Tigers Engage Gatesville STS Here Friday Night

Hico High School's Tigers will play the Gatesville State Training School tonight, Friday at the local stadium. Game time is 8:00 o'clock.

This is the final non-conference game for the locals before swinging into district play against Cranfills Gap the following week. Hico has an open date after the game with Gap, and then journey to Valley Mills for an engagement with the Eagles. Meridian comes here on Nov. 9 to close out the season.

TIGERS EDGE TOLAR

Last week Hico had their hands full with the visiting Tolar Rangers, before finally edging out the win late in the last quarter of play.

Ralph Namy crashed over from the one midway in the first quarter to give Tolar a 6-point margin which they protected until late in the final stanza.

Sherrel Kirk crashed over from the 6 in the final minutes of the game for the tying touchdown, and Carey McKenzie carried over for the game-winning point after. JUNIOR HIGH DEFEATS STEPHENVILLE

With Shelly Hooper racing for three touchdowns the Hico Junior High School team defeated the Stephenville Juniors 19-7 last Thursday night in Hico Stadium before a large crowd of fans.

Hooper's three scores came on runs of 38, 62 and 47 yards. Euzz Hedges plunged for the only conversion for Hico.

W. C. Perry Will Speak Sunday at Iredell Baptist Church

Mr. W. C. Perry, Dean of Men, Baylor University in Waco, will be one of the speakers at the First Baptist Church in Iredell on Sunday, October 14. He and Mr. Carlos Carter, Iredell School Superintendent, will speak on the themes respectively, "What the Layman Means to the Church" and "What the Church Means to the Layman."

The service is in cooperation with the more than 29,000 other Southern Baptist Churches across America who each year observe Layman's Day. It is on this day that the churches pay tribute to the layman and his ever increasing role in the activities of the church.

Mr. Perry, who worked with the Iredell School system, is a former Hico resident and is well known to many of the residents of this area. The public is cordially invited to attend this special service next Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m.

Water District Voting Set November 10th

Formation of a water district on the upper Bosque River will be placed before voters in parts of Erath, Hamilton and Bosque Counties on Saturday, November 10, in an election to be held for this purpose.

The district would include parts of three counties in an area extending from the headwaters of the Bosque River near Shelby and Huckabay, to a place near Iredell.

"This is not a bond election," stressed Fred McCleskey, president of the Upper Bosque Water shed Association, "but rather an election to set up the North Bosque Water Control and Improvement Association."

He explained that the district has been set up as such by the State Board of Water Engineers, but can go further only on approval by the people in this area.

This plan has had the approval of local leaders, the State Soil Conservation Service authorities and the State Board of Water Engineers. The election, then is to confirm action of the engineers in setting up the district, which includes 250,000 acres.

There will be five voting boxes in Erath, Hamilton and Bosque Counties for the election.

Three of the five boxes will be located in the immediate Hico area. The voting box where residents who reside in the city limits of Hico will be located at the City Hall. A. A. Brown has been appointed presiding judge of the Hico Box. H. H. Ramage, judge, Mrs. Emma Dee Hedges and Mrs. Marvin Marshall, clerks.

Persons residing in the rural areas of the district in Hamilton County will vote at the V. H. Jenkins residence. Mr. Jenkins is presiding judge. Mrs. Jenkins, judge, and Mrs. Mont Young and Mrs. Leslie Patterson, clerks.

All qualified voters residing in Bosque County will vote at the H. D. Head residence, with Mr. Head serving as presiding judge. Mrs. Head, judge, and R. A. Fellers and Lucille Fellers, clerks.

All qualified voters, who own property in this area (either personal or real estate) which has been rendered for taxation, are eligible to vote on this project.

Five directors for the association will also be elected at this time, the following names appearing on the ballot: Fred McCleskey, L. B. Howard, Henry Clark, T. A. Randals, C. C. Winters. Five places for write-in votes will be included on the ballot.

McCleskey, who has worked for sometime with the association toward this aim of improving the water situation, also said that he hoped people would make an effort to get out and vote, as the confirmation is necessary to culminate the work done by the association and state officials.

SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICER TO VISIT HAMILTON

Everyone agrees that it is a good idea to check their bank balance regularly for accuracy. The Waco District Social Security office says that social security accounts should be checked once every two or three years. A post card form will be furnished free for use in obtaining a complete record of earnings as posted to individual old-age and survivors insurance accounts. Remember, if there is an error in the account, delay in checking may prevent correcting it.

Mr. Ed Winslow, Field Representative of the Waco District Office of the Social Security Administration will be in Hamilton at County Courtroom between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon on October 17. He will be glad to discuss social security questions.

It Happened Here or Near

By E. E. DAWSON

The title of this column is not very true to fact this week, for some of this, if not all, happened here and there and afar. But a fellow who writes a column has to do a lot of scratching to furnish a column regularly. I often wonder how the folks who write daily columns manage to keep enough dope on hand to always afford them interesting and appropriate material.

Well, this week's column is about the names of cities and towns. First, the name of one of the first cities of America, both in point of time and population. Boston was named by the pioneers for a town in England, a coastal town by the Boston, which got its name in a quite unusual way. It was named for St. Botolph. That first "o" is short as in the word "hot." And that city was named for the Saint because he was a Benedictine monk who served in the port city and came to be known as "Boat Helper" because of his many services to the sailors and others who lived and worked in the port town. Now the English have a way of shortening a lot of words, particularly names, both in spelling and in pronunciation, most of it due to little knowledge of the English tongue, for through all time England has had a mixed population and colloquialisms have been the rule rather than the exception. Often folks of one area of the country are unable to understand the lingo of another area. So this port town came to be known as "Botolph's Town" and by the usual processes of shortening finally evolved as "Boston." And the remarkable thing is that the pioneers who settled Massachusetts were radical Protestants, and would have nothing to do with Roman Catholicism. Yet they named their principal city for a Roman Catholic monk.

A good illustration of the habit of the English to shorten their names is to be found in the city of "Greenwich," the place from which all longitudes of the world are reckoned. They pronounce it "Grin-itch," which does not sound like the word is spelled by a lot.

American cities and towns got their names from something in the character of the country where the town is located. There are dozens of "Mounts" in America, so named because they were in the vicinity of a mountain, or at least a hill that was dignified with the name "Mount." But most of the towns got their names from people. A family settled in an area and maybe ran a country store and in time that family name attached to the town that grew up. That is Local FFA Member Elected President Cross Timber Dist.

Charles Stipe was elected President of the West Cross Timbers District of F. F. A. members, Monday, October 1.

The Cross Timbers District includes 26 FFA Chapters and 5 counties, composed of Hamilton, Erath, Comanche, Eastland and Palo Pinto. All candidates for office were questioned on parliamentary procedure and knowledge of the FFA organization by Donald Davis, who is the Area IV State Vice-President. The candidates also reviewed their qualifications before the delegates.

Charles was elected without a run-off over his other opponents.

Charles has completed three years of Vocational Agriculture and has earned the coveted Lone Star Farmer Degree. He plans to be a candidate for state office next spring.

One of the duties of the president will be to preside at the District Leadership Banquet to be held in December, which usually attracts several hundred Future Farmers and their guests. He will also preside at monthly meetings of the district throughout the school year. (From the Mirror).

Increased Mail Service Goes Into Operation Thursday

Postmaster Robert B. Jackson was notified this week of the approval of the increased mail service between Hico and Stephenville, which is expected to speed up delivery between the two towns several hours.

The service went into operation Thursday, with the first pouch being dispatched to Stephenville from Hico by Central Texas Bus Lines. This service is in addition to the regular Highway Post Office, officials said, and will in no way effect what service Hico was already getting.

Under the setup, first class mail, newspapers, special delivery, and special handling parcel post mails, except baby chicks, will leave Hico at 2:45 p.m. and arrive in Stephenville at 3:20 p.m. On the return trip mail will leave Stephenville at 7:19 p.m. and arrive in Hico at 7:44. FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

Tragedy befell our community last Thursday afternoon in the tragic death of Miss Kathryn Alford, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Benn Gleason, where she was making her home. The tragedy wedding shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ables. But it could truthfully be said of Annette, as she was affectionately known, that to know her was to love her. She possessed such a sweet personality and had made many friends here during her stay with her sister. She attended church here at the Baptist Church with her sister and other relatives. Some forty-five or fifty friends from this community attended the funeral service at Hico on Friday afternoon. Our deepest sympathy is extended to her dear mother, brother sisters and other relatives in their great sorrow.

Mrs. Gladys Cox returned home Saturday after a week's stay at the Hico Hospital. She is able to be up some and is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield have moved to the Somrude place east of Fairy for an indefinite period of time. They have been living at Pottsville since early Spring where he served as minister of the Church of Christ, but resigned recently. We are glad to have them back with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sills are making arrangements to move to the Shannon farm and ranch near Whitney around the first of November where he will be employed the coming year. We regret very much to lose them but wish them success and better prosperity in their new location.

Our farmers are leaving one by one seeking employment elsewhere, since there has been no profit in farming the past few years, due to drought conditions.

L. D. Sowell of Cleburne was down last Friday to get another load of their household furnishings. They have been residing on the Frank Driver farm for the past several years but recently purchased a washeteria in Cleburne.

The highway from Fairy to Cranfills Gap has been completed, with the exception of marking and road signs. Workmen begin the erection of signs Monday. Highway employees were out last Thursday setting up concrete base mail box posts and painting mail boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Henderson, formerly of Gatesville spent last Wednesday night with the writer and husband. They were on their way to Amarillo with their household effects and had a blow out near our home late Wednesday. After supper in conversation with Mrs. Henderson she stated she had a daughter living at Gatesville. Since we knew a number of people there, we asked her the daughter's name, only to learn that her son-in-law was a son of our first cousin, Clay Jones of Gatesville. Mr. Henderson had contemplated purchasing a farm near Gatesville but after looking around for several months and noting the severe drought conditions decided to move back to Amarillo where they had formerly resided.

The writer was a business visitor in Dublin Saturday and while there visited a short while in the home of our daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Little and his brother, Paul, all of Oklahoma City spent the week end here with their mother, Mrs. Brittle Little and to visit their uncle, Sid Dickerson who has been a patient in the Hico Hospital for more than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Jimmie Don were in Waco Monday where Jimmy Don was at the Dr. Hipps Clinic, to have the cast removed from his foot and leg. They will report back in about two weeks, at which time it is thought he will be able to discard the leg brace which he has been wearing some six years or longer. His foot and leg had been in the cast since early July. He has a happy kiddo to be relieved of its weight. They were accompanied to Waco by Mrs. Scott Blakley, who did some shopping while there.

Birthdays which we have in mind at this time for October are Mrs. N. S. Sellers, Hamilton, October 21; P. L. Cox, October 17; Mrs. Ed Allison, October 23; Mrs. Brittle Little, October 16; Carl Ray Sellers, Oct. 15; LuAnn Lowery, Fort Worth, Oct. 12.

Uncle Bob Parks, who is now a patient at a rest home in Hamilton, is reported to be improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Haire of Fort Worth were supper guests of her father and wife, the writer and husband Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goynes and Lynda and a girl friend of Morgan attended a football game at Cranfills Gap last Friday night. Alvin Beard of Waco, nephew of Mrs. Goynes, served as one of the officials of the game.

Some of our farmers are sowing grain in the dust. Surely looks discouraging but maybe one of these days before too long we will have rain again. We surely hope so at least.

Mrs. J. T. Jackson and sister, Mrs. L. A. Hicks of Hico visited their children in Grand Prairie last week. They also visited relatives in Fort Worth and went shopping while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hurt and twin daughters, Betty and Jane of Houston visited recently with her father, Walter Porterfield. While here they spent a few days at Lake Whitney and did some fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Massengale of Fort Worth spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Massengale and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brummett.

Gas delivers maximum heat in a split second... adjusts to any desired heat in a split second... and turns off in a split second. You avoid spillovers... scorching... overcooking. No wonder smart women say truly modern cooking is cooking with flame-fast gas.

through street and another street having a stop sign, a driver approaching the stop sign and coming to a full stop is ordinarily said to have the right of way over vehicles approaching on the through street but not already in the intersection.

However, this last rule must be qualified by saying that you should not proceed, cross or turn onto the through street until you can do so without interfering with oncoming traffic. In other words, if an approaching car will arrive within the intersection before you are completely clear, wait just a little longer. The same rules apply to entering a highway from a side road containing a stop sign.

Many drivers violate the rules of right of way covering left-hand turns at intersections. When turning left, you should always be on the inside (or center) lane, displaying the proper hand signal. You must allow all cars coming from the opposite direction, already in the intersection, to pass through before completing your turn. Even when the intersection is cleared, do not proceed unless other coming traffic is far enough away to be able to see your signal and slow down to allow you to turn with safety to all concerned.

Stay in the inside lane until your left-hand turn is entirely completed, and only then move gradually over to the right-hand lane if you wish. When turning right, stay in the right-hand lane at all times. Do not swing wide into the center lane, as to do so is unnecessary, unlawful and dangerous.

Many detailed rules and suggestions for safe driving are included in the official "Texas Driving Handbook" which is available to any person requesting same from the Texas Department of Public Safety, Drivers License Division, Austin.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

WHO HAS THE "RIGHT OF WAY?"

Possibly the most mystifying of all traffic rules to the average driver are those relating to "Right of Way" at an intersection. In reality, however, these rules are quite simple.

In trying to understand the laws regulating intersecting traffic, it is best to start off with the premise that all streets are of equal dignity, legally speaking. Traffic signs and signals may vary this rule somewhat, but when in doubt it is safest to assume that all drivers crossing your path have a claim to the right of way equal to your own.

Obviously, however, in many cases one driver or the other will be legally entitled to the right of way. When it becomes necessary to determine right of way in a particular situation, the driver who reaches the intersection first, or who is going to get there first, is ordinarily favored.

But when two automobiles are an equal distance from the intersection, that one approaching from the other driver's right normally has the right of way.

Some intersections are known as "courtesy corners," having a stop sign or a flashing red signal facing each direction of approach. The first driver reaching the corner and coming to a complete stop will normally have the right of way over other vehicles not already in the intersection. However, don't depend too much on the other fellow's courtesy, and be sure to keep a "proper look-out" and your car under "proper control", as explained in a previous column.

Mrs. W. A. Moss was hostess to the South Hico Home Demonstration Club on Thursday of last week.

After the business meeting the program was brought by the new agent, Mrs. Blair, on the use of broiler. She prepared a complete meal, consisting of a steak, green beans, tomatoes and hot rolls, all cooked in the broiler. It was served together with a drink by the hostess to the members present. It was certainly enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fred Hyles on October 18 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Hyles is a new member.

The roll call at this time is to be answered with "What I Have Done to Help a 4-H Member," and the program will be on 4-H work, and we will have an antique and hobby display at this time. This should prove of great interest to all, as much can be gained from this.

BAND NEWS

On Saturday morning, October 6 at 6:30 o'clock, all thirty-one members of the Hico Tiger Band met at the gymnasium for the trip to Fort Worth to see the TCU-Arkansas football game.

About four or five miles out of Hico we learned that Judy Griffiths had left her Cornet in the band hall. It was too late to turn around.

In Fort Worth there were forty bands entering the parade. It took about thirty or forty minutes to get the bands in marching order. The Hico band along with the others, lined up on Weatherford St., turned on Houston, marched eight blocks to 8th Street, turned and marched one block to Main. On Main we marched eight blocks back to Weatherford Street.

Although we did not win the parade, everyone enjoyed getting tired of marching. In our class, which was the B class, the Bowie High School Band won first. Their band consisted of 77 members.

After eating lunch at a drive-in on Riverside we went to the football game which everyone heard about, TCU winning over Arkansas 41-6.

When the ball game was over we headed straight for Hico, after stopping in Cresson we reached home by eight o'clock.

On our trip we had several visitors whom we enjoyed having along. They were Mrs. Edgar Bradley, Mrs. Dunigan and Sandra Ives from Lipan.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Happy Swan

More and more farmers—who badly need hired help sometimes, but can't afford a full-time hand—are making deals with young town workers and the employers they work for.

For instance, young Hap Hooper now lives rent-free on Easy Roberts' farm. In return he works about 100 days a year for Easy—for a farmhand's pay.

The rest of the year Hap works for his "regular" boss... Buzz Ellis, the electrician. Buzz just speeds up his business when Hap's on hand—slows it down when he isn't—and, like Easy, pockets healthy savings in wages. From where I sit, it's great how people with different backgrounds—and different viewpoints—can co-operate. How about more of us trying that? I live in a town—maybe you're a farmer. I'm partial to a good glass of beer—you may prefer coffee or milk. But we can make things pleasanter by ignoring differences and giving each other a "hand."

Ike Can't Make It Rain, But He's Still Best Man

The other day I asked a farmer if it was dry out his way. He said it sure was. "Looks like we just can't get any rain," he said. "Why, when Noah had his 40-day flood, we didn't get over half an inch."

There's no mistake about it. Texas is having itself a real drought. Some of the farmers and ranchers in our county are in such bad shape that they may vote for Stevenson.

Old Man Jones, from across the river, said he wasn't going to go to any such extreme. He said he needed rain as bad as anybody else. He claimed water was so scarce in his community that the preacher was baptizing new members with a wet handkerchief. But he was holding out awhile longer, anyway.

"I may be stubborn," said Old Man Jones, "but I just ain't been convinced that President Eisenhower is keeping it from raining."

He said he knew that Stevenson and Kefauver acted like they thought so, and they had a right to their opinion. Lyndon Johnson, he figured, knew better, but he was sticking with Adlai and Estes for the sake of unity. He said he didn't figure Mr. Sam Rayburn had known whether it was raining or not for the last 25 years.

"I hate not to go along with such a widely known crowd of weather observers," Old Man Jones said. "If there's anybody who keeps up with which way the wind is blowing, generally speaking, it's Stevenson, Kefauver and Johnson."

Then he went on to say that he realized the national farm program hadn't pleased everybody—including him. If he was in the White House, he would do things different, at least in our county. He allowed that the $61,000,000 spent by the Eisenhower administration for drought relief in Texas could have been doubled and still not made all the farmers happy and prosperous.

"But," said Old Man Jones, "I keep remembering that the main reason for our troubles, besides the drought, is the fact that we are not at war. Now, if Adlai and Estes really want to jump on President Eisenhower, there is a real issue. They've sure got the goods on Ike in that respect. If he hadn't stopped that Korean War, farm prices would be higher, no doubt. I wonder why they never mention that."

Old Man Jones was kidding a little, of course, in his usual way, but I think he had something there. We have got to adjust to peace-time, which is taking awhile but President Eisenhower is working at it. And meanwhile our boys aren't fighting and dying on foreign soil. It's worth thinking about.

Yours truly,
Tex

SOIL-GRASS STORY TOLD AT STATE FAIR

All State Fair-going Texans, whether they farm or not, should make an honest effort to attend one special feature of this year's Agriculture Show—The Story of Soil.

For anyone who has been confused on the matter of soil conservation and land mismanagement, the Fair has a program designed to increase soil concern as well as educate its visitors. Introduction to the soil story is told through the relation of grass, to soil. Grass is the prime factor in bringing the soil into balance with the forces of nature.

In this connection, thirty of the more useful species of Southwestern grasses will be the predominant display among the Agriculture Show's other exhibits. A few of the grasses are: Little and big bluestem, switchgrass, four finger trichloris, mars hay cord, Lindheimer muhly, cane bluestem, curly mesquite, green sprangletop, side-oat grama, vince mesquite, buffalo, plains bristle, sand love and tall dropseed.

These and other grasses will be displayed alive and growing in metal containers against pictorial backgrounds illustrating development of soil from rocks. Major crops produced on various Texas soils will also be represented. Technicians will be present daily during the fair to answer questions concerning the grasses and soil conservation in general.

In connection with soil conservation practices, the Agriculture Show will include a model farm showing misuse of the land and rebuilding and conserving the soil. A small watershed is included with a compilation of practices summarizing beneficial results from overall soil, water and plant conservation.

GRASS MACHINE HAS 6-DAY GROWING SEASON

Mr. Gaston Perin, Belgian biologist, is not one to let grass grow under his feet. Instead, his soilless "Herbage" machine grows it complete with roots in a six-day operation.

The Herbage is a chest with 7 stages (or drawers), and when bare seed has completed the cycle which first mixes it with water and a nourishing salts combination, then rations water & heat in controlled amounts, presto. There's spring grass enough for 50 cows until another cycle is finished.

The machine requires only about 30 minutes daily attention and produces one of the cleanest, most scientific feeds in existence. Niameo, Inc., of Dallas has the American patents of the Herbage.

PLYMOUTH

The Power of Goodness . . .

By MORGAN GARRETT

There is great power in a life of goodness. There are three good reasons why the good person is a strong person. He is strong because he can live with himself without shame. In Romans 14:22 we read these words: "Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that which he alloweth." No person can be strong if he continually does things for which he condemns himself. He loses his strength in feelings of guilt and shame. When we live our lives at the highest levels we know how we do not have to waste our energies on guilt or shame. The good man is strong because he can live with himself without shame.

The good man is strong because he can face others without fear. The person who expects trouble from everyone he meets is whipped before he starts. The person who is wicked is constantly running from others or is wanting to run. The good man, on the other hand, stands firm in confidence in his relations with others. The Bible contrasts the situations like this: "The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion." Proverbs 28:1. No one can spend his time running away and have any strength left to meet life with. The good man is strong because he can face others without fear.

The good man is strong because he can stand in the presence of God in peace. The Bible asks the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place? Then follows the answer: "He who has clean hands and a pure heart." Psalm 24:3-4. No one can be really strong unless he can stand in the presence of God with a peaceful heart. Because the good man can stand in the presence of God with clean hands and a pure heart he is strong in a peaceful relationship with his Maker.

Perhaps you are saying, "All of this is out of the question with me, for long ago I forfeited my chance to be this kind of person." God has good news for you! You can start again and build this kind of life. You can do it whether you are eight years old or eighty. We see how God gives the chance in the story of the prodigal son about whom Jesus spoke. The prodigal son arose from the pig pen of a wicked and wasted life to return home. There he was received by his Father and given a chance to build a new life of goodness. Your Heavenly Father will receive you for the same purpose. Do you want to be strong? Look for your strength in goodness; goodness you can achieve with the help of God.

especially true of the mid-west and west and southwest.

Ordinarily the family name is joined to "town" which in turn is shortened to "ton." For example the city of Charleston in South Carolina. It was named "Charlestown" as it developed, and then "town" was shortened to "ton." A lot of towns have "ville" and "burg" as their final syllable. "Ville" is of French origin and means a small settlement, or perhaps often only an estate. But it came to be added to a family name for a town that grew into a city as "Greenville"—a name occurring in every state of the Union. The "burg" ending is of German origin and means the same as "town" or "ville" and may be found in every state. If you look at a map of Pennsylvania you will find dozens of towns and cities that end in "burg" because the Germans settled so much of that state and this is one of the marks they have left on the country.

In Texas and the Southwest, a lot of towns bear the name of women. It so happens because as the railroads were built they laid out a lot of new towns in lonely places where no one lived and they had to name the place. So some of the railroad management gave the new towns the names of their women folks. In one case a man really got in bad because of the feminine names of towns. It was back in the days when cars were not very dependable and roads were mainly just two ruts between wire fences or through gates into vast pastures. Now in this particular case, which is an actual fact and not a bit of my fiction, the man was on his way from Houston to Victoria, and the highway ran parallel with the railroad, now a line of the Southern Pacific. Several of the town names are for women. There is one named "Edna" and another "Louise" and they are not so many miles apart. The man in his early model car had a breakdown and had to camp out there on the lonely prairie. He finally fixed his old jalopy and went on into Victoria. A friend asked him where he had spent the night, and he in all seriousness and truthfulness and without any thought of how his words would sound said that he "had spent the night between Edna and Louise." A notorious gossip heard the statement and forthwith proceeded to herald it to all listeners: "The man spent the night between Edna and Louise! Such a man!" It took a good deal of explaining to settle things between him and his wife.

OH BOY! CORDUROY

Cotton corduroy has gone high style, and here a print and plain combination takes to the Paris scene. At Cowden, the 1956 Maid of Cotton, wears Stephanie Kovet's long-sleeved jacket and trim black skirt with a knitted Gage hat. The knitted jacket is printed in a stylized floral design.
