"University Muddle" Taken Up At Hearing For Impeachment At Austin Today

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 8.—The so-called "University muddle" today came up before the House committee of the whole hearing the charges brought by Speaker F. O. Fuller against Governor James E. Ferguson looking towards impeachment.

Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the University, took the witness stand, but aside from testifying regarding a conversation with Governor Ferguson in which he said the latter declared that certain members of the faculty "must go" did not get very far as recess for luncheon was then taken.

Prior to Mr. Vinson's appearance on the stand Representatives Dudley and Thomason, both of El Paso testified. Dudley and Thomason told of an incident that happened in connection with the attempted appointment by the Governor of Dr. Lawrence of El Paso, to be a regent of the University. Both said they told the governor that they were not acquainted with Dr. Lawrence.

Dudley and Thomason testified that with Senator Lindsey of El Paso they decided to ask the Governor to appoint a representative citizen of El Paso to be regent. After they had presented several names, they said the Governor declared:

"Well, I will lay the cards on the table. I want a man who will stand hitched—a man who will do what I want him to do. If the Senator refuses to confirm Lawrence, I know an Irishman out there who will stand hitched, old Henry Kelly."

ANCE NOW READY FOR

GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Provided For Foods, Feeds, Fuel, Gas,
Fertilizers, Tools, and Other Commodities.

By Associated Press.
Washington, August 8.—The food bill passed through the last stage of legislation as a clockwork train this afternoon when it was finally adopted by the Senate in the form previously approved by the House. President Wilson's signature now makes it a law.

The food control bill establishes, during the war, broad government control over foods, feeds, fuel, fertilizer, tools, utensils and equipment required for the actual production of all such products, designated in the bill.

In establishing government control, the bill authorizes the president to enter into any voluntary arrangements, create or use any agency or agencies, to accept services from any person at the best compensation, to cooperate with any agency or person to utilize any department or agency of the government, and to coordinate their activities.

In pursuance of such authorization, President Wilson plans to appoint Herbert C. Hoover food administrator, control of the necessities market may be accomplished through other agencies. The House provision for an individual food administrator was enacted only after the president had previously conferred with the Senate and House conferees to eliminate a Senate amendment inserted by two overruling votes of 63 to 15 and 60 to 23, proposing a board of food or three subject to Senate confirmation.

Comprehensive powers are given in the bill, passed as a war measure, to assure adequate supply and equitable distribution of the named necessities, to facilitate their movement to prevent locally and generally, scarcity. Other provisions of the bill fix a monopoly of handling, injurious speculation, manipulation or private control affecting supply, distribution and movement.

A revised schedule of rates based on a mileage scale and varying from 23 cents per hundred pounds for the first five miles to $1.75 for a 300 mile haul is proposed.

The tentative report of the commission's examiner which will be made the subject of argument before the commission later holds:

"The tariff proposed and under suspension are unduly prejudicial to the protestants and the localities represented by them in the following particulars:

"In so far as the proposed method of determining distances, which fix the rates differ from the method used in the Shreveport scale, in so far as the application of the additions made for hauls in different territory makes the proposed rates to that territory higher, mileage considered; than rates now in force under the Shreveport scale; and where increases are proposed in class rates applicable on commodities that the Shreveport scale applies, moves under lower commodity rates.

"That the suspended rates are unjust and unreasonable to the extent they exceed rates herein found reasonable.

"That the tariffs under suspension should be cancelled.

OFFICER STUDENTS ON TWENTY MILE FORCED MARCH

FOUR DAY PROGRAM OF WAR MANEUVERS BEGUN AT CAMP FUNSTON TODAY

EXAMINATIONS ARE OVER

Recommendations For Commissions Are Sent to Washington—Students Feel Easier

By JOHN GOULD.

Camp Funston, Texas, Aug. 5.—The end is not yet here in this officer-in-cub and amid the rocks and hills of Southwest Texas...

The final week promises to be a tolerably active one. Monday the final lessons in the gentle art of digging trenches...

Speaking of tests and ordeals the first preliminary to the closing of the lists was something of an ordeal in itself.

Unhappy student enters, faces the boys' smiles. "Twenty-six 8-12 years old, Wichita Falls, Texas, Law-yer. University graduate. No previous military experience. Unmarried."

Colonel—"How old did you say?" Student—"Wichita Falls, Texas."

Colonel—"Yes, I know, but how old are you?"

Sometimes the student kept his bearings sufficiently to give coherent answers to the officers' questions, sometimes he didn't.

"That's all. Next." The student, rather pale around the gills, saluted with one of another of his several surplus hands, executed a right about face, and stepped out to make room for another unfortunate.

Two baseball nines from an infantry regiment in training near Camp Funston, were having a game the other afternoon near the parade grounds.

MILLIONS OF FEET OF LUMBER TO BE USED IN NEW ARMY CAMPS

GIANT RAFT OF LUMBER FOR BUILDING CANTONMENTS FOR NEW ARMY

This raft of Oregon pine logs, 800 feet long and 52 feet wide, containing lumber to be used in building the cantonments for the new army, is towed 1,000 miles from an interior point on the Columbia river in Oregon...

These rafts are floated down the ocean during the months of July, August and September, when the Pacific is as placid as a mill pond.

A high fly into center field; the fielder settled himself under it and braced himself for the throw to the plate.

The notes of retreat died away and "Star Spangled Banner" began to sound as the flag was lowered.

"You're out," he said. A 20-mile hike in one day doesn't sound so prodigious for anyone who is much of a walker, but there are some conditions that keep it from being exactly a child's stunt.

The heavy pack feels like a combination of a saddle and a corset, as far as can be judged by one who has never seen a dog bag of these articles.

BEEVEED CAMPS WILL BE READY FOR NATIONAL GUARD

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 7.—The National Guard camps at Fort Worth, Waco and Houston will be ready for occupancy by August 15 or a very few days thereafter, unless unforeseen delays occur, according to Lieutenant Colonel Howard L. Laubach, who returned Saturday morning from an inspection trip to the other two camps.

The contractors, he said, are making every effort to finish the work by the middle of the month, and unless there is a delay in the delivery of material, principally water piping, the troops can begin "moving in" by August 15. Construction will be so advanced that it can be carried on to a finish though troops are on the ground.

The order is to prevent any chance of lack of supplies, including food, when the men depart. In this connection it is specified, too, that the medical depots must be ready for operation by each camp.

Plants of Food Must Be on Hand as soon as the department has been instructed by orders from Washington that no National Guard troops are to enter camps until quarters are completed and are ready for business.

The people of these United States are changing their attitude toward the uniform. A year ago the uniform of a private soldier operated as a bar to his admission to places of amusement and many resorts.

While street car and railroad tracks are occupied because most of the National Guard camps, the department has dispatched a truck train as a supplementary measure to each camp, to aid in handling the sanitary supplies in push of the construction work.

The handling of these camps is entirely in the hands of this department, and the army is not to be involved, so far as the army's part is concerned, departmental officers say the camps will be modern in every detail, spick and span, and ready for occupancy with a little delay as is humanly possible.

The only thing the army cannot control is the delivery of supplies, but for every item that the army has planned and the material reaches each point at date specified by the engineers, the guardsmen assigned to the construction work will be getting under canvas by August 15.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM REV. GRAFTON

The Times has received the following communication from Rev. N. F. Grafton who with Mrs. Grafton is recuperating at the home of the latter in the paper comes as regular as the mail arrives and we read it eagerly.

We are still in love with this mountain retreat and are really delighted. The highest temperature and that for a while one afternoon just before a shower.

"I was to think," she said, "that a man in uniform was to be avoided like the plague. First, it is to be made in heavy marching order, that is, with full equipment weighing about 50 pounds; second, each hiker must make the distance on one canteen and water. The regulation canteen holds about a quart of water, which must suffice for drinking purposes, for what midday cooking is required, and for other needs. Toting 50 pounds of miscellaneous articles, 20 miles under an August sun on a quart of water doesn't sound like much fun, but it is part of the game."

The heavy pack feels like a combination of a saddle and a corset, as far as can be judged by one who has never seen a dog bag of these articles.

Somebody asked Colonel Martin why he required this.

"You remember, in 'David Harum,'" he replied, "the answer to the question 'Why do you insist on that?' was 'Well, just at that moment the batter lifted."

SIGNIFICANCE OF RESIGNATIONS OF T. N. G. OFFICERS

Upshur Vincent, Houston Post Staff Correspondent at Austin, discusses the resignations of the National Guard officers who are members of the Legislature.

The nation is at war. Time is scarce. The organization of the National Guard has been practically completed. And for the conclusion that resignations are sent in which, if accepted by the Governor, will leave four places of essential importance vacant.

That one vote might mean the difference between impeachment and a guilty verdict is a matter of which the Governor will scarcely consent to seeing Senator Harley lose his vote in the impeachment proceedings if that is before the senate.

It is pointed out that these men will be losing little by giving up their commissions, providing the Governor is not impeached.

EXAMINATIONS FOR SECOND TRAINING CAMP END TODAY

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 7.—Today is the last day for examination of applicants for the second student officers training course, to be opened at Camp Funston on August 27.

Only few remain to be examined here today. So far as is known the second course will cover the same period of time as first course.

The men who receive their commissions from the first camp, it is understood, are to be granted leaves until September 1, when they are to return to be assigned to the fifth month provisional division, which will be made up of men selected under the present draft in the same territory from which the applicants accepted for the first training camp came.

DUTCH LINER CONVERTED INTO FLOATING HOTEL

Associated Press. Amsterdam, Netherlands.—Vacations may be enjoyed in Holland on board a liner without the usual restrictions. This privilege is conferred by the use as a floating hotel of the 12,000 ton steamship Pietersema Coen, one of the Rotterdam Steamship Company's colonial liners. In normal times this ship runs between here and the Dutch East Indies, but since the unrestricted traffic of the sea has been laid her up for safety in Amsterdam harbor.

The steamer was anchored at an attractive spot on the North Sea Canal, between Veendam and Ymbouren, and opened as a hotel. Remunerative patronage was easily secured, at prices according with those of first-class hotels in Holland. The seaside resort there was a big run on this innovation in European holiday facilities.

WAR WORK TO BE COM-PULSORY IN NEW ZEALAND

Wellington, New Zealand.—The National Service Board created by the New Zealand government has decided that every man and woman in the Dominion must engage in war work if necessary. The board also sent a circular to school boards suggesting that the mid-winter holidays which fall in July be curtailed and the time saved devoted to the study of the war.

Christmas holidays. This would give about eight weeks vacation during which the larger boys could assist in sheep shearing, fruit-picking, hop gathering and other outdoor work. Last Christmas a number of school boys did this and some of them earned from $50 upward.

It is certain that some measure of the kind will take place owing to the steady depletion of labor by conscription. Men fit only for home military service probably will be organized for war work but it is expected that at present women will not be. But if the war long continues female labor is likely to be similarly utilized.

J-BOAT REPORTED OFF NEW YORK CAUSES ALARM. By Associated Press. ANOTHER 10 CENT ADVANCE IN HEALDTON CRUDE. By Associated Press. Ardmore, Okla., August 7.—The Magnolia Petroleum company today posted an advance of 10 cents a barrel for Healdton crude oil. RECRUITS ARRIVING AT CAMP KELLY. San Antonio, August 7.—One thousand and additional enlisted men for the aviation section of the United States signal corps are expected to arrive at Camp Kelly today. Six hundred and fifty of these men are not flyers, but enlisted men of the signal corps. Colonel M. M. Barnum, chief of staff of the general department today stated that the progress on work at Camp Kelly has been such that there will be facilities to take care of these men without difficulty. There is, however, a shortage of officers at the camp for the number of men who now will be there. It is likely that the corps will be called upon to furnish these additional officers, as regimental officers have been transferred in so many instances that it is not desired to deplete the list further. Applications for the actual flying service continue to come in daily at the post, the number being estimated at from fifteen to twenty a day.

STATE WITHOUT POWER TO STOP EXODUS NEGROES. Dallas, Texas, Aug. 7.—The state is without the power to stop the sending of negroes to the East to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad. This information was given Welfare Director John C. Smith by Deputy Labor Commissioner Swor today. Mr. Smith had several requests from negro preachers who asked that the migration be stopped, if possible. He called on the agent here representing the Pennsylvania Railroad, and they told him that he was without power to act; that they were working under a state license. Mr. Smith then conferred with Mr. Swor in an effort to get the license revoked, but was informed that this could not do so. The only thing we can do is to file charges against them if we find any of the negroes sent East were not given positions as the officials represent," said Mr. Smith today. "We might also get some of the negroes for deserting their families but thus far we have been unable to secure any charges of that kind." TWO HUNG Juries AND ONE ACQUITTAL IN COUNTY COURT. After trying three cases in the county court, two resulting in hung juries and one in an acquittal Judge Harris discharged the jury and there was no court this afternoon. In the case of the State vs. Harold Haley charged with gaining the jury was unable to agree, and the case was set for another day. State vs. Pink Rhodes aggravated assault, verdict of not guilty. State vs. Charles Wesley, gaming, hung jury. ARCHER COUNTY MAN DIES IN LOCAL HOSPITAL. S. P. LABOR SHORTAGE IS FELT MORE AND MORE

Intense Heat Curtails Retail Trade Over Country—Daily Review of Business Week

Dun's Review of business for the past week follows: Further restraints upon business have been imposed by the intense heat over a wide area, and some apprehension of crop damage has resulted. The effect of the extreme heat has also appeared in the restricted volume of retail distribution. Aside from the torrid weather, progress has continued impeded by the uncertainty arising from war conditions, and in some important branches there is rather more evidence of the mid-summer lull than was manifested last year.

Convincing evidence of the strength of fundamental conditions during a time of war readjustment still appears in the insolvency statistics. Notwithstanding the general doubts about impending economic changes, and the hesitancy and waiting in many directions, the country's commercial mortality gives no indication of conspicuous unsettlement in business. The number of failures for 1917, 1,137, was less than in any other month this year, excepting April, and the smallest for the period since 1911, while the number of failures for 1916, about 17,000,000, though larger than in May, April and February of this year, was the lightest for July in all years back to 1912, aside from 1915.

Not really close approach to last January's maximum figures of $613,500,000 has been made by domestic merchandise exports, and home is likely to be held back by the embargo order continues effective. Yet, eliminating January, the June total, about $576,000,000 exceeded all other monthly records, and the embargo order continues effective. Further Easing in Money. Further easing has appeared in the local money situation, with a minimum of 1 1/2 per cent, call loans have reached a lower basis than a year ago. Yet the position of time funds has not changed appreciably in respect to quotations, though offerings have come on the market with rather more freedom, and announcement of an additional issue of $300,000,000 Treasury certificates is a reminder of the large requirements still to be financed. Under the conditions, lenders not unreasonably are expected to extend accommodation for distant periods. Meanwhile, the outflow of gold has continued on about an important scale, chiefly to Spain and Switzerland, as well, now rule at a considerable premium.

GAINESVILLE MAN WRITES OF CONDITIONS IN FRANCE. Gainesville, Texas, Aug. 6.—A prominent professional man of Gainesville, who recently left Texas and went with the expeditionary troops to France as a member of the medical corps, has written a letter to a prominent citizen of this city from "somewhere in France" from which the following excerpts are taken: "You doubtless read a few days ago in the Associated Press of the safe arrival of the American expeditionary force. There is much I could tell you of our voyage, but I am not permitted to do so until the fourth time I have been in France since the beginning of the war, and the strain that she has endured is very apparent to me. When I was here before two women out of three were in mourning, and now it appears that four out of every five are in mourning. The loss of 1,500,000 men will leave a hole in the population of any nation. Our entrance into the war is already proving a Godsend to this sore-stricken country, and the American expeditionary forces are being received with open arms everywhere. I realize more and more that a mistake it is for the American people to bill themselves into the belief that the war will soon be over. It is impossible for anyone to ever have sufficient data on hand at the one proposed in an opinion as to the duration of this titanic struggle. My firm belief is that we should prepare for a long war and pray God for a short one."

WAR TAX BILL REPORTED TO THE SENATE TODAY

MEASURE REPORTED BY CHAIRMAN SIMMONS PROPOSES TO RAISE $2,600,970,000

EXCESS WAR PROFITS

Incomes And Liquor And Tobacco Will Bear Moss of Burden If Bill Not Changed

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—The war tax bill finally revised to meet latest estimates of the tax authority, reported today by the Senate finance committee, it proposes to raise $2,600,970,000 by taxation.

The House bill proposed $1,867,000,000 in new taxes. No provisions for additional bonds to be considered later by the House are made in the Senate bill. Chairman Simmons plans to call up the revised bill the latter part of the week and hopes for its final enactment early next month.

PASSING REVENUES WITH LEAST BURDEN, PURPOSE

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—The war tax bill was reported to the Senate today as revised by the finance committee to meet the latest estimates for war expenditures.

The majority report was submitted by Chairman Simmons, who explained that the committee's revision of the House bill was on the principle of raising revenues with the least burden upon the public. A substitute report with a substitute bill is expected from Senator La Follette, Senators Gore and Thomas also plan separate reports.

The House five per cent taxes upon electricity, gas and local telephone service were eliminated because it appeared that the burden of these taxes would fall with very great severity upon the people of moderate means as well as the poorest classes, who at the present time are suffering severely in the cities upon gas or electricity to furnish them with both light and heat for cooking as well as in many cases, with power for running small machinery, like that of the sewing machine.

Elimination or reduction of all of the five per cent gross sales tax upon many manufacturers was defended because of the high income and excess profits taxes. "Your committee felt," the report said, "that only where the conditions are exceptional, as in the case of manufacturers gross sales tax is justifiable."

Proposed new federal license tax on motorcycles and automobiles, based upon the original selling cost in lieu of the House manufacturer's tax, was explained as a gross tax upon automobile manufacturers was first considered, but on thorough investigation it appeared that over 80 per cent were making very small profits. A gross production tax in size sufficient to produce a substantial return would have driven out of business a large majority of automobile manufacturers. Your committee concluded that the automobile was a proper subject for a war revenue tax and recommended that the new excise tax, which might or might not be passed on to the purchaser, a moderate excise tax upon the owners of automobiles and motorcycles.

Regarding the elimination of the House retroactive income taxes on 1916 incomes, which would have produced $108,000,000, the report stated: "This tax seemed in principle both morally and economically unsound. Incomes of the last year have paid their taxes and the balance has either been spent or saved and added to capital, in which form it will yield returns in the ensuing years. To tax this tax-paid income again is not only double taxation of a peculiarly obnoxious kind, but would possibly compel taxpayers to impair his capital and thus diminish government sources of taxation. It would be one of those disturbing taxes which would hamper and retard industrial productivity. It is very poor economy and would hold out a threat of uncertainty."

"We must face the possibility, even the probability," the report stated, "of even higher taxes than are now proposed in this country and we must adjust our system so that it will work satisfactorily even under increased rates. Your committee has not been able to find any satisfactory reason why individuals engaged in trade and business should not be subject to this tax (war profits) as well as corporations and partnerships."

"So sweeping a change would have brought consequences thought clearly undesirable." The committee, it was stated, substituted for the House 10 per cent tariff why individuals engaged in trade and business should not be subject to this tax (war profits) as well as corporations and partnerships. Under the present law, the report stated, inflated values to patents and trade marks and watering of corporations' stocks makes evasion of the revenue law possible, while the committee's new basis is believed to meet the situation. Senator Simmons also pointed out that the new plan is a war profits tax rather than an excess profits levy.

SOLDIERS TAKE UP ARMY ROUTINE AT CAMP AT LAKE

(From Monday's Daily)

About three hundred men yesterday answered the roll call at the National Guard camp at Lake Wichita and automatically became part of the regular army. The two companies, average about one hundred and fifty each, and are a fine well-set-up bunch.

In spite of the very un-military aspect of the companies, there is every variety of raiment, from uniforms to overalls—the men are at work in a very business-like manner. The equipment is by no means complete, but there is plenty of good food, and the men are already learning one of the essentials of the good soldier, to make out with whatever comes along. They are being drilled in the use of rifles, though appetites are plentiful. The mess tent will not hold more than forty or fifty, so the men grab a plate, have a short interval with the cook, and take their grub wherever they happen to be. If the wind should happen to spread a layer of sand over the meal, they scrape it off, and go on. If the coffee is similarly treated, they wait till it settles. They are making out in good style, and there is a very marked atmosphere of cheerfulness throughout the camp. In fine weather, they remain in the open, and in foul they use the two large barns at the back of the camp. Coats and blankets are being supplied as fast as the government can attend to it, but the boys seem quite prepared to get along cheerfully without these things as long as necessary.

Below follows the daily routine of the camp from now till they move to Fort Worth:

First Call	5:45 a. m.
Roll Call	6:00 a. m.
Mess Call	6:30 a. m.
First Call for Drill	8:00 a. m.
Roll Call	11:00 a. m.
Mess Call	12:00 p. m.
Drill	2:00 p. m.
Roll Call	4:00 p. m.
Retreat	6:00 p. m.
Mess Call	6:15 p. m.
Call to Quarters	9:00 p. m.
Tattoo	9:30 p. m.
Tap	10:00 p. m.
Sick Call	11:30 p. m.

There will be mostly physical exercises given at this time. All members of the company staying in drill report at Camp by 7:30 a. m. for drill.

There has been a distinct touch of winter in the weather and the men have a fore-taste of what is to come in the winter months when the comparatively short hours of daybreak are shrouded in deep gray mists.

FERGUSON DECLINES TO TAKE WITNESS STAND

40 ALLEGED DRAFT RESISTERS LODGED IN PRISON

By Associated Press. McAlester, Okla., Aug. 6.—Forty alleged draft resisters were brought here today to be awaiting a class Sheriff Grall announced that he has the situation well in hand.

The hunt in its final phases will result in a final capture, probably of the rough country for straggling members of the rebellious bands. No further resistance was expected. Numbers of the bandits, last night near the mouth of Salt Creek were discharged early today and except for a skirmish five miles north of Holdenville last night in which one man was killed and two officers hurt, it is believed there has been no fighting.

LOYAL YOUNG MAN KILLED BY ACCIDENT

By Associated Press. Holdenville, Okla., August 6.—A band of 26 men, alleged members of the Working Man's Union are reported surrounded by officers in the brush outside of Holdenville today. A detachment of men has been dispatched from here in motor cars to aid the small posse having the men encamped. Apparently the posse has not been able to effect a capture, probably due to the smallness of its number. The shooting of J. M. Moore north of here this morning, when he discovered the officers' guard lines to stop his car disclosed the young men was on his way from here to take a train for McAlester where he had been called to take an examination for entrance to the second officers' reserve training camp. Ignorance of the situation here was given as the only reason which caused the young man to drive into the brush. The effect of which he died this morning.

Poses arrived this morning from Saska, bringing 20 prisoners. The situation in Seminoe, where Saska has been the headquarters apparent is quiet according to reports. There will be no more concerted work by poses there and the men hunt will take the form of a chase to run down the leaders of the men still at large. Officers of Saska are holding themselves in readiness, however, to lash into the hills at a moment's notice.

CHARGES OF TREASON WILL BE PREFERRED

By Associated Press. Holdenville, Okla., Aug. 6.—Federal officials here working under orders of United States District Attorney W. P. Adams at Muskogee, announced today that in their belief they had sufficient evidence to convict on charges of treason, with a demand for the arrest of the men. The Oklahoma Working Class Unionists, resistors to the selective draft who for the last four days have turned the counties of central Oklahoma into a scene of guerrilla warfare with their clashes with sheriffs' posse.

United States Commissioner Fauchet here asserted that he had been prepared 60 informations charging conspiracy against the government through disregarding the draft. Two other agents of the department of justice are at work on similar informations at Ada, Wewah and Bustin, he said. The informations are made out by the department and the prisoners inserted when they are brought before the commission.

The clause in the information containing the conspiracy charge declares that "in violation of the selective service act of May 18, 1917, the said defendant, on or about the first of August 1917, did conspire together with other persons to violate and render nugatory provisions of said act."

It was the opinion of the federal officials that the charge probably will be preferred at a call of the federal grand jury. Department of justice agents agree that the draft law, although the main point of discussion in the protest, created a dangerous surface a condition which otherwise might have gained strength in delay and caused greater trouble and damage later.

No further information was available from the posse who left for a point about eight miles from here where a number of the men were reported to be encamped and surrounded.

SURPRISE SPRUNG WHEN CRANE ASKED HIM TO TESTIFY

GOVERNOR STANDS ON CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT AND DECLINES TO GO ON STAND

EVIDENCE IS INTRODUCED

Testimony at Hearing Last Month And Record of Meetings Introduced

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 6.—M. M. Crane, counsel for the House investigating the impeachment charges brought against Governor James E. Ferguson by Speaker Clegg today, sprung a surprise at the opening of the hearing today when he called for the Governor to take the stand. This the Governor refused to do claiming his constitutional right to hear the evidence against him.

In plea of Mr. Crane that this disarranged his plan, the hearing then went over to the state bar this afternoon. Representative E. R. Ryan appointed by Speaker Fuller, with the consent of the House, to pass upon the admission of Mr. Ferguson as the Governor's contention as voiced by his counsel, W. A. Hauger.

Mr. Crane explained that if the governor took the stand he would have the right to refuse to answer questions that might injure him. He said if Mr. Ferguson testified now this would obviate the necessity of the Governor's testimony and much trouble and expense. After Mr. Ryan had ruled the Governor would not testify at the present time, Mr. Crane said that while he had no intention to criticize the decision he wished to state that he had a perfect right to call the executive.

The testimony of former court procedure, he explained. This investigation and should not be bound by court practice. I think the representatives as a courtesy and an evidence of willingness to proceed that he take the stand.

Mr. Crane was at first proposed to put over the hearing until 2 o'clock but on Mr. Crane's plea that he would need more time to interview witnesses and arrange his plans the hour for reconvening was set for 3 o'clock. Mr. Crane succeeded in introducing the entire testimony taken before the House investigating committee which was set for 3 o'clock. The Governor by Representative Davis of Van Zandt county last March. This lets in all the sensational evidence given in the past.

The record of the first investigation was not read, it being assumed that all representatives were familiar with it. Mr. Crane also offered the record of the meetings of the board of regents of the state university, but in objection the speaker ruled that the evidence in the record to such statements as were made by the Governor. Reading of such evidence was postponed until 3 o'clock.

While the final preliminary was being arranged the Governor entered the chamber and took a short rest. When he returned to the chamber he began he moved down to the seat reserved for the counsel without attracting attention of the members or of the crowd.

Senator Bean is a presidential elector. He issued a special warning that anyone in the gallery guilty of any disorder must leave. When the hearing resumed the House convened when all entering the chamber were searched for arms, were not renewed today.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION INSPECTING TWO ROUTES

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 6.—The State Highway Commission began today a tour of inspection of two routes between Dallas and Exarkana, one by way of Pittsburg, Linden and Atlanta, Texas, and the other by way of Sulphur Springs and Mount Pleasant. The entire membership of the commission, including Charles A. Duren, chief engineer of the commission and Captain J. D. Pountney, United States district engineer, were in the inspection party.

The inspection of these two routes will consume nearly the entire week. Following this the commission proposes to make an inspection of the highways between Dallas and El Paso perhaps not all at one time, but in sections. Plans for the establishment of these highways are already being made in the engineering department of the commission.

FINISH BOOZE BEFORE CROSSING BRIDGE, PRACTICE

(From Monday's Daily)

Oklahomans who come to Wichita Falls to buy large quantities of booze evade the penalties of the "bone dry" law by the simple expedient of drinking it up before they cross the Red River bridge. They start from Wichita Falls with sundry quarts in their automobiles. Their task is to drink it up before the crossing to the Oklahoma side where they are sure to find officers waiting to search their cars and to arrest them if they find booze.

The result of these efforts is that the drinkers generally reach the bridge with the car full of booze, and very often in a belligerent mood. As a result they are often abusive to the man in charge of the bridge and sometimes the city driver through the gate without paying toll. Last week a big party refused to pay toll and drove through the gate defying the bridge keeper to do anything. Since that time the bridge man has been given two lusty assistants and himself carries a six-shooter at his side.

Those who fall in their best efforts to swill all the booze before reaching the bridge stop on the Texas side and engage in bottle tilting until the last drop is gone.

There have been many complaints within the past few weeks of rowdiness by drunken Oklahomans between Wichita Falls and the Burk Burnett bridge. The fact that so many Oklahomans are coming across to the Texas side to consume their booze on the spot, officers say, is a good indication that the "bone dry" law is being enforced in Oklahoma.

GERMAN BUSINESS AND GERMAN AGGRESSION

"German Business and German Aggression" is the title of a pamphlet published anonymously by Fisher Unwin, Ltd., of London. The pamphlet shows the co-ordination between the German government and German industries in foreign lands and states that this co-ordination has been made with a view to placing foreign capital and foreign industries under German control.

The book is remarkable for the amount of light brought to bear upon the subject, and as remarkable for the moderation of the language and style, which is rather that of a very gentlemanly sort of person indeed, very diffidently discussing something he is afraid might be classified as scandal. Frequently the remark occurs, "It is of course, a disagreeable subject, and one which one hardly likes to discuss, but it is unfortunately a fact," and here will follow some particularly damning piece of evidence; which a less sensitive person would be only too glad to shout from the housetops.

While the booklet deals with the matter from the English standpoint, it contains a great deal of information of value here, and a number of theories equally applicable on this side of the Atlantic. In the introduction, as an instance of the real meaning of co-ordination, the author quotes from an article by Herr Maximilian Harden, whom he designates as "the journalistic repository of British tradition," the words: "The writing shortly after the battle of the Marne, 'A noble Germanism must here conquer the new provinces (Belgium) in conjunction with Hamburg and Bremen; Liege alongside of the munition works of Hesse and Berlin; Cockerill allied with Krupp; Belgium, and all its industries under one management. From Calais to Antwerp, Flanders, Limburg and Braabant, right beyond the line of the neutral zone, all Prussian. If we are to pay any attention to what such folk are writing now, we must remember what they wrote when victory seemed within their grasp.'"

Speaking later of the details of co-ordination, the author says, "all these things may be politically harmless in themselves to the rights of other nations," but he goes on to show that "all these things" were not done with any regard to the rights of other nations; but rather to the rights of Germany, and to the rights of the German people. He points out that the German government has established German control of the formidable industries in foreign countries; so that at the time of rupture—which he says is inevitable—other nations would find themselves so entangled with German interests and capital, that the economic situation would be extremely complex and difficult; so much so, in fact, that the other nation would go to almost any length before breaking with Germany.

Germany was exactly the case with Australia. Here, before the war, the mining industry had so far passed into German hands, as to be a special legislative necessity to free the Australian owned mines from the restrictive agreements with which German ingenuity had limited their power of selling their products, and so in Milan, and to an even greater extent in Spain, where Germany controlled over 60 per cent of the electrical material. The book also gives a most amusing account of the German schemes in the foreign press. A total sum of over $3,000,000 was expended in the United States for the purpose of obtaining certain news papers, a "good press," and other newspapers were undertaken to print such news as the agency supplied, on condition that they did not print anything that would in any way conflict with the statements sent by the agency. This news was supplied at very low cost, and often free; and of course, was always to the glory of the German government.

Largely through the independence of the Havas and Reuter News agencies, this scheme had at least partially failed, even before the war. Yet a society was formed in Yvetot to perfect peace, for forcing on newspapers abroad, by threatening to cut off a service of news which could never be printed on its merits.

PLEDGE CITY'S RESOURCES TO THE GOVERNMENT

AVIATION OFFICERS HERE TO INSPECT PROPOSED SITE

Experts After Looking Over Proposed Site Hear City's Representatives—Leave For Belton

(From Monday's Daily) "What can we do to serve?" was in effect, the question which the chief representatives of the city asked the aviation experts at the banquet tendered them last night at the St. James Hotel. The entire resources of the city and county were laid before these distinguished gentlemen, and they were invited to take whatever would best serve their needs for the aviation camp. The assistance and co-operation of the whole community was pledged in support of the government, in the event of the camp's being located here, and the visitors were further assured that if any needed thing was not on hand, it would be promptly obtained. "Tell us what you want done, and we will do it," was the keynote of the sentiments expressed by every one of the city's representatives.

Captain C. G. Edgar, in charge of construction in the aviation department, Lieutenant Colonel G. H. Crabtree of the medical department, and Major H. H. Arnold, practical flyer, made a very thorough inspection of the proposed site yesterday afternoon, and afterwards were shown the various things of interest in the city. In the evening, they were the guests of honor at a dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce, of which the "Hall of Honor" was that they might hear from the men of the city what Wichita Falls was prepared to do. That Wichita Falls was not only prepared, but exceedingly anxious to do all that would help the government was clearly brought out in the speeches.

J. A. Kemp, in a brief introductory talk, stated that he did not believe that a better site could be found in United States. "I want you to know," he said, "that we most earnestly desire to contribute our part to the work you are engaged in." Judge Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce, speaking on "What Wichita County Will Do," made a brief but significant summary of what the county had already done in the matter of war work; citing the over-subscription of the Y. M. C. A. fund, the Liberty Loan and the Red Cross fund. "And I tell you these things," he said, "simply to show you gentlemen what sort of people we have here; our people get right behind the government, and after it till they get what they want. Our people are progressive, and liberal, and they are co-ordinating the activities of the government. We can assure you that if these young men come here, they will receive a most hearty welcome from the whole citizenry, and we shall do our utmost to carry out to the smallest detail the wishes of the government."

County Judge Harvey Harris spoke of the county's interest in the Liberty Bonds, and then came to the matter of roads. Two roads, he said, one on either side of the camp, would be built, and the county had the money to build them. "What the county will do," he said, "will be determined by what the government wants done."

F. N. Lawton, manager of the Power and Light Plant, said that so far as water, light and power, there was more than sufficient to supply the needs of the camp, and that the government could have all they wanted. All lines and necessary connections would be made to the site, as soon as the arrangements were completed, he said.

Mr. Lawton told of a most amusing experience in the Spanish-American war, when the whole country was making frantic efforts to find the Spanish fleet. Neither the army nor navy, apparently, were able to locate the fleet, and the head of departments were hourly becoming more and more wild, as one fruitless endeavor after another was made. At length, someone heard of one Professor Eddy, who had conducted a number of experiments with kites. These kites were sent up with cameras attached, and an operator on the ground piloted the kite, which opened the shutter on the camera. In those days, when the airplane had not been materialized from the sphere of fiction, this method was the most practical for locating the fleet. Wherefore Prof. Eddy was wired to come with his kites and cameras, and please find the fleet. The professor refused, he said, to do with yet other experiments, and could not come. As Mr. Lawton had been associated with Prof. Eddy, and had assisted in the experiments, he was asked to get an outfit of kites and cameras, and please find the fleet. So Mr. Lawton got joyfully aboard a man-of-war, equipped with kites and cameras, and started in quest of this mysterious fleet, that refused to come out and show itself. Before he had opportunity to see whether the experiments would be successful, however, the fleet was discovered, and Mr. Lawton was saved from becoming a hero, and possibly perishing from the fate of Hobson.

J. C. Mytinger, manager of the traction Co., that they, like the rest, only need to be told what was wanted, and it would be done. County Attorney T. B. Greenwood told the gentlemen that the vice district was closed, and that the authorities would render the government all the assistance in their power to the matter of safe-guarding the camp from any untoward influences. Alderman Hill, speaking for the Mayor, expressed very clearly, in every speech, "While we are anxious to see the camp here," he said, "and while we feel that it would be a considerable asset to the city, and again, while we are ready and willing to do everything in our power to influence the government to bring here, I am sure that there are not in the whole county a citizen so unpartisan enough to wish to see the camp here, if it should not prove to be exactly what the government wants, and of which we are anxious to have the camp, and we are willing to make sacrifices to get it; but I know that we are sufficiently interested in the national importance of this matter, not to want our site chosen if there is a better one to be had." This sentiment was warmly applauded, and was expressed by many of the speakers. Jack Culbertson, manager of the Wichita Falls Motor Factory opened his doors to the government, and told them to take whatever they could use in his plant. "We have some special machinery," he said, "which may be of use to you. There is a press of 175 tons capacity, a winding plant, a very complete woodwork department, a large supply of sheet metal, and a small, but fully equipped machine shop. These things are yours to command."

A. F. Winn, general traffic manager of the Northwestern, said that here, as elsewhere, the railroads stood ready to give a maximum service, and that the government business would receive the promptest possible attention. The railroads would run spur tracks to the site, and would begin the very day that arrangements were completed; and that the tracks would be finished in not more than three days.

E. J. Johnson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a brief outline of the campaign that had been made for the camp, showing that no form had been passed, Mr. Johnson said that Wichita Falls was the first town to apply for the camp, and that a picture of the Lake hung in General Squires' office. Mr. Johnson, learning that Captain Edgar had lost his campaign, took the opportunity of presenting him with another on behalf of the Chamber, adding "jocose" and "I hope that you will be able to get to Washington with that pen, and that it will be a good one."

The experts are all of them distinguished men. Chief of Engineers, the Signal Corps United States Reserve, is one of the many big-spirited men that have come to the aid of the government in the emergency. He has been very successful in business in Detroit, Mich., where he was a director of the First National Bank, and was prominent in the business community. Realizing the need of the government, he volunteered his services, and was placed in charge of the construction of the aviation camp. Major H. H. Arnold is a practical flyer, and a man of the most contagious enthusiasm for his work. His duty was to examine the site from the standpoint of the flyer. Lieutenant Colonel Crabtree is a veterinarian of many years' service, whose work here is to see that the sanitary conditions of the camp. Colonel Crabtree was associated with General Goethals in the construction of the Panama Canal, and was in charge of the sanitary arrangements there. All the boys continued in such splendid condition.

Replying to the many toasts, both Captain Edgar and Major Arnold expressed their full appreciation of the courtesies and offers of assistance which had been tendered to them and the government. Major Arnold said that he was not a talker, but an aviator. He gave a brief account of the development of the United States aviation department, and said that if the camp were located here, he might expect to see dozens of planes flying over the city daily. Captain Edgar, after expressing his thanks to the gentlemen present, said: "I can only say, on behalf of the government, that I do not see what more they could possibly do."

The officers left this morning for Temple, Waco, San Antonio and thence to the Atlantic seaboard, where they will visit many points of interest. This made no expression as to the nature of their report to the government, but said that it would be wired in last night. The major said that within a few hours after the formal application for the location arrives from the Chamber of Commerce, this will be sent off in a day or two.

Besides the visitors, those present were: J. A. Kemp, R. E. Huff, Harvey Harris, E. G. Hill, A. B. Winn, T. B. Greenwood, H. H. Johnson, J. W. Thomas, J. C. Culbertson, F. N. Lawton, J. C. Mytinger, R. L. Eddy, J. P. Jackson, Mr. White, Horace Nutt, A. L. Huey, C. B. Macklin and W. S. Curlee.

The lease adjoins the Ruyte lease on which the Hilkey Company has been bringing in its big wells, the last of which is making five hundred barrels a day. Its proximity to these big wells make this lease look exceptionally good.

The Westland Petroleum Co. is a Wichita Falls corporation, all the officers being well known Wichita Falls business and professional men. J. W. Avis is president of the company, H. C. Weeks is secretary and C. E. McCutchen is treasurer. Its field operations will be in charge of a competent and experienced oil man. The company's offices are in the First National Bank building.

TEMPLE BANK GOT INTEREST ON THE STATE'S MONEY

OVER $600,000 STATES' MONEY HANDLED BY GOVERNOR'S BANK AT TEMPLE

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, August 7.—Testimony today that he was mistaken yesterday when he testified that a debit of $5,000 against Governor Ferguson's official account in the Temple State bank was on August 23, 1916, was drawn from Henry Blum, assistant cashier of the bank when he resumed the stand today at the hearing of the fuller charges against the governor. He was questioned again by W. A. Hanger, counsel for the governor. Blum had said that the debit was on August 23, 1916, and on the same date the governor had only $40,322 in his special account while he had overdrawn his private account $20,647.32.

Today he testified that the debit was on August 23, 1915, and that on this date the governor had $50,622 in his private account and $16,000.33 in his special account. Attorney M. M. Crane, for the House, on taking the witness led up again to the amount of funds deposited in the Temple State bank by the governor and other officials. Blum's replies showed that over $600,000 of the state fund had been handled by his bank up to the present time. On questioning by Mr. Crane he said that at least a part of this money was placed in other banks, and that he would show the amount on a daily balance and some had been loaned to customers at regular interest rates.

CROWDS THROUGH STORES BUYING DOLLAR BARGAINS (From Monday's Daily) To one who had not read the advertisements on Sunday, the business section of Wichita Falls must have presented an appearance to suggest "Crazy Day" this morning. As early as 7:30 the streets were filled with women and stores open at that early hour report an unprecedented rush. All talk of rising prices in necessities and luxuries seemed to be discounted by the liberal bargains displayed in the store windows and the greatest difficulty presented seemed to be that of the majority of articles the supply was insufficient.

The Perkins-Timberlake bargain sale was advertised to open at 9 o'clock but by eight the crowd was gathering and at 8:30 had reached such volume that the manager was forced to open the door to avoid, as he said, having them burst in by the crowd. Three windows filled with Dollar Day bargains were emptied in 20 minutes.

At McCurtains where ladies dresses and shoes for $1 were the most attractive feature, the pick of the offerings were gone shortly after the doors were opened, a large number of shoppers being waiting at 7:30. COUNTRY TIRED OF OBSTRUCTION SAYS WILLIAMS

MISSISSIPPI SENATOR SAYS A SMALL GROUP FORMED AN ANTI AMERICAN PARTY

OPPOSING EVERYTHING

Says All Their Talk Isn't Changing Single Vote And Country Demands Action

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 7.—Senator Williams, declaring that it was well for the Senate to hear what the country thinks, denounced obstructionists to the food bill after debate on the conference report had resumed in the Senate today.

"It is time to forget party alignments," he said, "and I am glad to say that a majority of Democrats and Republicans have done so, but there is a small group on either side who have formed themselves into an anti-administration and anti-American party."

Consciously and unconsciously, he said, they had put themselves into the position of opposing everything that goes to carry on the war.

"It is time for the majority of the two parties to say to these two little parties: 'You have danced your ballet, you have sung your song, America is tired of you, we are tired of you and we want to do something.'"

Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson are setting examples. All three have proven their Americanism. They are tired, the country is tired, the House is tired and two-thirds of the Senate is tired of this constant gabbling about nothing. We are lagging through the dog days, making everyone nervous and tired with the talk on this bill that isn't changing a vote.

CHANGES ARE ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION IN ENGLAND

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 6.—The change in the British admiralty are attracting much attention and are interpreted as the first step in the reorganization, which it is supposed Sir Eric Campbell Jeddies, first lord of the admiralty, was appointed to carry out. In some quarters the present step is denounced as a "provisionary half measure" and the change is not so complete as to "give the country a resolute and energetic admiralty permeated by an offensive spirit."

There is no implication of incapacity of Admiral Sir Cecil Burney whose services as Admiral Jellicoe's second in command of the grand fleet are recognized. An official announcement states that he will be employed on special duty.

ROOT SAYS LITTLE MORE DISORDER IN RUSSIA THAN HERE

By Associated Press. Chicago, August 7.—Elihu Root, who with other members of the American mission to Russia was in Chicago today, says there is scarcely more disorder in Russia now than there is in the United States.

"Certain disturbances are inevitable in a change of government so radical as that of Russia," said Mr. Root, "and cable dispatches deal largely with these disturbances. Hence the public has gained the impression that little is going on except demonstrations. Reports from Americans disseminated in Russia concentrated in our little disturbances, race riots, I. W. W., and the like Russia would have about the same picture of us as we have of them."

By Associated Press. New Orleans, August 7.—The total value of this country's cotton crop in 1917 is $1,412,860,035 for the fiscal year ending July 31, as against $958,200,000 a year ago, according to the detailed annual report of Secretary H. STRAGGLERS ARE STILL COMING IN FOR EXAMINATION

From Tuesday's Daily.

Stragglers are still coming before the Wichita County Exemption Board for examination. Most of these are able to give satisfactory explanation why they did not appear on the dates on which they were called and are being examined and allowed to file exemption claims with the understanding that the local board will be governed by the ruling of the department as to whether these claims can be considered.

A docket of all the examinations and claims for exemption in the order in which the claimants numbers were drawn at Washington is being made up for the reference of the board when the question of exemption is taken up. It now seems unlikely that consideration of applicants for exemption will be considered this week. Those called for examination are given seven days in which to file their claim for exemption.

The board is daily receiving bulletins from the Provost Marshal General containing rulings and other information. One of the latest of these bulletins calls attention to the probability of the district boards exempting men whose claims have been rejected by the local boards. The percentage of such exemptions and rejections has been estimated at ten percent. The local boards therefore are expected to call up men for examination until they have apparently filled their quota with ten percent additional.

WILSON TAKES A HAND IN PRICE REGULATION PLAN

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 7.—President Wilson took a hand today in the government plan for regulation of prices and controlling officials who will have the work in charge. First he went to the federal trade commission and then went to the department of justice. Both departments are working to keep prices on materials for the government's war needs down to a reasonable basis.

Mr. De Saullles was formerly Secretary of the Wilson League, which enrolled 72,000 members, and De Saullles was elected president of the league. For his political work De Saullles was rewarded with appointment to the post of minister to Uruguay, but he resigned without leaving New York in order to devote himself to his real estate business.

WHO WILL DIRECT GERMAN FOREIGN POLICY, QUESTION

By Associated Press. Copenhagen, Aug. 7.—Witt Dr. von Kuehlmann or Dr. Karl Helfferich, vice chancellor, is the real director of foreign policy under the administration of Dr. Michaelis, the new German chancellor.

This is the political problem of the hour in connection with the shakeup of the cabinet in Germany. It is known the versatile Dr. Helfferich desires to have a hand in steering Germany's new course in world politics after the war. It is rumored also that the new chancellor, unacquainted as he is with the international affairs of Germany, will retain the ex-ambassador, Dr. Helfferich as his special adviser and mouthpiece, particularly for this field. In fact one of the avowed reasons for Dr. Helfferich's retention, despite his unpopularity in the Reichstag, are that his views are indispensable in peace negotiations.

A second feature of the shakeup in the cabinet is the appointment of three Catholics. With the revocation of the anti-Jesuit and Polish expatriation laws also part of the cabinet program, it is expected that party is considered to have done well in the shakeup.

France has agreed to admit the tobacco free of duty as well as other articles for the American soldiers.

JOHNSON WILL TAKE APPLICATION TO WASHINGTON

By Associated Press. B. F. Johnson is to go to Washington, D. C. to look after the interests of Wichita Falls in the matter of the aviation camp. This was decided upon at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning, upon the motion of J. A. Kemp, and Mr. Johnson will leave tonight, taking with him the formal application for the camp, and all the necessary particulars.

Mr. Kemp stated that he felt that the officers were most pleased with the site and their reception here. The requirements are many and various, but apparently do not contain anything which Wichita Falls cannot fulfill. The irrigation ditch around the site must be filled, a five foot contour map must be provided, and also a map showing railroad and highway. Trees must be cut on and within five hundred yards of the site, and all stumps must be pulled. One of the directors actively inquired whether it would be necessary to plant trees before they could be cut. Railroad connection must be made to a designated point, which in this case would be through the main line. Telephone and telegraph wires must be carried to the site, and installed. All arrangements are to be made through the Chamber of Commerce. There is nothing in any of these requirements which will prevent any obstacle to the camp's being located here.

SPANISH BOAT IS ATTACKED WITHIN SPANISH WATERS

By Associated Press. London, August 7.—The admiralty today attacked a Spanish fishing boat in the neighborhood of Bilbao, Spain within Spanish territorial waters. Two of the crew were severely wounded.

The Federal government furnished Prof. Lewis the data through which he located this deposit. He has been several years investigating and believes it to be the best and most accessible deposit in this country.

Until the outbreak of the European war the United States depended upon the British for fullers earth. When the war made this supply uncertain a deposit in Florida was developed, but it has proven inadequate for the growing demand, and Messrs Knight and Lewis are assured a ready market for every ton they can mine.

Austin, Texas, August 7.—In an opinion to J. M. Edwards, state treasurer, the Attorney General's department held that authority given to the governor and the council of government of Texas in 1835 to contract loans, by the "plans powers" adopted in 1835, is a pre-existing law upon which the legislature may now make an appropriation for the payment of the loans contracted under such provision.

BROWN AND JONES GET A 500 BARREL WELL ON RAMMING

From Tuesday's Daily.

Drilling past two heavy shots of nitroglycerin that had failed to explode Brown and Jones Ramming No. 4 was brought in yesterday and is flowing at the rate of 500 barrels a day.

The feat of drilling past the shots is one that has few parallels in the history of the oil industry. Chances were forecasted that the well would be brought against success. The drillers took the odds with the result that they have brought in one of the best wells in the district.

This well was drilled to the sand some time ago and was estimated as good for about 100 barrels from 1500 sand. Two shots were put into it at the lower end 1540 and the other at 1590 feet. Both failed to explode and efforts to explode them failed and increased the caving and the well was abandoned. It was seen that efforts to explode these shots could not hope to succeed it was decided to try to drill past them. One hole was drilled and jammed with the tools when the explosion they thought was inevitable occurred.

There is great interest here in the report from Parker county that the well on the Morton farm is flowing at the rate of 200 barrels a day. A hole was struck in this well at 2655 feet last Friday. Saturday the drill was sent 57 feet deeper, according to reports received by F. W. Bridge. After it was seen that the well was flowing at the rate of 100 barrels a day. Sunday night the flow had increased in volume to 200 barrels per well. The well is now flowing at forty-five minute intervals. A great deal of gas was reported.

This is the third test on this farm. The first two showing gas and some oil. In northern Palo Pinto county, last week, Holt No. 2 was reported at eight barrels. The hole was drilled to 2500 feet deeper, and the well is now flowing at the rate of 100 barrels, at 1289 feet. Holt No. 1 was a five million gasser at 1290 feet. The well was drilled to 1958 feet, 25 feet was added, and oil came in at 1933 feet. They found sand at 1530, drilled to 1540, and have a well good for 30 barrels daily. Bickley No. 5 has 20 barrels at from 2104 to 2110 feet. Skinner No. 21 is a five barrel gusher at 1933 feet.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company's R. B. Allen No. 1 is making from sand from 1446 to 1461 feet. J. Edwards' Grainger No. 1 is a 20 barrel well at 1022 feet, with 10 feet of pay. In the Culbertson district the Gulf Production Company, Wabboner Bros. No. 1 was completed from 1515 to 1526 feet. The well is now flowing at 250 barrels per well. Lloyd No. 2 was abandoned at 1918, and Culbertson and al's Wagner Bros. 7, proved a dry hole at 1700. No. 8 has a sand from 1430 to 1439 feet and a flowing job for some lost tools.

In the Burk Burnett field, besides those already reported, the Unity Oil and Gas Company has a well at 1560 feet. The Farrabee Oil Company's Peter Ramming No. 1 is making 25 barrels at 1670 feet. The Magnolia Petroleum Company's Sinclair Ramming No. 7 is good for 5 barrels, after being shut with 20 quarts.

Horton-Walker which was producing 15 barrels was shot with 20 quarts, and is now producing 30 barrels. In the shallow pool, Johnson et al's Daniels No. 3 is a 15 barrel gasser at 355 feet. Crowell and Cousins Copper Nos. 35 and 36 are each good for 5 barrels, the former at 506 feet, the latter at 368 feet. The Collins Oil and Gas Company's Crompton No. 2 is giving the same amount at 530 feet. Langford, Staley and Chenault's George No. 3 was a duster at 520 feet.

The Farrabee Oil Company's Peter Ramming No. 2 found a very hard sand at 1670 feet, with the hole full of oil, which was flowing slowly over the casing. It was having a well at 1670 feet, and is expected to make a good producer.

MARVIN JONES OFFERS PEACE RESOLUTION

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—Negotiations looking to peace are provided for in a resolution offered Tuesday by Representative Marvin Jones of Texas, authorizing the President to address a joint communication to the nations engaged in the war, suggesting a conference to be held in a neutral capital. The purpose of the gathering would be to discuss peace and formulate a treaty to be submitted to the belligerent governments for consideration. The resolution contemplates taking in the neutrals by suggestion from the President, that they also send delegates to the conference, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of a world peace organization as a basis for establishing a lasting peace. The resolution will be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations but under the policy that committee adopted carry in the war no action would be taken unless it was given the approval of the White House. Mr. Jones views his resolution as being in harmony with the utterances by the President in speeches where in the question of world peace has been dealt with and hopes that the resolution will be construed as contrary to the wishes of the administration. He points out no pause in the war operations is contemplated, thereby each nation would retain its rights pending the negotiations. "I would not offer such a resolution if I thought it conflicted with the desires of the President," said Mr. Jones, "as I have supported him in all steps in this war and shall continue to do so. The resolution offers no suggestion as to what the President is leaving that for the judgment of the conferees when they get around the table for a talk. Certainly any statement of mine would retain its force should be at this time would violate the proprieties of other allied nations. But we do not know just what some of the nations are contending for. Many asserts that she is waging a defensive war. The conference would give Germany an opportunity to establish that she was driven to the war by the conviction of the greatest falsification in diplomatic history. Also it would lay the situation squarely before the people of Germany as well as those of other portions of the world. It is not believed that any other resolution dealing with peace at this time has let it be known that the country ought to refrain from the reclamation of a desire for peace is exhibited by the enemies of the allies. Only yesterday it came from the White House that such a resolution is being considered. The President will be found ready and willing to act. Up to this hour Germany has offered no suggestion that the allies have been willing to consider, neither has the world been impressed with the sincerity of what Germany has said by its attitude. It is well known that at the outset of the war, when success of the German army was prominent, the Berlin government took the opportunity to hold the territory it had taken for a restoration of its colonies and for a large indemnity. When these stipulations were refused, the German opponents of Germany, her next offer came with the claim for indemnity omitted. The drift of the last German word was for a restoration of the status quo as of the date of the war, which would mean the danger of Germany's military machine shall be allowed to continue to rest for Germany, which the United States entered the war can not in any measure be harmonized with the Berlin idea of adjustment is too well known for comment in the opinion of Washington officials. The people of Germany have been impressed with the necessity of winning the war, upon the promise of collecting an indemnity running into billions of dollars from some of Germany's enemies. In the words of the Chancellor to the German people, recently uttered: "If we lose the war we will get no indemnity and the cost of the war will be paid by the people of Germany in taxes."

EVERYONE SHOULD SEE THIS AUTO EXHIBIT

Graphic Display of Mechanism of Premier Auto at Peter Car Company

A Premier Aluminum Six auto, standing on edge in the windows of the Peter Car Co. in the Masonic Temple, has been a center of attraction this week. Seventy-five persons made an inspection of the car last week, and 54 had done so from Monday morning to noon today this week, indicating that such a chance to study the mechanical plant of the modern automobile is not often open to the public. This particular Premier car is a 1916 model, which sits nearby on trestles for inspection. Every part of the mechanism of the car is exposed to view, and a salesman with intimate knowledge of the many parts of the machine, their duty and power delivery, methods of Premier lubrication, ease of replacement of worn or scored parts, etc., is at hand to give any information which those who inspect the car may ask. The average auto owner in reality knows very little about the mechanism of his car. He knows how to start and stop it, put water in the radiator and get the car to go, but he knows very little about the mechanism of the car. TRAVELED 25,000 MILES WITHOUT U-BOAT SCARE

The new novel experience of making a 25,000 mile voyage without so much as a single U-boat scare belongs to E. G. Williams of Detroit, who recently completed such a voyage and who has just started upon another which will probably be even longer, though it is impossible to say, of course, whether it will prove as uneventful. The only excitement I saw during the entire year abroad, he says, "was one night several months ago, off the coast of Colombia. We came in sight of what was believed to be a German raider. All lights were ordered out, and considerable commotion resulted among the passengers. Nothing developed, however."

PHILIPPINES INCREASING BY WEALTH RAPIDLY

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Manila, P. I.—While 1916 saw a gain in the increase in circulation of money in the Philippine Islands which amounted to 15,000,000 pesos, the first six months of this year will exceed that record increase by 3,000,000 pesos. The circulation since January 1 is estimated at 30,000,000 pesos. These figures, say local economists, reflect a steady and highly favorable trade conditions that have been maintained for more than two years in the Philippine Islands. The wealth of the islands is increasing rapidly. In Manila alone, the assessed value of taxable property today is over 1,000,000,000 pesos which is more than 3,000,000 pesos above 1916. Recent agricultural development, in the provinces, the extent of which makes it certain that the increase in property values in other parts of the islands has far exceeded Manila records. The fact that the campaign for a single week's campaign for subscriptions to the Liberty Loan testified to the presence of much available money in Manila, the fact that the agencies which have all the funds which they can readily make use of are another testimonial to the prosperity of the islands and the progress of the Philippine people.

MAUPIN DIDN'T INTEND FOR ADVICE TO BE FOLLOWED

E. H. Maupin, manager of the Blair-Hughes Co. house here, returned this forenoon from a trip to Elk City, Altus and other Oklahoma points. He says that he stepped into the rooms of the Exemption Board in one of the towns he visited. There were about twenty men in various courses of physical examination there at the time, some naked, some undressing and some dressing. One big chap who weighed 210 and stood 5 feet 11 1/2 inches, had been rejected, and was slowly romping to dress. Mr. Maupin said to the examining physician: "I don't see what you did with your d—d butting in."

The Trinity Church in Fort Worth is one of the leading Episcopal churches in Texas and Rev. Datson is receiving warm congratulations even from those who will regret to see him leave Wichita Falls. BAPTIST CHOR ENTERTAIN TUESDAY

Mrs. Fred Barron entertained the Baptist choir last night with a very pretty lawn party. Tables were taken out to the lawn, and lighted, and the party entertained themselves with the unusual amusement of what might be described as "Progressive Cantata." The manner of this game is as follows: One person or group will start the plot of the cantata, adding music when possible. Then another group adds a scene or a character, and so on till the complete work is finished. The composite efforts of the whole party. In this case the work was unfinished. After the cantata was well under way, a refreshing ice course was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Henninger, Mr. and Mrs. Baber, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Shumaker Baber, Mrs. E. H. Brown, and Misses Teresa and Emma Smith. STILL EXAMINING RECRUITS AT THE GUARD CAMP

Recruits are still being examined at the National Guard Camp at the lake. In spite of the fact that both F and G Companies are recruited to their maximum strength of one hundred and fifty men apiece. The reason for the additional examinations, according to Captain Perkins is that some of the fifteen companies of the regiment are short, and that these companies are to be filled from the surplus of men from the companies which have over-recruited. Captain Perkins said this morning that everything was running very smoothly at the camp.

LABOR MEMBER OF BRITISH WAR COUNCIL RESIGNS

LOYD GEORGE RESIGNED POSITION OF SECRETARY TO LABOR

LETTERS ARE GIVEN OUT

Premier Makes Public Sir Arthur's Letter of Resignation And His Own Accepting It

London, Aug. 11.—Arthur Henderson, labor member of the War council, has resigned his membership in the cabinet. His resignation has been accepted. Premier Lloyd George tonight made public Mr. Henderson's letter of resignation and his letter of acceptance of the resignation. Both letters bear date of today.

Mr. Henderson's letter follows:

"Dear Prime Minister: At our conference last night I gathered you had reached the conclusion that my resignation of the secretaryship to the labor council was no longer compatible with my membership in the war cabinet. Recent experiences have impressed me with the embarrassing complications arising from this duality of office. Owing to this complication I deem it advisable to ask to be relieved from further membership in your government and to share your desire that the war be carried to a successful conclusion and I trust that in a non-governmental capacity I may be able to render some little assistance to this end.

"I remain, yours sincerely, ARTHUR HENDERSON."

The Premier's letter follows: "My Dear Henderson: I am in receipt of your letter of this morning tendering your resignation of your position as a member of the War Council and have received the permission of His Majesty to accept it. My colleagues and I receive with satisfaction your assurance of your unabated desire to assist in the prosecution of the war to a successful conclusion and they regret that you can no longer be directly associated with them in that enterprise.

"There are, however, certain facts with which it is essential the public be acquainted that they may form a correct appreciation of the situation which has led to this regrettable conclusion. The first is that your resignation was taken completely by surprise at the cabinet meeting of the 10th inst. when you were present. The second is that your resignation was not taken until after the meeting of the 10th inst. when you were present. The third is that your resignation was not taken until after the meeting of the 10th inst. when you were present.

"That was clearly what you led me to believe. That was also the impression left on the minds of your colleagues in the cabinet. It is therefore with some surprise that I received a letter from you yesterday afternoon stating that you ought to inform me, after most careful consideration, that you had come to the conclusion that you would take no other course than to stand by the advice given the day after your return from Russia, and that your colleagues subsequently received the speech which you ought to have informed the cabinet of before you entered the conference.

"When you spoke as a member of the Labor party but a member of the cabinet, responsible for the conduct of the war, nevertheless, you did not deem it necessary to inform the conference of the view of your colleagues and the delegates consequently were justified in assuming that the advice you gave was not inconsistent with their opinion.

"The second point is this, yesterday morning we received a communication from the government in which it was informed that although the Russian government did not deem it possible to prevent Russian delegates from taking part in the Stockholm conference they regarded it as a party concern and its decision in no way binding upon the action of the government, and further that communication contained these words: 'I hasten to lay before you the above information as I fear that the impression which has prevailed that Russia ardently desired the Stockholm conference and this argument has been put forward in order to influence British public opinion in favor of the Labor and Socialist parties in Great Britain participating in the conference.'

SPEAKER FULLER WILL BE PLACED ON STAND MONDAY

LOCATION OF WEST TEXAS A. AND M. NEXT MATTER TO BE TAKEN UP

NO SESSION SATURDAY

On Account of Illness of W. A. Hanger's Son Recess Taken Until Monday

Special to The Times. Austin, Texas, August 11.—Unless there are some unexpected developments not now anticipated, a vote is not expected to be reached until next Saturday in the House sitting as a committee of the whole, on the charges against Governor Ferguson. This conclusion is based on the fact that there are yet a number of witnesses to be examined including, it is understood, a number who have been summoned by the governor's side of the controversy.

When the hearing is resumed on Monday morning, Speaker F. O. Fuller, Representative Thomson, of Nacodoches, Secretary of the West Texas A. and M. Locating Board, Prof. W. F. Doughty, Representative McFarland, and others are scheduled to take the witness stand and give details as to the middle over the location of this new college.

When the hearing of this proposition is concluded there is yet to be heard the charge of the loan made to Fuller by the governor, although this may be proved in connection with the main investigation. There may also be other witnesses placed on the stand in connection with the University controversy. The financial end of the investigation seems to have been concluded. After the taking of testimony has been concluded then will come the arguments of counsel for the prosecution and for the defense. This is expected to consume a day or two, unless a limit is placed on the speeches. It was also learned today that several members of the House are to make speeches regarding the matter before a vote is finally taken.

Members are better able to keep up with the proceedings at this investigation because of the plan adopted of having the stenographers report made daily and printed in the Journal. This report is read by the members and thus they are in a position to know exactly what is going on and what is being done by the testimony.

Another thing which may prolong the inquiry is the report that additional charges may be filed. Just what is the nature of these charges has not been disclosed. In fact attorneys on both sides are carefully refraining from disclosing their plans. The governor in the meantime does not seem to be greatly perturbed at the testimony which has been adduced by witnesses during the present week. There is a plan on foot in the House to devote an afternoon during the coming week to the consideration of the University appropriation bill which already passed finally in the Senate. It is also learned that there may be a number of amendments offered to this measure. In fact appropriation made by the special session of the legislature which aggregates $1,600,000 may be materially reduced and the bill is presented to the governor for approval.

The Senate will have practically nothing to occupy its attention for the next few days with the exception of the Woodward resolution providing for an investigation of the affairs of the department of insurance and banking. The fact that there was no session of the House committee of the whole today was due largely to the fact that the son of W. A. Hanger, counsel for Governor Ferguson, is critically ill at Fort Worth.

When a motion to run the hearing over to Monday was presented some members objected, but when it was explained that Senator Hanger wished to go to his boys' bedside the vote for a recess was unanimous.

STEAMER REPORTS SINKING OF U-BOAT NEAR IRISH COAST

A Canadian Port, August 11.—Officers on board a steamship which reached here today tell of sinking a German submarine on the trip across the Atlantic near the Irish coast. The lookout man notified the captain that a small sailing vessel was acting suspiciously. Soon a submarine emerged from behind it. Directly after the submarine showed itself the gunner fired. He hit the submarine with his first shot. A second shell struck the conning tower and a third shell turned the submarine over and it began a nose dive. Its crew clambered on deck and waved white handkerchiefs. The steamship left the survivors of the Germans to a patrol boat that came up.

NATION'S INTEREST, INDIVIDUAL IS DRAFT RULE

MARRIED MEN WILL BE EXEMPTED ONLY WHEN TO INTEREST OF GOVERNMENT

RIGID INTERPRETATIONS

Reports Indicate That Wholesale Attempts to Evade Draft Have Been Made in Many Places

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—It is General Crowder today on the fact that Congress framed the army draft law in the interest of the nation, not the individual.

For that reason laws are being drawn tight in the matter of exemptions. The government has acted slowly in bringing home to the people the fact that the draft law is a complete failure. The burden of military service would be carried entirely by the single men of the 10,000,000 registrants.

General Crowder has announced that married men will be exempted only when it is to the interest of the government. An interpretation when exempted without question and the burden of military service would be carried entirely by the single men of the 10,000,000 registrants.

An interpretation similarly rigid has now been placed on rejections for industrial reasons. The government has taken the lead in scrutinizing close by military service among its employees before asking that they be exempted. District boards throughout the country have been instructed to make the government's action their guide in dealing with men in private employ.

Reports have indicated that wholesale attempts to evade the draft through the desertion of men have been made in many places.

The office force of General Crowder has been reduced materially and virtually all of the officers who have aided him in carrying out the draft have now been detailed to the national army.

GERMANY BEHIND ANTI-DRAFT PROPAGANDA

MORE RESISTANCE IS BEING EXERTED BY THE RUSSIANS

SEVERAL ATTACKS REPULSED AND AT SOME POINTS RUSSIAN TROOPS ADVANCED

FIGHTING IN FLANDERS

Battle Raging East of Ypres Where British Hold Gains Against Counter Attacks

The Associated Press war summary follows: Russia's armies are continuing to exhibit increased resistance in the area of the Austro-German offensive on the eastern front, while in the west the British and French pressure is showing results in the further recession of the German line in Flanders.

An example of what seems to be the improved morale of the Russians on the Gallician front is provided by Petrograd's report on the Teutonic attack at Brody northeast of Lemberg which has been in preparation for several days. The assault was started on Thursday, resulting in heavy fighting as the Teutons swept forward but ending in what the Russian official statement characterized as a complete failure. The Russians still hold here a strip of Gallician soil.

The Teutonic attack on the part of Romania still remains in effect. Possession is being continued on three sides and advances for the offensive on some side is admitted.

On the Russian frontier the Austro-German troops were forced to retreat with the loss of 400 men in prisoners, one place being pushed back across the Putna.

World Marshal Mackensen's offensive in southern Moldavia seems to be giving the entente command the greatest concern at present, as a highly important line of railway communication along the western Moldavian front is threatened by it. Apparently the drive is aimed at the railway junction on Pantin, the possession of which would cut off the branch railway which connects the two lines of communication along this front.

The battle is being waged along the Wachtel river across which Von Mackensen has forced his way to the west of the Fokshani-Orna railway line. To the east of the railway, however, the attacks apparently have been less successful.

The Flanders battle, which has not yet been resumed along the whole front, has been raging violently east of Ypres. The British gain in the Westhoek region on Friday's attack was maintained in its entirety against six violent German counter attacks delivered Friday night. In addition British troops on the right flank where the complete offensive was captured in the light were able to move their lines forward during the night, gained additional ground. They now are well established on dominating positions seized in their four day assault.

Lorain's report on this fighting characterizes this an unsuccessful attempt along a front of 5 miles and mentions especially the capture of a British soldier from positions near Westhoek.

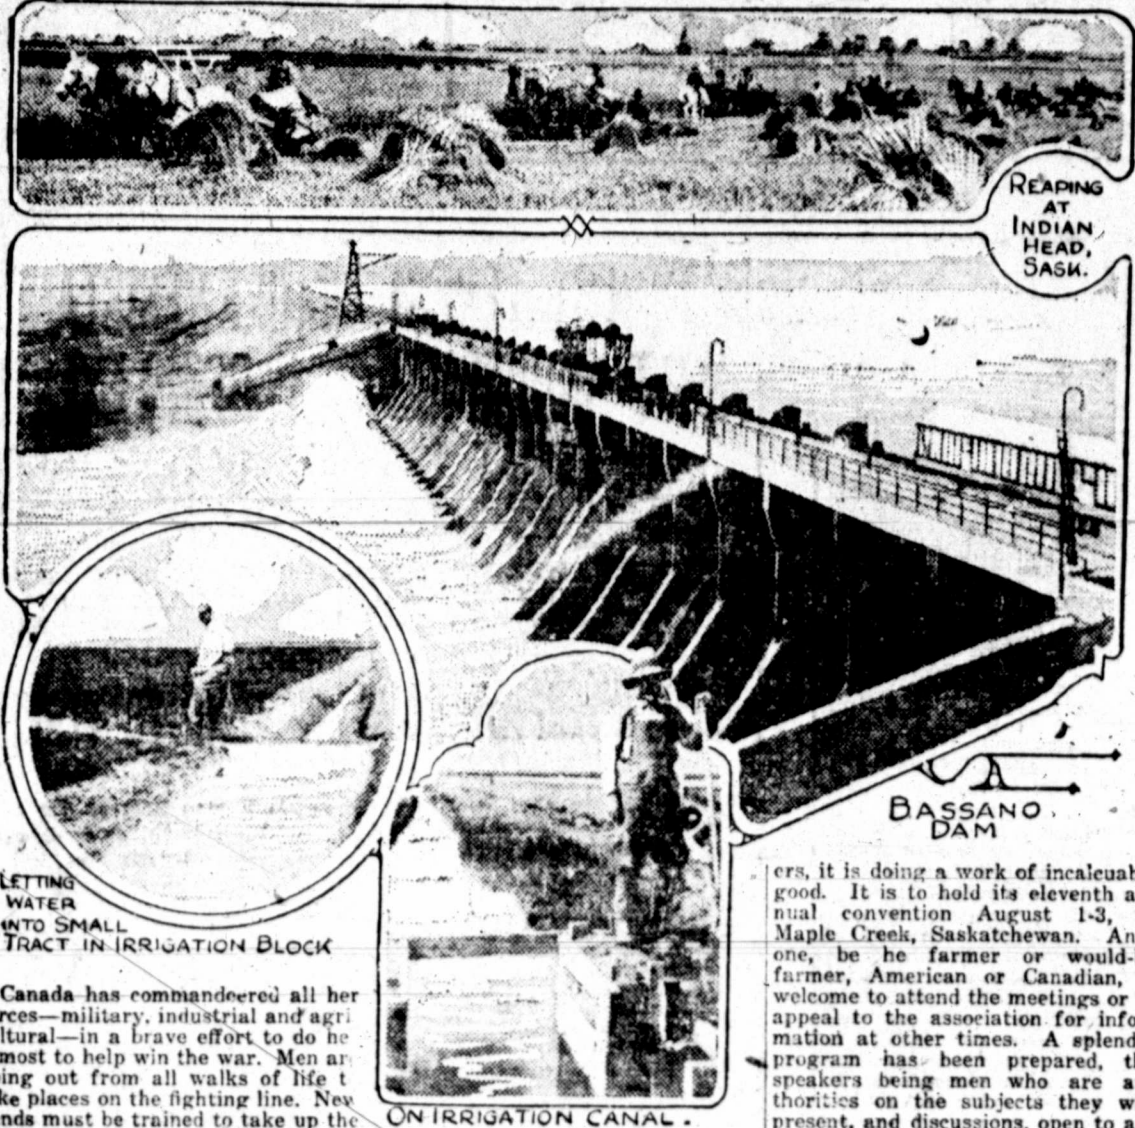

French troops Friday night recaptured most of the ground taken from them the day previous in the St. Quentin region. British captured six trenches and the Germans had won recently on the Alsne front and broke up a German attack on the Carnaliet region in the Champagne. The Germans managed to hold onto a 50 yard section or trenches they had penetrated north of Carnaliet but otherwise the French lines were kept intact.

Arthur Henderson, British labor leader and member of the British cabinet, has resigned from the cabinet and his resignation has been accepted. Mr. Henderson attacked the labor conference which resulted in voting to send delegates to Stockholm is said to have led to his resignation.

SIX-STRONG ATTACKS HAVE BEEN REPULSED

By Associated Press. British Front in France and Belgium, Aug. 11.—The Germans late yesterday and last night delivered six strong attacks against the Westhoek Ridge which the British captured yesterday, but in each case the enemy was repulsed. The first attempt was made in general flank advance and having failed in this the Teutons advanced an artillery fire on the Westhoek Ridge and village.

WAR NO BAR TO CANADIAN DEVELOPMENT PLANS

LETTING WATER INTO SMALL TRACT IN IRRIGATION BLOCK

ON IRRIGATION CANAL

REAPING AT INDIAN HEAD, SASK.

BASSANO DAM

Canada has commandeered all her forces—military, industrial and agricultural—in a brave effort to do her utmost to help win the war. Men are going out from all walks of life to take places on the fighting line. New hands must be trained to take up the work laid down. It means that those left behind must keep affairs as near normal as possible. They are doing this not only for the present day with its unusual demands, but are wisely looking forward to the after-war days and the problems that must be met and solved in re-assimilating Canada's overseas forces and in intelligently distributing the great influx of immigrants that will turn to Canada as a Land of Promise when it is possible for them to leave war-torn, almost hopelessly devastated Europe.

The men who are giving their best thought to the solution of this problem have come to the conclusion that a great portion of these people must go onto the land, must become farmers, must be disengaged from settling in cities forming a surplusage there. J. D. Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, made the vital move when he announced that ers, it is doing a work of incalculable good. It is to hold its eleventh annual convention August 1-3, at Maple Creek, Saskatchewan. Anyone, be he farmer or would-be farmer, American or Canadian, is welcome to attend the meetings or to appeal to the association for information at other times. A splendid program has been prepared, the speakers being men who are authorities on the subjects they will present, and discussions, open to all, will be in order. Not only do the farmers hear the subjects well treated from the expert's standpoint, but they may ask him to solve the personal problems each has encountered.

Maple Creek, the scene of the coming convention, is an example of what irrigation does for a community.

In 1883 the Canadian Pacific came through and with it the first farmers of Maple Creek. These early settlers brought a few cattle that soon grew into mighty herds that roamed the unfenced prairies. Saskatchewan at that time was only a grazing country and it was not until 1905 that farming made headway. Simple irrigation schemes brought water from the Cypress Hills and soon prairie grasses were supplanted by fields of grain and the herds were moved on to allow the reapers plenty of room. Today there are 190 irrigation schemes in operation and the 1915 grain crop marketed at Maple Creek amounted to $2,500,000.

Highest Class Phonograph in the World

The SONORA is a musical instrument of the phonograph type. As one listens to this great instrument, hears from a phonograph for the first time, true vocal and instrumental tones, with no characteristic element of beauty lacking, no unnatural quality added, one realizes the possibilities of phonographic reproduction.

The two distinguishing features of the SONORA are the scientifically faithful reproduction of all musical tones and a personal central of tone, which enables anyone to put new life and beauty into a record, without actually changing the artist's interpretation.

To those who have not heard the SONORA no description can be given which in any way compares with the instant comprehension that comes from actually hearing and playing it.

Those who are contemplating the purchase of a phonograph are invited to come to our booth rooms and have us make a demonstration of the SONORA.

H. W. SUMMERS TELLS WHY HE IS FOR AMENDMENT

Special to The Times. Dallas, Texas, August 11.—Representative H. W. Summers of the Dallas District, made a most emphatic declaration in approval of the Reclamation and Conservation Amendment to be voted on Tuesday, August 21st. He is for crop diversification; he has long opposed the one crop policy, and he insists that the reclamation of forty million acres of idle land will result in added billions of dollars to the material wealth of the state, in vastly increased production of foods, in fact a sufficient amount to feed France, with its population of thirty five millions, or the entire population of the British Isles.

He came to Texas on a flying visit to urge the importance of the adoption of the Amendment and to look after business of a governmental nature. Before his departure for the national capitol he gave out the following emphatic endorsement on the Conservation and Reclamation Amendment and expressed the sincere hope that all voters who are interested in the forward movement in Texas go to the polls on Tuesday, August 21st and declare by their ballot that this constructive measure shall be made a part of the organic law of the commonwealth.

"I have given considerable time and made a close study of the proposed Conservation and Reclamation Amendment, its author, Judge Leonard Tillotson, is an able statesman and is recognized as a very progressive and conscientious lawyer. He has served his people, not for love of office or sake of private gain, but to do what he may, along constructive lines, for the development of the latent resources of our Imperial State and the moral and material advancement of the people. Texas is a fifth larger in area than Germany; Texas is the leading livestock state of the Union; Texas is the leading cotton producing state of the Union; Texas is the leading oil producing state of the South; Texas ranks as a rice-producing state. It has been demonstrated that Texas could be made a leading wheat-producing state. North and South Dakota, Montana and other semiarid states have become wheat producing states through intensified farming—which means plowing and permitting the soil to retain the moisture which falls in the winter for use during the crop season.

ORGANIZING RURALES TO PATROL FEDERAL DISTRICT

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Mexico City.—A corps of rural police, known as rurales, which will consist of about 800 men, now is being formed under direction of General Ignacio Flores, to patrol and keep order in the Federal District. The corps will wear the tight trousers and short jacket of gray with black trimmings, and the broad silver banded sombreros, which made the rurales of Diaz's time a picturesque military body.

may be their hands, if they wish to go forward and add these idle lands to the tillable acres of the state, mind you, at their own cost. It should be clearly understood that this amendment provides that the owners of the lands pay all the costs for reclamation. They are to receive the benefits and they stand the expense of reclamation. Under the present constitution owners of over-flooded sections who wish to reclaim their idle lands through the construction of levees by county lines and not through bond issue are forced oftentimes into the hills in order to take in contiguous territory which must be protected from overflow by the uncontrollable surface or flood waters.

"Why should a law be so restrictive or ambiguous that it should require a subterfuge to evade the conditions imposed, in order to comply with its strict letter? As the Constitution stands today, the bonding capacity of lands requiring reclamation through levees, drainage or irrigation to make them productive, is limited to twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the lands. These lands in their un-reclaimed state have a value not to exceed ten dollars per acre. The amount of bonds that may be issued upon such lands is, therefore, two dollars and a half, or less, per acre—an amount not sufficient to clear a right of way for a levee, or even arrange the preliminary details for a drainage or irrigation project. In order to secure an amount sufficiently large through bond issue to reclaim these waste lands, it is necessary to voluntarily raise the assessed valuation from ten dollars per acre to sixty to one hundred dollars per acre, thereby increasing taxes for all purposes under this inflated valuation of the lands, such as State, county, school, or road taxes, etc."

"This is an injustice and places a heavy penalty upon progress and the thrifty development of our state. The present law makes necessary evasion of the law in order to accomplish a necessary form of improvement, and there is no better way for the public spirited voters of Texas to declare themselves for equal privileges, equal opportunities, equal assessments and exact justice for all, than to write by their ballot into the organic law, this splendid and timely piece of constructive legislation."

Cobb Within 15 Points of .400 Mark; Has Scored 80 Runs—Roush Pulls Away From Hornsby in the National League

By Associated Press. Chicago, Aug. 11.—Tyrus Cobb has added another point to his batting average and is now 15 points from the .400 mark, according to averages published today and which include Wednesday's games. Ty is hitting .385 for 165 games. He has made 155 hits, including thirty doubles, twenty-one triples and five home runs. This slugging has given him the American League lead in total bases, his total being 242.

The Georgian also is getting back into his old time stride on the base lines. He is leading the league in runs scored with 80 and is creeping up on Chapman and Roth of Cleveland, for stolen base honors. Cobb has pilfered 32 bases, while the Cleveland pair have stolen 24 and 23 respectively. Chapman, with 55, is far in front of other sacrifice hitters.

Pipp of New York went into a tie with Veach of Detroit for home run honors, each having seven. "Happy" Felisch made the best show among the leading batters. He jumped from 291 last week to 304 and is the only hitter on the leading White Sox team in the select "30" class. Speaker suffered a slump but remained in second place. Roth of Cleveland and Barker of New York dropped below 300. Detroit continued to lead in team batting with 259, with the last place Philadelphia pushing in second place with 253.

Leading batters who have participated in half of their club's games: Cobb, Detroit .385; Speaker, Cleveland .351; Sisler, St. Louis .342; Veach, Detroit .311; McInnis, Philadelphia .306; Felisch, Chicago .304; Chapman, Cleveland .295; Rice, Washington .294; Roth, Cleveland .294; Ruml, St. Louis .294; Baker, New York .293.

Leading pitchers who have participated in 21 or more games rated according to earned runs per game: G. W. L. ER. Clete, Chicago 1.40

Mays, Boston 1.91
Ruth, Boston 1.92
Russel, Cleveland 1.92
Kipper, Chicago 2.03
Scott, Chicago 2.03
Coveleskie, Cleve. 2.04

In the National League, Roush of Cincinnati is hitting .344 and has pulled away from Hornsby of St. Louis who was pushing him for the lead last week. Hornsby, batting at a .325 clip, clings to second place, although he dropped three points. The St. Louis shortstop increased his lead in total bases. His 109 hits in 95 games have been stretched into 176 bases, because of 19 doubles, 12 triples and eight home runs. The last item earned him a tie with Cravath, of Philadelphia for circuit drive honors last week and the number remains unchanged.

Burns of New York, increased his lead as a run getter. He has scored 72 times. Carey of Pittsburgh did not steal any additional bases, but his mark of 29 continued to top the base stealers.

The triple tie at 21 for sacrifice hits honors, held by the Chicago trio—Doyle, Deal and Williams—remained unbroken. New York has batted itself into a tie with Cincinnati for team batting with 264.

Leading batters who have played in half their club's games: Roush, Cincinnati .344; Hornsby, St. Louis .325; Cruise, St. Louis .318; Kauff, New York .315; Groh, Cincinnati .311; Fisher, Pittsburgh .311; Griffith, Cincinnati .308; Zimmerman, New York .304; Willett, New York .299; Neale, Cincinnati .298.

FORMER RESIDENT KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT IN CALIF.

Word has been received in the city of the death of George Weeth, which occurred at Salina, Cal., on Tuesday. Mr. Weeth was killed in an automobile accident, the details of which are unknown to friends here. Mr. Weeth was for many years a resident of the Gilbert Creek neighborhood, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Weeth, who have been residents of that community since 1888. Besides his parents he has a number of brothers and sisters living in this county among them being Albert Weeth and Mrs. Walter Snow of this city. He was married to a daughter of Mr. Johnson, known here as California Johnson, who was the builder of the dam at Lake Wichita, and who moved to California a number of years ago. Mr. Weeth left here in 1911 for California to go in business with Mr. Johnson.

LOCAL RECRUITING AGENT WAS MISTAKEN, ALLRIGHT

The army recruiting station has received the following: "Under an opinion furnished by the Judge Advocate General of the Army, May 28, 1917, the payment of five dollars to postmasters for the procurement of recruits is restricted to recruits for the Regular Army. Early this week R. J. Craig applied at the army office for enlistment, but was refused by Sergeant Watkins on the ground of several scars, and one or two minor defects. Craig was so disappointed that the sergeant told him that if he cared to go to Dallas and take the chance of being accepted we would accept him. The sergeant added, 'If you should happen to pass, let me have a card.' Today, the card came as follows: 'You made a mistake all right' called at Dallas and was sent to Fort Leavenworth, Kan. and was sworn in here today (Signed) R. J. Craig.' Craig was enlisting as a machinist, and would probably be assigned to a department where he will not be required to do much walking, so Sergeant Watkins said.

SHOT AT YOUNG MAN WOUNDED OWN DAUGHTER

Henrietta Independent. Aiming at Earl Morrow, who was in her company, and shooting his own daughter, was the rather unfortunate experience of Mr. Triplett, viewed from his standpoint, which occurred about 1 o'clock last Saturday night. The incident took place alongside the public road near the Triplett home about a mile and a half northeast of Henrietta.

The load of a shotgun struck the young lady in the fleshy part of the leg between the knee and the thigh, and while extremely painful, is not deemed serious. Mr. Triplett took a second shot at Morrow, but the young man dexterously grabbed the barrel of the gun just in time to prevent the shot from passing through his hat. It was a very narrow escape for him.

The condition of the young lady brought about a cessation of hostilities, and by agreement Morrow remained with her while Mr. Triplett got his car to bring her to town for treatment. A PROTEST AGAINST PESSIMISM.

Editor The Times: There is a certain class of women in Wichita Falls who are threatening to form an association for the protection of war mothers. If we do not want some folks to beware of the Russian ruckies will be tame beside us. This town has a lot of pessimists that are getting on our nerves. To our way of thinking, they are the guys who put the slack in the slackers.

The other day one of our number cried into the telephone while she told the writer that she never wanted to look at her minister again. She had been attending church on account of the dark pictures of war, want, and woe which were presented to the public; and now the aid society is to lose one of its best working members because a mother could not hold up under the preacher's pessimism which has penetrated the already troubled tribe of mothers.

This is not an isolated case, the land is full of just such Job's comforters. The chief comfort that was given in this particular case was that all we could do was to play Pollyanna, and be gloriously glad that such ministers are never made chaplains in the service of our government. We mothers had rather swallow the pessimistic pills at home than to have them handed out to our boys in the army camps.

There are certain ones of you from whom the mothers of serried sons run like they would from the plague. They are trying their best to hit you with their submarine of cheerfulness, but you have them hemmed in with your ugly U-boats.

Just how the United States of America shall acquit itself in the war depends not so much upon its money as upon the spirit of the Nation in the fighting of the war. Up to this time, there has been a lack of unity. There has been discord among citizens and contention among the leaders in congress.

One speed king, five drunks, two vagrants and one for distributing the peace were fined $5 each in police court yesterday morning. The latter part of the session was turned into a sort of juvenile affair, six boys seventeen years of age and younger appearing for trial to a charge of disturbing the peace. It developed from their testimony and the cross-examinations made that the boys had been on the roof of a building in town Friday night and were throwing pebbles and spitting on the people below. The same offence had been reported to the police department previously, but each of these boys stated that it was their first time to go on the building, so they were fined $5 each, and after a sharp reprimand from the judge, were cautioned not to be guilty of the same offence again.

County Judge Harvey Harris returned yesterday afternoon from Austin.

A. T. Ulrich, who sustained serious injuries to his feet and limbs at the round house of the Northern railway Friday morning when a runaway engine plinned him to a brick wall, is reported doing as well as could be expected. His left foot was badly crushed, and it was thought probable it would have to be amputated, but attending physicians are certain now that this will not be necessary. Reports from the General Hospital late yesterday afternoon were to the effect that he was suffering considerably.

A Matthews and W. A. Tallferro of Denton, and Judge Whitelaw of this city, and their families, held a reunion at Lake Wichita Friday night. The three gentlemen were raised and went to school together in Tennessee, and since leaving there 27 years ago this is the first time they have all been together. Judge Whitelaw stated that none of them were married when they left Tennessee and that now all had families, but while they were together age was forgotten and it seemed as if they were boys again. The two gentlemen and their families leave this afternoon for their home in Denton.

America Adopts Tag System to Identify Men of the Armies

TO IDENTIFY THE SAMMY.

Like most European nations, the United States has adopted the method of identifying soldiers shown in the accompanying picture. The little metal tag or medal suspended from the soldier's neck is stamped with his number and the number of his regiment, so that identification may be made easily if necessary.

TWO BURGLARIES HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Burglars entered the Wichita Drug House Friday night and secured two dollars in cash from the cash register, and several razors. Entrance was gained by prying back the bars and cutting the screen over the back window.

The Parhamite Bar was also entered Friday night by burglars who secured about $6 in cash and some of the stock. No estimate of the amount of goods taken could be made, but it was not thought to be very much. It is thought that both robberies were committed by the same party.

EVEN BEFORE GOING ABROAD OUR MEN MUST DEFEND THEMSELVES FROM AERIAL ATTACKS

No. these men, members of the national guard called into the federal service, are not wearing gas masks. The head coverings are anti-mosquito masks of nesting, improvised by the men to protect themselves from the attacks of the pestiferous buzzers.

The army sanitarians are fighting the insects, but much remains to be done at the eastern camp in which these pictures were taken, and elsewhere. Picture No. 1 shows how you can't wear a mosquito net during washing.

so your comrades with their own helmets on may stand around and keep the pests away with brushwood. No. 2 shows the men sleeping in peace under anti-mosquito canopies, and No. 3 depicts the protection of the regimental mascot and his keeper.

TWO SQUADRONS FLIERS WILL BE TRAINED HERE

J. A. Kemp received a telegram yesterday from B. F. Johnson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who is in Washington, to the effect that if the aviation camp is located here, which seems practically a certainty, two squadrons would be sent, amounting to about nine hundred men. The telegram also stated that there would be a meeting of all the secretaries of the commercial clubs which are applying for the camps, some time this week, and that the whole matter would be settled by Friday at the latest.

BURGLARIES AND FORGERIES KEEP OFFICERS BUSY

The police force and sheriff's department were kept busy last night following clues in connection with the numerous burglaries and forgery cases reported by the military. A negro was arrested by Policeman Burns and later turned over to the county officials charged with theft in connection with the stealing of a suit of clothes from one of the furnishing stores here. Both forces were also working on the burglaries reported the night before. Three arrests were made but up to late last night the right party had not been located. A white man was arrested at one of the picture theatres last night and lodged in jail for mashing. Vagrants and drunks came in for their part also, about ten of each being picked up by the police up until 10 o'clock last night.

GOOD TALENT FOR MONDAY PROGRAM AT BURKBURNETT

Word was received here yesterday that the tent which was to have been used for the Chautauqua performances, did not arrive until the evening, too late for the afternoon program. It could not be learned whether the evening performances were held or not, nor was there any report as to why the tent was delayed.

On Monday afternoon and evening Dr. W. G. G. Benway will lecture, and the musical part of the program has been placed in the capable hands of Edward Coleman, a virtuoso on wind instruments. Miss Patti Rude, a contralto who brings with her an excellent reputation, and Miss Alexa Whitmore, a very versatile and talented young lady who is said to be equally at home with both the violin and piano. The program for Tuesday is possibly of a less serious nature, though not less entertaining on that account. At both the afternoon and evening performances, The Mysterious Milburns will be seen in their ingenious and occasionally amusing conjuring tricks. These magicians are said to be at the top of their profession, and to possess in their repertoire, besides some of the old stunts that are always new, some really new tricks of a startling nature. Here again the musical part of the program is in very capable hands. Louise Carlton, a contralto of very superior qualifications, who has invariably made a strong appeal to her audiences, will be heard in some of her most effective numbers; Mary Blanton a reader who possesses the quality of holding her audiences whether her mood be serious or gay will entertain with her best selections, and the audience will also have the opportunity of hearing Estelle Wilson, who is said to be that rare person, an individual pianist.

The promoters of the Chautauqua, who are much to be commended for their earnest work in bringing the attraction to Burkburnett, wish to extend a most cordial invitation to the people of the entire county to visit their town at this time and attend the programs.

Miss Maude Stonecipher and Miss Lois Craddock have gone to Colorado for a visit of several weeks.

DEATH OF ELECTRA MAN THURSDAY YET UNEXPLAINED

District Attorney Leslie Humphrey and Sheriff George Hawkins spent Saturday afternoon at Electra, investigating the mysterious death of C. A. Morton, a restaurant man there, whose dead body was found Thursday night in his room in the Electra hotel. There was a bullet hole through his temple and in his right hand was a six shooter. The first theory of Morton's death was suicide but this theory was badly shaken when an examination is reported to have shown that his skull was crushed. A coroner's jury Friday morning found that Morton came to his death at the hands of parties unknown.

Morton was assisted in his restaurant by his wife. It appears that he left the restaurant at about three o'clock in the afternoon Thursday to go to his room to rest leaving Mrs. Morton in charge of the restaurant. He did not return, but nothing strange was thought of this by Mrs. Morton. When Mrs. Morton went to their room in the hotel at about 9 o'clock that night she found his body lying across the bed. Two shots had been fired. One went through the floor of the room and the other entered Morton's head.

A chambermaid in the hotel testified she heard two reports that sounded like shots about 3 o'clock in the afternoon but supposing that they came from an automobile she thought nothing more about them.

Clarence McDonald testified at the coroner's inquest that while passing the hotel that afternoon he saw a man standing at the window of the room where Morton's body was found, apparently taking women's clothing from a trunk and tearing them into shreds. An open trunk was found in the room and a quantity of woman's torn clothes. McDonald testified that this man was of the description of Morton.

M. A. Waters, a son-in-law of Morton's testified at the coroner's inquest, that Morton and his wife had quarreled about a month ago and that afterwards Morton had left. In the meantime the restaurant had been transferred to his name to keep Morton from disposing of it while drinking. Sheriff and district attorney were unable to discover any new evidence yesterday and the case will be investigated by the grand jury when it reconvenes this week.

MRS. BANTA GIVEN MEDAL AS OLDEST RESIDENT COUNTY

ANNUAL PICNIC OLD SETTLERS ASSOCIATION SATURDAY WAS VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR

Mrs. J. A. Banta who came with her husband to Wichita County in October 1877, settling on Beaver Creek and who has been a continuous resident of the county since that time, was awarded the gold medal offered by the Wichita County Old Settlers' Association to the person who had been the longest and continued resident of the county, in attendance at the annual picnic held Saturday in Fries Grove near Iowa Park.

Mrs. Banta came with her husband to Wichita county from Colorado, making the trip in a prairie schooner. They forded Red River north of Henrietta, driving from there to Beaver Creek. Mrs. Banta has lived on the same place on which they settled. When they came here Gainesville was the nearest railroad station and Henrietta was the postoffice. The town of Wichita Falls had not then come into existence.

Mrs. Banta was presented with the medal by Dr. J. P. Reed, president of the association, with appropriate remarks.

The attendance at the picnic was reduced on account of the rains, but fell over some parts of the county early Saturday morning, but many of the old settlers and the younger folks were in attendance. Dr. J. P. Reed, president of the association, presided during the speechmaking. The first speaker was Mr. Hedson of Iowa Park, who alluded to the pioneers. Mr. L. Brubaker, one of the county's first school teachers here gave reminiscences of the early days.

Following Mr. Brubaker's speech recess was taken for the basket dinner spread in the shade of the grove. This dinner was a delight that will not soon be forgotten.

After dinner J. A. Kemp was called on and spoke on the constitutional amendment to be voted on August 21, which if adopted will make possible reclamation and irrigation projects. Mr. Kemp spoke earnestly and to the point and was given the closest attention.

Following Mr. Kemp Hon. Lucian W. Parrish, candidate for Congress, was introduced. This was Mr. Parrish's first introduction to a Wichita Falls audience and he was given a most cordial welcome. Mr. Parrish spoke against the noise and stir of a picnic crowd, the juvenile element of which, especially was noisy. It was a tribute to his oratorical ability that he held the close attention of the adult part of the crowd. His theme was "The American Home."

The First Baptist Church, Sunday school at 10 a. m. Dr. J. L. Gross of Dallas, will preach both morning and evening. Prayer meeting at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday.

Chiropractic--The Drugless Health Agent

Are You Sick? Have You Tried Everything Else and Become Discouraged?

CHIROPRACTIC HOLDS OUT A MESSAGE OF HOPE FOR YOU

Nearly every known disease (so-called) is permanently eliminated through the agency of this drugless science, which removes the cause. When the cause is removed nature can do her perfect work, and health is restored.

There are no drugs, nor use of the knife in the practice of Chiropractic. It is a Science of things natural; a system of adjusting the articulation of the Human Skeleton by hand for the elimination of the CAUSE of disease. It is a method of adjusting the CAUSE of disease without the use of drugs or instruments, based upon a correct knowledge of Anatomy, and especially the Nervous System.

"Ki-ro-prak-tic" is a coined word meaning "done with the hand." It is applied to the only Science and Philosophy which enables its operator, the Chiropractor, to analyze and locate unerringly the physical CAUSE of disease, and then promptly and to effectively remove that CAUSE.

The Chiropractic method is an exact, scientific method of determining the location of any vertebra, which on account of its mis-alignment, is responsible for nerve compression, and also provides a certain, unfailing means of adjusting or removing this CAUSE more promptly, radically and PERMANENTLY than any other known method. When the CAUSE is removed the EFFECT of the CAUSE (disease) disappears and health is the result.

Chiropractic is based upon the natural law of Cause and Effect. The principle of Chiropractic (adjust the CAUSE and the EFFECT is eliminated) is right. Clinical observation of many thousands of cases, representing every known condition the human body is subject to, shows conclusively that this science is reaching the cause of disease, opening the way for NATURE to cure. Chiropractic is not a theory, but a Science of FACTS, and is doing for humanity that which other professions have been striving meritoriously to do so for ages.

We invite all who are sick or suffering to call on us for consultation and explanation of the science of Chiropractic.

STATE DEFENSE COUNCIL WANTS TO HEAR FROM YOU

The following is the Bulletin No. 2 issued by the State Council of Defense: To the Various County Councils:

The Texas State Council of Defense invites your attention and co-operation in the following matters:
1. We would be glad to have you give us the labor conditions in your county, showing whether you have a surplus or shortage. If you should have either what character of labor is it, and about how many men will be needed, approximately, in your county, and for what purposes, and if you do not need labor, but have a surplus, what character of surplus is it; and would the same be available in other sections of the state?
2. It occurs to us that it would be well for you to advise your people, who are able to do so now, to lay in their winter wood, so that when cold weather comes, the poor people who are not able to lay in a supply now, will not be oppressed by high prices. In other words, we believe this would tend to equalize prices, and thereby benefit all alike.
3. It might be well to have your people organize in an effort to assist the business and families of those soldiers who go into the army. It would doubtless be a great comfort to the soldiers to have friends who do not go to war, volunteer to make it their business to look after the affairs of the soldiers and keep them posted from time to time.
4. We think it will be well for you to ask your papers to publish these bulletins, or the substance thereof, and invite discussion.
5. We earnestly request that you furnish us with your views on the various communications from this body, and, in this connection, we would appreciate your views on our bulletin No. 1, which was sent either to your body or the county judge of your county. Let us establish a full and free correspondence and exchange of ideas, and in this way we can be of most benefit to each other. Give us your views on any subject that may be of interest to your people.

THE BEST CARS IN THEIR CLASS

BUICK MARMON OAKLAND

The Buick Valve-in-Head Complete Line for Nineteen Eighteen

The Buick line of four and six cylinder valve-in-head motor cars for nineteen eighteen is complete from every standpoint of finish and refinement. Eight models provide a car for every demand.

Not only are Buick cars correct in principle and design, but each part used in their manufacture is made of the best procurable material subjected to such treatments as will produce the lightest possible cars consistent with safety and efficiency in performance.

he name Buick is the quality guarantee of an organization with nearly twenty years experience in building high grade valve-in-head motor cars.

During this time the valve-in-head principle of motor construction has been refined and developed with the result that the Buick valve-in-head has for a long period of time held an enviable reputation in the motor world.

The present models maintain the reputation earned by the Buick Motor Company for building cars of dignified beauty, extreme comfort, surplus power, and complete efficiency, coupled with attention to those minor details that add so much to the pleasure of possessing a motor car of completeness.

The Buick product provides high quality cars that will give efficient continual service in return for the amount invested.

Each Buick car built must merit the distinction of being a car of absolute dependability as there is no other way in which to retain the confidence now placed in them by the motor buying public.

The Oakland Six "Sturdy as the Oak"

Don't buy more than you need nor less than you need in a motor car. Invest your money carefully and wisely. Remember that excess weight and unnecessary size and power are expensive in every sense of the word, but remember also that if you get a car that is too small and too light you stint yourself on comfort and appearance and real service, in addition to depriving yourself of many features which most buyers of today demand.

The sensible kind of a car to choose is one of proved mechanical worth which has been kept up-to-date in every detail by experienced, progressive engineers. No car can be called really sensible unless it embodies the most scientific light weight design, unless its power is rightly proportioned to the weight of the car, unless it is economical in fuel, oil and tires, unless it is big enough to seat all of its passengers comfortably, unless it is built by a reputable, strongly established, conservatively managed concern, and unless its price is such that it can be built in large quantities in order to give full value, and also such that its second hand value always has a reasonable relation to its first cost.

We are interested in seeing every car buyer make a good investment, and because of this we urge you to compare cars carefully, not only as to their construction and features but chiefly as to their fitness for your needs. We believe that the Oakland Sensible Six is the ideal car for the average buyer and we want you to keep in mind the qualifications which make it a sensible car for you to buy.

SUBMARINE IN COLLISION WITH EXCURSION BOAT

AMERICAN U-BOAT KNOCKS BIG HOLE IN SIDE OF STEAMER IN BOSTON HARBOR

By Associated Press. Boston, Mass., Aug. 11.—An American submarine collided with the excursion steamer, Mayflower, in the Boston harbor in a thick fog late today. The result in material damage to the submarine was slight, officials said, though the Mayflower had a great hole in its side.

One seaman on the steamer suffered a broken leg. Fifteen hundred passengers on board were transferred without accident to the Rose Standish and brought to this city.

Tugs took the Mayflower to the shipyard in East Boston where she arrived with a considerable list to port. The crash caused intense excitement among the hundreds of women and children who had been spending the day on the beach and there was a rush for life preservers and boats. Officers took the situation in hand and pointed out the gray bulk of the submarine nearby and numerous tugs who were close enough to reach the steamer's side within a short time. The passengers soon calmed down and awaited the arrival of a steamer summoned by wireless.

OVER HUNDRED CARS PLEDGED FOR ARMY TRIP

Nearly one hundred cars have already been promised for the transportation of the boys of F and G Companies to Fort Worth. The idea seems to have been taken up with enthusiasm and there are many representative names on the list of those who are offering cars.

The Chamber of Commerce has issued blanks for the signatures, and those who undertake to furnish cars also agree to replace the vehicles at their own expense, should their own car become disabled. They further agree to take whatever place shall be assigned to them in the parade by the commanding officers, and to abide by such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary for the safety and comfort of the troops.

This will undoubtedly be a most notable parade, and will advertise Wichita Falls as a patriotic and open-handed city far and wide.

A procession of some hundred and fifty cars—consisting of troop transports, Red Cross Ambulance Corps, and baggage transports will cause considerable stir, not only on the road, but wherever the event is heard of.

There is still a number of vacancies on the lists of cars, and those wishing to appear in the parade will facilitate matters by notifying J. B. M. Marlow or any of the officers of the Chamber of Commerce. Those furnishing cars must either drive the car or furnish a driver.

SOLDIERS OF CENTRAL WEST WILL BE GATHERED IN SIX CANTONMENTS

Chicago, August 11.—Some time after the first of September, at great camps "somewhere between the Rockies and the Alleghenies," more than a quarter of a million Americans will begin the training which will change the boys of the factories, forests, and farms of the territory covered by the central department of the army into soldiers of the new national army of the United States.

More specifically 243,014 men chosen in the selective draft from fifteen states in the central department assembled in six immense cantonments, will devote all their energies to becoming seasoned soldiers of America ready to share the fortunes of war with their comrades from the other sections of the country.

Sites for the cantonments where the future soldiers will be trained have been selected with regard to water supply, sanitation and transportation necessities. Camp Sherman, near Chillicothe, O., will train 57,589 men from Ohio and West Virginia; Camp Taylor at Louisville, Ky., 41,560 men from Indiana; Camp Custer, near Abitole Creek, Mich., 35,992 men from Michigan and Wisconsin; Camp Grant near Rockford, Ill., 37,364 men from Illinois; Camp Dodge near Des Moines, Ia., 44,529 men from Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and Nebraska; and Camp Fuston at Fort Riley, Kans., 45,000 men from Kansas, Colorado and Arizona.

There will be a general similarity in all the cantonments when completed, though local conditions will necessitate a different grouping of barracks, parade and training ground. Each camp covers approximately 2,000 acres sufficient to permit of maneuvering of all the military units assembled there. The barracks which at most of the camps are nearing completion are two story structures the second floor being arranged as sleeping quarters for the men and the first for assembly and mess halls. Particular attention to the comfort of the soldiers was paid in designing the barracks. All of the cantonments with the exception of Camp Taylor at Louisville will be clean heated and will be equipped with comfortable iron beds, ample shower baths and in addition each soldier will have his own locker. When completed each cantonment will have the appearance of a moderate sized city with this important difference at the camps there will be no tenement district, no section squalid and unattractive, not to say unsanitary. All will be spick and span and army discipline can be depended on to keep them so, for one of the first lessons which the embryo soldier will be taught will be to "police the camp," which, in civilian tongue means to clean up barracks and grounds, attend to sanitary details and fit the camp for rigid inspection.

Buildings on each camp ground will include: General headquarters, brigade headquarters, officers headquarters, barracks for private soldiers, hospital and animal and artillery sheds. Near general headquarters will be the parade ground sufficient in area to accommodate the entire command. More extensive maneuvering fields will be laid out for actual drilling and, most important from the soldiers' view point, the rifle range and artillery fields will give opportunity not only for direct fire in view of the targets but for indirect fire and barrage or curtain fire. The great range of the modern rifle permits indirect small arm fire, a thing impossible with the old musket, and the soldier will be instructed in elevating the rifle so that an intervening hill would not prevent the destructive effect of the volley. There will be sufficient men under arms at each cantonment to form at least two divisions of 15,000 men, as employed in France and Belgium, and intensive maneuvers with the European division as a unit will familiarize officers and men with conditions such as they probably will meet on the battle field and in trench warfare.

What no detail of training for actual warfare may be lacking, each cantonment will contain the various arms of the service with the exception of cavalry. At least one division of infantry will train in conjunction with field artillery, engineers, signal battalion and aero squadron and the support of heavy artillery. To assist in the maneuvers there will be approximately 10,000 animals, artillery horses and mules and wagon train animals, as well as thousands of motor trucks and vehicles.

The soldiers will be commanded at each cantonment by nearly a thousand officers and many more non-commissioned officers—sergeants and corporals selected from the ranks. Announcement has been made by the war department that promotions will be made for each army division, opening the way for ambitious private soldiers to rise to positions of command. The details of the routine for the soldier during his stay at the cantonments are largely at the discretion of the commandant of each camp and no hard and fast regulations have been issued covering the course of instruction. In a broad way the drills are expected to follow the intensive training given to the students at the officers' training camps where the men who will hold minor commands at the cantonments received their education in military affairs.

Reveille will rouse the men at 5 o'clock and their subsequent activities will include morning an afternoon drill, first in "the school of the soldier," which calls for mastering the manual of arms, learning to stand, walk and run properly, the efficient care of weapons and the use of the rifle. Then comes the "school of the efficient care of weapons and the use of the rifle." This comes the "school of the squad" in which the soldier learns to act in conjunction with his seven squad-mates; then the "school of the company" with platoon formations, then the "school of the battalion" and lastly duties as a part of the regiment, brigade, and division.

While all this is being accomplished he is becoming acquainted with his rifle and expert in its use. Mindful of the lessons of the great war in which he soon may be a participant, special attention will be paid to the soldier's bayonet exercises and practice in bombing and grenade throwing will be given. Before the instruction is complete gas masks will become familiar to the soldier and all the details of trench warfare from digging the trench to defending it against every conceivable attack, will receive careful attention.

At first the work will be light but as the soldiers of the new army become hardened, long marches, and exhausting drills will supplant the lighter exercises and fit the soldiers for their task. "Drill, drill, drill," will by no means be the only activity at the cantonments and recreation has been carefully planned. In the intervals of maneuvers, baseball, football, and other sports, particularly those of an athletic nature, will be encouraged. Experts in wrestling, fencing, swimming and boxing will impart their skill to the men. Moving pictures and entertainments will help to while away evening hours. Every effort will be made by the officers in charge to protect the men from evil influences and the camp moral will be under constant supervision. The entertainment of the men will be largely under the direction of company chaplains.

Reading rooms, facilities for writing and opportunities for indoor amusements have been arranged, all with a view to making the soldier comfortable, contented and cheerful that he may more quickly learn his duties and responsibilities and the sooner become a first class fighting man.

While line officers have been busy preparing to train the citizen soldiers the quartermasters department has been busy arranging for feeding the thousands who will occupy the cantonments.

As in the regular army each company will have its cook and helpers who prepare and serve the food. Cleanliness is an absolute necessity. The rations which will be served each man include: beef, mutton, bacon, corned and fresh, corned beef hash, fish (fried, pickled, canned and fresh), turkey, soft bread, hard bread, corn cakes, corn bread, baked beans, soup, rice, hominy, potatoes, (fresh and canned), onions, tomatoes, (fresh and canned), turnips and other vegetables, prunes, apples, peaches, jam, coffee, tea, sugar, milk (evaporated), vinegar and pickles. Care is taken to avoid too frequent repetition of any food in the daily meals and the varieties make possible a balanced ration at all times. In preparing the cantonments the war department has sought to make sure that the soldiers in training for the new national army shall have comfortable quarters, good food, moral surroundings, needful recreation and above all expert military instruction as that the new army may be able and equipped at every point for the task before it.

Thousands of Miles of Concrete Roads in California Followed the Building of the Concrete Roadway Through the Presidio

Men of the Army, like men in other lines of business who know the importance of good roads, were quick to realize the efficiency of concrete as a roadway. The concrete road through the Presidio attracted wide attention among those interested in good roads in California. It was a success; so great a success, in fact, that at the present time many thousands of miles of concrete roads are to be found throughout the state.

The concrete road is the ideal road because it is not affected by weather, traffic, alternate freezing and thawing, cannot be softened by heat, increases the capacity of both horse-drawn and motor traffic, and increases in strength with age. For further particulars about concrete roads write

PAULINE FREDERICK AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY

Pauline Frederick, one of the screen's greatest emotional actresses, would grace any role that she was given to perform, but in "The Love That Lives" she has been accorded a vehicle which allows her to display the full splendid scope of her remarkable talent. It can be truthfully said that in this production, which was directed by the rising starlet, Miss Frederick has attained to heights of artistry never before reached even in her brilliant career. It would seem on first thought that the role of a scrubwoman held few if any possibilities, yet Pauline Frederick has imparted to such a role all the charm and pathos and infinite understanding of which she alone is capable and Molly, the office drudge, as portrayed by Miss Frederick, becomes a character that is lovable, understandable and charming. Daughter of the scrubwoman Molly has a wee baby daughter of her own whom she resolves shall not follow the steps of her mother and herself and it is to save that baby girl and her little sister that Molly fights with all the strength she knows. The tragedy of this battle of Molly's has been depicted in all its sordid, dismal truthfulness, yet lightened by flashes of Miss Frederick's inimitable humor and many attractive glimpses of her two babies, before the one is taken from her by a terrible accident and the other grows up in ignorance of her very existence. The scenes of the fire in the office where Molly and her boy's sweetheart are locked up in an office together with a crazed brute of a man are among the most vivid that have ever been shown upon the screen. Molly's battle with the man, the breaking out of the fire and the entrance of her son, the fire man, at the last moment make an unforgettable scene which impresses itself indelibly upon the mind. The son, knowing that only one of the two women can be saved finds himself confronted with the problem of whether it should be his mother or his sister that he should rescue. He has recognized his mother, whom he had been brought up to believe dead, by a portrait of himself as a baby which she wore in a locket. The sacrifice of the mother is marvelously depicted by Miss Frederick and in the last scene she rises to truly sublime heights of artistry. She breaks her way to carry out the fainting girl, watches them escape to happiness and safety and as the flames creep ever nearer and nearer, a light of such happiness flashes over her face that the humble scrubwoman seems completely transfigured. No soldier, no martyr, eved died a more glorious death than this humble, self-sacrificing mother who gave her life for her son and his happiness and met her death with a prayer of thankfulness on her lips that her sacrifice had not been in vain. Pauline Frederick has made the role one of the most brilliant of her entire triumphant career.

NEAL HART AT THE GEM MONDAY

Monday the attraction at the Gem will be Neal Hart in "Double Suspicion." Neal, the sheriff of Red Rock county, is trapped by gang of rustlers. He is fighting desperately when his partner Pop, comes on him. Pop manages to draw the fire of the rustlers and enables Neal to escape. Neal does not like the action of the old man and tells him so, although he appreciates the fact that Pop risked his own life to rescue him. Neal is chased out of a building which he has robbed and, in the get away wounds one of the men. He escapes and arrives at the station camp, where his wife and baby are. Quick harnessing a horse, he drives out with the wagon and eludes his pursuers. Several days later, Joe arrives at Red Rock. Joe is a widower who has lost most without food. Joe goes to the saloon and starts gambling with the money stolen in the other town. Neal comes on him and tells him that he is a stranger, asks if there is anything he can do. She tells him about Joe's gambling the money. Neal offers Joe out of the saloon. Neal tells the proprietor of the store that he has a package coming on the stage that night for Pop's birthday. The storekeeper gives him the package, telling him that he will leave the package where Neal can get it. That night Joe breaks into the store. After Pop and Neal have retired, Neal gets up, satisfies himself that Pop is asleep and starts for the store to get the package. Pop, however, wakes up and decides to follow him. He approaches the store and hides behind some of the buildings, does not see him leave. Pop then goes to the front of the store and finds the package. He does Joe barely visible in the store, is robbing the safe. Pop sees the figure of Joe through the window and believes it is Neal and that he has taken this method to obtain money, which they need to develop their mine. Pop enters the store and places some of his things conspicuously near the safe so that the burglar, if the robber will be placed on him. He then leaves town. The next morning the robbery is discovered and Neal is sent for. He notices that Pop has not returned during the night. Going to the store he is shown the evidence against Pop and comes to the conclusion that the old man is innocent. Neal is arrested. Pop is down-hearted, as he can hardly believe that Neal is arresting him for a crime which he himself com-

ETHEL BARRYMORE AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY

"The Call of Her People" will be the attraction at the Majestic Tuesday. The picture which Metro offers under the title of "The Call of Her People" is a night of considerable merit. A screen version of a good play and a picture for the lovers of photoplay entertainment. Simplicity marks the plot, directness its development, artistry its presentation, and the acting is excellent.

Of particular note is the performance of Ethel Barrymore. The play is better suited to Miss Barrymore than any other in which she has appeared, and while those who have seen her on the stage will continue in their conviction that the screen is the lesser of the two mediums for the star, she is still Ethel Barrymore. "The Call of Her People" presents this star to picturegoers in a far more favorable light than any of her previous pictures. The production, without being spectacular, has an air of dignity and beauty that is in no sense a part of the average screen offering. Pictorial beauty and atmosphere have their place in every scene and from the beginning to the end the action has that pleasing effect which only realism bounded on all sides by artistry can bring to the spectator.

For this latter sterling quality is John W. Noble, the director, responsible. The confirmed critic might call attention to the fact that a few scenes showing natives of the town gathering into the fold of the lynching party would have lightened the effect of the portion of the play in which this incident occurs, but even such a person would be forced to admit that such a course would only serve to improve

The story moves swiftly through the various steps of an entertaining incident, to the startling and unexpected climax. All the supporting members of the company are capable and splendidly cast. The whole production has been staged on a lavish scale. "The False Friend" is a thoroughly entertaining, thoroughly interesting production. See it.

Neal is chased out of a building which he has robbed and, in the get away wounds one of the men. He escapes and arrives at the station camp, where his wife and baby are. Quick harnessing a horse, he drives out with the wagon and eludes his pursuers. Several days later, Joe arrives at Red Rock. Joe is a widower who has lost most without food. Joe goes to the saloon and starts gambling with the money stolen in the other town. Neal comes on him and tells him that he is a stranger, asks if there is anything he can do. She tells him about Joe's gambling the money. Neal offers Joe out of the saloon. Neal tells the proprietor of the store that he has a package coming on the stage that night for Pop's birthday. The storekeeper gives him the package, telling him that he will leave the package where Neal can get it. That night Joe breaks into the store. After Pop and Neal have retired, Neal gets up, satisfies himself that Pop is asleep and starts for the store to get the package. Pop, however, wakes up and decides to follow him. He approaches the store and hides behind some of the buildings, does not see him leave. Pop then goes to the front of the store and finds the package. He does Joe barely visible in the store, is robbing the safe. Pop sees the figure of Joe through the window and believes it is Neal and that he has taken this method to obtain money, which they need to develop their mine. Pop enters the store and places some of his things conspicuously near the safe so that the burglar, if the robber will be placed on him. He then leaves town. The next morning the robbery is discovered and Neal is sent for. He notices that Pop has not returned during the night. Going to the store he is shown the evidence against Pop and comes to the conclusion that the old man is innocent. Neal is arrested. Pop is down-hearted, as he can hardly believe that Neal is arresting him for a crime which he himself com-

MONDAY PAULINE FREDERICK

"The Love That Lives"

Another instance of this versatile star's scope is her success in this Famous Players' picture, in which Miss Frederick plays the part of a young mother who determines, at all costs, to save her children from the sordidness of poverty. She was the daughter of a scrubwoman and the bare and joyless existence that had been hers since childhood drove her to think any offense less than rearing children to face life uneducated for the fight. Robert Vignola has staged the photoplay by Scudder Middleton, with all his remarkable skill. A play far different from past Pauline Frederick pictures, but, none the less, a brilliant success.

The SLACKER

A Big Patriotic Story Without Battle Scenes with wonderful Emily Stevens Wm. Christy Cabanne's wonder of wonders in 7 Acts

Strong in story, powerful in appeal, a drama of the present day—timely, effective and true to life. No man or woman can view it without a thrilling realization of where lies the duty of every lover of liberty and freedom. Portrayed by a magnificent emotional actress. Not a battle scene, and not a shot fired—but the man or woman who does not respond to its patriotic inspiration is dead to noble sentiment and high ambition. EDEL of Strand Theatre, New York, says: "I cannot personally too strongly endorse the merits and earning power of this timely subject." HULSEY of Dallas, Tex., says: "Unquestionably the greatest picture since 'Birth of a Nation.'" CAPER of the Liberty Theatre, Pittsburg— "Liberty Theatre jammed to doors,— record business." HAMBURGER of Chicago— "The greatest money maker I ever saw in pictures."

FEWER CARS WERE SOLD BY LOCAL DEALERS LAST WEEK

Automobile sales for last week showed a slight falling off from the average, even taking into consideration the fact that Saturday's sales were not included in the list. This is partly, if not wholly accounted for by the fact that several of the largest dealers have been short of cars. McFall and Orth have a waiting list of purchasers, but no cars for them till next week, and the same applies to the Motor Supply Co., Chennault and Wheat made no report, except that they had been unable to get their shipments in, and Robert Dutton has been out of town almost all the week. Even with these conditions, however, between forty and fifty cars were sold, and the trade continues to hold very steady.

The Peter Car Co. report that their Premier display has proven a good advertisement attracting many people to their house. Lloyd Weaver writes from Colorado that his trip there in the Hudson Super has most successful and enjoyable. His letter appears in another column. The Western Auto Supply Co. will move into their new quarters some time this week, where they will be glad to receive their many friends. An account of their spacious new place of business can be seen in another column.

The Peter Car Co. made sales to Dr. J. E. Moffet, Henrietta, and Marcus Bros., city.

The McMullen Auto Co. delivered a Maxwell truck to the Texas Co. in Quanah, and report the following retail sales: E. Hoffman, Rea, Wofford, D. Geffeler, J. B. Forbes of Vernon. A wholesale contract for ten cars was made with S. S. Bell of Crowell, two of them being sold off the floor; and a car was shipped to Wyatt and Shelton, sub-dealers at Vernon.

The Buick Sales Co. report sales to L. E. Humming, Burkburnett, and J. F. Spikes at Pampa.

McFall made retail sales to The Firestone Tire Co., city; L. B. Lord, Iowa Park and R. J. Vaughn at Electric.

The Motor Supply Co. report sales to the Empire Gas and Fuel Co., C. L. Dunagan, N. J. Nolen, Roy Wells, and W. C. Curlee at Burkburnett, Mrs. M. E. The Overland Sales Co. made wholesale deals with the Smith Garage Co., Frederick, Rogers Bros., Petrolia, R. S. Polrot, Scotland, Curris and Duncan, Byers, the Jefferson Overland Co Hastings; and report the following retail sales: G. N. Stone, Henrietta; H. M. McClure, C. A. Sabath, city, and F. H. Gilhouse, city.

Six cars were sold to C. O. Coates, Burkburnett, D. Reasor, Mabeldean, A. Minnich, Archer City, and W. G. Richardson.

The Brisco Sales Co. report the sale of a car to the City Garage Co. at Jernyn, a wholesale deal.

W. A. S. CO. READY TO MOVE INTO NEW QUARTERS

The Western Auto Supply Co. is practically ready to move into its new location in the old Avis Hardware Co.'s store, at 718 Indiana Avenue. Their very neat announcements state that they will move about August 10th but there has been a slight delay in the remodeling of the store.

The Western Auto Supply Co. will increase its stock to about three times its present proportions and will have very commodious and convenient quarters in their new location. The whole room has been remodeled from front to back, and is being tastefully decorated. When complete, it will be one of the most complete and up-to-date supply houses in this part of the country. The stock is to include tires and accessories of every description, and everything will be of the most modern and approved type.

The display room, in the front of the store, is twenty-five feet by nearly one hundred and leads back to the shipping and receiving department, and the workshop for vulcanizing and general repairs. A good feature of the workshop is the unusually large door, and space for several cars to be attended to at one time.

An item of unusual interest to auto dealers and proprietors of filling stations, which the Western Auto Supply Co. is handling is a very ingenious pump, which will apparently do everything except buy the gasoline, upon the pushing of certain buttons. The full name of this apparatus is the Milwaukee Master Electric Filling Station, and it is quite the latest thing in filling stations. It will fill at the rate of twenty-five gallons per minute if required, or the flow can be cut down to a drizzle. There is an indicator lighted by a little lamp, showing how much has passed through the pump. At the back of the device is an arrangement by which it may be worked by hand, if anything should go wrong with the electrical part of the machine. The Western Auto Supply Co. have sold one of these to the Bentrod Auto Co., and they will form part of the regular stock.

The Western Auto Supply Co. was the original supply house in Wichita Falls, and DeWitt C. Wood said that they were here when there were only two hundred and thirty cars in town. The concern has grown rapidly and surely since that time, and there are now two men constantly covering their territory in Texas and Oklahoma, in Ford cars. A third will be added in the fall. This company is now in a position to give better service than ever, and extends a cordial invitation to the public to visit the new store at all times.

COMMISSIONS RECEIVED BY JUNIOR OFFICERS

Commissions have been granted to the junior officers of the two companies of the National Guard. The staff is now as follows:

Company F. Captain, D. M. Perkins; First Lieutenant, Joe A. Kell; Second Lieutenant, Alfred H. Carrigan Jr.

Company G. Captain, Sneed G. Stanforth; First Lieutenant, D. S. Blue; Second Lieutenant, Gordon R. Porter.

The commanding officers have wired for uniforms for the National Guard. Between three hundred and three hundred and fifty uniforms have been asked for, and they will arrive in time for the boys to wear them in the parade to Fort Worth.

The boys are badly in need of bedding at the camp, so Captain Stanforth said today. Many of the boys are sleeping out in the open on the grass, on no bedding of any kind, and Captain Stanforth said that if there were any Wichitans who had spare bedding either to give or to loan, the boys would greatly appreciate it. If the bedding is loaned, it should be marked plainly with the owners' name, and the best care will be taken of it. Such persons are requested to bring the bedding to the hotel at the lake, where the boys will call for it.

Captain Stanforth stated that he had heard that visitors were staying away from the camp, because they were afraid they were not wanted there. On the contrary, the captain said, visitors are very welcome at any time, and will be shown every courtesy if they come.

The drilling hours are from 8 a. m. to 11 a. m. and from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. They boys are studying squad drill and physical exercises, and they hear lectures on sanitation, personal hygiene and military courtesy.

Captain Stanforth also stated that there were several men who had not reported for duty. "They have three more days," he said, "in which to report; after which time they will be classed as deserters." The captain added, significantly, that in war time the position of deserters was a precarious one.

Plans met on the road, J. L. Art, Herbert Ziegler and Nat Chennault, and asks about the new shipment of Chevrolet "490".

Lloyd Weaver's schedule follows: Wichita Falls, 2:30; Memphis, arrived 9:30, departed 6:00; Amarillo, arrived 9:00, departed 10:00; Channing, arrived 12:00, departed 12:15; Delhart, arrived 1:30, departed 1:40; Texas, arrived 3:00, departed 3:10; Raton, arrived 4:40, departed 4:50; Trinidad, arrived 8:00, departed 6:00 a. m.; Colorado Springs 10:00.

The speedometer of the letter says, doglegged 654 miles from Wichita Falls to Colorado Springs. The letter closes with the injunction to the staff not to work too hard.

LETTER FROM WEAVER TELLS OF TRIP TO COLORADO SPRINGS

W. H. Hammon has received a very interesting letter from Lloyd Weaver in Colorado Springs, enclosing his schedule on the trip. Mr. Weaver is very enthusiastic over the Super Six and that he has the best super he has ever seen.

"If you see any one who wants an auto trailer," says the letter, "just send them up the road, and they can find all the want. We counted eight from Amarillo to Trinidad."

Later the letter says, "I never drove over such fine roads as we had from Memphis, Texas to Colorado Springs. We saw rain at all, though we did see some very good crops up at Memphis and Clarendon. It was very dry on this side of Amarillo."

"I saw Mr. C. W. Snider on the road to Manitou, and had a short talk with him. He will leave here tomorrow, and will be in Wichita Falls about the 11th of the month."

The letter speaks of other Wichitans met on the road, J. L. Art, Herbert Ziegler and Nat Chennault, and asks about the new shipment of Chevrolet "490".

C. W. BEAVERS RETURNS FROM INDIANAPOLIS

C. W. Beavers has just returned from Indianapolis, where he has been to work out the final details of the machinery for the new mill to be erected by the Wichita Mill and Elevator Co.

This machinery will represent a complete unit, capable of turning out the same amount of present equipment, and will be shipped about the first of the year. Work will commence on the new building very soon, and it is expected that it will be sufficiently near completion by the first of the year to begin to install the new plant.

The present machinery will be kept in operation till the new mill is in good running order, and will then be dismantled and taken to the new building. The new mill will then have duplicate machinery which will double the output, giving a total capacity of two thousand barrels per day.

At Indianapolis Mr. Beavers said there was a considerable movement of troops, though whether regulars or recruits, he was unable to ascertain. He saw one troop train, however, which he said had as many as thirty coaches, all full of troops. At Fort Ben Harrison, Mr. Beavers said that there were something like twenty-four hundred embryo officers waiting to take the place on the training camp of those about to be commissioned.

Crop conditions throughout the whole section are in first class shape, so Mr. Beavers said, especially in Missouri and Illinois, both with wheat and corn. The wheat is all, either in shock or in stack, and the corn looks very healthy.

IS CATHOLIC CENTRIST PARTY RECEIVING FROM ATTITUDE?

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Is the Catholic Centrist party receding from its attitude taken in respect to parliamentary reforms in the course of the recent crisis?

This query has been suggested by the recent decision of Peter Spahn, leader of the party in the Reichstag, not to seek re-election to the Reichstag to which he had been forced, since accepting the post of the Prussian minister of justice. With this appointment his mandates in the Reichstag automatically expired by constitutional provision, but he is privileged to go before the voters and seek re-election.

In a section of the press and in his own party it is taken for granted he would continue as party leader in the Reichstag as his re-election was practically assured. His action for the time being makes it unnecessary to change the imperial constitution which does not permit simultaneous membership in the Bundesrat and Reichstag and also possession of the Reichstag mandates while holding a government position.

Recruiting methods different now from olden days.

Recruiting methods in the year 1799, and the class of men required at that time, recently came to light at the Marine Corps Headquarters, through the publication of a letter written a recruiting officer to the commandant of the Marine Corps at that time. Comparison of the present day activities with those of the eighteenth centuries is interesting.

Lieutenant Hall's (the recruiting officer in question) letter reads: "I propose this week to open rendezvous in different parts of the country, and make frolic to draw the people together; which I think will have a good effect. There are some in jail whom I could get out by paying the sum of twelve dollars. Do you think I would be safe in advancing it?"

When it is remembered that present day recruiting officers require declarations from accepted men that they have never been convicted of any crime, it will be seen that the standard of men has been considerably raised.

Now Is the Best Time to Buy a Hudson Super-Six

Today's Prices are Based on Last Year's Material Costs. Present Markets Have Already Forced 51 Makers to Add $100 to $700 to Their Prices.

Former $1200 and $1400 cars now cost about as much as a Hudson Super-Six.

No changes warrant such an increase. They are practically the same as the cars which recently sold at $200 to $300 less than the Hudson Super-Six.

Cars in the $2,000 class and up have increased from $350 to $700. That removes them further from the Hudson Super-Six price.

Increased cost of material is responsible for the higher prices.

Hudson prices have not increased this year. Our materials were contracted for months ago. When present supplies are exhausted then Hudsons, too, must cost more. Until then Hudson, because of its value, is the lowest priced car on the market.

Here is an indication of how prices have been affected. Consider just one item.

The principal material in a fine automobile is steel. All steel is made from iron.

For 25 years before the Great War the average price of iron was a few cents over $16 a ton. In December last it was $30 a ton. It now is $54 a ton.

Makers who bought materials this year must get more for their cars than for those built of materials bought last year.

Good Fortune for Hudson Buyers

Even when other cars sold at $200 to $300 less, Super-Six sales exceeded those of any two makes in the $1200 to $1400 class. Now that there is no such difference in price you can realize how much greater will be the demand for Hudsons. The present supply won't last long. Then Hudson, too, must cost more.

There can be no preference now that former cheaper cars cost as much as the Super-Six.

Super-Six endurance makes it the preferred among fine cars. In every revealing test it has proved endurance unequalled by any other car.

All Due to the Super-Six Motor

Hudson leadership is due to the Super-Six motor. No other motor is like it. It minimizes vibration. That increases power and lengthens motor life. Vibration is the most destructive force in a motor. All Hudson tests show how by minimizing vibration endurance is obtained. The

Studebaker SUPERIORITIES

—a Safer Rear Axle

Studebaker engineers have been able to perfect the full-floating Rear Axle by exhaustive study of the performance of hundreds of thousands of Studebaker cars under every imaginable condition of service.

It stands to reason that the Studebaker full-floating axle is safest.

Think a minute; with Studebaker the axle shaft turns the wheels—nothing else. The axle-housing bears the weight of the car and takes up side thrusts from turns and skids. To a great extent, in the semi-floating type and altogether in the live axle, these strains are borne by the axle shaft itself.

In any other type there's always danger of a broken shaft and a wheel coming off.

So you see it is simply a matter of mechanical fact, that the Studebaker full-floating rear axle is safest.

Let us explain in detail this point of Studebaker value.

DORT

Value Defined

You are doubtless able to pay much more for a motor car than the Dort price.

But it isn't a matter of what you can afford to pay—but what you have to pay.

—what you have to pay for the utility, sturdiness and performance you require.

—what you have to pay for the beauty, comfort and convenience you desire.

The Aluminum Six With Magnetic Gear Shift

Price $2285 f.o.b. Indianapolis

The high cost of material going into the construction of the Premier made an advance of $300 imperative in order to maintain the high standard of quality and construction of this wonderful car.

The price may go higher within the next few months. The material market presents one of the most serious problems now confronting manufacturers of high-grade automobiles.

All who contemplate the purchase of a Premier should do so without delay and take advantage of the present price of $2285, for the price may advance again. There is no telling how soon another advance will be made.

The purchase of a Premier now will represent a saving sufficient to operate the car for more than a year. Act now and do not permit procrastination to filch your purse of $300, or possibly more. Demonstration upon request.

SIDE MEAT NOW IN STRONG DEMAND A local representative of the Wilson Packing Company of Oklahoma City says that there is now a premium on side meats from the hog, and suggests that it would be of material assistance in the general plan of conserving the food if people would use as little of the side meats as possible, substituting hams and shoulders. A few weeks ago, this gentleman said, the price of salt sides was 16 1/2 to 17 cents a pound, while hams were 23 and 24. Now the hams have dropped slightly 2 1/4 to 25, and the dry salt sides have gone up to 26 and 27 cents a pound. The reason assigned for this is that the army and navy, when laying stores, will not use hams and shoulders because the large bones will in time cause the meat to sour. Therefore Uncle Sam has been buying heavily on sides, and there is a surplus of hams. As a consequence, hams have fallen off half a cent, instead of rising in proportion to the price of live meat. Normally, with the rise in the price of live meat, hams would also have advanced. Frank Daniels has returned from a business trip to Olney.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY A gentleman from a neighboring town came in yesterday and said: "I want a dollar's worth of coffee." "What kind?" He replied: "I don't know. — I was in a picture show across the street a while ago and a lady came in with a package of coffee and it smelled so good I inquired where it came from and was told, 'BERT BEAN COFFEE HOUSE!' CAN YOU BEAT IT? BERT BEAN COFFEE HOUSE 824 Indiana Ave. Telephone 35
