CRUCIAL TEST IN KEMMEL SECTOR IS NOW BEING MADE

THREAT IS MADE UPON PETROGRAD BY TEUTONS

By Associated Press
Washington, April 29.—Germany has demanded of Russia an exchange of prisoners and has threatened to take Petrograd unless the Russian government agree to the terms advanced, the state department here has learned.
The German government, the state department's dispatches say, is sending to Russia a commission of 115 members to present the German demands.
The German demand, as outlined, calls for the immediate release of all German prisoners who are in good health; that those who are ill shall remain in Russia under the care of neutral physicians and that the Germans on their side will release only those Russian prisoners who are incapacitated.

BREST-LITOVSK TREATY REPUUDIATED BY NEW REGIME
By Associated Press
London, April 29.—The newest Russian government in Petrograd according to the Ambassador of Copenhagen, says an Exchange Telegram dispatch, has denounced the Brest-Litovsk treaty with Germany. It calls for a new treaty with Estonia under Russian rule.
The Associated Press dispatch from Stockholm Sunday reporting rumors that former Grand Duke Alexis has been declared emperor of Russia in a counter revolution, added that the new government would refuse to recognize the treaty with Germany. Estonia borders on the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland and extends to the Gulf of Riga to near Petrograd. It has been reported that Emperor William was to become Duke of Estonia and that Estonia was to be closely allied to Germany.

Kaiser Reported To Have Viewed Storming Of Famous Kimmel Hill

By Associated Press
Washington, April 29.—Emperor William watched the battle for Kimmel Hill on April 25 says the correspondent at the front of the Berlin Local Anstizer.
"As early as six o'clock," the correspondent telegraphs, "his majesty posted himself on an advanced field position which gives a view over the range of heights southwest of Ypres and which in early morning light positively shook under the roar of our tremendous gun-fire. This thunderous gun-chatter, the gleam of falling shells in the still misty uplands, the thick line of smoke which lay like dark bars across the horizon—all composed a stupendous picture of a modern battle."
"Every stage of the battle, the advance of the rolling curtain of fire, the storming of the infantry and the ebbing of the fire, could be exactly followed. Gradually the wires brought the first news announcing the success."
"The emperor, who was surrounded by the suite of the commander of one of the armies, personally marked all the results on the maps. He remained absorbed in the contemplation of this picture until the late afternoon. Then returning to headquarters he reviewed two divisions which had especially distinguished themselves."

TREASURY IS NOT PLEASSED RESULT OF BONDS BOUGHT

By Associated Press
Washington, April 29.—Subscriptions received last Friday, Liberty Day, were estimated today at less than $200,000,000 and the treasury in a statement described this figure as disappointing.
"It had been expected," said the statement, "that a much larger amount had been subscribed."
A few new reports today raised the total of the loan at opening of the last week in the campaign to $2,225,004,450.
Reports from committee today described an enthusiastic opening of the final round-up. Special efforts were under way everywhere to raise the number of individual subscribers from 9,500,000, the present roll of bond buyers to 30,000,000, the number asked by Secretary McAdoo.

Thus far Ambassador Francis, Speaker Clark and Judge Graves have proved unavailable to fill the unexpired term of Senator Stone.

VESSEL TORPEDOED; ONLY THREE LIVES OF CREW ARE LOST

EXCELLENT DISCIPLINE IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN MAINTAINED
By Associated Press
London, April 29.—A party of fifty seven American army Young Men's Christian Association workers under Arthur E. Hungerford, arrived in London last night. The ship on which they sailed was torpedoed yesterday morning and sank in twelve minutes. All the passengers and all but three of the crew were saved.
The passengers were picked up in lifeboats and landed at a British port. The Americans are all safe and well. On their arrival in London they were taken in charge by the American Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross.
The number of persons on board the vessel was about 250. One of the ship officers told the Associated Press that the Americans had conducted themselves in an admirable manner. They were the better able to do this because they had spent most of their time aboard the ship in military drills and day and night life boat drills. Every man knew his station and duties as though by instinct.
Destroyers were sent immediately to the rescue and all the life boats were picked up within half an hour.
The vessel was struck amidship while proceeding in a large convoy under the protection of a number of destroyers. It was proceeding at about ten knots in bright moonlight when struck. There was an immediate heavy list and three minutes later the boilers blew up, extinguishing the lights all over the ship.
Two of the crew who lost were caught in the boat ropes. The other after receiving his lifeboat station went back after his money belt.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENT OF ALLIED LINE PRESAGES HUN EFFORT TO BREAK IT

AMERICANS FACE RANKS OF HUNS WITH CONFIDENCE

By Associated Press
The Germans today began what seems to be a general assault on the British hill positions on the Kemmel front, southwest of Ypres, opening a new phase of the great drive in Flanders. Apparently the crucial test of the allied holding power in this area is at hand.
The preliminary bombardment started in the early morning, took in a ten mile front from Meteren, west of Bailleul, to Voormezele, two miles south of Ypres. Infantry attacks in this area developed shortly afterwards and the battle appears to have been on, in earnest, when Field Marshal Haig's report was issued in London at noon. The enemy has been striking with great fury at Voormezele for the last two or three days, evidently hoping to drive in behind Ypres and break up the orderly withdrawal of the British from the further portions of the Ypres salient which they have been evacuating. General Von Armin has been successfully held off from this southern bulwark of the salient, but meanwhile he has been preparing to take advantage of the success he won last week in the capture of Mount Kemmel hill, while he was unable to develop immediately because of the stiff allied resistance.
In Voormezele Sector
Further attacks in the Voormezele sector may accompany the delivery of today's blow, but the greatest force of the thrust seems likely to manifest itself in the vicinity of Locre, where Scharpenberg, Mount Roux, Mont Note and other eminences are the enemy objectives. The French who are holding the line at Locre, fortified themselves late last week by clinging to this village, although more than once driven out by savage thrusts. Another attack which was launched there yesterday afternoon was promptly repulsed.
Probably to mask their real purpose the Germans last night heavily bombarded the southern portion of the Yps battle front from Givenchy to Nieppe wood and likewise turned their artillery loose on the line between Lens and Arras, further south. No infantry attacks have been reported in these sectors except on the part of the British who by a successful coup last night recaptured the post taken from them last week near Festubert north of Givenchy.

AMERICAN TROOPS ON BATTLE FRONT DOING GOOD WORK

NOW OPPOSE TRENCH OF ENEMY IN NORTH TOWARD AMIENS.

LARGE QUOTAS NEEDED

Replacements in French Line Are Expected to Be Made From United States Army, Says Statement.

Washington, April 29.—Formal announcement of American troops to reinforce the Allied armies, have taken part in the fighting is made today by the war department in its weekly review of the situation.

"Our forces have taken part in the battle," says the statement briefly. "American units are in action east of Amiens. During the engagements, which have raged in this area, they have acquitted themselves well."

The review in summarizing the immediate need of fresh men to withstand the German onslaught, adds that America's imperative duty is to provide replacement units for the French front.

In addition to those already called to the colors," says the statement, "and those training at our camps, very large quotas will be required in the immediate future to fill the gaps."

In this connection, the review points out that "the enemy is seeking a decision that will end the war and the outcome of the present operations depends upon man power."

Attack Northwest of Toul.

The statement mentions the attack on American positions at Seicheprey, northwest of Toul. Here on April 26, the review says the Germans swept over American lines on a front of three kilometers, but subsequently gave up the ground occupied.

The department's statement is as follows:

"The outcome of the present operations in the west depends on man power. The Germans are relying principally on rifles, machine guns, man power and carefully thought-out methods of transporting and supplying munitions to the front of attack under all conditions, which means that they have developed mobility of offensive action that can only be met by counter measure of equal potency and flexibility."

"A battle of such magnitude as the one being fought in the west cannot be decided by any single engagement, yet there arises a series of crises on which the ultimate outcome depends. These crises have up to the present, in a large measure, resulted favorably to the enemy."

The vigorous attacks driven against the British have tended to deprive the independent will power of the British command. In this the enemy has failed. Unity of command of the Allies has extended operations of the broader field of general engagements in which all the Allied forces will henceforth be used interchangeably.

Unitedly Oppose.

"This change in the combat situation has materially altered the moment of decision of the offensive. Instead of the enemy being able to defeat the British army and then turn their full energy against the French, the Allies are now able to oppose their full united strength to the hostile attack."

"It must constantly be borne in mind that the enemy is seeking a decision that will end the war. This decision can only be arrived at by the destruction of the Allied forces in the field before fresh units contributed from additional levels in France and Great Britain as well as by our own troops can up their position in sufficient numbers to turn the German successes to defeat."

"Ours is the imperative duty of providing replacement units for the armies in France. We must be able to put fresh men in the field thoroughly and methodically trained. In addition to those already called to the colors and now training at our cantonments or already selected for service, very large quotas will be required in the immediate future to fill the gaps."

"Operations of the week reveal that the enemy, taking advantage of the re-entering angles stretching from the Aisne northward and from Wytschaete to Dranoutre, has resumed operations after a period of relative calm."

"It is not difficult to follow the strategic conception of the German higher command. An enveloping movement is outlined, which on the one hand is to force the retreat of the British from Arras and, if wholly successful, result in the capture of both Arras and Amiens, on the other, the occupation of the heights of Kemmel to wipe out the Ypres salient and throw the British lines south of Hazebrouck and Poperinghe.

British Hold Firmly

"In the south the thrust towards Amiens has been well contained. The British are holding firmly in the face of furious assaults."

"Hazard has been the scene of very violent engagements and the enemy is here pressing the attack with great vigor. Ally-sur-oye and the surrounding area has been subjected to very intense bombardments and Amiens itself is being consistently shelled."

"Our own forces have taken part in the battle. American units are in action in the area east of Amiens. During the various engagements which have raged in this area they have acquitted themselves well."

"In Flanders the situation is less satisfactory. Last week the Germans drove a strong thrust against the segment of the line held by the Belgians. This was well met and the enemy was unable to make any headway."

Violent Fighting

"After a delay during which the Germans replaced their depleted units and brought up supplies and munitions another principal assault was launched with Mount Kemmel as its objective. In the region from the Ypres-Comines canal to Dranoutre violent fighting has again developed as a result of which the enemy was able to capture Dranoutre, gain the summit of Kemmel and reach Loere. Fighting continues in this area with unprecipitated stubbornness and the advance of the enemy has not been definitely checked. The loss of Mount Kemmel is a serious menace to the British dispositions in Flanders."

"Northwest of Toul enemy pressure is increasing. At dawn on the 21st a powerful preliminary barrage, the Germans launched a heavy raid against the sector held by our men."

Swept Over Lines

"On a frontage of approximately three kilometers, in the vicinity of Seicheprey, the enemy swept over our front lines. Our men were driven out of the village which the enemy was able to hold temporarily. During the night, the Germans evacuated the positions captured and we were able to re-occupy our original front lines. Along the Meuse, our troops beat off another raid."

Allied aircraft was particularly active and executed a large number of raids on depots and other points of importance in the Picardy and Flanders salients."

British and French troops have landed Murmansk on the Arctic coast and are assisting the bolsheviks and Russia red guards in protecting the Finnish coast and Kola Railway from attack by the white guards. The white guards, supported by the Germans, made an attempt to cut the railway near Kem. In southern Finland, the Finno-German forces are still making headway. Viborg is the only city remaining in the hands of the red guards."

In southern Russia, the enemy has occupied Perekop, and has advanced southward into the Crimea, having occupied Simferopol thereby gaining control of the railway which connects Sebastopol with the mainland of Russia."

HOLLAND YIELDS TO HUN PROGRAM, LATEST REPORT

WILL PERMIT GERMANY TO TRANSPORT SAND AND GRAVEL THROUGH COUNTRY.

Special to The Times

London, April 29.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from The Hague says Holland has yielded to Germany's demands concerning transport and supply of sand and gravel through the amount will be limited.

It is added that a general understanding will be required from Germany that the sand and gravel will not be used for military purposes.

Rumors are current in the Dutch capital, the dispatch adds, that Dr. John Loufou, minister of foreign affairs will resign. These rumors are based on the supposition that he could not retain office now that his undertaking respecting the gravel question must be revoked.

In summarizing the situation, the dispatch concludes, it is felt that the crisis with Germany has passed although the solution is in no wise an ideal one for Holland.

Relations between Holland and Germany have been at almost a breaking point for some days owing to Germany's demands that Holland permit the transmission over her canals and railways, of sand and gravel from Germany to Belgium. The controversy was a three-cornered one as Great Britain had warned Holland to take steps to make certain that the sand and gravel would not be used for military purposes. It had been reported that all leaves of absence in the Dutch army and navy had been withdrawn temporarily. German newspapers have condemned Holland's hesitancy in meeting Berlin's demands in harsh terms.

Reclamation Of Men Who Are Deficient Will Be Undertaken

According to a recent statement from publicly officers at Camp Travis, reclamation battalion has been organized at the camp and placed under the direction of experienced officers for the benefit of those men sent to the camp by carelessness exemption boards who are either mentally or physically below par. The man whose brain cannot work fast enough to allow him to obey orders so to maintain unity of action with the others of his organization is given special and individual training in the reclamation battalion along with other slightly deficient men until he is ready to be returned to the normal rank. The excellence in action and thought necessary in this war made special training or absolute rejection of this class the only alternatives, and the camp authorities chose the special training and are increasing the efficiency of numbers of men through this organization.

LOYALTY DAY IS CELEBRATED AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

LARGE NUMBER OF MEMBERS HEAR ADDRESS OF VISITING PASTOR

At a Loyalty Day service, in honor of which a large American flag was spread back of the altar, flanked by Red Cross and service emblems, a large number of members of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church of this city heard an address delivered by Rev. John M. Streckfuss, of Bowie.

The sermon in full follows:

Every man is by nature inclined to be an anarchist. Our first parents were the first rebels. Being seduced by the delicious falsehood of Satan...

Our government would have the authority to conscript the strength of the nation, but heretofore the method of raising the required funds for war purposes has been a request to loan our country any sum we desire.

As Christian citizens of this glorious republic let us prove our worth by our acts. If we would fail our country in its greatest hour of need, if we would forget all the temporal blessings which God has given us through our government, then indeed would not deserve to be called Christians nor Americans.

Let us ask our all-compassionate Father that he may graciously give victory to our arms; that his will be done on earth as it is in heaven; that he may guide and bless our government; that he may vouchsafe us peace that we again may lead a quiet and peaceful life till it please him to take us from this vale of tears to himself in heaven.

WONDERFUL RECORD.

No army in the world has ever made the health record which the new American army is making, according to Surgeon General Gorgas.

The health record of our soldiers ought to go a long way toward reassuring those whose confidence in the capacity and efficiency of our government has shaken by continuous partisan criticism.

ALL ARE SERIOUS.

That those who are to direct the destinies of the men who are joining the national guard units that are being organized here, are in deadly earnest and intend to allow no grass to grow under their feet in the matter of securing useful military knowledge.

These men know that "every little bit of information helps" when one is making ready to battle with the German war machine, and they desire to secure all they can in the period that will be permitted them.

Men who from the outset show an ability and a willingness to take up the serious work that is before them will make excellent leaders when the organization of their troop or company is effected.

NERVOUS WRECKS AMONG CHILDREN CAUSED BY RAID

LITTLE ONES IN LONDON FROM TWO TO SEVEN YEARS SUFFER

By Margaret Waller.

London, April 28.—The air raids on London have left in their wake, along with the loss of life and negligible damage to buildings, a crop of nervous wrecks among old children who were beginning to talk. Babies have not suffered to speak of from these aerial visits, nor children who are old enough to talk and reason about what is going on. But the little fellows who were just beginning to slip have had a bad time of it, especially in the poorer districts where their parents have no more sense than to tell them speech of some of these little child-like tales of horror they hear.

The children have been temporarily paralyzed by fear even of the crash of the first warning maroon. These are furnishing one of the serious problems to the doctors who have undertaken the job of connecting the future citizenship of England.

Power of speech is closely connected with physical development and sanity itself, so the doctors are taking these cases of arrested speech very seriously and are doing everything in their power to restore the lost faculty and set the little victims of Hun frightfulness on the road to normal development again.

There is a big clinic at St. Thomas's Hospital especially fitted up for cases of this kind, and here Miss Elsie Fogarty, one of the best known teachers of voice production and aesthetic dancing, is a voluntary worker for long hours every day. She treats the shell-shocked children very much as she does those who have undergone a severe shock from an operation or a fall; under the direct supervision of medical staff she little by little encourages the mites to start all over again with their efforts to talk.

Of course the return of the raiders from time to time does not help the progress of these restorative lessons. It makes you rather nervous, see the children on the mornings after raids. Both grown-ups and children show an instinctive desire to return as quickly as possible to the customs and habits of their normal lives after they have been through a raid. Mothers bring bundled children to the clinic at the usual hour to take their lessons even when they have only escaped suffocation from falling man-servants a few hours ago or when they have no longer a roof to shelter them.

Aesthetic work is done up to the war devoted their lives to the harmony of steps and movements, to the blending of lovely colors and the draping of exquisite materials, are now scurrying round to find the plainest and the temporary clothing for these victims, drawing upon their own resources of sympathy and tenderness to tide over their immediate troubles. A class of people which before the war they hardly knew existed. But their aesthetic training counts, as you will see.

Sit Stiffly in Places.

The little children sit stiffly in their places, with clenched blue fists and straining eyes, braced, it seems, for another shock. Then the teachers begin. At first they crouch gently, then with the older children they do some simple rhythmic steps to softly strummed music. Little by little the little bodies relax, one by one the youngsters join in the dancing, chattering happily, forgetful of the shock and terrors of the night.

After a while they will take food and finally by night the majority of the little ones are in a normal condition and ready for a sleep.

But there are some stubborn cases. One little boy who was shocked in September still refuses to make any sound, though he goes through all the movements of speaking in fluent lip language. Still, as the doctors declare, there is absolutely nothing wrong with his vocal cords. Miss Fogarty persists in her methods, convinced that sooner or later he will find his voice. It may be the result of another shock. This often happens to shell-shocked Tommies; as a last resort it is relied upon to cure some of the most persistent cases. Doctors of Tommies have suddenly returned their tongues by accidentally stepping on a tack or sticking a needle in a finger.

Show Obey.

Miss Fogarty begins the second stage by taking up an apple or a bun and pronouncing the name clearly; then she offers the apple to the child, repeating the name; then she lets the child touch her lips and throat as she says it again; finally she touches the lips of the dumb child, saying "apple," and usually the little one who never says "apple," then says it aloud, and finally shouts it delightedly as it munches. The lesson continues with milk and bun.

The power of speech is closely connected with physical development and sanity itself, so the doctors are taking these cases of arrested speech very seriously and are doing everything in their power to restore the lost faculty and set the little victims of Hun frightfulness on the road to normal development again.

URGES FULL CITIZENSHIP FOR INDIANS

Mrs. Gertrude Bonnin, a highly educated Sioux, whose Indian name is Zitkala-Sa and who is a granddaughter of the famous chief Sitting Bull, was the chief guest and principal speaker at the "woman's open table," held at the National Arts Club, of New York, recently. Incidentally it was the first time in the history of the club that the privilege of holding an "open table" meeting had ever been extended to women.

Mrs. Bonnin, who is the wife of a United States army officer, spoke on "Indian Symbols" and told of the meaning of the various decorative and fantastic designs on the uniforms of Indian regalia she wore.

Mrs. Bonnin is an ardent advocate of full rights of American citizenship for Indians. "If the Indian is good enough to fight for America," she declared, "he is good enough to be considered an American."

been so great that plans for establishing similar clinics in all the hospitals are getting under way. For this more teachers are required; a regular staff of paid assistants must be established and the whole thing must be put on a permanent footing. But for this a great deal of money is needed, and a great number of trained teachers are also needed.

And there are classes for mothers too. The danger and harm of talking about the horrors of the raids are explained, and a sane point of view is given. This teaching has done so much good in one of the tenement districts that after the last raid not a single case of shock was reported though there was the usual number of casualties.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui. . . .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. . . . I decided I would try Cardui. . . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui will be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

OUR BUSINESS LETTER

(National Bank of Commerce)

Only a very few days remain before the closing of the sale of Third Liberty Bonds but there is still plenty of time for any person who has not purchased as yet to join the great patriotic army of Liberty Bond owners. No matter what efforts have already been put forth, the last few days should be devoted to the most extensive work in bringing in every possible subscription so that by an overwhelming subscription the whole world will show our absolute determination to place our financial resources at the disposal of the Government for the successful prosecution of the war.

It is important to remember that large as our expenditures have been and will continue to be, our financial burden is very far from being as heavy as that borne by the Allies. The immense wealth and population of this country will make our expenses comparatively easy to bear if every one does his full share for our Liberty Loan subscriptions, great as they are, do not even yet represent any real strain upon our financial resources.

Our War Expenses

A statement from the treasury department shows that the disbursements of the United States treasury, including all war expenses from the first of July 1917 to March 16, 1918, amounted to $4,232,261,050, as compared with disbursements of $682,989,000 for the corresponding period of the fiscal year 1917.

These figures show that the war has added practically three and a half billion dollars to the expenses of the government for the eight and a half months reported, an average expenditure of about $13,000,000 a day for the period. These figures do not include nearly four billions advanced to the Allies which, of course, represents money that will be repaid. The total receipts of the Government in the period named were $1,017,257,000 as compared with receipts of $540,217,000 for the corresponding period of 1917.

The Income Tax

Those who consider that the income tax bears heavily upon them may derive some satisfaction from realizing that in comparison with the tax levied in England, our own is extremely moderate. For example, an income of $1,000 is entirely exempt in America, while in England it pays an annual tax of 4.2 per cent or $40.00. Married men or heads of families in America having an income of $500 a year pay nothing and unmarried men pay only 2 per cent on $500 of this income. In England, on the other hand, the tax income in England pays 7 per cent. A married man in America of the head of a family having an income of $2,000 a year pays no tax and an unmarried man pays $20 a year. In England a $2,000 income means a tax of just below $100.

The English income tax rate also increases far more rapidly with the growth of income than ours. A $3,000 income in England pays 15 per cent and in America 2.5 of one per cent. $5,000 pays 16 per cent in England and 1.2 per cent in America. $10,000 pays 20 per cent and 3.2 per cent respectively, while $15,000 pays 25 per cent in England and 4 per cent here.

America's Oil Monopoly

With the exception of Mexico, which is supplying a considerable part of the fuel oil used by the British navy, the position of the United States today in monopoly of the oil industry is stronger than ever before. Last year the United States produced 341,800,000 barrels of crude oil out of the world's total production of 618,000,000 approximately 68 per cent. In 1916 our production was 300 million barrels or about 65 per cent of the world's total production of 480 million barrels. In 1917 Mexico produced 60 million barrels compared with slightly less than 40 barrels in 1916. Our exports for 1917 were considerably over two and one-half billion gallons as compared with somewhat over two billion gallons for 1916. The year before the war.

The temporary control which Germany is exercising over the Russian and Roumanian oil fields is making the civilized world more dependent than ever upon the United States for oil. What the effect of the return of peace will be no one can predict, but it is quite certain that no matter what happens there will continue for a long time to be a most active and, indeed, steadily increasing demand for oil products in this country.

Life Insurance

The tremendous proportions to which life insurance has developed in the United States is well emphasized by the fact that approximately $5,000,000,000 of new business was written last year. The magnitude of the distribution of insurance money can be appreciated from the fact that during the next ten years the insurance companies of the United States will pay out approximately $7,000,000,000 to policy owners and beneficiaries.

These policy holders represent people in every walk of life, from the weakest, feeble capitalist to the thrifty, industrious working man. Altogether there are approximately thirty-three million policy holders in America who have an income and accumulated the great life insurance assets of the nation. These people carry more life insurance than all the rest of the world combined.

Platinum

Fashions in jewelry have of late attracted a good deal of attention to platinum which some years ago, so far as the general public was concerned, was a practically unknown metal. A rough estimate of the amount of platinum so far produced and still existing in the world is about four million ounces, a quarter of which is in the United States.

Of the various uses to which the world's stock of platinum has been put it is estimated that some half a million ounces are in the form of jewelry, one million ounces employed for dental purposes, half a million ounces for electrical devices and the remainder for chemical and physical equipment.

Gold Production

The production of gold in the United States naturally suffered last year on account of our entrance into the war. It is estimated by the bureau of the mint and geological survey that gold production in this country in 1917 was $84,489,000, a decrease of $8,126,000 from 1916 and the smallest output since 1904 when about $80,000,000 was produced. The production of silver fell off slightly but, of course, the loss was far more than offset by the higher market price for the white metal.

The figures for world production of gold for 1917 are not yet available but estimates indicate that the showing will be lower than in 1916, will be satisfactory. Following the natural set back to the gold output of the British Empire in 1914 there was a tremendous increase in effort and 1915 and 1916 showed the result. Thus while the total value of gold produced in the British Empire fell from 28 millions sterling in 1913 to 56 million in 1914, it rose to over 60 million in both 1915 and in 1916. Gold continues to be, as always, one of the great fundamentals of success in war and in this respect, as in many others, the unquestioned advantage rests with America and the Allies.

L. G. Smith of 1308 Taylor went to Burkburnett on business today.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

TABERNACLE BEING ERECTED HERE FOR REVIVAL MEETING

UNION SERVICES ARE TO BE HELD HERE BEGINNING ON SUNDAY.

Work was started this morning on the tabernacle for the joint revival meeting to be conducted by Rev. J. E. Brown under the auspices of the First Methodist Episcopal church South and the First Presbyterian church. The tabernacle is being built on the old Episcopal church site at the corner of Eighth and Lamar streets. Hammond and Naylor are supervising the work and as far as possible the tabernacle will be built with volunteer work. Those who are not in a position to give their labor may make contributions of money to Harry Naylor or to C. E. McCutchen at the First National Bank.

To Arrive Wednesday. The evangelistic party is expected to arrive Wednesday and organization will begin at once. The meetings will open Sunday. At a joint meeting of representatives of the two churches recently the following committee were appointed: Tabernacle committee: C. W. Richard, B. M. Bullard, W. Y. Hammack, H. J. Naylor, Dr. W. H. Walker, Rev. Barnes and Rev. Grafton. Finance committee: T. B. Noble, N. H. Martin, M. P. Kelly, D. B. King, J. A. Kemp, C. W. Sulder and C. E. Harry Naylor or to C. E. McCutchen. Entertainment committee: W. W. Sisk, C. C. Knight, J. C. Hunt and Otto Stehlik.

Cottage prayer meeting committee: C. H. Clark, J. M. Bland, W. B. Hamilton, C. W. Warren and J. W. Culbertson. Music committee: T. J. Reese, N. M. Clifford, G. D. Anderson and C. W. Heavers. Publicity committee: J. W. Akin, Miss Pauline Mears, B. D. Donnell and E. P. Haney. Usher committee: C. O. Jones, L. W. Brewster and others they may select. Secretary committee: T. A. Baggett, Lester Jones, C. M. Crowell, C. J. McDowell, J. W. Gray and Fred Loomis.

El Paso Meeting. El Paso papers have been giving a great deal of space to the meetings which have been closed at the meetings have been attended by great crowds and many have been converted. At the close of the first week of the meeting in El Paso, the El Paso Herald said in opening its account: "The first week of the El Paso revival has been of the record-breaking variety. From every angle the men who know this class of work are pleased. The attendance has been capacity size every night with the S. R. O. sign out several times. Also, the call that was made Saturday night showed that the effect of the preaching of Brother Brown was sinking in. The response was prompt and faces showed they meant business."

The program shows that the party is swinging into broader circles this week, reaching out into other phases of life. Not only the high school girls will have regular dates with tentative work, and Mr. Stover starts in on a series of afternoons with the boys and girls. "Pyramiding their work, the last of this week will see the launching of the famous business women's luncheons. Mrs. Stover, who has already made a place for herself in El Paso life, has a reputation as wide as the United States for this branch of modern evangelism, and we will have an opportunity of seeing the system as worked by one of the foremost and successful workers in the field.

The tabernacle turned away a thousand people last Sunday, and it will be an early work that gets in tonight.

REVIVAL CLOSED AT CHURCH HERE; SOME ADDITIONS

Brought to a close with two big meetings on Sunday, the evangelistic campaign which has been carried on by Rev. O. L. Powers at the First Baptist church for the past two weeks has proven an entire success according to the statement of the pastor. A number of additions to the church have been received, in addition to aroused interest and enthusiasm among the entire congregation. The new members will be baptized on next Sunday evening. Splendid music, under the direction of B. B. McKinney of Fort Worth was one of the most enjoyable and inspiring features of the meetings and Rev. Mr. Powers wished to express his appreciation both of the choir work of the leader and the good response received from the singers of the city, a number of which were not members of the Baptist church but were kind enough to lend their talents to that church during the campaign. The faithful and interested work of Mr. McKinney together with his splendid ability and training won the highest appreciation from the people of Wichita Falls among whom he made many friends. The pastor of the church, in delivering a series of strong, powerful sermons dealing with the fundamental principals of this life, has given the city the benefit of hours of deep concentrated thought on leading questions.

Mothers' Club Gives New Readers To All Students At Alamo

Alamo students in all the grades, began today to use their new supplementary readers, which have been made possible for them through the Mothers' Club of the Alamo school. There are 164 volumes in the new reading library, which comes from the Green and Treadwell company, and up to the fifth grade, the books are known as the Free and Treadwell readers. The reader for the fifth grade is "Lord and Vassal" and the sixth grade two books are furnished, "The Modern World," and "The New Liberty." The books were ordered by J. T. Randall, the principal of the school and represent a value of $56.32. This is the latest benefaction of the Alamo Mothers club to the school which has been one of the most active organizations of the sort in the district, according to the reports which are made at the district congresses, and the school, both students and teachers, are very appreciative of this gift, as it will assist very materially them in their reading course. Twenty books have been given to both the first and second grades, 30 each to the third, fourth and fifth and 34 to the sixth grade.

Any one who wishes to enlist still has an opportunity to do so as it is possible that a number of the recruits already received will be disqualified by the physical examination. Advice from the Adjutant General as to the time of mobilization and other details are being awaited before the date of the physical examination is set. In the meantime every man between the ages of 18 and 45 who should offer his services to his state and country in this time of need, is urged to visit the recruiting office, at Mayor J. B. Marlow's office, 511 Eighth Street, or the local draft board on the fifth floor of the Kemp and Kell building.
