

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL.

We received about one-half inch of rain during Sunday afternoon and early Monday morning, which will be very beneficial to row crops.

Farmers have been quite busy working out row crops, breaking stubble and baling hay.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Jim Garner, who passed away last week in McCloskey Hospital at Temple. Sympathy is extended to those bereaved in his passing.

Friends and acquaintances of Buck Whitlock were grieved to learn of his untimely death Tuesday of last week. The Whitlock family attended church here for a number of years. We have heard many nice remarks of Buck since his passing which we feel sure were very deserving, but we wonder sometimes if we fail to give flowers to the living by word and deed as we should. Our deepest sympathy is extended to his father, sisters and other relatives and friends at this time of sorrow. Mrs. M. E. Parks underwent minor surgery at the Stephenville Hospital last Friday. Visitors with her during the week end at the hospital were her sons, Audie of the home, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and daughters of Fort Worth, and her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Miller and Ronald of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pack of Stephenville and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leonard and baby of Fairy.

Mrs. Gladys Cox was returned from Scott and White Hospital at Temple last Tuesday to the Hico Hospital. She is now able to be up some, and expects to return to her home Friday of this week. Her many friends hope she will continue to improve.

Mrs. Charles Pistone and little daughter of Amarillo have been visiting the past week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers,

MORE MUSIC FACILITIES FOR NTSC—Now the largest in the Southwest, the School of Music at North Texas State College in Denton will get expanded physical facilities with construction of this additional building. The NTSC Board of Regents has approved plans for a classroom unit (at left and center adjoining the present music hall and orchestra hall) and auditorium (right) to seat 698. Work is expected to start in August with completion in time for the fall semester of 1960.

Jimnie Don and Janice spent last Sunday in Dublin visiting in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison. Their daughter, Carolyn, who had spent last week with the Allisons, returned home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman and Karen of Dublin were also visitors Sunday in the Allison home.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Moore and daughter of Hico visited Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd.

Mrs. Charles Price and Cheryl of Austin spent from Friday until Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox, and to be with her mother at Hico Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley, their daughter, Lera Jane, who was home for the week end from Baylor University, and a friend, Miss Jerre Dunklin of Valley Mills, and Mrs. Blakley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCoy attended the annual McCoy family reunion at Glen Rose last Sunday. All of the McCoy children were present with the exception of one son, Ernest of Fairy, who was unable to attend. Also a sister and brother of Mr. L. J. McCoy and a sister of Mrs. McCoy from Terrell were also present. Some 35 relatives attended.

Miss Cunningham Is Bride of Mr. Crabb

Miss Amy Sue Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham of Stephenville, became the bride of Mr. Gale Crabb, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Crabb of Copperas Cove, Saturday morning, June 20, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lawrence in Iredell. Rev. Jerden Davis, new pastor of the Iredell Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Hospital in Houston, has been returned to his home in Gatesville and is reported to be very low at this writing. He is a son of Mrs. Lillie Neie and the late Oscar Neie of the Lanham community.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were in Temple Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, where Mrs. Hoover underwent a physical examination. Glad to learn she received a good report.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Lowery, Lou Ann, Cal Jr. and Phillip, and Billy Daniel of Fort Worth were supper guests Sunday in the home of the writer and their father, Miss Lacie Buster of near Star was also a guest and spent Sunday night in our home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Little, their son, Grady Little and family and a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ward and family, all of Oklahoma City were here during the week end to attend the annual Turner reunion held at Clairette. While here all visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Britnie Little, who is a patient at the Hamilton rest home.

A surprise birthday honoring Ada Laceywell was held Sunday at her home. Mrs. Laceywell was 77 on June 22, but the gathering was held on Sunday in order that more friends would be able to attend. Those present were her son, Pat of the home, two brothers, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley, a niece, Mrs. Rose Hutton and sons of near Cranfills Gap. Friends were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyler. She received a number of nice and useful gifts. All enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Texie Dell Allison and Dana of De Leon visited during the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Streater and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones of Hamilton visited Sunday in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCoy. They stopped at our home on their return and left a donation of $5.00 each for the Blacklock and Jones relatives for the Fairy Cemetery. We thank them very much for we were getting low on funds.

Also we received a nice letter from Mr. J. C. McClammy of Glen Rose last week enclosing a $2.00 donation for the cemetery. Mr. McClammy has a relative buried here and stated he, too, was helping look after the Glen Rose cemetery and realized the need for funds to carry on such a project. Thanks so much, Mr. McClammy, for your thoughtfulness, along with best wishes to you in the work you are doing.

Nona Brunson worked several days last week at the cemetery, working off lots of those who contribute to the support of the cemetery, and also cut the Johnson grass off a number of other lots as we can't let this grass go to seed. We expected to start the mowing again today, and went down for Mr. Brunson, but learned he was helping a party to do some fencing, but hope to get the work started soon. We had the mower cleaned and a new spark plug installed and it runs fine with only $1.00 labor charge. Thanks to Johnnie Howerton of Hico who helped us out, since our mechanic, Mr. Willeford, stays snowed under with work most of the time.

INSECT CONTROL AT HOME

At this time of year most homemakers are concerned with the protection of woollens in the home through the summer months. To control clothes moths and carpet beetles, practice good housekeeping constantly. Dust and lint should not be allowed to accumulate. Rugs and draperies should be vacuumed often and clothing should be kept clean. Washable woollens may be protected from these pests by using EQ-53, a product developed by the USDA, in which DDT is the active ingredient. It is on the market under different trade names.

Woollens may be protected against feeding damage by spraying with a 5 per cent DDT oil solution. Those in storage will be protected for several years; those in use for a season, if not washed or dry cleaned.

Crystals or flakes of paradichlorobenzene or naphthalene, in the proper concentration, protect stored woollens. Rugs, carpets and upholstered furniture should be sprayed every 12 to 18 months. Use a 2 per cent chlorodane, 0.5 per cent lindane or 0.5 per cent dieldrin household spray to treat surfaces in the house where clothes moths and carpet beetles may crawl. A 5 per cent DDT household spray kills clothes moths but not carpet beetles.

Check your labels and be very sure to follow all precautions that may be on that label.

The Extension Service has a very good bulletin, "Controlling Household Insects" which is yours for the asking at our office on the second floor of the courthouse.

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

June is Dairy Month. A time to remember that everyone in the family needs milk, from baby to grandmother. Nutritionists consider calcium needs first when they figure the amount of milk to include in daily meals. Without milk, it is hard to get enough calcium in the diet. Milk products, such as cheese, ice cream, and dishes made with milk all help meet daily calcium needs.

The following amounts of milk are recommended MINIMUM for daily use:

Children, three-fourth to 1 quart
Teenagers, one quart
Adults, all ages, one pint
Expectant and nursing mothers, one quart.

NEED MORE STORAGE SPACE?

Do you need more storage space in your home? If so "storage furniture" is a possible solution. Bookcases are the simplest storage furniture. Available in many sizes, they can be decorative as well as useful. They provide storage for books, magazines, records, children's toys, and hobby and recreation materials. Chests of drawers are versatile storage pieces. If simple in design, they will adjust to the furnishing scheme of any room in the house, including hallways. Look for simple lines and good construction. Drawers should slide well. Shallow drawers with adjustable dividers are especially good.

Cabinets are the other main type of storage furniture. They are made with doors and adjustable and-or vertical dividers. Doors on cabinet's present the same problems as doors between rooms. Swinging doors work easily and allow for storage racks on the inside of the door. However, they get in the way when open. Sliding doors have drawbacks, too. They open only part of the cabinet at a time and make it impossible to use the inside of the door for storage racks or books. Doors that roll may stick.

Radios, phonographs and television cabinets are now taking their place as units of storage furniture rather than isolated accessories. Whatever the storage piece, it should fit smoothly into the space assigned, match or blend with the rest of the furnishings, and meet your standards for use, economy, beauty and individuality.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Abel and children, Cindy, Stevie and Timmy of Fort Worth visited the past week in the home of his mother, Mrs. S. A. Abel and George.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy French left last Friday for San Saba where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Jess Askey and Ann and Mr. and Mrs. Charles French and family for a week-end outing at Granite Shoals. The Frenchs returned home Monday.

'WISH YOU WERE HERE' (IN DALLAS)

Lovely singing star Shirley Jones and handsome Jack Cassidy make a romantic twosome in the State Fair Musicals production of "Wish You Were Here" at the Music Hall in Dallas. The happy musical comedy about a gay and carefree vacation at a summer resort plays for two weeks, June 22-July 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Campbell left from Hamilton last Friday for their home in Arcadia, California, after a visit here with W. T. Rodgers and Miss Ruby Rodgers, and with relatives in Hamilton. They were returning home by way of Sudan where they visited his sister, Mrs. W. O. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mattox of Grand Prairie visited Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold, and were accompanied home by their little son, Lowell Dean, who had been visiting for the past two weeks here with his grandparents. Sunday visitors with the Arnolds were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smart and daughters and a friend of Fort Worth.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Pollard were Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard and daughter, Mrs. Wilma Busbee and three children of Conway, Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Henley and daughter, Dana from Nacogdoches and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey of Dallas.

Mike Reeves and Denna Meador visited last week in Wax with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Simpson, who accompanied them home Saturday night and visited in the homes of Mrs. Sarah Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Meador, and Mr. and Mrs. Watt Ross.

Chiggers - Chiggers - It's That Time of Year Again

Call them red bugs.
Call them harvest mites.
Call them chiggers.

By whatever name, they mean sleepless nights and ceaseless spasms of itching misery.

This is their season. It will last from now until cold weather cuts into their ranks. A few people have an apparent immunity to chigger attacks, but the vast majority of us are oh-so-susceptible.

They—the chiggers—have a special affinity for low, damp places covered with vegetation. Bermuda grass harbors them well, but for some unexplainable reason they are not usually found in carpet grass.

Just for the record, it's the larvae which do the damage, attaching themselves with their mouthparts and sucking blood until they become engorged and fall off. The fiery itching is caused by an anticoagulant material they inject into their host.

Although adult chiggers—large, red and velvety—are probably harmless to humans, their wayward offspring can be serious as well as annoying. Not that they spread any specific disease—at least not in this country—but their bites demand scratching which frequently causes secondary infections in the form of sores and boils.

To learn where chiggers are harboring, stand a piece of black cardboard on end where you suspect their presence. If after a few moments you see tiny yellowish or pinkish mites accumulating on the upper edge, you know it's time to check your supply of insecticide.

Chiggers attack lizards, snakes, birds, and rodents with the same vigor and resourcefulness they display in attacking humans. No distinction is drawn between man and lesser animal species, which is hardly complimentary to us Homosapiens.

Light applications of sulphur dust on lawns and low branches of shrubs have been used successfully for years to control chiggers. Nowadays, the new insecticides such as chlorodane and lindane give better results. Just follow the directions on the label.

A quick word of caution: Be sure to avoid unnecessary exposure to the insecticide. If you spill the concentrated material on your skin, wash it off immediately. And be sure to keep children and pets out of the yard until the spray dries.

to the Editor

Gentlemen:

We note with interest the article on page 1 of your June 19th issue, Volume LXXIV, Number 7, the Fairy Ex-Students Association write up omitted the name of Vernon A. Jackson, 2nd Vice President.

We feel sure this was an oversight, and wanted to bring it to your attention in the event you would see fit to run a correction notice regarding same.

The office of 2nd Vice President was created by the presiding officer the night of the election when there was a tie apparent for the 1st Vice Presidency.

Thanking you for your attention to this matter, we remain,

Very truly yours,

MRS. VERNON JACKSON,
202 Myers Road,
Grand Prairie.

P.S. We really enjoy the Hico News Review, especially the Fairy News section, for there are four families living in Grand Prairie that are Jacksons from the Fairy community.

(ED NOTE: The office of 2nd Vice President was not overlooked in the naming of new officers last week, but merely unavailable to this newspaper. Our faithful Fairy correspondent made an attempt to secure the office's name but was unable to do so. We thank Mrs. Jackson for calling our attention to this matter.)

Dear Buck and "Gals":

We moved into our new home last week, so please change our address to 3308 Cedarcroft Lane. It's really nice to be off that other busy street. Mighty quiet and lonesome, too! Barbara (our 15-year-old daughter) left June 7 for a tour of Washington, New York and Canada. Thirty-one kids from our church are making the trip via bus. They are really having a "Blast." (quote!)

Surely enjoy the paper. Come to see us.

MAYO HOBBS,
Dallas.

Mrs. Clifford Hampton and little granddaughter, Penny Dunlop, spent the week end in Brownwood in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Hampton and children.

Judy's Jabber...

Sunday she returned to San Antonio with Mr. and Mrs. Printiss Tackett, who had been attending the Tackett family reunion in Stephenville. Also accompanying the Tacketts home for a visit were Misses Gay Lynn and Paula June Stephens and Miss Sharon Kay Stephens, all of Fort Worth.

The 1957 graduating class HHS held a class reunion Friday night. They drank cream, played dominoes, ping-pong, and I heard they had lots of fun and were glad to see each other again.

Montye Ogle has been buying hay for Mr. Pitts and Horton for the past week or two.

Linda Driver spent the week end in Plainview visiting aunt, Mrs. Lola Newton, her cousin, James Lee and family of Nazareth.

Buddy Teague was over the week end from Kinney where he is working for the Soil Conservation Service.

Anita Mayfield came home from a visit in Dallas with her sister, Mrs. Boen and family.

Give them a Faith to live by

Worship with them this week

Naturally you want them to have all the good things in life . . . a happy home . . . a good education . . . plenty of chances to meet other nice young people. But be sure to give them the most precious gift of all . . . Faith.

The wonderful part is that faith is yours to give . . . no matter who you are, what you do for a living, how much money you have in the bank.

Faith is the gift you give a little at a time. Every week you worship with the children at your church or synagogue. The youngsters see you . . . the biggest, smartest, most important people in their world . . . asking God for help, thanking Him for blessings. Then it's clear to them . . . here they can always find the strength they need, always find the happiness they want.

Then you've done the best a parent—any parent—can do.

Junior Can't Read ...
... But He Can Reach

Curiosity is a natural heritage of any youngster. Medicine bottles and allied items—which includes potent medications and even POISONS should be kept out of reach of little fingers. His or her objective is to reach these items of curiosity and too many times statistics tell us that your child may become a casualty due to negligence of adults—who know better but are too careless.

By reduced carelessness you will also reduce casualties and HELP JUNIOR GROW UP!

(Adults should keep dangerous insecticides and garden sprays away from household medicines and out of easy reach as they too can become casualties by their own neglect.)

NEW SMALL CAR?—No, this is not one of the much discussed new lighter cars being measured by a 20-foot giant. It is, however, one of the sleek entries in the 1959 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition being "sized-up" by one of the judges in Detroit. Judging of hundreds of such miniature "dream cars" is now underway to determine teen-age winners of $115,000 in cash awards and university scholarships.

FARM TIPS—

Many Laws and Regulations Control Livestock Movement

College Station, June 24.—Though Texas has a law requiring that cattle, hogs, sheep and goats must be branded or marked and the brand or mark recorded, brand inspectors estimate that 25 per cent or fewer of the cattle and less of the other animals are branded. However branding is still a common practice in some areas and the branding laws are still in force. Some of these brand laws are obsolete and the enforcement machinery is inadequate. This information comes from a new publication released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station titled "Analysis of Texas Laws and Regulations Controlling the Movement and Sale of Livestock." The publication brings together many of the more important laws and regulations so that producers, selling agents, buyers and consumers may know the legal requirements to be observed and the protection provided. The responsibility for prevention and control of livestock diseases in Texas rests with the Livestock Sanitary Commission. The steps being taken by the Commission and the U. S. Department of Agriculture to control and eradicate livestock diseases are discussed. Auctioneers and how their profession is regulated and the testing of livestock scales at public auction markets and stockyards are among the other topics of discussion. To obtain a copy of the bulletin, write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for MP-322.

FARM TIPS—

Develop Young Ewes Before Breeding is Good Practice

College Station, June 24.—Size or weight of yearling ewes when they enter the breeding flock has a major influence on their subsequent breeding performance, according to a study made on Rambouillet ewes at the Sonora Experiment Station. Ewes weighing 100 to 115 pounds performed better than those weighing above or below this range. For each pound increase in yearling breeding weight up to 100 pounds, there was an increase of approximately 5 pounds in total lamb production and 0.6 pound increase in total wool production throughout a lifetime of use. This shows that young ewes should be permitted to make most of their development before they enter the breeding flock. This information comes from Progress Report 2081 released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station titled "Importance of Size and Proper Development in Respect to Breeding Performance of Rambouillet Ewes." It was written by Maurice Shelton, assistant animal husbandman and geneticist of the McGregor Experiment Station.

The report includes charts which show the relationship between time lamb production in pounds compared to lamb produced ewe bred in pounds. For a copy of the report, contact the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for 2081.

TEXAS FARMS CHANGING SIZE

There are fewer farms in Texas, but in keeping with Texas tradition, Texas farms are getting bigger, with larger farm operations taking over an increasingly bigger share of the state's total farm land.

The loss in number of farms is centered heavily in those between 50 and 99 acres in size. In 1920, farms of this size made up 27 per cent of the State's farm land, but by 1954 occupied less than 16 per cent. Whereas in 1920 farms of 260 acres and over occupied less than 12 per cent of all the state's farm land, by 1954 28 per cent of Texas farm land was occupied in farms of 260 acres and over.

BROILER GROWER'S GOAL

Fifteen years ago it took about four and a half pounds of feed to grow a pound of poultry. Today, poultry science has reduced that in broiler production to two and a fourth pound of feed for a pound of broiler, and laboratory feeding has dropped below the 1.2 pound mark necessary to obtain a pound of gain. With the constant pressure on the broiler industry through competition at every level, the industry's best hope still lies in research that will improve feed conversion, and the poultry scientists believe a pound for a pound may one day be a reality.
