HICO, TEXAS JULY 11, 1958.

NUMBER 10.

HERE IN HICO

By E. V. M.

Approximately three years ago an organization was formed in this town as the North Bosque Flood and Flood Prevention Association. The purpose of this organization was to work in coordination with the Soil Conservation Service to provide a series of prevention dams on the waters of the Bosque River in an attempt to prevent damage to such as the one we had in 1952, and the devastation at Stephenville in 1955, and for awhile during the years 1954, 1955, 1956 and 1957 every time we had a rain of inches or more the Bosque River would run well over its banks, carrying out its banks, carrying out stream valuable top soil, livestock, and numerous things which cost a whale of money to replace.

Damage in this watershed has perhaps ran well over a million dollars in the past years.

Enthusiasm Shown

Enthusiasm was shown in the newly formed organization, which looked at one time as if it would become a reality in 1957 or 1958. When it came to appropriations last year, the organization received the sad news that no money would be spent on the project, and they (the group) offered their resignation and regrets, and told them to plug.

The district has done just what they have secured particularly in the SCS program, they made flood damage reports, worked on other necessary requirements until they were blue in the face, and they had been accomplishing a lot of hard manhours and a lot of sweat, and we're the same fix that we have been in. We still have the pressing danger of flood pouring merrily on their way to the new reservoir at Waco and debris, and the tax rate out another bucket full.

Men Showed Interest

Businessman W. R. Poage showed interest in the project one time, but somehow interest seems to have waned to some extent. Mr. Poage has been in Waco long enough to realize what will happen to their new billion dollar lake once it is built and means are not made to effect to stop the heavy rains in the upper watershed of the Bosque Saturday afternoon should ignite new interest in the program. Hico, however, is not affected by the heavy rains and consequently the Bosque reached flood stage here. Stephenville took another beating in the low areas around the lake.

Twelve inches of rain fell on the Hannibal community in Stephenville, and residents in Hico can visualize what it is that much water would do if we had received only that much between here and there. As it was, Hico received a small amount of moisture, and the river never over-flowed its banks.

KINGS CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY WITH BIRTH OF TWO QUEENS

It's two Queens for the Kings! That is—it is a pair of bouncing baby girls for Mr. and Mrs. Lee King of Hico. Mrs. King gave birth to twin daughters early last Friday morning, July Fourth, at Hico Hospital.

The little ladies have been named Teresa Jan and Patricia Ann, and weighed 6 pounds, five ounces, and 5 pounds, seven ounces, respectively.

It's hard to determine who is the proudest of the twin girls—Grandpa Peck Giesecke, or Dr. W. F. Hafer, who presided at the big celebration.

The Fourth of July may be Independence Day to some, but at the Giesecke household, it has been declared "Dependence Day!"

Grand Jury Indicts Five During July Session

Following is the report of the Hamilton County grand jury, which met for the July term Monday and Tuesday of this week:

The grand jury for the July term, 1958, duly empaneled, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have been in session for two days and have examined 22 witnesses. We have found 5 true bills of indictment, all felonies, which we herewith return into court.

The above reflects that our county is comparatively free of crime, for which we are thankful. We urge that all of our citizens work toward the end that we keep our county in this condition.

We have noted, however, that there seems to be far too much "horseplay" carried on with cars, mostly by our young people. We would remind these persons that though they might be playing, an automobile is a dangerous piece of machinery and can, and does, cause a huge loss of life. We would recommend that the energy expended in this type of driving could better be used elsewhere.

Iredell Baptists Schedules Revival July 18 thru July 27

The summer revival begins at Iredell Baptist Church on Friday, July 18. The series of services will continue through July 27, with gospel preaching and singing each evening at 8:00. Beginning Monday, July 21, there will be services each morning at 9:30.

The evangelist for the week is Mr. Lewis Adkison, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Security, Colorado Springs, Colorado. Mr. Adkison is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served as youth director of First Baptist Church, Canadian, associate pastor of Sagamore Hill Baptist Church, Fort Worth, and pastor of Westland Heights Baptist Church, Fort Worth.

The music will be directed by Mr. John Trueblood, formerly music director at Iredell Baptist Church, and now minister of music and education at the First Baptist Church in Robinson.

The evening services will be conducted out of doors. Provision will be made for those, who because of ill health, may wish to come and sit in their automobiles during the services. The services during the morning will be held in the church's air-conditioned sanctuary. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend these services.

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—

Cotton Belt Railroad, Started In 1890, Now Almost Extinct

By E. E. DAWSON

No column last week? Reason? Well, I got sick. Sad story. Here's how it all happened: My great-granddaughter, Miss Deborah Kay Williams, had a cold, and she wouldn't keep it, but gave it to me whether I would or not. Then a virus infection set in and I was out of the running. Great-granddaughters are a wonder all right, and I am duly proud of Miss Deborah Kay, but I am not appreciative of her gifts when the gift happens to be what she gave me this time.

The Cotton Belt Railroad has one of the most picturesque names of any railroad in the United States. Its beginning and development, is one of the best railroad stories. It all began over in Anderson County in 1890 when Tyler petitioned the Legislature of Texas to pass a special act of incorporation granting Major James P. Douglass of Tyler and others the right to locate, construct, own, operate and maintain a railroad with a single or double track for a distance not exceeding forty miles from Tyler to connect with some other railroad that the directors might select. The Legislature granted the request on December 1, 1871. The capital stock was to be one million dollars divided into shares of fifty dollars each.

The gauge of the railroad to be built was to be the same as that of the railroad with which it was to connect, but was not to be less than two feet. The line was laid out and work finally began in 1875. Additional time had to be granted the company to complete certain mileage by definite dates. Like all pioneer rail lines, the survey took advantage of creek beds and valleys so as to reduce the grades to the lowest possible. Naturally that made the line quite crooked.

It was decided to lay out the line to Sandy Switch on the newly built Texas and Pacific line, twelve miles from Tyler. That Sandy Switch became the town of today known as Big Sandy. On October 1, 1877, actual operation of train service started. In those early days two small locomotives were used to haul the trains, and those became known as Punch and Judy. The gauge of the track was three feet. For two years the road was operated and additional mileage was added making a total of about twenty-two miles.

Major Douglass then conceived the plan of extending the line to Mount Pleasant, which was sixty-seven miles from Tyler. The Tyler Tap was what the line was called. Then other railroad men became interested, and the line began to grow at either end, entering Arkansas at Texarkana, on through Arkansas into Missouri to the Mississippi River across from Cairo, Illinois. Later it built a bridge at Thebes and crossed the Father of Waters into Illinois and built into East St. Louis, and got into St. Louis across one of the bridges there. Southward the line built in Texas, and reached Corsicana, then Waco, and later Gatesville, headed for the Mexican border, with an ambitious plan to carry the line to Mexico City. Branch lines were constructed all along the line. All this time of building the line was a narrow gauge. But when the major lines of the country all became standard gauge, which is fifty-six and one-half inches, the Cotton Belt changed to standard.

Later, after the line became standard gauge, it built into Hillsboro, and later still, to be exact 1907, a line was built from Stephenville to Gatesville which the Cotton Belt took over, and then extended it from Hamilton to Comanche.

Then began the shrinkage of the road. The lines to Stephenville and Comanche were abandoned, then from Gatesville to Hamilton, and a dozen other short branch lines were pulled up in all the states through which the line runs. The line from Corsicana to Hillsboro was pulled up. The next move was to reduce passenger traffic and specialize on fast freight service. The Southern Pacific Railroad got control of the line and put on a fast service from Corsicana to St. Louis, so as to handle the Southern Pacific's eastern and northern traffic. Now only one passenger train is left in service: from Pine Bluff to St. Louis round trip.

My soldier son is a railroad fan, and when he is at home on leave he is forever going over to Carlton and up toward Stephenville to see the old abandoned grade and the bridges that still stand in part across the creeks and rivers between Gatesville and Stephenville. It now becomes a guess whether the line will survive, or pass entirely as so many others have in the last quarter of a century.

Let's hope it will survive.

Plans were revealed this week to sponsor a "Miss Reunion" contest to be held the first night of the 72nd Annual Old Settlers Reunion, dates for which are July 30, 31, and August 1 and 2.

Mrs. E. V. Meador was appointed by Reunion Manager Harold Walker as chairman of the contest.

An attempt will be made to have as many businesses as possible represented in the contest.

Local Band Director Resigns; Accepts Position at Keller

E. H. Bradley, who has served as band director for Hico Public Schools since 1954, resigned this week to accept a similar position in the Keller School system.

Mrs. Bradley, who has been local agent for Rio Grande Life Insurance Co., also resigned her position. They expect to move to Keller in late August or early September.

Parade Progressing

Plans for the huge parade held annually on opening day of the Reunion are progressing satisfactorily, according to Walker. He urges that every business in Hico be represented in the opening day feature. Prize lists have not been completed at this time, but Walker expects to have a complete break-down on prize money shortly. In the past more than $125 has been awarded entries.

Park Improvements

Members of Hico Civic Club this week voted to share one-third of the cost of replacing the stage under the pavilion at City Park. Members of the City Council had earlier voted to absorb one-third of the expense, and the Reunion Association will pay the other portion.

Plans call for extension of the existing facilities to a larger size, and making a solid concrete stage. Floods in the past have all but demolished the existing wooden structure.

First two candidates to be entered in the contest were Miss Louise Baker, who will be sponsored by Mickey's Jewelry, and Miss Judy Griffith, sponsored by The Hico News Review.

Businesses interested in sponsoring a contestant are urged to contact a local girl at the earliest possible date, and notify the chairman as soon as the contestant has been selected.

Rules set up this week are:

1. Any unmarried young lady between the age of 14 and 21 is eligible for competition.

2. The contestant must be sponsored by a business or organization.

3. Deadline for entry is Friday, July 25.

4. Contestants will be judged in evening wear.

5. Contestants will be judged on poise, personality and beauty.

Awards will be given to the contestant selected as "Miss Reunion" and to two runner up contestants.

Judging will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, opening day of the celebration.

ers have most of their stubble broken. Lone Star Gas Co. has been here the past week laying second line, which runs north portion of a number of our folks at the parade and centennial last week. Good programs and other forms of entertainment were held throughout the Hamilton business center and many of the local people to be commended in the manner and efforts they put forth in making the affair a great success. We attended the parade last Friday and must say we never in our more than fifty years residence in Hamilton County, saw such a crowd in Hamilton. All seemed to enjoy the parade and appreciated the efforts of those assisting to make it a success.

W. E. Goynes visited at DeSota during the week end with his wife and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Benny McDowell. The McDowells are residing during the summer months at the Goynes home there. Mrs. Goynes will resume her duties there in the school this fall. She has been visiting the McDowells since Mrs. McDowell's return from the hospital in Fort Worth. He stated their baby was still in the hospital but gaining weight and doing fine now. The baby, a little son, only weighed four pounds at birth and has been kept in an incubator.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Witte and little son, David, of Grand Prairie spent a portion of their vacation at the home of her parents, the Irvin Jones at Lanham, and visited with relatives and friends. Mrs. Witte is the former Mary Nell Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jackson have traded their farm home here, known as the Orr place, for a motel at Azle. They moved Wednesday of last week. We regret very much to lose them, but hope they are well pleased in their new location. Their son, Ervin, visited here last week with Lynn King and attended the centennial.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Driver of Grand Prairie spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon New and little daughter visited during the July Fourth holidays in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New and Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Streuter and family, and attended the centennial.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thompson of Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers of near Hamilton visited Sunday afternoon in the home of their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Mrs. Charles Price, Cheryl and Ronald of Austin spent last Sunday week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Price Cox. Cheryl remained for a more extended visit, but became ill. Her father came up for her Sunday night, returning home early Monday.

Carl Ray Sellers was a patient at the Hico Hospital Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel, their daughter, Mrs. Wayne Pittman and Karen, all of Dublin, visited a while Friday morning at the Hico Hospital with their brother-in-law and uncle, Carl Ray Sellers and at Fairy in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and her sister, Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and children, on their way to Hamilton to attend the parade. Carolyn and Jimmy Don Sellers accompanied them to Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ables and baby of Fort Worth were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Audie Clark and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driver of Texas City are spending this week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver and Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood had relatives visiting them during the week end from Houston and other points. Sorry we were unable to get their names.

The writer attended singing at Evergreen Sunday and visited at the Williford rest home with Mrs. Minnie McCarty, Mrs. Pearl Wade and others. Sorry to report Mrs. Wade not doing so well. She is bed-ridden of arthritis.

Relatives visiting in the home of Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driver, their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Buchanan and Debra, and also Kenneth Driver, all of Texas City, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leonard and baby of Fairy and Mr. and Mrs. Deibert Pack of Stephenville.

Miss Martha Hanes of Dallas is spending this week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Williford and family and Mrs. Grady Anderson attended funeral services last Tuesday in Hamilton for their aunt, Mrs. Jack Williford. We extend sympathy.

We overlooked turning in the following news item last week for which we are sorry. Ed McGuire and son, Ed Jr. of Rockdale visited here last Friday week, June 27, with W. E. Goynes and Jerry Todd. While here he left $5.00 with Mr. Goynes for the Fairy cemetery fund. His brother, Louis, was buried here in the late nineties. He inquired about all of his old friends.

We received a short note of praise and appreciation regarding the care of the Fairy Cemetery last week from N. A. Leeth of Hico, accompanied by a check for $30.55 to cover the donations received from the Leeth children and their families last Sunday week at the Leeth family reunion. They are to be commended in honoring their deceased parents and other relatives with a donation at that time to help in the upkeep of their last resting place. Nothing more noble could have been done.

While in Hico Saturday noon, Coy Parks handed us $5.00, along with a word of praise, for the cemetery association. We thank all very much for your interest shown. We expect to resume work at the cemetery next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson, Buddy and Patricia, of Amarillo, visited over the week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd. Mr. Thompson is on vacation. He and Mrs. Thompson are visiting this week in Fort Worth and also plan to visit in Arkansas before their return for their children, who are visiting here with their grandparents.

Mrs. Denton Staley of Dallas, who has been visiting the last two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Emma Ogle, returned home Saturday due to the illness of her husband. Her son came for her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson and Jerry visited last Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams and family of Hamilton. Other visitors were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Latham and children of Austin. Jerry accompanied them home to Austin for a week's visit.

"ASSUMING" A LOAN

You can give some of your rights to other people, for example, the right to collect a bill; but it's a different thing with your duties. You need your creditor's OK firmly to assign your debts to another.

You can sell what you own, all right, but you can't shake a debt merely by getting somebody else to promise to pay it for you. Your creditor—who is a party to your contract—has something to say about who takes over your obligations.

Thus, your cousin, say, borrows from you and promises to pay the money back. He can't get out of it by getting his neighbor to say he will pay you for him unless you agree—and this takes a written contract.

Suppose you bought Abel's house on time for $15,000 and had paid off $5,000. Then, with $10,000 left to pay, you get Joe Blow to buy the place.

How could Blow pay you for it? Well, for Blow it would be just dandy for you to let him take over the $10,000 debt, pay you back your $5,000 equity, and then pay off Abel the rest of your $10,000 debt. Blow would save the cost of a new loan—if his credit was good enough to get one in the first place. So you set it up that way.

One day Blow blew; and you, yet you, hold the bag. True, you could turn over your equity to Blow without Abel's consent.

But your agreement with Blow to pay the balance is not binding on Abel. He can hold you to your original deal. Pay up $10,000. Don't let someone "assume" your loan unless you protect yourself by an agreement with your lender, or unless you are willing to risk holding the sack.

Your buyer is often a good enough risk for you to let him assume the loan—but don't do it thinking you are free of your debt.

As it is, the Federal Government borrows the money on the faith and credit of the communities, which they can not have in the first place to qualify for the loan, and lends it back to them with interest charges.

The measure as passed by the Senate did not include "rehabilitation and health centers and public nursing homes and public convalescent homes." This has been added by the House Committee.

To oppose and vote against the bill is to cause someone to ask you, "Are you opposed to public nursing homes, public convalescent homes and caring for hospital needs?" This is an "attraction" which few wish to ignore.

Congress Reports

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C.—There is yet to be appropriated approximately $10 billion to complete the Budget for the fiscal year 1959. This time last year when economy was popular, the Congress had cut approximately $4 1/2 billion from the President's request. Thus far this year, the Congress has even upped the President's request, and very likely there will be other increases before the session ends.

These increases are made in the face of declining income, and even if no tax reductions are made, there is good prospect of ending up with a deficit of $8 to $10 billion. Any deficit, of course, contributes to more inflation.

Even when the Congress cuts appropriations to the various departments, bureaus and commissions of the Government, it usually ends up by making "supplemental" appropriations in the year following the reductions. A Government department simply tells the Congress that it does not have money enough to operate to June 30, the end of the fiscal year. The Congress then grants the supplemental appropriation, which more often than not wipes out the savings made the previous year. These "supplemental" appropriations are usually made when the people back home are not looking, but we make a big to-do about these savings at the time the cuts are made.

Legislation is often brought before the Congress which includes "something for everybody." For instance, the so-called "Community Facilities Act of 1958," now current and already passed by the Senate, provides that communities may borrow money from the Federal Government for a term of 50 years at the going interest rate. The sum of $2 billion is provided for these loans.

Money may be borrowed by political subdivisions for the construction, repair and improvement of public streets, sidewalks, highways, parkways, bridges, parking lots, airports, and other public transportation facilities; public parks and other public recreational facilities, public hospitals, rehabilitation and health centers and public nursing homes and public convalescent homes; public refuse and garbage-disposal facilities, water, sewage and sanitary facilities, and other public utility facilities; civil-defense facilities; public police and fire protection facilities; public wholesale farm produce markets; public libraries and offices and other public buildings (other than schools); and public land, water, and timber conservation facilities.

Maybe while we're at it, we should triple this $2 billion and add post office buildings. There is a need for $4 to $6 billion worth of post office buildings in the United States at this time.

Bear in mind, the $2 billion to be loaned to cities, towns and communities are "loans." This is supposed to make it different from WPA and PWA, but the legislation says nothing about what would happen to all of these things, should the borrowers default. It could be assumed that the Federal Government would then own a lot of "community facilities" like the sewer systems, public parks, sidewalks, etc.

If this help to communities was an outright grant, it would follow the practice of Washington collecting taxes from the people and doling money back to local govern-

HICO YARDS AND HOMES WELL-KEPT

We took a little drive over town a few days ago, and were pleased to note the general civic interest. Most all the yards were mowed, beds trimmed and full of bright, colorful flowers.

We should begin now to dress up for our annual Hico Reunion. We will surely have company.

The City Park is well cared for, clean, trees trimmed and ugly trees removed. We should thank Mr. W. R. Hampton for keeping the Culbreath Park in such nice condition.

Our city is judged by its well-kept homes, streets and parks.

FOOD STAINS ON RUGS AND CARPETS

Now that the children are home all the time, with summer visiting and with holiday company, the furnishings may be receiving more wear and more soiling. Grease and oily spots are more serious on synthetic fibers than on wool and cotton because grease, if not removed promptly, will combine with the resin to form a dark spot which very likely will be permanent. These dark spots often appear in front of TV sets where youngsters have munched and spilled potato chips, peanuts or buttered popcorn. These may be trod into the carpet then swept away in a vacuum cleaner but the oil lingers.

Specialists suggest two simple formulas which will remove most stains caused by food spills. These will not set a stain, a calamity which often results from haphazard attempts at spot removal.

The two tested remedies are:
Formula 1: A teaspoon of neutral soapless detergent mixed with one-half pint of lukewarm water.
Formula 2: A teaspoon of white vinegar mixed with three teaspoons of lukewarm water.

Apply directly to the stain with an eyedropper and sponge from the outer area inward with white unstarched cloth. Blot the area well. In the case of Formula 2, allow the mixture to remain on the stain about 15 minutes before blotting.

Where a dry cleaning fluid is recommended, caution should be exercised against using too much.

Mrs. W. E. East and son, Ronnie, spent the week end in Waco with relatives.

on latex-backed rugs since it has a tendency to deteriorate the rubber. (Carbon tetrachloride is very dangerous.)

Specific stain treatments are: Alcohol, coffee, tea, soft drinks: Treat at once to avoid a delayed action brown stain called caramelization. Sponge several times with lukewarm water and then use Formula 1 as directed. Follow with Formula 2 if any stain remains.

Butter and Fats: Apply any safe dry cleaning fluid with an eyedropper and sponge with white, unstarched cloths.

Egg gelatin: Apply Formula 1 as directed. If stain remains, follow with Formula 2.

TO INSURE A FULL MEASURE, A MEASURE OF PROTECTION

Practically everything we buy—from the main course of Sunday dinner to the cross-town ride in a taxicab—is bought in terms of measure or weight. And the accuracy of devices which function to give us and those we patronize correct weight or measure is a matter of great importance.
In Texas, the responsibility for seeing that such accuracy is the rule is a little-known but highly significant function of the Texas Department of Agriculture.
Through vigorous enforcement of our Texas Weights & Measures Law by regular investigation and frequent spot-checking, savings amounting to many thousands of dollars annually are effected for Texas citizens.
Such protection is not accidental in its accomplishment. Since 1951, frequency of weights and measures violations have decreased in some instances by as much as 300 per cent.
For example, in 1951, about seven out of ten pre-packaged food items such as meat, poultry and cheese were incorrectly marked as to weight; during 1957, an average of only three out of ten were found incorrectly marked, and two of these were very apt to be in the buyer's favor.
In another area of major consumer expense where measure is of great importance—gasoline purchasing—an accuracy improvement of over 100 per cent has been effected since 1951.
Seven years ago, the state average for faulty gasoline pumps was 1 out of every 4.5 inspections. In 1957 a total of 43,203 Texas pumps were checked and only 4,623 were condemned for repairs, averaging 1 for every 9.1 pumps.
To have achieved such good results has not been without effort. Last year, we pushed our record to a total of 574,081 inspections of weights and measuring devices—ranging from tiny, intricate pharmaceutical scales to ton-unit hopper scales. This is almost twice as many inspections as the 299,201 made in 1951.
With this increase in services has come the resultant increase in protection. And added experience, increased legislative support, and encouragement from all Texans has made this possible.

'THE ROAD BACK'

Injured CPS Lineman Hero Of Dallas-Made Movie

Eob Wilcox, 56, who lost two legs and one arm at the age of 55, is the hero of a new Dallas-made movie titled "The Road Back."

He is a well-adjusted, walking example of that big word with a big future: rehabilitation.

Wilcox lives and works at Clifton, but he spent some memorable months at Baylor Hospital in Dallas.

His story is told in a 20-minute motion picture filmed by Dallas-based Texas Employers Insurance Association—and soon to be made available to medical societies, service clubs and other groups.

Wilcox was a lineman for Community Public Service Company, on a special assignment at Perryton in November of 1956, when he was stabbed with 33,000 volts of electricity.

He was jolted very close to death, and severely burned over most of his body. To save his life, surgeons had to amputate both legs and his left arm.

Texas Employers Insurance Association, which carries the workman's compensation insurance for Community Public Service, sent a rehabilitation nurse to see the injured man as soon as he was able to talk with her.

Her first job was to help Wilcox absorb the shattering emotional impact of his terrific physical injuries.

Wilcox is gifted with unusual personal grit and a saving sense of humor. He chose to tackle the monumental task of overcoming his almost hopeless odds.

The motion picture shows his gradual progression through therapy, massage and diathermy, to the fitting of artificial legs—and then the arduous months of learning to use them.

Not shown in the film is his moment of mastery over his new artificial arm—when he used the hook to give his nurse a triumphant pinch.

Since Wilcox could no longer work as a lineman, he was taught a new trade—electric meter repairing.

Eleven months after the accident he went back home to Clifton, and to a new job as assistant engineer for his old employer.

Wilcox is one of 99 seriously injured Texans helped to a comeback by TELA's new rehabilitation service. Company nurses are at present working with 95 others.

Record crowds attended the five-day affair, and everyone came away expressing their satisfaction with each of the big events.

The pageant Friday and Saturday nights was one of the best ever staged in such a celebration, and credit for this fine show should be given to J. T. Butler of Carlton and Rev. A. D. Hoyer of Aleman. These two men put everything they had into making the pageant a tremendous success, and we feel that they are entirely responsible for the project.

Other phases of the centennial were equally successful, especially the parade. Dr. Jack Koen did a tremendous job of this chore also. The same applies for Milton Harelik, Queen and Princess Contest chairman, the relics chairman, and any other person who helped in any way in making this huge task a success.

Special recognition should be given Dr. C. B. Cathey, who was general chairman of the centennial. Doc put every effort into the affair, and deserves a lions' share of the credit.

Again we say, "Well done neighbors." You did a wonderful job.

CONGRATULATIONS . . . are due, too, to the Hamilton Herald-News for the very excellent job on the huge centennial edition. Their permanently bound book is the very best special edition ever seen by us, and we know the true value of such a book, understanding the tremendous amount of work which went into the Special.

C. M. Hatch, publisher, and Bill Billingslea, editor, are to be commended on the excellent book. It's as nice a job as you will find anywhere.

HICO . . . was well represented in most phases of the centennial.

The 1917 model fire truck belonging to the Volunteer Fire Department, led the huge parade last Friday, with Chief Sherman Robertson driving. Several of the other firemen were riders on the antique.

Hico Civic Club was represented with a beautiful float, which was adorned by two lovely local lasses, Janet Hooper and Sylvia Sherrard.

Western Auto had two entries in the parade, one being an old-time buggy which was driven by J. C. Prater, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Jackson, and the other an old Model A Ford, which was driven by D. C. Hyles.

Pal Drake must have had to look high and low before he found the shaggy donkey which he rode in the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Edwards entered a horse and buggy from their antique shop.

There was possibly several other entries which we overlooked. Several from here rode horses.

Considering everything, the big celebration should be considered a success.

HERE'S . . . one we are stealing from a trade publication:

"Isn't it funny . . . a man will get up from an advertised mattress, out of an advertised bed, shave with an advertised razor, put on advertised hose, shirt, collar and shoes, sit at an advertised table, eat advertised breakfast foods, drink advertised coffee or substitutes, read all the news and advertising in an advertised paper, put on an advertised hat and coat, light an advertised cigar, get in an advertised car and go to town, and run down advertising on the grounds that advertising does not pay!"

Ain't it the truth!

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Oakley of Dallas visited the first of the week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oakley.

Two Local Men Take Part In Fleet Exercise

San Francisco, Calif.—Harold E. Smith, aviation fire control technician second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Route 2, Hico, and husband of the former Miss Veda McCoy of Glen Rose, took part in the First Fleet visit to the San Francisco Bay area July 3-7, while serving with Fighter Squadron 213.

William L. Eubanks, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewell O. Chew of Hico, serving aboard the destroyer USS Shields, also took part in the exercise.

The visit commemorated the 50th anniversary of the visit of the Great White Fleet to San Francisco during its cruise around the world. A full-scale Naval review was to be staged as the Fleet entered the Bay.

Following a long week end of recreation, including many civic-sponsored events, the Fleet put to sea July 7 for a five-day striking force exercise, code named "Blue Bolt."

The operation involved 36 ships, 26 squadrons of naval aircraft and over 22,000 personnel. Ships and planes at sea will from fast-moving "Blue" attack carrier teams which will strike out against simulated mainland targets. "Orange" defensive forces consisting of shore based Naval aircraft and submarines will try to outwit the invaders.

Striking force exercises are designed to give advance training to personnel preparing to deploy to the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Funeral Services Held Last Thursday For H. M. Everett, Sr.

Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the First Baptist Church in Stephenville for H. M. Everett Sr., 68, longtime Stephenville business and civic leader. He died at his home early Wednesday morning after an illness of six months.

Everett went to Stephenville in 1933 from Carlton where he had been associated with the Farmers and Merchants State Bank as both cashier and president. While in Stephenville he had been an active member of the Chamber of Commerce. He served this body as secretary manager and president and on the board of directors.

He was also active in the First Baptist Church as a member of the board of deacons, and the Stephenville Lions Club, serving as president in 1954.

A native of Carlton he was born October 12, 1889. He was the son of the late Sim E. and Ludie Richburg Everett who were early settlers in Hamilton County. He grew up in the Carlton community and attended the public schools there. For 25 years he was associated with the Farmers and Merchants State Bank. He was married in 1913 to Miss Annie Jones, and they became the parents of two children, both of whom survive.

After going to Stephenville his first job was with a government program. While in that position he was named secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, later being named secretary-manager of the National Farm Loan Association. For the past 14 years he had operated the Everett's Firestone Store.

Survivors are his wife; one son, H. M. Everett Jr. of Stephenville; one daughter, Mrs. George P. Eckhart of Fort Worth; one brother, S. W. Everett of Hico; three sisters, Mrs. Lester Lackey of El Paso, Mrs. C. Y. Smith of Dallas, and Mrs. Ross Steils of Dallas. Burial was in the Erath Garden of Memories.
