RECONSTRUCTION PROBLEMS ARE UP TO LEGISLATURE

Expected That Term Will Be Marked By An Unusual Degree Of Harmony.

SAYS 142D LOST MORE MEN THAN BALANCE OF THIRTY-SIXTH DIVISION

Sergeant Joe Jones, son of Judge and Mrs. J. P. Jones of this city, writes the following interesting letter to his sister at Waurika, Okla., a copy of which has been received by the family here. Besides the sister, Mrs. Jim E. Howard, to whom the letter was addressed, Sgt. Jones has two other sisters at Waurika, Mrs. C. A. Martin and Miss Hazel Jones. The letter is as follows:

My Dear Wilma: I received your letter of November 17th today, and certainly enjoyed it. Also received the money order enclosed and will use it to buy a big Christmas dinner in case we are where it is possible. Don't know whether Jim has received your letter or not, as he is located in another place some 3 miles away. I've not seen him in the last three or four days, but will go to Foggy tomorrow and will try and see him. You speak of having written me quite a number of letters—this is only the second I have received from you—but the others will show up, no doubt, as they are badly delayed sometimes. I received two letters from Evelyn and one from mama since we have been in Marolles that were dated back in September. I have also received letters from Hazel and one from Jack and will try to answer these soon.

I am sorry, indeed, that I caused you and mama any uneasiness regarding Jim, when I mentioned the fact that he stayed in our camp on the night of October 20th. I should have explained why he was there, which he never entered my head that you would think there was anything wrong with him. The battalion to which he was attached was relieved of the front line and placed in support position and he got permission to come over to the Supply Company to look for a trench mortar. He found the gun alright, but the trench mortar was something to eat, which he got. When he went back to the front the next morning I gave him two pounds of coffee, some jam and a five pound bucket of butter, which he said saved the lives of his squad and lieutenant in command. You see he belongs to Headquarters Company and that company is attached to each battalion and are not as well taken care of as the men belonging to the companies of that battalion. Of course, this applies only when they are in the field, as when they come out of the fight they go back to Headquarters Company. It was some days after I wrote on October 20th that Jim was slightly gassed with mustard gas. I think he sat down in a gas shell hole—either that, or a gas shell exploded near him in the last drive we made. He is now O. K. and looking well.

Jim a Good Soldier I am glad to say that the squad and he made a good soldier. I don't think I could pay him a better compliment. Strange as it may seem, I was never very uneasy about him. However, it was three days after the battle started before I heard from him. Out of the 38 men in the platoon, he was one of the 11 who came out of it—all others having been killed or wounded.

I am thankful that Roy didn't succeed in getting over here to take part in this war. The horrors of it will never be told on paper, and cannot be described as it really was. Sights that ordinarily would make one shudder from head to foot, are passed with-out notice. Human life is the cheapest thing they have—fed in like so many chips in the fire. I have slept in muddy shell holes by the side of a dead soldier, in trenches and in dugouts with them and never think anything of it, except to complain of the room they take up—some of them having been dead for days and weeks, as the French are not very prompt about burying their dead.

While the position of a Supply Company is not so dangerous as that of the boys in the front line, yet it is so dangerous that "your truly" never expected to come out of the first fight. We are subject to shell fire, both while in camp and going to and from the front and many times I have thought the next shell would have my address. These big shells don't have to hit you to get you, and when you hear one calling your name, it's time to get "really low," and be quick about it. I don't know of anyone that can get on the ground quicker than I can, and neither do I know of anyone who can dig a hole big enough to get in quicker than I. I'm GOOD with a pick and shovel.

When we first went to the front, the guide we had placed us too close to the front and right between two important roads, where the Germans had direct observation, and the only thing that saved us was a foggy morning. Early in the morning our breakfast time we decided it was too hot for us there and moved back about a mile on the morning of the famous Hindenburg line. Just south of Somme-Py. I didn't get away with the company, but stayed back with some property until some time it had cleared up and the bombardment was too heavy for the team to come back, so a dead Frenchman and I layed in a snug little trench until nearly dinner, or until the Germans got tired of shooting at that spot. When the wagons did come back, it was hardly possible for them to drive in on account of the shell holes—that spot of ground was certainly torn up. Had our company stayed there an hour longer we could get two or three men killed by our shell at our trench. These men, however, were Marines and had come over to get something to eat. Two of them were killed instantly when they died before we could get him to the hospital. After the first fight and we moved our position, we picked our place for the Supply Company and kept our observation of the enemy as much as possible.

The 142nd Infantry bore the brunt of the fight, lost more men than all the balance of the division, or, in other words, made a reputation for the whole division. Our killed and wounded was nearly 1,200, or about 40 per cent of our strength. Along with the horrors of this war, there are many humorous things that will never be forgotten. They probably didn't appear to us to be humorous at the time, but we spend much time laughing over them now.

We are well taken care of now—all the clothes we need, plenty to eat and a good warm place to sleep, but it rains all the time nearly. Never misses a day without raining and we seldom see the sun. We have nothing like the amount of sickness we had in camp here.

Just forgot about the Christmas presents. It's not likely we would have ever gotten them had you sent them, and there is nothing you could send that we really need, except some home-made candy and that wouldn't likely be good when it got here.

Several Hours Difference. If you are going to be thinking and talking about us when we eat Christmas dinner, you'll have to get up very early, as there is about seven hours difference in the time there and here, or in other words, 12 noon here is about 5 a. m. there. I don't have any idea when we will start home. Some think we will be included in the Army of Occupation, and others think we will start home about the first of the year. I hope the latter is correct, as I think I've seen enough of France and French guess, but we are all anxious to get home again. We have no room for complaint, however, as we will get

RETURNS TO AMERICA

MISS EMILLE GRIGGSEY.

Miss Emille Griggsey, ward of the late Charles T. Yerkes, traction magnate and the founder of the London railway tube system, has returned to America after an absence from this country of nearly nine years. Miss Griggsey would not discuss reports by cable that she had settled a $300,000 necklace in her will upon the child of an American actress who appeared recently in London.

"Just say for me," she said to a reporter "that I am proud to be an American and proud to what America has done in this war. It was essentially a matter of pride for an American to be in England during this war and to hear what the English people thought of us and of our achievements. Beyond that please say as little as possible about me."

home much sooner than we ever expected to.

We are at Louppy-Le-Petit, just north of Bar-Le-Duc, when the armistice was signed, and I tried five different days to cable mama that we were O. K., but wasn't successful in getting it off. I finally took it to Bar-Le-Duc myself and couldn't file it, but I am sure that by this time she has received my letters written since we left the front and know that we are alright. I wrote several letters home from Louppy-Le-Petit, but when we left there we started on a 14-day hike to this area and, of course, had no opportunity to write until we got here, which will cause another lapse in our mail.

Letters from home are a matter of first importance. All of us will quit a meal or anything else if there's a chance to get a letter, so you see the folks back home can't possibly write too many letters.

Write often—but I hope that your answer to this letter will not find me in France. Love to all. JOE M. JONES. 142nd Supply Co., A. E. F., France. COMMITTEEMAN FROM LOUISIANA NOT A NEGRO

URGES SOLUTION OF MISSISSIPPI VALEY PROBLEM

By Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—The Mississippi River barge line must be utilized to the fullest extent and advantage taken of the easy grade railroads connecting the Mississippi Valley with Gulf ports so that the valley will be enabled to hold its own in the competitive commercial and industrial struggle ahead, according to Walter M. Parker, general secretary of the New Orleans Association of Commerce, whose address featured the opening session today of the Mississippi Foreign Trade convention. Parker explained the transportation problems of the past and present and advocated a permanent organization of the Mississippi Valley business men to solve those of the future.

The convention is attended by nearly one hundred delegates from Mississippi valley cities, including Chicago, Omaha, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Kansas City, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Winona, Minn., Rockford, Ill., Louisville and Dallas, Orange, Houston and Laredo, Texas. Other speakers at today's session include John W. Walsh, chief counsel for the federal trade commission; T. C. Powell, member of the port and harbor facilities commission of the United States railroad administration and James E. Smith, president of the Mississippi Valley Waterways Association.

Wide Divergence Of Opinion As To Plan For Russia

Associated Press Staff Correspondent. LONDON, Dec. 15.—There is a wide divergence of opinion among English politicians and newspapers as to the attitude which the Entente powers should assume toward soviet Russia. On the one hand is the view expressed by Sir George Buchanan, British ambassador to Russia, who in a recent public speech urged that reinforcements be recruited on a voluntary basis and be immediately sent to check the bolsheviks. Sir George contended that the Allies must not desert Russia now and that they would be untrue to the cause of democracy if they did not put an end to the reign of bolshevism.

At the opposite pole is Ramsay MacDonald and other newspapers in the Manchester Guardian and London Daily News which call for the immediate withdrawal of all Entente forces and demand that Great Britain cease participation in military operations which they denounce as interference in Russian internal politics.

The majority of the press is generally non-committal and contents itself with printing Russian news and refraining from an expression of opinion pending consideration of Russian policy by the peace conference.

There appears to be a widespread unwillingness among Englishmen to support any policy which may involve a continuation of military action on a large scale unless it be clearly established that such action is necessary to safeguard the Entente victory. Nevertheless there seems to be a growing disposition in the press to regard the restoration of peace and order in Russia as a task which is necessary to insure the stability of central Europe.

This is especially true since the manifestations of Bolshevism in Germany and the attacks of the bolshevik upon Rastonia and other Russian territory evacuated by the Germans.

The Russian muddle is regarded here as one of the all-important subjects to be discussed at the Peace Conference, and the average Englishman seems content to let the allied representatives dispose of it without his advice.

AMUSEMENT

"BRINGING UP FATHER" IS COMING THIS WEEK

Though "Father" will always be the same despite what environment his creator, George M. Cohan, chooses to place him in, the fact remains that a change of scene is bound to make anything he says or does doubly interesting. We refer to the dear, lovable and always welcome old Irishman in "Bringing Up Father," the comics which have set the whole world laughing these many and merry years.

Manager Gus Hill first saw the success of placing the highly humorous cartoons upon the stage. This was about six years ago and ever since then "Father" has been the hero of such enjoyable and hilarious concoctions as "Father Abroad," "In Politics," etc. The present attraction, which comes to the Wichita Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, January 15th and 16th, with the customary matinee, is entitled "Bringing Up Father at Home." And here the word "Home" is not that it is the best of the series. The fun is patterned on new lines, running the gamut of ideas sure to be accepted original, diverting and thoroughly modern. In fact, an offering while combining ingredients sure to make an audience sit up and take notice, also contains materials, astute to find favor with any audience under any circumstances.

Fifteen beautiful women, talented, versatile, resourceful and vivacious, comprise a chorus said to be able to compete with any similar aggregation in the realm of stardom. Ensembles, song hits, specialties, sweet and catchy melodies, innovations, surprises, unique lighting effects and other features place this entertainment above the conventional. "Father" will be entrusted to the skill of Walter Vernon, "Mother" will be impersonated by Louise Earl, who has had the role before.

The offering is in three acts and from all accounts is a musical comedy triumph certain to cement Mr. Hill's reputation as a producer and discoverer of unusual attractions.

"LURE OF THE CIRCUS" SHOWING AT THE GEM

The scowling, officious ring master, the carefree broncho busting, trim athlete who mystifies thousands by his marvelous acrobatic feats, the ludicrous clown, the daring woman acrobat, the beautiful equestrienne—those personages of circus life seen every year by millions of men, women and children—have been "written in" by the Universal in its great master series, "The Lure of the Circus," with darling Eddie Polo and beautiful Eileen Sedgewick in the principal roles.

In this smashing portrayal of existence under the big white top at the Gem theater today patrons will see a motion picture that is not only unique because it is the first great circus serial of its kind ever produced but is without a rival in the depiction of hair-raising deeds of daring.

Men and women whose names have graced the rosters of the largest circus organizations in the world have been filmed in thrilling stunts that form a new chapter in the history of motion picture production. Besides Eddie Polo, "The Hercules of the Screen," and beautiful Eileen "Baby" Sedgewick, there are more than a score of performers who virtually take their lives in their hands every minute they are on the screen.

The absolute "best" in circus performance has been incorporated in "The Lure of the Circus," including an organization of men, women, animals and "outfit" that never before has appeared on film.

EMPRESS THEATRE PRESENTS "THE MAKE-BELIEVE WIFE"

Beautiful Lake Placid, in the Adirondacks Mountains in New York, was the background for many of the most charming scenes pictured in "The Make-Believe Wife." Billie Burke's new Paramount photoplay, which will be shown at the Empress theater today and tomorrow, "This is a rollicking light comedy in which Miss Burke displays her talents as a comedienne to the best possible advantage.

In the story Miss Burke portrays the role of a young society woman who is engaged to a lawyer. She is hostess to a house party at her home in the Adirondacks when she and a young athletic society man stray off into the mountains together and are lost. They are seeking their bearings when a storm comes up and they are obliged to spend the night in a cabin which they provisionally discover.

This unusual situation is made the pretext for a demand upon the couple to wed, after they have been found by a searching party. They agree to this, for each secretly loves the other despite the fact that they are promised in other quarters. After their marriage the groom hastens away to China, so as to permit his bride to obtain a divorce. But through the substitution of suitcases this plan goes awry and the couple are later reunited under dramatic and highly amusing circumstances, as the sequel proves.

Miss Burke is splendidly supported in this production by her leading man being David Powell, a favorite screen player. The picture was adapted for the screen by Adrian Gil-Spear and directed by John Stuart Robertson.

The Sandman Story For To-Night

THE LITTLE STICK'S STORY.

It was only a tiny Little Stick. But it set out in life with a resolve to be useful.

Up above it towering to the clouds was the huge elm. The Little Stick gazed upward with awe.

Here in the town, in the side of the dam, about a third of the way to the top, was a tiny hole.

It leaves your full attention to the sewing. Does the work faster and better than you can by foot power. You rest while you sew.

No matter what make your machine, this little motor will run it. No attaching to do—it simply sets on the top of your machine and the little rubber pulley engages the fly-wheel.

OIL DEVELOPMENT

BURKBURNETT HAS HUNDRED AND SIX PRODUCING WELLS

TOTAL OF 106 NOW PUTTING OIL IN PIPE LINES IS LATEST REPORT.

MANY ARE NEAR SAND

Estimated That Number Will Be Increased a Hundred Per Cent Within Thirty Days.

Last week 106 wells on the Burk Burnett township pool put oil into the various pipe lines. Three months ago there were not more than a dozen wells, if that many, that were producing. In a month's time, with favorable conditions, the present number of producers will be doubled, there being more than 90 wells reported in drilling report as nearest the sand. What the next three months will bring no one can predict, as the pool's production seems to be limited only by the pipe line facilities. Experienced oil men who have watched the development of Burk Burnett have been frank to admit that the pool has already far exceeded their expectations, both in extent, and in productive capacity, and where three months ago they predicted that the oil sand would be drained in a short time, now they only smile when asked about the future, and continue to plan for further extensive developments.

SENATOR JOHNSON WOULD WITHDRAW MEN FROM RUSSIA

CAVE UNITED STATES HAS NO RUSSIAN POLICY IN INVITING DISASTER.

VARDAMAN TAKES HAND

Defends Bolsheviks While Disclaiming Approval of Lawlessness or Violence.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—A resolution to record the Senate as favoring withdrawal of American soldiers from Russia "as soon as practicable" was introduced today by Senator Johnson of California with an assertion that the United States government evidently had no Russian policy and was inviting disaster.

Senator Johnson asked that his resolution remain before the Senate for the discussion and disposal later this week. He charged that the resolution he introduced a month ago demanding official announcement of the government's Russian policy had been "hotted up" by the foreign relations committee and that he proposed to get action on the new one now offered.

Says Disaster Is Invited. "It is obvious," said Senator Johnson, "that there have been no policy in Russia today. We are not intervening in sufficient force to be of any consequence and we're not staying out. We are simply inviting disaster."

Senator Vardaman of Mississippi followed with a resolution that the Russian bolsheviks, disclaiming approval of lawlessness or violence, he said that when all facts were known there would be mitigating circumstances found for the bolsheviks.

Russian bolshevism, said Senator Vardaman, was caused by rich oppressors and famine and he felt pity at "patient, ignorant bolshevik."

Lieut. Clark To Remain in City With W. D. Cline

Lieutenant Clifton W. Clark, who was the Call Field gas officer, is among the Call Fielders who have decided to locate in Wichita Falls. Lieut. Clark received his honorable discharge on Sunday at St. Joseph, Missouri. Clark took up his work with W. D. Cline and associates, as a geologist. Mr. Clark had for several years prior to entering the service been connected with large Oklahoma and Kansas oil interests and has surveyed the greater part of the mid-continent field and the California fields as well, but has never worked in Texas before. He expects to find his work in this section very interesting.

Lieutenant Coates, on the staff at the post hospital, received his discharge today at St. Joseph, Missouri. He expects to locate in Wichita Falls, or Burkburnett. Lieut. Coates was in the military department who went to Burkburnett. Lieut. Coates was the military doctor who went to Burkburnett just before Christmas to take charge of the relief work among the oil field workers in the tented section, during the influenza epidemic. He has been urged to locate in Burkburnett, and is considering this, it is understood.

Thirty-Six Men Receive Discharge From Call Field

Thirty-six enlisted men, of the various squadrons of Call Field left Saturday for a demobilization camp in Massachusetts, these being the first installment of enlisted men to leave Call Field. In the process of demobilizing the field, another party of thirty-six left today for New York.

The men are being given their discharge papers on leaving Call Field, the papers being partially filled out here, to save time at the demobilization center. Captain Rooney, Call Field's adjutant explained, but the final discharge is not given until the camp is reached. All men are sent to camp within at least 350 miles of their homes, this being the policy of the army to discharge all men as close to their homes as possible.

OKLAHOMA BRIDGE COMPANY HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

Among the new companies organized to operate the local oil fields is the Oklahoma Bridge Company with a capital stock of $50,000 and of which J. Fred Smith is president and Geo. M. Crank secretary and treasurer.

The company has acreage located 2500 feet northeast of the Burk Bridge Company well and it is announced that operations will begin at an early date.

Mr. Johnson states, and from the acceptances that were received, the membership campaign, as well as the report of the work of the entire year will be contained in the secretary's annual report.

AT THE SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY OF THE TRANSPORT NORTHERN PACIFIC

The work of rescuing the soldier heroes from the transport Northern Pacific, now held fast on a bar off Fire Island, was continued with renewed vigor. When the work of rescue began, about ten o'clock in the morning, the guards at first employed only their lifeboat, rowing it out through the surf to the beached ship, which lay then not more than two hundred yards from the shore line of Fire Island. The first who were thus brought ashore were the seventeen women, all Red Cross nurses returning home from their overseas duties. Thus the life savers maintained the time honored tradition of the sea. There were no children on board the transport, but the women were those first assured of safety. In the accompanying pictures No. 1 shows the Coast Guard launching a lifeboat; No. 2 depicts the Coast Guard wading ashore with rescued soldiers from capsized lifeboat; No. 3 is the launch from the United States steamship Columbia trying to reach the transport (taken just before launch capsized); No. 4, women's canteen on the beach.

Market Report

Cotton Market

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 16 to 28 points in response to relatively firm cables but quickly weakened under a renewal of scattered liquidation and southern and Wall street selling. The drastic cut reported in some of the leading lines of beached goods seemed to encourage the selling movement and before the end of the first hour active mowing were some 15 to 20 points net lower. March having sold off from 26.17 to 25.50 and May from 25.95 to 24.65. The market remained very nervous and unsettled during the entire morning. There was scattered covering on the decline and some trade buying but each slight bulge seemed to meet increased offerings and the market was about 35 to 44 points net lower around midday with March selling at 25.62 and May at 24.43. Rumors of drastic cuts in dry goods prices caused heavy selling in the trading up to noon the net decline was widened to 60 to 65 points. After selling off to 25.54 for March and 24.35 for May or about 45 to 50 points under Saturday's closing, trading became less active and there were rallies of some 25 to 30 points on covering and buying for a reaction. Cotton closed steady three points up to 28 points down net.

New York Stocks

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The usual recent mixture of grains and losses attended the quiet opening of today's stock market, the trend being the more conflicting from the fact that some issues of the same class moved in opposite directions. Steels, sugars, leathers and oils yielded from fractions to two points, whereas shippings, tobaccos, coppers and fertilizers rose correspondingly. Rails again were extremely dull at very slight changes. Selling was resumed during the noon hour with shippings and oils reacting one to three points under moderate pressure. U. S. Steel also forfeited most of its gain and Liberty's first and second four per cent bonds recorded new minimums at 92.60 and 92.84 respectively.

Grain Market

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Corn showed decided weakness today, influenced by large receipts and by prospect of Argentine competition. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2 to 3/4 lower, with January 11.27 1/2 to 11.30 and May 11.29 to 11.32, were followed by a selling of a rally but then by a final fresh break. Oats declined with corn, they opened 1/2 to 1/4 lower at 92.00 to 89.00, and reacted a little but then sagged lower than before. Provisions reflected the weakness of grain. Short covering and commission house buying finally absorbed the offerings on the decline and brought about a temporary uptick. The close however was weak 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 net lower with January 13.75 and May 13.29 to 13.25. Lard developed relative strength later. The firmness of the staple was

Body of Oil Man Killed in Accident Sent To Electra

Losing his balance after he stepped into the elevator at the Westland Hotel about 10 o'clock Saturday night, G. Callens, well known citizen of Electra, was almost instantly killed when his body was crushed against the balcony. According to witnesses, Mr. Callens lost his footing as he stepped into the elevator and fell in a position that part of his body was hanging outside the door when the elevator started up and before it could be brought to a stop he had been wedged against the balcony, which struck him across the shoulders, smashing his chest and spine. He was given medical attention immediately but did not regain consciousness. The elevator was driven by Harry Kirley. Mr. Callens had been a resident of Electra for several years and was well known in local oil fields. He had been drilling recently for the Magnolia Oil Company and was on his way from the Burkburnett fields, where he had been making preparations to start a well, to his home at Electra when he stepped over here for a few hours Saturday evening. The body was taken in charge by the H.H. Undertaking company and sent to Electra early Sunday morning for burial. The man was 44 years old and survived by a wife and four children.

PINK BOLL WORM IS FOUND IN NEW AREA

By Associated Press.
HOUSTON, TEX., Jan. 13.—Another pink boll worm infestation has been found in the cotton fields of Texas, according to information given out by W. D. Hunter, member of the federal horticultural board, in charge of pink boll worm work in Texas. The most recent discovery of the infestation is in western Texas, more than 400 miles from the area released from quarantine for the cultivation of cotton under government supervision. Little more than a month ago, which is accepted as evidence that western Texas infestation has no connection with that of south Texas, but that it originated from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. Another feature in connection with the situation is that the section of the country in which the pink boll worms are found includes only a small acreage devoted to the cultivation of cotton, and, by reason of the isolated location, will be easily handled, Mr. Hunter states.
The point in the section of the state where the infestation was recently found, which is nearest to the former non-cotton zone of south Texas, is Boquillas, Brewster county, in the Big Bend section of the Rio Grande valley. From Boquillas to Sandy Point, Brazoria county, the next point of the formerly quarantined area of the state, is more than 400 miles, direct air line.

PLAN TO SYSTEMATIZE THE STATE DEPARTMENTS

By Associated Press.
AUSTIN, TEX., Jan. 13.—Should the legislature adopt the recommendations of the legislative investigating committee as to the "legislative department" of the state government there will be a number of radical changes from the system of lack of system which, it is said, has prevailed in previous sessions. The committee, after proper investigation, finds "a lack of proper system of bookkeeping, the printing of more journals than are used, the payment of excessive prices for material and the employment in the Senate of a mailing clerk and assistants and a notarial clerk and assistant that are deemed unnecessary." The committee would also confine the disbursement of postage stamps only to members of both houses.

JACKRABBIT MAY BECOME POPULAR ARTICLE FOOD

By Associated Press.
DALLAS, TEX., Jan. 13.—With eggs selling around a dollar a dozen, and chickens a couple of dollars apiece, the long eared Texas jackrabbit has come into prominence as an article of diet. Jackrabbits abound over the west Texas plains but heretofore they were considered undesirable for human consumption. Now, however, there has, probably through the food conservation efforts due to the war, come a rather brisk demand for these animals.
The Dallas district freight traffic committee has filed application for transit privileges on the rabbit in car load lots from Texas to interstate points.
A hearing on the application will be given some time after January 18, it is said.

Drillers & Producers Oil Co.

CAPITALIZATION $95,000, PAR VALUE $1.00 FULLY PAID AND NON-ASSESSABLE

This is your last chance to obtain this PREMIER INVESTMENT at $1.00 per share. Only $10,000 shares of Drillers & Producers are left for sale at this low figure, and if you want your share of this small block, you will have to be on the jump for they are going fast.

The holdings of the company consist of an oil and gas lease—hold estate in and to seventy-five acres of land described as beginning at a point four thousand and two feet east from the southwest corner of the S. A. & M. G. R. Co., Survey No. 1 in Wichita County, Texas, thence north two thousand four hundred and sixty one feet, thence east thirteen hundred twenty seven feet, thence south two thousand four hundred and sixty one feet, thence west to the point of beginning.

STOP A MINUTE and figure. Our neighbors have brought in big wells of 1000 and 1200 bbls. flow, by going to the deep sand, WHERE WE ARE GOING. Why shouldn't we do the same, drilling within less than a half mile on the same strata and same formations? We want to pay you DIVIDENDS. We want dividends on OUR MONEY THAT WE ARE INVESTING, as well. That is why we are going after the deep wells—BIG PRODUCTION. We don't want to fool ourselves, nor you, by bothering with shallow wells. We intend to thoroughly develop this property, by placing 15 deep wells on the 75 acres. We will take care of shallow wells, if they produce better than 35 to 50 barrels per day, but if not, we will not waste our time on them.

The first $100,000 that is taken in from production, net, will be set aside for dividends in order that you might receive all your money back and have a profit. 50% of the net production after that will go into the dividend fund, and 50% for future developments.

We expect to own and have in operation at least six drill rigs, by June 1st. If we never get any oil out of our wells when drilled, you can figure how easily we can make money to pay big dividends, drilling wells for the other fellow. That is why we are going to own our own rigs, to guard against the most remote conditions. We have already secured a contract for 12 deep wells. Our material is being rushed as fast as possible, and with the continuance of favorable weather, we should be drilling before February 1st, for we have one of our rigs now standing in the yard at Wichita Falls, ready to be delivered, and other equipments ordered.

Read a few facts and figures that will give you some conception of how we can pay you handsome dividends. As we forestated we are going after large production by drilling deep wells. We are told that the price of oil in this particular part of the field is now $2.45 per bbl. We will figure off the 45 cents for one-eighth Royalties and expenses, and figure $2.00 per bbl. net to the company. At the rate of a 1000 bbl. well per day at $2.00 per bbl. net would be $60,000 per month, and $120,000 in two months. With 60,000 to 70,000 shares of our stock sold—Par value $1.00, you can see that with a two months run, we could pay you almost $200.00 for each $100.00 invested and still leave you retaining your valuable interest in the company, as a part owner in every asset. We'll cut the 1000 bbl. well into two and make it 500 bbls. per day, which figured on the same basis would be $30,000 per month and four months will give you the $120,000 to be divided among the few share holders. We will figure even lower than that, a 300 bbl. well, or $700 per day which is $21,000 per month, and a three months run would figure over an 80% return on the number of shares we intend to sell. And after all, we rob no man—only pierce MOTHER EARTH.

With sane and sound management such as we have, being well experienced in the oil business, and able to take advantage of every opportunity, we believe we can make this company, one, among the biggest payers that has ever been launched in any oil field—especially with the high price of oil. The oil business is like all other business, it calls for experience. We contend that no blacksmith can successfully run a drug store and fill prescriptions.

The above data will give you an idea of the reason Mr. L. Johns, President of our company, personally guarantees to refund every dollar that anyone puts into this company, on their demand within 30 days of purchase date, and pay interest at 10%! If you are not satisfied after thoroughly investigating. Remember that this does not mean that I will return your money after drilling for 3 or 4 months. It is the conclusive guarantee that the company will stand the most rigid investigation.

There is not a share of promotion stock in this company, and it is co-operative all the way through.

ONLY 10,000 shares left for sale at $1.00—avail yourself! The same stock will go to $2.50 per share on or before February 1st.

COURTYARD FILLED WITH SPARTACANS FOLLOWING ATTACK

MANY ARE KILLED AND 300 ARE CAPTURED BY LOYAL TROOPS.

IMPATIENT AT DELAY

Three Thousand Troops March Into Berlin From Suburb Southwest Of The City.

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Jan. 12.—Loyal troops have carried by storm the Buexenstein printing plant where the Kreuz Zeitung is printed. This building is in the vicinity of the one occupied by the Vorwarts and occupation of it by the bolsheviks had rendered the whole quarter unsafe. Many citizens were killed and wounded recently by shots fired from the windows of this building.

The capture of the Vorwarts building was carried out by approximately 500 loyal troops. They first destroyed an entrenchment in front of the building, consisting of rolls of printing paper behind which two machine guns had been installed. Two shots from a mine thrower swept away the whole fortification with the gun crew.

The courtyard was filled with dead and wounded and 300 prisoners, including a number of Russians, were taken. Among the prisoners was a man understood to be the bolshevik agent Chevinski. Many defenders were killed and several wounded. The front of the building was badly damaged and part of the plant was wrecked, but the presses were undamaged.

Loyal Troops Welcomed. Three thousand loyal troops marched today from Lichterfelde, a suburb southwest of the city. They were received by the citizens with rejoicing and even tears. It was precisely such a reception as would be given soldiers arriving to relieve a city occupied by an enemy.

To the Associated Press the soldiers expressed their indignation against the Spartacans. All of them appeared to be impatient for a fight, having volunteered for duty in the city. Today's arrivals were only the vanguard of others encamped around Berlin.

A Pretty Complexion Is a Women's Chief Charm

Every woman appreciates the value of a good complexion, and she should know how to protect it against the attacks of wind or weather.

During the wintry months, wind and cold play havoc with delicate skin, causing it to chap and roughen.

Something is needed to aid nature in the preservation and restoration of the delicate tissue.

CREME-DE-TREKO

Is a skin tonic and food that builds up broken down tissue and restores natural circulation which is required to keep the skin healthy. It will quickly soothe, soften, and heal irritated face and hands. Being antiseptic, it destroys all parasites that cause skin blemishes.

out the followers of Dr. Karl Liebknecht in their own way. One of the officers who led the attack on the Vorwarts building said: "We could have done this days ago but the government hesitated to give us a free hand. Many soldiers who came to Berlin to clean out the bolsheviks got tired of waiting day after day and refused to serve any longer." Dr. Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, one of his chief lieutenants, are still very reticent as to the situation.

INTERESTING STORY OF ENEMY SPY WORK

By Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13.—An interesting story of enemy spy work is told by Frank H. Gaskill, assistant chief of the Protective League, which rendered service during the war. The organization, Mr. Gaskill relates, was responsible for the internment of a man caught spying out dangerous messages with a triphammer he was operating in a big industrial plant on the Delaware River. The messages were first detected by a telegraph operator in Ualmyra, N. Y. He caught the hamper spring on the "Troop ship moving tomorrow morning."

The telegrapher notified the government authorities who caught the triphammer operator signaling: "Raid on fishing fleet complete surprise."

This was several hours before the news dispatches brought word of the sinking of a fishing fleet by German submarines off New England. The triphammer expert was found to be a former telegraph operator. Mr. Gaskill said the mystery of where the operator got his news or to whom he was signaling was never solved.

AMERICAN TROOPS READY TO SUPPORT POLISH DIVISION

By Associated Press. PARIS, Sunday, Jan. 12.—America has informed the Allied governments, according to the Temps, that it is ready to send an American expeditionary corps to Poland. This force, the newspaper states, would be able to "at least double the support given by two Polish divisions to be sent from the western front and enable the Poles to victoriously resist the bolsheviks."

In discussing today's meeting on the supreme inter-Allied council the Temps says that while the conditions to be laid down for the renewal of the armistice between the Allies and Germany will include virtually all the discussion, the sending of military assistance to Poland also was taken up.

May Trade Food For Use of Ships To Transport Men

By Associated Press. PARIS, Sunday, Jan. 12.—American and British representatives will hold a conference with German admiralty authorities at Trossen on Wednesday for the purpose of acquiring possession of German and Russian passenger ships for the transportation of troops. The United States will be represented by W. N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board and Admiral W. S. Benson.

It is proposed that America give Austria and Germany food for the ships. It is planned that the British will get smaller ships for the return of troops to Australia and Canada, while America will have the big boats, which will include virtually all the Hamburg American liners, including the Imperator. If this arrangement becomes effective, it will increase the flow of troops to America about seventy thousand per month. This will make a total capacity of shipping approximately 11,000 men each month.

Time Is Extended To Wednesday To Pay Motor Taxes

Because it has been impossible for all automobile owners to pay the 1919 tax and secure the new seals, Chief of Police Fred Smith announced this morning that the time allowed for these taxes to be paid has been extended to Wednesday. After this date every car found in the city without the 1919 seal, which is proof that the tax has been paid, will be picked up by the police and charges filed against the owners in city court.

YOU MEN WHO PAYS THE FAMILY SHOE BILLS

Tramping 18 miles a day, Mr. H. M. Foreman, a mail carrier of Allentown, Pa., found that shoes with ordinary soles last about one month. But he says a pair of Neolin-soled shoes gave him more than nine months of service, in which time he walked over 4,000 miles. His experience shows how you may save shoe money by providing your family with Neolin-soled shoes. Neolin gives extra wear where other shoes wear out quickest.

A five passenger Chevrolet, belonging to Miss Eugenia Stator, was reported missing to the police this morning. Miss Stator ran the car into a garage on Ohio street late Sunday afternoon and left it there in charge of two young men who offered to fix it for her. The boys did not work at the garage but assisted Miss Stator in getting the car from the street into the garage and then offered to repair it for her, telling her they worked at a local dry goods store. She called at the garage this morning and the car as well as the boys doing the work, were missing.
