is underneath.

"Who Knows What We'll Find!"

Dear Friends

As a part of their work in Humble's Refining Research Laboratory, Humble scientists bombard petroleum hydrocarbons with electrons in a 2-million volt Van de Graaff Accelerator.

But if you ask one of these scientists what he expects to find, he'll answer, who knows!

For this is fundamental research. Results may be quick or they may be a long time developing. Who knows?

... Perhaps the scientists will find a way to increase the yield of useful products from a barrel of crude oil.

... Perhaps they'll be able to make improvements in the fine products already supplied you.

... Perhaps they'll develop an entirely new group of petroleum products.

Who knows!

This much, however, is certain: Humble research scientists at Baytown use every device of physics, chemistry, mathematics and mechanics to provide you with more and better petroleum products.

Two quick examples: The specifications for Esso Extra gasoline, the formula for Humble Uniflo motor oil. These, without question, are the finest products you can use in your car.

Sincerely

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

FAIRY

By Mrs. Eunice Daniel

We missed another chance of rain last Saturday night when a cloud passed over, followed by another strong gale of wind and sand on Sunday.

Farmers have been planting maize and other feed crops. Some state there seems to be enough moisture to bring up their plantings, but unless we have rain soon we're afraid nothing can survive too long.

Late sown grain is holding up better than the early sown grain.

During the time of the passing cloud Saturday night, lightning struck the highline condenser pole at the Bill Lackey home burning out their radio tubes and light bulbs. It was 10:30 Sunday morning before repairs could be made and service restored.

Fencing is underway on the farm to market highway from Fairy to Cranfills Gap. Workmen are just east of Fairy at this time however there are several unfinished stretches along the right of way which haven't been secured as yet. The highway which will be one hundred feet wide, has thrown a lot of valuable farm and pasture lands into a useless road bed. We understand the motive is in preparation of four lane highways in time to come. Some of our grandchildren may live to see such country roads but we doubt it. It all looks like Greek to this scribe, to turn good farm and grasslands into a useless road bed and take our tax money and hire someone to mow and keep it. We'll admit farms haven't been very profitable the past several years but certainly no one is going to profit from this road land in time to come, except those employed by tax money and otherwise.

In conversation today (Monday) with Frank Bonner and John Abel, we decided to have our annual cemetery working on Friday, April 27. It will be an all-day affair with dinner served at the cemetery, as in the past. In the meantime we urge all who live near to get your lots cleaned if possible prior to the meeting date. This will give all more time to help on the lots of those who do not live near. Please keep the date in mind and come prepared to assist in this much needed project. The committee will greatly appreciate your assistance and consideration.

We are glad to report Uncle Bob Parks improved. Also Hersal Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Stamford of Lampasas visited Sunday in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sills and Joan, and other relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Ballard is recovering from an attack of three day measles. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sikes of west Texas came down last week to stay a few days with she and her children, as Mr. Ballard is working out in West Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ballard and son, J. W. were in San Angelo last Saturday week to attend funeral services for Mrs. Ballard's brother, Earl Jameson. Earl was reared in the north Lanham community south of Fairy. We extend sympathy to those bereaved in his passing.

Ladies of the Methodist Church and home demonstration club were joint hostesses for a pink and blue shower Tuesday afternoon of last week at the Methodist Church, honoring Mrs. Claude Holley. Fruit punch and cookies was served to some twenty-five guests.

We failed to mention in last week's news letter, that Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jacobs of Stephenville had visited here on Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited Sunday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin, and to be with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman of Mesquite who had spent the week end with her parents.

Other April birthdates we failed to mention are C. M. Tinkle of Hamilton, April 19; Billy Daniel of Fort Worth, April 14, and Mrs. Ernest Brummett of Alhambra, Cal., April 13.

Thanks to those dear friends and relatives of ours who remembered us on our birthday with cards, letters and gifts. We appreciate your thoughtfulness very much.

Our daughter, Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers honored us with a birthday supper at her home Saturday night. The table was extended to reach almost across the room and laid with white linen. The large gold layer birthday cake was topped with pink icing and coconut. Those present to enjoy a feast of fried chicken, roast beef, snap beans, salads, chocolate and pineapple pie and iced tea were the honoree and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cabert Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin and Miss Martha Hancock of Purves. We have been intending to mention vaccination of dogs or other pets for several weeks, but the matter has just slipped our mind but if you readers read an article in Progressive Farmer written by a ten-year-old girl on rabies, then I think you, like myself, would decide that if a dog is worth keeping he is worth a vaccination fee. We have been able in time past to get a veterinarian to come out to Fairy if enough animals could be secured to pay them to come. If those who are interested will sign up at the Goyne store, we will see if we can get the matter taken care of in the next few weeks. There has been some rabid animals in the southwest portion of the county and we know not how soon a case of it might show up in our own community. This scribe has taken a series of rabie shots due to being bitten by a rabid cat about two years ago and we hope all will think the matter over and help to get a day set in the near future. The fee in the past has been $1.50 and we believe we can get the work done for this. So please sign up at once if interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett New and little daughters, Reta Gale and Sheri Jean and Mr. and Mrs. Leon New, all of Fort Worth visited during the week end with the men's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New.

The writer attended singing at Warrens Creek Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

In conversation with a lady from San Saba Sunday we learned that a severe hail storm fell there Saturday night. She stated the stones were small, but severe winds accompanied the hail.

RELATIVES ATTEND FUNERAL

Out of town relatives who attended the recent funeral of Mrs. Faulk were Carl Faulk and Lavinia Faulk of Fontana, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Homer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson and Miss Ila Anderson of Weatherford, Bill Anderson and son Harold of Crane, Arthur Phillips of Fort Worth. Out of town friends were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirkin of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. John W. Day, Mrs. Ernest Hall and Mrs. Horace Jackson and son Jimmy, all of Waco.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

HOMESTEAD MAY BE SOLD FOR TAXES

Many Texans have the mistaken impression that their homestead cannot be seized and sold for delinquent taxes. In many cases, this idea has led to considerable grief and monetary loss which could have been avoided. A homestead should be rendered to tax assessors like any other property, and taxes assessed against it should be paid as faithfully as those on any other taxable property.

In a previous column, it was indicated that the deadline for rendering property for taxation is April 1, so far as most city taxing agencies are concerned. The last date for rendering real and personal property for state and county taxes is April 30. State taxes are collected by the County Tax Collector.

Under the Texas Constitution, each family is entitled to claim one piece of real property as their homestead. This claim must be established by an affidavit filed with the county tax assessor on or before April 30, each and every year. This affidavit must be filed by the owner himself. A lending agency cannot do so, even though it may actually pay the annual taxes thereon from a fund created by the owner's monthly installments.

When the homestead affidavit is properly filed, the owner becomes entitled to an exemption of State taxes up to the value of $3,000 or 200 acres in the case of farm lands. This is an exemption from payment not a complete exemption from rendition and assessment. There is no similar exemption with reference to county or city taxes.

The homestead claimed for tax purposes need not be the property which is actually occupied by the owner as his residence.

When the homestead affidavit is not filed by April 30, the taxpayer loses his right to the $3,000 or 200-acre exemption, and consequently becomes liable for more taxes than he would otherwise be required to pay.

Property taxes are assessed against the person who is the record owner of each piece of real and personal property on the first day of January of each year. Individuals purchasing property during the year should make sure that the taxes for all previous years have been paid. Otherwise, the purchaser may be forced to pay hundreds of dollars in delinquent taxes to protect his property. Unpaid taxes create a lien against the property which can be enforced regardless of change of ownership.

One should also keep in mind to make some arrangement for the previous owner to pay his pro-rata share of taxes for the current year. Otherwise, the buyer may find it necessary to pay the entire taxes for that year.

When taxes are not paid by the deadline prescribed for the particular taxing unit (city, county, state, or district) monetary penalties and interest are added from month to month. In addition, the property sale to satisfy the tax lien. This becomes subject to seizure and lien applies to all property, whether homestead or not.

"As It Looks From Here"

OMAR BURLESON Congressman 17th District

A number of counties and towns in the 17th Congressional District are this year celebrating their 75th Anniversary. Among them are Abilene and Taylor County, Merkel, Cisco, and my home town of Comanche, and there may be others. Comanche County is celebrating its centenary, and Erath County and Stephenville celebrated their first hundred years in 1934.

It will be a year of rejoicing in the achievements of the pioneers of a passing era in American history. It has been an era of frontiers, of Indian wars, of log houses, churches in the wilderness, of new towns, the coming of railroads and the passing of the stage coach. All these things and much more.

Remembering these things of the past should give us a greater appreciation of the present and future. We only need to look about us to see new schools, wide and straight highways, better services of all kinds, to know that we have made rapid but sustained progress. Perhaps we have neglected some things also; perhaps we have neglected to treat the soil better and to conserve our natural resources, which have given us life to pursue these other things, which have brought us more comfort, more conveniences, and better living generally.

On the occasion of these anniversaries we might remember Solomon's admonition: "Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set." We need to sip again at the fountain of inspiration, which results from the vision, selflessness, spirit of adventure and accomplishments all associated with the pioneering of the Western frontier. At the same time, we should leave our own landmark, and none could be better than to conserve the land for future generations. It would be a sorry landmark indeed to leave gullies, waterless streams, and dissipated soil.

We have come a long way since our grandparents' days in West Texas. Particularly has rural life been improved, according to these statistics: There are 111 thousand farms in Texas having telephones, 269 thousand have electricity, 90 thousand have television, 260 thousand have running water, 93 thousand have home freezers. In spite of these encouraging figures, people are leaving the farm. The instability of the farm economy is bound to be a principal reason. Much older civilizations than ours perished in the process of the family-sized farm being eliminated from its national life.

Republican Congressman Leslie Arends of Illinois came up with this one recently, entitled "A Congressman's Lament."

Among life's dying embers, These are my regrets; When I'm right no one remembers.

When I'm wrong no one forgets.

Bettye B. Lacey and Marietta Edge of San Angelo were weekend guests of Miss Betty Stephen.

NFLA Starts 40th Year of Operations This Month

Perel Little, secretary-treasurer of the National Farm Loan Association announces that the Federal Land Bank in Houston is starting on its 40th year of operations this month.

Since organization in 1917 the bank has made 145,000 long term mortgage loans for more than $625 million to farmers and ranchers in Texas. The land bank is owned entirely by 132 national farm loan associations over the state. All loans are made through these associations which are fully owned by their more than 36,000 member borrowers.

In 1935 the Land Bank loaned more money than in any other year of its history according to Sterling C. Evans, bank president, when it loaned over $8 million dollars.

Present volume of loans outstanding exceeds $172 million. Loans are made for a wide variety of agricultural purposes, including the purchase of land, making farm and ranch improvements, irrigation, refinancing and for other purposes.

Highlights and Sidelights . . .

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

Battle lines are fast forming. The scrap for control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention is a high-tension argument. Harmony is out. Now it's a no-holds barred, toe-to-toe slugfest.

It started when House Speaker Sam Rayburn, leader of Texas' liberal-loyalist forces and Godfather of the Democratic Advisory Council proposed that U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson be Texas' favorite son candidate for President of the United States. . . head the Texas delegation to the nominating convention in Chicago.

George W. Sandlin, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, had proposed Gov. Allan Shivers as chairman.

Shivers charged that Byron Skelton, chairman of the DAC, had thought up the favorite son and chairman idea . . . and that Rayburn "is just his mouthpiece."

Shivers denounced Johnson to denounce Liberal-Loyalist backing and take a stand for states' rights.

Johnson's answer was that he would head only a middle-of-the-road delegation. Not one "from either fringe" - either ultra-conservative or ultra-liberal.

"No one knows better than Allan Shivers that I am not a creature of the ADA, DAC, PAC, NAACP, or CIO or any other group he may have named," snapped Johnson. "Nor am I an errand boy of reactionary big business or the Republican party."

Verbal blasts between Washington and Austin continued. Shivers accused Rayburn of "trying to run Texas from Washington." Rayburn termed Shivers "an angry, confused, frustrated man . . . on a sinking ship." Adding "I belong to no faction but the Democratic party."

Shivers replied that had he gotten in the boat with Rayburn and Adlai Stevenson in 1932, "we would have lost the boat and the Tidelands." He charged Rayburn with "being a Democrat first and an pledge himself to support 'any nominee' and will hold himself free to vote for the man he considers best for President, regardless of party . . . and I hope it is a Democrat."

Fencing between Johnson and Shivers was in milder tones, with Shivers concluding that he had no desire to battle with "my old friend, Lyndon Johnson." Without withdrawing his demand for Johnson to state his position on the American second."

Shivers has declared he will not stand in the way of Texas honoring him as chairman of the delegation or as favorite son." Johnson has not said whether he would permit his name to be presented as a favorite son candidate, or whether he would take the chairmanship. He has said, however, that he hopes to be a delegate.

All of which means a show-down fight for control of the Democratic State Convention in Dallas, set for May 22. Liberals have promised a contest there . . . and if they lose they will attempt to bar the conservatives from the national convention. Rayburn will be temporary chairman of the national convention.

Interposition Approved

Complying with Governor Shivers' request, the Democratic State Executive committee has ordered on the July ballot a referendum on "interposition." This seeks a voters' mandate for the Texas Legislature to petition Congress for a constitutional amendment re-establishing and protecting states' rights.

It is an attack on U. S. Supreme Court decisions, such as the Tidelands, school segregation, federal control over natural gas, etc. which Texas conservatives have branded as an unauthorized invasion of states' rights.

Ineligible for Office?

C. T. Johnson, who testified five times under oath that he had spent "no more and no less" than $125 in traveling the length and breadth of Texas while campaigning for Lt. Governor in 1934, now admits spending $1200 more than he reported.

This exposure resulted from charges by Russell W. Bryant, Italy publisher, that Johnson could not have traveled an admitted 12,000 to 15,000 miles for $125 (or approximately 1c a mile.)

"There isn't a standard make automobile made that doesn't cost nearly 2c a mile for gas alone," said Bryant. "And Johnson testified under oath that the $125 included not only gas, oil, tires, batteries, etc., but also such other necessary travel expenses as lodging and meals."

In admitting the $1200 additional expenditure Johnson stated that he did not report any expenses under $10. State laws require the reporting of all expenditures and the names and addresses of persons with whom more than $10 is spent.

Falsification of a campaign expense report prohibits such candidate's name from appearing on the ballot at any succeeding election.

Yarborough After Grassroots Votes A down-to-earth intensified campaign for governor now is under way by Austin Attorney Ralph W. Yarborough.

His first official move was a cross-roads plea for contributions and support "from the common people who believe in the Democratic form of Government."

Ads appeared recently in weekly newspapers throughout Texas soliciting one dollar or more from small-town contributors. It's a "Dollars for Democracy" appeal.

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE IN DODGE!

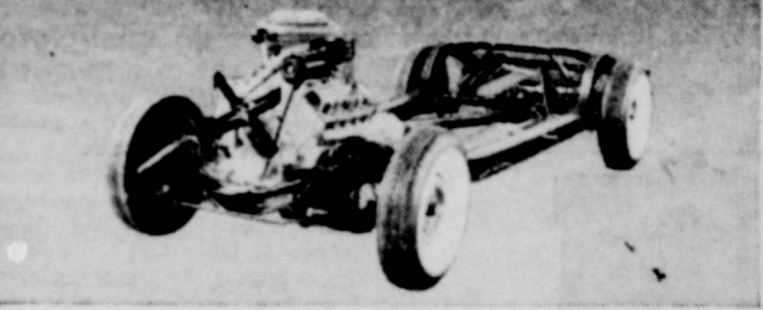

This isn't just "big" talk. Dodge actually is bigger all around—up to 7.7 inches longer than cars in its own field, 14.5 inches longer than cars in the "low price" field. Dodge is bigger inside, too. More legroom front and rear! More hiproom front and rear! Dodge gives you plenty of room to relax in comfort.

Dodge push-button PowerFlite makes every other way of driving old-fashioned. It's mechanically perfect—the easiest, safest, surest way of driving ever developed. Just touch a button and go!

Dodge is powered for today's driving! Aircraft-type 260 hp. V-8 engine develops tremendous break-away power!

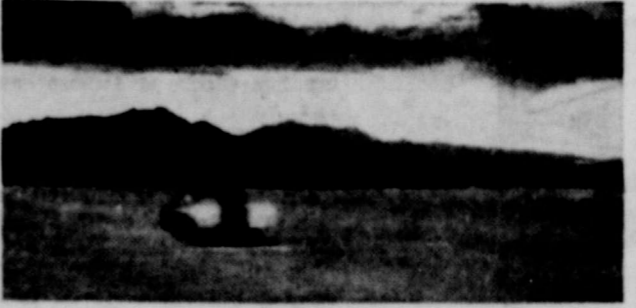

Solid—that's the way Dodge builds 'em! From the frame right on up, Dodge is engineered to take the roughest punishment. EXAMPLE: Box-section side rails provide greater strength and ruggedness than common I-beam or U-channel type used in most other car frames. Crossmembers are extra heavy. Here's solid dependability.

Who says parking isn't fun? Dodge power steering does 80% of the work, takes fewer turns of the wheel than other cars.

You can stop on a dime—with Dodge power brakes. Front wheel brakes have two cylinders, two anchors for positive, predictable stops.

It's America's performance champion! No other car has ever given such proof of superior performance. In a 14-day run at Bonneville, Dodge outclassed American stock cars and European sports cars both—shattered 306 AAA records in all, including 27 world records.

Texas farmers are warned to keep an eye out this spring for an old enemy—the grasshopper.

Early season surveys show the grasshopper threat is more serious this year than in 1955. The Texas Panhandle can expect the biggest threat, but Central Texas is likely to have infestations also.

This threat is a warning to start early in planning a hopper control program. Early control means less work at less cost while a "wait-and-see" attitude can result in heavy losses with more acres to treat later in the year. One dollar spent early for control can save as much as $38 in crops and grazing later on.

Early season methods work best just after the grasshoppers finish hatching. This can be anytime from April 1 to late June, depending on the weather. Cold, wet seasons delay hatching while warm and moderately dry weather favor it.

Idle land, field margins, fence rows, ditch banks and roadsides are good places to start. These are favorable habitats for the hopper to lay eggs. And they lay 200 to 400 eggs a season if the female is a migratory hopper.

To show what you can be up against, if all eggs hatch and young hoppers are permitted to develop into adults, they can average 24 to 32 hoppers to the square yard. Then you're in the middle of a serious outbreak.

A control program which provides federal assistance is available only in range land areas. In cultivated land you're on your own.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

I'll be out of the county Thursday and Friday of next week. We are having a meeting of Extension Agents at College Station.

Wool sales made before April 1, 1956 are eligible for incentive payments this year, provided the application is made and in the mail by April 30. If you have sold wool already and have not made your application, see Jim Glibbreath at the ASC office, before the end of the month and make your application.

Alex Sommerfield and Erwin Schrank sheared last week and tied their wool according to the instructions given at the wool meeting last week by Jim Gray of the A & M College Extension Service. Gray also advised the breeding of open faced sheep as an open face ewe will raise 12 per cent more lamb in a year than will a ewe with a closed face.

It's beginning to look as if grasshoppers might be a problem in places this year. They have already begun to hatch out along fence rows and in spots in pastures. The poison materials used on the early spraying of cotton are good for hopper control. Beds of hoppers are not too hard to find in pastures and when found is a good time to apply control sprays. Too, one might start looking now along fence rows around fields and as the beds are located, spray or poison them.

We Have A Nice Display of Monuments and Markers At My Residence
