A short band concert will begin at 7 p.m., followed immediately by auctioning of the boxes. Money derived from the supper will be used to purchase two new band uniforms.

HOMECOMING POSTPONED UNTIL 1958

Officials of the Ex-Students Homecoming Association decided this week to postpone the annual school homecoming until October, 1958.
Main reason for the postponement was the influenza epidemic which has hit most of the towns throughout the state, and in this area.
Plans will be made early, and an attempt will be made to have one of the best homecomings in history in 1958.

Fairy Wins Second District Game in Romp Over Gordon

By HARLAN WOOD
The Fairy Tigers and the Gordon Longhorns met in the second conference game for both teams last Thursday night, October 10, at Hico Stadium. In weather made comfortable by a light norther, a fairly large crowd watched the Tigers take the game by the score of 51 to 18.

Tigers Win First Game of Season at Glen Rose Thursday

The Hico Tigers broke into the win column last Thursday night for the first time this season, taking a 19-12 victory over the Glen Rose B team at Glen Rose. This win brings the season record to one win, one tie, and four losses.

H. A. (SANDY) SANFORD

Sandy Sanford to Be Lay Speaker at Methodist Church
H. A. (Sandy) Sanford, head coach and athletic director at Tarleton State College, Stephenville, will be speaker at First Methodist Church next Sunday morning at the hour of worship. Sanford is an active layman in the First Methodist Church at Stephenville, and he has considerable experience as a lay speaker for the cause of Christ and the church.

The locals were playing another E team Thursday night of this week at the Hico stadium, this time taking on a ragged good Stephenville team. The Stephenville aggregation has lost only one game this season, that being a rather one-sided affair to the strong Toar eleven which fopped the locals by a 49-0 count earlier in the season.

In last week's game Buddy Ables scored two of the local's touchdowns on short plunges at the line, and passed to end Billy Booth for the third score. Glen Rose jumped into an early 6-0 lead in the first quarter, and Hico bounced back with a score of their own to go out at half-time with the count reading 6-6.

Glen Rose scored again early in the third period to up the count to 12-6, only to see Hico drive for the tying touchdown in the same period. Hico scored the deciding points in the final stanza.

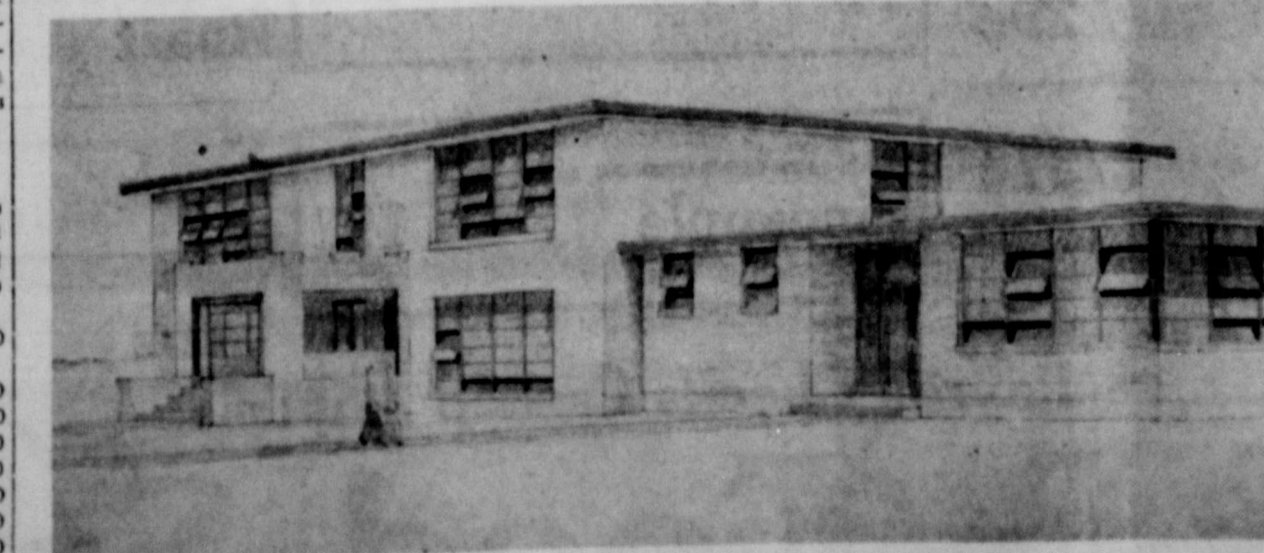

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—

'He' Did Much to Help Others As a Minister

By E. E. DAWSON
Let's just speak of him as "he" though he has a good and honorable name, and it is growing stronger in esteem of a lot of folks every month and year and decade. It is always valuable to look upon such a being and draw some conclusions from the observation.

At last he became a pastor and began to serve village and small-town churches. In this field he has made an enviable record. One of his parishioners will be sure to tell you that "He does not preach a great sermon ever, but it is plain and practical and you can understand what he says, for he speaks the dialect of the people. But it is his ministry that really counts."

ty. His congregation at that time had a great list of widows and some of them were quite old and infirm. He was forever doing some errand for them, or hauling them to the store and waiting for them to purchase their supplies and then hauling them home. On numerous occasions somebody would be out of food and money and have very limited credit and resources. He would take a box of foodstuffs to them, paying for it out of his own pocket, and no one ever heard of it from his lips, though the beneficiaries did not fail to tell of his graciousness.

NEW SCHOOL—The architects conception of the proposed new High School building for Hico is shown above. The illustration actually shows the remodeling proposal. The plans, still in the discussion stage, call for the removal of the upper story of the present building, and adding a new auditorium onto the right side of the structure. The program would cost taxpayers approximately $55,000.

Sunday & Monday—

"Sea Wife," starring Joan Collins, Richard Burton, Basil Sydney and introducing Cy Grant, is the feature playing Sunday and Monday at Hico Theatre.

The Twentieth Century-Fox production erupts with a violent and vivid panorama of war-panicked Singapore harbor. The Cinemascope cameras narrow suddenly to a submarine attack on a small boat crammed with a thousand refugees. The ship explodes, and from that perilous moment, the movie-geer is almost literally swept up and carried along on the dramatic, desperate voyage of four of the ship's survivors—three men and a beautiful young nun. They endure fourteen weeks adrift in an open boat, pitted against the shark-studded waters of the Indian Ocean and sometimes, with even deadlier effect, against each other.

The four passengers—Miss Collins, Burton, Basil Sydney and Cy Grant—are all strangers, leary of any emotional alliances past the primary goal of safe harbor. They decide, through nicknames, never to reveal their true identities. Thus Burton, a young RAF flyer in charge of limited rations, is called "Biscuit." Miss Collins, the nun, becomes "Sea Wife," because she swims with such skill of a mermaid. Sydney, an aggressive and determined business man, is aptly dubbed "Bulldog" and Cy Grant, a Negro purser, is called "Number Four" because he is the fourth man pulled onto the raft. Only he, "Number Four," knows of "Sea Wife's" vocation and she, fearing any special consideration, swears him to silence.

The men quarrel and are held together only by the grace and uncomplaining courage of the woman. Biscuit begins to fall in love with her, and, as the days pass, he cannot understand her tactful but firm refusals to respond. The picture builds rapidly, relentlessly, past a meeting with a Japanese submarine commander, who, recognizing something extraordinary in the face of Sea Wife, gives them water and food and some Eastern advice. "Empty your minds," he tells them gravely. "You must learn to eat time." Finally, they reach the temporary shelter of a deserted island where Number Four, tricked by the now almost insane Bulldog, slips to his death in the shark-ridden sea. It would be unfair to reveal anymore of the ironic, completely surprising climax of "Sea Wife," except to say, that, like most true works of art, once seeing it, you will not soon forget it.

a hostile reception. His wife has passed away. His son, young Tim (Steve Rowland), vows never to forgive him. The townspeople want nothing to do with him, particularly when he again kills a man, although it is in self defense.

It is only when the peaceful valley is faced with disaster that Early is able to redeem himself. A man named Grimsell and his henchmen threaten to run thousands of cattle into the valley to feed, an act which would bring ruin to the farms. The ranchers ignore Early's advice to drive Grimsell away by force, hoping instead to use legal means to dissuade him. By the time they realize they must fight, Grimsell is supported by hired gunmen for whom they are no match. Only Early has the surprising answer for the killers who would take the law into their own hands.

Friday & Saturday—

When a man achieves a reputation as a gun fighter, gambler and drifter who abandons his family, it requires an extraordinary act for him to regain the respect of his community and of the son he left behind.

It is just such a dramatic act which occurs in "Gun Glory," outdoor action drama, filmed in Cinemascope and color and starring Stewart Granger, Rhonda Fleming and Chill Wills, with Steve Rowland, James Gregory and Jacques Aubuchon heading the supporting cast.

Laid in a farming valley of the late 1800's, the story of "Gun Glory" casts Granger as Tom Early a rancher who returns after three years of wandering to face

IN REMEMBRANCE

Sallie Newton was born January 28, 1875 to Martha and David Newton at Rome, Georgia. The family came to Texas when she was a child, finally moving to the Iredell community.

Here she met and married Jim French, who preceded her in death.

She was a faithful member of the Iredell Baptist Church, for several years teaching the Women's Bible Class, taking an active part in W. M. U., and all work of the church.

Her greatest joy in life was "service to others." She was never too tired or too busy to visit the sick or help someone in need. Her life bears witness of Proverbs 31. "Her candle went not out by night—she stretched forth her hand to the poor and needy. She opened her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue was the law of kindness." "Let the memory of her good works praise her."

She leaves nieces and nephews to grieve for her, also many friends and neighbors to reverence her memory.

Beyond the Sunset she has gone to rest a little while. The memory of her works, her helpful way, her smile, folks like a benediction on our lonely way.

On Sunday, October 8th, the Lord in great love called her to rest.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church at 3 p.m. Monday. Her pastor, Charles Rice, officiated. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the lot she had tended with such loving care throughout the years.

Sleep on dear friend and take thy rest

Lay thy head on Jesus breast

We loved thee well

But Jesus loved thee best.

HOMER ALLOWS . . .

A promise is a just debt and should always be paid. Honor, integrity and reputation are its security. I doubt if there are two words in the vocabulary of man that has caused more heart aches than broken promises. Of course sometimes a worthy, gracious soul, due to circumstances over which he has no control finds it impossible to take care of his obligations. But when they do the very best they will be loved and respected by their fellowman. For it makes no difference with people whose friendship is worth having, whether we are rich or poor if they do the best they can they have conscience clear.

Environment and surrounding in childhood is a mighty factor in the mature years of a person's life. A colored woman who used to work for my mother said, "You can tell when a person has had any raising—they do not refer to their father as the "old man" and their mother as the "old woman". In my youth if I had called a person who was old enough to be my parents by their given name—John, Hill, etc.—I would have probably received a good thrashing—perhaps would have been a just reward. At least in those days I never heard of juvenile delinquency. Most people taught their children to respect the aged and the rights of others.

Somebody told this story—A fifteen year-old, spoiled boy was breaking up the furniture. The mother said, "Please run and get that book and see what it says to do when a fifteen year-old spoiled boy is breaking up the furniture." If I had pulled a stunk like that I am pretty sure the drug store would have had a good sale on ointment and salve and I probably couldn't have sat down with ease for a week or so.

BAND NEWS

Last Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock many Hico citizens were privileged to see the Hico Band perform in a short parade to announce the box supper. Incidentally, the box supper was called off until Friday night due to the bad weather.

After the colorful parade the band hopped in a waiting bus and jogged down to Waco to witness an exciting football game between the Baylor Bears and the Arkansas Razorbacks. Although the Bears lost by a narrow margin, everyone really seemed to enjoy the game.

At the end of the game the band members finally fought their way to the bus, and after much conversing and yelling to bands on other busses, made their way out of the stadium.

On the journey home some of the sleeper ones were slightly aroused by a group of very peppy girls. Some of you band parents do not realize how very near you came to losing your daughters (permanently).

At 12:30 a.m. the weary travelers fell off the bus to meet their parents and go home.

SIX-WEEK TESTS ARE OVER
Since six-week tests are over, everyone can breathe again. Don't breathe too deep though, because the report cards haven't been given out.

The football boys are even more hopeful than the other students that they passed and are anxious to know.

One of the teachers said that he had to shut one eye and not look out of the other one when he averaged the grades of a few students in order to keep them eligible. Better luck next time boys.

Although everyone hates to see test time come, there is one good thought about it. It means that there are fewer times for them before school is out for another three months and for some students, forever.

Even if the tests are over for awhile, that doesn't mean that you can quit studying. All of you students who didn't do so well this time, try even harder and get your name on the Honor Roll. Surprise all the teachers, as well as yourself!

WE'LL HAVE LOTS OF ORANGES AND GRAPEFRUIT

Boone Daniel Produce

to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I try not to worry about the Russian Satellite. I have been through all this before. The economizers in Congress couldn't trim foreign aid much and couldn't cut down on any Socialist schemes at all. What did they cut? The military, of course. They sent some boys back to mamas. They cut down on our guided missile and other such programs. But it was that way in 1941, too. A Congressman got up in Congress and said it was utterly foolish to fortify Guam. "Who would have the place?" he said. His vote was the one required to defeat that bill. He saved many a dollar for many a taxpayer, but I wonder if he saved any of them the price of a casket? If my information is correct, this congressman's own son was killed on Guam. At that time, some Japs were for and some against an attack on us. When the Japs found out the army was sending boys home and the Congress was economizing, they decided to attack. Today, it is the same. We are being taken straight into World War III, thanks to some taxpayers who want things to get "back to normal."

I just double up with laughter about that "back to normal" stuff. The woods are full of people who still hope that soon we won't have to get a hump in our backs but can find a nice shade and let some, body else fan the flies away. Those people ought to wake up; they might like this old world, for all its faults. This is the Age of Emergency and we won't get back to normal soon, nor after we whip Russia, and not even as long as we live. I recall, not long ago, my Sunday School teacher (not the one I have now) asked me to pray for the success of the Geneva Summit Meeting. I was to pray that our president would succeed in forming a lasting friendship between our government and the worst gang of war criminals that ever existed, so that we would not have to risk our necks to fight for America. Corporal Lindley prayer, but he prayed that God would give his people something that is called backbone and something else known as sense of honor and something else known as conscience. I pray for my people, for they need it as much as I do. There is something awfully, awfully, awfully wrong with a people who can hear the screams of agony of the slaves of the Communist war-criminals and not want to come to their rescue. Speaking of me needing prayer, some people are praying for me. Due to the fact that I want some of them to join me in a trench and the rest to get to work to liberate the people of Russia. They are sure I am bound for perdition. But I get a chuckle at the expense of these good old saints. They think it is a sin to protect the country, and a very dangerous sin at that but, they are so very glad to have rascals like me to protect them when the enemy comes calling.

was cancelled. However, tickets for both the FHA and FFA have now been obtained. This seemed to make everyone feel much better because the student body really has the trip planned for them. All of the students who wish to go to the Fair should be at the school house at 6 a.m., promptly, and that means teachers too. We plan to spend a wonderful, but tiresome day in Dallas, and leave for home at five o'clock in the afternoon.

F H A BEAU
Some weeks back the FHA girls met to elect an FHA Beau. After very little discussion, Lee Flowers was elected.

Lee is a cute Senior student. He is 5 feet, eleven inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. He has brown hair and brown eyes and a wonderful personality. He is treasurer of the Senior Class and plays in the backfield on the football team. He's a remarkable student and is liked by everyone. (Including a Fish girl).

The FHA is very proud to present Lee Flowers at its Beau.

WORLD SERIES FEVER
The big talk around school this week ended with an expression of extreme joy on the faces of the Braves fans, or an expression of extreme sadness on the faces of the Yankee fans.

Many of the teachers were interested, too, in fact, many students listened to the game on the radio during class the last day.

Some of the students lost money due to betting on the wrong team. The final score of 5-0 struck sorrow in all the Yankee fan's hearts. Just wait until next year.

HICO'S FIRST WIN
The Hico football team went to Glen Rose Thursday night and there they finally came out on top.

Glen Rose made a touchdown in the first quarter and Hico came back fighting to tie the score. The score was even at the close of the first half, and Glen Rose came back to make it 12 to 6. Glen Rose was later forced to punt. Hico ran the ball back to the 4-inch marker and made the touchdown.

Early in the fourth quarter Hico drove over to gain the lead by seven points.

The remainder of the game was played in mid-field but the boys were deliriously happy.

BRIGHTEN HOMES FOR DREARY WINTER

All seasons have their changes. Someone has said that the most intriguing phase about growing flowers and plants is that it is never finished. Thus each season brings tasks all its own. Changes need to be made such as our landscaping and re-arranging of flower beds, to give a more inviting effect to our homes. Now is the time to take stock and carefully consider changes.

Ordinarily we think of spring as the only time for a profusion of blooming flowers. Take time to study your flower catalogue and consult your florist. You will be happy to find so many plants, seeds and bulbs can be planted now, which will afford a wealth of real satisfaction.

May we suggest this is the time to remove cullus and faded plants in your summer flower boxes. Add some new soil and replace with pansy plants, which will bloom all winter and spring.

The Hico Garden Club asks that every home have some kind of plants or flowers to brighten the dreary winter days ahead.

Producers and Parasites . . .

By MORGAN GARRETT

One of the parables of Jesus is recorded in the thirteenth chapter of the Gospel According to Luke.

This is the parable: "A man planted a fig tree in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, 'Lo, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?' And he answered him, 'Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure. And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

A careful reading of this parable reveals that the owner of the land put the fig tree in the vineyard for only one purpose; to bear figs. He did not put the tree there for ornament, he put it there that he might have fruit from its branches. The fig tree had been given more than a reasonable amount of time to produce fruit; yet it had not produced one single fig. The fig tree had been a failure in the one thing it was intended to do. God puts each one of us on this earth for a purpose. A part of that purpose is to bear fruits that are useful to the people around us. Many years pass by and yet God looks in vain for some fruits of helpfulness, some fruits of service, in the lives of many persons who are capable of producing these fruits. Are you a producing member of the community?

A second thing we notice about the fig tree is that it has been living as a parasite. At least the grapevines are producing grapes as they use up the fertility of the soil; but here is this fig tree, not producing any figs, yet using up the fertility of the soil. Many people live as parasites upon the Church of God. All enjoy living in a law-abiding land and community. The thing that has done more to create and maintain this orderliness than anything else, is the moral force of the Church. This moral force has been more powerful than the punitive force of the law. Still fifty per cent of the residents of any community enjoy the fruits of the Church without contributing time for worship and service or money for support. Are you a parasite?

When the owner of the vineyard directed that the fig tree be cut down the vinedresser asks that the vine be given another chance. He made plans to give the tree more than a fair opportunity. Did the tree respond to its opportunity? We do not know. Will the parasites become producers when God gives another chance? God does give the extra opportunity, but not forever. "He will not always chide, neither will he keep his anger forever." (Psalm 103:9). God does not compel people to live productive lives, but eventually he leaves those alone who deserve to be forgotten. Are you a producer or a parasite?

CLEAN OR WASH SUMMER CLOTHES BEFORE STORING

Right storage will increase the life of summer clothing.

Here are some suggestions for keeping out-of-season clothing in good condition until next summer:

1. Mend any ripped seam, tears, loose buttons or other damage. A few stitches can save the life of a garment.
2. Wash or dry clean all garments before storing.
3. Store cottons and linens un-ironed. Make certain all starch is removed. It can cause fabric to deteriorate and may attract silverfish.
4. Dry garments thoroughly and store them in a dry place to prevent mildew.
5. Store in large boxes or trunks to make room in closets for fall clothing.

DRIP DRY FABRICS

Dripping is essential for smooth drying of cotton and rayons with a minimum rare finish. Lift the clothes from the rinse water after laundering. Hang smoothly on a hanger. Don't wring, twist or squeeze to remove water.

As the water drips off, it smooths out creases or wrinkles left from laundering. A final touch-up with the iron may be needed to make hems, seams and edges as smooth as new.

Some of the synthetic fibers as dacron, also have this drip-dry quality. Clothes made of these synthetics will be wrinkle-free when dry only if lifted from the rinse water and hung to dry with the least possible handling. The more they drip, the smoother they dry.

VISION AND TELEVISION

A comforting word for mothers worried about television's effect on their children's eyesight comes from the National Association for the Prevention of Blindness. If common sense is applied, television does not damage a youngster's eyes, the society reports. Some rules for TV watching: Have good lighting, not a completely darkened room; don't view for hours at a time, break it up; don't sit on the floor to watch, the best angle of viewing is a little below eye level.

FALL HOUSE CLEANING MADE EASIER

Are you still using the same house cleaning practices on the new finishes for floors, walls, upholstery, furniture and bathroom fixtures?

If so, chances are you are doing it the hard way. . . . Extension Home Management specialists offer the latest information on cleaning in the bulletin "House Cleaning Made Easier." I have copies in my office if you would like to have one.

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We were sorry to learn of the passing of Mr. Charlie Dyer of Carlton, and extend our deepest sympathy to his wife, family and other relatives.

We have received some 7 or 8 inches of rain since Sunday morning, and still raining at this writing, Monday noon. The rain fell slowly and it will be some time before farmers will be able to continue with farm work. Cotton pulling will also be retarded for several days.

Mrs. Scott Blakley returned home last Friday from the Hico Hospital where she had spent most of the week receiving medical aid for a rash due to an allergy. Mrs. Blakley has suffered greatly at intervals for the past several months and we sincerely hope she will soon be fully recovered.

Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and baby daughter, Janice Raylene, returned home from the Hico Hospital Wednesday of last week. Her sister, Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin spent from Wednesday until Friday in the Sellers home helping with the household duties and taking care of the new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Hair, Mrs. Cal Lowery and children, Lu Ann and Cal, Jr. of Fort Worth visited a while late Sunday and Sunday night with their father, Cabert Daniel and the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Welford, Doran Gwen and Della and Mrs. Mignon Anderson, attended the Williford and McVea family reunion last Sunday week. Sorry we did not receive this news item in time for last week's news. The reunion was held at Barton Springs Park in Austin.

Thanks to Mrs. Raymond Jones of Lanham for some nice complimentary remarks concerning our news letter. She told us she was now enjoying reading the News Review through the kindness of her neighbor, Mrs. Marvin Noland, who was passing their paper on to her. We might be surprised if we really knew just how many do read the paper, through the kindness of others.

Mrs. C. A. Bullard honored her twin sister, Mrs. Justin Bullard of Olin, with a birthday dinner last Sunday week at her home. Those present to enjoy the occasion were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kirkland, Sr. and Mrs. Ceell Kirkland and sons, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bailey and family, all of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. David Kirkland of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Green of Rising Star, Mr. and Mrs. Presley Bullard and family of Fort Worth, Mrs. Maude Hall of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Bullard and family of Olin, and the hostess, Mrs. C. A. Bullard and husband and their son, Don. The C. A. Bullard family reside at the former E. O. Bridges place which they purchased several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Newman of near Millersville, and the writer visited Sunday in Brady in the home of our sister and daughter, Mrs. Mrytle Enger, and also visited in the home of Mrs. Enger's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith and their daughter, Mrs. Robert Rountree and little son of Kansas, who were visiting in the home of her parents, but left by bus for Oklahoma City Sunday night where she will visit her husband's mother before returning home. Rain and did it rain en route to and from Brady. On our way out to Brady we were forced to stop at a road side service station for a while since it was raining so hard the highway wasn't visible. We venture to say any of us on the trip ever recall seeing so much water in one day. We went by way of Dublin and Brownwood and returned the lower route by San Saba, Goldthwaite and Hamilton, and all fields were standing in water and all rivers and creeks were carrying a swift flow of muddy water. The Cow House being up to the bridge, and later was out of banks according to radio reports. Three inches of rain had been received at Brady at 1:30 p.m. and was still raining when we departed for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton visited a while last Thursday night in the home of their brother and son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison of Fort Worth visited during the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Streater and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellers and family visited Sunday in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MONDAY FOR MR. DYER

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for Charley Dyer, 74, who passed away Sunday morning in the Hico Hospital, where he had been a patient for two weeks. The obituary will be given in next week's news.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Harbour were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Broadway of Corpus Christi, and her brother and wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Broadway and daughter, Je-neve of Lancaster.

Carlton received three inches of rain that fell all day Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Geye and daughters, Patricia and Deborah of Cleburne, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geye, and his sister, Mrs. Dow Self and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Whitehead and children of San Antonio were week-end visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Whitehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hamilton of Lamkin were shoppers in Carlton Saturday afternoon.

Lynn Harbour returned home Wednesday from St. Louis, Mo., after a tour of the Purina Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ellison left Thursday for a visit with relatives in Crosbyton and Lubbock.

Edgar Smith, accompanied by two brothers, Mark and Walter Smith of Fort Worth, went to Long Beach, Calif. last week to attend funeral services of their brother, Ebb Smith, who was born and reared at Carlton, and had many friends here who regretted to learn of his death. His wife is the former Miss Mattie Glasgow of Lamkin. Besides his immediate family he is survived by his 93-year-old mother, Aunt Jennie Smith, who is in a rest home in Dublin; six brothers and two sisters, and a host of other relatives.

OCT. 5-20 DALLAS

Last Big Week! Hurry to see what you've missed!
ENDS SUNDAY OCT. 20 in DALLAS

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history.

But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress... Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

A. T. Jones, Blue Ridge, has for many years had the honor of having the largest barn in the area. He still can claim to have his barn in the most prominent and conspicuous location. As to size, I believe that Hubert Viertel, southwest of Cranfills Gap, can challenge A. T. on the size question. Hubert is about through with the construction of a barn that measures 132 feet long and 46 feet wide. Hubert has built a barn, goat shed and implement shed all under one roof. A barn the size of his is not often seen in these parts.

To many of us the Cow House is just another creek and one that causes flood damage to some crops at times. To Tom Stribling, Blue Ridge, it is more than this. It is a stream that has much Indian lore along its banks and bottom. For many years Tom has been working up and down the creek collecting Indian artifacts and other items of past historical interest. Not only does he have hundreds of Indian arrow points, tomahawks, spear points, grain grinders, scrapers and polishing flints, but he has a fine collection of old bullets, lead ball molds and lead bullets that have been fired and are all flattened out. As Tom has made his collection, he has taken time to group his material, mount it on frames and hang the frames on the walls of his home. The walls are literally covered with these frames. One interested in things like this, can spend hours looking and enjoying every minute of it, especially if Tom is there to tell you where he found each item. Drop by his place some time and look his collection over. He will enjoy showing you around and also in telling you of his hunts.

About this time last fall, A. M. Abernathy set out some sprigs of Coastal Bermuda grass on a six or seven acre plot in one of his river bottom fields. Though the season has not been too favorable for the grass the last year, the sprigs have made a very good start. If there is a fair season from now on, he should be able to get the area completely covered with the grass. There are many places along the river where it gets out over fields and causes washes that could be put to this grass, I believe. Not only will it prevent washing but it will also furnish some good grazing and under good conditions should produce a good cutting or two of good hay.

With the season we are getting now, and should we get more through the winter, it should be a good time to reestablish home orchards. Our orchards have taken a beating the last several years and at the present there are very few fruit trees left in the county.

While we do not have potential commercial orchard country, we can have good home orchards. Select some trees that ripen early, some in mid-season and some in late season. This gives fruit over a longer time and gives a better opportunity of having some fruit through the season. Select trees that have low chill requirement and set the early ripening ones near the top of the orchard. Let the late ripening ones be on that part that holds the most water.

Current information indicates the 1957 turkey crop will exceed last year's record output. Turkey prices during the first half of 1957 have averaged 15 per cent below the same 1956 period while feed prices have increased one per cent. Remember that the cost of feed is great for putting an extra pound of weight on a bronze hen weighing 14 pounds or a tom weighing 26 pounds.

BRIEF GLIMPSES AT TEXAS AGRICULTURE

Texas pecan production this year has been estimated at thirty-seven and a half million pounds by the Crop Reporting Board—more than six million pounds above the 1946-55 average. Conditions have generally improved in major producing areas, but best prospects are in East Texas and along the Upper Coast. Still lagging with the short-crop prospective outlook is the Edwards Plateau Region, hard-hit by the drought. Of the 37.5 million pounds forecast, 31.5 million pounds are natives, 6 million pounds improved varieties.

Income tax waivers on profit from drought-forced livestock sales are producing problems for some Texas stockmen. Under internal revenue provisions, stock sold under such circumstances must be replaced within a year. However, farmers are not always able to find suitable replacement stock. Also, the drought continues in some areas, causing reluctance to restock. In order to maintain tax benefits, application should be made for extension of the replacement period. Farmers still hit by drought should look into other tax benefits available under the new law.

Shortage of horses faces many Texas ranchers who are trying to rebuild beef herds depleted by the prolonged drought. Prices are high for good saddle horses with young mounts bringing around $250 as against pre-drought prices of $50 to $75 a head.

Texas turkey production will set a new record this season with producers raising an estimated six per cent more than 1956's record yield. Total U. S. production is expected to be slightly behind Texas with an overall five per cent increase over last year. Distressing note is that live turkey prices are and will likely remain below last year's levels. However, experts are predicting a price rise after Thanksgiving and before Christmas when there will be less storage costs.
