The Christmas season here was made happier for 15 local families this year because of the baskets of food and toys delivered last Saturday morning by members of a Civic Club Committee.

Aided by various organizations, the club distributed baskets containing mostly food items, but in homes where there were children, members of the Eastern Star made sure that the youngsters would have toys on Christmas morning should Santa pass them by.

Wayne Rutledge was chairman of the committee which assembled the baskets, and he was assisted by James Cryer, Billy Doty and Kenneth Southall.

Three Methodist Church organizations, the WSCS, Wesleyan Service Guild, and the Helping Hand Sunday School Class contributed money. Hico Girl Scouts donated canned goods, and the Eastern Star committee, headed by Paul Hamilton, provided the toys.

A typical basket consisted of either a chicken hen or ham, flour, meal, pinto beans, oleo, shortening, candy, milk, potatoes, bread and fruit.

Recipients of the baskets are always appreciative, and the project is one of the many ways that the local service club aids families during special occasions and times of need.

Bowling League Highlights

By MORSE ROSS League Secretary

Scores sagged as a whole last Wednesday night in the Hico Mixed Bowling League. Only Steve Parks exceeded the 500 mark for the men. The women did something better however, as three women, Ruth Salmon, Sarah Reeves and Judy Keller topped 400 for the ladies. Maybe after the holiday rush the scoring will improve.

Salmon's Shoppers increased their league lead to 3 points by taking a 3-1 victory from Wilson's Cleaners, while Judy's Beauties were dropping a 3-1 decision to a much improved Hico Motor Darts. The Hico News Review Newshounds gained 3 points on the third place Wilson team by sweeping all four points from the cellar dwelling F.W. Ranch Cowboys. Blair's Whiz Kids overtook the fifth place First National Tellers by walloping them 4-0 and the Orphans pulled into a tie with the seventh place Cheek Kingpins by winning over them 3-1.

Monette Dove was the sensation of the night by rolling five strikes in the first five frames after taking over for her Dad in the Dynamite Shopper match. She finished with 227 which is a new high league mark for the women and also ties the men's high score. Ruth Salmon assisted her daughter with the women's high series for the night, a 423.

The hotshot Darts who tackle the leading Shoppers next week, gave them an assist by defeating the second place Beauties 3-1. Three of the Darts exceeded their own previous league highs, Tex Knudson with a 179.465, Harold Walker with a 496.188 and Bettye Knudson with a 157 game. Judy Keller had a 410 series and Hershel Sherrard a 187 game for the Beauties.

Bette and Buck Meador with 334 and 464 respectively, and Wal Ross with a 496 powered the News hounds over the Cowboys whose best score was a 402 by Derel Filimgim.

Bill Leach with a 392 series which tops her best series to date. Jim Jameson's 472 and able help from Alta Maye Hamilton substiting for ailing Louise Blair, were too strong for First National Tellers for the night despite Avo Rutledge's nice 393 series which was 40 pins over her average.

Verma Parks, 340, Steve Parks, 515, and Lorraine Petstick 277 were all above average, and Odie Petstick's 485 was near average for the Orphans, while Lou Dell Cheek was the only Kingpin above average.

Next week's schedule, which concludes the first half of play and this week's standings follow:
Judy's vs Wilson on lanes 1 and 2; Cheek vs Blair's on lanes 3 and 4; First National vs Salmon's on five and six; Orphans vs F.W. Ranch on seven and eight; and News Review vs Hico Motors on nine and ten.

Standings:
Salmon's 46 18 2715
Judy's 43 21 2730
Wilson 37 25 2562
News Review 34 30 2658
Blair's 28 36 2530
First National 28 36 2528

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

Another Christmas season has come and gone. To many it brought sadness, others joy.

Our hearts were made sad in the passing of Mr. H. H. Wolfe who died Monday, Dec. 18. Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 20 at the Fairy Church of Christ, where Mr. Wolfe had worshipped since a teenage boy. Bro. Pat Hardcastle of Woodson officiated. A mixed choir, with J. T. Jackson as director, had charge of the song service. The beautiful floral offering and large number in attendance bore evidence of love and respect in honor of one who had resided in our midst so long.

Born in Arkansas, Mr. Wolfe had lived in the Fairy community since 1900. In early manhood he was married to Miss Altie Wilson of near Fairy. To this union five children were born, namely Woodrow of Hico, Wendell of Irving, Mrs. Edna Blue of Hamilton, Mrs. Eva Edwards of Hico and Mrs. Donnie Driver of Grand Prairie. He is also survived by four sisters and four brothers, namely Mrs. Florence Willingham of Woodson, Mrs. Fannie Ray of Brownsfield, Mrs. Daisy Bass of Hurst and Mrs. Ivy Atchley of Rotan, John Wolfe of Tuscola, Tim of Fort Worth, and Alvie and Frank of Woodson; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Pallbearers were E. M. Hoover, Audie Priks, L. V. Houser, Herman Sills, J. T. Leonard and H. O. Richardson. Mr. Wolfe will be greatly missed from the community, and his activities with the Church of Christ here. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife, children and other relatives at this time of deep sorrow.

One of the two residences of the former Tinkle Ranch, now owned by Ed Craig of Hamilton and occupied by the Williams family, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The Williams were away from home at the time. Mr. Barnett, who lives on the former J. C. Sills place, discovered the blaze around 1:30 a.m. and rushed over there and awakened the Hodges family who live in the other house on the ranch. Mr. Barnett and Mr. Hodges removed only a small amount of articles through a window. The home is said to have been furnished with exclusive furnishings. Our sympathy is extended to the family.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Brooks, formerly of Fort Worth have moved to the Duncan Ranch east of Fairy.

Drilling is underway on the T. R. Parks place on a prospective oil well. Much of the nearby farm and ranch lands are marked for leasing.

We wish to make a correction in one of our recent newsletters regarding the passing of Mrs. Ibbie Michael of Hayward Calif. in which we stated she was the widow of the late Earl Michael. We based our information appearing in the county paper and have since learned from relatives here that Mr. Michael is not deceased. We regret the error very much and knew we had not heard of his death. We have written Mr. Michael and sent him the clipping. None of the relatives here seem to know who turned in the item to the county paper. Again let us say we are sorry, but just one of those unavoidable mistakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn, Jimmy and Janice and the writer spent Sunday in the home of our sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin. Other guests were their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman, Karen and Kaye of Dublin, and Miss Conita Clayton of near Dublin. All enjoyed a family Christmas tree and turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson and Jerry attended a family Christmas tree at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams at Hamilton Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover spent the Christmas holidays in Lubbock with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, Dickie and Donnie. Mr. Spencer's mother of Breckenridge accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, Scheryl and Ronald, Austin spent the Christmas weekend in the home of her father, P. L. Cox and Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. M. E. Parks had all of her children home for Christmas Day with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Miller and Ronald of Fort Worth. Mr. Miller had to work. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fulbright and two sons of Kerrville, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driver of Texas City, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pack of Stephenville, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leonard and Melody of Fairy, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and two daughters of Fort Worth, and Audie of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oiga Duncan spent Christmas Day in Cleburne in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Derden and family. They were met there by the rest of their children, including their oldest son, George and his wife and two sons of New York, who are visiting here with his parents this week.

WHO'S WHO

Our subject this week is a sophomore girl, about five feet six inches tall, blond hair, and blue eyes. She looks just like an innocent little lamb but actually you've never seen a meaner kid. On Sunday you can always find her playing the piano for the Baptist Church but when Monday rolls around she's up to her evil doings again. It seems like the wind always appears to be blowing for her because never do I see her unless her hair isn't sticking up all over her head. Maybe it's just a new hairdo?

I guess she would absolutely dry up and blow away if it weren't for those thick streaks she manages to get down at the Steak House almost every Friday night. The boy who has all the "moola" to feed her this well is B.K.

She certainly has proved herself in basketball as a guard and we're all very very proud of our subject, who is none other than Patsy Wooton.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Kay C. has decided to become a seamstress and make blouses. How about making me one?

Who were those two crazy girls riding round in the back of a pickup Friday night?

Four of the freshmen girls gave a party out at the Country Club Saturday night. What did you put in the punch Linda J.? Trying to get even or something?

Charles E. had better start showing up at a certain person's house when he is supposed to.

Who was that couple driving down the street with their lights out? You had better watch it Kay C. and Alan S.

Bonnie W. has decided to turn over a new leaf. Good for you Bonnie.

Who was that daring girl with the red dress and bubble hairdo at the party? Who else but our cute Margo W.

We would like to thank the FFA boys for cutting the Christmas for downtown. Pretty good cutting job.

By the way Jimmy L. you had better stay out from under those Christmas trees from now on.

Charles E. you had better start eating hot foods. We're beginning to worry about you.

I think Jimmy L. has composed a new song. I think he calls it "All I Want for Christmas is my Little Wire."

Boy Scott P. had on his dancing shoes Saturday night. We have named him "Dancing Boy of the Month."

Kay C. is warning Connie B. to lay off!

Who were the two couples in the blue Impala? Could it have been Allen B. and Sharon H. and David C. and Carol C.

Let's congratulate Bonnie W. and Mitch M. for getting along for seven months.

Well that is about it for this week. Everyone have a Merry Christmas.

JUNIOR & SENIOR TATTLER

Doane M. wasn't wearing his glasses Monday for some strange reason. It seems that he went to sleep Saturday night. Now that's not very unusual except he was driving his car at the time. Better take some no-doze Doane!

Christine B. can't greet anyone except with a "Good Morning." I like that; she's an individual.

Barbara E. has something to say. "Just wait til the Senior trip!" I think all seniors agree with her.

Everyone heard a crash in Physics one day. A few hundred weights fell off a metal stick and crashed to the floor. Who do you think could have been responsible? That's right, Martha P. and Margaret P.

Mouse! mouse! mouse! she cried. Some people are frightened by storms, others by wild animals, but our own Kathy H. almost faints when a dead mouse unfortunately comes within her sight.

Chester is finally looking like Sylvia S. again. She's finally losing that stiff leg. Glad to have you back Sherrard.

The seniors are giving a very serious Christmas play this week. That is, it is supposed to be serious. The Seniors may have to pick laughing people up from the aisles after seeing the tear-jerking play.

"Let old acquaintance be forgot in days of old Sad" huh? Nevertheless, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, kids.

BASKETBALL

Last Tuesday night the Dublin Lions journeyed to Hico to take on the ever-improving Hico lasses.

Handicapped by the loss of two starters for a few weeks, the Hico girls managed to play a good game against the larger Class AA school. In a real thriller, Dublin squeaked by in the last few seconds by 30-29. The lead exchanged hands several times in the last few minutes in a close, hard-fought game. Kathy Higginbotham led local scorers with 17 points.

In the nightcap the boys led Dublin throughout the game to take a 48-45 win. However, Dublin came back strong after being behind by a greater margin than at the end of the game.

Mark McElroy and Don Jernigan led local scorers with 21 and 14 points respectively. Jim Evans led the losers in scoring 27 points.

Friday night the locals played host to two strong teams from Lingleville. The Hico girls lost to a strong team but put up a good fight. However, Lingleville played without the services of a forward with a 40-point per game average. The final score was 43-38. Kathy Higginbotham led Hico in scoring with 19 points, with Martha Paddock scoring 12.

In the boys game, Hico jumped off to a great start, scoring 21 points to the opponents 7 in the first quarter. Hico then moved steadily along, soundly trouncing the highly touted Lingleville gagers. Reports received in Hico prior to this game indicated the outcome might be different. But Hico continued to show the people in the stands why they are rated so highly. McElroy and Jernigan continued a high scoring pace with 20 and 18 points each, with Larry Erick adding 9 points.

SPOTLIGHT

Friday night my spotlight and I ventured up to the gym where Hico was tangling with Lingleville. Afterwards the Youth Center was open but I didn't see too many people there. Wonder where everyone went. Couples I saw were Janet H. and Jimmy J.; Janell O. and Eddie T.; Anita M. and Melton L.; Nancy S. and Larry E.; Ann W. and ???; Barbara P. and Jimmy D.; Kathy H. and Bob E.; Jane A. and Don J.; Patsy W. and Butch K.; Mildred P. and Floyd D.

Saturday night Hico seemed to be well represented at "Blue Hawaii." I think everybody has decided to go to Hawaii to get hitched. Sure will be a long time for some of us eh? The couples I saw roaming around were Anita M. and Dennis J.; Kathy H. and Bob E.; Kathy H. and Ronnie K.; Bonnie W. and Mitch M.; Jane A. and Don J.; Kay Y. and Billy B.; Sharon H. and Alan B.; Betty H. and Charles H.; Barbara P. and Jimmy D.; Gary D. and Lynell W.; Mildred P. and Floyd D.

Sunday there wasn't too much going on. Some of the kids went to see "Devil at Four O'clock" which was really a tear-jerker. The only couples I saw were Royce A. and ???; Jane A. and Don J.

Well my spotlight and I will be having a rockin' time during the holidays so I won't be seeing you until next year. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

SOPHOMORE TATTLER

I think we have discovered B.R.'s secret lover. Right JKA? I heard M.F. makes riding on a bus fun. Just ask LC. She knows. Have fun at the Senior Progress Supper E.G.

Everyday after the first period P.W. has her hair re-arranged by certain people. M.O. can't decide which way she likes it best.

The Sophomore class decided to have their party after the holidays.

COUPLE OF THE WEEK

I chose for this week's Couple of the Week two unsuspecting victims. It's more fun that way. They both enjoy the same TV programs such as Thriller; Alfred Hitchcock etc. Couple of wierd.o's. Not really. Really they are both very kind and considerate of other people and of each other. Each take life easy but not in such a way that they are unable to practice around with their fists. Both are very quiet and reserved. You could sit around all day and all you would hear would be a little whisper; but they really do like that quiet, rough stuff such as football. You can sometimes find one in a Boneville while the other drives a 58 Pontiac. Actually I have a confession to make; neither of these two people have ever dated each other and they supposedly care for someone else rather than each other, but I thought perhaps this might give them a little boost.

It seems so perfect, doesn't? Oh yes, I almost forgot, you don't know who I am - I'm talking about but surely you have guessed that it could be no other than Sylvia Sherrard and Robert Reed. Merry Christmas. See you next year.

Dear Santa Claus:

We four little girls have been very good this year. We all wish for the same thing—a boy friend. One odd exception doesn't. We want good grades in geometry and physics and feel certain Santa can help us in history grades. Martha wants a doll and buggy; Barbara wants a red wagon and a nigger baby doll; Margaret wants a teddy bear and a tiny tears baby doll like Cecil has; Dixie wants a lot of things but—she has been so naughty that she hopes for the best.

If you think she has been good enough, she wants one that cries tears and wets. Love, Barbie, Jean, Marthie, Maggie P. and Dixie.
