COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

One of the biggest problems the livestock producer has to face is that of keeping the numbers in balance with the amount of feed available in the pastures. The thing that aggravates this problem is that the years aren't "average." They are either dry or good.

Extension Range Specialist Garlyn Hoffman has these suggestions that may help you to prepare for those years that are below average for grass production:

1. Plan to defer or rest one of your pastures each year. This can provide a good course of feed in an emergency, and it will allow the better grasses to grow and reseed.
2. Practice moderate grazing of your native pastures. Hoffman's suggestion is to graze half and leave half. This has other advantages, too. The grass must have leaves to produce roots, so this plan will help grasses to rejuvenate themselves, withstand drought and conserve the moisture that falls.
3. Plant supplemental grazing crops. Hoffman says this should be the rule even though it is a good year to allow you to store extra feed.

— ERL —
John Guest, in one of his pastures on Sycamore Creek, last week cleared off the trees and brush along the bottom. He left all his pecan trees. Some of these are a little thick in stand but as he sees how they produce, he will thin out those that are not too good producers. He does not plan to top work, bud or graft any of these trees. Pecan trees, when given a good chance to produce, are generally a good cash crop producers.

— ERL —
It is too early to do any pecan tree spraying for insect control. If you'll watch the paper, there will be information on this from time to time.
I believe it will pay to spray pecan trees with nothing more than zinc because this is something nearly every tree is lacking.

— ERL —
If you sprayed some of your mesquite trees through the winter with 2.4.5-T and diesel oil, look for the trees to all put out this spring. They will die a little later in the season.
Where pasture work is being done, like mesquite and pear control, it is most advisable to rest the pasture for a year or at least a part of a year. It is not too late to apply for ASC approval for this practice. Their 6 month resting period starts May 1 and ends October 1. The payment for this 6 month period is 50 cents per acre. There is nothing that will improve a pasture like letting it rest.

— ERL —
Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association is calling a meeting of all sheep and goat raisers of the county. The meeting is to be held Monday night, April 10 starting at 8 p.m. in the district court room.

Hubert Viertel and Tom Redford, who are members of the association, state that the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association is doing much for the advancement of the sheep and goat industry. Further, that the association wishes to set up a new district in the state composed of Hamilton, Bosque, Comanche, Coryell, Bell and McLennan counties. This will give the growers of the new district better representation in the affairs of the association.

Representatives of the association from the state office in San Angelo will be present at the meeting and will explain in detail what is being done, and what they wish to do by creating the new district. Redford and Viertel are serving on a committee to assist in the setting up of the new district and they urge growers of the county to make an effort to attend the meeting. Others on the committee are John Dunlop, Eldon Jones, J. W. Adams, Dan Landua, Herman Ren, Rubeen Hoak, Guy Gilstrap and Garlon Streater.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN—

Loophole Bill Passed by House—Now Up to Senate

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Austin, April 5.—Texas Senate now has a tax bill—one designed to wipe out about half the deficit that is expected to be about $63,000,000 when the new fiscal year starts September 1.

Revenue-raising measures must be passed by the House before they can be considered by the Senate, and the upper chamber has waited with polite impatience for the House to send it something to work on.

Passed 85 to 60 by the House was the so-called "loophole bill" by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger.

It is a sort of catch-all bill that (1) plugs up some leaks in the revenue bill passed last session, taxing central air conditioners, juke boxes, etc., (2) provides for a transfer of 1 per cent of the permanent school fund to the available school fund, (3) sets up a two-factor formula for corporate franchise taxes, and (4) levies a state gift tax of one-half the federal gift tax.

Captain of the Ballman bill is broad enough that a variety of other money raising plans could be added to it should legislators be able to agree to them.

Meanwhile, the House Revenue and Taxation Committee still has a lot of other tax bills in the mill. Three sales tax bills were sent to subcommittee, as well as a hotly debated proposal to levy a 10 per cent tax on trading stamps.

A trading company spokesman said there is only a three per cent profit on the operation and a 10 per cent tax would put them out of business.

On the other hand, stamps were attacked as "counterfeit money" and an unnecessary burden on both merchant and consumer.

Strike Three.

Texas Supreme Court made short work of the 1959-passed tax law that many lawmakers had hoped would be a potent future revenue raiser.

Without issuing an opinion, the high court agreed with the trial court and civil appeals court that the severance beneficiary tax on gas is unconstitutional.

Although three state courts have turned thumbs down on the gas tax, the last chapter remains to be written by the U. S. Supreme Court. As passed in 1959, the gas tax was low (1 1/2 per cent of market value), but supporters had indicated that if the law survived its court battles, the rate would be raised to bring in more money.

Ladies Score in House.

House has passed and sent to the Senate a proposed constitutional amendment that would automatically erase all statutes that treat women differently from men.

Rep. Ben Atwell's very brief amendment states that "equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex." It passed the House 135 to 10.

Senators have misgivings about causing such sweeping changes in the law. Some 44 statutes would be affected.

Loan Fight Shapes Up.

House members are coming to grips with one of the session's touchiest issues — regulation of small loan companies.

House Committee on Banks and Banking reported to the floor a bill by Rep. Criss Cole of Houston. It is being subjected to widespread criticism, but Cole, long-time veteran of the loan regulation effort, declared that no bill was going to satisfy all the interested factions.

Cole's bill sets up a sliding scale that would allow interest rates of just under 40 per cent on loans of $100 and dropping gradually to about 11 per cent on a $3,000 loan. It also allows for "reasonable insurance charges" at a rate set by the State Board of Insurance.

Abner McCall of Waco, spokesman of a statewide committee for sound loan laws, said the interest rates were too high and that the limit on credit insurance charges should be clearly defined.

Breweries (Pro & Con)

Legal restrictions on breweries and the desirability of having breweries at all came up for spirited discussion before the Senate State Affairs Committee.

Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth is author of the House-passed bill that would give brewers of ale the privilege, as beer makers, to continue their operations in a territory after it is voted dry. It would also increase from one year to three years the time allowed a brewery to begin production after it got its license.

A large out of state manufacturer of ale is planning to build a $20,000,000 plant in Tarrant Co. Any change would, of course, affect the whole state.

Supporters of the bill emphasized the new jobs and payroll it would create. Opponents, mostly ministers and church leaders, declared it would contribute to the problems of alcoholism.

Phone Rates Studied.

House State Affairs Committee is studying a bill by Rep. Dan Struve of Campbellton that would place regulation of telephone service, within the state's borders, in the hands of the Texas Railroad to the Editor

The Passing of Pioneers

I'm thinking of a man who was born here on the Bosque River before the Red Men ceased to raid here by the light of the moon, who was reared here before the coming of the Iron Horse and wire fences and the telephones and turn-pike roads, and what have you. He studied the Three R's a month or two each year during his youth in a log cabin. He rode a bronco to church on Sunday and cleared new ground on week days.

Eventually he married a neighbor girl, who like himself knew the hard facts of life as they are in a pioneer country where a man must be a man and a woman must be a woman if they are to make a successful family in the true sense of the word. They established a home, reared an honored family and were highly respected by their neighbors.

I am thinking of John Salmon and wife of Clairette. He passed on a few days ago and his wife, who because of an automobile accident several years ago, didn't live her full span of years.

We hate to think of what state of society that we might have in this country if Mr. and Mrs. Salmon and others of like disposition had never lived here. We owe our personal social security and our prosperity to people like them who have gone on. We owe them a great debt of gratitude.

ROY DERRICK
Hico Rt. 4

Dear Mr. Meador:

Enclosed herewith are some verses entitled "The Man in the Glass." They come from some ham poet who writes for the literature of education and psychology. Even though they should not be accorded the dignity of poetry, they may cause a few to reflect on the central thought expressed—a man is responsible first to himself. He is also responsible to The Master of the Universe and his neighbors.

It may be considered advertising if I use the occasion to say

Commission.

Rep. Struve says Texas is one of two states that do not have this sort of regulation and that other states have lower rates.

Other witnesses testified that a long distance call within Texas borders costs more than one of the same distance that crosses the state line.

Pre-Paid Funerals Debated.

Funeral directors and cemetery operators clashed before both House and Senate committee over a bill to restrict pre-paid funeral arrangements.

Funeral directors declared that their only desire was to protect the public by requiring that money paid in advance for funeral expenses be put in a trust fund.

Cemetery and mortuary operators retorted that the funeral directors wanted to discourage pre-paying of funeral expenses. They contended that families who make funeral arrangements at the time of bereavement spend more money than if arrangements are made in advance.

Short Snorts.

A test vote in the Senate indicated that Sen. Dorsey Hardeman's proposal to abolish the Court of Criminal Appeals and transfer its duties to the State Supreme Court, is short of enough support for passage. Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston says he will introduce a bill to allow nurses registered in other states to practice in Texas, thus to help alleviate the shortage of registered nurses.

IN APPRECIATION

I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to my relatives, friends and to the entire hospital staff for the courtesy and kindness extended to my sister, Lucille Keller Rainwater.

Mrs. Bea Darling,
San Jose, Calif.

CARD OF THANKS

At this time we wish we could find words to express our feeling and thanks to all our dear friends who were so wonderful to us during the long illness of our daughter and sister, Mrs. Lucille Rainwater. We will ever be grateful for the loving care of the nurses at the hospital, for each one who gave their time to sit up with her, for the abundance of food sent, for the beautiful flowers, for those who sang, for the kind consoling words of Bro. Willingham, and for every act of kindness toward us. May God bless you all for your kindness, and guide you into a richer, fuller life in the service of the Lord. We love you all.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class Play will be presented at the school auditorium April 14. The name of the play is "Rimrock Riot." To Blise Rimrock a small town 'way out West, comes Oswald Agnew, a mild-mannered young graduate of Hackensack Teachers College in Hoboken. It's his first assignment and he's understandably astounded to find that he is to be the first male teacher at Rimrock High School in ten years!

The first major problem he meets is the precocious, ferocious principal, Mrs. Matchett. Not only is she an incurable early riser and sentence diagrammer, she's the football coach. That's right—football coach!

This is only two of the eleven characters in "Rimrock Riot." The others prove to be just as exciting. The seniors are working very hard and are hoping for a big turnout.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

If all of a sudden the day was 25 hours instead of 24, what would you do with the extra 60 minutes? In answer to this question I received a variety of answers. Some of them are:

N.E.—Spend it thinking up a new love technique.

M.W.—Rest up for the next 24 hours.

L.H.—Do what I hadn't completed in the last 24 hours.

J.L.—Keep a long-awaited date to go coon hunting.

N.W.—Same them up for a year and take a vacation.

B.B.—Blame R.B. for making it happen.

M.M.—Waste them trying to think of what I would do if I had an extra 60 minutes.

R.M.—Talk Raspberry into buying a hearing aid.

L.B.—Chase N.K.

N.K.—Run from L.B.

C.H.—Stay parked

S.S.—Go to Stephenville and hunt for Randy.

A.M.—Go with her and say goodbye to D.A.

J.O.—Find out what's wrong with R.G.

M.A.—Lie around.

B.W.—Sell them to a school teacher.

R.A.—Wonder whether or not I spent the last 24 wisely.

WHO DAT?

This week's famous "Who Dat?" around the school yard was unlucky in one phase of the game of the Junior Class. For we all wondered what would happen to his voice, but we found he was just rehearsing for play. He is famous in the laboratory because he breaks a thing. At least he $50.00 worth this year.

Put Fieldon Haley and character together in the apartment if you want a big Speaking of laughs, this causes quite a few of his good personality and his jokes. If a little white Ford races by then you know it is him.

Most probably will be named by a few members of the inine sex. This the sport cells in, although he is good in football and basketball.

Everyone knows that the referring to is our one Harold Hatcock, alias Jay Nooki, and a few more repeat.

In cottons, you will find honeycomb piques, one color striped ottoman, raised ribbing and new cotton knits. Dressier cotton fabrics feature interesting moires, tone-on-tone satin finishes, solid and paisley printed sharkskin, and jacquard patterns. Then there are the gingham, chambrays, seersuckers, denims, sailcloth, and tickings that look cool and casual in sports and casual wear.

In silk you will find nubby textures, rich looking silk brocades, a linen-texture silk with excellent firm hand and tailoring qualities, pongees, shantung and silk prints.

The African influence is seen in different fabrics in bold weaves, daring colored striped herringbones, and unusual diamond weaves.

Knits stress the relaxed, easy look. Featured by many new shelly linen cotton knits shell-patterned wool knits look as though they have crocheted.

Coffee Time

CHATTER

By HELEN OGLE

Another enjoyable Easter holiday that was apparently enjoyed by everyone, and may I thank you for calling in the news items so promptly? Don't wait for a special holiday to report your news—just call me anytime you have a visitor or event of interest.

Robert and Bernice Jackson are still beaming over that new granddaughter and they not only enjoyed the holiday, but had a wonderful visit with their son and family. Sallie Walker said she enjoyed having her children home for the weekend, and would have to mow the yard if necessary to find those two extra eggs.

While attending to those end-of-the-month errands, P. W. Hamilton maps out a route that will assure him a coffee-time or two.

Mrs. E. R. Seago is wondering if it would be worth it to sell her home, now that she's settled in the third new one. Something to think about.

James Cryer has been busy this week walking and talking trades day information as he handed out those special tickets.

Gen (spelled with a capital G) Horton was busy attending to business this week and lived up the afternoon with her chatter. Think she planned to live high-on-hog that evening and eat steaks. Serious talk with Jerry Lackey, Sim Everett, Orville Ogle, and Fred Jaggars, but to me it sounded more like loafin' time chatter.

Sunday was a big day for Mrs. John Goughly as she enjoyed visiting and having as guests all 22 of her family.

If you can't reach Mattie Gamble, don't worry as she is just busy gadding about and even I can't keep up with her.

Mrs. Aften Aycock was enjoying visiting with people along the street as she was on her daily round of business.

Mattie Ramage hasn't time for coffee this week as she's too busy entertaining her grandchildren, and she enjoyed hunting Easter eggs so much she may even promote another holiday.

Wednesday of this week was a memorable day for Aunt Jane Thompson as she enjoyed celebrating her 88th birthday.

Jean Dunlop says there is only one way to do it, and that's to sandwich some ironing and sewing in with her office work.

The key word with the weight-watching gals around town is STOP—start taking off pounds.

MR. & MRS. LUTHER BURDEN

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We had a rather cool, dismal week last week which ended with beautiful weather for the Easter weekend.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. W. T. Harbour, who passed away Sunday in a nursing home. Mrs. Harbour was a patient at Scott & White Hospital last December while our niece, Mrs. Lester Smith of Brady was there. We visited with her while there. We all extend our deepest sympathy to those bereaved in her passing.

Bro. White of Cherokee filled an appointment at the Church of Christ Sunday.

Wendell Wolfe and son attended church here Sunday and visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abel and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seymour of Grand Prairie spent the Easter weekend with the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Melby Smith of near Turnersville visited a while Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan. They formerly resided near Fairy and are old-time acquaintances of the Duncans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Drew and Cynthia of Dallas visited during the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike. They were on their return home following a visit in San Antonio in the home of his parents.

Tom Abel of Dallas and a friend, Miss Paula Buchanan visited during the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel and Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Trustet New and family and his sister, Miss Anita New of Fort Worth spent the Easter holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New.

Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Brooks and baby of Fort Worth spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Guinn and Sammie.

Miss Anelle Gleason, who is attending college at Denton, spent the Easter holidays with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gleason and family.

Our sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harkey in the loss of their first born, a little son, born last Tuesday at the Hico Hospital, which only lived a few hours. Interment was near San Saba. Mr. and Mrs. Harkey reside on the Duncan Ranch and attend church at Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Clark of Fort Worth spent the Easter weekend visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovie Clark of near Fairy and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Bolton of Hico. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duncan and Kenneth of Irving visited during the Easter weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan of Fairy and Mr. Joe Alexander of Hico.

Mrs. H. H. Hanes of Jonesboro visited during the weekend in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes and Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Derden and baby visited Monday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family visited Sunday in the home of his mother, Mrs. N. S. Sellers of Hamilton. Mrs. Sellers enjoyed the pleasure of having all of her children home on Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thompson and Cora, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellers and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers, all of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jones and family of Lanham, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and family of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stringer and children of Crane spent the weekend with their parents, Mrs. George Stringer at Hico, and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison of Fairy.

Mrs. Myrtle Enger of Brady returned home Monday following a week's visit in the home of the writer and sister, Mrs. E. M. Hoover and Mrs. V. H. Heyroth of near Clifton, and mother and brother, Mrs. A. L. Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Prentis Newman.

We are sorry to report Mrs. J. E. Blakley a patient at Scott & White Hospital in Temple. She was carried there last Monday week. The extent of her illness had not been fully determined at last report. Mrs. Blakley, the former Emmie Porterfield, has a daughter, Mrs. Irene Bankston, who is nursing at the hospital. We hope she will soon be much improved and on the way to complete recovery.

The writer and sister, Mrs. Myrtle Enger were in Cranfills Gap Wednesday afternoon of last week to visit in the home of relatives of the late Mr. Enger. Finding Mr. and Mrs. Benny Jensen away from home we drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Enger. They too were gone. We were informed by a neighbor that Mrs. August Enger was a patient in the Sunset Home at Clifton and that Mr. Enger was staying there also to assist in her care. We drove on to Clifton and visited them and also Mrs. Emma Ogilvie, who is also there. Glad to report Mrs. Ogilvie doing well and Mrs. Enger improved. This was our first visit to the Sunset Home. It is certainly nice and is full most of the time with a number on the waiting list. The former college dormitory was converted into this home. They have a large staff of nurses and assistants.

Quiet a number from here attended funeral services for Mrs. Claude Rainwater at Hico last Wednesday. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Our sincere thanks to Mrs. Will Lackey of Dallas, and Mrs. Edna King of Hico for a donation of $5.00 each for the Fairy Cemetery, also a $3.00 donation by Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan of Fairy. Don't forget our cemetery working on Friday, April 14. Bring your lunch and tools and come and be with us for the day. We feel that much good can be accomplished.

Mrs. Mattie Baize, daughter and son, Miss Wilma and Lyle of Odessa visited during the weekend in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wood. They were joined here by a grandson of Mrs.

Baize's, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Baize Jr. and family of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Parks of Fort Worth spent the weekend visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks of Fairy and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streater of Lanham.

Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Turner and sons of Fort Worth visited during the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and daughters of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pack of Stephenville and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leonard and Melody of Fairy were Sunday guests in the home of their mother and brother, Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie. Other guests Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

The writer and sister were in Moody Sunday where we visited a short while in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. May. The trip was quiet a treat to our sister as she had not been back since the death of our grandmother in May of 1906. We drove to the old home of our grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. May. Here we found the home occupied by Mexicans and since we could not speak Spanish we didn't tarry long, and drove to our cousins the Mays who lived near. We stopped only briefly since we were on our way to the Moffitt Cemetery and were to get back to Evergreen near Jonesboro for singing in the afternoon, which we made. We met the two daughters of our cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Goad and daughter of Rosebud and Mr. and Mrs. Rudd and daughter of San Antonio. The latter we had not seen in some 12 or 15 years. We saw some maize up and plowed out in the Moody section. They, too, have had lots of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover carried her sister, Mrs. Enger, to Dublin Monday to meet the bus, and drove on to Fort Worth on a business and shopping trip. The following is a list of lots that were completed at the cemetery last week: A. J. Miller, all Goyne lots, Grisham and Lackey lots, Richardson, Sellers, Wilson and Garren, Pittman, all Burden lots, Marie Har'graves, Penny and Jordan, Jess Massengale, Otto Enger, I. B. Byrd, Lackey and Pittman, Will Lackey, M. E. Parks, Newman and Cox, Abe Gardner, Priest and Wilson, D. L. Cox, Raymond Proffitt, Aklin, Spehherd, Adams, Tyler, Hoover, Lawton Cunningham lot, Parker. Some of these lots were worked by relatives, some 12 or 15 more lots are booked to work this week which will complete the supported lots. We also have some thistles and a few of the blue flowers called wild verbena which we want to get cut and burned.

If your lot has not been mentioned you may know it isn't in need of work at this time. The remainder on the list to be worked this week are Bert Wright, Ward, McClammy, H. S. Pitts, Co., Parks, Crow, Woodrow Wolfe, Walter Whitson, W. F. Tyler, Jr., Patterson, Lee Adams, Leslie Arrant. These lots have very little on them but to complete the list of supported lots they will be worked. Tell your relatives and friends of the annual meeting let us try to make the day worthwhile.

Word was received Tuesday from Nona Brunson by letter that he was now receiving treatment and wasn't feeling too well. He thinks he will be at Dallas probably six weeks. He would be glad to hear from friends and relatives.

TEXAS EGG OUTLOOK As National Egg Month nears its close with the end of March various indications are that egg prices may show a slight downward trend during the last two quarters of 1961 in comparison with the first two quarters of the year. This is because of the anticipated larger hatch of replacement chicks and a monthly egg production after the middle of 1961 that will exceed the output of the same period in 1960. These expectations of larger egg production during the last half of 1961 may have effect in a downward influence on egg prices even before the increased production actually develops. This would come from the effect on storage demand during the spring of 1961. If spring egg prices continue at a level discouraging to storage, the slack in strong storage demand would tend to weaken prices sooner than otherwise might be expected.

Using the month of October, 1960 as an example, figures show that hatcheries in Texas produced 1,451,000 egg-type chicks in that month. This was 22 per cent above the same month in 1959. At the same time, national production of egg-type chicks during October increased 13 per cent above the hatch in October, 1959.

The number of layers on farms in Texas during October, 1960 was about the same as in October, 1959. Because of the marked upward movement in the number of egg-type chicks hatched, there is little doubt that by October, 1961 the number of layers in Texas will be larger than for the same month in either 1959 or 1960. Obviously, monthly egg production in Texas during the last months of 1961 will be larger than a year earlier.

However, the demand for eggs in 1961, while still fairly encouraging, is not likely to keep pace with the increase in production even though the price of eggs remains relatively low in comparison with many other foods. The per capita consumption of eggs, unfortunately, has been declining for several years. Indications are that this trend is likely to continue and some experts predict that the per capita consumption in 1961 will be about six per cent below that of a year earlier. Even so, 1961 got underway with egg prices at a level relatively favorable to producers in Texas and elsewhere in the U.S.

It is certain that egg producers in Texas will continue to face strong competition from other areas of production in the rest of the country. To compete successfully, Texas farmers will have to bring into play every known method of efficient production and marketing.
