TAKING OF KEMMEL HILL FALLS TO GIVE HUNS YPRES SECTOR AS THEY HAD FULLY EXPECTED

GRAND DUKE ALEXIS PROCLAIMED RUSSIAN CZAR? Franco-British Force

Civil War Expected To Rage Over Land As Result

BULLETIN—London, April 27.—A dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph here says it is reported there that a counter revolution has broken out in Petrograd. It reports that while no telegrams have been received from Petrograd for several days, there are rumors from Finland that there is serious rioting at the capital and that the rumor is persistent at the capital that Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaiyitch has been proclaimed emperor and the Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch is the real leader in Russian affairs.

REPORT IS DECLARED TO HAVE BEEN CONFIRMED

Associated Press—Copenhagen, April 27.—The Stockholm Aftonbladet says that definite reports have been received from Abo, Finland, that Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaiyitch, son of the former Emperor of Russia, has been proclaimed emperor or with Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch as regent.

When Emperor Nicholas abdicated the throne at midnight March 15, 1917, he also renounced succession to the throne of his son Grand Duke Alexis in favor of Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch. The next morning Grand Duke Alexandrovitch abdicated thus terminating the rotation of the Romanoffs to the throne. Where the proclamation mentioned in the foregoing article is not apparent from the dispatch.

PLAN IS CREDITED TO GERMAN LEADERS

Washington, April 27.—Reports from Copenhagen of persistent rumors from Finland that Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaiyitch, son of the former czar of Russia, has been proclaimed emperor of Russia were taken here to indicate here that Germany was attempting to carry through a well formulated plan for restoring a monarchy in that revolution-torn country.

While no reports of a new revolt in Petrograd have been received at the state department from Ambassador Francis at Volodga, news of an uprising would not come as a surprise. It long has been believed here that Germany's real purpose was to restore the monarchy supported by German influence, money and intrigue.

The removal of the Bolshevik government from the capital has paved the way for the carrying out of the German plan. Reports have been received here that German soldiers formerly prisoners in Russia have been overrunning the capital and have made of it a German center.

NEW LEGAL FIGHT TO SAVE MOONEY HAS DEVELOPED

Associated Press—San Francisco, April 27.—A new legal battle which may take the case of Thomas J. Mooney, awaiting sentence to death on a murder charge to the United States supreme court, was opened here today after it was thought that all possible legal services in Mooney's behalf had been exhausted. Maxwell McNutt, Mooney's chief counsel filed notice with Judge Franklin A. Griffin that on next Thursday he will move that all previous proceedings in Mooney's case be set aside and that he be granted a new trial on the ground of willful fraud and malfeasance in the office of the prosecution.

COMMANDING OFFICERS AND SHIPS IN ALLIED RAID AGAINST ZEEBRUGGE AND OSTEND.

The famous raid of the British against the German submarine bases at Zeebrugge and Ostend, in which at least six obsolete cruisers fitted with concrete for use in blocking the channels were run aground and blown up was one of the most gallant and hazardous undertakings of the war. The raid was undertaken under command of Vice Admiral Roger Keyes, commanding at Dover. French destroyers cooperated with the British forces. The vessels taking part were the Brilliant, the Sirius, the Iphigenia, the Intrepid, the Theis and the Vindictive. The Vindictive, working with two ferry boats, carried storming and demolition parties to storm the head of the mole which runs out from Zeebrugge. The Vindictive was specially fitted for landing storming parties and was armed specially for the purpose with flame throwers, Stokes mortars and that sort of thing. The other five were filled with concrete and sunk in the channel and entrance to the two points.

Be Economical Take Ice Regularly

These days everybody is trying to be economical. It's a vital part of patriotism.

There are three ways that housewives can save in the use of their refrigerators.

First, systematize your purchase of ice by the refrigerator. Let them cool off first, else amount at the same time every day the air in your refrigerator will always be at the same temperature and your ice will last longer and the foods in storage will be fresher and more palatable.

Second, be careful not to put hot dishes in the refrigerator. Let them cool off first, else their heat will materially reduce the temperature and as a result the ice will melt twice as fast.

Third, don't let the doors of the refrigerator stay open one minute more than is absolutely necessary.

You can save quite a good deal—in both food and ice—if you will buy ice regularly and exercise reasonable care in the use of your refrigerator.

COORDINATION

Coordination of all of the resources of the nation in work that will help to win the war against Prussianism is now the watchword of the nation.

In no undertaking is cooperation more to be desired or of greater personal advantage to all of those who are engaged in it than in the business of growing crops with which to feed our own army.

It is very necessary for the producer to cooperate with the transportation companies and with the Food Administration if the best results are to be attained.

No single farmer has learned all that there is to be known about the growing crops.

There should be community organizations, and there are, and these should be affiliated with the county organization and all should be under the eye and guidance of the Federal demonstrator for the particular county.

Frequent meetings should be held by these organizations for the purpose of discussing matters of common interest in order that the very highest degree of efficiency may be secured upon the farms of the country.

PUBLIC OPINION

HONOR FOR DEAD URGED BY CITIZEN

To the Editor of the Times: The daily papers of this week bore an account of the military funeral and honors which the allied forces in France gave a German aviator, one of the Hunns who have been killing women and children.

The day after this was chronicled three men lay dead at Call Field, two of them who had died a horrible death while preparing to serve their country.

The evening after the bodies of the two officers and the student flier were sent to their homes to be taken by relatives to their last resting place, there was a dance at the post.

A civilian may not be capable of understanding military etiquette. It is possible that there are many matters in which he is reversed, but to the writer this seems to be a reflection on those who had anything to do with the affair.

It would seem from this occurrence that it is more honorable to be a dead German flier inside the allied ranks than a dead American flier or officer at home in the midst of friends.

HARVARD OARSMEN WIN OVER PRINCETON CREW

Princeton, N. J., April 1.—Harvard oarsmen won a decisive victory over Princeton in their dual regatta over the mile and seventh eights course on Darius Lake today.

Princeton won the first race in the varsity crew by a boat in the minutes and 57 seconds and the freshman eight by two lengths in 10 minutes and six seconds.

THREE INJURED WHEN CAR GOES OFF OF BRIDGE

ROY McLEMORE CONFINED TO HOME AND TWO OTHERS IN HOSPITAL

Ray McLemore is confined to his bed at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sid McLemore, 2015 Ninth street, and Charley Hobbs and J. B. Burton, two Chickasha, Okla., men, are at the Wichita General Hospital, all three suffering from severe cuts and bruises sustained when the Ford in which they were riding went down the embankment on the Wichita side of the Red River bridge.

The driver of the car, Hobbs, turned the car to avoid collision with another car. The machine was badly wrecked.

McLemore was able to walk following the accident, but it is feared he suffered a severe sprain in his back, if not more serious injuries, according to reports his home late Saturday night.

Enemy Alien Women Will Be Registered In This City Now

Mayor J. B. Marlow has received a letter from Attorney General Gregory asking him to authorize the city police department to take up the work of registering enemy alien females.

The letter from the Attorney General expressed the appreciation of the Department of Justice with the manner in which the registration of enemy alien males had been conducted here.

The letter explained that the registration of the females would be conducted in much the same manner as that of the males.

It is very necessary for the producer to cooperate with the transportation companies and with the Food Administration if the best results are to be attained.

COMMENT

London, April 27.—Commenting on the Flanders battle in serious tone the morning newspapers contend that the situation imposes upon Great Britain the necessity of putting forth the utmost effort.

"We are faced with a crisis more perilous and momentous than any that has hitherto arisen, even in this war," writes the military correspondent of the Daily Telegraph.

"Possession of the channel ports by the enemy would make our task on land and sea infinitely more intricate and costly."

The Daily News in an editorial says the situation has changed seriously for the worse as a result of the fighting of the past two days and that the German drive toward the channel is a matter of very serious consideration.

"The effect of the capture of Mont Kemmel upon the situation of Ypres is canvassed anxiously by newspaper writers. The Daily Chronicle thinks that Ypres would be costly and precarious.

It hopes that it will be found possible to dislodge the enemy at Villers-Bretonneux. Otherwise it says, a further withdrawal of the Ypres line may be desirable.

The Chronicle contends, however, that the political value of Ypres is only secondary.

The Daily Mail says it would be folly to minimize the success the enemy has achieved and if the lines of Kemmel should prove permanent the difficulty in holding Ypres would be increased materially.

Workless Day Proves Great Success Says Report From Dublin

Dublin, April 27.—The success of the workless day last Tuesday has led to a widespread impression among all classes that the government's policy of war is being carried out.

"During the night of April 18 British troops withdrew from advanced villages in the Strama sector, which they had occupied on April 16 and the villages were later shelled by the enemy."

On April 20 and April 22 the British carried out raids on the Doiran Vardar front.

Paris, April 27.—A German attack near Thennes on the front southeast of Amiens was broken up last night, the war office announces.

The statement follows: "During the night the artillery battle was continued along the front between Villers-Bretonneux and Hangard."

OFFICIAL

GERMANY

By Associated Press Berlin, via London, April 27.—The official communication from general headquarters on the operations against the French and British says: "To the north of Wytchaete we advanced as far as the southern border of Voormezele."

Artillery activity has been moderate on both sides along the whole front. We carried out effectively a concentrated fire on hostile battery positions in the Val Lagarina and against the enemy trenches in Ito Freddo Valley and the Castellotto district."

ITALY

Rome, April 27.—An official statement issued today by the Italian war office says: "Artillery activity has been moderate on both sides along the whole front. We carried out effectively a concentrated fire on hostile battery positions in the Val Lagarina and against the enemy trenches in Ito Freddo Valley and the Castellotto district."

South of the Somme the French held themselves in check in repeated assaults as well as south of Villers-Bretonneux. Under the fire of strong attacks in the early morning at the northern end of Hangard wood the enemy in the afternoon gathered his forces consisting chiefly of Moroccans, for advances to the north of Lucire which broke. Repeated attempts which were preceded by the strongest artillery preparation to pierce our lines failed."

"On their own initiative our infantry detachments advanced to the attack on both sides of Lucire brook. They cleared several machine gun nests and took a number of French prisoners."

GREAT BRITAIN

London, April 27.—Continuing their counter attacks on the front east of Amiens the allies have gained further advantages in the Hangard-Villers-Bretonneux sector, it is announced officially.

The French have re-captured positions from Loivre to La Clytte, in Flanders west of Mount Kemmel.

The fighting on the Flanders front north of the Lys was very severe. The enemy advance was held at all points.

The Germans made a heavy attack on the front south of Ypres. There was a long battle for Voormezele, two miles south of Ypres, which the British retained, taking hundreds of prisoners.

"There was great artillery activity on both sides during the night on the whole battle front north of the Lys River. The fighting on this area yesterday was very severe, the enemy making repeated and determined attempts to develop the advance gained by him on the previous day."

After many hours of fluctuating battle the enemy's advance was held at all points. Heavy casualties were suffered by his troops in the course of his many unsuccessful attacks.

The enemy's assaults on the French position from Loivre to La Clytte were pressed with extreme violence and after three attacks had been beaten off with great loss to him, his troops at last were driven back on April 26.

"Fierce fighting took place north of Kemmel village and in the neighborhood of Voormezele, which after a prolonged struggle remains in hands of our troops. In the afternoon the enemy again heavily attacked our position at the ridge south-west of Voormezele and was completely repulsed. Some hundreds of prisoners were captured by us in this fighting."

"Local fighting also took place yesterday afternoon on the Lys battle front in the neighborhood of Givenchy with tanks early in the afternoon was broken up by our fire and failed to develop. The number of prisoners captured by us in this area is over 900."

"Successful raids were carried out by us during the night in the neighborhood of Arleux (northeast of Arras). We captured twenty prisoners."

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

London, April 27.—A retirement by front from villages which were recently captured is reported in an official statement issued by the war office on operations in the Macedonian theatre of war.

"During the night of April 18 British troops withdrew from advanced villages in the Strama sector, which they had occupied on April 16 and the villages were later shelled by the enemy."

On April 20 and April 22 the British carried out raids on the Doiran Vardar front.

Paris, April 27.—A German attack near Thennes on the front southeast of Amiens was broken up last night, the war office announces.

The statement follows: "During the night the artillery battle was continued along the front between Villers-Bretonneux and Hangard."

SCHOOL EXHIBITS ARE TO BE SEEN BY PUBLIC HERE

WORK BEING DONE WILL BE ON EXHIBITION ON THIRD OF MONTH

The work of the school children of Wichita Falls, especially that of the students at the high school in all departments will be on exhibition at the high school on the afternoon of May 3 and the public of Wichita Falls is urged to visit the school at that time and get a comprehensive idea of what is being done. A program given by representatives of various departments and during which Dr. Mussetman, editor of the Texas School of Journalism is expected to speak, will be given about the middle of the afternoon. The following statement has been issued by the faculty at the school:

Elaborate plans are being made by the teachers and pupils of our public schools to demonstrate to the general public that the quality of work being done this year is exceptionally good.

Every parent of a school pupil is personally invited and urged to spend next Friday afternoon, May 3rd in the high school building. In fact all friends of the school are urgently requested to be present.

The exhibition of art work will be one of the leading features of the afternoon. Specimens of work taken from every grade in the school system (first to eleventh inclusive) will be arranged for your inspection. Are you fully informed as to the splendid development your children are receiving from the art work which is being carried forward by day under the direction of skilled experts? "Seeing is believing." Friday is your opportunity.

In addition to the art exhibit, there will be shown work from every department of the high school. You will have an opportunity to inspect the domestic science and domestic art rooms. A chosen group of young ladies (pupils of these departments) will take pleasure in showing you the equipment for cooking and sewing; also the finished products which are being turned out by themselves and their classmates.

A similar plan will be followed in connection with the other departments of work, i. e., manual training, science (including physics, chemistry, zoology, botany, etc.), mathematics, history, Latin and modern languages, specimens of class work, note books, themes, maps, etc., will be submitted for your inspection and criticism. Teachers and selected groups of students will gladly discuss with you these specimens of their work and will pilot you to the various points of interest about the building.

In addition to the exhibit proper, there will be given, during the afternoon a musical and literary program. This will be held in the high school auditorium and will consist of numbers rendered by our high school orchestra, glee clubs, reading and public speaking classes. The program will not exceed 45 minutes in length and will be held about the middle of the afternoon.

We have reason to believe that Mr. Mussetman, editor of the Texas School Journal will be present on this occasion. We feel assured that representatives of our local press will be with us, and we trust that every citizen who can possibly do so will spend at least a portion of the afternoon in his high school building. The public schools belong to the community. Come in and get acquainted with the teachers and their work. If you find the schools worthy, boost them and help to make them still better. We believe that Wichita Falls should have one of the best high schools in the State of Texas. We believe that we are laying the foundation for such a school. But we need your intelligent and sympathetic cooperation and we believe that we shall have it.

Very sincerely,
THE FACULTY.

WHAT CLEAN MILK IS, DEFINED BY INSPECTOR HERE

HEALTHY COWS, STERILIZED UTENSILS, PROPER COOLING HANDLING ALL COUNT.

The following from the department of Food and Dairy inspection of the city, is a continuation of an article on the same subject, pure, clean milk which appeared in last Sunday's paper.

The question has come up between the consumer, the producer and the inspector as to what constitutes clean milk. Clean healthy cows, equipment for bottling all utensils, use for immediate cooling of the milk, and a careful conscientious person to handle it, are a very important part in production of pure milk.

Cost of Clean Milk.
In regard to the cost of clean milk, high prices do not necessarily mean clean milk, nor low prices dirty milk, yet you cannot get away from the fact that it costs more to produce clean milk than dirty milk and as long as all milk commands the same price, there is little inducement to make improvements. Can we expect a producer to expend the necessary money and care to give a clean supply, when his neighbor with no expense and no care can get the same price for an inferior article? These are points to be considered and the remedy is in the hands of the consumer.

There is no class of people more important at this time than the food producers, and there is no class more necessary to the development of the community than the dairymen. Clean, well equipped, prosperous-looking dairy farms should be the pride of every citizen interested in the welfare of the community and would add to our health and our wealth considerably. Therefore we make a strong plea for a greater cooperation between the producer, the consumer and the health department.

Encourage Good Milk.
By paying a higher price for your milk you not only encourage this important industry, but encourage a higher grade of milk. It takes a well balanced ration to produce milk rich in butter-fat. At the present extremely high prices of feed few dairymen are getting enough for their milk to justify giving the feed necessary for the production of the richest milk. Some are doing this, but at the cost of the profit that is justly theirs.

DR. R. C. BUCKNER ARRIVES IN CITY; GOES TO CASHION

Rev. R. C. Buckner, D. D., vernal founder of Buckner's Orphanage at Dallas, arrived yesterday to preach the dedicatory sermon for the new Baptist church at Cashion today. He will preach at Cashion at 11 a. m. and at the First Baptist church at Burk Burnett at 8:30 p. m.

An all day service is to be held at the Cashion church. The church which is a pretty frame structure built at a cost of about $2,000 was completed only recently. Rev. S. P. Ross of Burk Burnett is the pastor. He has been assisted in his work by Rev. J. C. Duncan, Baptist county missionary.

Dr. Buckner visited four former children of the home who are in Wichita Falls on Saturday afternoon. He was disappointed in not seeing the three others from the home who are residents of this city and who are now visiting out of town.

PROSPECT BRIGHT FOR OPENING NEW LIBRARY IN MAY

Prospects are bright now for the opening of the Kemp Public Library sometime in May, according to the Library Committee, which was further encouraged, following the arrival of the long awaited furniture on Tuesday, by the arrival of some cards and office equipment which had been much needed. Not all of the furniture has arrived but it is thought the remainder is coming soon, so that work can be pushed toward the end of having a formal dedication and opening for the library in a few weeks.

Miss Polly Roberts, the librarian, has her office in the library building now, and reports that the people are showing much interest in the library. Miss Roberts is busy at present in cataloging the books and in preparing in all other ways possible for the opening of the institution.

COUNTER STROKE OF BRITISH IS GREAT SUCCESS

VILLERS-BRETONEUX CLEARED OF INFANTRY QUICKLY—TANKS BEING USED

By Associated Press.
 With the British Army in France, April 26.—The British counter stroke which ousted the Germans from Villers-Bretoneux south of the Somme was a great success from the start. The town has been cleared of the enemy by yesterday afternoon with the exception of two "pockets" of infantry, one near the railway station and the other near the neighboring monument of the war of 1870. These pockets were cleared up last evening. Several light British tanks were used against the enemy at the monument. There was fierce fighting in the streets of the town after the British launched their counter attacks at 10 o'clock. British armor had been deluging with gas and the assaulting infantry went in wearing gas masks.

Had to Don Masks.
 The Germans were forced to don their masks as the streets were filled quickly with madly fighting men who looked on as if another world had been created by their protective gear. The town hall was full of boches. Many of them had retired to the cellar where they were trying to sleep in their gas masks for there had been no thought of a British attack that night.

Large numbers of the enemy were slain in the streets and many were taken prisoners. By Thursday morning those who had been in hiding were crawling out and surrendered freely. They were still wearing their gas masks.

Among the prisoners captured were several young officers who gave their opinions of things in general with refreshing candor. They were chagrined at theiasco which the Germans had made of the Villers-Bretoneux attack. Some had unkind things to say of the higher command.

A large part of their trouble, the officers laid to the fact that the British held a hill just north of the village which gave the defenders full observation on the Germans for many miles. This hill, known as Hill 104, lies close to the front line and commands a wide sweep of country. From it the British gunners have played havoc with the German troops and transports. The prisoners said that for three days prior to the attack they had had virtually nothing to eat because the food trains were smashed by shell fire and kitchens which tried to cook what there was on hand were continually being demolished. As a result the Germans had little love for their task when the time came to attack.

British Casualties For Week Reported To Number 18,360

By Associated Press.
 London, April 27.—Casualties in the British ranks reported this week totalled 18,360. The losses were divided as follows:
 Killed or died of wounds: Officers 408; men, 2,651.
 Wounded or missing: Officers 2,071; men 13,229.

Despite the heavy fighting for more than a month past the British casualties reported are only now beginning to approach the high figures reported for weeks last year, when the British were on the offensive on the western front. The increase recently has been on the average of 50 per cent each week over the week preceding. Last week the aggregate was 12,368 and the week previous 8,129.

Nation-Wide Strike Of Paper Mills Men Is To Be Opposed

By Associated Press.
 Washington, April 27.—An effort to prevent a nation wide strike of paper mill workers called for May 1 will be made by the national war labor board when it meets Monday, members of the board announced on their arrival here today.

P. T. Dodge, president of the International Paper Company will represent the manufacturers and J. T. Carey, president of the International Mill Workers and John P. Burke, president of the Shipitee and Pulver Workers' organization, will represent the workmen.

The presidents of all paper manufacturing companies and the president of the Brotherhood of Paper Workers will be asked to meet the trade commission Thursday to sign an agreement to avert the strike.

The present wage scale for employees of paper mills expires May 1 and negotiation for a new scale have been retarded by discussion of a price for print paper which is to be fixed by the trade commission.

CANADIAN NEWS PRINT PAPER CAREFULLY GUARDED

By Associated Press.
 Montreal, April 27.—Canadian news print paper manufacturers replied today to the memorial address by the American Newspaper Publishers Association to the Canadian government asking for governmental restriction on the export of news print paper to foreign countries. All news print exports from Canada, they assert, are made under license issued by the war trade board, which, they say, is a sufficient guarantee that none of it passes into unfriendly hands.

No Hospital Ships Used To Carry Any U. S. Troops To France

By Associated Press.
 Washington, April 27.—Semi-official German dispatches charging that American aviators were being carried to France on hospital ships, registered as ambulance corps men, were formally denied today by Major General March, acting chief of staff. General March branded the reports as "incredible falsehoods."

He said no American fighting men, either aviators or of any other arm, ever had registered as ambulance or other non-combatant troops.

The German statements were contained in Wolff Bureau telegrams published in Holland saying that patients captured by the Germans, on American aviators shot down behind the German lines proved conclusively that American airmen were carried to France on hospital ships. The denial by General March supplements denials by British officials.

TAR AND FEATHER PARTY IS GIVEN TO ELECTRA MAN

GREEK CANDY KITCHEN PROPRIETOR STEADFASTLY REFUSES TO BUY BOND

WOULD NOT KISS FLAG

Place of Business is Closed Following Incident, But Another Citizen, When Visited

After the Liberty Loan committee at Electra had urged and pleaded with George Geanopolis, proprietor of a candy kitchen there, to buy a Liberty Bond and had met with steadfast refusal on the part of Geanopolis to buy a bond or to express the loyal sentiments which were urged upon him, a crowd of 200 citizens, comprising the leading business men of Electra, Saturday morning took him from his store, smeared a coat of tar and feathers upon him and marched him through the main business street to the shop where they released him after a motion picture of the scene had been taken.

Coating Applied.
The coating of tar, it is said, was applied to Geanopolis on the high school grounds. After reaching the religious sect in which an attempt was again asked to subscribe for a bond which he refused to do saying, it is reported, that his God would not permit him to do so. He was thereupon asked to salute an American flag which was unfurled before him. He refused also to do this. His coat and shirt were then taken off and a coat of warm tar spread over the upper part of his body into this feathers were stuck and in his attire he was led through the principal street of the city while hundreds looked on.

It is said that everything was in readiness to administer a coat of tar and feathers to another Electra citizen who had refused to buy a Liberty Bond, but when the Liberty Loan committee waited on him after the tarring and feathering incident he was ready to subscribe for a bond.

It is alleged that Geanopolis had refused not only to buy a Liberty Bond, but had also declined to buy thrift stamps, contribute to the Red Cross or other war activities.

It was announced at Electra yesterday that copies of the motion picture would be sold and that the proceeds would be donated to the Red Cross.

Wife Distributed Pamphlet.
On Friday the attention of the Wichita County Defense organization was called to the fact that Mrs. Geanopolis was distributing copies of the "Kingdom News," a publication of a religious sect in which an attempt was made to justify the "Finished Mystery," a pamphlet which the federal government has ordered suppressed.

It is said to have expressed approval of certain alleged libelous paragraphs in the "Finished Mystery." Early Saturday morning a complaint charging disloyalty had been filed here against Geanopolis and Sheriff Hawkins was preparing to go to Electra to arrest him when the report was received that he had been tarred and feathered.

received that he had been tarred and feathered. Geanopolis' shop was closed Saturday afternoon as it was not known whether or not he would attempt to re-open it.

Thirty Miles of Road In County Graded In Week Just Closed

Thirty miles of Wichita county's road system had been graded Saturday and good progress was being made everywhere. The grading work done included seven miles on the Wichita Falls-Parkburn road, five and a half miles on the Iowa Park-Clara road, six and a half miles on the Iowa Park-Electra road, two and a half miles on the Iowa Park-Holliday road and six miles on the Wichita Falls-Charlie road.

The concrete gang which has been working on the Charlie road is now putting in a bridge over Bear Creek. Several more grading outfits and probably one or two more concrete outfits expect to start work within the next week or ten days.

GOSSETT AWARDED $4,000 DAMAGES BY FEDERAL JURY

Damages in the sum of $4,000 were awarded H. O. Gossett by a jury in federal court Saturday afternoon. Gossett was awarded damages for personal injuries received when the plaintiff was thrown from Waggoner's car on the road between Wichita Falls and Vernon in October, 1917. Gossett alleged that the injuries sustained to his right shoulder were of a permanent nature, causing paralysis of his entire arm.

The case had been on trial since Thursday afternoon. Testimony was completed Friday afternoon and the argument finished at noon Saturday. The jury returned its verdict about 3 o'clock. Weeks of work of this city represented the plaintiff and J. W. Kearby of Fort Worth the defendant.

This case completed the law docket for this term of court, three other cases having been continued or otherwise disposed of.

LORD MAYOR OF DUBLIN NOT TO VISIT WASHINGTON

London, April 27.—The lord mayor of Dublin, the Mail says, has abandoned his proposed visit to Washington.

It was announced several days ago that the lord mayor of Dublin as the representative of Irish bodies opposed to Irish conscription would come to the United States to lay his case before the American government.

A. S. Fonville of the Fonville Optical Co. returned Saturday morning from Dallas where he has been attending the Texas Optical Association held there on last Thursday and Friday. He reports a very pleasant as well as an educative trip.

REAL ESTATE IS ACTIVE DESPITE CLOSE OF SALOONS

SEVERAL SALES ARE MADE BY DEALERS DURING WEEK, IT IS ANNOUNCED

Wichita Falls real estate men are optimistic over the business outlook in view of the fact that in spite of the closing of the saloons in the city within the last ten days there has been no depression noticeable in any line of business and real estate has been active.

"Values have not been touched," was the remark of one dealer yesterday. "If anything, property is worth more in the city today than it was last week. There are numerous people from the rural districts who are planning to purchase homes in the city in order that their children may have the advantages of the city schools. These people would not have considered Wichita Falls under the old saloon regime."

Among the sales which are reported for the past week is that of a cottage on Seventh owned by Mrs. L. C. Hinckley and sold through Knight and Crawford to R. E. Redin for a consideration of $2,500.

J. C. Johns, formerly in the saloon business here has purchased a cottage on Ninth street for $1,000 cash and is said also to have bought a farm near the city for $1,000 cash.

NATIONAL GUARD QUOTA IS RAISED FOR THIS COUNTY

WHIRLWIND FINISH TO RECRUITING CAMPAIGN REPORTED SATURDAY

OTHERS MAY BE TAKEN

Many Already Secured May be Disqualified and Others May be Enrolled Still

Recruiting parties of Wichita Falls officers in the new guard, working from the city in all directions on Saturday, reported success in their undertaking to the local recruiting headquarters by phone, so that it was ascertained that this county and section had raised its minimum quota by Saturday evening, as had been requested by Colonel W. A. Miller, Lieutenant Colonel Orville Dighton and Captain John Davenport left early Saturday morning for Vernon and also visited Harrell, Oklahoma and Iowa Park on the way they were expected to be out over Sunday.

Open Recruiting Offices
Major Smoot and Captain Napier went to Seymour and Captain E. L. Smith and Messrs. Shepherd and Mack went to Burk Burnett Saturday afternoon for the purpose of opening recruiting offices and enlisting men. Recruiting will be continued, even though the quota is raised as it is desired to have extra men on hand in the event any are physically disqualified. Any one interested may gain all desired information from Mayor Marlow, Louis Nussbaum or the draft board, or any of the new officers.

Recruits at Rally
A few recruits were secured at the rally held Friday night in front of the First National Bank when Captain Coo, Canadian officer here in the interests of the Third Liberty Loan, Judge Kay, Mayor Marlow, Judge Scurry, Tom B. Taylor and Private Emold from Call Field spoke. The weather prevented a very large crowd from being in attendance, but the talks made were very good and enthusiastically received by the crowd. Recruits came in well Saturday morning and afternoon and practically every man who has signed up has in turn become a recruiting agent, signing up his friends. There were more than 160 recruits reported signed up shortly after noon on Saturday.

REPORTS ARMENIANS ARE BEING PUT TO DEATH

By Associated Press.
Paris, April 27.—Ehros Nubar Pasha, president of the Armenian National delegation, who is now in Paris, said today that he had received news from Armenia, confirming the recent reports that Turkey was taking methodical measures to annihilate the race in every locality which the Turks have reconquered. All Armenians are being put to death, he stated, and unless it is possible to intervene at an early date the Armenian race may be exterminated.

ARAB FORCES PURSUE TURKS NEAR DEAD SEA

By Associated Press.
London, April 27.—Arab forces pursuing the Turks, have captured a portion of the Hedjaz Railway at a point 125 miles southeast of the Dead Sea, according to an official statement issued here today.

Cotton Production Must Be Profitable, Gist of Resolution

By Associated Press.
Washington, April 27.—Declaration that "it is the sense of the house that any legislation that makes cotton production unprofitable and therefore uncertain and doubtful, is unwise and dangerous," is made in a resolution adopted today by Representative Heflin of Alabama. The resolution carries a preamble stating that boll weevil and fertilizer prices have increased cotton production cost, that cotton production in India, Egypt and Russia has been practically abandoned to produce food supplies, and that the question confronting congress and the country is whether the United States will produce enough cotton for domestic uses, war purposes and for the Allies.

SOUTHERN OIL ASSOCIATION WILL ERECT LARGE PLANT

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Tex., April 27.—The Southern Oil Refining Association will erect a plant in Fort Worth at once, it was announced today. It will be built on the unit plan, starting with only a 1,000 barrel capacity.

WEEKLY GRAIN AND PROVISIONS MARKET

Chicago, April 27.—Sudden impairment of prospects for a huge crop of corn has been largely responsible for a swift ascent this week in the value of the cereal. Compared with a week ago the market this morning showed returns ranging from 1/2 cents to 9/8 cents. Oats gained 1/8 to 1/4 cents. Provisions were off 10 cents to 67 cents. Bullish statements regarding the corn yield did not find expression until day of adverse weather had delayed reasonable farm work. Finally government announced that planting in the chief sections of the belt had been seriously interfered with by low temperatures and continued rains was followed by authoritative assertions that shortage of seed corn also was arousing apprehension. Advertisers in oats were checked by signs that the domestic trade east was temporarily overloaded and by predictions that the 1918 oats acreage would be the largest on record. Increased packing in the west together with lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW

New York, April 27.—Apart from the activity and strength of low priced specialties, this week's stock market recorded no essential changes. Trading was once more held in check by the renewal of fighting on the western front and representatives issues moved within narrow areas. Inquiries for war stocks such as silk, fertilizer, tobacco and minor equipments emanated from pools for the most part, some of those shares gaining 2 to 5 points, largely at the expense of the short interest. United States steel fluctuated within a 2 point radius and rails were under slight but steady pressure.

Notice to Property Owners
We will close our books this week and wish to urge all property owners who have not made their renditions to call at the tax assessors office at the city hall at once and do so this week. We have tried to see everyone but there are doubtless a number we have missed and it is important that they make their renditions. T. F. RAGSDALE, County Tax Assessor. H. F. ROBERTSON, City Tax Assessor.

SAN ANTONIO'S QUOTA NOW OVER SUBSCRIBED
San Antonio, Tex., April 27.—San Antonio's third Liberty loan quota was reported over subscribed at the noon luncheon of workers today. A total of $4,922,400 was reported with several large subscriptions yet to be made. The city and county's quota was $3,933,000.

"Anti-Emperor" Party Is Reported Formed By Austrian Leaders

By Associated Press.
The Hague, April 27.—The formation in Vienna of an "anti-Emperor Charles party" composed of persons prominent in court circles is reported in a dispatch to the Tageblatt of Berlin. The members are parties of nobility. The chief argument of the promoters of this movement, the dispatch says is that Emperor Charles is under the influence of Empress Zita, who has failed to grasp the Austrian point of view in regard to high state affairs.

Reserve Bank Statement.
Washington, April 27.—Increase of $94,000,000 in bills discounted and a slight decrease in holdings Liberty Bonds and certificates of indebtedness is indicated in this week's federal board financial statement. # At the Theatres

MONROE SALISBURY AT THE GEM TUESDAY

"The Red, Red Heart" with Monroe Salisbury starred, will be the attraction at the Gem Tuesday. A synopsis follows:

Rhoda Tuttle, a lovely young girl from the East, has been brought by her fiancé, John De Witt, to Arizona to regain her health and nerve which had been shattered by the tragic death of her father and mother in a railroad wreck. She had lost all interest in life. Jack Newman and his wife Katherine made life as pleasant for her as possible, but no amount of devotion seemed to cheer her. On a big irrigation project Newman had employed as chief engineer a full blooded Indian, with a Yale education named Kut Le, half Apache and half Pueblo. He was the chief's son and the leader of his people. He alone could do anything with the Indian workmen. Kut Le took an immediate interest in the melancholy white girl and saved her life by sucking the poison out of a scorpion bite which she had received. Then he told her that the only remedy for her melancholy was the great desert. De Witt and Billy Porter, a Western friend, were both extremely suspicious of the Indian, but he persevered. Realizing that the only way to cure Rhoda was to permit her to fight for her freedom, but suffering no injury and no discomfort. The proximity drew the two very closely together, but Rhoda would not permit herself to love the Indian. When the pursuit finally overtook them, Kut Le in self defense conquered both De Witt and Porter and then voluntarily gave the girl back to them. They treacherously endeavored to shoot Kut Le from behind and this unscrupulous conduct determined Rhoda to give her life which he saved and the suit which his magic desert had brought back to her, to her Indian lover.

Preparatory to starting in next Saturday, May 4, to raise a $45,000 asked of Wichita county for the 1918 Red Cross war fund, W. D. Cline, county campaign manager, has appointed his assistants in the work. Frank Collier is to take charge of the publicity, P. B. Cox, of the speakers bureau and A. E. Murdock will act as treasurer. Dates will be arranged later in the week for meetings to be held at various points throughout the county. The Red Cross campaign will wait until the Liberty Loan is safely over, so no active work has been done to wards starting the campaign locally, other than appointing the committee. The plan of campaign will be similar to that followed in 1917. Mr. Cline announces. The first two weeks will be devoted to an educational campaign and the funds will not be collected until the week of May 20 to 27. Arrangements are being made whereby the subscriptions may be made as in the previous campaign, and banks will advance the cash on the subscriptions, so that all pledges may be paid in full to the national treasurer at the close of the campaign.

PEDEN ENCOURAGES BUILDING OF SWEET POTATO WAREHOUSES ALL OVER STATE

The sweet potato is destined to become the leading staple food crop in Texas and the Federal Food Administration for Texas is anxious and eager to assist in the ready marketing and the profitable storing of this perishable product.

Notwithstanding the great variety of soil and climate the sweet potato is admirably adapted to Texas. For the coming year the administration would like to have adopted generally the slogan:

"More sweet potatoes and more sweet potato warehouses."

This will mean more food for Texas and a release of cars for the government. It will also mean a greater circulation of money at a time when the farmer needs it most. This may easily be done by putting a larger acreage into sweet potatoes, by adopting uniform and standard varieties, especially those which are known to be good keepers and by erecting more warehouses.

Would Make Decision.
"Let us decide once and for all," says Administrator Peden, "that the day of keeping sweet potatoes in mounds in the fields is long gone. This method may be O. K. where a few bushels are stored away, however, where two or more acres are grown a curing house must be built if we are to conserve every sweet potato grown and to make it possible for every housewife to use the sweet potato as part of her family diet."

It is not necessary to describe methods of building sweet potato warehouses. All that is necessary is to decide whether we are to build warehouses. The division of plant pathology and physiology of the Texas experiment station, in cooperation with the marketing department of the A. & M. College extension service are in a position to be of great assistance to the prospective builder of sweet potato warehouses. For details of construction drop a postal to Director B. Youngblood, College Station, Texas.

"Let it be remembered that storing sweet potatoes requires no special secrets or academic learning. The secret of keeping sweet potatoes largely depends in the house which must be built according to directions. The remainder is but a personal knowledge of the sweet potato, common sense and certain directions that must be carried out faithfully, and which are as follows:

Digging Sweet Potatoes.

"1. In digging sweet potatoes avoid bruising and rough handling. Injured potatoes cannot keep and also help rot the sound ones.

"2. Before hauling all potatoes should be carefully graded in the field, and only sound ones should be allowed room in the storage house.

"3. Frosted potatoes should not be stored but should be sold or consumed at once.

"4. During curing or sweating, the temperature should be maintained at about 80 degrees Fahrenheit for about three weeks, and at the same time every possible means should be employed to carry out the moisture given off by the sweet potatoes. This may be accomplished by numerous windows and doors in the house.

"5. After curing the temperature of the house should never be allowed to go down below 5 degrees to 10 degrees Fahrenheit.

"6. Sweet potatoes in storage sweat all the time, consequently the secret of a good keep consists in the elimination of the excess accumulation of moisture.

"7. The sweet potato house requires constant watching and attendance during the entire storage season. On a large scale a man should be employed by the year and not during the current season only.

"8. Potatoes often freeze in the heat of houses if we fail to maintain a small fire, especially during sudden cold spells of the winter months.

"9. Sweet potato houses should be kept free from mice and rats. The latter open the way to numerous rots in storage.

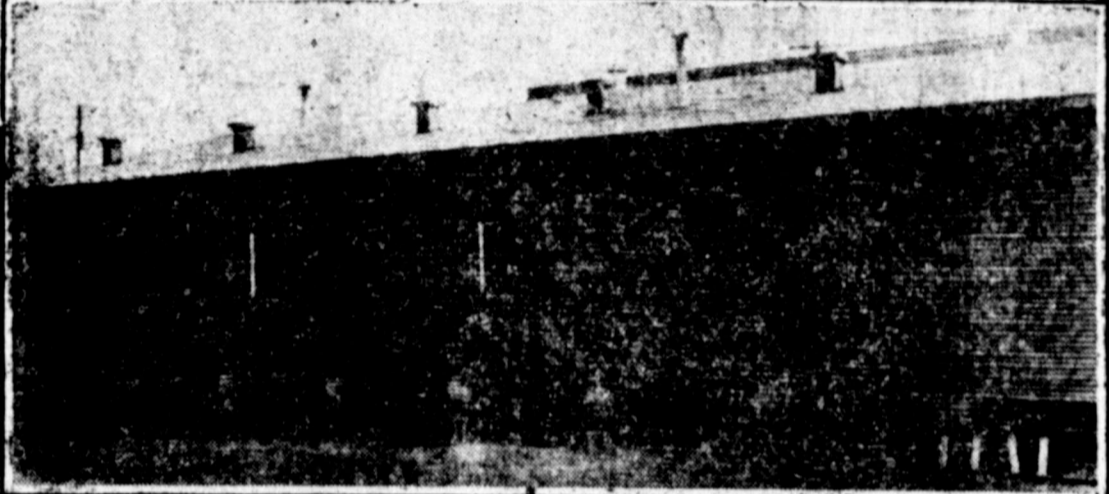

"10. After filling the potato house, it should be disturbed as little as possible. Bins or hampers should only be opened when ready to ship.

"11. It should be remembered that if sweet potatoes are well cared for, they will also ship better, thereby reaching the consumer in the best of condition. It is to the consumer that we must cater.

"12. It should be remembered that sweet potato warehouses are but means of insuring the grower greater profits from his crop."

REVENUE DECREASE IS FACED BY CITY ADMINISTRATION

The new city administration is faced with a $25,000 decrease in revenues as a result of prohibition becoming effective here, and in making up the budget for the year this fact is being taken into consideration. Between six and eight thousand dollars of this amount results from the loss of license money, probably ten thousand dollars loss in revenue from fines and the remainder from taxes on liquor stocks.

The revenue from fines under prohibition will be practically nothing if the record that has been made so far is maintained.

There will be some compensations for the loss in revenue as it is likely the police force can be reduced and very little will be paid out for the feed of prisoners and the care of the jail.

Conquest of Huns Not To Be Supported By Austrian Lines

By Associated Press.
London, April 27.—"One thing is certain," says the Arbeiter Zeitung of Vienna, as quoted in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from The Hague. "We are not going to allow Austrian blood to be shed, either now or later on, to retain German conquests."

This statement is made in a criticism of Germany in the decision of virtual annexation of the Russian border states of Estonia and Lithuania. The papers also ask whether the treaty concluded with Russia at Brest-Litovsk is still valid and adds: "Germany's action will have to be paid for with another war as soon as Russia is strong enough. This of course is entirely Germany's business."

ONLY FEW CARS ARE SOLD HERE DURING PAST WEEK

DULL BUSINESS IS REPORTED BY PRACTICALLY ALL LOCAL DEALERS

Only a few new cars were sold to residents of Wichita Falls during the past week and the sales to people of the surrounding towns were unusually small. Second hand sales perhaps equalled the sales of new cars. Dealers report some difficulty in obtaining new cars both because of shortage of output and transportation troubles, although a number of shipments were received by local dealers this week. Reports from a few agencies were unavailable this week, but the average points to a general decrease in exchanges throughout the various agencies. The list of sales reported follows:

Beatrod Auto Company: S. S. Bell, Crown, truck; H. C. Stout, Iowa Park, truck; R. P. Hamric, Iowa Park, Maxwell touring car; M. O'Rourke, Maxwell touring car; A. Drake, Iowa Park, Maxwell touring car.
McFall and Orth: J. B. Holcomb, South Bend, touring car; H. White, Burk Burnett, touring car.
Overland Sales Company: (Retail) Eubank and White, Acme truck; E. B. Corrine, one car; (wholesale) four at Frederick, two at Hastings, six at Bowie.
Victory Motor Company: B. N. Carden, Dart, J. W. Lovell, Reo; W. H. Harkins, Reo roadster; Chenault and Wheat: Three second hand sales.
Lexington Car Company: C. D. Shanburger, T. S. Rasgado, Chummy, Sergeant Major Burgess, five passenger, one second hand sale.
Nash Auto Company: J. P. Parr, Bowie (wholesale); O. B. Hines, five passenger, two second hand sales.

DENTIST USES COCAINE AND SLEDGE HAMMER ON JULIE'S JAW

They shot Julie's jaw smack full of cocaine and filled her teeth for twenty-two minutes. All the other elephants in the New York Hippodrome stood apart with tears in their eyes. Poor Julie. She just flopped her awkward self down there beside the stage, and while the motion picture machine men watched Dr. J. M. Potter hammer away at her quite numb mouth she moaned something dreadful. They didn't use gold, because there isn't that much of it in circulation now. They used a sledge hammer instead of the pleasant little nickel plated instrument they use to tap down an ordinary human filling. They put an iron wedge in her mouth to keep it open, and they poured cocaine into a funnel and let it soak in.

VEGETABLES GROWING BECOMES POPULAR AMONG LONDONERS

London, Feb. 28.—The food situation here has given tremendous impetus to the growing of vegetables in back yards, vacant lots and allotments. This week the first national convention of allotment holders is being held and interesting facts have come out. A London organization of 517 members that started work at the beginning of last year, raised foodstuffs to the value of 20,000 pounds on land that had formerly been reserved for glass pipes; pottery made at the time of the Roman occupation of Britain is being found; the lucky prize went to a Kotherham gardener who dug up a glass jar containing Bank of England notes worth $550 pounds.

WICHITA HOUSEWIFE BECOMES NEW WOMAN

"All of our best doctors had given me up. I was unable to leave my bed for 15 weeks and was yellow as a pumpkin. Besides the terrible stomach pains I suffered. Our druggist advised my husband to try May's Wonderful Remedy and it has saved my life. I am a new woman now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Mack Taylor's Drug Store—Adv.

COPPAGE TAKES CHARGE OF ARMY TRAFFIC

Fort Worth, Tex., April 27.—T. Coppage, vice president and general superintendent of the Frisco Lines in Texas, has taken charge of the army traffic at Fort Worth, succeeding J. W. Everman, who has become general superintendent of the Union Terminals in Dallas. Coppage was elected at a meeting of the railroad general managers Friday afternoon. His successor on the Frisco has not been named.

WOMEN DO WORK

Women are naturally playing a large part in this work of saving tonnage—for the more vegetables grown here the less meat and wheat will have to come from overseas. It is a common sight to see a wounded soldier home on leave, sitting smoking a pipe and watching his wife at work on the soil or doing the lighter chores for her. The allotment work is done in spare time by women who are not free to go as farm hands, as 10,000 have gone in the county of Kent alone, or are not strong enough to go in for such strenuous work as that reported of a Welsh girl of 17 who has ploughed and planted 25 acres single handed.

The German Heel Under the Pillage and Loot

By Brand Whitlock

Pillage and Loot

The story of Louvain will not be fully written in all its details of individual suffering until liberty comes to the earth again. Those who know it best are still "inside" as the Belgians call their prison. And people "inside" do not lightly give testimony or write their experiences and impressions, even in private diaries. For the Dupriex learned that. But from time to time a corner of the dark veil was lifted, and we had glimpses of the vast and appalling tragedy which was enacted by those sinister figures in lurid grey, with torch and axe and gun there amid the rolling smoke and the infernal glare.

The world already knows the story in its essentials; the truth, with its divine persistence, is never deterred by prisons, or bayonets, or even by electrified barbed wire. The Belgian. Strange that autocracy never learns! So the story that I could construct out of all those impressions, those glimpses and those scraps of news, of all sorts of people, the rich and the poor, the high and the lowly, the haute bourgeoisie, men of note in the community, educators, doctors, priests, officials, men of serious and orderly minds, accustomed to weighing evidence, will not be new; it will resume what already in the main has been told.

The Belgians were in retreat, falling back on Antwerp but fighting as they went, "contests" with Belgian stubbornness every step of the way. The German army had entered Louvain in force on the afternoon of Wednesday the 15th of August. Hostages were seized among the notables of the city, the Burgomestre, the Mayor, the University, the Provincial Councillor, judges, aldermen, etc. An affiche was at once placarded announcing that "in case a single arm of the town should be in what house, or any act of hostility be committed on our troops, our transports, our telegraph lines, our railway or if any one harbors traitors, or is culpable and the hostages who are arrested in each village will be shot without pity. Besides, all the inhabitants of the villages in question will be driven out; the villages and even cities will be demolished and burned. If this happens on the route of communication between two villages, the same methods will be applied to the inhabitants of both."

This sinister poster bore no date, no signature, no writer's name, it had evidently been printed in Germany in advance; forming part of the equipment of the army, as a circus carries bills and bill posters. It seemed like a stationery order, with the same words and fowling pieces had been turned in at the Hotel de Ville in response to the Burgomestre's appeal.

The troops of course were quartered on the inhabitants, with the usual incidents; three soldiers raped a girl of fifteen, and—what happened generally all over Belgium whenever German soldiers were quartered in houses of delicacy or refinement—wardrobes were broken, drawers emptied out on the floor, the dainty lingerie soiled with filthy and unclean hands.

The cash boxes of at least two banks were rifled, though it is said this money was later restored by the German authorities. Some stores of goods to have been fired by German soldiers, who went into shops and "requisitioned" for their personal needs, giving in return bonds of requisition—"to be paid for by the city of Louvain," or "to be paid for by the Belgian government," or some, with lugubrious intimation, "good to be shot"—in German which the Louvainist shopkeeper could not read.

All the felons of German nationality had been released from the prisons; there were already in Louvain many age vagrants following the army. On Monday, the 24th, the German wounded had been evacuated from Louvain, and the evening there, the most desolatory shots in the Chaussee de Tirlemont and the rue de la Station, the route along which von Kluck's army day after day was pushing on toward the west.

However, things went well enough for the time, and the Louvainist could make a little moue, shrug his shoulders and observe, "C'est la guerre!" ("This is war!")

Shots in the Rue de Tirlemont

Then came Tuesday, the 25th, a sinister date in the annals of Louvain. An order was issued commanding all the inhabitants to be indoors at eight o'clock in the evening, and that all cafes and places where the windows doors were to be left unlocked and lights were to burn in the windows. All that afternoon heavy detachments of troops were arriving at the railway station; they were quartered on the inhabitants; the hotels about the Place de la Station were filled with officers. Late in the afternoon the sound of cannonading was heard from the west, in the direction of the village of Herent.

That afternoon the Belgian army made a sortie from the defenses of Antwerp; there had been a sharp fight at Milsens and the Belgians had had the better of it, driving the Germans out of Malines and back along the road toward Louvain. It was the noise of this battle that Louvain heard that afternoon from the direction of Herent. At seven o'clock that evening Herent was in flames. The Germans retiring on Louvain had reached the Porte de Malines; night was falling and German reinforcements, just then leaving Louvain, met them, and there in the twilight the two parties, each mistaking the other for Belgians, opened fire. There was instant panic, the usual cry "Man hat geschossen!" soldiers and horses and terror-stricken civilians streamed into the town and then, and in that manner, the awful tragedy began. The officers of the staff were dining, and those who know something of the Belgian cuisine—before the war—and of the place their famous old Burgundy holds in the estimation of the people, can here have shown with two daughters. I must go immediately and I should say nothing to you, but you have shown me a great deal of humanity, and so, confidentially, I warn you that if this night you hear in the city a rifle or gun shot, take refuge at once in the cellars, for it is going to be terrible."

The officer went, and the woman ran out, warned her neighbors, hurried home against the indoors by eight o'clock. The town was still; the streets deserted, the doors closed; no one was abroad. The order had been well obeyed.

At five minutes after eight the woman heard shots, fired in the rue de Tirlemont. Others heard shots at about the same time at other parts of the city. The first thought of the inhabitants was one that ran through the town with a thrill of joy; they thought it meant deliverance; that the English and the French had come. And then all over the city the soldiers began firing wildly at the facades of the closed houses; the people ran to their cellars in terror, the great in the streets turned the people into the street, shot them down, set fire to the houses. There were riderless horses galloping about, a mad, a blind, demonic rage seemed to have laid hold on the Germans, and they went through the streets, killing, slaying, burning and looting, torturing and massacring, and for three terrible days the vast and awful tragedy was enacted, with such scenes as appal the imagination.

It was not only in the rue de Tirlemont, as the woman said, that the fusillade began but by a significant coincidence, other fusillades broke out simultaneously at various points in the city, at the Porte de Bruxelles, in the rue Leopold, in the rue Marie Terese and in the rue des Joveux Entres. In the Place de la Station, filled with troops just detained and crowded with army wagons, there was a panic; the soldiers began shooting right and left, doubtless wounding many of their own. The Place de la Station is the Square before the railway station and around it on three sides are hotels and cafes. These hotels, from the day of the entry of the Germans into Louvain had been occupied by officers and soldiers. They had been ransacked time and again from cellar to garret, to see that no one was in hiding, and that there were no arms. The German officers took their money freely. The echauffuree (skirmish) in the Place de la Station was the most intense of all that suddenly broke out that evening, and there was another in the Place du Peuple, the quietest, most aristocratic square in the city, where German troops were waiting under the thick foliage of the chestnut trees. The madness spread to the rue de Diest, and finally to the Grand Place. The grey soldiers were running everywhere, firing right and left at random, through the streets that were so strangely illuminated for their own destruction. On the order of their chiefs they set fire to the houses, spraying the streets with inflammable liquid the apparatus thus they had for that purpose, lighting and flinging in their incendiary pastels, breaking in windows with the butts of their rifles, that a draught might be provided for the flames. The inmates of the houses thus doomed ran out only to be shot down at their own doors, or took refuge in their cellars to be burned to death and buried beneath the ruins of their homes. Men trying to escape over the roofs were fired at by the soldiers; the women, their babies in their arms, hugging the walls, tried to reach some place of safety.

The Library Doomed

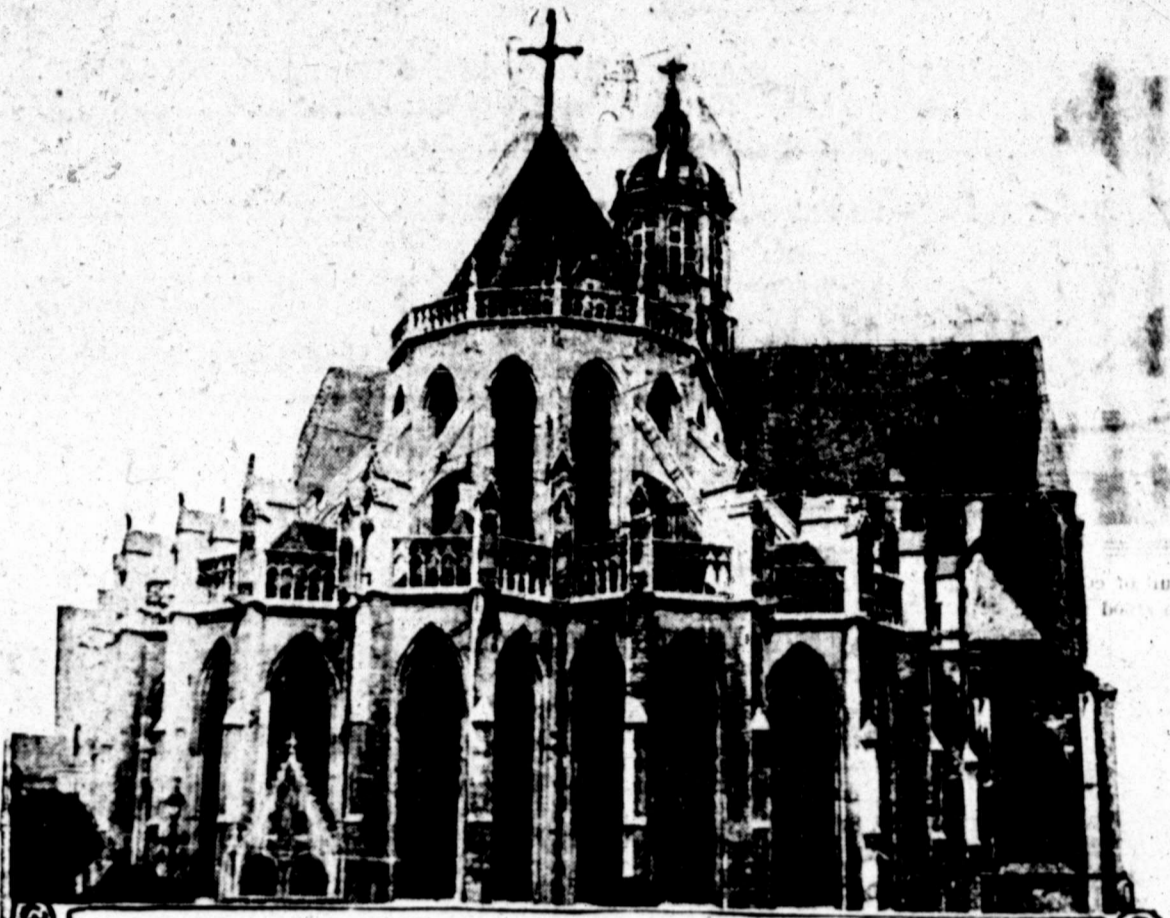

The Halls of the Clothworkers as the Cloth Hall (Halle aux Draps) which, in 1431 became the principal seat of the University, had come to be devoted almost exclusively to the libraries of the University. Therein were stored incomparable riches, more than 250,000 volumes, besides 750 manuscripts, dating from the Middle Ages and perhaps the finest collection of incunabula extant—more than a thousand of them. The whole library, with all its riches was deliberately and systematically burned; only the naked walls of the old Hall could resist the fury of the flames. No wonder, then, that the old scholar broke down and wept.

The ancient Caecilia of St. Peter was set on fire. The flames of the bookcase lit up the sky; the glare could be seen at Tervuren, fifteen kilometers away.

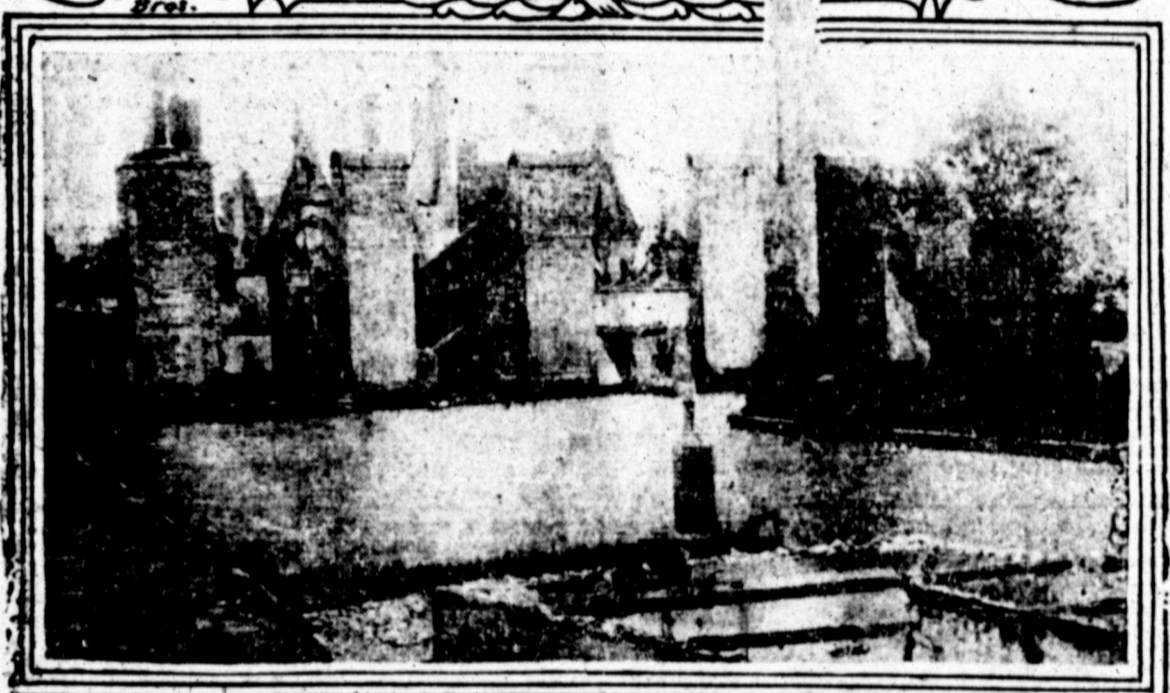

Early in the evening the Reverend Father Parys, a Dominican, Dr. Meulmans and the doctor, Dr. Coninx, had gone to the Hotel de Ville to ask for permits to go about the city during the night for the service of the Dominicans and the Jesuits in the rue Juste-Lipse. Major von Montouffet, who was in command, was about to make out the passports when the firing began. Von Montouffet at once ordered their arrest as hostages, as well as that of Alderman Schmidt. Out of the score or more hostages held by the Germans, two or more were selected each day and the others, provisionally, for that day, released, so that they took turns in serving. The two wretched hostages for the day were M. de Coninx, a doctor, and M. Maes. They were, of course, already in the Hotel de Ville. These six hostages then were made to stand in the open windows, with their backs to the streets, so that they would be the first to be shot if any balls were fired into the hall.

Later General von Boehen arrived from the front and through an interpreter harangued the hostages, telling them that if the shooting continued they would all be hanged, the city bombarded and forced to pay a levy of twenty million francs. Finally Montouffet ordered to proclaim this menace to the people, to exhort them to be calm and to cease firing, on the ground that the Germans were accompanied by von Montouffet and a platoon of soldiers, on their ungrateful and impossible mission.

Monsieur Coninx was a man over sixty and already aged by toll and constant study; broken by emotion and by the horrors "I were going on about him, he was forced by the score of soldiers who surrounded him, and by the two officers who cocked their revolvers always at his head, to retreat through the streets, followed by women and children who had known and revered him all their lives. Hitting their hands, weeping, saying, swearing to him that they would do all they could to save him and the town. His voice was choked with smoke and dust he was ready in that hour after hour he must march about the deified Vice Rector of the old University, with the Domestic—... and at every street corner and recite the proclamation. In French and in Flemish—as though he had already judged his fellow citizens. As though he were imploring his own to desist from crimes of which they were only the victims.

Near the statue of Juste-Lipse, there in the rue de la Station, there appeared a figure that fits across the scene of Louvain tragedy like some actor in the cinema. Dr. George Bergmann, a young surgeon in the land-sturm. He came running in wild excitement, and as he met the company of hostages, he cried out that a German soldier had just been killed by a shot fired from the residence of David Fishback, and he shouted to the soldiers: "The blood of the entire population of Louvain is not worth a drop of the blood of one German soldier!"

They went on one man says that one of the German soldiers threw an inflammable paste into the house of Mr. Fishback, and that it flared into flames; I do not know. But a moment later, there at the foot of the statue of Juste-Lipse, lay the body of David Fishback, an old man of eighty-two, beside that of his son. The old coachman, Joseph Vandermosten, had entered the house to try to save the life of his master, but he did not return. His body was found the next day amidst the ruins.

Nearly three hundred persons were gathered in the Place de la Station; "most were weeping." In the midst of this inferno, amid the roar and glare of flames, with the cracking of rifle shots, the steady cluck-cluck-stuck of machine guns, making a noise like a riveter, and that most hideous of all sounds the undulations of a moloch, dominating all the rest, the massacre and the incendiarism; went on.

It continued all through the night; toward morning the great tower of St. Peter's Church burst into flames, but the soldiers would not allow the people to enter the church to save it. The great bell fell with a crash. And dawn came, and another day, but the horror went on.

It was Wednesday morning, the 26th German soldiers, drunk, black with the soot of their incendiarism, were going through the streets and burning into houses, crying "Craus!" turning the covering inmates into the streets, with such blows and brutalities as made the experience of that day a calvary. Often in these irruptions, obsessed by the idea of franc-tireurs (irregular sharpshooters), they would shoot "Man hat geschossen!" The people were thus assembled in tragic groups between the tottering walls of burning houses; marched through choking, suffocating streets that were strewn with the dead bodies of men and of horses, the women and children weeping, screaming, imploring, and the soldiers compelling them to kneel, or to run or kicking them or striking them with their fists, or with the butts of their guns, herding them through the streets, in the midst of the smoking ruins, while other soldiers with wine bottles under their arms, went reeling past crying out at the captives: "Hund Schwein!" Schwein!

Now and then the soldiers would tell the people that the place of execution had been reached; then they would change their minds and seek another place, a species of torture that was practiced all over Belgium. And now, and then German soldiers would fire at them from the upper windows of the houses which they were sacking.

Finally, however, after having seen marched all over town one group was marched to Herent and back—they were assembled in the Place de la Station, 62 men and old women and young women and little children; they were bound hand and foot, then tied up in a great human packet, by a long rope, in the midst of the smoking ruins. There were by evening more than a thousand persons huddled there in the Square. A drizzling rain was falling, soaking them to the skin. They had nothing to eat or drink. Now and then a man would be shot; often the soldiers would lead some one off and a soldier would be fired at; they would see the Square would be told that he had been killed and that a like fate awaited them. One man, bound round and round by cords, was struck by an officer several times, knocked down, made to stand, then knocked down again; he was hung by the waist to a lamp post; finally, after all this torture, he was hung by the neck.

The young able woman mentioned before had been given a safe conduct to leave the city, and, on Thursday morning had gone along the "Chaussee d'Aerschot as far as Rotselaar; there she encountered a group of soldiers, who refused to look at his papers, but arrested him and took him back to Louvain with other prisoners, and finally, toward evening, to the Place de la Station. There his hands were tied behind his back and he was fastened to the other persons by barbed wire, and made to stand all night, not allowed even to turn against the wall. The soldiers would lead out from time to time some one and shoot him. They witnessed many executions and heard wailing, which, as they assumed, was many more. Toward morning they saw a priest shot, and were told then that their time had come. The young able pronounced a collective absolution for all those about him—Ego vos absolvo a peccatis vestris. Ie nomine—(I absolve you from your sins. Go in the name...)

But no, soon after his hands were loosened; he was allowed to go into the waiting room of the station, where he was held until Saturday, and then a German sergeant took pity on him and told him he could go.

And so for another day and another night the madness went on, the murder, the looting, the sacking, the riot and the burning; and the lust; with soldiers pillaging the houses, bearing the wine in great baskets out of the cellars, to be guzzled in the street, while men and women and children were shot down and their bodies left to lie in gutters or on the smoking ruins, or thrown into foul cesspools.

FLY OLD MACHINES TO ENGLAND

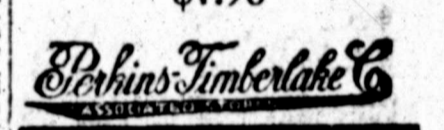

(By Reciprocal News Service)

London, April 27.—War airplanes are practically out-of-date in four months, as rapid are the developments in design to save shipping space most of the British machines are flown across the Channel to the aerodromes where they are rebuilt or refitted.

Aviators in the R. F. C. who notified that they have been granted a leave period, ask to be allowed to pilot one of the discarded machines to England. Ordinarily these requests are granted and the men reach London without losing a day of their leave in train and ship travel.

"And we miss all the dangers and discomforts of ships and trains, not to mention the ride over that rolling trough, called the English Channel," said one of them today.

COOKE TELLS WHY HE RESIGNED FROM OFFICE WITH CITY

DIFFERED FROM COUNCIL AND PROPERTY OWNERS ON CERTAIN GRADE

In a formal statement, devoid of animus or personalities, M. M. Cooke, former city engineer, gives the reason he tendered his resignation last week to the city council. The resignation was accepted.

His statement, complete follows: Complete Statement. To the Citizens of Wichita Falls: Inasmuch as the office of city engineer is elective, I feel that it is due you a statement of facts in connection with the controversy between certain members of the city council and myself which resulted in my retirement from the office.

The grading of Ninth street, between Lamar and Travis, in preparation for the paving, began before the present city council assumed charge of the city government, and was well under way when an objection to the established grade was raised by one of the adjacent property owners. The party, whose property is situated on the low side of the street, came to me and requested that the grade be lowered in order to make it conform to the natural elevation of his property. I explained to him that in establishing the grade line it was necessary to take into consideration such factors as the difference in elevation in each block, the distance in which it could be attained, the natural slope of the ground to the north and east, elevations and grades of intersecting streets, drainage, etc. that I had obtained all this data, and after careful study worked out what I believed to be the best grade for the street as a whole and with an unbiased attitude toward all the property owners, and to make a change for his accommodation would disarrange the entire plan and therefore did not feel inclined to grant his request.

Bad Place. I was fully aware of the fact that it would be impossible to fix any grade line on this street that would be entirely satisfactory to all property owners because it is a hill side climb for two blocks or more and those on the low side would naturally desire a street level placed at the level of their property, while their neighbors on the other side would contend for the same thing with respect to their property. My object was to equalize or "split the difference" between these adverse contentions as nearly as possible without sacrificing the appearance of the street as a whole and the advantage of an easy continuous ascent through each block. This would also reduce the grading expense all of which is borne by the city. The grade in the first block is about three per cent, in the second block four per cent and in the third block six per cent. It should be plain to anyone that any reduction made in the first block would necessarily increase the grade in one or the other of the next two blocks unless the grades of the intersecting streets are disregarded.

After my refusal to grant the request of the complaining party referred to above, he appeared at the mayor and chairman of the street committee, both of whom investigated the matter and also declined to interfere. By the time the new city council assumed office the grading of the block in question had been completed and was ready for the concrete. The said party then employed an engineer to make a survey and profile, showing a grade line that was satisfactory to him, which was presented to the city council at its first regular meeting on April 11th. The matter was informally discussed at this meeting but no action taken. At the next meeting, April 18th, I stated to the council that the contractor was ready to place the pavement and asked for a definite expression from the board as to the grade.

whereupon it was unanimously voted to make no change in the grade. The next day work was begun setting forms and by noon Monday (April 22) one half block of curb was completed. In the meantime the complaining party had circulated a petition among the property owners on Ninth street asking the city council for a reconsideration of the matter and presented it to the mayor with about twelve signatures, whereupon the mayor called a special session for this purpose. One alderman being absent the vote resulted in a tie, the mayor voting off the tie in favor of changing the grade. The half block of curbing that had been previously placed was cut off about four inches at the upper end and the city forces put back to work lowering the street grade which altogether has cost the city about $200 additional to make the change.

Wont Satisfy All. I believe that the property owners on Ninth street will not all be satisfied with the grade as they have now fixed it; furthermore, I am of the opinion that neither they nor the city council, individually or collectively, are qualified to properly pass judgment on matters of this character.

Had the city council called in a competent, disinterested engineer to pass on my work I should have unhesitatingly abided by his decision even if I could not have agreed with him. When I became city engineer last October by appointment, I found that permanent street grades had been established on very few of the streets of the city and that it was impossible for the city engineer to give property owners the proper elevations for curbs, service pipe lines, etc. in order that such might be laid to conform with the future grade of the street when paved and thus save them the expense and annoyance of having to do such work over again. In order to work out these permanent grades, I have run levels and made profiles of all the streets in the city, aggregating something like 90 or 95 miles. It has taken considerable time and trouble to work up this data, but I realized how essentially necessary it is to have some permanent plan to work to so that all permanent street improvements, which, of necessity are accomplished piece meal, will when completed fit together or harmonize as a whole.

In view of the action taken by the city council, permitting property owners to fix the street grades to suit their individual desires, I feel that my labors of the past in collecting the data upon which to devise a plan for the future have been spent in vain.

In conclusion I wish to state that I cherish no personal ill will or animosity whatever toward those members of the city council who "put it over me."

Very truly yours, M. M. COOKE

Graves of Veterans Are Remembered Upon Decoration Day Here

Friday the 26th was Confederate decoration day and a committee from the membership of the local chapter of the U. D. C., headed by Mrs. M. M. Garney, president of the organization, visited the graves of the wearers of the gray that day, placing green wreaths, and a small confederate flag on each mound. The war has brought an unusual significance to these old customs and although very simple and quiet, Friday's ceremonies were doubly impressive.
