HICO, TEXAS JULY 31, 1959.

NUMBER 12.

73rd REUNION IN FULL SWING

Huge Crowd Witness Opening Day Activities

One of the largest crowds in the history of the event lined the streets of Hico Wednesday afternoon to witness the parade which officially opened the 73rd Annual Old Settlers Reunion.

Previous to the parade, Hico Mayor D. E. Bulloch had accepted greetings from Mayor Charles Eck of Hamilton, delivered to Hico via special Pony Express in a record time of one hour and eight minutes. Mayor Eck's message may be found elsewhere on this page.

As has been the custom of many years standing, Judge J. C. Barrow, one of the real early day citizens of Hico, acted as master of ceremonies, and gave the welcoming address preceding the parade.

The parade, which was described by many as one of the best in recent years, officially opened the four-day celebration here.

Winners in the parade were announced at activities Wednesday night as follows:

Best decorated float, Gulf States Telephone Company and Lone Star Gas

Second place float, Burden's Department Store

Best decorated car, Johnny Baffon of De Leon

Best Bicycle, Glenda Ogle

Best comical entry, South Hico Home Demonstration Club

Best Horse and Rider, Frank Kirkpatrick of Meridian

Best Riding Club, Hamilton County Sheriff's Posse.

Donald Hefner served as parade marshal again this year.

Unique entries in the parade were the Karen Temple Motor Patrol of Waco, and the antique automobiles driven by members of the Horseless Carriage Club of Waco.

Two riding clubs also added interest to the parade—Meridian and the Hamilton County Sheriff's Posse. The Hamilton group was judged best in their division, and were presented a beautiful trophy.

Activities Wednesday night at City Park saw Miss Brenda Claunch of Iredell crowned Miss Reunion of 1959. She was sponsored by Lone Star Gas Company.

Runners-up in the contest, which drew 41 entries, were Miss Carol Akin, sponsored by H. & B. Food Store, and Miss Anita Mayfield, who was sponsored by Judy's Beauty Shop.

Attendees during the crowning ceremonies were Little Misses Stephanie and Jhonette Walker, Susan Knudson and Devonna Scott. Master Jon Scott served as crown bearer.

The largest crowd in the history of the Reunion was on hand for the opening night activities.

As an added attraction to the Miss Reunion Contest, a reasonable facsimile of Governor Earl Long of Louisiana made a brief appearance at the park, which proved to be an interesting feature. Gov. Long came barn-storming into the park, complete with motorcycle escort, and attempted to enter his personal candidate in the beauty contest competition. After several minutes of forceful carrying-ons, the governor was escorted from the park by the same group who brought him in.

Trophies and flowers were presented to the three winners by Mayor D. E. Bulloch. First place trophy was furnished by Howard Drug Company, and the two runners-up trophies were presented by The Hico News Review.

Mrs. Wayne Rutledge presented a medley of musical selections during the parade of the lovely candidates.

Activities slated Thursday night include square dancing. The Wagon Wheel Club of Abilene was to bring two squares of dancers and the caller, Bill Adams of Dyess Air Force Base. As an added attraction during the square dancing, an exhibit of folk dancing by the Abilene group was to be given. J. T. Butler of Carleton was to act as master of ceremonies for the entertainment.

Friday night entertainment will include music by the Pottsville String Band, and by popular Joe Paul Nichols of Jacksboro, a member of the "Cowtown Hoedown" cast.

Concluding events Saturday night will feature the annual Old Fiddlers contest. Approximately 20 musicians from over the state will compete in the event which drew 17 entries last year. Also, drawings for valuable merchandise will be held.

Many people will be in Hico this week during the Annual Reunion, and local people are urged to contact the News Review early next week in order that we might publish an account of your visitors. Cooperation will be greatly appreciated by the management.

LUCKY 13—Miss Brenda Claunch of Iredell, center, who carried the number "13", was crowned Miss Reunion of 1959 at City Park Wednesday night following judging of forty-one contestants. Runners-up named in the contest were Miss Carol Akin, right, and Miss Anita Mayfield. Miss Claunch, who was one of the six finalists in last year's contest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Claunch of Iredell, and will be a senior student in Iredell High School during the fall semester. She was chosen for the title from eight finalists this year. Miss Akin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Akin of Hico, and Miss Mayfield is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayfield, also of Hico. Other finalists were Miss Judy Griffiths, Miss Sue Spinks, Miss Nona Jane Cox, Miss Linda Driver, and Miss Patsy Whitaker of Fairly. The new queen will reign over activities of the 73rd Annual Reunion for the remainder of the week. Trophies were presented to the winners by Howard Drug Company, furnishing the first place award, and by the Hico News Review, furnishing the two runners-up trophies.

HAMILTON MAYOR SENDS GREETINGS—

To the Mayor, City Council, and People of the City of Hico:

As Mayor of the City of Hamilton, I wish to send you greetings for the 73rd Old Settlers Reunion.

It is only fitting that we of the people of this city join you in this custom that is an annual affair, and hope that it is very successful.

I send this message by the Hamilton Sheriff's Posse in hope that some of the old Settlers can recall the early type carrier of some time past.

May the continued Reunions become anticipated affairs for the future to remind us all of Settlers of this great County.

Sincerely,

CHARLES ECK,

Mayor of the City of Hamilton.

Firemen Called to Durham Home Early Wednesday Morning

A 2 a.m. fire alarm Wednesday sent Hico firemen scurrying to the home of Ivy Durham on the old Clairette road.

A new 1959 Chevrolet car belonging to Mr. Durham was completely destroyed, as was the garage in which it was housed. No cause for the blaze was immediately determined.

Firemen answered a second call Wednesday afternoon at City Park to extinguish a blaze caused by a welding torch.

Five-Year Suspended Sentence Metted Out In March Shooting

A five-year suspended sentence was metted out to Louis Taber, 23, of Hico, Tuesday as an aftermath of the shooting spree last March 17 in which he and his father were charged with assault with intent to murder.

The jury returned their verdict late Tuesday afternoon after a day of testimony by witnesses called for the case.

District Judge R. B. Cross of Gatesville heard the case, and Truman E. Roberts, District Attorney, was prosecutor. Andrew Campbell of Hamilton was defense lawyer.

Taber was charged in a shooting scrape between himself, his father, and Boone Daniel, owner of a Hico fruit stand last March.

"Pop" Blair, daughter Louise, and granddaughters Catherine and Ellen Blair all got into the act this week when the miniature train purchased by Blair was assembled on the special tracks set up at City Park. The train, built in 1923, is being operated this week during the Reunion, and will remain as a permanent fixture at City Park. Robert Hughes of Fort Worth built the train as hobby, and operated it until 1948. In the picture above are, front row: Catherine and Ellen Blair, and Mr. Hughes. Standing are P. W. Hamilton, local Katy Agent, S. E. Blair, and Louise Blair. Catherine and Ellen had the honor of being the first official passengers on the train this week.

RECORD TIME—Mayor D. E. Bulloch is shown receiving the special letter of greetings from Hamilton Mayor Charles Eck, and a copy of the Hamilton Herald-News from Elvin Meirs of Hamilton Wednesday afternoon, after the Hamilton County Sheriff's Posse had successfully brought the parcels to Hico via Pony Express in the record time of one hour and eight minutes. Twenty riders were stationed at one mile intervals along the route and raced the mail pouch to Hico from Hamilton, officially opening the 73rd Annual Old Settlers Reunion. (Reed Photo)

MULTIPLE AILMENTS ARE REPAIRABLE

I just read a long article about disease causing joints to ache. The author mixed up neck pains, back ache, arm, hand and finger pains as though they all come from the same unknown cause.

Injuries to the spine which cause central nervous system disturbances do pile up and accumulate and each adds to the other until a person might suffer from a dozen different ailments at the same time. In this manner all the pains could have a similar cause, though each would be caused by a different injured nerve branch. Correction of the cause of the injured nerves would benefit all the complaints, though the name of each complaint could very well be different. This explains why patients who come to our office for one major ailment usually receive many side benefits from the spinal correction in the form of the disappearance of several minor ailments.

School Children May Get Long Vacation in 1959-60

Texas public school children may get a long vacation during 1959-60 if the Legislature fails to provide state funds for the schools.

Without state financial aid provided by the Legislature, schools would be limited to local financial support. Some districts would be able to operate for only three, four, or five weeks. Others could be maintained for a semester, while a few schools might be able to complete a nine-month term.

The stark reality of this possibility apparently has not dawned upon the parents whose children attend the Texas Public Schools. Legislators report that they have received very few communications from their constituents.

Here are the facts: If the Legislature should fail to pass a general appropriation bill and enact a new tax bill to finance that bill, the State Treasurer would be unable to write a single check for any purpose. The public schools would not receive any state funds, and their financing would be left completely to local property taxes, many of which are already at the legal limit.

September 1 is the deadline date. If the Legislature has not solved these problems by that time, the public schools and all other state services will cease receiving state funds.

Since the state guarantees 80 per cent of the Minimum Foundation Program and the local district 20 per cent, the loss of the state share could result in denying Texas students educational opportunities for the next school year. This would be a step backward, at a time when Texas schools need to move forward.

In addition, old age pensioners could not receive their checks which are so vital to their existence. No state employees could be paid. State supported colleges and universities would be unable to pay their teachers and other employees. No food could be purchased to feed the inmates and patients of the various institutions. Prison guards could receive no remuneration. The highway department would default on payments to contractors, who in turn might have to curtail operations which would result in widespread unemployment. The state highway patrol would cease to function. Every state service would come to a stop.

This is the situation which confronts the proud state of Texas. Its solution rests in the hands of the members of the 56th Legislature.

Members of the Legislature will welcome suggestions from their own constituents and indications of support for themselves if they vote the taxes needed to prevent this financial catastrophe.

Congress Reports

By OMAR BURLESON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C.—In 1960 the Federal Government will again take a census. Uncle Sam will be taking an inventory of his people as to where they are, what they do and other details about our approximate 180 million Americans.

The machinery is already being put in order to conduct this vast undertaking which will last only a few weeks. Some 170,000 persons will be employed on a temporary basis to assist the Census Bureau officials in this mammoth effort.

Since the executive department is under the control of the Republicans, it will be their first census since 1930. It will be their job to recruit people to do the work. All persons to be hired must pass a qualifying test showing them capable of gathering and submitting the proper information.

Why is all this necessary? It is going to cost a lot of money, as it does every 10 years, but the information obtained is used largely by the business interests in private enterprise and by state and local governments.

Countless decisions are made and actions taken based on the facts concerning the Nation's population. Business depends on these statistics produced by a census in order to plan location, expenditure and other matters of judgment.

Decisions relating to the location of utilities, roads, schools, hospitals, water supply and other public planning is based on the numbers and types of people in a given area and the rate at which the area is changing in size and character. Details used in advertising of almost every product conceivable is a matter of judgment based on information from the census.

The application of many state, municipal, and Federal laws depends on the size of a state, county or municipal population, since this information is a qualifying factor.

Not the least important is the way the census figures affect our Government. The number of Representatives in Congress from the various states are based on population. After results of the census are known, states lose or gain representation in the Congress.

The U. S. Senate Labor Committee has approved a bill by Senator Hubert Humphrey which revises the old Youth Conservation Corps, along the lines known as the CCC in the early depression days. Just what the purpose of it is in this day and time is difficult to understand.

The Small Business Administration has issued a pamphlet containing ideas helpful in deciding where to locate a plant, about market analysis, and so forth. The title is "Management Aids for Small Business." It sells at the Government Printing Office for 45c, but if you will write your Congressman, 1513 New House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C., they will be furnished on request.

Although much has been done to overcome the law of gravity, it is still in effect. So in this truth: Hang on, you can't fall down until you turn loose.

His foxhole faith stayed with him...

It's been told many times how there were no atheists in the foxholes.

Faith under fire was quick, complete, uncomplicated and unquestioned. Fortunately, many who found faith under these conditions kept it—even after the firing stopped and the last troopship docked back home.

Like much of the hard wisdom learned in war, the faith developed in battle has been put to wider, wiser use in the years that have followed.

It has spread outward now... to the family, giving them the strength needed to weather the long, hard pulls and the short, sharp adversities.

That strong family faith and stronger richer life it brings are never built better than now... are never built surer than when you worship together regularly—every week. Remember! It's your faith... your family!

Build a stronger, richer life... worship together this week

BAGS YOU CAN BOIL

Bags you can boil are newcomers to the frozen food industry. This year a number of frozen foods will be packaged in polyester bags that look like cellophane. They can take a temperature switch from below zero to about 240 degrees F. with changing. This means you can cook food in water without removing the bag. Or you can cook several packages of frozen food in the same pan of boiling water without mixing odors or flavors.

Frozen vegetables in plastic bags which can be plunged directly into boiling water promise more flavor and nutrition—and with no pots or pans to scrub.

Other foods appearing with new wrappings include aluminum packaged meats that are prepared for serving and can be heated in the toaster or dropped into a pan of boiling water. In a few minutes they are ready for serving. Steaks packed in their own aluminum foil broiler tray, in which they can be cooked and served. Meats packed in a disposable aluminum frying pan.

Glass containers as lightweight as a lamp bulb but strong as steel are being developed. Increased shipping costs and competition from light-weight packing materials have spurred the glass industry to make lighter weight containers.

HOT WEATHER COOLERS

Iced milk beverages, and sparkling fruit and vegetable juices offer a wonderful variety of thirst-quenching "coolers" for these hot summer days. They offer important food values, too. Acid fruit juices are especially refreshing and cooling, as they contain less heat producing sugar.

I would suggest that you keep plenty of milk, frozen or canned fruit and vegetable juices on hand. Iced tea and gingerale are good "blenders" and stretchers. Fresh oranges, lemons and limes can be used in many different beverages.

Sweetening drinks is easier if you keep a supply of sugar syrup in the refrigerator. To make it: mix two cups water and three cups sugar and boil three minutes. One and three-eighths teaspoons cream of tartar may be added to the syrup to prevent crystallization.

Garnishes add extra appeal. A sprig of mint, slice of orange, lemon, a cherry or other colorful fruit will add enjoyment.

Remember to serve beverages in well chilled glasses or over sparkling ice cubes.

SAVE TIME AND ENERGY

The Extension Service has just published a new bulletin entitled "Manage Your Time and Energy." In it are many helpful suggestions for doing just that.

Among the many good suggestions in this bulletin is this one: Combine jobs or parts of a job. Have you tried doing this in these ways? Fold and sort clothes as they are removed from line or as ironed. Cook, serve and store in same dish. Cut more than one garment at a time—simple garments such as pajamas, aprons, etc. Double recipe—freeze half and serve later. Grow annuals in the vegetable garden.

NEW MUSEUM—Construction of a new museum to be known as the Mackey-Coffield Museum has been announced by Dr. W. R. White, President of Baylor University and also president of the Heart O' Texas Boy Scout Council.

The museum will be built at Camp Tahuaya, the Heart O' Texas Council Boy Scout Camp located on the Lampasas River south of Belton, and will house the Mackey collection of Indian relics and artifacts including articles representative of the Old West.

Other museum items will be added to the display later and the museum will be open to the public regularly scheduled days and hours during the summer.

It will be fully fire-proof and will have native rock trim. A large parking area will be located adjacent to the museum building for use by visitors.

Gordon Mackey of Temple, retired druggist, is giving his collection of Indian relics and artifacts to the Heart O' Texas Council to use both for museum purposes and for instruction in Indian lore for the Scouts at annual summer camps.

H. H. Coffield, Rockdale, will contribute the museum building and its construction. He is former president of the Heart O' Texas Council, immediate past president of Region Nine, and at present is a member of the National Executive Board of Boy Scouts. He holds the Silver Beaver and the Silver Buffalo for his many years of dedicated work in Scouting.

Plans for the museum building were prepared and contributed by

W. Glenn Rucker, Temple architect.

In contributing his Indian collection to the museum, Mr. Mackey also agreed to give weekly lectures at the camp each summer on Indian lore and related subjects.

In making the announcement of the new museum, Dr. White commended both Mr. Mackey and Mr. Coffield for their generosity in making this contribution to the Scouts of the Council and to the people of the Central Texas area.

Whitney Dam where she and her son, Sammie, were met by their daughter and sister, from Dallas. We drove on to the home of Mrs. Lilla Byrd and visited a while, and on to Mrs. Stella Richardson's home for a visit with her. It had been quite some time since we last visited Carlton, and saw their little town is like our little village. Many vacant homes in town as well as in the country. Many of the dear elderly ladies have had to leave their homes and enter rest homes or live with relatives.

The Shepherd family reunion was held at Hico City Park last Sunday. A number from here attended. The Shepherd relatives made up a donation of $15 for the Fairy Cemetery Association, which we surely need and appreciate very much.

Nathan Akin of Stephenville also sent us $5.00 by W. E. Goyno, who drove down to our home Monday afternoon to hand it to us, along with the Shepherd donation. Thanks so much, folks. We're glad to count you along with our faithful donors.

Nona Brunson worked last Thursday at the cemetery going over all lots and cutting the Johnson grass again. We had a rain late that afternoon which made the ground too wet to work Friday, but he returned Saturday and put in a good day mowing on the north side and doing some more hoeing. These rains really keep the grass and weeds on an upward trend. We will have a few more days work done as soon as we return from Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Adams of Hico.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon New of Bryan are the proud parents of a new daughter born recently. She has been christened Pamela Dawn. The News have one other little daughter.

In a letter received Monday from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dickerson of Atlanta, Ga., they stated that Mrs. Myrtle Dickerson had stopped at their home on her way to Virginia and visited with them about a month.

Word received from our daughter, Mrs. D. E. Allison, late Monday was that she stood surgery fine, but had been pretty sick. We feel sure she will soon be much better.

Gary Latham of Austin is visiting at this time with his cousin, Jerry Richardson.

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL.

Our hearts go out in deepest sympathy to the parents and other relatives of Teddy Buster of Britton, who passed away on Tuesday of last week in Parkland Hospital, following injuries he received in a traffic accident Sunday. The following is a portion of a clipping sent to Carolyn Sellers by Nelda Wood of Grand Prairie, formerly of Fairy:

Grand Prairie's 1939 record of no traffic fatalities was shattered Tuesday when death claimed a 15-year-old Britton, Texas youth who had been injured early Sunday morning when the car in which he and four other teenagers were riding turned over several times on SE 14th St.

Funeral arrangements are pending at a Gatesville funeral home for Teddy Buster. Two others in the crash were listed in fair condition at Parkland Tuesday. They were Charlene Gregg, 15 of 804 Duncan, Grand Prairie, who suffered a fractured vertebra, and Diane Foster, 14, of Rt. 2, Mansfield, with a broken leg. The other two were not seriously injured.

Teddy resided in the Fairy community with his uncles, the Kays brothers, and attended school during the 1937-38 term.

Frank Bonner, his teacher here, and a friend and schoolmate, Ray Turner were in Gatesville Thursday of last week to attend funeral services for Teddy. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents and other relatives.

We have had fall-like weather earlier this week. Seems we've had a short summer, and many here have been ill of summer colds due to those sudden changes.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bowers and Mrs. Floyd Blankenship of Lorenzo visited Sunday in the home of their uncle, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox. The ladies are the former Misses Ovie and Tava Greer, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Greer, formerly of Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and her niece, Mrs. Wayne Pittman of Dublin spent Monday in Temple to be with their sister and mother, Mrs. D. E. Allison, who underwent major surgery Monday morning. This scribe and mother, who is ill with a cold at this writing, hopes to be able to go down by Tuesday or Wednesday to be with her. We hope she will soon be fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family visited Sunday afternoon in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton. Mrs. Sellers has been ill during the past week.

The L. L. Warren family have moved on the Boyd ranch on the Hico and Fairy road, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Garner and family.

The sons and daughters of Walter Porterfield had a telephone installed at his home last week.

Mrs. Charles Price of Austin visited from Friday until Tuesday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox. They were in Stephenville Monday where each had a check of their eyes by Dr. Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Todd and children of Lubbock are spending this week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd, and sister, Mrs. Charles Pistone and little daughter, and to attend the Hico Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McKandless and family of Fort Worth visited during the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan.

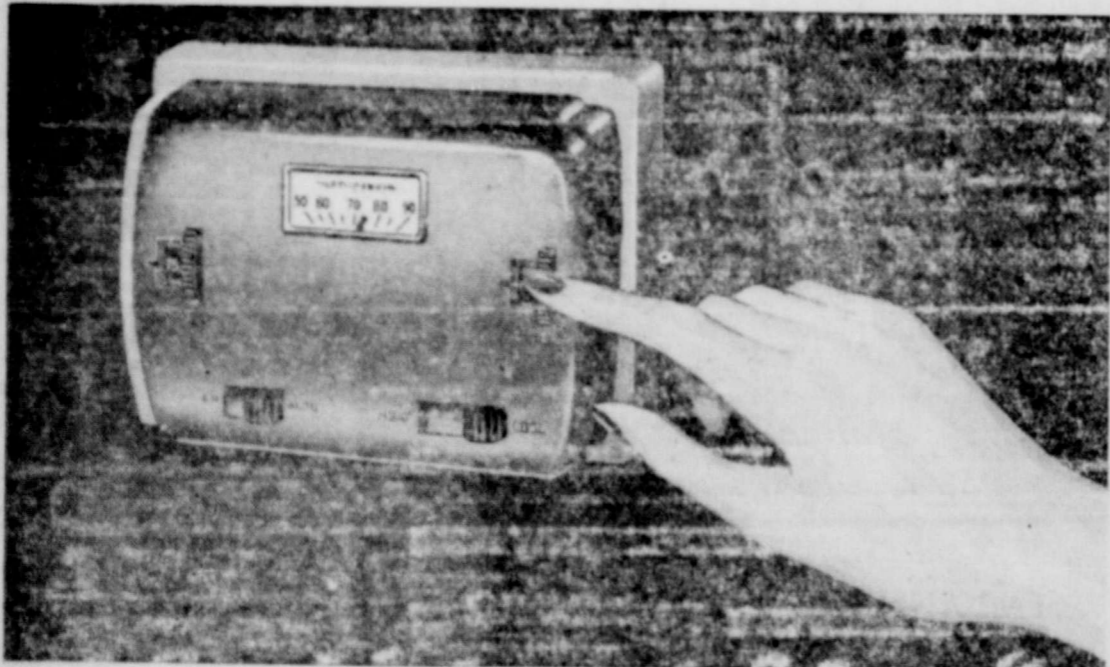

Mrs. Nettie Parks of Hico visited Wednesday afternoon of last week with Mrs. M. E. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner were in Gatesville Monday to attend funeral services for his uncle, Mr. Bob Moore of Waco. Mr. Moore was a few months past 91 years of age. The Moore family held a reunion a few weeks ago, but he was unable to attend. Our sympathy is extended to those bereaved in his passing.

The writer and daughter, Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn, Jimmie Don and Janice visited in Dublin Sunday in the home of our daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman and Karen were also visiting her parents.

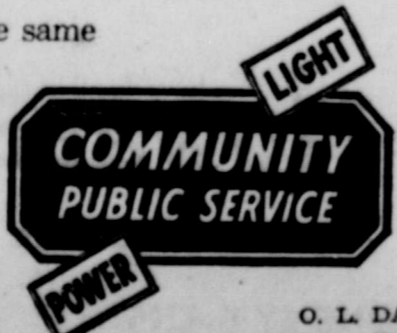

The writer attended singing at Olin Sunday and after singing hours we drove over to Carlton to visit with friends. Upon arriving at the J. B. Jaggars home, we found no one there, but later learned J. B. is now a patient at the Dublin rest home. We drove on to Mrs. Marie Turner's home. She too was gone, but we learned she was spending the week end at

LIGHT CONTROL FOR MORE EGGS PER BIRD

Recent findings on the effect of light on poultry have caused poultrymen to sit up and take notice. Nature in her wisdom has seen fit to correlate reproduction with the light phase of seasonal change.

Age affects the response of poultry to light. During the brooding period the chick needs lots of light. This means that all-night lights are beneficial during the brooding period. During the rearing period the light requirement is quite different. Rest periods are necessary for proper growth as the birds become older.

In the summer months additional lights may be given at night to induce greater feed consumption. Intermittent light is preferable. For example, one hour of light could be followed by a rest period of three hours of darkness and the process repeated throughout the night.

Too much light during the growing period is harmful in several ways. All-night light of high intensity may encourage feather picking. More important is the possible reduced life-time productivity of pullets given all-night lights during the growing period.

The hours of light required for egg production is not an all-or-none reaction. Pullets will reach sexual maturity with six hours of light. In addition to the hours of light, the intensity must be considered. While one foot candle is required for optimum egg production when the hens are given 14 hours of light, about a fourth of that amount is required when all-night lights are used. With fryers, it is necessary only to give enough light so the birds can see to eat.

Tests are still being conducted, but with the desire to get a sustained high egg production, it is quite certain that most poultrymen should consider light control for pullets.

Retaining of turkey parts, turkey patties is gradually increasing in Texas retail food stores. A recent survey shows that most purchasers interviewed at a supermarket handling the parts year-round are steady users of the product. More than half the shoppers served turkey parts three to five times a month.

Those buying turkey parts rated them very favorably as to family acceptance compared with other meats such as beef, pork, fish and chicken. A wide variety of dishes is being prepared with turkey parts. Baking is the most prevalent method of preparation. Other methods include smothered, steamed, stewed, creamed, soup and salad.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

It won't be long now until farm operators will be into the harvest season. This means that combines, corn pickers, cotton strippers and other machinery will be in operation. And as before, we will have some very serious farm accidents. And every farm accident can or could be prevented.

Most accidents are caused by getting in a hurry or just by not thinking.

Why not check up now on the machinery you will be operating and see that all the guards are on and that they are well secured. And when doing a small repair job, won't you please cut off the power and stop that machine.

Let's not forget the terrible accident last fall when one of our good farm operators lost his hand in his corn picker.

Cotton boll weevils have increased some the last two weeks and this is indicated by the number of squares being found in the middles. The rains have helped much in this matter as they have caused many of the weevil grubs to perish.

It takes about four weeks for the weevil to make a complete life cycle so in about a week or so, trouble might show up in many fields. Check through your cotton not less than once a week and if you begin to find a lot of squares on the ground you might want to apply a control.

As you walk through or across the field, turn many leaves over and look for the leaf worm egg. The egg will be almost as big as a pin head and a bluish green color. Or it might be found up in the tender terminal growth along the tender stem. Some of you might want to apply controls for the boll worm as soon as you can. Indications are that this insect is spreading rapidly and signs are found in every field checked. The worm egg is a small white one usually laid on the top tender leaves, though it is sometimes found along the top tender stem of the plant. These eggs hatch in about three days and the worm begins to feed immediately on the top forms. When eggs and a few worms are found, it is time to start applying insecticides.

A few cabbage loopers have been found and this is a worm that locks quite like the leaf worm and does the same kind of damage. It is harder to kill than the leaf worm. The leaf worm can be identified by the four black dots on each body segment. And leaf worms are now working in Bell County to the south of us. This means they can hit the county most any time.

Right now it looks like the gins in the county are going to have to run a few nights and I hope they do. We have prospects for a good cotton crop and it can be made if the insects don't ruin it.

A new opportunity to earn valuable 4-H beef project awards is being offered this year for the first time by E. Many boys and girls have earned enough money from sales and awards to pay their way through college. Others have accumulated a sizeable savings account earmarked for a farm of their own. Du Pont has provided funds for six national 4-H college scholarships of $400 each; an expense paid trip to the Chicago 4-H Club Congress for each state winner; newly designed gold-filled medals for county winners. Winners will be announced next fall by the State Extension office.

A NEWSPAPER WAS A RARITY IN MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES!

Then—a newspaper was a thing to be marveled at—for memories of the Press' fight for freedom were fresh in mind. Although newspapers are common in our country today, their existence should not be taken for granted. It is a wonderful fact that almost all of our modern communities have their own hometown newspapers, freely edited by members of their own communities—spreading the news, stimulating the business of the community, and keeping their readers informed of important events elsewhere. It is well to keep in mind that a free press and a free people are an unbeatable team.

YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER IS A HERITAGE TO PROTECT!

Two Books on Pioneer Days May Be Obtained Here

A new Naylor book was released May 15th. "Livery Stable Days" is an authentic historical account of the days when the Livery Stable was one of the hubs of social activity in practically every American community.

The arrival of the automobile erased the livery stable from the picture, but here is the account of those days written by a man who owned and operated these establishments in Texas.

Upton Barnard, author of "Jake Bell, Range Rider," also published by the Naylor Company, draws on personal experience, intensive research and real writing ability to bring you this piece of Americana.

Barnard, who is now a resident of Stephenville, was a visitor in Hico last Thursday in behalf of his two books.

Copies of either of the books may be purchased at the News Review office. "Livery Stable Days" sells for $3.45, which is 50c off list price. "Jake Bell, Range Rider," is also being offered at 50c below list price, which is $2.50.

You'll have to work out your plan in view of the laws governing death taxes, property laws, and, if you are married, separate and community property.

Age? If you wish to set up trusts in the will, your age and that of your beneficiaries may help you to decide whether, for example, to use capital of the trust fund as well as its income for the beneficiaries.

Your residence? Most important, since state laws govern many items of personal property.

Do you plan to move to another state? If so, consult its law. Many people who come to Texas from other states should see that their wills conform to and take advantage of our laws.

Some people live half the year in Texas and half elsewhere. If you do, take steps to nail down your claim to reside in one state or another, to avoid needless litigation and possible claims to taxes in both states.

Your health? If possible, have your will drafted while you are in good health and clear minded.

Contests, though relatively rare in Texas, still do take place. In some cases, for example where non-relatives inherit, it may be a good idea to give reasons for these bequests in your will and to tell why you may have left some relative out (for instance, where a child has been taken care of by gifts or in other ways).

FACTS NEEDED TO PLAN WILL

In planning your will, your lawyer will want to know your true wishes; and then, to help you realize them, he will want to know a few vital facts.

Are you married? Any children or grandchildren? Previously married? Widowed? You age and those of your beneficiaries? Legal residence? Health? Why these questions?

How to Run a Hundred Into a Fabulous Fortune

By E. E. DAWSON

Miss Debbie Kay Williams usually escorts me to town every morning, and as we go to a grocery store she gets what she wants.

First is the bottle of soda pop, next a slab of chocolate, and then a package of Fritos. I do not know if her grandies feed her or not before they bring her to our home for me to herd until along toward noon. But at any rate she never fails to get her favorite items around nine o'clock each morning. And mentioning Fritos, thereby hangs a tale.

A man died in Dallas last week and his life story in very brief compass appeared in the news stories of papers and radio. His name was C. E. Doolin. And his life story outranks the amazing stories of Horatio Alger, a favorite of boys of another generation.

Mr. Doolin started life in Kansas City. But early in life was carried by his parents to San Antonio. There he grew to manhood. One day he ate lunch at a small Mexican cafe. There was served him some corn chips, a typical Mexican food item he had never seen or tasted before. When he ate a bit of it he liked it very much. Then he began a search for the makers of the food item. When he found the producer of the item called Fritos, he found that the Mexican man cooked a few of the chips each day and put them in Mexican cafes for sale. The Mexican was homesick for Mexico, and did not mind telling his homesickness to all comers. He told Doolin.

Doolin wanted to get the man's recipe for the tasty item. After a good deal of bargaining the Mexican offered to take $100 for the recipe. But Doolin did not have a hundred dollars; he had just twenty-five. But he found a friend who was induced to lend him $75, and with his funds in hand bought the recipe. Then he began to carry on the Frito business himself, having the aid of members of his family. That was in 1932, at the depths of the depression. His success with Fritos grew and he began planning a more extensive venture, planning machinery for making and handling the tasty.

On a much wider basis he started places at Houston, Dallas and Tulsa, and his efforts were fruitful beyond the bounds of his dreams. Fritos were all over the country and popular. Dealers connections added them to their stocks and purveyed them to the cities, and towns over a wide range.

The firm now has twenty-two plants in eighteen states and the business grossed over fifty million dollars in 1935. Mr. Doolin identified with other business enterprises and numerous clubs and associations. His family has in Dallas for a long term of years. Four sons and two daughters survive him. He was fifty-six years old when he died.

Now there's a story of real success in business. How did he do it? He produced a product that appealed to the tastes of the people, something that was new, simple yet intriguing in its contents. Yet it started simply. When Mr. Doolin learned the Mexican's recipe he got a worn potato masher in the bargain. The Mexican had used the masher to mix the contents of product and then he baked the result in a common baking oven, contents coarse ground corn, with certain condiments of the can origin.

I can certify that they are often and often hungry on a nickel package of Fritos and a meal without ever a recipe.
