HICO, TEXAS, OCTOBER 19, 1956

NUMBER 24

By E. V. M.

Hico's new mail service is working just fine and dandy, according to Postmaster Robert E. Jackson. The new service, which was inaugurated last Thursday between Hico and Stephenville has been especially beneficial to businessmen and individuals in the short time since it was started.

The first dispatch from Hico consisted of more than 500 pieces of mail to Stephenville and points north and west. Leaving Hico at approximately 2:30 in the afternoon the mail arrived in Stephenville in time to be put in boxes that day, and to make the regular city delivery the next morning. Under the old system when the mail had to be dispatched to Waco, Stephenville residents could expect to receive their parcels from Hico approximately 48 hours later, or the second day after mailing.

The service from Stephenville to Hico has also been stepped up accordingly. You can now get a letter from that town in less than 24 hours, which is the best service that residents here have had since the old star route between Hamilton and that city was discontinued several years ago. It's a good service which residents of both Hico and Stephenville need, and with proper use it could be continued indefinitely.

Postmaster Jackson is highly elated over the new service, and he certainly has a right to be. For it was he that started the original plan rolling. Mr. Jackson is constantly looking for ways by which the postal department can better serve the residents of Hico, and between himself and Mr. A. P. Barker, regional transportation officer of Dallas, this plan was brought about. The postmaster went to a great amount of trouble and spent several hours working with the transportation division to get the new service, and it is the opinion of this department that he deserves a loud "well done." We personally appreciate his efforts because it will give readers of this paper (and we have a few) an opportunity to receive their paper at an earlier date than the Saturday, Sunday, or even Monday delivery date of the past several years.

SCHOOL NEWS... Have you noticed the very excellent coverage of local schools news which the NR has had since the beginning of the school year. If not you have been missing a very interesting feature each week.

Bonnie Johnson and Reggie Ellis, editor and assistant editor of "The Mirror," have been doing a good job this year and deserve a word of thanks for their efforts. Each week since the beginning of school they have compiled the news of interest, with the able assistance of Mrs. Angell, and we feel that it adds a great deal to the reading interest of the paper. The kids are really working at the job this year in an effort to give residents a clearer picture of all the activities which take place up on the hill. Keep up the good work, Bonnie and Reggie.

WATER DISTRICT VOTING... The election which face residents of Hico and the immediate area on Nov. 10 for the formation of the North Bosque Water Control District is one of the most important special elections ever to be called here.

If voters approve the district—which we believe they will—then further steps can be taken to go ahead with the work of building approximately 40 low-water dams on the watershed of the Bosque River for the prevention of floods and the conservation of the soil.

We would like to stress again that this is not a bond issue in any way, and will not cost voters anything to give it an overwhelming affirmative vote at the polls on Nov. 10th.

OTHER IMPORTANT... elections may face voters in the coming year, although it is an "off" year as far as elections go. A paid poll tax receipt will give every citizen the right to express their opinion in any such election that might arise, and could well be worth the $1.75 that the little slip of paper costs.

Emergency Feed Program Extended to December 3

Walter T. McKay, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, has advised Robert A. Wells, County Supervisor, of the extension of the Emergency Feed Grain Program in Bosque and Somervell Counties.

Denner Badges were awarded to Scott Patterson and Jerry Casey; Assistant Denner Badges were awarded to James Denton and Bill Rutledge; Bear Badges were awarded to Jerry Casey, and Arrow Points were presented to Butch Knudson.

Attendance Contest Underway At Methodist Church

Members of the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church have begun an attendance contest in which each class is participating.

Milburn Knudson, Superintendent in Charge of Membership and Cultivation, is directing the contest. During the first two Sundays of the contest the attendance has increased by about twenty per cent. The Helping Hand Class is leading thus far. The teacher of this class is Mrs. Lusk Randals, and the president is Miss Ira Cunningham. One reason this class is leading is that all members of the group are really working to have a good attendance.

In second place is the Victory Class with Marvin Marshall as teacher and Mrs. C. W. Salmon as president.

The Primary Class is in third place. Teacher of the primary class is Mrs. Wayne Rutledge.

Members of the Sunday School are enjoying doing the work of the Lord in promoting attendance in this contest.

Katy Offers Reduced Freight Rates on Hay Shipments

P. W. Hamilton, local Katy railroad agent, announced this week that the railroad would again offer reduced freight rates on shipments of hay into the drought area.

A reduction in the shipping charge of 50 per cent on hay shipped in from Northern and Western states, and from various sections of Texas, will be allowed. The reduction is now in effect.

AMBITIOUS SOPHS—While the Sophomore Class of Hico School was looking around for ways and means of securing finances for the annual Halloween King and Queen contest, they hit upon the idea of washing cars. And that they did last Saturday. Their sponsor, Mrs. Jake Eubank, game to win. Cranfills Gap always fields a good team, and are especially hard to handle on their home field. They have a record of 4 wins and two losses, but both of the losses were to strong Central Texas teams. Evant pinned a 14-0 loss on them in the second game of the season, but Gap was playing without the services of several of their regulars. Their second loss was to a strong Crawford eleven by one touchdown.

Hico will be bolstered by the return of two starters from last year's team, Jeff Holladay and Charles Hyles, and also big Andy Lackey, a boy who was counted on greatly before the season started, but who has missed all of the season up until last week with an injured foot. They are expected to help fill in in the line where the locals have been light this year.

Game time has been moved up to 7:30 p.m. and will be played on Saturday instead of the scheduled Friday night. A large crowd of Hico fans are expected to follow the team.

Fairy Defeats Gordon For First Conference Victory

Coach Billy McClure's squad of fighting Tigers brought home a 39-0 victory when they defeated Gordon High School Longhorns at Strawn last Thursday night. It was Fairy's second conference game of the season; they had previously lost to Iredell in their first. Practically every member of the Tiger's nineteen-man squad had an active part in the victory.

Robert Barnett led in the scoring with three touchdowns; Larry Gardner made two; and Billy Clarke Streater, one. Two points were gained on a safety, when Barnett tackled a Gordon ball carrier behind the Longhorn's goal line, and Gardner ran the ball across for one extra point.

Joe Knapp was exceptionally good on defense and showed distinctive adeptness at receiving and carrying the ball on passes. Frank Field played a remarkable defensive game, and Robert Rachuig turned in a stellar performance both on offensive and defensive plays.

Billy Clarke Streater, side-stepping more than one Longhorn, showed great promise of becoming a fine broken-field runner. Other Tigers who saw action against Gordon were Lynn King, James Streater, Harlan Wood, Dennis McAdams, Allen Trigg and Erman Jackson.

Thursday night, October 18, the Tigers will meet the Carlton High School Rams on Hico's football field. The game will begin at 7:30 and admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for students.

According to plans made last Tuesday by the Fairy Athletic Club, Thursday night will be designated as "Dad's Night" and fathers of the Tiger players will be special guests at the game.

penalties, scored a 32-0 landslide victory over the visitors. The local's blocking showed some improvement, and the tackling was good at times. Coach Taylor used nearly all the players on the bench at various times throughout the game, and some of the smaller boys turned in creditable performances.

Hico kicked off to start the game with Gatesville receiving on the 18. Failing to make sufficient yardage for a first down, Gatesville kicked and Hico had possession at the 46. On the first play from scrimmage Buddy Teague set sail for 46 yards and the first touchdown of the night.

Shortly afterwards, in the same period, Sherril Kirk broke loose on a 48-yard touchdown run only to have the play called back and Hico received a 15-yard penalty. The next time Hico got the ball they worked down to the 2-yard line where a fumble killed the drive and ended the first quarter.

Gatesville was unable to gain in the second period and Hico took a short kick on the 31 from where Teague ran it back to the 16. Kirk picked up 4 to the eleven, and Teague blasted for 10 more to the 1 yard line. Van Hooper got the six-pointer on the next play as the Tiger line opened a gapping hole on the left side. It was Hooper's first TD of the season, and ran the score to 12-0. Kirk kicked the point after to make the score 13-0.

Opening the second half Teague got Hico off to a rousing start by returning the kick-off 50 yards to the Gatesville 45. Teague made 3 to the 42 and Hooper picked up 14 more to the 28. Hico fumbled on the next play and Gatesville recovered at the 34. Gatesville was unable to move and Hico took over on their own 29. The longest play of the night was unreel on the next play when Kirk galloped 71 yards for Hico's third TD that put Hico out front 20-0.

Hico's next touchdown was also scored in the third quarter when Hooper rambled 50 yards for the counter. Try for point was no good and the Tigers had extended their lead to 26-0.

Kirk, kicking off for Hico after the touchdown, played the on-side kick perfectly and recovered the ball on Gatesville's 34, only to lose the ball a few plays later on another fumble.

Hico's final touchdown started when they recovered a visitor's fumble on their own 35. After two incomplete passes, Hooper made 14 yards to the 49, and Gary Duncan hit Buddy Ables with a pass good for 22 yards to the Gatesville 30. Duncan plunged for three and Hooper picked up 7 to the 20, and ran again for 11 to the 9, from where a penalty set the ball back to the 14. Duncan passed 6 yards to Ables on the next play, who ran the remaining 8 to the end zone for the final touchdown.

The win brought Hico's record thus far to 2-3, won-lost. A good game is in store for fans Saturday night at the Gap. Game time is 7:30 instead of the usual 8:00 p.m. starting time of past games.

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

All feel very thankful for the rain we are receiving this week. From one-half to one inch seems to be the amount that fell early Monday morning and which, from general reports, seems to be general over most of Central Texas. At this writing Tuesday, a slow rain is falling. Eight-tenths was received just south of Fairy.

Farmers and stockmen had cleaned out ditches and waterways and many had had earthen tanks dug and old ones cleaned which are now ready to receive and take care of any surplus water.

Pastures are beginning to show a greenish hue and grain that had been sown in a fog of dust will soon be coming up.

The highway department topped an additional strip of about five feet on each side of the highway through our little village. This will be very beneficial in parking in front of residences along the main street as the ditches get pretty bad in wet weather.

Uncle Bob Parks, who is a patient at a Hamilton rest home had a sinking spell last Saturday morning and all of his children were called in. Last report from him late Sunday, he was able to sit up in his chair in his room.

Mrs. H. R. Brummett, who was critically injured in a car wreck Monday of last week, underwent surgery at the Clifton Hospital to set a broken leg. She is reported to have stood the operation well and it is hoped she will soon be on her way to recovery. Mrs. Brummett also received cuts and bruises on her head and body, the most severe cut being a lengthy cut across the upper forehead which almost scalped the front portion of her head. Mr. Brummett has also been a patient at the hospital since the accident. He received several broken ribs and a broken collar-bone, cuts and bruises. He is now able to be up and about the hospital. Mrs. Standerfer, who was driving the other car, is also a patient at the hospital. She also received critical injuries, including cuts and bruises and has also undergone surgery on her knees, both of which were crushed, according to reports. Mr. Brummett stated he saw the approaching car in time to have possibly avoided the head-on collision but couldn't leave due to a road maintainer in operation at the point of the accident.

Our last report from Sid Dickerson, who has been a patient at the Hico Hospital the past two weeks, were to the effect that he was improved and was thought he would soon be able to return home.

All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brummett have been here at their bedside at intervals throughout the past week. Those who live elsewhere are Mrs. Guy Vaughn of Otton, who with her husband, son Charles and family have been here. Garfield Brummett of Big Spring, Mrs. J. C. Massengale, Mrs. W. H. Brawley and Mrs. Maggie Paulson of Fort Worth. We sincerely hope their parents will soon be improved and able to return home.

The writer and husband spent Saturday night in Fort Worth visiting in the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marty Haire and to attend a birthday party at the Haire home honoring little Miss LuAnn Lowery, granddaughter of our husband, on her 5th birthday. Twenty-five guests were present. These included the grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins of the honoree. The older guests enjoyed television and diversion of 42 and checkers. Refreshments of delicious home baked cakes and coffee was served. Lu Ann received an assortment of nice and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmy Don visited Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McKandless and family visited during the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alga Duncan.

Friends from here who have visited with the Brummett family at the Clifton Hospital last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abel, Bill Abel, Walter Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and possibly others whose name we haven't received. At last report, Mrs. Brummett was not able to receive visitors.

Mrs. M. E. Parks and son, Audie visited Sunday with Uncle Bob Parks at Hamilton.

The writer attended singing at Lund Valley Sunday afternoon and visited after singing hours with Mrs. Minnie McCarty at Hamilton. We are very glad to report her improved from a rash from which she had been suffering the past several weeks.

We stated in last week's news letter that October 21 was the birthdate of N. S. Sellers of Hamilton. Instead it was the birthdate of Mr. Sellers. Mrs. Sellers birthdate is October 11. October 26 is the birthdate of Mrs. A. H. Sumnerford of near Hamilton.

CEMETERY NEWS

As a member of the Fairy Cemetery Committee, I wish to inform the public that there has been some discussion of a different method of working our cemetery. In times past, as most know, we have been using the weed burners. Since I have been serving on the committee I find this method quite expensive or more so that the hoeing method. Too, help is more easily secured to hoe than to use the burners. The burning method just kills the growth to the ground and in a short time the growth, which is mostly a blue grass, is up again and needing another burning.

This method was first begun to prevent washing of the cemetery. Since that time many, or may we say, most of the lots have been curbed which would prevent them from washing. There has been some talk of hoeing up this grass and working the cemetery with hoes. We feel sure this would make our cemetery look much more attractive, but before coming to any decision on a different method, we would like to have the opinion or desire of every one who has relatives buried here.

As some of you know our caretaker, Mr. Herman Sills, is moving to Whitney about November first. At this time we have no one to take his place but do have some parties in mind whom we think we can secure. There is some work that needs to be done there now and with the added moisture we have received this week, the grass and weeds are going to take on new life. We would like to have everyone interested in this project to drop us a card or personally express your opinion as to the hoeing method. This method had been used for years prior to the burning method.

Please express your desires to either of the committee members, who are Frank Bonner, John Abel and the writer, Mrs. Eunice Daniel. You may address each on Hico, Rt. 3.

We will appreciate your consideration and also any donation you may see fit to contribute.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl King and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wood, Nelda and Ronnie and Charles spent Sunday in Ballinger visiting the ladies' mother, Mrs. C. H. Midgley and Ann. They returned to Hico with the ladies for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wood, Nelda, Ronnie and Charles spent Sunday afternoon at Winters visiting Mr. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wood of Sonora, who were visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stanley and Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pack of Stephenville are visiting today (Tuesday) in the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie.

Mr. and Mrs. Waynand Allison and family of Baytown came in Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison, who are getting acquainted with their new granddaughter. This is their first visit up here since the arrival of their baby daughter.

GATE-CLOSERS

Dear Friends

A farmer friend of ours paid Humble's field men a fine compliment recently.

He said, "There's one thing about you Humble people, you close gates."

Well, of course we do.

All of us at Humble want the good will of the folks with whom we do business. And among those folks, the farmers and ranchers who lease their land to us for exploration and production are right at the top of the list.

In fact, you farmers are partners with us in the development of a vital natural resource. If our efforts are successful then everyone involved benefits.

Keeping the gates closed and the fences mended—things like that are the least we can do.

We know. A lot of us grew up on farms and ranches.

CARLTON

By MRS. FRED GEYE

After an absence of some six weeks from the news from our community, I want to bring you a message of appreciation to each of you who have been so very kind and good to us in so many ways during the days that we have been unable to write. Our hearts and our burdens have been made lighter because of you. Your friendly deeds of loving kindness makes us realize all over again how much it means to bring joy to the heart of another. What sunshine is to flowers, your thoughtfulness was the same to me and the family.

If a Deed, However Humble,
Helps you on your way to go,
Seek out the one whose hand
has helped you,
And forget not to tell him so.
May God richly bless each of you.

THINK BEFORE SIGNING

Whenever you are asked to sign something, your signature should be a warning signal that in some way you may become legally obligated by what you sign.

Usually you are asked to sign something as a result of a business transaction, such as a contract, a receipt, an order, a release, an option, a mortgage or a deed. For your own protection, you should clearly understand what you sign, why you are signing it, and what the consequences may be. It is rarely possible for a person who has signed a document to avoid its legal effects.

You can decrease your legal risks by always taking these precautions before you sign anything:

Know what you are signing and what the document contains. Understand clearly what it means. Don't be confused by its title—a "statement" may be a release of all your claims, or a "contract" may be a negotiable promissory note. "Co-signing" a note may result in your having to pay it.

Read everything in any document. Clauses in fine print may be important. Remember, too, that oral promises not included in writing may be unenforceable. Take nothing for granted.

Check and verify the document. Be sure the dates, prices, names and conditions filled in are correct. You are bound by what it says, not by what you thought it said.

Ask questions. Inquire about conditions and items of importance to you. Don't sign unless you understand what it means. Language clearly stating what you want can be inserted. If substantial sums are involved, consult with your attorney.

Retain a copy. Be sure the proper persons sign. Request and retain a copy. Record it, if necessary, with the proper public official.

Like your fingerprint, your signature is unique. No one else has one exactly like it. Only you can sign it, and affixing it may set into motion events of great legal consequences. Treat it with the importance it deserves, and do not bestow it carelessly. If in doubt, seek information and advice.

Mrs. Keahey related an interesting history about the Tartans. She pointed out all Scots wore plaids until the Battle of Culloden in 1746. At this battle the English nearly annihilated the Scots. As a result, the English outlawed the wearing of the Tartans. For 70 years until the reign of Queen Victoria, the Scots were forbidden to wear their plaids. Finally in the early 1800's Queen Victoria had this law repealed and legalized the Tartan. Upon doing this, a plaid was originated for the Royal family and each time a member of the Royal family visits Scotland they wear their Tartan.

Mrs. Keahey has not been able to add a Tartan to her collection since before World War II. "The mills suspended making Tartans during the war," she pointed out.

But she does say that at the present time she has high hopes of being able to add another Tartan to her collection in the near future.

THE TIGER'S VIEW

As mascot of HHS, I am taking it upon myself to tell you of the outside world about some of our fine scholars ??? attending school this year.

For the first week I am going to interview two Seniors. The reason for this is they are twins. (I might add, the only twin girls in Hico school).

They hail from Duffau and are interested in basketball, volleyball and food.

They can make a basketball go through the basket like it's supposed to do. The P. E. girls are especially glad of this.

We are glad that we are privileged to have students of this type going to school here.

This week, let's give a big Tiger's cheer to . . . Queta and Quata Burgan the cutest twin girls in HHS.

H-H-S SPOTLIGHT

Monday night as I turned on my spotlight I discovered there were very few kids to be found. It seems everyone was home studying. I hope everyone passed their exams. I myself had a pretty tough time like everyone else.

Tuesday night I was home studying for an exam when I heard some commotion coming from the school. As I ventured up to see what was happening, I discovered the Junior High boys were playing Evant. We're proud of our Juniors, as they won 12-0. Good luck boys. At the half-time there was a cake given away by the Senior class. For some odd reason Sherril K. (a senior) won the cake. Say, Sherril, what was that I saw following you out the gate about 70 miles an hour after you got the cake? Coach, did you see how fast those boys can run? After the game I saw Buddy A., Linda R., Charles T., Kay J., Linda M., Sherril K., Andy L., Kendall H., Buddy T., Reggie E. There were a lot more kids at the ball game too.

Wednesday night in the beam of my spotlight I caught sight of Jerre D., Kenneth K., Louise E., Gerald H. I guess everyone else was at home studying.

Thursday night in the show I saw Ann Lee L., Elam B. (and not Elmer) Sherry L., Raymond L. As I flashed my spotlight around Stephenville's I caught sight of Valetta H., Don T., Bonnie J., Gary D., Sherril K. Say, kids was that a good ball game?

Friday night after the ball game I saw Jerre D., Kenneth K., Bonnie J., James D., Buddy T., Reggie E., Kay J., Charles T., La Von P., Judy M., Buddy A., Linda R., Jo Ann N., Alton R., Peggy A., Slick H. That was a real nice game boys. We all enjoyed it a lot. Good luck with your next game.

Saturday night I turned my spotlight on again. As I did I found Buddy A., Linda R., Sherril K., Linda M., Peggy A., Slick H., Elam Bena, Ann Lee L., Jerre D., Kenneth K., James D., Bonnie J., Andy L., Kendall H., Charles T., Kay J., Buddy T., Reggie E., Janice T., Carey M., Margaret P., Jerry N., La Von P., Judy M.

Sunday as I flashed my spotlight around I caught sight of La Von P., Judy M., James D., Bonnie J., Peggy A., Slick H.

Tarleton Has Unique Collection

Stephenville, Oct. 17.—Tarleton State College has struck another first—this time with a collection of 48 Scottish Highland Tartans.

The gift was recently made possible by Mrs. Norton Keahey of Bluff Dale.

Tartans are long pieces of hand-woven woolen garments worn by various clans or families in Scotland. The dress was wrapped around the body and measured two yards long.

The colorful collection which is located on the first floor in the Library consists of the Tartans being draped on models. All are hand-woven by weavers in northern Scotland, and are the authentic plaids, Mrs. Keahey pointed out.

Tartans date back to 1066 during the reign of William the Conqueror.

Mrs. Keahey explained that the plaids have never been changed. The colors are still the same as they were in the eleventh century.

Mrs. Keahey, who has been a resident of Erath County for 40 years, says the collection is the only one she knows of in the state.

She further pointed out that there are 65 Highland Clans which means that the Tarleton collection lacks only 17 having a complete set.

Mrs. Keahey and her late husband first started this collection in 1930. Since that time she has visited in many cities, written numerous letters, and talked with many people, always making inquiries in an attempt to increase her collection. And she's still doing so today.

It was by accident that Mr. and Mrs. Keahey first started their collection.

She related that in 1930 her husband was carrying on correspondence with a man in Scotland concerning papers of import on Shorthorn cattle.

During this correspondence Mr. and Mrs. Keahey started ordering scarves. All of the Tartans are hand-woven at Iverness, Scotland, which is known as the capital of the Tartan Industry.

Barnyard "WHOOdonit"

The Barn Owl Controversy still rages in our town. One group claims owls should be protected because they eat vermin. The other faction holds that those little howlers also eat chickens... and should be shot.

Now Pops Parker claims both parties are right. All owls clean up vermin. Some owls also clean out an occasional hen yard.

The way to spot a bad owl, according to Pops, is to put up a 10-foot pole in the chicken run with a No. 2 trap on it. A marauding bird generally perches to look over the situation before he strikes, giving you your evidence, and the culprit!

From where I sit, I doubt if this will end the owl argument. People have different opinions on the subject—just as they have different opinions about whether beer, tea or what-have-you makes the best thirst quencher. Examine the facts and make up your own mind, I say... and be thankful we live where that's possible.

Texans Find Ike Stands For Same Things We Do

A fellow was in our town the other day selling men's suits. He was from St. Louis, and he said he was a manufacturer's representative. Grandpa would have called him a dry goods drummer, and Papa would have referred to him as a traveling salesman. This shows you how things change with time. But actually that fellow from St. Louis was doing just about what the earlier visitors did—trying to sell suits.

You might say that he stayed in the same place but the names went off and left him. Reminded me some of the political situation in Texas.

I was reading a letter in the daily newspaper last week, from a man who said he was going to vote for Eisenhower. "I am a Democrat," he wrote to the editor of the paper, "but I feel like the party has run off and left me."

Come to think of it, a lot of conservative-type Texas Democrats are in that shape today. They haven't changed their views much on such things as local control, government spending, bureaucratic red tape, and freedom of the individual; they still travel the same road they did 20 or 30 years ago, even if they do it at 70 miles an hour instead of 25.

They grew up believing that a man could live down nearly anything except voting for a Republican. They always voted 'er straight, until a good many of them jumped over the traces in '52 and went for Ike.

"I can't figure out what's happened," one of them told me. "Seems like Eisenhower talks like a Democrat and Stevenson talks like a college professor."

The other day this same fellow said, "I think I've got it figured out. Ike stands for the things us Texas Democrats have always stood for. Adlai is too thick with Walter Reuther and that crowd to suit me. I'm going for Ike again."

That's the way with most folks in our town. They decided to give Ike a try at it in '52, and they like the way he has gone about the job. There are some things they wished he'd done a little different, but by and large they think he has made us a fine President. At least all the hometown boys are back from Korea, and as far as we can tell the government is being run honestly.

Somebody asked that Missouri suit salesman how Mr. Truman was getting along, and he said he didn't know. "He isn't in the clothing business any more," he explained. "In fact, as far as I can tell, he is clear out of all kinds of business."

Yours Truly,
Tex

RE-SEEDING TEXAS' PARCHED RANGES

In the face of lingering drouth which has left countless Texas ranges baked bare of grass, consideration must be given to re-establishing these pastures in the quickest, surest manner possible. In recent tests to determine best methods and grass for re-establish range land, significant findings have resulted which should prove valuable in all of Texas' widely-scattered range areas. Treatments used in the re-grassing study include pitting (a tilled area 3-6 inches deep, 3-5 feet wide) without reseeding, pitting after seeding and pitting before seeding. Grasses used in the tests included strains of sideoats grama and vine mesquite. In nearly all operations where pitting was used, moisture-holding capacity was improved and native growth was stimulated. Best results came from broadcast seeding following pitting, although operations involving pitting alone proved worthwhile when any significant growth existed. Native grasses that reseeded best on their own were sand muhly, purple threeawn and sideoats grama. Solid pitting in every instance proved more valuable than skip-pitting done at 6 to 10 foot intervals, because of the greater moisture-storing capacity.

NEW REGRASSING SEED

In tests being held elsewhere, a new strain of sideoats grama grass called Colonada has proved to be probably the most desirable reseed for the bald range.

Among its best qualities are a high seedling vigor and ability to produce stands, a winter-hardiness, and a high average protein content. The good seed strength of the new variety apparently is due to the fact that its seeds are considerably larger than those of other strains of sideoats grama.

The sideoats gramas, as a species, are a "mid-grass." They cure on the stem better than tall grasses, but not as well as the short grasses. They are deep-rooted drawing moisture from as far down as seven feet.

This last quality alone makes Colonada, which admittedly was developed in Oklahoma, a good neighbor to thirsty Texas range-lands.

It Happened Here or Near

By E. E. DAWSON

Did you ever see a Penance Fence? Well, I have; just one. Let me tell you about it. It is in Reeves County, at the north foot of the Davis Mountains, Texas' highest range. The fence is a bit over a half mile long about forty inches high, built of flat rocks laid flat, rising from the valley floor and reaching the apex of a foothill. It has been there so many years one hesitates to try to guess how long, but said to be well over two hundred years. It is between the villages of Balmorhea and Toyahvale, at the foot of the mountain range. It is not a line fence, nor for enclosing anything, nor to hold any sort of animals in check.

That is a region inhabited by Yaqui Indians for many centuries; nobody knows how long those folks have lived there. They are now called Mexicans, but when you investigate you find they are not Mexicans at all, though they speak a corrupted form of the Spanish language. Very few of the present so-called Mexicans in that region ever saw Mexico, and only a small per cent of them ever even saw the Rio Grande. They live today much as they have lived through all their past, owning almost nothing, working for small wages, hewers of wood and drawers of water, if a Scripture may be quoted.

Somewhere back there in the past a Spanish priest was sent by superior to the population of that area to minister to the people. There is a small church there yet that dates back into a dim past that nobody remembers and of which are no records. This Spanish priest nobody remembers and of which are no records. This Spanish priest was hundreds of miles from any other priest, and he committed some sin that must have been pretty serious. He was very miserable in his feeling of guilt, and it was too far to think of going to where a priest was to confess his sins and have absolution and a penance assigned him. But he felt he must have absolution. So he went into the confessional of the little church and confessed to himself and received absolution at his own hands, and gave himself a gigantic task as a penance. It was to build that fence that still stands. He began it and his labors ran through a considerable stretch of years.

It was an enormous task. He had to pick up the flat rocks at the foot of the high hill, around two hundred feet high above the fence and place them. The rocks were to be had only around the foot of the hill. As the fence moved up the hillside he had to carry those stones farther and farther. Day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year he kept at it until he was no longer a young man, and his strength had abated until a small stone was a load for him. But he kept at it and reached the apex of the hill and across the flat top and started down on the east side of the hill. The final stretches of the fence range from a single stone on the ground to the full height of the fence.

Finally the aged priest died. The fence stopped where he laid the final stone. The inhabitants, Indians and whites alike, are quite respectful of the fence and no serious vandalism had injured it when I saw it last several years ago. People of all faiths and no faith alike pay tribute to the sturdy priest of long ago for his devotion to his sense of obligation. There must have been some pretty strong stuff in his makeup, and a really deep piety, and a complete consecration to what he considered his duty as a man, a creature of God, and one ordained of his church to carry on its ministry.

I have always had a deep reverence for the unknown priest, for nobody now living ever seemed to have heard of his name. I cannot share many tenets of his faith, but his devotion to God and his church are surely worthy of honor.

God's Requirements . . .

By MORGAN GARRETT

God expects certain things of every person. There are things God requires of you and me. Three of the central requirements of God are given in the Bible in Micah 6:8. These are the words recorded there: "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

Justice in conduct is one of the primary requirements of God. God calls for justice from us in all our dealings with other people. This does not mean merely doing what social pressures make us do. It means doing what is fair and decent in the sight of God. One of the best examples of this kind of justice I ever saw came out of the life of a building contractor I knew in Arlington. One day this man was talking with me about some of his employees. It was shortly after the national law had been passed establishing seventy-five cents an hour as the minimum wage. This man told me that he employed certain unskilled laborers on a regular full-time basis. The wage being paid for such labor in Arlington at the time was eighty cents an hour. This man, a steward in the Methodist Church, said that it was not possible for these men to make enough for a decent living at eighty cents an hour. The law of supply and demand called for eighty cents an hour. The justice of God called for a dollar an hour, and that is what this man of God paid. This is the way to fulfill God's requirements of justice.

God requires of us that we shall love mercy. This does not mean that we are to love mercy only when we need it and to love harshness when the case involves some other person. This means to love mercy in all our dealings with others. This means willingness to give another chance. This means the eagerness to lift up the fallen. This means the willingness to forgive. Some persons love unlimited vengeance. Some persons love

"an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," but God requires of us that we shall love mercy. Therefore, to fulfill this requirement I beseech you, "be ye kind, tenderhearted, forgiving one another as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you."

Finally, God requires that we walk humbly in His presence. As a matter of fact the only way we can walk with God at all is to walk humbly. "Let no one think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but think with sober judgment."

"God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble;" therefore, fulfill the requirements of God by walking humbly in His presence day after day.
