Hamilton County and Texas is chairman and Mr. Jeff Perry,

A meeting is scheduled for local farmers and ranchers Monday evening, January 15 at 7:30 in the school auditorjum to further explain the screwworm problem and plans for its eradication. All farmers and ranchers are urged to attend this meeting to become better informed concerning this state-wide effort. The lo be completed by February 1.

The group will support the recently formed Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation in its drive to do something about the animal health situation. Its purposes are to receive and dis. burse funds, and sponsor research and educational programs on animal health, including diseases, insects and parasites, to the end that these bazards of livestock production may eventually be controlled

Local chairman Jenkins said "it is not only a concern of the producer but the economic loss also effects business and consumers. We all have a lot at stake in the program."

The Foundation's first major ef. fort will be a program aimed at controlling the screwworm. The proposed program is patterned aft. er the successful drive in Florida and the Southeast. The U. S. De. partment of Agriculture livestock producers, and the State of Flori da teamed up to just about remove the pest from the scene. The method used was based on the release of sterile male screw. resulted in the production of infertile eggs and almost complete elimination of the fly population

Such a program in Texas will ncounter problems not found in Florida. It is bordered by great land areas where the flies over winter but cooperative efforts could overcome some of the prob lems, the chairman said.

Every livestock producer and other interested persons will have an opportunity to support Foundation and its programs. Producers are being asked to contribute on the basis of 50 cents pe head for adult cows, horses, and steers, and 10 cents per head for sheep, goats, swine, and deer.

Contributions may be made to any member of the committee, c deposited at First National Ban' for the Hamilton County Screw worm Committee. All monies co lected will be passed on to the Foundation for support of existing research facilities and conduct o large scale field tests.

Mr. Jenkins said "We know th first program will cost severe million dollars, but if we can re move the screwworm from the scene the annual savings wil amount to several times the cost c the control effort."

All farmers, ranchers, sports men, businessmen, and anyone ir terested in the proven eradicatio program are urged to attend th Monday meeting here, and lend their support to the project.

THE JOHNSON STORY

In 1847 P. C. Johnson moved to (Whatley) Johnson were natives Smith County, Texas, where he of Georgia, Mrs. Brown wrote. His patient in the Hico Hospital, Mrs. bought land and carried on a farm father, Bartholomew Johnson, was went to Brown County. Son Survives Hardships

After wandering around for a time he came across a herd of cattle, and thinking the cows would go home he stayed with them three days, having nothing to eat but resin, which he obtain d by chewing a certain plant

At length he was found by a Mr. Rough but was so weak that he could not tell his name. He is still living in Comanche County.

An attempt was made to overtake the Indians but it was un-

Member of Big Family

The elder Johnson was a farm. er and stock raiser. His wife died in 1893 and like her husband was a member of the Methodist Epis. copal Church.

The Bartholomew Johnsons had 15 children: Robert W., who serv. ed in the Confederate Army and is now deceased; J. J. and V. D. who served in the war and died in 1866; Mary A., wife of Thomas Draper now both deceased: Elizabeth, de. ceased wife of James Biffle; Sarah J., wife of C. Singleton: Matil. da J., wife of F. M. Wood; Aman. da, wife of Jackson Parker; Em. ma, wife of James Caswell, both now deceased: Edda, wife of R. Everett; P. C., whose capture is related above; and two who died in early life.

End of Long Search

Location of the exact burial spot of the pioneer who met his death at the hands of the Indians came to light only after tedious and persistent search by relatives Mr. Herrin said he himself had spent a year of investigation.

Jeff Hanna, whose parents were early day settlers in Meridian, and whose home place, now owned by Wylie Moffitt, is the site of the old cemetery which is rich in history recorded on the gravestones in it, told Mr. Herrin that his Aunt Belle Smith remembered seeing Mr. Johnson, barefooted and in dire circumstances, when he came to their home for shelter and protection.

Historical Cemetery

The old Hanna homestead still stands beneath a hill on which the cemetery is situated about a mile north of Highway 6 on the Moffitt's Flying M Ranch located between Iredell and Meridian.

Many stories perhaps could be unearthed of similar hardships and tragedies, but it is unique that this one has come to light in the manner it did.

One of the great-granddaughters, Mrs. Joe E. Brown of Li. pan, provided the background material for the Johnson story, tak. on from a "History of Texas" with
