Normal artillery fighting continues in this sector, shells falling on towns on both sides of the line. At one place the Germans used mustard shells. A small number of Americans walked through the gas later. Last night an American patrol brought in an enemy sniper's camouflage suit woven brownish colored scape. ### 1500 Tractor Outfits to Help The French Grow More Food

American tractors—1604 of them—sent by the U. S. Food Administration, will hattle hunger in France. When apring comes they will be in the field. They will help the French to grow 1,000,000 mere tone of food.

The idea of reinforcing the waning agricultural strength of France with American tractors originated with Henry Morganthau, Jr., to follow the machines to France and put them in operation. The first 100 tractors were sent to France on the deck of a naval transport and the entire number will reach there in plenty of time for spring plowing.

The tractors will operate mainly in the battle-scarred portion of northern France which has been re-taken from the Germans. There property lines have been largely obliterated. The fields are consequently large and the batteries of tractors will be able to work most effectively. Thus in a few menths food crops, especially wheat soil that a few months ago was the and potatoes, will be growing in French "No Man's Land" between the great soil plowed by American tractors—battle lines.

GenDr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the foresula for Olive Tablets while tracting patients for chronic conclustion and forpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain enloyed, but a healing, soothing regenable leastive.

Ho griping is the "keynote" of these little migrar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They caute the howels and liver to act, normally. They nover force them to annatural petics.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a had breath—a duli, fixed feeling—chelt headache—torpid liver so are constiputed, you'll find out its, sine and colly pleasant recults from on or two libtle Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets as bedding.

Thousands take see or two every night for the least right.

Paris, (via London) March 13.—In a great many ways the Yankees in Paris are helping to rouge and powder the pallid but plump face of this exquisite capital of the French. Paris doesn't want to be sad or worried—that wouldn't be Parisian. But this has gone on for more than three years, and always with pounding German

But it has not all been good instruction. Some innocent French waiters have been taught words and phrases that should never be used in public to a stranger. If you look horning that monsieur is pleased with their expression of acute misery comes over their face and they inquire, "Pardon, monsieur. Not goo' Angleesh?"

One waiter asked me politely today, when I had set down at his table, if my tail was wagging well. This would have been a shock if I had not been prepared by a lieutenant with me who laid proud claim to the distinction of having taught this phrase to the garcon. Some waiters said the lieutenant, will greet you politely, under the blandest of smiles, with deadly insults, and when the yanks laugh that monsieur is pleased with theor knowledge of English.

and ahead of them all the day long. There is a "Montana Bill" on a motorcycle in Paris who is said to have scared Parisians more than any German drive or raid ever pulled off. He was a cowboy in Woming, and they say he used to do a little boxing back home under the name of "Montana Bill." One of "Montana Bills" hobbies is to look after the tired, elderly horses of Paris. Whenever he is poppopping down an avenue and sees a driver whipping a veteran quadruped or see sawing on the lines—as most of them do—it is a cue for "Montana Bill" to slide up alongside and talk the Wyoming language to the driver with punctuations from the exhaust of his motorcycle.

Woodmen of World To Do Degree Work At Session Tonight

W. O. W. Camp No. 3001 expects to put the degree work on two or three candidates at their meeting tonight, and those who have not been present and those who have not been present before since the new paraphernalia was bought, are expected out so that they will know just how well it works. This lodge enjoys a steady growth, in spite of the abnormal conditions, and the fact that their degree staff is largely in the various branches of Uncle Sam's service.

Much favorable talk is going the gounds concerning the open meeting and banquet held last Wednesday night.

that wouldn't be Parisian. But this has gone on for more than three years, and always with pounding German guins only a few miles away. Lines of haggardness would surely be showing by this time but for cosmetic relief in the way of American smiles, lokes, money—and promises.

Cafes that hang out signs to the effect that "English is spoken here" do a thriving business with our boys because a French menu is of course a bewildering thing to anyone but a French "chef. A waiter who can make himself partly understood in English is therefore a valuable adjunct to a cafe, and commands a good salary. To get this good salary, and better tips, many waiters are keenly at tentive at every meal trying to pick up American phrases. Our boys have realized this and they ofen help out with instructions.

But it has not all been good in-that monsieur is pleased with theor knowledge of English.

Ask this Francois how to get to the Rue Chauveaux Lagarde", suggested the lieutenant. I called Francois and soberly ask edhim. "Verree goo, beamed Francois. "Down zees sigle four rows, zen four rows to zee left." Before Francois had linished wagging his head proudly, the lieutenant cut in with "pretty line, en? I taught him hat."

One of the canards of the war has been on the Paris taxi driver. Outside of France it is generally believed that the motor cabbles here are wild men, whirling you around corners on one wheel and dashing up boulevards at a mad pace. Since the yellow cars and motorcycles of the American expeditionary force have been whizzing around Paris, the taxi driver here has come into the just reputation of being quite mild.

Taxis in Use

Taxis are in widespread use in Paris there probably being more of them in operation than in New York. Certainly London hasn't a third of the number of taxis that run about Paris, But they are very slow vehicles here. They have all that is longer to distribute the whole of the war etfort depends, and meanwhile that every present vassals mad decrepit.

with these thoughts in mind, Londoners have been reading with particular interest the various hints of Japhave done much better than 30 miles an hour, and now they are quite old and decrepit.

It is true that a Parisian taxi driver will take chances, and that car coiks lous are common every day, but these are only gentle bumps that hurt no one and mean only a best fender and a riot of Gallic swearing. One soon becomes used to swearing by the drivers fach seems to regard the other as a mortal enemy. They curse each other casually as they pass. The drivers are all old men. Rather than go to the necessary effort of changing speeds or turning their steering wheel, they seem to prefer to curse and bump.

American Cars

The American cars whirl in and out and ahead of them all the day long. There is a "Montana Bill" on a motor-

Supposing even that Japanese intervention entailed an expansion toward the West to such an extent that they the West to such an extent that they came into contact with the hypothetical combination of Slav and Teuton, this, at worst, would lead to a racial war from which Western Europe and America could stand aside. But of course nobody wants such a war, Defeat Germany now, frustrate her plans for dominating the world with the Slav armies of her conquered and vassal peoples, and Democracy will find a way to maintain the peace of the world.

Wichita Falls didn't get a rain to lay but it had an excellent sand time an aviator does a loop oop, a nose spin or makes a landing there are those who ere convinced that he has fallen to earth, never again to rise. And the conclusions seem perfectly reason-oing to make a speech to the people of Wichita Falls on Friday, March 22, advocating the purchase of bonds of the Third Liberty Loan. We favor letting "Doug" speak from the top of the First National Bank building. President Wilson or Charlie Chaplin are the only others we know of who would have as large an audience.

THE PROS WILL ANSWER BY BALLOT

Under the ten mile zone law which will go into effect on April 15, Wichita will be done dry, it will be a violation of the law to have liquors in the home or to transport liquors to this city for any purpose. Intoxicants may be used only for medical and sacramental purposes, under the law.

But there will be one or two wet spots left in the state after this, although they are relatively unimport coints. They will remain wet until it June 27. For there is a statutory prohibition measure before the egislature and those who are in poattion to forecast the probable action of that body way it will adopt the bil. y an overwhelming majority.

Meantime a prohibition election has een ordered for Electra. Moneyed interests , are back of the move-Wichita Falls liquor dealer are anxious to dispose of their stock, and if reports are true, many of them are now overstocked with "left-overs" secured when Dallas joined the Pro. ranks. Naturally they want sell. Naturally somebody must drink. The nearest and the easiest solution to them appears to be to move these stocks over to blectra, and there permit them to be quaffed between April 15 and June 27.

There are several phases of this matter, however, that theproperty own ers of this neighboring town must consider. There are several phases of the matter which the expectan hope to be purchasers of these liquors need to consider most carefully.

moral side comes first, as it al ways must.

The parent of what family in any of this neighboring town wants to see his boy start on the downward path! You think he will not? But thousands have. The member of what family in this neighboring town wants to see the father besotted and the income scant enough in these days of high prices, squandered while the wife and the little ones are in want for food and decent clothing? This won't be the way in your case? But it has been the way in thousands of cases.

On the material side there is every ing against the opening of saloons in the oil fields. The increased danger to the and property in a business which is regarded as hazardous for the most clear-headed must be taken nto consideration. It must also be reared by those who expect to make money out of the sale of intoxicants in Electra that at the best time will be short in which to dispose of their wares, always taking it for granted that statutory probibition is

He had fallen away to a mere shadow; was as yellow as affron and often doubled up with pain. Doctors continually gave him morphine and were about to operate for gall stones. For Continued Use Of Grain by Brewers

England Criticised

By Associated Press
London, Mar. 12.—Criticism of the continued use of grain for brewing and malting was made in the House of Commons today by the Right Honorable Liefchild Jones and others. John R. Clynes, parliamentary secretary of the food control board, in reply said that having regard, among other considerations, for the food situation and opinion in America, the government, while maintaining a supply of beer for heavy manual workers, intended to reduce immediately the tonnage to be used for brewing material. One hundred and fifty thousand tons of barley were taken from the brewers and maisters on March 1 and a further 200-000 tons would be saved yearly by restricting the standard of barrelage and using substitutes which are vastly more economical.

The brewing materials for 1918-19, Mr. Clynes added, would be equivalent to 512,000 of shipping, compared to 1,500,000 tons early in the war. The brewing material would amount to something less than three per cent of the solid food ration and from one third to one fourth of these materials could be recovered in the form of animal foods.

Don't you think it's a waste of money, energy and quality for a coffee roaster in California to sell roasted coffee in New York and the New York roaster to sell in California? Yet just this is being done every day.

WOULD IT NOT BE BETTER

for each to sell in his own territory where the expense is less and the goods go to the consumer fresh. This applies to Wichita Falls.
