That is only 65,000,000 bushels less than the billion bushel crop the government had hoped for and continuation of the ideal growing conditions such as has prevailed during the last month might yet produce a harvest of 1,000,000,000 bushels.

A forecast of 572,539,000 bushels of winter wheat was made last month from conditions existing May 1 when the report showed the plant to be 86.4 per cent of a normal. Last June 1 it was 70.9 and the crop was 418,000,000 bushels, while the ten year average is 50.5 and the production average 552,000,000 bushels. 60 PERCENT GERMANY'S SUBMARINES DESTROYED

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Senator Swanson, acting chairman of the naval committee after a conference with navy heads, today declared that the Allied and American naval forces have destroyed sixty percent of all German submarines constructed and that they have cut shipping losses in half. The German submarines recently operating off the Atlantic coast, Senator Swanson said, are believed to have been driven from the coast and also from the main American shipping routes.

Senator Swanson said, has been or will be withdrawn from this side because of the German raid.

Senator Swanson said his information was obtained from highest navy department authorities.

The navy department is not disturbed and is doing everything possible and is confident no German submarines will be able to do any serious damage on this side. Movement of troops and food to Europe will continue uninterrupted.

Declaring German submarine attacks here had been expected, and that frequent warnings that the undersea boats might come over were given mariners, Senator Swanson explained that at the outbreak of the war it was decided best to send the main American naval force to cooperate with the Allies abroad.

"The result of that policy," he added, "is that the loss of merchant vessels has been reduced by half and about sixty percent of all German submarines that have been constructed and commissioned have been destroyed. There is no question of this."

THOUSANDS WILL BE PLACED IN CLASSES 1 AND 2

RECLASSIFICATION OF DRAFT
LISTS WILL BRING MANY INTO CLASS 1.

MAY REACH 500,000

Rearrangement Expected to Affect Status of Many Carried Registrants.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 7.—A general revision of classifications under the selective service act was started today by Provost Marshal General Crowder when he telegraphed to the governors of all states ordering investigations to determine the reason for the small number of registrants in Class One in some localities.

The lists of some boards show an average far below the national average of 28.7 percent registrants in Class One. Some boards even have fallen as low as ten per cent.

Thousands of men now in Class Four should be put in Class One and Two, the Provost Marshal said. The instructions also ordered investigation to determine if any men have been erroneously put in the upper classes when they should have been placed in those lower down.

It is expected that the rearrangement will bring into class one more than 500,000 men.

Cases where registrants were married after passage of the draft act will be carefully considered and it is expected that a large number of men will be reclassified. The office has reached the conclusion, said the provost marshal general, "that corrective procedure can be made most effectively by revision by the local boards with the hearty and active assistance of government and advisory boards, and members of legal advisory boards."

"You will therefore issue instructions that they shall immediately proceed to a careful examination of the questionnaires and records in the classes of cases hereinafter indicated and make such recommendations to the local boards as they may deem necessary. Local boards, government appeal agents and members of legal advisory boards should direct special attention to the following classes of cases:

"Class 2 A and B; Class 3 A, B and C; and Class 4 A. Thousands of registrants are now in class four who should be in class two or class one. Government appeal agents should be instructed to appeal every case where the reclassification is not convincingly correct.

"The activities of the local draft boards, appeal agents and members of legal advisory boards is not limited to the classes above enumerated but the same corrective measures should be applied to all other cases of deferred classification, when the same appears necessary."

Class One Week.
"Local boards should set aside a special week in June to be called 'class one week' to consider doubtful classifications. Classifications should be scientifically adjusted now so as to avoid the necessity of progressing (Continued on page 5.)

GUN TAKEN BY BOLD ACTION OF AMERICAN PATROL

By Associated Press
PARIS, June 7.—In announcing that the Germans are being held and that French counter attacks are meeting with success, an official note mentions especially the activity of the American troops along the Marne and northwest of Chateau Thierry. The note says that the latest fighting confirms the general impression of the past few days that the enemy is being held everywhere and that his reactions, which have become purely local, yield no results. The French counter attacks have enabled the Americans to improve their positions.

"An splendid to the honor of the American troops," it adds, "happened north of Lucy-Le-Bocage, northwest of Chateau Thierry. As the American first line was being harassed by German machine guns an American patrol boldly attacked the German machine guns, killed the gunners and captured the guns. It is thus that the young American soldiers give daily fresh proofs of their spirit, initiative and courage as well as their perfect adaptability to modern fighting conditions."

ORDER AND SERIAL NOS. REQUIRED 1918 REGISTRANTS

BULLETIN.)
By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Provost Marshal General Crowder announced that the class of 1918 registrants will not be allowed to enlist in the navy or marine corps and that no voluntary inductions will be granted until order and serial numbers have been assigned. After numbers are assigned registrants may enlist if they obtain certificates from their local boards stating they are not within the board's current draft.

IN GALLANT ATTACK AMERICANS AND FRENCH DRIVE BACK THE GERMANS

Allies Attacking At Many Points; Wrestling Positions From Huns

The Associated Press war summary
Striking the Germans northwest of Chateau Thierry along the line where the enemy regions were launching their heaviest blows but a few days ago, American marines, fighting with French troops on either side have pushed back the tip of the salient driven by the Germans in their rush to the Marne. They have recaptured the village of Torcy and at last accounts were disputing with the Germans the possession of the towns of Bussieres and Boursches.

The gallant work of the American "soldiers of the sea" in this advance over two miles along a front of almost three miles stands out as a heroic chapter in the story of American participation in the struggle in France.

West of Soissons the French have taken the village of Le Port, which is located on the north bank of the Aisne.

Further south, crossing the Clignon river, the French have recaptured the hamlet of Villy and swept eastward from Veully La Poterie driving the Germans out of a grove which they held there.

Just to the south the Americans launched their blow at the Germans and have taken extensive ground. Reports from the scene state that virtually all their objectives were gained.

Belleau wood, east of Torcy, was first reported cleared of Germans by the American marines but later advice made it appear probable that the enemy was still holding out in a portion of this wooded area.

West of Chateau Thierry the Germans in their rush last week occupied Hill 204, a height which dominated the city. From this they have been ejected by the French.

On the front between the Marne river and Rheims the British have gained a foothold in the town of Bagny.

North of the Soissons sector French patrols have been active while along the British front there has been no fighting of an unusual nature.

Allies troops not only are holding the Germans in check on both sides of the Champagne salient but American marines and French troops have thrown back the enemy to a depth

ADVANCE UNDER HEAVY FIRE FROM MACHINE GUNS

By Associated Press
WITH THE FRENCH ARMY ON THE MARNE, Thursday, June 6.—30 P. M.—To this hour the American and French troops advancing between Veully-La-Poterie and Torcy have reached the outer edges of the towns of Bussieres and Torcy.

On the west the Allied line has been carried to Granges farm south of Gandelu, west of Veully-Belleau wood, east of Torcy, has been cleared of the enemy. Further details are not available at this hour.

The Americans comprise the detachments on the left of the advancing line. After capturing a small wood and clearing the way, the Americans reached the cemetery at Veully and continued to press forward slowly under a heavy fire from German machine guns.

During the attack this morning at dawn, the German artillery fire against the Allies was feeble, but the enemy front line was well studded with machine guns. In the action this morning the Americans and French advanced one kilometer into the German lines and captured 270 prisoners including ten officers.

Forty-five minutes after the fighting started one French regiment had attained the border of Mares wood and the edge of a triangular 5000 yards southeast of Bussieres, notwithstanding sharp resistance. This regiment alone took more than 100 prisoners.

WOUNDED SAMMIES GO ON FIGHTING REFUSE TO QUIT

By Associated Press
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY, Thursday, June 6.—There were many instances of individual bravery and heroism in the successful attack on the American marines in the Chateau Thierry sector today. Many of the Americans who were wounded refused to leave the fight.

Sergeant J. L. Duleworth of Kansas City was captured by the Germans Monday night while dazed from a blow on the head from a rifle butt. A German war dragging him away when he regained consciousness. The sergeant hit the German on the jaw and escaped.

"I was not going to be the first American captured on this sector," Sergeant Duleworth said. "The Dutchman looked more scared than I so I bitted him. Now I got to get back and get me a Dutchman to make up for the bump on my head." The sergeant took part in the fighting today.

REPORTED SEMENOFF
WILL DISBAND ARMY
By Associated Press
SHANGHAI, June 7.—General Semenov, leader of anti-Bolshevik Siberian forces, has left the trans-Baikalia front, according to an Eastern News Agency dispatch from Harbin. His departure is attributed to dissensions among his forces. It is reported the advances add, that he will disband his army and flee into Mongolia.

AMERICANS USE MACHINE GUNS AND BAYONETS

By the Associated Press.
WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MARNE, June 7.—The American marines, who began a second attack on the German lines late yesterday captured the village of Torcy and drove their way into Boursches, northwest of Chateau Thierry. This morning they were holding Torcy in the face of repeated counter attacks and were pushing back the Germans through the streets of Boursches. All their objectives in this attack were attained.

The American plan did not include the taking of Torcy but the marines swept into it and drove out the Germans.

The one point where the objective was not reached was on the right of the attack on the Belleau wood. The fiercest fighting is continuing here.

The Americans poured volleys of machine gun fire into the enemy, inflicting terrific casualties. Bayonets were used freely against many of the Germans who attempted to make a stand in the streets. At daybreak today the marines were slowly driving the Germans back.

Marines Sweep Beyond First Objectives, Pushing Through Wires and Overwhelm Enemy

By The Associated Press.
WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MARNE, June 6.—(Thursday)—The second attack made today by American marines on German positions northwest of Chateau Thierry, early gave promise of being as successful as this morning's assault. The marines reached all their objectives set for the first hour within that time limit and pushed beyond them. The early reports indicated the Germans on the run for the time being and surrendering right and left to the Americans.

One of the toughest of all objectives, Belleau wood, some four miles from Chateau Thierry, was swept by the marines without serious trouble.

There seemed reason to expect German counter attacks in strength before long, for previous to the beginning of the afternoon attack, which began at 5 p. m., the roads behind the German lines were filled with troops, guns and wagons, but the American artillery fired on them and created havoc.

FORWARD SWEEP.
The marines in their forward sweep took strong ground on either side of Belleau wood and cleaned out the ravine south of Torcy, which linked up the line with Hill 142, which was taken this morning. This gave them a strong and dominating position for a continuation of their attack. Their total advance was approximately two miles on a three mile front. The total number of prisoners taken was not known this evening but additional captives were brought in after the morning attack which netted about 100 prisoners.

A notable development was the low morale of the prisoners, all of whom were Prussians. They expressed a desire to get out of the fighting. This was despite the fact they say that they are furnished with food although the Saxons, the Wuertemberg troops, and others may go without.

It must not be imagined, however, that they did not put up a fight this morning for their officers, among whom were clearly visible from below when they were yelling like Indians and firing bayonet and rifle. One marine who was taking back a prisoner ran into two German officers and when he tackled them single handed with his rifle and bayonet, killed both the officers and wounded several of the men.

Treachery Displayed.
Another sergeant was about to take a prisoner when the German threw himself on the ground and discharged his revolver at the American after calling "Kamerad."

That settled the German for the sergeant shot him as rendered but refused to put up their hands.

The marines advancing on the Belleau wood region went forward in four waves in open formation. The men in the first wave were for the most part, armed with rifles and bombs, while the rear waves were equipped with automatic rifles. With them came squads of machine gunners tugging their collapsible guns. They crossed the open space and toiled up the slope bent over like knomes. The trenches the marines passed over were clearly visible from below, but they hardly deserved the name, for they were simply lines of little holes, big enough to hold a man, while barbed wire was lacking. There were some, however, interlaced among the trees of Belleau wood, but the marines pushed their way through it.

Out in the open field artillery officers with glasses were directing the supporting fire, while on the roof of a nearby farm house a signal man waved with his red and white flags.

On all sides the guns were flashing, some of them stationed right out in the field while others were hidden in the woods. Looking down in to the valley only a mile away, the village of Bussieres could be seen on fire. As the correspondent watched the scene, the clouds of white shrapnel smoke over the village of Torcy also became brownish and flames appeared in that town.

The artillery that preceded the attack lasted an hour and was of especial intensity for five minutes preceding the time when the marines went over the top. French and American batteries both took part in the firing, putting down a rolling barrage and then shifting to the roads behind the Germans.

It appears that the marines in going in forestalled an attack the Germans had planned. It was to have been carried out by the Prussians who had been put into the line for the purpose and was to have taken place either today or tomorrow.

ALLIED CABINET ON WAR SUPPLIES IS NOW PROPOSED

By Associated Press
LONDON, June 7.—A scheme for an allied cabinet on war supplies to establish unity and decision in regard to the food and raw material requirements has been approved by the British government, according to the political correspondent of the Daily Mail. Five program committees will be established and will include representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States. Each committee will coordinate supplies and particular requirements, each member being an expert.

A great part of all Allied resources will be formed by these committees and their reports of their supplies and reports go to the maritime council, who thus will know to the full measure their shipping task.

SPLendid RAIN FALLS OVER WIDE AREA FRIDAY

STREAMS ARE RISING

Crop making and grass making rains fell all over North Texas last night and this morning. In a slow, steady down pour that would put practically all of it under the grass roots. In Wichita Falls and the contiguous country the rain averaged about one inch, with a little heavier fall at Burkburnett and across the Red River in Oklahoma.

Reports to the Wichita Falls and Northwestern offices indicate heavy rains as far north as Altus, and beyond that the company wires were down on account of storms, so that no reports could be had. At Burkburnett the wagon bridge is reported to have gone. Wednesday night, and the water back in the river, or as to cause any business as to the railroad bridge.

North on the Denver rainfall of about one inch is reported all the way to Quannah, and above Memphis the track is washed out for a considerable distance, causing a general train delay. This is part of the track that was replaced after the washout last week. Lighter rains are also reported south on the Denver as far as Bellevue.

On the Wichita valley rainfall is reported all the way from Byers to Spur. In most places it is given at one inch, at 9 o'clock this morning and still falling. At Dundee the report is for two inches and at Sunday the fall is said to have been between three and four inches. Anson is the only town reporting no rain at all. On the Wichita Falls & Southern an inch rain is reported all the way to Newcastle.

A flood of headwater coming down the Wichita river last night caused a rise to nearly bank full in about an hour's time at the Denver bridge, but it has since receded considerably without causing damage.

Reports from Crowell this morning said that two and a half inches of rain had fallen there.

Reports were received from Electra telling of heavy precipitation. Heavier rains fell over the western part of Wichita county several days ago than here and the public tanks at Iowa Park are full and running over.

Million Sammies Worth 10 Times Number Russians

By Associated Press. PARIS, June 7.—The parents and relatives of many American women working in Paris and the surrounding region need not be alarmed with regard to their safety in the opinion of Deputy Paul Demetz, chairman of the war and armament budget committee. As he presides regularly at the joint meetings of senators and deputies who are specialists on military questions he is qualified to discuss the situation created by the German advance.

Deputy Demetz was asked by the Associated Press if he was uneasy over the possibility of a new German thrust toward Paris. He replied: "I have always thought that the Germans had one objective only—Paris. The Entente, however, still possesses important forces, most powerful war material and enormous reserves of munitions."

Resolutions Taken. "Naturally precautionary measures must be taken to preserve the capital of France. The government has taken them and they will be efficacious. If therefore we resist and everything encourages us to hope so, we shall have time to await the arrival of the troops on which the civilized nations are basing great hopes."

Russia is the sole reason for the momentary success of German imperialism but a million brave Americans filled with courage and ardor for the sacred cause of liberty are worth ten times the Allies who betrayed us.

THIS GERMAN-AMERICAN A PATRIOTIC CITIZEN

HOUSTON, TEX., June 7.—William Schattel of East Bernard, Texas, is a shining example to men who are claiming exemption on account of the dependency of a wife or other relatives few in number. A small consideration like 12 children and a wife did not deter Schattel, who is 44 years old, from going into the service.

Schattel has joined Company G of the First regiment of Texas Cavalry. In addition he brought his seventeen year old son into the service with him.

Schattel is of German birth but believes that every man so born should discharge the debt he owes the United States for its opportunity. While he is away the family of 12 will look after the farm on which they live.

There are six boys and six girls in the Schattel family, the youngest being a mere baby in the arms of its mother.

The vessel, which is being built by McBride and Law, said to be the first firm in the United States to receive a contract for the construction of a wooden ship for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, will be christened the "Beaumont."

Government inspectors and marine engineers have witnessed the launching of all three ships completed thus far in Beaumont, and in each case have expressed satisfaction both with the vessel and with the docks and equipment here. Establishment of a timber assem-

CITY AND COUNTY WILL SHARE IN QUARANTINE

GIRLS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL DISEASE WILL BE DETAINED AT COUNTY FARM.

Co-operation of the city with the county in caring for the young women now confined in the county jail, afflicted with venereal disease, at the meeting of the board of aldermen last night. The matter was brought to the attention of the board by County Judge Harris, who stated that 25 young girls, all between the ages of 14 and 20 were now in the jail, existing under conditions that were most unsanitary and hardly humane. After conference with county commissioners it was deemed best to take the women to the county farm and isolate them in the detention houses there. A wire fence will be built about the houses, and a guard placed to watch that none of the girls get back to town until entirely cured. The expense will be borne by the city and county equally. No action was had by the council in regard to increase of telephone rates, although the matter was discussed at length. The books for the month of May were checked and found to be correct.

Everybody Wants To Go To France Hardly Writes

"Everybody is lively and very anxious to go to France," writes Lewis C. Hardin, editor of Wichita Falls men recently arrived in Camp Travis. His letter reflects the same spirit of enthusiasm found in all letters from the newly mobilized soldiers. It follows: "Dear Editor: I have been acquainted with you but have never met you in Wichita Falls and I am sure I will have an army life filled with interesting and up-building for a man not to enjoy and appreciate it. If we are never in action I believe every man will be proud of what military training he has received. I am sure I will military training teaches one to be courteous, obedient and clean in all habits."

Manager A. A. Dickson of the St. James Hotel, has tendered his resignation to the Van Noy Co., owners of the hotel, to take effect July 1, and immediately thereafter Mr. and Mrs. Dickson will leave for San Francisco, where they expect to make their home. Mr. Dickson has been in charge of the St. James about three years, and during that time both he and Mrs. Dickson have gained a popularity and friendship among the people of the city, that makes all regret to have them leave. They have been likewise successful in the conduct of the hotel, and those especially who have been guests there appreciate greatly the very excellent service, as well as the kindly, personal interest that Mr. and Mrs. Dickson have always shown to every guest. No successor in the management has as yet been appointed.

BOY FINED FOR CAUSING DISTURBANCE IN THEATER

In police court this morning three automobile drivers were assessed $10 each for driving faster than the law allows, and one young man paid $5.00 on a charge of disturbing the peace. The latter was one of a bunch of lads who have of late been manifesting their displeasure at certain acts put on at local vaudeville houses by throwing balls of paper at the actors and otherwise creating disturbance, when the acts did not please them. The particular act in question was that of throwing a large ball of paper in the face of the actresses in view of his youth, but the police and the management have decided to break up the practice and hereafter every boy caught will be arrested and fined.

Good Personal Management - Thrift and Good Clothes

THRIFT does not mean meagerness or scrimping. It does not mean going without those things which are essential to your personal welfare or efficiency. Nor does it mean false or fancied economies.

For false economy is waste. Thrift is best practiced by wise personal management - by eliminating extravagances, by avoiding fripperies, by doing without non-essentials and by getting full value for every dollar you spend. That's thrift.

In clothes, as well as in most things, the best is always the cheapest. It pays to buy good clothes. It pays in dollars and cents.

You neither practice thrift, nor help your government, nor add to your self-respect, nor serve your fellow man when you neglect your personal appearance.

The well dressed man gains in self-respect and confidence. He shows confidence in himself, in his country and in the future.

This store is headquarters for clothes that promote thrift.

THE WELDING POWER OF WAR-SAVINGS.

By JOHN C. SHAFER (Of the Chicago Evening Post)

One of the greatest benefits that we shall obtain from this war will be the lesson of economy and of self-sacrifice.

He that giveth from the abundance that he has is doing well. And he who makes sacrifices in order that another may live is benefiting both him that giveth and him that receiveth.

Another benefit from this war is that it is teaching us to think nationally and not locally.

Throughout the United States today men and women, boys and girls are thinking and working for the nation.

We shall have a more strong and united nation at the end of this war than we had before it was begun.

It is of enormous advantage to the nation to have the people buy the War Savings Stamps out of their savings because it links their mind and heart closer to the nation's welfare.

It is important and exceedingly beneficial to have men and women buying Liberty Bonds for this gives them a direct interest in the welfare of the country and makes them properly watchful as to how their money is expended.

Through this method of financing our national needs we are knitting the people closer together and getting more compact national life.

It will be much easier for us to solve our economic problems and adjust ourselves to new conditions after that war if all the people have invested their savings in War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds.

They will feel that they are stockholders in that great corporation known as the United States Government, and will take more interest in its welfare and in its development than ever before.

It is highly desirable that the campaign for selling War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds should be general.

It will be better to have thousands of citizens buy a worth of War Savings Stamps a place than to have some one individual buy $1,000 worth.

It will be better for the Government to sell its bonds to many individuals in small amounts than to have the banks and the rich buy the securities in large blocks.

Let us have a campaign that will get everybody interested in buying Government securities. Thus shall we doubly help to win the victory over the nations that seek to destroy democracy throughout the world.

Remember that National War Savings Day is June 28. Pledge yourself on or before that day to give to the utmost of your ability and to buy War Savings Stamps that there may be more money, labor and materials to back up those who fight and die for you.

Thrift Is the Word of the Hour. The main thing that we must do, those of us who are not fighting in the trenches, is to save.

Save that we may share with the Allies our food, our money, our munitions and our men. Save that we may enable the government to prosecute the war with all vigor.

Thrift, however, is not concerned with the saving of money so much as it is concerned with the saving of goods.

Nor is that woman in any real sense thrifty, either for the government or for herself, who through a false sense of economy buys ice at less than its established price.

At the end of a week, or month, if she checks up she will find that she has spent more money for ice than her neighbor, who uses good, pure ice which costs a few cents per day more.

BRITISH NAVAL WRITER'S VIEW ON SUB RAIDS

SPIRIT IS PRAISED

America's Co-operation and Policy Unity Sound Principle for Victory.

By Associated Press LONDON, June 7.—The manner in which the American nation received the latest exhibition of German submarine frightfulness represents another defeat for Germany, says Archibald S. Hurd, in a further statement on the U-boat operations off the Atlantic coast of the United States.

Mr. Hurd, who is well known as a writer on naval subjects, characterizes as absurd the notion that the Germans can carry out air raids on American towns from submarines. "What the Germans really have done," Mr. Hurd continues, "is to bring the entire American continent definitely within the war area. That is a great achievement, the penalty of which the enemy will suffer in due course. He will obtain little temporary compensation because he cannot, owing to the difficulties involved, make an even limited blockade of the American coast."

"Of course the suggestion that all planes operating from submarines can bombard American cities is an absurdity. The only airplane that has a weapon to be carried in a submarine over three thousand miles. Even if the difficulty of stowing could be overcome, how could the airplane return to its base if it were not shot down while over American territory?"

"Most Effective Defense. "It cannot be repeated too often that America is defended against the enemy most effectively on this side of the Atlantic. The German army, the German fleet and German submarines can do all, all be fought most effectively in the Atlantic."

"When the history of the war comes to be written tribute will be paid by Englishmen as well as by others to the fine appreciation by Americans of the only sound principle upon which the United States could effectively co-operate in overcoming the enemy and, in particular in defeating piracy. The principle of unity of command afloat was preserved and developed. That is the moral of the raid on the American coast since effective defense must be offered on this side of the Atlantic."

Unity Not Complete. "Unfortunately unity of command is not yet fully attained in the Mediterranean. It is probable the submarines operating off the American coast sailed from a German North Sea port. On the other hand there is no reason why they should not issue from the Mediterranean."

Mr. Hurd proceeded to comment on the fact that five navies were working in the Mediterranean without counting the Greek and the Brazilian, which also is coming to the aid of the Allies."

Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, Mr. Hurd concluded, has admitted that thirty per cent of the tonnage losses are suffered in the Mediterranean. That is a very high proportion and suggests, Mr. Hurd holds, that measures now being taken to suppress piracy still leaves something to be desired."

LIGHTLESS NIGHTS MAY BE ENFORCED AGAIN

By Associated Press WASHINGTON, June 7.—Lightless nights which were suspended under the daylight saving plan until September 1, may be resumed. Fuel Administrator Garfield said today he had learned that many electric signs were turned on in daylight, and if such abuses continued he would have to again put the ban on signs, probably with restrictions even more stringent than they were before.

GERMANS REORGANIZING THE U-BOAT ARMY

Captain Ethel Renton, who has been in France for months superintending the distribution among American soldiers of the 128,000 doughnuts and 4,900 pies baked daily by the Salvation Army, has returned to the United States to make a personal report to Commander Evangeline Booth. Captain Renton has been a Salvation Army worker for nearly ten years and was sent to France in August as the commander of the women in the first increment of workers. Much of the time she was under the fire of German artillery. She had marvellous escapes from death and became so accustomed to gas attacks that she can adjust a gas mask as well as any doughboy.

BETTER FIGHTERS NOT MADE THAN AMERICAN MARINES

By Associated Press WASHINGTON, June 7.—Friends of the marine corps expressed the greatest pleasure today at the news of their work in France. The part they are taking in the thick of the fighting and the splendid success of their efforts was pointed to as justification for putting them into the front line.

"There are no better fighting men in the world than the marines," said Secretary Daniels when told of what they had done. No recent announcement has been made as to the strength of the marine forces abroad but today's dispatches indicated they are holding a section alone that would require more than brigade strength and that their divisional organization is approximately completed.

Cotton Market Grain Market

NEW YORK, June 7.—Cotton futures opened today at 22.25; October 23.30; December 23.30; January 23.07; March 23.15.

There was renewed covering in the cotton market at the opening today and there also seemed to be little buying on apprehension of wet weather or in the eastern part of belt where the possibility of danger is increased by the scarcity of labor. First prices were 1/8 to 3/4 points higher in cotton sequence, July selling at 26.38 and October 23.80. Demand, however, was less urgent, suggesting that there had been a considerable reduction in the nervousness and prices turned easier before the end of the first half hour.

The market became easier during the morning. For a time July maintained its premium over October, but offerings of the near months gradually increased and the decline extended to 25.74 for that position by 10:45 while October declined 23.34 or 32 points under last night's close. Liquidation continued during the early afternoon with July soft off to 24.45 while October declined 23.14 or 32 points under last night's close. Covering checked the decline at this level and there were rallies of 15 to 20 points with the market fairly steady on a very small volume of business. The cotton market closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—The cotton market opened steady January 22.18; March 22.06; July 26.90; October 22.98 asked; December 22.37.

Further rains in the eastern belt and continued pressure to buy July were influences that carried the price of cotton sharply upward today. In the first half hour of business the active months rose 27 to 47, July making the widest gains.

Realizing set in on the long side and caused a reaction. Toward noon prices were 3 to 7 points lower than the closing level yesterday.

CORRECTION OF REPORT OF JURY'S FINDING

In reporting the finding of the jury yesterday in the suit of F. D. Woodruff vs. W. M. Cook, the Times said the jury awarded the special issues awarding Cook $7,000. This gives an erroneous impression of the finding. The suit was for an accounting in a partnership. The jury found the partnership owed the defendant Cook $5,625.33 on salary and that it owed the plaintiff, Woodruff, $23,816.72, for money advanced it, and that two sections of West Texas land, claimed by Woodruff, belonged to the firm but that $1129.85 had been charged to his account for same; and also that Woodruff owed the firm $1900 as rental for the use of partnership property.
