ANOTHER DARING RAID BY GERMAN AIRPLANES UPON CITY OF LONDON

CIVILIANS ARE PLAINLY OBJECT OF LATEST ATTACK

SQUADRON FLEW LOW ACROSS CITY DROPPING BOMBS AS THEY CROSSED

ONLY 36 PERSONS DEAD

Anti Aircraft Guns Fail to Bring Down Enemy—Three Brought Down At Sea

By Associated Press.

London, July 7.—The second descent on London by a squadron of airplanes was made this morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, when the business section of the metropolis was most crowded. Although the German contingent was larger, more daring, more deliberate, and descended much lower than on the visit of June 13, the killed and wounded was only about one-third the previous casualty list. The property damage cannot be estimated.

The flight over London lasted only about 20 minutes. British airmen engaged them for several minutes and anti-aircraft guns were firing briskly, but without success, so far as was learned.

The admiralty was able to report tonight, however, that naval airmen who followed them to sea, brought down three machines. A British squadron, sent up from Dunkirk to intercept the returning raiders, did not encounter them because they had taken a more northerly route, but the British airmen met and destroyed seven other German machines.

Like Flock of Geese.

On the former visit, made in hazy weather, like today, the Germans kept high in the mists, but today, when they neared their objectives, most of them descended. Their formation was like a flock of wild geese, and neither the British pursuers nor the guns were able to scatter them until they spread out before letting loose bombs.

Hundreds of thousands of people on roofs, from windows and in the streets saw the spectacle. All London heard the noise of battle.

The Germans steered across London, northwest to southeast. They dropped the last of the bombs on workmen's dwellings and crossed the Thames. Some observers saw a giant airplane piloting the squadron, and that the bomb carriers were in the center, flanked by scouts for fighting off the British airmen.

The low altitude and slow pace at which the Germans crossed London, and the daredevil way they circled over the objective, caused great surprise. They completed the maneuver over the Thames, and as the British machines came up, the raiders quickened their pace.

A fierce running fight ensued between a strong force of British machines and the raiders toward the mouth of the river. None of the Germans had been brought down when the combatants disappeared from view, but the British squadron continued the pursuit and engaged them heavily.

Directed Against Civilians.

Today's attack was plainly directed against the civilian population and business and financial district. Why more persons were not killed is hard to explain. Thousands were in the streets in the area bombarded. A thorough investigation by a staff correspondent of The Associated Press showed that no military munitions or supply establishment was touched. Anger and determination tonight seemed to be the dominating sentiment of the populace. Increased demand for reprisals on German cities, several members of Parliament have already announced, will be brought up as soon as the House of Commons meets.

Raid in Mid Forenoon. The raid occurred at about 9:25 this morning. Thousands of persons crowded the streets, many of them women and children. The police and soldiers had difficulty in holding back the people. Many persons were seen at broken windows. Anti aircraft guns throughout the city, and British airplanes immediately engaged the hostile craft for a time the sound of exploding bombs and the vicious reply of guns was deafening.

Straight over the city flew the squadron of raiders pursued by bursting shrapnel. The sun was shining brightly but the sky was overcast with a haze such as is so favorable to raiders. Notwithstanding the haze, however, the Germans were visible plainly to the naked eye in the streets. The raiders appeared most suddenly and few persons realized that a raid was in progress until the sound of bombs began to be heard. The Germans were traveling at a tremendous speed. They appeared to be at lower altitudes than in the last raid when they extracted such a heavy toll from London.

The German raiders came from the north and left by way of the south. The class in some of the streets of the city resembled that in the streets of New York and its suburbs following the explosions on Black Tom Island in the upper New York harbor last July.

Reprisals Urged. The people are urging that quick reprisals be taken. A middle class and fashionable north-western residential suburb had a superb view of the approach of the visitors. From the further northern fringe of the metropolis, the raiders were seen to take a formation more than a score in number.

The squadron which had been flying high then began a swift toboggan descent. The raiders were seen to descend and the planes soon regained a level evidently less than a thousand yards in their swoop toward the central objective. The raiders, more numerous than the planes, it seemed impossible for the raiders completely to escape from the atmosphere of fire surrounding them. The raiders, however, pursued their course holding their cargo of bombs until they had crossed the suburban district and left flying high.

Fortunately a majority of people in the capital had just enough warning of the raid to enable them to seek safety in basements.

Even in the basement the effect of the bombs was felt, the ground trembled as though an earthquake were in progress. Windows were shaken from frames, plates from walls and soot from chimneys. Evidently there was a considerable difference in the calibre of bombs dropped. Some of them had but slight effect, throwing up clouds of shrapnel like debris. Others evidently were filled with a more powerful explosive.

The attack was even briefer than the previous London raids, the new tactics of the Germans being to swoop down to a low altitude, drop their cargo of bombs quickly and rush homeward.

A most exciting running fight between British and German airplanes was witnessed by people in a London suburb. After dropping a shower of bombs, the Germans made off in a westerly direction. By this time English aviators had reached a height at which they could engage the raiders, and the case began, machine guns coming into action.

The following announcement was made by the admiralty: "The enemy raiding squadron was chased off over the sea by our fighters. The raiders were seen to fall in flames off the mouth of the Scheldt. All our machines returned safely."

NEUTRAL BUYING RESPONSIBLE FOR RISE IN PRICES

Washington, July 7.—Recent heavy purchases of American food stuff by foreign countries, allied and neutral, were considered today by the export council. Some members favor a complete embargo for food shipments for 60 days to give the United States time to survey its supply and to enable foreign governments to give a definite estimate of their needs. Responsibility for the recent rise in corn and sympathetic rise in wheat is laid to heavy neutral purchases. The first presidential proclamation putting coal and other commodities under export control is expected to be signed next week.

GEN. BRUSILLOFF STRIKES RAPIDLY, AND WITH ENERGY

RUSSIANS ATTACKING IN REGION OF PINSK AND TO NORTHWEST OF STANISLAW

HELD UP IN GALICIA

Austro-German Forces Holding Up Russian Advance On That Sector. Activity In Belgium

The Associated Press war summary last night said: General Brusiloff is pushing his offensive on the Russian front with energy and rapidity. He has begun an attack in the region of Pinsk, 150 miles north of Galicia, and is attacking with success northwest of Stanislaw, southeast of Legbourg.

At Pinsk semi-official advices announced German defenses are yielding to Russian forces. The town is reported in flames. The Galician campaign is meeting with vigorous Austro-German defense, and admittedly the Russians have been held up in further attempts to advance in the Kenetchy region. The sweeping claim of Berlin of a signal victory over the Russians, however, conflicts sharply with the Russian announcement of substantial gains in several sectors.

The big guns are roaring all along the French-Belgian front. Infantry movement developed in Belgium where a sharp thrust by the British carried their line forward slightly near Wytschaete. Berlin reports two attacks by the French from Mont Carnelle to the French line in Belgium.

The German line on each occasion but each time were driven out by counter attacks, it is asserted. London was subjected yesterday to an air raid on perhaps a larger scale than any the German had before attempted. A score or more of airplanes flew over the center of the city dropping their bombs quickly and speeding on southward. The explosives caused some property damage in the heart of London and killed 36 persons and injured 141. These official figures show the casualties to be the heaviest since the big raid of June 13 when 157 persons were killed and 439 injured.

On that occasion the Germans lost only one machine according to the British admission while Berlin claimed all its machines returned safely. This time, however, four of the German raiders were brought down, one by army aviators at the mouth of the Thames and three after an engagement with British navy aviators 40 miles out at sea on the return trip.

British airmen at Dunkirk, across the channel, were reported to have shot the raiders and failed to find them did such effective repressive work on other German aircraft that seven hostile machines were accounted for within a brief period.

AMERICAN TROOPS ARE MOBILIZING TO GO TO THE FRONT

WILL LEAVE FRENCH SEAPORT IN FEW DAYS FOR CAMP BEHIND THE FIRING LINE

From a French Seaport, July 7.—The American troops today entered on the final steps of their mobilization that shall prepare them to leave within a few days for a permanent training camp somewhere behind the firing lines. The unloading of supplies is almost finished and rolling stock is being concentrated here preparatory for the departure of the troops.

For the purpose of the troops, the French have used to great profit for a double purpose. The more important one was to put the majority of the soldiers through a vigorous grind of night full hours each day at the front took part in the exercises in order to give the benefit of their experience to the American soldiers. The drills included a daily plunge into the sea, this phase of the sanitation problem being made easy by the nearness of the camp to the ocean.

The other advantage taken of the time spent here was to employ small groups of the more seasoned troops to train the new arrivals. The camp that it will be in first class shape. The camp in the last few days has been extended enormously until today it extends for miles and can accommodate a large number of men. Water has been piped from the town and the system is equipped with every modern device. The drill ground is not only ideal for the purpose but has the advantage of being at a distance so that the men get a daily hike of about five miles.

For the men arriving at this and similar mobilization bases the American system of living in tents or wooden shacks will be followed but when they arrive at a permanent camp they will be billeted among the townspeople and live in houses. Few if any of the soldiers know just where they are to be sent but all are enthusiastic over the prospect of getting nearer the scene of action. Their spirits are fine and their health is of the best with the exception of a few cases of malaria.

The men have swamped the officers of their companies with a deluge of letters that must pass through a censorship.

CHINESE EMPEROR ABDICATES

RAILROAD CUT BY CHANG HSUN FORCES

By Associated Press. Tien Tsui, China, July 7.—Information received here today from Peking confirms the report that the railway between Peking and Tien Tsui has been cut by troops of General Chang Hsun, leader of the Royalist forces. One body of his soldiers advanced in the direction of Tien Tsui and one toward Tiao Tui Fu, in an endeavor to prevent a junction of the Republican army. The main body of the imperialists remains in Peking.

PLOTTED REVOLT AGAINST ENGLAND LONG BEFORE WAR

ACTIVITY GERMAN AGENTS AND HINDU AGITATORS REVEALED IN INDICTMENTS SATURDAY

By Associated Press. San Francisco, July 7.—Enemy agents were sent to China and Japan to attempt to bribe the press of those nations and to procure secret treaties between the German empire and those governments in aid of the Hindu revolutionary plot in connection with the 129 indictments returned today, according to a statement made tonight by United States District Attorney Preston.

Two sets of indictments were returned, one relating to a worldwide plot to overthrow the British empire and the other, so-called espionage, Sacramento case in which it is charged an effort was made to provision German war materiel in connection with the statements issued today concerning the A. & M. selection. "I agree fully with the above statement on condition that it be made in connection with the statement that they did not vote for Abilene and excepting that portion of the statement relating to the imposition of the fines."

When questioned today, Speaker Fuller said: "The statement is satisfactory to me and I have no additional statement to make." He did not care to go into any further details relative to final settlement of the question.

MILLION WOMEN ENROLLED FOR THE SAVING OF FOOD

By Associated Press. Washington, July 7.—A million American women were announced today had signed pledges to follow the food conservation direction of the food administration. All will be enrolled as actual members of the food administration and will be sent instruction on household economy.

The first list of directions sent out to be posted in the kitchen of women who have joined the administration are: "One wheatless meal a day; use corn, oatmeal, rye or barley bread and, not wheat, for breakfast foods. 'Put the loaf on the table only as required.' 'Eat less cake and pastry.' 'Use less meat, pork, beef, mutton, than once daily. Use freely vegetables and fish. At the meat meal serve smaller portions of stew instead of steaks. Make dishes of all left overs.' 'Save the milk; the children must have milk. Use buttermilk and sourmilk for cooking and baking cottage cheese, less cream, save the fat. Use butter on the table, but not in cooking.' 'Use less candy and sweet drinks but do not stint sugar in putting up fruit and jams, they will save butter.' 'Save the fuel, use wood when you can get it.' 'Fruits and vegetables we have in abundance. As a nation we eat too little green stuff. Don't be lazy and improve your health. Store potatoes and other roots properly and they will keep. Beans, peas or corn or dry all surplus garden products.' 'General rules: Don't eat a fourth meal. Don't limit the plain food of the growing children. Watch out for the waste in the community. Fill garbage pails in America means empty dinner pails in America and Europe.'"

EMPEROR ZITA MAKING EFFORTS FOR PEACE

By Associated Press. London, July 7.—According to the Daily Express, the Austrian press Zita of Austria has informed certain members of the House of Commons that the Empress is exerting her utmost efforts to bring about peace. She is credited with sufficient influence over Emperor Charles to induce him to try to withdraw from the Austro-Hungarian alliance with Germany as soon as Austria-Hungary is enabled to take such action.

AMERICAN TROOPS WORK ON AVIATION CAMP

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, July 7.—Guy Waters, a rent car driver, was found dead in his automobile on the Galveston road this morning. His skull was crushed and his pockets empty. Waters left his hotel here Friday saying he was going to Galveston with some men in his car. An investigation is being conducted.

FAIR AND HONEST SAYS STATEMENT LOCATING BOARD

ALL MEMBERS SIGN STATEMENT CONFIRMING LOCATION OF COLLEGE AT ABILENE

NOT TO BE REOPENED

Statement Says Abilene Received Three Votes When "A Ballot" Was Taken

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, July 7.—Abilene was fairly and honestly selected as the site for the location of the new West Texas A. & M. college and the question is not to be reopened, according to an official statement made public today and signed by every member of the locating committee. This statement is the result of the conference held here Friday between the Souvenir and Speaker Fuller and other members of the locating committee. The governor has signed the statement and Lieutenant Gov. Hobby did not personally inspect the sites offered nor accompany the committee but the statement and signature. The text of the statement follows:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, were members of the board appointed by the 35th Legislature to locate the West Texas A. & M. College and that in pursuance of our duty under the law we inspected the various sites offered for the location of said college, and after much investigation on June 29, we met at the governor's office at Austin and after due deliberation a ballot was taken for said site. The ballot was taken in the presence of three voters, a majority of said vote, upon motion, was made and seconded by the committee and was accepted by the unanimous choice of the committee for the location of the West Texas A. & M. College. It is the desire of every one of us to state that said selection was in all things honest and square and it is beyond all probability that there has been an error; consequently we do not think it prudent to reopen the question, leaving as it now stands, locating the West Texas A. & M. on the site offered by Abilene."

The statement was signed by all members of the committee. "I am glad to hear that the long distance telephone from Houston today authorizes the following statement to be made in connection with the statement issued today concerning the A. & M. selection: 'I agree fully with the above statement on condition that it be made in connection with the statement that they did not vote for Abilene and excepting that portion of the statement relating to the imposition of the fines.'"

When questioned today, Speaker Fuller said: "The statement is satisfactory to me and I have no additional statement to make." He did not care to go into any further details relative to final settlement of the question.

SENATE VOTES TO STOP MANUFACTURE WHISKEY ALSO TO SEIZE STOCKS

BEER AND WINES NOT INTERFERED WITH BY MEASURE

By Associated Press. Washington, July 7.—The Senate went on record today in favor of National bone-dry prohibition during the war, so far as whiskey and other distilled beverages are concerned.

Liquor legislation was written into the food bill in one of the Senate's bitterest contests, which would strike at consumption of distilled intoxicants by commandeering stocks in bond, in addition to absolutely prohibiting their manufacture or importation. The beer and wine industries would be left undisturbed.

In lieu of the section of the House bill to prohibit the manufacture of food stuffs into beverages of any description, the Senate substituted, by a vote of 45 to 37, a provision prohibiting manufacture and importation of distilled beverages during the war and added, 65 to 12, a further clause directing the President to take over all distilled spirits in government bonded warehouses and pay for it on the basis of cost, plus ten percent.

Big Loss of Revenue. The Senate provision would limit consumption to stocks in retailers' hands or withdrawn before the law goes into effect. Stocks of distilled beverages in bond were estimated tonight at between 200,000,000 and 300,000,000 gallons, and the annual normal consumption at 120,000,000. To purchase this enormous quantity of liquor, or what is left of it after withdrawals in anticipation of the legislation, it is estimated that the government would have to spend from $300,000,000 to $1,000,000,000. The probable loss in federal revenues is placed at from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000, although this, as well as the cost of purchase, would depend entirely on how much liquor was withdrawn. The revised $1,670,000,000 war tax bill was withdrawn immediately following the final vote upon the liquor question, in order to seek new sources of revenue in case taxation on distilled liquors is eliminated.

Another Year for Drinkers. The Senate's vote to have the government virtually buy for industrial purposes, and thus withdraw from consumption or revenue purposes the great stocks of distilled liquors held in bond, followed rejection of a proposal to deal with beers and wines, a proposal to authorize the President to suspend manufacture of those "light" intoxicants being defeated.

Immediate and probable enormous withdrawal of distilled liquors from bonded warehouses before the Senate's provision could become effective was general predicted tonight. It was estimated that manufacturers and dealers probably could raise funds enough to withdraw at least half of the existing supply, or enough to meet consumption demands for a year or more.

GERMAN DECLARES WOOD SHIP PLAN AMERICAN BLUFF

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, July 7.—In the main committee of the Reichstag according to a Berlin dispatch, a Progressive speaker declared the food difficulties of England were clearly becoming daily greater because of the United States to increase its ship building industry in a short time, he said, and that the more American and wooden ships had produced, the more an American bluff. The lack of iron is being felt in Great Britain, continued the speaker, and would be increasingly felt the more American iron and steel construction of steel ships. The world's construction for the current year he assumed would be 2,000,000 tons and therefore he held that the continued United States war would necessarily reduce the total tonnage.

FOOD BILL PROVISION WOULD DISRUPT PLANS

By Associated Press. Washington, July 7.—President Wilson has thrown the weight of his personal influence against a provision attached to the food bill, which it is said, practically would disrupt the great machinery of the Council of National Defense. The provision in question would forbid any persons connected with the government from selling it anything in which he has an interest, inasmuch as the greatest business interests of the country are represented in advisory committees of the council the enactment of the provision, the president thinks, would disrupt at the machinery set up for an efficient conduct of the war.

TY COBB'S BASE RUNNING ALMOST AS PHENOMENAL AS HIS BATTING; AVERAGES IN OTHER LEAGUES

Chicago, July 7.—Ty Cobb is nearing the 400 mark. The Detroit star, piling up twenty-four points in his last ten games, is batting .3885, according to unofficial averages released today. He has driven out 100 hits for a total of 153 bases. Three home runs, twelve triples and twenty doubles stand out in his remarkable batting performance.

In addition, the Georgian is showing daring speed on the bases. Overcoming a big lead, Cobb tied Weaver of Chicago for the honors in runs scored having crossed the plate 47 times. He also has stolen 20 bases.

George Sisler of St. Louis, driving out thirteen hits in his last ten games, is tied with McInnis of Philadelphia to third place with an average of .320. Speaker is trailing thirty-three points behind Cobb.

Chapman and Roth of Cleveland continue to show the way in sacrifice hitting and base stealing with 36 and 28 respectively. Roth has stolen home four times this season. Pipp of New York is in possession of home run honors with six. Detroit retained its lead in team batting with .251. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Although "Ham" Hyatt slipped a little in batting during the past week, he continued to head the Southern Association batters with an average of .346. Several of the other leaders also suffered a slump and Munch, Atlanta, jumped from sixth to third place. The averages include games of last Tuesday.

Hyatt added another run to his credit and continued to top the run getters with 56. Bratchl, Memphis has taken the honors away from Covington, Little Rock, in home run hitting.

Knapp, New Orleans, continued to lead the sacrifice hitters and base stealers, with 37 and 20 respectively, Atlanta with 271 leads the league in club batting.

ENLISTED MEN IN U. S. NAVY HIGHEST PAID FIGHTERS

Great Lakes, Ill.—The value of the enlisted man in the United States Navy is going up. Since the United States entered the world war, the newest recruit has the satisfactory feeling of being the highest paid fighting man of any nation in the world.

For those more experienced promotion is so rapid that, as one man at the United States Naval Training Station here expressed it, he never knows in the morning who will have to salute him as a superior before eight bells announce the close of the day's work.

Removal of "dead wood" in high commands and the advancement of "young blood" to obtain vigorous action has been a feature of every war. Much noise has been made when an admiral was scrapped, but little attention paid to the rank and file, and yet promotions of enlisted men have been frequent and more rapid than the progress in grade of commissioned officers.

Take the case of a chief yeoman at the station here, ranking as chief petty officer with salary and allowance of something more than $100 a month. Less than a year ago he was sworn into the first line of defense. In eleven months, he has won promotion that before the declaration of war could not have been gained in less time than two enlistments of four years each.

There is another man who won a commission as ensign in less than a year, but he previously had served in the army and accordingly had the benefit of one enlistment. However, it is a topic for thought that having re-enlisted as a fireman, first class, he transferred to the yeoman, or clerical, department with a second class rating, and soon thereafter won his gold stripes.

Another man, having been in the hotel business, wanted to do his bit in the war and signed a contract with Uncle Sam as an enlisted man in the navy. He demonstrated his ability in the commissary line and in a matter of weeks became chief commissary steward. The example might be multiplied almost indefinitely.

The newest recruit of the American navy now is paid $32 a month. As he learns a trade and wins promotion, expressed in naval parlance as "getting a rating," his pay increases. Each new enlistment carries an increase in pay. Each demonstration of greater efficiency, for instance qualifying as an expert marksman, is rewarded by a boost in his envelope. Foreign service, however, is paid $40 a month.

Expressed in dollars and cents, however, naval salaries are very misleading. To the man making $75 a month the pay of a recruit seems like starvation, until he learns that the bluejackets' $32 is virtually a clear money. Board and lodging are furnished and the bill collector and renting agent hold for him no terror.

Clothes for a year are furnished him on enlistment. Others may be purchased at rock-bottom prices. A doctor always is at hand to give free professional service. Under these conditions the financial standing of the sailor improves much faster than that of the civilian harassed by $2.50 wheat and the necessity of making one pair of shoes to where two formerly could be purchased for the same money.

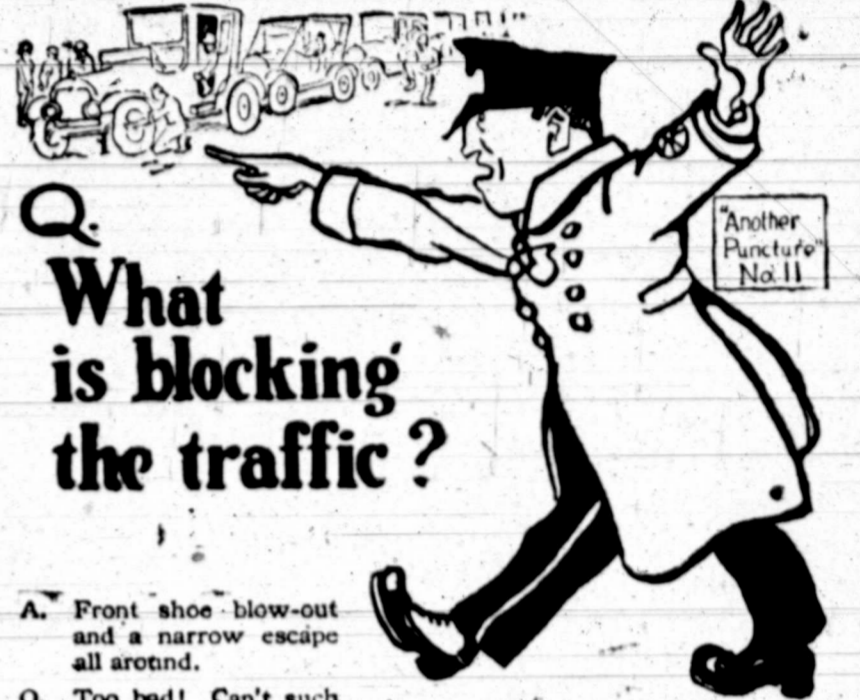

Evidence of prosperity are to be seen in many ways among the young Americans here. The postoffice does fat business in monthly money orders, going "back home." Savings allowed to accumulate in the paymaster's office jump every month. Like the deposits of a bank in an oil boom town in Oklahoma, and one of the most remarkable instances of Liberty Loan purchases occurred right here, where the $1000 prospect of fighting men helped out their country to the extent of $700,000.

Officers and men say the growing wealth of the enlisted men and the greater opportunity for advancement is due to the war. As the naval establishment is being enlarged, there is more and more call for men who keep their eyes open and their heads up. Many a lad will return to civil life when peace is declared richer by many dollars as well as invaluable experience.

any car equipped with two extra long tool chests, one on each running board. The arrangements are so complete, compact and secret, that there is nothing to distinguish it from an ordinary car.

Dr. Thornburgh says that the actual cost of the equipment was approximately fifty dollars. But that puts his labor and ingenuity in for nothing. To have had the car made to order would have cost several hundred dollars. The only regret of Dr. Thornburgh is that he had no time to fit out the car with a shower bath. The magic carpet of the Arabian Nights had nothing on the doctor. For the activities of the carpet were confined to transporting his owner from place to place. But Dr. Thornburgh has a special leading room, kitchen and sleeping berth all within the confines of one small automobile, and the different apartments are inter-changeable by the simple process of pressing a button, or some such device.

Dr. Thornburgh will leave today on a tour of Colorado, Yellowstone Park, and possibly the Great Lakes, and will be away two months at least, and perhaps three. During his absence, Dr. M. E. Ross of Ithaca will be in charge of his practice. Dr. Ross recently enlisted in the army medical corps, and will take up his military duties as soon as Dr. Thornburgh returns.

What is blocking the traffic?

- A. Front shoe blow-out and a narrow escape all around.
- Q. Too bad! Can't such things be eliminated, with ordinary traffic conditions becoming more congested?
- A. Too bad, nothing—they can be eliminated. Lee Puncture Proof Tires—the tires with the steel discs embedded back of the tread effectively take care of the puncture thrusts to which ordinary tires succumb.
- Q. What is this Lee outfit, anyway?
- A. Made rubber goods for a couple of decades—know how to make them properly—make a real pneumatic puncture proof tire as well as a wonderful line of standard tires and inner tubes. For complete information see

DR. THORNBURGH BUILDS VACATION TOURING CAR

With Family Plans Tour of That Will Continue Nearly Two Months

Dr. F. E. Thornburgh has built a vacation touring car in which he will start for Colorado tomorrow with his family. Dr. Thornburgh bought a Maxwell car, and dismantled the body of it, replacing it with one of his own design and construction, built to suit the needs of the most fastidious tourist. There is nothing that could be needed on the vacation that the car cannot carry. On the right running board is the ice box, and provision chest, to which is attached a mysterious arrangement, which, upon requirement becomes a dining table. On the left running board are the tool chest, batteries, and chest for cooking utensils, all in one compact box. At the rear of the car, behind the seat, is a trunk for clothes, a mattress, a tent, tent poles, and gasoline tank; the whole covered by a neat black canvas. The seat is so arranged that it can be let down level with the floor of the car, and the mattress is then spread for the night. The car presents the appearance of an ordin-

DUBLIN GREETED WITH ENTHUSIASM
SINN FEINERS RELEASED BY ENGLAND

RELEASED SINN FEINERS ON WAY THROUGH DUBLIN

When the Irishmen convicted of having taken part in the Easter rising of 1916 were released and returned to Dublin, the Irish capital went wild with joy. The returned Sinn Feiners were met with an enthusiastic reception as they passed through the city. In the picture may be seen two of them seated on a carriage seat with the driver. Andrew Bonar Law said in the house of commons that the government felt that the release of these men would aid in the success of the approaching Irish convention, which the government hoped would effect a conciliation among Irish political parties. In making the announcement Mr. Bonar Law said: "The government has given long and anxious consideration to the position of Irish political prisoners, and has arrived at the decision it is now my duty to announce. "The government has felt, after giving careful consideration to the approaching session of the convention in which Irishmen themselves will meet to settle the difficult problem of the future administration of their country.

that this great experiment will mark a new era in the relations between Ireland, the United Kingdom and the empire. It is, therefore, desirable beyond measure that the convention should meet in an atmosphere of harmony, and good will in which all parties can unreservedly join. Nothing could be more regrettable than that the work of the convention should be prejudiced at the outset by unprovoked associations which might even hinder the settlement to which all look forward with hope."

Prohibition advocates were more elated, however, because they had won their fight to stop, or at least greatly diminish, consumption as well as manufacture of distilled beverages. The wets were successful, however in confining the Senate's action to distilled beverages without interfering with beer and wines.

Another day of impassioned speeches under a five minute limit "inside" congressional maneuvering and parliamentary tangles preceded the Senate's action in the liquor contest. The result was hailed as a partial victory by both wets and drys.

LAST 500,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT MAY WIN WAR

(By Herbert Hoover.)

The weapons in this war are fighting men, ammunition, food, ships and finance. If we are to defend liberty in this year 1917, all these must be upon such a scale as will demand the energies of our whole people. In previous wars a small proportion of the community went to fight, another small portion was devoted to their support, but the great bulk of the nation did "business as usual."

Autocracy, has been for years organizing its resources to the end that they have placed one out of seven of its population on the fighting line and have so mobilized the civil population as to afford them complete support. They have suppressed production of every luxury and reduced even every necessity. Their arrogant confidence that they will become "masters of the world" is based upon their belief that the materialism, the selfishness and the jealousy of individual interest in democracy, makes it impossible for it to organize such a strength. They do not deny the bravery of the men of democracy in battle, but they comfort themselves in the belief that we have not the self-sacrifice at home for their support.

Our problem is not alone to mobilize our civilian population for the support of our fighting men, but we also have the responsibility of the support of the fighting men of our allies. Food is not the least of their necessities. One of the great European statesmen has said: "The war will not be won by the last 500,000 fighting men, but will be won by the last 500,000 bushels of wheat." It is within our ability to give this last 500,000 bushels, but only if we organize to produce, organize to save, and organize to supply all.

We must feed our allies, but their people may remain constant in the war. Liberty can not be maintained upon the empty stomachs of the women and children. Through the drain of war our allies have steadily decreased in food production and other agencies also curtailed their supplies. Out of our abundance, by eliminating waste and extravagance, it is in our power, and in our power alone, to hold the wolf from the door of the world. Our obligation is greater than war—itself—humanity demands it of us.

We must save in all food. We must eat plenty, but wisely and without waste. If we save in our consumption and our waste we can increase our surplus to export, if we substitute other commodities for those we can export, we can further increase this surplus.

Furthermore by our economies we can save a major portion of the cost of the war. We can increase our ability to subscribe to liberty loans. If we save food we can lower the price of living to our people and relieve the strain and distress under which they labor today. We can only do this by organization so that there shall be no

WICHITA WOMEN TO SUBSCRIBE TO HOOVER PLEDGE

MRS. J. T. TRAYLOR APPOINTED TO SUPERINTEND REGISTRATION HERE TUESDAY

Mrs. J. T. Traylor, the secretary of the Civic League, has been appointed by the state board, the Wichita Falls chairman to superintend the registration of the housewives of the city on Tuesday, "Hoover Pledge Day," so designated all over Texas. Mrs. Traylor received her telegram of appointment late Saturday afternoon and will wait until Monday before announcing her committee chairman to assist in the registration.

In signing this card housewives pledge themselves to assist by management of their individual food supplies in the food conservation for the nation which Mr. Hoover is preparing to put in force as soon as the bill is made law. He is organizing his forces, producers, middlemen and consumers, beforehand so that there will be no delay in getting the vast machinery in action once Congress has passed the food bill now before it.

Wichita Falls women are asked to study the questions asked on this card, a facsimile of which is presented here, and be ready when those who will assist Mrs. Traylor in obtaining the pledges visit them on Tuesday.

One hundred thousand of the cards have been printed for distribution in Texas. No provision had been made for refraying the costs of printing and distributing these cards. This came to the attention of Frank Kell of the city who has assumed the entire burden of the cost himself.

profiteering from our economy, that all shall bear the burden equally.

The food administration is a volunteer organization to be endowed with powers by the government. This volunteer organization is not to be limited to a few executives in Washington. We are solicitous, nay, anxious, to secure as actual members of this volunteer effort, every man and every woman, every boy and girl in these United States who will undertake the task with us. There is no dictatorship in volunteer effort. It is an answer to autocracy with democracy. It is an answer to efficiency and greater in spirit.

HEROISM IS NOT LIMITED TO THE YOUTHS IN FRANCE

FRENCH VETERANS DISPROVE ASSERTION OF "TOO OLD AT 40" BY THEIR VALOR

French Front, July 6.—When heroism is concerned there is no question of being "too old at forty" in the French army. This has been demonstrated time and again among the veteran regiments of the territorial army of France—the second reserve, the youngest of whose men when they were called to the colors in August 1914 had attained the age of 34, while the remainder ranged between that age and 41. Many of them, especially among the younger classes, have since been transferred at their own request into the ranks of the active army, thus making the average age of these regiments much higher, while three years has been added to the age of all the men since they first put on their uniforms at their country's call to arms.

These territorial regiments, like like their older comrades of the territorial army reserve—the third line—were not at the beginning of hostilities expected to go into the firing line with the younger soldiers of the active army and its first reserve. Since that time many things have changed and they have fought shoulder to shoulder with their more youthful comrades and have proved themselves still to possess sterling value as warriors.

The record of one of these regiments, entirely composed of men from Brittany, will serve to demonstrate how great is the part these soldiers of mature age have taken in the task of repelling the invader, in spite of the nation's opposition to the French forces on August 2, 1914. When the troops of the active army left to meet the invading Germans crossing neutral Belgium, this Breton territorial regiment was sent to the heights of Rennes and Saint-Malo to organize, garrison and possibly defend one of the sections of the entrenched camp encircling Paris. Four months later spent there digging trenches, fixing barbed wire entanglements, erecting gun emplacements and doing all the arduous labor connected with the establishment of strong military works.

When the Germans had been driven back in the battle of the Marne, they were placed in charge of a front line sector of the northern front. Here they stayed for 28 months, constantly harassed by the enemy while they dug a great system of trenches both of defense and offense, built blockhouses and concrete machine-gun positions, excavated rifle and grenade pits and generally organized the position.

The greatest test of the soldierly qualities of these tough old warriors came when they were transferred to Auberville in March this year. They were attached to the famous fighting Foreign Legion and their duty was to do the pick and spade work and keep the legionaries supplied with ammunition and food during the French offensive which began on April 17, and at the same time to hold a line of trenches. When the Legion went forward on its victorious attack the Breton territorialists were ordered to follow them up and extend the communication trenches and tracks across the conquered territory. They were not content with simply doing this very perilous work always under fire. They also took part of the side of the legionaries in the capture of Auberville, and a section of territorial grenadiers played a glorious role in the reduction of the small field fort of Vaudeincourt.

Meeting a couple of these Bretons came back with a batch of German prisoners, a French staff officer inquired of them where they had taken the captives and where they were going and received only a broad smile in reply. He was astonished at the apparent lack of discipline and was about to remonstrate when a German prisoner stepped forward and said: "Excuse me, sir, but these men do not speak French. They are Bretons." He gave the officer the information asked for and the convoy marched on. This is not at all surprising, for although all Frenchmen learn French in school, the Bretons soon lose the habit of speaking it, as they at all times speak their Celtic tongue among themselves. This is a close approach to Welsh and has no relation whatever to French.

Their gallant deeds at Auberville brought the old territorialists mentioned in dispatches along with the Foreign Legion, while many of the officers and men were decorated on the field of battle, including one of the majors, who, although 42 years old, has kept command of his battalion ever since war was declared and has undergone with his men all the fatigues and hardships inseparable from fighting in the front line.

A word must also be said for the officers and men of the territorial army reserve. These men when called up in 1914 ranged in age from 41 to 45, and they have been engaged ever since in the trying work of organizing the roadways behind the immediate line of battle and even sometimes of constructing communication trenches and tracks under heavy fire as their younger comrades advanced. The Associated Press correspondent has seen them at work at all parts of the line, and can vouch for the fact that they never flinch from any task set them. They ply their picks and spades under heavy shrapnel fire as though they were working in their fields and orchards at home without a murmur and without hope of gaining distinction or decoration. Their one thought is that they are helping their comrades to free France of the barbarous invader.

BAND CONCERT AIDS RED CROSS TO GET MEMBERS

The band concert in front of the Baum & Gardner store last night for the benefit of the Red Cross society proved to be a most pleasing event for the large number of people who attended. Eighth street, from Ohio to Indiana, was roped off to keep cars and teams out, permitting the use of the entire street for the concert, and for more than an hour it was thronged with people listening to the music. The Taylor band tonight a program of patriotic and popular airs. Committee members of the Red Cross society were busy soliciting members for the society and a good number were enrolled. The concert was made through the courtesy of Baum & Gardner and the Taylor band, who wished to do their part in helping the Red Cross work.

GREAT CROWDS ATTEND OPENING OF NEW STORE

Woodworth's new store was opened Friday with an informal reception in the afternoon and evening, which attracted people from every section of the city and country. There was no special effort made in entertainment, other than music by an orchestra, and the pleasure guests had in inspecting this newest store, but nevertheless the event was most thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. Saturday the firm opened for business, and the attraction of low prices and bright new goods drew a host of buyers all through the day. Especially at night the store was crowded to capacity, and the firm enjoyed an initiatory sale that was far ahead of their most sanguine expectations.

ANOTHER INSANE ASYLUM TO BE BUILT IN TEXAS

Austin, Texas, July 6.—Another insane asylum is to be built in Texas, according to an act passed by the recent session of the legislature. An appropriation of $400,000 was made for that purpose.

The new institution is to be known as the Northwest Texas Insane Asylum and it is to be established at some point north of the Texas & Pacific railway between El Paso and Fort Worth, and west of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe between Fort Worth and Gainesville, and at a place where at least 500 acres of land is available.

The governor, lieutenant governor, and attorney general constitute the board which is to select the site for the new institution. The present asylums are now overcrowded.

COLONNA TOGGERY SHOP

Clearance Sale Is On With Great Bargains for Everyone

DRAFT DELAYED AND WILL NOT BE STARTED MONDAY

By Associated Press. Washington, July 7.—Prospects for setting in motion the draft machinery for the national army by Monday as planned by Provost Marshal General Crowder were regarded today as remote, since organization is complete in only eight states.

Delinquent states probably will make it necessary to defer the first drawing time to the middle of the coming week.

The method to be followed in making selections has not yet been disclosed by war department officials. The general outline of the plan, however, is indicated by the emphasis laid on the serial numbering of the cards, coupled with Secretary Baker's announcement that all drawings will be held in Washington. It is understood that when a single number is taken from the jury wheel the man in each district whose card bears that number will be selected. As each card is drawn approximately 30,000 men will be conscripted.

TO ASSIGN OFFICERS TO TROOPS FROM OWN STATE

Washington, July 7.—Men chosen the officers training camp for commissions in the new national army, the adjutant general's office announced today, will be assigned to command troops from their own states under the leadership of regular army officers.

A vigorous campaign is being made for young blood to fill the ranks of the new series of training camps to open August 27. The department has put out a definite call for more men between the ages of 25 and 31, or even younger.

DANGER TO FOREIGNERS IN PEKING NOT FEARED

By Associated Press. London, July 7.—A dispatch from the Times says that danger to foreigners in the capital is not feared. Advice to the Post from Tien Tsin says that the Imperialist foreign minister Huan Yun Yen has notified the foreign legation that he can not guarantee the order of the day if trouble occurs the commander in chief of the punitive expedition will be responsible.

CROWDED WATCHED AIRPLANE UNTIL ONE FLAPPED WINGS

An admiring crowd gathered at the Times building corner Saturday morning to watch the maneuvers of two airplanes flying over lake Wichita—these were army airplanes flying up to inspect the site for the new camp. The crowd grew and its admiration increased until one of the airplanes flapped its wings, when everybody suddenly found business elsewhere.

Thursday: Mrs. Parker, eight hours; Mrs. Gray four hours; Mrs. Maxwell four hours; Mesdames McElroy, Stringer, E. M. Harris, M. J. Gardner, Max Gardner and Avis, three hours each; Miss Mankins two and one half hours.

Friday: Mrs. Parker, eight hours; Mrs. Stringer, seven hours; Mesdames Anderson, Gray and Jackson four hours each; Mesdames Thieson, Skeen and Couper, three hours each; Mrs. Pound two hours.

ODD FELLOWS WILL PLAN AID FOR DEPENDENTS

This Provision Will Be One of Important Problems at Annual Convention

Louisville, Ky., July 7.—Provision for the care of members of the order who may be injured at the front after the American army lands in France and the care and maintenance of their dependents at home will engage the attention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its annual convention in Louisville next September, according to a statement of Grand Sire Frank C. Goudy, of Denver issued through the local committee on arrangements.

The head of the order dwells upon the importance of the meeting to Odd Fellows, points out that transportation companies can handle the expected 5,000 delegates and, apparently to correct any misunderstanding, makes the definite statement the convention will be held.

"Never in the history of the order" the statement recites, "was there so much depending upon the assembling of American and Canadian Odd Fellowship in annual convention. In addition to transacting the ordinary business that will come before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, there will be a large volume of work to be done by our order acting in cooperation with the Red Cross and like associations in furnishing relief to all who may be subjected to the horrors of this war. The fact that Odd Fellows will soon go to the front in protection of home and of civil and religious liberty, makes it our highest duty to provide for them when injured in battle, failing in health or otherwise requiring the fraternal and helpful care of our fraternity. The protection of our widows and orphans at this time is more essential than ever, so the duties devolving upon us relatively are greater."

NEGRO ATTACK FEARED BY WHITES AT HARTFORD, ILL.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, July 7.—Col. Donnelly commanding the first regiment Missouri National Guard early this morning received a call to send troops from Alton, Ill., to Hartford, Ill., to protect the whites there against a threatened negro attack.

"OPEN SHOP" WILL BE OBSERVED BY GOVERNMENT

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, July 7.—Reported activities of alleged union labor agents in connection with the building of the new army cantonments at Camp Wilson near here was given official recognition today in a statement from southern department army headquarters that the "government of the United States has never been known to authorize the employment solely of union men on any army job."

A report that union labor agents have been active in seeking employment of union men first to the exclusion of non-union members brought the further statement that "when attempts of this character have been made in other instances the government has found an efficient remedy for the situation."

It is understood that employment of Mexican labor on government work is the cause of the reported dissatisfaction.

PATRIOTIC CANNING CLUB PICNIC MONDAY

The ladies of the Patriotic Canning club entertained their husbands and friends Monday afternoon with a picnic. A very beautiful place was selected on Holiday creek, where the crowd gathered with well filled baskets, and at 5:30 spread a delightful repast in picnic fashion. Those enjoying the picnic were: Mesdames Abbie Randall, Boswell, Stout, Cross, Miss Willie Mae Randall, Willie Mae Lane, Morning, Abbie, Pearl and Charlie Jewel Handay, Mr. Stout, Sr., B. A. Boswell, C. A. Randall, and Sam Stout.

BODY OF LITTLE OLIVE BRADSHAW NOT LOCATED

Saint Joseph, Mo., July 7.—A day search of the hills in the outskirts of the city for the body of little Olive Bradshaw, who is believed to have been murdered, was without result today.

Meanwhile Etta May Hicks, the child's caretaker, and Mrs. Aldin Kenniston, who are alleged to have confessed they killed the girl by beating and choking her because she was a cripple and troublesome, continued silent at to what was done with the body.

On behalf of Miss Hicks and Mrs. Kenniston it was announced they had repudiated their alleged admission, asserting the statements they made last night were due to terror and confusion resulting from questioning by the authorities.

EAST ST. LOUIS POLICE FORCE TO BE REORGANIZED

DEMAND FOR INVESTIGATION IN TO RIOT AND ITS CAUSE BECOMES PRONOUNCED

East St. Louis, July 7.—Plans for the reorganization of the East St. Louis police force which has been demanded by business men as the result of the race rioting last week began to take definite form today. Banks of the city, it was announced, will advance the funds for doubling of the police force. The bank will make a long term loan to the city.

The demand for a federal investigation of the riot and the causes that led up to it became pronounced here today. The suggestion was made that District Judge Landis of Chicago be called here to take charge of the federal grand jury should such an investigation be made. Judge Landis, while holding federal court in East St. Louis last winter, lectured Mayor Kollman and other city officials for not enforcing the Sunday closing law against saloons and pool halls that lecture the mayor ordered the saloons closed on Monday. It was mentioned today that neither rioting or the quelling of riots has removed the race antagonism that was brought out in the recent bloodshed.

Police Commissioner Schmidt suggested today that a step towards the would be taken if the larger area of negro labor build model towns outside the city limits to their negro employees. If the negroes were provided with homes outside the city limits it is said they no longer would be a factor in East St. Louis politics and the negroes would have sanitary living quarters.

IMPORTANT SPEECHES IN REICHSTAG MONDAY

By Associated Press. London, July 7.—The report that political developments of importance are being awaited in Berlin in connection with the session of the Reichstag now in progress is reiterated in a Berlin dispatch to Amsterdam as forwarded to the Exchange Telegraph. The dispatch says that Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg will deliver his speech to the Reichstag Monday and that addresses will be made on the same day by Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, Vice-Chancellor Helfferich and Vice-Admiral Von Capelle, minister of the navy. The vote of credit will then be taken.

SCENIC RAILWAY IN DELMAR GARDEN BURNS

By Associated Press. St. Louis, July 7.—The scenic railway at Delmar Garden, a large amusement park, just beyond the western limits of the city was destroyed by fire tonight. Ten persons were in a car at the top of the scenic railway when the structure caught fire. The power was cut off and the passengers walked down to safety. A theater on the ground was partly burned but the damage to the building was slight.

RAID POOL HALLS AND ARREST SLACKERS

By Associated Press. Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Police squads tonight made a raid of pool halls and congested corners of the city and all young men loitering without registration cards were taken to city holdover. At 11 o'clock 150 had been booked at police headquarters for more severe punishment. In some were released after their cases were investigated while others whose answers did not satisfy are held for federal authorities.

SCHAAFHAUSEN SENT OUT OF THE COUNTRY

By Associated Press. Washington, July 7.—The United States government today sent Heinrich Schaaflhausen, a former German embassy attaché in Washington out of the country. Refreshing food punch was served throughout the evening and ice cream and cake formed the refreshment place. Those enjoying this delightful affair were: Misses Willie Mae Johnson, Josephine Freeman, Georgia B. Leath, Janie McAllister, Marguerite Akkin, Virginia Scott, Mary Koonce, Madge and Geraldine Kincaannon, Virginia Walters, Ena Eytton, Berenice Goble and Irttie May Willard; Messrs. Gage McWhorter, Walter Coleman, Raymond Douglas, Sears Collier, Hearne Hines, M. L. Jones, Audrey Jo Eveston, Gene Wassoner and Eugene Clark.

TE-HA CAMPFIRE GIRLS HAVE SWIMMING PARTY

Campfire girls of camp Te-Ha enjoyed a swimming party at Lake Wichita Friday afternoon, chaperoned by Miss Muriel Hickman, the Gosselin and Mrs. T. R. Hickman who took them to the party at the lake. The girls left town about 4 o'clock and after the plunge in the "naturium" enjoyed a luncheon of sandwiches, pickles, fruit and cake, spread in "picnic fashion." The girls present included Misses Alice Downing, Alice Jenne, Helen Kennedy, Annie Edward, Harriet Louise Hines and Maurine Hickman.

MERRY MAIDS MEET WITH ELLA MERLE MATHIS

Friday afternoon the Merry Maids were entertained by Miss Ella Merle Mathis. The occasion was an entertainment of readings and music by the members. Then games on the lawn was the order followed until late in the afternoon when Mrs. Mathis, mother of the hostess, served a tempting refreshment course. The members present: Misses Hallie Adams, Lillian Purser, Dorothy Zebel, Leona Gracie and the hostess, Ella Merle Mathis.

ELLA HALL STAR AT PLAZA THEATER MONDAY

Once having seen Ella Hall in one of her favorite roles—little girls who grow up through adversity to budding beauties. The character of the play will never forget her artistic creations of the real atmosphere of childhood. Any screen-queen can interpret grown-up characters, but the actress who is an instance of stars able to depict a role true to nature and replete with art, that starts with childhood and runs into maturity. Ella Hall appears at the Plaza theatre on Monday when she will have, as heroine of this newest Bluebird, one of these roles—the best she has ever had. Her story, which is a Belgian child brought here by the charity inclined to be provided with a home. An old bachelor adopts the child, her through years, that she grows into a young woman, and then finds that he loves the blossoming beauty. Whether she shall tell her so or remain silent while a young man, nearly her own age, shall carry off the prize is the only "problem" the play presents. But it is a mighty big problem for the man, who must see, and the theatregoers of every class and kind will be interested in knowing what solution developed with the problem.

MISS ANDERSON'S VISITORS RETURN HOME

Miss Tot Lett of Austin, and Miss Edith Perry of Minnola, who have been the guests of Miss Lella Beall Anderson will return today to their homes, and will be accompanied by Miss Anderson and Miss Margaret Nolan, who will visit Miss Perry at Minnola. During the past few weeks the out of town girls have been honored by a series of informal affairs, generally limited to only a few couples but none the less enjoyable.

J. U. G. S. MEET WITH MISS LUCILE MARICLE

Thursday afternoon members of the J. U. G. S. Club met with Miss Lucile Maricle as hostess. The time was devoted as usual to sewing and the girls enjoyed a victrola concert. Refreshments of cherry ice cream and waters were served. Miss Sibyl Maricle of Grandfield, cousin of the hostess was the club guest, the members present being: Misses Estelle Revere, Ruth Barnard, Louise Hines, Gracie Davis, and Louise Maricle. Miss Louise Hines will be hostess this week.

WITH THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCHES

The Ladies Aid of the Central Presbyterian Church will meet on Monday, July 9, at 4 o'clock at the church for a joint business and separate division meeting. After the program a social half hour will be spent, to which every member is requested to be present.

BIRTHDAY PICNIC FOR MISS VIRGINIA MILLER

Friday being the twelfth birthday of Miss Virginia Miller the day was made one of especial pleasure for the members of the little neighborhood club, the "F. F. F." of which little Miss Miller is a member by a picnic at Lake Wichita. Mrs. R. L. Miller, mother of the hostess and Miss Minnie Young were the chaperones, the party consisting of the club members, Misses Virginia Miller, Maurine Smith, Mable Bundy, Judith Sherrod and Edna Kay, and little Misses Mildred and Emma Elizabeth Miller. The picnic spread was the principle feature of the evening spent at the lake.

FLORAL HEIGHTS AID GIVES ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Friday night the Ladies Aid of the Floral Heights Presbyterian Church entertained the neighborhood with another of their series of ice cream socials, the party being held on the church lawn. The social was a most enjoyable affair, and the society reports success in every way and a good sum to add to their treasury. There will be another ice cream social at this church in two or three weeks.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS HONOR MEMBERS WHO ENLIST

The roll of honor of the Christian Endeavor of the Floral Heights Presbyterian Church now has two names—Hudson Nicholson who has enlisted in the army, and Oliver Blanton in the navy, two of the society members. The society is at present making comfort bags for those two young men and will send them remembrances, and keep them informed of affairs in the hometown. In case there are others added to this roll of honor the boys and girls of the society will also remember them in the many little ways appreciated by soldiers and sailors.

Mrs. E. Ferris of San Antonio is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bashara this week. In a few days Mrs. Bashara and Mrs. Ferris plan to leave for Colorado for a stay of several weeks. Mr. Bashara will probably join Mrs. Bashara for a short stay within the next week or two.

Mrs. Morris Marcus and children, are visiting in Abilene. Mrs. Barry, mother of Mrs. Marcus and a sister now visiting in Abilene from California are expected to accompany them home in about a week.

Mr. Joe and Sam Bashara—have gone to Waco for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones and son left Saturday for Colorado, making the trip in their automobile.

GRAND CIRCUIT OPENS AT CLEVELAND JULY 16

Cleveland, O., July 7.—Judging from the speed shown by horses racing on the half mile track and the splendid form shown by those in training here, at Indianapolis, Detroit, Columbus and other big mile rings, the opening of the Grand Circuit on the North Randall oval, July 16 to 21, will be one of the foremost sporting events of the summer.

Backwardness of the season apparently has not affected the stables numerically, as in the matter of speed in fact, the horses appear to be in better condition than usual at this season.

North Randall did very well in its closing events and indications are that entries to the late purse, which closed on July 3, will be ample to make five afternoons of high grade sport. The program of this opening meeting follows:

Monday, July 16: 2:10 trot, purse $1,200; first division two-year-old trot, closed stake $2,000; 2:10 pace, closed stake $2,000; 2:06 pace, purse $1,200.

Tuesday, July 17: 2:15 trot, purse $1,000; first division three-year-old trot, closed stake $2,000; 2:04 pace, purse $1,200; 2:12 pace, purse $1,200.

Wednesday, July 18: 2:12 trot, purse $1,000; 2:08 trot, closed stake $3,000; second division two-year-old trot, closed stake $2,500; 2:14 pace, purse $1,000.

Thursday, July 19: Second division three-year-old trot, closed stake $2,500; 2:14 trot, closed stake $3,000; 2:05 or better, trot, closed stake $2,500; with added money; 2:17 pace, purse $1,000.

Film Features of Week

The week's feature in a motion picture way is "Mothers of France" a timely patriotic film with that famous artist, Sarah Bernhardt, as star Tuesday at the Empress. This will probably be Madame Bernhardt's last picture, though it would not do to prophesy concerning that stage wonder for she accomplishes what would be impossible for any other. The picture is reviewed as one of the best in some time and Wichita Falls audiences will appreciate the grim appeal made in the picturing of the French women's part in the war.

The Majestic opens its week's program with a big feature, Robert Warwick in "The Argyle Case" Other notable attractions are Clara Kimball Young in "Tribly" and William Hart in "The Desert Man."

And yet again does the present war have its influence on the amusements. Monday the Plaza will show "The Little Orphan" a story of a Belgian orphan who finds a home and happiness in this country after the cruel war has robbed her of home, parents and all else in life.

The program for the entire week follows:

MONDAY: "The Little Orphan" at the Plaza, Ella Hall starred, Robert Warwick in "The Argyle Case" at the Majestic. Wallace Reid and Myrtle Steadman in "The World Apart" at the Empress.

TUESDAY: "Mothers of France" with Sarah Bernhardt at the Empress. Clara Kimball Young in "Tribly" at the Majestic.

WEDNESDAY: H. B. Warner in "Wrath" at the Majestic, one of the "Seven Deadly Sins" "Giving Becky a Chance," with Vivian Martin at the Empress.

THURSDAY: Miram Cooper in "The Silent Lie" at the Empress, William Hart in "The Desert Man" at the Majestic.

FRIDAY: Petrova in "The Soul of a Magdalen" at the Empress, Mollie King in "Blind Man's Luck" at the Majestic.

SATURDAY: Majorie Rameau in "The Greater Woman" at the Majestic, Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno in "The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop" at the Empress.

SARAH BERNHARDT AT THE EMPRESS TUESDAY

A notice says: The mere announcement that Sarah Bernhardt is in the moving picture, "Mothers of France" Tuesday is sufficient to arouse intense interest as this is probably the last picture in which the divine Sarah will appear and as it shows French trenches, French battlefields and French cities in war time. When exhibited in France and England this picture took those countries by storm. It was the biggest motion picture success ever presented in those countries and it seems certain that this tremendous success will be repeated on this side of the Atlantic. Certainly, no picture ever produced has such a combination of interest and entertainment. In the first place the star alone would lift any picture into the extraordinary class. To this is added the timeliness of the production, the magnificence upon which it has been staged, the intense interest of the plot and the wonderful war pictures filmed under the auspices of the French government in French trenches and on French battlefields. None of the scenes are memorable. For instance, one scene shows Madame Bernhardt in front of the statue of Joan d'Arc before the cathedral at Rheims, which she wrought in the Cathedral by German shells is plainly evident in this scene. You will never see the like of this attraction in the art of the motion picture, so wonderfully interesting and entertaining, so splendidly photographed and so tremendously acted by Sarah Bernhardt, that it is an unapproachable Majestic. Concerning this feature it. It is presented by the World Film Corporation.

ROBERT WARWICK AT THE MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY

Robert Warwick in "The Argyle Case," is on the Monday program at the Majestic. Concerning this feature a Motion Picture World critic says: "The Argyle Case" which was written by Burns supervised and pronounced good has been given a screen production by the Selznick company, with Robert Warwick in the lead, and Eric Kayton. The version is in seven reels, and Director Ralph Ince has speeded up the action and cut the story down to the essentials so cleverly that the seven reels seem no more than five. Wisely eliminating all the coming relief furnished by colored auditors in the spoken word, Eric Chapin, who made the scenario confined himself to the clearing up of the mysterious murder that forms the subject of the play. The combined efforts of the director and the scenarist have resulted in an intense, firmly woven melodrama that never in its plot nor the miraculous skill of its detective hero, "The Argyle Case," was first produced when the picture was just coming into use and its introduction into the drama was one of the features of the performance. It still remains an important and well calculated to hold the attention and to win sympathy for its heroine, who is accused of killing her foster father. There is also the added interest of speculating who it was that committed the crime. The secret is well kept and its unravelling is confined, except for a brief period to the forward march of events. Everything that could be achieved by mature judgment and a desire to make the production a notable one has been done for "The Argyle Case" is a particularly strong, Robert Warwick, who makes his bow in this picture as the featured player of a Selznick-Warwick Company, does the best work of his screen career. His acting is facile, full of mental vigor and without a touch of over coloring or unnecessary effort. Gladys Hammerstein is an attractive heroine, having the youth, good looks and requisite amount of brains to render her worthy any young fellow's devotion. Arthur Albertson, Frank McGlynn and H. Cooper Cliffe are high spots in a support of general excellence and Charles Hines should be mentioned for his debt performance of Joe Manning and Mary Alden for a moving impersonation of Nellie Marsh. Frank Evans, E. Fleming, Robert Vivian and Cazelle Marche complete the list.

EMPRESS TO STAR WALLACE REID MONDAY

Wallace Reid and Myrtle Steadman, the popular young artists who scored such a pronounced success in the lanky Paramount production of "The Prison Without Walls," will be seen at the Empress Monday in the Morosco-Paramount production "The World Apart," an unusual and exciting story of western life prepared especially for them by Julia Crawford Ivers from the story by George Middleton and produced by the general director, William H. Taylor of the Morosco Co. Wallace Reid, or Wally, as he is better known, by his thousands of admirers, is said to be the best example of young American manhood now on the screen. Tall, clean-cut, good-looking and powerful, he is equally popular with both sexes, and with Myrtle Steadman, the two make a combination of stars that would be hard to equal.

The majority of the scenes in "The World Apart" were laid in the west and were filmed in practically the exact locality about which Mr. Middleton wrote his story. The story is unusual as to plot, and so full of thrilling incidents that it is impossible to describe it in this brief space.

It is needless to say that both Mr. Reid and Miss Steadman are given an opportunity to be seen to their best advantage. Reid, who compels the attention of the scenario writers lie awake nights devising new methods of getting him killed, has two thrilling flutic encounters in this production, one of them being especially interesting as from a fight for the reels it developed into a real fight and it took the entire force at the Morosco studio to separate the warring factions. The whole incident is so realistic that it is impossible to tell where the picture light left off and the actual scrap started, but it is all shown on the screen except where the bystanders interposed. Others in the cast supporting the two stars are John Burton, Eugene Pallette, Florence Carpenter and Henry A. Burrows.

"WRATH" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATER WEDNESDAY

"Wrath" one of McClure's "Seven Deadly Sins" will be the Wednesday attraction at the Majestic. "Wrath" tells a timely story of Russian intrigue of Russian heroes and Russian villains — just the sort of a play in which H. B. Warner appears at his best, a tale of love and battle in "Wrath." Shirley Mason and George Le Quere—who appear in all of the Seven Deadly Sins—become entangled in mysterious plots. Miss Mason finds that she owns an ammunition factory that has been furnishing supplies to Russia. Not believing in war, she holds up the output which Russia needs immediately. Out of the efforts to make her release the ammunition, the wiles of the Grand Duke and the honesty of his wife, is developed an exciting drama, crowded with human interest, touches of comedy and thrills.

The supporting cast is excellent and the setting is splendid. The action takes Mr. Warner into a Turkish harbor, into Russia and New York and out upon a desert. "Wrath" is smart and quiet in its end, love conquers all. Mr. Warner never before has had a part better suited to his talents. It is as distinctive and as appealing as was "Jimmy Valentine" and it is as brilliant as "Wrath" itself for Mr. Warner plays a dual role—the raging Grand Duke and the honorable Fedor. Many times in the picture he talks to himself, through the medium of double photography. Double exposure tests an actor as does nothing else in motion pictures. Any man less than an artist is stilted in his double exposure acting, but Mr. Warner's work is of the same superlative quality in every scene. In the end, treacherous Fedor makes an enemy of the Russians and the play closes after a heart wrenching act jammed full of thrills.

EMPRESS THEATER

—TUESDAY— SARAH BERNHARDT

"Mothers of France"

This is an attraction that everyone should see. It's presentation is an historical event, for it presents the greatest actress of the world in the greatest photodrama of the world's greatest war. It shows Sarah Bernhardt's wonderful artistry at its best, for into this picture Madame Bernhardt put her heart and soul.

Read These Reproductions from the Great Dailies of New York: WOMEN OF UNITED STATES OUGHT TO SEE MOTHER FILM. "Zit" in N. Y. Evening Journal, March 13th. Probably no greater lesson has been shown since the war began than the heart-rending five reel feature film "Mothers of France." It will give to American mothers an opportunity to see what is happening to their sisters abroad. "Mothers of France" is a work of art. THUNDEROUS APPLAUSE (N. Y. Tribune, March 12th). The great, throbbing, bleeding heart of France was laid bare at the Rialto Theatre yesterday in Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's wonderful picture, "Mothers of France." Every man forgot that he was in the theatre... The applause became so thunderous that the music was drowned and people stood up and waved their programs... It is hard to tell just why this war picture had such a great appeal to the heart and to patriotism, but the fact remains that there was on the screen yesterday that which brought men to their feet and was bound to give the most careless observer pause. MOVES RIALTO AUDIENCES (N. Y. Times, March 12th). "Mothers of France" atones for most of the sins of the movies; to see it is recompense for having sat through a series of atrocious and banal war films purporting to point a moral. It is subtle and powerful and must move even the most calloused observer. ONE OF THE FINEST THINGS EVER DONE (N. Y. Herald, March 12th). "Mothers of France" with Mme. Sarah Bernhardt in the chief role, attracted throngs yesterday to the Rialto Theatre. In this picture art and good taste are combined and it fairly breathes patriotism. It is one of the finest things that has been done in films... Mme. Bernhardt gives a notable portrayal of the bereaved and patriotic mother. As many more like recommendations could be given if we thought necessary to convince you of the qualities of this picture 10c and 15c—PRICES—10c and 15c

MOTHER OF MRS. JOB BARNETT DIES AT LONG BEACH
 Mrs. Anna E. Smith, mother of Mrs. Job Barnett, formerly residing with the Barnett family here, died at Long Beach, California last Sunday. A Long Beach paper contains the following announcement of her death:
 Mrs. Anna E. Smith, aged 70 years, wife of William H. Smith and mother of Mrs. Job Barnett, of Tenth and American, died late Sunday night at her home, 318 Alamosa avenue. She was a native of Alabama. Besides Mrs. Barnett, she leaves also three other children. One daughter, Mrs. B. M. Musser, lives in Lake Charles, Ala., and two sons reside in Arizona.

 Funeral services will be held from the Holton P. S. chapel at 10 a. m. Tuesday, and interment will be in Sunnyside cemetery.

SLACKER ADMITS HE IS GUILTY
 By Associated Press
 Fort Worth, Texas, July 7.—W. L. Phillips of Mineral Wells, accused of failing to register for army service, admitted his guilt before United States commissioner Mitchell here yesterday. His bond was placed at $500 pending meeting of federal court.

GRAIN MEETING HERE FRIDAY IS IMPORTANT
 Dealers Will Receive Instructions Concerning New Grain Standards Act.
 The meeting of the grain dealers association to be held here on Friday next is one of a series to be held throughout the district and is of considerable importance to all grain dealers, great and small. The object of these meetings is to make all dealers acquainted with the new laws governing the standards of grades and weights, which have gone into effect as one of the results of the food administration under Mr. Hoover.
 H. B. Dorsey, the secretary of the Texas Grain Dealers association, approached Mr. Hoover through Senator Shepard, with a view to finding as possible of present methods and systems of business, except for the necessary correction of possible abuses, and that he hoped to see business flowing smoothly through the usual channels as far as possible.
 Mr. Dorsey then got into communication with Chas. J. Brand, who is in charge of the new law, under the Grain Standard Act and the supervision of the inspection of grain. Mr. Brand consented to have Mr. Munn assist in holding meetings in Waco, Fort Worth, Sherman, Wichita Falls, and Amarillo, for the purpose of explaining the new workings to all grain dealers. As the penalty for violation of the law is very severe, it is of the utmost importance that all grain dealers in all parts of the country should know exactly what the law is.
 Heretofore, there has been a great deal of trouble and muddle caused by more than one standard of weights and grades. So that a man shipping from one point under one standard might find that another standard was used at the other end of the line, and trouble would and did ensue. This is one of the things which the new law will remedy. Secretary Shepard has sent circular letters to all the grain dealers in the district, both members and non-members, urging them for their own benefit to become better acquainted with the law. There are, he says, many other advantages to be gained from attending the meetings, such as that the members will become better acquainted with business which is being stimulated and facilitated, and so forth.
 The schedule of the meetings is as follows: Waco, Monday 9th, Sherman, Tuesday 10th, Fort Worth, Wednesday 11th, Wichita Falls, Friday 13th, and Amarillo, Saturday 14th.

DR. EVERETT JONES APPOINTED MAJOR SURGEON IN T. N. G.
 RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS TO RAISE SANITARY DETACHMENT OF 37 MEN FOR SEVENTH REGIMENT
 Home Doctor Will Look After Health Of Home Men—New Enlisting Detachment
 Dr. Everett Jones of this city has been appointed major-surgeon for the Seventh Regiment of the Texas National Guard and has been instructed by Brigadier General Hulen to raise a sanitary detachment of 37 men and assume command of the same.
 Dr. Jones is now proceeding with the enlistment of the detachment which will include three captains or lieutenants and thirty three men non-commissioned men. Thirteen horses and one mule are also required.
 The major surgeon's pay is $2600 per annum with allowances amounting to more than $70 per month. The captains or lieutenants pay is $2,000 per annum. The pay of the non-commissioned men is the same as in the infantry.
 Dr. Jones returned Friday from Houston where he underwent the necessary examination. A telegram notifying him of his appointment as major-surgeon awaited him on his return here and this morning's mail brought him instructions to raise a complete sanitary detachment in Wichita Falls.
 The appointment received by Dr. Jones is the highest in the medical service at the disposal of General Hulen and is one that is a great satisfaction to Dr. Jones' many friends here. His assignment to the Seventh Regiment is one that is especially pleasing here personally, and the announcement of his appointment is highly pleasing to them.

Very wisely the lodge has provided to take care of all of its members who are called to don "Old Glory". The financial condition of the lodge is in splendid shape.

RICH, RED BLOOD MAKES A STRONG HEALTHY BODY
 Iron in Bland's Mass Form Makes Rich, Red Blood
 Pep Systemic Pills—the new iron compound—contain Bland's Mass which is considered the most assimilable form of iron salts and are reinforced by other valuable nerve, blood and liver tonic. People with sluggish systems will find these pills have no equal for giving them strength and energy and for building up a run down system.
 They start giving results after only a few doses and before you hardly realize it they make you feel like a new person.
 People who have tried other iron tonics but have had to discontinue on account of the iron upsetting their stomachs need have no fear whatever of Pep Systemic Pills serving them this way. Nor will these pills discolor the teeth as many other iron tonics do. Loss of appetite, constipation, impure blood, sleeplessness, dizziness, yellow complexion and other similar ailments are sure forerunners of more serious troubles and should be checked as soon as noticed. For any of these ailments Pep Systemic Pills are a wonderful tonic and for building up the system and giving you vim and vigor they allow you to enjoy the pleasures of living.
 Pep Systemic Pills have a great advantage over liquid tonics in that they are much more convenient to take, and especially when you are on an outing, when you take your meals up town or whenever you are traveling.
 Make up your mind to get a bottle today and get strong again.

JESS WILLARD NOW OWNER OF CIRCUS
 Chicago, July 7.—Jess Willard is not figuring on quitting the ring. Denying reports of his retirement, the heavy weight champion in a letter to a Chicago friend said that he would be ready to defend his title as soon as the circus season finished in October.
 The champion said he was entirely through with Jack Curley and Tom Jones, his former managers, who have threatened to sue him.
 "As long as I was working on a salary, Jones and Curley got their per centage on my earnings," Willard wrote. "But the war and bad weather hurt the show business and I received notice that my contract was to be cancelled. That would leave me out in the cold so I bought the circus."
 "An owner of the show—and not an employee, I couldn't see where Jones and Curley should be entitled to any part of the gross receipts. So I discharged them."
 Willard confided that he weighed in the neighborhood of 260 pounds, which is about thirty pounds above his usual fighting weight, and that with a little training will be able to defend his honors in a 10 round contest.
 "It isn't true that I have refused to box either Carl Morris or Fred Fulton," Willard's letter continued. "Why should I bar them if the public wants me to meet either of them. It is true that I do not like Morris, but that doesn't mean that he's barred."
 The big Kansan has amassed a fortune since he became champion. It is said that he has between $400,000 and $500,000 planted away in Chicago banks.

WICHITAN TELLS OF WHAT HE SAW AT AVIATION CAMP AT SAN ANTONIO

F. N. Lawton, who is one of the committee appointed to confer with Capt. Kirby on the matter of the proposed aviation camp here, has returned from San Antonio, where he visited the aviation camp. Mr. Lawton gives a most interesting and enthusiastic account of the work that is being carried on there, both at the aviation camp and the military camps.

At Camp Kelly, the aviation camp seven miles south of San Antonio, there are five thousand men in training, fifty machines and new ones coming daily, houses, cantonments, hospitals, machine shops, hangars, and supplies of all kinds. The camp covers an area of about a square mile, and every inch of it is crowded with activity.

The machines are of a large type, Curtiss and other standard makes, weighing three thousand pounds each, equipped with 250 horse-power engines capable of making over one hundred miles an hour, and having a duplicate control. By means of this duplicate control, the student is enabled to run the machine without danger, the pilot being at all times in position to operate his own set of levers, should anything unforeseen occur.

Lieutenant Duroc, who comes from France with the decorations of the Legion of Honor, and the Military Cross, and who is one of the most skillful of the French airmen, is one of the instructors at the camp. Every sort of impossible stunt is being taught the men, so that in the event of unexpected developments in battle, they may know how to handle themselves and their machines. Amongst other things, they are learning to fly upside-down. The reason for this is that the concussion caused by the explosion of an aerial bomb is sometimes so great as to overturn a machine completely, though the machine itself may not be hit. The machine is capable of operating equally well in all inverted positions provided the driver knows what to do. Looping the loop, a maneuver of great difficulty, but of great value in avoiding air pockets, is also being practised. Captain Kirby told Mr. Lawton that the day before his arrival, one of the boys had made eight complete loops in his descent.

One of the most interesting of the maneuvers, is the squadron formation, which is being used largely at the front at the present time. The machines fly sometimes only thirty feet apart. The most skillful steering is of course most necessary, in order to keep the machines from fouling one another.

It is planned to make, man, and equip twenty thousand air planes for the United States war department, and it is believed that this can be accomplished by next summer. Some of the boys at Camp Kelly—many of them in fact—take to the work like ducks to water, and are able to do ordinary flying (for there is now such a thing as ordinary flying) after only three or four lessons. Others, of course take longer, but it is estimated that from three to four months of intensive training is sufficient to teach a fairly good man enough about flying that he can go to the front.

The matter of air pockets is one that comes in for a great deal of discussion amongst the professional flyers, and is one that has not been quite satisfactorily explained. One of the supposed causes of the pockets is hot air. Flyers are instructed to avoid flying over factory chimneys, battle-ships, and anything which would be likely to cause heat to ascend into the air. When a plane passes into one of these pockets, the rarified air is too light to give sufficient support, with the result that the machine dips, rolls, and sometimes overturns. These and many other difficulties are under constant discussion by the experts, who are busy experimenting with remedies all the time.

While in San Antonio, Mr. Lawton visited the military tournament, held in the city on the 10th and 11th. While everything that was done was of the greatest interest in view of the present times, Mr. Lawton says that the most spectacular feat he saw was a cavalry machine gun maneuver. The maneuver opens with a cavalry charge of a single line which, starting from a given point, opens fan-wise as the charge goes forward, the men shooting their carbines as they ride. This front line forms a screen, the object of which is to hold the enemy while the machine guns are being brought up and set up behind the screen. The assembling of the machine guns, which are loaded on horses led by troopers, takes from a minute and a half to two minutes; and at a given signal, the screen-in-front-divides into two halves, one wheeling to the right and the other to the left, and coming round to the rear of the machine guns. The screen disappears with startling rapidity, and reveals the machine guns set up and ready to pour a hail of lead into the enemy.

Speaking of the coming camp here, Mr. Lawton said that nothing definite was as yet known, beyond the fact that Captain Kirby had sent in his recommendation, and that the high officials were considering it.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Next Week Paige Prices Advance

On next Sunday—July 15th—the list price of every car in the Paige line will be very substantially increased.

In order to maintain the well-known standards of Paige quality, such a step is unavoidable. The market quotations of all raw materials, accessories and labor have steadily advanced—some commodities to the extent of 300 per cent.

Owing to the scarcity of materials, our production between now and July 15th will necessarily be limited. We have apportioned this production to Paige dealers throughout the country, and they will accept orders until their individual allotments are exhausted.

MORE VALUE IN HORSES THAN IN MOTOR VEHICLES

INTERESTING FACTS SHOWN IN COMPILATION BY COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR

County Tax Assessor T. E. Ragsdale and his deputies are busy getting the tax rolls into shape. It is not yet definitely known how much the total of the assessments for the county will be but it is believed it will run to nearly $24,000,000, which would make Wichita county, size and population considered the wealthiest county in the state.

The assessments show some interesting facts. A compilation shows that there were 688 head of horses assessed for a total of $324,805. This is slightly more than the total of the assessed value of the automobiles, which is $321,405. A total of 1007 automobiles were assessed. Mr. Ragsdale feels that there were a number of automobiles which escaped assessment despite his best efforts to list all that were worth listing. He is still making efforts to get more automobiles onto the tax rolls.

Other items on the list include: Cattle, 17,228 head—$403,285; Hogs, 1985 head—$9,600; Merchandise—$1,300,600; Money and Notes—$484,340; Miscellaneous—$484,370; Corporations—$8,170,970.

The remainder of the valuation is made up of farm and city property and some items of personal property not included in the foregoing list. The Magnolia Petroleum Company continues the largest tax payer in the county with the Producers Oil Co., second. The assessments for these two companies totals more than $3,300,000.

BATTLE CREEK MAY TAKE SOUTH BEND'S FRANCHISE

Battle Creek, Mich., July 7.—Battle Creek has been offered the franchise of the South Bend club of the Central league. As the local fans want a league team, and as Battle Creek's population soon will be greatly increased, there is a possibility of the club being transferred. Battle Creek has been chosen for a cantonment site.

The Central league has had a successful season thus far despite the fact that most of the minor leagues have lost heavily. South Bend's attendance has been poor and it is believed that the transfer would be a splendid move.

AUTOMOBILE SALES OF THE WEEK BY LOCAL DEALERS

The auto business for the past two weeks shows a long drop from the records of the previous several weeks. One hundred and twenty-two cars were sold by Wichita dealers in the two weeks; this number includes a single wholesale deal of sixty-five cars made by the McMullen Co. to W. B. Jones, sub-dealer of Vernon. It will be clearly seen, therefore, that the auto business for the past two weeks has been much less than had been done in many a single week before this. The week ending June 24 showed the record of over ninety sales and up to that time sales had been running fifty, sixty, and seventy.

The McMullen Sales Co., made retail sales to Amos Metz, J. E. Johnson, city; E. Hoffman, Wilbarger; Owen Shaver, Seymour; Roy Quisenberry, Westover; G. A. Bench, Red Springs; W. G. Merry and E. M. Johnson, Munday; and J. A. Moody, Truscott. Besides these there was the wholesale deal of sixty-five cars to W. B. Jones, Vernon.

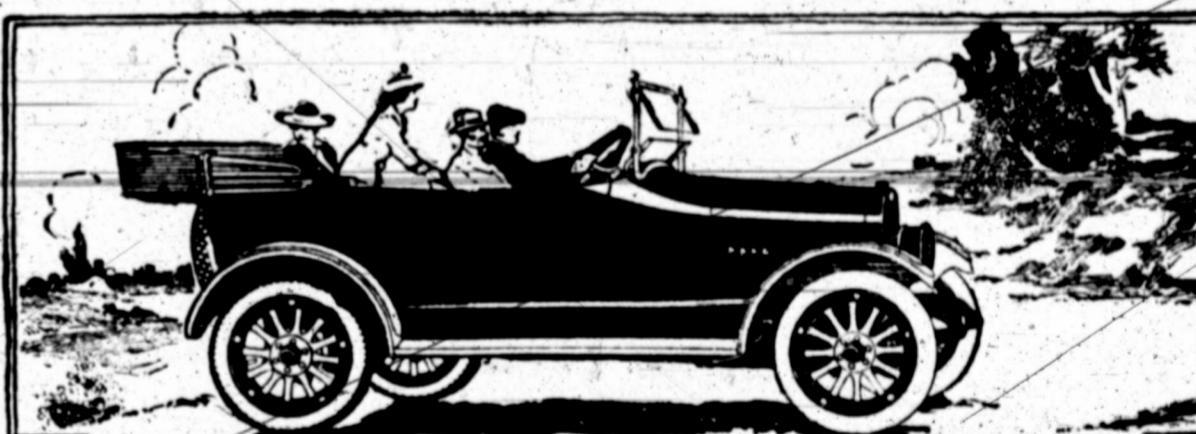

A. W. Phillips McMullen Auto Co. spent two days last week in Vernon. Three car-loads of cars were unloaded this week at the ware rooms.

The Buick Sales Co. reports sales to John Zillman and J. F. Conn of Henrietta; W. M. Piddy, city; C. O. Young, Ringgold; W. A. Edwards, Iowa Park; T. J. Pyle, Harold, E. F. Gracy, and R. M. Edwards (two) Burkburnett.

McFall Bros. and Orth sold cars to J. H. Norman, Byers, John F. Moore, O. E. Cecil, E. P. Greenwood, and Miss Pauline Gebhart, city; J. R. Pace, Iowa Park; R. F. Sparks, Jean; R. J. Bradley and Roy Dickie of Electric. Ed Ponds bought a Dodge Sedan.

The Brisco Sales Co. sold a car to Ben Schlegel at Olney.

The Motor Supply Co., sold Ford cars to C. Snider, and J. W. Switzer of Archer City; H. H. Haines, Electric, and J. H. Jackson, C. & Hart, G. E.

The Car That Is Appreciated For Itself

Some moderate priced cars owe their success almost entirely to that moderate price. It is different with the Dort.

Dort popularity and success are built solely upon thorough quality and unquestionable honesty. The Dort could be priced much higher and still be an exceptional value.

When you buy a Dort you become the owner of a truly handsome car, a dependable and efficient car, a complete car—in short a "quality car."

Obviously, knowing motorists appreciate this kind of a car.

NOTICES

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To all persons interested in the estate of Allen Jackson and Love Jackson minors deceased:

W. F. Weeks, guardian of the estate of said Allen and Love Jackson, minors, deceased, have filed in the county court of Wichita County his final account of the conditions of said estate, together with an application to be discharged as guardian thereof, which will be heard by our said court on the first Monday in August A. D. 1917, same being the 6th day of August

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, July 7.—The attorney general's department today held in an opinion to Comptroller Terrill that the act of the 25th legislature relating to the collection of inheritance taxes as unconstitutional and as void, for the reason, the opinion says, that this is an attempt on the part of the legislature to authorize the comptroller to employ some persons other than the officials designated by the constitution to sue for and collect taxes due the state; that the constitution makes the attorney general and the county and district attorneys the exclusive representatives of the state in the courts of the state while this law authorizes the appointment of private individuals to do that which the constitution says shall be done by designated officials

Dallas, Texas, July 7.—A telegram from Baltimore, Md., reported the death in a hospital there this morning of Mrs. Edwin J. Kiest, wife of the publisher of the Dallas Times-Herald. Mrs. Kiest was operated on about 4 weeks ago.

Mrs. Kiest was prominent in club and social work here and was well known in art circles throughout the south.

Houses of Interlocking Tile and Stucco

If you are going to build a house or garage, why not build it to be everlasting? Interlocking tile and stucco houses are given up to be the coming houses, on account of their durability and their beauty. No dust, less heat in summer, more warmth in winter, no painting, no repairs, and fireproof.

I have just completed three houses of these materials in Wichita Falls, and they are open to inspection.

See George H. Kerating, designer and builder of these artistic houses at 1900 Ohio Avenue. Office hours 7 to 8 p. m. Phone 2336.

An Easy Way To be independent of the high cost of living is to live on a small farm close to a growing city. A few cows, chickens, hogs and a garden will produce you a living, and at the same time you can carry on your business in the city. There was never a time in the history of the country when farming was so attractive as it is absolutely the safest and most profitable business you

ONE OF COUNTRY'S OLDEST MINSTRELS SPENDING FEW DAYS IN WICHITA FALLS

"Billy" Hart, one of the oldest minstrels alive, is in town on his way home to Shreveport, La. He has been in the show business in one form or another for sixty years. "I went into the show business broke," said Billy Hart yesterday, "and I have gone out of it broke."

Other places, written in many languages. He has costumes gathered from the four corners of the earth, and he says he prefers the Indian "surong" as a garment to anything else he can get. Simplicity is the keynote of the surong. It is merely a sack with the bottom cut off. There is so little complexity both in its construction and in the fashion of wearing it that it can be assumed from either entrance and there is no possible way of telling whether it is on upside-down, or back to front. Presumably there is no law against wearing something else as well as a surong, for it has no buttons, no strings, and no buttons. You simply get into it, give it a twist about the waist if you have a waist (Billy hasn't) and there you are. For the rest you must trust in Providence. Billy Hart is wearing regular clothes at present, however, he merely donned the surong to show that it could be done.

then to its present proportions. From this show, Hart was apprenticed to the Hanlon troupe, English Aerialists par excellence, and stayed with them for six years. He left the Hanlons to join Adam Fourrough, and in this company he became a pupil of the celebrated Blondin, probably the greatest tight-rope walker of all time. Hart was with Blondin at the time the latter made his sensational walk from the top of the old Crystal Palace, which stood on Sixth Avenue New York, between Fortieth and Forty-Second Streets (now known as Bryant's Park) to the top of the old New York Aqueduct facing Fifth Avenue, between the same streets, where the Carnegie Library now stands.

Pat Rooney, J. K. Emmett, and Luke Schoelcraft. After a number of years with this company, Hart got the "Go West young man" fever, and went to San Francisco to join Ben Cotton, and the late Joe Murray. Joe Murray (now known as Ned Buckley's old "Adelphia" on Bush street. Hart played principal "end" for two years, but he could not shake the "end" fever. He therefore joined Billy Emerson and Kate Castelman, who had planned a trip to Australia. The company broke up in Sidney, and Hart went to Emmaus, Pa. He achieved new laurels with the famous old Mohawk minstrels, owned by Moore and Burgess, and stayed for four seasons.

Sturdy, Economical GRANT SIX—$875

OF the 20,000 GRANT SIXES produced this season a surprisingly large number have been sold to people who have owned more expensive cars.

But they have asked themselves: "Why spend two or three hundred dollars more at the start and a great deal more for operating expense every month, and not get any more than the GRANT SIX gives you, if as much?"

GRANT SIX economy—20 miles to a gallon of gasoline, 900 miles to a gallon of oil and remarkable mileage from tires—is unrivaled.

Yet the GRANT SIX at $875 is higher powered than all but one or two cars at anywhere near its price. The overhead valve GRANT engine is the admiration of the industry.

Low as its price is in comparison with other cars, the GRANT Six lacks nothing of appearance, roominess, comfort or sound construction. Comparison will prove this.

At its present price, $875, the GRANT SIX is a real investment. There will be a buyer for every car that can be produced this season. Get your GRANT SIX now.

GRANT MOTOR CAR CORPORATION, CLEVELAND

Two years ago the war struck him. He says that a law was passed governing the British, French and Italian residents of British India to the effect that no money was to be spent for amusements. When the troupe reached Simla, in northern India, they were in the vernacular, "up against it." There was nothing to do but ship the troupe to the island of Penang, in the Bay of Bengal, where Hart saw his first real touch of the war, for his ship was boarded by the German raider "Henden" and he saw that same raider sink the Russian man of war "Rudevisky." Hart said it sounded like that anyhow. Funds were getting shorter and shorter, and the Penangers seemed a little interested in the show as the Britishers. They went thence to the South Africa coast, to Swaziland, Java, Batavia, Soerabaya. As a last resort they went to Balikpapan—which certainly sounds like a last resort. In this delight spot in Borneo, even the show went to a most resounding and everlasting smash, and Hart turned over the entire menagerie to the governor of Borneo in return for transportation. The American consul had begged them to return to Java, and from the fact that in the menagerie there were over forty cages of jungle bred animals, it may be inferred that the governor of Java is a sharp man in a bargain.

One year ago, poor old storm tossed, weather-beaten Billy Hart, banished in San Pedro, California, broke and almost forgotten. Was he down-hearted? No. He made a bee-line for the nearest movie factory, and was no time at all in getting a job. It may be observed in passing that not many men of sixty-eight would care to take pot luck any old spot they happen to find themselves, and not many men of a much less age could, after the disappointments Hart had suffered, go after a job with punch enough to land it. Hart landed his job all right, and worked in Cecil DeMille's production "Joan the Woman." Did he stay there? No, he did not. He moved. He had to. He could not stay still. He went to Santa Barbara, and worked through the Kull and Dill series, a set of German Comedian pictures.

Permanency

—in Road Building was a cardinal principle with the Romans—Caesar was at one time curator of the Appian Way and even today you can drive over their roads, some of which were built more than 300 years before the birth of Christ. The conquering of a nation was immediately followed by the building of great roads; and it is true that much of the glory that came to Rome in a military and commercial way was cemented by the country highways. Had ancient Rome the vehicles that modern America now possesses, the activities of these great road builders would have been something to marvel at.

CONCRETE roads are not affected by weather, traffic or foreign material tracked upon them. Alternate freezing and thawing has no effect on a CONCRETE road.

Heat does not soften the binder, permitting it to flow. Cold does not make it brittle, permitting it to chip.

The only low first cost road material known to withstand combined horse-drawn and motor traffic under all conditions of weather is CONCRETE.

Clay tracked on a bituminous macadam road disintegrates the binder. It has no effect on CONCRETE.

REX BEARD FIRES SIX SHOTS AT D. H. JOHNSON

Rex Beard was placed under $1,000 bond Saturday afternoon on a complaint charging assault to murder after he had fired six shots at D. H. Johnson, a former deputy constable, on Sixth street between Indiana and Scott avenues. The shots were fired from a .25 caliber Winchester. None of them took effect.

The shooting followed a fight between the two men on July 4th. On the day following Johnson appeared at the corner of Seventh street and Indiana avenue with a double barreled shot gun. Some one asked him what he was going to do with it and he said he was going hunting and that he might shoot anything he saw. To others he is reported to have said he was going to kill a man. J. B. Marlow took the gun from Johnson and later gave it over to Justice Howard. The gun was unloaded. Friday Johnson is reported to have told several parties that he was looking for Beard.

Saturday afternoon Beard stepped from the Blacksmith shop at the corner of Sixth street and Indiana and started shooting at Johnson as the latter turned the opposite corner and walked westward on Sixth. As Johnson ran Beard sent five more bullets after him. Johnson ran to Scott avenue and turned south.

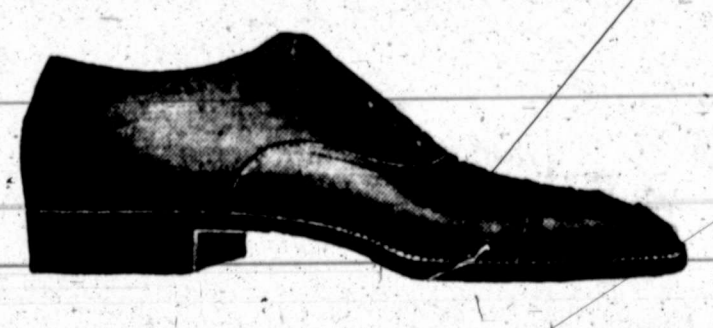

Deputy Sheriff Lassiter was at the corner of Scott avenue and Seventh streets when he heard the first shot. He ran to the scene of the shooting, reaching Beard at about the same time as Constable Rawls reached him. Beard was placed under arrest and carried to the jail. He readily gave bond for $1,000 for his appearance before the grand jury in August.

One of the shots went through a building at 206 Sixth street, occupied by Sausbury's messenger service. It passed within a few feet of the heads of several boys sitting at a table.

WISDOM
If you know your own business—you are wise. If you tend to your own business—you have your hands full. We are wise—we have our hands full. If your cleaner knows how—you need not tell him how to clean your garment, just leave it to him and he will clean it as it should be cleaned, but be sure your cleaner knows how.

LETTERS INTENDED FOR VON NEUBER SEIZED
By Associated Press.
New York, July 6.—Federal authorities investigation suspected methods of communications between the United States and Germany announced today a seizure of a bundle of letters, including communications which arriving from Berlin Central powers, apparently were intended to reach Alexander

Von Neuber, formerly Austrian consul general in New York. Von Neuber left here after the government investigated charges that he sent reservists to Austria under fraudulent passports in 1915. How the letters now confiscated were to reach Von Neuber was not disclosed nor was his present whereabouts announced.
Funeral services for the two-week-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Downs, 1410 Lamar, were held Thursday evening by Rev. T. E. Canney, burial in Riverside cemetery. The baby died Thursday morning.

There Is Nothing in the World
That will put you right up on your toes this hot weather and keep you there like a cup of good Coffee. And, put a pin right here: A cup of fresh roasted, fresh ground coffee, freshly made and freshly served, NEVER HURT ANY NORMAL PERSON. On the other hand, it's a life-saver.
