Poll Tax Paying Gives Voice In All 1963 Elections

If the people of Hico and Hamilton County want to exercise their voices in the affairs of local and state government, they will have to pay their poll taxes. So far they have shown little interest. After midnight January 31st they will have no chance.

Through Wednesday of this week, less than 1,000 polls had been paid in the county, which is an obligation of almost every resident between the ages of 21 and 60. There are a few specified exemptions.

This year qualified voters will choose two City Councilmen, two School Trustees, and will perhaps be given opportunity to vote in a few special elections. Elections of interest to every citizen could be called at any time throughout the year.

If citizens of Hico and Hamilton County are satisfied to let a few of their number "do it all" there is no need to qualify to vote. But if they do not qualify they will have no good reason to complain about the kind of administration they get.

Next Thursday is the last day to qualify, and local residents may pay their poll tax at Hico City Hall and Hico Specialty Shop.

SIDE-SADDLE SUSANS — Riding through a fast precision routine that includes an exciting Maypole and black light presentation, 18 Side-Saddle Susans along with six handsome male escorts will entertain patrons of the Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo Spectacular, January 25 through February 3. Minnie Pearl, America's foremost country-style comedienne, also will appear in each performance of the Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo which will have rodeo's toughest bucking broncs and bulls selected from the strings of three major rodeo producers. Other features include The Flying Cimarrons, five dare-devil trick riders, and Ken Boen with his comical "New Grav Mare."

Once you try the weightless warmth of an electric blanket on a cold winter night, you'll understand why folks who sleep this better way like it so well. An electric blanket is automatic-maintains the temperature you select all night long, regardless of weather changes. You'll sleep relaxed, unhampered by heavy layers of covers. And, by turning on your electric blanket a few moments before you retire, you can enjoy the luxury of a bed that's prewarmed. See the electric blankets at your dealer's soon, and sleep better . . . electrically!
