BULGARIA MAY FIGHT TURKEY

Peace Demonstration and Riots Are Staged in Berlin

SUFFRAGE LOSES ON FINAL VOTE IN THE SENATE

AMENDMENT FAILS OF NECESSARY TWO-THIRDS FOR ADOPTION.

56 VOTES NECESSARY

Supporters of Measure Were Able to Muster Only 53 On Final Roll Call.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Women's suffrage was beaten today in the Senate. President Wilson's appeal in behalf of the resolution apparently made no change in the voting, the opposition securing every vote they claimed. The majority lacked two votes of the necessary two-thirds and the change recorded for Senator Jones made it three.

Moving toward a final vote on the woman suffrage amendment today, the Senate rejected 51 to 22 the proposal to Senator Williams to limit the franchise to white women.

By a vote of 53 to 21, the Senate failed to give the resolution passed by the House submitting to the states the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution.

The Williams amendment was tabled with the following voting against the motion:

The Senate also rejected 64 to 17 an amendment by Senator Fletcher of Florida, designed to apply the resolution's prohibition against abridgment of the franchise because of sex to the federal government only.

Calling of the final roll on a disposition of the resolution began in the Senate at 3:40 o'clock.

PRESIDENT WRITES LETTERS OF REQUEST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—With the Senate apparently about to vote today on the woman suffrage resolution, President Wilson supplemented his address of yesterday in his support by sending personal letters to several democratic Senators regarded as opponents, urging them to give their measure their vote.

Camp Bowie Has No New Cases of Spanish Influenza

FORT WORTH, TEX., Oct. 1.—The Spanish influenza epidemic at Camp Bowie was reported on the wane today by Lieutenant Colonel Hansen of the base hospital. Practically no new cases were discovered. The total number in the hospital now numbers 400. The warm weather is one of the best weapons for combating the disease. No deaths have occurred.

An Appeal to Your Patriotism.

In the name of the quarter of a million men who have left this district to fight for us I appeal to the citizenship of the Eleventh Federal District to subscribe and over subscribe the Fourth Liberty Loan, and I call upon them to do it quickly.

Let us put away as unworthy of ourselves and of this occasion the usual thoughts of our little, and really unimportant, lives.

Men are fighting, braving and suffering even death itself for you and me.

As ordinary average decent human beings we should feel that we must support these men and provide them with the minimum amount the government asks of us. As men of pride in our race, birth and nationality, we must do more and make our response both prompt and generous.

To count our money while our sons are fighting for our lives, our homes and our future, is out of place and unworthy.

Conditions in this district of ours are not ideal and the burden of the loan has been most carefully adjusted. Not a single man, not a single community has been asked to do more than is possible or reasonable.

Upon the wealthy men of this community rests a responsibility greater than that ever placed upon their shoulders before. They must lend to their country the accumulated wealth of past years and we know that they will do it.

Our boys went to our defense fearlessly, courageously and with a smile on their faces. We must all lend as they have given.

MORE THAN FIVE HUNDRED SPECULATORS ARE UNDER INVESTIGATION.

OIL MEN ARE INVOLVED

Authorities Have Been Working for Weeks Gathering the Evidence.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—More than 500 promoters of questionable speculative enterprises who are selling securities in competition with the Fourth Liberty Loan, and in defiance of the government's capital issues committee are under investigation by that committee and steps to blacklist them publicly may be taken soon. This was learned today from a preliminary report of the enforcement section of the capital issues committee, which for weeks has been gathering evidence on the activities of wild-cat promotion schemes involving the trading in of Liberty bonds for speculative stocks, and the consequent absorption of capital for non-war purposes.

Some of these enterprises are supported by interests whose loyalty in the past has been questioned, and agents of the capital issues committee are investigating thoroughly to determine if enemy influences are responsible for these moves to divert capital from the nation's war credit.

More than $200,000,000 of fraudulent or unauthorized securities now are on the market, it is reported, and this represents only a small portion of all such issues offered, without being first submitted to the capital issues committee for its approval. Each promoter of these schemes shortly will be served with notice that the continued offering of the stocks or bonds without the committee's approval or in defiance of the committee's declaration that the issue is "not compatible with national interest" will result in the advertising of the enterprise as working against national policies during the war emergency.

Such notices will be displayed by postoffices, chambers of commerce, district attorney's offices, labor union headquarters and at other places.

A partial list of the speculative enterprises now trying to market unauthorized securities includes 250 oil companies in the Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas fields, offering in the aggregate more than $100,000,000 in stocks. There are ten questionable motor companies, offering about $50,000,000 in securities. One of these in Minnesota already has sold $2,000,000 of stock, fifty per cent of which went to salesmen as commissions. Liberty bonds were taken in payment and then thrown on the market helping to depress the price of these government bonds.

Private investors wishing to help to conserve credit for war purposes, directly contributing to the war effort, are asked by the capital issues committee to refuse to buy stocks or bonds when salesmen cannot prove they have been approved by the committee.

OFFENSIVE GAINS IN STRENGTH AND ENEMY WEAKENS

BULGARIA'S FATAL ERROR AGREES WITH PRESIDENT

Persisted in Keeping Intact At All Cost The "War Map" Of Country.

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 1.—The Allied offensive continues to gain strength and the German resistance to weaken. Yesterday saw another army, that of General Bethelot, join in the chain of battle with a success equal to that achieved by the other groups. The army attacked along the Vesle and northwest of Rheims.

It was on the extreme wing of the battle line that the most important feature of the day's operations were to be found. The remarkable advance of the Belgians left covers the flank of the second British army and permits it to advance safely to capture the crossings of the Vesle and the British guards already have crossed the river and are approaching a third. Once the Lys is crossed, General Plumer, his flank protected, can push boldly toward Escourt, between Oudenne and Tournai and complete the encirclement of the Lille-Roubaix-Tourcoing region which even now is gravely threatened.

Important Advance.

On the extreme right, General Gouraud's advance toward Montherly is important because that village is only a mile from the junction of the canal which joins that locality to Arrant. The breakthrough which two German sections facing the French and American armies on either side of the Aronne river must pass, is under an enfilading fire from French guns.

As a result the object for which the French and American armies are fighting is made easier for them. On the center the German resistance is desperate and the fighting is slow, but Cambrai, St. Quentin and Le Cateau are to all intents and purposes, taken. They have not been occupied because of mines and traps.

Bulgaria's Fatal Error.

Bulgaria made a fatal error which brought about her overthrow. This was her persistence in keeping intact at all costs the "war map" of the Balkans. It was not strong enough to hold a hundred miles of front served by railroads and means of communication, all of which were cut by the rupture of the center.

This is exactly what the Germans are doing on the western front. As Mr. Thomason, the military critic points out they will not let go of their "paw" by which they hope to get the better terms of peace. This is why they are launching violent counter attacks against the Allies at St. Quentin and Cambrai, which are to the advantage of the Allies, for the more men the Germans lose on the present battle field the fewer will remain to ward off the catastrophe when the hour of the great retreat strikes.

It is true there can be no comparison between the magnificent German communications and the wretched tracks behind the Bulgarians but there the Belgian isthmus between French Armenties and Dutch Limburg, the choking of which would be fatal. It is then not unreasonable to ask if sooner or later the Balkan debacle will not be repeated in the west.

ENEMY DRIVEN FROM WEST SIDE OF CANAL

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Not one German remains on the western side of the St. Quentin canal. The enemy was driven back in the heavy fighting last evening and last night.

MOBILIZATION OF NATIONAL GUARD IS PROHIBITED

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, TEX., Oct. 1.—The adjutant general's department has issued an order prohibiting the mobilization of any unit of the Texas national guard. This is done as a precaution against the spread of Spanish influenza.

It has been the custom of various companies to establish short time training camps on their own initiative and the order is to prevent this.

ARTHUR BALFOUR DISCUSSES LATE PROPOSED PEACE

SAYS WRONGS OF SUBORDINATED PEOPLE MUST BE RIGHTED.

COMPLETE VICTORY NECESSARY IN ORDER TO MAKE LEAGUE OF NATIONS POSSIBLE.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 1.—The wrongs of subordinated peoples must be righted and territories occupied by Germany since the beginning of the war must have complete freedom before a league of nations can be possible and peace secured by the terms of the armistice.

Mr. Balfour, British foreign secretary at the Guild Hall today, explained the speech. New arms and gave his support to the ideas outlined in it.

"Mr. Bonar Law has dealt with the financial aspect of the war," said Mr. Balfour. "Let me deal with a point of future security. The full magnitude of all the issues before mankind is not yet clear. Some have come into the war fully conscious of what those issues were and very wisely named its great financial effort after the man who it had at heart, for that cause was liberty for the world."

"There is a danger, however, not embodied in the name of the man, but in the hearts and consciences of Americans as to the hearts and consciences of British, French and Italian, namely, that we fall in this crisis not merely to win the war but to see that such aims do not recur, our task would be but half accomplished."

"I am confident you all have read President Wilson's speech. It had all those characteristics which make his public utterances upon state occasions. It had eloquence, directness and the magnificence of style to which he has accustomed us. Wearisome formalities were absent."

"His main theme was this: That if the world would make sure that it is going to have peace it must come to some arrangement by which malefactors would be made to suffer and kept in order by a league of nations. The second proposition was that if you are to carry out this great ideal of the time, it must be effected at the moment when peace itself is being forged by the labors of the victors' powers."

"Personally, I am very much of the President's mind; that to allow this occasion to sink into the past would be to lose one of the greatest opportunities which the world has to put inclinations upon a sound moral and lasting footing and if work for international peace is not to be great, we must make our peace now and range the map of Europe and the world that great occasion for wars will not overwhelm."

"If you are going to render permanent German domination over Russia, especially western Russia and the Baltic, you must first put an end to the wrongs of Poland; if the subordinated peoples in the Austrian empire are to be left unharmed, the German and Magyar minorities in the Balkans again are to be the scene of bloody wars and the occasion of hostilities among their neighbors, if the Turk is to be allowed to resume his bloody sway over the territories torn from him; if Italy is not to have restored to her and added to her those populations which were left powerless by Italy's redemption; if Greece is to be threatened as in the past by the domination of the central powers; if Serbia is not to be restored after her appalling sacrifices, and glorious gallantry; if France is not to resume her full place in western Europe and if Belgium is not to be restored in full measure, if all those evils are not potentially to recur, then you must do something more than merely establish a league of nations."

Wrongs Must Be Righted.

"You must put these wrongs right before a league of nations can set to work. You must give present consent to work upon. Then and then only, will your league of nations work."

"Therefore, in order to make a league of nations possible, complete victory is absolutely necessary. Germany can only be a member of a league of nations when the international system has been reformed by a great and all embracing peace and that can never take place until Germany, not merely has been obliged to change her profession of faith but until she has herself in a position where all her dreams of world domination are torn to pieces before her eyes and she is left powerless, less prosperous and doubtless wealthy, but no longer a tyrant who can dominate the nations which are in a position of inferiority to her."

"I have been thinking of the financial efforts we now are making upon you to make extra money, and, my merely financial operation."

LONDON, Oct. 1. (Via Montreal).—Bulgaria during the discussion over the armistice at Saloniki, indicated she was not averse to attacking Turkey, according to reliable news received in London, Reuters Limited states today.

Bulgaria explained, however, that she could only act militarily in this connection in co-operation with the Allies.

TURKEY PLANNING TO ASK ARMISTICE.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—"Feelers" have been put out by Turkey for an armistice the Evening News today says it understands.

While these advances are said to be semi-official, no notice will be taken of them, the article states, until an official telegram is received.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Under the threat of its speedy capture by the British, the city of Cambrai has been set on fire by the Germans, Field Marshal Haig reported in his official statement today.

PEACE DEMONSTRATION STAGED IN BERLIN.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A peace demonstration took place in Berlin on Saturday, according to news received here today. The cheering crowds assembled in front of the Bulgarian legation at the German capital, necessitating police intervention.

The rioters, according to the information, got the upper hand of the authorities and committed excesses. A number of statues in the Berlin squares were destroyed.

GREATEST EXCITEMENT PREVAILS IN GERMANY

LONDON, Oct. 1.—There is the greatest excitement in Germany over the defection of Bulgaria, judging from special dispatches received here from Holland. On Saturday the excitement amounted to a panic. According to some reports the panic particularly affected the Berlin bourse, where war industry stocks, it is said, slumped violently.

Panic also struck parliament and newspaper circles and public officials. The alarm brought forth in the instant demand that something be done. A dispatch to the Daily Mail from the Hague says the demand is for somebody possessing the confidence of the Germans and their allies to replace the present military oligarchy but opinions clash regarding who this vague personality might be.

All reports indicated a decided cleavage between the junker and conservative classes and the class represented by the socialists and radicals. Some centrists and even national liberals.

BULGARIA'S FEAR OF A REVOLUTION CAUSE FOR ACTION

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 1.—It was the fear of revolution at home and the failure of Germany and Austria to send him the military force he required that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria turned to the Entente for help, according to the American consul general at Sofia, Dominick Murphy as quoted in a dispatch to the Matin from Saloniki.

The consul general, the dispatch states, gave interesting details on his arrival at Saloniki from Sofia in company with the Bulgarian plenipotentiaries of the conditions in the Bulgarian capital, leading up to the demand for an armistice. King Ferdinand, the account declares, assembled the grand council September 23 with the result that a formal demand was made on Berlin and Vienna for immediate assistance.

Notwithstanding the urgent tone of the demand Germany and Austria responded with evasive promises for the future.

But what impelled the king most, the consul general's account indicates, was the fear of revolution. Anarchy was making serious progress in Sofia. Workmen and soldiers had held meetings and passed laws. Bolshevism in its most executive form became the regular order and manifestations were held before the royal palace.

King Ferdinand, it is added, haunted by recollections of the fate of former Emperor Nicholas was unable to sleep. He considered it essential for his country and for his own safety that a strong military force should intervene and thus, it is added, as Germany could not give him that force he turned to the Entente.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 1.—The German people if they have been permitted to know the terms.

Prince Von Buelow, former German imperial chancellor, may be the "vag personality" mentioned in the address from The Hague as the statesman who is expected to appear as the German "strong man" in the present crisis.

It has been something of an open secret for a long time that Germany was holding Prince Von Buelow for possible use in the critical period that the making of peace would bring and the very suggestion that comes now for a man of his type may perhaps be pointed to as indicating that Germany has in mind to realize that the beginning of the end is at hand.

Prince Von Buelow has purposely been kept out of the limelight in the eyes of the world as possible and has taken no part in the political struggles that have arisen from time to time in the German empire.

Summary of Recent War Developments

French, British, American and Belgian troops continue their smashes against the German defenses, further increasing the peril of the German front. The canal west of Le Cateau and Verdun to the North Sea. The important bastions of Lille, Cambrai, St. Quentin and Laon more and more are becoming of less use to the Germans.

Haig's Forces Pushing Forward. Cambrai was burning today having been set on fire by the Germans while Field Marshal Haig's forces were pushing forward into the suburbs on the northwest and southwest. Around St. Quentin the British were extending the iron ring about that important point. Between St. Quentin and Cambrai the British are fighting their way across the Scheldt canal at several points, having taken the important canal west of Le Cateau and Verdun to the North Sea. The important bastions of Lille, Cambrai, St. Quentin and Laon more and more are becoming of less use to the Germans.

Onslaughts Are Resumed. General Berthelot resumed Tuesday morning his onslaught against the German lines between the Vesle and the Aisne in the region west of Rheims. The French here are marching toward the eastern end of the Chemin Des Dames and the open country north of Rheims, by which the pivot point of Laon can be outflanked.

From the Salpêtre to the Meuse the French and Americans maintain their strong, steady pressure against the German forces defending the important points. The American forces are pressing up the valley of the Aisne toward Charleville and Agny. On September 28 the French have captured more than 13,000 prisoners and in excess of 300 guns on this front.

East of the Aisne the Americans continue to maintain and improve their positions in the face of strong German resistance.

Great Changes on Battle Front. In the past ten days the western battle front has seen great changes as the Allies have forced their way through the Hindenburg line. From Valenciennes to the Meuse the line has advanced five miles. The forces under King Albert of Belgium are on open ground and are overcoming heavy counter attacks by the enemy. Since it would seem that the railroads forming and within the triangle of Lille, Ghent and Bruges would soon be lost to the Germans bringing about the evacuation of Ostend and Zebrugge.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Monday, Sept. 30.—There has been much discussion in the English press of the status of King Ferdinand and suggestions have been made that he be deposed. That matter also was outside the scope of the convention. The governments of the Allies take the view that, according to their principle of self-determination the question of who should be Bulgaria's ruler or titular, is a question for the Bulgarian people to decide if such a question arises in Bulgaria. Thus, it is pointed out, the Allies have given a practical application to the self-determination principle at the first opportunity offered.

The armistice arranged yesterday remains in force until the final and general peace settlement. It constitutes a complete military surrender by Bulgaria. She not only ceases to be an enemy but ceases to be a belligerent.

No information is yet at hand here regarding the part King Ferdinand played in the latest events, whether he yielded against his will to the sentiment of the country or whether he saw the coming storm and took the leadership in the new policy.

The fact that he pardoned the statesman who had opposed the entrance of Bulgaria into the war is interesting, but whether he did this of his own free will or under virtual compulsion from the new premier remains to be seen.

Events are marching rapidly and interest is now focused on Turkey.

Nieuport the Allied line today ran south to Dixmude, southeast to Hoeslers, south and west to near Armentieres, which is virtually surrounded, and thence on an arc to near La Bassée. Thence the line runs through the western outskirts of Lens to Gavrelle, where it swings southeast to Blecourt, three miles north of Cambrai.

Around Cambrai the British line is less than a mile from the center of the city. South of Cambrai the St. Quentin canal forms the line until the region southwest of Le Cateau is reached. Between here and St. Quentin the British have driven in a sharp salient with its apex at Leveghies. St. Quentin is surrounded from the north and south whence the French hold an irregular line southward to La Fere.

Cambrai in Flames.—The British were breaking great holes in the Hindenburg line from Cambrai to St. Quentin. The Germans set fire to Cambrai and the British were busy destroying the great quantities of supplies there before the British could surround the town, which is already encircled on the north.

North of St. Quentin the British have taken Verdunville, west of Le Cateau. Further south they have reached a point east of St. Quentin and have captured Leveghies.

In Belgium, King Albert is leading the Belgian and British armies to further successes and is driving into the heart of the network of German railroads centered about Ghent.

General Allenby in Palestine has thrown his cavalry far to the north of the Sea of Galilee and they are reported to be 212 miles from the important railroad junction of Damascus. On the Mediterranean coast, French mounted forces are approaching Beirut, northwest of Damascus. Bulgaria has unconditionally surrendered. Allied nations are placed in control of her railroads and all other means of transportation and are to use them for the development of future military operations. All strategic points in Bulgaria will be turned over to the Allies for occupation and the Bulgarian troops will be withdrawn from Greece and Serbia and disarmed.

This, the result of the brief conference between the British and American delegates and the Allied command at Saloniki is not yet an accomplished fact, but the way is cleared for a rapid development of the advantage gained by the successful offensive in the Balkans and the collapse of Bulgaria. Heavy German and Austrian forces are said to be on their way to restore the Bulgarian front, but it is probable they will be powerless to turn the tide of destiny in the Near East.

EMPEROR MAKES AN APPEAL FOR GERMAN NATION

Special aspect of the situation which has arisen in the German government is being a ministerial crisis. Imperial Chancellor Von Hertling has resigned from office and was closely followed by Foreign Minister Von Hintze. This morning it was reported from Amsterdam that Vice Chancellor Von Payer, who has held that office since November 9, 1917, had also quit.

Amid the rumbling of its cabinet, Germany is hearing the rumbling of the mighty storm that has broken over the western battle line. Grim tidings from the front keep coming from the German people for the past two months now are freely discussed by the newspapers and a wave of what closely resembles hysteria is reported to be sweeping over that country.

Renewed Reverses for Enemy.—On the six sectors where Allied forces are hurling themselves at the German lines in Belgium and France the past day has brought renewed reverses for the enemy, there has been desperate fighting at every point where the German lines have been assailed, but notwithstanding his utmost efforts the enemy has been forced back in sectors where Allied gains carry threat to his positions over a wide front.

The most rapid advance has been in Belgium. There the Germans have been beaten back until the troops of the Leuven line in Belgium and France has been entered by the Belgians.

Further north the British have entered Creve Coeur, southeast of Cambrai, and are fighting in the streets of Cambrai. Nearer St. Quentin the British and Americans have smashed their way through the Hindenburg line to the neighborhood of Leuven and appeared to have outflanked St. Quentin from the north. On the south of that city the French have made new progress.

North of the Aisne the French have captured more than half of the ridge between the Aisne and the Ailette and the Germans are reported to be retreating across the latter stream. Along the Vesle, northwest of Rheims, the French have won ground, apparently moving ahead in close touch with the retreating Germans.

Key Captures Dominating Heights.—In the Champagne sector General Gouraud's army has carried dominating heights west of the Argonne forest and appear to be in a position to compel a rapid and early retreat of the Germans from that natural stronghold.

American divisions fighting between the Argonne forest and the Meuse river slowly but steadily moved ahead and seem to have won their objectives along that section of the front. Berlin reports that American attacks were repulsed, but the Germans regained some ground near Argonne forest.

German troops are being rushed from the Hindenburg line under attack by the Americans and it is probable that progress there will be very slow.

There are indications that Turkey will follow Bulgaria's example in giving up the war. Following the absolute defeat of her armies and the detection of Bulgaria, there would seem to be nothing so possible for that country. General Allenby's troops are reported to be two and a half miles from Damascus.

Desperate effort to keep Americans back with the American forces northwest of Verdun, Monday, Sept. 30.—Although it is apparent that the Germans are desperately trying to keep the Americans back as far as possible from the Kremlinde line from the Argonne to the Messill it is happening today that the enemy was weakening, notwithstanding the fury of his general resistance.

Fires behind the German line are taken as an indication that the enemy is burning supplies, while observers have reported a movement of transport vehicles, apparently well loaded, toward the north.

Bulgarian soldiers kill their officers in the region of Velea, Serbian troops Sunday severely defeated the Bulgarians near Charleville, six miles from the Bulgarian frontier. The Serbian official statement of Monday reports that the Bulgarian forces were cut into two parts.

OVERLOOKING NO OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A GETAWAY

By Associated Press.—Emperor William in a message to the fatherland party is quoted in an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company as saying: "I have the confident hope that the whole German people in these most serious times will resolutely gather around me and give their blood and sweat until the last breath for the defense of the fatherland against the shameful enemy plans."

Such a unanimous resolve to exist will and must, with God's help, succeed in breaking the enemy's will to war and secure for the fatherland the peace it is worthy of, among the people of the world.

GERMAN RESERVES BROUGHT FORWARD IN A VAIN EFFORT

By Associated Press.—LONDON, Oct. 1.—German reserves are being rushed into the battle between the Argonne forest and the Meuse river, where the Americans are engaged, according to a telegram from the Mail's correspondent on that front, writing on Monday afternoon. A new German division has been identified in the fighting and the enemy is offering the fiercest of resistance. He has apparently decided to make a stand on the Kremlinde line.

At the moment the telegram was written, the Americans were fighting what almost resembled a pitched battle amid the ravines, woods and meadows along that sector of the front. Every possible resource is being used by the enemy to prevent or at least delay the American advance.

COLLECTION PLACES FOR FRUIT PITS AND NUT SHELLS

The corner at Tenth and Indiana in front of the North Texas Furniture company, and the walk in front of the McCall and Orth Lodge Brothers agency on Ohio have been designated as centers for the collection of fruit pits and nut shells, for the manufacture of gas masks, and barrels bearing cards explaining their purpose will be located at those places by the conservation committee of the Red Cross, in charge of the collection.

Members of the committee are insisting that only pits and shells of those fruits and nuts specifically mentioned as needed be placed in the barrels. No other material can be used and the mixing of good and waste materials entails hours of unnecessary work. Cards on the barrels explain the materials desired, which include chestnuts, acorns, olive, prunes, cherry and plum pits, date seeds and butter nut, hickory nut, walnut and Brazil nut shells.

"Drover" like many other artists in their lines, was discovered. He was a born circus horse, but fate was unkind enough to start him among the common herd.

THE GERMAN AGENT AND THE FAKE PROMOTION.

What more effective work could a German agent in this country do than to promote a questionable and risky enterprise, take government bonds in payment for stock and throw these bonds upon the market for the purpose of depressing it and thus interfere with the government in selling future bond issues?

This is the kind of an enterprise that would be quite likely to appeal to a German agent. First, it would be an effective service to the fatherland; secondly, it would bring rich financial returns to the German agent, and it has been shown time and time again in the trials and exposures of German agents in this country that they sought financial advantage from their work.

Certainly a man who promotes an enterprise to mult innocent investors is anything but a patriot even if he is no German agent and the government is doing well to begin a scrutiny of all securities and stocks offered to the public. There is a general impression that all stock issues and securities must first receive the approval of the Capital Issues Committee before they can be offered, but such is not the case. It ought to be.

THE LANGUAGE THAT GERMANY CAN UNDERSTAND.

Several American soldiers carrying shot guns have been captured by the Germans. Germany claims that the use of shot guns is contrary to the Hague convention and has made a threat of reprisals against Americans. Germany's threat of reprisals was very promptly met with the statement that the United States now holds about 100 German prisoners to one American prisoner held by the Germans.

If the German government should carry out its threat in a single instance "says a reply made by Secretary Lansing, "it will be the right and duty of the United States to make such reprisals as will best protect the American forces, and notice is hereby given of the intention of the government of the United States to take such reprisals."

This is the kind of talk Germany can understand. German soldiers have learned by bitter experience that the Americans repay many fold for every outrage against an American soldier. Americans are fair fighters but when Fritz starts the "rough stuff" the Americans finish it.

NEW TYPES OF YELLOW DOGS.

Henry Irving Dodge, founder of the Anti Yellow Dog Society, has defined eight new types of the yellow dog species. The eight new types are:

- Anyone who shows disrespect to a Liberty Bond or Thrift Stamp sales man is a Yellow Dog.
- Anyone who unnecessarily uses gas oil on a gasless day is a Yellow Dog.
- Anyone who dishonestly claims exemption from the draft is a Yellow Dog.
- Anyone who grows about war taxes is a Yellow Dog.
- The rent pirate is a Yellow Dog.
- Anyone who adds to the burden by trying to make big profits out of the war is a Yellow Dog.
- Anyone who over-eats is a stupid Yellow Dog—he's cheating himself.
- All Yellow Dogs are contemptible, but the worst are those that hoard food.

DOLLARS AND DOLLARS.

At the recent convention of the American Bankers' association in Chicago the opinion was expressed that $300,000,000,000—Three hundred Thousand Millions—could be raised for the war in the United States, if necessary.

Why was it necessary to be so modest in estimating the financial power of the United States?

It was just as easy to say that Three Trillions were within the financial power of the United States.

To place such a financial task within our power it is only necessary to inflate the dollar sufficiently. Put cotton and bacon up to $5 a pound, wheat at $15 a bushel, railroad transportation at a dollar per ton per mile and wool at $6 a pound, to say nothing of common labor at $20 a day, and three trillions would be easy enough. But inflating dollars is not adding to the cotton bulk, the wheat bulk, the bacon bulk, the corn bulk, the coal and lumber bulk.

Inflating dollars is not adding to the physical energy of the nation or increasing its intelligence.

The usable wealth of this country is composed of products and the available power of this country lies in the intelligence and energy of the people.

The inflationists have gone stark crazy over the matter of dollars. They have without materially benefiting anybody alive vastly increased a war debt which will ultimately be two or three times the sum it really ought to be.

They have compelled the government to borrow three dollars to pay for products whose bulk hereafter will have to be magnified three times to pay the debt.

Or, to express the idea in terms of wheat, it will probably require three bushels of wheat after the war to pay the debt that the government has created to purchase one bushel.

Money is necessary instrumentally in winning the war, but fools have abused it, and the nation will have to pay the penalty hereafter.

Inflation has diminished the purchasing power of the money of the country and cut the power of the total bank credits almost in half. At a time when the country needs the maximum wealth of the people, the heaviest production of which they are capable, organized profiteering has weakened the dollar so that it can accomplish little more than half its usual task.

This sort of thing has not increased the wealth of the country nor of those who have brought such conditions about, and time will prove it to the satisfaction of even the most limited understanding of the country before many years shall have passed.

Our bankers are right, therefore, when they say there is practically no limit to the number of dollars countries can raise—at least, there is none so long as there are rapid presses and paper pulp is obtainable.

But there is a limit to the amount of coal that can be mined and transported, of iron that can be melted, of wheat and corn that can be produced, of cotton that can be grown, sun and woven, of animals that can subsist upon the feed products of the country, of tonnage that can be transported, of skill that can apply the processes of transmutation to raw products, and of iron, steel and intelligent labor, which after all, must make the progress and achievements of mankind.

No juggle with mathematics as we may, and multiply and inflate dollars as we will, and soar amid billions, hundreds of billions and trillions, the immutable fact remains that the energy of labor intelligently directed, and the products which that energy creates are sustaining our armies in the field and will sustain them, and these products and this energy and intelligence are vital.—Houston Post.

By Associated Press

"The battle was resumed this morning in the Cambrai-St. Quentin sector."

OFFICIAL WAS BEATEN UP BUT STILL ABLE TO FIGHT HERE

Italo is dead. It was not from pride nor to mortify anyone, but I could not take it. You see, for me to take that money would be like having sold my soul. I have given my soul.

When you have swallowed the lump in your throat go and by another bond, you will feel better.

BROTHERS IN SERVICE AT HOME TOGETHER

H. D. Morgan of Camp Bowie is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Morgan, and his brother, David L. Morgan, home from a U. S. destroyer for a short furlough. This is the first time both brothers have been at home for three years. The seaman, who is a first-class radio electrician, will leave for Boston tomorrow, but the soldier will remain here until Thursday for a visit with his parents.

She Gave Her Son

"To Capt. R. L.—I do not know how to write, Signor Captain, for when I was a girl there was no schools. My grandson is writing for me. I am the mother of Italo, your orderly. He had been buried by his companions and the priest has given him absolution. On the other hand how many poor Christians remain who are exposed to the wind, to the sun, or worse still, are the hands of savage beings who torment them."

"Was it you, Signor Captain, who gave my name to these gentlemen who came to bring me money because

If Only You Could Realize It All

Two million men have whispered sacred words of parting to mother, wife and children. Millions of hearts have ached, though a song was on their lips. Two million men, wonderfully like yourself—with the same affections, the same love of life, and with just as much to lose as you have—are fighting, or are going over to struggle in mud and blood, that you may be secure. Man! If you have a heart under your skin—and you have—haven't you?

Lend support to these men, Lend until it breaks you, Lend if you have to go short of bread, If only you could realize it all, It wouldn't be necessary to ask you to

Let's Make It Our Own!

MORALE will win the war. Morale---that spirit that makes men sing as they go, grin at pain, meet every duty cheerfully, and fight like heroes.

Whether it's driving a truck, tending the old goulash wagon, or fighting hand to hand in blood and mud, our boys meet it with American morale---the thing that will win the war.
