THREATENING CARD WRITER ARRESTED HERE SATURDAY

JOHN VESETH ADMITS WRITING CARDS SIGNED "APOLYON" THREATENING VARIOUS PERSONS

CONSIDERED DANGEROUS

Arrested Before U. S. Commissioner Lantz and Bond Placed at $2500 on Federal Charge.

Apollyon, the internationalist who pronounced the fate of editors, the time and manner of their death, who wrote threatening letters to President Wilson, and former President Roosevelt, and others, is now nursing his dreams of terrible revenge in a solitary cell in the Wichita county jail.

His arrest follows a postal card he wrote to Chief of Police Humphris Friday in which he commanded the chief to burn at the stake two Wichita Falls editors. And at the same time he mailed a letter to Senator Laffollette in which he requested the Wisconsin senator for his stand against the administration.

When he called at the city hall he was asked to write his name so that it could be presented to Mr. Roberts for his pay. He did so and when he was asked to write it a second time he exclaimed: "I know what you are after, you want to know about those postal cards. If that's what you want to know, I wrote them."

In a card to the editor of The Times he had said the editor would be executed before 6 o'clock on a certain evening. In another letter he said sentence had been pronounced on the editor and that he would be burned at the stake.

A man in the crowd was pointed out as the editor and Veseth was asked if he did not think that harsh treatment for him. "No, that's what he deserves," answered Veseth. "A man who incites war should be killed. I have marked all such men for death."

He said that what he had written on the postal cards was no worse than the editor had written. Apollyon, he said, was a Greek name meaning "the destroyer."

Practically all of Veseth's cards made some mention of an internationalist. He was asked if he was a capitalist and those who supported the war.

In one card addressed to the chief of police of Rome, Italy, in which he ordered that official to burn the Pope at the stake because the Pope had advised the governments of all nationalities to support their governments, he signed himself "King of Internationals."

At the city hall, before being taken before United States Commissioner Lantz, he was asked if he did not belong to an organization of internationalists. He replied that he did and that there were great numbers of them and that they would surely wreak vengeance upon those who advocated war.

Veseth was formally arraigned on a charge of "knowingly and willfully depositing and causing to be deposited, mailing and delivery, certain non-mailable matter, to-wit, a certain postal card addressed Editor of the Wichita Falls Times, City."

WHAT THE INSURANCE BILL NOW PENDING BEFORE CONGRESS PROVIDES

Separation allowance for wives and children of enlisted men of from $47.50 and up. Life insurance up to $10,000 at about $8 per year per $1,000 worth for every fighting man. The right to transfer this insurance into a more quickly maturing form, at the same rate, after the war.

Five thousand dollars insurance for the widow of a fighting man, whether he has applied for it or not. Support of wounded men and their dependents by the government in bringing him back to health and efficiency in special training schools. Adequate cash provision for all totally or partially disabled fighting men and their dependents.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The debt the Nation owes to its soldiers and sailors in the war and the reasons for the war are discussed here today by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Under the Draft Law the government has secured the services of men aged between 21 and 31 years old to perform military duty.

"Imagine the emotion of the man who is called into the military service of his country with full knowledge that his loved ones are left without means of support and may be reduced to the status of dependents in the community in which they live confers to their relief."

Morale of People Important. "The morale of an army is an essential factor in its fighting power. Its morale is the morale of the people. It is the morale that supports the army in the field. We cannot have this essential morale unless the Nation confers to the men in the ranks who are fighting the war, the highest possible living conditions for them and their families."

The purpose of the War Insurance Bill now pending in the congress is to secure the future of America's soldiers and sailors by insuring their lives and providing adequate compensation in the event of death, total or permanent disability; also, to protect their families against poverty and want by providing them with sufficient funds to maintain the absence of the men at the front.

The Nation, having been forced to resort to the draft in order to create quickly an army to save the country, is under a higher obligation to do these things for its fighting forces than it is for the ordinary citizen. This great and rich republic cannot afford to do less, and it must do what is proposed in a spirit of gratitude and good will.

A Good Investment. "The millions we shall be called upon to spend to support the dependents of the soldiers while they are in the fighting line, the government's investment in the future of the Nation, the best sort, they are sums of capital advanced to the government in the form of self-sacrifice and economic development. More than all, they are essentially humanitarian and in the highest sense a diabolical duty to society."

Military service is now obligatory; those who imperil the national security do not and cannot permit this fact to affect their calculations. The tremendous rates charged by private insurance companies to protect them against the extra hazardous risks of war put insurance entirely beyond the reach of the conscripted soldier.

TRANQUILITY REIGNS THROUGHOUT SPAIN. Madrid, Aug. 20.—Official information has been received from throughout Spain that the general strike is expected to close today.

DANIELS WOULD TREBLE OUTPUT OF DESTROYERS

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 20.—Immediate extension of building facilities of the United States to double or treble the output of destroyers during the next 18 months was the object of a conference today between Secretary Daniels and representatives of 25 or more ship and engine builders.

The secretary indicated that the destroyers the builders could produce would be ordered and the large number of contracts now pending expedited. Every aspect of ship-building was taken up at a conference. There is no shortage of materials or plant facilities but a difficulty lies in obtaining high powered engines for the boilers and reduction gear.

I express my warm appreciation to all the high sea forces of the German fleet, and in the air, and to the fortress of Heligoland for their untiring self-sacrificing and successful labor by means of which the safety of the North Sea has been maintained and the fleet remains conscious that the confidence of myself and the fatherland is in its hands."

Scholl, state entomologist, will talk on "Insect Pests and How to Control Them."

OKLAHOMA TRACTION CO. WILL EMPLOY GIRL CONDUCTORS

Muskogee, Oklahoma, August 20.—WANTED: Girls between the ages of 18 and 22 to act as conductors on street cars. Apply Muskogee Electric Traction Company. Within the next few days this company, in discussing the situation of the company, has been hard hit by the draft, and it has been impossible to fill the places of the men who have quit the company's service to go to war.

Girls as conductors are continuing as sure as tomorrow's dawn," said R. D. Long, general manager of the company, in discussing the situation. "We are worried, of course, but expect the new order of things to be equally as satisfactory as the old. In fact, it would not be surprising to find it in some ways an improvement, for we shall probably get bright, educated girls."

Mr. Long has already offered a position as conductor to one girl—she is Lucille Smith, daughter of O. A. Smith of this city. Miss Smith sprang into prominence a month or so ago by receiving a job as station agent on the M. & T. railroad at Onopah, a little town about twenty miles south of Muskogee. She filled the position so well that it is sure she will make a good conductor.

ELKS TO HOLD CONSERVATION MEETING SOON

By Associated Press. The Elks lodge last night resolutions were passed to the effect that members entering the armed service of the United States would be exempt from paying dues for the duration of the war.

The first meeting to be held in September has been designated as "Food Conservation Meeting" for which a one-dollar membership fee has been arranged, and all members are invited and urged to be present. V. G. Skeen and J. S. Bridwell were appointed a committee to select a speaker for the occasion, his subject to be along the lines of food conservation.

At this meeting a committee of three will be appointed whose duty it will be to try to get a pledge from the head of each household represented in the lodge membership that for the duration of the war this household will observe the following rules:

One meal each day shall be served without wheat food. One meal each day shall be served without meat. No butter shall be used for cooking purposes when a satisfactory substitute is available. Bread shall be sliced at each meal only as required for immediate consumption.

At three meals each week at least one of the workers food duty will be prepared from food unconsumed at previous meals. It will be shown at this meeting that bread will not cause any member any inconvenience or great sacrifice, but in the aggregate will mean much in the conservation of the Nation's resources.

The Grand Lodge which met at Boston July 10 assessed each subordinate lodge member $1 for the fund to be known as the "Elks' War Relief Fund." It is part of their organized effort to raise $1,000,000 for the purpose of establishing base hospitals for the American soldiers in France. The fund is being administered by the Food Administration, in this seems necessary in order to insure mills of favorably placed sources of supplies. In return, the government will guarantee against any loss, in case of a decline in the price of wheat or rye.

MICHAELIS LIKELY TO ENDORSE POPE'S PEACE PROPOSALS

(By Associated Press) Copenhagen, Aug. 21.—At a meeting of the Danish parliament today, the Foreign Minister, Michaelis, is expected to declare the Pope's note in general accord with the German government's peace proposals. The Reichstag resolution on the same subject, in discussing the situation, can not, however, discuss details and, particularly under no circumstances, can it enter into a discussion of the status of the Danes as a part of the German empire. The chancellor, according to this forecast, will say that as Germany has earlier indicated its desire to negotiate, the first word must come from the outside.

GERMANS EXPECT FAVORABLE RESULT BEFORE VERDUN

By Associated Press. Berlin, Aug. 21.—The battle before Verdun has not ended the German general headquarters staff announced today. This morning fresh engagements developed at various points, the statement adds. The British and French anticipate a favorable conclusion of the battle.

In many places colored and white French troops penetrated the German defensive zone in which every step forward, the German report says, was wrested at the cost of sanguinary losses in bitter hand to hand fighting and in counter attacks the French were driven back almost everywhere.

Where time has allowed, the Germans have made the shell hole defense with elaborate care. Each nest is heavily protected by barbed wire and the chambers beneath are reinforced with timbers and concrete. In these the infantry lurk with machine guns and rifles, ready to rush out and begin firing if an attack is launched against them.

FOOD CONTROL INSTRUCTIONS RECEIVED HERE

The United States Food Administration has issued instructions to all elevators and grain dealers in the country relative to the control of all grain.

In the first place, the United States has been divided into zones or territories, each government agent in the central city of each zone has control of the grain in that zone. There are twelve of these zones; Texas shortly approach completion of the third zone Oklahoma, although an adjoining state, belongs to the eleventh zone, along with Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Kentucky, North and South Carolina and Tennessee. It will happen in many cases, therefore, that companies owning elevators in different states will often make part of their reports to one center, and part to another.

Another feature of the work of the Food Administration is the licensing of all elevators. Forms for the application for such licenses have been sent to every elevator in the United States, and these applications, when received, will be reviewed by the Food Administration at Washington, without delay, and September 1 is the date set for such requirement. When by that date, they may continue to operate, provided that their application has been sent to Washington.

The business for each mill will be able to keep account of the work done by every elevator in the country, and to facilitate this, elevators are required to submit weekly reports, stating the amount bought, sold milled and on hand; in a word, the entire business of the mill and elevator for the week. The business for each mill and each elevator must be reported separately.

The last two clauses of the letter of instruction are very significant. The text of these clauses follows: "It is quite possible that the Food Administration, or some agency of it, may shortly approach you for a voluntary agreement by which you will retain grain in your house upon payment of fair storage and other charges, and forward such grain to the central city of the Food Administration, in this seems necessary in order to insure mills of favorably placed sources of supplies. In return, the government will guarantee against any loss, in case of a decline in the price of wheat or rye."

It is our desire that as far as possible, agreements of this kind be voluntarily entered into without using the power given by the legislation. J. A. Myntzer of the Wichita Mill and Elevator Co. said that it was the desire of that company, and so far as he knew, of every miller in the United States, to give the government the cooperation it needs and cooperate with the government agents to the full extent of their power.

GERMANS HAVE ADOPTED NEW DEFENSIVE METHODS

Driven From Trenches By Artillery From Front Shell Craters. British Front in France and Belgium, Aug. 21.—The beginning of the fourth year of the war has seen the trench warfare making a radical change in their methods of defense along the British battle field in northern France and Belgium. The continuous line of trenches, which had been constructed forward with their deep dugouts in which lived and fought great numbers of men, are last passing into the discard.

The enemy is adopting the system of scattering his advance forces over a great depth, cunningly creating a strategic advantage by a myriad of shell holes along the front now composed of innumerable small and more or less isolated positions of men, or formerly fought shoulder to shoulder, along great stretches of picturesque ditches, through which communication was not broken for miles.

This alteration has been brought about by the ever growing preponderance of British artillery which has buried the German front line trenches under an avalanche of shells and has left the defenses nothing but heaped mounds of earth.

The continuous deluge of breaking steel made any work in the trenches impossible and as the Germans were gradually pushed back, they of necessity were forced to invent another method of defense, and the advancing tide. So it has come to the depth of defense upon which the Germans depend in many places rather than the strength of the trenches. The recent allied offensive east and north of Ypres disclosed many examples of this new scheme.

Wherever the front line trenches have been made untenable, or where a British attack is expected, one finds the new order of things. The first German line now often consists of strong outposts concealed in shell craters and a considerable distance apart. Back of these outposts are chains of shell hole nests, each nest consisting of two or three craters connected by underground passages that often lead to dugouts.

Where time has allowed, the Germans have made the shell hole defense with elaborate care. Each nest is heavily protected by barbed wire and the chambers beneath are reinforced with timbers and concrete. In these the infantry lurk with machine guns and rifles, ready to rush out and begin firing if an attack is launched against them.

The bill provides for extending aid to the farmers upon making application to the commissioner of agriculture; the money to be used in purchasing seed and also feed for stock for 1918. Victor Murdock, editor and owner of the Wichita (Kan.) Eagle, and prominent member of the Bull Moose party, but who failed to follow Roosevelt back into the Republican party in the presidential campaign of 1916...

Mr. Hoover has announced his plans for the control of wheat and flour supplies of the country, and if they succeed bread in this country will be much cheaper.

Things down about Austin are getting down to where something is going to happen rather suddenly. The governor has said he would rather resign than tell who loaned him the $150,000, and the legislature is going to permit him to take his choice.

step. The wonder is that it had not done so right at the beginning. At Spokane, Washington, twenty-five members of the I. W. W. organization have been arrested and jailed.

There are thousands of secret service men scattered throughout the United States, and it is probably well that that is the case. America is at war with Germany, and it was the boast of the German kaiser that he had 500,000 reservists in the United States and for that very reason America would not declare war on Germany.

Mr. Hoover is appealing to the people of the United States to cut down the average amount of flour they use weekly from five to four pounds. That appeal, however, is not going to touch us. The other fellow, the "war hog," cut our weekly flour allowance to a figure less than four pounds per week.

We don't know who it was that loaned the governor that $150,000 in cash with which to take up a part of his indebtedness, but it wasn't us.

All that now remains for the citizens of Wichita Falls to do in order to make certain that one of the aviation camps will be located here is to comply strictly with the demands of the government, and the people of Wichita Falls can be depended on for that.

are complied with Wichita Falls will be a much cleaner and much better city by having secured this aviation camp, and The Times is confident that our officers, with the support and backing of the citizens will be able to handle the matter in the manner that it should be.

About twenty years ago, largely through efforts put forth by J. A. Kemp of this city, the legislature submitted to the people of Texas a proposed amendment providing ways and means for the organization of irrigation districts very similar to the one voted on yesterday, but it was lost. Its defeat being brought about almost wholly by a publication with an enormous circulation among farmers and stockmen of the state, which at first favored the proposition and agreed to give it substantial support, but afterwards—just about a month before the election, changed its attitude, and defeated it.

We are greatly in sympathy with the cotton farmers of Texas, but if they think the government is going to fix a minimum price of 30 cents for raw cotton for a period of three years, they are chasing jack-o'-lanterns. The price of cotton is already so high that the average man can hardly afford a shirttail that falls three inches below the armpits—Houston Post.

Stanley J. Clark, well known socialist orator, was arrested last night following a speech which he made at the Enterprise schoolhouse. The arrest was made by Deputy U. S. Marshal Goodfellow, and a charge was filed against Clark by W. C. Pope, a government agent, to the effect that the language of the speech had been against the form of Section 4 of the United States Penal Code, and against the safety and dignity of the United States.

Clark made a speech at Electric Monday night, and it was information concerning this speech which caused several men to go up to ascertain from him, with a view to ascertaining whether Clark's speeches were a violation of the law. Following the speech last night, Clark was arrested and placed under a bond of $5000, for appearance before Commissioner Lantz today.

Fire of unknown origin last night completely destroyed the barn owned by Bert Bean at Sixth and Ohio. Two tons of hay and several cases of mineral water bottles were also destroyed. A horse was locked in the barn, but was taken out safely before the flames reached it. The loss is estimated at near $2500.

FERGUSON WON'T TELL WHERE HE GOT MONEY

instances, he said, where the interrogators were satisfied from their own account of the constitutional privilege.

Judge Bledsoe took the position that the authority of a democratic government is vested in the people and that they have invested certain powers in their legislators. Not an authority existed, he declared, that would bear out the contention that a public official's private acts could be claimed as exempt from inquiry. This, he said, is a legitimate and pertinent inquiry at this time. At the former investigation, Governor Ferguson testified that his notes and obligations to the Temple State Bank had been paid off, and the question of when the obligations were paid off and where the money came from was a legitimate and proper inquiry and should be placed squarely up to the chief executive to show whether he is still amenable to the laws of this state. The same rules apply to him, said the judge, as to any other man, and he should be granted no special privileges.

"If there is nothing wrong with this transaction it can hurt nobody. The Governor is entitled to answer every legitimate inquiry. The people of Texas are entitled to know and God being the Ruler they know about the truth in this matter," declared Judge Bledsoe.

The Governor, he said, had stated that he had received a large sum of money under conditions tending to excite the suspicions of all God-fearing men of Texas, and when the committee said it wanted to know more about it the Governor had intimated, "It's none of your business, and I'm not going to tell you."

"I for one," he said, "will vote to uphold the ruling of the chair."

R. L. Carlock of Fort Worth argued that the Governor should not be required to answer the question as to who loaned him the money, which he said he had declined to answer through motives of friendship to those who accommodated him. The Governor had declared, furthermore, that if he revealed the names of those who loaned him the money they would call their loan and force him into bankruptcy. He charged that an effort was being made to dig into the private affairs of the Governor of Texas and compel him to reveal them. He said impeachment was a quasi criminal proceeding and was capital punishment applied to political offenders. He claimed that the Governor was entirely within his rights in refusing to answer the question.

R. E. Thomason of El Paso stated that he did not wish to vote without having his position thoroughly understood. In his mind the question resolved itself down to the point whether this was a matter of public interest or a private matter. He said that the Governor was entirely within his rights in refusing to answer the question, but if the witness then declined to answer he would not support any measure to hold him in contempt or to punish him therefor. For if the witness desired to allow the transaction of the loan to remain clouded in suspicion he should be allowed to do it, and the people could deal with him.

The fact that the witness had received the $156,000 in currency, as he testified, Mr. Carlock said, was characterized as the most unusual proceeding he had heard of in this state or in any other state. All this he said came voluntarily from the witness and he had further stated that the statement that the money had no connection with any school location. He thought the inquiry was material as a matter of law, and he wanted to follow the law. He said he wanted it known if it was a bona fide loan, so that every man in Texas might know the truth.

He read from the Bill of Rights declaring against unlawful searches and seizures and stated that he could not understand how any man could claim that the Bill of Rights had a bearing on the question before the committee. The speaker disclaimed having any personal feeling in the matter or possession of prejudice and asserted that the chair should be sustained.

Judge Bryan now gave his reasons for his ruling, saying he based his finding largely on the ruling of the United States Supreme Court, and read extracts from decisions.

Representative Bagby closed the argument in support of the appeal from the ruling of the chair.

SEVERAL GOOD WELLS IN BURKBURNETT DISTRICT — NEW SAND FOUND IN CULBERTSON DISTRICT

The Humble Oil and Refining Co., which brought in the big well in the Serrain lease two weeks ago is in a good looking sand in Shulz No. 10 at 1395 to 1610 feet. A producing well is expected from this sand.

Moyers and Shulz Evans No. 1 has a promising sand at 1292 feet which is being tested out.

The Magnolia Petroleum Co. has a pay sand in Sands No. 9, also in Lawler No. 10 and Lawler No. 11, all of which will probably be drilled in the week.

The Burburnett district has furnished nearly all the completions reported. The Panhandle Refining Co. heretofore reported as Brown and Jones have completed Kammin; Keim No. 1 and have a 200-barrel well at 1623 feet.

Adams-Farrabee et al Ramming No. 1 is a hundred barrel well from a sand from 1797 to 1711 feet.

There have been a number of shallow sand completions. The Texas Oil and Gas Company's Cropper No. 14 is a ten barrel well at 495 feet; the Salina Oil and Gas Company's Cropper No. 27 is also good for ten barrels at 227 feet. The White Oil Company's Daniels is a five barrel producer at 566 feet. Seago et al Beach No. 4 is reported as a five barrel well at 197 feet and Mann et al Hartin No. 20 as a 3 barrel well at 352 feet. Miller et al have three barrels from Birk No. 1 at 153 feet. Mann et al's Poller 17 which was plugged back to 63 feet is producing 1 barrel.

There have been a large number of locations and rigs started. Among the most interesting of these are the Humble Oil and Refining Company's Serrain Nos. 14 and 15; and the Panhandle Refining Company's Ramming No. 8.

At Electra the only completion reported last week was J. L. Powell's No. 19, a dry hole at 1820 feet.

In the Culbertson district the Magnolia Petroleum Co. have a 25-barrel well in their Waggoner Bros. No. 1 on Section 35 from a sand at 1911 feet.

The 5666 Oil Company on Burnett-Loyd Section 7 have a new sand at 1940 feet which looks promising.

Out at Petrolia the Lone Star Gas Co. is reported to have brought in a 13 million foot gasser in Skelly No. 2 at 1925 feet. The gas is coming from two sands, one 1510 to 1575 feet and the other 1610 to 1625.

LIONS WILL HELP NEEDY FAMILIES ENLISTED MEN

The Lions Club today passed a resolution to the effect that hereafter it would be part of the duty of every member to find out what families of men called to the colors were in need, and to take steps to supply that need. This resolution is considered one of the most important issues which has yet been handled by the club, and was adopted upon the motion of W. R. Ferguson, of the Wichita State Bank.

Mr. Ferguson stated that in his opinion it was the duty of the club to find out what was needed, and to see to it that the families of these men did not want, in the informal discussion of the subject which followed, it was suggested that means of employment be found for the wives of the men, and that every means of support be given.

Rev. Percy G. Cross notified the club of a case that had come to his attention recently, and the matter was immediately referred back to Mr. Cross for his investigation on behalf of the club.

Upon the motion of C. E. Rogers, the Lions Club passed a vote of thanks and appreciation to J. A. Kemp for his untiring efforts to carry the Constitutional amendment on the conservation and reclamation of lands. C. E. Rogers suggested that the club needed an assistant secretary, and W. J. Daugherty was elected to office.

J. C. Lewis, the secretary, was absent on out of town business, and it was thought advisable to prepare against this contingency in the future by electing an assistant.

It was urged by several of the members that every effort be made to secure as large an attendance as possible at the weekly luncheons. The Lions Club, it was stated, had essential work to do, and it was important to the successful carrying out of this work that all the members take a very active interest in the affairs of the club.

W. M. Frank of the National Bank of Commerce, presented a two-and-a-half dollar gold piece as prize, which was won by C. E. Rogers. There will be the usual weekly meeting next Wednesday, and it is urged that every member make an special effort to be present.

The army recruiting station has already sent ten men to Dallas this week. If this rate of enlistment keeps up, this promises to be a record week for this station.

An order from headquarters states that this station is expected to furnish three more negroes for the hospital corps. These are to be supplied as soon as possible.

The following men were sent to Dallas yesterday too late for mention in yesterday's paper: Robert B. Ross of Mangum, Okla., Floyd P. Henderson of Waurika, Okla., Henry M. Keys of Hobart, Okla., and Marion F. Jones of Iowa Park.

WAR DEPARTMENT'S RIGID RULES ON VICE RESORTS

Secretary of War Baker has written a letter to the mayors of cities and towns in the neighborhoods of army cantonments and training camps in which he makes it plain that the war department will not tolerate the existence of any restricted district within an effective radius of any camp. He makes it plain the five mile limit will be extended wherever deemed necessary and that camps will be moved from towns in which too much police work is required.

Mr. Baker also makes it plain that the regulations apply to the prostitutes who walk the street and who may frequent lodging houses and hotels. His letter follows:

My Dear Sir: In anticipation of the military training camp soon to be opened in your neighborhood, I am sending herewith a copy of the regulations recently issued on the question of the suppression of prostitution and the sale of alcohol to soldiers in the vicinity of a given radius of military posts and camps. These regulations, which are based on sections 12 and 13 of the recent Army law do not, I believe, need comment, and I am confident that their enforcement will help create a wholesome environment about the military camps. There are one or two matters, however, in connection with the enforcement of the regulations to which I would like to call your attention. In the first place, the purpose of these regulations is to put into effect sections 12 and 13 of the Army law recently passed, so that the Army may have the best of the local authorities, if necessary, in their enforcement. The regulations do not in any way lessen the necessity for police vigilance on the part of local authorities. The presence of large bodies of troops rather increases the responsibility of those whose duty it is to preserve local order, and I am confident that the War Department can rely on you to the utmost to see that the regulations are rigidly enforced.

Possible to Extend Zone. In this second place, while we have fixed a 5-mile radius about the camp in which prohibition is strictly to be enforced, I am confident that you will not tolerate evil resorts of any kind within easy reach of the camp, even though such resorts lie without the 5-mile zone. If places of resort spring up outside the 5-mile limit, but fairly accessible to the camp, I shall not hesitate to insist upon their elimination. Of course, it would be possible to extend the zone, and I shall not evade the responsibility in case of necessity. At the same time, if the zone is drawn too large, it will result in danger that the number of soldiers required to police it will be beyond the ability of the commanding officer to furnish in regular case, therefore, it might be easier and cheaper to move the camp to a more desirable locality; provided, of course, that the conditions could not be secured through any other cause.

Will Not Tolerate Restricted District. Finally, let me say that the War Department will not tolerate the existence of any restricted district within an effective radius of the camp. Experience has proved that such districts in the vicinity of army camps, no matter how conducted, are inevitably attended by unhappy consequences. The only practical policy which presents itself in relation to this problem is the policy of absolute repression, and I am confident that in taking this course the War Department has placed itself in line with the best thought and practice of the most police experience has developed.

This policy involves, of course, constant vigilance on the part of the police, not only in eliminating regular houses of prostitution, but in checking the more or less clandestine class that walks the streets and is apt to frequent lodging houses and hotels. I have appointed a commission on training camp activities to advise with me on matters of this kind, and through this commission I am sure I will constantly in touch with conditions about all our army camps. If you have any questions relating to the enforcement of the enclosed regulations, I trust you will not hesitate to get in touch with me or with Mr. Raymond B. Fosdick, chairman of the commission. Meanwhile, I am sure the country is looking to us to cooperate effectively in this matter and to make the surroundings of our camps worthy of the fine spirit of the Nation which intrusts these young men to us to be trained for service in a great cause.

NEWTON D. BAKER, Secretary of War.

The army recruiting station has already sent ten men to Dallas this week. If this rate of enlistment keeps up, this promises to be a record week for this station.

An order from headquarters states that this station is expected to furnish three more negroes for the hospital corps. These are to be supplied as soon as possible.

HOUSE ADOPTS FIRST OF 21 ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT DEATH TOLL IN HOUSTON RACE RIOT SEVENTEEN

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, August 24.—The House of Representatives today formally assumed responsibility for the prosecution of Governor James E. Ferguson on impeachment charges before the Senate through the adoption of Article One of the bill drawn by its special committee of managers.

This article charges the governor with misapplication of $5,600 of State money, August 23, 1915. It was adopted by a vote of 84 to 50.

Austin, Texas, August 24.—The committee appointed by Representative Fly, chairman of the House committee of the whole to draw up articles of impeachment against Governor Ferguson, filed its report at two o'clock this afternoon.

The report embodies twenty-one articles of impeachment. The articles will be taken up separately.

The committee named by Representative Fly to draw up the articles comprised Representatives Bryan, Wood, Bledsoe, Thomasson, Haidusek, Murrell, Spencer of Wise, and Coke. Mr. Fly was added to the committee by the House.

The bill of indictment alleges the following acts by the governor: Misapplication of $5,600 of state funds.

Placing of Canyon City Normal insurance money in the Temple State bank without interest. Owing the Temple State bank more than the law allows and transferring $75,000 temporarily to a Houston bank to cover up this fact.

Telling the legislature he did not owe the Temple State Bank, when he did, in fact, owe the bank more than $8,000.

Depositing $60,000 of the collections of the state's office in the Temple State Bank and procuring deposit of $250,000 of these funds in the American National Bank of Austin to the credit of the Temple State Bank.

Seeking to have the chairman of the State Highway Commission to deposit its collections in the Temple State Bank.

Telling the House of Representatives he was not indebted to the Temple State Bank when, in fact, he was in debt to it more than the law allows.

Declining to tell the House the source of loans aggregating $156,000.

Misapplying more than $3,000 belonging to the adjutant general's department.

Refusing to return to the state treasury the so-called "chicken salad" money.

Encouraging violation of the banking laws, despite his oath to enforce the laws.

Violating the University appropriation bill.

Using undue influence to control the University regents, and seeking to remove regents who did not agree with him.

Employing epithets of disrespect to members of the University faculty which he failed to justify, and which will be considered in the Senate.

Remitting a bail bond forfeiture of $5,000 to Wilbur P. Allen, University regent, with an improper motive.

Improperly conducting himself toward the counsel of the University.

Failing to send another nominee to the Senate when Labor Commissioner Frank Swor failed to qualify.

HOUSE WILL TAKE UP UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, August 24.—The House of Representatives today recessed at 11:45 a. m. until two o'clock in order to allow time to the committee appointed by William Fly to agree upon its report embodying articles of impeachment against the governor.

The University appropriation bill, as passed by the Senate was brought up and is due to be considered immediately following the disposition of the impeachment charges. It is declared by some representatives that with the time now remaining it will be impossible to pass the bill.

Friends of the institution therefore propose to attempt to pass the Senate bill without amendment, depending upon Mr. Hobby as the successor of the governor to approve it.

In the meantime a concurrent resolution was introduced in the Senate providing for the investigation of the University by a committee of Senators and representatives.

FRENCH TAKE HILL 304 IN BRILLIANT ATTACK-- BRITISH MAKE GAINS

The Associated Press war summary follows: In a brilliant attack this morning on the Verdun front the French carried Hill No. 304, one of the most bitterly disputed positions of the war, in the struggle for which thousands of men have lost their lives. The French advanced to an average depth of one and a quarter miles over the sector between Avocourt Wood and Dead Man's Hill, and in addition to Hill 304, between Haucourt and Bethincourt.

The official German report from the western front, while not definitely admitting the loss of Hill 304, says it was evacuated Tuesday night, only a weak garrison being left. The French are now in possession of all the important points of the Verdun front which they held before the great attack last year.

On the British front the bitter fight for possession of Lens was continued during the night. The official British statement announces that the British now hold German trenches immediately northwest of Grassiere to the south of Lens and that especially heavy losses have been inflicted on the Germans. Heavy artillery fighting continues around Ypres.

ORDER MAINTAINED TODAY AFTER A WIERD NIGHT

Negro Soldiers Shoot Into Houses and Fire Upon Officers---May Be Executed

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, August 24.—More than 100 negro soldiers of the two companies of the 24th Infantry which rioted last night and caused the death of 17 persons and the wounding of more than a score, are being sought today by strong patrols of regulars and Illinois National Guardsmen, under the command of General John A. Hulien, governor of the city under martial law. Three companies of Coast Artillery regulars from Fort Crockett reinforced the 1,000 or more Illinois Guardsmen and the order which was restored this morning is being maintained.

Roll call this morning by Capt. Snow, in command of the battalion of negroes, developed 125 absent. Eighteen of these have surrendered and others are being rounded up by the military patrols as the search of the negro district progresses. The captured men, under military law, can be shot for having mutinied and having fired on their officers, according to military officials.

The rioting, according to best accounts available, was caused by ill feeling spread among the negroes through treatment accorded them by city police. As military police the negroes patrolled the environs of the city when members of the battalion were released from the camp on passes. Several minor clashes occurred between the white police and the military, the latest preceding the riot resulting in the arrest of two negro troopers for interfering when a white officer arrested a negro woman.

The killing of Capt. J. W. Mattes of Illinois Second Field Artillery was accompanied by extreme cruelty on the part of his slayers, according to reports.

Wounded by a rifle bullet, Captain Mattes was surrounded by the rioters, riddled with buckshot and his body hacked and stabbed in many places with bayonets. Shots that were fired evidently at close range, tore great sections of his skull to bits and his body when discovered was almost unrecognizable.

Attempted to Kill Captain Snow. An attempt was made to kill Captain Snow, he declared and he had a narrow escape. Early today soldiers patrolled the streets of Houston and all persons abroad before daylight were stopped and questioned. The dead: ILLA D. RAINEY, mounted police officer. RUFUS DANIELS, mounted police officer. Middle-aged man, named Smith. S. SATTON, barber. CAPTAIN J. W. MATTES, Battery A, Second Illinois Field Artillery. E. J. MENKE, police officer. EARL FINLEY. A. R. CARSTENS, Painter. MANUEL GARRIDO. FRED E. WINKLER. BRYANT WATSON, negro soldier, Company K, 24th Infantry. (Continued on page 4)

GERMAN PROPAGANDA IN MEXICO UNSUCCESSFUL

Pro-German Newspaper Campaign Has So Far Failed to Influence Better Class

Mexico City, August 23.—Friends of Germany are conducting in Mexico newspaper propaganda against the United States, but up to the present time the efforts have failed of their purpose in so far as the better educated and influential classes of Mexico are concerned.

of overthrowing the sovereignty of Mexico and seizing for its own either by economic means or by force the territory between the Rio Grande and Panama.

Special efforts have been made to influence the students of the universities and technical schools in and around the capital and the youngest officers of the army.

Democrata Heads Agitation. The Mexican student body also has mixed freely in politics and takes itself very seriously.

The Democrata has found ammunition for its heaviest attacks in reprinting articles from American papers scoring Mexico, its government, its people and its policy.

the most part of recent date, while some seem to have been reprinted from papers of former years.

In addition to this plan of attack, the news dispatches of El Democrata, whether from the United States or from Europe, have been selected and written with the obvious intention of presenting the condition and prospects of the central powers in the most favorable light and of painting the condition and future of the allies, especially the United States, in the darkest colors.

For example, El Democrata, Aug. 3, printed an extra giving news of the revolt in Oklahoma against the constitution. Continued stress also has been laid on alleged widespread desertion from the United States of Mexican citizens who feared conscription in the army.

The campaign of El Democrata has not been particularly effective. It is the highest priced paper in Mexico, selling for 10 cents a copy, and the people who can afford to buy it are too well informed to be greatly influenced by its statements.

This line of offense has been headed by La Defensa, which appears at noon daily. This paper is distinguished by startling and insulting headlines which often have no connection whatever with the text beneath.

It has printed accounts of the sinking of the entire American and British fleets, the bombardment of American ports by hostile warships and other fantastic stories.

Following the lead of La Defensa are a number of other afternoon papers apparently thoroughly under German influence and control.

In addition to the papers enumerated above the Germans issue also a weekly sheet known as the Deutsches Zeitung Von Mexico, printed in Spanish and the Informacion and Des Informaciones, or Wireless News, issued when it is deemed expedient.

There has been a marked influx recently of Germans to Mexico City. The greater part of the newcomers seem in prosperous circumstances and many of them speak Spanish fluently.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides, Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need.

SOCIETY

LIFE

Life's a kind of handle that you turn, turn, turn, Or maybe just a candle that you burn, burn, burn.

Anyway it's pleasant Just to amble right along, Turning out a sermon, Or turning out a song.

Oftentimes the handle takes a notion to decline, And then you've got to double all your energies again.

But the added effort triumphs In a final burst of speed— And you've got to turn the handle, If you want to live your creed.

The world is full of handles that need turning at their best, With never any holiday and seldom any rest.

For sweetness out of labor Is the kind of sweet that stays For the dream beyond the shadows In the light of faron days.

Thé purpose of this ditty, let us make it blunt and plain— It is to show you that by turning you may win the world again.

And a life can't make much progress If it stands and tries to grow Like a cabbage in the garden That the man forgot to hoe.

Now, that the House of Representatives has brought impeachment proceedings against Governor Ferguson by a vote of 82 to 51, let us hope that in the trial of his case by the Senate it will be developed that it was that loaned the governor $154,000 in money with which to pay off his debts. The presumption is that that money was loaned or donated by friends, but it is quite possible it might have been loaned or given for a consideration or service either already performed or to be performed by the governor in an official capacity. If that was the inducement that caused these gentlemen to dig down in their pockets so generously the people of the state ought, by all right, to know who they are. If that was not their object, but merely through their friendship for the governor, then no harm can come to them by the revelation of who they are. Turn on the light.

DEATH TOLL IN HOUSTON RACE RIOT SEVENTEEN

 W. D. EVERTON, Battery E, a local company.
 C. W. WRIGHT.
 One of the negroes, M. Jones, a jitney driver, was found just before noon near Camp Logan with his right arm almost severed by a sabre stroke and shot wounds in the body.
 The wounded:
 William J. Brucks, shot in right arm, amputation necessary; critical; W. H. Hargrett, shot in left side, sprinkled on side and back with shotgun shot, serious; E. A. Thompson of Hempstead, gunshot in right leg; J. E. Richardson, shot in the head with rifle by negro soldier, not serious; Asa Bland, shot over left eye, injury slight; Willie Strong, negro private, Company I, 24th Infantry, shot in right side, accidentally by another soldier of his company; Horace Moody, mounted police officer, wounded in left leg; H. R. Patton, mounted police officer, received five or six wounds in hip, thigh, leg and shoulder; Sammy Foreman of Livingston, Company F, 15th Texas Infantry, shot in leg; James Edwin Lyon, shot in leg and arm, unidentified negro trooper, shot through abdomen; unidentified negro trooper, shot in leg; G. W. Butcher, Cottage Grove, shot in stomach; W. A. Thompson, shot through right hip, condition serious; City Detective T. A. Binford, shot in knee; Sam Salemsky, badly hurt in automobile accident going to camp; Alma Reichert, white girl, shot in stomach; George Beavens, negro soldier, wounded in leg.
 Congressman Eagle Protests
 Congressman Eagle at midnight sent this telegram to Secretary of War Baker:
 "As congressman from this district report death and wounding of several persons resulting from sending negro soldiers here. Without stating who is to blame it is a race riot and a tragedy sufficient to compel the statement that it is a tragic blunder to send negroes to southern camps. I protest vigorously against the Illinois negro soldiers ordered to Houston and sent by all means order them to Northern camps and order the negro soldiers already here sent elsewhere."
 (Signed) H. F. EAGLE.
 Captain Snow's Statement
 Captain Snow, commanding the battalion of negro troops, made this statement of two occurrences Thursday that crystallized feeling among men of this command that had been increased since the battalion was sent here from Camp Logan, N. M., three weeks ago for guard duty.
 "Thursday morning a Houston police officer arrested a negro woman and beat her. I am informed she was a soldier's wife. A soldier of the Twenty-Fourth who had been drinking remonstrated with the officer and was struck. Unnecessary violence in striking her. The officer then began striking the soldier whose head and shoulders were cut by the pistol butt. The same officers arrested the soldier and took him to the station house where he is now held.
 "According to a statement made to me by Corporal Baltimore of my police force, an officer arrested a soldier, Corporal Baltimore who was standing nearby wearing his military police badge, asked the police, merely as a matter of information what the man was arrested for. The policeman told him it was none of his business. He then, Corporal Baltimore and the arrested soldier both state, hit Baltimore over the head with his pistol butt. The policeman then ran up the street, the policeman firing at him as he fled. He took refuge in a house under a bed. The policeman dragged him out and used further abusive language to him and struck him twice more with the pistol.
 "When the men in camp heard of these occurrences Thursday night, it excited them greatly and they made open threats of retaliation."
 When Riot Began
 Evidence of these occurrences appeared before 7:30 Thursday night. A little later word came to him that the negroes had entered the ammunition camp and were firing at the sentries.
 The commanding officers rushed to the scene and made an effort to stop the riot. This mob was beyond control. The medical members of local exemption board 99. They are accused of conspiracy to make false statements and certifications as to the fitness and liability of those who came before them for examination. Kalman Gruber, who admits he distributed exemption blanks to various men in district 99, is also being investigated.
 Several men, all of the New York that one of the prisoners had boasted that the money that he was using came from German agents. Men who were from the German cause, the cause previous to April 6 are still industrious champions of the German cause, except that they have adroitly shifted their money to the German cause. They provided for giving aid and comfort to the enemy, but the work is proceeding on an unprecedented scale.

 "The most notable of the principal agencies of the German propaganda, and Socialist newspapers that are struggling for a bare existence, are flourishing as they never flourished before. The Sinn Fein Irish propaganda is equally prosperous, and the I. W. W., which is the most notorious criminal organization in the world, is carrying on its campaign of murder and sabotage with renewed vigor. Its leaders are flush with funds for any kind of an attack they care to make against American industry.
 In the case of the Russian Jewish radicals from the east side, whose traitorous activities in behalf of Germany, both here and in Russia almost challenge belief, there can be no doubt whatever of the German financial connection. None of this work is done nominally in behalf of Germany. It takes the form of propaganda against capitalism or against modern industrialism or in behalf of an independent Ireland, or for peace, but in every instance the full force of the conspiracy is directed against the military activities of the United States in order to diminish the power of this country in the battle against autocracy.
 Incidentally all of these German agencies center around a pacifist movement which is closely connected with them, which has its spokesmen in Congress and is used to reach people who are not susceptible to the Socialist, Sinn Fein, I. W. W. or Russian Jewish influences. It is all German, and from the World's previous evidence as to German plots in the United States we have not the slightest doubt that investigation will ultimately show that this money was paid for with German money. To a large extent it is carried on by the same men who were in the German service before April 6.

GENERAL GREBLE HAS ARRIVED AT CAMP BOWIE

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 24.—Without ostentation of any sort, Major General Edwin St. John Greble, commanding officer of Camp Bowie, arrived in Fort Worth at the Texas & Pacific depot Thursday afternoon at 4:50 o'clock. The only army officer to receive him was Captain J. M. Purcell, Camp Bowie quartermaster, a warm personal friend of General Greble.
 Those who expected a military demonstration must have been disappointed, for with the exception of a few military police sauntering around, there were no soldiers at the station. The train from El Paso, upon which the general arrived, was more than an hour late, and Captain Purcell immediately escorted his guest to his car, drawn up by one side of the depot.
 General Greble is a strong looking, middle aged man, considerably above the average height. He has an iron gray military mustache and a kindly, twinkling eye that betrays his reputation as a disciplinarian of the strictest sort. His skin is tanned to an unusual dark color by the border sun.
 Posing for Photograph
 Although he appeared to be fatigued by his long trip, he consented to pose for the photographers who were waiting for him. One of them was not fortunate enough to get a picture, and when he asked the general to pose again, he was laconically told, "Tomorrow. But the camp commander changed his mind and got out of the car, remarking that he supposed it would have to be done sooner or later.
 The only members of his staff to accompany him on the journey was Captain Houghton, his aide, and an orderly. General Greble wore no personal decoration other than a silver star, the insignia of his rank. He accompanied Captain Purcell to the latter's home at the Spoons apartments, 109 Penn street, where he will temporarily be the guest of Captain and Mrs. Purcell. It is expected that he will make his initial inspection of Camp Bowie Friday morning.
 Camp Bowie was unusually quiet Thursday, for no additional soldiers arrived during the day, and even the tattoo of the carpenter's hammers have been transferred far over by Lake Como, where the construction of the large base hospital has been started. Plans for the heating of the hospital by steam have been received by Captain Pillsinger, engineer in charge of construction, so that it will not be necessary to transfer patients to local infirmaries, even in the severest of weather.

The police did what they could but were overwhelmed. Sixteen truck loads of National Guardsmen were rushed to the scene of the trouble and all of the streets were put under a heavy guard.

 Magnificent Distances
 With the recent orders that automobiles will not be allowed in camp in force, visitors are going to have to take practice hikes before going to see their friends. For the reservation is certainly one of "magnificent distances." Perhaps the hardest camp to reach and yet one of the most popular, is that of the supply train, near the Stove Foundry road, nearly two miles from the closest car line.
 An aged couple got off the Arlington lights line Thursday at the cavalry camp while the sun was at its hottest and inquired of a workman the way to the supply train. They were told that it was far across country, but that appeared to make little difference to them, for they said they wanted to see their boy, who will soon be sent to Europe with the "Rainbow Division," and with quickened step they began their long walk through the dust. Since the supply train has been in camp there have been many visitors

Grand Jury Begins Examination of Men Accused of Draft Grafting

The federal grand jury in New York began an investigation of the charges against Louis I. Cherey, the drugist, who was the chairman, and Dr. Samuel J. They are accused of conspiracy to make false statements and certifications as to the fitness and liability of those who came before them for examination. TWO HELD HERE AS CAR THEFT SUSPECTS. Two men were arrested here this afternoon as suspects of stealing an automobile in Clarendon. A description of the men was received by the police department today and these men arrested less than half an hour later. One possessed about $11, while on the other was found something over $300. It is thought that the stolen car has been traded for the one in which the men were caught, for the car is not of the same make, but the men fit the description exactly. Clarendon officers have been advised of the arrest, but no word has been received from them as yet.

RAEMAEKERS POSTER AT THE NAVY STATION

The Navy Department is using one of the celebrated Raemaekers cartoons as an advertising poster. The cartoon is a very striking one, and is one of Raemaekers' latest. In the foreground state, taken beneath the word "Barbarism," the cross piece is a very vicious cross to which she has been chained, and which she has been forced to carry. The upright bears the word "Liberty." Above her, in the background, stands the Kaiser, in full regal regalia, brandishing a vicious whip, the lash of which is interwoven with sharp pieces of jagged steel. In the background, the Kaiser is a castle from whose turrets float the pirates' Jolly Roger, the skull and cross bones. Close to the girl, on her left, is Uncle Sam, dressed as a ranger, lifting the cross from the bruised shoulders of the girl, and presenting a revolver full in the face of the Kaiser. Behind Uncle Sam, in the far background, is shown New York harbor and the Statue of Liberty.

The significance of the drawing is instantly obvious. Armed, coming to the relief of suffering Europe. No war cartoonist has created such a picture as Raemaekers, for none have shown his strength and skill. The look of baffled malice, venomous hatred, and fiendish cruelty on the face of the Kaiser is pointed as only Raemaekers could show it. Equally powerful is the drawing in the other figure—the intense suffering, coupled with the unconquerable courage and patience in every line of the face and figure of the girl, the grim ferocity and deadly determination of Uncle Sam—these strike hard on the mind, giving a very intense point and meaning to the quotation of Theodore Roosevelt's printed below: "American Stand by the government in the fight for Liberty."

REP. GREENWOOD VOTED FOR BILL OF IMPEACHMENT

Special to The Times. Austin, Texas, Aug. 24.—Representative Enos R. Greenwood voted for the adoption of the Bledsoe resolution last night, ordering a bill of impeachment against Governor Ferguson. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 82 to 51. A committee of nine was appointed to draw up the indictment. The resolution as adopted last night does not provide for the suspension of the governor. He will be suspended only in the event the house formally adopts the articles of impeachment yet to be presented.

In the voting yesterday Representative Greenwood's vote was recorded each time with those who favored the impeachment resolution. BOOTY FOUND IN CAR WILL AMOUNT TO $800 OR $900

THREE MEN CAUGHT HERE YESTERDAY ARE BEING HELD FOR ARKANSAS OFFICERS HAVE BUT LITTLE TO SAY

Between eight and nine hundred dollars of the amount recovered from the DeQueen bank robbers who were arrested here yesterday afternoon, as far as can be guessed without counting the money. There were sixteen bags of silver nickels, dimes and quarters, and some copper. The officials of the City National Bank, where the money was left for safe keeping, went hurriedly over the money today, and made a rough estimate of eight or nine hundred dollars. Eighty-three dollars was in gold, there being one three-dollar gold piece, bearing the date 1856. The money will be counted tonight, to the last penny. There was also a copy of the New Testament.

It is still not very clear what was robbed, though the belief is now that it was a bank in DeQueen, Ark. This is borne out by the telegram from the sheriff at Clarksville, Texas, which states that the men are wanted for the theft of money from a bank at Clarksville. The officials at the City National Bank, moreover, say that the money is all "bank stuff." John Warnix, the oldest of the trio, was the first to be arrested. He is a thickish, heavy-set fellow, wearing thick lenses. He was arrested by Policeman Frank Burns about noon yesterday, on the description which had been forwarded from DeQueen. He refused to give out anything whatever; but it was stated at police headquarters yesterday that after he had been in for a while, he undertook to point out the car which was wanted, if they would let him out. They let him out—went with him, in fact, and, after riding around for a while, one of the policemen spotted the automobile in front of Pennington's store. Warnix gave no sign that he recognized the car when he passed it. George Gilliam and Frank Burns were both with Warnix at this time. Having spotted the car, Warnix was taken back to the police station, and the car was watched for a while, but no one was seen to come for it. Hester and the younger Warnix came for the car, intending to fix the lenses, and were promptly arrested.

Hester said this morning that they had not stolen the car in Clarksville, but had bought it trading in the Chevrolet for it. The Ford had no license number on it, so they used the one they had, bearing an Arkansas number, 12884. Further than this, Hester refused to make any statement. He seemed anxious to get back to Arkansas, rather than be tried in Texas. He inquired whether Texas could hold him if he were willing to return to Arkansas, and said that they had all numbers starting with their own license to return with the sheriff from DeQueen.

It is understood that Hester is well pleased with the result of his appearance and speech would bear this out. This would explain his desire to return to Arkansas, where there would be more likelihood of his being able to make a living, here would be here or in Clarksville. No disposition has yet been made of the men but it is understood that they will remain here until the authorities of either Clarksville or DeQueen come for them. County Judge Williams of Red River county, R. E. Van Icke, D. Taylor Gilman, Mark Craft, all of Clarksville, arrived about 3:30 this afternoon in pursuit of the three men who stole a Ford road about from Scaff about five and a half miles west of Clarksville, Tuesday night at 1 o'clock. The party left Clarksville soon after the theft was discovered, and traced the men as far as Clarksville, where they were arrested. Dallas police were notified, and they in turn notified the police here, who arrested the men yesterday.

A telegram from Sheriff Martin of Clarksville stated he was in Abilene, and would be here Friday, but since he was not coming here until the 25th, he will arrive in a car some time tonight.

REP. GREENWOOD TELLS WHY HE VOTED AS HE DID

In a talk over long distance telephone today to Wichita Falls friends, Hon. E. R. Greenwood, representative of this district, states that he voted with the majority of the House members on the general proposition that a sufficient number of the charges against Governor Ferguson had been sustained to warrant the House in framing impeachment charges against the Governor, upon which he should be required to stand trial before the Senate, which body by law, is made the trial court in such matters. Mr. Greenwood further stated that he does not believe all of the charges made by Speaker Fuller should be embodied in the impeachment charges, as the evidence was very conflicting on at least one of the charges. He does believe, however, that sufficient proof was made to make it the duty of the House to frame charges, leaving the Senate to convict or acquit according as that body may find that any or all of the charges are proven or not proven on final trial.

"UNIVERSITY BUNCH" MADE ISSUE IN ELECTION TODAY

An election is being held in the joint legislative district comprised of Clay and Archer counties today for a successor to Hon. C. W. Boner, who resigned to accept a position in the comptroller's office. While there are no avowed candidates the names of Forner, County Superintendent Holliday of Clay county and Will C. Young of Archer county are being voted on. The University of Texas is being made an issue in the campaign. Young has charged the University with being a political machine and has declared that because he would not pledge himself to fight Governor Ferguson the "University Crowd" is fighting him. Holliday is friendly toward the University and is known as an anti-Ferguson man. Through some oversight or failure to perform duty no election was called in Clay county until about a week ago, and it is also said the proper period has not elapsed for the election since the call was issued in Archer county.

Contract let for new school building at Seymour. Last week the contract was let for the building of the new ward school for which bonds were voted some time since. Plans for this building, which will be a pretty structure indeed, are on display in the office of Francis & Rupe. There were several bidders and a very favorable price was secured. Contractors had rather work for a smaller figure than to be idle. Work is to start September 1, and will be rushed to completion as quickly as possible in order that the larger portion of the coming session may be held in the new building. The only matter for regret is that home contractors were not the successful bidders.

"ALADDIN'S OTHER LAMP"

Life without dreams! It's like an old back yard littered with tin cans. We all have our enchanted forests, we all work our miracles of hope; we all have Aladdin's other lamp to rub when life is too sorry and dreary a thing. With Patsy Smith it was almost lost. She was an overworked little drudge in a fishing village. The only person who smiled at her was the grocer's boy, Harry Hardy. Then one day Patsy bought an old lamp from the junk man, Harry was studying to be a lawyer some day, and his education had reached the point where he had sold Patsy some of the tales of the Arabian Nights. Then Patsy rubbed the lamp and the miracle began, real ones which brought real happiness. It's a delightful play of dreams and real life and love.

The comedy on the bill is a big V Comedy entitled "Bats and Boldness."

EARLE WILLIAMS in "THE MAELSTROM"

A meeting in a fog, that carried in its wake an astonishing train of adventures.

5 and 10c

At the Theatres

The Empress.

Magic transformation scenes achieved by the use of trick photography, even the Metro wonderplay, "Aladdin's Other Lamp" and a screen story of Willard Mack's playlet, in which the charming little star, Viola Dana, will be seen at the Empress Theatre today.

Director John H. Collins and Camera man John Arnold collaborated on scenes that are epoch-making in the history of motion picture photography. Viola Dana as "Aladdin's other lamp" and rubs it. Out steps a Genie who grants all her wishes. Gradually the dainty Muradshahs of her room are changed to objects of beauty. Old Captain Barnaby grows a good leg in place of his wooden one. The landlady, bewitched, becomes draped over the walls and furniture. Just before he burst upon the scene, Augustus Phillips as the Genie really moved along the black-covered walls and over the furniture, but the clever use of "double exposures" gives the effect of magic.

"THE MAELSTROM" AT THE EMPRESS SATURDAY

An extraordinary night fire scene, showing the firemen's flight and the flames effecting the rescue of a woman trapped on one of the upper floors of the building, is one of the thrilling episodes in "The Maelstrom," the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature which will be presented at the Empress Theatre Saturday.

The band of crooks, in their warren by the police, set fire to the building to cover their flight. At the time there are in the house a half dozen police officers, a woman, her brother and her suitor. The criminals saturate the staircase with oil and apply the torch, hoping to cut off the escape of their pursuers. All apparently are doomed, but the arrival of the fire apparatus and the quick raising of the ladders enables the trapped people to escape.

All get out but the girl, who stays in the hope of saving her brother. A fireman goes up the ladder to get her, but just as his hand touches the window, the frantic girl pushes the ladder over and the would-be rescuer is sent crashing to the ground. At the moment the brother, appealing to the fire himself and the girl swoons. Her suitor, played by Earle Williams, dashes up another ladder and enters the blazing room. He picks up the unconscious girl and carries her to safety.

The scene is one of the most realistic fire pictures the screen has yet produced and is a remarkable example of night photography.

MARY MILES MINTER AT MAJESTIC SATURDAY

Mary Miles Minter in "Annie For Spite" will be the attraction at the Majestic Saturday. Annie Johnson is an orphan living in a tenement as an assistant to Mrs. Cadogan, mother of six children. She works in a department store basement all day and cares for the younger Cadogan children half the night. The dream of Annie's life is that some rich lady will adopt her and that she will live in a marble palace, drive in her motor car and wear beautiful clothes. Annie's dream comes true through the hatred for the scheming relatives of Mrs. John Grant Nottingham, who adopted Annie for spite. Emily, the old lady's daughter, the chief schemer for possession of Mrs. Nottingham's millions, has a son named Willard, a manly young fellow who falls in love with Annie. When Mrs. Nottingham, leaving her millions to "Annie-for-Spite," the relatives contest the will, and succeed in breaking it, but Willard marries Annie and they are very happy.

VERSATILE PHYSICAL ENDURANCE TEST

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—A versatile athletic physical endurance test will be given here Sunday, August 26, by Christian Christensen, of this city, under the auspices of the Danish-American Athletic Club.

Christensen is scheduled to take part in five events in rapid succession. The first is his test, by which he will ride a bicycle and will circle a three-lap track for the first mile. Then he will dismount and run a mile on a quarter mile track, after which he will walk a mile to a point on the lake front where a row-boat will be awaiting him. Rowing on the lake, close to the shore, Christensen will continue for a mile, which will bring him into the mouth of the Chicago river. Here he will plunge into the water and finish the last lap in his test, by swimming one mile down the river.

The entire test will cover five miles and Christensen expects to accomplish the feat in 52 minutes.

Christensen, who is 34 years old, has been actively engaged in athletics for twenty years. He is the athletic director of the Danish-American Athletic club, under whose auspices the meet is given.

DEUTSCHLAND UBER ALLAH

A question very frequently heard today is, "How is it that Germany can hold out so long?" This question has been answered by a number of pamphlets, from a number of points of view. "The New German Empire," of which a review appeared in the Times a little while ago, answered the question in a very comprehensive manner. "Business and German Aggression," answered the same question. And there has been published recently another answer under the title of "Deutschland Uber Allah," by the very celebrated E. F. Benson.

Mr. Benson's booklet does not set out to answer the question; but any one reading it will be able to see why one more reason why Germany has held out so long, and is in a position to hold out for a long time yet. This is one of the few war pamphlets which one can laugh at; and it is all the more effective for that. If the "bad man" is deprived of the power to take himself seriously, his ability to inspire terror is sadly impaired. Mr. Benson is cynically humorous throughout, and writes with an amused, almost detached air that makes for very easy reading.

The first point Mr. Benson makes is that while many critics have called attention to the fact that Germany has entered the war with a "bad temper," the temper of the people she intended to fight, they lose sight of the fact that Germany did not take the trouble to understand the temper of the people she was to fight. She was as any further mental effort on the part of Germany was concerned. She knew how strong they were, and what they would be if she were not prepared for this, by bringing her own equipment up to many times their, and she was not interested in how they might feel, or what they might think. And Mr. Benson then points out that where it was to their interest to understand the temper, her thought was of the clearest, and her diplomacy of the finest—infinity.

Bevo

for the boys in khaki

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee-line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks.

You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at canteens, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Bevo—the all-year-round soft drink

Let the goal be at least 50 for next Sunday. The Junior congregation meets for the first 20 minutes of the eleven o'clock preaching hour. The subject for next Sunday will be "Spoons" dealing with both morning and night. Services by the pastor. First Baptist Church. Sunday school at 10 a. m. There will be no preaching service either in the morning or evening. Regular prayer services at 8:15 Wednesday evening. George Simmons, secretary of the Farm Loan Association, stated this morning that the land appraisers will finish their work of valuing lands today. There has been a great quantity to appraise, and the committee have been very busy with the work. Mr. Simmons feels that the completion of this work will mark another important step in the finishing of the organization. There remains now only the further appraisal of the lands by the appraisers from Houston. Mr. Simmons said that the Farm Loan Association to be a running concern. One or two local technicalities have yet to be completed and then the organization will be perfected and ready to do business. Mr. Simmons said that he was pleased at the prospect of bringing this business to so successful a conclusion. He has worked hard, and there was a good deal to be done in reviving the interest which had flagged considerably prior to the reorganization of the association last month.

Home Reading Course For Citizen-Soldiers

LESSON NO. 10.

Recreation in Camp. (Proceeding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Sordidly Qualities. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms.)

While your days in the cantonments will be spent chiefly in drilling and other forms of training, you will have a considerable amount of time left free for your own use. Under some conditions permission may be given at times to leave the cantonment for short periods. However, this is a matter to be regulated in each camp.

If you do go away from the camp you will continue to wear your uniform and will keep in mind always that you remain a soldier, subject to certain requirements that are not so definitely imposed on civilians. In meeting officers, whether in the camp or outside, you are expected always to treat them with proper courtesy and respect. You should remember also, even though you are not directly under supervision, to keep up your soldierly neatness and bearing.

Congress has provided that "it shall be unlawful in a case of liquor, opium, including beer, ale or wine, to any officer or member of the military forces while in uniform," an exception that be made in a case of liquor required for medical purposes. Under authority of the same act it has also been ruled that alcoholic liquors shall not be sold within 500 feet of any military camp, an exception being made in case there is an incorporated city or town within that limit. It has further been provided that "the keeping or setting up of houses of ill fame, brothels or bawdy houses within 500 feet of any military camp"—is prohibited. All these provisions and restrictions are in the interest of every right-minded soldier. They go a long way toward insuring clean and healthful living conditions in the camps. They will help to make every soldier more efficient and better able to give a good account of himself.

One of the centers of army life in camp is the post exchange, at which articles for personal use, knickknacks, soft drinks, and so on, are sold. You will be free in depending on the good quality and fair price of everything offered in the post exchange.

In general, the matter of providing for recreation and personal comforts in the cantonments has been intrusted by the Secretary of War to a small body of men known as the Commission on Training Camp Activities. This commission includes an Army officer and representatives of organizations that have had much experience in meeting the needs of other officers. The organizations may also work with the commission. This task of attending to the social needs of the soldiers has been organized with almost as much care and thoroughness as the bigger task of making ready for the firing line.

The Young Men's Christian Association is building a hut for the men in each brigade. In these huts moving picture or vaudeville shows will be given every night. Writing materials will be had for the using. A piano will be at hand. The Knights of Columbus will have one large building in each camp, in which there will be facilities of the same kind.

Both these organizations will conduct religious services every Sunday. Men of all creeds will be welcome. The members of other organizations in charge will be glad at any time to talk over any personal problems and to help you in anyway they can. They will fill the pulpit. A cordial invitation to everyone. C. M. BEYER, Pastor.
