January 31st Is Deadline for Tax Payments

Friday, January 31, is the last day to pay City, County and School Taxes, unless you want to pay the penalty after that date.

Penalty on city and school taxes is 8 percent, plus one-half of one percent per month for each month thereafter that taxes are not paid. In other words, taxes which are delinquent for one year (12 months) are subject to a total of 14 percent in penalty and interest.

If at all possible, it would be to the advantage of the property owners to pay taxes before the deadline.

Nine breeds of beef cattle, 10 breeds of sheep and eight of swine are featured in the show.

Col. Soules States Candidacy For County Judge

To the People of Hamilton County: I wish to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for County Judge of Hamilton County.

I was reared on a ranch near Star, Texas, where my father, Jim Soules, still resides. I attended Tarleton State College and North Texas State University. In 1937 I enlisted in the U.S. Army, and in 1941 completed Flying School and was commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the U.S. Army Air Corps. I served in the Air Force during World War II and the Korean War, and retired from the U.S. Air Force in 1960 with the rank of Colonel.

During my service with the Air Force I was fortunate to have the opportunity to attend a special course in Executive Management at George Washington University, Washington, D.C. I am also a graduate of the Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, Va. I also served as Administrative Staff Officer at all Command Levels including Headquarters, United States Air Force, Washington, D.C.

My last duty prior to retirement was that of Base Commander, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas.

I feel that the Administrative and Executive training and experience received during my time with the Air Force will prove useful to me if elected to serve as County Judge.

I am convinced that the affairs of Hamilton County should be conducted on a sound business basis in such a manner that permits progress for the entire County.

I hope to visit all of you prior to the election in May 1964. In the meantime I ask your support in this campaign. Sincerely,

James H. Soules,
Col., U.S.A.F., Retired.

CLAIRETTE

By MRS. LUCILE MAYFIELD

A very cold front came to this area first of last week, sending temperatures down very low and followed with a light sleet early Wednesday. By mid-morning snow had started falling and continued until mid-afternoon Thursday. Slightly over 12 inches fell at my home. Others reported 10 and 12 inches. The sun started peeking through late in the afternoon Thursday. Due to the heavy snow the route 4 mail carrier failed to make the route. Before noon I called the News Review to get a report on the snowfall, and Buck gave me the report and stated the mail truck from Waco had not arrived at that time. He also stated that everything in general was at a standstill. All the NR employees could not get to their jobs and he doubted that he could get the paper out. But he did. Can't say how he did it unless his better half really got on the job to help him out or he doubled up doing it by himself. (Ed Note: Helen made it to work, but Delores was "ailing" and we told her to stay home. The weather has been rather hard on livestock, especially cattle without shelter to protect them. It has been a task for some ranchers to get hay out to their stock as the roads have been a problem to travel. Any rate the snow will put moisture in the ground that was badly needed. Some predict there will be some of the snow on the ground a week longer, if it should turn colder. Sunday afternoon after the wind got so high and turned warmer, most of the snow melted, only that in shady spots remaining. Visitors Sunday afternoon in the Henry Mayfield home were Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Salmon of Stephenville. The Salmons also visited in the Herman Roberson home. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stanford and daughter of Fort Worth, Gage McAnelly and daughter of Dublin, and Chester Martin and family were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hoffpouir. Rev. Temple and wife of Fort Worth were visitors at the Baptist Church Sunday, and were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pruett. Mr. and Mrs. Will Cranfill left Sunday for Three Rivers to spend a few days with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander of Stephenville visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Zena Havens. Mrs. Florene Wheeler of Amarillo was also a visitor in the home of her mother on Monday.

Ten to 12 inches of snow fell in Carlton and surrounding territory Wednesday and Wednesday night of last week. The last of the snow melted Sunday. Sid Fine is a patient in the Hico Hospital with pneumonia. He was reported to be better Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. Billy D. Rudd and three sons of Big Spring returned to their home Saturday after a visit with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rudd. Clarley Bain has been confined to his bed several days suffering from pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel of Fairy were recent visitors with his sister, Mrs. Lilla Byrd, and in Stephenville with their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pitts. Miss Carolyn Cole of Ferris spent the weekend with Miss Mickey Roberson. The girls are students at Tarleton State College. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Barnhill and children, Donna Sue 5, Theresa 4, and Donald Dee Jr., born Jan. 5, left Saturday for their home in Kerens after a month's stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coneley. Mrs. Dal Waldrop of Stephenville, a former resident of Carlton, visited Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Mercer and family, and attended services Sunday morning at the Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Callan of Dallas visited recently with his sisters, Mrs. Watt Sharp Sr. and Mrs. Charley Dyer. Mrs. Gertrude Raby and Miss Mollie Herrington of Stephenville and their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh of Delta, Colorado visited a short while Saturday afternoon with a close friend, Mrs. Fred Geyer, and also visited at the Carlton Cemetery where they have relatives buried. They are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. King Herrington, longtime residents of Carlton. Bro. James Gibson and Jess Reeves attended an Evangelist Conference in Fort Worth Monday.

National Affairs held at A&M University recently. They were among 145 student leaders from colleges and universities throughout the United States, Mexico and Canada to hear well-known speakers and participate in round-table discussions. Theme of the conference was "U.S. Monetary and Fiscal Policy—A Tax Payers View." Among the speakers were Edwin P. Neilan, U.S. Chamber of Commerce President, Phillip S. Hughes of the Bureau of Budget, C. Lowell Harris, Columbia University Economics professor, Herbert J. Miller, former director of the tax foundation in Washington, D.C., and Nat Freedman, newspaper columnist. The round-tables, often referred to as the "heart of the conference" enable the delegates to discuss the national and international issues with outstanding professional leaders as chairmen.

Miss Roberson and Miss Walton are members of the student council at Tarleton State College. Jane is president of women's officers. Melanie was the young student at the conference, and was mistress of ceremonies and organist for the Christmas program.

HAMILTON-CORYELL SCS News

By BOMER HARRIS

O. C. King, chairman of the Hamilton-Coryell SCD Board of Supervisors, reported that 16 farm and ranch plans were approved by the board on 6,739 acres at its January meeting in Hamilton. These plans were worked out with landowners by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service at Hamilton and Gatesville.

The inches of snow that fell over Hamilton County last week amounted to 1.13 inches of moisture. If all moisture came like the snow, there would be very little soil erosion from water. Crop residues left on the surface of the soil or good cover of range or pasture grasses help water soak into the land like moisture from a snow.

Often ranchers speak of weeds crowding out their grass. With good range management the reverse is usually true. The grass will crowd out the weeds.

During the last six months of 1963, 451 district cooperators were serviced by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service working out of Hamilton. During that time 415 of these district cooperators applied one or more soil and water conservation practices on the land. These practices include terracing and establishing grassed waterways, ponds, grass plantings, cover crops, conservation cropping systems, etc.

Now is a good time to top dress small grain with nitrogen fertilizer. It will hasten proper maturity of small grain. Plants that are nitrogen starved will develop prematurely. Nitrogen fertilizer should be applied before the first joint is developed.

Gene Pruitt, district supervisor in the Blue Ridge community, collected soil samples and had analysis made at Stephen F. Austin State College at Nacogdoches. He will use the recommendations in applying fertilizer to small grain, grain sorghum, cotton and corn.

The economy in Hamilton, Hico and Evant depends, to a great extent, on the production of our soil. Soil and water conservation practices help our soil produce. As income from our cropland and rangeland increases, our local economy improves.

Robert Flaherty, in Scenario for "The Land," said "When the soil moves, people move. When soil fails, life fails."

Game Warden Reports

By BOB RHUDY

I have not had time to check so far on how the snow we had last week affected our wildlife. I will say we probably lost some quail. As far as deer, it probably helped them in as much as it bent some of the liveoak trees down to where they could reach the leaves. But I will say, since it melted fast, it surely did not hurt as much as it could have had it stayed on the ground several days.

All you folks that had out feed for your wildlife can rest assured that you certainly did help them get through the two days the snow was on the ground. It's still not too late to put out feeders for quail since we do not know that we won't have another snow this year.

Quail season will run through January 31, and squirrel season is open the year around, so you still have a few days to hunt quail. Again I would like to encourage you to hunt these birds since we lose from 20 to 40 percent of them each year. And besides that, they are truly one of the gamest birds we have in Texas and they also have a very fine flavor.

Please don't forget—this is the season for rabies. Contrary to popular belief, rabies are not confined to the so-called "dog days" of July and August. Most cases in Texas occur in the winter and early spring. One explanation for this might be that food is more abundant in the summer months and a rabid animal does not have to roam so far to get food. Please do not take a chance with a sick animal. If there is any question just lock it up for at least 10 days for observation. If the animal has already bitten someone do not kill it at the time of attack. Such action tends to make laboratory examination impossible or at least questionable.

All you landowners that have not returned your doe or antlerless deer permits, please remember—we must have these in on or before the first of February. Again I would like to remind you

GIFT TO LIBRARY BY MRS. KNUDSON

More than 50 volumes of Reader's Digest Condensed Books were added to the story collection section of the high school library last week, as a gift from Mrs. M. I. Knudson.

These books, containing condensations of current and recent best sellers, are favorites of many students.

This gift brings the new books added to the library during the current year to almost 100.

REPORT CARDS OUT TODAY
Report cards, signaling the close of the first semester, were issued today.

Changes in examination schedules and in issuing final reports had been made because of the snow storm which kept school closed Thursday and Friday of last week.

Second semester work began Wednesday morning with only a few changes made in schedules.

BAND NEWS
Last Sunday, January 19, several people enjoyed seeing a former Hico band student, Ruth Ann Martin, appear on television. She was on the program of Alma Mater. The program was very interesting as it told about Texas Wesleyan College.

Starting the second semester, band will be held only three days a week. The other two days will be used to the convenience of the students. Students will continue to receive private lessons.

New music arrived early this week, and everyone chose a solo which is to be memorized and played before a judge early in March. Medals will be given to those students who receive an "A" rating.

JUNIOR NEWS
The snow was just beautiful while it lasted. Now of course, it's just muddy and messy. Maybe that's the reason everyone hated to get to school on Monday morning. With those tests still staring at you it's pretty difficult to be happy. Maybe it will all be over pretty soon and we can look forward to May and the end of school.

Cheryl B. and her sister seem to have a lot in common these days. In case you don't know, they are both going with sophomore boys. Mike Gravitt and Scott Patterson are pretty sneaky when it comes to snowball fights. It seems that they throw them from the car windows, also in some people's car windows.

Hey Dot Gray, what is this about your sitting close to someone at the ball game. Is it just a joke?

Say, Margo W., what were you doing with that sack of snow Sunday? Were you planning a snowball attack on someone?

If you haven't guessed by now, James Randals has a big mouth. There is no peace on the basketball bus when he starts rattling off.

Sharon, why did you look so white when you came out of the show Saturday night? Did a ghost really try to get you?

Hey Jim Grimes, who is your new girlfriend? Could it possibly be a sophomore girl with initials S.E.

8TH GRADE NEWS

This school week, for some reason, has certainly been a short one, but nobody seemed to mind. Those long weekends are nice.

Jeanne Bailey made quite a haul over the snow days. Could it be that some certain sophomore added a piece of jewelry to your collection?

Cherry Ramage, what do you mean when you say that you just want the whole mess of them to leave you alone? Did anything happen to you over the weekend?

If you want to find out what people are talking about when you hear someone say to Ann Mc and Paula Lane, "May the best man win" just ask one of them.

Mike Reeves, you thief, quit taking fillers out of fountain pens.

A note would like to be dropped to Mike Davis' cat: May he rest in peace.

SPOTLIGHT

The snow we had seemed to have slowed the couples down Friday night. Those out were Joni Coan and Bill Rutledge; Bonnie Lepard and Wayne Warren; Liz Bruner and Dan Reeves; Claudia Hafer and Jerry Casey; Dianne Jaggars and Ronnie Mayfield; Dorothy Gray and Butch Knudson; Carolyn Wooton and Dwayne Gray; Patsy Wooton and Larry Erick.

After the ball game Saturday night there were some couples riding around, or went to see "The Haunted." Couples were Judy Jameson and Edwin Shannon; Patsy Wooton and Larry Erick; Barbara Casey and Bud Strong; Linda Bruner and Pete Hanshaw; Liz Bruner and Danny Reeves; Dorothy Gray and Butch Knudson; Joni Coan and Bill Rutledge.

WHO'S WHO

The subject this week is a new girl at HHS. She is a junior, about five feet six inches tall with blue eyes and blond hair. She has only been at HHS for a short time, but has already attracted a certain senior boy with the initials of M.S. She is often seen round school with Joni Coan, and her favorite hobby is hunting hub caps. Our subject also has a sister in the eighth grade, whose name is Jeannie Kay.

If you haven't guessed our subject for this week, I'll tell you. It is no other than a real junior, Cheryl Bailey. All the students of HHS want to wish her a very warm welcome.

SOPHOMORE SPECIALS

The Christmas holidays are past, but Lee Shepherd is still enjoying her nephew's little red tractor. She claims that she only rides it to pull her nephew in the wagon, but if that's the case, what was she doing on it during his nap.

Dwain Pail, who was the girl we saw you with this weekend? Was it Cheryl? Wups, or was it Cheryl?

Frances Lepard, has anyone ever told you that you look lovely in yellow? You must not have believed it, because it took a football jacket to prove the point.

The sophomore class wishes a speedy recovery to Pat Bruner.

Mike, have you joined Robin Hood's merry men or is there another reason for your new nickname? Can you clear up the mystery "Friar Thornton"?

They said it couldn't be done; they said nobody could do it, but "Getting to Know You" has become "You're Mine." Right, Leslie?

Dianne Jaggars, were you singing "Candy Man" Saturday night—that is until you found out that he wasn't in the "sweet shop."

FIRST SNOWMAN— First snowman seen last Thursday morning was this creation in front of the News Review office. The boys picked a likely spot for their creation, figuring that the photog would take the hint and snap a picture.

WASHINGTON—

As It Looks From Here

By OMAR BURLINSON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

"East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet." It is a long way to Suez, but not nearly as far to Panama.

In October 1956, we made a show of force in a showdown between France, England and Israel on one side, and Nasser's Egypt on the other.

Although we can rationalize and justify our own position in Panama, there are indications that a great many of the nations around the world feel that our chickens are home to roost.

Their conclusion can hardly be based on cold facts, but rather come out of an emotional sentiment of something like jealousy.

We are reminded that we took sides in the Suez controversy to change an arrangement existing for many years. Like most controversies, when opinions are fixed on something other than fact, the merits of the case have small meaning.

It can be reasonably assumed that some of the unpopularity we are now experiencing by the official position of a great many nations also stems from another sensitive position created by trade problems.

Five nations, including Czechoslovakia behind the Iron Curtain, bid on furnishing approximately 400 buses to Cuba. The British got the deal. This proves, of course, that our European allies have never accepted the trade embargo on Castro. It is not assumed that the transit breakdown in Cuba is the key to all its economic woes, but it is important that the bus purchase from England will be the largest deal the Cubans have yet made with a non-Communist country.

The bus contract relates, of all things, to the high cost of sugar in the world market. In purchasing sugar from Cuba during the last year, the British ran a deficit of about $30 million. They are not worrying very much about our objections to the sale of their buses to Castro, but rather, now criticizes us for putting restrictions against ships in Cuban trade, which will likely force them to transport the buses on East German ships.

A group of Canadian Legislators in Washington this week reflect their lack of excitement in our efforts to put the economic squeeze on Cuba. Their trade with Cuba has diminished somewhat, but it is largely because of Castro's lack of readily available funds to pay. The Canadian sale of grain to Russia seemingly created no problem for them, and a cash payment was obviously of considerable incentive. Cash sales of grain from Australia and flour from West Germany also were on this basis, but to do the same thing, our Government must underwrite our private exporters, guaranteeing them against loss in extending the usual commercial credit to the Soviets.

Our English speaking cousins, the British, Australians and Canadians, are not alone in going after substantial trade with the Soviet Bloc. Even Spain, whose present regime under Franco was brought into being by bloody civil war with the Communists, is now involved in trade negotiations with Cuba, Italy, Spain, France and Belgium are all jumping into the Cuban trade. France and Ireland have helped set up factories on the Island, and the Spanish still have under active negotiation on a deal to sell Castro more than 100 fishing trawlers. There is reliable information that Italian and Spanish geologists are making surveys of mineral deposits in Cuba for possible commercial development. French ships have transported coal from Hanoi, China, to Havana. Many of these countries, and others, are making competitive overtures to Red Chin to establish greater trade relations.

The are aware of our criticism and our objections to these policies. They are not showing great deal of sympathy for our own troubles, such as Panama.

Carlton Cage Round

When Carlton teams go to Pottsville this Friday night, they are looking for at least a tie for first round championship in district play. Both teams have one game in first round competition, but are in position to take the league into a tie by a win over Pottsville. The Carlton girls lost their first conference game, Star in a disappointing conference following the Christmas holidays. The boys lost a heart-breaker Priddy 66-65 in the first overtime period. Both teams presently have a 4-1 record.

The Carlton girls brought home or upon the teams by sweeping the Huckabay tournament. This was Carlton's first championship this year, having previously won two second place and two consolation trophies.

Carlton has two fine players, Linda Sharp and Sonny Roberts. Linda averaged 35 points per game in the Huckabay tournament, and has a 30-point average in district play. Sonny has a 20-point average in conference play.

Carlton has four home games in the second round of conference play and fans are promised good basketball with Star, Priddy, Mullin and Pottsville coming town. Game time is 7 p.m. for conference games.

The Income Tax School is coming up. Be sure to mark January 28th on your calendar. The meeting will start at 7 p.m. in the District Courtroom. I would also like to remind you that the Farmer's Tax Guide is now available in our offices. This handy, easy to read guide contains information applicable to every phase of farm income tax reporting. If you have any questions concerning your tax return, jot them down and bring to the meeting Tuesday night.

We will have nine result demonstrations in the field of home economics this year in Hamilton County. I have visited four thus far in January to get started on their plans. A result demonstration is a demonstration conducted by a homemaker under direct supervision of the extension worker to show the value of a recommended practice. It involves a substantial period of time and records of results and comparisons. It is designed to teach others in addition to the person conducting the demonstration. It is hoped that the practice will lead to greater profit, comfort and culture.

Are you confused about what type bleach to use in your laundry? With the advent of new bleaches and bleaches in new forms, more specific classification is required for accuracy and clarity. Household bleaches found on the market today fall in these categories:

Chlorine Bleaches (liquid and dry) and is particularly suited for heavy soil and stain removal on cottons and linens.

Oxygen-Type Bleaches, powdered crystalline or bead form. They are safe for all fabrics and finishes and essentially all colors.

Percarbonate Bleaches are the most common fine fabric or safe bleach on the market. They are mild with limited effectiveness in normal washing temperature range.

Potassium Monopersulfate or "Oxone" Bleaches are effective in water at all temperature—cool, warm, hot. While somewhat less effective than chlorine bleaches on heavy soil and stains, they have good soil and stain removal performance. They are markedly better in bleaching ability than perborate bleaches.

MISS SUE LUCKIE, MR. O'BRYANT WED IN RECENT HOME CEREMONY

Wedding vows for Miss Sue Luckie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Luckie of Hico, and Frank O'Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Bryant of Stephenville, were read Friday, January 10 at 2 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents.

Charles Wilson, Minister of Hico Church of Christ, officiated at the wedding ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. The nuptial space was decorated in white, and the mantel featured an arrangement of white roses and pom-poms complimented by white tapers.

When in marriage by her father the bride wore a street length dress of white satin with nylon overcoat, styled with a rounded neckline, cap sleeves and a full skirt. Silver appliques enhanced the bodice. Her only jewelry was a double strand pearl necklace. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations clustered with white satin streamers. She wore a white pill box hat with a black veil.

Mr. Ralph Carr of Stephenville attended the bride as matron of honor. She chose a frock of white silk styled after the bride's dress, and carried a colonial bouquet of blue feathered carnations. Serving the bridegroom as best man was Ralph Carr of Stephenville. Usher was Jimmy Luckie, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Luckie chose a two-piece blue suit with black accessories. Mrs. O'Bryant wore a blue wool suit with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white feathered carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

A white embroidered linen cloth covered the bride's table. The bride's bouquet formed the centerpiece, and was graced by a three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with the traditional miniature bride and groom. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Mrs. Elam Berna Jr. served the cake, and Mrs. Wayne Vanwinkle presided at the punch service.

Mrs. Charles Sharp registered the guests. The O'Bryants are at home in Stephenville where he is employed.

REICH-HARDIN WEDDING VOWS READ IN RECENT HAMILTON CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Clara Sue Reich became the bride of William Allen Hardin a 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 21 at the St. John's Lutheran Church in Hamilton, with Rev. David E. Ebert, pastor, performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reich of Route 4, Hico. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Hardin of Carlton.

The beauty of the church was further enhanced with lighted white tapers in candelabra complimented by arrangements of white gladioli and mums.

Mrs. Milton Bottlinger of Ireland presented pre-nuptial selections and Miss Martha Stuckey of Carlton accompanied her sister, Miss Carron Stuckey as she sang "O Perfect Love"; and the congregation joined to sing "Our Help In Ages Past."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white lace featuring rows of appliqued roses circling the hem of the full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of long stem white roses sprinkled with white feathered carnations.

Miss Linda McCarty of Dallas was maid of honor. She wore a frock of blue, fashioned with bell-shaped skirt and a sleeveless bodice with rounded neckline and matching accessories. Miss Ola Faye Reich of Carlton, sister of the bride, and Miss Janet Bottlinger, cousin of the bride of Ireland, were bridesmaids. They chose dresses of pink fashioned after that of the maid of honor. The three carried colonial bouquets of pink roses clustered with pink net.

Little Cindy Limmer of Priddy, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, dressed in a white satin dress styled with lace bodice and lace sleeves.

John Paul Herzog of Hamilton, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer.

William L. Eubanks of Hico served the groom as best man, and ushers were Miss Emma Lou Randolph of Pottsville and Jerry Miller of Gustine, both cousins of the bride. Miss Randolph wore a blue dress identical to that of the maid of honor.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Reich chose a two-piece suit of blue wool with matching hat and black accessories. Mrs. Hardin, mother of the groom, wore a brown suit with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink feathered carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party was honored by the bride's parents with a barbecue supper at Perry Country Club. Music and entertainment was furnished by a band during the evening.

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

It is with a sad heart that we bring our newsletter this week since our husband, Cabert (Boone) Daniel passed away Monday night of last week following major surgery at the Blackwell Hospital in Gorman on January 7. He stood the operation fine and it was first thought he would soon be able to return home, as the surgery, which was for an almost blocked colon was found to have the bladder grown too, and tied, to this blocked space and only had to be cut loose. But since he had a damaged heart due to a bad spell of indigestion he had been having for several months, this and other complications prevented his recovery. We have given up several members of our family before in tragic and untimely deaths, which we thought was so bad to not have a chance to try and help them in their last moments, but we believe it is even worse to try and do all we can and have such bright hopes of recovery and then have our hope shattered so suddenly. He seemed much better Monday and quieter than he had been in several days, and asked about having some of his clothing brought from the tailor shop to wear home only five minutes before he died. He asked for water, we gave him water. He asked if it was from our home well, we told him it was as we had taken a supply everytime we came home for anything. The third time we used the plastic tube in his glass and he just seemed to close his teeth on the tube and we saw he seemed to be going into a coma as he had previously, so hurriedly sit the glass down to try and arouse him as the nurses had told us to do. We heard three slight gurgling throat sounds as we stepped back to his bedside, this was the last. He died so easy, not even a move or struggle, but it was such a shock when we thought he was so much better.

We have just experienced a spell of real winter weather. We had 8 to 9 inches of snow which began to fall Wednesday of last week and by Friday morning most everyone were shut-in. Only travel was by tractor. Later in the day a few pickup trucks were seen on the road as cattlemen had to try and get feed to their stock. The snow melted away rapidly though when temperatures rose. The snow will be very beneficial to the grain crop which seemed to be at a standstill. We hope now to see the grain take on new life and get away from the ground.

Mrs. H. H. (Noxie) Hanes, mother of Mr. Frank Hanes of Fairy passed away at 4 a.m. last Thursday in a Dallas hospital. Mrs. Hanes had been ill for several months due to a stroke she suffered at her home in Jonesboro, followed by other strokes. She first stayed for a time here at the home of her son, Frank, and later was carried to the home of a daughter in Dallas, later to the hospital there where she was when her son, Henry, passed away, but never learned of his death. Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Jonesboro Baptist Church where she had worshipped 70 or more years, with Rev. Brad Helbert of Hamilton and Dave Michael officiating. Both were former pastors. She was born in Bell County Sept. 22, 1880. by of Dallas; and one daughter, Mrs. Iland (Winnie) Jones of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Evaline Drake of Toilar; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren to mourn her passing.

The beautiful floral offering bore tribute to the memory, love and esteem for one who had been so faithful during her better than four score years with her family and friends. Burial was in the Jonesboro Cemetery. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the sons and daughter and other relatives at this time of sorrow.

Quite a number from the Fairy and Lanham community attended the funeral service.

Mrs. P. L. Cox received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Thaxton of Laurel, Miss., who passed away in a hospital there Friday night, Jan. 10 after an extended illness. She was the former Miss Jessie V. Eubanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Eubanks, pioneer Covington County residents. Her passing broke the family circle of eight sons and daughters. Funeral services were held Jan. 12 at 3 p.m. with her pastor, Dr. G. Elliot Jones and Rev. James V. Johnson officiating. Burial was in Hickory Grove cemetery. Surviving are two daughters, a son, three sisters, including Mrs. Cox, four brothers, five grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Cox was unable to go to visit her sister during her illness or attend the funeral service since she and Mr. Cox were both ill of colds and viruses. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Cox and others who mourn her passing.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner had the following children and families home over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Turner, Kurtis and Rhonda, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Botkin, Tammy and Patsy, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner all of Killen, and Bernice of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams and Mrs. Cal Lowry of Fort Worth visited Sunday afternoon in the home of the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Stephenville and two grandchildren, Little Kay and Karen Pittman visited Sunday in the home of her sister and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family and the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner honored their daughter, Miss Bernice, with a party on Monday night in honor of her 16th birthday. A nice crowd attended and all had an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson were in Grand Prairie last Wednesday week where they visited their children, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Vance and family.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By DeMARQUIS GORDON

There will be an income tax workshop Tuesday night, January 28, in the district court room in Hamilton. The meeting will start at 7:00 p.m. and end about 9. Most of the discussion will be centered around the farmer's tax reporting, however everyone is invited to attend. Bill Freeman, Area Farm Management Specialist for the Extension Service, will conduct the workshop.

Freeman will discuss income to be reported, deductible farm expenses, depreciation methods, investment credit, records needed for tax reporting, capital gains and losses, non-taxable exchanges, involuntary conversions, and other deductions and personal exemptions.

I hope you will make plans to attend the workshop because it could save you several dollars in taxes by knowing what should be deducted and what should be reported.

I would like to remind you again that the 1964 edition of the Farmer's Tax Guide is now available in my office. This handy, easy to read guide contains information applicable to every phase of farm income tax reporting.

It shows sample returns completely filled out with an explanation of the figures.

Some of you have been asking me about the progress and success of the screwworm eradication program. Due to the successful eradication measures, and cold weather, officials have cut the production of sterile screwworm flies by 50 percent. This permitted the program to cut back in personnel by nearly 175 employees.

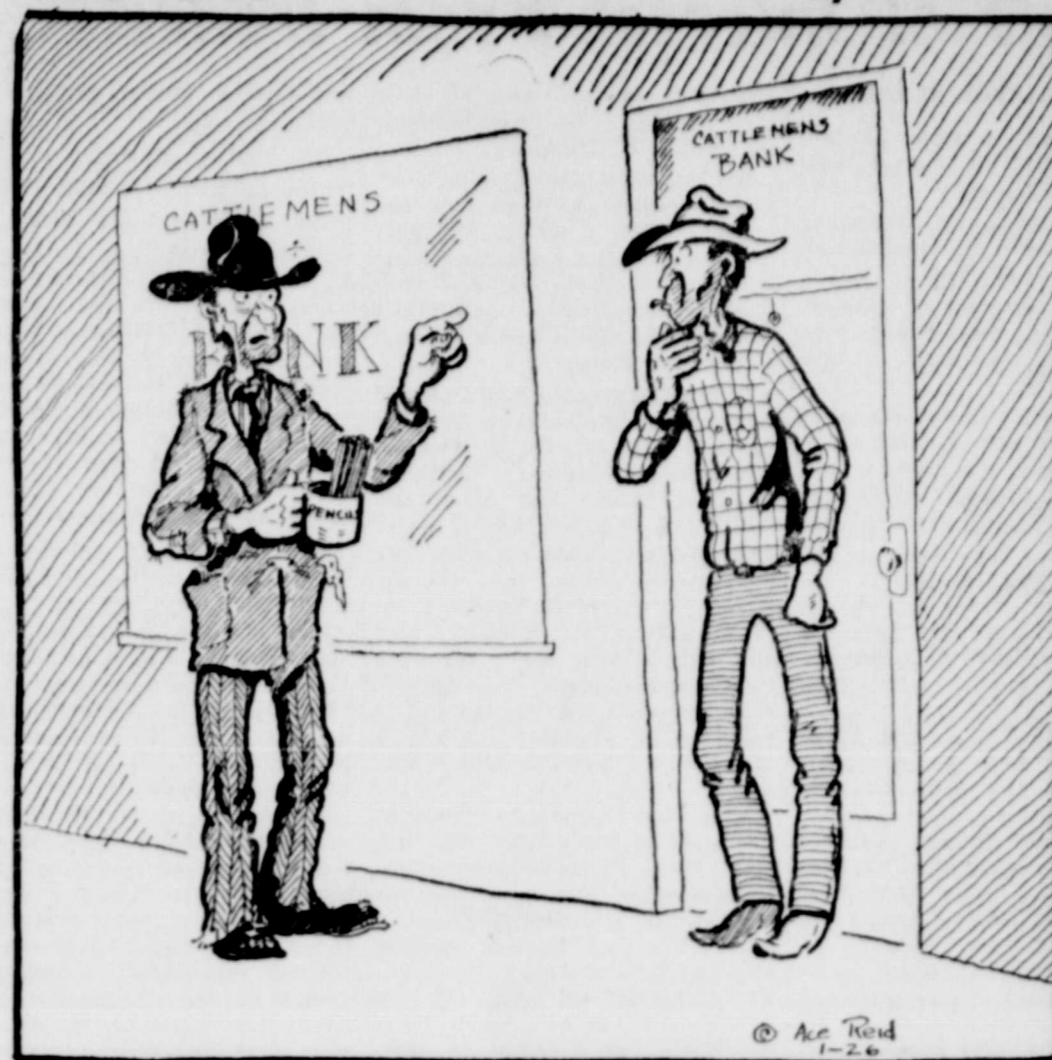

Authorities also said that it is important to conserve funds now to insure that money is available to initiate emergency measures that may become necessary later in the season.

During 1963, producers in 182 Texas counties reported 4,916 screwworm cases; the previous year 49,484 cases were detected in 242 counties. While this indicates a 90 percent decrease, officials feel reporting was so much more effective than during 1962 that an even greater degree of control may have been achieved than the totals indicate.

The screwworm eradication program cost just slightly above $5,000,000 to operate in the calendar year 1963. Before the program
