AUSTRIAN RETREAT ALONG PIAVE IS VERITABLE ROUT; GERMANY RUSHING MANY DIVISIONS TO ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIANS GO ACROSS THE PIAVE RIVER PURSUING ENEMY

By The Associated Press.
ROME, June 23.—Italian troops have crossed the old channel of the Piave River, west of the main stream and re-captured several of their old positions there, according to a semi-official announcement tonight.
From Capo Sile other detachments are advancing toward the main stream of the river.
The Italians have thrown numerous bombing detachments across the main stream where the artillery and aircraft are hammering the enemy.
The Austrian retreat, which began in an orderly manner, soon became wildly disorganized and confused. Many thousands of Austro-Hungarians surrendered at the first opportunity when overtaken by their pursuers.
Rain which has been falling for eight days broke forth more violently about daylight today at a time when artillery and machine guns began to open up upon the retreating Austrians who were struggling knee deep in mire.
The Italian cavalry took part in the pursuit, hurrying the fugitives.
As the Austrians were pressed by the Italians they threw away their guns and equipment. They even left on the Montello stacks of bread, canned meats and preserves which Austrian aviators had succeeded in bringing to them.
The Austrians crossed the Piave on rafts in boats which they had brought up or had prepared during the darkness on Saturday night. They left well built trenches, great quantities of ammunition and blankets and every variety of army equipment in their retreat.

ITALIAN TROOPS REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK ON WEST

By Associated Press.
PARIS, June 24.—The Germans launched a new attack against positions held by the Italians at Bligny at 11 o'clock last night.
After hard fighting the Germans were completely repulsed with serious losses, leaving prisoners in the hands of the Allies, according to a statement issued by the war office today. The French have repulsed a German attack in the region of Antheuil (west of the Oise), the statement says.

AUSTRIAN DEFEAT IS HAILED WITH ENTHUSIASM

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 24.—The laconic bulletin from General Diaz announcing that the defeated Austrians are retreating in disorder with the Italian pursuit is the most heartening news received in Allied countries in many months.

Although nothing is yet known as to the exact extent of the Austrian defeat or how far the Italians and Allies may be in a position to take full advantage of the statement of the Italian commander in chief is hailed with enthusiasm by the morning papers.

FLOOD PASSED TOO LATE TO RELIEVE AUSTRIANS

By Associated Press.
ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Sunday, June 23.—The crest of the Piave flood passed yesterday but the falling waters came too late to relieve the position of the Austrians. The inundation went six feet above the low water mark.

PIAVE WRITERS IN BLOOD RED ON AUSTRIAN HEARTS

By Associated Press.
ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, June 23.—"The Piave is being written in blood red letters on Austrian hearts," said a dust covered, sweat stained Italian officer, who has been fighting every day for a week with scarcely any rest save for Friday and Saturday's lull in the mighty contest for the banks of the river.
"We are saving the shouting until Austria's plunder expedition is defeated," said 70 year old Deputy Banquette, who is spending his time as an Alpine officer tramping to and fro among the soldiers telling them that victory is the one way to secure peace.
Behind the lines the civil population is undisturbed, there being but few refugees.

AUSTRIANS CROSSED RIVER UNDER A DEADLY FIRE

By Associated Press.
ROME, June 24.—Extremely heavy losses in men and material have been suffered by the Austro-Hungarians in the defeat which the Italians have administered to them on the Piave front the war office announced today. The enemy has been driven from the entire west bank of the Piave except at one point and was able to cross the river only under the deadly fire of the Italian artillery.
"Yesterday gave us the crowning results of victory. Pushed up against the bank of the Piave in a strip of ground ever becoming narrower, bombarded without pause by our artillery and airplanes, the enemy after having maintained himself desperately for eight days at the price of enormous sacrifices on the right bank of the

Rome Confident War Can Be Ended This Year With Full Support of Allies

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Confidence at Rome that the war may be brought to a victorious close this year if the Allies give the Italians a full measure of support in the offensive which has been launched against the Austrians, is reflected in official wireless dispatches received today from the Italian capital.
These messages say the Austrian retreat across the Piave, in which the Italians already have taken 45,000 prisoners, has become a veritable rout, but that information from secret sources shows that many divisions of German troops have been detached from the front in France and are being rushed to the aid of the Austrian army.
The Germans are said to be thoroughly awake to the probability of a complete collapse of the Austro-Hungarian government, already struggling with a half starved and riotous people, in the event of a complete Austrian rout at the hands of the Italians. Realization of this fact, Rome believes has caused the German general staff practically to suspend if not abandon its great offensive in France.

German soldiers are being rushed by rail to the northern end of the Austro-Italian battle lines with the purpose of restoring the Austrian morale and not only checking the Italian counter attack but by force of numbers breaking through the mountain passes into the plains of Venetia.
With such help as the entente armies can give immediately, the Italian counter attack but by force of numbers breaking through the mountain passes into the plains of Venetia.
Capture of 45,000 prisoners and enormous stores of war material by the Italians in their counter offensive which has driven the Austrians across the Piave, is announced in an official cablegram received today by the Italian embassy from Rome.
"Offensive operations by our troops began Sunday," says the dispatch. "After violent artillery preparations that destroyed all bridges except one, the infantry drove forward with irresistible impetus. The flooded Piave contains thousands of enemy corpses. Divisions which had passed the Piave were decimated by our artillery and infantry."
"Montello was attacked in three columns. Enemy lines were broken at Cella Dell Madonna and Nervosa and the cities occupied. From Maserada to Sardona the Austrians first resisted our attacks desperately but finally were forced to retreat to the left bank. Battle continues fiercely in the Sardona sector. Forty five thousand prisoners and enormous booty was captured by Italian troops."
"American airmen displayed great bravery in the first encounters.

Shattered Austrian Divisions In Disorderly Retreat; May Not Be Able to Recross Swollen River

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows:
Italy's victory over the Austrians on the Piave front appears likely to assume the proportions of a veritable triumph for the Italians and a disaster of great magnitude for the defeated enemy.
Already it is announced in official dispatches from Rome the Austrians have lost 45,000 men in prisoners and great quantities of material while the extent of their other casualties may be indicated by the thousands of bodies floating in the waters of the swollen river.
Disaster seems to be written large in the news of the Austrian defeat along the Piave.
Unable to force his way beyond the west bank of the river, and with bridges thrown across the stream swept away by the flood pouring down from the mountains, the enemy began a precipitate retreat Saturday night.
So hasty was his withdrawal that he left a great many questions on the west bank of the Piave, while his retreating infantry columns, according to the dispatches, are already being pressed by Italian detachments thrown over to the easterly side of the stream.

HEAVY GERMAN REINFORCEMENTS ON WAY TO ITALY

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Though cheered by the news that the Italians are pursuing the defeated Austrian army across the Piave, Italian officers and military observers here are prepared to hear a day time of a stiffening of the enemy line and of the launching of another offensive movement supported by Germans withdrawn from France for the purpose.
Some officials suggested today that the absence of any great enemy activity along the front in France and Flanders during the past few days might be accounted for by the movement of German reinforcements toward Italy.
BURIAN WANTED POSTPONE
MENT. AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE
By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 24.—One of the principal objects of the visit to Germany of Baron Burian, the Austrian foreign minister was to obtain consent for an indefinite postponement of the Austrian offensive, the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Annemasse, on the Franco-Swiss border says he learns from an unimpeachable source.
Baron Burian pointed out that failure of the drive in conjunction with the invading food problem and race questions might lead to the gravest internal disorders, even revolution, but if Austria were permitted to remain on the defensive the breadless situation might be fided over.
Berlin, it is added, insisted that an immediate offensive was necessary to relieve the western front and rehabilitate Austria with the German public.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR ITALY SENT BY SEC. BAKER

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Secretary Baker today cabled the American ambassador at Rome for transmittal to the Italian government his congratulations on the victory of the Italian army over the Austrians. He said "The people of the United States are watching with enthusiasm and admiration the exploits of your brave army."

AUSTRALIA WANTS MONROE DOCTRINE FOR THE PACIFIC

LONDON, June 24.—William Hughes, the Australian premier upon the conclusion of the imperial conference in London, will go to the United States to place before President Wilson a full and frank statement of Australia's policy regarding a Monroe doctrine for the Pacific according to the Liverpool Post. He will ask, says this newspaper, for the support and co-operation of the United States in maintaining such a policy.

DRAFT NUMBERS MAY BE DRAWN DURING THIS WEEK

(BULLETIN.)
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Wednesday or Thursday of this week may be fixed as the date for the drawing of order numbers for the young men who registered for the army draft on June 5. Announcement of arrangements awaits reports from half a dozen local boards whose cards are incomplete.

AMERICANS FLYERS PARTICIPATE IN ROUT OF ENEMY

By the Associated Press.
ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Sunday June 23.—(Night)—The great retreat by the Austrians along the Piave front began under cover of darkness on Saturday night. The retreating troops left their cannon behind them.
Austrian troops left to cover the retreat used their machine guns to set up a barrage fire.
Italian detachments are pursuing the enemy east of the Piave.
When it was observed that the Austrians had begun a retrograde movement, the Italians began to attack virtually all along the Piave line from Montello on the north, well towards the mouth of the river. The attack was quickly pressed and became more insistent, accompanied by violent artillery fire.
The number of guns left behind by the Austrians as they retreated has not yet been computed, but is said to be very great.
The work of the American aviators who appeared on the front last week for the first time contributed notably to the disorganization of the Austrian forces which had crossed the Piave, according to Raffaele Garinei, correspondent of the Milan Seicolo.
The Italian attack began at dawn on Sunday. With the Montello on the left flank, the attack was carried out all along the line through Candelo to San Dona Di Piave.
The Italians have taken large numbers of prisoners, great quantities of munitions and other booty since the Austrian retreat began.
The Italians are advancing from their bridgehead at Capo Sile.

WILL TURN OUT LARGEST WOODEN SHIP EVER BUILT

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The largest wooden ship ever built is soon to be turned out in quantity by the shipping board. It will be a new model 5,000 ton standard type adapted from the 4,700 ton boat, now being built, which was originated at Orange, Tex.
Numerous changes in the design have been made by naval architects to avoid troubles encountered in previous types, and especially the use of timbers so large that they cannot be obtained anywhere except in the giant forests of the Pacific coast. All timbers needed for the new ships will be available in the pine forests of the south.

TRANSPORT SUNK 67 MEMBERS CREW REPORTED MISSING

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Sinking of an Allied transport under American charter on June 18 about 700 miles east of the Delaware Capes was reported today to the navy department. The transport had no troops aboard and was westward bound.
Reports indicate that the submarine was not seen until after the torpedo struck the ship. The crew took to the boats after the vessel settled and it was futile to use the guns.
The U-boat appeared on the surface and fired 19 shots into the ship.
Three boats with about 67 members of the crew are missing. The crew of 148 got away from the vessel in seven boats, four of which have been landed. The total rescued so far is given as 81 men.
Two boatloads arrived by steamer at New York, one by steamer at Hampton Roads and one by sailing vessel at Bermuda.

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS BLOW COMING NEXT FEW DAYS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 24.—Premier Lloyd George announced today that the next couple of months would be anxious ones. There might be a great blow coming in the next few hours, he said, and certainly in the next few days and on this blow the issue of the campaign might depend.
The Entente Allies, he added, never felt better prepared to meet it.
Premier Lloyd George said the Austro-Hungarians were in full retreat. The question now was, he added, whether they would be able to effect a retreat.

GERMAN WOMAN IS HELD AS SUSPECT IN SHERMAN FIRE

By Associated Press.
SHERMAN, TEX., June 24.—A German woman whose name is withheld, was arrested today a few hours after the fire in a traction car at McKinney and will be brought back here. She was under suspicion when she came to a hotel here yesterday and left a call for 5 o'clock in the morning. She was not seen to leave the hotel but officers met her coming from the burning plant a few minutes after the alarm had been turned in.
The fire destroyed 15,000 bushels of corn, eight cars of peas, three cars of millet, 50,000 new grain sacks and a large quantity of wheat, barley and rye. It was the second big grain fire here within a few weeks.

FIRST MILLION TONS CONTRACT SHIPS SOON WILL BE READY

(BULLETIN.)
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The first million tons of ships built on contract for the shipping board probably will be delivered before the end of the month. Last week deliveries totalled five steel vessels with a deadweight tonnage of 37,846, making the grand total of 1918 production 924,200 dead-weight tons.

RUMANIANS HONOR UNITED STATES ABOVE ALL OTHERS

(By The Associated Press Correspondent Lately in Rumania.)
LONDON, May 24.—The United States is honored and loved by the Rumanian above all other nations of the world, with the possible exception of France. To the simple Rumanian peasant and soldier America is the real land of promise, and the American is pictured as a sort of superman: wealthy, capable, energetic and efficient, and, above all, animated by the loftiest and most altruistic ideals.
 The secretary of the American Red Cross Mission, who visited the Rumanian front in the snow clad Carpathian mountains late in the winter, was the first American that thousands of Rumanian soldiers had ever seen, and they showed a most astonishing curiosity and interest in him. There was more than friendliness in their salute, not directed so much to the individual as to the great nation overseas which he was supposed to typify and represent. Even the officers refused to treat their visitor as an ordinary guest.
 The Red Cross secretary, at the time of his visit, had been living in Jassy for several months on the rather humble fare which was everybody's lot in a country where there was no abundance, and he expected no special dispensation regarding food while with the army. But the army insisted that this visitor from the great new ally must be treated with special favor and his visit made a real fete.
 It was after midnight when the Red Cross representative reached a little observation post on top of a mountain. The colonel in charge of the post at once telephoned across a range of hills to the general commanding this particular army group. Half an hour later the general appeared and invited the American to dine with him. He led the way down a corridor, ushered the visitor into a large dining room, brilliantly lighted and profusely decorated with American flags and bunting.
 At the tables, 150 Rumanian and French officers awaited the arrival of the general and his guest. As the latter entered the room an orchestra in the corner of the room played "The Star Spangled Banner," and the officers rose and stood at attention until the music had finished. Then they joined in a cheer which concluded with "Fratisca, America!" (Long live America).
 The unexpected appearance of a room large enough to be used as a banquet hall, with a real orchestra and plans at an army outpost on the peak of the Carpathian mountains, was startling enough to seem like a page from a fairy tale. Moreover, the menu provided for this "dinner American" was the most elaborate that the Red Cross man had eaten since he arrived in Rumania, several months before. The piano, which was only one of nine instruments in the orchestra, had been captured by the Rumanians from the Germans in the Battle of Rackitash mountains.

 The Rumanian officers at this time were expecting great things of the United States. Most of these expectations were destined to disappointment later, but at that time difficulties of distance and transportation were regarded by the Rumanians as scarcely operative in the case of the great and ingenious American people. "Nothing is impossible to the Americans," said a Rumanian officer in his speech at the Carpathian banquet in honor of the Red Cross representative.

2 INVESTIGATIONS ORDERED INTO CIRCUS WRECK

By Associated Press.
HAMMOND, IND., June 24.—Two investigations have been ordered by official bodies into the cause of the railroad wreck last Saturday on the Chicago and North Western line near Gary, in which eight employees of the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus were killed and approximately 100 injured.
 The coroner was ready to begin hearing witnesses today and the Indiana public service commission announced that an inquiry to fix the blame for the disaster would be opened Thursday next. It is said the Interstate Commerce Commission may also join in the investigation.
 Sixty-two bodies have been recovered from the wreck.
FLAGMAN THREW FUSE THROUGH CAB WINDOW
By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 24.—According to O. Timm, flagman of the circus train wrecked with heavy toll near Gary, Ind., Saturday, there was no one visible on the engineer's cab of the engine which a moment later crashed into the slow train. Timm estimated that he was 35 car lengths back of the circus train and frantically signalled the following train to stop, stepped to one side and threw a fuse through the cab window. He reported his superior that the engineer was visible to him at that time.

CZECHO-SLOVAK LEADERS WANT TO GET TO WEST FRONT

EXTENSIVE STRIKES AT COLOGNE AND MULHEIM
LONDON, June 24.—Extensive strikes broke out Thursday in Cologne and Mulheim on the Rhine, owing to a reduction in the bread ration, twenty thousand persons quitting work in munitions factories, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from The Hague.
 A Dutch workman returning to The Hague reports that the military and police interferred but failed to prevent a street procession of more than 5,000 strikers at Cologne. All the speakers, who included foremen and forewomen made this declaration: "Unless we get more to eat we shall not work."
 The dutchman said that smallpox is increasing greatly among the Krupp workmen at Essen.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 24.—Major Theodore Roosevelt Jr. has been cited by the general commanding the troops to which his unit is attached, for "conspicuous gallantry in action" during the operations connected with the capture and subsequent defense of Cantigny. The citation says: "During an enemy raid he displayed high qualities of courage and leadership in going forward to supervise in person the actions of one of the companies of his battalion which had been attacked."
 "On the day of our attack upon Cantigny, although gassed in the eyes to blindness, Major Roosevelt refused to be removed and retained the command of his battalion under a heavy bombardment throughout the engagement."

Smother the Kaiser with War Savings Stamps

Sacred treaties are called by the Kaiser mere "scraps of paper." His words are an example of the "Kultur" of the Huns who commit "unspeakable crimes against innocent women and children—the "Kultur" that America is fighting to remove forever from the world.

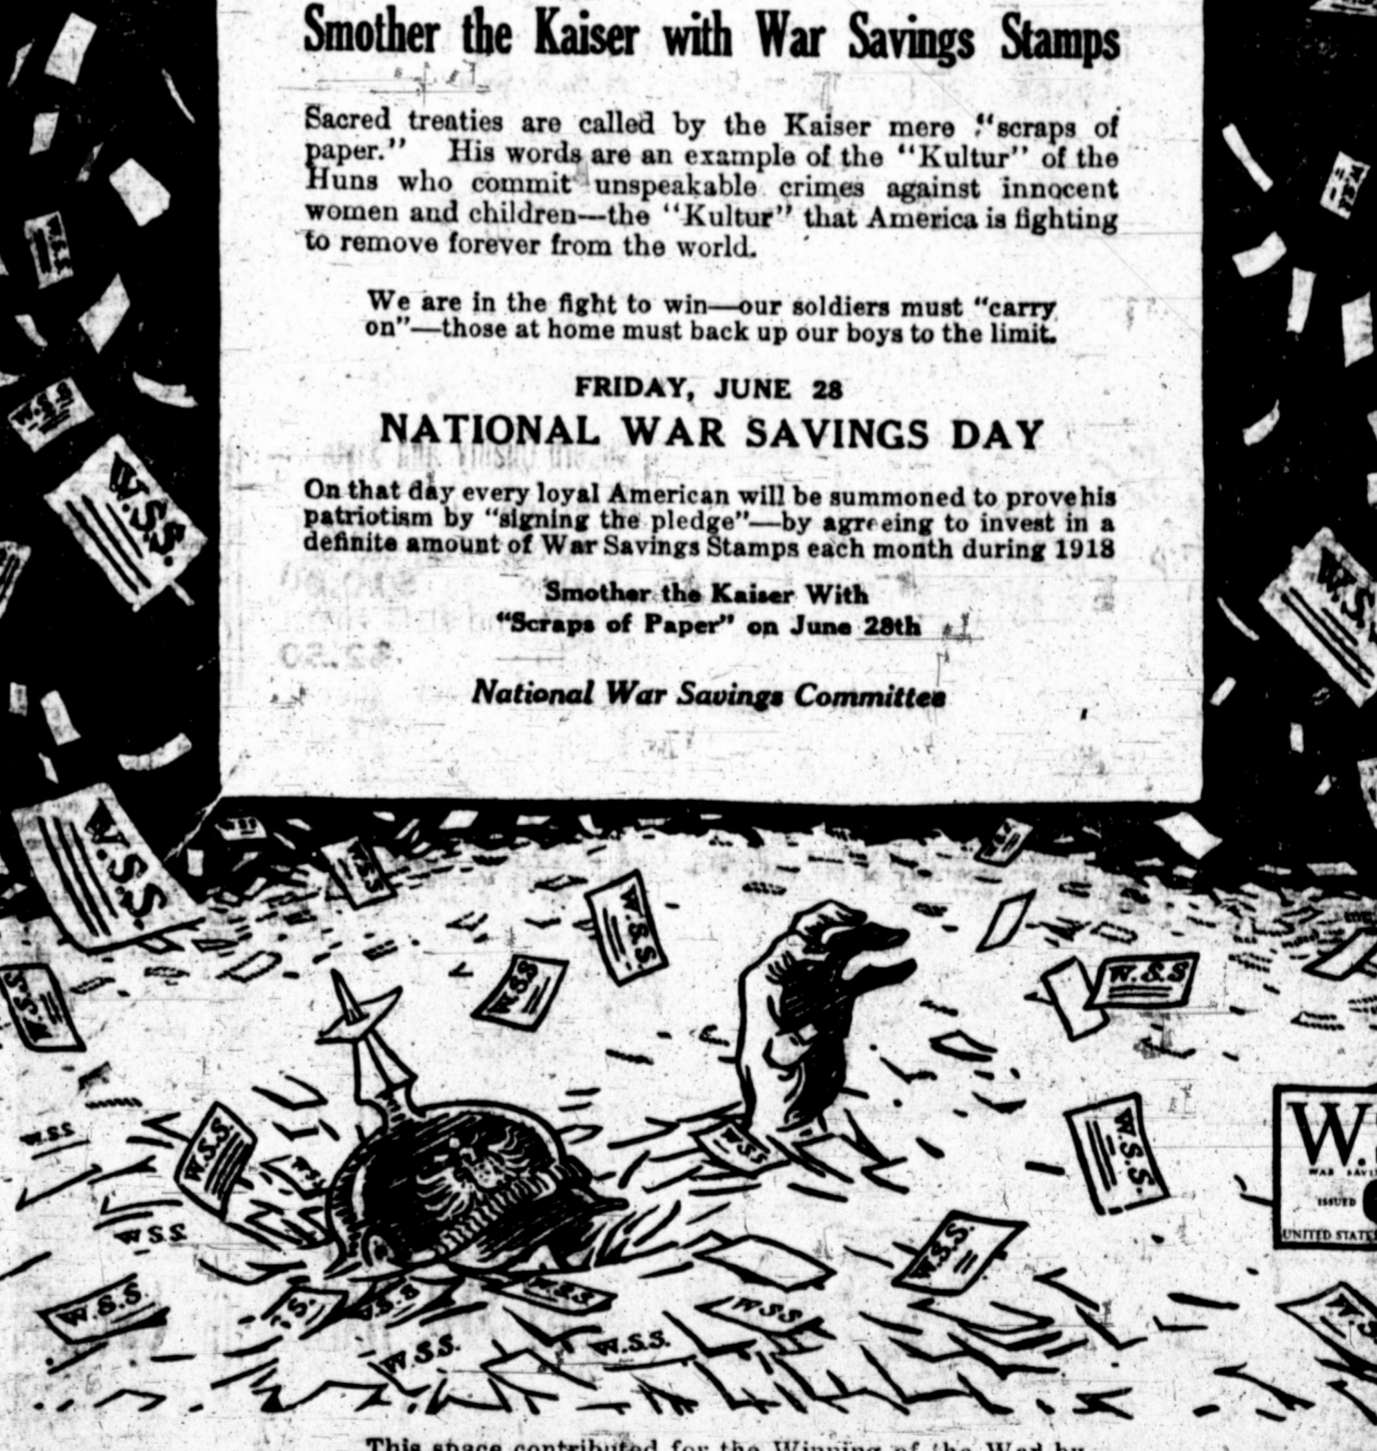

We are in the fight to win—our soldiers must "carry on"—those at home must back up our boys to the limit.

SEVERAL ELECTIONS IN HOLLAND JULY 3

AMSTERDAM, May 21.—The general election in Holland fixed for July 3, has more than ordinary interest for the outside world as it will be the first during the war. It may possibly result in the replacement of the present cabinet by a new cabinet, which has held office throughout the war, by a regular party ministry.

It will be the first election to be held on the basis of the revised constitution with universal and proportional representation, so that the result is more than usually uncertain. While the Dutch socialists have hitherto refused to participate in the government, the party now intimates its readiness to enter an eventual ministry if satisfactory guarantees are forthcoming regarding the democratic basis of its policy.

Twenty-one parties have so far nominated candidates including the new Economic League, of which the present Finance Minister, Dr. Treub, is leader, another party calling itself the League for the Democratization of the Army, and little class groups claiming to champion the interests of shopkeepers, the agricultural population or the police. The campaign is already in progress.

SERIOUS SPLIT BRITISH LABOR PARTY IMPENDS

By Associated Press
 LONDON, June 24.—The manifesto issued by eight Labor members of the British government, according to some of the morning papers, is connected with threats of a serious split in the Labor party, due to efforts of the party group to embarrass the government in the prosecution of the war.

The Daily Telegraph says that the party stands in imminent danger of a cleavage which will divide it into several warring factions. The Telegraph declares that speeches and actions of the Labor ministers have been twisted and misrepresented to suit sections of the party and the minds of their constituents have been poisoned by insidious propaganda. It charges that a campaign is being waged ruthlessly to force Labor out of the coalition government and break up the present administration.

George H. Roberts, minister of Labor, and George Nicoll Barnes, minister without portfolio in the war cabinet, are quoted by the Daily Mail as saying in an interview that they are so sick of the "mean lies and envenomed calumny of their opponents within the party, that they would gladly resign but feel that by doing so, they would be shirking their duty.

The manifesto seems called forth by the determination of the Labor executive to move a resolution of the various nationalities arrived in ballast to load grain.

Cereals continue to arrive at the ports of Buenos Aires and Rosario in the United States, and at Rosario alone the effect of the embargo is estimated at 220,000 tons of wheat stored, in addition to large holdings of other cereals. Calculating wheat at Rosario alone is worth $2 million pesos.

Black-listed and enemy firms also have stored holdings of cereals, the value of which cannot be calculated at present.

GREAT PLAINS TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENED

By Associated Press
 KANSAS CITY, MO., June 24.—Seventy nine players are entered in the Great Plains Tennis tournament for women which opened this morning on the courts of the Rockhill Tennis Club here. Although war activities have kept some of the feminine stars away, many of the best women players of the Central West are competing and the event promises to be the big tennis meet of the year here in class as well as number of entries.

Miss Irving Murphy of New Orleans, who won the silver trophy cup of the event in 1916, has returned it for the contest this year. It must be won three times in succession to become the permanent property of a player.

DENIES MOONEY WAS AGENT OF SINISTER INFLUENCES

By Associated Press
 SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Denial of charges made by District Attorney Charles M. Fickert that Thomas J. Mooney was a paid agent of the sinister influence directive "Those Who Sank the Lusitania" was contained in a brief filed today with Governor William D. Stephens by Maxwell Nutt, Mooney's counsel in answer to Fickert's document opposing the condemned man's appeal for pardon. The governor requested statements from opposing counsel in connection with entering a flat denial to Fickert's charges, the brief set forth that the district attorney at one time had employed C. C. Crowley as a special investigator in western states and Canada. Crowley, who bore an introductory letter signed by Fickert, is now serving a sentence. It has been testified by Mooney's counsel here, and other counsel attached to the United States by dynamiting bridges and other public structures in Canada.

Mooney is under a death sentence at an indefinite date for the murder in connection with "Preparedness" Day bomb explosion which killed seven persons here July 22, 1916. His case, while traveling through the channels of the California courts, which denied his petition for a new trial, became international in scope and was made the subject of a special investigation by a presidential commission which recommended a new trial. President Wilson has written Governor Stephens three times, requesting that executive clemency be extended to Mooney. The governor has announced that he awaited the course of legal proceedings before acting.

Don't "Skimp" on Ice

These hot days, as might be expected, your good refrigerator will require a few pounds more of ice than was necessary when the weather was cooler.

Without your refrigerator and our Pure Ice we could not in any comfort endure these trying hot days. So, don't begrudge the small extra amount of ice that is necessary to keep the good ice chest in tune.

Remember the economical way to run your refrigerator is to keep it always at an even, low temperature. Now you can't do that if you "skimp" on ice. When you fail to take enough ice the air after a while grows warm, the ice remaining melts quickly and the foodstuffs in storage lose their freshness and flavor.

And remember, too, that you cannot hope to save any money by buying "bargain" ice. Bargain ice is impure ice. It has mushy places in it. It is not frozen solid and, besides being unhygienic and unhealthy, it melts so much more quickly than our hard frozen, pure ice that in the long run it costs a great deal more.

If you are not using our Pure ice, start today. We want to serve you.

Not since American troops got into the fight at Cantigny several weeks ago have the Teutonic armies had any luck with their offenses. The great German offensive at the Marne and the Alsace came to halt with the entry of the American troops into the fighting. Subsequently the Rhine sector resulted disastrously and now the great Austrian attempt against the Italians has ended in a rout.

At Cantigny and Chateau Thierry the Americans met the German advance at its furthest points and succeeded in holding it up and even driving back the German positions. Of course, the Americans have contributed comparatively little of the opposition to the Teutons thus far, but their participating in the fighting has been with a dash and ardor and courage that has inspired our allies.

It may easily be that the inspiration given by the brilliancy of the fighting of the Americans and the knowledge that great numbers of them were coming up has so heartened the allied troops that they are meeting the foe with irresistible determination.

SUFFICIENT CORN ONLY FOR HALF BREAD RATION

By Associated Press
 AMSTERDAM, June 24.—There is not sufficient corn for half a bread ration in Austria, declared Food Minister Paul in an interview with the Vienna correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger. The food department is attempting to make up this deficiency with other foodstuffs and in addition to 250 grammes of beef, two pounds of horseflesh per person will be distributed weekly. Military mobile kitchens will be used to supply 100,000 persons daily for four weeks with a warm meal consisting of soup, 100 grammes of meat and vegetables.

CEREALS SHIPPED TO ALLIES FROM BUENOS AIRES

BUENOS AIRES, May 22.—Large shipments of cereals to the Allies were made from this port in April in accordance with the cereal convention between this government and those of Great Britain and France.

"That the cereal convention is bringing reciprocal advantages to the Argentine is evident from the fact that seventeen of the vessels brought 23,349 tons of general cargo and eleven brought 29,950 tons of coal. In addition to these, several other ships of various nationalities arrived in ballast to load grain.

Cereals continue to arrive at the ports of Buenos Aires and Rosario in the United States, and at Rosario alone the effect of the embargo is estimated at 220,000 tons of wheat stored, in addition to large holdings of other cereals. Calculating wheat at Rosario alone is worth $2 million pesos.

Black-listed and enemy firms also have stored holdings of cereals, the value of which cannot be calculated at present.

CLE JONSRUDS OPPORTUNITY TO HAVE PREVENTED WAR

VIROQUA, WIS.—During a conscious moment Ole Jonrud turned over in his death bed and chuckled. He was telling authorities at the county home here the story of how he seized the German Kaiser, Wilhelm, the zoller, by the nape of the neck and sea of the trousers and chucked him into a snow drift in Norway.

"If I had only realized my opportunity," Jonrud muttered, "my nephews and America's sons would not be sacrificing their lives on the altar of Wilhelm's greed and fruitlessness."

After relating the incident, which was confirmed by his sister, Martha Gottlieb of Chicago, and other relatives, Jonrud who had been a resident of Westby for many years, died at the county home where he had been ill for some time.

The incident involving the rough handling of Wilhelm, then crown prince of Germany, came to light in a letter from Jonrud to the publisher of the Chicago Tribune, which pointed to the affair with pride. The superintendent of the hospital questioned Jonrud.

The crown prince was 15 years old at the time and was accompanied by a coach driver, to convey them from Sondreland, Norway, to Odnes, a distance of several miles. Severe weather conditions obtained and the horses picked their way through the snow drifts with difficulty.

Suddenly the crown prince burst forth with a volley of oaths of protest at the slow pace and commanded Jonrud to lash the horses. The latter refused, and the crown prince seized the whip and began beating the animals. They darted into a gallop and got out of control. The prince, when they were brought to a stop, Jonrud seized Wilhelm and hurled him foremost into a drift and then held him there while the crown prince cuttered and cursed.

"Do you know whom I am?" Wilhelm roared.

"No, and I don't care," Jonrud retorted.

The driver was amazed at the end of the journey to receive a check for 50 crowns signed by the crown prince.

"It was the big event of my life," Jonrud said.

IRISHMEN WANT TO ENLIST IN THE AMERICAN ARMY

DUBLIN, May 23.—A proposal to conduct in all the towns and villages of Ireland a recruiting campaign to enlist young men for service in the American army has been submitted to the British and American governments. The plan has been made public by P. McAndrew, chairman of a committee formed by citizens of Dublin. In a statement printed in Dublin newspapers, Mr. McAndrew proposed an organized recruiting campaign throughout Ireland. He said: "I have had many inquiries from different parts of Ireland as to the mode of procedure necessary for young men to join the American army. The young men state that they only realized recently that America had gone seriously into the war, and that they have had letters from brothers, cousins and other relatives in America who have joined the American army or navy. All these American Irishmen, they say, write them that in their opinion, the war will lead to the freedom of Ireland, as they are satisfied that America will see that justice is done to the people of Ireland without further delay."

"Under the circumstances, the young

THE POLICEMAN ON THE BEAT.

In a speech at Greenville last week Dan Miller told a story that will be more effective in the gubernatorial campaign than all the eloquence that will be heard. It was a very short narrative but it drove home a point that is the whole issue in this campaign. Here's the way the dispatch told it:

He was a member of the "kangaroo court" of which Ferguson talks and he assured the people of Hunt county that he voted to convict Jim Ferguson on the evidence of Jim Ferguson, and on the evidence of no one else.

He reiterated the light matter in which Ferguson testified that he bought the property in a trade at $15,000; that he rendered it for taxation at $6,000; and that he actually sold some of these bonds for $40,000 in cash, $15,000 to a Houston brewer and $25,000 to a Galveston brewer.

"Once I had a client, one of those poor women of the city upon whom every beast of the jungle preys. One day she came into my office, bearing in her hand a little, half-feathered bird, which had fallen from the nest.

"What are you doing with that bird?" I asked. "Don't you know it will die?"

And she replied: "I bought it for $10."

"I said: 'You bought it and paid $10 for it? What did you do that for?'"

"And she said: 'I bought it from a policeman on my beat.'

"And my friend, Jim Ferguson, the governor of Texas, was the policeman on the beat of those lawyers, and they bought from him ligante bonds and anything else that he offered them. Just so the governor of Texas is the policeman on many people's beats; and for that reason the governor of Texas should be an honest man, a true man, a policeman whom the people can trust and who will not sell them ligante stock or buy their debts with the money of their state."

MEXICAN HAD U. S. CUSTOMS SEAL IN HIS POSSESSION

By Associated Press
 SAN ANTONIO, TEX., June 24.—Jose Cruz Solis, a Mexican, was arrested at Nuevo Laredo today for having in his possession a counterfeit seal of the United States customs house at Laredo, and was charged with using the seal in issuing counterfeit food cards which he also had, thus permitting unauthorized persons to purchase food in Laredo, much of which is sold to merchants in the interior. Solis is now in jail at Nuevo Laredo. The seal will probably be turned over to U. S. authorities by Nuevo Laredo authorities.

ENGINEER SARGENT RELEASED FROM CUSTODY

By Associated Press
 KALAMAZOO, MICH., June 24.—Alonso J. Sargent, engineer of the train of empty passenger cars which crashed into the Healdsburg circus train near Gary, Saturday, was released from custody this forenoon.

ENGINEER SICK; DID NOT SEE SIGNALS

By Associated Press
 HAMMOND, IND., June 24.—Attorney Charles J. McPadden, representing the Michigan Central, issued a statement today explaining that Sargent, Alonzo Sargent of the circus train which crashed into a circus train near Gary, Saturday, was sick and did not see the signals of danger. Sargent was a coach driver, and was engaged by Hammond, Ind., to convey them from Sondreland, Norway, to Odnes, a distance of several miles. Severe weather conditions obtained and the horses picked their way through the snow drifts with difficulty.

Suddenly the crown prince burst forth with a volley of oaths of protest at the slow pace and commanded Jonrud to lash the horses. CONDUCTOR GIVES UP TO FEDERAL OFFICERS

A. A. Hadley, conductor on the Frisco, came to the office of the U. S. Commissioner this morning and gave himself up, stating that he understood that there was a federal warrant out for him, charging him with complicity in a theft from an interstate shipment, for which two other Oklahomans, Adams and Miller, had been previously arraigned for hearing and given bond. Hadley was granted a $300 bond which he made.

J. E. Lutz of Vernon, charged with attempting to obstruct the operation of the draft law waived hearing and was released on $3,000 bond, to appear before the Federal grand jury in November.

PLAN FOR EVANGELIZATION OF 122,000,000 RUSSIANS

CHICAGO, June 23.—A plan for the evangelization of the 122,000,000 people of Russia will be taken up for consideration here tomorrow at a general conference of ministers and missionary workers. The meeting will continue until Friday and will be addressed by Russian speaking and other slavonic evangelists and missionaries of the Chicago and St. Louis churches.

The Rev. William Feltner, formerly of Pennsylvania and now of Philadelphia declared today that the revolution has resulted in the largest country with the largest population of white people in the world.

"The Greek orthodox church is rapidly losing its grip upon the masses of the people and before long large masses of simply religiously inclined Russians will be led astray into complete infidelity unless America assumes the responsibility of meeting the missionary need."

He added that millions of copies of the Bible and of the New Testament in the Russian language are needed, as are also hundreds of evangelists, colporteurs and Christian workers.

"The conference will endeavor to bring the great missionary opportunity closer to the minds of the American Christians," the Rev. Feltner said.

Today was known as "Russian Mission Sunday," and an appeal was made to all evangelist ministers to preach a special missionary sermon.

A choir of fifty students from the Russian Bible institute of Philadelphia will sing Russian hymns at the conference.

LONDON, June 24.—All but one of the bridges left for the Austrian retreat across the Piave have been destroyed by the Italian artillery, according to advices received here this afternoon.

From the Montello southeast to the Adriatic the Austrians have been cleared from the entire west bank of the Piave with the exception of a small section in the vicinity of Musile, nearly opposite San Dona Di Piave, where the struggle is continuing.

After recapturing the Montello from the Austrians, according to news received in London this afternoon, the Italians began making bridgeheads at Falve and Nervese. The Italians met with little resistance.

The retreating Austrians crossed the Piave by the only bridge remaining to the north of Zenson. Other enemy forces were forced to wade across the stream. Between Montello and Zenson the Italians are on the river for the entire distance. They are sending over cavalry between the Conegliano and Oderzo railroad to clear the country.

The communique follows: "Section A.—In spite of opposition we again improved our positions northwest of Chateau Thierry. In this region the artillery of both sides continues active. In the Vosges, where paratropping has been very active, a raid attempted by the enemy was repulsed.

"Section B.—There is nothing to report in this section."

TODAY'S MARKETS

Cotton Market

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 24.—A somewhat irregular opening was followed by firmness in the cotton market today. First prices were steady at a decline of one point on July, but 51 points higher on August and 21 to 30 points on later months.

A private crop report making the condition 84.9, compared with the government report of 82.3 last month, seemed somewhat disappointing from a bearish standpoint, while buying was promoted by the continued favorable character of the war news and reports from Fall River that the government had rewritten its good specifications permitting the use of low middling instead of middling in certain cases. July sold up to 36.51 and October to 24.80 before the end of the first hour, making net advances of 17 to 30 points.

The early advance attracted a great deal of realizing. There seemed to be less nervousness over the crop situation in the southwest owing to the showers and slightly lower temperatures while the buying promoted by the bullish feature in war news apparently appeared to have left the market in an easier technical position. Prices eased off in consequence with July reacting to 36.15 while October to 24.20, or a shade under Saturday's closing figure.

Later weather advices from Texas seemed somewhat disappointing to continued high temperatures and the market was also influenced by reports of Italian successes. Trading remained quiet but prices steadied up, calling October 26.4 for July and 24.71 for October, or about 10 to 12 points net higher during the middle of the afternoon. The close was steady.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, June 24.—The favorable war news over Sunday caused a buying wave in cotton today, the market feeling a considerable demand as soon as trading commenced. At the end of the first half hour of business prices were 24 to 26 points up. Profit taking on the long side caused a moderate recession which carried July 3 points under the close of Saturday and the new crops to a level 1 to 7 points over. At noon war news was still at work and the active months were 10 to 18 points over Saturday's final prices.

The market became quiet and steady with narrow price changes. At 1 o'clock the active months were 5 to 13 points above Saturday's close. Cotton closed steady at an advance of one to eleven points.

Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, June 24.—Cotton spot quiet; prices firm. Good middling 22.22; middling 22.29; low middling 21.77; good ordinary 20.77.

Sales 2,000, including 15,000 American. Receipts 15,000 American 1,300. Futures closed quiet. Sales contracts: June 22.85; July 22.08; August 20.99; September 20.01; September 19.44. Old contracts: fixed prices June 21.14; July 21.06.

BRITISH SUCCESSFUL IN MINOR ATTACK

LONDON, June 24.—The British made a successful minor attack on German positions south of Meterin (in the Lys salient) last night. Many Germans were killed and fifty prisoners and some machine guns were taken by the British, according to a statement issued by the war office today.

The statement reads: "A successful minor enterprise in which many Germans were killed, fifty prisoners captured and some machine guns taken, was carried out by our troops last night south of Meterin. Casualties were inflicted on the enemy and a few prisoners were captured by us during the night in raids and patrol encounters on other parts of the front."

FARMER ENDS OWN LIFE AFTER SHOOTING WIFE

CUERO, TEX., June 24.—Mrs. Edward Myers was shot and seriously wounded late yesterday by her husband, a farmer living near here, who then shot and killed himself. Mrs. Myers recently had her husband arrested after a quarrel but later arranged his release from custody. The oldest of their five children was injured slightly from scattering shot of the charge directed at his mother.

NEW JURY ORDERED FOR TRIAL OF O'LEARY

NEW YORK, June 24.—Because it was learned one of the jurors who had been hearing testimony in the trial of John J. O'Leary has been under indictment for some time in a federal proceeding, Judge Augustus N. Hand today dismissed the jury and ordered a new trial of the charges against O'Leary, accused of having aided his brother, Jeremiah, in an attempt to evade justice.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, June 24.—Stocks were decidedly strong at the active opening today, the advance being accelerated by further advices concerning the successful Italian operations. Equipment led the rise, U. S. Steel and Baldwin locomotive gaining 1 and 2 points respectively. Other war shares, motors, oils, tobaccos and shippings participated in moderate measure but rails were dull and little changed. Selling for profits caused fractional reactions before the end of the first half hour. Liberty Bonds were steady.

Following its usual course the market came almost to a standstill in the early afternoon. Prices were variable but the strength of steels more than offset the further heaviness of utilities and a reaction of 1/4 points in Marine preferred.

Steeels, coppers and tobaccos and oils made their best quotations in the later dealings but the list eased from fractions to 1/4 points at the end. The closing was strong.

Grain Market

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, June 24.—Frosts in Michigan, Indiana and Iowa gave a decided upturn today to the value of corn. Bullish sentiment developed strongly notwithstanding government reports that there had been no damage to crops except in few localities. Opening prices which varied from unchanged figures to 1/2 lower with July 1.43 1/2 to 1.42 1/2, and August 1.46 1/2 to 1.46, were followed by an advance all around to well above Saturday's finish.

Oats were relatively weak owing to covering. After opening 1/2 to 3/4 down with August 65 to 66 1/2, the market underwent a further sag and displayed but little power to rally.

Liberal receipts of hogs weakened provisions. Most of the trading was in lard.

Subsequently reports of an improved cash demand brought about a moderate advance.

In the last half hour sharp declines took place which appeared to be due largely to London talk of a possible separate peace with Austria. The close was heavy, 1/2 to 3/4 net lower with July 1.43 1/2 to 1.43 1/2, and August 1.46 to 1.46 1/2.

NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN BULGARIA AND TURKEY

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 23.—Preliminary negotiations presumably regarding Bulgaria have begun between Bulgaria and Turkey, and Germany only learned of them through its espionage service, the Daily Mail correspondent at The Hague says he is informed. Austria probably will participate in these separate negotiations in the course of a few days.

The recent speech in the Reichstag of Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the foreign secretary, it is added resulted from conversations between Bulgaria and Turkey which were begun on the initiative of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria. M. Malinoff, the new Bulgarian premier, is said to agree entirely with the plan of King Ferdinand to exact fulfillment of Bulgaria's demands at whatever cost.

Searchlights On the Battle Fronts

Last fall, when the victorious Austrians were driving the Italian soldiers from their hard-won mountain fortresses, the defeated army had one weapon which it constantly used to harass and impede the foe. This was the electric searchlight, a newcomer on the field of battle.

Powerful lights were trained every night upon the advancing Austrians whenever they came to a river crossing or whenever they were obliged to halt for another reason. This harassed and irritated the enemy exceedingly. It was not only that serious danger attended any disclosure of their operations. They suffered also from nerves when the long beams of light brushed over their faces and hands and revealed every detail of the work upon which they were engaged.

The use of searchlights by our own expeditionary forces is becoming an important branch of the engineering service. Not long ago Congress voted an appropriation of $1,000,000 for searchlights of both the field type and the anti-aircraft type. The lights commonly used are 36-inch lights, having a candlepower of 1,000,000,000, and a maximum range of approximately 10,000 yards, or nearly 6 miles.

When searchlights were first introduced in warfare, it was expected that they would be primarily serviceable in battlefield illumination. The scheme was to throw light upon the opposing battle line and show advancing companies of infantry the kind of ground over which they had to go. Another plan was to have rows of searchlights parallel with the trenches and sweep the terrain before them, lighting up the barbed wire entanglements laid by the foe and exposing parties of enemy soldiers at work repairing them. However, neither of these uses turned out to be especially significant.

The difficulty was that, as soon as the lights were in operation, they were easily picked off by the enemy's guns. In the same manner they could not be placed along the line of trenches because they announced with great accuracy to the enemy the precise trend and extent of the trench line.

More recently experiments have demonstrated that there is a real usefulness for field searchlights. They are now being employed to spot the enemy's tank advances. Instead of being hauled by horses, like the first field searchlights, the newer ones are mounted on motor trucks. They are flashed for only a minute or two at a time and are instantly shifted to another vantage point. This affords them a greater measure of self-protection.

Defense Against Bombing Planes.
The anti-aircraft searchlight is the most valuable type of light now used by our soldiers. It is one of the most effective defenses against the low-flying night bombing planes of the Germans. Anti-aircraft guns have proved almost hopelessly inadequate in coping with night air raids, and if it were not for the long pointing fingers of the searchlight, the foe would be able to effect some very deadly work in night attacks upon supply depots and ammunition dumps.

The method is to pick up a hostile bombing plane when it is about 5 miles away from its objective. For this purpose the searchlight is located at points likely to be attacked. They are sunk in holes in the ground and are heavily sandbagged. Both the light and the men working it are given considerable protection.

To detect the approach of airplanes the searchlight apparatus is furnished with sound receivers. Without these receivers the operator is practically useless. The receiver can be swung around to catch the sound vibrations and they are remarkably accurate in discovering the position of the plane. Usually it can be located within a few degrees. The light is not turned on at all until the airplane is practically located. Then it is suddenly flashed on the craft. Once a bombing plane is found it is hard for it to get away from the inexorable pencil of light. Bombing planes are not like battle planes; they must fly in comparatively straight lines and are not free to twist and turn so as to wriggle out of range of the light.

Dazzled by the Light.
The first thing an aviator does when he finds himself in the spot light is to rise. That is just what the operator of the searchlight wants him to do. The higher he goes, the less accurate his aim becomes, and the smaller grows the chance that he can hurl his bombs at a desired point. Furthermore, he is dazzled by the light and his sense of security is completely destroyed. Sometimes he can be found out by one of the anti-aircraft guns, or pursued by one of our own airplanes. Even if the searchlight crew does nothing more than to frighten an aviator and drive him away, it has performed a defensive act which may save quantities of stores and ammunition, to say nothing of lives.

Of course, the enemy planes have discovered dodges by which they try to counteract some of the searchlight menace. A favorite trick, not always practiced with success, is to shut off the engine, so that the noise of the craft's approach will be muffled, and then "slide down the beam", and perhaps eventually put the searchlight out of order. Moreover, they fly at tremendous speed, averaging 70 miles an hour, and it is necessary to detect them at a maximum distance in order to pick them up in time.

Personnel Highly Trained.
The searchlights are operated by regular companies which are subdivided into sections so that they can be detached upon occasion. A highly trained personnel is required for this service. Complete technical knowledge is an essential, and a very high order of physical stamina is also required, in order to endure the severity and privations of night duty. No sort of service offers a greater variety of experience. Searchlight companies are stationed along the entire western front, from Flanders to Switzerland, and the sections are frequently shifted. They are officered by technical men who are specially qualified because of training and experience in electrical engineering.

Since the night air raid has become a favorite device of the Germans to alarm and distract the civilian population, cities near the front have been given the protection of an encircling line of searchlights which sweep the sky at intervals and endeavor to keep anti-aircraft gunners apprised of the presence of bombing planes. In spite of the precautions, a few planes occasionally slip through, but it is growing more and more unhealthy for hostile aviators to attempt raids on towns which are safeguarded by this new kind of defense.

WAR'S COST AND LENGTH DEPENDS ON CIVILIANS

By GEORGE M. REYNOLDS
(President of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago)

Whenever the high cost of living pinches harder than usual we look back upon the earlier history of this country, when people led simple lives, and we sigh for a return to the freedom from expense which they enjoyed. Their wants were comparatively few and easily satisfied; they were content.

It is true their incomes were small when measured by our standards, but the earnings of the head of the family generally sufficed, and it was not necessary for the daughters to elbow their way through the hurrying crowds in the business world. They could stay at home and help their mothers. The boys and girls who went to the little neighborhood and village schools and some of them to the colleges and universities, grew to be sturdy men and women—a fine type.

Those were wholesome days. I imagine that the family life was more ideal then; there was more of a unity of ambition and effort. We would not go back and accept all the conditions of the modern life, but we should have less cause for anxiety. We should have better health and less nerves. Overindulgence in some form or other results in physical degeneration and always weakens us physically and mentally. The reverse is equally true; a reasonable application of the rules of economy gives strength of body and mind.

Effect of Saving on Future.
Thrift will give our people vast sums for investment, for the further development of the marvelous resources of the United States, and for use in aiding in the development of other rich countries. Our citizens by the process of gradual accumulations invested in interest-bearing securities will then be steady spenders and all our affairs will be on a more stable basis. We shall get away from the periods of great activity and extravagance, which logically have been following idleness and want, and into that condition where everyone will be a little more careful of his expenses, but will have interest and dividends coming in to add to his wage or salary and will be a good buyer and good payer every year. The whole argument, with respect to the duration of the war and thereafter, and with respect to the individual citizen and general business, is decidedly on the side of those who advocate and practice economy. Save and you will be independent.

There is an especially urgent reason why we should save now. We must help win the war, and that is the big

Thrift Helpful to Trade.
During the first months of our participation in the war many well-intentioned men of affairs made the mistake of claiming that a nationwide thrift movement would impede industrial and commercial activities. I can not see it that way. Very thrallfully curtailment must follow in a few non-essential lines for a time, and possi-best task any group of countries has ever undertaken. We can and will win it. Now the important question is, how soon? The answer is largely with you and me and the rest of the civilian population in the countries at war with the Kaiser and his people. The shorter the time the less loss there will be of American boys and men, and the less will be the cost in money and materials. The greater contributions our Government makes of money, men and materials, the sooner will the end come.

The Government can not meet these three absolute needs unless we, its citizens, save—save to buy War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds. We each have our part, our fair share, of the burden. Yours and mine—to save that we may resolutely and effectively support the Government with our dollars—is so much the smaller part that we can not fail to do our full duty. Save and lend your savings to the country; that is the true badge of patriotism for those of us who can not go to the front and fight.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKROOM OPENS TUESDAY MORNING

Mrs. C. J. Coyne, chairman of the refugee garment department of the Junior Red Cross, and Mrs. C. R. Hartsook, chairman of the Junior Red Cross, were busy this morning purchasing supplies for the department, in order that work may begin tomorrow morning, when the Junior Red Cross girls can begin making garments for the Belgian refugees.

The sewing room will be opened from 9 to 12 and it is urged that high school girls or any other young ladies not already working for the Red Cross come to the high school and begin the work with the opening of the department. Mrs. Hartsook makes the following appeal for workers in the garment and surgical dressing departments:

"The casualty lists are growing longer. Soon some of our own Wichita Falls boys may appear among them. It may be your brother or best friend. If that should happen wouldn't you feel better to know that you have done what you could to supply him with necessary bandages and surgical dressings to help him get well. A wounded man doesn't mean a dead one, but unless we, the women and girls of America, do our work as the soldier who volunteers does his, it will mean that the wounded man hasn't near as good a chance to get well. Come and work with the Junior Red Cross. Those of you who have brothers in the service, or friends, and who of us have not, take a little time from your summer vacation joys to do your share in making the world safer for democracy. You will never regret it, and if you don't do what you can the time may come when you will have some thing to regret."

On Tuesday and Friday of each week an 8-day class in surgical dressings will be conducted by Miss Ann Chensault, observing the same hours as the refugee garment department of which Mrs. Coyne has charge.

NEWS OF TERRELLS DEATH RECEIVED WITH REGRET

News of the death of John L. Terrell, United States marshal for the northern district of Texas, at Fort Worth Friday night was received here with regret where Mr. Terrell had many old friends and where he had made many new ones during his short tenure in the office of U. S. marshal. It is reported from Washington that Mr. Terrell's successor will not be appointed immediately and that Mr. Stokes, deputy marshal at Dallas will act as marshal until the appointment is made.

E. B. Ridgeway of Fort Worth has announced that he is an applicant for the appointment.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram contained the following sketch of Mr. Terrell:

John L. Terrell, United States marshal for the northern district of Texas, died at a local sanitarium at midnight Friday. He had been ill for two weeks and submitted to an operation last Tuesday. He was forty-five years of age and was county U. S. marshal April 4, 1918, following the death of Captain "Bill" McDonald.

Terrell was a native of Fort Worth, a member of one of its pioneer and outstanding families.

He was born in what is now the heart of the business district, Seventh and Throckmorton streets. The house in which he was born was way long ago to the advance of the business district. His father was Captain J. C. Terrell, who settled here in 1850.

He was educated in the public schools of Fort Worth and graduated at Randolph Macon College, Virginia, and at Texas University, where he took his law degree. He was justice of the peace, 1902 to 1904, and from 1904 to 1910 he was county judge.

General war service in the Spanish-American war, a lieutenant in Company D, Second Texas Infantry, a company recruited at Fort Worth. He was also lieutenant adjutant.

He always took a leading part in state and national politics. He was intimately acquainted with a number of men of national reputation, among them Senator Morris Sheppard, Attorney General Thomas Watt Gregory, Postmaster General A. S. Burleson, and Secretary of Agriculture David F. Houston.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Catherine; a brother, A. W. Terrell, and two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Hawley and Mrs. J. Y. Smith. His mother, Mrs. J. C. Terrell, also survives.

His brother-in-law, John B. Hawley, is a major in the expeditionary corps in France.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 10 a. m. from the family residence, De Loach and Washington streets.

CAVALRY DRILL AT COURTHOUSE TONIGHT
All members of the local companies of the Texas Cavalry are expected to be present at the courthouse at 8 o'clock tonight to begin drill on time. Major Napier has issued a call for this drill meeting and emphasizes the fact that with federalization expected at any time the Guardsmen must not lose any time in making themselves as proficient as possible. Every drill night is very important and all members should appreciate this fact and be present and on time to begin drill promptly at 8 o'clock.

Few Alien Enemy Women Registered In Wichita Falls

Only a few alien German females have registered with the Wichita county officials, the police department reports. There are a large number of women who are known to be eligible for registration, as all female members over 14 years of age of the family of a German who registered are compelled to register. Failure to register will mean an investigation by the Federal authorities and there is a penalty attached. The names of the German men who registered are on file with the Federal officers of this district and if the women of these families do not register it will be an easy matter for the authorities to start proceedings. To avoid all trouble German women should register immediately. The date of registration period expires Thursday, June 27, so there should be no time lost in making the registration, the officials warn those eligible.

One dollar for an extra. And it was worth it. At least that is what Mayor J. B. Marlow thought of the news contained in the noon extra of the Daily Times, and backing his opinion with his money he paid a dollar for the first copy off the press, the money to be given to the Junior Red Cross Society. Jim says he is going to have the paper framed, as it contained the best news the public has had a chance to read in many a long day.

AT THE THEATERS

AT THE TENT THEATER
The Hillsboro Evening Mirror makes the following statements in regard to "Sainted Hypocrites and Honest Sinners," the feature play to be presented by the Harrison Theater Company here this evening. The production was recently staged in Hillsboro:

To say that "Sainted Hypocrites and Honest Sinners," the play presented last night by the Harrison Theater Company to an unusually large crowd, is a most powerful sermon, dramatized and delivered across the footlights rather than from a pulpit, is about the only way to summarize the performance.

No theatrical company and certainly no minister ever drew a more vivid picture of life as it is lived by pointed out more clearly the errors of human beings in their efforts to follow in the steps of the lowly Galilean.

Mr. Harrison, who takes the role of the leading character, has proven himself a student of life and by all who saw it is proclaimed his best. For this one night the price of admission was almost doubled, but there was no one who attended but what would say that it was worth every cent of it.

Reservations may be made at the Stationery Supply Company, corner Ninth and Indiana. The theater is situated at the corner of Thirteenth and Indiana.

AMSTERDAM, June 24.—In discussing the crisis in the Hungarian government, Budapest newspapers, says the Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin, mention Count Tisza, presumably as successor to Premier Wekerle.

Facts and Figures Don't Lie!

Do you know, that every article of merchandise, from the small paper of pins to the automobile, have advanced in price from ten to three hundred per cent.

New typewriters and adding machines are still selling at the same old price. There has been no advance as yet. Second hand machines have advanced approximately thirty-five per cent. It costs on an average of three hundred per cent more to make and market a typewriter or adding machine now than before the war.

The price is bound to go up in the next thirty days. We still have a few machines at the old prices.

The War and High Prices

Its got to be the style—the proper caper to put up prices and—as an explanation SAY WAR—

We wish to call your attention to these FACTS in regard to OUR PRODUCT —Green coffees have advanced—so have freights—also drayage—paper bags have advanced 100%; twine 250%; Gas 100%; labor about 50%; not a single item that enters into the finished product has escaped BUT we are still selling EVERY GRADE OF ROASTED COFFEE AT EXACTLY THE SAME PRICE we did before the first gun was fired in this great conflict. So far we have refrained from PASSING IT ON TO GEORGE. We buy our own Liberty bonds and war stamps and pay our own Red Cross subscriptions, GEORGE HAS TROUBLES OF HIS OWN.

The administration has asked you to buy your supplies locally as much as possible—THIS APPLIES TO COFFEE—Our product is roasted FRESH in Wichita Falls each day—
