

LAUNCH CAMPAIGN HERE TONIGHT FOR ARMENIAN RELIEF

ALONZO E. WILSON WILL SPEAK AT M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH, TENTH AND LAMAR.

QUOTA IS 50,000 DOLLARS

Many Cities Are Subscribing in Excess of the Amount Designated, Is Report.

"Dallas and Fort Worth have taken up the Armenian and Syrian Relief Campaign and started things off in their county with a boom, and after being in Wichita Falls only a few hours I am convinced that this city, though up to now it has not organized nor undertaken any concerted effort to raise funds for the worthy cause, will do as well as Dallas and Fort Worth. In fact I am informed that Wichita Falls reputation is to outstrip every one, and I'm hoping that it will do so again."

Alonzo E. Wilson, director of speaking for the American Committee for Relief in the Near East, here to speak tonight in behalf of the Armenian and Syrian sufferers, expressed his confidence this morning that Wichita Falls would quickly organize and raise the amount which has been asked though at present no organization has been attempted. Mr. Wilson has just come from Dallas and Fort Worth, where his lecture, which will be delivered tonight at the M. E. Church, South, corner of Tenth and Lamar, marked the opening of the big campaign in those cities. Dallas was given a quota of $25,000 and promptly pledged itself to raise $10,000 this week. Mr. Wilson states, and has already started after the money with a vim that assures success. Fort Worth will raise $40,000 also this week.

DOCTORS SAY CALOTABS ARE BEST FOR FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Perfect Calomel That is Free From Nausea and Danger of Salivation.

Physicians and druggists claim that the great epidemic of influenza has conclusively demonstrated that the quickest cure for a cold and the best preventive of influenza and pneumonia is to keep the liver active so that the digestive organs may be in perfect condition. For this purpose Calotabs, the new nauseaseless calomel that is freed from the sickening and salivating effects, is the most thorough and dependable as well as the most agreeable laxative.

Calotabs have the special advantage of not making the patient sick and weak, as they are free from the nauseating and griping qualities and do not upset the digestion and appetite. One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Sold by all druggists and your money back if you are not glad you got them.—(adv.)

busy in Wichita Falls," Mr. Wilson said, "these busy people are prosperous and in their prosperity should not forget those unfortunates who are not able to be self supporting, and who must look to America as their only possible hope of life. This is the third year that Armenia and Syria have come to us to be fed, and to have life maintained in their bodies and we must not fail them now. Mr. Hoover is now in Palestine and he sends the following cablegram, on the urgency of the situation, as affects the Armenian and Syrian relief work:

"Armenian-Syrian relief campaign becomes increasingly acute. Flight of Armenia and Syria is especially distressing because nearly everything done for them must be charity, there being no established governments to give obligation for payment. A systematic disintegration of their agriculture and industry has been carried on for four years. The most heroic effort and sacrifice will have to be made by the friends of these people if they are to be restored to their homes and enabled to support themselves independently."

Director of Speaking. Mr. Wilson's task is to raise $11,500,000 in the central section of the United States, comprising 19 states of which he is director of speaking. Already many of the states are at work on their quotas, he said, and some have raised more than 100 per cent of the amount requested. Ohio has raised 112 per cent of the amount asked. The city of Cleveland alone has raised three quarters of a million dollars, while the quota was only $450,000. Connecticut was asked for only $600,000 and has already raised more than $1,000,000, he says. The committee is expecting great things from Texas, and the Texas headquarters likewise is expecting great things from Wichita Falls, which has such a splendid record for accomplishments in this sort of work, Mr. Wilson stated.

World is Familiar. The whole world is familiar in a general way with the atrocities that have been committed against Armenia and Syria during the years of the great world war. Tonight Mr. Wilson is going to picture the real conditions in the suffering countries and explain why America is the only hope of the starving women and children, and the few men that the unspcakable Turk has left. The lecture is free to the public, and every man, woman and child in Wichita Falls who is interested in the cause of humanity is urged to attend, and to pledge their assistance in raising Wichita Falls quota of the fund to keep the peoples of the two countries alive for the year 1919.

DIRECTORS NOT EXPECTED TO MEET ON TUESDAY

There will probably be no meeting of the chamber of commerce tomorrow. President R. E. Huff is in Austin with Clint Wood, representing Wichita Falls on the committee appearing before the State Highway Commission in the interest of road improvements; Vice-president J. A. Kemp is in the capital city attending a meeting of the board of regents of the University of Texas, and Secretary Porter A. Whaley also is out of town.

CAPT. O. B. KIEL.

Captain O. B. Kiel, who enlisted here about eighteen months ago, and who is now Surgeon in Chief of the Air Service of Italy, has been decorated with the Chevalliers Cross of the Crown of Italy for his faithful and efficient work in service. During the entire time Capt. Kiel has held his present position he has not lost a man from sickness. This splendid record aided in winning for him the same honor which has been bestowed upon Dr. Joseph A. Duana, the famous nerve specialist, who is now head of all the base hospitals in Italy.

Recent Instance Of Reduced Rent In Wichita Falls

Every now and then some writer calls attention to the "meanest man in the world." Shucks! that's easy; but, pray tell, who's the kindest man in the world? The Times has found him: The kindest man in the world is a local real estate dealer who today decreased, lowered, lessened the rent of one of his tenants. It's the truth; that really man chopped his tenant's rent from $40 a month to $30, a performance that will stand in the history of Wichita Falls as an unparalleled and that will be a white mark on said really man's scutcheon clear to the minute that St. Peter passes him through the pearly gates. No names are necessary for kindness and modesty go hand in hand. But the occurrence is a reality, the tenant is an employe of the Wichita Falls broom company and the house in question stands not so very far from Denver street, and close to the Call Field car line.

Mrs. Prichard of Philadelphia Dies While Visiting City

Mrs. Mae Thureson Prichard, wife of Ira C. Prichard of Philadelphia, died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hawborne, 1110 Denver street, early Sunday morning. Mr. Prichard of Philadelphia, Logan & Company, publishers of New York and Philadelphia, came here on business and brought Mrs. Prichard that she might see the wonders of the oil section in Western Texas, but she was ill upon her arrival here ten days ago and went immediately to her room which she never left. Her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Thureson, came this morning from Las Vegas, N. M. A short service will be held at Hill's Chapel at 10:30 Tuesday morning, after which her body will go with the family back to Mr. Prichard's home in Philadelphia.

Checks Presented For Prompt Work Recovering Auto

Constable Ike Parnell of Electra was here on business today. While here Mr. Parnell was presented with a check for $25 by L. E. Cowling in appreciation for his work in connection with the recovery of Mr. Cowling's automobile which had been stolen.

Mr. Cowling has also given a check to Sheriff McFall for $25 and accompanying the check was a letter warmly commending Mr. McFall for his quick and efficient work.

WILLARD MEETS TEX RICKARD TO PLAN FOR FIGHT

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Jess Willard, champion heavyweight, who is matched to fight Jack Dempsey for the title on July 4 next, was here today to meet Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, who is expected to arrive from New York during the day.

Willard said he had no idea where the fight would take place, but that he would even be willing to go to South America if necessary to find a suitable battle ground.

Mrs. Sam Sparks is here from Austin for a two weeks visit with her husband, whose business interests are centered in Wichita Falls and Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparks are at 2211 Tenth street. Mrs. O. T. Bacon is in Fort Worth visiting relatives. J. W. Tobolowsky, 501 Burnett, received a telegram Saturday night notifying him of the death of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Bacon at Dallas. He left on the earliest train to be present at the funeral service.

PASTOR BARNES' SUNDAY SUBJECT IS PROFITEERING

DECLARES CITY IS MAKING HISTORY THAT WILL INJURE ITS REPUTATION.

'THOU SHALT NOT STEAL'

Says Dishonesty Should Not Be Permitted to Enter Commercial Life.

'Up to a few months ago Wichita Falls had a name for hospitality and open-heartedness to be coveted, and she was known everywhere for her far play. Today her history is being written in another volume, and its curses and epithets will be heard from Maine to California and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf.'

In a sermon delivered Sunday in the First Methodist Church, South, the Rev. S. A. Barnes thus epitomized the advertising that will be given to this city if profiteering in room and house rents continues, and if dishonesty is permitted to enter the commercial life of Wichita Falls.

'I am pleading for a square deal for our city and for the people in it,' he declared. 'The business of the city is honest and legitimate business. You have my message, from the word of God, it's one of the cardinal laws of Heaven and violation of it is sin—and sin produces death. If you can keep the Golden Rule and violate this law, go ahead. If you enforce this message, stand by it, and stand for a hold-up, keep your word.'

Using as his text, 'Thou Shalt Not Steal,' Dr. Barnes in his opening remarks sketched briefly the purpose of the Ten Commandments and their relationship to man's life. Suggests Cause of Unrest. 'The reason this day is called with strikes, lockouts and general unrest, he asserted, is because duties are sought to be settled on an unjust, unholly basis. When capital seeks to squeeze and enslave labor, and labor seeks to dictate the policy of a man's business, both are assuming rights contrary to the principles of true brotherhood; no fraternity or brotherhood has long existed which excluded God and His law from recognition.'

'Stealing has a multiplicity of methods. I am going to deal frankly with these methods regardless of who is guilty. If you are, then quit, if you are not help me to get others to quit. So far as deliberate stealing with no pretense of pay is concerned I am sure there is comparatively little of that here. With our congested conditions, with folk here from every state in the Union, naturally some crooks will drift in with the crowd. But in the last few months there have been only one or two open hold-ups, and they have received publicity. There have been other hold-ups, however, of which the general public has been ignorant—and these hold-ups have been under the pretense of legitimate business.'

Should Be Exposed. 'During the epidemic of influenza here, a dozen in the morgue, and there were no coffins. If undertakers had taken advantage of the demand, and had charged four prices for one coffin, you would have been up in arms. The time has come in our city when the pulpit no longer should be silent on some subjects; the pulpit should cry out against the unfair and dishonest practices of cheap, exorbitant prices for rooms and rents. If it's wrong and unlawful for banks to charge 25 per cent interest, then it is wrong for you to charge 50 per cent for your rooms and house rent. Do you call renting a $20 room for $50 legitimate? Do you call renting a $200 house for $75 and $100 a month honest? You say folk have to have them—all the more reason why you should not take advantage of the demand and the necessity. You say they're here to make money, and that they have it—and to me it seems you are also, that you are determined to get it any way you can, and to use a common expression, to get it while the getting's good.'

'You kick about the high cost of living, and then you help to lay the burden on your town, demoralizing the public schools, and putting school teachers out of work—and had it not been for the goodness of heart of a few who took the teachers in your schools would have been closed. Stranger Will Remember. 'These strangers will soon be gone, but they will remember you all through the years; not because you welcomed them, but because you held them up.'

'And this thing of holding back oil wells in order to buy up stock; retaining information from people; putting their money in them; keeping stock below par for selfish gain—this and other business trickery is not only dishonest but brazen hypocrisy and deceit. And the man who does it ought to be in the penitentiary.'

'Play the game if you want to; make money, but play it fair and retain your integrity; for this you must depend upon when the wells are dry.'

CUT YOUR SHOE BILLS 'Heretofore, soles never lasted me more than three months, because my work keeps me walking constantly on cement. But I have worn a pair of Neolin Soles now for more than three months, and judging from their present condition, they will last three times as long.' So says G. L. Perry, manager of an automobile organization in Geneva, N. Y.

This extra wear given by Neolin Soles not only makes the shoes soled with them cheaper by the year than other shoes, but the price you pay in the first place is sometimes less than for shoes of only ordinary wear.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for every member of the family. Try these long-wearing, comfortable and waterproof soles on your worn shoes too. All good repair shops have them. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., of Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Prisoners Are Not Wanted By Sheriff At 50 Cents a Day

Sheriff Keys of Wilbarger county declined with thanks the proposal of federal officers that he take fourteen federal prisoners convicted at the term just closed here to his jail to serve out their jail terms. The government allows only fifty cents a day for the board of prisoners. Mr. Keys could not figure where he would break even on that arrangement. The Wilbarger county jail is now empty and to have made it habitable for this number of prisoners would have required several hundred dollars expenditure, so Mr. Keys decided neither himself nor his county could afford to accept the prisoners.

Tax Collector Not Responsible for Tax Paid By Bad Check

The tax assessors begin their work this week taking assessments and state that owing to crowded conditions and the limited time allowed them to do their work they must insist that the property owners have their list ready for them when they may make as good time as possible. They have always been glad to show every courtesy to the public in waiting, even calling the second time, but the 'boom' conditions this year forces them to speed up their work and they trust that the public will take the right view of the matter and give them their assessments promptly when they call without asking them to wait.

AT THE THEATRES

'LITTLE WOMEN' SHOWING AT THE EMPRESS TODAY

A finely produced screen version of 'Little Women,' the famous story written by Louisa M. Alcott 50 years ago, and which has scored an unexampled literary success, the world over, will be shown at the Empress theatre today. Filmed at Miss Alcott's home in Concord, Mass., where she wrote her immortal novel, the photograph is one of exceptional beauty and historic interest. None who has read the book will forget Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy, the four little heroines who live in 15 pages with imperishable glory. They are presented on the screen by a quartette of beautiful and talented actresses. They are Nabel Lamont, Dorothy Bernard, Lillian Hull and Florence Finn. The supporting company is one of real excellence, the principals being George Kelton, Rexy Hull, Kate Lester, Julia Hurley, Conral Nelson, Lynn Hammond and Frank J. Vernon. The picture was directed by Harley Knoles, the scenarist was Anne Maxwell and the photographer, Rene Guissart.

Bedtime Stories

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SLEIGH RIDE

"Uncle Wiggily, are you going to do anything special this morning?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she saw the bunnymaid gentleman putting on his tall silk hat in the hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, no, nothing special," answered Mr. Longears. "I had some thought of going to look for an adventure but if there is anything I can do for you I'll do it."

"I need a few things from the store," said Nurse Jane. "Some bread and butter, some sugar, a lemon for a pie and things like that."

"Oh, I'll get them for you!" cried Uncle Wiggily, his pink nose twinkling like a hot cross bun. "I can go to the store and look for an adventure at the same time."

"Then take this basket to carry the things from the grocery," said the muskrat lady. "Otherwise you might drop them." And she handed the bunnymaid a big basket, which he hung on his paw.

"Then off started Uncle Wiggily, over his way to the store he looked all over for an adventure, but none happened, and he was beginning to think he wouldn't have any."

"There you are, Mr. Longears," said the grocery store cat, as he filled the basket with the things Nurse Jane wanted. "Be careful not to spill them."

"I'll be careful," promised Uncle Wiggily, as he put the filled basket on his arm and started off once more. And, as true as I'm telling you, the bunnymaid had not come very far on his homeward way before he heard the noise of shouting and laughter in the woods.

"I wonder who that is?" thought Uncle Wiggily, through the trees and there he saw Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, Sammie and Susie Littletail, the rabbits, Jackie and Poetie How Wow, the puppy dog boys, and many other of his little animal friends. They were riding down hill on their sleds.

"Come on and have a ride, Uncle Wiggily," chattered Billie, the squirrel, brushing with his bushy tail some snow off the back of Jennie Chipmunk. "All right, I will," said the bunnymaid. "Only I have no sled."

WESTPHALIA CITY IS PLUNDERED BY THE SPARTACANS

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Sunday, Feb. 16.—Spartan troops from nearby towns marched into Gelsenkirchen, in Westphalia, early this morning and overpowered the local military and police forces, a portion of which went over to the Spartans. The plundering of the city followed.

The doors of houses were blown in with hand grenades and much booty was secured by the Spartans. Ten Gelsenkirchen banks and the city treasury had been warned in time for Nurse Jane to get drier, and the only thing that happened was that some of the butter was spread on the bread as Uncle Wiggily coasted down hill in the basket.

But that didn't matter; and, if the piece of cheese doesn't get loose when the apple pie goes to the moving pictures with a sled, and the cake, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the condensed milk.

Six Prisoners To Leavenworth, Kan. To Begin Terms

Deputy United States Marshal Good-fellow, accompanied by Special Officer Arrington, left today for Leavenworth, Kansas, taking six convicts to the federal prison there. These were: John Baker, sentenced 18 months for theft from interstate commerce; J. J. Conley, two years and a day for obstructing the sale of Liberty Bonds; Will C. Phillips, A. C. Flowers and G. G. Garret, a year and a day each for transporting liquor; M. W. Sale, 14 months for theft from interstate commerce.

JEAN BAPTISTE DIES AT CANADIAN HOME

MONTREAL, Feb. 17.—Jean Baptiste, Canadian, an ironworker, Indian, who, with a party of men in whale boats tried to traverse the cataraacts of the Nile and forward British troops to assist General Gordon in Khartoum in 1885, died Saturday at his home in Caughnawaga at the age of 78 years. "Eig John," as he was familiarly known, was famed throughout Canada for his exploit of "shooting" the dangerous Lachine rapids in a large wooden canoe each New Year's day.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

OIL DEVELOPMENT

DENVER-WICHITA TRAIN IS LONGEST OUT OF FT. WORTH

FT. WORTH, Feb. 17.—Starting out as one sleeper attached to another train, in six months' time the one sleeper has grown to nine sleepers and two coaches, and a big engine and does more business than the train which used to pull it when it was only one sleeper. And not content with its sudden rise, that one lone sleeper is now the longest train out of Fort Worth.

Less than six months ago the Fort Worth and Denver added another sleeper to the train, the train which runs via Wichita Falls to accommodate the increasing travel of oil men to the Burkburnett fields. But the oil travel continued to increase every week and was added, then another and another and finally an engine and several more coaches. Then sleepers were added, about every two weeks and now that train is composed of nine sleepers, two coaches, a baggage car and an engine. And the business is so heavy that adding the tenth sleeper is being considered and even making up another section is being discussed.

Every night the Fort Worth and Denver leaves the Santa Fe depot, twenty-two long cars roll away at 10:25 bearing an average of 550 passengers in two sections. The first section with about 250 passengers, makes a long trip out through the Panhandle, through a strip of New Mexico and into Colorado and to Denver city, a distance of 802 miles. The Fort Worth to Denver run is one of the oldest runs in Texas, having been in existence over thirty-five years. For many years the train ran to Austin, meeting another Fort Worth and Denver train there for Denver city. Now it runs straight through.

The other section goes to Wichita Falls, carrying 300 passengers, the majority of them being prosperous men, eagerly watching the oil wells, making the trip to Fort Worth and back to Wichita Falls so that they may snatch a little sleep on the train. Both sections return to Fort Worth at 7:45 the next morning, usually on time, and unload about the same number of people that departed the night before.

NORTH CENTRAL FIELD REPORTS A GOOD WELL TODAY

FORT WORTH, Feb. 17.—The I. B. Hand No. 2 of the Texas and Pacific Coal and Oil Company is the best well reported from the North Central Texas oil fields Monday. The well is making 800 barrels from the sand at 2,300 feet. It is just north of the Brewer group of wells.

Drilling To West Of Ranger Being Pressed Forward

FORT WORTH, Feb. 17.—Drilling in the gusher district of the Ranger field, west of the town of Ranger, is now being pressed forward to high speed. Offsetting the Terry and Terrell farms of the Prairie Oil and Gas Co., John Markman Jr. and the Tidal Oil Company of Tulsa, Okla., have a string of rigs stretching the full length of the 500 acres Copeland farm. Nine of these rigs are already up. The Copeland No. 3 is now making 2000 barrels.

The Roper No. 1 of the Prairie Oil and Gas Company is making 4000 to 5000 barrels, having fallen off but little from the initial production. In Comanche county the Joe Duke No. 1 of the Magnolia Petroleum and the Hog Creek Oil Company was opened up a bit Sunday morning and shot oil over the derrick and for hundreds of feet surrounding the well. Although the gas pressure eased off somewhat the flow of oil increased to about 600 barrels.

OIL PRODUCTION TAX AMENDED BY THE COMMITTEE

Following is a copy of the bill providing for an oil production tax, as amended by the House Committee and which is now pending in the legislature. The amendment which was secured through the efforts of Representative J. D. Farnell of this district, and other members of the House provides for a tax of 1.4 per cent on the gross production instead of two per cent, as contemplated in the original draft. The following bill is now pending:

Committee Amendment. A bill to be entitled an Act to amend Chapter 2, Article 7383 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, increasing the tax to be paid on crude oil, and also to levy a tax to be paid on sulphur, coal, lignite, gas, salt and quicksilver produced and mined in the state of Texas, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: That Article 7383, Chapter 2, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas be so amended as hereafter to read as follows:

Article 7383. Each and every individual, company, association, or corporation, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other state or territory, or of the United States, or of any foreign country, which owns, controls, manages or leases, or owns a royalty in or working interest in any oil well, gas well, sulphur mine, coal mine, lignite mine, salt mine or quicksilver mine within this state shall make quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, report to the comptroller of Public Accounts, under oath of the individual, or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, association or corporation, showing the total amount of oil, gas, sulphur, coal, lignite, salt and quicksilver produced during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, associations and corporations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of the State of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date as follows:

(a) On oil, gas and sulphur there shall be paid an occupation tax equal to one and one-fourth (1 1/4) per cent of the total amount of all oil, gas and sulphur produced, at the average market value thereof, as shown by said report;

(b) On coal, lignite, salt and quicksilver there shall be paid an occupation tax equal to one (1) per cent of the total amount of all coal, lignite, salt and quicksilver produced at the average market value thereof, as shown by said report.

Section 2. The fact that the State of Texas is now in great need of funds creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity, that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that this act shall be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Jake Hamon To Use Airplanes In Oil Operations

Special to The Times.
AIDMORE, OKLA., Feb. 17.—Jake L. Hamon, widely known as an oil man and a republican politician, has ordered two full-grown airplanes for his personal use in traveling between the widely separated points where he has big oil interests. He expects to engage former army "chauffeurs" for his planes and says he may take a few lessons himself in the art of flying. He wants two machines so that one may be held in reserve for emergencies.

Mr. Hamon has just returned from a trip to Ranger, Texas, and other places in that oil region where he has large properties. He is said to be the largest individual oil operator in Oklahoma and his friends say that if he keeps on investing in Texas he will earn a similar distinction in that state.

In Oklahoma he is interested in the Healdton fields and at Fox and Graham in this (Carter county), and in several other counties. He has some good properties adjoining the new Empire well, which is said to be flowing about 500 barrels a day, in the northwest corner of Carter county.

In recent weeks Mr. Hamon has been much disgusted because of the poor train service and the mud in the oil fields. He has figured it all out that by using airplanes he will save both time and money, not to speak of religion.

Market Report

Cotton Market

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The cotton market showed renewed firmness at the opening today. Liverpool did not fully meet the local advance of Saturday but the mere optimistic view of general conditions was again in evidence and there were reports of a better spot demand from both domestic mills and exporters. The opening was firm at an advance of nine to 48 points and after settling at 23.00 on the call, March soon touched 23.50 while May went up from 22.25 to 22.53 and July from 21.175 to 22.00 or 30 to 32 points above Saturday's closing figures. Liverpool and houses with other foreign connections were among the early buyers while there was a fair seat being demanded.

The early advance of about 250 to 300 points from the low price of last Monday attracted considerable realizing and the market was unsettled during the morning. May sold off to 22.75 and July to 21.13, making declines of 54 to 21 points from the best of about 20 to 30 points from Saturday's closing figures. Unconfirmed rumors that all remaining embargoed cotton to be lifted from cotton exports were a factor on the early advance.

The market turned quiet but steady. Early buyers took profits and at noon the advance was reduced to 115 to 20 points.

Cotton closed strong.

New Orleans Cotton.
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 17.—The price of cotton was lifted 30 to 50 points in the early trading today by buying stimulated by bullish sentiment in connection with the spot holding movement and the agitation to reduce acreage. Rates in Texas were with values as were early exports of 10,275 bales to Japan.

The market showed renewed firmness during the early afternoon on continued trade buying and bull support. May sold up to 20.55, or 40 points net higher while July touched 18.85, or 35 points above Saturday's closing and a new high level for the day.

The large export movement for the day, nearly 34,000 bales from all ports increased the demand for contracts to a moderate extent. At 1 o'clock prices were at a net advance of 35 to 40 points.

Cotton closed steady at an advance of 50 to 78 points.

Liverpool Cotton.
LIVERPOOL, Feb. 17.—Cotton spot steady; prices firm. Good middling 27.15; middling 17.52; low middling 16.47; good ordinary 14.95; ordinary 14.45.

Sales 1,000, including 900 American. Receipts 17,000 bales, including 1,400 American.

Futures closed steady: February 17.44; March 16.23; May 13.18; July 12.71; September 12.25.

Grain Market
CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Corn developed strength today, more or less to scantiness of country offerings. Reports that the Canadian government was commandeering seed oats and would remit the duty on oats from the United States also tended to lift values. At first, however, profit taking by longs led to a temporary setback. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as Saturday's close to 1 1/4 up, was followed by moderate declines all around but then by a decided upturn.

Oats took the same path as corn. After opening 1/4 off to 1/2 advance with May 60 1/2 to 60 3/4, the market underwent a general setback and the score a sharp gain.

At the top figures of the day, prices showed an advance of more than 10 cents above the lowest point a week ago. On the bulge, however, eastern interests became free sellers and there was a rapid decline. The close was weak 1 1/4 net lower to one advance with May 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 and July 1 1/8 to 1 1/8.

Subsequently provisions rallied with corn but the effect failed to last. Provisions gave way under heavy selling.

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Last week's bullish demonstration in oils was resumed at the active opening of today's stock market. Pan-American common was the central feature, adding 2 1/4 points to last Saturday's substantial gain. Mexican Petroleum, Sinclair and Texas Company also rose one to two points. Marine preferred, Baldwin and American Locomotive, General Motors, American Sugar, Industrial Alcohol and United Cigars embraced the only strong features. U. S. Steel reflected realizing sales and rails again failed to share in the general rise. Royal Dutch was the one reactionary issue, declining 3 1/4 points. Broader and more substantial buying marked the general rally of the mid-session. Oils and motors experienced another boom. United States Steel, American Emeltin, American Sugar and Tobacco Products extended their gains and rails developed strength under leadership of Canadian Pacific and Reading.

M'NEALUS EXPECTS TWO PER CENT TAX ON OIL PRODUCTION

DALLAS, TEX., Feb. 17.—A gross tax of two per cent on oil and other minerals taken from the earth likely will be imposed by the present session of the legislature, in the opinion of Senator J. C. McNealus. Mr. McNealus, who was here for a short time Saturday, ridiculed the effort that is being made at Austin to compromise on a gross tax of 1 1/2 per cent, declaring that the tax should be at least three per cent, but expressing the belief that a compromise of two per cent will likely result.

Great profits are being reaped in Texas oil fields, and in the exploitation of Texas sulphur beds and other valuable mineral deposits, by capital from New York and other states, Senator McNealus declared. The state justly should have a good royalty on their production, to be used in improving her school system, in paying the expense of the state government, in building good roads and in many other needed improvements, he said.

"The oil men have sent a real lobby to Austin," he declared, "to raise the howl that a tax on oil would hamper development of the state resources. Yet Oklahoma has imposed a three per cent gross tax on oil production, and there has been no cessation of activity in her oil fields. Millions of dollars are being made out of the state's resources, with little capital invested in proportion. Certainly the state is entitled to a nominal share of two to three per cent of the gross returns. Other states have enacted such laws without hampering development and doubtless Texas will have the same experience."

Senator McNealus said there is a lot of oil legislation pending and other important matters as yet untouched. It will not be possible to complete the work of the session, he believes, in the sixty-day session. The legislature should adjourn immediately when the session is up, and the governor should call an extra session within 24 hours, saving mileage, he said. In this manner the session can be prolonged without the necessity of rushing bills through during the closing days without careful deliberation.

French Aviation Mission Is Coming To United States
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sunday, Feb. 16.—On March 8 a French aviation mission will leave for the United States with the object of demonstrating the degree of efficiency French airplanes have attained. The mission will take with it five of the fastest machines that have been turned out, of various makes. One of the planes is fitted with a closed cabin for the use of the Americans who have been invited to accompany the mission, which will have five of the noted French ace as pilots for the machines.

The itinerary of the mission covers New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles and New Orleans, with a return to New York, the various stages being covered by air. The mission will take with it a collection of paintings and photographs illustrating air episodes of the war. These pictures will be put on exhibition.

Our Nine Wells and Forty Acres in Burkburnett Oil Field With Production Now Assure Quick Dividends

Initial offering of 6,000 shares of stock at par value. $10.00 each is today announced by

The Lively-Maxwell Oil Association

Capitalization $150,000 Par Value, $10.00 per Share

We hold lease on 40 acres of oil land in the W. A. Grady Survey, about three miles due south of the Burkburnett Townsite, on which we have nine producing wells. Certified pipe-line returns from the Magnolia Petroleum Company show our nine wells are producing at the average rate of 60 barrels of oil daily, for which we are receiving $2.25 per barrel. These wells have been producing oil from the shallow sands several months, giving us an income already of about $4,000 per month.

QUICK-DIVIDENDS ARE ASSURED EVERY INVESTOR IN LIVELY-MAXWELL

Present production assures the early payment of dividends, and we propose to pay at least five per cent dividend within 30 days, after this offering of stock is sold. We have a power plant, storage tanks, water rights and pumping-plant. This is already a GOING CONCERN. In addition,

FIVE ADDITIONAL WELLS WILL BE DRILLED IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE

Within a radius of one mile of our acreage, there are about 50 wells either producing oil or drilling to the pay-sands, which are found at a shallow depth. One deep test well is also being drilled by another company. When we get greater production, which in our opinion is inevitable, we will be able to continue paying dividends.

We reserve the right to return any oversubscriptions.

MAJOR EVERETT JONES WRITES OF THIRTY-SIXTH AND THE HOME BOYS

The following unusually descriptive letter from Major Everett Jones, again with the Thirty-Sixth Division in France, will be read with interest on account of the personal reference to so many of the boys from Wichita Falls and incidents connected with the service of the division abroad:

Headquarters 142nd Inf. 36th Division, A. F. O. 798, A. E. F. Jan. 7, 1919, Mr. W. M. McGregor, Wichita Falls, Texas. My Dear Sir:

Your valued letter reached me a few days ago after having followed me pretty well all over France, and you will see by the letter heading that I am once more with the 36th division, and again with the now famous 142nd Infantry. It is indeed a pleasure to be with my old friends of the 36th and when my order came sending me to the old regiment I felt almost as good as I will when the great order comes telling me to go home.

No doubt you have seen many accounts, both official and otherwise of the exploits of the 36th division but I feel you could not fail to be interested in some personal sidelights on the great work. Most of the division, and practically all of the 142nd Infantry, landed at St. Nazaire, France, July 31, 1918, and were sent to Bar-sur-Aube for training purposes. Leaving there September 30, they took station at Champagne where they were given final instructions and equipment and were then marched to Somme Supte on October 6th and took their place in the line of battle on that night in the Champagne front under the direction of the 2nd French Army. This position of the front is on the left side of the Argonne from October 29th they were in one continuous battle and were taken out of the line for rest, reaching Louperie-Felt November 3. Then while they were in repose the armistice was signed and they were ordered to the present station, Tonnere, reaching here November 28th.

Of course your interest centers around the 142nd Infantry and I shall attempt to tell of some of their individual experiences. No doubt you have heard that many of the officers of this regiment as well as the whole division were relieved of duty shortly after reaching France because of inefficiency, but Colonel Blour stuck. He was the only Colonel with the Infantry of the 36th who was not relieved of his command and time has proven the wisdom of retaining him, for when the battle came he showed himself so far above other officers that the whole division was ringing with his praises, and he is now the idol of the 36th. He seems to be almost a genius at warfare and it was the cool-headed thoughtfulness of just such men as he that made the abduction of the Kaiser a reality. Men of his type are very rare in the army and this division was very fortunate in having such a man.

Colonel Blour has not had his share of praise for the men of his regiment and I have it from his own mouth that when he went into the attack, October 7, with a regiment of boys who never heard a shell explode, he was absolutely amazed at their utter disregard for danger, and at the violence with which they hurled back the German Prussian troops, the best that Germany could muster. At times he felt that they were going too fast and were leaving their support too far behind but when he tried to hold them back there was no stop, they simply went ahead against staggering odds and withering machine gun fire until they had taken every point hour ahead of the time set for its accomplishment. Of course they lost and lost heavily, but the task assigned them was one of the toughest in the Argonne Forest and they could not expect to gain their objectives without heavy losses.

Other members of the old Infantry as you know it have made a name for themselves over here. Colonel Culbertson, who at one time commanded the 2nd battalion, is now a Lieutenant Colonel, and is with Division Headquarters and gets all supplies and transportation for the division. Lieutenant Colonel Owsley, who once commanded the 2nd battalion is now the division adjutant. Both of these officers have acquitted themselves with valor and gallantry that properly entitles them to the high positions of confidence that they now hold. Major Downell, an Ableton boy, is also with the Division Headquarters, but to get to the home folk.

Perkins Made Record.
No one could stay in the 36th long without hearing of one Captain D. M. Perkins. He is known far and wide as the best supply officer in the whole division and the way this regiment is taken care of shows it is true. Perkins has two ways of getting supplies. First, he gets them in the regular military way as far as possible, and second, he gets them—no questions asked.

He is the only supply officer known that came out of the line with more supplies than he had when he went in. I have seen many an inspector jump Perkins about having more to eat than was coming to him, but Perkins always salute three times, states twice and laughs once and is all off with the inspector. In fact the inspector goes away secretly wishing he had such an officer in every outfit. They say that when the shells got to falling pretty thick that Perkins crawled under a moving kitchen and when some of the coals dropped out of the stove on him he crawled and announced that he had been "under fire." I can't exactly vouch for this story but it is one of the thousand laughs that goes around this division on Perkins.

You know that Captain Stanforth was in the heat of battle for many days and finally relinquished command of his company only after the gas shells overcame him. He and his company made a splendid record and Capt. Stanforth has only recently been discharged from the hospital. I saw him today and am sure that his recovery will be complete.

Lieut. Joseph Kell was at school when the battle came off but he is about the sorest man in the regiment that he did not get to take part. He has made a splendid officer and was to have been given a very responsible part when the division resumed its place in the line and was taking special training for it when the armistice was signed. Col. Blour seems to have a world of confidence in him and I am sure he would have justified that confidence.

Lieutenant Lester Burns served on the Brigade General's staff and in such a position it was necessary for him to keep the General informed as to what the troops were doing and I understand that "Bobbie" was from one end of the line to the other at all times.
Lieutenant Porter (Mrs. Mytinger's brother) went through the whole show with his company and they were to have taken every thing in front of them. Lieutenant Blue of Burk Burnett has also made a splendid record for himself.

Visits Boys From Home.
Yesterday I visited the supply company and renewed acquaintance with many of the Wichita boys and found them in good health, best of spirits and with a strong desire to get home. Among them was Joe Jones, Irvia A. Fricht, "Jake" Avis, Jack Shelton, Erwin Taylor, Mat Noble, Clyde Smith, Philet Martin, Sylvester Gregory, Gilbert Church, Earl Patton, Harry Poston, Hinton Bryan, Alvin Dulaney, John Crawford, Carter Rahl and Groves Myers of Burk Burnett. With such boys as these it is no wonder that the efficiency of that company has always been the mark of the regiment. It is the mission of these boys to feed, clothe and keep the army in fighting trim, and that is no small job, they have all worked like slaves through the entire battle. I am gratified to say that none of them were wounded and they all conducted themselves just like you know they would, and when I bring them home I will be able to show you the healthiest, cleanest set of boys in the 36th division. Why think of John Butts weighing 175 pounds, Glen Foster almost six feet tall and Bob Tevis just perfectly round any way you look at him.

I don't mind saying that I am very proud of that little organization. Joe was the only one who went to the 143rd Field Hospital and helped take care of the wounded there. We have not heard from R. J. Marion nor his father since they left us at Camp Bowie, but other members of the original organization, Lieutenant Jim Barnard, became battalion adjutant during the battle and is now one of the general's aids. Lieutenant Julian Henry went into the attack with his machine gun company and distinguished himself. Lieut. Charles Neller made a splendid record with his company. However, I am sure they did well. We never heard whether they got over here or not.

Brave "Pat" Carrigan.
No history of this regiment is complete without the account of the immortal "Pat" Carrigan. He was known as "Pat" from one end of the regiment to the other so "Pat" it will ever be. I have it from Colonel Blount that he led his company in an assault on the Germans in a manner which showed his absolute abandonment of fear. At the head of his own company, he, by his own example, so inspired his men that they followed him without question. His daring and bold attack struck consternation among the Germans, and to save themselves from utter rout they turned loose almost every gun they had on Carrigan, and in twinkling that brave soldier fell. His death so infuriated his men that they went on and on, taking two machine gun nests and more prisoners than they had men, and in my opinion, cannot record how many Germans bit the dust when this company, infuriated at the loss of their leader, charged into them. "Those who take human lives like that assault say it was a masterpiece, and it is referred to every day as the most furious assault of the battle. I saw it from Colonel Blount that when he lost Pat Carrigan he lost one of his bravest officers. It's too bad. Wer may be right but when a doctor trains all his life to save human life, and then see war take human lives like Pat Carrigan in a minute, then it is hard to make us believe that there is any legitimate reason for war.

Office of Chief Surgeon, American Expeditionary Forces, Nov. 30, 1918. Special Order No. 588.
Copy to Major Everett Jones, M. C. 26th Division, American A. F. O. 796, A. E. F.
To: Commanding Officers Evacuation Hospital No. 6, Surgeons, Nurses and Enlisted Personnel.
Subject: Commendation for excellent service.
1. It is with great pleasure and pride that I commend you and your command for the last battle of the war, to indicate to you and your command the high appreciation in which the arduous and splendid service of the unit is held.
2. The cheerful and loyal co-operation of nurses and men has been productive of the standard of efficiency which should be the pride of all concerned with the unit.
3. As a mark of appreciation for most excellent service, Evacuation Hospital No. 6 has been designated as a place of honor occupied by the third army on the American Expeditionary Force.
4. A copy of this citation will be presented to every officer, nurse, enlisted man who was with the unit on Nov. 11, 1918.
By Command of General Pershing,
H. A. DRUM,
Chief of Staff.

Official Ralph Lister Col. Inf. G 3
I am very proud of that citation and shall certainly frame it when I get home.
Princess Red Cross.
During my stay at Evacuation Hospital No. 6, Evacuation Hospital No. 7 was right next to us and Captain Lee was attached to it. They also had an immense amount of work. Lee and I were the only two western men that I saw in the work. If you did not come from New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore, you didn't have much chance, but we two from West Texas had handled enough of that rough and tumble oil field surgery that we were able to stick it out. I did not go on to Germany with the hospital as I hoped for an early return to Wichita Falls, but just at present I cannot say when that will take place.
No letter about the hospital work could be furnished without a few words of commendation for the Red Cross workers at home. The bandages, dressings, operating gowns and everything else that goes to make a successful operating room were of the finest workmanship I ever saw. I have no doubt that I bandaged the wounds of many poor sufferers with bandages and dressings that were made right in that Red Cross room at Wichita Falls. I tell you their efforts were worth while.
Well, I guess, I had better close this before it reaches the proportions of a book.
With best wishes to everybody in Wichita Falls, I am very truly yours,
MAJOR EVERETT JONES, M. C.

On A Line Between The Helen Elizabeth And The Burk-Bridge

Mark that location on your map. The Helen-Elizabeth is one of the best properties on the market. The Burkbridge is selling around 300.
THE BURK-BARWISE CO. OWNS FIVE ACRES WHICH WE ARE OFFERING ON A CAPITALIZATION OF $65,000 IN SHARES OF $50.00 EACH.

We have put our money into the east end of the field because it is proven. The Van Cleave lands have demonstrated their value by bringing in producers in every section, and as we have got to get oil to make any money, we want to play it sure.

We are selling this stock to our best friends and our kinfolk because we honestly believe it to be as sure a thing as one can possibly find in the oil game, and because we know that everything will be done to safeguard the interests of every stockholder.

The promoters are: M. H. Barwise, D. J. Carithers, H. E. Crain, U. Y. Crain, H. T. Ballard, R. H. Hall, J. S. Gerock, Ed. Howard, B. D. Donnell, J. T. Gibson, T. H. Cook, J. F. Cook, R. G. Fuqua and J. B. Marlow, and each one gives his personal guarantee that the company will be administered in a careful, economical and business like manner, and that every stockholder will receive an equitable share of all of the production.

THERE IS BIG MONEY TO BE MADE IN THE OIL BUSINESS and we believe that the people right here at home are entitled to a share of it. All we need is th determination to go after it, and this we are going to do in the shortest possible time.

Stock Will Be Closed Out This Week.

Through an error in the surveyors lines the sale of stock has been held up some time, but this matter has been straightened out. The land was bought from Messrs. R. O. Harvey and J. J. Perkins who as soon as the error was brought to their attention immediately set about perfecting their title by securing a lease from the Texas Co. for the portion in controversy, thus giving us the best kind of a title. About half of the stock has been sold and the balance will be closed out this week. If you are interested we urge you to act quickly, so that you may not be disappointed.

RADEK'S ATTORNEY DENIED ADMISSION TO CLIENT'S CELL

BERLIN, Friday, Feb. 14.—Stegfried Weinberg, attorney for Karl Radek, the bolshevik propagandist who was arrested several days ago, has been denied admission to his client's cell. Weinberg, who has been prominently identified with the spartacan movement in Berlin, obtained permission of the court to communicate with Radek but an interview was denied at the last moment by a lieutenant of the Reinhard regiment, which arrested Radek. Radek, according to a statement by Weinberg, is in the Moabit jail heavily handcuffed. The Red Flag, the spartacan organ, says: "We make no secret of our regrets that one of the best of our international comrades and a leader in the Russian revolution, who has left an enduring monument in history, has fallen a victim to the spies of the 'socialistic' German government." The spartacan organ says two systems of justice prevail in Germany and adds: "The first was applied in the instance of Liebknecht and Luxemburg. It was assassination. The second is military and evidence is accumulating in the present case that the military authorities are relinquishing their prerogatives. It may be said, however, that if Radek is to become a similar sort of victim, the revolution government would not satisfy itself with mere moral protests, just as the morale protest of the German proletariat against the murder of Liebknecht and Luxemburg is not the final word that the proletariat will have to say in this matter."

NEADHAM A. THORNTON HOME ON A FURLOUGH Neadham A. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thornton of this city, has arrived from overseas, and is now in New York, according to a message received by his parents. He expects to get a furlough soon to visit home, but says that he believes he will not get his discharge for some little time yet, according to present indications. Young Thornton was in the Medical Corps and went from Camp Travis last fall, arriving in France about the time that the armistice was signed, so he failed to see any active service.

TEXAS BAPTISTS ISSUE BONDS FOR VARIOUS SCHOOLS

The Baptists of Texas, in order to exercise all the business sense they had, have put on the sale of a bond issue to get money for their correlated schools. The facts are as follows: The growth of the population in Texas has swelled very much the school attendance. It called for dormitories, buildings and equipments, and threw the schools into debt.

Efforts were made to pay those debts. For three years a quarter of a million dollars was raised annually. This helped but it could not keep pace with the constant growth, nor did it cancel the debt. Finally the charter trustees of the convention were provided as a holding board. The debts of all the schools were pooled and the property of the schools was appraised by disinterested parties and deeded to the trustees of the convention. A corporation attorney examined all the abstracts of the title, an expert commercial auditor examined all the financial statements and upon these as a foundation a million dollars worth of Loyalty Bonds were issued.

The bonds are coupon six per cent, semi-annual interest bearing. The coupons are to be clipped and passed regularly through the banks without cost to the holders or even to the schools for a Dallas bank has agreed to do this without cost.

The bonds are redeemable in from one to ten years depending on the series purchased, of $50,000 per annum. They are secured by a mortgage on an aggregate of property worth $2,000,000 as also by the pledge of the Baptist convention representing over 400,000 white Baptists in Texas. The convention has never defaulted on any of its obligations in the more than seventy years of its history.

Annual contributions will be given

In the churches just as before and out of these contributions sums will be kept to pay all obligations annually occurring. In addition a sinking fund of $16,795.05 annually deposited at semi-annual 4 per cent compound interest will in ten years cover $250,000 or in ten years cover the last million should the second half be kept that long for redemption. This is a clear business proposition and business men who are working to make money at 6 per cent have a chance, and also a place to do good at the same time.

Wichita county has been allotted $50,000, and it is believed that the amount will be quickly subscribed. Other parts of the state are entering heartily on this investment for God in Texas. What is done must be done quickly. The campaign closes March 3rd. It is believed that an over-subscription will be made. Mr. R. E. Burt of Houston has taken $50,000 worth. Mr. Wolfe of Dallas $25,000 worth and other business men smaller amounts. You are invited.

MEET TO EXAMINE APPLICATIONS OF COTTON CLASSERS

Special to The Times

AUSTIN, TEX., Feb. 17.—Commissioner P. C. Weinert, of the Markets & Warehouse Department, has appointed J. P. Gross of Waco, J. C. Albritton of Webster, and Robert G. Crosby of Austin, as a Board of Examiners, whose duty is to examine applicants for license as public cotton classers.

The Commissioner will call the Board to meet in Austin, June 2, 1919, for the purpose of examining all applicants who may desire to become "Public Cotton Classers." Any one desiring further information with reference to the examination and licensing of Public Cotton Classers, can obtain same by communicating with the Markets and Warehouse Department.

The law providing for the examination and licensing of Public Cotton Classers requires the applicant to be a person of good moral character, who shall be able to show much proficiency as cotton classers as may be required by the board. When found to be competent, a license will be issued to the applicant, and the person so licensed shall have the right to engage in the business of public cotton classing at any place in the state of Texas, and to charge for his or her services.

Must File Bond.

Before a license is issued, the applicant must file a bond in the sum of $1000 with the Commission of Markets & Warehouses, so conditioned as to bind the cotton classer and his sureties to guarantee as approximately correct, his work in classing and grading cotton.

Each public cotton classer is required to keep in a well bound book a complete record of the cotton classed by him, and for whom classed, and shall issue a certificate to each person, showing the class of the cotton, classed for such person. He shall also keep on hand a set of United States Standards of Cotton Grades, and his books, records and cotton standards shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours. A certificate of classification of cotton issued by a public cotton classer under authority of this act, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

May Have Competent Classifier.

Under this law every town and village in this state, where cotton is produced in any considerable quantities, may procure the services of a com-

K. OF P. HALL READY FOR FUTURE MEETINGS

Last Wednesday night's meeting of Pioneer Lodge Number 49, Knights of Pythias, was lightly attended, as most of the members were under the impression that the hall was being remodeled and was not in shape for a meeting. However, there were enough present to hold a most enjoyable session.

The hall is now in shape for regular meetings and a good attendance is desired. All visitors are most cordially invited to attend all meetings.

REPORT MANY STRIKERS RETURN TO THEIR WORK

By Associated Press

LAWRENCE, MASS., Feb. 17.—The strike of textile operatives here entered on its third week today. Mill agents still the number of operatives reporting for work was greater than on any previous day, the gain being particularly noticeable among the English speaking workers. Leaders of the strike to obtain 54 hours day for 48 hours work, insisted, however, that their strike was unbroken.

You had better secure your stock in the Lilly Oil Company at once, while you can get same at par, for when we start on our first of five wells you will have to give a premium to obtain same. Only $10.00 per share, Room 302, First National Bank Building. Phone 135.
