LARGE NUMBER INFECTED WOMEN ARE NOW IN JAIL

There are at present in the Wichita county jail twenty-three girls and young women, the result of a few days' work of city and county officers towards ridding the streets of suspicious women and common street walkers. The majority of these prisoners, according to Sheriff George Hawkins, are between the ages of 14 and 18, and all are affected with some form of social disease, rendering them a menace to society if permitted to remain at large without restrictions of treatment.

Detention Camp Necessary.
A detention camp where they can be treated, and, if possible, be started on the road towards self support, is thought by county officials to be the only solution of the problem, but at present there are no provisions made by either city or county to care for persons of this sort. Some action will be taken immediately however according to statements of city and county officials to relieve the situation by establishing a quarantine camp.

Parents Fail in Duty.
"We are having more trouble with girls from 13 to 18 years of age who have parents living here who should look after them but are failing to do so," said Sheriff Hawkins. "Whenever we think it possible for the parents to deal with the girls we will return them to their homes but when they have failed in their duty to let masters reach the stage they have and their daughters are in custody there is little hope that they will do better in future. Some parents of Wichita Falls have been guilty of criminal negligence towards their daughters and not only themselves, will be affected but others as well. Some things must be done and done quickly if the situation does not yet beyond control."

REV. SHERRILL WANTS IN ARMY WITHOUT DELAY

Belief that the American army is going to need every man it can get is the cause given by L. J. Sherrill, formerly pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of this city, now with the American Expeditionary forces in France, for withdrawal of his claims for exemption and his request that he be put into service immediately. Mr. Sherrill, who volunteered as a Y. M. C. A. worker when war first was declared, has just sent a letter to the Wichita county exemption board, requesting his induction into service. His request is the first one of which the local board has knowledge where a man in France has requested to be inducted and they have not yet decided just what steps must be taken. Mr. Sherrill's letter will be of much interest to his many friends here. It follows in full:

A. E. F., U. S. A., P. O. 712.
April 21, 1918.

(Mail Address: 12 Rue d'Augustau, Paris, France.)
Mr. G. C. Wood,
Chairman, Local Board,
Wichita Falls, Texas.

Dear Mr. Wood:
Greetings to you from "over here." I wish to make this means of writing any and all claims for exemption; and to put myself at the disposal of your board, with the request that you call me as soon as you can. I do not know that any other formality is necessary on my part, but it would be quite difficult to do it any other way, as I am in a camp quite removed from everywhere. Also, if it is in your power to do so, I should like to have the call made so that I can report either in Paris, or in headquarters somewhere on this side. Again, although I realize you will perhaps have no opinion in the matter, I should like to be assigned to the artillery.

I have been continuously in Y. M. C. A. work with the army, since coming to France; and the "Y" is doing a great work for the boys. But I realize that the army is going to need every man it can get everywhere. I see it more clearly over here than they do in the states, and so I want to get in it.

Hoping you may be able to get this put through promptly I am, with many thanks for your kindness and consideration,
Yours very respectfully,
L. J. SHERRILL.

LOCAL YOUTHS TO REGISTER IN K. & K. BUILDING

Tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock the registration booths where young men who have become twenty-one in the past year must register, will open in this city and other towns in Wichita county, ready to receive the registrants. The office of local exemption board on the fifth floor of the Kemp and Keil building, will be the place of registration in Wichita Falls and the young men in other parts of the county will register in the First National bank offices in Iowa Park, the First National Bank at Electra and in Burkburnett.

Registration numbers will not be given the men as they register, but will be placed on the registration card by the local board on Thursday, after the registration returns are all in. No orders have yet been received regarding the method of determining the order of liability of service of the newly registered men by the local board but this information is expected shortly from the office of Provost Marshal General Crozier.

Milo Will Aid Benefit.
Milo, known as the greatest enigma on the stage today will appear in the 164th Squadron Show at the Wichita Theatre next Thursday night. The enigma is called remarkable by all who have witnessed it and Wichitaans are fabled lucky to be able to watch this creature perform. Is Milo a man or a woman? This question is answered at the close of the act and it is expected to cause no little surprise.

WHEREABOUTS OF STEVE COUHIG SOUGHT BY SISTER
Steve Couhig is still wanted at Dunkirk, N. Y., according to a letter received by the local draft board from a lawyer, John L. Muribart. Couhig was located through friends and a marked copy of the Times containing a letter from his sister sent to his address but he has never written home, the lawyer states. He is needed in order that an estate may be settled and any friend knowing his whereabouts now will confer a favor on all concerned if they see that he is apprised of the situation, according to the latest communication to the local draft board. Any one having any information concerning Mr. Couhig is asked to communicate with Mr. Huribart, whose address is 13 East Second, Dunkirk, N. Y.

OLD TIME FAVORITES FROM CALL FIELD ON BILL

Sergeant A. F. Lewis and Corporal W. P. Hurley of the 164th Squadron are offering a comedy skit next Thursday night entitled "The Constable and The King." TEXAS GETTING READY FOR WAR STAMP DRIVE

PLEDGE MEETINGS TO BE HELD JUNE 28 IN EVERY SCHOOL DISTRICT.

TO SIGN PLEDGES

Every Man Will Be Asked to Sign for as Much as He Can Take.

Special in The Times.

DALLAS, TEX., June 4.—With the Third Liberty Loan successfully floated and Texas clamoring over the top in the $100,000,000 National Red Cross drive, special instructions have been issued by William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the United States Treasury, to begin throughout the United States an intensive drive on the sale of War Savings Stamps. Every taxpayer and wage earner in the country will be authoritatively summoned to appear at a designated place in his community June 28 and pledge to the Government the maximum amount he will save and invest in War Savings Stamps by Dec. 31.

Announcement of this order was made today by Louis Lipsitz, State Director of the National War Savings Committee, and every War Savings Chairman in all of the Texas counties has been instructed to hold pledge meetings June 28 in every school district in his respective subdivision. Mr. Lipsitz declared.

A Presidential proclamation has been issued setting aside June 28 as National War Savings Day and summoning every citizen to make to the Government his solemn pledge of the amount of money he will save and invest in War Savings Stamps from the White House, Mr. Lipsitz explained.

"A similar proclamation calling this proclamation to the attention of taxpayers and wage earners will be issued at Austin by Governor W. P. Hobby. Every mayor in the incorporated towns and cities of Texas will also issue an official notice.

Following the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury, every War Savings Chairman in Texas will send to all taxpayers and wage earners in his county an official summons from the Secretary of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury Department and the State Director of the National War Savings Committee, bidding him to attend the meeting which will be held in his particular school district. In most cases these meetings will be held in the schoolhouses, in the urban districts and small towns these meetings will be convened promptly at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of National War Savings Day. In the urban districts such meetings may be held in the afternoon or in the evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

"The pledge meetings are to be conducted by the president, secretary and treasurer of the school districts, aided by the vice-chairman of that particular subdivision. Every person in attendance will be supplied with a pledge card upon which he will indicate to the Government the amount of savings he will make and invest in War Savings Stamps by Dec. 31. These cards will be taken up, a facsimile copy of them sent to Washington and the original retained by the banks.

To Summon Everyone. "Great care will be taken so that every male and female taxpayer and wage earner is summoned by official notification through the mails, proclamation and the publication of these proclamations in the newspapers of Texas, because," Mr. Lipsitz explained, "the burden of attending the meeting has been placed on the individual and positive orders have been issued to us that the names of summoned persons who absent themselves from these meetings shall be reported to headquarters for action."

The State of Texas has been assigned the definite amount of $91,000,000, to be saved and invested in War Savings Stamps by Dec. 31. The district quotas will be announced at each meeting to be held June 28. All of the County War Savings Officials both men and women have been carefully instructed in their duties by Mr. Lipsitz at three State conferences held at Houston, Fort Worth and Wichita Falls. These meetings were attended by special representatives sent from Washington by the Treasury Department and every phase of the work was carefully outlined, that there may be no hitch June 28 in carrying out Secretary McAdoo's instructions and pledging the entire amount of the state's quota. At these conferences were represented by counties more than 95 per cent of the $91,000,000 Texas' quota.

American Patrol In Hard Fight With the Enemy

By Associated Press
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 4.—American combat patrol engaged in a desperate fight with large enemy patrol near Abreviller, Lunelle sector, yesterday. American losses slight. German casualties are unknown.

GERMANS DISPLEASED WITH FRENCH DEFENSE OF RHEIMS

By Associated Press
AMSTERDAM, June 4.—The French resistance at Rheims appears to be highly unpleasant to the Germans, according to semi-official telegram from Berlin. The message, which doubtless is intended for the ears of the credulous in Germany, tries to divert attention from the German failure here by plaintively upbraiding the French for not abandoning the city.

AMERICAN.
WASHINGTON, June 4.—A continuation of General Pershing's communique for yesterday, reads:
"Section B—The hostile airplane which was reported as brought in the American communique of June 3, was shot down by Lieutenant Sewell. The pilot and observer were both taken prisoners. The American plane reported as missing in the communique of June 3 was operating in the Weover."

FRENCH.
By Associated Press
PARIS, June 4.—The Germans have made a further advance at one point between the Marne and the Ourcq, capturing the village of Neully-La-Potrie (seven and one-half miles northwest of Chateau Thierry), says today's official statement.

The battle continues with the greatest violence between the Aisne and Ourcq. The Germans captured Perant. Further south the French lost a little ground.
The statement follows:
"Between the Oise and the Aisne, the Germans, held in check by the energetic resistance of the French troops, were not able to make any progress.

"Between the Aisne and the Ourcq the battle was continued during the night with intense violence. Beginning at 7 p. m. violent attacks took place in the region of Perant, Sacoin and Missy, to Tropanes wood. Perant fell into the hands of the enemy after a stubborn defense which cost the assailants heavy losses. Further south the French yielded a little ground. West of Sacoin and Missy to Perant and also at Tropanes, the German attack was held in check by the French.

"The fighting was no less spirited in the region south of the Ourcq. The Germans heavily supported by artillery directed their efforts against Mosloy, Neully La Potrie, La Troucey and Bourresches.
"A counter attack enabled the French to recapture Mosloy. Neully La Jotrie was the scene of violent combats. The village passed from hand to hand, finally remaining in possession of the Germans.
"American troops checked German advanced forces which were seeking to penetrate Neully wood and by a magnificent counter attack, hurled back the Germans north of this wood.

WHAT ABOUT OUR WOUNDED? "What about our wounded?" Gelett Burgess of the Vigilants, asks in a statement issued today. The statement affords food for thought and demands action. It follows:
And still we are unprepared! For the war, yes, we are preparing. In fact, but are we prepared for the direct effects of the war?

Never! The world has progressed. He must be taken care of by a grateful nation—re-educated for a vocation where his loss will prove no handicap, fitted for a worthy position in industrial life at the expense of a government he has protected. He must have his self-respect preserved by becoming a useful member of society and the practical equal of whole men.

But the way is prepared. The Red Cross Institute for the Crippled and Disabled is making a large research experiments and formulating methods in conjunction with the Federal Board for Vocational Education. Both have agreed to co-operate with the Bureau of War Risks and the Medical Department of the Army.

OUR BUSINESS LETTER.

(National Bank of Commerce.)

The drive for the greatest food production in the history of the United States is now well under way and the whole civilized world is depending upon the American farmer for immensely increased supplies of food-stuffs of every kind. The farmer is facing difficulties and problems such as he never faced before, particularly with regard to the supply of labor. Yet there is a feeling of absolute confidence that as he has never failed in the past so he will not fail now. It is just as true today as it was at this time last year that upon the farmers of this country rest in large measure the fate of the war and the fate of the nations. The United States government is counting upon the farmers to omit no step that will increase the production of their land and that will bring about the most efficient co-operation in the sale and distribution of their products. Everything possible must be done to make sure of most bountiful harvests. It is therefore not only the duty of the farmer to do his utmost but it is also the duty of every other citizen to do all in his power to cooperate with the farmer and assist him in carrying the immense burden that has been laid upon his shoulders. As the Secretary of Agriculture well says: "If soldiers are willing to serve in the trenches, to dig ditches, build railroads, and risk their lives, many civilians can well afford to spare a part of their time to serve in the furrows and in the harvest field."

The Banks and the Liberty Loan. It seems hardly necessary again to repeat the statement that without the co-operation of the banks the wonderful success of the Liberty Loan would have been impossible. Yet it is well to realize the fact particularly as it emphasizes once more the importance of banks in the every day life of the people. From one end of the country to the other, the banks of the United States placed all their facilities unreservedly at the disposal of the United States Government and acted as the headquarters for the sale of Liberty Bonds. Many thousands of people have for the first time become acquainted with the practical importance of thrift and the relations which they have established with banks will prove of incalculable value both to themselves and to the country at large. The very wide distribution of the bonds is perhaps the greatest cause for satisfaction in the success of the Third Liberty Loan which proved preeminently a small investor's loan. The people of America are steadily becoming more and more educated in money matters and the small investor is learning that his banker is the right man to consult when he has surplus money to place at interest. It is not too much to hope that one result of the sale of Liberty Bonds, will be an almost complete disappearance of fraudulent stock selling schemes. After The War. There will be many great problems to be faced after the war and none will be greater than that of strengthening and developing the commercial energy of the country. The solution will naturally come through increased efficiency on all sides and one of the most important results will be production on a greater scale than ever before. The country will find it necessary to use every available resource to increase production; to borrow in order to produce more; to lead in order to assist in greater production; to refuse rigidly all goods dumped at less than the cost of production; to insist on production from sources where the producers of our goods are the products of our industry; to develop prairie, ocean, forest and mine to their utmost. From the resulting wealth all money borrowed can be fully repaid and the country will find that after every obligation has been discharged it will be richer than ever before, not only in material wealth but especially in the character, industry and general standing of the people.

Fish. With food one of the most absorbing topics of the present time and the scarcity of most a most unpleasant fact, the fisheries of the world have naturally assumed greater importance than ever. The waters of Canada and the United States produce annually about $150,000,000 or one-fourth of the fish crop of the world.

The latest obtainable European figures place the value of the fish crop at over $225,000,000. For the remainder of the world, Asia, Africa, South and Central America, Australia and the islands of the Pacific there are only estimates available and these add somewhat more than another $100,000,000, bringing the annual value of the world's fish crop up to something over 600 millions at source and probably over a billion dollars by the time it reaches the consumer.

The capital invested in the fisheries of the United States is about $75,000,000, the number of persons employed 220,000 and the value of products turned out by the fish canneries of the country $50,000,000 of which salmon alone contributes one-half. Trade in fish and fish products is steadily increasing in this country, imports having grown from 12 millions in 1907 to 25 millions in 1917 and exports from 6 millions in 1907 to 25 millions in 1917.

The World's Potato Crop. Potatoes continue to increase in importance as a world food crop and unquestionably this year will see a greater production than ever before. During the five year period of 1909 to 1913, the world's potato crop averaged about 6,471 million bushels, ranging between 4,842 million bushels in 1911 and 5,873 millions in 1913. During 1917 the highest production was in the United States which produced over 412 million bushels as compared with 237 millions in 1914. Great Britain produced 321 million bushels in 1917 as compared with 294 millions in 1916. The other leading countries of the world also increased their production immensely and the potato is increasing in value as a food product steadily year by year, especially now that methods have been perfected of putting it into condition in which it can be readily distributed in condensed form, available for food at any time or place, either in the form of flour, flakes or cubes.

Cigarettes. During the past seventeen years the increase in cigarette production in the United States has been nearly 1,100 per cent, the actual figures being 3,258,716,205 for 1900 and close upon 35 billions for 1917. In spite of the tremendous increase just noted, most of the largest manufacturers are many millions of cigarettes behind on orders.

There were manufactured and sold in the United States 34,382,385,476 cigarettes. On the generally accepted European basis of one billion cigarettes for every million of population, the United States is still far from having reached the point of saturation though production is increasing very rapidly and the 1917 figures show an increase of nearly ten billion cigarettes over 1916 or close upon 40 per cent.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY WILL KEEP UP SPORTS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Although the ranks of the student body have been heavily drained by those who joined the colors, Georgetown University plans to maintain varsity competition next year in all lines of sport. Although heavily hit this year, Georgetown managed to win again the South Atlantic titles in football, baseball and indoor and outdoor track and field competition. The eleven lost only to the Navy incidentally the fourth defeat in three years on the gridiron.

Full schedules will be played next year in all lines of sport, says Graduate Manager Charles Cox. "If enough men are left in school to make up the teams."

1600 TEXANS WANTED FOR ARMY Y. M. C. A. WORK. AUSTIN, TEX., June 4.—Thomas W. Currie, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of the University of Texas, who was recently delegated by Governor W. P. Hobby as his personal representative to receive all correspondence from those who are interested in offering themselves for Y. M. C. A. work in France, is already receiving many letters from applicants for the positions in question. Mr. Currie is anxious, however, that the demand for these workers be supplied as quickly as possible and he urges that applicants write to him without delay and their application will receive prompt consideration. It has been stated by General Pershing and Ambassador Sharpe that there is a pressing need for Y. M. C. A. men in France. It is the expressed opinion of Governor Hobby that there are hundreds of business men in Texas between the ages of 32 and 50 who should offer themselves immediately for this branch of war service. It is desired, Mr. Currie says, that there be recruited for this work in Texas 1600 during the month of June, 1600 in July and 800 each month thereafter until the demand in France for Y. M. C. A. workers is supplied. The need is especially great for expert accountants,
