PEACE PROPOSAL SHOWS WEAKNESS SAYS VATICAN

By Associated Press.
 ROME, Wednesday, Sept. 18.—In a long article which is taken as reflecting the views of Vatican officials, if not the pope himself, the Corriere d'Italia, the semi-official organ of the Vatican, declares that Austria should be more explicit in the peace declaration.
 "The old subtleties that the note undoubtedly carries show the desperate need of peace," the article says. "There is no need for secret conferences when President Wilson and others already have set forth the Allied conditions. There is no doubt that the note was inspired by Berlin. With the canon of Hindenburg unsuccessful we now will see a return to the subtleties of diplomacy. The note is equivalent to a confession of military weakness. It is a sign that the fatal hour has already been reached and that we must submit to the Allies peace."
 "If in the year 1916 they offered peace, now they ask it," the article continues, "but in what spirit do they ask peace?"
 "It was stated at the Vatican today with reference to the subject of peace proposals that the preference of the pope is to act in such matter only when asked to do so by both parties."
 However, it was added, if a diplomatic representation were received from one of the parties inquiries would be made of the party if it desired to receive such a representation.
 If the text is correct, says the agency statement, the Italian government points out that Austria's proposals seek to create a semblance of peace negotiations without any real consistency or the possibility of a practical outcome.
 "The entente nations and the United States," the statement adds, "have made known their terms for the essential basis of a just peace. On these points the Austrian note says not a word. The same remark applies to the Italian aspirations."

AT THE THEATERS

RICHARDS THE WIZARD

RICHARDS, "THE WIZARD" WILL AMAZE WICHITA FALLS WITH HIS WONDERFUL SHOW.

The much heralded performance of Richards, "The Wizard" will materialize at the Wichita Theatre, all week starting Monday Sept. 23, and Mr. Richards appears in Wichita Falls in more than passing interest to theatregoers, as there is no form of entertainment that appeals more potently to the public than this great combination of magic, mystery, surprises and fun, for to Richards is due the credit of bringing it to its highest expression, as critics throughout the entire country claim he is the greatest magician since the time of Hermann The Great.

Nowadays a magician must be much more than the terms once implied. He must do big things and carry an entertainment that has the aroma of stilling mystery, the odor of the ancient orders of the Hindu, and Persian wonderworkers, and at the same time enter the field of American modern life and do amazing things that astound scientific experts and professors as well as the general public, and to accomplish this Richards carries a special baggage, a card of scenery, gorgeous tapestry and bewilderling effects, among which are many sensations that are real wonders of modern stagecraft. But the performance is not a mere mystery as there is a most pleasing variety of music, comedy, novelty, splendor that will provide one of the season's most enjoyable attractions. Mr. Richards is supported by Miss Crystal Williams and company.

ALMA RUBENS STAYS IN "THE PAINTED LILY"

Appearing in "The Painted Lily" showing at the Gem today, Alma Rubens is given the role of a young and innocent flower girl who is trapped into marriage with a gambler. Forced to live with him in a spirit of self sacrifice in order to save her old father, she finds herself a "painted lily," luring the victims of her husband's greed. The thrills and dramatic situations abound in this play, it will be interesting to note that Thomas H. Hefron, who directed the masterpiece, "Madame Sphinx," is again the generalissimo of this picture.

HUN PLOT EXPOSED IN "THE MARRIAGE RING"

In "The Marriage Ring" new Paramount feature, offered at the Majestic Friday, Enid Bennett appears as Anne Mortons, the wife of a gambler who uses her as his unwilling tool to fleece men of wealth at cards. When she resolves to quit her enforced vocation, her husband threatens to kill her off in a desperate struggle for the possession of a revolver, the episode is shot. Believing she has killed her

CITY BURNED IN "A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS"

In the motion picture spectacle, "A Daughter of the Gods" featuring Annette Kellerman, the attraction at the Empress today and Friday, one of the most exciting incidents is the destruction by fire of a great Moorish city. Terror-stricken thousands flee through the city gates and leap from the walls, so that the onlooker might be tempted to believe that he was being struck in some way by a sword of the general. But his fire scene is absolutely authentic. Concrete buildings, absolutely genuine and tall by reason of the devastating flame and a realistic palace and mosque become ruins almost in a twinkling.

Anti-Vice Committee Working On a Report To Submit Next Week

Reports of conditions over the city were heard at the meeting of the directors of the Society for the Suppression of Vice Tuesday night and the committee is at work on its report. This committee will not be ready to report on Friday night of this week and the meeting of the society has been postponed until Friday night of next week when it will be held in the empty court room at the courthouse.

ANNETTE KELLERMANN, IN WILLIAM FOX'S MILLION DOLLAR PICTURE BEAUTIFUL "A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS"

"THE DAUGHTER OF THE GODS" Million Dollar Production—the opportunity of your life.

A production that you will advise your friends to go see—go see over and over again yourself. In this picture we get beauty, spectacle and novelty along with enough of the unusual, the daring and the thrilling to make any one decide that it is truly big. A picture for you, for your wife, for your children, a picture for everyone.

"A Daughter of the Gods" inspires noted playwright to rhapsody. Jack Lait, novelist, dramatist, and poet, enchanted by William Fox's million dollar picture, calls it a shower of beautiful miracles. "What have you done, William Fox?" you have rifled the storehouse of Pnyland and the Realm of Myth. "You have photographed upon man made strips of film the ephemeral fancies of the dreamers of Greece, and the children poets, and Elysian romancers drowsy with the poppies of opalescent Orient at twilight. "You have taken a woman of bone and blood and brought her back a demigoddess. You have unveiled the fearsome barren where no man may intrude and live. You have done more than that: you have revealed the escaping of the enslaved soul, which never the sight of man had hoped to behold. You have made a child of earth a divinity. You have visualized forbidden mysteries; you have actualized the fantastic creatures of exotic imagines; you have blown substance into spirits of vapor. "Indeed it is a wonder-thing, this shower of magic you call 'A Daughter of the Gods.' "At once you combined the secret seas and all the worlds you could not have aimed your tossing curve one more nearly heavenly, one more beautifully ideal than that exquisite super-woman, Annette Kellerman. BULGARIANS FLEE BURNING VILLAGES IN THE RETREAT

(Continued from page 1.) In the mountainous region east of Monastir, the front is now nearly 20 miles in length and the advance has reached a depth of over six miles.

It is said that the defense of the Teutonic Allied troops was very strong at first, but that, as the Entente armies have smashed their way forward, the enemy has appeared to lose his taste for close fighting.

American troops are engaged in consolidating their new lines across the base of the Mihel salient which was wiped out by them last week. The Germans are reported to be feverishly working to strengthen their positions in the salient.

Headquarters Had To Hustle to Keep Up With Advance. Associated Press Mail Correspondent. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN France, Aug. 22.—The headquarters of the units of the American army in the Marne sector had to hustle to keep up with the American troops in the fighting when the Germans were hurled out of that salient and across the Vesle River.

Provisions to moving from one town to another, telephone wires had been strung, or laid, so that, while the divisional officers were in the actual process of moving, the two headquarters in the two villages were in communication with each other until the task was completed.

The demand for the range-bred cattle became so great last year in the southern states that a number of the best-cattle specialists were sent to Fort Worth to handle direct the orders from their states.

Official War Bulletins

(Associated Press.) PARIS, Sept. 18.—The following official statement dealing with operations on the Macedonian front was issued tonight by the war office: "Despite important reinforcements hastily brought forward by the enemy, who defended his new positions stubbornly, the offensive of the Allied armies continued successfully on the 17th. All objectives fixed for the day were reached. Attacks developed on a front of about 35 kilometers and progress was made to a depth of fifteen kilometers at certain points.

British troops, operating with the French and Greek detachments, took after a violent assault 49 villages, including Zovik and Stravina and the heights of Polchiter and Bechichte north of the river Gradoshitza and the village of Gradoshitza which was stubbornly defended by the enemy who held out to hold it at any cost.

Along the Vesle where American and French troops are stationed, a German attack northeast of Corbuden was broken up by the French air artillery fire.

BRITISH ADVANCE TO ENCRIRCLE ST. QUENTIN (Associated Press.) LONDON, Sept. 19.—The British last night made further progress in their drive into the Hindenburg line in the St. Quentin region, aimed at the encirclement of that town, according to Field Marshal Haig's statement today. It is continued advance north of the Hindenburg line.

The Austrians renewed their attacks and carried the Hindenburg outposts. Many prisoners and a number of machine guns were taken by them. The town of Lempre was captured and Gauche wood, a Lempre is four miles directly west of Levaldele.

SIBERIANS LOYAL TO THE ALLIED CAUSE (Associated Press.) ALABAMA, N.Y., Sept. 19.—Representatives of the foreign governments recently received a note from the Provisional Government of the Republic of Siberia in which it confirms its loyal attitude to the Allies, and gives a re-assertion that it considers its obligations toward the Allies in the course of the present war as likewise all other agreements in force in Russia prior to October 25, 1917.

Each of the command's assistants had his room and his collapsible desk in order, every clerk was on the job, portable desks and cases full of papers of in the respective places, beds had been made and in the yard under canvas tables were set and the cook was making dough for biscuits for supper.

STRUMA VALLEY IS AN AREA OF VARIED FIGHTING

(Associated Press Mail Correspondent.) WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN Macedonia, Aug. 27.—The fight of the British line in Macedonia is formed by the Struma valley. British troops arrived here in June, 1916, when the temperature was 105 in the shade and they have been there ever since. It is an area of varied fighting. A few miles of trench warfare, then a vast patrolling area of No Man's Land, and No Man's Sea, the latter being the lake with its flotilla of tiny patrol boats. Most of the fighting has taken place in the Struma plain, once the most fertile tobacco and grain area in the world, but now a jungle of monstrous wild plants which tower high over a man's head so that the whole area is a stifling, bewildering, deserted wilderness.

WOMEN DRIVERS ARE NEEDED FOR SERVICE ABROAD

Experienced women drivers are needed for service abroad according to the latest edition of the "Red Cross Important Item" which explains the qualifications necessary for such service and the various branches of the work in the following discussion. The Bureau of Motor Service, recently organized under the Department of Military Relief, is anxious to recruit experienced women drivers for service abroad. Only women who have been connected with the Red Cross Motor Corps, or who have passed a thorough examination in motor mechanics and first aid, will be eligible for this service. Women who can defray their own expenses are preferred. The many women who have enrolled in the units already organized in this country have rendered valuable service thus far, and many of them will welcome the larger opportunities for service abroad. In addition to the motor mechanics and chauffeurs and first aid, the candidates for this service will undergo a short period of military training in either St. Louis or at convenient headquarters under an army officer, who will instruct them in all details of the sanitary service in order that they may properly transport the wounded who come under their charge. Not all of the women who enroll for service abroad will, however, necessarily drive ambulances. Some will be detailed for messenger service in the larger cities of France and some for transport service behind the lines. They must be willing to serve wherever the need for their service exists. They will transport the wounded; they will assist in the movement of refugees; they will in emergency carry Red Cross supplies in their motors or be ready to transport either Red Cross or military officials from point to point in the war zone. This work is of the utmost importance and only women who are thoroughly in earnest are desired. It is military service in the strictest sense and calls for women in good physical condition. The service offers opportunities of vivid interest, but is primarily designed to relieve the numbers of active young men who are now doing this work, for actual military duty on the firing line. The record of the American Armulance in the years previous to our entrance in the war is a record of distinction. American boys rendered aid of the highest value to the armies of Britain and France. Most of them are now attached to the American army under General Pershing, and their places must be filled. Even boys between the ages of 18 and 21, many of whom have been driving in France and Italy, must now leave their motors for active service at the front. The Red Cross motor service offers to all patriotic women opportunities of actual participation in the great affairs which are now transpiring in Europe only equaled by the opportunities in the Nursing Service. Men must be released for fighting service and women must take their places, as they have in other fields. Women are wanted now, but only such as are thoroughly qualified will be accepted by the southwestern division bureau of motor service.

Market Report

Cotton Market

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The cotton market was extremely nervous and unsettled again this morning. The rumors circulated yesterday with reference to prices likely to be fixed for cotton were denied and according to private reports, the question at present under consideration is that of allotting grades of cotton rather than the price fixing proposition. There was a feeling in some quarters, however, that between the large ginning figures and the talk of lower prices, spot offerings were becoming heavier and after opening firm at a decline of 15 points on October, but generally six to 23 points higher, active months soon sold some 25 to 30 points under last night's closing figures with October touching 32.50 and January 31.80. The market was firmer late in the forenoon. Nervousness over the price fixing proposition had evidently subsided while there was little evidence of southern selling after the first half hour and prices rallied on covering and trade buying. By midday October had sold up to 33.42 and January 23.15 with the more active months working 12 to 20 points above last night's closing figures. The prospect for colder weather in Oklahoma was a factor on the advance and Japanese interests were reported good buyers on the early decline. The market was quiet during the early afternoon with fluctuations irregular. The bulges seemed to meet scattering liquidation but otherwise there was not much selling and prices held around 32.77 for October and 23.90 for January or about 10 to 13 points net lower. Cotton closed easy. New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19.—Claims from Washington that the fight against price fixing had been lost cost the cotton market a decline of 25 to 30 points in the half hour of trading today. No great excitement prevailed at the decline and selling pressure was not severe but there were few buyers. The market reacted rather sharply on its technical strength and went 2 to 7 points over yesterday's close. Support was not sustained and at noon the trading months were 10 to 15 points off net. The market turned dull with little movement in prices. At one o'clock the trading months were at a net loss of 20 to 25 points. Cotton closed steady at a net decline of 51 to 55 points. Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, Sept. 19.—Cotton spot price lower. Good middling 23.15; middling 22.24; low middling 21.19; good ordinary 21.67; ordinary 21.15. Sales 2,900, including 1,300 American. No receipts. Futures closed steady. September 23.75; October 23.43; November 23.24; December 23.12; January 23.00.

Grain Market

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Frost predictions resulted today in a decided upward swing of the corn market. The frost area was expected to include territory further south than heretofore, notably in Iowa, Missouri and Kansas. Opening prices which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1/2 higher with October $1.52 1/2 to $1.55 and November $1.49 1/2 to $1.49 3/4, were followed by a moderate reaction and then by a brisk new advance. After opening a shade to 1/2 cent higher with October 73 1/2 to 73 3/4, the market scored further gains. Later the market receded owing more or less to peace gossip. The close was unsettled, 3/4 cent lower to 1/2 cent advance with October $1.52 1/2 to $1.55 1/2 and November $1.49 1/2 to $1.49 3/4. In the late dealings pork advanced sharply on account of scarcity of offerings. Lard and ribs continued weak. Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions. New York Stocks

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Changes were unusually narrow at the opening of the stock market today with the trend definitely upward soon crystallizing into a more positive show of strength among some of these stocks which were conspicuous during yesterday's advance. American Smelting and Refining continued to reduce its treatment of an over extended short account and both Mexican Petroleum and Texas Company achieved still higher levels. Speculation in stocks, however, equipments and important railroads was on a limited scale but Martine preferred was absorbed on liquidation of reports that the long pending deal for the transfer of the British tonnage soon would be consummated. Popular trading shares moved narrowly in the mid-session but their course was suggestive of a change for the better in speculative sentiment. The shipping issues continued to make an impressive exhibition of independent strength. Atlantic Gulf extended its gain to four points before meeting a supply of stock.

Buying and selling impulse was largely lacking in the final hour, the market being pretty much of a drifting affair with however a decided under current of strength. American Smelting and Refining was carried up nearly 3 points beyond yesterday's final. The closing was firm. Notice. The lawyers of this county will render assistance to registrants in filing out their Questionnaires and each day until further notice there will be in the District Court rooms at the courthouse in this city a corps of lawyers to assist registrants in making out their Questionnaires. A. H. CARRIGAN, JOHN C. KAY, F. R. BOONE, Legal Advisory Board for Wichita County, Texas.

Let's save this 15%

THE Government is asking the help of employers and workmen to do away with the unnecessary "turn-over" of labor in essential war industries. If this can be done it will add 15% to the productiveness of industry.

The U. S. Employment Service has been organized as a part of the Department of Labor to help employers find the right men, and to help men find the right jobs in all war work. This Service has 500 branch offices covering the United States, and 20,000 U. S. Public Reserve Enrollment Agents.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT "Industry plays an essential and honorable a role in this great struggle as do our military armaments. We all recognize the truth of this, but we must also see its necessary implications—namely, that industry, doing a vital task for the nation, must receive the support and assistance of the nation." "Therefore, I solemnly urge all employers engaged in war work to refrain after August 1st, 1918, from recruiting unskilled labor in any manner except through this central agency. [U. S. Employment Service.] I urge labor to respond as loyally as heretofore to any calls issued by this agency for voluntary enlistment in essential industry. And I ask them both alike to remember that no sacrifice will have been in vain, if we are able to prove beyond all question that the highest and best form of efficiency is the spontaneous co-operation of a free people." WOODROW WILSON.

An illustration of the benefit of this service, typical of hundreds, may be cited. An employer, having a government contract, requested that 400 men be furnished immediately. Upon investigation it was found that not only were housing facilities lacking, but the employer would not need the men for several weeks. Because the government handled the job the men were sent at the right time, housing facilities were provided, and there was no loss of time or money to workers or employer. The use of the U. S. Employment Service by both employers and workers is a patriotic service and duty to the government.

It has definite knowledge of manufacturing and labor conditions all over the country. Employers are asked to use this service when they need men, and workers are asked to consult it when they need employment, or if they feel a change in employment is necessary.

Big Seven Oil Co. Stock Is Still Selling at Par Capital $45,000 Shares $50 Each

The townsite of Burkburnett is directly over the big pool, and the block propositions are the safest and surest money in the whole field. We offer a stock that will stand inspection with the best on the market. It is as safe as any oil stock can be, and the prospect for dividends is not excelled by any. We have complied with all government regulations, and are promoting the company strictly for the purpose of producing oil. The interests of stockholders will be safeguarded by every means possible, and every one will get his fair share of the oil produced.

We expect the stock to be all sold within a week and drilling to start as soon as a rig can be had.

WICHITA YOUTH TELLS OF LIFE IN U. S. NAVY

Frequent torpedoing storms at sea, sudden trips to unknown destinations, varied with pleasure excursions in Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, and in France, make the life of a sailor on an American destroyer in the transport service of the other side one free from monotony, according to David Lee Morgan, radio electrician first class, on the U. S. Destroyer Parker, who is in town for a shore visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Morgan. Mr. Morgan has only one more rank to achieve until he will be eligible for a warrant officer's position, corresponding to a commissioned rank in the army. He has been in the service three years, and has spent 18 months of his service in foreign waters, having been assigned to English waters since the United States declared war. His period of enlistment is to expire on May 23, 1919, but his present intention is to remain for another term, even if the war is then over, as he is finding the service interesting and profitable, as well as a fulfillment of a desire to be of patriotic service.

Mr. Morgan was publicly commended for exceptional bravery by Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, for rescue work performed when the Glenart Castle was sunk on Feb. 26 of this year. Until the notice appeared in the press of the country and his parents were informed of his bravery and his public honor they had known nothing of the incident or of their son's heroic act. The sailor himself passes it over as an every day happening. "It was in the line of duty and wasn't anything," he says.

Danger is Minimized.
When the Americans first went in to European waters torpedoing were frequent and there was much rescue work of this sort to be done. "Now, I'm glad to say," Morgan continues, "these torpedoing are much less frequent and the submarine men are comparatively speaking no more active at all. I feel that we gain no military advantage. What do a few little sailing vessels amount to when we can land hundreds of thousands of soldiers in England and France in a few months as we have been doing."

The destroyer service is hazardous enough, young Morgan admits, but he says he feels the part the navy is playing isn't half what the men in the army are doing. Just being on a ship and taking frequent trips through the submarine zone, to get transport ships and convoys them safely to port is taken as an every day matter. During his months of service in this department he has had many interesting experiences and has gained a thorough knowledge of the tactics followed by Americans in landing troops safely, despite German submarines, but all this must wait until the war is over to be told.

In London Air Raid.
Six days at three and three in port is the usual proportion of service on a destroyer, Mr. Morgan says. The men are given every opportunity for diversion on a date encouraged to take leave trips whenever possible and Mr. Morgan has already explored the historic old island, finding much interest in visiting queer, out of the way places, and also in visiting the spots made famous by the early history of England. He has also visited London and Liverpool and other large cities in the British Isles. At one time he was caught in a London air raid and enjoyed himself very thoroughly, helping revive women who had fainted. That is the rarest he has come to actual danger in the whole war, he says, as bits of the bombs fell very near him.

He has also visited Paris several times and has been quite close to the battle front. Practically all the time since he finished at his training ship he has had an opportunity to visit new places and see new sights and has taken full advantage of every opportunity, he says, and now he would not take $100,000 for his three years in the navy. It's a great life, especially during war, he says.

There's one thing that he's anxious for now. That's for the German navy to try to make good its threat of coming out and fighting a sea battle. He says that there are three navies just waiting for the time, and that the United States navy alone could wipe out the German navy from the face of the earth. All that they ask is the chance.

Mr. Morgan expects to go back to the other side as soon as his furlough expires. His shore vacation was very unexpected, but it was also very much welcomed, as it was the first time he had been able to visit his parents since he enlisted in the navy.

PHILLIPS HELD TO WAIT ACTION OF GRAND JURY

John Phillips was held on $2,500 bond to the grand jury, following the hearing conducted Wednesday afternoon and this morning by District Attorney Fletcher S. Jones, before Judge M. F. Yeager, on a complaint charging Phillips with kidnaping his wife, Clara Jackson, fourteen years of age. The hearing had been concluded before Phillips was served with a citation, notifying him that suit for divorce had been filed by the girl. The divorce petition alleges that the girl was only 15 years of age, that she was "forcibly taken and lured" by Phillips to Waurika, Oklahoma, where he married her, after securing a license by swearing her to be 18 years of age. An absolute decree of divorce is asked for, with the restoration of the girl's maiden name. The petition states that Phillips is 40 years of age.

CONFERENCE OF DAIRYMEN HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Saturday afternoon, September 21, at 4 o'clock, a conference with dairymen and others who have stock to feed has been called by the county food administrator, W. S. Curlee, and J. W. Campbell, county demonstration agent. Plans whereby feed can be purchased cheaper will be made and all who are interested are urged to be present.

Letters containing a notice of this meeting have been sent to all dairymen in the county by Mrs. T. H. Smock, with the statement that it is hoped something can be done to bring down the price of cattle feed for the coming winter. This is one of the hardest problems that the local dairy men have to face, according to Mrs. Smock, and they should take a vital interest in the meeting. A system of cooperative buying, which will tend to lower prices, will probably be worked out.

FRED H. SHAFER IS VISITOR TO THE CITY

Fred H. Shaffer, formerly chief dispatcher here for the Fort Worth and Denver, who went to St. Louis several months ago to take a position with the Frisco, is a visitor here today. Mr. Shaffer is now traffic and transportation agent for the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway corporation. He is in the employ of the railway corporation and not the railroad administration. His duties brought him into Texas, and he improved the opportunity for a visit with friends in Wichita Falls.

Expect Bulletin On The Distribution of Building Material

Detailed information concerning the procedure to be taken by persons desiring building materials of any sort has been sent to T. R. T. Orth, secretary of the Wichita county council on defense, by J. M. Carl, secretary of the State council of defense and should be received Friday. Mr. Carl wired Mr. Orth he was sending this bulletin in answer to Mr. Orth's wired request for information as to whether a local oil supply company would be permitted to buy 50 barrels of cement to be used in the construction of pipe skids, important to oil production. Mr. Carl's telegram follows:

"Answering your telegram. Bulletin will be sent tomorrow, regarding procedure to be taken by persons desiring building material. Persons desiring to build will simply have to wait until committee set forth in bulletin is organized. County and State councils have only power to recommend. Reports have to be sent to War Industries Board by State council for final action. J. F. CARL."

APPROVE APPLICATION TO RESUME PAVING

The State Highway Commission has approved the application of the City of Wichita Falls to continue the work of street paving. Mayor J. B. Marlow and R. E. Huff returned from Austin yesterday with this report.

The applications are now to be sent to the War Industries Board at Washington for final action.

ROTARY CLUB IS SUPPORTING THE IRRIGATION PLAN

Wichita Fall Rotarians went on record at their regular luncheon today, as favoring the Wichita irrigation project and assured Mr. Kemp, who is president of the project, of the hearty support of the club and the individual members in the work of the district. Mr. Kemp made a talk at the luncheon, outlining the proposed irrigation project and his explanation of the district system was followed with much interest.

The assistance of the Rotarians in collecting clothing for Belgian refugees next week was pledged. T. R. T. Orth, chairman of this committee of the Red Cross, following his talk on this subject, T. B. Smock reminded some of the Rotarians that they had not yet turned in their cards on the Red Cross local budget subscription and asked that all who had not done so attend to this matter immediately. Bert Bean spoke on the subject of drought relief.

Judge A. L. Huey was welcomed as new members. The election of J. W. Mylender to the board of directors of the city of Wichita was announced. A. L. Joffe, of Dallas, a visiting Rotarian, other visitors were J. G. Reeves, guest of Judge W. N. Bonner, A. J. Cohn of Dallas, guest of C. W. Weaver, J. F. Wagner, guest of Dr. A. O. Scharif.

DRAFT BOARD HAS THREE CALLS FOR MEN FOR ARMY

Three calls for the last of September and the first of October, have been received by the Wichita county draft board, though the number required has not been announced. Call 1362 is for October 1, for white men to go to Camp Travis and is expected to tie all the resistance of the 1917, June 5, and August 24, 1918, in Class 1 and reclassified, the clerk of the board stated. The two other calls are for negroes, No. 1328 for September 25, 10 negroes to Camp Bowie and 1345 for October 15, 5 negroes to Camp Travis. This will take all the negroes in Class 1, the board also stated.

WILL OF GENERAL ROLLER ADMITTED TO PROBATE

The will of General John E. Roller, who died something over a month ago at this home in Richmond, Va., was admitted to probate in the Wichita county court this morning, on the application of George T. Gratton and Royal E. Cabell, both of Richmond, administrators named in General Roller's will. The will divides the property of the late general equally between his five daughters. The amount of his property is not named in the will, but his property in Wichita county alone is estimated at near the million dollar mark, much of it being oil lands.

ARE ORGANIZING IOWA PARK FOR CLEAN-UP WORK

Organization of the women of Iowa Park to make a systematic clean-up of the town from a sanitary standpoint was to be effected today by Mrs. R. E. Robbins, state inspector from the food and drug department, who is in Wichita Falls for several days work. Mrs. Robbins, accompanied by Mrs. T. B. Smock, city food inspector, and Miss Sadie Oliver, county home demonstrator, went to Iowa Park this morning and expected to remain there until late this afternoon.

Mrs. Robbins had been requested by several women at Iowa Park who were interested in the sanitation work to make this visit. She will also go to Electra before her stay in Wichita Falls is over, and will probably visit Burk Burnett, calls having come for her assistance from both places.

BUREAU ANNOUNCES DEMAND FOR LABOR

Calls are coming daily to the Wichita Falls employment bureau of the department of labor, for workmen which the bureau is unable to fill. G. W. Minton, the examiner in charge, stated that he urges that all desiring work enroll at the office, so that they may be put in touch with employers needing workmen. There is a great demand for farm labor also common labor in the city of Wichita Falls. For the latter class of workmen $3 a day and up is offered.

Mr. Minton repeats his offer of assistance to employers and workmen alike. He asks that all desiring the services of the government employment office call and state their needs and avail themselves of the free employment agency, and help overcome some of the labor difficulties which the war has brought about.

Fletcher S. Jones, district attorney, announces that he has severed his connection with Fletcher S. Jones, attorney and British and that he has opened offices of his own in the Kemper and Keil building.
