HOUSTON POLICE STAR IN TRIALS OF NEGRO ROOPS

DECLARE ON THEIR ARRIVAL AT WASHINGTON STREET WERE FIRED UPON.

CHAPMAN UPON STAND

Mexican Woman, Operating Boarding House, Tells Story of Killing of Man at Her Home.

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 7.—Some of the activities of the Houston police, who were ordered to the west end of that city to quell the riot, in which negro soldiers of the 24th infantry were rioting on the night of Aug. 23 last, were told at the court-martial trial of the 63 negroes here today by O. B. Chapman, city police officer. Thus far nothing has been deducted to prove that any one of the defendants actually fired any of the shots. It is pointed out, however, that this will not be necessary to establish mutiny. Disobedience of orders in camp the night of the riot and establishment of the fact that individual soldiers raided the ammunition tents and left the camp in defiance of orders would be sufficient to sustain the mutiny charge. In the event of death penalty being recommended by the court, the departmental commander, in this instance Major General John W. Hucker, has power to inflict the death penalty according to the law, in peace time it would be necessary for the president of the United States to approve the death sentence but the law says this is not necessary in time of war. The departmental commander could, if he should so elect, present the findings of the trial to the president. When Chapman and five other policemen arrived at Brunner and Washington streets they were fired upon by the negroes, the witness said. Chapman and the other policemen took refuge behind a building, he said. Later on the witness telephoned to police headquarters "to tell where we were," Chapman said. In Block of Rioters. On cross-examination, Chapman said the closest he was to the men who fired at him was the shooting that night was one block. Petra Sanchez, Mexican woman, through an interpreter, testified she operated a boarding house on the route the negro soldiers traveled and that one of the boarders was killed while sleeping. The firing was very heavy, she said, and the shots came from the direction of the camp. The name of her boarder who was killed was Manuel Gerrio, she testified. Taking of this testimony, owing to the necessity of an interpreter, consumed much time, although it dealt mainly with Gerrio's fatal wound and the location of bullet marks on the building. Girl Testifies. Angelina Sanchez, aged 13, also testified. She heard the shooting from the building near where Gerrio slept. Mrs. Lottie Bristow told of looking out of a window as the negroes passed and she heard bullets crashing through the window. "Just missing my head." She estimated that there were 50 negro soldiers in the crowd that passed her house. She heard a policeman say "Whose side are you on?" The witness said she did not know to whom the remark was addressed, but she heard a firing as she entered the door, which was partly hidden behind a pile of lumber. There were four bullet holes through my room," Mrs. Bristow testified.

White Man Held Up

J. D. Dixon, who lived within a few blocks of the army camp, said he heard the shooting and saw the soldiers. He encountered three negroes, who covered him with their guns. "I asked what was wrong," Dixon testified. One said "A lot of these white people have got in for us and we are not going to stand for it." Dixon said he went back to his house and heard firing as he entered the door. "About 25 or 30 shots were fired," he said. At the suggestion of Colonel Hull, on the prosecution, Dixon surveyed the prisoners to see if he could identify any one whom he saw that night. "I can't identify anybody," Dixon said. Noon recess was then taken.

MORE CIVILIANS TESTIFY AT OPENING OF SESSION

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 7.—Following the route traversed by negro soldiers of the 24th Infantry in their alleged death dealing march into the city of Houston on the occasion of the riot last August when a toll of 22 lives was taken and many injured, additional witnesses from that city were to testify at the court martial trial here today of the 63 negroes who are charged with murder, mutiny and rioting. A widow in mourning, a bereft brother, two men on crutches still suffering from bullet wounds and others whose scars have healed, were among those who testified yesterday concerning the shooting up by the negro soldiers of that part of Houston which lies within a half dozen blocks of Camp Logan, from where the negroes came. Much ground yet remains to be covered before the complete story of what transpired in the San Felipe district on the night of August 23 is told the military which is sitting on judgment on the defendants. John Davis of Houston, was the first witness called this morning. He was within a few blocks of Camp Logan about 8:30 p. m. on the night of the riot and saw negroes shooting. One of the negroes who was on police duty in that vicinity told him "to get out of the riot," the riot has broke loose, witness testified. He said he saw about 50 or 60 negro soldiers armed.

TAMMANY HALLS AGAIN IN SADDLE; HYLAN IS ELECTED

ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC TICKET IS SWEEPED ON TO VICTORY IN NEW YORK

GIVEN GREAT PLURALITY

Socialists Get Some Comfort Out of Fact That They Carried Twelve Assembly Districts in City

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 6.—Tammany Hall returned to power as the result of yesterday's mayoralty election. Not only was Judge John F. Hyland swept into office by the largest plurality ever given to a mayoralty candidate in New York but there was elected with him the entire Democratic ticket giving the new administration all of the sixteen votes in the board of estimate worth 147,275. Mayor Mitchell's plurality four years ago was 121,109. The vote for mayor stood: John F. Hyland, (Dem.) 297,282; John Purroy Mitchell (Fusion) 149,307; Morris Hillquit (Soc.) 142,178; William M. Bennett (Rep.) 53,678. One outstanding feature of the mayoralty vote was the great increase in the Socialist vote. In 1913, Charles Edward Russell, the Socialist candidate, polled but 32,190 votes. At the presidential election, however, L. Benson, Socialist candidate for president received 217,888 votes. The Socialists got some comfort out of the fact that they carried 12 assembly districts, three of which are expected to send Socialists to the assembly at Albany. The result of the vote of 50,000 soldiers and sailors will not be known for at least a month. The last Tammany mayor was the late Mayor Gaynor who was elected in 1910 but who later broke with the organization. Mayor-elect Hyland in a statement after his election became a certainty emphasized that there was no "loyalty" issue at stake as had been charged by Mayor Mitchell. New York's next mayor began his career as a track layer on an elevated road and later began the study of law. He was admitted to the bar in 1895. Mayor Mitchell, apparently in good spirits, said at the city hall today: "It's all over—and now down to business in the city government." He refused to discuss his plans for the future, denying, however, that he knew anything of a reported offer to him of a high commission in the army. LIMITED SUFFRAGE IS GIVEN NEW YORK WOMEN By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 7.—The women citizens of New York state were given limited suffrage in yesterday's election by a majority which is expected to reach 100,000. Early today with 1348 out of 6772 election districts missing the vote stood 533,519 to 446,791. The incomplete vote for New York City was 289,724 for suffrage and 209,127 against. On the sweeping character of yesterday's victory in this state the leadership predicted that Congress would be influenced to act favorably upon the constitutional amendment. It was announced that a celebration of victory would be held tonight at Cooper Union. In addition to Attorney General Lewis, the Republicans elected 98 of the 150 members of the 1918 assembly. The Democrats elected 42 members of the assembly. The Twenty-third district of Kings was tied between the Socialists and a candidate endorsed by both Republicans and Democrats, leaving result to the "dollar vote." The vote on woman suffrage in New York City complete was: Yes 324,011, no 241,315. DEMOCRATIC CONTROL ASSURED IN KENTUCKY By Associated Press. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Democratic control of both houses with the next session of the general assembly of Kentucky was assured by yesterday's election results. In Louisville the Republican party for the third time in the city's history lost to the Democrats. The city was elected a mayor, George W. Smith. He received majority of 2200 over Charles H. Cronen, the Democratic nominee. Smith carried with him the Republican city and county ticket. FORMER MAYOR SCHMITZ IS ELECTED SUPERVISOR By Associated Press. San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Eugene E. Schmitz, former mayor of San Francisco who was indicted in the famous graft prosecution cases in 1907, has been elected member of the city and county board of supervisors on the face of incomplete returns today.

Delinquent Child Act Is Declared Vague But Within Constitution

By Associated Press. Austin, Tex., Nov. 7.—The delinquent child act of the Thirty-third Legislature was held today by the court of criminal appeals to be vague and indefinite, but constitutional, in the case of expert Walter Pruitt, from Menard county, for which a writ of habeas corpus was granted. In the case of J. C. McLaren from Williamson county, which was reversed and remanded, the court held that under the delinquent child act it is mandatory upon the trial court to dismiss a prosecution forfeit only when the appellant files a sworn statement that he was under 17 years of age. The refusal of the court to dismiss, was an error.

IMPORTATION OF DISTILLED LIQUORS EXCEPT FROM VIRGIN ISLANDS IS NOT TO BE PERMITTED BY THE GOVERNMENT

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 7.—All avenues for importation of distilled liquor for beverage purposes except from the Virgin Islands were closed today under instructions sent to customs collectors based on Attorney General Gregory's interpretation on prohibition section of the food control and war tax laws. Liquor produced on or before Oct. 3, when the revenue act was passed, may be imported for any purpose, but if produced after Oct. 3 and intended for other purposes than consumption as a beverage, it may be admitted under customs regulations yet to be made.

INCREASING CONFIDENCE ITALY WILL WITHSTAND ADVANCE IS EXPRESSED

The war situation of today is summarized by The Associated Press as follows: Both official and unofficial dispatches from Italy reflect a tone of increasing confidence although the situation is still admittedly grave. General Cadorna's withdrawal from the Tagliamento line and from the mountainous districts in northern Veneto is proceeding in an orderly way, Rome asserts. Dispatches from the field seem to bear this out. General Cadorna in his report, mentions the present withdrawal as being conducted in the direction of Livorno river. This may indicate he intends to fight another delaying action along this comparatively small stream, some ten to fifteen miles behind the Tagliamento position, before falling back on the Piave approximately 100 miles further west. Alleged Invasion Failed. Incidentally a semi-official statement from Rome declares the Austro-German invasion has failed of its political object—assumedly the breaking of the Italian will to resist and the forcing of a separate peace. On the Flanders front the British spent the night consolidating the important positions won by them yesterday, which included notably the village of Passchendaele, crowning the ridge, whence virtually a clear field stretches away to Roulers, five miles distant and already commanded by the British guns. The Germans were apparently worn out by the furious but futile efforts yesterday to retain the town and did not renew their counter attacks during the night.

CHICAGO VICTORY IS SHARP REPROOF TO ANTI-WAR FOLK

By Associated Press. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Democrats and Republicans in Chicago and Cook county today expressed gratification at the results of the judicial election yesterday in which a fusion ticket carrying seven candidates from each of the old parties was swept into office over Socialist and independent opposition by a plurality estimated at more than 75,000 out of a total vote of 244,112. The election was held to choose 12 judges of the superior court and two judges of the circuit court. Fusion leaders charged the Socialists with appealing for votes on an anti-American and anti-war platform. MASSACHUSETTS GIVES Gain to Republicans; McCall Is Re-elected

By Associated Press. Boston, Nov. 7.—The small Democratic vote here was one of the features of the state election yesterday when Governor Samuel W. McCall was chosen for a third term, all other Republican state officers were re-elected and the Republicans made a net gain of six seats in the legislature. Governor McCall's plurality over Frederick W. Mansfield, Democrat, was 30,553, the total vote being: McCall 228,404; Mansfield 197,851. Amendments prohibiting appropriation of money by the state for private controlled institutions; providing for absentee voting and giving the state cities and towns authority to deal in necessities of life in times of emergency were adopted.

Lehigh Dissolution Suit Again Argued Before High Court

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 7.—The government's dissolution suit against the Lehigh Valley Railroad and affiliated companies, one of the so-called antitrust trust cases, was re-argued today in the supreme court. The case was one of the five anti-trust suits carried over from last term by the court, but because it had been heard before at length, only the usual allotment of three hours for both sides to present their argument was granted.

Penitentiary Committee Inquiry To Be Secret One Member States

By Associated Press. Huntsville, Texas, Nov. 7.—The committee investigating the penitentiary system has decided not to divulge the findings it makes until a full report is presented to the legislature at its next session, according to Frank Holaday, the only member of the committee now here today. "We are here in the interests of the people of Texas, however," said Holaday, "and will investigate the workings of the prison from top to bottom. The committee will hear to the mark and let the chips fall where they will. We see no reason why the prison system should not be self-sustaining. If it cannot be, then every farmer in east Texas should quit business." Mr. Holaday said the inquiry might continue a number of months.

By Associated Press. No shelling from the enemy could dislodge them. They lay prone behind brushwood, calmly awaiting the foe.

After the enemy had crossed the Tagliamento and was closing in on the Italian line at Portogruaro, the grenadiers were assigned to hold up the advance in this region. No shelling from the enemy could dislodge them. They lay prone behind brushwood, calmly awaiting the foe. As soon as the enemy came within range his snipers were swept, and the rifle fire of the grenadiers. The Austro-German lines were filled up immediately, however, and continued to advance in overwhelming waves. As they approached the grenadiers rose to their knees and hurled their grenades, but were unable to turn back such a great number of the enemy.

BROWNWOOD WILL HAVE TEST WELL DRILLED SHORTLY

LOCAL COMPANY SHIPS SUPPLIES INTO NEWEST OF TEXAS OIL FIELDS.

The Continental Supply Company is shipping today a big order of oil well supplies to Thomas J. Collins, manager for the Hillman Oil and Gas Company at Brownwood, where a number of shallow wells have been brought in almost within the city limits.

The Hillman Oil and Gas Company is getting ready to sink a deep test well in the Brownwood field. The Brownwood field is considered a novel proposition. The wells range around 200 feet in depth and are all pumpers, doing an average of about 20 barrels each every 24 hours. The pumping arrangement is "novel." A small gasoline engine on a two-wheel hand truck is used to pump the wells, and when a well is "milked dry" by this little pump one man grabs the handles of the truck, which is nothing more than a wheelbarrow with an extra wheel, and pushes the truck to another well within 30 or 40 feet and starts the engine to hitting the oil. Practically all of the land in Brown county, from Brownwood to Blanket, 15 miles northeast, is under lease, and it is expected that the wells under lease will soon produce a big oil field. The oil taken from the shallow wells at Brownwood is of high specific gravity and brings $2.60 per barrel.

REV. J. WALTER HAGGARD LEAVES CITY FOR WORK IN NEW ORLEANS; HIS EFFORTS HERE TOWARD AN IDEAL

Rev. J. Walter Haggard, who left last night for New Orleans to take the pastorate of the Octavia Street Presbyterian Church at that place, expressed much regret in leaving the work at the Floral Heights Presbyterian Church, as, he says, he has found in the work something nearer the attainment of his ideal than ever before. This ideal is the founding of a community church, where all denominations in the neighborhood work in harmony for the furtherance of the true spirit of neighborliness and Christianity, and Mr. Haggard, during his work of little more than a year, has seen the church grow in many ways until it can truly be denominated a community church.

There has been such a growth in membership of the church and in the congregation that an addition to the building has been necessary. An especial appeal is made to the children in the services and a children's congregation has featured Mr. Haggard's services for the past several months. "We are very sorry to leave," Mr. Haggard said, speaking for his wife and himself, "but this call is one which we could not easily turn down, as it is an advancement in a material way and also gives us an opportunity of broadening our service in the work we have chosen. The work here is very interesting and the ones who come after us will find a splendid neighborhood to work with, no better could be found anywhere."

TEXAS Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN WILL BE PROSECUTED VIGOROUSLY IN EVERY SECTION DURING NEXT WEEK

Next week Texas will be occupied with the raising of $400,000 to give to the Y. M. C. A. war fund of $25,000,000. One million of this money will be spent right in Texas in building Y. M. C. A. buildings and equipping them with the many necessities for the social, physical, mental and moral welfare of the thousands of Uncle Sam's fighting men who are camped within her borders. In addition to this, the secretaries and men on the staff of these buildings will be spending their salaries in Texas, an amount varying from $400 to $1,500 in each of the towns where they are located. So that Texas will receive back many times what she will give.

The case is the same in Wichita Falls. Already the Y. M. C. A. building has been erected at Call field aviation camp, and is now equipped complete. E. D. Ranke has arranged and the other two members of the staff will be here at any time. The money Wichita Falls will give will be given her again with interest, and the service thrown in for good measure. Many splendid gifts have already been donated to this fund, one being reported as being a million dollars. There are many others, very large, but not of this proportion. The following extracts from one of the Y. M. C. A. pamphlets show why all this money is needed, and what is and will be done with it: The bureau of physical work is charged with helping some secure physical directors for the camps and with developing an adequate program of recreation for the enlisted men. Each association building and tent is equipped with a comprehensive athletic equipment. This bureau also co-operates with the temperance committee of the federal council of churches in carrying out a sane, comprehensive and vigorous program of temperance education. The Bureau of Education is responsible for lectures, practical talks, entertainments, libraries, motion pictures, clubs, classes and courses in French and other subjects, and information in general.

Secretaries emphasize the value of educational activities in every army and navy association. Thousands are taught French, hundreds of thousands of magazines are read, millions of feet of motion picture films furnish good cheer and entertainment. The Bureau of Religious Work is in charge of the definite religious activities such as Bible study, personal interviews and mass meetings. Over 100,000 New Testaments have been gradually distributed. The demand greatly exceeds the supply. The Bible study policy in common with that of the national Sunday school war council is an organized Bible study in every company of our entire enlisted force. Hundreds of such classes have already been started.

Sixteen musical groups have been appointed. Mass singing is promoted in co-operation with the government commission on training camp activities. One hundred and twenty-eight religious work specialists are in the field. Secretaries giving special emphasis to religious activities are assigned to every unit of work. A co-operating committee of church leaders, of which Bishop Luther B. Wilson is chairman, is rendering a valuable service. Secretaries also work hand in hand with the army chaplains. A committee on speakers and one on entertainers directed by experts secure and route speakers and entertainers to military centers where they appear under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Prominent speakers to men, educators and superior entertainment talent are placed in camps to the great delight of the soldiers. Most of these speakers receive expenses only and some provide even their own travel charges.

The social side of the association's program is emphasized. This war work undoubtedly presents the most unique possibilities for social contact with men ever faced by the Young Men's Christian Association. Whether he is being served with cocoa, sold a postage stamp, given stationery on which to write home, entertained by the talking machine or piano, provided with games—chess, checkers, dominoes—or furnished soap, candles or matches, a clean sociable atmosphere is maintained.

WAR UPON RATS DECLARED HERE BY CIVIC LEAGUE

MERCHANTS HAVE BEEN ASKED TO CO-OPERATE IN EXTERMINATING PESTS.

Warfare on rats, which experts say destroy sufficient quantities of food to starve the whole population of Belgium, was declared by the Civic League at the meeting Tuesday afternoon. The league, so soon as material can be received from the government and from experts whom the officers have been in communication with, will begin a campaign of education the people Wichita Falls against the pests, which destroy food and clothing and is an universal carrier of disease.

The merchants of the city are expected to support, as there has been much destruction from rats reported in the business section, and the homes are not entirely free from the pests. Mice will also be included in this warfare on rodents. All citizens will be shown how to rid their homes of the pests by literature to be placed before them by the press and by distribution of pamphlets. Other business transactions by the league included a vote to join with the Mothers' Club and the Chamber of Commerce in presenting an invitation to the State Congress of Mothers to convene later in the month at Houston, to hold their 1918 conference in this city. A motion was also passed and made a matter of record that the league do their part in furnishing the clubroom of the Kemp Library, now nearing completion.

An opportunity for some young woman to benefit from the "Pauline Periwinkle" memorial educational fund, founded by the Dallas Woman's Forum, is given in a letter read to the league Tuesday. This fund is loaned for educational purposes and is to be repaid when the borrower has completed her education and is earning her livelihood. The Civic League will furnish information to any one interested in the fund. Reports from the committee on collection of the pledges received in the recent campaign were heard and the purchase of a Liberty Loan "4" was approved. Other routine matters were gone through with. The attendance was good.

DIZZY SPELLS Relieved After Taking Two Bottles Of Cardui, Says Tennessee Lady.

Whitwell, Tenn.—Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of this place, writes: "About four years ago the dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk I would just pretty near fall. I wasn't past doing my work, but was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me, as a lady who lived next door to me had taken a great deal, and told me to try it. This was when we were living in Kentucky. My husband got me a bottle and I took it according to directions. It helped me so much that he went back and got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better and just quit taking it. I got over the dizzy spells... I took no other medicine at that time nor since for this trouble. No, I've never regretted taking Cardui. I felt just fine when I finished the second bottle." Purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its action, Cardui, the woman's tonic, may be the very medicine you need. If you suffer from symptoms of female troubles, give Cardui a trial. All druggists. NO-127

AN UNCERTAIN BUSINESS.

Seven hundred saloons did not renew their licenses on Nov. 1. Here in Wichita Falls there used to be a lively scramble of applicants for license when the declaration of war showed that the commissioners' court showed that another could be licensed here. The declaration this year showed that five more saloons could be licensed, but there were no applicants on hand. The saloon business is rapidly becoming uncertain and precarious. The government, State and National, is constantly imposing more shipping restrictions, limiting the sale of liquors. The business is being taxed to high limits. The high prices that must be charged will necessarily cut down consumption. There is a feeling among saloon men that the years of the saloon are numbered. A good many of them are already making plans as to what they will do when the saloons are closed.

AID FOR RUSSIA.

A friend of The Times has suggested that the people fight here in Wichita Falls ought to make answer to the appeal of Kerensky and send boots to the men of Russia, so that they could get through the winter and be prepared for a new campaign against the Teutonic allies in the spring. There is a great deal in our friend's suggestion. If the people of America would provide boots for the young men of Russia and other supplies, they would be heartened and helped as they could be in no other way. So far as any great offensive is concerned, it will be a long time, probably beyond next summer, before the Russians will be in a position for any offensive of great magnitude. But Russia will stay in the fight and, while preparing for an offensive on a large scale, her troops will occupy thousands of Teutonic forces on her front. If the war continues into 1919 Russia is likely to be a big factor. There is more hope in a revolutionized Russia than there would have been had Russia remained autocratic. An autocratic Russia would not only have made a separate peace with Germany, but before now would have given Germany active support. America can well afford to aid Russia for the purpose of keeping Teutonic troops engaged on the Russian front. If Russia in the meantime can organize for a strong offensive America can afford to offer her the fullest co-operation.

WISHART REVEALS HUN HORRORS TO LIONS CLUB HERE

DELIVERS AN ADDRESS AT NOON-DAY LUNCHEON—PRAISES U. S. SOLDIERS.

Corporal F. K. Wishart of the Lion's Club banquet at the St. James hotel this afternoon was more specific in talking to the men about the atrocities of German officers and soldiers in Belgium and France than he was to the audience at the Wichita theater last night.

He declared that innocent girls had been dragged from the care of their mothers by the bar and mutilated and mistreated, and that in addition to men of the allied armies who had been taken prisoners being inoculated with loathsome disease germs, other vile surgical practices had been performed. These statements caused a row to appear on the faces of the members of the Lion's Club.

Speaks of Italian Retreat. Relative to the retreat in Italy, Corporal Wishart said "some one has sold out in Italy. The Italian army has sold out in Russia." The corporal paid a high tribute to the valor of American soldiers by saying from his observation of them in the training camps he believed he could take 1,000 American soldiers and capture 10,000 Hun army where or drive them back onto German soil. He paid a great tribute to the people of the south when he said: "I have been well received at every point in the United States, and the farther south I go the more hospitable and sincere is the treatment accorded me." adding: "The southern people seem to be more deeply imbued with the great spirit of patriotism that is essential to the winning of this war for the democratization of the world."

Dinner Well Attended. The Lion's Club dinner this noon was the best attended for quite a while. E. Leopold called the attention of the club to the fact that within a few days students will begin arriving to begin training at Camp Marion Field and that the Y. M. C. A. library needs literature. Each member of the club present agreed to give $1 toward supplying additional literature and it is believed this will be sufficient to make up the deficiency. In putting the Leopold motion, President W. E. Ferguson said he had never known the Lion's Club to fail to do anything that was necessary.

The question of a home guard for Wichita Falls was mooted by E. Leopold and President Ferguson appointed W. W. Shik, C. E. Rodgers and E. Leopold a committee to go into the matter and report at the weekly luncheon next Wednesday. Mr. Leopold said a home guard would be useful in the training of the stay-at-home who later may have to go to the war and would be a protection.

Judgment Rendered In Favor of Plaintiff In Suit for Damages

The plaintiffs in the suit styled W. J. Jennings and wife against the Houston and Texas Central Railroad Company will receive $1,500 and the defendant company will pay all costs of the litigation as the result of agreement reached out of court.

The case grew out of personal injuries received by Mrs. Jennings while she was en route to Wichita Falls from Houston April 23 this year, when the train Mrs. Jennings was riding on was hit by another of defendant company's trains north of Houston at a siding. Mrs. Jennings was thrown from the seat on which she was riding and was permanently injured.

The case had been on trial in the Seventy-eighth district court since Monday. Judge Edgar Scurry read the charge to the jury late Tuesday afternoon and the jury began deliberation this morning and, while it was out, the agreement was reached by the attorney representing the parties to the suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, the plaintiffs, reside at Burk Burnett. They were represented by Nicholson & Fitzgerald.

By Associated Press. The dollar rose from 250 to 250. Sterling also rose after a persistent fall.

CORPORAL WISHART SPEAKS TO GREAT CROWD IN LOCAL OPERA HOUSE UPON WORLD WAR IN WHICH HE HAS FOUGHT

Strong Appeal Is Made To Women To Help Win Conflict by Encouraging their Men Who Have Been Called Into Service of the Country.

A strong appeal was made to the mothers, wives, sisters, daughters and sweethearts of American men within the conscription age to help win the war in the lecture given at the Wichita theater Tuesday evening by Corporal F. K. Wishart, formerly of the Sixty-seventh Western Scottish of the Canadian overseas forces, who said in the course of his remarks that the men who are doing the fighting need the encouragement of the women, and that the latter should look upon the sacrifices being made by the American men as a duty to the world in order to bring about a real and lasting peace.

Has No Set Speech. Corporal Wishart has no set speech to deliver, but talks direct to his audience from the storehouse of knowledge which he obtained from his many experiences while fighting with the 102nd Canadian battalion.

When he mentioned the atrocities the Germans have been guilty of he did not dwell at any length upon a description of the crimes they committed in Belgium by cutting off the arms of little boys and girls but he did say with considerable emphasis that the people of America who have read of and have heard of these monstrous cruelties against the innocents of childhood could multiply what they have read and heard of them by 100 and not overcalculate their horrors.

Word Pictures of Battles. Corporal Wishart gave many pictures of engagements he took part in. In the taking of the Regina trench on the 21st day of October last year he said he was with the 102nd Canadian battalion that went against the enemy 1,200 strong and came out victors with only 58 men left, practically all of the officers having been killed at the beginning of the great engagement for that trench.

He said that from Kimmul to St. Omer, 82 miles, that the Canadians marched on graves of soldiers who had fallen in the war, and that for 216 miles from the North sea it is one continuous cemetery.

While the horrors of the world war were treated as they are, Corporal Wishart impressed the audience upon the minds of his audience in such a manner as to create a strong resentment against the Prussian militarism, and this resentment was frequently given expression to by the long applause. And yet his talk was interspersed with enough of the humorous to keep the audience in a good mood and at the same in an attitude to determine that the war shall be won if the entrance of America into it can be of assistance.

German Soldiers in Fear. Corporal Wishart told how the German soldiers have been taught by their officers to believe that the bayonet awaits them when they are taken prisoners, and how some of them collapse from surprise when they are taken back of the firing lines of the allies and given accommodations better than the allies' soldiers receive.

He told of how in the early stages of the war the allies' officers were killed at the beginning of battles because they were dressed differently from the private soldiers, and how at present the allies' officers are dressed much the same as the privates and are thus being spared to direct the movements of the men.

War was pictured by Corporal Wishart as being seven times more horrible than Sherman said it was, and that the rigors of the conflict called forth for men of steel who are strangers to the word fear. He told of how the nerves of men are tested before going into an engagement, those whose physical and mental condition would not stand the terrors being eliminated until such time as they became self-possessed and steady in mind and heart. He said some men classed as cowards often, after the righteousness of the allies' cause dawned upon them, become the bravest and most effective and daring fighting men.

In describing barrage fighting, Corporal Wishart said the men advancing on a German trench must walk neither too fast nor too slow in order to avoid the hail of shell and lead that the big guns back of them pour out to make the advance safe and successful, and that the calculations of the men directing the guns are so close that soldiers making the advance dare not hold a hand above the head lest their finger nails be trimmed by descending lead.

The lecture on the world war given here by Corporal Wishart was pronounced by many as being the most realistic insight they had been given of the war. Those who were heard of thus express themselves were frank to say they had never thought of the war just in the same light, and that henceforth they would take more heart interest in helping win the war.

Talks to Lion's Club. Corporal Wishart addressed the Lion's Club at the weekly luncheon at the St. James hotel today. He is in divided between the American Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. in order to better enable them to carry on their work among the soldiers in Europe on a larger and more helpful scale.

Out of the proceeds from the sale of tickets for the Wishart lecture here last night the Red Cross was given $250.

COMFORT SHIPMENT TO CANTONMENT IS TO GO ON FRIDAY

The date of shipment of the comforts to the base hospital at Fort Worth has been postponed until Friday, as the minimum quota has only just been reached. It was announced at the Red Cross headquarters this morning that the report had gone forth that enough comforts had already been received, and it is desired to correct this impression with great emphasis. The minimum quota has been collected, but it is felt that Wichita county could not afford to send in only 75 comforts, which was the number originally asked for.

TODAY'S MARKETS

NEW YORK COTTON PRICE IRREGULAR THROUGHOUT DAY

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 7.—The cotton market showed renewed nervousness and irregularity at the opening today. The easy tone of the stock market and the news from Italy contributed to the unsettled feeling of sentiment while the buying for Wall Street and western account which had been largely responsible for the rally of Monday was not in evidence. First prices were two points higher on December but generally unchanged to one point lower and the active months sold about 11 to 13 points under Monday's closing figures during the first few minutes. There were southern hedging and scattering liquidation but Liverpool and trade interests were moderate buyers with the market showing rather a steadier tone at slight rallies toward the end of the first hour. Cotton futures opened steady. Dec. 27.25; Jan. 26.85; March 26.55; May 26.20; July 25.92.

The market was quiet during the afternoon but selling was held in check by the London market. The average of southern spot advices and prices held generally steady around 27.50 for December 26.79 for January, or about 5 to 3 points net higher.

Bullish southern spot advices and the appearance of a steadier tone in the stock market inspired covering later in the morning. There was continued trade buying and a few stop orders were uncovered on the advance to 27.55 for December, 26.81 for January and 26.47 for March, or about 7 to 14 points above Monday's closing figures. Liverpool buying here was attributed to covering hedges against sales of cotton arriving in the English market and there was domestic trade buying of near months supposed to represent uncovering of hedges against sales of spots in the south. Business because very quiet on the advance with later fraction irregular. Cotton closed barely steady.

New Orleans Cotton.
New Orleans, Nov. 7.—After an irregular opening with some months two points up and others two points off, cotton fell off here today for a small decline under selling which seemed to be based on bearish comment from the stock market. At the end of the first half hour active months were five to 10 points under yesterday's close.

Cotton opened steady. Opening bid: Dec. 26.36; Jan. 25.63; March 25.40; asked: May 25.17; July 25.05.

A quiet and steady feeling prevailed in the afternoon and at 1 o'clock prices were 9 to 13 points up net.

The advancing tendency of stocks and favorable spot accounts from the belt induced fresh buying and prices improved. At their highest in the trading up to noon they were 14 to 18 points over yesterday's final.

Cotton closed steady, 2 points down to 3 points up net.

Liverpool Spot Cotton.
Liverpool, Nov. 7.—Cotton spot in fair demand; prices higher.

Good middling 22.00; middling 21.35; low middling 20.85; good ordinary 19.90; ordinary 19.40.

Sales 5,000 bales, including 3,900 American. Receipts 21,600, all American.

Futures closed steady. New contracts: Jan. 21.24; March 21.04; May 20.82.

Old contracts (fixed prices) Nov. 18.95; Dec. Jan. 19.30; Feb. Mar. 19.11; April-May 18.94; June-July 18.78.

New York Stock Market.
New York, Nov. 7.—The stock market opened today with indications that the recent liquidation would be carried to greater lengths. Initial quotations were 1 to 3 points under Monday's final prices, rails and investments inclining toward further weakness. A quick rebound was led by United States Steel which rallied from its low of 91 to 92 1/2. Reading reversed its break to a point with an actual gain of 2 1/2 points and other rails replaced early losses with gains of 1 to 3 points. Coppers, oils and war shares as a whole, also rallied sharply.

Low records during the mid-session for Atkinson and American Telephone and the heaviness of local utilities, were offset by greater strength in the active list. Steels, shippings and coppers and various specialties, showed extreme gains of 3 to 6 points.

New Havens decline to below 22 was the only exception to the better tendencies of the final hour. The closing was strong. Liberty 4's were steady at 100 to 100.02, the 3 1/2's however falling from 99.60 to the new minimum of 99.44.

CORN DEVELOPES GREAT STRENGTH FROM HOG PRICES

By Associated Press. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Further bullish effects in the corn market developed today from the setting of a virtual minimum price on hogs. The maintenance of such a minimum was urged as evidence that quotations of future deliveries of corn were still too low. Weather conditions that appeared unfavorable for handling soft grain tended also to lift the market. Opening prices, which ranged from 3/8c to 1/2c advance with December $1.16 1/2 and may $1.12 to $1.13 1/2 were followed by a material advance all around.

Oats reflected the action of corn. For the most part trade was local. Scarcity of hog arrivals gave strength to provisions. It was pointed out, that slaughtering for the first week of the winter season were less than half of the total a year ago.

Packers buying led afterwards to additional upturns. The purchases were believed to be against sales of meats for export.

Slowness of husking returns and the lightness of rural offerings to arrive prevented any important net back. The close was strong 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 net higher with December $1.18 1/2 and May $1.13 1/2 to $1.14.

CHARGE OF ABANDONMENT ALLEGED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Late Tuesday afternoon suit was filed in the Thirtieth district court by J. D. Singleton against Nellie Singleton in which plaintiff seeks to be divorced from the defendant, alleging abandonment for a period of five years. Congress of Mothers Will Be Invited To Meet Here Next Year

Mrs. J. W. Lee, president of the Northwest Texas district of the Congress of Mothers, appeared before the Chamber of Commerce to request that body to extend an invitation to the Congress of Mothers to hold their annual convention in Wichita Falls next year. The request was granted, and a representative of the Chamber probably J. A. Kemp, will go to Houston, where the convention is being held, November 21, 22 and 23, for the purpose of extending the invitation personally. There was little other business transacted at the directors meeting this morning.

"EXPERIENCE" A PLAY FOR ALL AGES AND TIMES

William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest announce they will send to the Wichita Theater for an engagement of two performances George V. Hobart's much discussed modern morality comedy drama of today "Experience", called by the critics the most wonderful play in America. There will be matinee on Saturday, November 17th.

Mr. Hobart has taken the universal adventures of mankind, the struggles, the sins, the temptations—the elements which persuade man for right or wrong, and has woven them into a play of vital reality. He has aptly called it "Experience" for under that title may be included all the attributes of men and women, good and bad, in their relationship to each other. In this unique play Mr. Hobart has taken an old bottle as it were, and has poured new wine into it; or better, he has poured the exhilarating fluid of everyday happiness into the vessel of everybody's understanding, and by so doing has brought home with singular effectiveness the thrill of vital suggestion and the gratification of ready comprehension, for he has directed his appeal and efforts in language and situations so universally accepted as true, that whoever sees or hears the play may know. "Experience" tells the story of the episodes through which Youth—the young man of today—passes in his effort to solve the riddle of life, and one is often reminded of "Pilgrim's Progress" as they watch the play. BRITISH WAR PICTURES AT GEM NOV. 14 AND 15

You have heard a great deal about the tank, that weird creature of modern warfare. You've doubtless seen many photographs of them. And you've wondered how they looked in action. One of the most exciting moments of the British war pictures, which the Gem is bringing to Wichita Falls Nov. 14 and 15, is when a massive tank loads up with men and crawls out toward the trenches of the boches.

It wasn't done merely for the sake of the picture. That is where the excitement comes in. The camera man was on the spot when this particular tank was called into action during the historic battle of the Ancre. Uses Its Own Track A tank is awe-inspiring just to look at. But when it is seen, rumbling away over barbed wire barriers and ditches, using its own track, the feeling is indescribable. Several tanks of various sizes are shown in the film.

A peculiar feature of the British tank, aside from its odd construction, is the singular colors with which its sides are painted. It is sort of mottled—thus, in order to make it hard for the enemy aviator to discern. The British soldiers assigned to the tank go about their duties very calmly and methodically, despite the great danger they run, as the pictures show.

Cheering the Tank. At one point in the film, a tank returns "home" victorious from a brush with the Germans. The soldiers, wild with joy, leap on to its sides and cheer and cheer. In other features the British war pictures stand without an equal. They are absolutely authentic, having been taken by the British government.

ENID BENNETT AT THE MAJESTIC THURSDAY Never was a jockey prouder of victory, and few received greater reward than Enid Bennett, the little Triangle star, when she rammed home to a scintillating finish as the winner in the sensational race shown in "They're Off," a Triangle feature to show at the Majestic Thursday.

Riding came with dolls in her youth. The nursery seemed next door to the stable for she could handle the reins as soon as she could dress her dolls. So when she was told of the action in "They're Off," wherein a thrilling horse race was to be a feature, she was delighted with the part. On the day of the race, a number of stars and prominent theatrical men decided they would see whether or not Miss Bennett was in earnest about her riding. They had learned she was to act as a jockey in the race.

When all was ready, more than one hundred spectators were present. Miss Bennett appeared in a jockey's costume, most becoming on her lithe, slender body. Opposed to her on the other mount, was a professional jockey. The part proved the Triangle star was to win the race, and she did, although she had to present a punishing finish.

You are hereby commanded to summon Aubrey Carter by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 30th District Court of Wichita County, to be held at the court house thereof, in Wichita Falls, on the third Monday in December, A.
