

WILSON GIVES WAR AIMS IN MESSAGE TO CONGRESS SHOWING FUTURE MAP

14 ATTAINMENTS ARE DECLARED ESSENTIAL

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Wilson today, in addressing Congress, delivered a re-statement of war aims in agreement with the recent declaration of the British premier, David Lloyd-George.

The President presented a definite program for world peace containing 14 specific considerations.

He presented the following as necessary elements of world peace:

- "1. Open covenants of peace without private international understandings.
- "2. Absolute freedom of the seas in peace or war except as they may be closed by international action.

"3. Removal of all economic barriers and establishment of equality of trade conditions among nations consenting to peace and associating themselves for its maintenance.

"4. Guarantees for the reduction of national armaments to the lowest point consistent with domestic safety.

"5. Impartial adjustment of all colonial claims based upon the principle that the peoples concerned have equal weight with the interest of the government.

"6. Evacuation of all Russian territory and opportunity for Russia's political development.

"7. Evacuation of Belgium without any attempt to limit her sovereignty.

"8. All French territory to be freed and restored, and reparation for the taking of Alsace Lorraine.

"9. Readjustment of Italy's frontiers along clearly recognizable lines of nationality.

"10. Freest opportunity for autonomous development of the peoples of Austro-Hungary.

"11. Evacuation of Rumania, Serbia and Montenegro with access to the sea for Serbia, and international guarantees of economic and political independence and territorial integrity of the Balkan states.

"12. Secure sovereignty for Turkey's portion of the Ottoman empire, but with other nationalities under Turkish rule assured security of life and opportunity for autonomous development, with the Dardanelles permanently opened to all nations.

"13. Establishment of an independent Polish state, including territories inhabited by indisputably Polish populations, with free access to the sea and political and economic independence and territorial integrity guaranteed by international covenant.

"14. General association of nations under specific covenants for mutual guarantees of political independence and territorial integrity to large and small states alike.

"For such arrangements and covenants," said the President, in conclusion, "we are willing to fight and continue to fight until they are achieved; but only because we wish the right to prevail and desire a just and stable peace."

Such a program, he said, "removed chief provocations for further wars."

"The moral climax of this, the culminating and final war for human liberty has come," said the President in ending his address, "and they, the people of the United States, are ready to put their own strength, their own highest purpose, their own integrity, and devotion to the test."

PEACE PARLEYS REPORTED TO BE UNDER WAY AGAIN

RUSSIAN DELEGATES ARE SAID TO HAVE GONE TO BREST-LITOVSK.

CONFIRMATION LACKING

Political Crisis Said to Have Developed in Germany As Result of Promises Made by Government.

The war situation of today is summarized by The Associated Press as follows:

Russia apparently will continue peace negotiations with the Central Powers at Brest-Litovsk. A Berlin dispatch received in Copenhagen says that Russia's representatives arrived at Brest-Litovsk Monday and that the negotiations were to be reopened yesterday afternoon. Foreign Minister Trotsky accompanied the delegation.

Official confirmation of this report is lacking, but probability is lent to it by the fact that neither Russia nor the Central Powers had declared officially that the peace negotiations have been broken off definitely. Germany suspended the negotiations temporarily late last week because it could not meet the Russian request that the conference be transferred to Stockholm.

Political Crisis.

The political crisis in Germany brought about over the annexation policy of the government, is most serious, according to reports from neutral capitals. It is expected that General von Ludendorff, as leader of the militarist group threatened the resignation of himself and Field Marshal von Hindenburg, should the government continue the support of von Kuehlmann's peace plans. The German Social democrats have added a resolution which declares the honest recognition of the democratic principle of the right peace. In London it is felt that the Central Powers will be compelled to make full answer to Premier Lloyd George's statement of war aims, which apparently has brought about a better feeling in Great Britain. President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau have congratulated the British leader on his statement. German newspapers in their comment express disbelief in the sincerity of the British premier's words.

Artillery Duels.

Intense artillery duels continue on the western front but the Germans have carried out two raids—one southeast of Ypres and the other northwest of Verdun—which were repulsed by the British and French, respectively. The German artillery fire in the Ypres sector has been very strong for some days and the occasional raids there may be dominating hills in southeastern Flanders. Reconnoitering engagements along the Piave and lively artillery duels between the Asiago and Piave have occupied the troops on the Italian front.

Ten sailors were lost in the sinking by a submarine of a British torpedo destroyer in the Mediterranean. All others on the ship including the officers were saved.

Denver Detective Is Held in Connection With Diamond Robbery

By Associated Press. Denver, Colo., Jan. 8.—Frank Mulligan, city detective, was arrested last night in connection with the robbery last Wednesday of $3,000 worth of diamonds from Mrs. Harry T. Nolan, wife of a business man. Mulligan gave $1,000 bond and was released. Two other warrants have been issued in connection with the case but have not been served.

The robbery at the road house was one of the most sensational committed in the Denver district. According to the story told by the Rev. Garret J. Burke, pastor of a local church, who accompanied Mrs. Nolan to the roadhouse, he had gone there to protect Mrs. Nolan and induce her to return home. Immediately after the holding of the roadhouse, during which the diamond robbery occurred, several pistol shots into the floor at the feet of his victim. Burke reported the incident to the bishop of his diocese. After an investigation of the affair Burke was relieved of his pastorate by the bishop and now is believed to be in Salt Lake City.

Raising of Cotton In Five Counties May Be Prohibited

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Jan. 8.—A quarantine to prevent five south Texas counties raising cotton for three years in order to stamp out the pink boll worm is advocated by Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Clarence Osley of Washington, who was in Fort Worth yesterday. The department has asked Governor Hobby to establish such a embargo. Among counties affected are: Jefferson, Harris and Galveston. Feed crops will have to be substituted, says Osley.

GREATEST ASSAULT OF HUNS EXPECTED UPON WEST FRONT

SECRETARY BAKER FORECASTS ACTIVITY THERE IN BRIEF TIME.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The expected German offensive in the west, Secretary Baker's weekly review today says, "will possibly be their greatest assault," but "the British and French armies can be relied upon to withstand the shock."

The review which this week makes no mention of American troops, follows.

Secretary of War Baker today authorized the publication of the following review of the military operations for the week ending January 3, 1918:

"Six weeks have elapsed since the first rumors reached us of the great thrust in the west which the enemy then announced as imminent. In order to concentrate large troop masses, adequate artillery and ample reserves of munitions, much time is required.

"Though the German higher command has so long delayed before beginning operations, advices received seemingly confirm the information that important actions are contemplated along the western front. They may be counted upon to strain every fibre of their remaining strength in an endeavor to make their plans succeed.

"On Eve of Offensive.

"In considering the general military situation on the eve of the possible German offensive it must be recalled that through 16 successive battles of great magnitude in Flanders the British have every time come out victorious and pushed steadily ahead. Their gains have been methodical and cumulative. The Germans have during this long series of major operations invariably been forced to give way. The French stood like a rock at Verdun and soon after drove forward vigorously in the battle of the Somme and in turn played a great part in the repeated drives in Flanders.

"The impending German offensive will possibly be their great assault. The French and British armies can be relied upon to withstand the shock.

"No Important Operations.

"In the west no important operations took place during the past seven day period. The entire front from the North Sea to the Swiss border was very active. The Germans continued their widely scattered thrusts while the French and British carried with numerous reconnoitering raids and careful patrolling. They remained on the qui vive, taking note of every minor change in the German order of battle, keeping closely informed of hostile troop movements and concentrations.

"In the Cambrai area the enemy undertook an attack in force. Here the Germans, in attempting a flanking movement which has as its immediate objective the further narrowing down of the British salient, were able to penetrate and hold temporarily certain positions.

NEW CABINET IS TO BE ORGANIZED FOR AUSTRALIANS

By Associated Press.

London, Jan. 8.—The Australian cabinet headed by William Morris Hughes has resigned, according to a Reuters dispatch from Melbourne. Frank G. Tudor, labor leader, has been summoned to form a new ministry.

Since the defeat of the government's conscription bill in Australia it has been reported that Premier Hughes tendered the resignation of his cabinet. A new cabinet however, was formed with Hughes as premier. Last fall he again brought up a conscription bill and in the election shortly before Christmas conscription was defeated by a majority greater than in 1916. The majority against conscription was nearly 200,000. Australian soldiers giving a majority against the bill also.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST 'RATS' IS RAPIDLY GETTING IN SHAPE

HOW WICHITA MILL AND ELEVATOR COMPANY WORKS IS ANNOUNCED.

The new posters put out by the Civic League regarding the rat war may now be seen in many windows in the business district, and the league states that the plans are being rapidly gotten into shape against the visit of W. D. Hussung, the expert rat killer, who will be here next week.

Letter From Mytinger.

The following letter from J. C. Mytinger, general manager of the Wichita Mill and Elevator Co., explains what has been done by that company with a view to ridding its premises of rats:

Mrs. T. B. Smock, President Civic League, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Smock:

We have your circular letter of December 10th addressed to members of the Retail Merchants Association in connection with your campaign for the extermination of rats, mice and roaches.

We appreciate perhaps better than most anyone else in Wichita Falls the serious need of this business. There is no menace that we have to guard against so rigidly as that of rats and other vermin in our warehouses. We have our warehouses free of these pests and know that if the proper effort is made that any building can be entirely freed from same.

We would be very glad to co-operate with you in this effort. Our own premises cleaned up, but in any other way that you may call on us.

Yours very truly,
 J. C. Mytinger, General Manager.

ALIEN IS HELD PENDING ORDER TO INTERN HIM

FRED MARESCHELL HONEST IN HIS ALLEGIANCE TO HIS NATIVE LAND.

Fred Mareschall, a native of Germany, is being held in the Wichita county jail awaiting a presidential proclamation whereby he can be transferred to a federal penitentiary for the duration of the war. Mareschall was arrested by federal authorities and put in jail as an enemy alien by reason of answers to questions given in his questionnaire.

He stated to U. S. Commissioner Lantz and other federal agents that he would fight for Germany if opportunity was given to do so and that in the event of a German invading force being landed in America, he would make an effort to join them and fight against the United States. He stated that he emigrated to the United States from Bremen several years ago. He had been in this city three or four months, working in the oil fields.

"He's just a German and is honest enough to say so," Commissioner Lantz said. "If he were an American in Germany and talked that way we would say he was a spunky fellow. There's a certain admiration for his honesty, though he will have to be interned."

So far as the federal authorities have been able to learn Mareschall has made no talk against the government, nor has at any time been a disturbing element, the questionnaire filled out by him for the local board being the cause of his arrest.

TODAY'S MARKETS

NEW YORK COTTON.

The cotton market showed renewed steadiness at the opening today on bullish overnight spot advice, a renewal of Liverpool buying and covering by some of yesterday's early sellers. Jan. sold at 31.75 on the call, making a new high record for the month while March touched 31.25 and May 30.88, or about 6 to 14 points net higher. Later months were relatively quiet, opening only a point or two above last night's closing figures and the list sagged in some points after the call under scattered southern selling and local realizing. The southern selling here during the early trading was supposed to be a question of hedges against spot purchases.

CORN MARKET IS FIRM DURING DAY BUT PRICE STEADY

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Firmness but no tendency toward any material advance characterized the corn market today. The chief reason appeared to be that the crop movement was still hindered by the effects of the big snow fall. Meanwhile traders were inclined to restrict trading to a minimum. Opening quotations which ranged from unchanged figures to 1/4 off with January 1.27 1/2 and May 1.23 1/2 to 1.25 1/2, were followed by a slight hardening of values. Scarciness of receipts upheld oats as well as corn.

GERMAN PAPERS DISCUSS SPEECH OF LLOYD-GEORGE

"ONLY DEFEATED GERMANY" COULD ACCEPT TERMS SET FORTH, SAYS ONE.

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, Jan. 8.—Discussing the statement of war aims made Friday by Premier Lloyd George the Rheinische Westfaliaische Zeitung of Essen says: "With Lloyd George and British labor demand Alsace for France and the German colonies, Arabia, Syria, and Palestine for England and speak of the war indemnity we will have to pay, the answer in view of the actual situation is: 'It is too much.'"

The newspaper thinks, however, that the calmer tone in which Lloyd George spoke is worth noting, and adds: "Well, Lloyd George, too, will one day become reasonable. Until then U-boats and Hindenburg's sword will help."

The Frankfurter Zeitung says: "Only a defeated Germany could think of negotiating on the terms laid down by Lloyd George. It is a new speech and a way to terminate the war will only be open when the movement which has begun in England and other entente countries is strong enough to replace Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Baron Sonnart by men who recognize the impossible nature of such speeches and draw consequences from such recognition."

"How far we are from that time it is hard to say," The Nachrichten of Dusseldorf says: "The main point of the speech is that Lloyd George bids Great Britain to fight till the last breath for Alsace-Lorraine. We do not believe, however, that the British people will fight to the last breath for this war aim."

"There is no Alsace-Lorraine question for us and the speech cannot therefore aim at promoting peace with us. It was intended to throw suspicion on the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk. The sword alone can convince this enemy and make him ready for peace."

Says English is Favored. In the Tagblatte Rundschau of Berlin, General Liebert says the balance of the war is greatly in favor of Great Britain, which has firmly in hand not only the Cape to Cairo line of communication but the more important overland route from Cairo to the Persian Gulf. These questions, the general writes, must be settled at the peace conference and everything depends on the skill of the anti-British group whether it or Great Britain shall finally triumph.

AUSTRO-GERMAN PLANS CONDEMNED BY HARDEN. By Associated Press. Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—Maximilian Harden in Die Zukunft, scathingly condemns Austro-German plans for annexations in the east. He declares that a broad chasm still yawns between the two parties at Brest-Litovsk and that if the demands of the Central Powers to annex or join the territories in question to the two last empires in Europe, then there will again be only an armistice and there will be no lasting and honorable peace with Russia which countries will not eternally wear Lenin's red trowsers or be satisfied with the disintegration and communistic in the war of communists.

Herr Harden says that even were the Letts, Lithuanians, Livonians and Estonians, who for five centuries have been opposed to all Germanism, contrary to all expectations to vote for union with the German empire, Germany would be obliged to refuse that union for its body cannot bear fresh foreign elements and it does not desire by provoking the deep hostility of the Russian people, which before 1910 will compromise 200,000,000 souls in brewing a consoling brew for its western enemy.

The key to the temple of peace, Herr Harden declares, lies in the capital at Washington.

TERMS EXORBITANT IS KING LUDWIG'S COMMENT.

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, Jan. 8.—King Ludwig of Bavaria is quoted in a Munich dispatch as having said yesterday at a reception on his birthday that the terms of Germany's enemies were exorbitant.

"Not an inch of German territory will be given up," he declared. "We must try to secure our frontiers. As long as the Bavarians, like the other Germans, were victorious everywhere, the king added: "May we succeed also in defeating our latest enemies, the Americans."

The Boersa Courier of Berlin regards Mr. Lloyd George's speech as an attempt to isolate Germany by intimidating her allies.

The Boersa Zeitung says that an important point in connection with the speech is that there is a material difference between the present British war aims and those known to have been held recently. This newspaper believes the reason may be found in England's present position, which it describes as difficult.

The Tages Zeitung makes the statement that a peace assuring to the people of the German empire a safe and free future can be obtained only by victory over England.

The Kreuz Zeitung declares that Mr. Lloyd George's program can be carried through only after the complete defeat of Germany.

SPLENDID FEATURE AT THE GEM WEDNESDAY.

"Triumph," the Bluebird photoplay to be displayed at the Gem Theatre on Wednesday, was created by Joseph De Grasse. Bluebird's most skillful director, from Samuel Hopkins Adams' story of the same title originally appearing in Collier's. In "Triumph" the role of a country Rosalind who submitted to the call of ambition, will be artistically portrayed by pretty Dorothy Phillips. The girl gains her ambition and a triumph behind the footlights, but at the moment of her success bitter sorrow dashes the cup of happiness from her fame-famished lips. She finds that in gaining her triumph she has blasted her life and so ends her existence by suicide.

BUTCHER KNIFE PIERCED HEART; HUSBAND IN JAIL

NERO ENTERS POLICE STATION AND TELLS OFFICERS HE KILLED HIS WIFE.

Calmly entering the police station between 7:30 and 8 o'clock this morning, with Shepherd, a negro, apparently 40 years of age, told officers that he had just stabbed his wife through the heart with a butcher knife in their cabin in the rear of 1821 Tenth street, and that he had come to give himself up. Shepherd is said to have alleged infidelity on the part of his wife as the cause of the trouble.

Arresting Shepherd, who had been accompanied to the station by Roger Jackson, a friendly Officer Fred Smith and Will Lay, with Judge Howard, hurried to the home of the negro and there found the woman lying dead, face downward on the floor in a pool of blood, the butcher knife, ten inches in length, being also located in a near by trunk into which Shepherd said he had thrown it.

According to a statement given the police, Shepherd left the house immediately after the killing and sought Roger (Black Jack) Jackson, a friend, whom he told of the affair and asked whether it would be best for him to surrender or attempt to make his escape. The two negroes walked to police headquarters together.

There was but a single wound on the woman, but the room in which she lay was in disorder, giving evidence, it is said, of a struggle. The officers say that she must have died instantly.

Shepherd is held in the county jail, awaiting trial. The police say that Shepherd has always held a reputation for being quiet and orderly, and has never given them any previous trouble.

Shepherd stated to the police that he had for some time suspected his wife of infidelity, and had remonstrated with her on several occasions. In an endeavor to get her, as he said, "to straighten up," this morning he left his cabin about 7 o'clock but returned a little later for something he had forgotten.

Upon entering the door, he saw the other negro in the room; who, however, dodged him and fled. His eyes then fell on the knife, he says, and a struggle began.

NOTICE.

The Retail Liquor Dealers Association of Wichita Falls hereby gives notice that they have this day reduced the reward offered for the arrest and conviction of any person selling intoxicating liquor to any United States soldier in Wichita county from one hundred dollars to twenty-five dollars. Hereafter for the year nineteen hundred eighteen the sum of twenty-five dollars will be paid for said arrest and conviction.

Witness my hand and official seal this January 8, 1918.

CENTRAL POWERS ARE EXPECTED TO GIVE OUT ANSWER

LLOYD-GEORGE'S SPEECH EXPECTED TO DRAW FORTH CLEARLY DEFINED ANSWER.

HUN LEADERS DIVIDED

Success of Russians in Uncovering Real Purposes of Kaiser Causes Dissent at Home.

By Associated Press.—A reply from the Central Powers to the statement of British war aims by Premier Lloyd George Saturday is awaited here with the greatest interest. It is believed that Germany and her allies cannot decline to reply in some form and to make the reply more straightforward and definite than any previous statement of theirs.

But if the German papers correctly mirror the situation there, the best which the Bolsheviks have made of Germany's interest toward the principle of no annexations has thrown Germany into political turmoil. Advice from the capital of neutral countries bordering on Germany show that the opinion prevalent there is that one of the most severe national crises in the history of Germany is impending as a result of the differences in views between the militarist and non-militarist leaders regarding the government's attitude towards Russia.

Military Leaders Agreed. It is reported generally that General Von Ludendorff, as the leader of the former group, actually has gone so far as to threaten the resignation of himself and Field Marshal von Hindenburg if further countenance is given even to such views as those advanced by men of the type of Dr. von Kuehlmann and Count Czernin, the German and Austrian foreign ministers.

At the same time the view of Von Kuehlmann and Czernin fall to satisfy the German Socialists who regard their middle-of-the-road policy as risky and interpreted that the spirit of the Reichstag resolution must be followed sincerely and without qualification or reserve.

Neutral observers declare that the gap between the German parties suddenly become a chasm so wide that there is little hope of bridging it and that the internal crisis of serious proportions seems inevitable.

On the other hand it is pointed out that the various parties in entente countries never appeared so completely united as in their support of the war aims formulated by Premier Lloyd George.

M. Farban, former London correspondent of the Petrograd Bourse Gazette, writes for the London press that the premier's statement of war aims has widened and deepened the rift between the west and revolutionary Russia instead of bridging it. The premier's reference to Russia, says Farban, will be interpreted there as giving Germany a free hand to deal with Russia as she desires. The writer accuses the premier of throwing over Russia's head his patience and indifference because the Bolsheviks have been guilty of a breach of diplomatic decorum.

NOTHING HEARD FROM RUSSIA AS TO SPEECH.

By Associated Press. London, Jan. 8.—There is no indication thus far of the manner in which Premier Lloyd George's definition of war aims has been received in Russia or even whether his speech has been published there. The Bolshevik press of Petrograd continues to attack Great Britain and her allies. The Pravda and the Ivestia, published on Sunday article based upon some records of Mr. Lloyd George apparently one of his speeches in the house of commons, accusing him of desiring to have the Russians make peace with the Central Powers so as to give the allies a free hand to negotiate to their own advantage. Other allied leaders have expressed themselves similarly, the article says. It continues:

"The allies are preparing their public for peace and think that if Russia were forced to come to terms with the enemy, she and not the allies, would bear the cost of peace. The greater sacrifices Russia makes, the less the allies will have to pay. They could reach the same result by being in the peace negotiations but in that case it would be apparent that they had betrayed Poland, Lithuania, Courland and Rumania, using Russia as small change to pay these debts. By forcing Russia to make peace and Germany to subjugate the Poles, etc., they can blame Russia and clear themselves in the eyes of their peoples. . . . The plans of the allied imperialists to prepare peace with the German imperialists at the expense of Poland, etc., can be thwarted only by the peoples in struggle with their own governments."

Fuel and Development Company Stockholders Are to Meet on Friday

A meeting of the stockholders of the Wichita Fuel and Development Company has been called for 10 o'clock Friday morning in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at the city hall. This company brought in a good well at Electra last week and the meeting Friday morning is being held for the purpose of discussing the future of the company.

Liquor Dealers Pay Reward for Arrest In Case of Soldier

J. H. Patton, president of the Wichita Falls Retail Liquor Dealers Association, today handed to Policeman J. C. Glenn a check for $100 as a reward for the arrest and conviction of a person in Wichita county for selling intoxicating liquor to a soldier in uniform.

Mr. Glenn arrested a man about two weeks ago who was in the act of handing a flask of liquor to a soldier. This man has entered a plea of guilty before United States Commissioner

A good way to economize in good cooking!

"Yes, butter is higher."
Your grocer is sorry, but he has to charge you more.

If he is a well-informed grocer, like many grocers we know, he may say to you: "Why don't you try Cottolene? Some of my most particular customers are using it in all their cooking in place of butter—and in place of other shortenings, too."

In baking with wholesome Cottolene, use one-third less than you would use of butter or other shortenings.

Cottolene sets the highest possible standard for purity and richness.

And the richer a shortening is, the more economical it is. You use less.

Many good cooks give it as their belief that, after all, cake is the real test of a shortening.

Cottolene meets this test by making perfectly delicious cake.

Try pure Cottolene in one of your "old-stand-by" recipes—for cake, biscuits or pie, for example. Be sure to use one-third less of Cottolene than you usually do of butter or other shortening.

Cottolene is sold by grocers in tins of convenient sizes.

Recipe for COCOANUT LAYER CAKE

1/2 cup Cottolene	1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups sugar	1 cup milk
3 eggs	1/2 teaspoon each
3 cups flour	lemon and
3 level teaspoons	vanilla
baking powder

Cream Cottolene, add 1 cup sugar gradually. Add remaining cup sugar to beaten yolks. Combine mixtures. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to first mixture alternately with milk. Lastly add flavoring and stiffly beaten whites. Finish with boiled frosting sprinkled with cocoanut.

"Bull" Durham will cheer up Yankee Prisoners!

(FROM THE CHICAGO EXAMINER, SEPTEMBER 20, 1917)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19th—If Germany takes any Yankee boys prisoners they will not have to exist on German prison rations. The Red Cross has arranged to forward to each prisoner a package containing from nine to ten pounds of food three times each fortnight.

The package will contain a scientifically prepared ration sufficient to sustain inactive men in good health, including rice, sugar, dried beef, pork and beans, evaporated milk, coffee, chocolate, jam, soap and "the makings"—two packages of tobacco with papers.

And the tobacco specified for the Red Cross Food Kit is

STEPHENS IS NOT TO BE CANDIDATE FOR REELECTION

In writing a friend in this city, Hon. John H. Stephens, writing from Mar...
I greatly appreciate your kindness and that of our friends in so frankly stating your opinion of my chances for re-election to congress. Not desiring to enter into a scramble for re-election in order to vindicate my record in congress, I shall not again offer to run for that office. Looking back over my record, I would not change a single vote nor official act, if I could do so. Neither have I any apologies to offer to the voters of that district for any vote or official act of mine while in their congressman. Very respectfully,
JOHN H. STEPHENS.

LIEUT. W. FAULKE DIES AT KELLY FIELD OF PNEUMONIA

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Jan. 8.—Lieutenant Walter Faulke Kelly Field, member of a prominent Philadelphia family and former captain of the Princeton football team, died early this morning at the base hospital following a third attack of pneumonia. He was ill only a week. The body will be taken to Philadelphia for burial and will be accompanied by a military escort. Faulke was 33 years old and is survived by his widow and three children. He was assistant adjutant of the training brigade.

knows that the New York hit of "Have A Heart" at the Liberty Theatre last winter is stage history. One enthusiastic reviewer of the Guy Bolton-P. J. Wodehouse-Jerome Kern composite was moved to implore: "Oh, Colonel Savage 'Have A Heart' Stop putting so many of our musical comedy producers to shame with the taste, the dashiness, the all-around efficiency of your offerings. You stage your plays magnificently and artistically. You insist that your singers be able to sing and your dancers to dance. And you fill your stage with fresh and lovely young personalities." All this sounds promising. And so does the hint of a "Divorcée" plot which builds around the amusing mishaps of a young couple, separated through unfounded jealousy, who elope on a fresh honeymoon upon the very eve of their divorce. The piquant lingerie section of a department store is pictured in the first act, with salesgirls, shoppers and a very funny elevator boy. And then the characters are whirled away to a seaside hotel at Blueport, R. I., where all ends as musical comedy should. Among the fetching musical numbers are "You Said Something," "I'm So Busy," "Have A Heart," "Look In His Eyes," "I'm All Alone," "I'm Here Little Girl, I'm Here," "Bright Lights," "The Road That Lies Before," "Samarkland," "Honey-moon Inn," "Can The Cabaret," "My Wife, My Maid," "Nepoleon" and "Daisy." In the big cast of players are such notable people as Cecelia Wright, Grace Hoey, Betty Weber, Maud Ream Stoyer, Rosie Green, Joseph Keno, Henry Azzim, Harrison Garrett, Edward Clannell, Lawrence Wood, Edward A. Smith, Chaucer Causland and Keno and Green. A typical Savage chorus of really pretty girls who have voices of singing quality and a special orchestra carried by the company round out what promises to be another Savage success.

Eight Resignations All Upon File Now With the Secretary

By Associated Press. Austin, Jan. 8.—Although the senate and house investigating committees in joint session adopted a resolution asking Governor Hobby to call a special election to fill 20 vacancies—19 in the house and one in the senate—only eight resignations have been filed in the office of the secretary of state, it was learned today. This list has been submitted to the governor by Secretary of State Howard. While it is not disputed that the 20 vacancies exist, it is pointed out that they do not officially exist until the resignations have been filed with the secretary of state. The eight who have filed resignations are: George E. B. Paddy, Shelby county; W. E. Neely, Montgomery, and Grimes; J. C. Russell, Aransas; A. C. Hartman, Karnes; L. H. School, Hays; Bruce Bryant, Baylor; M. G. Blylock, Harrison; and Sam Lowe, Washington.

Many Ships Coaled And Steam Away For Ports Over Atlantic

By Associated Press. An Atlantic Port, Jan. 8.—A number of ships loaded with supplies for the allies which have been delayed here for more than two weeks because of lack of coal, sailed today for European ports. One of the steamers carried the first mail to leave here in 17 days. Many vessels are still idle at the docks here awaiting fuel.

A. N. TREECE DIES AT HOSPITAL HERE; ILL SHORT WHILE

WAS ONE OF BEST KNOWN AND MOST SUCCESSFUL BANKERS OF COUNTY.
A. N. Treece, aged 35, one of the best known and most successful bankers of this county, died Monday night at a local hospital after a week's illness. The body was sent today to Tazewell, Tenn., where his mother resides, and the funeral will be held there Thursday. Mrs. J. R. Parkey of Mankins, in Archer county, sister of Mr. Treece, was present at his death bed and will accompany the body to Tennessee. Mr. Treece was unmarried.
For the past ten years Mr. Treece had been active in banking business of Wichita county, being cashier of the First National Bank at Iowa Park on first coming to this county. He went with the First State Bank of Electra a few years ago and continued his work with that institution until a week of his death.
News of his death will be received with sorrow by his many friends in Electra and Iowa Park and in this city also, where he was well known.

ELEVEN STUDENTS REPORT READY FOR CLASSES AT NIGHT

Eleven prospective students registered at the opening of the night classes at the high school last night, and from inquiries received Led Clark, the city superintendent of schools, who is to be in charge of the night school, is confident that the enrollment when work is taken up, possibly not until the week beginning Jan. 21, will justify the efforts and time which the teachers will give to the work.
Owing to the examinations which will begin next Monday and which will occupy the time of the teachers, it was considered best to postpone formation of classes until after examinations. Any one interested in any study and desiring to increase his knowledge, particularly of practical English and business arithmetic, is urged to join the classes. Full information may be had by phoning, writing or calling personally upon Mr. Clark at the high school building. There will be no charge for any of the night classes.
