WAR OFFICE ANNOUNCED TODAY

STATEMENT ADVANCES ALL DAY YESTERDAY ON THE ROUMANIAN FRONT

By Associated Press. Moscow, Aug. 29.—At the third general sitting of the national conference, railway representatives, including M. Frolov, of the Engineers' Alliance, reported that there existed a state of utter disorganization of transportation which unless improved, would cease completely by November. The representatives gave warning that the consequences would be terrible both at home and on the front and that the armistice must turn the country into a desolated wasteland.

The extreme demands of the railway workers, the speakers said, played an important part in this disorganization. They called on those engaged in the transport services to sacrifice personal interests for those of the country.

M. Grahnsberg, speaking for the Jews, representatives of a kraime of White Russia, called on delegates representing the Mussulman alliance to demand their willingness to make sacrifices for the good of the country and defense against the enemy.

General Alexieff, former commander in chief, drew contrasts between the army of the Czar, now poorly equipped but strong in warlike spirit, and the present army well supplied with food and arms but completely demoralized. He pointed out that the army in two opposite camps, officers and soldiers, which become almost irreconcilable.

Speaking of the committee selected by the soldiers of the various units, General Alexieff said they were useful to the army from an economic standpoint, but were fatal to discipline. He stated that the less supervisory was the influence of government commissaries, whose appointment he attributed to extreme measures of a desperate government, the more dangerous the quality of power.

The general maintained that after publication by the government of the declaration of the rights of soldiers all the abuses connected with the army would disappear. He declared it would be impossible to carry the war to a victorious conclusion unless the strongest possible discipline was made by the provisional government, and by the troops themselves to reanimate and regenerate the army.

By Associated Press. Copenhagen, Aug. 29.—"The Socialist lists of neutral countries do not wish any nation to be crushed in this war," said the Danish minister in a statement today. "For that reason the constantly recurring rumors of a separate peace between Russia and Germany are meaningless and untrue."

A separate peace would be in complete opposition to the interests of the international working classes. We desire peace for all the nations of the world. A separate peace would set free forces which could be employed for the destruction of single nations which is in absolute opposition to the interests of humanity.

Basel, Switzerland, Aug. 29.—Herr von Hammer, the Austrian minister of public works, started the Austrian chamber of deputies yesterday by giving it as his official opinion that the coal crisis had become a vital question for Austria, Hungary, according to Vienna advices today. The situation, he declared, was one which must be faced without optimism and with the utmost seriousness.

In an effort to remedy matters, continued the minister, 12,500 miners have been brought back to the mines from the front, but during August the authorities had been unable to effect an increase in production because of the undernourishment of the workers. He pointed out that they must be accorded extra rations even at the expense of other classes of the population.

After the ministerial speech had been delivered the economic committee of the chamber introduced a bill creating a government monopoly of coal and authorizing the government to forbid the hoarding of all places of amusement except theaters and museums and to close luxurious hotels.

FAVORABLE REPLY AVERTS BREAK WITH ARGENTINE

CORRESPONDENCE MADE PUBLIC BY ARGENTINE INDICATES THAT COUNTRY READY TO SEVER RELATIONS

By Associated Press.—Buenos Aires, Aug. 28.—The favorable reply made by the German government to Argentina concerning the submarine activities relieved a tense and critical situation. The German reply stated that the German government was ready to sever diplomatic relations with Argentina for the safety of Argentine ships and indemnification for the torpedoing of the steamer Toro "in order to maintain friendly relations." The note also conceded, "freedom of the seas" to vessels, "under the Argentine flag carrying food."

The Argentine foreign office has made public the entire correspondence with Germany concerning the sinking of the Toro. It shows that Germany's note probably averted the possibility of Argentina severing diplomatic relations. On July 4, Argentina sent to Berlin a note concerning the Toro which had in part:

"It is impossible that while Argentina is guaranteeing the persons and property of Germans in Argentina, Argentine interests on the sea should be attacked and destroyed by the Imperial German navy. It is inconceivable that the natural products of Argentina should be considered contraband of war at any time. The Argentine government cannot recognize that the infringement of her national products may be made a motive for warlike and restrictive discrimination and is therefore unable to accept the proposals made. We must insist on reparation and a guarantee of freedom of the seas for Argentine vessels."

Germany replied on August 17 that notwithstanding the objections which the Imperial government in order to maintain friendly relations with Argentina, would agree to the same solution as in the Monte Protegido case. The German government agreed to pay the difference between the value of the Toro and the insurance on the vessel and said it would recognize Argentina's right to freedom of the seas by vessels with international law privileges. Argentina tried to prevent its flag from traversing the restricted zone. Argentina refused to consider this proposition and on August 24 demanded an immediate solution. The German reply of yesterday was the result.

SAYS COTTON CROP GOOD IN COLEMAN COUNTY

W. H. Roquemore, a grain dealer of Coleman, was in the city today attending the highway meeting. Though feed will be produced there for home consumption, but none for export purposes, he said. Mr. Roquemore shipped 250 cars of grain from Coleman county last year, while this year not a single car has been shipped.

In regard to the highway Mr. Roquemore stated that there was rumor of changing the proposed route through Coleman, and letting it run through Comanche and Brownwood, but the Coleman delegation has facts and figures to show that by running it as it now stands will make almost an air line from here to San Antonio. Mr. Roquemore felt sure that once their plans were laid before the meeting here the route would not be changed.

By Associated Press.—Copenhagen, Aug. 29.—Attacks upon Imperial Chancellor Michaelis continue and Prof. Hans Deibruock now asks the chancellor an embarrassing question concerning peace. In the Prussian year book, Prof. Deibruock inquires of Dr. Michaelis why, if he really accepts the Reichstag resolutions as the basis of his policy, he neglects to answer the inquiry made July 25 in the English House of Commons by former Premier Asquith regarding Germany's readiness to evacuate and restore Belgium. Prof. Deibruock who openly questions the good faith of the chancellor in professing to agree with the terms of the resolution asks whether his sentiments in the face of Mr. Asquith's summons do not show that those are right who insist that Dr.

BLANK-HODGINS PLAN MINSTREL FOR RED CROSS

Blank and Hodgins, the town comedians, are planning a minstrel to be presented some time early in September for the benefit of the Red Cross. Blank and Hodgins is busy getting the producing end of it in shape. Both men are "old hands" in the minstrel game, and as only the cream of the talent in the city will be used the show is sure to be a success.

The music will be in charge of Prof. Katz, who will begin working on that feature as soon as he returns from Colorado.

BELGIUM QUESTION IS REVIVED TO PLAGUE MICHAELIS

Attacks upon Imperial Chancellor Michaelis continue and Prof. Hans Deibruock now asks the chancellor an embarrassing question concerning peace. In the Prussian year book, Prof. Deibruock inquires of Dr. Michaelis why, if he really accepts the Reichstag resolutions as the basis of his policy, he neglects to answer the inquiry made July 25 in the English House of Commons by former Premier Asquith regarding Germany's readiness to evacuate and restore Belgium.

Michaelis takes another stand point from that contained in the resolution. "If the German government is ready to conclude a peace upon the basis of no annexations and no indemnities," asks the Professor, "why all this unprecedented apparatus of a joint committee of the Reichstag and Bundesrat to assist the chancellor in drawing up a simple answer to the Pope's proposal of peace on that basis?"

"The truth is," says Prof. Deibruock, "that Dr. Michaelis does not enjoy the confidence of the Reichstag. He could not possibly do so, the writer says after last week's event in the Reichstag's main committee and his tacit submission to the assertion that he is in reality opposed to the resolution, neither the German nation nor the world knows what the chancellor's policy is."

The Reichstag's resolution, Prof. Deibruock concludes, would have had a different effect if it was not believed abroad that the Reichstag is powerless and that the chancellor is double tongued.

Thousands of Miles of Concrete Roads in California Followed the Building of the Concrete Roadway Through the Presidio

Men of the Army, like men in other lines of business who know the importance of good roads, were quick to realize the efficiency of concrete as a roadway. The concrete road through the Presidio attracted wide attention among those interested in good roads in California. It was a success; so great a success, in fact, that at the present time many thousands of miles of concrete roads are to be found throughout the state.

The concrete road is the ideal road because it is not affected by weather, traffic, alternate freezing and thawing, cannot be softened by heat, increases the capacity of both horse-drawn and motor traffic and increases in strength with age.

SOCIETY

GLORY. (By Reginald Wright Kauffman of 'The Vigilantes.' I knew that hamlet well: a single street bordered with cottages, where faces sweet— Wives at their household tasks, and mild old men Dreaming their younger yesterdays again In silent sunshine—smiled at every one— Where, with the setting of the gentle sun, The husbands from the fields came singing home And where their children all day long would roam Till evening, when the whispering poplar-boughs Echoed the music of young lovers' vows. A hundred years it had been so—and so I knew that hamlet one brief month ago. Then I came back: a single house stood there; The rest were smoke upon the August air And ruins in the obliterated road. A gray-garbed sentry through the ash-ens strode: An old man's body, white hair splashed with red, Lay in the gutter, toward a blackened shed. Flushed face aglow and savage lip curled, A death-grimed soldier dragged a little girl; A strangled baby lay beside the stream Far in the dusk I heard a woman scream: And from the inn porch, dark with blood and wine, I heard the chorus of the Wacht Am Rhein.

TRYING TO INDUCE LI-YUAN HUNG TO RETURN TO PRESIDENCY

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Peking, July 27.—China has been left in state of uncertainty and suspense by General Chang Hsun's attempt to restore the monarchy. The single advantage result—of the struggle is the elimination of Chang Hsun. He has been a menace to the Chinese people. His great wealth and military strength enabled him to control the railroad between Nanking and Tien Tsin and made him a leader to be reckoned with. China suffered many setbacks in achieving the removal of Chang Hsun. He was undoubtedly tricked and betrayed by military governors who had promised to support him. Foreign telegrams and letters were used in inducing him to restore the boy emperor and this brought about his own downfall. But Tuan Chi Jui and other military leaders who worked for Chang Hsun's end have practically all been known as monarchial supporters and are under suspicion in their efforts to restore the republic and in their professions that they are genuine republicans.

Vice President Feng—Kuo, Chang (now president) always has been regarded as monarchial supporter. He does not enjoy the confidence of Wu Ting Fang and other prominent republicans whose honesty cannot be doubted. Vigorous efforts are being made by Tuan Chi Jui and other leaders to induce President Li Yuan Hung to return to the office of president. He apparently is the only man now in North China whom South China would accept as president.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of Laistown, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

George Bailey, the Houston Post's editorial paragraph, seems to have passed another mile post, and makes the following reference to it: "August 28 once more, but we are not so much concerned about those fifty-three years behind as the unknown number ahead, and as a matter of fact it is the day we have in hand that engages our attention more than all the yesterdays or tomorrows."

Nineteen billion dollars, and two more billion thrown in for good measure is the way congress is figuring the expenses of the war for the first year. That's more money than Germany and all her allies combined have spent for war purposes during the past three years. America has started in right to win this war, and Germany is beginning to realize the truth. When peace comes it will be when Germany asks for terms; she will never be allowed to name them. In forcing America into war has been Germany's greatest blunder.

More than 600 millers throughout the United States have agreed to a profit of not more than 25 cents per barrel on flour turned out by their mills, and in some instances less than that. Considering that flour manufactured from wheat that brought the producers an average price of $1.30 per bushel has been selling all the way from $15.00 to $17.50 per barrel for the past year or longer, the miller's profits per barrel must have been something near $5.00 per barrel on an average. That they have agreed to cut their profits down to a figure that looks reasonable is commendable. Even though the wheat from which flour will be manufactured cannot bring the producers a less price than $2 per bushel, the consumers of feed stuffs will receive some relief from the high and extortionate prices that they have been forced to pay for flour during the past two years. Mr. Hoover is accomplishing much for the people, and there is little fear that he will abuse the power placed in him by the government.

When Peary made the report that he had discovered a new country in the vicinity of the North Pole, the general public accepted his report as reliable, and therefore "Crockerland" was placed on the map. But now it seems there is no Crockerland, nor was there ever such a body of land. The party sent to verify Peary's report has just returned, and that's what they say about it. Peary, they say, saw a mirage. They saw the same thing and at first it deceived them. But to satisfy themselves they sailed their boats right across, and through "Crockerland" and could not see a sign of earth. Nothing but water. Is it possible that Lieutenant Peary has placed himself in the class with Dr. Cook, whom he spared no pains to denounce as a faker?

Subscribers to Liberty Bonds may be curious to know why they have not received the bonds they subscribed for nearly three months ago. The Government Bureau of Engraving and Printing was getting along nicely with the printing of these bonds when Miss Jeannette Rankin, member of Congress from Montana, introduced a bill that employees in that department were working more than eight hours a day. She succeeded in forcing a discontinuance of the practice and the work is thus delayed. All employees were paid for overtime and lose the opportunity of earning extra wages while the public is annoyed by failure to get the bonds in reasonable time. Of course, the Congressman was honest and sincere in having the eight hour rule enforced, but the facts prove that the men and women she wanted to help were injured by her efforts. West Times Herald.

Those Pension Rolls. With the government undertaking now to so insist on the matter into the war so that his people shall not be dependent upon a pension after his death or injury, there comes many expressions regarding the present pension rolls of the country. In this connection the Outlook has this: "The pension roll of the United States is a roll of honor. It should be dedicated solely to the dependents of those who have given their lives for their country and to the support of those who have been crippled in the fight for human liberty. To such as these no debt is too heavy for the country to pay. Yet in the past political trickery has tarnished the names of honorable pensioners by opening the pension roll to dishonorable applicants. Congress has repeatedly amended the records of deserters, cowards, and others dishonorably dis-ated in every way with the county commissioners court—indeed, without that court, we could not have carried on our work at all.

Protection From Grafters. "The commissioners' court," said Mr. Odle, "has been very slow to get money. But equally as important as to get money is to see that it is not wasted. I know of one county in Texas which spent $150,000 in roads, and in the scrap which followed between the two contractors who had built the road, it transpired that an enormous proportion of that amount went in graft."

"Now that is one of the things the Highway Commission can do, and wants to do. We know what it ought to cost to build a road, and we are very willing to answer any and all inquiries as to whether the price you are paying for your road is right. We can protect you from the road grafter, and we want to protect you, believe that there is no class of grafter so universal or so greedy as the road grafter."

"Another thing we can do and want to do is to assist in the matter of money. We have federal money disposal, provided by the state, and this money is no good unless we build roads with it."

The Ozark Trail. Floyd Thompson told the meeting of the purpose of the Southern Branch of the Ozark Trail, and of the occupation of the organization. Mr. Thompson made a number of important points, and his speech was marked by a very vigorous delivery and exceedingly clear thought and expression.

SEPARATE COATS FOR FALL Are Designed Upon Long and Straight Lines

This tends to give them an appearance, loose and flowing, but charmingly dressy and stylish; especially is this true of coats designed upon these lines for street and general utility wear. Some of the more dressy types, however, for afternoon and evening wear depart slightly from the straight line owing to the introduction of low draperies at the sides or through modification of the barrel effect. Many novel effects in the form of collars, sleeves and cuffs. Belts and pockets and fur trimmings help to bring out the general beauty of their lines in a way that is captivatingly admirable.

The materials which will be most extensively used in their making are Plush Broadcloths, soft wool Velours, Serges, Gabardines and Tricotines. An early inspection of those we have here is invited. Prices from $15.00 to $75.00.

PASSENGER FACILITIES WILL BE TAXED NEXT WEEK

Special to The Times. Chicago, Aug. 29.—Passenger facilities of the railroads of the United States will be taxed to the utmost the coming month...

The movement of troops must have precedence over all other traffic, even if it necessitates a reduction or even the abolition of the special trains which in former years have been run to accommodate those attending state and county fairs...

Efficiency measures inaugurated by the railroads war board combined with the hearty cooperation of shippers in the effort to "make one freight car do the work of two," are producing most desirable results.

Although there has been an increase in the volume of business, the number of unfilled orders for freight cars on August 1 was only 33,776, according to reports received by R. H. Ashton, president of the Chicago & Northwestern railway and chairman of the Central Department committee of the Railroads' War Board...

While the war situation is improving, the railroads are under no illusions and the public should not be deceived. A greatly increased effort must be made by both the railroads and their patrons to promote efficiency in transportation.

RECEIVES LETTER FROM SON WITH PERSHING IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of this city today received a letter from their son, Morgan, who is with Pershing's force in France. It is the first letter that has come through to them since their son sailed for France.

Morgan writes that he is well and is having a fine time. The French have received the American soldiers with every courtesy, he says. His worst difficulty, he writes, is in buying in the stores, where he cannot make the French understand what he wants. He writes that he has sent two letters before the one received today and his surmise that they have not gotten past the censor is evidently correct for they have not been received by his parents. Lowell Smith, another son of the family, is at San Antonio and expects soon to leave for France. Morgan, who is now in France, was a sixteen year old boy in knee pants when he enlisted.

RED CROSS TRANSPORTATION BOARD IS ORGANIZED

Washington, Aug. 29.—To handle the vast quantities of medical and relief supplies now being shipped almost daily to the Red Cross Commission for Europe to aid the stricken peoples of France, Belgium, Serbia, Russia and other belligerent countries, the establishment of a Red Cross Transportation Service is announced today by the Red Cross War Council.

This new branch of Red Cross activities has been made possible through the co-operation of the French, British and Italian governments, the United States Shipping Board, and the leading steamship and railroad companies. President Wilson has taken a personal interest in the establishment of this service. His aid and that of Chairman Edward N. Hurley, of the Shipping Board, formerly a member of the Red Cross War Council, have been invaluable to its success.

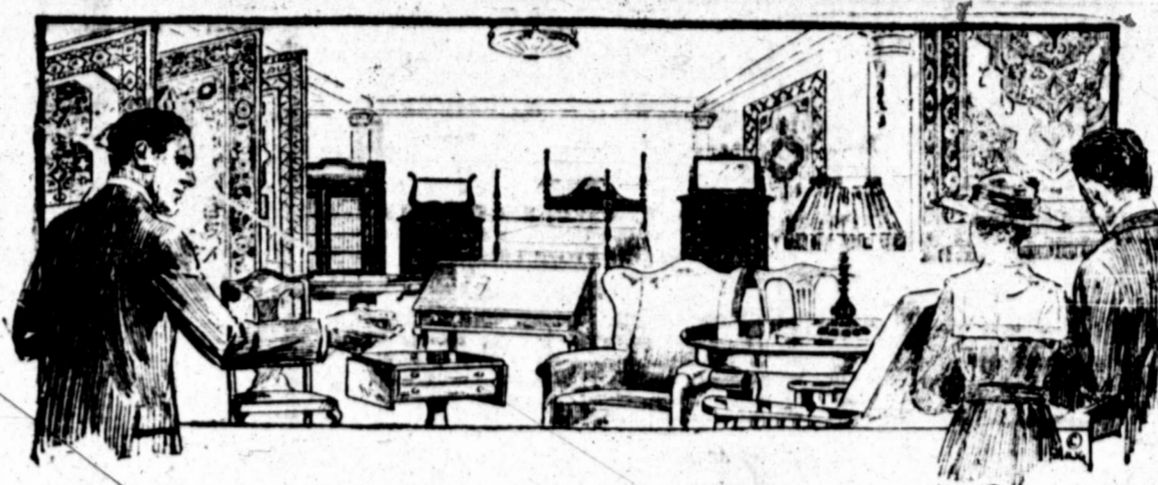

Practically all the cargo space needed for the shipment of Red Cross supplies abroad has now been placed at the disposal of the War Council. Much of it has been given free by the steamship companies and the allied governments. The Red Cross War Council, which is now being organized, will be in charge of the transportation of all Red Cross supplies.

As manager of ocean shipping for the period of the war, the War Council has appointed A. C. Fetherolf, freight traffic manager of the International Mercantile Marine Company, who is to serve without salary. Mr. Fetherolf is to be assisted by A. Mack, president of the Cosmopolitan Shipping Company, also a volunteer, and by Walter Moore, of the firm of Lahan and Moore. Mr. Moore will be in charge of the booking of all Red Cross shipments.

Through co-operation with the United States Shipping Board, the Red Cross is to be provided with cargo space on every steamer chartered by the Board. Army transports also will carry Red Cross supplies. Particularly every line has made reduction of its passenger steamer for Red Cross nurses and representatives traveling in Europe.

In making its ocean shipping arrangements, it will be the policy of the Red Cross to distribute shipments among as many steamers as possible. By using all available lines, losses at sea, if sustained, will not seriously interrupt the Red Cross work of mercy.

Some of the lines that have given invaluable assistance to the Red Cross in forwarding its shipments are: The Orient Navigation Company, the Cosmopolitan Steamship Company, the Royal Belgian Lloyd, the American Line, the France and Canadian Steamship Company, the P&O Line, the Barber Line, and A. Lawrence Smith, Inc.

At the Theatres

The Empress. Having scored such a pronounced success in "The Golden Fetter" Wallace Reid, supported by Anita King, will be seen at the Empress today in the Lasky Paramount production "The Squaw Man's Son," a sequel to the popular drama "The Squaw Man" by Edwin Milton Royle, and prepared for the screen by Charles Maigne.

Wallace Reid is the most popular of the younger masculine screen stars and was recently seen in the Lasky Paramount production "The Prison Without Walls." As Hal, in "The Squaw Man's Son," he has a part exactly suited to his personality and ability.

Anita King, also one of the youngest of the screen favorites, is seen as an Indian girl, a character similar to the one in which she made her first screen appearance with the Lasky Company.

The Gem. The attraction today at the Gem will be a Butterfly feature, "The Red Case," a mystery story of the first water. Louise Lovely is the kidnapped niece of Senator Reed, whose mysterious disappearance is the basis of the story.

Holubar is the young detective, Jerry Brennan, who discovers her whereabouts in the most unexpected fashion, and by his courage and resource detects the plans of the crooks, and captures them rehanding. In the support of these leading players is Alfred Allen in the role of the old-fashioned type of detective who is distrustful of Jerry's modern methods, and jealous of his success. Sydney Dean, who will be remembered for a fine characterization in Holubar's preceding "Butterfly," "The Field of Honor," has the role of the girl's father, while Nanine Wright, known at Universal City as "Mother," is her mother. Ernie Shields is a society boy who begins something which he can't finish, and George Pearce is the Senator Ed. Brady gives a good characterization as one of the crooks.

"THE SLACKER" TO OPEN AT MAJESTIC THURSDAY

The two day's run of "The Slacker," the great patriotic film, will open Thursday at the Majestic. A review of this film from one of the metropolitan dailies follows:

Out of the grip of current patriotic films has risen "The Slacker," mirror in an angle of the American woman's position not yet overworked, fresh enough to meet response in the hearts

EMPRESS THEATER

TODAY WALLACE REID AND ANITA KING "THE SQUAW MAN'S SON" This is truly a good picture, blending strangely the tang and snap of the American West and the pomp and ceremony of the ancestral halls of "old England." Edwin Milton Royle, the author of "The Squaw Man," has written the sequel to his famous play, which was also the first Lasky picture, in response to the popular demand to know what had become of Hal, the Squaw Man's son.

TOMORROW GLADYS BROCKWELL "HONOR AND OBEY" Miss Brockwell is one of the greatest dramatic stars of the screen today and is often called "The woman with a thousand expressions." In this picture, she is given the opportunity to display her ability as a dramatic artist.

HERE THEY COME! 1,000,000 STRONG!

UNCLE SAM IS MAKING GOOD!

In September, one million picked men will be called to the colors—America's proof to the world of the patriotism, efficiency and fighting power of this great Republic. We can't all go—the government will choose those best fitted to make up our great National army. But we who stay can "do our bit." We can show our patriotism by economy, by thrift, by working harder and more efficiently than ever at our daily business.

And we can help by seeing to it that these one million clean-cut American soldiers are well-equipped to fight for Liberty and Democracy. U. S. Army Regulations require a Shaving Outfit—and each soldier must bring his own. Who can imagine a soldier carrying 'round a Strop and a Hone? No! The old-fashioned straight razor won't do.

The soldier of today wants a razor that will give him the quickest, cleanest, and most comfortable shave he could possibly enjoy—but above all he wants a razor that needs no stropping—no honing—and always ready for use. There is just One Razor that meets every test of the war; one razor that has proved its absolute superiority through three long years of conflict in Europe. Extra Blades for this razor can be procured in France, England, Russia, Italy and all other parts of the world. This is the Razor that every American soldier needs, to be perfectly equipped for shaving satisfaction. We're going to see to it that he gets it, and YOU can help.

Let's do our part to equip ever last man of them with a Durham Duplex—beyond all question The Razor of the Great War. All the armies of the world use the Durham Duplex Safety Razor. And the very fact that they use it proves it to be an actual necessity. Buy the Durham Duplex Razor in leather case, with six extra blades, $5.00 value—Our price for the soldier boys, $1.00
