publisher of The Herald-News, will present the letter and copy of the paper to the first rider near the Hamilton post office at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday, July 29. Roy Chumney will be the starting rider. He will race the parcel to the next rider a mile away, where another rider will accept the letter and paper and continue to speed them to Hico. This process will be repeated at each station until the destination near the Hico post office is reached, at which point they will be delivered to Mayor Bulloch.

Elvin Mears will ride the last mile and make the delivery. The letter and paper should arrive in Hico between 4 and 5 o'clock.

start to finish. Parade Marshal Dan Haile urges all riders to participate in the parade, which will start at the upper end of main street at 6:30 p.m. They should be there at 5:45.

Reunion Gets Underway Wednesday With Parade

PARKING LOTS TO BE OPERATED BY SCOUTS

Hico Troop 99, Boy Scouts of America, will operate two parking lots this year during the Reunion.

In past years the Scouts have operated the lot directly across from the old Wieser Mill as their only fund raising project of the year.

In addition to this lot, the Scouts have made arrangements to operate the large lot across the river bridge, formerly operated by the late John Haines.

Local people are urged to take advantage of these safe parking facilities, and at the same time help the Scouts.

Texas State Hospital Chief Counselor to Be Hico Speaker

The Chief Counselor for the Texas State Hospitals will be guest speaker at a meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous on Wednesday, July 29, at 8 p.m. in Firemen's Hall.

This meeting is open to the public, and every one is invited to avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this man.

Leon New Receives Distinguished Student Award at A & M

Leon New, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New of Route 3, Hico, has been named a Distinguished Student at Texas A & M College, by Fred J. Benson, Dean of Engineering.

With the award the recipient was also awarded a Distinguished Student Card, which attests to the honor and entitles him to special designated privileges.

The award is given on the basis of a student's scholarly performance at A & M.

BAND DIRECTOR VISITS

Terry Randolph, Hico band and music director, was in Hico Tuesday of the past week. Mr. Randolph has been attending summer school at North Texas State, and visiting and working in Bowie.

LIVING IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. J. P. Hardin, who has been residing in Fort Worth, has notified the News Review of a change of address to West Covina, Calif. Mrs. Hardin plans to visit in California in the home of her daughter for the coming year.

Local Scouts Cop All-Camp Honor Award at Tahuaya

Five members of Hico Boy Scout Troop 99 won the coveted "All-Camp Honor Award" during last week's session of Camp Tahuaya near Belton.

Scouters from Hico who attended the week-long session were Jerry Casey, Lloyd Hyles, Butch Knudson, Lynn Wade Malone, and Edmund Horton, Scoutmaster Clarence Watson accompanied the group.

In presenting the award, the Camp Manager said "Boys, you came to Camp Tahuaya last Sunday as young Scouts; none of you had been to camp before, and today you are going home on top."

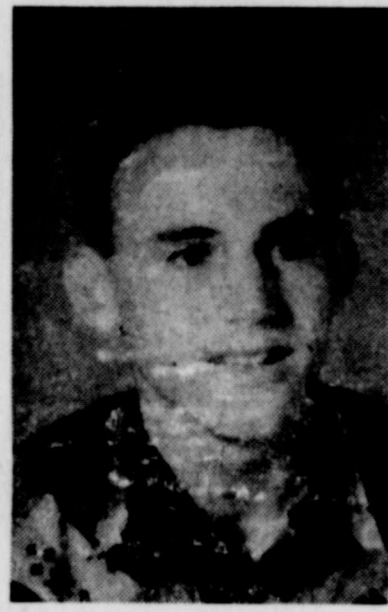

During the week at camp the boys lived by a strict schedule starting with reveille at 7:15 a.m. Breakfast, special instruction, swimming, archery, lunch, rest period, rifle practice, swimming, canoeing, and dinner followed in that order. They found time to make ice cream and to take a 5 mile hike while there.

Last Thursday night some of the parents enjoyed a barbecue supper with the boys and stayed over to see the "Arrow" ceremony.

The boys came home with a number of other awards, and all of them moved up a rank. Each boy had a special star in his eye for his part in winning the Jumbo Trail Award of 1959, but the fact that they had worked together and won for the entire group seemed to mean more than anything else to all of them.

(Ed. Note: The following account of the trip to camp by five Hico Scouts was compiled by Clarence Watson, Scoutmaster.)

HERE FRIDAY NIGHT—Joe Paul Nichols of Jacksboro will be one of the featured entertainers Friday night during the Hico Reunion. Nichols gained the state finals last year in FFA Entertainment Contest. He appears on alternate Saturday nights on the Cowtown "Hoedown" at Fort Worth and has also appeared on many other programs over the state.

Hico Parent-Teachers Express Opinion on Texas' Young People

Austin (Sp).—The Hico Parent Teacher Association has expressed opinions on the problems of Texas young people to the state committee preparing data for the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth.

The local chapter recommended stiffer penalties for juvenile crimes and greater jurisdiction for the local courts, in relation to juvenile delinquency.

Members felt that there is too much going steady, and there is excess viewing of television from health and educational standpoints. Guidance programs in the schools were recommended to improve moral and spiritual values.

The lack of parental concern for low grades and poor work was stressed. Compulsory anti-polio vaccinations were recommended.

The club advocated changes in the Child Labor Law so that companies or employers may secure adequate insurance coverages and that wages be set for this group at a scale so that they may obtain employment during summer. There is a need, the club decided, for improvement of the home and school relationship. The lack of planned summer activities for children and youth is evident.

The members emphasized the lack of responsibilities for youth at home.

Civic clubs and other organizations throughout the state participated in the poll, which was circulated in preparation for the state committee's part in the national conference in Washington the last week in March 1960.

Hico's 73rd Annual Old Settlers Reunion will get underway Wednesday, July 29, with the traditional parade kicking off the four-day affair at 6:30 p.m.

Much interest has been displayed in this year's celebration, and indications are that it will be one of the best ever staged.

Plenty of free entertainment has been lined up for the four nights, plus interesting display features in the exhibit building. What promises to be one of the most interesting displays is the Texas Game & Fish Commission's Wildlife Exhibit which will be here each of the four days at the park.

The parade is receiving much interest, and a record number of entries are expected. Prize money totalling $130.00 will be given to winners as follows: Best Bicycle, $5; Best Horse and Rider, $10; Best Comic, $10; Best Decorated Car, $15; Best Decorated Float, $60.00; Second Place Float, $30; and to the Best Riding Club will go a trophy.

Parade entries which have sent in definite commitments to Manager Harold Walker are from Waco Horseless Carriage Club, the Local Theatre Closed Monday

Hico is without movie facilities this week for the first time in more than 20 years, after the local theatre closed after the Monday night showing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bulloch, who have operated the theatre for the past three years, stated that they had no plans for immediate re-opening of the entertainment facilities.

However, they did say that an attempt would be made to either sell or lease the business.

Winners Announced In Recent Baby Contest by Studio

John Reed this week announced winners in the recent baby contest staged by Reed Studio.

The winners are:

First Category, age 3 to 18 months: Michael Wylie, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Wylie of Star Rt., Stephenville, first; Second place, Tanja Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Von Scott of Hico; and third place, George Goughly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goughly of Hico.

Second Category, age 18 months to three years: First, Sherry Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter of Hico; Second, Lawrence Blum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blum of Hico; and Third, Freda Jaggars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Jaggars of Hico.

Third Category, age three to six years: First, Janie Lee Pendleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pendleton of Cranfills Gap; Second, Kathy Southall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Southall of Hico; and third, Steve Ruff, son of Mrs. Frances Eubanks of Hico.

popular Motor Patrol from Waco Karem Temple, the Meridian Riding Club, and the Hamilton Sheriff's Posse.

Many other organizations and businesses in Hico have also planned floats.

Interest has "snow-balled" in the Miss Reunion Contest, which drew 41 entries. Last year, the initial year for the contest, 27 entries paraded before judges. Trophies will be awarded to the winner and to two runners-up in the contest.

The program for the four days as outlined by Walker is as follows:

Wednesday: Miss Reunion Contest beginning at 8:30, with possibly other varied entertainment.

Thursday: Square Dancing, with a group from Abilene taking part. All local dancers and those from neighboring towns are invited to participate.

Friday: Joe Paul Nichols of Jacksboro, a featured entertainer on the "Cowtown Hoedown", Fort Worth, and the Pottsville String Band will offer entertainment.

Saturday: Traditional Old Fiddler's Contest. Last year the contest drew 17 entries, and indications are that more will be entered this year. Also Saturday night, drawings will be held under the pavillion for the several hundred dollars worth of free merchandise being given away by Hico merchants who have display booths at the park.

In cooperation with the Boy Scouts, the Reunion Committee decided this week to charge a slight parking fee for inside-the-park privileges this year. The fee will be 25c per car and the proceeds will be used for hiring extra patrol help during the Reunion. The Boy Scouts will operate two lots this year. Merchants having display booths will be given a gate pass for admittance, as will all firemen who will have a reserved space directly inside the main entrance gate.

OVERSEAS DUTY—Pvt. Otice C. Boyle, son of Mrs. Rennie Cody of Hico, embarked for overseas duty from Fort Dix, N. J., July 16. He will be stationed at Karlsruhe, Germany for a 24-month tour of duty. He recently completed a six-week engineering school at Ft. Belvoir, Va., and previous to that assignment he was stationed in Colorado. He enlisted in the Army last December 13.

Due to the inefficiency on the part of a "fouled-up" postal clerk between here and Austin, this space is blank this week. A picture, which is explained in the cutlines below, was misplaced and is two days late at this time. The publisher deeply regrets this omission.

REUNION HOPEFULS—Admiring the which will be presented to Miss Reunion next Wednesday night are three hopefuls. From left to right they are Miss Kathy Higginbotham, Miss Janet Hooper, and Miss Judy Griffiths. Miss Griffiths was a runner-up in last year's contest. The program will be staged at 8:30 o'clock opening night of the Reunion.

alarms, but four false alarms in one week are too many. In the future, Hico people could be a great amount of help to firemen by making sure that they dial the right number.

The plentiful rains since Sunday morning has furnished the topic of discussion for most of this week, and can you think of anything better to talk about?

The moisture, which started falling early Sunday morning, has covered a wide area around Hico, with reports of up to six inches recorded in some sections.

Old-timers in the area say that they can't remember receiving such rainfall during July before. Cattlemen are especially rejoicing over the moisture, as are farmers who are expecting to make a bumper maize and feed crop. Cattle are sleek and fat, farmers are in a jovial mood, and in fact, there just isn't anything like a good general rain to set one's spirits on a high note.

A dream has finally materialized for S. E. "Pop" Blair. Pop is now the owner of a real, honest-to-goodness steam engine train.

Jake went to Fort Worth recently and bought the miniature train, and is in the process of setting it up at Hico City Park, where it will remain as a permanent fixture. He expects to have it in operation by Reunion time next week.

Jake has been known far and wide for his interest in trains, and we expect that he will spend many pleasurable hours with the locomotive.

gesture is that of the Sheriff's Posse. A story in this issue explains of the Pony Express ride from Hamilton to Hico which will be next Wednesday before time opening the Old Settlers Reunion.

Twenty-one riders will be stationed one mile apart between here and Hico, and the riders will carry a special Pony Express letter to Mayor D. E. Bulloch and Mayor Charles Eck of Hico.

Interest is expected in the first ever conducted between here and Hamilton.

George W. Tabor Was Early-Day Merchant Here

George Washington Tabor, a furniture dealer of Hico, and one of the early settlers of this part of the state, was born in Scott County, Miss., July 12, 1838, his parents being William Washington and Susan Elizabeth (McGee) Tabor. He lived in the county of his nativity until 1841, when he accompanied his parents on their removal to Houston. He then went to Grimes County, then a part of Montgomery County, and after two or three years passed there, the family returned to Mississippi.

In 1846 Mr. Tabor went with his parents to Mobile County, Alabama, and in 1858 he took up his abode in Chambers County, Texas, thence he went to Galveston, where he was living at the time of the Civil War.

Mr. Tabor enlisted in the Confederate service as a member of Ashville Smith's company of the Second Texas Regiment. He enlisted with young Sam Houston, and after ten months was transferred to Company G, Tenth Texas Infantry, with which he was connected until hostilities had ceased. Soon after entering the service he went to Arkansas and participated in the battle of Arkansas Post, where he was captured and sent to Fort Douglas. In the spring he was exchanged and joined Bragg's army, with which he continued until May 27, 1864, when he was wounded at New Hope Church, Ga., the ball entering the wrist.

When the war was ended Mr. Tabor went to Austin County, Texas where his mother was then living, and in September, 1869, he opened a store in Coryell County, Texas, where he remained for a year. On the expiration of that period he went to Valley Mills, where he also spent a year, after which he lived for ten years in Duffau, Erath County.

He came to Hico in November,

1881, and established a general store, which he conducted for a year. On the 15th day of May, 1893, he opened his furniture store.

He enacted the building which he last did business in, and also put up two other business houses, which were destroyed by fire at the time of the burning of the town, March 6, 1891. His residence was erected in 1882.

Mr. Tabor was married in August, 1868, to Margaret Malinda Wood, daughter of John D. and Annie (Inman) Wood. Their children were William Woodson, Lula, John W., Ira Nathan, Laura and Cora.

In politics Mr. Tabor was a Democrat. He was a member of

ARTHRITIS CAN BE HALTED

Not long ago a Readers Digest carried a beautiful personality story about a rich man, a bedfast arthritic patient, who lived in a beautiful penthouse atop a New York hotel. When his many friends and acquaintances had depressing problems he furnished understanding, love and encouragement while his own affliction took his life despite the efforts of expensive specialists. His money was unable to buy a cure for arthritis. It seems that one one had made him acquainted with a new science known as Chiropractic.

Dr. Robt. H. Walker

An arthritic housewife came to our Stephenville Clinic ten years ago with her hands, wrists, feet, ankles and shoulders swollen and painful. She was unable to do her housework. Our routine spinal examination disclosed certain interferences in her central nervous system. She progressed gradually. The pain subsided very soon after she placed herself under our care, the swelling left and she was able to do most of her housework. Her arthritis is kept in complete check now by an occasional visit to our office.

have received between three and four inches of rain since early morning. However, the weather seemed to be spotted since the rainfall was much lighter a few miles south. At last report Lanham had had less than an inch. We are still having showers to this writing. Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Brummett, who suffered a stroke at his home last Wednesday morning, is still a patient at the hospital, but was reported to be doing fair Sunday. His condition had been notified of his earlier, and the following day he had been here visiting: Mrs.

Euphie Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Massengale of Grand Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Braley and Mr. and Mrs. Polson of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vaughn of Olton, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Brummett of Big Spring (or Odessa), Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Brummett and Mr. and Mrs. Ovie Brummett of near Fairy. We hope he will soon be improved sufficiently to return home. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haile of Fort Worth spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sills. Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Driver of Grand Prairie spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wolfe. The writer and daughter, Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn, Jimmie Don and Janice visited Wednesday afternoon of last week in Dublin in the home of our daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, and also in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman and Karen. The Baptist revival is in progress this week at the Fairy Baptist Church. The Agee revival closed Sunday night with good attendance reported. The writer attended singing last Sunday at the Warrens Creek Baptist Church. After singing hours we visited at the Hamilton nursing home with friends. Glad to report Mrs. Brittle Little much better. She received a bone fracture recently in a fall. Sorry to find Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs.

Homer Smith of Jonesboro, in bed. She hasn't walked in some 52 years due to arthritis. She received an injury to one of her knees while being lifted from her chair to her bed Monday, but glad to know she was much better also. There will be singing next Sunday, July 26 at the Olin Baptist Church, midway between Hico and Hamilton on Highway 281. The program will begin at 2:00 p.m. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend. Scott Blakley and Ernest McCoy were in Hamilton Monday where they served as jurors on the jury panel in District Court. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and Mrs. Gladys Cox visited a while late Sunday in Hico in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Adams, and also at the Hico Hospital with H. R. Brummett. Miss Darlene Clark and sister, Mrs. Roy Able and two little sons are in Fort Worth where Darlene plans to seek employment. She is a graduate of Fairy High School. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seilheimer and family of Fort Worth spent the week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison. We learned today, Tuesday, that Mr. Estee Latham is a patient in a Hamlin hospital. Mr. Latham had been advised by his physician to move to the coast, and did start out that way, but decided to go back to West Texas where they formerly lived, and on the way he had an attack of asthma and had to enter the hospital. He also suffers a heart ailment. Mr. and Mrs. Audie Clark visited a while Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox. While at the rest home Sunday Mrs. A. R. Hoover handed us $5.00 for the Fairy Cemetery fund. She stated that even though her son and wife, the E. M. Hoovers, looked after her lot, she felt it was her duty to help, which is quiet right for it's an expense to keep the main grounds, and what would a well kept lot look like with a high growth of weeds over the rest of the cemetery. We were at the cemetery Monday afternoon checking on its condition and find that these rains are really making the Johnson grass grow. We now have funds for a few more days work and will have all lots gone over and Johnson grass cut as soon as weather permits. Another $5.00 donation from Mrs. Hallie Jameson of Whitney was handed us by her niece, Mrs. Herman Sills. We wish to thank each for their donations. Word was received here by radio report that Teddy Buster, nephew of the Kay boys who live near Fairy, was critically injured in a car wreck in Grand Prairie Sunday. Teddy stayed here and attended Fairy School in the 1957.

With Enough Rope, The Gov. Might Hang Himself

By E. E. DAWSON

A big question in the minds of most Americans now is, "Is Governor Earl Long Crazy, or is He Ain't?" It is a matter, apparently, that doctors are not agreed about. Certainly I shall not pass judgment on the question. But I do have an opinion, as doubtless every other American who listens to the news, or reads the papers, has.

You have heard that age-old saying, "Give a man rope enough and he'll soon hang himself." Looks like they are giving the Governor a lot of rope and he is trying to verify the truthfulness of the old saying. Evidence in court is what makes a jury render a verdict. Let's have a look at some of the evidence.

Many folks listen to radio and TV newscasts daily just to hear the latest that is reported in those media about the doings of the Gentleman from Louisiana. Judging from news reports, the governing head of our sister state to the east, one cannot escape the fact that His Honor has had a scrap, of both fists and tongue, at every place he has been on his vacation tour. Of course that is one way for a fellow to enjoy a vacation if he has a violent nature. His scraps have been with reporters and peace officers and with hotel and cafe personnel, and with a good many others who have crossed the path of the touring official.

Some of the things that he has been reported as doing at every port looks a bit queer for a normal man. For example, in Fort Worth he is reported to have bought 20 pairs of cowboy boots, at a high figure of some $65.00 per pair. Quite a lot of footwear to pile up in the closet, and since he and Mrs. Long do not dwell together any more, she cannot help him wear so many pieces of foot equipment. At El Paso he bought forty crates of canteloupes. Of course folks who have ever lived in that area of the state and eaten Pecos canteloupes are well aware of the appeal of those highly flavored melons, but it is quite a lot of melons for a man to eat before they deteriorate beyond the edible. Then, today's newscast at early morning tells of His Honor going to church yesterday and trying to smoke a cigarette during the church service. On last Saturday Mr. Long was reported to have gone to the Ruidosa, New Mexico, horse races and had such a hassle with the local sheriff there that he was invited to leave the track, which he did in high dudgeon and with a considerable amount of loud cursing. And so the story goes of some such eccentric conduct, at every place he has been since leaving the state over which he is considered the governing head.

One thing he is doing that may be helpful, though highly doubtful, is that he is affording some diversion to the people of America and the world at a season when people need something unusual to take their minds off low rainfall and steel strikes and marital maladjustments and threats of Russia to start a war and blow up the world with its super missile-slinging equipment.

Looks like the Governor is being given a good deal of rope and who knows but he may end the excitement by hanging himself from one of Louisiana's moss-covered trees!

Let's all of us here in our home town and community make an effort to greet our visitors and convince them what a good town Hico is!

DIVISIONS OF ESTATES EXPLAINED

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that, where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the rightful claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Now, here is a general idea as to how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two-thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one-third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse.

The rule for distributing personal property — cash, stocks, bonds, furniture, or any other items not constituting real estate — is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

Another Milestone —

Hico's Annual Old Settlers Reunion comes to another milestone, the 73rd. Before the turn of the century, Hico Pioneers sponsored their first Reunion, the beginning of many more and steadily growing celebrations, until the institution has reached its present peak.

This year, as is the custom, we celebrate with the Annual Reunion of pioneer citizens, former citizens and friends, in special observance, thereby strengthening the moral bulwarks for future progress. Lest the perspective of the years be blurred by recollection of war, drouth and economic readjustments of the last few years, it is well to pause now and note that Hico citizens have met emergencies and have always come forth to carry on an undaunted fight to make their home town, their State, and their Nation a more and more finer place for homes and families.

Throughout past years of Hico's Annual Reunions there have been many trying times, with hardships and sacrifices as terrible, and responsibilities as great as any of the present generation faces. But always, as it will be now, Hico has survived to march on into better and more peaceful days—to eras of building and new growth—Today, right now, is the time for all Hico citizens to review the history of our town and resolve to take a more active part in its future development.

Let's all hail the observance of Hico's 73rd Annual Old Settlers Reunion as an opportunity to renew civic pride in our town; civic pride, the nature of which will afford an inspiration to future citizens of Hico in the years to come.

Let's all of us here in our home town and community make an effort to greet our visitors and convince them what a good town Hico is!

Now suppose your husband or wife survives, but there are no surviving children or their descendants. In this case the surviving spouse inherits all of the personal property involved.

With regard to real estate, the survivor obtains full title to one-half, and the other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one-fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) who survive. If there are no surviving brothers and sisters and their descendants, then the one surviving parent inherits the full one-half.

Where no parent survives, but there are brothers and sisters and descendants, the full one-half is divided among these survivors.

And, if there are no parents or brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

BUYING AN AIR CONDITIONER

Shopping for an air conditioner? If so, you'll appreciate these pointers from the Extension home management specialists of Texas A & M College.

Consider cooling capacity of the different brands. Ignore horsepower and tonnage. Look for rated cooling capacity expressed in "BTU's per hour." The higher the BTU capacity the more heat will be removed from the area you are cooling.

Efficiency of operation also depends on the amount of cooling you get for each watt of electricity used. Simply divide number of BTU's by number of watts. Then, to determine the amount of cooling per dollar of cost, divide BTU's by the cost of the unit. Check name plate of unit for BTU's and watts.

Lelon Wolfe of Kermit visited from Friday until Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wolfe, and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Wolfe and family.

Like automobiles, different models and makes come with different special features. For your satisfaction take time to carefully, to read advertising to talk with salespeople or your friends. The specialist suggests that you check on controls, humidity, air velocity, thermostat, construction and insulation and ease of operation.

In checking the humidity controls, remember that part of unit's capacity is used for cooling. The portion used for cooling is expressed as a fraction of 1. A desirable fraction is .7 or .8.

Controls for air velocity should have both high and low speeds. They should also operate in only, and to exhaust air in rooms.

Good insulation prevents overheating of the unit. Check the advertising or ask the sales person about this. A rust-proof cover on the outside portion will add to the life of the unit.

Check to see if the thermostat is constructed to control indoor temperatures as outside temperature changes.

A good air conditioner can increase the comfort and efficiency of family or office members. It can also improve disposition and morale. Take time to select carefully.

HAVE YOU TRIED THIS?

1. Here's a good party idea. Combine a small package of candies with a quarter cup of ripe olives and season with onion and Worcestershire sauce. Spread on thin slices of bologna. Roll tightly, wrap in waxed paper and chill. Cut in 1/2 inch slices and serve on toothpicks.

2. Banana slices, peach slices and pineapple sticks make an attractive salad trio. Serve on greens and pass a dressing of mayonnaise, sour cream, and chopped mint.

3. Here's another low cost suggestion. Combine cottage cheese and strawberries. Blend them together lightly and garnish with chopped fresh mint leaves. Serve on lettuce leaves, or a bed of shredded lettuce.

MYF Group Enjoys Volleyball at Park

On Wednesday night, July 15, the MYF played volleyball at the park. We started about 8:00, after searching the town for some of the absent members. A couple of them were engaged in some very cool work, which we finally persuaded them to leave, and one person was having a very interesting telephone conversation. We finally got everyone we could and went to the park.

After about 20 minutes of just batting the ball around, we started playing a series of three games. I think some of the players were nearly asleep, because a few of the balls went a little crooked. We had a very good time, with few accidents, except when some of the girls got hit on the head with a few misplaced balls.

We intend to play again some time real soon and we would like to see a lot of folks out to play.

Old Settlers Kept Faith

We offer our tribute to the Old Settlers on the event of their 73rd Annual Reunion. We are aware that the old settlers have kept the faith of this land, to make possible the vast progress that has been our heritage. It was their courage that drove their wagons into the new, unknown land. They brought their families and their possessions to establish the homesteads and ranches of our pioneer families. We are grateful for the faith and courage of each of them, living and deceased, and we tender our gratitude. We are proud of the development of the land which has justified the Old Settlers' faith; which has fulfilled their vision.

Dr. Wysong Among First Physicians In Hico Area

James Hopkins Wysong, M. D., Sc.D., Ph.D., a prominent and successful practitioner of the healing art at Hico, was born April 27, 1850, in Collin County, Texas, ten miles north of McKinney. His parents were Charles Hopkins and Sarah (Foster) Wysong, and his mother and twin brother died when he was only three days old. When he was only nineteen he began the study of medicine, under the advice of Dr. L. L. Leslie, at Mantua, Collin County. He taught during the years 1870 and 1871 at Hillsboro, and at the close of the last year resumed his medical reading with Dr. N. B. Kennedy of that city, as preceptor. He was ready in about a year to begin the medical course at the University of Louisiana, now known as Tulane University. Here he studied during 1872-73, and then came to Bosque County, and practiced there until the winter of 1879-80, when he took a degree at the Louisville Medical College at Louisville, Kentucky.

Later on he returned to the Tulane University, in the medical department of which he was graduated in 1885. In the month of September, 1888, he was called to the chair of chemistry and toxicology in the Texas Medical College and Hospital at Galveston, and filled the duties of that responsible position for three years. During the last two years of that time he was also superintendent of the John Sealy Hospital, and, as the first superintendent, had the honor of opening it in January 1890.

On July 1, 1891, the subject returned to his home in Walnut Springs. For a time he was practicing in Hillsboro with Dr. E. L. Sessions.

In August, 1895, he moved to Hico, where he continued his medical practice.

In addition to his regular professional work, Dr. Wysong completed two courses of post-graduate work in Trinity University, Tehuacana, Texas, and graduated there with the degrees of Doctor of Science and Doctor of Philosophy.

Dr. Wysong was married in October, 1873, to Ophelia Atlanta, daughter of Rev. Joseph P. and Mary F. (Johnson) Grace. Her father was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, south. She was the mother of seven children. Dr. Wysong was a member of the Knights of Honor lodge at Hico, and of the Methodist Episcopal Church, south. He was reared a Presbyterian, but when he became a man he saw fit to alter his religious associations.

The father of the doctor, C. H. Wysong, was born in Franklin County, Virginia, May 19 1820, and removed to Missouri in 1846. There he remained for three years, when he came to Texas, making his home at Melissa, Collin County. In the latter part of the war he joined Burnett's Brigade but the great strife was over before he had seen much service. He was made a Mason in Mantua Lodge, No. 209, in 1857 and two years later was created worshipful master, and served his lodge in that capacity for many years.

Work is progressing rapidly on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preacher Bowie.

Mike King was taken to Hico Clinic Sunday afternoon where nine stitches were required to close a cut in his leg, which he received while at play.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lindley of Stephenville visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sessom.

We received 3 inches of rain Monday morning, which was greatly needed.

AIR CONDITIONING MOVES TO THE BARN AND GREENHOUSE

What's new in the animal kingdom? Animal air conditioning, that's what!

Researchers have taken one of mankind's greatest boons to comfort and have begun cooling plants and animals for greater profit.

It has been a known fact for many years that the hot Texas summers slow growth and production rates of farm animals. But the difference in just a few degrees of temperature will mean a more rapid growth rate which increases farm income.

According to preliminary research studies, hens kept in cool chicken houses not only lay larger, tougher eggs but they also produce up to twice as many. In addition, a "heat struck" hen may consume up to 4 pounds of feed in her efforts to produce a dozen eggs. But when kept cool and comfortable, the hen needs only about 2.66 pounds of feed per dozen.

The air conditioned chicken house also increases flock production. Eight per cent more of the setting hens' eggs hatch in a cool house. Chick mortality falls and the house itself can accommodate 15 per cent more chickens comfortably, reports show.

Pigs and cattle respond equally well to cooler quarters in the summertime. If pigs are kept at 70 degrees, they reach a marketable weight in one-fourth the time needed at 90 degrees. And they consume a total of only one-third as much food. When cattle are kept cool, they gain up to half-pound more per day and give more milk, according to research tests.

Air conditioning trials in greenhouses reveal that plants respond equally well. Plants need light, air, water and heat for growth—but in correct proportion. The blazing Texas heat often retards plants in the hottest months.

Cooling green houses thus can double the growing rates of marketable flowers and vegetables, researchers claim.

The experiments have been conducted by the American Society of Heating and Air Conditioning Engineers. The organization is developing systems for cooling farm buildings for an operating cost of under $5 per month which would require investments of under $500.

A NEWSPAPER WAS A RARITY IN MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES!

Then—a newspaper was a thing to be marveled at—for memories of the Press' fight for freedom were fresh in mind. Although newspapers are common in our country today, their existence should not be taken for granted. It is a wonderful fact that almost all of our modern communities have their own hometown newspapers, freely edited by members of their own communities—spreading the news, stimulating the business of the community, and keeping their readers informed of important events elsewhere. It is well to keep in mind that a free press and a free people are an unbeatable team.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

Dairymen and some other stockmen have been busy, or are still at it, cutting silage crops and putting it up in trench silos.

Conrad Roberson put up around 120 tons in a trench on his dairy farm last week.

Hubert Curry, Pottsville, has been filling a trench for several years and feeds the silage to his sheep and beef cattle. Alfred Marwitz also uses silage for wintering stock. Herbert Sommerfeld, Lund Valley, not only cuts feed and fills his silo but does custom cutting of silage for some of his neighbors.

Bill Chumney, south of Hamilton, has a bunker silo he likes, and so does Eric Seider and Rudolph Eisen of Aleman.

One of the main points to remember in making good silage is to get a real job done on packing the feed. Most spoilage is generally caused by not having a good packing job done.

of Hico on the Fairy road, is constructing a new hay shed on his farm. The shed is about 40 by 60 feet and some ten or twelve feet high.

Looks like the county is going to make the best maize crop that it has ever produced. Some of the crops have never wanted for moisture and with a season like they have had, maximum production can be expected. I'm looking for many crops to make more than 4,000 pounds per acre.

Otho Stuckey, dairyman west of Hico and north of Carleton, is making some additions to his farm home.

Many times just a few cents saved here or there on a farm or ranch operation means the difference in a profit or loss at the end of the year. As more and more gas engines are used on farm machinery it seems advisable to keep them in as perfect operating order as possible.

Recently a mid-western college surveyed 50 tractors and found that minor adjustments, normally made right on the farm, would increase the power 11 per cent and cut down fuel used 14 per cent. Over a year this can add up to more than $150 in savings on fuel bills. Spark plugs were changed in 90 per cent of the tractors inspected. This step cut fuel consumption 6 per cent. Choked air cleaners increased fuel use 11 per cent on 5 tractors surveyed.

A quarter of the tractors had too lean a fuel mixture. This can contribute to valve trouble, especially during summer. Over half the tractors needed timing adjustments, but the researchers found 20 per cent of the out-of-time tractors could be retimed simply by resetting the ignition breaker points.

These are some of the things that I believe most every tractor operator could check on his own tractor and maybe save a little money in the operation each year.

I'd like to remind you again that my office is always left open so you can pick up needed bulletins when you come in and I'm out. Some are in need of the Federal gas tax refund forms, Form No. 2240. There is a supply of them on my typewriter desk and feel free to take one if I'm not in the office.

There is also a sheet under these and one of them should be taken as it is made for you to make a copy on and file for your future use. The completed form 2240 should be mailed to the Internal Revenue Service, Austin.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our many friends for their interest in our recovery, which was shown by the cards, flowers, visits, telephonic calls and other acts of kindness during our recent illness and hospitalization. We also wish to say a word of appreciation to the wonderful staff at Hico Hospital for the kind consideration shown by each and everyone. Your kindness will always be remembered and cherished by us.
