A norther and high winds swept through this area Sunday with plenty of dust in the air. Just imagine West Texas had a bad dust storm.

The following lots were worked Monday: J. A. Anderson, Rob Hutton, Grady Anderson, Ike Eyrd, Shepherd, A. R. Hoover, I. N. Adams, J. J. Leeth, Jim Crow and parents lot and Walter Whitson.

There are still a number of unsupported lots which need working and the cemetery committee members would appreciate it very much if relatives would look after these lots. We would like to get all lots possible cleaned off prior to our Good Friday working on April 20 in order that time on this date might be devoted to working graves and lots of those whose relatives are unknown. If you would like for us to look after your lot we will book the lot for one year care for $5.00. Many who live a distance away prefer to do this. Or if unable to do this we will work your lot once for $1.

Funds may be deposited at First National Bank in Hico or mailed to Mrs. Eunice Daniel, Hico Rt. 2.

Thanks to our faithful list of donors, also those who have made donations to the endowment fund. Your financial help has made it possible to keep our cemetery looking nice most of the time. Of course when bad rainy spells come it may get a lead on us but with a little suitable time to work we can soon get it in good shape.

Claude Lunsford, who moved near Carlton recently, was a Fairy visitor Sunday and stated he would still be available to help us out at the cemetery if we needed him to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Anderson. Relatives were unable to locate them to inform them of the death of Mr. Bridges until their return home.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? (The wonder would be if you settled for anything less—once you get your hands on one at your Chevrolet dealer's!)

Best way to dry is electric

There's no doubt that sunshine is the cheapest way to dry clothes, but it's also the old-fashioned, hard work way. And drying clothes in the sun exposes them to fading, wind-whipping and air-borne dirt. Modern homemakers know the best way to dry clothes is electric, with precise temperature settings for every drying job. See your electric dryer dealer soon. Hamilton County Has Low Rating For Committed Cons Huntsville—Spl.—During the 40 year period from 1920 through 1960 a total of 109,949 individuals were committed to the Texas Prison System, according to a study made by Dr. R. C. Koeninger, Jr., director of the Department of Sociology, Sam Houston State Teachers College.

The study was made by Dr. Koeninger, a sociologist and criminologist, to show the trends in prison commitments for the State and for each county in Texas.

Hamilton County committed 134 persons to the prison during the period studied, and ranks 158 in the state for the number of persons committed during the 40 year period.

“One third, or a total of 35,989 of those committed came from five counties in Texas,” the report shows. “The five most populous counties, Harris with 12,943, Dallas with 9,350, Bexar with 5,322, Tarrant with 4,328, and El Paso with 4,046, send more persons to prison, but this does not indicate that the population of these five counties are more criminal than other areas.”

The rating of 11.66 for Hamilton County indicates that 181 counties of the state send more persons for each 1,000 of its population, over the 40 year period.

Farm Operation Planning Tips Given By Bosque SCD

Without a doubt, one of the most difficult jobs a farmer has is planning his operations from year to year. The number of factors he has to consider seems to get larger every year. There is always the matter of finances. How much capital will he have? How much outside labor will he need, and how much is available? What equipment will be needed? Will he be able to get the custom work done when he needs it? And there are always the market trends to study and consider, to say nothing of weather, insects, and the multitude of other factors that pop up.

Many farmers believe that it is impossible to plan ahead. And it is hard. It takes a farmer who is on his toes to come out on top. But a farmer who works from year to year without a plan is like a carpenter starting a building without an idea of what he's going to finish up with. There are several things about his operations that can and should be planned for. And these are probably the most important to his longtime success.

Since the soil and water resources are the very foundation of all his operations, definite plans should be made for their use and treatment. Several questions should be settled at the outset. First, what kind of crops is each field on the farm best suited for? There will be nearly always be certain fields best suited to cultivated row crops while other fields are most productive in broadcast crops such as small grain. Still others are plainly suited only to grass and other grazing crops that stay on the land all year long. For example all kinds of trouble and expense arise when land subject to frequent, damaging overflows is used for row crops. Row crop production is also hazardous and usually unprofitable on steep, eroded fields.

After the farmer decides what crops should go where, he then should decide what treatment will be needed to keep the land productive while growing those crops. Some deep, level soil may require very little treatment other than good tillage practices and proper fertilizer applications. Usually these soils need a constant supply of organic matter being returned to the land to keep it in good tilth. Other soils will undoubtedly need erosion control measures such as cover crops, terraces, and contour farming. This land will require more frequent soil improving crops in the rotation, better management of crop residues, more use of fertilizers. Grass and other grazing crops will need sound fertilizer use and grazing control to remain productive.

Once the farmer has made these decisions, they become the outline of his plan of operations. It then becomes simply a matter of fitting in the outline with the specific crops he wants to grow. It is an established fact that sound land use and wise treatment take much of the guess work out of farming.

The Bosque Soil Conservation District has the assistance of trained technicians furnished by the US Soil Conservation Service to help farmers develop this basic

From Your Fire Department— Volunteer Notebook

The Hico Volunteer Fire Department met Monday night, March 12 at 7:30 for regular meeting with 15 members present, namely W. R. Hampton, Monroe Latham, Chock Little, Thelbert Roberts, Willard Leach, Des Cody, Edmund Hudson, Fred Cooper, O. L. Davis, L. J. Chaney, Glenn Higginbotham, Von Scott, J. C. Prater, Bobby Needham, and Harvey Howerton.

One of the most difficult fires to fight is a butane gas fire. Two of the firemen, W. R. Hampton and Harvey Howerton, who have attended Firemen's Training School at A&M College held each year, gave ways and means of combating such a blaze.

An application for membership by Eugene Smith was presented at the meeting, and will be voted on the next regular meeting night.

The Fire Department wishes to thank Mr. Ray L. Morrison and Mr. V. H. Jenkins for their donation to the Rural Fire Truck Fund. The recent repair to the rural truck left the fun in arrears, and any other person wishing to help with the repair may leave donations with J. C. Prater or O. L. Davis.

There has been two fire alarms answered. One on March 5, 5:25 p.m., a false alarm, and on March 12 at 2:20 p.m., a grass fire on the George Holladay farm with a loss of about five acres of grass. Fireman Kenneth Southall is a patient in Hico Hospital, and the company wishes for him a speedy recovery.

Safety Tip for the Week: Be sure your gas water heater has a vent on the outside of the building.

Companies such as this are formed periodically to advertise the home state and to create general interest about the home state.

This special company will be in training during the months of April May, June and part of July.

The young men will be processed and enlisted from now until March 27, and be sworn into the Navy on March 28, after which they will leave for San Diego, Calif. to commence recruit training.

ERATH COUNTY SINGING SET MARCH 18

The regular third Sunday Erath County Singing Convention will meet March 18 at 2 p.m. at the Primitive Baptist Church in Stephenville.

IT'S THE LAW— Income Subject to Tax

Reporting your correct gross income is the first and most important item of business in preparing your federal income tax return.

As a general rule gross income can be defined as the sum total of amounts received by you for your services, amounts which you receive from others for the use of your property or money and the profit which you realize from the sale of your property.

While your gross income will normally result from cash received in the form of wages or pay for your services, this need not be the case. Money, therefore, is not the sole medium of exchange used to determine the receipt by you of gross income. The fair value of property or services you receive in return for your services and the use of your money or property must also be taken into consideration in determining your gross income. Thus, if your employer provides you with a house to live in or provides you with food, you must include in your gross income the fair value of these items.

A person who receives a prize or contest award or who gambles and wins must include in his gross income the cash received and the fair value of items or services received.

There are some items which would logically fall within the general rule which are specifically excluded from gross income by law. For example, if your employer requires that you be present on a 24-hour basis and provides you with a room or house on his premises, this amount does not constitute gross income.

Similarly, if your employer gives you meals and requires that you eat on the premises, this amount would not constitute gross income to you.

Other exclusions are premiums paid by your employer for group term life insurance, group health insurance premiums, the cost of transferring you and your family to a new location or office at the direction or request of your employer and other similar items which are paid to benefit both you and your employer.

Pay received while sick, interest on state and municipal bonds, and the first $50 of dividends received by an individual also are specifically excluded.

The application of the general rule mentioned will show you why gifts, inheritances and government benefit payments are not included in gross income, and why you must include such items as bonuses from your employer and pensions received from your employer after retirement where you have not contributed to the retirement fund.

Sale and Plant Exchange Highlight of March Garden Club Meeting

This is the time of year when everyone talks gardening and flowers. Lectures over the county emphasize the joy of gardening. The Hico Garden Club last Friday was quite well attended. Interesting plans were made for the annual Flower Clinic on April 13. Mrs. J. E. Lincoln was hostess at the Friday meeting. A plant exchange and White Elephant sale was conducted by Mrs. Lenard Weaver and Mrs. S. B. Starnes, giving a note of merriment to the meeting. We all talk spring and summer flowers. The background for planting is well sodded grass. It may take time and water but it's well worth it. Then prepare your flower beds and set all kinds of colorful annuals. Use a good commercial fertilizer. If you have not selected your annuals, do it now. If you have too many for your beds, give them to your neighbors. Keep planting "glads" for late bloomers. Plant beds of colorful Narstrisums. Don't forget a little herb bed in a damp place. Perhaps around a dripping hydrant. We use most parsley, sweet basil, dill, sage and thyme. These plants like poor soil. Fix up and plant up—It's Spring! Club Reporter.

Coffee Time

CHATTER

By HELEN OGLE

Well I don't know what you've been doing these past few days, but for folks in our area, it has been something just trying to cope with the weather. Just name it and we have had it. Strange thing though, I checked several back issues of the NR and we actually are just living in an ordinary March. For that reason, Ruby Rodgers says she isn't in any hurry to stir up the dust around her house as we are sure to have more before March is over. And as I braced a brisk north wind this week, L. A. Jaggars told me I shouldn't have a bit of trouble in chattering this week. Just so you won't be confused W. R. Hampton has just reminded us that we've had some 80 degree sunshine, a record dust storm, a sprinkle of rain with sleet, and snow, all in the past week. With all this dust to face Ruthie Hancock says she hasn't been encouraged to do any yard work other than rake and haul off several tons of leaves. Boyd McClure is always interested in building contracts, but says he can do his figuring much better over a good cup of coffee. And if you can't get in touch with Lucille McCullough, it's because she is going to be real busy doing some lovely needle point. If you think the dust was bad here over the weekend you should have joined Clara Lively who was in Sweetwater and was surprised to see an 8-foot tumbleweed arrive from Lubbock with a tag reading "Let me know where I land." The sewing machine is humming for Mrs. Arthur Rutledge as she has several yards of rick-rack to stitch on her new curtains. It really wasn't my foot that slipped but my teeth, commented Wilena Strepy as she was reporting a news story. "Saturday is a big day here in Carlsbad—we get the Hico paper! Enclosed is a check for a two-year renewal. We don't want to miss a single copy. We have been gone from Hico now going on 7 years. Looks like in that period of time we would forget about all the people there, but we haven't. We still like to read about them every week." These were the nice and newsy words from Sam and Alice Tudor. And as we go to press, remember—Nowdays you have to run fast just to stay in the same place.

The resident professional at the Mid Ocean Club in Bermuda for the last 13 years, Compton's list of former pupils include President Dwight Eisenhower, the late King George VI, the Duke of Windsor and a host of show business personalities. One of Compton's most decisive victories during his career in England was his thrashing of Walter Hagen in 1928. The two golfers played a challenge match (36 holes) for 500 pounds (today's equivalent is about $1,400). Compton won 18 up and seventeen to play. CARLTON

By MRS. FRED GEYE

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. MCKENZIE

Many relatives and friends gathered at the Baptist Church at 2 o'clock March 7 to pay their last respects to Mrs. Callie McKenzie, 84, who passed away Monday, March 5 at her home in Waco after more than four years illness. Miss Callie, as she was known and loved by her many friends, was born April 12, 1877 at Cedar Park, near Austin, and spent most of her life at Carlton. She was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. John Adams of Carlton. On June 5, 1898 she was married to J. W. (Wilson) McKenzie in Carl-ton. Three children were born to this union. Her husband and an infant son preceded her in death. Mr. McKenzie passed away in 1930, and also on the 5th of March. He was the Carlton Druggist several years before his sudden death.

Rev. Loyd Watson of Houston conducted the funeral services. Her survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Sunshine Rothrock and Mrs. Mabel Bell of Waco, and a nephew she reared, Herman Thompson of Waco; one sister, Mrs. Brooks Hall of Hico; one brother, J. M. Adams of Canyon; three granddaughters, and several great-grandchildren, other relatives, and many friends. She was a member of the Carlton Baptist Church.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Callie moved to Waco to make her home with her daughters. Pallbearers were Jim Findley, M. C. McGlasson, H. M. Pittman Sr., H. M. Pittman Jr., Stuart Partin and L. C. Vaughn. Burial was in the Carlton Cemetery.

JUDGE McDONALD SPEAKS AT CARLTON

Monday night, March 5, the Carlton Masonic Lodge sponsored a free supper in the School Auditorium. Several out of town visitors and nearly 200 plates were served.

The speaker for the evening was Judge Frank G. McDonald of Waco.

CARLTON CAGERS RECEIVE ALL-DISTRICT HONORS

Carlton had three girls and one boy who received all-district honors for outstanding conference play this year.

Linda Sharp and Mickey Robinson, forwards, and Virginia Thedford, guard, were chosen for the girls team, and Macky Thedford received all-district honors for the third straight year. The girls finished conference play with an undefeated record, but lost their bi-district game to Jonesboro.

The Carlton Masonic Lodge presented the district champs with new warm-up suits to be used in the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Haydon Estes of Gustine, Mrs. Maud Williams of Comanche, and her son, Rex Robinson of Hamilton visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rudd and her mother, Mrs. Alma Hensley.

The most enjoyable program of the season was the "Womanless Wedding" put on Friday night by the Seniors and Juniors in the school auditorium. It was a laugh from the beginning. The bridegroom was Rodney Williams and the bride was Freddie Self. All the characters played their parts well. A large crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Baker of Plain Dealing, La., and daughter, Patria Nella Baker, a student at Baylor, spent the weekend with her mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moreland.

A correction: The funeral of Mr. C. E. Roberts' brother was held last Sunday in Lubbock, instead of Coleman as was stated in my news last week.

Mrs. Terrell Mote of Carlton, who had been a patient several days in the Dublin Hospital, was transferred last week to St. Josephs Hospital in Fort Worth in serious condition.

Mrs. W. E. Harmon, Mrs. Nola Webster and J. D. Reich were patients last week in the Dublin Hospital.

FFA Work

THE GATEWAY TO

Farm Achievements

For many years the First National Bank has been vitally interested in work of our local FFA Chapters in Hico, for we believe that it has been one of the great influences working toward promotion of the dairying, poultry and livestock industries in our county.

We have seen the results of the work of our local FFA Chapter and we are glad to give our unqualified endorsement of their results.

The first livestock show sponsored by our local chapter was staged March 19, 1948, with approximately 100 entries. The 15th show will be held in the City Park Friday, March 23, with an anticipated 300 entries.

During these 15 years there has been great improvement in the quality of livestock shown, and a show barn was constructed with two building expansions added.

To every member of the Chapter, to their leaders, sponsors and to all who have helped in this movement in any way, we extend our hearty congratulations. You are doing a splendid job — a job that will show more definite results with the passing of each year.

THIS WEEK IN AUSTIN—

Highlights and Sidelights

By VERN SANFORD

State campaign headquarters for candidates for Congressman-at-large report that considerable confusion exists about this particular race. Many voters seem to think that the various candidates for Congressman-at-large are running

Leaverton's Corner

By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them!

The work of a Representative is not the same as that of a County Judge; but the efforts made by each shows the attitudes and interests of each officer. We can't print here the full record, but a part of Leaverton's work for Education, Livestock, Agriculture and Welfare are sufficient items to show how he stands. This week let's take a brief look at his and his colleague's successful effort in Education:

1. Established a four-year college at Stephenville so as to provide higher education for our children at a convenient and economical place.
2. Provided for excellence in our Universities with emphasis on research and better personnel.
3. Attempted to relieve the shortage of teachers by authorizing the employment of retired teachers on a limited basis.
4. Passed the Hale-Akin Program:
 - (a) Brought Texas' ranking in schools to an average from near the bottom.
 - (b) Took the first and important step in providing a defense for our democratic ideals and our very lives through improving education.
 - (c) Insured better teachers for our children (they are entitled to the best) by making a career of teaching more attractive to the young and more satisfying to the older.
 - (d) Helped to prepare our boys and girls to compete in this world of strife for a decent living and social position.

Leaverton was a positive and ever aggressive proponent, on the floor of the House and in the Education Committee, of which he was a member, for improving our educational needs. A County Judge can be effective by giving aid by personal endeavor to the schools of the County, helping the friends of education to organize, contacting legislators and presenting to them and the committees arguments for or against proposals, and assisting in creating favorable support where ever needed.

We are sure Mr. Leaverton's opponent will tell you of his successful effort for improving Education in Hamilton County during his 12 year tenure!

VOTE LEAVERTON FOR COUNTY JUDGE!
(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

against present office holders. Namely the Congressmen now representing the various Congressional districts in the State.

They are not!

This is a statewide race where in Texas gets an extra Congressman—representing all the people of Texas, not just a district.

This office is being created because the population of Texas has increased sufficient to entitle it to an additional representative in Washington.

The Texas Legislature has the right to re-district the state to provide for an extra Congressman. But the Legislature has not yet done so. Alternative therefore is to create a statewide position.

Therefore, the following candidates are competing against each other for this high post and not against any present office holder:

Democratic Primary: Judge Woodrow Wilson Bean of El Paso; Manley Head of Austin; Warren G. Moore of Tyler; Joe R. Pool of Dallas; Charles H. Stevenson Jr. of Corpus Christi; Russell T. Van Keuren of Houston; and Phil Willis of Scurry.

Republican Primary: Desmond Barry of Houston; Giles E. Miller of Dallas; and Joe B. Phillips of Lubbock.

A Congressman-at-large race is not without precedent in Texas. The same thing happened in 1932. Martin Dies was elected and served from 1932 to 1938.

Thunder From the Top.

When GOP's from all over the state gathered in Austin for the State Republican Executive Committee meeting Monday, democratic pressure to hold primaries in every precinct was a topic of conversation.

Jim Leonard, GOP executive director, criticized the DEC for urging county clerks to refuse to place Republican candidates on the November ballot unless the Republicans held a primary in every precinct. Leonard charged that it was the same as asking them to break the election laws.

He likened the democratic announcement to "thunder from the top" and called the issue a tempest in a teapot and a compliment to the growth to his party in Texas.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

The Hico Annual Livestock Show, sponsored by the Hico FFA Chapter, is scheduled for Friday, March 23. The show will be held at the usual place, the park on the river just south of town. Entries are to be in not later than Monday, March 19.

The show is open to anyone who would like to show, and all livestock to be shown must be on the grounds by 9:30 show day.

For early grazing, common sudan gives it better than some of the other varieties of sudan grass.

More interest is being shown in getting areas set to Coastal Bermuda grass each year.

Constat is about the best one of the grasses that can be started, however, the only method we have of doing this is setting out sprigs. In the past some have as soon as you get home. Leaving and it might could be caused by not taking proper care of the sprigs after they have been dug.

In getting a good stand of coastal bermuda, it is very important to get the sprigs in the ground as soon as possible after they have been dug. In other words, have everything ready, then get the sprigs and start getting them out as soon as you get home. Leaving the sprigs in the sun during mid-day can cause a loss of as much as 97 per cent. Should the sprigs be placed in the shade, and kept dampened, there is a rather heavy loss if they are held too long before setting out.

So if you are planning to set coastal bermuda grass, take care of the sprigs, set them out as soon as possible and as rapidly as possible.

Earl Kavanaugh, up the river a ways from Hamilton, has started setting coastal bermuda grass on his place and has several acres in the grass now. He is fertilizing it with 16.20.0 and later will use ammonium nitrate. He has several more acres to set out this year. He hopes to be able to sell sprigs next season. It is possible that he might have some sprigs for sale late this season.

Don't forget the date of the Poultry and Commercial Egg Clinic at College Station March 28.

The Federal, State, Rancher effort to eradicate screwworms from Texas and the Southwest is moving at a fast clip, according to announcements made by officials of the cooperating agencies at Kerrville last week.

Sterile screwworm flies are being dropped at the rate of 10 million a week in 30 counties. Dr. S. C. Gartman of the Kerrville fly breeding facility said. This operation will be stepped up to 20 million a week as soon as possible, he said.

He also stated that a control line has been established across the southern part of the state, from Del Rio through San Antonio, Columbus to Bay City. Inspectors will man key points along the line and inspect all animals crossing the line. This is being done to help contain screwworms.
