The governor made his contention when he testified before the committee regarding the $100,000 indebtedness of himself and the Bell Bosque Ranch to the Temple State Bank early this year.

Admits He Didn't Know

In answer to M. M. Crane's first question, the governor said he had never called to his attention section 4 of the constitution providing that all fees received by state officials shall be paid at once into the treasury.

TO "WILLFUL VIOLATIONS"

The governor said the statutes referred to willful violations and that in the case of loans like his from the Temple State Bank, there was no willful violation because the overline was abundantly secured and was sure to be settled.

SOLDIERS' WEEKLY NEWSPAPER TO BE ISSUED AT CANTONMENTS WITH RICHMOND PUBLISHER DIRECTING

Washington, Sept. 19.—Plans for publication of a soldiers' weekly newspaper in every national army and national guard camp beginning with the week of September 20, under the auspices of the national war work council of the Y. M. C. A., were announced here today by John Stewart Bryan, publisher of the Richmond News-Leader, who arranged the details of the co-operation among many other publishers which make the work possible.

Among contributors will be Colonel Roosevelt and many of the best known newspaper workers and cartoonists. President Wilson has encouraged the plan. The general management of the paper will be under the personal direction of Mr. Bryan and the co-operating publishers will compose an advisory board. The plans grew out of a conference in Washington last July at which Mr. Bryan was assigned by the War Work Council to visit all camps in the south before going to Europe.

Large Undertaking "It seemed hardly probable at first that so large an undertaking could be carried out," said Mr. Bryan today, "and it probably would not have been but for the assistance of Mr. Adler, who suggested that if the paper carried no advertising and were not sold there were no reasons why local publishers would not cooperate to the fullest measure."

"The plan was thereupon worked out by which the Y. M. C. A. could furnish four thousand papers to each of the cantonments, four of these papers to be supplied from the New York office to the co-operating publishers and the other four pages of camp news to be set up and all the press work done by the local newspapers, the entire edition to be distributed through the Y. M. C. A. headquarters at the various camps."

After describing his success with editors in various parts of the country Mr. Bryan continued:

"But Texas was the fertile field. There are camps at Waco, Houston, Fort Sam Houston and Fort Worth, and the camp at Deming, N. M., will be covered by El Paso. Prompt acceptances were received from George J. Palmer of the Houston Post, Amos G. Carter of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Colonel Charles S. Diehl of the San Antonio Light. The latter will cover Fort Sam Houston. To reply has yet been received from Waco and El Paso, but they will be covered."

NAN'S LETTER HOME

London, Aug. 21.—Mr. Dear Sis: I expect that you will have thought as I did that once arrived in England it would be easy as falling off a log to get right in touch with your Ned and see a whole lot of him before he leaves for France. But I may not be able to go to his camp at all. It seems our men are expected to do as the British soldiers and disappear when they leave home. There is no jolly weekend visiting in the English camps as there used to be in the camps at home. But the English use the post-office here in a way that would surprise you and every day writes and voluminous letters are exchanged. I'm afraid our men will find their mail very meagre compared with the bulky mass Britishers get from their home folks.

Some Letter Hints. Until I actually see Ned I may put down a few little hints I have gotten from others on board. In the first place the comfort bags presented to the soldiers before they leave America are a comfort in every respect but one. Those given to our regiment were of pink flowered cretonne made with drawstrings. They were handed out at the last minutes and the poor boys had to march through the streets and up the docks carrying those awful things on their arms. They would have thrown them into the gutter but orders were strict that they were to be presented for inspection. Even the earnest faces of a volunteer regiment could not outshine the incongruity of those pink and blue flowered chintzes slung like knitting bags from olive drab arms.

Resolution by Elks Lodge on Death of W. C. Gibson

Sept. 17th, 1917. We, your committee, appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Brother W. C. Gibson, beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, death has removed from our midst our beloved Brother W. C. Gibson, and

WHEREAS, in the death of Brother Gibson, which occurred at Dallas, Texas, Sunday, September 2nd A. D. 1917, this lodge has lost one of its most faithful and devoted members, and

WHEREAS, we greatly deplore the loss of our brother, realizing as we do that his place in our hearts and affections will be long unfilled, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the untimely death of Brother Gibson should remind us that we, too, are doomed to die, and that ere long we must follow him to that great beyond, whence no traveler returns, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend to the bereaved family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorest affliction, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, a copy furnished the newspapers of the city and a copy be sent the family of our deceased brother.

WIDOW OF NOTED CHURCHMAN PASSES AWAY AT NASHVILLE

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Cynthia Tennessee McFerrin, widow of Dr. John B. McFerrin, a notable figure in Southern Methodism, died here at midnight, aged 90.

When I think of your busy fingers working all day long I hate to add one more duty but I must tell you how bad it made me feel to find that only 50 privates in one of the companies of our regiment had the warm sleeveless sweaters we American women have pledged ourselves to provide. Many of the other companies did not average so well and some had none at all. These sweaters are their only extra covering. The officers were pretty well provided, but the men need sweaters, mufflers and socks above everything else. At dinner the first evening after arriving in London I happened to mention the need of our men for knitted things and the next thing I knew a group of dear old ladies had organized themselves into a society for knitting woolly things for American soldiers. I was touched to the heart of course, but all the same I did not want them to do it. I want our boys to come here with everything they need, so that they will not feel that the women of England had to do just those little personal things which only women can do for the army.

Exchange Addresses. But one thing the English women did on board was file their exchange addresses with dozens of our men. They are going to write to them and send them chocolates and cigarettes and little things they have learned are acceptable. Three charming women who have houses in London invited our officers to let them know when they get leave from France, if ever they do get it, so that they may entertain them. One woman who has lost her two sons in the war said "I don't know how long I have served since she no longer had any boys of her own to have home on leave."

Comfort Bags. Over here the comfort bags are made of tape-bound dust-colored linen or rubberized drab twill. They have eight pockets inside and fold up like an envelope. The flap buttons down and is also finished with strong tapes which may be knotted and hung on a peg if there is one handy. Of course the pockets all open toward the flap so that the bag becomes a handy wallet and the articles are kept separate. Men hate bags anyhow and I prefer to forget the mess inside some of those on board before we were half way across the ocean. In the first place the needles were all rusted fast in their cases, and handkerchiefs and wash cloths had been used indiscriminately. I would suggest the addition of a couple of sticks of shaving soap, the kind in which the stick of soap is attached to the box cover. There is no more of this sort to be had over here and it's considered a luxury.

Few Receive Sweaters. When I think of your busy fingers working all day long I hate to add one more duty but I must tell you how bad it made me feel to find that only 50 privates in one of the companies of our regiment had the warm sleeveless sweaters we American women have

Sir Eric Geddes Thinks End of War Is Yet Far Distant

By Associated Press. Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 13.—Belief that the end of the war is yet far off and America has not awakened to its seriousness is expressed in a letter written by Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the British admiralty, to George C. Ecker of this city. Ecker was Virginia's manager for the Pittsburgh lumber firm at the time the present head of the British navy, as a boy of 19 or 20, was tallying logs and inspecting lumber at Nicolette, near here.

Between 60 and 70 Wichita County men, comprising 40 per cent of the county's quota for the draft, will soon be on their way to Camp Travis at San Antonio to begin their training. They are the finest of our manhood. They have been selected above others to meet the enemy. Their selection was because of their special fitness for military service. The whole country will honor them in the sacrificial duty they have been called on to perform.

Secretary Lane, addressing the National Chamber of Commerce at Atlantic City on the 17th Tuesday, declared it was the problem of world statesmanship to decide what kind of hostages Germany can give to keep the peace. "It is now 1900 years," he said, "since Caesar defeated the Germans in France. When they came asking terms, he said to them, 'Go back whence you came, repair the damage you have done and give hostages to keep peace for the future.'"

A few days ago the Times had something to say about the passage of a bill in the legislature to permit the commissioners of Dallas County to make an appropriation for a rest room at the Dallas County court house. As our exchanges come in the Times finds the same view in general as the following from the Houston Post and Denison Herald will show:

Governor Hobby has submitted to the legislature the question of allowing the commissioners court of Dallas County to erect upon the court house square of that city a restroom for the use of women visitors to the city. Dallas has for a long time maintained such a restroom in a building formerly used for the justice courts. That restroom has become one of the institutions of which the North Texas city is justly proud. Women from the rural districts who are called to Dallas have found at that every needed convenience. The women's clubs of the city have there given demonstrations of household economies of the greatest value. And now, in view of the farm women of the county, Dallas proposes to erect another building especially to render such service to the farm women of the county as to allow such an expenditure of public money. Houston Post.

It is strange that towns and cities catering to the needs and pleasures of the rural sections have not provided for the comfort and convenience of women visitors and customers long ago. There is no question but what many women are kept away from town, leaving it to their husbands to make purchases that should be trusted only to the intelligence of woman, simply because of the inconveniences afforded which make it so weary to and from town as well as the hours devoted to shopping a misery instead of a pleasure. Every city should provide a restroom for its country friends—a place where the people can go and feel completely at home, and Dallas is paving the way and setting the pace for such enterprises.—Denison Herald.

ment to the soldiers in camp and in the trenches that they could not find without it. General Leonard Wood, former commander of the Department of the East and now in command of a division of the new National Army, said recently: "The idea of sending tobacco to the American soldiers in France is a capital one. Nothing gives a soldier in the field more pleasure and contentment than a cool refreshing smoke after a hard day's fighting or while awaiting call to the firing line. Life in the trenches is very hard, and I know the American soldiers will appreciate and enjoy remembering in the form of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and pipes."

CONTROVERSY IS FINALLY SETTLED AT LOCAL MOVIES

The moving picture operators' strike, which has been in operation for the past four weeks, was settled late last night. The difficulty had resolved itself into the question of whether Riley Carter, the operator at the Empress Theatre, should be admitted to the union, the managers maintaining that he was the most competent man who had worked for them, and that unless he was admitted they would not treat with the operators.

TWELVE CASES TRIED IN CITY COURT TODAY

Twelve cases were tried in police court this morning. Eight of them were on charges of drunkenness, and in all but one case the defendant was found guilty and fined $5. However, one of them was released on account of having been drafted into the army service, and having received orders to leave for camp today. The other three cases were for an affray, and after being found guilty, they were each fined $5 by Judge Whitelaw.

GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR MAKE THE MOST SATISFACTORY WORKERS ON FRENCH FARMS

German prisoners of war are being used extensively in France for farm work, and, as long as they are well fed and housed, they perform their work rapidly and well. In fact, the French farmers now prefer German help on their farms to native Frenchmen, because they are much cheaper. The French farmer says the German laborer has 12 cents a day.

EXPERTS ADDRESS LIONS CLUB UPON PEANUT INDUSTRY

W. W. EVANS, OF M., K. & T., AND M. HARDING OF DALLAS, SPEAKERS.

PROFITABLE AS CROPP

Tell of Value to Growers and Advantages of Having Factories to Handle By-Products.

W. W. Evans, agricultural agent for the M., K. & T. railroad, and M. Harding, of the Texas Peanut Works, Dallas, were the guests at the Lions club luncheon today. By a curious coincidence, both gentlemen were in town in the interest of the peanut industry, though they were working independently.

Mr. Evans spoke of the many advantages which have accrued to the growers of peanuts, and stated that it was the intention of the M., K. & T. railroad to foster the industry by every means in its power. A very thorough campaign of education will be undertaken, with a view to showing the farmer the ins and outs, the ups and downs, and the long and short of peanut farming.

Mr. Harding spoke in connection with the industrial end of the peanut crop, and outlined a brief plan for organizing the peanut industry along the same lines as the great meat packers, one concern to make and handle all the by-products of the nut. He had received the most convincing encouragement from the different business men and organizations over the state, he said, and had arranged with about one hundred newspapers to take up the matter of publicity.

Amongst other interesting details, Mr. Harding mentioned that peanut oil sold for ten cents a gallon cheaper than cotton seed oil, and was, in the opinion of many users, a superior oil. The oil, it was gathered, is one of the most important of the by-products.

Be Source of Revenue. Mr. Harding said, in closing, that while the peanut industry was now in its infancy, he believed that, with the proper organization, it would become the principal source of revenue to the State of Texas. It could, he said, become the leading industry of the state, and most certainly would develop into one of the chief sources of wealth.

C. E. Rogers stated that there was great need for new membership, and also of stimulating those who were already members. Mr. Rogers suggested that something be done to encourage a larger attendance at the luncheons. It was stated that when the new lists of the classification of business were ready, the membership committee would become active in increasing the roll of the club.

J. C. Lewis, who has held the position of secretary up to this time, has resigned on account of pressure of business. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Art, Curlee and Rogers, was appointed to nominate his successor.

Another British Columbia man, after three unsuccessful attacks had been made against a heavily wired machine gun emplacement and a strong point, organized a fourth attack. The wire was penetrated by him personally. He bayoneted three of the defenders and killed a fourth with the butt of his rifle. The machine gun was silenced and the position captured. But for his daring, the official record says, our attack would not have succeeded.

Sergeant Flavell of Manitoba, when his platoon was held up in the enemy wire by a machine gun, rushed forward alone, shot the gunner and disposed of the rest of the crew before the gun could again be put in action. Private Henry Carl Hansson of Manitoba, a stretcher bearer, several times in daylight made trips into No Man's Land, carrying water to the wounded who could not be brought in until darkness, and no doubt saved the lives of many.

proper organization, it would become the principal source of revenue to the State of Texas. It could, he said, become the leading industry of the state, and most certainly would develop into one of the chief sources of wealth.

C. E. Rogers stated that there was great need for new membership, and also of stimulating those who were already members. Mr. Rogers suggested that something be done to encourage a larger attendance at the luncheons. It was stated that when the new lists of the classification of business were ready, the membership committee would become active in increasing the roll of the club.

J. C. Lewis, who has held the position of secretary up to this time, has resigned on account of pressure of business. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Art, Curlee and Rogers, was appointed to nominate his successor.

Another British Columbia man, after three unsuccessful attacks had been made against a heavily wired machine gun emplacement and a strong point, organized a fourth attack. The wire was penetrated by him personally. He bayoneted three of the defenders and killed a fourth with the butt of his rifle. The machine gun was silenced and the position captured. But for his daring, the official record says, our attack would not have succeeded.

Sergeant Flavell of Manitoba, when his platoon was held up in the enemy wire by a machine gun, rushed forward alone, shot the gunner and disposed of the rest of the crew before the gun could again be put in action. Private Henry Carl Hansson of Manitoba, a stretcher bearer, several times in daylight made trips into No Man's Land, carrying water to the wounded who could not be brought in until darkness, and no doubt saved the lives of many.

ARTILLERY RANGE BOARD TO ARRIVE IN CITY TOMORROW BODY IS CHARGED WITH SECURING BODY OF LAND FOR GOVERNMENT. Tomorrow is the time set by the war department committee on location of an artillery range and school of fire for its inspection of land in Wichita County, according to their promise made J. A. Kemp, who met them in Denison last Friday. In the absence of any contrary information Mr. Kemp is making preparations for their reception and tomorrow will take the party, which is composed of Colonel Monroe McFarland, Major G. W. Lewis and Captain Paul C. Potter, to view several tracts of land which are thought would be especially suitable. A telegram announcing the exact time of their arrival is expected late this afternoon.

DIZZY SPELLS Relieved After Taking Two Bottles Of Cardui, Says Tennessee Lady. Whitwell, Tenn.—Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of this place, writes: "About four years ago the dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk I would just pretty near fall. I wasn't past doing my work, but was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me, as a lady who lived next door to me had taken a great deal, and told me to try it. This was when we were living in Kentucky. My husband got me a bottle and I took it according to directions. It helped me so much that he went back and got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better and just quit taking it. I got over the dizzy spells...I took no other medicine at that time nor since for this trouble. No, I've never regretted taking Cardui. I felt just fine when I finished the second bottle." Purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its action, Cardui, the woman's tonic, may be the very medicine you need. If you suffer from symptoms of female troubles, give Cardui a trial. All druggists. NO-11P

LIBERTY BONDS WILL BE READY WITHIN MONTH Wichita County's subscribers to the First Liberty Loan issue will probably receive their bonds some time in October, delivery to be started on September 26 by the reserve banks, according to a telegram received today by the Times from J. W. Hoopes, deputy governor of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas. It is the general impression that delivery will be made in alphabetical order to counties subscribing and as a consequence Wichita County will be among the last to receive the more than $60,000 Liberty Bonds subscribed. The telegram stated that full instructions from the bank and copies of the treasury department circular No. 80 were being mailed this paper tonight for general distribution. Subscribers to the bond issue are advised to await report of the official circular and the announcement of local banks before taking any action to secure their bonds. This afternoon one of the banks had received any instruction regarding the distribution of the definitive bonds.

Wear This Uniform: It Is Becoming Inexpensive and a Sign of Patriotism

Official Uniform of the Food Conservation Section of the Food Administration. Pattern may be obtained by mailing 10 cents to Food Administration, Washington, D. C.

Three views of the official uniform, restricted to the use of the women signing the conservation pledge of the Food Commission. It is both practical and pretty, and can be worn either as a dress or as an overall apron. It is made of washable material—fast colors. The material is inexpensive. The dress is of blue cotton material, collar and cuffs of pique, cap of white lawn with pique cuff, collar and cuffs prettily pointed. It can be easily ironed as the dress opens out like a coat, and cap unbuttons, leaving two flat pieces of cloth. It has a double front, so that when one front panel becomes soiled, the other can be placed outside. The sleeves of the dress reach just below elbow and button into removable cuffs which can be replaced when soiled. There are large pockets on each side of the skirt to accommodate work gloves, dusting cloths, etc. The dress is fastened by two straps from the front panels, which meet in the back and button, with one large button. Colors—red, white and blue, dress blue, collar, cap and cuffs white, insignia red. Insignia is an embroidered shield bearing stars and stripes surrounded by yellow heads of wheat. This insignia on sleeve and cap is a constant reminder of the patriotic duty of food conservation. The heads of wheat represent all food, while emphasizing the particular necessity for saving wheat. Patterns for uniforms for immediate use may be obtained in standard sizes from the Food Administration in Washington. Price ten cents. Can be purchased from the pattern department of any woman's magazine.

"The Busy Corner"

Have You Seen Our WINDOW DISPLAYS

NORTH WINDOW

In our north window will be shown a ten piece dining suite in solid Mahogany, made by Luce Furniture Company, Grand Rapids. This beautiful suite in the Adam Period, after the Brothers Adam, is based on the classic style of ornament in low relief, produced after the study of the antique detail found in the buried cities of Herculaneum and Pompeii.

This suite consists of table, buffet, china case, serving table, and set of chairs, composed of five regular type and one host-chair, all upholstered in Blue Hair Cloth. The lamp shown is solid Mahogany, matching the dining suite, and the shade is of Japanese design and shape in colors blending with the Blue Hair Cloth Upholstering.

Your attention is also called to the floor covering of this display. This rug is a She-Raz Royal Turkish, in standard room size and colors that have to be seen to be fully appreciated. The draperies shown are in colors harmonizing with the rug are of domestic weave, and dyed with Superlazine dyes, the best obtainable.

CENTER WINDOW

Our center window contains a unique display of Oriental Rugs. The suspended rug is a Royal Hama-Dan. The rose and blue rug covering the floor is an Anglo-Chinese. The small rugs consist of a Royal Bo-Khara, a Royal Ta-Briz, a Royal Mina-Khami, and a Royal Gorevan. A Mahogany library table with Oriental covering and Ivory Electrolier for contrast completes the setting.

SOUTH WINDOW

The south window display shows a living room suite of brown Mahogany, upholstered in blue Velour. This suite is in the popular William and Mary Period Design, and made by the celebrated Karpen Bros., who are internationally known for the excellence of their product. The lamp also is in solid Mahogany, finish brown, and capped with shade in the design of a Chinese Pagoda, with exquisite colorings and figures. The draperies shown here of English Madras, imported from the mills of Calderdine and Son.

The floor covering is a Karnak Wilton Rug, that Aristocrat of American Wiltons, made by Shuttleworth Bros. Amsterdam. This rug is not only a beautiful and practical floor covering, but a most interesting example of industrial art and reflects the superiority of the products of the American looms. The design is known as the Chino-Japanese Rug and will create in American homes the Far Eastern atmosphere, so much in vogue at present—the whole forming a unique combination of Celestial and Nipponese Art. The central point of interest is a representation of the Temple of Heaven, Pekin. The motifs on the ground conveying the Japanese spirit are the mysterious Torii, lanterns, banners, vases filled with Lotus (the sacred flower of the East) and bric-a-brac, familiar to collectors of art objects, all surrounded with a beautiful panel border of cherry blossoms and birds of gorgeous plumage.

These three beautiful window displays show only a few of the many new things contained in our large fall stock of Complete House Furnishings. It will be our pleasure to show you our stock at your convenience. We have the goods and can please your tastes, no matter now aesthetic they may be.

TODAY'S MARKETS

CORN RESPONDS TO FROST TALK WITH NEW RISE

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Notwithstanding that frost which had been looked for failed to appear, the corn market today rallied from depression. Misgivings that the frost danger was still imminent seemed to have too strong a hold to be readily dismissed as the bulk of the crop in Kansas and Missouri will not be safe until Sept. 30. Advances, however, were not well maintained. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/8 to 3/8 lower at $1.18 to $1.18 1/2 for December and $1.15 to $1.15 1/2 for May, were followed by a sharp upturn to well above yesterday's finish at 1/4 then a fresh sag.

PRICE OF COTTON MOVES UPWARD ON RENEWED DEMAND

New York, Sept. 19.—There was active general buying in the cotton market at the opening today. A more optimistic view of peace prospects combined with bullish overnight spot advice from the south seemed to be the chief factors while local covering and fresh buying were promoted by a renewal of the demand from houses with Liverpool connections. The opening was firm, an advance of 12 to 25 points. These prices attracted considerable realizing and there were reactions of 10 or 15 points but the market soon firmed up against selling at 2 1/2 for Oct. and 2 1/2 for Jan. before the end of the first hour when the general list showed net advances of 37 to 70 points, late months being relatively firm.

New Orleans Cotton. New Orleans, Sept. 19.—Peace rumors and cold weather in the eastern portion of the belt caused heavy buying of cotton here today. In the first half hour of business the market rose 43 to 62 points. Favorable spot accounts from the interior were a stimulating influence. Only a moderate supply of contracts met the demand.

Liverpool Spot Cotton. Liverpool, Sept. 19.—Cotton spot quiet; prices 15 points higher. American middling 18.20; good middling 17.90; middling 17.15; low middling 16.65; good ordinary 15.70; ordinary 15.20.

New York Stocks. New York, Sept. 19.—Vigorous bidding for stocks brought about a quick upturn with the opening today. The strength shown on the first transactions caused a flurry among shorts, resulting in a rapid extension of gains in the first half hour. Central Leather, Marine Preferred, Mexcel Petroleum, Steel, Republic and Maxwell were marked up 1 to 3 points.

New York Sugar. New York, Sept. 19.—Raw sugar nominal; centrifugal $6.90; molasses $6.02; refined steady; fine-granulated $8.40; $8.50.

Cotton Holding May Again Be Object of Campaign In South

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 19.—Members of the Farmers Union of Texas will inaugurate a statewide campaign to induce farmers to hold their cotton for a better price. It was announced here today at a meeting of the field department of the union. Plans for the campaign were to be completed at the meeting. It was said.

Chicago Produce. Chicago, Sept. 19.—Butter unchanged. EGGS, 12,231 cases. Firsts 37 1/2; ordinary firsts 35 1/2; second 33 1/2; 37c; potatoes receipts 40 cars, unchanged.

British Casualties For Week Announced. London, Sept. 19.—Casualties in the British ranks reported for the week ending yesterday follow:

Kansas City Produce. Kansas City, Sept. 19.—Butter, eggs and poultry: Unchanged. Potatoes: Firm $1.40.

Wichita Falls Produce Market. All quotations unchanged. Hefslin, Sept. 19.—In the course of disorders at the Finnish fortified seaport of Viborg 74 miles northwest of Petrograd, in which soldiers were involved, 30 officers were killed and 160 others are missing.

FLORAL HEIGHTS AID AND BIBLE STUDY

The Ladies' Aid and Bible Study Class of the Floral Heights Presbyterian Church, owing to the work being carried on in building the addition, met Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Haggard, 1604 Kemp Boulevard. Encouraging reports were made by several of the members in the matter of securing $100 as their aid in the building enterprise, and it was decided to continue this particular work until October 1. The society also decided to have "Dollar Roll Call" on October 2. A special committee consisting of Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Roberts, was continued to see about securing quilting to be done by the society. This band of workers have been keeping up their activities throughout the summer months, and are looking forward to more energetic service for the fall and winter. The opening devotional was ready by Mrs. C. W. Froman, having chosen the 19th Psalm as the subject, and the closing verse was made a special prayer.

After the Aid Society finished its work, Mrs. W. Mike Newman, regular teacher of the Bible study class, led the study in the book of Ezekiel. This class has been in existence for more than a year, with regular meetings each week, and no small credit for its success is due to the faithfulness of its teacher. The following members were present: Mesdames Alred, Daniel, Davis, Dick, Froman, Newman, Roberts, White and Haggard.

U. C. T. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. R. REYNOLDS

The U. C. T. Club will divide its meetings between the usual game of 42 and work for the Red Cross, this decision being reached at the opening business session of the year, held Tuesday afternoon with the new president, Mrs. W. R. Reynolds. The first and third Fridays of each month special meetings will be held and the second and fourth the ladies will devote to the Red Cross. Instead of the usual prizes, the club will make a monthly donation to the Red Cross. Following the business session a few games of 42 were played, the hostess having the tables arranged in rooms prettily decorated with roses. Refreshments consisted of a sherbet with cake. Mrs. Owens was a guest, the club members present being Mesdames J. R. Bachman, Herbert Brown, Baker, Leon Deaton, G. T. Drinkard, George Keith, A. N. Lummus, W. R. Reynolds, J. T. Cant, Wilford Harrison, J. C. Hensley, E. K. Lynn and Pridle.

The club will hold its first social meeting October 5 with Mrs. Herbert Brown.

JUDGE KAY WEDS AT CLARENDON MONDAY

Judge and Mrs. John C. Kay are now at home at 1508 Austin, arriving yesterday from Clarendon where they were married Monday. Mrs. Kay was formerly Mrs. Cornelia Timmons for several years teacher in the piano department of the Clarendon Methodist College. She comes from Graham, where the Kay family resided formerly and has many friends here who will welcome her. There are many congratulations and good wishes for the judge and his bride.

EPISCOPAL GUILD MEETS IN BUSINESS SESSION

The Guild of the Good Shepherd met Monday afternoon at the Episcopal Chapel in business session. Plans were made for the annual Christmas Bazaar and dinner to be held December 7 and 8. The members present: Mesdames Allen, Doseph, Moelius, Shaw, Bibb, Inge, Sammons and Goodale.

WESLEY GIRLS MEET WITH MRS. LOREN TAYLOR

The Wesley Girls made bandages for the Red Cross Tuesday afternoon at their regular meeting, fancywork being laid aside for the winter. Mrs. Loren Taylor, 1203 Lamar, was the hostess, and after two or more hours spent in the work she served a delicious refreshment, course of maple nut ice cream and cake. The members present: Misses Myrtle Humphries and Muriel Hickman, Mesdames A. H. Drake, Rhea Howard, H. A. McCarty, Jim Hanko, Baker, E. R. Hickman and S. A. Barnes.

Miss Bernice Jackson will leave Sunday for Cincinnati where she will resume her violin studies under Signor Tirindelli in the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

J. L. Jackson, Jr., will leave Saturday for Austin where he enters his junior year at State University. He will drive through in his Cadillac and T. B. Noble, Jr., and Allan Montgomery are expected to go with him.

Wichita Falls High School Team Will Be Chosen From Good Batch Of Youngsters Trying for Positions

Wichita Falls High school has begun preparations for a good football team this season, the first work-out being held yesterday afternoon. Lots of good material was on the field, and those in a position to know state that this year's team will be as good, if not better, than that of last year. Only three veterans of last year's squad were out yesterday afternoon. They were Andrew Urban, T. J. Waggoner and Robert Trotter, who held the position of tackle, end and quarterback, respectively. As was to be expected even the veterans were a trifle rusty yesterday, but it will not take long to get them in trim, and with their assistance Profs. Bell, Conroy and Glass hope to have a squad ready to play in three or four weeks.

Protests Are Made Against Valuations of Several Railways

Practically all of the High schools and colleges of the state will have to pick their squad from material inferior to that of former years, owing to the fact that many of the best men have gone to the war, but such is not the case with the local high school, the outlook at this time being even more favorable than it was one year ago, and Professor Bell, principal, stated this morning that with the proper coaching he could see no reason why the school should not have one of the best squads in the state.

The usual interscholastic contests will be held but Professor Bell has a plan in mind that has been formulated to create more rivalry between the classmen, a plan which he thinks will prove beneficial both to the classes and to the school in general. This plan has not been announced to the students as yet, and will not be until all the branches of athletics are fully organized and ready for some good hard work.

King Now in Army.
 Scott King, who directed the football activities of the school last year, has been commissioned a first lieutenant at the Officer's Training Camp at Leon Springs, and is now stationed at a training camp in Lone Island. While his leaving will be a distinct loss to the school, his place in the athletic department will be filled by men who have lots of experience in training high school boys and girls for athletic contests, and with Professors Bell, Conroy and Glass directing affairs everyone is confident of a successful year in this branch of school work.

As yet nothing has been done toward organizing a tennis club, basketball, or any other branch of athletics, other than football, owing to the fact the members of the faculty who will have charge of these matters have been busy with the organization of the classes to attend to sports. However, it is thought that by the last of

SAXON "SIX"

A big touring car for five people

Buy Before the Boom Motor Car Prices Sure to Advance

Buy your Saxon "Six" now and you buy at the bottom of a market that's going up shortly.

Wait and you'll pay for it.

All motor cars must soon increase their prices to cover the extraordinary rise in cost of labor and materials. Many have already done so.

$935 is probably the lowest price at which Saxon "Six" will be sold for a long time.

Perhaps you are thinking of buying a car costing $200 or $300 more than Saxon "Six."

If you are, then by all means see Saxon "Six" first. And you'll save the $200 or $300.

For we can prove to you—or you can prove to yourself—that there is no car costing $200 or $300 more than Saxon "Six" that will match it in fine-car quality.

For instance: One of Saxon "Six's" important features—Fedders radiator—is also found on 8 cars selling for more than $3,000. Saxon "Six" costs $935.

Again, another of the important features of Saxon "Six"—Timken axles—is also found on seven cars selling for more than $1,700.

One more. Still another important feature of Saxon "Six"—Spiral bevel gear—is also found on 12 cars selling for more than $1,350.

And there are 7 other of the big features of Saxon "Six" such as Timken bearings, Timken axles, Continental motor, Stromberg carburetor, Remy ignition, Fedders radiator, Spiral Bevel gear, found on 30 cars selling for more than $1,150.

Now consider the matter of upkeep cost. You will find the cost of running Saxon "Six" quite visibly less than the cost of running a car priced several hundred dollars higher.

Its six-cylinder motor has been so refined and developed, and vibration and friction have been so largely eliminated that you get full mileage from each atom of gas and oil.

It is important to consider that Saxon "Six" is a six-cylinder car.

For with four cylinders any motor naturally has far more vibration and friction than a "Six."

And it is this vibration and friction ceaselessly tearing at the motor and parts that impairs flexibility, slows up acceleration, makes a difference of degrees in the quietness of its operation, increases repair-service costs, and finally takes nearly 50% from the standard efficiency of the motor.

These being facts—and facts generally known now—it is obviously not the best of business judgment to purchase any "four" priced between $800 and $1000 when Saxon "Six" can be purchased at $935, f. o. b. Detroit. It may not be that low for long, so buy now.

Saxon "Six" Sedan $1395; Saxon "Six" Chummy Roadster $935. Saxon Roadster, $395. Prices, f. o. b. Detroit.

CAVALRYMEN ARE STILL IN DEMAND AT ARMY STATION

MAJOR C. W. FARBER EXPECTS TO VISIT LOCAL OFFICE SHORTLY

Major C. W. Farber, the new commanding officer of the district of Northern Texas, will shortly make an official visit of inspection to Wichita Falls and all other sub-stations. Recruiting officers have received instructions to hold over all accepted applicants, providing for them lodging and subsistence, till the official visit of the commanding officer.

Recruiting officers have also received instructions to accept for enlistment any qualified applicant for cavalry, white general uniform, either with or without previous service.

Married Men Eligible.

Married men whose wives and families are not dependent upon them for support are now eligible for enlistment in the regular army, according to the new ruling by the adjutant general of the army. The following letter on this subject has been sent to all recruiting stations:

"You are hereby authorized to accept for enlistment in the various Staff Corps and Departments married men whose wives and families are not dependent upon them for support, provided no special condition is claimed on account of their conjugal condition."

"You will require each applicant so applying to exhibit a sworn certificate signed by a notary public, showing the fact that no claim of dependence will be made by the wife, as stated in the previous paragraph, and signed by the wife.

Applicant's Statement.

"You will quote on the applicant's enlistment papers and directly under the declaration of the applicant, and above the applicant's signature, one of the following statements, as the case shall require:

"I am married, but my wife is not dependent upon me for support, or

"I am married, but my wife and child are not dependent upon me for support, or

"I am married, but my wife and children are not dependent upon me for support."

"No deviation from the above instructions will be accepted by the recruiting officer."

NAVAL RECRUITING TO CONTINUE HERE PENDING NEW ORDER

OFFICER BIRNSTIEL RETURNS FROM DALLAS AFTER RE-ENLISTING

R. F. Birnstiel, who has been assistant recruiting officer at the local navy station, has just re-enlisted in the regular navy from the reserves, and returned from Dallas yesterday.

While in Dallas, Mr. Birnstiel made careful inquiries as to whether recruits were still to be accepted in the navy. The officers gave him distinctly to understand that the statement of Secretary Daniels that no more men need apply for enlistment in the navy had never been officially received by them. Other than the statement in the newspapers, the navy officers have heard nothing as to discontinuing recruiting but, on the other hand, they had received express orders to get more and more recruits.

So far as the local recruiting officers are concerned, the matter is settled, and they will carry on the recruiting with all speed. C. A. Harrington has sent out between twenty and thirty letters to postmasters in the surrounding territory, advising them of the state of affairs, and urging them to send in every applicant they can find. Men are still coming up to the office, asking if the navy needs men; and two applicants who came in yesterday from the country stated that the postmaster in their town had told them explicitly that their town was useless as no more men were being accepted. This conflict of reports has made recruiting very difficult; and the officers wish to state again that they are looking for every available man.

JEAN SOTHERN AT THE MAJESTIC THURSDAY

"Miss Deception" will be the attraction at the Majestic Thursday. A particularly unique story is related in "Miss Deception," a photoplay which is marked by originality and charm. Joyce Kingston is the daughter of a millionaire, but she has never seen her father, having been reared by an uncle in the west. When she comes of age her father, who has neglected her all these years, decides to make reparation by inviting her to live with him. Joyce knows that he thinks her a wild and untutored western girl, although she has really been to an eastern finishing school, so when she goes to the city she wears impossible clothes and makes absurd social blunders, keeping the household in a state of constant perturbation. Her despatch proves to be rather good than bad, however, for it is instrumental in saving her father's fortune and unmasking an adventuress who desires to marry his "son." In the end the girl reveals herself in her true colors as a polished society maid, and gives increased happiness to her lover, who was fond of her despite her lack of culture. As played by Jean Sothern the character is whimsical and delightful. A splendid cast supports the star, and the direction, done by Eugene Nowland, is marked by skill and artistry.

The Empress.

"I am really living a life picture," Mrs. Petrova was heard to observe the other day during the filming of her latest Paramount picture, "The Law of the Land." "It is one of the most vitally thrilling and intense pictures in which I have ever appeared," she continued, "and I find that after a few scenes I actually merge my own identity with that of Margaret, poor, fragile Margaret, accused of murdering

SENATE NOW HAS WAR DEFICIENCY BILL FROM HOUSE

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Carrying $7,000,000,000 the war deficiency bill is today in the Senate's hands following its passage yesterday by the House. The Senate probably will act promptly after its appropriation committee reports.

The committee began hearing on the bill with Secretary Baker appearing as the first witness. The secretary was expected to present new estimates for the army which, together with other estimates may bring the bill's total up to about $8,000,000,000, the biggest money measure in American history.

Mrs. J. W. Belcher left this afternoon for a visit to friends and relatives at Chickasha, Okla.

BIG INCREASE FOR RYE CROP IS NOW URGED

Washington, Sept. 19.—Rye is recommended for a larger acreage increase than that suggested by the United States Department of Agriculture for any other grain crop. Compared with the ten year average, the more than five million acres urged for rye represent a 124 per cent increase, the next largest increase advised for 1918 being 43 per cent for winter wheat. The rye figures represent a 51 per cent increase of the area sown to rye last year, when the largest acreage in the history of the country was put in.

Reason of Request The main reasons why the Department recommends rye are that it is harder than wheat, that it will grow on some lands not adapted to wheat, and may be sown later than wheat. In addition, it is less subject to injury by insect and disease than wheat is, and it usually matures before rust, the great enemy of the small grains, becomes severe. Rye will endure a more acid soil, as compared with wheat, and is generally a better crop for winter, and spring pasture because it makes larger, earlier, and more upright growth.

It has advantages on the economic side as well as on the cultural, says the Department, and in some sections produces a more profitable crop than wheat. It uses less nitrogen, pound for pound, and the straw has a higher value than wheat straw. Our Place in Rye Production. The United States, noted for its pre-eminent place among the nations in grain production, grows less than 3 per cent of the world's rye crop. Winter rye is the best for this country and may be grown from the cotton belt to the northern boundary by using the varieties adapted to the different regions. The Italian varieties in the South— and Swedish and Russian strains in the North. At the northern boundary of Florida, rye ripens about the middle of May, and the average date of ripening is approximately one day later for each 15 miles northward until, in the northernmost states, it ripens between July 10 and July 25. Full details as to the culture of rye in the eastern half of the United States, where 80 per cent of the crop is grown, are given in Farmers' Bulletin 756, United States Department of Agriculture. This bulletin discusses the production and harvesting of the crop, and gives a description of soils and varieties that may be expected to yield good results in various regions. Since rye is strongly recommended by the Department, and by the Food Administration forces, farmers who may contemplate planting it are urged to write to the Department of Agriculture at Washington for copies of the bulletin. Most of the colleges and experiment stations in the north-eastern quarter of the United States have also issued publications about this crop in their respective states.
