all increases in prices and deficiencies in service going too far? Every body knows that the profiteers took advantage of the situation to boost their prices to exorbitant figures.

If war continues through 1920 it is unlikely that there will be any change in the presidency, and President Wilson will retain his leadership of the nation and in the world.

Heavy French Artillery Plays Lone Part in Conflict and Many Strongholds Are Taken.

By Associated Press. With the French armies in France, Oct. 24—Nowhere on the French front was the fighting more elaborate and more fierce than in the small section of the front extending northward from the Aisne to the Marne.

The army which possessed the superiority in artillery and the most useful observation points when the final stage of the fight began was sure to have the upper hand.

Some of the finest troops of the German army occupied the ground, including three divisions of the Prussian Guards and one Bavarian division.

It has been worked in two strata, forming a trench which their position was sufficient accommodation for an entire infantry brigade.

LOCAL NAVAL ENLISTMENTS DUE IN LARGE MEASURE TO TIMES IS SHOWN BY RECORDS AT STATION

The navy recruiting officers stated that the sparse reply to navy publicity in The Times, had borne a great deal of fruit in the way of inducing and influencing applicants to enlist in the navy. Records are kept at the office of the various mediums through applicants are first influenced to join the navy, and these reports show that a large proportion of applicants first get the notion of becoming Man-of-War men through the many notices of vacancies, and general publicity work that has appeared from time to time in this paper.

PECANS ARE GOOD MONEY CROP; WRITE TO STATE'S EXPERT GROWER

Austin, Texas, Oct. 22.—The growing of pecans can be made a profitable business in nearly every community in Texas and certainly can be made so in every community where there are native trees. The state department of agriculture has an experienced pecan grower who has been a practical Texas farmer for forty years. His services are free and all who need reliable and really expert advice upon the subject of pecans should get in touch with him. He is J. H. Burkett, Clyde, Calhoun county, Texas, and communications may be addressed to him or to the department of agriculture, Austin, Texas. Mr. Burkett is the propagator of the Burkett pecan which is one of the best varieties known to pecan culture.

PRICES IN CORN PIT ADVANCE IN SPITE OF ORDER

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Action by the board of trade directors banning all new purchases of November and December delivery of corn failed today at least temporarily to hold down prices. The announced purpose of the directors was to add the government in preventing the existing scarcity of elevator stock here from hoisting values but the most noticeable immediate effect of the measure taken was to increase the urgency of demand from shorts who desired to liquidate contracts. Opening quotations which ranged from 1/2 off to a like advance with December $1.14 1/2 and May $1.09 1/2 to $1.10 1/2, were followed by a sharp upturn all around.

Oats sympathized with the advance of corn. Provisions rose briskly in response to higher prices on hogs and corn. Reports of husking delays due to labor scarcity counted somewhat as a bullish factor and so too did advice that indicated unusual slowness in the drying out of the new crop. Prices closed nervous 1/4 to 1/2 net higher with Dec. $1.16 1/2, and May $1.11 1/2 to 1/4.

OVERNIGHT SELLING SENDS DOWN PRICE ON COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 24.—There appeared to be a good many overnight selling orders at the opening of the cotton market today and first prices were unchanged to nine points lower. Owing to the coast storm, weather advices were very slow in coming in from the south but those received indicated that the cold wave had entered the eastern belt as suggested, very low temperatures being reported at several points. There was also renewal of covering by October shorts, while there was good buying by Liverpool and trade interests which soon raised prices with October selling up to 29.25, making a new high record for the season. December advanced from 27.60 to 27.90 and January from 27.33 to 27.33, or about 10 to 16 points net higher.

Buying was stimulated by the bullish character of later weather advices with October selling up to 29.50; Dec. to 28.90 and Jan. to 27.45 during the second hour. This made net advances of 29 to 40 points on the general list. The drying out of this side of March making new high records for the season. At 150 points over Dec. Oct. was sold more freely however, with the price breaking 30 29.60 and there were moderate reactions on later deliveries with the close barely steady net ten points lower to 36 points higher.

New York Cotton. New Orleans, Oct. 24.—The cotton market here was irregular and excited early today, cold weather over the belt encouraging buying, while against this was liquidation from recent buyers who sought their profits. Tomorrow's census bureau report on ginning and closing of the exchange at 11 o'clock today complicated matters. Around the opening prices were 4 to 22 points up but there was a quick fall to a level of 4 to 13 points under yesterday's close. At the end of the first half hour the market stood at a net rise of 5 to 18 points.

An Elephant Trainer by Marriage

SNYDER The Only Elephant in the World that Walks Like a Man and Carries His Trainer on His Tusks

Lucia Zora and One of Her Pets.

The reason she is a trainer of elephants? Because she is married. All of which sounds rather queer—but just the same it is the truth. The reason that Zora, the bravest woman in the world, came to become the best elephant trainer in existence, is because she married. But let her tell the story herself: "A few years ago I never had thought of being an elephant trainer," Zora said recently. "More than that, I did not even know I ever would be connected with a circus. I was content to enjoy the society life of a small town. Then I met the man who was to be my husband. "He was an animal trainer, and at present is also connected with the Sells-Floto circus. Being interested in him, I naturally became interested in his work. And, most of all the animals, I became interested in the elephants. One day I asked my husband if he thought I could ever train them to do any tricks. He laughed and told me that he had just enough confidence in me to believe I could do anything in the world. "And so I started to work. I had heard that elephants recognized the German language best, because of their long residence in Germany at the Tierpark of Hagenback, where practically all circus animals are handled before coming to this country. I know German and I used it. The result was that the elephants answered my commands easily and the first thing I knew, I had succeeded in teaching one of them a few tricks. Then I began with two—then three—then four and finally a whole herd. And I think I succeeded—at least the show says that I have. "And Madame Zora has succeeded, to the extent that she is the only woman in the world today who can handle successfully such great groups of elephants as form the performing herds of the circus. More than that, she is the only person who has ever been able to train continuously a great "tucker" like Snyder, on whose tusks she rides in the performance of the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill Original Wild West.

German Officer Killed By Own Men Found In Forsaken Redoubt American Destroyers And Men Equipped For Coldest Weather

Airplanes and Officers Expected To Arrive Almost Any Time Now Airplanes are due to arrive at the Aviation Camp at any time, and officers are expected to report there on Saturday next, according to a report received here today. Mild excitement was created by the statement made by a young man yesterday afternoon that he had seen airplanes loaded on an express wagon, en route for the camp; "and if you don't believe it," he said beligerently, "you can go down to the corner of the street and see for yourselves." A detachment went, but the airplanes proved, upon investigation, to be nothing more than the ordinary than motor-cycles knocked down and crated. The young man afterwards admitted that he had been collecting money at one of the saloons, though he refused to disclose the amount.

The Lions' Club has undertaken to bring Corporal Wishart here as part of an educational campaign in war matters, the need of which has been expressed here on a number of occasions. It is believed that everyone here will be vitally interested in hearing accounts of what the men of France, Belgium and England under went at the hands of the Germans in the first terrible days, and of what the American boys may expect to find when they go into action. One of the officers of the club stated this morning that he believed that a first hand account of these things, by one who had actually taken part in them, would do more to bring home to the people a realization of the real nature of this conflict than probably any other one thing, except, possibly, bombardment of our coasts.

By Associated Press. British Front in France and Belgium, Tuesday, Oct. 24.—In one of the redoubts captured from the Germans Monday northeast of Ypres, according to reliable information, British troops found a German officer who had been executed by his own soldiers. His hands had been bound behind him and he had been shot. Many tales are told of the rounds among the British soldiers indicating the disasteful fate among the various bodies of German troops. German soldiers charged with desertion and violation of military law escape with slight punishment. According to prisoners this is something new for Prussian military men.

Object In Mind. It is with this object of education in mind that the Lions' Club has closed the arrangements with Corporal Wishart, and it is felt that a great good will be accomplished by his visit. It may be stated that Corporal Wishart's object in making these lectures is a purely patriotic one, as he comes at a figure which would give him a hardy more than expenses. He is well qualified to speak, having been through the inferno of both the Somme and Ypres with the Canadian 102nd, and the 67th West Scots, both of which regiments were wiped out.

Lions' Club To Act. The Lions' Club has undertaken to bring Corporal Wishart here as part of an educational campaign in war matters, the need of which has been expressed here on a number of occasions. It is believed that everyone here will be vitally interested in hearing accounts of what the men of France, Belgium and England under went at the hands of the Germans in the first terrible days, and of what the American boys may expect to find when they go into action. BOTH SENATE AND HOUSE COMMITTEES IN SESSION

COPE IS OPPOSED TO GENERAL PROBE AS IS SUGGESTED

THINKS TIME AND MONEY WILL BE SAVED IF SUBCOMMITTEES ACT

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Oct. 26.—The House investigating committee, in session today, spent the time discussing the method of procedure for the investigation. The plan suggested of a comprehensive survey of all state departments and institutions was strenuously opposed by Mr. Cope, member of the committee.

He also favored employing one efficiency expert to assist the central committee in framing the report. The appropriation of $35,000, Mr. Cope said, was not adequate to make any comprehensive survey of all departments and institutions. Senator Charles Clark, who is now on his way to average the death of his relative, he has been made a member of a signal battalion stationed at Macon, Ga.

Edith Cavell's Cousin Joins Army To Avenge Death Of His Relative

REPORTER VIEWS SCENE

By Associated Press. London, Oct. 26.—Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning British forces, which began an offensive on the Ypres front, were seen entering German pill boxes on Bellevue Spur and shortly afterwards signals showed that the British had carried Poelderhoek Chateau, which had been strongly fortified by the Germans, telegraphs the correspondent of Reuters Limited, at British headquarters in Belgium.

Haig Continues to Hammer Teutons' Line In Ypres Sector, But Italians Are Suffering Reverses Before Austrian Attack.

The correspondent says the Anglo-French attack extended from Houtholst to the neighborhood of Gheluvelt. Poelderhoek Chateau, north of Gheluvelt, was reached by the British in a little more than an hour and a half. It was a hard nut to crack, but prisoners were hauled out and sent down the Menin Road.

YPRES SECTOR SEES NEW PUSH BY ALLIED ARMY

TWO ATTACKS ARE MADE

By Associated Press. London, Oct. 26.—Field Marshal Haig's forces this morning made two separate attacks on the German positions north and east of Ypres. The first was from a point near Saint Janshoek, westward through to the southern fringe of the Houtholst Ridge to the region of Newswolmen. The other assault was on both sides of Ypres-Menin highway along the Gheluvelt ridge in the direction of the town of that name.

Both Make Headway

The British troops, as well as the French, who also attacked on the left made excellent headway, pushing forward on a wide front. A group of enemy guns on the high ground southeast of the concrete constituting one of the main defenses, was comparatively quiet. This probably was due to the British heavy bombardment last night. Many explosions were seen in the region of these batteries during the night.

Ninety Cadets To Be In New Training Camp Says A. & M. Executive

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Oct. 26.—Dr. W. A. Bizzell, president of the A. & M. "EXPERIENCE" IS TO SHOW HERE ONE MATINEE AND NIGHT

Owing to war time conditions, tying up railroad traffic and freight cars, "Experience" will have only a one day showing in Wichita Falls. Manager Markwitz has just been notified of this fact, and the big production will show here on Saturday, November 17, for a matinee and night performance.

"Experience" is going big in the South, press comments indicate. This week it is showing in Memphis, Tenn., and its favorable reception is indicated in the following criticism from the Commercial Appeal:

With the call to the colors and the youth of the country venturing forth into the world, George V. Hobart's characteristic play, "Experience," which was presented at the Grand Theater last night, seems a wonderfully appropriate selection at this time.

"Experience" is a modern recital based upon the lines of the miracle plays of a distant day. The experiences of youth, since the beginning of time, have remained unchanged. The temptations that have too often swept aside the influence of ambitions were the same in Biblical times as they are today. There was no "White Way" then, but the temptations of Babylon were possibly of a more seductive and a more alluring type than the temptations that we find at present. In this respect the world is but little changed and the nature of men and women and their passions and frailties, their courage and perseverance, remain as they used to be in the days of long ago.

George Hobart knew the men and women who are pictured in his modern morality play. He began life much after the fashion of Youth in this drama of truth. He went into the world as a child, ambitious and it was ambition which guided the early footsteps of Hobart, just as ambition guides the beginning of nearly every healthy-minded youth when he enters the world to carve out his future.

Youth meets opportunity, but youth, as a rule, is too busy occupied in his pursuit of pleasure to pay much attention to opportunity. It is the same old story. Opportunity is lost and ambition dies. This is the theme of the Hobart play and it is the theme of life. Now that so many young Americans are venturing out into the world it would be well for them to follow closely the story that George Hobart so potently tells in "Experience."

The Empress:
 Ann Pennington, the winsome little dancer of the "Follies," returns again to the screen in the Famous Players-Paramount production "The Little Boy Scout," a charming photoplay furnishing the diminutive star with more than ordinary opportunity to display her special talents. As a dancer Miss Pennington has won widespread recognition for herself and her former productions on the screen—more than proved her ability to act before the camera. In "Sensé Snowflake," also a Famous Players-Paramount production, she was seen as the delightfully hoydenish daughter of an actress, driven by circumstance to live in a New England village. In "The Rainbow Princess," as a daring circus performer, she won new laurels. A distinct chance from both of the roles was furnished for her in the part of Justina in "The Little Boy Scout." She appears as a rebellious niece of old Miguel Alvarez, living with his family near the Rio Grande in Mexico. The old uncle is a miser and a tyrant and attempts to force her to marry his weakling son in order to bring her money into his own coffers. Justina, however, has the American love of liberty inherited from her mother who was a New Englander, and on the very eve of her wedding, runs away on the donkey of the priest who had never summoned to marry her. Her adventures from this point form a sequence of events both humorous and dramatic that hold the onlooker breathless. Here she stumbles right into the sentry of a United States Army camp and how her donkey betrays her presence by vigorously braying, how the soldiers help her make her way to her mother's sister in New England and what happens when she gets there, is all told with all the charm and piquancy which only Ann Pennington could give it.

THE EMPRESS TO SHOW SPECIAL FEATURE SATURDAY

The pressure that crooked politicians sometimes bring to bear on the office of district attorney in our big cities is powerfully portrayed in "Transgression," the Greater Vitaphone Blue Ribbon production now appearing in the Empress Theatre tomorrow. The prosecutor in question is over night confronted with the parent alternative of dismissing his case against the leader of a political gang, the climax of his work as district attorney, or seeing his lifelong friend the mayor go to prison as accessory to a murder and blast forever the happiness of his daughter, who is engaged to the mayor.

The district attorney's answer is for the crook to do his worst while he does his duty. What happens is told in "Transgression," in which Earle Williams and Corinne Griffith are featured.

THE GEM.
 Today is "The Red Ace" showing day and the third chapter of this thrilling interest compelling serial will be shown.

Jacques Jaccard produced a wonderful serial when he put out Liberty, but in the "The Red Ace" he has had an opportunity to put out a perfect serial, such as few directors of serials have ever enjoyed. The experience that he received in "Liberty" was of the most useful kind, and the success of this serial determined the character and method of production of "The Red Ace." In addition to that, Mr. Jaccard had the advantage of a week of consultation with the various heads of departments of the Universal at the home office in New York City. Here all of the details of the production were carefully mapped out, and the requirements of every department were met. Mr. Jaccard was informed that

 CLEAR AS A BELL

PROGRESS earned by VALUE

Present indications show that the Sonora sales for 1917 will be over 100 times as great as the sales for 1916.

This marvelous growth in so short a period could not have been reached with a phonograph that was only "as good" or even "slightly better."

Sonora had to be overwhelmingly superior to achieve so quickly such remarkable results in the face of the vigorous competition and the extensive publicity of older established machines.

Sonora's popularity is based on its intrinsic worth. Its exquisite tone which won for it the highest score at the Panama-Pacific Exposition wins for it new admirers daily.

SOCIETY

My Lady.
 Fair and fickle is my lady:
 When I think I'll suit her—may be
 Her commands grow arbitrary,
 And her moods eccentric, very.
 All her movements are erratic,
 And her notions autocratic,
 Sending me first here, then yonder,
 What she'll think of next, I wonder.
 I forego my plans and fancies,
 Juggle with strange pecuniaries,
 Even drop my name and station,
 To assume impersonation
 Of what creature she desires me;
 Grateful if she but admires me,
 Then we wait a dizzy measure,
 Or we sing, as suits her pleasure.

In her service I am zealous,
 Careful lest I make her jealous;
 And with gifts I often coax her,
 And I never dare to coax her,
 For indeed I would not fret her,
 Or by any time forget her.
 And her smiles are so bewitching,
 And her gowns so quaint and fetching.

That I am her abject servant,
 With devotion real and fervent,
 Though at times she does mistreat me,
 And with direful frowning greet me
 And assign some hard endeavor
 To restore me to her favor,
 I am patient—and remember
 She was three in late December.
 A. E. Lente.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR BONITA HUMPHRIS THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon the eighth birthday of little Miss Bonita Humphris was observed with a lawn party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Humphris, 312 Burnett. Numerous games were played and contests enjoyed, then refreshments of ice cream, cake and pop-corn were served by Misses Annette and Mattie Humphris, sisters of the small hostess. Little Miss Humphris received many pretty gifts on this anniversary. The guests included: Myra Frances and Faylara Humphris, Edith McClure, Beatrice Parham, Hazel Huey, Bessie Marshall, Maurine Carr, Nora Dean Evans, Charles Max Conant, Daisy and Lucille Smith, Lorena and Opal Calvert, Elizabeth Swope, Eunice Carr, Melinda Marshall, Vernon Evans, Mack McClure, Orrie, Dersel and Norma Whitlow, Joe Bailey Swope, Ben Conant, R. MISS SHERROD HOSTESS TO THURSDAY BRIDGE PARTY

Miss Lucile Sherrod was hostess on Thursday to the regular fortnightly game of the Thursday Night Club. The usual number of tables of players engaged in the game of the high score favor, a hot roll case, going to Mrs. E. H. Maspin. The hostess served a tempting salad course. The club is to meet in two weeks with Mrs. A. Zundolowitz.

PHILANTHOP CLASS ENTERTAINS WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY

A unique and delightful Halloween party was held Thursday evening at the First Baptist parlors by the Philanthrop class as a compliment to their teacher, Mrs. Wiley Robertson, who announces that after years of work with the class she finds it necessary to give it up. The parlors were most attractive with an abundance of Halloween decorations and the supper table was pleasingly arranged and decorated. Halloween symbols forming the place cards had individual for the teacher. Mrs. Wiley Robertson, who has been in the Southwest for some time, has moved 1,500 empty cars from one railroad to another, irrespective of ownership, since the first day of May. The order for these cars since September 1st number 8,905.

SUGAR SHORTAGE TAKEN IN HAND BY THE RAILROADS

EFFORTS ARE MADE TO PROPERLY DISTRIBUTE SUGAR OVER COUNTRY.

The Railroads' War Board authorizes the following statement: The Railroads are doing their bit to relieve the sugar shortage. Telegrams just received from the Sunset Central, the Texas & Pacific, and other railroads in the sugar belt state that a sufficient number of cars are on hand in cane growing territory to handle the entire crop. Hundreds of cars have also been moved into the Northwest to protect the sugar beet crop, which is already moving. An adequate supply of cars is also on hand to move the Northwest potato crop.

In Texas, the railroads are bending every effort to protect the cattleman from loss of live stock because of drought; thousands of heads of cattle were moved from Eastern Texas last week into more fertile pasturage and hundreds of stock cars are now being rushed into the southwestern part of the State in order to make possible a similar movement of cattle there.

In its effort to get empty cars into the districts where they are most needed, the Railroads' War Board, acting through the Commission on Car Service, has moved 1,500 empty cars from one railroad to another, irrespective of ownership, since the first day of May. The order for these cars since September 1st number 8,905.

Silk Is Being Worn By Allied Troops To Avert Blood Poison

By Associated Press.
 New York, Oct. 26.—The fact that troops of the entente allies are wearing silk as a protective armor against blood poisoning from wounds has partially accounted for the huge shipment of American silk fabrics abroad since the beginning of the war, in the opinion of the silk trade authorities who have just returned to this country from France.

It was learned early in the war, according to these authorities that soldiers wore silk next to the skin there was less danger from blood poisoning if the silk were drawn into the wounded than in the case of cotton or woolen fabrics.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Russville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks. He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture. I sent and bought Theford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theford's Black-Draught." Theford's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no-ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 15c and 25c per box. All druggists.

"EXPERIENCE" IS TO SHOW HERE ONE MATINEE AND NIGHT

Owing to war time conditions, trying up railroad traffic and freight cars, "Experience" will have only a one day showing in Wichita Falls. Manager Markwitz has just been notified of this fact, and the big production will show here on Saturday, November 17, for a matinee and night performance.

"Experience" is going big in the South, press comments indicate. This week it is showing in Memphis, Tenn., and its favorable reception is indicated in the following criticism from the Commercial Appeal of that city: "With the call to the colors and the youth of the country venturing forth into the world, George V. The Empress.

Ann Pennington, the winsome little dancer of the "Follies," returns again to the screen in the famous Players-Paramount production "The Little Boy Scout," a charming photoplay furnishing the diminutive star with more than ordinary opportunity to display her special talents. As a dancer, Miss Pennington has won widespread recognition for herself and her former productions on the screen more than proved her ability to act before the camera. In "Susie Snowflake," also a Famous Players-Paramount production, she was seen as the delightfully hoydenish daughter of an actress, driven by circumstance to live in a prim New England village. In "The Rainbow Princess," as a daring circus performer, she won new laurels. A distinct change from both of the roles was furnished for her in the part of Justina in "The Little Boy Scout." She appears as a rebellious niece of old Miguel Alvarez, living with his family near the Rio Grande in Mexico. The old uncle is a miser and a tyrant and attempts to force her to marry his weakling son in order to bring her money into his own coffers. Justina, however, has the American love of liberty inherited from her mother who was a New Englander, and on the very eve of her wedding, runs away on the donkey of the priest who had been summoned to marry her. Her adventures from this point form a sequence of events both humorous and dramatic that hold the onlooker breathless. How she stumbles right onto the sentry of a United States Army camp and how her donkey betrays her presence by vigorously braying, how the soldiers help her make her way to her mother's sister in New England and what happens when she gets there, is all told with all the charm and piquancy which only Ann Pennington could give it.

THE EMPRESS TO SHOW SPECIAL FEATURE SATURDAY

The pressure that crooked politicians sometimes bring to bear on the office of district attorney in our big cities is powerfully portrayed in "Transgression," the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon production now appearing in the Empress Theatre tomorrow. The prosecutor in question is over night confronted with the apparent alternative of dismissing his case against the leader of a political gang, the climax of his work as district attorney, or seeing his lifelong friend, the mayor, go to prison as accessory to a murder and blast forever the happiness of his daughter, who is engaged to the mayor.

The district attorney's answer is for the crook to do his worst while he does his duty. What happens is told in "Transgression," in which Earle Williams and Corinne Griffith are featured.

The experience that he received in "Liberty" was of the most useful kind, and the success of this serial determined the character and method of production of "The Red Ace." In addition to that, Mr. Jaccard had the advantage of a week of consultation with the various heads of departments of the Universal at the home office in New York City. Here all of the details of the production were carefully mapped out, and the requirements of every department were met. Mr. Jaccard was informed that

THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY

Sonora CLEAR AS A BELL

PROGRESS earned by VALUE

Present indications show that the Sonora sales for 1917 will be over 100 times as great as the sales for 1916.

This marvelous growth in so short a period could not have been reached with a phonograph that was only "as good" or even "slightly better."

Sonora had to be overwhelmingly superior to achieve so quickly such remarkable results in the face of the vigorous competition and the extensive publicity of older established machines.

Sonora's popularity is based on its intrinsic worth. Its exquisite tone which won for it the highest score at the Panama-Pacific Exposition wins for it new admirers daily.

LAON IN SIGHT OF FRENCH ARMY AFTER ADVANCE
HUNS ARE DEMORALIZED
FRENCH QUICKLY FOLLOW UP TUESDAY'S VICTORY OF TAKING MONKEY MOUNTAIN.
Large Number of Prisoners Taken During Petain Offensive, Though Germans Were on Their Guard

By Associated Press.
 With the French Armies in France, Thursday, Oct. 25.—The French have reached the Aisne Canal and Laon, eight miles away in sight. Following up the victory of Tuesday the French today took Monkey Mountain, east of Vauxhallon, the village of Pison and the forest of the Same as well as the village of Pergny-Flain.

Machine Guns Taken.
 Hundreds of machine guns were completed by the French and many were turned on the Germans who had left their ammunition behind. It is reported that 150 cannon have fallen into French hands, but the number is uncertain owing to the condition of the battlefield and its width.

French Casualties Low.
 With all this severe fighting on a battlefield where the German had strong positions and where they accepted the challenge of the French army to a standing combat, the French casualties were remarkably low.

Not Drop in Bucket.
 The question has been asked whether the books and magazines that are sent to the soldiers by friends at home do not supply the demand and the answer is that such supplies are not a drop in the bucket. There is present in our country a channel through which these books are sent, and the armies cannot depend upon casual deliveries. Books sent in this way are for the soldier's own use and are not sent to a headquarter's office to be sent to the front. What is needed is a regular and continuous supply. This can only be arranged through a definite organization, charged with the specific duty of sending supplies of reading matter. The literature prepared by the Library War Council shows this fact very plainly. One of the booklets advocates the following: "The French were obliged to send their supplies of books by means of regularly authorized channels, through which they sent their reading matter to the men in camp."

FOOD PLEDGE WEEK ALL OVER COUNTRY BEGINS ON SUNDAY
HOUSEWIVES ARE ASKED TO CO-OPERATE AND TO ACCEPT SUGGESTIONS

Washington, Oct. 25.—With National Food Pledge Week only a few days off, the Food Administration today announced that its army of half a million men and women volunteer canvassers is now ready for the campaign under the various State Food Administrators.

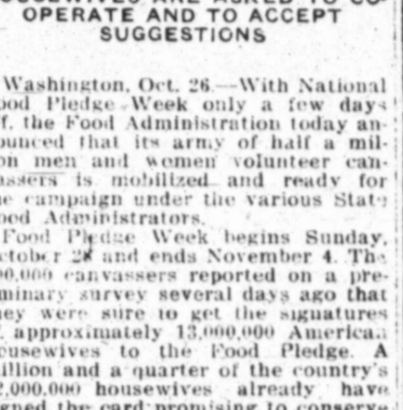

Children Organized.
 Reports show that school children are organized in many places as volunteer auxiliaries to help in the campaign to enlist all the country's twenty-two million housewives in the work of conserving "war foods" of which there is a world shortage.

State, city, county and local organizations constitute the working machinery of the campaign. Beginning next Saturday the workers will make a house-to-house canvass of the country, inquiring of each housewife of the 22,000,000 families in the United States whether she has enrolled as a member of the Food Administration by signing the Food Pledge Card.

Wife Have "Home Cards."
 The workers will carry cards for those housewives who have not yet enrolled. To each housewife who has not a "Home Card" telling what the government would like to have them conserve and why, they will present one.

ANCIENT SWORD OF BALBOA IN POSSESSION OF MARINES
 Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—A sword, broken and rusty, but with the hilt intact, said to have been bathed in the waters of the Pacific by Balboa centuries ago, is among the prized relics of the United States Marines Corps. The weapon was found in the grip of a dead revolutionary leader by a Marine during the rebel uprising in Nicaragua in 1827. It formerly resided in a museum at Leon. At that time the steel of the sword was in fairly good condition and could be bent double without breaking, after four centuries of use. According to traditions Balboa killed many natives with it prior to his discovery of the Pacific.

TODAY'S MARKETS

COTTON DECLINES EARLY IN TRADING UPON LIQUIDATION ADVANCE IN CORN EARLY REGISTERED IN CHICAGO PIT

New York, Oct. 26.—There was a renewal of recurring liquidations and southern selling in the cotton market early today. The opening was barely steady at an advance of 14 points to a decline of three points, near months being relatively firm on Liverpool buying. Trade interests were also quiet of Dec. and Jan. but the demand was readily supplied with December easing off from showing net losses of about eight to fifteen points shortly after the call. Southern selling was more active than for some time past and steady decline which extended to 27 1/2 for Dec. and 26 7/8 for January, or about 18 to 24 points under last night's closing figures. At this level however, the market steadied on an increasing demand from near month shorts with spot interests buying December and January against sales of later months, supposedly to transfer hedges. December rallied to 27.90 in consequence of 27 points net higher while January drifted up to 27.00, or six points above last night's close. The strength of these positions checked the scattered selling of late months, which recovered to within 10 or 15 points of yesterday's final figures. Trading was quiet during the early afternoon but after the midday bulge fluctuations were irregular with prices sagging off several points under realization and southern selling. Dec. reacted from 25.93 to 27.75 with Jan. selling around 26.93 toward 2 o'clock. Cotton futures opened barely steady. Dec. 27.70, Jan. 27.10, Mar. 26.70, May 26.70, July 26.25. Cotton closed steady.

Table with columns: CORN, OATS, PORK, LARD, HOGS. Rows: Dec, Jan, May, etc. Values: 1.20, 1.21, 1.18, 1.19, etc.

New Orleans Cotton. New Orleans, Oct. 26.—Continued low temperatures in the belt caused moderate buying on the opening of the cotton market here today and prices went down 15 points. Short selling inspired by hope of a reaction increased at the advance and quick break resulted, putting prices at the end of the first hour to a net decline of six to 12 points. Fluctuations of the morning were narrow. Lowest levels were 9 to 15 points down. At this level the market stood at a net rise of 20 to 40 points in the afternoon with trading very moderate. At 1 o'clock the market advanced 15 points to 9 points up compared with yesterday's close. Cotton opened steady. Opening bid: Dec. 26.27, July 25.97, Mar. 25.77, May 25.75. Cotton closed steady at an advance of 2 points to a net decline of 7 points.

Liverpool Spot Cotton. Liverpool, Oct. 26.—Cotton spot in liberal request. Prices easy. Good middling 29.92, middling 29.42, low middling 19.92; good ordinary 18.97, ordinary 18.47. Sales 2,000 bales including 2,700 American. Receipts 12,000 including 6,300 American. Futures closed firm. New contracts: Jan. 29.03, March 19.61, May 19.23. Old contracts: Fixed prices: Oct. 19.52, Dec. Jan. 18.65, Jan.-Feb. 18.45, Mar.-Apr. 18.27, May-June 18.11.

Kansas City Produce. Kansas City, Oct. 26.—Butter, eggs and poultry unchanged. Potatoes firm $1.35 @ $1.50. MAN CONVICTED OF KILLING MABRY IS GIVEN PARDON by Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Oct. 26.—Governor Hobby has granted a full pardon to Frank McCue, alias "Mad" McCue, from Dallas county. McCue was given a life term in the penitentiary on conviction of the killing of Earl Mabry in 1907. This has been one of the most celebrated cases in the court annals of Texas. The conviction of McCue was wholly on circumstantial evidence and his defense was an alibi that he was at his father's home at the time of the murder. The case was tried five times and in the first four, there was no verdict and on the fifth trial McCue was given a life term in the penitentiary. Thirty-eight of the forty-eight jurors engaged in the trial recommended a pardon. The governor's reason for granting the pardon covers thirty pages of typewritten matter. The governor declares that the testimony on which McCue was convicted is so unworthy and the evidence produced by the defense so credible that he was forced to the conclusion that McCue had no connection with the case.

FINISHING TOUCH IS ADMINISTERED IN LOAN CAMPAIGN

BOY SCOUTS AGAIN DEMONSTRATE USEFULNESS BY MAKING $12,000 IN SALES

COUNTY IS ROUNDED UP

Still Serious Doubt as to Whether Eleventh District Will be Able to Over-Subscribe

Fund sales still continue, and the campaign committee is optimistic as to the outcome of the work here. The whole county has now been rounded up, and in the next two days the final touches will be added, when it is estimated that somewhere between a million and the maximum quota will be shown.

The Boy Scouts have again proven their usefulness by stirring up over twelve thousand dollars worth of subscriptions. Mrs. J. W. Lee was in Electra yesterday, where she spoke to the school children, and distributed Liberty Loan advertising matter.

District Still Behind.

While many of the federal districts of the United States will over-subscribe, according to the latest estimates, there is serious doubt as to whether the Eleventh will be one of them, and the officials of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas continue to send out appeals to the people to do their share of the great work. The following comes from Deputy Governor J. W. Hoopes:

"Our president, our allies, our own flesh and blood in the trenches, the starved and outraged women of France and Belgium, the orphaned and maimed little children of Europe, are all looking to you today. They have placed their confidence and their trust in you. They have said, 'The great American nation will not fail us. They will provide the means for ending this horrible thing which has befallen us.' Our president stands looking gravely toward you, saying, 'Do not fail me.' Our boys are looking to you saying, 'Surely you will find the money if I risk my life.'"

Women's Mutely Appeal.

The starved and tortured women and children, crying appealing to you with tears in their eyes, saying, 'We have suffered so much. Surely you will not refuse the loan of some money to save us.' Your own conscience is saying, 'Do it—Subscribe to the Liberty Loan.'"

Honorably cannot refuse such appeals. You will not refuse today. As you read these lines, your heart will fill with a realization of all the horrors of the war, and a burning desire to end it. You can help to do it if you will help America win. Over-subscribe the Liberty Loan, and you will do your noble part in the noblest work the people were ever called upon to do. The faith of our great president, the faith of the tortured millions will rest upon you. You will do your part.

(Signed) J. W. HOOPES.

Address to Woman.

Mrs. E. L. Hopper, chairman of the Women's Liberty Loan committee of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District has sent out the following message: "One last appeal to the women of the Southwest. If you have traveled in the north or in Europe, you are aware of the reputation southern women have for true womanliness and refinement of sentiment. Our northern neighbors and our allies in the great war expect much of us. The suffering women of Europe, the 'oor fatherless, starving little victims of that enemy of humanity—the Kaiser—expect much of us."

"We must respond. We have no choice. Moreover, we desire no exception from this work of aiding our country to end quickly and forever this horrible orgy of wickedness and cruelty."

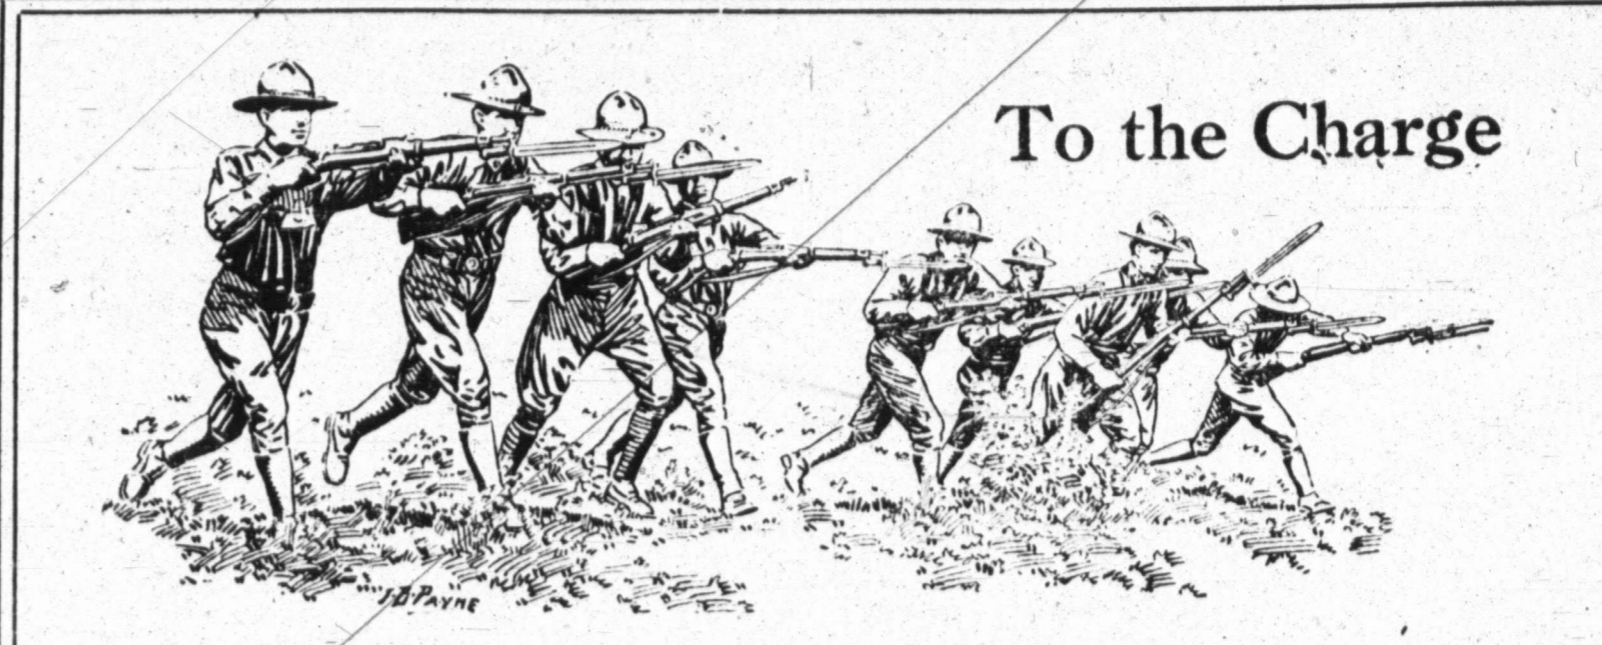

"Women of the Southwest, let us make one great effort today and tomorrow to swell the Liberty Loan to the point of over-subscription. Let us subscribe again and again at the cost of our luxury and convenience, and induce others to do the same. For the sake of our boys, our country, our reputation, and our conscience, let us make one great effort."

The bugle shrills—there's a yell from the men—and with bayoneted rifle held high they swarm across the field. A living, breathing challenge to Democracy's foes. Hot and panting they halt as the "Assembly" sounds and later charge again—this time the Regimental Exchange for a bottle of thirst-absorbing, cool, refreshing—

NOTED BASEBALL PLAYERS STOP IN CITY BRIEF TIME

Ted Speaker and R. Chapman, centerfielder and shortstop players on the Cleveland American League, baseball club passed through the city last night en route to Mr. Speaker's home at Hubbard City, Texas. After spending a day or two in Hubbard City they will proceed to Montgomery, Ala., to play a few games with the soldiers stationed at that place. Returning from Alabama, they will spend several weeks on a hunting trip in southern Louisiana. Speaker was the leading batsman for the American League last year.

BOYS AT CAMP TRAVIS PLEASED WITH FOOD FURNISHED TO THEM AND ALL NOW WORKING HARD

A letter written jointly by T. E. Markham and J. B. McDowell, at Camp Travis, has been received here, in which a brief account of the life, the spirit, and the commissariat of the camp is shown.

"As we are leaving this afternoon," the letter begins, "we will drop you a little sketch of our experiences in army life. Things are going fine, and we are working hard to get qualified to go and fight the Kaiser. We are only waiting for the call to shoulder our guns and go across. We are anxious to see our loved ones at home, but as we are all in high spirits, we are more anxious to serve our country."

"As for the boys in camp, Mr. Winders said he would like army life better if there was not so much pork in the kitchen, noise—such as washing dishes and pots, scrubbing of rooms,

Wichita and see you all real soon.

Tax Upon Telegrams Will Go Into Effect Beginning On Nov. 1

Beginning November 1st, a Federal tax of five cents will be charged in addition to the regular rates on all messages filed at the office or picked up for transmission by the Western Union Telegraph Company, according to a statement issued this morning by Chas. McDonnell, local manager for the company. This tax of five cents is effective in the following: Full rate telegrams; night messages; day letters; cablegrams; full rate and deferred week end letters; all classes of wireless and radio messages; press messages, when tolls amount to 15 cents or more; money transfer messages, and received collect messages which originated in the United States.

OLD MATTRESSES MADE NEW.

A faulty uneven Mattress makes a good night's sleep impossible. Let us make over any such mattress you may have in mind. We'll return it to you, not just as good, but better than it was when you bought it new. And as to our own special make, we will not only guarantee its substantiality, workmanship, but guarantee you a good night's sleep, if it takes only a comfortable mattress to induce it.

"TO PAVE, or NOT TO PAVE"

That is the burning question before cities, counties and individuals today. It is the contention between progress and obstruction; profit and loss; comfort and inconvenience. You will notice that all modern communities are well paved. Sound business policy dictated such action. While paved streets and roads bring comfort and pleasure, the underlying principle of profit and good business policy was the deciding factor. Property on paved streets sells first. It is insurance against depreciation in value. Why delay when this unusual opportunity offers itself to you?

Huff Avenue, lying one block south and parallel with Eleventh street, between Brook and Archer streets, will be paved and equipped with sidewalks, sewerage water and gas mains. This street is restricted to insure its being anything else but a residential section with minimum cost of $2,500.00 for homes.

Lots are unusually deep, being 170 feet in depth for all north front lots, and 165 feet in depth for all south front lots.

Whether riding or walking, paving and sidewalks will prevent getting off into the mud. Schools close by. Everything that will go to make a salable, active and well-built residence street will be had on Huff avenue.

A year ago Eleventh street parallel with Huff avenue was unpaved. Property along there was a drag on the market. The south side of Eleventh street had but one house on it between Brook and the J. W. Culbertson residence. See it today. After paving was completed no less than fifteen houses have been built or in course of building and more to follow. Huff avenue will do that and more in the first twelve months. It will have greater advantages than Eleventh street, due to restrictions and protection afforded investors on this street. Get your home site early. It is bound to come alive.

MRS. SMOCK MADE FOOD INSPECTOR FOR THIS CITY

ASSISTANT WILL BE NAMED WHO WILL MAKE THE ROUNDS OF LOCAL DAIRIES.

Mrs. T. B. Smock was appointed City Food and Dairy Inspector at the regular meeting of the City Council last night. An assistant to Mrs. Smock will be appointed in the near future to have charge of the dairy inspection. A bill for $1,100 for fire hose, bought last spring, was allowed, and ordered paid. Fire Chief McClure was also instructed to sell two lengths of fire hose which could not be used by the department. A full attendance marked the meeting. Mayor A. H. Brimley presiding. City, Horace Nutt, Chief of Police, Humphries, Fire Chief McClure and City Secretary Skeen were also in attendance.

Painleve Ministry Upheld By French Deputies Chamber

Paris, Oct. 25.—Premier Painleve's ministry obtained 346 favorable votes October 19 and his new ministry obtained only 288 votes slightly more than half the vote in the chamber of deputies. The opposition votes numbered 137, partly from the Socialists and partly from the radical Socialists. The same groups split the hundred members who did not vote. The vote testifies once more to the hesitation of the chamber to defeat any ministry by a direct vote during the war. Premier Painleve referred to the allied conference saying that decisions will be made which will affect the conduct of the war and its conclusion. "When I take my place at the conference as a representative of the government," he said, "I will need the sympathy and the confidence of the chamber for we are that moment of the war, when, as premier Lloyd George has said, it is necessary for us to be on our guard against Germany's diplomatic offensive."

Protection For Wives Of Men In Army Is Governments' Aim

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The problem of protecting the wives of men in the military service of the United States from the influences of the cabarets and the Federal authorities today. Seventy per cent of the women arrested in raids, according to Judge Uhlir, of the Moral Court, are married and many of them are wives of soldiers who have gone to the front.

Transportation Over Mountains Made Easy By Italian Armies

Washington, Oct. 26.—Development of the trolley or wire cable system of transportation of heavy weights over otherwise impassable mountain chasms has been carried to an amazing degree of perfection by the Italian army under the pressure of war and the demands of the army for quick transportation of munitions, supplies and even large pieces of artillery as an incident to the campaign in the Julian Alps. Reports from the battlefield received here today describe one such system spanning a valley two-thirds of a mile deep, the cable swinging in one stretch from peak to peak with a length of four kilometers, or over two miles and capable of carrying twelve ton loads. A jury in the corporation court this morning found a grocer-boy guilty of speeding and placed his fine at $5. Three other men were found guilty of intoxication and were assessed the minimum fine of $5 each.
