STEPHENVILLE SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

South Side of Square Ph. L-3166 STEPHENVILLE, TEXAS

High winds have prevailed for the past several days, which has made the burning of trash and rubbish very dangerous.

The Methodist revival closed with Sunday morning service. Baptismal services were held following the Sunday morning service for two new members, Misses Gwenita Jackson and Claudine Holley, with the pastor, Rev. Wesley Jones officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goynes and daughters, Lynda and Wilma Grace attended the family reunion of Mrs. Goynes' relatives, the Loden family, held annually, Saturday night and Sunday at the Loden homestead near Hico.

Several from here were at the City Park in Hico Sunday to attend the Anderson and Elser family reunion. Those from here attending were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Slater, Mrs. Mignon Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Brummett, Mr. and Mrs. Ovie Brummett, Mrs. Gladys Cox and the writer.

Our school opened Tuesday morning for the coming school term, with good attendance by both pupils and parents. Bus drivers are the same as last year, Mr. Otis Dansby, Mr. Winfred Gardner, Mr. R. W. McAdams and Mr. Leslie New. We wish for a most successful term.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Able of Houston were dinner guests Sunday in the home of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes, Martha and Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don visited Sunday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton, and to be with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Houston who were spending the week end there.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison returned home Saturday from Waco where Mrs. Allison had spent the past two weeks in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Seago and Scherry. Mrs. Seago has been very ill, but glad to report her able to be released from the hospital Saturday. Mr. Allison came home at intervals to look after home duties here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Pitts of Hamilton visited Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frederick of Venice and Mr. and Mrs. James Arrant and baby of Fort Worth spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham.

Mrs. Andrew Hutton of Hico and daughter, Mrs. Henderson and two daughters attended church services here at the Methodist Church Sunday. They are former Fairy residents.

T. L. Betts spent the week end in Eunice, N. M. and other points with relatives and friends. At Eunice he visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hutton and Ann. He found some of his relatives away on vacation so returned home sooner than he had planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duncan of Fort Worth visited during the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alga Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seilheimer and children of Fort Worth spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson and two children of Amarillo visited during the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd and Sue, Mrs. Todd, who had spent the past week or more visiting her mother, Mrs. Anderson at San Angelo, returned home with them. Mrs. Thompson is the former Miss Lola May Todd.

Old King Cotton is opening fast these dry hot days. A few have begun pulling. But the cotton harvest will be cut short this year due to the drought and won't last long.

Mrs. Dimple Gordon and daughters Jimmie, Gay and Kay have moved to the Hedges place, formerly known as the Dock Lackey place. Mrs. Gordon and daughters formerly resided at the Randall place which was sold recently to the S. A. Fagle family of Grapevine.

Dewey Wilson of Lawton, Okla. made a brief visit to Fairy last week to look after the burial plots of his relatives after learning that our cemetery was in bad need of a clean up job. But glad to say he was greatly pleased in the looks of everything and extended to us complimentary remarks concerning the way the committee is taking care of the cemetery. We don't know how or why such rumors got out, but will assure the public as long as we can secure help and funds, the committee will do their best to see that the cemetery is taken care of. However both labor and funds have been a problem in the past, but with the donations sent in and handed us by loved ones and friends and the help that we were able to secure we got the cemetery worked off and although there is some work there from time to time it will take more funds to keep it as it should be. It seems weeds and some grasses require little moisture to keep growing so we have to keep working. One of our efficient committee members, Frank Bonner, handed us $5.00 last week for the benefit of the cemetery. Dewey Wilson also handed us $1.00 while here. We wish to thank each for your thoughtfulness and consideration. The cemetery bank statement showed a balance of $11.40. We purchased two shovels at a cost of $6.40 prior to receiving the statement. So with the above donations we will have a balance of $17.40 which will give us a start for the next working. So we hope others who have not helped on the last working will see fit to send in a donation for future care of the cemetery. You may deposit it for the Fairy Cemetery Association at the First National Bank, Hico, giving your name and address to be put on a duplicate and you will be given credit for your donation, or hand it to either of the committee members: Frank Bonner, John Abel or the writer. Again we say thanks to all who have donated funds for this year's care.

We are very sorry to learn that Mrs. J. McVickers had to be returned to the hospital at Stephenville. She recently underwent major surgery there. We surely hope she will soon be able to return home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanes and daughter of Dallas and Mrs. H. H. Hanes of Jonesboro visited during the week end in the home of their brother and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and family. Miss Martha Hanes of Dallas also spent the week end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cone Patterson, James Ellis and Patsy of Fort Worth visited a short while with Mrs. Brittle Little Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin visited here Labor Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison and the writer and husband, and also in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Dove hunters have been taking advantage of the season in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. James Midgley and Marlene and Miss Patricia Midgley of Ballinger, and Miss Sandra Sams of Dallas were visitors from Tuesday until Thursday with Mrs. Chester Wood and family and Mrs. Carl King and Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wood and family spent the Labor Day holiday with Mr. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wood of Sonora, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lackey, Mrs. M. T. Green and son Will of Dallas and Verne Horsley of Hico spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lackey and family.

Jerry Lackey of Grand Prairie spent the Labor Day week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lackey and Harold.

VACATION BOUND

Smartly dressed for auto travel, this pretty vacationer wears an Italian styled overshirt and trim cotta pants of vat dyed cotton gabardine by Gay Togs. The overshirt combines yarn-dyed, striped cotton gabardine with a solid color collar and slit side trim. The coordinated pants have a unique button trim over a concealed pocket and tapered legs slit at the bottom. The National Cotton Council reports that casual and practical vacations like these are favorite vacation fashions.

Golden Esso Extra

has the HIGHEST OCTANE RATING in Texas... highest by far!

Humble research provides the first gasoline specially made for cars with very high compression engines and cars that tend to ping or knock on "premium" gasoline.

This gasoline, Golden Esso Extra, has the highest octane rating in town—highest by far.

But octane rating is only one performance quality. In Golden Esso Extra this improvement paces other quality improvements that will assure you:

Quickest starting and warm-up; maximum power; fastest acceleration; increased protection against vapor-lock; minimum engine deposits; and best gasoline mileage.

Golden Esso Extra is the world's finest automotive gasoline. Its performance rates it "premium over premium." If your car has a very high compression engine, if it tends to knock or ping on "premium" gasoline, use Golden Esso Extra.

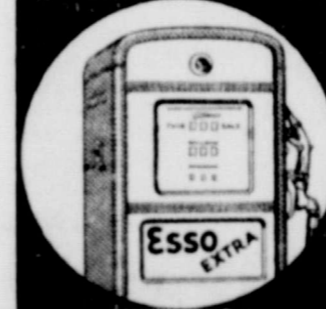

You will save the extra cost through performance, operating economy, and added gasoline mileage. Dispensed from the golden pump under the Humble sign.

Pay only for the gasoline quality your car requires

PREMIUM over PREMIUM

Golden Esso Extra is first of three great Humble gasolines. It costs more to make, and those whose cars require its quality will profit by paying more for it. Others will not.

PREMIUM

Famous Esso Extra Gasoline is No. 1 in Texas, first in sales among "premium" gasolines because it's first in quality. Esso Extra gives peak performance to most cars with high compression engines. This famous gasoline will continue to be the quality leader in its field.

REGULAR

Humble Motor Fuel is for cars that perform well on regular gasoline. It sets the pace for performance and mileage among the "regulars." It is the only regular gasoline in Texas that contains a patented solvent oil to keep engines clean.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY

Use the Gasoline your car requires... you'll find it under the Humble sign!

36 EXTRA EGGS PER HEN

You should get hundreds of eggs more than average farm flocks when you balance your grain with PURINA

1033 Purina feeders who kept records for us proved that their pullets laid 3 dozen more eggs per birds than the average flock in U. S

There are 2 ways to balance your grain with Purina:

1. Feed Purina Lay Chow 50-50 with grain.
2. Bring your grain and let us grind it and mix it with Purina Chowder Concentrate to make a good laying ration.

Either way is very low cost. Either way helps you get lots of eggs all fall and winter.

It Happened Here or Near

By E. E. DAWSON
 Uncle Bill came to Texas in 1845, a volunteer for the war with Mexico. But the war ended before he got into the fighting forces. He engaged in the common business of the day, the cattle business. When the Civil War broke out he volunteered and the Commissary Department of the Confederate Army put him to gathering cattle for the army. He could not manage herds of cattle by himself and no helper was allowed him. So he hired a boy not old enough to get into the army and paid the boy with his own money to help him collect beaves for feeding hungry soldiers. They paid for the cattle with Confederate money, which finally got so cheap it took ten dollars in currency to buy a meal. Uncle Bill also had an inn at a small pioneer town, and had a wife and four children. In the seventies his wife died and after a bit he married Aunt Parilee.

Now Aunt Parilee wore the bifurcated garments (which translated means the "pants") in the matter of religion and the social affairs of the family and the household. Uncle Bill held to an evangelical faith, and Aunt Parilee was a Methodist. Uncle Bill united with her church and in due time the church made him a Steward. He went out to get some funds for the pastor's support, what would be a very insignificant amount today, but fair for those days. He went to see Jim and asked him for funds to help Jim, a farmer and small stockman, said, "Well, when I pay all my debts this fall, if there's anything left I'll give a bit." Uncle Bill said, "Well don't you count this a debt?" "No," responded Jim. That made Uncle Bill as mad as a wet hen, and he came back. "Come out of the house, you sorry good-for-nothing and I'll teach you that it is a debt." Jim was by no means a timid man and he went out with the irate Steward and they went at it in real fashion. A passerby saw the melee and jumped off his horse and separated the two contestants before any serious damage resulted.

Uncle Bill went straight to the pastor's house and said to that worthy, "I resign, quit, take out; I'm through." The pastor said, "What's the matter?" Then Uncle Bill told of the fight, and the pastor said, "No, siree, we won't let you resign. You are the sort of man we need as a Steward." So Uncle Bill kept his office.

Now the church at Snowflake was on a circuit and Latinia was another small town on the circuit, the two constituting the charge. The parsonage of the church was at Latinia. Occasionally Uncle Bill and Aunt Parilee would visit the pastor at the parsonage and always ate dinner with them. One day they drove up to the parsonage and got out and after the usual inquiries and small talk, Aunt Parilee went into the kitchen to have a look. She could find nothing in the pantry and the kitchen was bare of foodstuffs. She signalled Uncle Bill and they went out to the buggy without a word and left. The pastor and his wife were much upset at their departure. But Uncle and Aunt Parilee drove up town and hitched the nag at the front of the principal grocery and went in and began to buy foodstuffs. They got a slab of bacon, called side meat in those days, a sack of flour, twenty pounds of sugar, eight pounds of Arbuckle coffee, ten pounds of rapins, two gallon buckets of pure leaf lard put up by Jacob Dold and Company, salt, soda, black pepper and just about everything they could think of that belonged in the kitchen, and then had the grocer put in a five gallon can of coal oil, and a dozen boxes of matches. Uncle Bill drove down to the parsonage and shouted, "Hey, marson! Come help us carry this stuff in the house." The pastor was astounded and his wife tearful in her joy.

When dinner was ready they all sat down at the table and the pastor said, "Uncle Bill, I've always asked you to say the blessing when you visited us heretofore, but this time I want to say it myself. You'll forgive me I hope." The pastor bowed his head and began, "O Lord, thank you for Uncle Bill and Aunt Parilee and for all these good things they have brought us today. Wife and I are so grateful, O Lord, for we were all out of everything to eat and were wondering what to do next. Thank you again, Lord." He broke down and his wife lifted a tear-stained face as they began eating. Uncle Bill was a good Methodist because he was a good man. We seriously doubt if a Baptist or Methodist or Presbyterian or any other churchman who is not a good man to begin with can ever be a good churchman. Aunt Parilee gave her given name to Mrs. Georgia Parilee Holladay Williams.

CARLTON

After a honeymoon in Colorado they will make their home in Abilene. The Jordans and Battershells went through the Carlsbad Cavern while on their trip.

S-Sgt. and Mrs. Don Williams of Grand Prairie were week-end visitors with his aunt, Mrs. Jessie Nelson. He will leave Sept. 13 for New York and fly from there to Germany to spend three years with the U. S. Army.

TWO GRASS FIRES LAST WEEK

Hico Volunteer Firemen answered two alarms last week, both grass fires.

The first alarm was on the hill near the city water works. Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze before any damage could be done.

Friday afternoon, firemen answered a call and went to the Flat Top Ranch between Iredell and Cranfills Gap to assist with a grass fire which burned several acres before being contained.
