GENERAL F. B. MAURICE IS CENTER OF ALL EYES

POLITICAL CRISIS IS NOW IMPENDING IN GREAT BRITAIN

ASQUITH IS BELIEVED TO BE BACK OF CHARGES AGAINST CABINET.

By Associated Press
London, May 8.—The action of General Maurice, former chief director of military operations at the war in impugning the veracity of ministers of the government, has created a most serious political situation and one which is of vital importance to the cabinet's existence, according to the views expressed by several of the morning papers.

Papers which have consistently supported the present administration rally to its side and insinuate, or assert openly, that former Premier Asquith and his followers are back of General Maurice and that the affair is a maneuver to oust the Lloyd George cabinet and put in its place a cabinet headed by Mr. Asquith, Viscount Grey and the Marquis of Lansdowne.

There is no doubt that the opposition led by Mr. Asquith regards time ripe for it to accept the responsibility of office. It is for the house of commons to choose. The alternative government would be exclusively a radical one.

The Daily Mail which strongly supports Premier Lloyd George and is strongly inimical to former Premier Asquith says the motion of Mr. Asquith's motion will afford him the needed opportunity for an attempt to bring about a parliamentary crisis. It remarks that General Maurice does not say that no soldier had seen his letter. "The commission," the Daily Mail adds, "coupled with Asquith's maneuvers in parliament on Tuesday, suggests that the old gang believes it has found a weapon which will destroy the government. We believe these infatuated politicians have made one more miscalculation. The nation has no confidence in the discredited and dilatory politicians and their pacifist hangers-on who were driven from office eighteen months ago."

The Daily Graphic says: "Mr. Asquith's intervention, indicated that the political situation is at an end. We must anticipate a new political struggle centering around the question of the premier's honor."

The conservative Morning Post says that the premier's own act brought the government to the present serious pass. He refused, it declares, to take the advice of soldiers, the Germans took advantage of the situation, and the premier threw the blame on the soldiers. The Post adds: "The hand of Nemesis is now stretched out. Lloyd George will need all his nimbleness to avoid being racked on the wheel of destiny. He has had his chance and has proved unfit for work in hand. But nobody can rejoice who considers the alternative, as the prospect of the Daily News which is opposed to the premier rejoices that the government will not accept the Asquith motion but will treat it as a vote of censure so that parliament on Thursday must take a decision involving the life of the government."

MOST DISCUSSED MAN OF COUNTRY CABLES DECLARE

CORRESPONDENTS ARE IMPRESSED OF PERSONALITY OF MILITARY LEADER

By Associated Press
London, May 8.—The most talked of man in England today is General Frederick B. Maurice, formerly director of military operations at the war office.

If some volunteer general or some soldier, who had graduated from politics or business into soldiering had defied and trampled upon all the laws and traditions of the British army and Allied armies he would not have excited such enormous surprise as has General Maurice in his famous letter impugning the veracity of the ministry. Had some less well trained officer written the letter it would have been put down to lack of tradition and disregard of the conventionalities of a citizen soldier.

But General Maurice in his personality, his record and his career, has been the personification of all that is conventional, austere and correct in the professional soldier. His weekly and recently his bi-weekly conference with American newspaper correspondents have impressed them with his wide knowledge, a passion for accuracy in detail and his personal aloofness, as though he were performing a function that professionally he rather disliked and resented.

Like Prussian Staff Officer
Barring his uniform he would readily pass for a typical Prussian staff officer of the Moltke school. His representations to correspondents have not been interviews but lectures. The correspondents filed into the sanctuaries at the war office at the appointed hour, any who were late found the door barred against them. Military respect was shown to the chief of staff and General Maurice would not forgive or excuse a lack of it.

A tall blonde gentleman with a fresh pink complexion and a nose surrounded by maps of all sorts, contour maps, flat maps, maps of elevations all marked with flags with numbers and with red, blue and yellow pencil marks, the general dealt with all these maps as Paderewski deals with the keys of a piano. He knew every detail of them.

"Good afternoon gentlemen," he said, having finished never anything more. The correspondents left with more real knowledge in their notebooks to digest than they were likely to get from days spent in reading the general's occasional military expert for the newspapers.

WHO'S WHO IN FINANCE

Theodore N. Vail
President, The American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Those who refer to Theodore N. Vail as "the biggest telephone man in the world" find ample evidence to support the assertion. Mr. Vail was thirty-one years old when Professor Bell's invention was completed and made ready for service. He then was filling the post of general superintendent of the railway mail service, when he had reorganized and developed. He had been a telegraph operator earlier, however, and had had sufficient experience in electrical devices to appreciate the possibilities of "Bell's toy." It was because of this appreciation that he resigned from the mail service to become general manager of the first American Bell Telephone Company in 1878. From that position he climbed, step by step, to his present position. Mr. Vail was born in Ohio July 16, 1845, the son of David R. and Phoebe Vail. His father's ancestors were English Quakers, some of whom were among the Pilgrims who settled in Massachusetts. To-day Mr. Vail is not only head of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company but is a director of the New York Telephone Company and nineteen other telephone companies. He is a trustee of the American Surety Company, of New York, and is interested in numerous other financial institutions.

OVER 500,000 MEN NOW IN FRANCE, IS OFFICIAL REPORT

By Associated Press
BULLETIN—Washington, May 8.—More than half a million American soldiers have been sent to France. Secretary Baker today authorized the statement that his forecast to congress in January that 500,000 troops would be dispatched to France early in the present year now had been surpassed.

Mr. Baker dictated the following statement: "In January I told the senate committee that there was strong likelihood that early in the present year 500,000 American troops would be dispatched to France. I cannot either now or perhaps later discuss the number of American troops in France; but I am glad to be able to say that the forecast I made in January has been surpassed."

As a result of a personal investigation of machine gun production during the past few days, the secretary announced that there is no present shortage of light or heavy types of these weapons either in France or in America and no shortage is in prospect.

CAPT. J. A. HALL IS SHOT DOWN IN LINES OF ENEMY

MAKES ATTACK UPON FOUR ENEMY PLANE IN ST. MIHEL SECTOR

HE HAS LIVELY COMBAT

German Planes Follow Him to Ground and Fate of None of Them is Known

By Associated Press
With the American Army in France, Tuesday, May 7.—Jimmy Hall is going and the whole American air service is mourning his loss. All are wondering whether he was killed or was able to bring his machine safely to earth after a battle in the air over Pagny-Sur-Moselle. Captain Hall was popular throughout the army and had won admiration by his daring coolness and skill in handling his machine.

The captain's flying companions are all certain he would have knocked out his opponent had it not been for a maneuver upward of 300 feet as American and French planes in this section of France are concerned. It has been considered dangerous to the last degree to bring up a machine shakily from down ward jumps because the captain is almost certain to cause the collapse of some vital part. The German aviator whom Captain Hall was pursuing being hard pressed, the desperate attempt to escape death and won. He was thus enabled to pour a stream of bullets into the bottom of Hall's machine.

The aviators all have the greatest confidence in him and express the conviction that if he landed safely and was captured he would escape eventually.

By Associated Press
With the American Army in France, May 7, Tuesday.—After a thrilling battle with enemy airplanes ten miles north of Pont-A-Mousson, Captain James Norman Hall, one of the leading American aviators, made a spiral dive for the earth and was last seen close to the ground apparently trying to land. His subsequent fate is unknown.

Captain Hall, with two others, was patrolling this morning between St. MiHEL and Pont-A-Mousson. When they were over Pagny-Sur-Moselle, four enemy albatross airplanes, painted with black and white stripes, were seen.

HEAVY ARTILLERY FIRE REPORTED ALONG FRONT; OTHERWISE ALL IS QUIET

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows: Along the battle lines in northern France the Allied troops still await the shock of renewed heavy fighting by the Germans. Apparently the rainy weather has interfered a great deal with the enemy's transport and he has not been able to perfect his arrangements because of the difficulties of bringing his supplies over the battle-torn ground of landers and rivers.

Having gained some advantage in local fighting the Allies are waiting for the next effort of the Germans which already has been delayed much longer than in previous lulls since the beginning of the offensive on March 21. Meanwhile, fresh troops and new supplies are pouring in to strengthen the Allied positions and this fact must add to the perturbation of the enemy who has nothing remarkable in military achievement to show for his heavy losses of the last seven weeks.

The artillery fire continued violent on important sectors. The Germans are shelling heavily the Anglo-French front southwest of Ypres and the sector south of the Somme between Villers-Bretonneux and railles. These sectors saw the heavy fighting previous to the German repulse north of Mont Kemmel nine days ago. Enemy fire against the southern side of the Arras sector which lies north of Albert also has been intense.

Much Aerial Activity
There has been great aerial activity on the American sector northwest of Toul and Captain James Norman Hall, well known as a flyer in the French and American armies, is reported missing after a battle in which he and two other Americans engaged four German Two of the enemy airplanes are believed to have been brought down. Other Americans also have been meeting the enemy in the air along the line east of St. MiHEL and it is believed the Germans have concentrated large forces in an attempt to wipe out the American fliers. There has been no infantry fighting on any of the American sectors.

Except for fruitless patrol raids by the Austrians and limited artillery fire, there has been no activity on the Italian front. The Austrians still withhold their attack and neither Vienna nor Berlin has said anything of it for the past several days.

Political Crisis
A political crisis involving the security of the Lloyd George government has arisen in Great Britain over the letter by General Maurice, former chief director of military operations, in which he questioned the veracity of the premier and the chancellor of the exchequer. In the house of commons yesterday a parliamentary encounter between Andrew Bonar Law, for the government and former Premier Asquith, resulted in the government's acceptance of a motion by Mr. Asquith that the house discuss the form of inquiry to be made into the statements of General Maurice.

NEWSPAPER MEN ARE ORDERED TO LEAVE MEXICO

REPRESENTATIVE OF DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION ONE OF THE TWO

By Associated Press
Washington, May 8.—Unofficial advice received here tell of an order for the expulsion from Mexico by the Carranza government of Robert H. Murray, the representative of the committee on public information in Mexico City who, in that capacity, has been in charge of the work conducted by the American government to offset German propaganda.

At the same time the unofficial advice say, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press in Mexico City, W. E. Weigand, was also ordered to leave.

"Pernicious Foreigners."
The explosion of hot iron it was said was ordered under the thirty third section of the Mexican constitution which provides for the summary deportation of "pernicious foreigners" without trial or hearing. Some of the experiences of Americans expelled from Mexico under that section have been described as little short of harrowing.

Murray was the correspondent of the New York World and one of the best known American newspaper men in Mexico. Whether Weigand was to take steps to properly inform Mexicans of the attitude of the United States in the war and thus attack the German propaganda in Mexico which for months has been described as rampant, Murray was selected by the committee on public information to carry on its work. An order for his expulsion was issued by the Carranza government and again gained the upper hand in Mexican official circles.

Explosion Kills 7 At Fort Worth

BULLETIN—Fort Worth, May 8.—Six soldiers were killed at Camp Bowie this afternoon when two trench mortars exploded. Three others are seriously injured. The men were practicing in the trench system at the time. All were in the 142nd infantry. Lieutenant Allan J. McDavid is among the dead.

General Grebe, commander of the camp, was present and was saved from injury by the presence of mind of his aide, Lieutenant Russell.

Lieutenant Shaw of the British army who also was present at the time of the explosion said he never heard of such a thing before.

Captain Pinney of divisional headquarters staff, was slightly wounded. Some of the dead and wounded are from the 11st infantry. The explosion occurred at 3:15 p. m.

The list of the dead follows: First Lieutenant Allen J. McDavid, headquarters company, 141st infantry, Overton, Texas. Privates Dewey Tillman, John W. Webber, Langley R. Lacey and Morgan Z. Sanders, all of headquarters company, 141st infantry; Euclid O. Simmons, Company K, 142nd infantry.

The personnel office was unable at this hour to give the some addresses of the privates, promising to furnish the information at a later hour.

Captain William B. Pinney, on General Grebe's staff, was among the injured.

STATE IS NOT ABLE TO GET REHEARING OF SPANELL CASE

By Associated Press
Austin, Texas, May 8.—The court of criminal appeals today refused to grant the states motion for rehearing in the case of H. J. Spanell, charged with killing Lieutenant Colonel C. Butler, U. S. A., at Alpine, Texas, July 20, 1917.

The court previously reversed and remanded the case on appeal of defense that Spanell had been acquitted of killing his wife and could not be tried for killing Butler, since the killing was one continuous act. Spanell was found guilty and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by a Coleman county jury on charge of killing Lieutenant Colonel Butler after a Tom Green county jury had acquitted him of killing his wife.

Suit Is Instituted Under New Zone Law By Attorney General

By Associated Press
Austin, Tex., May 8.—The first suit to be filed by the state since the ten mile zone law became effective, was instituted by Attorney General B. F. Donnelly today in the city third district court against Walter H. Koehler of Bexar county for injunction to restrain Koehler from selling intoxicating liquors within the ten mile zone. A temporary injunction was granted by the court directed against Koehler. The state claims that the defendant has since April 16, 1918 engaged in the business of retailing intoxicating liquors at a place one and one half miles of the town of Lytle, Atascosa county, which place it is alleged is within ten miles of a military training camp.

SCHWAB REPORTS LATE MOVES OF FLEET COMPANY

By Associated Press
Washington, May 8.—The cost plus contracts of the Submarine Boat Corporation at Newark, N. J., for construction of 160 steel ships of 5,000 tons each have been cancelled, Charles M. Schwab, production manager of the emergency fleet corporation today told the senate naval committee in investigation of the corporation's work. New contracts were let on the flat basis of $460,000 for each ship.

Cost-plus contracts at the Hog Island and Bristol, Pa., government yards were continued, Schwab said. The substitution for the Newark Bay yard was designed to speed up construction, which it was said, was far behind schedule.

COURT MARTIAL IS ORDERED TO MEET TOMORROW

By Associated Press
Washington, May 8.—A general court martial composed of three major generals and five brigadier generals, was named today to assemble at Governor's Island, N. Y., tomorrow for the trial of such persons as may be brought before it.

It is assumed the case that necessitated the creation of the court is that of Brigadier General Arthur B. Donnelly, of the Missouri national guard, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer.

The court is headed by Major General J. Franklin Bell, and with the exception of General Bell and Brigadier General William A. Mann, commanding the eastern department, is composed of retired officers. They are Major General William H. Carter and Hugh L. Scott, Brigadier Generals Theodore A. Bingham, Montgomery M. Macomb, James Parker and William T. Russell. Major Dudley V. Sutton is appointed judge advocate of the court and Major Jackson A. Dykman, assistant to the judge advocate.

WOODEN VESSEL LAUNCHED AT TAMPA, FLORIDA.

Tampa, Fla., May 8.—The Naneok (first of four wooden steamships being built here, was to be launched late today. The vessel is 236 feet long and will displace about 2,200 tons.

LARGE CROWD IS IN ATTENDANCE AT TABERNACLE

MORNING SERVICES CAUSE MOST COMMENT IN RELIGIOUS CIRCLES

- Tonight: 8 p. m. "Judge Lot, Family and Madame Lot" Mr. Brown.
- Thursday: 10 a. m. Third talk on "Spirit Filled Life."
- 12: Mr. Brown at Rotary.
- 4 p. m. Mr. Stover with Boys and Girls.
- 4 p. m. Mrs. Stover, High school girls at Presbyterian church.
- 8 "A Modern Jonah," Mr. Brown.

The weather man turned loose some advance samples of next July yesterday and the little bright spot on the thermometer kept crawling upward till it nearly reached the century mark.

The tabernacle crowd was good and the sermon on "Potter" which is reproduced in part this afternoon maintained the standard Mr. Brown has set for himself.

The morning services are the ones which seem to cause the most comment in religious circles and both mornings the very unusual sight of prominent business men abandoning their offices and stores for the tabernacle has been seen. As a matter of fact Mr. Brown does inject into the morning talks an interest which is very unusual. The man or woman who is religious, or religiously inclined would take to these special lectures like a lot of folk took to ice cream yesterday.

Other Feature of Work
Other feature work has begun. Mr. Stover has already begun his boys and girls work and these meetings will be held every afternoon except Saturday. Today Mrs. Stover began the first of her series of intimate lectures to High school girls. Mr. Brown's first outside appearance is announced for tomorrow noon when he will be the guest of the Rotary.

The Sermon
Key words can be found for every chapter of the Bible and in this nineteenth chapter, the key word for Jeremiah's record is "marred."

Jeremiah lived in the era of Israel's greatest prophet tree crop. Jonah was forced into exile, and this famous old prophet did the work of the Lord under circumstances that were anything but rosy.

The Jews needed a lot of prophesying, and even then couldn't hold the middle of the road.

Sometimes people think they would be good if they lived way back where Elisha, Elisha and Jeremiah flourished and explained and warned and worked miracles. Chances are you would be just like you are now. Anyway, you can have access to the whole category of the great prophets, and that's better than the average Hebrew had.

The story of the potter's wheel is familiar but even while I had often read it I never knew until in an eastern city a manufacturer asked me if I cared to go through his establishment with the lesson in mind I told him I wanted to see it all. After that visit the chapter was never the same. As that Jeremiah saw, I saw and the beauty and perfection was wonderful. The clay, the mason the spinning wheels, the deft hands, the rapid turning of vases, the ruination of some, the careful drying boards, the long lines of boards with the vases ready to be carried to the kilns, and after baking the perfection and flaws all brought me vividly to the story of Jeremiah. It was a great lesson that the Lord gave Jeremiah.

God Chooses Israel
God had chosen Israel and formed it to be a wonderful vessel. It had been shaped and stood off the wheel to dry when imperfections began to appear. The vessel soon shot off that it was going to be practically useless and while Jeremiah moaned over it, God showed him he was still able to work with it. He was a great picture of God's repeated remodelling of Israel on his wheel. In Bible history, it failed repeatedly to come to the standard of perfection, but God did make the nation whirling on the stand in line and hold the Redeemer of the world Jesus Christ.

God has always needed strong men, and has worked indefatigable to get them. The nation which produces a lot of vessels but very few of them stand out as approaching what God would have them. A few here and there like the heroes of Bible history and modern times are conspicuous, but the most part of the teeming millions of earth have been defective that they have dropped off unnoticed by any except God who still has cared for his broken vessels. Sam Jones was poor looking and poor performing clay, and mighty few theological potters would have picked him up and put him on their wheel.

God looked him over and said: "If I can get that flaw out of him he will make a worth while vessel." Sam felt himself being whirled on the wheel. Whisky and sin flow in every direction, but the clay stuck, and, dizzy with the experience, he said: "Now, Lord, what next?"
It was good evidence that his hand was off. He realized that the Lord was on the job and Jones took a vacation from sin all his life.

Then, There Was Moody
D. L. Moody was, from the world's standpoint, a poor stock clay. He was bashful, illiterate, ordinary, and had a cord of advice from preachers not to try to be a theological vase. He didn't try.

God set him up down in a mission where the vases looked pretty common in the raw. Moody began to whirl, and went through the furnace of criticism, but stuck firm on the wheel. Finally, when God said, "Stand up, you are fired," the world looked in amazement at the "poor thing," and is still looking.

People God Wants
Right here in Wichita Falls there are men and women God wants. After you have got the material it must be worked. Sometimes this involves severe hammering and kneading, but no clay will ever be made into a vase until it first becomes pit-a-ole. Also, the more worked over the clay is, the less chance there is for flaws; had sand, had dirt, all bubbles—all come out in the working.

Don't be discouraged if God is working you pretty hard. You won't be full of sand and air bubbles when he is through.
I must lay a foundation for a revival. Not only the attention of people must be gained, but conviction of sin must be gained, and people willing to come clean. We say "believe" but at the same time they must see sin and be willing to quit it before belief will do any business. Our transformation will go no farther than our repentance.

Believes in Sudden Conversion
I believe in sudden conversion. Mel Trotter says: "I was there, blessed be God, when it happened." Sudden conversion is according to all rules of science, common sense, the Bible, philosophy, logic, and everything else. Everything you do in a physical way is sudden.

Might as well talk of shooting a gun off a tree a little at a time as getting converted a little at a time.

If you were married, it was sudden; one minute you wasn't and the next "you was." You were born sudden; one minute you were not born and then you were. Our preparations may take time, but the act itself is sudden. Well, God is not violating any rule when he converts and saves you all of a sudden. You are lost until you are saved, and there is no transition period of half lost and half saved any more than you are half married and half unmarried. See?

To Many "Pushed"
"In this cold-blooded age too many are pushed into religion," he declared in denouncing methods adopted by some in obtaining conversions that are not conversions. A man must be shown why he is wrong if living in sin, and at the opportune moment, if asked, will follow onto the path of right living, he explained.
Launching into a criticism of so-called "higher criticism," as applied to religion, he declared that the method was dreamed out over a mug of beer in Germany. Higher critics, he declared, should be thrown into the slums and given a practical lesson in "coming back." A man has to be fed something besides theories before he can be converted, he stated in defending revival services against attacks from "higher critics."

"This country is lousy with has, was-beens and used-to-be's," he shouted in pointing out the faults of many people in Wichita Falls who claim to be Christians.

He then illustrated how rabbits are brought out of their holes by twisting forked sticks in their hides and fur. "I'm going to get a forked stick and get some of these Wichita Falls rabbits," he declared. "I'll get them out of their holes or get some of their hair and fur."

There are hundreds of marred vessels in life. Take this lesson home with you. Take a square look at yourself and if it is topped, go to God and ask him to put you on the wheel and twist and turn you till you come through clean.

The superintendent said a good vase has to be kept in proper atmosphere until cured. That's reasonable and the world is full of people who were made and then ran off into places too hot or too cold, and they don't look like anything as a result. The church is the right atmosphere and let me declare emphatically for every outsider you may mark down one backslider. You set atmosphere and food in the church that is fit for you.

I am a preacher to the marred vessel, and want every man to take hope and look up.

FOOD WASTAGE AT ARMY CAMPS IS NOW DENIED

STATE ADMINISTRATION ISSUES FORMAL REPORT OF AFFAIR

The Food Administration issues the following:
Food wastage at Army camps, if it ever existed is a thing of the past according to the War Department and the Food Administration. Although there still seems to be a general impression that Army garbage pails are extremely well rationed, investigations of all such reports have tended to show that the American Army is rapidly approaching the limit of possibilities in food saving. Scores of letters have come to the Food Administration and the War Department, telling of alleged prodigal wastage of foodstuffs. Each one has been the basis for an investigation and each has shown that the report was based on hearsay and absolutely without foundation.

WOODMEN WILL HAVE ROUSING MEETING TODAY.
W. O. W. Camp No. 2001 is expected to have a rousing big meeting.

Pacific Coast Complaint
Recently a woman living at Port Townsend, Wash., wrote to the Food Administration to complain of great wastage at three Army posts on the Pacific coast. She said she had visited a post at the entrance to Puget Sound, where she had seen a great flock of seagulls hover about a garbage wagon and that large slices of bread were "deliberately destroyed by the simple expedient of dumping them over the dock into the water."

"Three entire pig heads were thrown out," she said she had learned. "Sufficient cooked rice was gathered by one man to raise several pigs, while probably all of the camp kitchens throw out each day sufficient white bread to constitute one of the chief foods for a substantial flock of pigs or chickens."

Proved to be Unfounded
The War Department's investigation disclosed absolutely no foundation for these statements, on the contrary showing that the establishments referred to had a garbage wastage far below that attained by the average American city, in proportion to population. In its official report of the investigation, the War Department declared that this woman's statements had no basis in fact, "beyond her unsupported testimony that she saw two loaf ends, several slices of toast, and some orange peel in the water under the dock at Fort Plagier. Every other statement proved to have been based on some form of rumor or hearsay which the complainant was unable to substantiate."

ALL HOUSEHOLDERS URGED TO CLEAN-UP TO PREVENT FLIES

Flies and the summer clean-up furnished the chief topics of discussion at the Civic League meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce. The League is to urge that all householders clean up their premises and put them in thoroughly sanitary condition for the summer, in order that there may be as little sickness as possible. This individual clean-up will be necessary as the city has not enough teams nor men at work to clean up the city and the League believes that each household should recognize its responsibility in maintaining healthful conditions and should appreciate the fact that this means as much for himself and family as it does for the public at large. If the homes surroundings are kept clean and sanitary and all breeding places for flies removed, then the downtown campaign on flies will be much easier and the League hopes by making a start in the right direction now at the beginning of summer Wichita Falls can be made a flyless city. Every building in the downtown district should be equipped with one or more fly traps, according to the character of the business conducted therein. The League states, and if this precaution is generally observed downtown there will be little danger from the fly-menace.

While giving much time to the clean-up and fly problems, the League collected more of the pledges on the Texas Canteen in France. Mrs. J. W. Stone, the chairman of this committee, reporting $75 already collected on the $100 the club desires to give. All who have not contributed their pledges are asked to do so immediately, as the entire amount should be sent to headquarters during the month of May. All Civic League members who have not already contributed are asked to see Mrs. J. W. Stone at once.

In spite of this, their supreme effort up to the present has given them absolutely nothing that is worth-while toward ending the war.

They neither have Paris nor the Channel ports.

There is going to be another test of strength between the "ins" and "outs" in England.

It does not make any difference which side wins in this particular contest, we are quite sure that Great Britain will continue to wage war against the common enemy with all the vigor of a great nation.

HON. C. F. SPENCER SPEAKS TO LIONS AT NOON LUNCHEON

PARNELL TELLS OF WAR ACTIVITIES OF THE PEOPLE OF VERNON.

Hon. Charles F. Spencer of Montague, candidate for congress, and J. D. Parnell, secretary of the Vernon Commercial Club, were speakers at the Lions' Club weekly luncheon today.

Mr. Parnell spoke of the friendly relations between the people of Wichita Falls and the people of Vernon but warned that within five years Wichita Falls would have a strong rival in Vernon. He told of the organization of the people of Vernon for the various war activities and told how within five minutes after the opening of subscriptions Vernon was able to report an oversubscription of Wilbarger county's subscription for the Third Liberty Loan. His remarks were roundly applauded.

Judge Spencer spoke after members of the Lions' Club had told of some of the results of prohibition. He expressed his pleasure at the reports he had heard. "The day has dawned," he said, "when men are being placed above money and when a man will not want to accumulate wealth over the poverty and misfortune of his fellow man."

He said that one of the great things that would come out of the world war would be a better understanding between men. "The millionaire is over in France in the trenches by the side of the farmer boy and when the war is over they are going to know each other better and have a keener and deeper appreciation of each other than has ever existed between men."

And out of their mutual understanding will come a solution of many of our problems. "The millionaires is over in France in the trenches by the side of the farmer boy and when the war is over they are going to know each other better and have a keener and deeper appreciation of each other than has ever existed between men."

Dr. M. R. Garrison said that he had not seen an intoxicated man since the saloons were closed. He said there had been only two arrests for intoxication by the city police and only two by county officers.

M. L. Allday said that there had been no arrests at Burk Burnett since the saloons went out of business in Wichita Falls and said there had been a marked improvement there.

W. B. Hamilton said that the oil industry was much safer now than it was the days when the oil field workers could get whiskey without difficulty.

W. A. Ferguson said that before prohibition became effective the banks had much trouble with bad checks. He said some fellows as soon as they got a few drinks imagined trading for money and started to write checks. He said the bad check problem had been greatly lessened by prohibition.

N. M. Durrett said that more telephones had been ordered installed since prohibition became effective than before. He said there was no longer trouble with drunk men at the toll station.

B. F. Johnson said that the removal of the stigma of the name "Whiskey Falls" had been a great thing for the city.

E. Leopold, who said that he had been one of the strongest antis in Wichita Falls, declared that he did not want to see the saloons come back again. He said that practically every merchant in his home in better business but that this was not attributable to prohibition. He said there were not so many transient people trading here as when the saloons were open but said that the people living here were buying more merchandise.

WHEAT GROWING CONDITIONS ARE REPORTED GOOD

LARGE INCREASE IN CROP INDICATED OVER THAT EXPECTED IN APRIL

By Associated Press. Washington, May 8.—Continued good reports throughout April have given indications that today's winter wheat forecast based on conditions prevailing May 1 and issued by the department of agriculture at 2:15 p. m. would show a large increase over the 560,000,000 bushels evident in April.

Prevalent estimates within the last week have placed the prospective crop at from 600,000,000 to 650,000,000 bushels. Less wheat the crop amounted to 418,700,000 bushels. In 1916 it was 480,553,000 bushels and the largest crop ever grown was that of 1914, when 648,990,000 bushels were harvested.

REPORT OF PRODUCTION ANNOUNCED BY GOVERNMENT

By Associated Press. Washington, May 8.—A winter wheat crop of 572,539,000 bushels was forecast today by the department of agriculture, basing its estimate on conditions existing May 1 and on a canvass of the acreage remaining to be harvested.

With continued favorable conditions the crop will be one of the three largest ever grown.

With increased spring wheat acreage, which preliminary reports indicate and good growing conditions it is not improbable that the government's plan for a billion bushels wheat crop this year to help feed the Allies may be realized. An official report on the spring wheat acreage will not be made until June.

Area to be Harvested

The area of winter wheat remaining to be harvested on May 1 was 3,392,000 acres or 13.7 per cent less than the acreage planted last autumn.

The condition of the crop was 86.1 per cent of a normal, indicating an acre yield of approximately 15.7 bushels.

Production of rye, forecast from May 1 conditions will be 82,629,000 bushels based on a condition of 85.8 per cent of a normal.

Production of hay will be 107,550,000 bushels based on a condition of 83.8 per cent of a normal.

Production of corn will be 107,550,000 bushels based on a condition of 89.6 per cent of a normal and an acreage of 69,531,000, of which 53,605,000 is tame and 15,926,000 wild.

Stocks of Hay

Stocks on hay on farms May 1 are estimated 11,096,000 tons. Average condition of pastures was 83.1 per cent of a normal.

Condition and forecast of production of winter wheat by principal states follow:

Ohio condition 83; forecast 33,492,000 bushels.

Indiana 96 and 47,771,000.

Illinois 92 and 29,000.

Missouri 95 and 45,963,000.

Nebraska 82 and 47,884,000.

Kansas 84 and 36,104,000.

Oklahoma 78 and 29,531,000.

TODAY'S MARKETS

COTTON MARKET IS AT DECLINE; WEATHER GOOD

By Associated Press. New York, May 8.—The cotton market opened easy today at a decline of 10 to 25 points in response to lower cables and the favorable weather map.

There was some trade buying on the call but the demand was readily supplied with July selling off to 25.02 and October 24.42 shortly after the opening, or 29 to 32 points net lower.

At this level, however, there was a good deal of covering which some of the further buying from trade sources caused rallies of 18 to 20 points from the lowest before publication of the weekly weather report.

There were rumors around the ring that the latest returns to a prominent southern authority indicated that the cotton acreage would be two tenths of one per cent below last year and that domestic mill consumption for April would amount to 54,000 against 552,000 of the same month last year.

The weekly report of the weather was a distinct disappointment to recent sellers, being regarded almost as unfavorable as the three preceding weekly statements. Prices rallied sharply in consequence with July selling up to 25.55 and October to 24.94, or 20 to 23 points net higher and more than a half cent above the low level of the morning.

Demand failed to broaden in the advance, however, and covering tapered off around midday when the market was quiet with price showing slight reactions.

Cotton futures opened steady. May blank, July 25.25; October 24.56; December 24.43; January 24.33.

Cotton closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton. New Orleans, May 8.—The price of cotton lost 27 to 31 points around the opening here today on selling encouraged by continued dry and warm weather over the belt.

Fear of an unfavorable weekly crop returns checked the downward movement and at the end of the first half hour active months were six to eleven points under yesterday's close.

The crop reports from the government were reported unfavorable and they put the market off to a quiet over yesterday's final quotations in the trading up to noon.

After digesting the weekly crop accounts the trade gave the ring heavy buying orders which at 1 o'clock put prices 17 to 44 points over yesterday's final.

Cotton opened steady. Opening bid May 25.85 asked; July 24.20; October 23.54; December 23.29; January 23.30.

New York Stock Market. New York, May 8.—Ralls and specialties were the strong features at the outset of today's stock dealings, the former being stimulated by reports of a forthcoming substantial increase in freight and passenger rates.

Reading was especially active, changing hands in round amounts at an extreme advance of 2 points. Other leaders, also higher, were from 1/2 to 1 point higher.

Sumatra Tobacco and Industrial Alcohol rose 1/2 and 4 points respectively, and Distillers, Atlantic Gulf, Standard and Colorado Fuel gained 1 to 1 1/2. United States Steel made a new maximum of 103 1/2, but reacted fractionally. Liberty Bonds were irregular.

Substantial extension of Reading's irregular advance, U. S. Steel increasing irregularly, a brisk spurt in shipings and General Motors' four point gain, accompanied the broader dealings of the mid-session. Numerous low priced rails also made appreciable gains.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR SCHOOL TO BE AT BURKBURNETT

Contract for a new seven room school building to be erected on the High School grounds at Burk Burnett and used as an over-flow structure for several of the high school departments, has just been let through Sam Quinnet, Staats and Papp, contractors, of this city, to Charles Biskowski.

The contract price is $1400. Only the high cost of materials prevented the school authorities from erecting a two story building at this time, but since it was first decided that allitional room was needed for the school, both labor and materials have advanced in price.

The structure to be erected will cost in the neighborhood of the price that a year ago, the board had intended to pay for a two story building.

VALUE OF CORN TAKES DROP ON FEDERAL REPORT

By Associated Press. Chicago, May 8.—Government figures showing that commercial stocks of corn are much larger than a year ago had a decidedly bearish effect today on corn values.

The fact that the weather continued auspicious for farm work and pastures tended also to weaken prices. There was general selling and only limited support.

Opening quotations which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 cent lower, with May 1.27 1/2 and July 1.45 1/4 to 1.46, were followed by a material further setback.

Oats declined under liquidation on a heavy scale by holder. The trade seemed to be much impressed by absence of seaboard demand and by the fine crop outlook. After opening 1/4 to 1/2 down with May 66 1/2 to 66 1/2, the market continued to sag.

Hogs at the highest price ever known in May strengthened provisions. Offerings were scarce.

Prospects of unseasonably low temperatures by Friday or Saturday led later to an upturn in prices. The close was steady at 1.27 1/2, May 1.46 to 1.46 1/4 for July with the market as a whole quarter off to 1/2 advance compared with 24 hours before.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep, I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had my headache since taking Cardui.

Clara Lutherans Are Behind Government In Prosecution of War

That the members of the Lutheran Trinity church of Clara, Texas, are standing squarely behind the government in all its war moves is shown in the following report in regard to the activities of that body recently received from Rev. P. F. Kaiser, pastor of the church.

Members of Trinity purchased $2,700 worth of Liberty bonds of the third issue.

The congregation, as a body, bought $300 worth of War Savings Stamps. The parochial school is 100 per cent Red Cross.

A great majority of the adult Trinity Lutherans are members of the Red Cross, many having also made special donations for the benefit of this noble cause.

School children own Thrift Stamps. Three of the young men are now in the service of their country, being at the various training camps. In the meeting held Sunday the members of the congregation decided to prepare a Service Flag and a Red Cross flag, which when finished will be posted in the interior of the church. "Clara Lutherans realize full well what they owe their beloved country," said Rev. Kaiser. "It was religious persecution in Germany that brought the fathers of the Lutheran Church to these shores, hence the Lutherans of today, who by an over-whelming majority are 'born and raised' Americans, are peculiarly capable of appreciating the great blessings of our democratic government, such as, religious freedom separation of Church and State, etc. Lutherans are religiously convinced that a government, such as ours, is of God, that it is ordained of God, that it stands in the place of God in the land, even as father and mother are representatives of God in the home. As the fourth commandment demands obedience to parents on the part of the children, so it also requests every citizen to obey the government. Lutherans understand the exhortation of St. Paul, when he says: 'Let every soul be subject to the higher powers.' "It is the fervent prayer of Lutherans that all our country may prove themselves truly patriotic and American in word, thought and deed."

Notice. Hereafter all members of the First National Bank are hereby requested to their dues to J. R. Hyatt at First National Bank and get receipt for same.—P. Johnson, Recorder.

Both Ends Against The Middle

(Producer and Consumer) (The Packer)

The consumer wants to pay a low price for meat. The farmer wants to get a high price for cattle. The packer stands between these conflicting demands, and finds it impossible to completely satisfy both.

The packer has no control over the prices of live stock or meat, and the most that can be expected of him is that he keep the difference between the two as low as possible. He does this successfully by converting animals into meat and distributing the meat at a minimum of expense, and at a profit too small to be noticeable in the farmer's returns for live stock or in the meat bill of the consumer.

Swift & Company's 1917 transactions in Cattle were as follows:

	Average Per Head
Sold meat to Retailer for . . . . .	$68.97
Sold By-products for . . . . .	24.09
Total Receipts . . . . .	$93.06
Paid to Cattle Raiser . . . . .	84.45
Balance (not paid to Cattle Raiser) . . . . .	$ 8.61
Paid for labor and expenses at Packing House, Freight on Meat, and Cost of operating Branch distributing houses . . . . .	7.32
Remaining in Packers' hands as returns on investment . . . . .	$ 1.29

The net profit was $1.29 per head, or about one-fourth of a cent per pound of beef.

By what other method can the difference between cattle prices and beef prices be made smaller, and how can the conflicting demands of producer and consumer be better satisfied?

CRUDE RUBBER TO BE ON RESTRICTED LIST OF IMPORTS TO U. S.

By Associated Press. Washington, May 8.—Carrying out the announced intention of placing crude rubber on the list of restricted imports, the war trade board today issued regulations holding imports to the United States to a basis of 100,000 tons annually, and limiting issuance of licenses for such importation to 25,000 tons from May 1 to July 31.

The cut amounts to something more than one third of America's imports as rubber has come in at the rate of about 157,000 tons annually.

The restriction, determined upon after consultation with the war industries board and in pursuance with the war trade board's policy of conserving tonnage for military requirements, was ordered into effect immediately by the bureau of imports.

The announcement said further that the requirements of the United States and Allies will be met in full and the rest of the 25,000 tons licensed will be parcelled among manufacturers of rubber products on the basis of their consumption during 1917.

As a preliminary step to this restriction and to prevent a speculative increase in prices the board recently put into effect an option system of regulation of rubber prices through which the cost of crude rubber is limited from the time of import until it passes into the hands of the manufacturer to a reasonable maximum based upon the requirements pursuant to the trade when the matter of import restriction was first considered.

that the internal situation in Austria-Hungary is greatly strained. The Socialist Arbeiter Zeitung whose circulation in Germany has been stopped declares that the government cannot be aware of actual conditions in Austria or otherwise it would not play with fire. MAJOR ATKINSON IS TO ASSIST IN INSPECTION HERE

WILL ISSUE CARDS WITH MRS. SMOCK TO SANITARY EATING PLACES.

Inspection of restaurants, cafes, soda fountains and other places where food or drinks are sold, will be under military direction from now on, according to an announcement made jointly by Major Curtis Atkinson, chief surgeon at Carl Field, and Mrs. T. B. Smock, the city department of pure food inspection. Cards will be issued by the department, carrying Major Atkinson's signature, to all places where food or drink is sold which have complied with all the pure food and sanitary regulations, certifying that soldiers will be allowed to patronize the places where such cards are displayed.

In some of the cities where larger cantonments are located a guard is maintained in the business section at all times, to see that no soldier patronizes places not complying with the military regulations, but Major Atkinson does not believe this will be necessary in Wichita Falls. As soon as the desired regulations are worked out by himself and the department of inspection the places which come under the regulations will be visited and inspected and if passing the test satisfactorily will be given cards to display.

Military authority will be in the hands of the department for strict enforcement of all the pure food and sanitary regulations and this fact is stressed by both the department and Major Atkinson. Violation of any of the regulations means that the offender loses his card and his soldier patronage. Soldiers patronizing places where cards are not displayed will be punished at the camp, it is also announced.

CORN FLOUR IS PUT UPON PRICE LIST HERE NOW

Corn flour ground in the local mill, was put on the price list for the first time at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Price Suggestion Committee, this flour being quoted at $3.50, credit and delivered price, retail, or $3.20 cash and carry price.

The only change recorded was an advance of about 10 cents in the retail price of corn meal. Suggestion is made by the State Food Administration that the fresh vegetables which are now coming to the markets in great abundance be used and all canned vegetables be given the housekeepers ban. The fresh vegetables will be wasted if not used, while the canned vegetables can be used next winter. In fact will be badly needed. Local dealers are asked to push the sale of the fresh vegetables and housewives are urged to use them exclusively.
