Double Feature Program Slated at Hico Theatre

"The Desperados Are in Town", a frontier drama of a teenage farm boy who joins an outlaw gang and then fights to go straight with the help of his childhood sweetheart, is the feature Friday and Saturday at Hico Theatre.

Based on a Bennett Foster thrillpacked story which appeared in The Saturday Evening Post, "Desperados" stars Robert Arthur and Kathy Nolan.

In his current picture, Arthur plays the role of a young, somewhat rebellious farm boy who runs away from his parent's run-down, dilapidated Southern farm to seek a future of his own. Circumstances, however, involve him with a vicious outlaw gang and when given the opportunity, he decides to return home. His parents having passed away in the meantime, he decides to rebuild the farm. In his task, he gets a lot of assistance from his childhood sweetheart, played by Kathy Nolan. In this film she helps him overcome many obstacles on his road to personal

The exciting climax when some of his former outlaw "friends" try to incriminate him and obtain his help in robbing the local bank should be something to see.

Banana Nut Bars bring a taste of the tropics to late winter meals.

Bar cookies as good as cake, and decorative enough for company are Banana Nut Bars. A squiggle of whipped cream cheese or plain margarine-flavored frosting over the top of each bar gives them added appeal. Incidentally, it's the blend of the margarine in the batter with the bananas that not only makes these cookies taste so good but makes them moist and tender. The cookies can also be cut into squares and served with a spoonful of ice cream on top. Or they can be served warm, with a rich margarine-lemon sauce poured over each serving. Because these cookies are moist, they keep well. Cover the cooled-pan of cookies with foil and store them right in the pan. Or cut bars or squares, wrap and freeze. The delightful fruitflavor is as fresh as ever when the cookies are defrosted.

To decorate the bars, cream a half stick of margarine until Gradually add sifted powdered sugar and a tablespoon of coffee cream or top milk until the frosting is just stiff enough to flow slowly from the tip of a spoon. With a teaspoon make diagonal lines across the top of each bar. Sprinkle freeting with chopped coconut. _
