GERMANY THROWING MORE RESERVES INTO BATTLE

BUT MORE TROOPS CROWDED IN TO SALIENT, GREATER MAY BE GERMAN DISASTER.

COUNTER OFFENSIVE

Ludendorff Expected to Attempt to Regain Initiative and Prevent Demoralization of Troops.

By Associated Press.—More reserves are being thrown into the battle by the Germans, according to the latest advice reaching Paris, but these were unable to prevent the Allies from making appreciable gains Wednesday. The important point of Oulchy-Le-Chateau slowly but surely is being surrounded. If the Germans lose it, it will be impossible for them to hang onto Fere-en-Tardenois.

SURREPTITIOUS OF BAVARIA SENDS NINE DIVISIONS OF RESERVES

By Associated Press.—Nine divisions of reserves from the army of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and a division from the eastern end of the line have been rushed to the front of the German crown prince between Soissons and Rheims but says Reuters correspondent with the American troops in France, the Germans may be unable to push more troops into the already crowded salient, seeing the difficulty they have of feeding those already there.

FRENCH RECAPTURE POSITIONS TAKEN BY THE GERMANS

By Associated Press.—On the north bank of the Marne the Germans last night launched a counter attack in the region of Dormans. The war office, in announcing this movement, reports that the enemy temporarily occupied the Little Petit wood to the north of Treloup and the village of Chassins. These positions, however, were recaptured by the French soon afterwards. Violent artillery actions are reported from the region of the Ourcq and to the west of Rheims.

NEW OFFENSIVE AGAINST ITALY BELIEVED PLANNED

By Associated Press.—A new offensive against Italy by German and Austrian divisions commanded by a German general, has been determined upon by the central powers, according to information reaching the Italian high command. An official dispatch from Italy today said German troops for the offensive already had arrived in Austria.

RESIDERS OF PARIS HEAR BOOM OF CANNON

By Associated Press.—So heavy was the artillery fire on the main battle front last night that Paris again could hear the boom of the cannon.

GEN. FOCH CONTINUING TO CLOSE

PING ENEMY.

FRESH SUCCESSES

Both Flanders and German Center Endangered by Advances of Allies at Vital Points.

By Associated Press.—(Via Ottawa)—The latest war communique shows that Generalissimo Foch is methodically continuing to close the pincers which are gripping the Germans between the Aisne and the Marne. The capture of Armentieres increases the envelopment of Oulchy-Le-Chateau and the capture of Brece brings the Allies only five miles from the important highway center of Fere-en-Tardenois.

WILSON'S TELEGRAM PUTS SLAYDEN OUT OF CONGRESS RACE

By Associated Press.—(SAYLOR, TEX., July 25.)—James I. Slayden, for the last twenty-two years representative in congress for the 14th district and candidate for re-nomination in the primaries Saturday, withdrew from the race last night, following the publication in the San Antonio Light yesterday afternoon of a telegram from President Wilson. The telegram was addressed to H. L. Beach, publisher and said: "Your letter received. The administration as between candidates equally loyal never takes part, but in the light of Mr. Slayden's record no one can claim he has given support to the administration."

WHITE HOUSE OFFICIALS WOULD MAKE NO COMMENT

By Associated Press.—(WASHINGTON, July 25.)—White House officials would make no comment on the withdrawal of Representative Slayden of Texas from the congressional race except that such a message as was quoted in the San Antonio dispatches had been sent.

ing General Strike.

By Associated Press.—(LONDON, July 25.)—The British war cabinet has decided that if the munitions strike continues the strikers of military age will be drafted promptly into the army, according to an official statement printed in some of the morning newspapers. George H. Roberts, minister of labor, gave a hint to this effect in a speech in London Wednesday when he declared that no young man had a right to exemption from military service except on the ground that he was doing war work more valuable than fighting.

HUNS CONTINUE ATTACK DESPERATELY IN EFFORT TO HOLD BACK CLOSING JAWS

HUNS COUNTER ATTACK ALL AROUND SALIENT BUT FAIL TO GAIN

(By Associated Press.)

With the French Army in France, July 25.—(Noon).—The Germans desperately counter attacked all around the semi-circle of the Marne salient today. They met the most powerful resistance from the French, the Americans and the British. There were a few fluctuations in the line but the Allies held well, responding in the most vigorous manner to every attempt of the enemy to advance.

Fresh troops were thrown in by the Allies to meet the enemy blow. On both wings of the salient the artillery duel was of the most violent character as the Germans had concentrated most of their guns on their flanks.

REPORTED ADVANCES WOULD MAKE ESCAPE OF GERMANS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE

LONDON, July 25.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that rumors are current that British troops have made a great advance in the direction of Fismes, about midway between Rheims and Soissons. It is also reported that French forces have advanced on another part of the Aisne-Marne salient and that the armies of the crown prince have been placed in a position out of which extrication seems to be impossible.

ALLIES ADVANCE LINES AT MANY POINTS ON FIFTY FIVE MILE BATTLE FRONT

With the American Army on the Marne Front, July 25.—(1:30 p. m.) Franco-American troops this morning advanced their lines north of the river Marne more steadily. The Germans continued their retreating movement to the northward.

The French and Americans also made gains on other parts of the fifty five mile of battle front. The Germans viciously resisted in a majority of cases.

NEWS FROM BATTLE FRONT CONTINUES FAVORABLE TO ALLIED FORCES

PARIS, July 25.—News from the main battle front this afternoon was favorable to the Allies, who were reported as continuing to make good progress between the Ourcq and the Marne in spite of the enemy's terrific efforts at resistance.

BRITISH AND FRENCH TROOPS ADVANCE ON BATTLE SECTOR WEST OF RHEIMS

LONDON, July 25.—British and French troops have advanced to Gueux and Mery Precey in the battle sector just west of Rheims, according to information received here this afternoon from the battle front.

The advance of the French and British force along the battle front between Rheims and the Marne to Gueux and Mery Precey represents a gain of about a mile and a half along a front of three miles. The town of Gueux lies to the south of the river

Aisne and is about five miles directly east of the cathedral city. Mery Precey is a short distance north of the Fismes-Parigny railroad and is about 10 to 12 miles southeast of Fismes, which is the center of a line running between Soissons and Rheims.

ALLIES ADVANCE IN 2 DAYS AN AVERAGE OF THREE MILES

By Associated Press.—(LONDON, July 25.)—On the western front of the Soissons-Rheims salient the Allied forces have advanced to an average depth of three miles on a twelve mile front during the past two days.

There were no new developments this morning in the battle area, according to advices from the field of the fighting received in London up to noon. The situation was considered quite satisfactory for the Allies.

ALLIES HOPE TO TRAP BIG PART CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY WITHIN SALIENT

(By Associated Press.)

Big developments are impending on the Aisne-Marne, Rheims battle front, according to indications today.

Although official advices are lacking, unofficial reports make it appear that not only are the Allies rapidly continuing the process of ousting the Germans from their Marne salient, but that a movement may be in process of execution by means of which it is hoped to trap a goodly section of the German crown prince's army.

Driving in on the west, the French are now reported to have reached a point within three miles of the important road junction town of Fere-en-Tardenois, where eight roads over which the Germans move troops and supplies converge.

On the easterly side of the salient, according to unconfirmed reports which have reached London, British troops have driven in a great distance towards Fismes, the real German base for the district of the Aisne. The town, is eleven miles from the last reported position of the British southwest of Rheims which lies about midway from the top of the pocket in which something like half a million Germans are massed.

TRYING TO CLOSE POCKET.

Easterly and westerly movements are tending to converge to close the pocket. Speed seems to be the watchword of the Allies all along the line, as attested by orders on the American front to ignore machine gun nests and press on leaving detachments to deal with the German gunners.

German rear guards again hurled themselves at the pursuing Allied forces on the north bank of the Marne. Before the momentum of their blow the Allies were obliged to withdraw from the little wood to the north of the town of Treloup and were forced back out of village of Chassins, a little further east.

The success of the Germans was, however, short lived for they were immediately driven back by a renewed attack by the Allies.

Overcoming strong enemy resistance the Allied troops maintain their progress on the Rheims-Soissons battle field.

Goodly Gains Are Made.—General Foch's offensive enters upon its second week today with the Germans still being forced back before the smashing blows of French, British and American armies. Extreme severity marks the fighting on a greater portion of the front. Goodly gains are being made by the French and American troops between the Ourcq and the Marne and by the British southwest of Rheims.

Steadily as Allied pressure has forced the Germans back within the pocket formed by the battle lines, the German defensive efforts have increased in ferocity due to the continuous throwing in of reserves. The Allied offensive, therefore, in one week not only has brought the fifth German offensive to a halt but has turned it into a disastrous repulse and also forced the enemy to bring in reserve troops from other fronts. Military observers in Paris believe that the German command is preparing for a final blow against the Allies.

Counter-balance the situation on the Rheims-Soissons front.

Fighting Way Forward.—From the west along the Ourcq and from the south the French and Americans are closing in on Fere-en-Tardenois, the German base of supplies on the lower side of the pocket. The town has been under violent shell fire for several days and the enemy has made vicious counter attacks, which although partly successful temporarily, finally were turned into advances for the hard hitting French and Americans. Not only has Fere-en-Tardenois been taken but the Americans have advanced beyond Coupvill, five miles south of Fere. Between Coupvill and the Marne the French and Americans are fighting their way forward through the forests of Fere and Rive. Bridge heads along the Marne have been extended further.

While the advance on the western side of the salient has been more spectacular, the steady Allied pressure on the eastern side continues unabated and is making progress. British troops around the important point of Vreigny, three miles south of the Vesle and the Rheims-Soissons railroad, slowly are pressing the enemy back.

German Lines Threatened.—This advance not only threatens the German lines west of Rheims but places the enemy forces between Vreigny and the Marne in a bad position. The terrain there is hilly and wooded and there is still quite a bulge in the German line. The bulge on the western end of the line was wiped out when the Germans retired from Chateau Thierry.

From all sides the Allied army is battling the German position unceasingly. Bombs by the hundreds are being dropped with good effect on camps and depots. American aviators in cooperation with the French and German machines in aerial combat north of the Marne Wednesday.

The German crown prince has no use been forced to a general retreat but not a day of the Allied offensive has gone by without additional gains being made by the Allied troops. Vreigny, all but one of its lines of communication have been lost and his position is becoming increasingly uncomfortable as fresh troops in repeated efforts fail to check the steady sweep forward of the Allies.

General Foch is feeling himself. Berlin continues to report that Allied thrusts are being defeated, using the adjective "completely" in telling of Tuesday's fighting. Similarly the German war office describes the French advance toward the Aisne northwest of Montdidier, in which the enemy lost 1500 prisoners, four cannons and three hundred machine guns as of no effect.

The lull on the other fighting sectors in France and Italy still is unbroken. In Albania the French have completed their present movement in the capture of important heights and the occupation of two additional villages.

British and Allied shipping losses in June were the lowest in 21 months since September 1916. Losses on German submarines and mines and marine risk, totalled 275,629 tons in June. The British losses being 161,000 tons. Compared with May the sink in June were 81,000 tons less and with July 1917, 427,000 tons less. The loss for the quarter ending June 3 was the lowest for any quarter since the third of 1916.

GERMANS FORCED TO GIVE UP MORE TERRITORY

By Associated Press.—(WASHINGTON, July 25.)—The German retreat under pressure is believed to indicate that General Von Boehm, the commander of the army within the salient, had enough punishment to convince him of the advisability of taking new positions.

U. S. SUBMARINE SHOT BY MISTAKE BY ALLIED VESSEL

WASHINGTON, July 25.—An American submarine of the latest design was fired on by an Allied armed ship off the New England coast. The submarine was only slightly damaged and a naval vessel is towing it to port. No one aboard the submarine was injured.

When the Allied ship began to fire, the shell struck on the deck near the conning tower, denting several plates. It was announced that the vessel would be repaired in a short time.

The navy department did not make known the identity of either the submarine or the Allies ship, and it was not announced whether the latter was a cruiser or a transport.

Mr. Haney was given close attention for an hour and a half while he discussed national prohibition, woman suffrage, immigration, taxation, universal military training, amendments to the land and farm loan laws, profiting and other subjects.

WOMEN ANSWER THE CALL

NEW YORK, July 25.—Isn't it wonderful to think of the vast army of women that is standing behind our army of men? Everywhere one sees pointers of "The Women's Land Army of America," and the thousand and one other things that the women are doing so well. Just the one subject of the canning kitchens (that are being run by communities at large) is interesting from the scientific standpoint for the strides made in canning according to the instructions issued by the government.

Work Suit of Khaki.

Of course, in this day of sincerity, it would be ridiculous for the women to wear costumes that are suitable only for hours of recreation. Ruffles and furbelows are out of place in the kitchen, and so the working dress has come into a very prominent place in the wardrobe of the woman who is doing things.

Clothes—And the Hour.

Our time is all planned out, so much for the Red Cross, so much for the canteen, so much for the canning kitchen and, of course, so much for our own homes and the duties that we must perform there. Our wardrobes, too, are carefully planned. We have our Red Cross apron and cap, our canteen apron and cap (for the cap plays an important part as the apron these days) and the apron and cap that we wear in the canning kitchen. Then there are uniforms for women who are doing their bit in the munition plants, trim and without an unnecessary fussiness whatsoever. There are service uniforms for women who are driving ambulances or motors for the transporting of troops. Each is different, and each is in itself an indication of the times.

When we work in our gardens (and of course we all have gardens this year) we wear a smock, perhaps, with a very short skirt and a wide brimmed sun hat. Perhaps, however, we prefer bloomers as being less troublesome than a short skirt. It is all a matter of personal taste, and which we feel the most comfortable in.

Here is an illustration of a work suit for women, which has been adopted by the United States government, to be worn in munition plants where flying skirts are a danger on account of the machinery. There is a cap to protect the hair, a blouse and trouserettes. The blouse is finished at the waistline with a belt, and the trouserettes button to this belt. There are quite a many pockets on this suit as on a man's suit, and they are in just the right places. Note the large hip pocket on the right side of the back, and the big ones in front, both on the trouserettes and on the blouse.

In Leisure Hours.
For those hours when we rest from our labors there must be the most comfortable of costumes. The dressing gown or negligee of today is always included in the war time wardrobe. It need not be elaborate, far from it, but it must be pretty, and becoming, for it is in these times of relaxation that we need the contrast afforded by a girlish and dainty color. There are fascinating little slip over jackets to be worn over skirts of satin or crepe de chine. The sleeves are always loose and flowing, and the grille of there is one is fashioned on rather medieval lines. For very warm days, the wash kimono is best. Dotted Swiss or voile is cool and dainty, and some of the lighter china silks are also good. The house dresses also are carefully thought out. Gingham and calico have been elevated to the position of honor this summer, but still hold their places for morning dresses.

About Shoes.
In our army there is a great deal of time devoted to the care of the feet. Every day there is a foot inspection just as there is an inspection of arms, uniforms, etc., and also of health. The women of America are now also realizing how important it is to have shoes that are comfortable and sensa-

ble. It is absurd to see high French heels with a service uniform, and we all know it. Low heels are the style for daytime wear. Of course, we all still wear high heels in the evening or for dress occasions, but not when walking or standing on our feet. Illustration of a Canteen Outfit. We expect to do any amount of walking. This is a very good model for the Canteen Apron and Cap. The pocket holds a pad and pencil for emergencies. The cuff is adjustable.

COLORADO TO GULF TO BE STRIPED ENTIRE DISTANCE

The Colorado-to-the-Gulf Highway is to be striped with distinctive markings from Denver to Galveston, a distance of approximately 1200 miles. The expense is to be defrayed by a fund raised by assessing each county $1.00 per mile within the county. At the annual meeting of the Association at Dalhart, July 9 and 10, D. P. Talley of this city was named to have charge of the work.

Mr. Talley is now going over the route between Colorado Springs and Denver.

Mr. Talley has written the following to a friend in Wichita Falls: "We had a good meeting of the Colorado-Gulf Association at Dalhart, on the ninth and tenth. As a compliment they elected me president emeritus, and Judge Grass of Childress, president to succeed me, as I declined to serve again. They unanimously decided to have the route thoroughly striped from Denver to Galveston, if the counties will provide the funds, and they assessed each county on the route on dollar per mile of the route in the county. This would mean approximately 1200 miles, or $1200 total. It was voted that I take full charge of this fund when raised, select a distinctive marking, employ the painters and see that the work is properly done, it being understood that to leave it to the different counties or different sections would mean a disjointed work, uniform in neither colors or systems. I was also asked to visit the different towns between Dalhart and Denver to explain to and urge upon them the importance of this plan. So Judge given of Raton, New Mexico, joined me in my car and we together left Dalhart on the eleventh and spent from three hours to two days in Texline, Clayton, Des Moines, Raton, Walden, and Trinidad and Pueblo. At the latter place the Judge left me for his home and I reached here yesterday. Will leave for Denver tomorrow for a couple of days there in this work. After that I may spend a week or two in this section for pleasure, although if the $1200 fund is raised sooner I will start the work as soon as possible. The Association gave each county not less than thirty days from July tenth to pay in its quota. If some do not pay it will likely kill the whole pig and no marking will be done this year. "Surely every county between Pueblo and Fort Worth will come in as the Dallas, Canadian, Texas, Lamar, California and Pueblo to Denver had a great meeting recently at Lamar, California, and the governors of Colorado and Oklahoma made speeches. They did fair to make a strong rival to the Colorado-Gulf so we must keep awake to the important things that in these modern times go to make an interstate highway attractive to the United States government, the state commissions and the tourists.

"The vote to stripe the road was enthusiastic and unanimous, and several county delegates rose and said, 'Put my county down for certain.' It was the opinion of the speakers that in every Colorado and New Mexico county the law would permit the county commissioners to pay this, but wherever it did not, the Chamber of Commerce or Mothers Club could do so, or even in many towns the merchants could pay a dollar or two dollars each and easily raise it."

20 WICHITA COUNTY MEN WILL GO TO DEMING, N. M.

Twenty men will go from Wichita county to Camp Cody, Deming, N. M. on the next call for selective service men, the call being for August 5. This is the first time that a call has been made on this board for men to be sent to a confinement outside the state. There have been several calls for voluntary inductions for camps outside the state, but no general draft call.

INTERNED BELGIAN ASKS FOR CANCELLED STAMPS

The Times has received a request from John Corthals, Belgian soldier interned in Holland for cancelled postage stamps. Corthals is collecting used postage stamps in an effort to while away the time of his internment and is asking that the people of Wichita Falls send him their cancelled stamps. His address is "John Corthals, Internment Camp, Amersfoort, Holland."

Corthals says in his card to the editor of The Times: "I am writing you these few words. I am a Belgian interned soldier and should like very much to receive for collecting used postage stamps, helping me to pass away the longness of my captivity. I dare hope, Mr. Editor-in-Chief, you will be so kind to insert in your esteemed paper an advertisement for which I thank you very much beforehand.

With all my kindest regards, I remain, sir,
Yours respectfully,
"JOHN CORTHALS"

TIME FOR CAMPAIGN CANARDS.

The time is approaching for the circulation of the campaign canard. These canards are put into circulation on the eve of the election to late for those affected to have an opportunity to denounce them before the voter goes to the polls. It is a good policy to pay no attention to stories that are circulated in the last hours before voting starts.

CONGRESSMAN SLAYDEN WITH-DRAWS.

Congressman James L. Slayden has withdrawn from the race in his district rather than face certain defeat because of his lack of sympathy with the administration and his failure to support it in some of its important measures.

There is another candidate in South Texas who ought to take similar action. That candidate is Jeff McLemore, who is running in the Galveston district. Mr. McLemore, before the declaration of war proposed the surrender of the high seas to German piracy. He has failed to support the administration in a number of necessary measures. Mr. McLemore is known as a warm hearted likable man of great personal popularity. These attributes make his candidacy dangerous, for in them the people of his district may forget his lack of sympathy with the administration. If it would be a calamity for the Galveston district to fail to elect a representative whose loyalty to the administration and what this loyalty means at this time.

THE NEW CHIVALRY.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton, candidate for superintendent of public instruction, and the first woman ever to offer for a state office, is obtaining some interesting experience, and especially interesting must be the light in which she is permitted to view man's latter day chivalry.

Filling appointments a day or two behind in her duties, she finds that the report is circulated that she is an infidel, and covert enemies are asking the question, "Don't you think it would be better to have a Christian gentleman at the head of a school system than that infidel woman?"

The heroic ancestors of Miss Blanton were men who would have suffered their tongues to be cut out rather than utter a calumny against the Christian character of a noble woman, and no doubt the newer chivalry, of which Doughty and his henchmen are the exemplars, strikes Miss Blanton as one of the incidents of modern progress that shames the ideals of that back time when the Webbs, the Blantons, the Hills and Walkers extolled the chivalry that would regard the loftiest political honor in the world too cheap to warrant a gentleman in aspersing a good woman's character.

Of course Miss Blanton has deemed it advisable to have those who have known her intimately to testify that she is and has been a Christian and devout Christian. Indeed, her first church affiliation was begun in this city when she joined the old St. Mary's Methodist church, and her good works ever since have testified of her Christian devotion.

Of course, Doughty's Christian character thus being introduced, either by himself or his henchmen warrants one in asking if Mr. Otto Wahrmond, head of one of San Antonio's breweries, who so eloquently sent Doughty's name "down the line" as "O. K." in 1914, is still vouching for Doughty, and if when Mr. Wahrmond tells the saloon keepers of the state that Doughty is all O. K., he means that he is a Christian gentleman, that every former saloon man can conscientiously support.

UNCLE SAM AS A MOTHER.

Uncle Sam looks after his soldier boys in camp as carefully as a hen with one chick does after her offspring. When it comes to the health of the Army nothing is too small to take into account. A general pernicious microbe is microscopic in size, but it could do a lot of damage if let alone.

The grounds about the camps are kept free of rubbish and decaying matter. Garbage cans are covered and screened. Traps are set to catch flies. The instructions given the men are explicit and leave no room for personal views as to sanitation. War is being made upon disease as scientifically as upon the Kaiser.

Some of the camps the drill grounds are cited. It was discovered that the dust stirred by tramping feet caused respiratory troubles. No other went out, "No dust." And there is notice of wearing.

Talking of feet, the Government pays a great deal of attention to the "number nines" of the troops. Orthopedists examine and give treatment. As a result the disability is often removed and the feet restored to normal.

Special attention is given also to shoes. The army shoe is in itself a panacea for almost 75 per cent of the ills the foot is heir to. As a result of this sensible shoe the corn crop in some camps is a total failure. Minor ailments also disappear. Service in the army will save thousands of our boys from the sufferings that come in middle age from wearing ill-fitting shoes in their young manhood.

Another matter that comes under the keen eye of the medical authorities is shaving. A general order has been issued requiring all barbers employed at the various camp barber shops to wash their hands with soap and water before attendance upon a man. Towels used for one patron can not be used again until laundered. Cups and brushes must be scalded after each shaving.

A general survey of the physical condition of the men at one of the camps shows by comparison with the data taken at their coming that they have gained from a half inch to an inch in height and from 15 to 25 pounds in weight. This is a convincing demonstration, both to the men themselves and to the homefolk, of the value of a substantial and nourishing routine of regular hours, sanitary environment and regular exercises. Stopped shoulders have been straightened, craved-in chests filled out, sagging "tummers" made hard and able to hold their own in the place where nature intended them to be, and steps that once dragged listlessly move with a springiness and vigor that indicate the healthy man.

If your boy is in the Army, 10 to 1 he is in better health than he has ever been in his life. He is being looked after outside, and one might almost say inside as he has never been before. And if anything is wrong with him it will be put right if science and skill can do it.

Rev. Edward F. Careche, S. J., St. Louis, was among those who presented papers on the subject.

The Daily German Lie

The Germans Have Invented Two Amazing New Weapons in This War—One is Official Frightfulness on the Field of Battle—The Other is Organized Lying in the Field of Propaganda.

No. 16. Newspapers in all parts of the country recently published the following item:
"TONGUE CUT OUT BY HUNS."
"American War Sends Message to Family Written Under Stamp on Envelope."
Auburn, Neb.—Just before Dr. Wilkie, a well-known physician of this city, went to war he told relatives that if he was ever captured by the Germans he would communicate with them, and that they must look under the postage stamp to get the real conditions if harm befell him.

A few days ago the family received a letter from him, written from a German prison camp. It was the stereotyped message, saying he was well, etc. Much of it was deleted by the censor.

The letter was laid aside until some one remembered what the doctor had said about a message under the camp. The stamp was carefully removed. Under it he had written these words: "They have cut out my tongue."

An investigation of the story proved that it was wholly false. It had been started by telephone as if "direct from the Wilkie family, to the wife of the county judge of the district, and on that account it was given full credit." There was no foundation for it whatever.

German agents in America at first attempted to discredit the reports of German atrocities in Belgium by denouncing them as "British lies." The attempt failed, because the evidence on their truth was overwhelming. A more ingenious effort is now being made to discredit the stories by inventing and putting into circulation similar stories that can easily be proved. This yarn from Auburn is apparently such a German invention.

By issuing lies in sufficient numbers and then producing their proof, it is possible to arouse so much incredulity that the truth itself will not be believed. That program has been followed in some neutral countries and then producing their proof, it is possible to arouse so much incredulity that the truth itself will not be believed.

Travelers returning from Germany before the United States entered the war reported that exactly similar stories about British and French atrocities were current in Germany, and for that reason they refused to believe in the Belgium outrages. The German Government has even gone so far as to establish reprisal camps in which French and British prisoners are tortured in revenge for pretended outrages upon German prisoners in England and France. They use lies and frightfulness themselves, excuse themselves by accusing their opponents of similar practices, and invent the lies and solemnly retaliate upon the frightfulness in order to make their accusations stick. It is for such reasons as this that the soldiers in France do not feel hatred for the Germans, but merely contemptuous disgust.

PERSHING'S REPORT SHOWS ADVANCES BY AMERICANS

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 25.—Further progress by the American forces in the attacks between the Ourcq and the Marne is reported by General Pershing in his communique for yesterday, received today at the war department.
Northwest of Jaulgonne, American forces penetrated the enemy's position to a depth of from one to two miles.

HIGHER LIQUOR COST RESULTS IN FEWER CASES ALCOHOLISM

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 25.—Alcoholism in New York City has decreased within one year to less than one third of the volume of last year, as a result of the practice of war time thrift, the opportunities for regular employment and the increased cost of liquor, according to Bellevue hospital officials. The hospital records made public today show that within the last six months 1,079 alcoholic cases have been treated at Bellevue, as compared with 3,375 cases in the same months of 1917.

AND NOW—WOMAN PROCLAIMS.

When we read the proclamation
For a moment's silent prayer
By a strong and mighty nation,
Beat on doing its full share,
Come the thought of merely man-power,
For the women long have prayed—
Morn and eve, and every hour—
That the dove be not delayed.

Think you, man, that any mother,
Daughter, wife or sweetheart too,
Bound by love to one another,
Needs reminding what is due—
Unto God at every noontide,
Every instant of their lives;
Waiting, working, watching away,
Their calm trust the war defies.

You who made the law, go to it,
We are glad for you to pray;
But we women wish to do it
Every step of all the way.
If you see one go on working,
When you bow your head today,
Never think that she is shirking,
It comes hard her hand to stay.

Long she's knit and prayed together,
Sunday, Monday, daytime, night,
Proclamation! no, or whether,
Hand and heart keep up the fight,
Neither will she pause one minute
To behold her fellow-man,
She is in this war to win it,
And according to God's plan.

Even in the closet praying,
She has trained her fingers so,
There's no pausing, no delaying;
Ever fast her stitches flow,
So to her your proclamation
Is like giving fishes drink,
Long ago she took her station,
Where she bids you stop and think.

Let Us Be Your "Ice" Man!

The business of this firm is not only to manufacture PURE ice but to distribute that pure ice among as many customers as possible.

We want to serve you. And we would like to begin tomorrow morning.

We want to be your "ice" man for a number of reasons. First and foremost because we sell ice that is PURE, and pure ice is the only sort of ice that you can use in safety.

Every block of our ice is free from white, misty places that betoken the presence of an unhygienic, unhealthy substance. Our ice is made from pure, distilled water.

It is made in a big, sanitary factory—a plant that is as spotless as your parlor. A plant that is equipped with the very best and most modern equipment known to ice manufacture.

We want to serve you for this reason: our ice is frozen hard and solid. It doesn't melt as quickly as ice that is frozen hurriedly in a half hearted manner. It is most economical for you.

Start with us tomorrow. Our wagon passes your door every morning. Prompt, faithful service coupled with our PURE ice is the sort of "ice" man we are. The sort of ice man we believe you will like. Let us serve you.

SENATORS DISCUSS PEACE OFFENSIVE TODAY'S SESSION

THE PLACE NEAREST THE ICE IN A REFRIGERATOR IS NOT THE COOLEST

What part of a refrigerator is coolest? Does wrapping in newspapers save ice? Although every home may have a refrigerator, every housewife can not have an examination in the proper care and conservation of perishable articles of diet, according to the United States Food Administration, which gives out the following advice:

air spoil the food. The air, which is warmed by passing over the food, comes in contact with the ice where the moisture is condensed upon the surface and the impurities are carried off by the melting ice. The air is thus dried, cooled and purified.

In addition to the necessity of having a circulation of cold, dry air, it is important that, as near as possible, a uniformly low temperature be maintained. For this reason refrigerator doors should fit tight, be closed light, and not opened any more often than is necessary, because every time that they are opened the cold air pours out and the warm air that takes its place is cooled at the expense of the ice.

RELIEFS MUST COME WITH GREATEST CAUTION

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE, June.—In the old wars, ever since troops "maded" in the direction of the firing. Today, when a two-hundred mile front may be ablaze, the sound of the firing is too continuous and too widespread to afford much indication as to where the reinforcements are required.

Market Report

Cotton Market

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 25.—Old crop positions in the cotton market again showed weakness today with July 45 points off at the opening against one to two points net decline on later positions, October showing relatively more weakness than any other new crop contract. The opening tone was steady. Continued depression in southwest spot markets and a withdrawal of mills from the market explained early decline which was followed by further weakness carrying July down to 24.65, October to 24.15 and December to 23.70. This represented a net break in July of 75 points and in new crops from 12 to 32 points.

Trading in July ceased at noon with the price of 24.98 after having sold as low as 24.45, at which time it was only 28 points off during the forenoon sold 33 to 45 points under the previous night but had a mid-day rally of about 23 to 29 points which advanced October to 24.31 and December to 23.80. Based on renewed trade buying and private reports of serious drought conditions in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

Sharp rallies occurring around 2 o'clock in response to further peace rumors and reports of big Allied gains sent October up to 24.74 and December to 24.25, representing new high levels for the day and an advance of 27 to 31 points above the previous close. Cotton closed very steady.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, July 25.—On overnight selling orders in volume, the cotton market was depressed today 22 to 34 points in the first half hour of trading. Little support came from any direction and fresh liquidation was favored on the long side.

In the early afternoon reports of a great Allied victory caused a quick upturn. At 1 o'clock the market stood 24 to 40 points over yesterday's final quotations. The decline was widened to 155 points on July 20 to 43 points on the new crop months before realizing of profits by shorts checked the downward trend. At noon the active months were 2 to 5 points off net, July expired at noon.

Cotton closed steady at an advance of 24 to 52 points. Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, July 25.—Cotton spot quiet; prices weak. Good middling 21.30; middling 20.67; low middling 20.15; good ordinary 19.15; ordinary 18.65. Sales 1,000 bales, including 800 American. Receipts 190, all American. Futures closed early steady. New contracts: July 20.75; August 19.85; September 19.17; October 18.88; November 18.65. Old contracts fixed prices, July 19.12.

Grain Market. CHICAGO, July 25.—Corn prices showed weakness today as a result of the failure of frost predictions and to favorable predictions in the east. Opening prices, which ranged from 3 1/2 to 1 1/2 cents lower, with August 1.54 to 1.54 1/2 and September 1.54 1/2 to 1.55 1/2 were followed by decided further setbacks and then by something of a rally.

Oats were easier with corn. After opening unchanged 1 cent down with August 69 1/2 to 70, the market offered a moderate additional sag. Opinions that a sharp curtailment of receipts was impending stimulated a temporary demand but was offset later by bearish crop advices, cheering military news and by renewed peace talk. The close was nervous in a temporary demand but was offset later by bearish crop advices, cheering military news and by renewed peace talk.

A Correction!

By MRS. NANNIE WEBB CURTIS, Chairman Texas Women's Democratic League Dallas, Tex., July 21, 1918. There has been quite a serious misunderstanding in regard to the Texas Women's Democratic League Chairman endorsing the candidacy of Lucian Parrish to the detriment of C. F. Spencer, candidate for congress 13th district. My information is that C. F. Spencer has always been an active prohibitionist and is as worthy of the support of his people as any one on the ticket.

I do not care to be misquoted and shall insist that no one quote a statement that I should have made unless they do so correctly. I have not, nor do I at this time, wish to injure any one in his candidacy for office, which has been and is now on our side. MRS. NANNIE W. CURTIS. The various misleading statements that have been sent out of the Democratic League headquarters during Mrs. Curtis' absence, will be corrected. Political Adv.)

Two Telegrams

Following the publication by the Spencer committee of a statement by Mrs. Nannie Webb Curtis yesterday, the Parrish committee sent the following telegram to Mrs. Curtis last night: "Wichita Falls, Tex., July 24, 1918. "Mrs. Nannie Webb Curtis, Chairman Texas Women's Democratic League, Dallas, Texas. "Your statement of July 21 in which you say, 'I do not care to be misquoted, etc.' makes it appear that Lucian W. Parrish or his friends are misquoting you or the League of which you are chairman. This casts an erroneous and unwarranted reflection upon a high minded and honorable gentleman which we know you would not want to do. Mr. Parrish or his friends have used no intendment or purported indorsement by you or the Texas Women's Democratic League in any manner. We would appreciate very much your telegram immediately, collect, saying that you meant no reflection upon Mr. Parrish, and that efforts to use your statement of July 21 to discredit Mr. Parrish were unwarranted and unauthorised. "R. E. Huff, Chairman, Wichita County Parrish Club.

The following telegram was received from Mrs. Curtis this afternoon: "Dallas, Texas, July 25, 1918. "R. E. Huff, "Wichita Falls, Texas. "Texas Women's Democratic League desires to make no reflection upon Mr. Parrish or other candidates, the fact that all three candidates for congress have been highly recommended as safe and satisfactory to voting in every way. We desire the people of that district to make their own choice between such excellent gentlemen. "Mrs. Nannie Curtis. (Political Advertisement)

LARGE SUBMARINE LAUNCHED AT QUINCY, MASS., PLANT

Several thousand workers joined in a mighty cheer as the new undersea boat struck the water. She was christened the AA-1.

BRITISH PUSH FORWARD SOUTH OF ROSSIGNOL WOOD

LONDON, July 25.—British troops last night pushed forward slightly south of Rossignol wood in the Hebutern sector of Albert. The official statement from Field Marshal Haig today adds that a few prisoners and six machine guns were captured. South of Villers-Bretonneux the Germans last night pushed into one of the British saps. They were driven out by a counterattack.

Wichita Falls, Texas, July 23, 1918.—To Whom It May Concern: In justice to Mr. John Davenport, who was criticised through the press of last Sunday on account of working conditions in the construction of a bridge across the river at this place, will state that the committee representing the Trades Council only took the matter up with Mr. Davenport during the past week and he very readily volunteered to enter prosecution at once, and we understand now has the matter well in hand. The committee has no grounds for complaint at Mr. Davenport for his action in this matter, finding him to be uniformly courteous and anxious to co-operate in the enforcement of the law as effecting working conditions. Furthermore, we know of instances where he has taken the initiative in prosecuting violators, especially cases where women have been worked more than the legal hours. We may say, also, that as far as we know organized labor has made no complaint as to the attitude of the county attorney's office, or of Mr. Davenport, in connection with the enforcement of the labor laws in Wichita county.

Prussian Ideals Still Dominate German Prisoners

Associated Press Mail Correspondent. LONDON, July 1.—Despite their four years of fighting, some of the German prisoners of war still are obsessed by the German idea of conquering the world. That unadulterated Prussianism still exists in the German ranks is the conclusion of one British officer who has interviewed a number of the German prisoners. One of them he describes as "an intelligent university man." The British officer quotes their conversation as follows: "I do not wish to insult you," said the German, "but you English are well intended fools. We who govern Germany are not like you. We govern the fools; the fools govern you. Your principles are sweeping," replied the Briton. "To come down to practice, what have you to say about the guilt of beginning the war?" "Guilt?" demanded the German; "it was a glory. I claim it for Germany. That is hardly your official view." "The official view is for the fool," "But you believe in the Prussian purposes behind all this," asked the British officer. "Do, as in nothing else," replied the German. "The Prussian purpose is God. There is no other. Prussia will rend the veil of the temple; but she will destroy it to create. Against Prussia might as it exists today will fall in ruins, but Prussia will build a better and more virtuous world in its place. Strength only will survive. The life of men is naturally a fight. The strongest in force and cunning will live." "It will be going back to the flood," said the Briton. "Prussia is the flood." "And when the old world is drowned, virtue and all such weaknesses will go with it?" "The old virtue is womanish," said the prisoner. "The new virtue is strength." "In that blessed future will we reign triumphant?" "Life is war—all of life that is healthy. Peace is only striving for mastery with other weapons. That is the law of nature." "So everyone will fight till every one is dead?" "The weakest will go under. They are the disease. The stronger will live; and after that the strongest and strongest will rule." "But it may be that Prussia will keep a few slaves?" "Certainly," said the German. "Those who care not to fight that they may rule are in their nature slaves." "I had had enough of it," the officer concluded. "It was nauseating. But the man was genuine in his beliefs and so obsessed by his elementary notion of virility that it was a waste of time to argue with him. His conceptions were quite definite and not a doubt existed in his mind. The ludicrous world of his vision seemed to him a natural and a glorious world."

SNIPING AND COUNTER-SNIPING A FINE ART

Associated Press Mail Correspondent. BEHIND THE BRITISH LINES IN France, June 19.—Sniping and counter-sniping has been reduced to a fine art in modern warfare, and the sharp shooter uses many other branches of the service to assist him. An incident which occurred a few days ago in the British lines in Flanders shows how a little artillery work is sometimes necessary in bringing about the undoing of the German snipers.

Flippancy One of Striking Features British War Songs

Associated Press Mail Correspondent. BEHIND THE BRITISH LINES IN France, June 19.—A striking feature of the British soldier's war songs is their humor. Even the French find it difficult to understand how it is that the Tommy apparently looks upon as mere comedy what in reality is the greatest tragedy in the history of the world. The truth is that the British private has discovered a new philosophy appropriate to modern war—he has discovered that it is too serious a business to be taken seriously. Humor and flippancy are the only antidotes to its unutterable ghastliness. In all the British soldier's songs, the contrast to the songs of the German army is most striking. Here is one which might well be called the British soldier's hymn of laments. The bells of Hell go ting-a-ling-a-ling, For you and not for me. For me the angels sing-a-ling-a-ling, They're not the gods for me. O death, where is thy sting-a-ling-a-ling. Where grave thy victory. The bells of Hell go ting-a-ling-a-ling, For you but not for me. That is the nearest he has ever approached to an expression in song of his religious faith. There is one song in particular which might well be called the Song of the British Army. Every soldier at the front can sing it. It is to be heard in every trench dug out and billet in France. The words do not mean and the music cannot be compared for martial grandeur or delicate harmonies, but it is Tommy Atkins' masterpiece. It is almost always in French, colored with just that touch of "lusive cockney humor" which shows that it is not to be taken seriously. These are the words: I want to go 'ome, I want to go 'ome, The shells and the whizzbangs they'll rush and they'll rattle, I don't want to go to the trenches no more. I want to go 'ome, I want to go 'ome, I want to go over the sea, Where the Germans cannot catch me, Oh, my, I want to go 'ome. One can imagine a German over-hearing this song and drawing certain inferences as to the singer's morale. But the British soldier will utterly confound those inferences every time. He has a great weakness for sentimental love-songs which remind him of home and of associations that lift him out of the sombre surroundings of his camp or billet. Tommy Atkins has all the intense reserve of the Briton. To sing about fighting for freedom against the enemies of right, for the sake of the flag, and all the rest of it strikes him as indecent. Such things make him blush, they are not mentioned in military society. The more flamboyant type of patriotic songs, which proclaim with gusto that a soldier's life is the only life for me and so forth, he frankly ridicules. He has no illusions as to the glories of modern warfare. One of his favorite songs begins: When this bloody war is over, O, how happy I shall be.

Will T. Harris Again Lays Claim Before Voters of County

To the Voters of Wichita County: Inasmuch as there will be a great many more voters in the primary next Saturday than ever before in Wichita county, it has been impossible for me to see all of you in my canvass for the office of county clerk. I therefore take this method of again laying before the public my claims for this office. I feel myself thoroughly qualified, having served more than three years as chief clerk of that office during which time I became familiar with every detail of the work. I have been a resident of Wichita county for nearly forty years and have never sought office before. I will be glad to have you ask any of the old timers as to my standing and reputation in this community. My opponent, Mr. M. P. Kelly, has held the office for the past two terms, four years in all. Rotation in office is an accepted democratic principle, and if an elected clerk hereby pledges himself that I will not seek the office a third term. I regard the county clerk's office as one of the most important in the county government, and that efficiency and promptness are very necessary in the conduct of its business. I hereby pledge myself that if elected I will employ a sufficient number of capable deputies for the prompt dispatch of the business in that office. I deem it the duty of any officer who is elected to public office to give his entire time to that office, and if elected as your county clerk I hereby pledge myself that I will engage in no kind of secular business so long as I hold the office, and will give my undivided time and attention to the discharge of my official duties. I will greatly appreciate your support and your vote next Saturday, and would be gratified if it failed to express my appreciation of the efforts of many of my friends in my behalf. WILL T. HARRIS, Candidate for County Clerk, Wichita County, Texas. (Political Advertisement)

War's Newest Weapon Automatic Soldier Invented By Dane

Associated Press Mail Correspondent. LONDON, July 12.—"An automatic soldier" is one of the latest developments in weapons of war. A Danish engineer has recently taken out a patent for an apparatus to which he has given this name. It consists of a steel cylinder normally with a large cylinder, the whole being sunk into the ground vertically. By means of mechanism operated by wireless the inner cylinder rises to a height of 15 inches from the ground, 400 shots in any given direction, and simultaneously an automatic rifle mounted on the inner cylinder fires some four or five miles behind the line of defense, according to the inventor. They may be seen by the enemy only when they rise from the ground, shown, so it is reported, that a few hundred of these steel soldiers can easily defend a position against infantry attacks, however numerous the opposing forces may be. They blaze away their 400 shots without flinching and never retreat. In order to overcome "the automatics" they must be destroyed one by one.

Chas. F. Spencer to Speak Here Friday

Chas. F. Spencer, candidate for congress, will speak at the Wichita Theater Friday afternoon, 26th, 4 p. m., to lady voters of Wichita county. He will also speak at 8 o'clock Friday evening, 26th, at First National Bank corner.

SLIGHT RAISE IN SUBSCRIPTION RATES ANNOUNCED BY THE TIMES

An increase of 33 1-3 percent over prevailing prices for news print paper, the 25 percent increase in freight rates, increases in the rate of postage that run as high as 400 percent have made it absolutely imperative that the Times increase its subscription revenues. In order to do this it will be necessary to quit allowing the 25 cent discount for payments of three months in advance and the dollar discount for payments of one year in advance by carrier within the city, yet require that all subscriptions be paid in advance, and to increase the rate for subscriptions by mail. Therefore on August 1, 1918, the following rates will be in effect: By Carrier in the City of Wichita Falls: One Year $6.00 One Month .50c Three Months $1.50 By Mail Within the First and Second Postal Zones: One Year $4.00 One Month .50c By Mail Beyond the First and Second Postal Zones: One Year $6.00 One Month .50c The Times hopes to be able to meet a part of the greatly increased costs through these slight advances but it warns that still further advances should not be unexpected.

VOTE FOR LUCIAN W. PARRISH for CONGRESS

Our country has less use in this momentous and critical time for the demagogue and the politician than ever before. There never was a time when the need for big brained, earnest, courageous and steadfast men was so great. There never was a time when the demagogue, the politician and the man who seeks to array class against class could do so much damage. There never was a time when the really big, steadfast man could help so much or do more good. IN LUCIAN W. PARRISH the people of this district have the opportunity to send to Congress a really big man, a man as big in mind and character as he is in stature, a man as steadfast as a rock and as true to the interests of the people and our country as the needle to the poles.—A man who has never sought nor held office, and who knows nothing of the guiles or arts of a politician—a man too big to think or do a little thing. Many of us have known Mr. Parrish for years, and know him to be pure gold, one who will serve the district with fidelity to his country and his people, and with credit and honor to his district and himself.

YOU WILL NEVER REGRET A VOTE FOR LUCIAN W. PARRISH.

HIGH POINT AT EAST END OF LAKE BUILDING SITES

ATTORNEY GENERAL LOONEY AP-PROVES SITES TENTATIVELY SELECTED.

WORK STARTS MONDAY

Buildings Will Be Grouped About Administration Building on 1500 Foot Front Line.

Attorney General B. F. Looney, representing the locating committee for the Northwest Texas Insane Asylum, and S. R. McCoy, state building supervisor, this morning went over the asylum site with Wm. H. and Lee M. J. Dielman, the contractors, L. C. Page of Austin architect, H. H. Voelcker, local representative for Mr. Page and local business men interested more or less indirectly in the new buildings. The building lines laid out by the contractors and the architect on Wednesday were approved by Mr. Looney and now everything is ready to begin excavating for the administration building next Monday, July 29.

Neither Governor Hobby nor Lieutenant Governor Johnson were able to be present at the meeting this morning, as both are now busy winding up their campaigns. Mr. Looney was empowered to act for the absent members.

The nine buildings which will constitute the asylum group will be built on the highest part of the ground at the east end of Lake Wichita selected for the purpose. The buildings will be grouped about the administration building with a 1500 foot front line. The central building will be 500 feet from the railroad, and the farthest building in the group, the boiler plant, will be 1500 feet from the railroad. The site chosen is about 500 feet from the former ball park and fair grounds. The ball park and the buildings on the fair grounds were either moved or torn down some time ago in preparation for the building operations.

Attorney General Looney, Mr. McCoy, Mr. Page, the architect, and W. B. Dielman, of the contracting firm, left on the 2:15 train for their homes in Austin and San Antonio, respectively. Leo Dielman remains here to take active supervision of the building. He will make Wichita Falls his home for the year that the asylum is expected to be in process of building. Mr. Page's interests will be taken care of by H. H. Voelcker, local architect, who has been retained by Mr. Page, and who has been with him during the past two days studying the asylum plans.

ART WHAT IS IT? It is the creation of the Master mind and can not be bought at pawn, so much the does not. The great artist spends their time on originals and copies. Art that is created in quantities becomes copies that are cheap and degrading. MEMORIAL ART should be distinctly individual. Copies and duplicates are taboos by the better class dealer. J. E. DIXON BECOMES ASSOCIATED WITH LOCAL ARCHITECT

Herbert Voelcker, for some time the local representative of the Kansas City firm of Maderis and Fields, has secured the interests of the firm in Wichita Falls and with the acquisition of the business has taken a partner, J. E. Dixon, of Dallas and Houston. The new firm retains the Maderis and Fields offices on the fifth floor of the Kemp and Kell building, and is known as Voelcker and Dixon. Mr. Voelcker has gained prominence for his work of home designing in this city. The Clint Wood home, which has been under construction for some time, is of his design. The Adams house, J. J. Perkins home, foundation for which is being laid at present, and the R. W. Ranning home, in the restricted district in Floral Heights, now under construction, are among Mr. Voelcker's most recent pretentious designs.

YEAGER'S GREETING TO THE FARMERS

TO THE FARMER VOTERS: Wichita Falls, Texas, July 18th, 1918.

It is always a pleasure to me to talk with farmers, even when not a candidate, but especially so when seeking office, because I know their votes are free, independent and untrammelled, more so than any other votes. There is a sort of closeness between us, since in early manhood the rhythmic swing of the scythe and cradle in harvesting forage and grain was my daily delight until that task was complete. The swing of the mail in winter season was not so delightful to me, yet, owing to youthful buoyancy, I did not regard it then as a very heavy task. I have walked between the plow handles many a long day. I never became familiar with modern tools and machinery, for the reason that I worked among stumps and roots. I relate these things to show you that my heart is with you always, and that when I take one of you by the hand I feel that friend has met friend. No longer ago than last year, I again walked between the plow handles in truck farming in Wichita county, and of consequence thereof, have the right to say that I am the only farm candidate for County Judge.

This letter is to tell you that, owing to financial embarrassment, I cannot afford to quit my present job to go out and have a real hand-shake with you, but must be content with an imaginary one. Common sense, with whom I try a daily shake of the hand teaches me this, and I hope that you, too, occasionally take hold of the hand of the Venerable Sage. You do this when you make up your mind to vote in a way that protects your interests rather than that of the candidate. There are now three of us asking for your vote, two of them strangers to the office, and one of them, myself, a faithful old servant therein, who is, after a vacation of eight years, asking you to help reinstate him and put him to work on the old job of paying your debts with your money, and reducing your tax burden. He did it once for you; he paid you out of debt; he did it with the lowest tax rate you have ever had, but you have been so indulgent in procuring luxuries for yourself and for joy riders, and have gone in debt to such an alarming extent that said servant cannot hope to live long enough to pay you out again, should you now be so gracious as to take him back. Disappointing as is the prospect in that particular, does not common sense whisper to you that the swing of the pendulum should be, at least, started towards the "no debt" point? You may have been one of those who help to discharge this old servant on account of your non-approval of some of his acts, and he may have and doubtless has made mistakes, but now that he has returned, after a long absence, would it not be God like to forgive. Very truly yours M. F. YEAGER.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GUEST ROTARIANS TODAY'S LUNCHEON

Attorney General B. F. Looney was guest of honor of the Rotary Club at today's luncheon, and his talk on the growth of Wichita Falls and the splendid spirit of cooperation that could be expected from its citizens in any public enterprise, and especially in the new insane asylum, was the feature of the program. Mr. Looney was here this morning to approve the building lines laid out on the asylum site, and he and S. R. McCoy, state building supervisor, from Denton, L. C. Page of the architects firm, from Austin, and W. B. and L. M. J. Dielman, contractors from San Antonio, were guests of the Rotary Club at the regular weekly luncheon. John F. Simpson of Waterloo, Iowa, president of the Waterloo Rotary, here on business was also a guest, as was Major Ingersoll, flight surgeon stationed at Call Field.

Following the attorney general's talk the club enjoyed a short talk by Rotarian Simpson, who told of the work of his club, and also praised Wichita Falls spirit, as he had found it during the short time he had been here.

Endorsement was given the plan for enlarging the Wichita General hospital by the club members, on Dr. Hartsock's presentation of the plan for doubling the capacity of the hospital. A committee to work with the committee appointed by the Lions' Club on this project, was named, the members being: Dr. Hartsock, H. R. Voelcker, W. M. Priddy, J. C. Mytinger and W. Lee Moore.
