HERE IN HICO

By E. V. M.

The community of Iredell lost a true friend last Friday morning when Miss Stella Jones passed away.

By the phrase "true friend" we mean that perhaps no person has ever been more loyal to a community than Miss Stella was. For more than 25 years she was correspondent for this newspaper, along with MISS STELLA the Meridian Tribune, and the Walnut Springs Hustler as long as that paper was in existence. And through her weekly columns Miss Stella has recorded the history and progress of the community, its schools, and citizens. She recorded the births, the deaths, the weddings, the local happenings, and threw in a short story occasionally which added to the interest of her weekly letters.

And she was regular and prompt. Unless Miss Stella was ill or unable to gather the news her column was as regular as the days. Back before her health failed last year Miss Stella was a familiar figure as she stood on the streets of Iredell watching for any item of news, and asking about visitors, and the other things that go to make up her column for the following week.

Miss Stella was also a devoted Christian. Any time of the week, day or night, as long as her health held, she would be at any meeting or service of her church. She loved the church perhaps more than anything else, and was faithful to the end.

Miss Stella has ended a full life, and has begun her journey to the happy home above. Miss Stella is gone, but the days will be many before she is forgotten.

IT'S UP TO YOU . . . to say whether or not you want to go ahead with the Bosque Watershed Project which most readers have heard so much about in the past year. The government is ready with the necessary funds and it is now up to us to establish the water district before further steps can be taken on the matter.

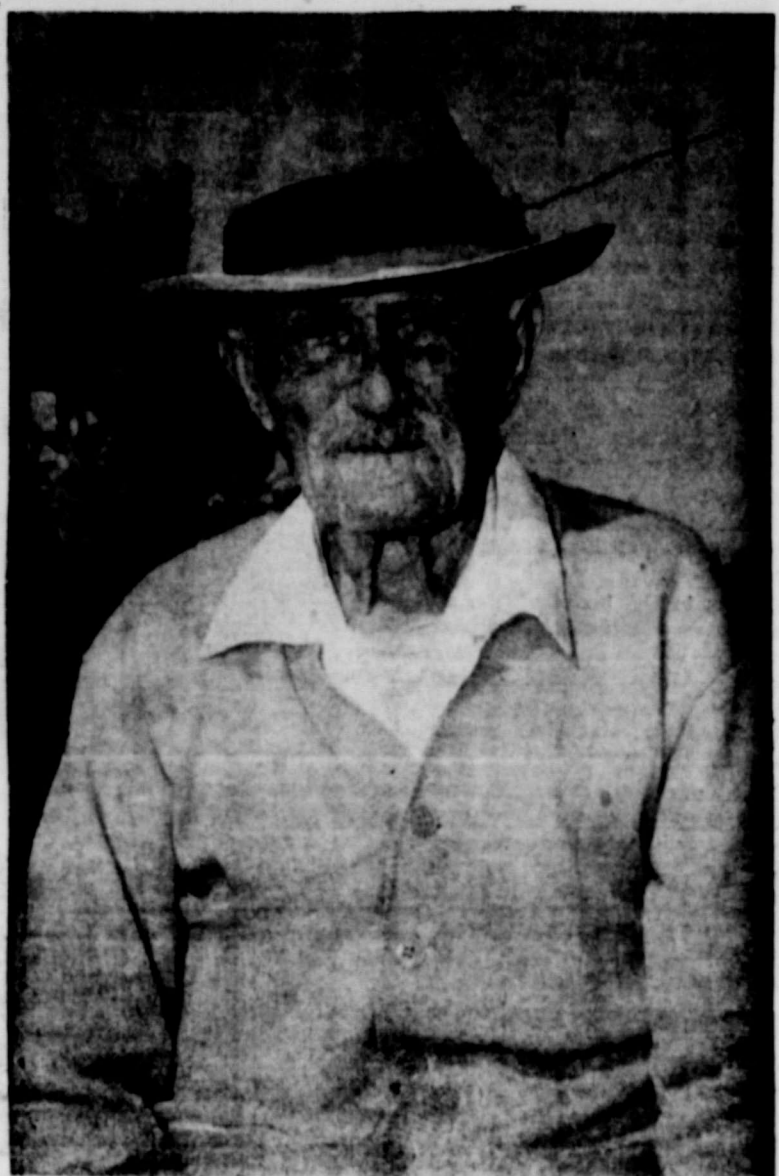

At the meeting held Monday night in Stephenville approximately 400 persons heard Congressman Omar Burleson of the 17th District and Bob Poage of the 11th District urge citizens in the proposed district to work as hard as possible for the project and not let it die in the advanced stage that it is now in. Also at the meeting Marion Porter, local Soil Conservationist of Stephenville, outlined other details which would be required of farmers and ranchers in the proposed district.

A complete story on the planned program is to be found elsewhere on this page and explains the interest of the two Congressmen who met with the group Monday. The story was written by Ellyson Taylor, editor of the Stephenville Daily Empire.

The election for the forming of the district is slated Saturday, November 10th, and we feel that it is the duty of every taxpaying citizen to go to the polls and give this important matter an affirmative vote. Voting boxes will be conveniently located in the City Hall for local residents; at the V. H. (Pete) Jenkins home for those persons residing in the district but who live outside the city limits of Hico; and a third box in Bosque County located at the H. D. Head home.

Eligible voters in the election are persons who hold a poll tax receipt or an exemption certificate, and who have property which is rendered for taxation, whether it be personal or real property.

Special emphasis is being put forth on the fact that this is NOT a bond election, and in all probability, no bond will be necessary to carry out the program.

99 YEARS YOUNG—Uncle Dock Kerley celebrated his 99th birthday last Sunday at his home in the Altman community, with the annual barbecue beef dinner. Approximately 350 guests were present to help Dock celebrate the occasion. He was born in Tennessee and moved to this area in 1870. He is the father of 9 children, five of whom are living, and also has 26 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren. (Reed Studio)

Tigers Defeat Crantills Gap; Open Date This Week

Hico posted their fourth win of the season last Saturday night, whipping a good Crantills Gap eleven in the first district encounter for both teams. The game was played at the Gap before a large crowd of homecoming fans. The loss was perhaps a big disappointment to most of the home team fans as they had been predicted to win from the local Tigers with ease.

The game was a fierce-fought battle with Hico coming out on the long end of a 13-0 score at the end. The win can be credited to an all-out team effort by the Tigers as every man who saw action in the contest put everything they had into the battle. The line blocked good in spots, but it was the aggressive defense that really put the stopper on the passing and running of the Gap. The Tigers' pass defense was especially a bright spot, allowing a good Gap passer only two completions in eleven attempts, and intercepting 3 of those tosses.

Hico's passing attack was the best of the season as Carey McKenzie completed three of four chances. Buddy Ables was on the receiving end of two of the tosses, and Sherrel Kirk caught the other. Hico's offense wasn't quite as explosive as in past games, but their outstanding defensive play more than offset their inability to move the ball at will. A soft field prevented a couple of plays from going all the way for the Tigers. On several different occasions Kirk and Buddy Teague seemed to break away on runs which could have gone all the way except for the lost dirt which caused them to slip and fall.

The first half of the game ended scoreless as neither team could muster enough punch to cross the double stripe. However Hico made the most serious threat early in the first period when they penetrated to the Gap 5, only to lose the ball on a fumble back at the eighteen.

The Lions penetrated Hico's 20 yard line in the first two periods, once working to the 19 and again to the 9 before the Tiger defense rose up to kill the drives.

TIGERS HAVE OPEN DATE THIS WEEK

The Tigers have an open date this week due to the cancellation of the Ogleby game, and coaches Taylor and Keeling are hoping to take advantage of the holiday to get their charges in readiness for the game with Valley Mills the following week. The game will be played at Valley Mills.

A large group of Hico fans will probably go to Valley Mills this week to witness the battle between the Eagles and Meridian. Both teams are reported strong and the winner of this game will probably emerge as the district champion, unless the Hico Tigers alter their plans in some way.

After Hico's game with Valley Mills they will close the season with Meridian at Tiger Stadium on November 9th.

RUN-DOWN ON LAST WEEK'S GAME

A rundown on last week's game with the Gap shows Hico kicking off to the Lions to start the game. Gap received on the 34 and after two running plays moved out to the 28. Sherrel Kirk ran under a Lion pass at the 40 and galloped to the 30. Teague picked up 5 yards to the Gap 25, and on fourth down with 5 to go for a first, McKenzie hit Buddy Ables with a quick pass over the center, and Buddy fought his way to the Lion 5 before being dropped. Confusion prevailed on the next two plays and Hico failed to score. The first play lost 6 yards and a fumble gave the ball to Gap on the next play back on the 18. The Lions were unable to gain, and the remainder of the period was played without either team threatening again.

In the second period the Lions worked to the Tiger 19, but Hico pushed them back and took over at the 30. Hico was never able to get moving in this period due to fumbles. The first fumble was recovered by Gap on the Tiger 33.

Bosque 'Shed Plan Outlined at Meeting

By ELLYSON TAYLOR
Stephenville Daily Empire

The proposed Upper Bosque Watershed Protection Program was given a good illustration of "what is needed in America to keep the land from becoming like the barren areas of the Middle East and North Africa" by Congressman Bob Poage of Waco at a rally held in the district courtroom of the county courthouse Monday night in Stephenville.

Mr. Poage, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee's sub-committee on conservation, was introduced by Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson, who pointed out that the centers of great ancient civilization in the Middle East and North Africa are now barren because the people didn't take care of their God-given resources.

Burleson stated that the water problem is serious in a number of places in the U.S., either from too much of it or not enough and that he is concerned with the conservation of both the soil and water.

He pointed out in introducing Congressman Poage that Mr. Poage was instrumental in having the Greens Creek Upstream Program included in the pilot legislation, which was the forerunner of the federal program local leaders hope to be able to apply to the Bosque.

In opening his talk, Congressman Poage stated that many people do not realize that foreign affairs have a lot to do with farm affairs since the foreign policy of the nation will have an effect on the marketing overseas of American farm products. He emphasized this in commenting on Congressman Burleson's key position on the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

In pointing up his direct interest in the proposed project, which would be made possible should the eligible voters of the watershed area approve the establishment of a special water control district on Nov. 10, Congressman Poage stressed that the people on the lower reaches of the Bosque are in full accord with the program.

"Some other cities are not interested in upstream conservation," he said, "but they will get as much mud in their lakes as they will water without it."

He humorously added that the citizens of Erath County are welcome to their soil that now lies in Lake Waco and can come and get it any time they wish.

He stressed that he thinks that with good conservation on the land and streams in the watersheds the big cities will get as much water in their lakes as they will if the land above the lakes is barren.

"The big cities to the north of us (Waco) seem determined to get all of their water by flash floods and I think it is a short-sighted policy," he said.

He traced the growth of flood control work from the beginning when large dikes were built around the city of New Orleans on the Mississippi, through the huge reservoirs built by the Army Engineers on the major tributaries to the present trend toward watershed treatment.

The Waco congressman lauded the Army Engineers for their "magnificent work in erecting these flood control dams," but stated that he and the other members of the sub-committee on conservation thought that we ought to do something about the floods on the upstream watersheds.

He stressed that the smaller floods on the watersheds do more damage to more people than do the major floods on the big rivers.

His committee began holding hearings on the watershed protection program several years ago, the first of them being at Gatesville where one farmer emphasized that the landowners were not interested in flood control but wanted something in the way of flood prevention.

The proposed Bosque project was then given as an illustration of a way to prevent floods by the Waco congressman when he stated that the way to prevent floods

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

All are enjoying some beautiful autumn days this week with cool nights which make us realize old man winter is on the way.

Grain is coming up some since the rain we received early last week. However we are afraid there isn't going to be sufficient moisture to bring up grain to a full stand.

We were very sorry to learn Monday of the critical injuries of Jimmie Bingham of Hamilton who was injured Sunday night in a car wreck near Brenham. Jimmie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bingham of Hamilton, his mother being the former Louise Walker of Fairy, and granddaughter of the late Will Smith of Fairy. Mrs. Bingham called back to Hamilton early Monday morning to inform relatives that Jimmie had regained consciousness for just a short while after their arrival at his bedside. Jimmie was a graduate of Hamilton High School and was attending A & M College. We sincerely hope he will soon be fully recovered and able to resume his studies.

We were also sorry to learn that Mrs. J. B. Jaggars and daughter, Bobby, age 9, were injured in a car wreck between Carlton and Dublin Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Jaggars who has been nursing her injured husband who received a broken neck when his pickup overturned near Hico early in September reported Mr. Jaggars improved. He is still confined at Harris Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth. We did not learn the extent of Mrs. Jaggars' and daughter's injuries. Hope they were not seriously injured. The Jaggars family reside at Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCoy received word last week that her brother-in-law, Mr. Floyd Lamb of Dallas had passed away. Funeral services for Mr. Lamb were held at Maybank on Friday afternoon. Relatives from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley and Lera Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Faglie, Ariane and Darrel and their son, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Faglie and two children were in Grapevine last Friday evening to attend the wedding of their daughter and sister, Miss Wanda Faglie to Mr. Freddie Joyce of Grapevine. Miss Faglie had been employed in Dallas but formerly resided at Grapevine. Mrs. S. A. Faglie, Ariane and Darrel had gone over on Thursday and visited with relatives and friends. The couple were married at the home of an aunt. We wish for them much happiness and prosperity through life.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fort of near Cranfills Gap visited Sunday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. Emma Ogle.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley and Lera Jane had as guests Monday and Monday night, Mr. Bertie Forsythe and brother, Freddy and his daughter and baby, all of Beaumont.

The last report from Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brummett was that he was able to be up and about and attend church. Mrs. Brummett, who was more seriously injured, is reported to be some better, but was quite ill for several days following surgery last Monday to set a broken limb. We hope she is much improved by now and will be able to return to her home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don spent Sunday in Hamilton at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers where several of the Sellers children and their families had met to honor their father on his birthday.

Mrs. Britt Little has been visiting the past several days with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Dickerson of near Hico.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin visited here Sunday in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison and the writer. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were in Dallas recently to bring his mother, Mrs. A. R. Hoover to Dublin to her home, after a visit in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield have moved to Evant where he will serve as minister for the Church of Christ.

On a trip to Dallas Monday our husband found an almost new ladies' shoe between Cleburne and Alvarado. Who knows, this information might reach the owner. If so the shoe can be picked up at Daniel Produce in Hico.

The writer attended singing Sunday afternoon at Warrens Creek Baptist Church near Lankin. On our return to Hamilton we visited a while with Mrs. Minnie McCarty at a rest home and also stopped a few minutes to say happy birthday to N. S. Sellers of Hamilton.

David Stiton of Fort Worth visited a while one day last week in the home of his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox.

Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin visited here Tuesday in the home of her mother, the writer, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don were in Waco Monday for a physical check-up for Jimmie Don. The brace was removed from his shoe and his parents purchased his first pair of oxford shoes of which he was quite proud. He has had to wear shoes with high tops for the past six years in order that the leg brace might be attached to the shoe.

Many friends and relatives are expected to attend a reception honoring our retiring postmaster, W. E. Goynes next Sunday, October 28 at the school gym. Mr. Goynes was born and reared here and has served in the post office department for the past 34 years. The reception will be from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

We received a letter recently from Mrs. Will Jones of Culver City, former resident of Fairy. She has been quite ill for some time with arthritis and has suffered a great deal.

Here! New Task-Force 57 Chevrolet Trucks!

Performance-proved in a history-making test on the ALCAN Highway to Alaska

The Alcan Highway is the road where trucks grow old before their time. The road where gravel endlessly sledgehammers the life out of trucks. Where a fog of superfine dust chokes engines, and vicious ruts subject chassis to months of wear in a few hundred miles.

Six new '57 Chevrolet trucks, heavily loaded with cargo, roared north from Dawson Creek, B.C., through 1,520 miles of mountains and mire, rain and hail to Fairbanks, Alaska. Running around the clock, they made this tortuous trip—normally a 72-hour run—in less than 45 hours. As a special test during the run, two of the trucks went the entire distance without once having their engines stopped!

FOOTBALL GAME

Everybody was out Saturday night to see a good football game with Hico and Cranfills Gap. The band, pep squad and a lot of Hico fans were there to help out with their yelling.

As the game moved along everyone seemed to enjoy it more and more. As the half ended the score was still 0 to 0.

Then on the first play in the third quarter, Van Hooper made a beautiful touchdown run. The extra point was good, and Hico led 7-0.

As the fourth quarter came around Sherril Kirk made our other touchdown. We all thought it was a wonderful game boys. Let's have some more like that with more points.

THE TIGER'S VIEW

Since I interviewed Seniors last week, my interest is centered on the Junior class this week.

The specific junior I am interviewing is one who is really on the ball (in more ways than one).

He is a great football player, or at least, that's what the juniors think. After last Saturday night though, everyone thinks so.

This junior is especially interested in football.

You can tell he is a typical junior by his winning smile and friendly way.

The juniors are very proud to have this student in their class.

The boy I've been growling about is . . . Van Hooper, a junior who's got that old HHS spirit.

FIRE PREVENTION

Last week was Fire Prevention Week. The students, both in grade school and high school, made posters or wrote themes on Fire Prevention.

Mr. W. R. Hampton and Mr. Monroe Latham were up at the school house one day last week. They are both volunteer firemen at Hico. While at school they demonstrated different kinds of extinguishers and told us many things about fire which we did not know. One important piece of information is that burning plastic forms a poison gas.

The posters and themes which were made from the third, fifth, sixth, eighth, tenth, and twelfth grades have been judged. I heard, but we have not been told who won. Maybe we will know next week.

Be careful! Prevent fires!

H-H-S CLASS ACTIVITIES FOR HALLOWEEN CARNAVAL

The classes of High School have several useful items which they would like to sell chances on for the Halloween Carnival.

So far each class has done extremely well with these items. We hope everyone will give us his full support.

Items which each class have to sell are:

Seniors: Schick Electric Razor, Juniors: Portable Radio, Sophomores: A big Baby Doll, fully dressed.

Freshmen: Cake Sales and sandwiches.

The best of luck to each class.

H-H-S SENIOR FOOTBALL BOYS

We are really proud of our Senior football boys this year.

The Seniors almost make up the entire football team which is having a successful season due to Coach Taylor wearing different colored socks. Seniors this year who are participating in football are Sherril Kirk, an outstanding player who has lettered three years; Buddy Teague, another of our best players, who has lettered three years; Carey McKenzie, who has lettered two years; Charles Hyles, who has lettered two years; Charles Stipe, who has lettered two years; Andy Lackey, who was unable to play the first of the season due to an operation on his foot, but who is rapidly making up for lost time; Jerry Hamrick, who is playing for the first time for Hico, and Kenneth Smith, who is also playing for the first time for Hico.

We will miss these boys very much, both in football and other school activities next year.

H-H-S SPOTLIGHT

Monday night after I changed the batteries in my spotlight and turned it on I caught sight of Jerre D. Kenneth K. Peggy A. Slick H. Sherry L. Raymond L. Elam K. Linda Mc. Slick H. and H. Linda R. Buddy A. Everyone must have passed their six-week tests or you wouldn't have gotten to go anywhere.

Tuesday night must have been a pretty good night for the couples of Hico. In Hico I caught sight of Kay J. Charles T. Sherril Peggy A. As I turned my spotlight on you get red soda pop all over on fall force towards Stephenville I saw Linda R. Don T. Gerald H. Louise B. Maxidene L. John P. Ann Lee L. Elam B. Say kids, what happened to the skating party you all were going to have? Don, may I ask you a question? Do you get red soda pop all over your face every time you go out? Wednesday morning as I looked around school I caught sight of a sad face. It seems the face belonged to a Senior girl. What was the matter "Lefty". Did you know who had to report back to Uncle Sam? He'll be back. Don't worry. As night time came around I became very sleepy and retired to bed. So as you know I didn't see anyone. I thought I should let you rest for some time, as well as myself.

Thursday as I walked around school I heard someone saying "Isn't it pretty? Boy I wish I had one like that." It seems we have a very lucky girl in school. Peggy Ables received an engagement ring Wednesday night. Come on you boys, we'd like one too. Wouldn't we girls? Thursday night I caught sight of Joe C. and Valletta H. Sherril K. and Linda Mc. Buddy T. and Reggie E. It also seems there were about eleven girls enjoying a slumber party at M. P. Did you girls have a lot of fun?

I don't know what happened to everyone Friday night for I only saw Sherry L. and Raymond L. Kenneth S. Valetta H. How do you expect me to find anyone unless you go somewhere. Come on kids, lets get going.

Saturday night we ventured over to Cranfills Gap for a football game. We really enjoyed the game. We're proud to say we won 13-0. After the game Saturday night I flashed my spotlight around and caught sight of Reggie E. and Buddy T. Carey Mc. and Janice T. Kay J. and Charles T. Bonnie J. and James D. Sherry L. and Raymond L. Andy L. and Kendall H. Myrna M. and Carol F. Sherril K. and Linda Mc. Ann Lee L. and Elam B. LaVon P. and Judy M. Butch E. and Carolyn P. Margaret P. and ?

After attending the ball game and screaming my lungs out I was pretty tired so I went home.

Sunday as I turned on my spotlight I caught sight of Buddy T. and Reggie E. LaVon P. and Judy M. Bonnie J. and James D. Myrna M. and Carol F.

We'll see you this week so you had better watch out.

country living
by LUCY P. GAVIN

It seems almost miraculous—a platter of perfectly cooked bacon and eggs every time!

It took a move from the city to the country to make me realize how "fool proof" cooking has become. When Jim and I first considered moving into our country "dream home" I loved the prospect of having my own spacious garden—of having the children attend modern uncrowded schools without need to cross dirty streets, dodging heavy traffic.

But I'll admit I was worried about my reputation as a cook—living miles beyond city gas mains. I soon found out though that we could have a private "gas well" in the form of a liquefied petroleum gas tank, right in our back yard, and could continue to use the latest gas appliances.

We installed one of the newest gas ranges in our kitchen and that's when I really learned what modern top-of-the-range cookery was all about. My new range has an automatically controlled top burner which is in use almost constantly.

Every pot or pan put on the controlled top burner becomes an automatic utensil. I simply set the dial to the temperature recommended by the range manufacturer for the particular food being prepared, and unless I want to turn the food—like bacon, for instance—forget about it till it's time to take it off. It's never necessary to adjust or readjust the heat—it stays at the selected temperature automatically.

Because the pan never gets too hot, no matter how long it's left there, it's practically impossible to burn or scorch the food. Vegetables, custards, meats, fish, cereals, sauces and gravies are a "cinch" to cook to perfection.

My family thinks it's the country air that has turned me into such an excellent cook. All I know is it certainly is fun preparing all sorts of foods on my new gas range. Once the pan is put on the automatic top burner and the temperature dial set I can completely forget about the food until it's time to set it on the table. Here's my family's latest favorite:

PIZZA PIE

- 1 tablespoon shortening
- 1 cup biscuit mix
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 can (4 oz.) Vienna sausage, chopped
- 1/2 cup tomato paste
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup (4 oz.) mushroom stems and pieces
- 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon oregano

Grease skillet on bottom and half-way up sides with shortening to form a thick coating. Mix biscuit mix and milk together and spread evenly in skillet. Top with remaining ingredients in order given. Cover and bake on automatic controlled top burner 20 minutes at 300°F. Cut in wedges and serve hot. 4 servings.

Doleful Senators Due Shock When Ike Wins, Fears Doc

One of the strongest Eisenhower men in our town is Doc Brown. Doc says he just can't put up with Stevenson's socialized medicine program; there are a lot of other things he doesn't like about Adlai, but that one is enough for him, he says. Doc is a pretty outspoken cuss, but he's a good doctor. At least, he's the best one in town, being the only one, and our people always call him when they get sick, whether they like his politics or not.

The other day several of us were standing around in front of the post office, talking politics—some Eisenhower men and some for Stevenson—when Doc walked up looking glum. One of the Stevenson men said: "Hey, Doc, what's the trouble, did Ike just call you in some bad news?"

Doc Brown said no, he hadn't heard from Ike this week, but he was worried.

"Not about Ike, you understand," he told the Stevenson fellow. "Ike has got it made. Even the Stevenson people are beginning to admit that. Poor old Adlai isn't going to get any farther in this race than he could throw Kefauver's conskin cap with the tail cut off.

"The ones I am worried about are these out-of-state senators who are coming down here to Texas to tell us how to vote. I sure feel sorry for those boys. It must be tough to face life with their attitude.

"To hear them tell it, this country is in a terrible shape. All the farmers are starving, all

THE FARMER: POLITICAL STORMCENTER

With the 1956 presidential election campaigns currently reaching their peak, the farm issue had graduated to an all-time high in political debate.

The farm problem is a living campaign issue—more than a political football to be booted around and more than an interesting debate to be observed by the voting public. And the point in question is not whether something should be done, but rather exactly what what must be done.

No one will fail to recognize that American farmers are living in a state of depression completely out of keeping with the overall picture. However, few people really understand why the problem is so acute with farmers, and even fewer know how seriously the farm problem could affect other areas of American economy.

PRINCIPLE OF PARITY Everyday questions of "why can't the farmers take their own chances like I do in my business?" and "what's with this parity stuff?" come from those who have a warped picture of the greedy farmer who wants everything for nothing.

That just isn't so. Necessity of government control in agricultural economy can be explained through its unique position as an individual, dependent economic segment.

In nearly all phases of economy there are checks and balances which will keep the costs of labor, living, production, and marketing in near-balance because of their strict inter-dependence.

Unhappily with the farmer, his dependence on other areas of trade is not reciprocal except where his purchasing power is concerned. And this is very important.

But the farmer's supply has grown to a point of almost constantly exceeding consumer demand. Yet, he must market his crop somehow or else be ruined. And when he gets to the market place, the farmer must be able to sell his goods at a rate which will shall be provided to enable the voters to write in names of other persons whom they may desire to elect as directors. Said ballot shall be substantially the following form:

Fred McCleskey L. B. Howard Henry Clark T. A. Randals C. C. Winters

All voters desiring to vote for persons other than those named on the ballot shall strike out the name or names of the person or persons listed and write in the name or names of the person or persons for whom they desire to vote.

This notice is given pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors on the 8th day of October, 1956.

FRED McCLESKEY, President, Board of Directors, North Bosque Water Control and Improvement District of Erath, Bosque and Hamilton Counties.

be in line with his buying power. And that's exactly what parity prices are—dollars-and-cents prices that give to farm commodities the same purchasing power the commodities had in a selected base period when prices received and paid by farmers were considered in good balance.

By this reasoning, the farmer's parity ratio now should range at least up to 100 per cent because everything he buys, plus his taxes and interest rates, are at an all-time high.

But under present "flexible" price supports, parity ratio has plummeted while farm costs have skyrocketed. The parity formula has been completely cockeyed. In any other business this could never work; increased costs would be passed on to the next in line and so on down to the consumer. Why should the farmer have to suffer the brunt of economic shock? He can not prosper under present controls, nor can he survive without proper controls. The issue must be resolved. And it will be, one way or another, on election day, November 6.
