COMPLETE ALLIED VICTORY WON IN KEMMEL HILL REGION

NORTH TEXAS GAS COMPANY MAY BUY ALL LINES HERE

ELECTION TO BE HELD TO PERMIT WICHITA FALLS CO. TO SELL OUT.

STEP MADE NECESSARY

Chamber of Commerce Urges Step as Protection to People When Other Concern Suspends.

An election on the question of whether or not the Wichita Gas Company will be permitted to sell their pipe lines in Wichita Falls, through which about half the homes in the city are supplied with gas, has been set by the city council at its meeting next Thursday night by the Chamber of Commerce as the result of this morning's meeting of that body. Directors of the Chamber of Commerce stated that this action was taken merely as a means of protecting the people of the city and not to benefit in any way either the gas companies, as unless an election was ordered and the people vote to permit the sale of the Wichita Gas Company's lines in the city, on Monday, the date set by the company for going out of business, about half the citizens will be without domestic gas.

Kell Presents Matter.

Mr. Kell presented the matter to the Chamber of Commerce, stating in the beginning that he was entirely disinterested personally, as his stock in the Wichita Gas Company was only about 3 1/2 per cent, and that his only interest in the matter was to look after the welfare of the citizens of Wichita Falls. The situation that caused the Wichita Gas Company to go out of business on June 1, he explained as follows: For some time the past daily consumption of gas through the Wichita Gas Company's lines has been 2,000,000 cubic feet and of this amount only 1,000,000 cubic feet is produced by the wells of the company. To supply all their customers the company has been borrowing the amount needed from the wells of the Lone Star Gas Company but now the Wichita Gas Company is 350,000,000 cubic feet in debt to the Lone Star Gas Company, which has served notice on them that after June 1 they can not let them have any more gas. Consequently the Wichita Gas Company is unable to do its business and after a certain time has expired its equipment can be taken over by another company without an election. The Chamber of Commerce feels that an election would be the most satisfactory method, because if June 1 arrives and the service is cut off, without any other arrangements being made to care for the customers of the retiring company, they will be without gas for any purpose and will suffer considerable inconvenience for some time. The vote to propose this election to the city council at this week's session as a measure to protect the people of Wichita Falls, was made unanimous.

Must Get People's Consent.

The Texas law governing public utilities companies provides that no public utility company can sell its lines or equipment for serving the public without a vote of the people. But it is possible for a company to dissolve and after a certain time has expired its equipment can be taken over by another company without an election. The Chamber of Commerce feels that an election would be the most satisfactory method, because if June 1 arrives and the service is cut off, without any other arrangements being made to care for the customers of the retiring company, they will be without gas for any purpose and will suffer considerable inconvenience for some time. The vote to propose this election to the city council at this week's session as a measure to protect the people of Wichita Falls, was made unanimous.

J. W. Culbertson, the manager of the Wichita Gas Company stated this afternoon that he would have a full account of the gas company's business and the various matters which have made the present step of discontinuing the company a necessity, to give to the public within a few days.

INCREASED ARMY BILLS OFFERED IN U. S. SENATE

Washington, April 30.—Three bills to increase Army man power in the war were introduced today in the senate. Senator Pendergast of Washington, offered one authorizing the president to call immediately 1,500,000 men under the selective draft law; Senator Reed of Missouri offered one to add 3,000,000 men to the army; Senator Smith of Georgia introduced a resolution proposing to raise the army to 5,000,000 men.

Immediate action to increase the army, Senator Pendergast said in a brief address, is necessary.

FIRST U. S. SHOT OF WAR THAT SUNK U-BOAT NOW RE-ECHOES AS LOAN AID

GUN CREW THAT FIRED AMERICA'S FIRST SHOT OF WAR—EXTREME RIGHT LIEUT. BRUCE R. WARE, JR. AND CAPTAIN RICE

When, in February, 1917, Germany announced her intention of destroying all ships of any nationality approaching British ports officials of the International Mercantile Marine Company notified Emery Rice that they would not expect him to take the steamship Mongolia across until he had been furnished with guns. "What's that?" queried the captain of the big merchantman. "Let the German bluffers keep me off the Atlantic? Not if I know it. I intend to leave on schedule, guns or no guns." And he did. He made that trip, and he made another. Then, on the third trip, he got the guns and a gun crew from the Texas, under the command of Lieutenant Bruce R. Ware, Jr. Meanwhile, on April 6, the United States had declared war on Germany. On April 19, as the Mongolia was approaching Great Britain, a German submarine undertook to sink her. The commander of that submarine made two mistakes, and the result was that he vanished to the bottom of the Atlantic. First, he chose the wrong vessel to attack, and second, he rose too close to speed his torpedo effectively. When he showed again, after diving, the guns of the Mongolia spoke America's first ordnance message, and Germany was minus one more submarine. That America was able to make such a successful debut in the war was due to the incessant vigilance of Captain Rice and the men of his crew. For five days and nights the captain had not taken his clothes off, and except to take hurried meals had not left the bridge.

PRESIDENT VINSON WANTS STATEMENT FROM PROFESSOR

GERMAN LANGUAGE TEACHER'S TEXT BOOK IS NOW UNDER CRITICISM

Austin, Texas, April 30.—Professor E. Prokosch, instructor in Germanic languages at the University of Texas, has been asked by Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the university to explain numerous statements in a recent publication by the professor. Dr. Vinson asked for explanation after reading extracts from the text book which were criticized by James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador, in his recent publication, "Face to face with Hitler."

Mr. Gerard claims the book creates a false impression in the mind of the young student who reads it. One extract from Gerard's book says: "On page 109 of this book (Professor Prokosch's text book) there is an article in German entitled 'The German constitution.' It begins with the sentence 'The German union is a union of states like the United States of America.'"

"I have asked Professor Prokosch for a statement," said Dr. Vinson, when asked if any official action was to be taken. "I want to hear his side of the case," he added.

Industrial Draft Is Not Yet Passed Upon By War Department

Washington, April 30.—The war department through Acting Secretary Crowell advised the senate military committee today that it is not prepared at this time to pass on the question of universal liability to industrial service. Other government departments, said in a letter referring to a bill to senator McCumber of North Dakota to draft all male citizens of military age, for industrial purposes, are more concerned in the labor problem.

"Should the need of the conscription of labor become pressing," Mr. Crowell said, "the war department will not hesitate to request congressional assistance, but for the present prefers to wait the recommendation of other departments."

Women In Country Need Not Register, It Is Announced

Austin, Texas, April 30.—That provision of the woman suffrage act relating to women who reside outside of cities and towns of 10,000 population and over to register as a qualification to participate in the 1918 primaries was hereby today by the state general department to be unconstitutional and void. This opinion predicated on section five of article three of the constitution that requires the subject matter of a bill to be expressed in the title and that renders void any title. This means that only women who are compelled to register under this law are those residing in cities and towns of 10,000 population and over.

It is also held that all women who possess the qualifications of an elector, except that they are not required to have a poll tax receipt this year, may participate in the primary elections and conventions of the party to which they belong, provided they register with the county tax collector within 15 days prior to the day of the election.

On January 18, the Chincha escaped from a submarine and the armed guard was commended by Secretary Daniels for his excellent work at the time.

ENTENTE HIGH COMMAND SHOWS POWER TO HALT ENEMY WHEN TIME SEEMS RIGHT

STIRRING APPEAL TO LOAN WORKERS MADE AT CAPITAL

INTENSIVE FINISH FOR CAMPAIGN IS URGED BY GOVERNMENT

MUST SELL MORE BONDS

Drive May Still be Complete Success and People are Urged to Do Their Full Duty

(BULLETIN)

Washington, April 30.—Intensive canvassing of the final week of the Liberty Loan campaign was reflected today in the treasury's report of $2,463,442,400 total subscriptions, an increase since last night's report of $129,140,550. This increase covers only part of yesterday's business.

The Atlanta district which has stood lowest in the percentage column, showed a sudden increase of $20,000,000 in subscriptions. Other districts recorded unusual gains yesterday. The Cleveland district reported a gain of $25,000,000.

From the Kansas City district, whose total subscriptions now are ten per cent above the district's quota were reported the following state totals: Colorado $19,000,000; Kansas $34,223,000; Nebraska $33,932,000; Oklahoma $28,000,000; Wyoming $4,719,000; New Mexico $1,323,000.

In the Dallas district the leading cities standing as reported as follows: San Antonio 80 per cent; Galveston 101; Houston 89; Fort Worth 107; Austin 75; Shreveport 98. Arizona is per cent past its goal and Louisiana stands a little above 100 per cent. Texas has subscribed eighty per cent of its quota.

Washington, April 30.—An appeal to all Liberty Loan committees to inaugurate an intensive fight for the Third Liberty Loan and to see that no possible subscription is overlooked, was sent out today by the treasury department. The appeal contains the following suggestions of things that may yet be done to make the Third Liberty Loan a big success:

Inaugurate a "buy another bond" campaign with the idea of getting those who have subscribed a little to subscribe a little more.

See that employees of every industrial plant have been canvassed, creating if possible committees of employees to complete the work. Find out if any plants need re-canvassing.

See if all stores and office buildings have been completely canvassed. Call attention publicly to the fact that the desired twenty-million subscribers means one bond buyer to every five people in practically every city that has your community responded to this extent?

Many wealthy men and large corporations are holding off on account of paying income tax, hoping that their subscriptions will not be needed. Impress upon them that every possible subscription is needed and remind them again that the schedule of government payments on Liberty Bonds calls for no payments in the month of June.

Follow up all pledges and see that all these pledges materialize into actual subscriptions.

Check up to see that each individual and community has done its share. Ascertain if those communities where quotas have been reached are alive to the necessity of continuing the battle for large over-subscriptions and wide distribution.

May 1 Pay Day. Take advantage of the fact that May 1 is pay day and a good day for thousands to make initial payments. See that individuals and firms which benefit from war business increase their subscriptions in adequate proportions.

Many women whose husbands have already subscribed can buy bonds on their own account. Make an appeal to them.

Appeal to your newspapers to publish these suggestions in the hope that they will serve as reminders of new opportunities for subscriptions.

By Associated Press

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows:

Today's reports from the Flanders battle front emphasize the completeness of the victory won by the Anglo-French forces yesterday in withstanding the tremendous assaults by which the Germans hoped to break into the Allied hill positions southwest of Ypres and begin cutting their way on toward the channel ports.

The situation seems to have been one of the Entente high command deciding once more to make a stand after having forced the Germans to use up tens of thousands of men in fighting their way desperately forward as far as they have. The decision made, the stand was taken, and the Germans were stopped, as they have been previously on other fields since the great offensive opened March 21. The enemy, it is estimated threw as many as thirteen divisions, or about 175,000 men, into the attack on this twelve mile front, but despite continued furious assaults, was held almost everywhere. At a few points there was a slight enemy penetration but the line was largely rectified late yesterday. During last night the French in dashing counter blows, drove the Germans from the remainder of the small stretches of ground they had gained in their initial drives of the day.

French Take Loos

A most welcome feature of the current news from the front is the announcement that the Germans in a crucial part of the line at Loos, have not lost any part of their hold on this dominating ground. They now have unimpeded access to the front line for the first time in several days, and apparently have killed off the enemy efforts to edge in around that place and force its abandonment.

The importance of Loos lies in the fact that it guards the approach to Mount Rouge, one of the most important hills of the defense lines, which cannot be safe as long as Loos remains in Allied hands.

Similarly the Allied troops have stopped the drive towards Scherpenberg by holding the line while the Belgians, who had two additional German divisions to face north of Ypres dealt with them successfully and prevented any breach in the line toward the sea.

Huns Suffer Heavily

All the evidence points to the probability that the Germans are suffering well nigh the heaviest casualties of any day of the fighting on the northern front, as wave after wave of the attacking forces was mowed down by artillery and infantry fire. They were so exhausted by their fruitless efforts that they remained virtually inactive all night, while no reports have come through today indicating any resumption of major activities on their part.

South on the Somme front, the British carried out a local operation last night, but in meeting with no more success here than elsewhere in Flanders, the Belgians hurling the Germans from positions they had occupied by counter attacks.

Ypres is yet to be attacked directly from the east but from the intensity of the enemy assaults south and southwest it is evidently the Germans desire most to take the hill positions west of Mont Kemmel. To hold these hills would not only menace the entire Allied positions in Flanders and eastward toward Dunkirk but would virtually compel the evacuation of Ypres.

German progress westward from Voornezele would, if carried to any depth outflank the hill positions west of Mont Kemmel, which must be taken separately. The attacks against the French at Loos are an attempt to get between Scherpenberg and Mont Rouge and outflank them as was done at Mont Kemmel. Held by the French at Loos, the Germans are essaying frontal attacks against Scherpenberg, and the evacuation of Ypres also have been disastrous.

On the Picardy battle field, where American British and French troops await the German attack, the German artillery has been active. The Germans have not repeated their local attacks against the French at Hangard.

Rumors of a change of government in Russia do not sound altogether impossible. The Berlin foreign office has asked the German ambassador at Moscow to report concerning disorders in Petrograd and the alleged monarchist restoration. According to reports in Berlin the Russian constitutional democrat leaders, Milukoff, Guchkoff and Rodzenko, and General Alexieff, former Russian commander in chief are in Petrograd aiding in the restoration movement. Further reports on conditions in Russia are lacking.

Viborg, 75 miles northwest of Petrograd and the last stronghold of the Finnish rebels has been captured by the government forces, and is being aided by the Germans who occupied Helsinki some days ago. The red guards who have had the assistance of the Russian government, resisted desperately and it is estimated that nearly the entire force of 6,000 rebels was slain by the white guards.

NINE GERMANS ARRESTED AS DANGEROUS ALIENS.

Providence, R. I., April 30.—Federal authorities have today arrested nine Germans, several of them reputed to be wealthy and prominent in manufacturing jewelry circles. PARIS BOMBARDMENT ONCE AGAIN RESUMED

Amsterdam, April 30.—Germany demands from Holland that the Vreesche Zeitung of Berlin, the right to send war material over the Linburg Railway to Antwerp, be suspended, and the renewal of treaties relating to the importation of sand and gravel.

"Holland," the newspaper adds, "recently yielded to Anglo-American pressure she must grant these conditions to redress the balance."

From the above dispatch it is apparent that Holland and Germany have not yet reached an agreement concerning transport through Holland. A dispatch from The Hague to the London Daily Mail of Monday reported that Holland had yielded to Germany's demands concerning transport and the supply of sand and gravel.

RUSSELLITE HELD UPON CHARGE OF EVADING DRAFT

Dallas, Tex., April 30.—On specific charges that he refused to answer a local draft board call and that he declared "religious scruples," saying "I owe my Heavenly Father more of my services than I do the United States government," Paul Telcamp, 25, alleged German born, and said to be a Russellite leader, is held here pending a hearing before United States Commissioner May Friday. Telcamp was arrested by federal authorities who declare he was active in the distribution of Russellite literature. He is said to have taken out his first naturalization papers in New York in 1916.

Providence, R. I., April 30.—Federal authorities have today arrested nine Germans, several of them reputed to be wealthy and prominent in manufacturing jewelry circles. It is charged some of the men arrested have been engaged in trading with the enemy and some of them, it is stated, are believed to have been engaged in pro-German propaganda work.

CROWDER REQUESTS COMPRESS TO MAKE BILL RETROACTIVE

YOUTHS COMING OF AGE MAY BE PUT DOWN FOR CALL LAST

Washington, April 30.—(Provoost Marshal) General Crowder today requested congress to eliminate from the bill extending the draft to youths now 21 years of age the amendment putting at the bottom of the eligible list those who would register under the measure and asked that the bill basing draft quotas on the number of men in class one be amended to make its operation retroactive.

General Crowder made his request in letters to the chairman of the senate and house military committees. Of the proposal to put the new registrants at the bottom of the list of eligibles, General Crowder said: "The plan proposed by this office would result in the registrants being given order numbers scattered through out the list of eligible numbers. This would be fairer than the plan proposed by the amendment. The result of the house plan in many districts would delay the calling of these men for a considerable time. In the meantime their status will have changed, they will have married or become integrated with the industries of the country."

"Moreover it establishes a precedent which may be appealed to, provided aliens are registered under the provisions of the new legislation based on treaties to be negotiated." "The plan to make the quota law retroactive would apply it to men of the new draft called while the legislation is pending. Delay in the enactment of the legislation, General Crowder wrote, necessitates the retroactive feature."

Troops Moving Swiftly
"During the past few weeks" General Crowder stated, "the camps have become ready to capacity and the imperative needs of General Pershing's forces have led to a rapid despatch of more troops overseas and to the issuance of relatively small calls by authority of the War Department. This has necessitated the training of organizations in training at cantonments. The result of these calls spread over the past few weeks has been not only to exhaust practically all the deferred percentages of the quotas of the first general call, July 12, 1917, but to add still further quantities of men in the excess of the first quotas."

Danger of Americans Upon Western Front Is Known In Germany

For instance, the Zeitung of Constanz says: "We must hurry to obtain a solid victory by arms before the full American forces arrive."

OLD AGE A CRIME!

Some people are young at 60—red checked, ruddy and vigorous. Others are old at 40—beginning to stiffen up a bit; step beginning to lag and lose its springiness; occasional twinges of pain in the back, feet tired without cause, and possibly a twinge of rheumatic pain. In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not promptly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is to neglect yourself. If you have these symptoms you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments. GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarem, Holland. KILLED BY AIRPLANE FALL

First Lieutenant Walter J. Johnson, of Jersey City, N. J., was killed by falling 1,500 feet in an airplane at Kelly Field, near San Antonio, Texas. Apparently something went wrong with the airplane, a Canadian Curtiss model, when Lieutenant Johnson had attained a height of 1,500 feet. The airplane was seen to waver a moment and then start down, entirely out of control. The machine was so wrecked by the impact with the earth that experts were unable to determine what had happened. Lieutenant Johnson's first flight was made at Belleville, Ill., where on October 23, 1917, his airplane fell 500 feet and one of his legs was broken. He returned to his home in Jersey City for the Christmas holidays, using crutches, and when ready for duty again, was sent to San Antonio as an instructor. His body will be sent to Jersey City for burial, and it is probable there will be a military funeral.

Trade Commission Issues Complaint Against Standard

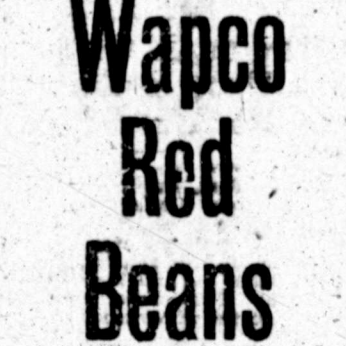

Washington, April 30.—The federal trade commission today issued a complaint against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana charging violation not only of the trade commission act prohibiting unfair business practice but violation of the Clayton anti-trust law as well.

As an infringement of Clayton act the complaint asserts that the company is discriminating in price between different purchasers of petroleum products and "that the effect of this discrimination may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create monopoly." It also is charged that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana fixes different prices in different sections selling its products at a lower price in highly competitive areas.

NEUTRALS WILL GIVE RELIEF TO ENEMY ALIENS

SWITZERLAND AND SWEDEN ARE TO ACT FOR GERMANY AND AUSTRIA

Washington, April 29.—With the approval and co-operation of the United States the legations of Switzerland and Sweden representing respectively German and Austro-Hungarian interests have undertaken to direct relief work among indigent enemy aliens who have undertaken to direct relief will be extended to needy families of interned aliens direct from the legation funds while to aid lawabiding enemy aliens who have suffered on account of their status, a national committee of Americans is to organize to co-operate with the legations and their consular offices.

LANSING'S STATEMENT

Secretary Lansing announced the arrangement today in his statement: "In the interest of safety and welfare of this country, it has been found necessary from time to time to restrict the movements and fields of employment of enemy aliens. In some cases these restrictions have worked hardships on enemy aliens who in all respects have shown themselves friendly to the United States but who owing to the accident of birth and war conditions, have been unable to change their status as such and have necessarily become objects of charity. Likewise the families of those enemy aliens whom the government deems it advisable to intern are often deprived of their means and livelihood and they also become dependent on the charity of others."

INDIGENT ALIENS TO BE CARED FOR WITH FUNDS

Washington, April 30.—Relief work among enemy aliens will be directed by the legations of Switzerland and Sweden representing respectively German and Austro-Hungarian interests, according to Secretary Lansing's announcement published here today. The work will be done with the co-operation and approval of the American government.

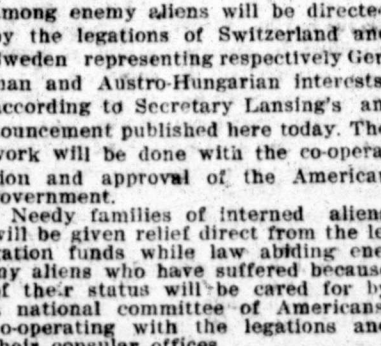

Needy families of interned aliens will be given relief direct from the legation funds while law-abiding enemy aliens who have suffered because of their status will be cared for by a national committee of Americans, co-operating with the legations and their consular offices.

PROTEST AGAINST ABUSES OF BELGIANS IS LODGED

Washington, April 30.—An official dispatch from Holland says that the Telegram published a letter sent by the Belgian senators and deputies to the governor general protesting against the treatment of Belgians. Many of the population, some of them under 16 and others over 70 years of age, have been taken from their homes to the Flanders front or to the north of France to work while exposed to bombs and shell fire.

No Obligation
In Germany and Austria many aliens have been detained and most of them are largely dependent for support upon the food supplies sent in through the Red Cross or other organizations. In the case of enemy aliens who are now interned in the United States the government is liable for the cost of their maintenance as in the case of any law-breaker or convict. The Swiss and Swedish legations may supply them with some small articles or foods not provided by the internment camps administration.

While the Germans have captured Kemmel Hill, the Allies have placed a solid wall against their further advance.

Who ever heard of the like? Evidently there are two Missourians with more than their share of contentment.

Speaker Champ Clark, of the National House of Representatives, and Judge W. W. Graves, chief justice of the Missouri Supreme Court, have both declined appointment to the United States Senate to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Stone.

If the signs are true, however, Speaker Clark will soon lose his contentment, for everything points to the fact that he will again enter the race for the Democratic nomination for President.

It is probable, too, that Judge Graves has other political plans, or more than his share of common sense as well as complacency.

NO RESPECTER OF PERSONS William Edenborn of New Orleans, president of the Louisiana Railway and Navigation Company and one of the wealthiest and most influential men in the South, was arrested and placed in jail by federal officers Sunday night because of alleged disloyal remarks about England and other disloyal statements.

It is alleged that Edenborn gave support to Hans Halls, an alien enemy, who manufactured bombs with intent of destroying overseas shipping in the port of New Orleans and that he subscribed only $2.50 to the Y. M. C. A. war fund.

Edenborn protested against being put in jail, evidently thinking that his position and wealth entitled him to special consideration. He learned that for disloyalty his wealth and position could bring him no special consideration and he was locked in a cell in the parish jail.

CALL TO TEXANS. Ours is the imperative duty of providing replacement units for the armies in France. We must be able to put fresh men in the field, thoroughly and methodically trained.

In addition to those already called to the colors and now training at our camps or already selected for service, very large quotas will be required in the immediate future to fill gaps," says Secretary of War Baker in his weekly review.

This is a clear call to Texans to enlist in the new units of the Texas National Guard now forming. The new Guard will release trained men now held on the border for service in France. It will offer an opportunity for service to men who cannot qualify for overseas service and it will offer an opportunity for training to men who can go to France when they are trained. No man who can qualify for service abroad ought to join the Guard with the idea that he will not go to France, if his country needs him there more than it does on the border.

Germany is making a desperate bid for a decision on the western front. She is hurling her divisions again and again against the indomitable British in an effort to break them down and to destroy the morale of the Allies. The plans of the German war lords will fail but to prevent their success the allies must rush thousands upon thousands of men to the front. It is the duty of America to send troops to France as rapidly as they can be transported. For the present it appears that there are more trained troops than there are ships to carry them, but the ships are being provided and the government may soon be able to transport as many men as can be trained. Then if America has the trained men the balance will be turned against Germany and the end of the war can be foreseen. Until this time comes predictions of victory are only the expression of our hopes.

The Texas National Guard will help to this end in that it will release trained men from duty on the Mexican border and will be an added agency for the training of recruits to fit them for duty abroad.

OFFICIAL Great Britain.

London, April 30.—The French now hold the entire village of Loere west of Kemmel, says the official statement from the war office today. During the night the British advanced their line east of Villers-Brionneux on the front before Amiens.

The statement reads: "Successful counter attacks carried out by French troops yesterday afternoon and evening drove the enemy from the remainder of the ground gained by him during the morning in the neighborhood of Loere and captured a number of prisoners. The whole village is in the hands of our Allies."

"After the heavy repulse inflicted on the enemy yesterday the night passed comparatively quiet on the northern battle front."

"We advanced our line slightly during the night east of Villers-Brionneux."

"On the remainder of the British front there is nothing to report beyond artillery activity on both sides in certain sectors."

FRANCE Paris, April 30.—Heavy artillery fighting occurred last night north and south of the Avre in the sector of Noyon and along the Oise, the war office reports today.

MOVING OF CATTLE TO EAST IS LIKELY TO BE NECESSARY

Washington, April 30.—Reports of heavy rains today in the drought stricken western cattle range section of Texas caused food administration officials to express the belief that the cattle feeding problems that last year necessitated the removal of some 300,000 head of cattle to other states, would not recur this year.

So serious had been the drought this year that cattle raisers there were compelled to buy practically all the feed for their livestock beside shipping thousands of head to ranges elsewhere. Today's rains is declared to be heavy enough to give new life to the ranges which had been burned up by the drought of the last two years.

BULGE IN COTTON IS LOST QUICKLY DURING MORNING

REPORT MAKES ROUNDS THAT MOVEMENT IS ON FOOT TO CLOSE EXCHANGE.

By Associated Press. New York, April 30.—A big advance in the cotton market this morning on excessive rains in the cotton belt was checked toward noon by reports from Washington, published by a financial news agency, that a movement was being agitated to close the cotton exchanges for the period of the war. Prices which had advanced over $4 a bale above the previous closing not only lost all this rise but sold three to five points under last night's figures.

Two Of Plaintiffs In Suit Dismissed; Case Is Continued

After changing the status of the suit by dismissing one of the plaintiffs, H. B. Hines and Phyl Taylor, Judge E. R. Meek this morning ordered the continuance of the equity case of J. P. Long vs. C. B. Pearson until Wednesday morning, to give attorneys for the plaintiff time to prepare a new plea. The suit involves an oil lease sold by Hines, Taylor and Long, at different times, to the defendant and the court held that as the plaintiffs had sold separately they could not join in the same suit.

Market Report

COTTON MARKET PROVES NERVOUS AND UNSETTLED

By Associated Press. New York, April 30.—The cotton market was extremely nervous and unsettled early today. The opening was strong at an advance of thirty to eighty-five points with July selling at 25.70 and October at 25.00 on the call as a result of active covering and fresh buying inspired by relatively firm cables, renewed complaints of wet and cool weather, and a more optimistic view of the war news. This bulge met liquidation by people who had carried their cotton over the break of late yesterday and there were quick reactions of thirty or forty points after the call, accompanied by renewed talk of increased spot offerings. Spot advances, however, were conflicting with some of the southern wires claiming that nothing but hedged cotton was for sale on a high basis, and later fluctuations were very irregular.

Reports that congressmen were being petitioned to close the cotton exchanges for the duration of the war revived the fear of government regulation or price fixing during the middle of the morning. There was a renewal of heavy general selling in consequence and for a time the market was very weak and excited, with July selling off to 24.80 and October to 24.15, or 90 to 95 points below the early high level and 3 to 5 points net lower. Later Washington advices were reassuring, however, and the market steadied up during the middle of the day on the unfavorable view of new crop progress with prices reaching rallies of 70 or 75 points from the lowest.

Trading was comparatively quiet during the early afternoon and the market ruled steady around 25.50 for July and 24.80 for October or about 60 to 70 points net higher. Southern spot market officially reported early were nominally unchanged. Cotton futures opened firm, May 25.53; July 25.40; October 24.85; December 24.95; January 24.68. Cotton closed strong.

New Orleans Cotton. New Orleans, April 30.—Heavy rains in the belt caused a buying wave on the opening of the cotton market here today, which resulted in a wild rise, active months gains 95 to 118 points in a few minutes of trading. None of the weakness which featured the market late yesterday was carried over.

The advance continued until it mounted to 106 to 118 points. Here extremely heavy selling based on unfounded rumors of unfavorable legislation caused a violent break which put the active months 86 to 105 points down from the top, where they stood 1 to 32 points above yesterday's final prices.

In the afternoon the tone was steadier on the denial in telegrams from Washington of the appearance of bills adverse to the market. At one o'clock prices were a net advance of 72 to 73 points.

Cotton opened steady. Opening bids May 25.45; July 24.55; October 24.10; December 24.05; January 23.97. Cotton closed firm at an advance of 112 to 116 points.

Liverpool Spot Cotton. Liverpool, April 30.—Cotton spot for near demand; prices easier. Good middling 21.78; middling 21.25; low middling 20.75; good ordinary 19.75; ordinary 19.20. Official noon closing April 21.88 value. Old contracts fixed prices May 20.50; May June 20.42; June July 20.34. Official noon closing April 20.10 value; April May 20.02 value.

Bethlehem Steel, Republic Iron, Baldwin Locomotive, Marine common and preferred and various specialties made similar gains. Under the lead of U. S. Steel and Reading, losses were further retrieved in the final hour. The closing was irregular. Liberty 3 1/2's sold at 99.00 to 99.14, first 4's at 96.54 to 96.82 and second 4's at 96.60 to 96.84.

WARMER WEATHER SENDS GRAIN DOWN, PRICES UNSETTLED

By Associated Press. Chicago, April 30.—Forecasts of warmer weather likely to facilitate planting gave some advantage today to bears in the corn market. Continued rains, however, tended to keep prices unsettled. The fact that old corn in cribs was certain to be further damaged by excess of moisture was also a disturbing influence. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's limit to 1 1/2 lower, with May $1.27 1/2 and July $1.49 1/2 to $1.49, were followed by a moderate advance, and then a sag lower than before.

Oats weakened with corn. After opening unchanged to 1/4 lower with May 79 1/2 to 79 3/4, the market fluctuated rapidly but for the most part under yesterday's finish.

Pork continued to show extreme weakness as a result of liquidation by holders. Offerings of lard and ribs were scarce, and both commodities scored moderate gains.

Word that a cargo Argentine corn had arrived at New York counted subsequently as a depressing force, the effect of which was greatly increased by a report of a peace coup. The close was lower 1/4 to 1 1/2 net 0/2, with May 1.27 1/2 and July 1.48 1/2.

Table with columns: CORN, OATS, LARD, RIBS. Rows: May, June, July for each commodity.

Kansas City, April 30.—Corn number 2 mixed $1.62@1.66; number 2 white $1.78@1.83; number 2 yellow $1.66@1.70. Oats number 2 white $6; number 2 mixed $6 1/2 @ 8 1/4.

Chicago Produce. Chicago, April 30.—Butter, firm; creamery 34@42 1/2. Eggs receipts 58,457 cases; unchanged. Potatoes receipts 49 cars; unchanged. Fowls alive higher, 39 1/2.

Later lower prices prevailed in lard owing more or less to announcement that hogs receipts in April was the largest on record.

Firestone Tire Co. Is Reorganized Here; Brundage President

Re-organization of the Firestone Tire Company of this city, with a new charter, increasing the capital stock from $10,000 to $35,000 all paid up, was effected at a stockholders meeting held Monday afternoon. Roy Brundage was elected president and the following new directors were elected: P. B. Cox, F. F. Knotts and M. O. McCollum, M. A. Hull and J. O. Hancock were the old directors re-elected.

The stock of tires is to be enlarged so that $40,000 worth of tires will be carried at all times and two service wagons will be put on, according to the announcement of the company. Wichita Falls will be the distributing point for all north and northwest Texas.

LONDON IS CALM DESPITE RENEWAL OF GERMAN ATTACK

GERMAN INTENT IS TO MAKE FRENCH LOSE CONFIDENCE IN BRITISH.

By K. WALKER
 By Recept News Service:
 London, April 30.—The renewal of operations on a larger scale in France is taken very calmly here. Although the conditions for the last two weeks have been described as a lull in the battle there has been no rest for the British Army. All along the line the Germans have kept up a steady pressure against the British in their desperate effort to weaken the striking power of their chief enemy. Concentration first in one place and then in another has kept the British intelligence officers constantly on the alert. Practically no rest has been long continuous battle for the British troops ever since March 21. The French, except at their junction with the British, have been in a comparative peace. The strategy of the enemy has been devoted to harass the British Army.

Object of Germans.
 The German object is quite intelligible. They do not expect to break the morale of the British troops or of the people of England; what they are aiming at is to excite the apprehension of the French by persuading them that their British Allies are not invincible. To do this they are apparently willing to incur losses four or five times as great as those they inflict, provided they can gain a certain amount of territory and make the French nervous. This object has been revealed by the German propaganda offensive directed against France through Switzerland. They know that if once they could undermine French confidence in British arms they would have driven a wedge into the alliance a thousand times more effective than that which they still seek to interpose between the armed forces of the two nations. Long distance murder of British civilians was part of this plan to shake the nerves of France and undermine her confidence in England.

So Far is Fizzle.
 So far this combined military and propaganda offensive has been a complete fizzle. Foch's first reply on assuming supreme command was a direct defiance of the enemy's intention to separate the British from the French. Where the Portuguese line was broken near Armentieres and reserves were needed to stem the sacrificial flood of German lives, Foch sent a detachment of the French Army, which he would never have of it lies the plain of Ypres. To the threatened wedge there may also have been some chivalrous sentiment about this relieving, even to a small extent, the enormous burden that has been put on the British; the French have always had a most gallant jealousy of the British in the northern French. But the chief motive undoubtedly was to make this double texture of the line a symbol of Anglo-French unity.

Key to Ypres Sector.
 This important point of the British line held by French troops, Kemmel Hill, familiar to every correspondent at the front, is the observation point on the whole line. It is the key to the southern defenses of the Ypres sector. It stands like a huge bluff overlooking the rolling plain of which Armentieres is the most conspicuous rise to the east. South of it is the great horseshoe plain occupied by the Germans since the evacuation of Armentieres. North of it lies the plain of Ypres. To the west other little hills form a chain about seven miles in length terminating with the Hazebrouck-Poperinghe Ypres railroad. This is a territorial objective of the enemy. It does not compare in importance with Amiens, but Foch made it doubly tempting to Hindenburg by putting French troops at the critical point of its defenses. The Kaiser would gladly sacrifice thousands of lives for any military advance that might be turned to political advantage. His one hope of success in France is to cause friction or mistrust between the British and French, just as his one hope of success in world politics is to reap in between the United States and Great Britain.

DAY BY DAY IN LONDON.

By GEORGE T. BYE
 Monday's great many curious happenings are taking place in Belgium. A Belgian lady who owns a large manufactory in Brussels and who escaped across the Holland frontier early last autumn is my informant.

Louvain and Malines have been practically rebuilt by Belgian labor under German compulsion. This is accepted by Belgians as a Hun move to cut down the face value of the ruin they brought upon the little kingdom, now that reparation is certain to be forced from the Kaiser. Block after block of business and residential parts of these historic cities have been completely restored, but stand empty like skeleton carcasses of the brute conqueror. Of course it was impossible to replace the famous ancient edifices that Hun cannon leveled to dust, and modern buildings have gone up in their places.

Realty Values.
 What is equally interesting is that realty values are stiffening. The stimulation comes not alone from the actual rebuilding of wrecked towns and cities, but from the activity of owners of factory and office buildings who are enlarging or beautifying their properties to keep their skilled employees busy. They have had to provide this work in the absence of raw materials for manufacturing goods, or workmen would be deported. A feeling of absolute certainty that the war will end with an Allied triumph also tends to encourage Belgians with hidden wealth to invest secretly in real estate.

Court martial deaths and imprisonment have not quelled the Belgian disposition to show loathing for everything Teutonic. Belgians riding in the streets are not infrequently should a German officer take a seat, first wrinkling noses and saying loudly, "What an odor in here! Let's move out to fresh air." If the German comes to the platform they find an insulting pretext for going inside again.

"Take a Bath."
 When the Germans in their many attempts to conciliate the captive population, announced that they would place to public gatherings—the people of Brussels by house-to-house agreement decided not to appear within hearing distance at the specified time.

When Germans are posted on walls, there inevitably is chalked above their proclamations these three words: "Take a bath." That has become a formula. In the several years of the occupation, the Huns have posted the proclamations out of reach and have guarded them day and night. Still, in some magical, surreptitious way, "Take a bath" blazes out every time to boche discomfiture.

My Belgian friend left Brussels because she had heard her son was wounded and in an English hospital and she wanted to go to him; also, she was afraid her daughter might get into trouble. The girl's coteries of friends in Brussels had pledged themselves to speak only English when in the presence of Huns, and this was proving such a torment that arrests and punishment in the heartless Hun way were imminent. When she left the people were paying 200 francs ($36) for one smuggled copy of the London "Times," which was covertly circulated through Brussels each family paying a share toward this news from the outside world.

Surrender Dogs.
 Today she received a letter from a friend in Brussels saying that the Germans had ordered all civilians to surrender their dogs because of the shortage of food. The dogs were to be killed. Her friend wrote that neighbors with a pedigreed hunting dog filled him and sent his carcass in a box to the German commandant. Around the dog's neck was a ribbon on which was lettered, "He died for his country."
 I should like to tell you how this brave little Belgian lady escaped from the German yoke, at great risk to herself, but I am afraid I would only make work for the censor.

Tuesday.—This night, with favorable weather, came the expected air raid. The practical joker in our camp was kept on telling us until long past midnight when we had "All Clear," that we had an ingenious new defense, a great net stretched across London swung between four balloons. He said we would be sure to see a half dozen Hun baby assassins caught in the meshes of the net and hanging high in the morning.

Wednesday.—No sign of a net or entangled Huns. This morning we could still detect the odor of explosives that pervades London during a raid.

LAST DAYS FOR LIQUOR ARRIVES IN MICHIGAN

By Associated Press.
 Detroit, April 30.—Capacity business in retail houses dealing in package goods, famine prices for wines and whiskies in cafes and barrooms, and "no beer" signs in many of them, marked the last day of the legal sale of liquor in Detroit and Michigan today.

The constitutional amendment making Michigan a prohibition state became operative at midnight tonight.

PROTECTION GIVEN MERCANT VESSELS

(By Recept News Service)
 London, April 30.—Although the British press is usually not permitted to describe the system of convoys for merchant vessels, and information on the subject from enemy sources may not be exact, the following from the Handelsblatt gives some idea of the protection provided for allied and neutral shipping against Germany's submarine pirates.
 There are various methods of conveying transports and merchantmen. The importance of the craft, their length, their number, many circumstances determine the order in which the attendant warships sail. Therefore the following is no standard plan, but only the distribution of forces for about ten merchantmen sailing together, as they mostly do between England and Norway. Ten merchantmen are placed in echelon, in an order intermediate between line abreast and line ahead. The order in which they would sail, side by side, in line ahead would move behind one another. It is obvious that a line would be too easy a target for an enemy torpedo; a single file would be equally convenient for the captains, but the distance between two ships must be at least 500 yards, and the length of a convoy would be such that head and tail would lose sight of one another. The echelon offers the advantage of shortening the distance; it suffers from the drawback that a torpedo might, after missing the echelon on the left, make a hit on a ship in the right echelon. In front at least three or four sea miles in advance, steams a modern destroyer provided with a submarine receiver, able to perceive the sound of the screw of a submarine because it differs markedly from the sound of the screw of a steamer. Behind it follows the commander's ship, a small old cruiser, or a so-called submarine destroyer, whose duties are to decide on speed, course, formation, etc. Then follows a torpedo-boat destroyer of an older type dragging behind it a captive balloon, which is able to overlook a much greater extent of the surface of the sea.

and also to discover submarines down to a considerable depth below. A similar balloon is tied to the mast of the procession. Destroyers sailing in zig-zag protect the flanks, while for nearer protection steam trawlers are sailing. Some of the latter also take the places between the two echelons in the center of the convoy. While the above gives no general picture, it shows how hard it is to torpedo one or more ships out of a convoy without being detected.

You Save Bother and Money with Our Coupon Books

You will find it so much more convenient to pay for your ice with coupons.

When the driver brings in the ice all you have to do is tear out a coupon and hand it to him. It saves all the bother, and time, of looking for the right change or of receiving money that is necessarily wet from the driver's hands.

Even if you got less ice with coupons, than with money, a lot of folks would prefer the coupons because they are so much easier. Buying ice with coupons is not only the easiest but it is the most economical way. You get MORE ice for your money. And that should appeal to you in these times when everybody, in a fine spirit of patriotism, is trying to economize.

We want to make our service as pleasant and perfect as is humanly possible so we suggest that you use coupon books, for we know you will like that plan better.

Coupon books may be bought from our drivers. Get one tomorrow.

GIVES HIS ALL TO COUNTRY IN TIME OF NEED

ED WALSH SELLS PROPERTY, BUYS BONDS AND THEN HE ENLISTS.

How one man is giving, not a part of what he has, but his all to the country in this time of need, is detailed in a statement received by The Times today from Deputy Governor Hoopes, of the Federal Reserve Bank, Eleventh District, Dallas, in recounting the steps which have been taken by Ed Walsh to safeguard the liberties which he has enjoyed.

Walsh, it will be noted, is not one who has gained a fortune by birth or accident. Every penny he has made "in the sweat of his brow." Therefore he knows the value of a dollar.

The communication in full follows: A one hundred per cent patriot comes from what was the free state of Van Zant. Ed Walsh's father was a carpenter, his mother died years ago. Ed is now twenty-two. At the age of seventeen he started growing cotton, made fifteen thousand dollars, bought a laundry, and was well on the way to affluence. Ed made a momentous decision the other day.

He heard the call, "Your country needs you." He responded, not grudgingly, not in any spirit of "What is there in it for me," he bought $11,600 worth of Liberty Bonds, will sell his laundry and put the proceeds into Liberty Bonds. Further, Ed will give himself and his future to his country. He leaves for France in the good old uniform very shortly.

Ed told a representative of the Federal Reserve Bank, "If I die in France, I ask only one thing, and that is that my name shall be recorded somehow, somewhere, as one who did his best for his country."

No man could stand in the presence of such a man and argue about per centages.

How does your conduct in this crisis measure up with Ed Walsh's?

SPEED RECORDS ARE BROKEN IN RAISING TROOPS

EVERY COMPANY IS OVER-RECRUITED NOW, IS ANNOUNCEMENT

North Texas has broken all records for the speed in which the new cavalry regiment allotted to this part of the state was raised, according to the reports made to General R. H. McMill, as yesterday the new regiment raised by Colonel W. A. Miller and his staff, including Major George A. Smoot, Jr. of this city, was tendered the general. The regiment was over-recruited while in the other parts of the state the organizations are still behind in enlistment, according to the reports brought back from Dallas by Major Smoot. The North Texas organization was formally tendered to Governor Hobby sometime this week by General McMill, and after it is accepted work of pushing the federalization through will be taken up. Physical examination will be made within a short time it is expected.

Every company had been over-recruited and enlistments continued to come in in all the places where offices were opened. It was stated. Recruiting will continue locally, Major Smoot says, and all who have not yet enlisted who intend to do so should get in as soon as possible. Lieutenant E. L. Smith and J. Wilkie Talbert, two National Guard enthusiasts conducted a meeting in Iowa Park Monday. They report a very enthusiastic rally with a good attendance.
