ATMOSPHERE IN AUSTRIA IS STILL EXTREMELY ELECTRICAL

By Associated Press. BERLIN, April 19.—The atmosphere in Vienna is still extremely electrical, according to dispatches to the Berlin newspapers. The Vossische Zeitung Vienna correspondent says the danger of trouble is by no means passed, as the national guard except for a few battalions, appears to be unreliable, while the demonstration Thursday against the parliament building gave evidence of co-operation by the Hungarian communists. On Thursday night the marine section of the war ministry was broken into and plundered. The Vienna government on Friday had all the known emissaries of the gold, bank notes and precious stones to a total value of 2,500,000 crowns.

HEARINGS ON MILITARY LAW NEARING END

Work Will Likely Be Concluded Sometime During the Present Week.

ANSELL TO TESTIFY

Will Present His Views Regarding the Present System on Monday.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 19.—Hearings on the subject of wartime administration of military justice will probably be concluded next week, Chairman Gregory said in a committee of the American Bar Association, announced today.

Major General Clarence Edwards, who commanded the 26th (New England) national guard division, Colonel Sedgwick Rice, commandant of the army disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Lieutenant Colonel Samuel T. Ansell, former acting judge advocate general, and Colonel John Colonel Ansell will present his views Monday afternoon. His position as leading opponent of the existing judicial system of the army was recognized by the committee in Chairman Gregory's announcement that the officer had been invited to call any persons he might desire to be heard. Colonel Ansell has not indicated his position further than to advise the committee that he was preparing a written statement for consideration.

Lawyers Submit Views. Three lawyers who either are now or were officers of the army during the war period gave their views today. One of them, Major George J. Denis of Los Angeles, Calif., having been for a considerable time judge advocate of the advance section, service of supply in France, with jurisdiction over the legal proceedings affecting about 255,000 men. The others were L. R. Hoover, formerly a captain in the line in the national guard, and Major R. A. Stone, also a temporary officer of the line, but in civil life a member of a St. Paul law firm.

Nothing Wrong, Says Major. "There is nothing the matter with the court martial system," said Major Denis. "The trouble lies in its administration. The articles of war and the articles of the army on the part of the members of the court, almost all of whom are new officers. These officers from civil life seemed to take an interest in the administration of military law. They seemed to feel it unjustified to sit on the courts. The regular officers invariably were well posted on the articles of war and the manual of court martial."

In the course of his statement, Major Denis told of the sudden increase in absence without leave cases in the fighting divisions immediately following the signing of the armistice. None of these was treated as desertion, he said, a special court martial being organized to deal with them, insuring a maximum of six months imprisonment and six months fine. The court handled about 70 cases in two weeks, imposing the maximum invariably and there was an immediate cessation in the flow of men away from their commands without leave.

Pershing's Band Inspires Citizens of New York City. By Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 19.—General Pershing's own headquarters band, The Pride of the A. E. F., composed of 100 officers and 100 men, all recruited from combat troops after the armistice was signed, arrived here today aboard the transport ship Steuben to inspire stay-at-home men with enthusiasm for the Victory Loan. They have played before President Wilson, King Albert of Belgium and King George of England, and led the American forces when they marched into Metz.

Women of Iowa Score a Victory. By Associated Press. DES MOINES, April 19.—Woman suffrage secured a victory in the closing hours of the Iowa legislative today when the measure, according to women presidential suffrage committee, passed by a vote of 84 to 2 in the house by a vote of 84 to 2.

By Associated Press. BERLIN, April 19.—The atmosphere in Vienna is still extremely electrical, according to dispatches to the Berlin newspapers. The Vossische Zeitung Vienna correspondent says the danger of trouble is by no means passed, as the national guard except for a few battalions, appears to be unreliable, while the demonstration Thursday against the parliament building gave evidence of co-operation by the Hungarian communists. On Thursday night the marine section of the war ministry was broken into and plundered. The Vienna government on Friday had all the known emissaries of the gold, bank notes and precious stones to a total value of 2,500,000 crowns.

By Associated Press. BOSTON, April 19.—Telephone strikers and company officials failed in agreement at a conference held tonight to adjust differences that led to the strike last Tuesday and adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

LARGE QUOTA IS GIVEN TO THIS COUNTY

Asks People to Subscribe for Two and Three Quarter Millions.

A PROTEST IS MADE

Former Mayor Britain Tenders Resignation As Chairman of Loan Campaign.

Wichita county's quota in the Victory Loan, which was withheld from announcement by the district until Friday night, April 18, was put at $2,750,000, or more than any two of the preceding loans totaled, and in the face of the fact that the entire quota had been lessened to seventy-five per cent of the fourth loan, and that practically every other city and county in the district has had their quota lessened from the amount asked in the fourth loan.

Judge A. H. Britain early Saturday morning sent a telegram asking that the quota be reduced to the bounds of justice and reason, giving as the alternative of the reduction of this quota his resignation and the resignation of his committee. Mr. Britain's telegram in full follows:

Protest is made.

Frank M. Smith, Federal District Director, Dallas, Texas: "Your wire quota Wichita county received. When I accepted the chairmanship Victory Loan committee I expected and had a right to expect that our quota would be fair and reasonable. The quota given us is neither fair, just nor reasonable. It is grossly excessive and discriminatory, whether so intended or not. Our quota fourth loan one million five hundred and seventy-five thousand just a few months ago. In this, the hardest of all loans to put over, you have practically doubled our quota. I have taken the trouble heretofore to explain to you fully local conditions and have shown that bank deposits were abnormal, temporary and largely due to the unscrupulous investors who speculate with money here only temporarily and then removed to their home where they buy bonds and not here. I see Dallas county quota reduced one million six hundred thousand, and one million two hundred thousand put on us. This discriminates against us and intolerably so. I will not attempt to put such an unreasonable quota on the loyal and patriotic citizens of Wichita county, Electra, Iowa Park and Burkburnett all say they cannot do as much as they did in fourth loan. Our quota should be reduced less than what it was in the fourth loan, to wit, one million five hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars. Unless this is done, I herewith tender my resignation as county chairman, such resignation being final. My committee are unanimous with me in this decision. Immediate reply requested.

"A. H. BRITAIN, Chairman."

No Reply Received.

Late Saturday night Mr. Britain had received no answer to his telegram, consequently had taken no further steps on the campaign for the loan, which has been occupying all of his time since his acceptance of the appointment as chairman of the loan. The headquarters at the Elks Club which has been maintained since last Saturday, was closed Saturday afternoon when no answer was received to the telegram.

"I do not feel that we are acting in an unpatriotic manner in refusing to be burdened with this unjust quota," said Mr. Britain Saturday night. "We did not have this quota placed on us by the United States government. It showed its position on the quota situation by reducing the entire loan. This quota has been imposed on us by a committee, who has been informed of the situation in this county, and who in spite of drouth and other abnormal conditions we patriotically did all that was asked of us, and over-subscribed, so liberally that we won the honor of having a ship named after the county. There has never been any lack of patriotism in Wichita county, and we are just as patriotic as ever. We are ready to do our part, but we are certainly not going to be imposed on. To attempt to raise a loan of two and three-quarter millions in Wichita county would be preposterous, and I have no intention of undertaking it. Our organization is ready to undertake any amount of work necessary to put over a just quota, but I have no intention of speaking for the people of Wichita county when I say that a reasonable quota will be raised with the enthusiasm and patriotic spirit that has characterized every action of the county's people since the beginning of the war."

BANK CLEARINGS FOR THE YEAR TOTAL OVER FORTY-THREE MILLION

Bank clearings in the five Wichita Falls banks since the first of this year, 1918, have totaled $43,670,206.71, according to the figures of H. L. Hunter, of the Empire Mortgage Company, through whose office in the Kemp and Kell building the banks clear daily. This is a weekly average of $2,729,387.91.

Clearings for this week totaled $2,782,550.46, an increase over last week of $2,724,279.03. The daily clearings follow:

FATHER SEEKS THE POSSESSION OF HIS YOUNG DAUGHTER

J. G. Glen of Little Rock, Arkansas, has filed application for habeas corpus for Vivian Glen against Mrs. T. C. Woods of Electra in the 78th district court. The hearing has been set for Monday.

In his petition Mr. Glen alleges that under a decree of divorce granted Mrs. Glen by the Arkansas court she agreed and it was ordered that she have the care and custody of Vivian Glen, their six-year-old daughter, beginning July 1, 1919, and running one year and that it was ordered that she would not take the child out of the state of Arkansas.

Card of Thanks.

To our dear friends and relatives who helped us so lovingly and tenderly in the last sad rites of our dear son and nephew, Lucian Frank McCoy. May God bless each of you and comfort your hearts as He did ours. We thank you for the beautiful floral offerings given.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. HOWARD,
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. CROSBY,
Mr. and Mrs. FRED WEBBER.

No one need hesitate about opening an account in the National Bank of Commerce with a small amount—the bank welcomes small deposits as cordially as large and extends the same friendly, helpful and accommodating service to all patrons.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH DAY NURSERY AND CHILDREN'S HOME

MOVEMENT IS STARTED BY THE WELFARE AND HUMANE SOCIETY.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED

Matters Are Discussed at Meeting Held at Library on Thursday Afternoon.

Establishment of a day nursery and children's home, to care for children temporarily without a home, or for children whose mothers are at work, and who have no where to leave them, will be the end to which the Wichita Falls Welfare and Humane Society will work at present, according to the plans outlined at the meeting held Thursday afternoon at the Kemp Library. Committees were appointed to work on the home, and to report at the meeting to be held May 1, when the honorary members of the advisory board will meet with the society. These honorary members are: Mayor J. B. Markov, Chief of Police Fred K. Smith and City Sanitary Officer R. W. Morgan, N. H. Martin, president of the Wichita Club, J. C. Hunt, president of the United Charities, R. E. Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce and J. M. McFall, president of the Rotary club.

Those men, who occupy important places in the community, will be called upon to give expression to their ideas for a home and nursery of this sort, and to give suggestions, or amendments or improvements on the plans which the women have worked out.

Need is emphasized.

At the meeting Thursday the great need for a day nursery and temporary home was discussed by the members. This institution will solve the problem of what the widowed mother who works to provide a home and food for her children can do with her children not yet old enough to go to school, and will also provide a temporary home for children who are orphaned, or left by some circumstance without a parent or guardian's protection.

Those appointed on this day nursery committee include Mesdames Wade Walker, J. L. Jackson, Abe Marcus, C. B. Jeter, N. H. Martin, E. Murdock, R. O. Harvey and Louis Pink.

Mrs. Wade Walker, president.

On the resigning of Mrs. S. H. Burnside as president, Mrs. Wade Walker was elected president at the meeting Thursday. Various other matters, additions to the committee, and the discussion, stricter enforcement of the compulsory school attendance law was advocated in these discussions, also a rigid enforcement of a curfew ordinance which would keep children under the age of 16 off the streets after 9:30 at night, unless they were accompanied by adults. More watering troughs for teams was also named as one of the great needs of the city, from a humane standpoint, it being stated that there were very few watering troughs in the entire city.

A partial list of the committees appointed for the welfare and humane work is announced. The request is made that all those appointed who are unable to accept phone either the president, at 267 or the secretary at 667, and notify them of their inability immediately. The committee was unable to get all members of these committees by phone, previous to the announcement of the committees.

Committees Are Named.

Welfare and Humane Education committee: Mesdames T. B. Smock, C. H. Dent, J. W. Lee and C. B. Feider.

Press: Mesdames C. B. Jeter, Louis Pink and O. W. Hines.

Finance and Membership committee: Mesdames W. P. Danforth, E. W.

Nicholson, W. E. Muldrow, L. M. Boyd, C. C. Shelton, H. B. Hatton, J. Cowan, E. W. Carter and C. J. Barnard.

Community Service, includes committees for the Union Station, prison, hospital and schools; Mesdames Stonehall Brown, J. A. Kemp, W. W. Silk, F. M. Keil, W. P. Danforth, W. L. Robertson, H. O. Cravens, J. T. Roberts, H. B. Patterson and A. O. Schaff. This committee will also handle requests for aid presented.

Dumb Animals Protection, Care and Shelter committee: Mesdames A. E. Myles, Fred Gates, H. L. Baker, A. Zundelkowitz, E. P. Basam, J. D. Moulder and E. H. Burnside.

Visiting and Relief committee: Mesdames T. T. Reese, O. F. Marchman, Frank Griffin, E. D. Woodruff, H. B. Hatton, O. W. Hines, J. C. Fain, Frank Collier and W. J. Gribbam.

INSTALL MACHINERY TO SCREEN AND WASH SAND AND GRAVEL

Installation of machinery for a sand and gravel screening and washing plant at the foot of Lamar street is now under way, and the capacity of the new plant is given at 200 cubic yards a day.

A cable will be stretched across the river at this point, where the office also will be located, and the material will be scooped from the bed of the river by means of machinery driven by steam power. Wagons will be used to deliver the stuff.

The name of the new firm is the Texas Sand and Gravel Company, E. L. McAlbee, of this city, is manager.

MEMBERS WILSON GROVE WOODMEN CIRCLE TO MEET

All members of Wilson Grove, Woodmen Circle number 1751, are requested to be present at the meeting Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. At this meeting the delegates to the Dallas convention last week will give their reports. Mrs. O. C. Somers of this city was elected supreme delegate to the meeting of the supreme forest in New York in July. Mrs. Lloyd W. Young was appointed chairman of the Courtesy Committee at the Dallas convention.

BURKBURNETT MAN DIES IN THIS CITY SATURDAY

William Ralph Hartman, aged 27, a grocery merchant at Burkburnett, died in the Wichita General Hospital Friday night, from pneumonia. He leaves a widow and two small children for your principal and pays your 4 per cent compound interest?

DELAYED BANQUET FOR THE PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

What was originally planned as a noonday luncheon in honor of delegates from the Panhandle Press Association, because of delay in traffic from Burkburnett was put off till six hours later when a banquet was given at the St. James to which business men generally were invited, as most of the press men had been compelled to leave on an afternoon train. As a result of the speeches which followed the dinner, a Saturday night luncheon club was formed, of which F. C. Swanson was elected president, A. L. Huey vice-president, and Miss Elizabeth Miner of the Wichita News-Tribune was chosen secretary.

C. W. Reid, president of the National Bank of Commerce, was the first after-dinner speaker, and called attention to the gross injustice of the quota of this county far beyond all fairness and justice, and said that the campaign would not be launched here until the matter was adjusted. Whereas the quota of Dallas had been reduced from that of the fourth loan, the quota of Wichita had been increased from $1,575,000 of the fourth loan to $2,750,000 for the Victory Loan. The speaker made it plain that Wichita could always be relied upon to do its share, but she did not intend to be imposed upon by being assessed so unfairly.

Other speakers told of other items of interest and plans for boosting Wichita Falls, resulting in the organization of a Saturday night club, the program of which would be announced at a later date.

FOR MILLION DOLLARS

Provide for Early Completion of Burk Burnett Road With Available Fund.

Three petitions, one asking that an election be called to determine a good roads bond issue of $1,000,000, the two others also bearing directly on the question of permanent highways throughout Wichita County, were started in circulation late last week in Wichita Falls and among neighboring cities in the county.

The most important petition of the three calls for the bond issue of $1,000,000, contains the general terms under which the bonds are asked to be issued and provides for a total of 132 miles of permanent highway roads to be improved, with 98 miles to be of concrete and 34 miles of bituminous gravel.

The second petition asks for the holding of another election to authorize the Commissioners Court to use $587,000, now in the county treasury from the $750,000 bond issue of 1915, in constructing a concrete road on the Wichita Falls and Burk Burnett road, an on the road from the Wilbarger county line through Electric, Iowa Park and Wichita Falls to the Clay county line and also for construction work in connection with the program of the proposed $1,000,000 bond issue.

The third petition asks the endorsement of county residents of the action of the court in cancelling the old contract heretofore made by the court. Improvement and new construction with the proposed $1,000,000 plus what will be received from the state and Federal governments, is outlined in the main petition as follows:

Improvements Outlined.
Route No. 1—From the Wilbarger county line through Electric, Iowa Park, Burk Burnett and Wichita Falls to the Clay county line toward Henrietta from Wichita Falls.
Route No. 2—From the Toll Bridge across Red River through Burk Burnett to Route No. 1 at Wichita Falls.
Route No. 3—From Route No. 2 in Burk Burnett to Clara, thence west to the Wilbarger county line.
Route No. 4—From Route No. 1, in Electric north to Route No. 3.
Route No. 5—From Route No. 3 in Clara south to route No. 1 in Iowa Park.
Route No. 6—From Wichita Falls to the Clay county line toward Charlie.
Route No. 7—From Wichita Falls to the Clay county line toward Petrolia.
Route No. 8—From Wichita Falls to the Archer county line at Lake Wichita toward Archer City.
Route No. 9—From Wichita Falls to the Archer county line toward Seymour.
Route No. 10—From Route No. 1 in Iowa Park south to the Wichita River bridge.
Route No. 11—From a point in Route No. 3 about one mile west from where Routes Nos. 3 and 4 intersect, about four and one-half miles directly north, and thence in a northeasterly direction about one-half mile, to the bridge across Red river on the Electric and Frederick road.

Changes Authorized.
All said roads to be on the same lines heretofore laid out by the Commissioners Court for improvement under the bond issue voted in 1917. But the Court may, if deemed by it advisable, cause Route No. 1 to cross over the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway into the Scotland Addition over the Burnett street bridge to Seventh street and thence back to its original line. But in that event, said Route No. 1 shall also be paved to the old bridge across Wichita River to its intersection with Route No. 2 on the north side of the river.

Routes Nos. 1 and 2 to be paved their entire distance with concrete six feet wide, with four feet additional width of gravel on each side for shoulders.
Route No. 3 to be paved from Burk Burnett to Clara with concrete fourteen feet wide with four feet additional width of gravel on each side for shoulders, and from Clara west fourteen feet wide with bituminous gravel.
Routes Nos. 4 and 5 to be paved their entire distance with concrete fourteen feet wide with three feet additional width of gravel on each side for shoulders.
Route No. 6 and 7 shall be improved as has been heretofore agreed upon by order of the Commissioners Court as now appear on record.
Route No. 8 to be paved its entire distance with concrete sixteen feet wide with four feet additional width of gravel each side for shoulders.
Route No. 9 to be paved its entire distance fourteen feet wide with four feet additional width of gravel on each side for shoulders.
Route No. 10 to be paved with concrete fourteen feet wide its entire distance with four feet additional width of gravel on each side for shoulders.
Route No. 11 to be improved in such manner as the Court may decide upon, and to be at least equal in character to Routes Nos. 6 and 7.
Route No. 12, being that part of Route No. 3 lying west of its intersection with Route No. 11 to be improved in such manner as the court may determine, and to be at least equal to Routes Nos. 7 and 11.

INSTRUCTED VERDICT IN DEFENDANT'S FAVOR
In the 18th district court Saturday afternoon Judge Scurry instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendant in the case of George E. Hooper, trustee, vs. Mrs. Salena V. Ernest Moore. An oil lease was involved. Mrs. Moore lives in Denver, Colorado.

Why be contented with your present income when you can gradually increase it by building up a Savings Account in the National Bank of Commerce which provides absolute safety for your principal and pays your 4 per cent compound interest?

EXTREME PENALTY IS GIVEN MAN WHO STRIKES A WOMAN

At about 8 o'clock Saturday morning J. E. Jordan struck Mrs. Sabel, an aged woman living on Mississippi street, following a quarrel over a pair of piers. At 10 o'clock Jordan was in the county jail under a two-year jail sentence and a $1,000 fine for aggravated assault.

The sheriff's department was notified of the assault within a few minutes after its happening. Jordan was arrested promptly and when brought to the court house demanded an immediate trial. The jury for the week was still empanelled and Jordan's request was granted.

Mrs. Sabel, with bruises about her face and head, testified as did Jordan that she went to Jordan's home to ask for a pair of piers that he had borrowed. She claimed they were his and had been stolen by her son. When she denied this charge, she said he struck her, not once but several times, knocking her to the ground and that after she had fallen he struck her again.

Jordan admitted that he had struck Mrs. Sabel and said that he was not sorry he had done so. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the first ballot and assessed the maximum penalty. Jordan was taken from the court room to the county jail.

T. W. ROBERTS TO BUILD HANDSOME HOME ON TENTH

The contract has been let for a new residence and garage costing $45,000 for T. W. Roberts, capitalist, on Tenth street between Brooks and Taylor. The house will be two-story, of ornamental face brick and terra cotta cornice brackets, and green tile roof. The dimensions will be approximately 60x84.

The large lot which adjoins that of Dr. R. L. Hargrave is 75x150. The down floor will include large sun parlor, living and reception rooms in addition to kitchen and dining room. The side entrance at the portico will have a marble vestibule. The floors and other woodwork will be of oak, and the ceiling will have ornamental plaster cornice. The walls will be finished with burrap, and the elaborate painting and decorating will be handled under a separate contract.

There will be three fire-places with brick mantels. The second story will have sleeping porch, four bed rooms and two bath.

The two-story garage in the rear will be of the same general style of architecture, which is described as being of the American type, will have capacity for two cars, and the upper floor will be arranged for sleeping quarters.

Charles J. Pate is architect, and J. O. Polhemus is contractor.

ENDEAVOR RALLY IS TO BE HELD AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Christian Endeavor Rally and Conferences which were announced for the Presbyterian Church for Monday have been changed to the First Christian Church. This change was made necessary owing to an unavoidable conflict in the use of the Presbyterian Church. Those in charge of these meetings decided after a careful consideration of the situation that it would be better to change the place of meeting than to cancel the engagement with Miss Grace F. Hooper of Nebraska, National Junior Superintendent. As was announced last Sunday Miss Hooper will be in Wichita Falls Monday, April 21. The program for the Hooper Rallies is as follows:

Conference of Junior Sunday school teachers and Junior Endeavor workers at 3 o'clock in the Sunday school auditorium of the First Christian Church.

Rally of all Junior Sunday school children and all Junior Endeavorers at 4 o'clock in the same place.

At 4:30 o'clock in the basement of the church there will be a general meeting of all church people and friends for a social hour and an address by Miss Hooper.

These meetings are open to the general public and especially are Junior workers and parents urged to attend.

This is to be one of many similar conferences held by Miss Hooper as she tours Texas, covering a period of six months. She will reach here over the Katy from Saint Jo, where she is in the district Christian Endeavor convention and will leave Monday night for Memphis and Amarillo.

WOODMEN TO ENJOY BOX SUPPER NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

W. O. W. Camp 3001 will hold their regular meeting Monday night, the time having been given over for a social and box supper, to which all members of the W. O. W. and Circle are invited and the public generally is urged to come. The ladies are urged to bring boxes, and the men to come with a pocket full of money, as the proceeds go to the benefit of the team.

It is intended to have several boys present to enter into contests for prizes to be offered. These attractions have a way of pleasing a good time in general is expected Wednesday night.

ORGANIZATION OF A TRAFFIC ORGANIZATION

H. C. Burditt and B. D. Blackwell announce the formation of the Wichita Falls Traffic association for the purpose of aiding shippers in matters pertaining to freight tariffs, claims and classification. The alleged advantages to business men to be rendered by this association will be presented at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night. Temporary offices are located at 703 La Salle street.

LOG OF THE WELL OF SILK AND OTHERS IN ARCHER COUNTY

Drilling at 1200 feet in a sandy lime, the Silk, Bullington & Langford well in Archer county has gone thru all the expected formations so far, according to W. W. Silk, indicating that the location is at the high point of the formation. Ten sands have been gone through at the present time and the log of the well to this depth leads to a strengthening of the belief of those putting down the well that the black lime and the big pay will be found between 3,500 and 4,000 feet. Mr. Silk added:

Because of the great interest in this well, Mr. Silk permits the publication of the log down to the present drilling depth, 1200 feet. The log follows:

Red soil, 0 to 6 feet; sand rock, 6 to 24; shale 24 to 32; red bed, 32 to 57; shale, 57 to 72; white sand, 78 to 82; red bed, 81 to 112; white sand, 112 to 122; little water; red bed, 122 to 180; white sand, 180 to 210, four barrels fresh water per hour; red bed, 210 to 260; white sand, 260 to 296; salt water; blue shale, 296 to 308; red bed, 306 to 530; blue shale, 530 to 555; white sand, 555 to 565; dry; blue shale, 565 to 610; white sand, 610 to 620; blue shale, 620 to 687; red bed, 687 to 710; blue shale, 710 to 780; red bed, 780 to 790; gray sandy lime (hard), 790-795; gray sandy lime (soft), 795 to 800; blue shale, 800 to 834; oil showing; white sand; salt water 834 to 870; blue shale; oil showing, 870 to 885; white sand; salt water, 885 to 920; blue shale, 920 to 970; black shale, 970 to 1000; blue shale, 1000 to 1020; lime shells, 1020 to 1040; red shale, 1040 to 1055; sand soft, gray and dry, 1055 to 1065; blue shale, 1065 to 1085; 1085 feet of 12 1/2 inch pipe set; sand, salt water, 1095 to 1120; blue shale, 1120 to 1198.

FOLKS Talked About

JAMES R. GILMORE

J. R. Gilmore is one of the old-time operators of the Pennsylvania fields, who is now devoting himself to the development of the North-west Texas fields. When we say old-time operator we do not mean that he has spent all of his life at it, because years before he ever gave the oil business a thought he was doing very nicely in other lines. When a boy of 15 he became possessed of a desire to take the mappers of the world to task and verify a few things from first-hand information, so he ran away from a good home to go to sea to view the wonders of the world for himself. He served various capacities aboard ships, including that of second mate and made of several trips around the Horn. His robust physique of today speaks plainly of those early adventures. After retiring from the sea-faring life, he entered the rug and carpet trade and in 1881 considered an authority in carpet and drapery fabrics of Turkey, Persia and the Far-East. Oil as a business with him is all very well, but the lure of the briny still sways him, and he is happy when he climbs aboard his yacht and puts to sea, though only for short durations.

STATE REVENUE COLLECTOR WARNS LOCAL OIL MEN

W. R. Nabours, state revenue collector, will be in Wichita Falls Tuesday and Wednesday, April 22 and 23, at the City National Bank to confer with all engaged in producing oil, relative to the quarterly returns to be made to the state. He will be in Burkburnett at Farmers State Bank on Thursday, or will arrange a convenient date with oil producers if called upon at the Eldora hotel. Mr. Nabours makes the following statement:

"The laws of this state provide that every person, firm, corporation or association who engage in the business of oil production must, within thirty days from the date the production begins, pay to the state treasurer, a tax of $50.00 and make quarterly returns thereafter to the state comptroller, showing the gross (entire) production, the average price therefor, and make remittance covering the same, and provides a penalty for failure to do so."

"If you are an oil producer, and are not sure you have met all the requirements of the state law, see me at the City National Bank, Wichita Falls, on Tuesday or Wednesday, April 22 and 23, or at Farmers State Bank, Burkburnett, Thursday, the 24th, or call me at Eldora hotel and arrange for a date."

"Do not become confused with any of the federal tax laws, as this is a state matter, and a matter of importance to you."

BURK-WAGGONER WELL PRODUCES EXCEPTIONAL HIGH GRADE OF OIL

Repairs to the derrick and machinery have been completed at the Burk-Waggoner well and after swabbing for a little while on Friday and Saturday the tools were put back in the hole for cleaning out, and drilling further from the well, according to reports from the field.

The oil which is coming from the well tests around 42 gravity, being exceptionally light oil, and consequently of unusual value for making gasoline. The difference in grade of his oil and that of the Burkburnett pool, which tests from 38 to 39 1/2, seems to be positive proof that the well indicates a newly new pool. This oil tests higher, it is said, than any of the oil produced in this section.

BIG LIME OIL COMPANY SETS CASING AT 1665

The Big Lime Oil Company's well in block 41, A. J. Schultz land one and a half miles west of Burkburnett, is casing at 1665 feet and is now reported with a star up to complete the well. Bailing began Saturday. This well is 2,000 feet from the Humble well on the Herndon, being to the southwest.

J. S. Schultz of Seymour is president of the company and general manager. W. F. White of Amarillo is vice president and Ocie Spear, Dr. J. B. Young and O. Peterson of Fort Worth are trustees. The company is capitalized at $55,000 and has ten acres of land.

TWIN CITIES OIL CO. IS SETTING CASING

The Twin Cities Oil Co. is setting casing at 1693 in the Hardin tract, and will drill at the same time. The same company is drilling at between 700 and 800 feet on its test at Iowa Park.

The men who control the affairs of the National Bank of Commerce are experienced bankers—and more. They are successful business executives, able to consider the problems of oil operators and business men from a business as well as a financial standpoint.

PLAN TO SHOOT WELL WITH 800 QUARTS OF NITRO

Special to The Times
FORT WORTH, April 19.—There'll be a miniature earthquake when the Roxana Petroleum Company shoots its Seaman well in the northern part of Palo Pinto county with a dose of 800 quarts of nitrocellulose, plans for which are now being made. This will be the heaviest shot ever administered to any well in Texas.

The Seaman well has a little better 4,000 feet and recently had a fairly good showing of oil.

HOBERTZ WELL TO NORTH OF STRAWN STRIKES PAY SAND

Special to The Times
EASTLAND, April 19.—The A. R. Hohertz well north of Strawn struck the pay sand Wednesday and has strong pressure of gas with showing of oil. The well is flowing by heads. The Midkiff well on the Carter-Slemmons farm, also north of Strawn, struck a sufficient amount of gas yesterday for operation of the rig for drilling purposes.

REFINERY OFFICES MOVED TO KEMP & KELL BUILDING

Offices of the Fisher-Gilliland Refinery, purchased last week by the Texoma Oil and Refining Company, have been moved to 402 and 404, Kemp & Kell building, the suit occupied by the Texoma offices. The purchasers have assumed active control of the refinery, and are now making plans, according to W. B. Hamilton, the general manager of the Texoma, to build additional stills to increase the capacity of the plant to 5,000 barrels daily.

TEXAS PRODUCERS CO. BRINGS IN GOOD WELL

The Texas Producers and Refining Co. brought in a well Saturday on their Fowler farm, one and a half miles north of Burkburnett. The well is estimated at between 400 and 500 barrels.

No one need hesitate about opening an account in the National Bank of Commerce with a small amount—the bank welcomes small deposits as cordially as large, and extends the same friendly, helpful and accommodating service to all patrons.

BROOKLYN TAKES BOTH GAMES OF DOUBLE HEADER

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, April 19.—The major league baseball season was opened here today when the Brooklyn club defeated the Boston Red Sox in a 10-inning game this morning, and 3 to 2 this afternoon. Holiday crowds of more than 5,000 and 15,000 attended.

Jeff Pfeiffer pitched well in the afternoon game for Brooklyn. The Boston players got on the bases in every inning but there were no hits to send them home. Pfeiffer contributed to Brooklyn's win by driving the ball into deep left center, where Rigert dropped it after a long run. Boston scored in the seventh on hits by Miller and Herzog, and in the eighth when Pfeiffer became wild and passed two and hit two, forcing Hohe in.

Rudolph of Boston and Cadore for Brooklyn engaged in a pitching duel in the first game, which was broken by Brooklyn in the tenth inning when Griffith singled with runners on third and second, Boston scored twice in the seventh, with three hits and a sacrifice fly.

KING BREAKS 117 STRAIGHT AT LOCAL GUN CLUB SHOOT

By Associated Press.
SPLENDID EXHIBITION OF SHOOTING BY A FORMER COL. ORADO MAN.
INTEREST IN CLUB INCREASES
J. F. McCubin of Peters Cartridge Company is a Guest at Friday's Shoot.

R. A. King, who, when he isn't dabbling in oil in Texas, raising cantaloupes across the great divide in Colorado or wondering pensively why some one doesn't irrigate New Mexico as usually settling fire to gun powder, performed in Wichita Falls Friday afternoon one of the greatest exhibitions of trap-shooting ever seen in this section. As a guest of the Wichita gun club, King visited the range for the weekly shoot, smashed 117 clay pigeons in a row and gave the starting impression that strings must have been throughout the United States for the first quarter of 1919. His home for years was in Delta, Colorado, but he is now a resident of Wichita Falls, as oil interests here and his presence undoubtedly will do a great deal to stimulate interest in trap shooting in this city.

In his first trip to the range Friday for a round of 25, King let 2 birds get away in his first eight shots. But he really started on the ninth pigeon, he certainly did. One hundred and seventy-one out of 172 were selected, the black clay disk whirled away against the sky line, King's pump gun spared a welcome and the bird flew fragments. The trap got out of order, or King "would have been breaking 'em still," as Gus Wilfong said later.

Not to be behind King's beautiful work at the traps was a pretty piece of shooting by another visitor, J. F. McCubin, a professional representing the Peters Cartridge company. McCubin, using the smokeless powder brand of shells that an old Maine guide once said "always explodes just before you pull the trigger," shattered 90 pigeons out of 106, scoring 23-21-23-23.

The local members of the club stimulated by the brilliant work of King and McCubin, also were "on their toes" during the shoot, and a very marked improvement over last weeks shooting resulted. Will Daniel made a pretty run of 48 out of 50, finishing with 70 out of a 75-total, while S. A. Wilfong and E. G. Hill tied with the fine scores of 86 out of 100.

The complete scores follow:

Runs	Totals
Will Daniel	24-24-22 70X 75
J. F. McCubin	23-21-23-23 90X100
E. G. Hill	48-48-48 144

AMERICAN LEAGUE PROSPECTS FOR THE SEASON OF 1919

By BAN R. JOHNSON
In the last three or four months there has been a great awakening of interest among the supporters of baseball throughout the country which augurs well for a splendid revival of the sport. It is plain the public mind has eased from war conditions and we can look forward with genuine confidence to a spirited championship race on both the major leagues.

The gradual return of players from overseas and the home cantonnments has filled the ranks of all the clubs to a standard so essential for the production of the highest grade of professional baseball.

In acquiring V.H. Boston has added strength to its infield.

During the winter months, New York has shown commendable energy by a liberal expenditure of money, has changed for the better the complexion of its team. Its batting strength has been measurably improved and the club will enter the campaign with a far superior pitching department.

Philadelphia's infield is still a problem, Connie Mack must solve, but we all concede he has corralled a hard hitting outfield and has built his catching staff to a higher standard. There has been no material improvement in the Washington club.

Gardner's a signment to Cleveland in the winter conference has investigated the Hungarian situation, he obtained from Bela Kun, the communist foreign minister, assurances regarding the protection of foreign interests in Hungary, the press bureau announced. Nevertheless, it is declared, the Hungarian government is still endeavoring to confiscate foreign property. In these circumstances, Foreign Secretary Balfour has addressed a note to Bela Kun warning the soviet government that it will be held responsible for the fulfillment of its undertaking regarding foreign interests.

FOREIGN PROPERTY IN HUNGARY STILL BEING CONFISCATED

By Associated Press.
LONDON, April 19.—During the visit to Budapest recently of General Jan Christian Smuts, who was sent by the Paris conference to investigate the Hungarian situation, he obtained from Bela Kun, the communist foreign minister, assurances regarding the protection of foreign interests in Hungary, the press bureau announced. Nevertheless, it is declared, the Hungarian government is still endeavoring to confiscate foreign property. In these circumstances, Foreign Secretary Balfour has addressed a note to Bela Kun warning the soviet government that it will be held responsible for the fulfillment of its undertaking regarding foreign interests.

MORE FAVORABLE TO DEFENSE IN TRIAL OF CHAMBERLAIN

By Associated Press. PARIS, April 19.—Captain E. G. Chamberlain of San Antonio, Texas, took a hand today in examining witnesses in his trial before a court martial in connection with his reported aerial exploits last summer on the British front. The defendant by questions took Major Gilchrist, U. S. over the route followed by the witness, and Lieutenant Commander Frederick H. Allen of the American air forces and Captain Chamberlain last December while investigating the flight of the defendant. Major Gilchrist testified that the party visited two spots in the vicinity of St. Jean, where Chamberlain was supposed to have landed. The first place visited, Major Gilchrist said, Chamberlain had declared unlike the spot where he had landed from his famous flight over the German lines. Chamberlain, however, immediately recognized the second spot as the one where he had alighted, the witness continued and the topography of the country tallied exactly with the description that Chamberlain had made to the witness before leaving Paris.

The defense announced that it would call as witnesses the mayor of St. Jean and his daughter who are reported to have told one of the witnesses for the defense that an American airplane had landed in the vicinity of the village on last July 26. The trial is progressing slowly. Donald Harper, counsel for Chamberlain, wished the court to sit tomorrow. The president of the court, Major General Sir John Dill, adjourned the trial until Monday. M. Buzin, caretaker of a chateau at Rosoy-en-Brie, where the British aviator officers were stopping, testified this afternoon that he saw Chamberlain there in the latter part of July. Madame Bidaux, keeper of a hotel near the Touquin aviation field, testified that she remembered seeing Chamberlain. She identified him and recollected the conversation of English officers in which Chamberlain's name was mentioned to the effect that he had not returned from a flight over the lines and they thought him lost. Then the next day, according to Madame Bidaux, they informed her that he had returned. She asserted that the account of the flight received much publicity in the vicinity to Touquin at the time.

GENERAL COUNCIL OF BAVARIA HAS BEEN DISSOLVED. LONDON, April 19.—The central council at Munich has been dissolved and the power at present is in the hands of a committee of five men elected by the soldiers council of the Bavarian capital, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says. Food ration cards have been taken away from the bourgeoisie and the gas and electric supplies to the bourgeoisie homes will be cut off.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS AND COMMUNIST CLASH. BERLIN, (Via Copenhagen), April 19.—Serious fighting between Bavarian communist and government troops occupied Friday near Freising resulting in fairly considerable losses for both sides a Munich dispatch to the Tagblatt says. The communists had constructed trenches near Freising, which is 30 miles north-northeast of Munich, and defended them with machine guns. Three thousand War-timers troops, the dispatch adds, arrived at Dachau, north of Munich, last night, and it is expected they will not engage in a decisive battle with the communists until they have at least 30,000 troops around the Bavarian capital. It will be several days before this number of troops will be in a position to move on Munich.

PORTER WHALEY TO TENDER RESIGNATION TUESDAY MORNING. Porter A. Whaley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will offer his resignation to the directors of the chamber at the weekly meeting of the board next Tuesday. Whaley is of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which organization he was leaving to become a general manager largely instrumental in perfecting before he began his commercial duties in this city. Inability to find satisfactory home for himself and family under the present congested conditions here, and the fact that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce offers a field of endeavor limited only by the general boundaries of this section of the state, were the main factors in inducing Mr. Whaley to accept his new post, he stated Saturday. "I am sincere in saying that I believe Wichita Falls has a wonderful future," he said, "and I really regret going. Wichita Falls is growing today in a big way; not merely because of the oil boom but growing in industrial and business activities that will make the city big and keep it so. I hope to be able to visit here very often."

No one need hesitate about opening an account in the National Bank of Commerce with a small amount—the bank welcomes small deposits as cordially as large and extends the same friendly, helpful and accommodating service to all patrons. Circle number four of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. T. J. 2206 South street, Monday afternoon.

Market Report

NEW YORK STOCKS. NEW YORK, April 19.—The stock market experienced its busiest week in session in many months today, despite yesterday's recess, which in some ways tended to extend their holiday into the coming week. The buoyant movement began at the outset and continued with undiminished activity to the end, a majority of leading issues closing at or within small fractions of their top levels. Incidentally the advance elevated many specialties to highest prices of the year and in a few instances for the past two years were established. Backwardness of rails and the sluggish course of metals exerted no unfavorable influence in such favorites as shippings, equipments, oils, metals and half a score of peace issues, notably the food division. Last week's heavy actual loan expansion by clearing house banks, was replaced by a moderate contraction, and an increase of $13,000,000 in excess reserves strengthened that item to a total of slightly more than $56,000,000. Little interest was shown in the bond market, Liberty issues yielding slightly, with minor changes in other domestic issues and international. Total sales, par value, aggregated $7,750,000. Old U. S. 2's and 4's gained 1/4 of 1 per cent on call today. Closing prices on Liberty bonds today were: 2 1/2's 98.98; first 4's 95.50; second 4's 94.44; first 4 1/2's 95.20; second 4 1/2's 93.46; third 4 1/2's 95.20; fourth 4 1/2's 93.50.

AMERICAN MANAGER OF MEXICO MINE IS KILLED BY BANDITS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Dispatches received today at the department confirmed previous reports that Edward L. Dufourcq, of New York City, assistant general manager of the Presidential Copper company, was murdered Wednesday by Mexican bandits. The body was recovered Thursday and will be sent to New York, according to the department's information. Dufourcq and his assistant, O. Galsman, were attacked and wounded while traveling on a railroad motor car in Pueblo state, near the copper company's plant. Galsman escaped but Dufourcq was seized by the bandits who apparently had intended at first to hold him for ransom. Later, however, he was killed. D. C. Brown, vice president of the copper company, telegraphed the state department today that Dufourcq was a native born American and was prominent as a mining engineer.

Summary of International Situation and Progress of Peace Conference. With the question of Poland's western boundary settled, the council of four of the peace conference in Paris was prepared today to take up anew the problem of the Adriatic for definite disposition. As a result of the council's deliberations yesterday, Danzig, the Baltic port claimed by Poland, is to become an international harbor. It is understood, Poland will be given a corridor through Germany. It is said, so that she may have free access to the sea. Whether this corridor coincides with that delineated by the peace conference some weeks ago is not known. Italy's claims to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast will be laid before the council of four by Baron Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister. A final decision on the question is expected to be reached before the end of the day's session. Representatives of Irish societies in America will confer with Colonel E. M. House, of the American mission, relative to the claims of Ireland before the conference. It is understood that their will is that three Irish delegates be permitted to go to Paris for a hearing. Another nationalist movement within the British empire may be brought to the official notice of the delegates by representatives of Egyptian elements which are demanding independence for their country. The Egyptians now are in France and are expected to reach Paris soon in an endeavor to lay their case before the conference. Conditions at Cairo are reported to be grave as a result of this movement. It is announced that Rumanian troops have been ordered to occupy territory which was provisionally allotted by the peace conference to that country in Transylvania, formerly a province of the Austro-Hungarian empire. When the new soviet government was established in Budapest, it was declared that the turning over of this particular territory to Rumania was one of the causes of the overthrow of the regime headed by Count Michael Karolyi. German government troops and Bavarian soviet forces are believed to be fighting in or around Munich but little as to the trend of events there has been learned. In northern Germany labor troubles continue, Bremen being the storm center of what appears to be a serious strike, while strike movements also persist in Berlin. Reports from Paris seem to indicate that President Wilson plans to return to America the middle of next month and that an extra session of congress may be called to meet some time between May 15 and June 1.

PROGRAM NOW IN PREPARATION FOR COMMENCEMENT

Plans are well under way at the High School for the commencement exercises, including Class Day, Baccalaureate Sunday, the annual concert of the Glee Club and all of the other gala days of a senior's life. The 1919 class has the distinction of being by far the largest ever graduated from the local High School. The first examinations will be held May 8, that being the date set for the piano examinations for pupils taking credit work outside. Miss Katherine Bailey of the piano department of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton and Miss Alma Ault of the violin department of the same college, will be here during the examinations and will assist in their respective departments. These young ladies are artists in every sense of the word and have consented to give a concert on the night of May 7th. The place will be announced later. The graduating exercises in full will be: annual Glee Club concert, "Joan of Arc" by Gail, May 16, at the First Christian church; class day at the High School auditorium, May 23; baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. Harry F. Draper, place to be announced later; commencement at the Wichita Theatre, address by Ralph Clark.

YOUTHFUL SON OF MRS. W. D. SMITH MISSES MOTHER

If Mrs. W. D. Smith, insurance saleswoman for the National Life insurance company of Des Moines, Ia., is in Wichita Falls, this story is intended for her eye only—to tell her that her son is here, in care of the Chamber of Commerce, and that the youngster certainly feels pretty blue and wants his mother. The boy, William D. Smith, 13 years old, came to Wichita Falls Saturday afternoon from Ardmore, Okla., to meet his mother. The train was two hours late, and the youngster got "lost in the shuffle" at the station. But friendly citizens filled his tummy with beefsteak, and Miss Hazlewood, of the Chamber of Commerce, fixed "Bill" up in comfort last night. The many friends of Charles C. Ince will be glad to note that he has returned from overseas safe and sound with the exception of a slight scar on his hand where he was wounded in battle.

"WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE"

"Rainbow Chasing" a Popular Diversion and in Oil Circles Is Ofttimes, Although Not Always by Any Means, a Profitable Pasttime.

Oil gushers in West Texas have taken the place of castles in Spain in the dreamer's parlance, and now, instead of waiting for their ship to come in they wait for their well to shoot over the top. For the past nine months since the Fowler well came in and the big Burk Burnett boom was on, rainbow chasing has been the favorite sport of rich and poor, old and young, in this section of the country, and the fever has spread all over the United States.

It has been quite long enough to begin to look for results from this rainbow chasing, to find out whether the pot of gold is in the real stuff, or only "Fool's Gold" is the fairy tale of the rainbow's end true, even if the oil fields are the end of the rainbow?

Wealthy Over Night.
Here in Wichita Falls are many people who have become wealthy overnight, because of oil being found in enormous quantities under their land and there are others who have made vast sums of money through fortunate investments. But there are many others who have suddenly had the romance of oil play a part in their lives, who have found oil meant some extra luxuries, the realization of a part of their dreams at least. And the stories of these make very interesting telling.

What is your pet dream? What would you buy if you got some extra money, not so much, just a few hundred dollars or few thousand dollars maybe? Some folk have their hearts set on cars, others on diamonds, or other luxuries that their present income will scarcely support, and others have other ambitions. Lots of people have been able to indulge their vanities to a certain extent because of a lucky buy in oil stock.

Weaving Wild Fancies.
Wichita Falls can boast a secretary to an oil man, who drives her own Cadillac seven passenger car to work, and there are many others in the business world, who have been highly successful, in a small way. This oil man's secretary, who by the general consensus of opinion all in one of the big office buildings, is one of the most popular and highly efficient stenographers in all North Texas, had $500 Marine stock. One day she and a friend were weaving wild fancies about their oil stock.

Well, I'll hold until it reaches ten to one, and then I'll buy me a Cadillac, and take everybody in the building for a ride.
The friend was discussing a handsome fur coat she had seen and wanted very much, but which she didn't feel like squeezing into her clothes allowance for the winter.

I'll buy you that coat and swap it for your Marine stock, offered the oil man.
That was at a time when none of the stocks had risen very high, and when the Marine had just commenced to drill. The coat was $400, the stock was $100 per, but the girl decided she'd wait a little longer, the weather wasn't dramatic come true.

The year nineteen nineteen was still young when the Marine company sold its holdings, the sale being one of the sensations of the winter.

The Cadillac car was long in making its appearance and the promise to take everyone in the building for a ride has been about fulfilled. And it didn't take all of the stock to buy the car, the sale netting everyone $3750 for each $100 invested.

Oh, yes, about the fur coat. That girl had some more oil stock, and she sold it, along about the time the weather came and got her fur coat anyway, and when the Marine was old her bank roll was swelled considerably.

After the Marine sale everyone who suddenly exhibited some of the marks of unusual prosperity was greeted with a remark something like this, "What this Marine money will do, and where he stoffore the appearance of a handsome diamond ring on the hand of a girl was cause for suspicion, and preparation to attend a wedding, now told merely looked, admired and thought (sometimes they said it out loud), "Marine."

One girl, who doesn't work, but who has to go to bed for clothes allowance and spending money had two shares of this forecast stock. When the stock exchange board showed Marine at past $300, she saw a hat and some other things she wanted, and sold her share. There was plenty for the hat and other little extras, but unfortunately she held on, and had the other share when the big sale came, and now she can get along nicely for a few months without any help from dad.

Men Who Made It Possible.
And while on the subject of Marine, and giving these little nice, gossipy intimate details, let's talk a few seconds about the big men that organized the company, and gave their time to developing the land, managing the affairs, and finally selling out to such a wonderful advantage for the stockholders. They believed they had a good thing, so they went to their friends and asked them if they wanted to get in. Most of them did, but some of them didn't have the money. These men had paid for the lease, and they had some money, from the folk who had plenty of money to come in, so when they ran across a friend who couldn't spare the money they just took his name, and held back the stock, and then some of them had some friends that they made presents of some of their stock. There were some fellows who were away, overseas fighting, or otherwise doing their part, and weren't here to get in the big game, but these men didn't forget them, and their names went into the pot too, and when they get back home, and start all over again, as they are going to have to do, because of these friends and the oil, they will have something to start on. And there are a whole lot of people who think that these men are about the best ever and haven't found anybody to dispute it. Needless to say, there hasn't been any business for the Oil Investors Association's investigating committee in this organization.

Others Have a Part.
But all the "extras" that folk have been enjoying in these parts as the result of the oil strike, aren't due to Marine. There are a whole lot of big new cars, nice homes, diamond rings and similar near luxuries, necessities, depending on the viewpoint, as the result of the success of their owners in the oil game, who didn't have a single share of Marine.

Promoting companies has been a very profitable end of the game, and the promotion was not limited to any certain class.

In the words of the old nursery rhyme "Rich man, poor man, beggar man, thief" it would never do to say "thief" so let's skip to "doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief," they were all in it. Bankers, merchants, real estate men, professional men, and men of trades, all went into it.

Those who have made successes in the game are known, but as a rule the failures are not much advertised. You see the man who used to keep a little grocery store pointed out as he drives by in his fine new car or you hear some one say, "I knew him when he couldn't pay half his bills, and now he's on his way to be a millionaire."

Many Are Benefited.
Or, leaving the class that has made big money, a friend will show you a nice check for two or three hundred dollars. Dividend, 50 or 100 per cent. Or maybe he has sold out a few shares of stock and has made the first payment on that home he has planned for so long to own. Or if it's a woman she will proudly exhibit some new and fine article of clothing, or a piece of jewelry made possible by the dividend or profit made by a sale of stock. Or maybe she bought that new lounge and table she has wanted for so long, but didn't just see how she could squeeze it in, until that extra hundred or so came along.

But there are other things that you don't see exhibited. Notices from the bank to merely looked, admired and thought (sometimes they said it out loud), "Marine."

One girl, who doesn't work, but who has to go to bed for clothes allowance and spending money had two shares of this forecast stock. When the stock exchange board showed Marine at past $300, she saw a hat and some other things she wanted, and sold her share. Those who have made successes in the game are known, but as a rule the paid labor employed in the building, trades are due in great part to the oil boom, which has brought on this building activity.

Lawyers Not Overlooked.
The lawyers, those of them who are not running oil companies, have all the work that they can possibly do, passing on abstracts, drawing up contracts, many articles of agreement and tenting to the thousand and one nice little meticulous details that lawyers know so well how to find in the simplest sort of a business. And they are happy, prosperous and would be contented if each one of them was just twins so they could take care of their business. At least this is the conclusion one would draw from their appearance. And from the suits which have already been filed showing out of difficulties which have arisen over various phases of the oil business, by various individuals and interests, there will be lots and lots of nice oil litigation for some time to come.

The dentist, who fills your teeth and employs your pocketbook, the barber who tells you all about how it happened, the grocer, baker, street car men, the girl who serves your wants in the stores, or who types your letters in your office, all of them are rainbow chasers, and having the time of their lives chasing, if they don't happen to follow a cold trail. It's a great life, but surely have to weaken every now and then.

Rich Field for Outsiders.
The real estate business has been a rich field for the outsiders, and there are folk here now from north, south, east and west, engaged in chasing the stumby dollar, through trading in Wichita Falls real estate. The competition is great, and growing greater, and it has gotten to the point where "all's fair in love and real estate" has been seemingly amended to apply to real estate. It is nothing to see four or five different signs on one poor little defenseless lot, bearing the sign "This lot for sale by—"

Building since the war, has gone forward at a busier rate than at any other time in the history of Wichita Falls, despite the scarcity of materials, and the high prices prevailing. This affords opportunity for labor, he fully employed at all times, if it desires employment. The high prices

MIDCONTINENT MEN GET EXTENSION FOR FILING TAX RETURNS

Through efforts of the Midcontinent Oil and Gas Association, individual members of that association have been granted an extension of time for filing tax returns, by the commission of internal revenue. This important information was received by J. F. Darby, the active vice president and secretary of the association, Friday night in this city, where he is now located. In a telegram from Acting Commissioner of Revenue Callen, Washington, the telegram follows: "Replying your telegram April 15, advise that extension will be granted individual members Midcontinent Oil and Gas Association upon filing of returns and addresses. This list is ready for filing, Mr.

Darby states, and all members of the association will be notified of this extension, so that they may take advantage of it. In the case of corporations extension to June 15 was granted several days ago. Assuming that the extension would be granted a committee was appointed by the association, with Judge Shea as chairman to prepare general instructions, based on the treasury regulations and treasury manual, explaining the same. Judge Shea was directed to call on his assistants, expert advice on all questions. Their advice in making tax returns will be available to all members of the association. Members of the association will receive the bulletin which Judge Shea's committee is preparing in ample time to prepare their returns in accordance therewith. The executive committee of the association urges that all members withhold their returns until Judge Shea's committee has time to consider the manual and regulations being issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and harmonize them with conditions in the mid-continent field, so that so far as possible all returns can be made on the same basis.

SIX-TON BATTLE TANKS WHICH WILL PARADE STREETS OF WICHITA FALLS DURING VICTORY LOAN DRIVE

BY MARIE BARNETT. Special to The Times.

DALLAS, April 19.—I climbed over the driver's seat of one of the "baby tanks" stationed at Fair Park, which will be used on the Victory Liberty Loan drive, and as I crawled through a low door into the gunner's turret I gave thanks that I am small and slender.

with machine gun bullets. A boy in khaki gave his life in his nation's cause, seated in the very swing where I was riding. As the great moving mass of steel worked its way over ditches and up hills, I swung from side to side, as the boys in the service do, and bumped my head against the walls. I peeped through the slits and the telescopic sight, and tried to imagine an enemy's machine gun nest, which I was trying to destroy, or myself advancing on Hun's artillery position.

WANT AMERICA AS A PROTECTOR FOR ARMENIAN PEOPLE

By Associated Press. LONDON, April 19.—"We ask America simply to assume a burden, to perform a service to humanity," says Professor Gilbert Murray, of Oxford University, in a statement advocating that the United States accept a mandate of the League of Nations to administer and protect Armenia.

"Armenia has been saved from the Turks and Kurds after suffering one of the most awful persecutions known to history," adds Professor Murray. "A remnant of the Armenians still alive can be reconstituted into a nation; but they will be too weak and disorganized to maintain independence or internal order, unless they are helped and protected by some other nation."

"The protecting nation must be very strong, absolutely disinterested, known and trusted by the Armenians, and not already overburdened by other duties elsewhere. There is no nation in the world except America which satisfies these four conditions."

"If America will accept the mandate, the Armenians can still be saved as a people; if America refuses, one more great region of the world is in danger of slipping into anarchy."

"ALL TEXAS" ROUTE IS CHOSEN FOR THE BANKHEAD HIGHWAY

ADOPTED AT MEETING OF DIRECTORS HELD AT MINERAL WELLS.

OKLAHOMA IS NOT INCLUDED

Scheduled to Pass Through Ranger, Abilene and Big Springs.

By Associated Press. MINERAL WELLS, TEX., April 19.—The "all Texas" route of the Bankhead National Highway from Memphis to El Paso was adopted here Friday by the directors of the Bankhead Highway Association. Proposals that the highway run through Oklahoma and that the road make a "scenic loop" from Sweetwater, Texas, through the mountains of New Mexico by way of Roswell, were voted down after lively arguments.

The "all Texas" route which was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the directors, proposes that the highway follow, roughly, a line from Memphis, Tenn., touching at Little Rock, Ark., Hot Springs, Texarkana, Sulphur Springs, Texas, Greenville, Dallas, Fort Worth, Mineral Wells, Ranger, Abilene, Big Springs, Pecos, Sierra Blanca and El Paso.

Bankhead Re-Elected. At its final session today, the United States Good Roads Association re-elected Senator John H. Bankhead of Alabama as president. Officers elected include Governor Charles B. Brough, Arkansas, first vice president; Governor O. A. Terrazola, Nevada, second vice president; H. J. Hubbard, Texas, third vice president; and J. A. Kountze, Birmingham, Ala., director general.

Among resolutions adopted were the following: Calling upon state and county officials to give preference to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines in highway improvement.

Urging congress to pass the Town and Country Bill for a national system of highways, administered by a federal highway commission.

Calling upon states to increase salaries of highway engineers as a guarantee of securing experienced men.

Urging congress to construct more roads in national forests under jurisdiction of the secretary of agriculture.

Urging states to enact laws establishing and maintaining engineering departments in state universities.

Urging the Bankhead Highway Association to designate its route from El Paso to the Pacific coast as quickly as possible.

ENTIRE FAMILY DIES FROM PARTAKING OF CONTAMINATED FOOD

By Associated Press. DETROIT, MICH., April 19.—Five persons comprising an entire family were found dead in their home on the west side here this morning, apparently as the result of ptomaine poisoning. The dead are: James Delavio, his wife, infant son, brother and aged father.

Evidence that the family had partaken of contaminated food was found in the house.

The only cosses of elective officers remaining in Kansas that have not been "invaded" by women are those of sheriff and county attorney.

EXTENSIVE TESTS TO BE MADE FOR OIL IN WILBARGER COUNTY

Special to The Times.

VERNON, TEX., April 19.—Whether Wilbarger county will become an oil field that will rival Wichita county will probably be decided this year. A thorough test of the territory south of Vernon by The Texas Company is certain. Contracts are practically closed for wildcat tests east, west and north of Vernon, and drilling operations are assured on at least two locations northeast of Oklaunion.

The Texas Co. is under contract to develop the W.T. Waggoner ranch pot after the first week of December. If production is not obtained the leases will revert to Mr. Waggoner. The Texas Co. has producing wells on the ranch. One is about eight miles from Vernon. The company has already made about 35 locations and others are being made as rapidly as possible. Derrick timbers and drilling machinery are being moved to these locations from Electra, Harrold and Oklaunion. These operations on a gigantic scale are the best evidence of the confidence of the Texas Co. in Wilbarger county.

Drilling is still under way on the Texas Co. deep test on the Fred Strait farm, about 12 miles southwest of town. The Texas people have large acreage outside of the Waggoner ranch south and southwest of Vernon, and a more extensive drilling campaign than is now projected may be expected. The Home Oil and Refining Co. of Fort Worth, who recently raised the Wharton, G. L. and E. P. Waggoner ranches southwest, will soon begin operations. It is an oil country.

Test East of Vernon. Property owners east of Vernon have made arrangements to have a test well put down north of the railroad in the Byars neighborhood. Hicks Taylor of Wichita Falls are behind the enterprise. J. G. Hicks, of this firm, has been here several weeks looking up the leases and is under contract to have a well within 90 days. To protect the owners' leases will be held in escrow. The rig is ready for active drilling operations. Mr. Hicks is also negotiating a similar proposition in the Tolbert section west of Vernon, and a test in that territory is practically assured.

Property owners west of Vernon have been negotiating with oil operators for several weeks for a drilling contract, but nothing definite has been announced.

No drilling has been done on the McCalab farm, near Doans, but this rig is up and apparently ready for work. It is also reported that Waco parties are organizing a company to drill east of Doans on Red river, but nothing definite can be learned of the status of this project.

A contract has been closed for a test well on the Hancock farm, northeast of Oklaunion.

A hockey team of New Zealand women is soon to start on a tour of the world.

HUMBLE COMPANY TO CONSTRUCT TWO LINES TO RANGER

Special to The Times.

EASTLAND, TEX., April 19.—An announcement was made Friday that the Humble Oil and Refining Co. company will construct two eight-inch pipe lines out of the Ranger field, one to go to Houston to make Gulf connections and the other will be to Oxford, La., where it will connect with the pipe line system of the Standard Oil Company.

The routes for the two lines have not been announced in detail. Several million dollars will be spent on the two lines.

HALL COUNTY PREPARING FOR EXPECTED OIL BOOM

MEMPHIS, TEX., April 19.—Hall county and its capital, Memphis, is getting ready for the oil boom that its citizens feel sure is on the way. It is certain that within the next 30 days there will be from four to six deep tests for oil going down in Hall county. The Home People's Oil and Gas Company, a local association with $75,000 capital, which includes among its stockholders many American citizens, has its rig about completed on the location of its first test, one mile northeast of Deep Lake, 16 miles west of Memphis.

The drilling crew is now rigging up and drilling will commence, it is thought, one day next week. They are using a standard cable rig with shot derrick. The chief driller is Mr. Bodie who had ten years experience in the big California fields, and he has an aide corps of assistants. The test will be put down 4,000 feet if necessary.

G. W. Murray, geologist, discoverer of the Illinois, Oklahoma and California fields, last week inspected the holdings of the company and in his report says, "I found on these premises every known indication found in an oil dome structure, in some respects superior to any structure that has come under my observation for a great many years. Every indication, every evidence that I found indicates high gravity oil, 48 to 54." C. W. Carder of Amarillo is one of the trustees of the Home People's Co. Several other companies, both local and outside, are blocking up acreage in preparation for letting drilling contracts.

"PUPPY LOVE" AT THE EMPRESS ON MONDAY

Lila Lee will be the attraction at the Empress Monday and Tuesday in "Puppy Love."
 There is nothing so serious as the love pledges made in the girl and boy stage of our lives. To James Gordoy Oliver it meant life itself, and when his spinster aunt decided to take the sunshine out of his life he was heartbroken. To Ardenvale went Gloria O'Connell and followed "Hippo" who too loved the fair Gloria, but alas in vain. James was employed on a newspaper and when he learned that Ardenvale was full of old maids he suggested it as a good subject for a Sunday story. And he got the assignment. Any young man who stepped into Ardenvale was the most popular in the world. Phyllis Winters, the baby sister of Gloria's guardian, almost in her forties, decided that "Hippo" was her man and when she took Gloria out riding, she was mad. So mad that when James came looking for Gloria she told awful things about Gloria, so many that James decided to make her jealous by paying Phyllis strict attentions. Well, the net result was that James left the town without one word with Gloria, vowing over and over again that he had never loved her. And then he learned that Gloria was going to marry "Hippo." With murder in his heart he started for Ardenvale. Every old maid whose picture was in the papers decided to worship the young city upstart, so he had to make a hasty exit, taking Gloria with him. Of course, they made up and even with mother and father present vowed never again would another enter their lives.

BACKMAN-TINSCH SHOW COMING NEXT THURSDAY

Amusement goers will have an opportunity on Thursday, April 24th of seeing the newest style of tented exhibition when the Backman-Tinsch Wild Animal Circus comes to Wichita Falls.
 The startling program offered by this organization has been received in all the largest cities with the highest praise and the greatest commendation.
 For highly skilled men and women trainers to give a long praiseworthy program in the two regulation circus rings, using forty-foot steel cages as a protective measure, principally to insure safety to the timid observers, offering and producing all the wild animal acts in the most dangerous and thrilling acts, is such an extreme novelty that no one should miss this opportunity of attending. This exhibition particularly interests and pleases the ladies and children, and for whose care and attention the management is particularly noted.
 No exhibition of a like nature or style has ever been seen in this vicinity for the reason the late world was entirely excluded the importation of wild animals, and this enterprise has always had a large supply on hand. There was no meanness on the part of Backman-Tinsch in not being able to give their full and complete entertainment.
 A special pleasing feature will be the daily rides on the ponies and little horses given to all the children attending this well conducted enterprise.

VIOLA DANA MONDAY AS "THE PARISIAN TIGRESS"

Viola Dana, the spirited and talented young Metro star, will be seen at the Majestic Theater Monday in her latest picture entitled, "The Parisian Tigress." Written specially for her by Albert Capellani and June Mathis, the story affords the star the role of Jeanne, a Paris Apache dancer who is suddenly elevated to the position of a famous Count's daughter through a trick of circumstance. The old count's last days are made supremely happy by the presence of the little waif from the gutter and Jeanne also finds herself revelling in this life, so new and different to her. A series of dramatic incidents serve to bring the picture to a close that is no less powerful than it is satisfactory.

 Miss Dana, last seen here in "Satan Junior," and "The Gold Cure" performs with grace, spirit and charm in the role of Jeanne and is irresistible in every one of her varying moods. Among the younger actresses on the screen Miss Dana is certainly one of the ablest if not the ablest. As a comedienne she is par excellence and when it comes to a more serious mood, her change of expression shows a lightning versatility that presents Miss Dana in a totally different attitude. She is able to cope with any and all parts awarded her on the screen and that something which is called personality for want of a better name, she has in abundance.
 "The Parisian Tigress" was produced under the direction of Herbert Blache and the star is surrounded by competent cast which includes Darrell Foss, Henry Kolker, Edward Connelly, Clarissa Selwynne and Louis D'Arcy.

"A WILD GOOSE CHASE" AT THE GEM TUESDAY

"A Wild Goose Chase," the Triangle picture to be presented at the Gem Theater on Tuesday, is a story laid in the picturesque and ice-bound regions of the far North. The plot deals with a society girl who goes to search for her lover, long reported to have perished in an Arctic expedition. On the ship which she has chartered she must confront the intrigue of her lover's rival, who threatens to snatch her search.

HARRY WHITEHEAD IS HOME FROM OVERSEAS

Harry E. Whitehead, who served nine months in France with the Rainbow division, returned to his home in Wichita Falls Saturday. The young man, who is a son of E. Whitehead, of 3110 Grant street, enlisted here almost a year ago, went overseas with the 36th Division and was later transferred to the 165th Infantry with the famous Rainbow unit. Whitehead was wounded in the Argonne fighting.

MEXICAN GENERAL ACCUSED OF AIDING NEW REVOLUTION

By Associated Press.

LAREDO, TEX., April 19.—General Santiago Mendoza, a former officer in the Mexican army, who has been living in this city for some time, was arrested late last night charged with complicity in the Diaz-Blanquet revolutionary movement in Mexico, it was announced today. His arrest followed the capture of seven armed Mexicans who were caught attempting to cross the Mexican side of the Rio Grande near here. They were believed to have been on their way to Mexico to join a revolutionary movement there. All were held for the federal grand jury which will convene Monday.

REPORT ON CONDITION OF CLEARING BANKS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $56,096,300 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $15,979,050 over last week.

The men who control the affairs of the National Bank of Commerce are experienced bankers—and more. They are successful business executives, able to consider the problems of oil operators and business men from a business as well as a financial standpoint.

URGES EARLY INDEPENDENCE OF PHILIPPINES

Speaker Declares Action Is Justified by Policy of the United States

GIVES DOUBLE REASON

Calls Attention to Position Taken With Reference to the Other Small Nations

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 18.—(Immediate independence for the Philippines on the double ground of the island's fitness for self-government and their right to the status and the United States war policy guaranteeing the liberties of small nations, was urged here today by Manuel L. Quezon, president of the Philippine senate and chairman of the territory's mission to this country.

"How could America give its recognition, even its assistance and cooperation to the independence of Czechoslovakia, Poland and other submerged nationalities, the senator asked, "and withhold it from the Philippines?" He called attention to his country's six year of self-rule, pronounced successful by supervising American officials comparing it with the total lack of experience of some of the liberated republics.

Approves League of Nations. Mr. Quezon voiced the Philippine's "enthusiastic approval" of the league of nations not only because of the league of an international agency to curb militarism and protect peace-loving peoples, but of his country's exultation under some of its features. He described a "proud precedent" for the mandatory idea contained in the league covenant the "unprecedented progress" of the Philippines under American suzerainty, an administration "free from exploitation."

"This magnanimous treatment," he continued, "has made America what it is today in the eyes of the weak and struggling peoples—the champion of their rights, the redeemer of their bondage."

Trusteeship Accomplished. When America assumed trusteeship of the Philippines "for humanity and civilization," Senator Quezon said, "establishment of a stable government was made a prerequisite to independence." This state had been accomplished, he said, in an archipelago governed in practice wholly by native officials. He cited development of the educational system by which within six years every child of school age would be given an opportunity to study in a class-room where English is the legal language, the expansion of foreign and domestic commerce and the increase in wealth. He mentioned also the island's loyal support of the United States in the war which he declared was inspired by the same motive—belief in the principles of self-determination, that had led the Philippines after the defeat of Spain to "wage an unequal war rather than submit unconditionally to American sovereignty."

With the Filipino people ready for independence, the senator said, the commission which he headed had been sent to America "in confidence that it would be able to win for the country a share of the fruits of democracy a victory."

Several Applications Have Already Been Received This Month, and Quite a Large Class Is Expected to Receive the Work Next Month

AT THE CHURCHES

Several applications have already been received this month, and quite a large class is expected to receive the work next month.

A movement is on foot to organize the other branches of Odd Fellowship after the lodge is comfortably situated in the new hall, and it is expected to procure a large number of applications for the highest degree from the other lodges within a considerable distance of Wichita Falls, as there is no branch of the Canton Degree between Fort Worth and Amarillo on the Denver road.

Special Musical Program. At the evening service of the First Christian Church the choir under the direction of Miss Jessie Mae Agnew will give the cantata, "The First Easter," by Wilson. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. The service will be given in the following order:

Prelude, "Twilight Devotion." Peace—Mrs. R. E. Strang. "Lo win the Grave He Lay," Lowry.

Scripture reading. Prayer. Response. Anthem, "Resurrection," Hughes—Choir. Soloists, Mrs. Clark, J. W. Bradley.

Duet, "Lo, I Am With You Always," Fears—Miss Agnew, R. E. Shepherd.

Cantata, "The First Easter," Wilson.

Chorus, "Silent the Sleeping Town," Mrs. Clark, Anna Delle Bradshaw.

Chorus, "The Heavy Rock," soloists, Miss Collier, J. W. Bradley.

Chorus, "The Break of Day," soloists, Mrs. Hamilton, R. E. Shepherd.

Chorus, "As It Began to Dawn," soloist, J. W. Bradley.

Chorus, "Our Lord is Risen," Chorus, "All Hail," soloist, R. E.

NOTED SURGEON CALLED

DR. J. CHALMERS DA COSTA

Dr. J. Chalmers Da Costa, chief surgeon of Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, and considered one of the foremost authorities on intestinal and stomach troubles, who has been ordered to leave aboard the George Washington, is only going as part of regular naval routine, according to Rear Admiral Brastler, surgeon general of the navy at Washington. His order to join the transport caused widespread speculation, but naval officers declared that since Dr. Da Costa holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the Medical Corps it is part of his regular duties to care for the ill and wounded soldiers returning from France.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

Its superior quality meets every baking need. Gives muffins, biscuits and everything you use baking powder with a goodness you probably never knew existed.

Moderate in cost—certain in results—most economical baking powder to use when you want to practice real economy. Stop taking chances of waste and failures. Use a high grade baking powder at a moderate price.

Used in the U. S. Army and Navy. Made in world's largest, finest, most sanitary baking powder factory. What better recommendation could you ask for its reliability?

CALUMET MUFFINS

2 level tablespoonfuls Sugar	2 1/2 Level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1 Egg	2 1/2 Level cups flour
3 Level tablespoons shortening	1 1/2 Cup milk or water
1 Level teaspoon salt	Lemon and mace flavor

How to Make Them—Cream together 1/2 cup flour with shortening until light. Beat egg with sugar until firm and add to the creamed flour and shortening, then add the milk. Last mix in balance of flour and baking powder well sifted together. Bake in greased muffin pans.

The Law Says 16-oz. to a Pound

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16 oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

Announcement

The agency for the "TEXAN" AUTOMOBILE and TRUCKS and CASE-MOTOR CARS at 712 and 714 Ninth street, is now under the management of T. J. Leichman.

The "TEXAN" is known and appreciated all over the South. It is made in Fort Worth—a Texas product, and in point of finish, material and motor efficiency, ranks with the best in the land.

"TEXAN" Trucks are especially adapted to oil field uses and oil men are invited to call and look them over.

CASE MOTOR CARS

Are known everywhere. We want to demonstrate this car for you. It is made by the J. I. Case Co. and has the speed, the appearance and the merit.

Free demonstration of Motor Cars and Trucks at any time.

TO MY FRIENDS:

I have recently been appointed agent for the "Texan" Autos and Trucks, and Case Motor Cars. These cars and trucks are the best in the market—machines that I can honestly and unreservedly recommend, and I cordially invite my friends to visit my show rooms and give me the pleasure of showing them these cars and trucks.

T. J. LEICHMAN.

Texan and Case Car Agency

T. J. LEICHMAN, MANAGER

712-714 Ninth Street

EASTER

EASTER: My, what cheerful sentiment that word carries with it this year. With the world at peace, it's going to be the happiest of happy holidays. Gay promenades and happy reunions will again come into their own. This country is two-fold blessed—we have passed through the greatest crisis in the history of the world and have not had our land torn asunder with the ravages of war.

This store has put forth its best efforts to contribute the best and most desirable wearing apparel, that is so dear to the hearts of Women and Children, for this day of days. Wherever people will be assembled, in or near Wichita Falls, there will be selections of merchandise from this store. We are content in the belief that those who have selected their Easter apparel from this store will be satisfied on this day with their appearance.

EASTER: Is the time the better stores have reached the perfection in completeness of stocks. We announce ready for the Spring and Summer season and invite you to visit the different departments of our store this week.

LARKS IN FLANDERS.
 in Flanders where the earth was red
 A few short months ago.
 The crosses of the allies stand
 Like regimental rows,
 There, splendid in their scarlet silk,
 The poppies soon will spring,
 And in the boundless blue above
 The larks will soar and sing.
 Straight up where glowing sapphires
 A world that has no end,
 The joyous larks on tireless wings
 Will soaring ascend.
 The pearly gates of Paradise
 Will be their shining goal,
 For every bird will bear aloft
 A soldier's risen soul.

THOUGHT MAN WAS CRAZY.
 "I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble for years; the last two years people have been calling me 'crazy.' The doctors could not do anything for me. The awful bloating of gas seemed to press against my brain and I could not think clearly. Three months ago a friend advised taking May's Wonderful Remedy and it has worked wonders in my case. All my bloating and suffering is gone and I feel as though newly born." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Mack Taylor and druggists everywhere.

MRS. MARCUS DALY

MARCH BRIDE
 Mr. Marcus Daly, only son of Mrs. Marcus Daly, of New York, and the late Marcus Daly, who made a fortune in Montana in copper, and Mrs. Lela von Herrenreich Youn, also of New York, were married in New York by the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant. The ceremony followed by a few hours the granting of their marriage license in the Municipal Building.
 The bride is the daughter of Colonel Alois von Herrenreich, of the Austrian army. She met and was married to Captain W. Harry Young, U. S. A., in Vienna in 1912. They were divorced in White Plains, N. Y., in 1916. Captain Young is the son of Mrs. William H. Young, of this city and Tuxedo. He is now on duty in Washington.

ELISHA MEREDITH DIES SATURDAY MORNING AT ARCHER COUNTY HOME

Elisha Meredith, one of the pioneer settlers of this section, died at his home in Archer county at about seven o'clock Saturday morning after an illness with a typhoid affection. He was aged 71 years; two months and 17 days.
 For 30 years Mr. Meredith had been a resident of the community in which he died and had been a useful and respected citizen. He was married in 1870 and came to Texas in 1873. His wife, whose maiden name was Mary Duncan, died several years ago.
 He leaves six sons, B. F. Meredith of Colorado, Arizona, and William, D., Dr. Dumas, Olan and Elisha Meredith who live at the family home and in Wichita Falls.
 The burial will be in the Riverside cemetery in Wichita Falls and the service will be conducted by Masonic bodies at three o'clock.

 The grass grows greener in No Man's Land.
 As day by day goes by
 Thou hast more green gardens in Thy hand
 And more stars in the sky.
 Grief turns to hope—memory to joy.
 Grim war fades out of sight.
 No more we hear Strife's crashing noise
 Peace glows in God's great light.
 Glad jubilees and festive hours
 Form landmarks on Life's way.
 Heaven and earth and friends and flowers
 Are keeping Easter Day.
THANK YOU.

VARIED EXPERIENCE ON BORDER BY TWO REFINERY OFFICIALS

J. A. D. Smith, president of the Lone Star Refinery, and C. F. Johnson, secretary and treasurer of the concern, have just returned from a trip to El Paso, where they spent the past two weeks going over business prospects. They are much pleased with the possibilities for future business, so much so that Mr. Johnson plans to return to El Paso in ten days or two weeks. Plans are understood to be under way, whereby the operations of the refinery will be considerably extended, even over the present branching out, which has taken its business into practically all of the southern states.

Outside the business of the trip, which was attended to most satisfactorily, the two weeks was most pleasantly spent, according to Mr. Johnson. In the first place the two Wichita Falls oil men got all sorts of publicity from the El Paso papers, and they were regarded with much respect, since they came from the place which has been the center of attention in the oil world. They were guests of Rotary and other clubs, and dined to a great extent, also "dined" when they went to Juarez, Mexico. Here they got into bad habits, Mr. Johnson confesses, as Mr. Smith learned to shoot craps and won considerable money. Mr. Johnson himself landed in jail not for crap shooting, but for something which the Mexican authorities explained by letting him out when his friends intervened. There will be no international complications, over his incarceration, however, Mr. Johnson added.

Resolutions of Respect.
Whereas, in the interposition of Divine Providence, our beloved neighbor, Sallie Scott, has been taken to the eternal rest,
It is Resolved, that we, the membership of Lone Star Camp No. 4108, Royal Neighbors of America, convey to the bereaved husband and relatives our deepest sympathy in their great trial and loss; and though the present may be dark and sorrowful we would recommend them to the Heavenly Father, whose all-wise ruling we cannot question.

Be It Further Resolved, that our charter be draped in mourning, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our camp, and that a copy sent to the husband and to the city papers for publication.

DECISION MONDAY IN WACO BUILDING STRIKE

FORT WORTH, April 19.—Joseph S. Meyers, federal mediator, announced today he would render a decision in the Waco building strike Monday. Both sides have agreed to leave the award to him.

The National Bank of Commerce grows and prospers because of the high quality of its service. Oil men, manufacturers and merchants, farmers, professional men, wage earners—all find this institution an ideal banking home.

Interesting Variety Is Shown in the Easter Modes So Popular This Year

NEW YORK, April 19.—What a galaxy of color and splendid magnificence Fifth avenue assumed for the triumphant return of the home boys. A mass of flags flying, representative jewels hanging artfully from huge, stately towers, and arches of meritorious design were part of the titanic and artistic decorations of the city transformed.

The Long Box Coat.

The effects of the glad home-coming upon the spirits of their kin was obvious by the happy expression that appeared on the face of every observer. Nor was the festive spirit confined to the mental manifestation alone. All the feminine world, with a keen appreciation of the event, set forth to beautify itself for the occasion. This resulted in the re-embodiment of the gala day to former Easter Sundays. The late-ness of Easter this year caused many to take advantage of the memorable day for the debut of the Spring costume.

Small Fur Pieces for Neck.
Suits were most in evidence and it is predicted that they will be more favored for spring than the one-piece dress. The smartness of many of these suits lay in the charming little waistcoats that were worn. The suit may be of the simplest lines and most usual design but the presence of an individual little waistcoat will give the whole an air of distinction and style. It is in these details that the secret of the smartness of a suit or frock lies.

Around the neck of every fashionable woman was tightly fastened a single skin which clung closely to her neck. These skins are preferably of sable, but this expensive fur may be substituted by the less pretentious kolinsky, fitch or mink. The fur tightly around the neck gives a charming effect, especially if the wearer has a tailored suit coat showing beneath.

Far neater in appearance are the single skins than the heavy capes and coats of fur for spring.

Other Details of Importance.
A touch of your personal self in a gown always enhances the beauty of it, for your individuality is revealed and the creation harmonizes with the wearer to an almost perfect degree. The newest way sponsored by the critical Dame Fashion of expressing individuality is through the medium of hand-painting. This, however, is rather limited to the Russian blouse, but is at present just holding us spellbound. The ease and comfort of these things, plus the style, makes them one of the most valued and favored fashions of the day.

The New Russian Blouse.

Valenciennes lace is dyed in one instance to match the color of the spotted organdie fabric which makes the frock. This is a pretty idea for summer frocks, but much care must be exercised to have the lace match exactly, for if it is a little off shade the entire effect is lost.

Revival of the Lace Collar.
Tinted in antique shade, dyed to match the frock or black on the dinner frock, the lace collar finds some excuse for its being in evidence. Lace around the neck is a soft and attractive finish and gives the quaint charm of the days of chivalry. A lace collar could be easily worn with either of these suits shown. The contrasting collar on the coat could be removed and a lace one of the same shape applied. This suit also gives opportunity for the wearing of a waistcoat.

The other in a sort of Russian blouse effect attributes its novel look to the turned-up cuff at the lower edge of the coat, and the rows of darning-stitch used as trimming. A narrow girdele of the same material lies at the waistline.

A Handsome
CAPE

Is the Chief Charm of the Spring Outfit

The first warm days of Spring prove the delights of wearing one of these new Capes, with panel vests, shirred or draped collars and gloriously colored linings!

Nothing will be so effective, worn over that new Spring gown. But, no matter what the other garments may be, there is a grace and style about the New Capes that will distinguish and delight every wearer.

They are here, of course, in all the smartest fabrics, in many colorings and forms—many in exclusive models of which we have only one of a kind.

You'll never believe how graceful and becoming they are until you try them on.

All the Favored Silks in Every Wanted Shade

We hear that some of the wanted Silks are hard to find in the colorings desired, but that is not the case here.

Satins, Taffetas, Crepes, Foulards, are now in chief demand and they are here in every fashionable color and shade—abundance of navy blues, for we knew you would want them in plentiful supply and we placed our orders early. All the other dark, rich colorings, and full assortments of the lighter shades as well. New sport materials, too, just in.

Soft Draperies and Novel Sashes
Distinguish the New Skirts

The vogue of the Cape has made the Separate Skirt more important than ever this Spring, and the styles are more artistic than they have ever been, we think.

Here are handsome Skirts in full drapery, almost in Grecian style—full in front, but tapering narrowly at the line of the ankle. Some show attractive over-drapery; others have an effective valance applied. The more dressy sorts are in rich plain color materials; but the plaids are promising more popularity than ever.

You'll enjoy seeing the collection.

Distinctive New Millinery

With the Charm and Allure of Early Summer

From creative sources here in America, have come this distinguished and original collection of millinery modes—but they are worthy of the most accomplished and famous of Parisian artiste-designers.

Charming are the colors, with flowers and fruit forming the entire hat in some of the most attractive creations imaginable. High bows and smart wings are very much in favor. The prices are pleasingly moderate.

Hand-made Hats of distinctly new styles for Spring. There are charming effects of maline combined with rough braids, quaint old-fashioned poke bonnets, many stunning black hats with rose and turquoise facings.

The Indispensable Accessory—
THE HAND-BAG

Carried on the crook of the elbow, or dangling from the wrist, the Hand-Bag bears a most intimate relation to the suit, the gown and the personality of the wearer.

In view of its importance, how gratifying to select from such a collection as is now here.

PRINTED FRENCH VOILES — EXQUISITE PATTERNS, IN DESIGNS AND COLORS OF PRO- NOUNCED CHARM.

Description, we're afraid, will fail to mind-picture a true image of the new voiles now showing. That they are pretty is undeniable; we heard many women express that belief in words, and it beamed all over their faces.

NEW SPRING WASH FABRICS Every day sees new arrivals in Spring Wash Fabrics. There are many new weaves in Voiles, Organ, dyes, woven Tissues and Linweaves

Phones 442 and 443

BEAD NECKLACES, FASHION- ABLE AND BECOMING.

Just one more feminine fancy that has come with the Dress-Up desire. One more added charm for the wearer of the low neck blouse. This new collection shows Bead Necklaces in the amber shades, turquoise blue, dark sea blue, red, white, coral, pearl and jet. You'll simply be lost without it, after you once see how effective they are when worn.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME.

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Uncle Wiggly and Billie's Horn.

"Dear me! What are you going to do now, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she saw the bumpy rabbit gentleman hop out of his low stamp bungalow one day.

"I am going to sprinkle some pepper on the sausage tires of my automobile," said the bumpy.

"What for?" asked Nurse Jane. "So I can ride fast," answered Uncle Wiggly. "Now that winter has gone and spring is here I am going to have some automobile rides, and I'll use you with me. But first I want to try the machine, for it has had a long winter sleep, and may be a bit stiff."

"Well, if you find it is all right, and don't go too fast with the pepper on the sausage tires, I'll ride with you," spoke Nurse Jane.

Uncle Wiggly went out to the corn crib, where he kept his auto, which had a turnip for a steering wheel, and the bunny rabbit found that the machine was rather dusty and dirty. The sausage tires, too, were quite flat and one had a hole in where Jackie and Peete Bow Wood, the puppy dog boys, had bitten out enough for a sandwich.

"But I think I can soon have my auto ready to give a ride to Nurse Jane," said Uncle Wiggly. "I shall like a ride myself. Maybe I'll have more exciting adventures in the auto, than I have by just looting around."

So he dusted off the auto, polished it up with a bit of carrot juice, put on some new tires and then he went for a little ride around the woods, before calling for Nurse Jane.

"Yes, my auto goes very well indeed," said the bumpy, as he blew the honk-honk horn. "Now I'll go get Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy."

But as Uncle Wiggly was riding along in his auto he heard a voice calling to him.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly! Please take me with you!"

"Hello! Who's that?" cried the bumpy, and he stopped his auto so quickly, by scattering some salt on the turnip steering wheel, that Mr. Longears, himself, was nearly tossed out. "Who's there, I say?" cried the bumpy, as he looked at the trees and bushes.

"I am here—Billie Wagtail, the goat," was the answer. "I hurt my hoof playing leap the stumps with Bully No-Tail, the frog boy, and now I can't walk. Will you give me a ride in your auto?"

"Of course, I will!" cried Uncle Wiggly, in his most jolly voice. "Hop in, Billie! I'm going to get Nurse Jane and give her the first ride of the season," and as the goat boy hopped in Mr. Longears blew the auto horn with the red rubber balloon for a handle.

"Honk! Honk!" tooted Uncle Wiggly's auto horn, and in the machine sat Mr. Longears and Billie rode to the hollow stump bungalow.

"Are you all ready, Nurse Jane?" asked Uncle Wiggly as he saw his muskrat lady housekeeper on the front porch.

"All ready," she answered, and then the three of them started off, Billie tooting the horn, Uncle Wiggly steering with the turnip wheel and sprinkling pepper on the sausage tires now and then, and Nurse Jane holding fast to the seat, so she would not be bounced off.

Uncle Wiggly gave Billie and Nurse like auto horn!" cried Billie the goat. "Ah, ha!" "Normal. On your head! Oh, the goat! Fooled again!" cried the Skeezicks, and away he ran before he could be arrested. So Uncle Wiggly got out of that trap all right, he Billie scolded and hopped on his head, and if the bun cushion doesn't hurt when the needle tries to take some of the sawdust stuffing, out for the rag doll's party I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the water barrel.

BURLESON AND HIS CRITICS.

"Burleson is wrecking the party. Remove him and settle the strike," was the message telegraphed to President Wilson by a Democratic club in Massachusetts.

The government took over the telephone and telegraph lines. Whether this was justified as a war measure is a very debatable question. But if they were to be taken over by the postmaster general was clearly the proper official to place in charge of them.

Mr. Burleson accepted the increase rates; it has been impossible to maintain service at its pre-war standard. A strike has come on and the public has made Mr. Burleson the burden. He found it necessary to in-

Probably Mr. Burleson might have done better. But those who criticize him so severely might ask themselves two questions; if they have been in business: Did they not advance the prices of their own products? Did they maintain their service at its pre-war standard or have they yet succeeded in restoring it to its former efficiency?

The Times knows of no institution or business, either public or private, in Wichita Falls that has not increased its prices or that has maintained its service to its normal standard of efficiency. Too many of us have expected the government to do what none of the rest of us have been able to do in our own business.

NEW HOPE DAWNS.

As a new hope came into the world with the reconstruction on Easter morn-more than nineteen centuries ago, a new hope is coming into the world again today after the sacrifices—and it is not sacrifice to say it—the crucifixion of the dark hours of war. The hour of reconstruction has come after the dark period of sacrifice, destruction and death and the reconstruction is being undertaken in the spirit of high hope and aspiration of the Easter season.

Can we hold this hope in the resurrection and believe in a peace pact that does not reflect our spiritual hopes? Can we favor a peace that is merely a return to selfish and material interests?

Salivary excretion as an accompaniment of mental processes is being discouraged at Dallas. Four curbstone philosophers were arrested there in a single day for spitting on the sidewalk. A good many men apparently believe they can not think or talk without a flow of saliva. Expectoration has become a natural accompaniment to their mental activity. Wichita Falls has its share of men who have fallen into this habit. It is one that is not difficult to break, but it will require effort on the part of the police in the enforcement of the anti-spitting ordinance. It may require a few arrests.

A whole lot of folks will buy Liberty Bonds this time with the very firm resolution of keeping them. The value of a government security is now better appreciated by many who traded them for securities of another kind.

As long as its fellow higher up whose property is to be divided its mighty fine with the man of bolshevist ideas. Wonder how it would be if the dividing process got down to anything of theirs.

SCHOLASTIC CENSUS IN WILBARGER GAINS 56

THE PEOPLE

MANY PLANTS DO WELL IN THE WEST TEXAS CLIMATE.

Mr. Editor: I have heard both men and women say it recently, and a good many seem to think that no plants, shrubs or trees do well in this climate. Those who say so do the soil and the climate a great injustice.

There are a lot of the very best shrubs that do better here than any place on earth.

If I may be excused for making personal reference the big coral-red Japan Quinces against the front porch of the J. A. Kemp house which have been a glow of brightness since the very first days of February, and the same each spring for many years, have possibly never had an equal. They have still a few flowers. Right now she has a couple of Bridal Wreath (spirea) and a Red Covil Honeysuckle that make a shower of white and red that is worth a drive out there to see. Surely their equal have never been grown before. The same may be said of the evergreen honeysuckle.

Whoever says lilacs grow so vigorously or so completely covered with flowers as they have been here. A grafted white one that Mrs. Britain planted in February has great trusses of fragrant flowers now.

The scarlet and white and pink crepe myrtles we naturally assign to the south but who ever saw a redder heap of red than Mr. Grisham's bushes last summer and they were planted only in February before.

At different families or varieties of arbor vitae and cedars fairly revel in this soil and climate and make fine backgrounds for homes, both the grander ones and the more modest ones, and are a mighty comfortable north wind. And planters are learning brake, grove or refuge against the to set them in the rear of their homes and in informal natural arrangement.

A lot of the native shrubs of central and west Texas are charming, their way into the San Antonio section, they even beat a show. The Gregg Salva, an evergreen bush of Devil's River, that never gets over two feet high is already covered with red flowers and will have them every day until frost in the fall. And soon after that the coralberries show their rainbows of coral buds all winter.

The different sumachs show their beautiful green foliage all summer, but their orange and scarlet and vermillion shades in the fall make the passerby stop and look. No mortal thinks low thoughts when looking at such beauty. Such sights influence the higher levels in life more than some sermons.

Those cousins of boargrass the day-lily like Mrs. Silk has had for a year and like those recently set in the big urns at the depot and in the grounds of various homes are fine for all the year round.

There are many lanterns, but the one native in the San Antonio section of the state is perhaps the only one that is hardy here. Both Mrs. Harvey last year and two or three dozen this year, Mrs. Silk planted two or three year. I recall the first two lines of a stanza on natives.

The orange-red lantern, our native ranging views and in the lowlands has a very fitting common name its the Conanche bride.

Who dares say roses are not wonderful in Wichita Falls? have just been around looking at the few or several dozens in each of the yards of several British Cultivation, Dr. Ham, Hartson, Hart, Perkins, Sheldon and Roy Jones. Every bush seems to

THEY ALWAYS WIN OUT.

Editor The Times: It is not claimed by the opponents of the League of Nations that all sensible and practical people are opposed to it and that it is only favored by ministers, college professors and women. That is not true. There is a vast body of people who will be heard from in due time on that subject. But suppose it were true, that it is favored by only these three? Did you ever hear of a project advocated by any of these three that did not eventually win out?

Can you beat the combined forces of the three truly.

FORT WORTH AERIAL TRANSPORTATION CO. WANTS SUB-STATION

The Fort Worth Aerial Transportation company, organized for the purpose of carrying passengers and mail, selling "joy rides," instructing men and women in aeronautics, selling aeroplanes and repairing planes, is "ready to go" in a letter received Saturday by the local Chamber of Commerce, R. H. Pearson, a former army aviator, who is president of the company, states that the Fort Worth concern is ready to begin operation and is anxious to obtain a sub-station in Wichita Falls.

"We will bring airplanes to your city and operate them for public use," the letter reads. "Carrying passengers, school of instruction and photographic work will be our main sources of revenue, but we will do any type of work which is not considered dangerous. In a short time we will have the latest type of planes leaving and arriving on schedule time from your city."

This company was organized in Fort Worth after receiving the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce and a large number of prominent citizens. It is a real business and not a promotion game and should be treated as such.

"If you will place or have placed in your city a block of stock amounting to $10,000, less a 10 per cent discount to the party who gets the subscriptions, we will bring some airplanes to your city and operate them as above. These airplanes will stay in your city for a period of one year, and as much longer as the officers of this company may think advisable."

The National Bank of Commerce grows and prospers because of the high quality of its service. Oil men, manufacturers and merchants, farmers, professional men, wage earners—all find this institution an ideal banking home.

CHARLES W. BEAN SELLS INTEREST IN ANDERSON ESTATE

For the consideration of $125,000, Charles W. Bean has sold to Mark D. Walker his half interest in property owned by the late A. D. Anderson, who was Mr. Bean's partner. The property involved includes five store buildings on Indiana, occupied by the North Texas Notion Company, the Western Auto Supply Company, McCarty and M. Carty, Jozz, Dickson, Millinery, and the Edna Barber Shop; the building occupied by the Burgess Jewelry Store and Baum and Gardner, fronting 60 feet on Eighth street; the building occupied by the Apperson Sales Company, and the adjoining lot, fronting 100 feet on Tenth street, and a few other small pieces of property, all of which Mr. Bean had a half interest in.

Mr. Bean retains his individual property, and states that he will always have an interest in Wichita Falls, though his home for a part of the time at least will be in California. This change was made necessary by Mrs. Bean's health, which demands the California climate.

THREE TO ATTEND TWO-DAY MEETING OF WAR VETERANS

Three delegates from Wichita Falls will leave tonight for San Antonio to attend the two-day session of the Texas organization of the veterans of the European war which opens tomorrow. It is expected the association formed at this time will later be merged into the national organization now being fostered by Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

Major Napier stated Saturday that one of the purposes of the organization was to secure employment for the discharged soldiers and sailors, and that numerous inquiries have been made during the past week by employers who want to employ soldiers, being willing to give them preference over civilians when it comes to hiring new men. All discharged soldiers who will accept positions as truck drivers, mechanics or laborers should communicate with Lieutenant B. D. Sartin in the law office of Smoot & Smoot.

The delegates appointed from this city are as follows: Major E. L. Fulton, Major E. W. Napier and Captain J. W. Mode.

OLD SETTLERS TO HAVE 1919 PICNIC ON MAY FIFTEENTH

May 15 has been set for the basket picnic of the Old Settlers' Association of Wichita County, which will meet this year at Fries' Grove, one mile east of Iowa Park. A noted speaker will be secured for the occasion in addition to local orators, and the music will be furnished by the Wichita band.

Free ice water will be furnished, and there will be the usual baseball game along with other athletic events such as jumping and racing. The organization contains 300 members, and is now three years old. The picnic was abandoned last year on account of war activities, but the promoters of the affair this year promise a rousing time for all members and their friends. A county residence of 20 years is necessary to become a bona fide member.

EACH SCHOOL PLANS FOR AN INDIVIDUAL MAY FETE PROGRAM

Each school in the city will have its individual May Fete this year, according to Miss Josephine Mae Adams, supervisor of music in the city schools. Heretofore the schools have all combined in one big fete, but owing to the increased number of students in the schools, each building will have a May Queen, King and attendants. The Queen and King will be chosen as usual, according to scholarship.

The Queen's Attendants will be wand bearers, crown bearers, bugle bearer, train bearers, flower girls and page, and there will be folk games, waltz, hoop, scarf and flag drills, physical culture drills given to music closing with the May Pole Dance. The dates for the different schools are: San Jacinto, April 30; Fort, May 1; Sam Houston, May 6; Austin, May 6; Alamo, May 7.

Ice Cream—2c Per Dish

This is to tell you how countless people now make surpassing Ice Cream. They make it quickly and at little cost. They add no sugar and no eggs. They do not need to cook it.

They make their milk or cream go twice as far. And they get delicious, rich Ice Cream for about two cents per dish.

Use This Recipe

Use one quart of milk, or three-quarters milk and one-quarter cream. Or use one pint of evaporated milk diluted with one pint of water.

Add one package of JIFFY Ice Cream Powder. Then the flavor from the vial in the package, and then freeze.

Add no sugar, for the powder is sweetened. Add no eggs, for the powder is rich. There is no need of cooking.

This simple, quick recipe makes about two quarts of surprising Ice Cream. It makes a better Ice Cream than you can get at twice the cost without it.

Flavors in Vials

Jiffy Ice Cream Powder is made by the makers of Jiffy-Jell. The flavors come sealed in glass vials—a bottle in the package.

Strawberry flavor is made by condensing the juice of many berries.

Lemon flavor is an essence made from lemons.

Vanilla flavor is made from vanilla beans. Then there is unflavored powder for use in coffee or chocolate ice cream, or when you use fresh fruit.

Never before has an Ice Cream Powder been flavored by these liquid essences in glass.

BASEBALL SEASON FOR 1919 TO OPEN NEXT WEDNESDAY

EXPECTED TO BE MORE FRUITFUL THAN THOSE OF PAST YEARS. MUCH PREPARATION IS MADE

Club Owners Have Labored to Improve the Strength of Their Forces.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The coming week will usher in another baseball season under conditions which the major league magnates, players and fans hope and expect will be more fruitful than those of the past few years. With the blight of war lifted from the national sport, it is the belief in all sections that the game will rebound to the heights of popularity which it enjoyed previous to the devastating sweep of world-wide hostilities.

League officials and club owners, with this idea in mind, have devoted the past few months to preparing for a new period in baseball and their handiwork is evident in many directions. Radical changes made in the methods and system of conducting the big leagues at the annual meetings of the magnates. Individual club owners have labored to improve the strength of their forces and through the team managers have purchased or traded players in order to round out formidable combinations.

How well they have rounded only time can demonstrate, but viewed from the standpoint of the present it would appear as though both the National and American circuits were stronger and better balanced than has been the case in recent seasons. Before the pennant races are well under way it is expected that the last of the diamond stars now serving with the forces either at home or abroad, will have doffed the khaki for baseball flannel. Many will appear upon the field with a glamor heretofore lacking and the fans' welcome will be backed by sentiment containing something more than the admiration due the player for his playing ability alone.

New With the Old. Mingled with faces of returning veterans who have won honors on the battlefields of Europe, as well as on the diamond, will be seen those of newcomers bringing the speed, agility and zest of youth to the national game. From the training camps of the Southland come reports of the sparkling play of several recruits who promise to quickly establish themselves in the hearts of the fans as a result of their unusual skill with bat and ball.

It is this constantly changing picture of personnel, playing ability and combat, tempered with the sentiment and traditions of baseball, that has established the sport so firmly throughout the nation. Old stars may fade; youthful phenomena may lead to the zenith in their places; and club owners come and go with little apparent effect upon the popularity of the game. For many years baseball has held its own through prosperous and depressing seasons because it is baseball and America's game. Tradition has melted the sport into an integral part of the nation's life.

As in the Past. For more than forty years the National League has martialed its playing forces each spring and sent its teams away on another pennant chase just as it will do again during the next few days. Since 1876 twenty-two cities have been represented at one time or another on the senior or the senior circuit with from three to twelve clubs finishing the pennant races. Boston leads in number of championships won, as the teams of that city have accounted for thirteen pennants. Chicago is second with ten and New York third with eight.

Of the forty-two pennants, Eastern clubs have captured twenty-seven and the West fourteen. In the American League fourteen cities have figured since its formation in 1900. Philadelphia and Boston have won six and five pennants respectively, while Chicago captured four and Detroit three. This year the clubs face a shorter season and a pennant race of 140 games in place of the usual 154. When the teams take the field on Wednesday with Chicago at St. Louis, Cleveland at Detroit, Philadelphia at Washington and Boston at New York on the American League circuit, and Brooklyn at Boston; New York at Philadelphia; Pittsburgh at Cincinnati and St. Louis at Cincinnati in the National League, the 1919 season will be about a week later in starting than has been the case in past years.

What effect, if any, this will have upon the pennant races is uncertain at this time. Managers and magnates hope for settled weather and expect that if normal temperature conditions prevail the teams will be able to play fast ball from the start. Close struggles with the lead shifting frequently should make the baseball season of 1919 one of the brightest periods in the annals of the game.

SUNDAY BASEBALL AND MOVIE SHOWS LEGAL IN NEW YORK

By Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., April 19.—Governor Smith signed the bill today authorizing Sunday baseball and moving picture shows.

Under the two bills baseball may be played and moving pictures exhibited on Sundays providing that consent is given by the local governing body. The bills were fought by the Lord's Day Alliance and other religious organizations but were supported by the State Federation of Labor and numerous business and political bodies.

AFTER-EFFECTS OF "FLU" LEAVE SYSTEM BADLY SHATTERED

Help Is Needed to Restore Strength and Vigor. If you have been through a siege of the flu, you know the severe strain which this disease puts on the system. The body is left sore, the nervous system is all out of gear, and it seems that you will never get back your old-time health and strength.

Just because you have been fortunate enough to survive the ravages of the flu, do not make the common mistake of thinking that you are out of danger. You must guard your health now more carefully than ever, and take every precaution. First of all, you must build up your strength. In your present weakened condition, any trifling ailment will likely prove serious. Right now a few bottles of S. S. S. will prove of great value. This splendid tonic and purifier so thoroughly cleanses the blood of all impurities, that the appetite is improved and new life and vigor is added to the entire system. Do not delay the important work of getting back your strength, but get a bottle of S. S. S. from your druggist today. CAN CARRY MAIL COAST TO COAST WITHIN TWO DAYS

By Associated Press. FORT WORTH, April 19.—Mail can be carried from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific coast cities in two days by airplane, reports Major MacAnley of Tullahoma, who yesterday completed his tests of trans-continental flying. This will have to be done by relays, though, says the aviator, who made the coast-to-coast flight in nineteen hours and the round trip in 44 hours. However, the major will advise against night flights as impractical for speed. He says the mails can better be carried at night from one flying field to another by express trains.

Hot and Heavy

A thermometer won't keep you warm. It will tell you when the room is too hot—or too cold.

A hydrometer won't keep your battery charged. But it will tell you when the battery solution is too heavy or too light—and in this way will indicate when your battery needs to be charged.

It's easy to use the hydrometer. All you do is to draw up a sample of battery solution in the hydrometer tube, and read the figures on the stem of a little glass float.

If you've never tried it, come around and let us show you how easy it is.

Perhaps you don't realize there are pink pieces of music, red rags, violet jazz, and blue melodies.

Those who know best about music say so; and undoubtedly we have heard typical songs with a dash of lavender.

Color crops out everywhere. When Goodrich brought forth Black Tread rubber, the color caught; and soon a lot of tires were singing the black song in treads.

Of course it is quality, not color, that makes Goodrich treads out-wear others.

COMPLETE PROGRAM INTER-ALLIED GAMES FOR MIDDLE OF JUNE

WILL CONSIST OF TWENTY TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS.

WILL BE HELD NEAR PARIS

Stadium Has Seating Capacity for 35,000 With Ample Track Facilities.

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 19.—The complete program for the inter-allied games, to be held near Paris about the middle of June, has been announced here by Dr. George Fisher, head of the physical education department of the Y. M. C. A.

There are twenty track and field events, the running races being a standard metre distance ranging from 100 to 1,500. High and low hurdles events are carried; running high and broad jumps, pole vault, javelin, discus, shot put and a modified marathon race of 16,000 metres and a cross-country run for individual competitors of 16,000 metres. There also are one a medley event, also are proposed.

Team games, both American and English, hold a prominent place and there is a rule that other events can be added where two or more Allied nations enter teams for such competition. Swimming, shooting, boxing, wrestling and rowing for various weights and classes are also included. Open to All Soldiers.

This series of events, open to all soldiers and sailors of the various Allied nations, was planned by Colonel Walt C. Johnson and Elwood S. Brown, for the A. E. F. and the Y. M. C. A., co-operating.

The track and field meet will be held in Pershing Stadium at Joinville. The stadium, which is partly completed, will seat 22,000 spectators and including those who stand, will accommodate 35,000. A 500 metre circular track and a 300 yard straightaway will be the scene of the running events, except the marathon and cross-country races.

Candidates for teams to represent England, America, Italy, France, Belgium, Britain colonies and other nations, are in training. The Americans are practicing in all parts of Europe where army or navy bases are located. Later the team squads will gather at camp point for final work.

Developing U. S. Team. More than 2,500 army officers and 300 Y. M. C. A. trainers are at present developing the athletes from whom the United States team will be selected. No idea of the size of the team can be given at this time, but it probably will range from 500 to 800 men. Soldiers or sailors returned to their country or who did not get overseas, are eligible and some are

IMPORTANT MEETING TO OIL AND GAS MEN WEDNESDAY EVENING

An important meeting of all persons interested in the oil and gas industry has been called by the local advisory board of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association for Wednesday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock, at the Wichita county court house. This meeting, called by Roy B. Jones, G. C. Wood, Thomas Morrissey, L. C. Hickrick and W. E. Norton, the local board, is for the purpose of meeting with J. F. Darby, the secretary and active vice president of the association, now in Wichita Falls. An effort is now being made to have Judge Shea, M. W. Mattison, Harry H. Smith of Tulsa, F. C. Dings of Ardmore or J. Edgar Pew of Dallas present to speak at this meeting. The subjects of taxation, depletion and property valuation will be discussed by Mr. Darby and other out of town members of the association. All interested in the oil industry are urged to be present.

RUSSIAN SOLDIER GIVES ACCOUNT OF BATTLE OF PERM

Associated Press Mail Correspondent. OMSK, SIBERIA, March.—A Russian volunteer soldier who took part in the battle of Perm gives the following narrative of what he saw in the village of Kouvehine, not far from Perm, where he was stationed during the fighting which resulted in the complete defeat of the Bolsheviks. He was ordered to clean out three cesspools which were filled with the corpses of people who apparently belonged to the intellectual or cultivated class of the community. Many of the bodies bore wounds made with swords. He removed 30 corpses from the first pit, the ages of the victims ranging from 16 to 60 years. There were several women among the victims. All the bodies were naked.

There was reason to believe, in the soldier's opinion, that many of the people were thrown into the pits still alive and they died by slow suffocation and from the effects of their wounds. The inhabitants of the village were so terrified that they acted like insane persons. When the Siberians came as victors and the town bells rang out, the people jumped for joy, clapping hands and skipping around in circles. In the neighboring village of Gorlozavadek, situated on a railroad, the people were found to be absolutely without nourishment, and the condition of the children was pitiable to witness.

The Victory Loan Is Your Duty. Do Your Duty. Then,

WOULD YOU CARE TO INVEST IN A

"GASOLINE WELL?"

Producing six thousand gallons of high grade gasoline daily? If you were SURE it would not be a "dry hole"—and would produce that same amount for ten, fifteen or twenty years?

Of course you would, and that is exactly the opportunity offered you by the Burkfield Gasoline Company, except the "well" is a big, modern casing-head gasoline plant. Casing-head gasoline is made from the gas that comes out of the oil wells. Most of this gas is now going to waste from the hundreds of producing wells at Burkburnett. This gas will be gathered by pipe lines and conveyed to casing-head gasoline plants where, by a patented process, it is strongly compressed and thus is made the purest and most powerful gasoline known to the world. These gasoline plants pay bigger and quicker money than any business known, and is reputed that the average gasoline plant returns total investment every ninety days. You can't lose when you invest in this business, because the plant will be protected by insurance, and in case of explosion (which has never happened), it is quickly rebuilt. As the oil wells grow older the gas becomes richer, and the already enormous dividends become larger. There are several casing-head gasoline plants going in the Burkburnett field. Have you any shares in any of them?

The Burkfield Company offers you an opportunity to invest in and share some of the profits of this business with men of experience. The Burkfield plant will be one of the most modern in the state and costing approximately $150,000. Annual earnings conservatively estimated from plans of the Burkfield plant are $434,350.00, and the capitalization is $175,000. Dividends will positively be paid every ninety days.

Shares are now par value, $10.00 each, and will advance rapidly as the plant goes under construction. Shares should be worth $100.00 for every $10.00 invested when plant starts operations. Wire, phone, write or come at once.

NO FOREIGN CITY SO COSMOPOLITAN AS IS SALONIKI

IS SAID TO BE LITERALLY A MELTING POT OF HUMANITY

MANY LANGUAGES SPOKEN

Extraordinary Mixture of Races,
Tongues, Beliefs and Customs.

Associated Press Mail Correspondent.

SALONIKI, March 15.—The American visitor finds here an extraordinary mixture of races, tongues, beliefs and customs. Saloniki is literally a melting-pot of humanity. No other city in the world, unless it be one of the great American centers, is so thoroughly cosmopolitan. Greeks, Mongols, Turks, Slavs, Teutons, Italians and Europeans mingle and each understands the language of the other. The market place is a babel of tongues. The lowest street peddler speaks at least four languages.

But these diverse races associate together only for business purposes. In their religious beliefs, aspirations and sentiments a great gulf separates them. Each has a different ideal and a distinct view of life. In Macedonia all religions are tolerated. Saloniki, or Thessalonica, as it was called in early times, is said to have been the door by which Christianity entered Europe. Indeed, devout residents relate with pride that it was here that Apostle Paul, after having evangelized Syria and Asia Minor, came to preach the gospel to the unbelievers of Macedonia.

Money Changer a Fixture.
The money-changer has been a fixture in Saloniki from time immemorial. During the war he reaped a rich harvest on the fluctuating value of the currency of the war-affected countries. The American dollar was the only currency that he could not buy at a profit. It resisted all the vicissitudes and varying fortunes of the war and held steadily at 100 cents when all the other money of the world was fluctuating.

Saloniki is essentially a Jewish city, for there are more than 100,000 Jews who make their homes here. They control the bulk of the business. About 80 per cent of them are Spanish Hebrews whose ancestors were driven from Spain by Ferdinand and Isabella in the fifteenth century. To indicate the wide diversity of other races, however, it is sufficient only to say that there are five Greek newspapers, seven Spanish-Hebrew, four French, three Serbian, one Turkish and one English. The lone English newspaper is published by the British army for the use of its men in the Levant.

Noted for Unsanitariness.
If the Apostle Paul could come to Saloniki today, he probably would preach to the Thessalonians a gospel of cleanliness as well as of piety, for dirt seems to be an inseparable part of the city and of the people. Hygienic and sanitary methods, as the Allied military authorities soon learned, are wofully primitive. During the Allied occupation thousands of British, French, Italian and Serbian soldiers succumbed to malaria, typhoid and other diseases arising from lack of drainage and sanitation. Through all the centuries plagues and epidemics have visited the city and carried off thousands of its inhabitants. Being on the principal thoroughfare from Asia into Europe, Saloniki has been the means of spreading Asiatic cholera to the towns washed by the Mediterranean. The city itself has suffered great losses of life through this great scourge.

Wichita Falls Motor Truck to Invade the Great Gobi Desert of Central Asia 30 Being Ordered for That Country

Men and women, their minds leashed to the ever-present oil excitement, sometimes forget that the world some arch at the Union station still advertises Wichita Falls as "the factory city." Long after the oil boom is dead, if it ever dies, Wichita Falls will still be recognized as a great industrial center in the Southwest. The name of this city is being advertised not only in the state of Texas and in adjoining territories, but throughout the United States, but many queer, strange, far-away corners of the globe.

Order for Thirty.
Last Friday G. W. Kaltenbach, representing J. J. Lawery & Co. of New York, left Wichita Falls, and in his bag he carried a "heat of papers requiring the Wichita Falls Motor Co. to furnish 30 "Wichita" trucks for use in the great Gobi desert of Central Asia; the equipment for two complete machine shops and a skilled mechanic under a two-year contract. Even the nomad tribes of Buddhists wandering out in the Gobi desert 2,000 miles from any railroad, interested far more in water than in oil, will have thrust upon their Asiatic senses the name of Wichita!

Operate in Desert.
The 30 Wichita trucks will operate carrying agricultural machinery and supplies from Tientsin over the Gobi desert to the Siberian frontier. What their operation means in a broad sense can only be understood by describing the Gobi desert and by harkening back into a day when romance concerned itself only with men and beasts.
The Gobi desert is a vast region in Central Asia in the form of a great plateau, its surface 3,000 feet above sea level and divided into dreary wastes of sand rocky table lands and mountains. Only in the last 50 years, and chiefly through the explorations of Sven Heden, has any detailed information been obtained regarding the vast area. Marco Polo, the greatest traveler of the Middle Ages, visited the Gobi desert almost 700 years ago and the "Book of Marco

Credit to Local Factory.
To have "landed" that truck contract is a waving plume in the cap of the local factory as it was obtained by correspondence only and in

Polo" contains this account of what he found:
Description of Country.
"You ride some five days through the sands finding none but bad and bitter water, and then you come to a city called Lop at the edge of the desert. The length of the desert is so great that it would take a year or more to ride from one side of it to the other. It is all composed of hills and valleys of sand."
And then Polo goes on to speak of spirits that haunt the sand wastes and syllable men's names, and of strange noises like the tramp and hum of a great cavalcade. Even today the vast fields of drifting and treacherous sands still add terror to the legendary accounts of the desert of Gobi.
There are caravan routes across the Gobi desert from China to Siberia and over these routes, through a land where men and women still live the "tribal lives they lived in Polo's day, the Wichita name will be carried by the trucks purchased in this city last week. Work that once required the physical power of 4,000 camels will be done by 20 mechanical products, put together in "the city in the golden circle," which Albert M. Jones insists is the most fitting description that can be given of Wichita Falls today.

Election officials in Oklahoma ruled that the new women voters in that state could not accompany their husbands into the polling booth to receive instructions in marking the ballot. The women had little difficulty in learning, however, as evidenced by the fact that the women vote figured conspicuously in the results of many of the municipal contests.
America's Victory will not be complete until America settles her bills. Americans must supply the funds—by subscribing liberally to the Victory Loan. The National Bank of Commerce welcomes the opportunity to assist its patrons and friends in the discharge of their patriotic obligation.

Brief Review of the Splendid Record of the 90th Division

Seventy-five days in action without relief. This is the record of the Ninetieth Division, composed of Texas and Oklahoma men, trained at Camp Travis, and a record which has been equaled by few. This and other interesting facts concerning the division, in which there are many Wichita Falls men, are contained in a brief history of the division, which has been issued from headquarters in Prussia, where the Ninetieth is now a part of the Third Army of Occupation. The Times is indebted to Hal W. Yeager, of this city, field clerk with divisional headquarters, in Berncastel, for a copy of the history, which follows:

Organization. The 90th division was organized at Camp Travis, Texas, under the command of Major General Henry T. Allen. All of the first men in the division were from Texas and Oklahoma, those from Oklahoma being in the 179th Brigade and those from Texas in the 180th brigade. From that time these brigades have been known as the Oklahoma and Texas brigades. The division insignia, adopted in France, symbolizes the native states of the first members of the division.

Like all other national army divisions in the States, the 90th sent a way great numbers of men to fill up regular and national guard divisions and to form special organizations of army corps, and S. O. troops. The only spring of 1918 the division was filled up with men from other camps, a large number coming from Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Moved to France. The division commenced leaving Camp Travis early in June for Camp Mills, near New York. By June 20 all units had sailed from Hoboken. A new organization went direct to France but the majority of the divisions landed in England. The 357th infantry preceded before the lord mayor of Liverpool on July 4, and was given a banquet by that city.

Immediately upon arrival in France the artillery brigade was sent to a training area near Bordeaux. The rest of the division was moved by train to the Aignay-le-Duc training area, north-east of Dijon. Headquarters of the division, 179th brigade and 357th infantry were at Aignay-le-Duc. Headquarters of the 180th brigade and the 259th infantry were at Recey-sur-Source. The 357th infantry was at Mignot, and the 359th infantry was at Rouvres. The division stayed six weeks in this area, training eight hours a day for the time when it should take its place in line.

Relief of First Division. In the middle of August the division was ordered to relieve the first division, which held the Salers sector along the Moselle river, near Toul. The division was moved by train on the 18th and 19th of August from its training area to town in the vicinity of Toul. The relief of the first division commenced on the 19th of August and was completed on the 24th. General Allen taking command of the sector at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 24th of August.

The sector was about nine kilometers in width, from Remenauville to a point about a kilometer west of the Moselle river. The sector had been the scene of heavy fighting in 1915 when the French, with very heavy losses, had attempted to take the Bois le Pretre, but since 1915 had been what is known as a quiet sector. The front line on the left ran across broken one country, just behind Fey-en-Haye, and on the right ran through the woods of the Bois le Pretre. No man's land was wide and full of old trenches, wire entanglements and obstacles of every sort. The rear areas were heavily wooded and filled with all sorts of camps, dugouts, old gun emplacements and every kind of construction which had accumulated during three years of trench warfare. The 180th brigade went into line in order from left to right—357th infantry (Colonel Hartmann), 358th infantry (Colonel Leary), 359th infantry (Colonel Cavanaugh), 360th infantry (Colonel Price), General O'Neil, commanding the 179th brigade, had his headquarters at Martincourt, and General Johnston, commanding the 180th brigade, was at Trisconcourt. Division headquarters was established at Villers-en-Haye.

The 82nd division was on the right and the 90th division on the left. On August 27, General Johnston became and Major General and was given the 91st division. Brigadier General U. G. McAlexander, who had served with the 3rd division on the Marne, took command of the 180th brigade.

When the division went into line, preparation had already begun for the St. Mihiel offensive. Artillery of all calibers was being moved into the sector every night and it was obvious to everyone that an operation of some sort was being planned. Early in September orders were received from the first army corps which outlined the operation and gave the 90th division its part in the plan. The first American army, which had just been organized under the personal command of as deep as that of the 357th infantry, had accomplished their missions. During the night strong patrols were sent out all along the front to exploit the success of the day.

On the 13th the 180 brigade captured the Bois le Pretre with its maze of barbed wire entanglements and innumerable machine gun emplacements. The French are said to have had over 120,000 casualties in 1915 in attempting to take this piece of ground. On the same day the 179th brigade cleared out the Vencheres woods and advanced their line to the vicinity of St. Marie farm. One of the battalions of the 357th infantry encountered two enemy regiments moving across our front to counter attack the 5th division and completely broke up their advance.

On the 14th the 179th brigade rushed forward on the left into the Bois des Rappes to the vicinity of La Soulevre farm, while the 180th brigade captured Villers-sous-Prey and established a foothold on the heights beyond.

On the 15th the advance was continued. Vandieres taken, the Bois de Villiers and the Bois de Rappes cleaned up and the line established along the stilt Chemins ("White Chimney") road.

On the 16th the front line was pushed forward to the edge of the woods in front of Treux, where it remained until the division was relieved in October.

While the 90th Division owes credit to all objectives, the rest of the first army was equally successful. Within 24 hours after the attack started, divisions from the 4th and 5th corps had met at Vignelles in rear of the salient and the whole German position, which had been held since 1914, was cut off. During this first operation of the American army over 14,000 prisoners, a great amount of artillery and vast stores of all sorts were captured.

The 90th division's contribution was 14 officers and 650 men, 8 pieces of artillery, 24 heavy trench mortars and a large number of rifles, machine guns and miscellaneous weapons. The division's casualties were 39 officers and 886 men.

From Close of St. Mihiel Offensive to Relief by 7th Division. Shortly after the St. Mihiel offensive was ended, the 82nd Division relieved the 90th. The 90th was relieved by the 69th French Division and the 190th's sector was extended to the Moselle river. The 5th Division on the left was relieved by the 78th Division, which was itself shortly withdrawn, its sector being turned over about equally to the 89th and 90th. This extended the 90th's sector approximately four kilometers to the west. During the last week that the division was in line it was holding a front of approximately 12 kilometers. During the period following the St. Mihiel operation the four regiments continued to hold the line in the same order as before. Colonel Sterlin had relieved Colonel Cavanaugh in command of the 359th Infantry.

During all this period enemy artillery activity was intense. The front and support lines were almost continually bombarded with high explosive and gas shells. Much of the fire came from the flank, and from places even in the rear of our own line. While there was no considerable enemy infantry activity during this period, casualties were heavy from artillery.

Patrolling was active and daring. Scarcely a day passed that one of the regiments did not bring in prisoners.

On the night of 23rd of September the 357th infantry raided the Hindenburg line near Sebastopol Farm and brought in five prisoners with only slight casualties.

On the 29th of September the First American Army west of the Meuse commenced the last great battle of the war, and the divisions between the Meuse and the Moselle assisted that operation, by carrying out local operations to give the impression that the great attack extended along the entire front. Both infantry brigades took part in the operation which was planned as a deep raid on the enemy positions. The raid was preceded by a six hour artillery preparation, as was the big attack west of the Meuse, and the infantry jumped off at the same hour as the troops making the real attack. Statements of prisoners and evidence discovered since the armistice prove that the division successfully accomplished its mission and that the enemy on our front believed until well into the morning of September 26 that a great attack was being made on their front. The success was attained, however, only with very heavy casualties, as our raiding parties were caught in an intense artillery bombardment and heavy machine gun fire from concrete emplacements all along the Hindenburg line.

Relief by 7th Division and Move to the Meuse. Early in October the division was relieved by the 7th Division, the relief being completed on the 10th of October. The division was concentrated for a few days in billets in the vicinity of Toul and was then moved by truck to the Ilbercourt area, about 20 kilometers from Verdun. Here the division (Continued on Next Page) tion was continued for a few days in the woods and was then moved forward from the billeting area into the vicinity of the Meuse-Argonne Offensive.

The Meuse-Argonne Offensive.

Commencing with the counter-offensive July which cleared the Marne salient, the Allied armies, particularly the British Army had steadily driven the enemy back until nearly all of the ground gained in his great offensive of March, April and May, 1918, had been recovered.

It became evident that the enemy was planning, if not already executing, a general retreat with the Meuse as his pivot and that if the Allied Armies could assume their offensive, and particularly if they could break the enemy's pivot on the Meuse, a decisive victory might be reached. With this in view the great attack of September 26, which developed into the battle of the Meuse-Argonne, was planned and the First American Army was given the honor position on the Meuse with the all important task of breaking the pivot of the enemy's retreat.

The part which the 90th Division played on September 26 has already been described. The first attack met with great success on the entire front of the Army. The advance was rapid and communications and supply became extremely difficult and the enemy, then as divisions became exhausted threw in great numbers of reserve divisions, the advance slowed down and the first stage of the battle was concluded. During the second stage there was continual fighting along the line but no concerted attack was launched by the enemy. The effort was rather on the part of individual divisions and corps to straighten out the line and reach a position from which a second great attack could be launched.

Relief of 5th Division—Capture of Bantheville.

The 90th Division went into line near the end of this second period. The 179th Brigade relieved the 10th Brigade of the 5th Division on the night of 21-22 October. The 130th Brigade was held in division reserve. The 3rd Division was on the right and the 89th Division on the left. At this time the front line ran from just north of Romagne and Cuneil around the northwestern edge of the Bois de Rappes. The 89th Division had pushed forward and occupied the Bois de Bantheville on the left so that the line of the 90th Division formed a pocket a little over two kilometers in depth in the front of the Corps. In this pocket were the villages of Bantheville and Bourrut. The first mission of the division was to straighten out the line. The 357th Infantry attacked at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of October 23, captured Bantheville at the high ground north and northwest of that town and established a line from the northeast corner of the Bois de Bourrut to the northeastern corner of the Bois de Bantheville where the line joined with the 89th Division. The 358th Infantry in the Bois des Rappes at the same time extended its left to connect with the 357th Infantry north of Bourrut, and the same night two companies of the 358th Infantry crossed the Andon Brook and established a line from a point about 500 meters southwest of Aincreville along the line held by the 357th Infantry.

This extremely successful operation, upon which the division was highly complimented by the Army and Corps Commanders, resulted in giving the division an excellent position from which it could jump off in case of a great attack. This advance position was held until November 1 despite many counter attacks and continuous intense shelling.

Attack of November 1.

With the capture of Bantheville by the 179th Brigade, everything was in readiness for the great attack by the First American Army and the French Armies on its left, by which it was hoped to finally break the enemy's line of resistance and change his retreat into a rout. This attack was ordered for November 1. On the night of October 30 the 180th Brigade relieved the 179th Brigade which had suffered heavy casualties during its eight days in line and was withdrawn into division reserve. The 180th Brigade went into line and attacked with the 360th Infantry on the left and the 359th Infantry on the right. The 345th Machine Gun Battalion and the 343rd Machine Gun Battalion were in position on the front line from which they could cover the advance with overhead fire. On the morning of the 1st these companies fired more than 1,400,000 rounds and contributed largely to the very great success of the attack.

The plan of the attack was that the 360th Infantry on the left, on a narrow front and assisted by a concentration of all available artillery, should drive forward through the Carr Farm and the immensely strong wood position on the left of the sector up to and beyond Anderenne. With his attack a success the 359th Infantry on the right would be able to advance across the open ground west of Aincreville without disastrous losses in an extremely heavy artillery concentration opened at 3:30 a. m. on the 1st of November and at 5:30 a. m. the infantry went over the top. From the outset the fighting was desperate. The best veteran troops available in the German Army were thrown in to stop the advance of the division. Machine gun nests were everywhere, the enemy stuck us to their guns until wiped out. The 360th and 359th Infantry, splendidly supported by the 15th Field Artillery Brigade (80th Division), advanced practically without halt. Grande Carre Farm was taken and mopped up. The woods to the north were cleaned out, Anderenne and Cote 247 captured and the line pushed a kilometer beyond by the 360th (Chasseigne Farm and St. Marguerite Farm were captured by the 359th Infantry and by late afternoon our troops were on or beyond their objectives. The Freya Stellung, the last known enemy position, was definitely and completely broken.

On the 2nd of November the advance was continued against desperate resistance. Villers devt. Dun was taken and passed. Hill 321 was occupied and the Bois de Raux was pushed within our lines before night. On the night the 359th Infantry advanced more than three kilometers, and one battalion, extending over into the sector of the 5th Division on the right, advanced through the "punch bowl" all the way to the Meuse.

On the 3rd of November the 179th Brigade passed through the 180th Brigade and at 8 o'clock attacked with the 358th Infantry on the left and the 357th Infantry on the right. It was evident after a few hours that the attacks of the preceding days had broken the enemy's resistance and that he was completely disorganized. By night the brigade had penetrated the dense woods of the Bois de Tally and occupied the towns of Montigny, Saulmaury, Sassey and Mont devt. Sassey.

On the 4th and 5th of November the exploitation was continued and the hold on the river towns was strengthened. Halles, Wessepe and Laneville were occupied.

The divisions on the left of the 90th were meeting with equal success and were driving the enemy back to the Meuse river. With the breaking of the Freya Stellung by the 90th Division the vitally important railroad from Sedan to Montmedy was brought under our artillery fire and the enemy's hold on the river was broken. The 5th division on our right succeeded in crossing the Meuse at Dun-sur-Meuse and was forcing the enemy up the right bank of the river. It was evident that the enemy's retreat was becoming completely disorganized and if our pressure could be continued he would break.

From the 9th of November the 179th Brigade crossed the Meuse at Sassey, and by all night marching occupied Mouzay on the right bank of the river. The next day the 358th Infantry captured Blanc Fontaine, and after desperate fighting secured a foothold at Stenay. At the same time the 357th Infantry on the right had advanced over rolling country, swept by machine gun and artillery fire, and reached the heights overlooking Baon and later, occupied the town. On his day the enemy threw into line against the 90th his last reserve division on the western front.

The 89th division on our left had, in the meantime, forced a crossing of the river at Fouldy and was ordered to send troops to protect the left flank of the 90th division north of Stenay. When these troops were in position, the 89th division was ordered to march again through the lines of the 179th Brigade and to continue the attack in the direction of Montmedy.

The Armistice

Early on the morning of November 11, word was received that the great battle in which American troops had ever been engaged was ended by Germany's acceptance of the Allied terms and that hostilities would cease at 11 o'clock. Before that hour patrols from the 358th Infantry forced their way into Stenay and completely occupied the town, the enemy having evacuated after the desperate fighting of the previous day.

From the armistice until the division started its march into Germany, the only activity was patrolling along the old front line to collect returned prisoners of war and civilians and to locate and guard abandoned and surrendered material of war.

Shortly after the conclusion of the armistice Major General Henry T. Allen left the division to take command of the 8th Corps. Command passed to Brigadier General J. P. O'Neill, who continued in command during the march into Germany and until December 30 when Major General C. H. Martin assumed command.

March to Germany.

On the 23rd of November the 90th Division, having been designated as one of the nine divisions of the Army of Occupation, was ordered to march. The 89th was a National Army division, moved forward toward Montmedy. The division marched from Stenay across Luxembourg to Kriesbach Prussia, where, as a part of the 7th Corps, it shortly before Christmas settled into winter quarters along the Moselle river in the vicinity of Berncastel, Germany, occupying the Kriesches of Daun, Wittlich and Berncastel.

Here it was joined by the 165th field artillery brigade.

Summary.

The average advance made by the division in the E. Meuse-Argonne was six kilometers, in the Meuse-Argonne 22 kilometers. The division was under fire from August 20 to November 11 with the exception of seven days occupied in changing sectors; seventy-five days without a relief. During this time it went over the top in two major offensive and seven minor operations, and was still advancing when halted by the armistice. The division captured 42 pieces of artillery, 58 trench mortars, 294 machine guns, 903 rifles and immense quantities of ammunition and stores.

It took as prisoners 32 officers and 1844 men. Casualties amounted to 37 officers and 1257 men severely wounded; 123 officers and 4671 men slightly wounded; 81 officers and 2094 men gassed. Of the gassed there were 17 deaths and 1204 men were evacuated. Exact figures cannot be given on the missing for search is being made for all in this class and the number is decreasing daily.

The twenty-second division to reach France, it stands tenth in amount of artillery captured, thirteenth in number of machine guns captured and fourteenth in both prisoners captured and total advance.

The division received five official commendations for its individual work in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne operations. The 90th won its place in the Army of Occupation by never failing to accomplish a mission and by never giving up a foot of ground to the enemy.

GERMAN TROOPS SEIZE LIBAU AND OVERTHROW REGIME

By Associated Press.
COPENHAGEN, April 18.—German and Baltic-German troops have forcibly seized Libau, overthrowing the Lettish provisional government, according to advices received by the Lettish Press Bureau here.

Lettish reserve troops in Libau were surprised by strong German forces Wednesday which overpowered the Lettish and disarmed and interned them. Later the Germans arrested the Lettish minister of the interior and several officials, it is said.

The surprise was possible, according to reports, because Lettish troops had been sent to the front, while Baltic-German detachments had been brought back to Libau. The city is now held and patrolled by the Germans.

Premier Ullman has protested to General Von Der Goltz, commander of the German troops in Latvia and the latter has expressed his astonishment over the incident. The Lettish accuse the Germans of constantly hindering them from mobilizing against the Bolsheviks, which it is said, accounts for the fact that Riga is still in the hands of the soviet forces.

A telegram was sent Wednesday by Premier Ullman to the Lettish representative in Denmark reporting the seizure of Libau and adding that he himself is safe and collaborating with the British mission and British warships in the harbor. The telegram stated that the Germans had occupied the premier's department and seized the papers there. It was added that the Germans demand that one third of the members in a new ministry which they insist shall be formed shall be German.

The telegram concludes by saying: "We will accede to nothing."

RECENTLY DESTROYED HOTEL A LANDMARK

By Associated Press.
ROCKPORT, TEX., April 19.—The Delmar House, an old Texas landmark, and said to have been at one time the largest frame hotel in Texas, was recently burned at Rockport.

It was stated at the time the lighted cigarettes thrown on the floor by men who were supposed to have been gambling in the building caused the fire.

The hotel was built in 1888 by a company composed of Dallas business men, one of whom was Colonel John A. Traylor, mayor of Dallas from 1898 to 1900. Among others associated with him were Uriah Lott and D. F. Youkum.

After the fire, Colonel Traylor, now a resident of Rockport, stated that the hotel cost $52,500. The lumber was brought from Orange, Texas, and the furniture was purchased from the penitentiary at Huntsville. The hotel had 95 rooms and was four stories high.

S. B. Soromon and sons owned the property which was abandoned as a hotel seven or eight years ago and was unused.

The hotel was built when the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad was extended to Rockport under an agreement that the citizens build a 150-room hotel.

FAITHFUL VIGIL IS KEPT BY THE MEN OF U. S. SIGNAL CORPS

Associated Press Staff Correspondent.
VALDEZ, ALASKA, March 18.—Up among deep snows and fierce gales, in some of the most lonely spots in the world in winter time, where the mercury sometimes is from 50 to 86 degrees below zero, the men of Uncle Sam's Signal Corps keep their faithful vigil.

In lonely hamlets on the top of solitary mountains, their cabins buried in snowdrifts, these men in khaki watch in the white splendors over the slender wires of communication reaching from Valdez to the interior, and thence to the farthest confines of the territory, ending above Nome in the great white wastes of the sub-Arctic. From Maine, New York, Texas, Missouri, Nebraska and other states, recruits come to the service. There has not yet been the first instance recorded of a man failing to perform the task allotted to him.

Seventeen stations are maintained by the corps out of Valdez, each completely outfitted. The Pacific-Alaska cable after leaving Seattle first reaches the coast at Valdez. Here messages are transferred from the cable and sent out over the land lines.

To reach his station, or post of duty, many of the Signal Corps men have to walk hundreds of miles. Then when the winter blasts hurt out over the white wastes, begin the Signal Corps man's vigil. Copper wires that link the great territory together and carry the news of the world, pass from Valdez through deep forests, tundra and swamps, over lofty hills through beautiful prairies to Fairbanks, down the Tanana river to Fort Gibbons, down the Yukon to St. Michael and thence to Nome.

Daily trails must be broken to other stations, lines repaired, trees removed from the vicinity of the wires. The Signal Corps man must risk his life time and again for the careless and fortunate travelers. Some of his deeds have come to light. Among them was a rescue of 1908 when the Delta district between Valdez and Fairbanks was visited by one of the worst blizzards in the history of the country. For 17 days the mercury stood at 54 below, and gales hurled continuously the fine snow in blinding masses through the air. One could scarcely face the elements. A party of prospectors and miners on its way from Valdez to Fairbanks was caught in the storm. Unable to reach a roadhouse, the travelers sought shelter in the lee of some timber. On the morning of the second day one man succeeded in reaching the cabin of a Signal Corps man. With the soldiers he returned to the stranded party. Several men were frozen to death. Seven trips to and from his station the soldier made, rescuing all the survivors, including two women. Later several of the men rescued died of exposure, and when the summer sun pierced the drifts of the trail, 13 bodies were found.

ENLARGE CAPACITY OF PLANT OF THE PEOPLES ICE CO.

Three hundred tons a day is estimated consumption of ice for Wichita Falls during the coming June, July and August. This proportion, it is said, would hold good in other cities with the same climate, so that a city of the size of Dallas would consume 1000 tons or more every 24 hours.

Beginning with a 15-ton capacity plant in 1904, doubling the output four years in 1908, and then more than tripling it in 1913 to a capacity of 108 tons a day, the Peoples ice company plant is now one of the largest in this section of the state. The water is taken from 15 different wells at a depth of 40 feet, is doubly distilled, and run through four sets of filters before it is frozen into three hundred pound cakes.

M. A. Marcus, president of the company, says that both the Denver and Katy roads rely on this plant for all their local refrigeration, and a new crusher for breaking up the large cakes before loading them into the bunkers of the refrigerating cars has recently been added to the equipment. Notwithstanding the drop in their output by the railroads, the local company reports shipments of a still greater tonnage to Burkburnett, Iowa Park and other outlying towns.

The company has recently added a large storage house with a capacity of 5,000 tons, the dimensions being 70x72 and 56 feet high. The side walls are 22 inches thick, 18 of which are of brick, and the remaining four inches are of cork board to act as insulation. Both floor and roof are of similar construction and refrigerating pipes around the roof and sides keep the ice at the desired temperature.

For the sole benefit of the employees, the company rents six houses adjoining their plant, and President Marcus says that he is planning to build more homes for the same purpose.

The engine room has three ice-making machines of 6, 35 and 15 tons a day capacity, and the water treating tank has a capacity of 65 tons. The time required to freeze a 300-lb. cake is 48 hours. While this amount of water could easily be frozen in one-half or less that time, yet it would be as saleable, as the cloudy ice does not bring the price of the clear or more transparent ice. The temperature of the brine is maintained at 16 degrees above zero. A battery of three 150 h. p. boilers, with six gas burners each, furnish the necessary steam power.

PUBLIC WARNED SAVINGS STAMPS NON-NEGOTIABLE

Special to The Times. DALLAS, TEXAS, April 19.—A strong word of warning and advice to War Savings Investors was issued in an interview given by R. L. Van Zandt, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas today. Mr. Van Zandt said: My attention has been called by the secretary of the treasury to the fact that several persons and firms in this district are sending out circular letters offering to buy War Savings Stamps at greatly reduced prices, ranging all the way from three dollars and seventy cents for the 1919 issue, to four dollars for the 1918 issue. Each of the offers specify that registered War Savings Stamps will not be purchased, but that loose stamps or stamps on cards will be purchased where there is no writing on the stamps even though the cards have names written thereon. It is evident that these unscrupulous dealers intend to soak the stamps off cards which have names written on them and affix the stamps to new cards for the purpose of redemption.

The wording of all circulars which have been received by me are so similar as to make it evident that the "inspiration" came from the same source.

Are you a better money maker than Rockefeller? Co-operation of others helped him. Are you in a War Savings Society?

These transactions are not only illegal, as the stamps are by law non-negotiable, but are swindling in character as the original purchaser has the redemption facilities of the postoffice open to him in case of need, and can receive the full cash value instead of the swindling price being offered by these dealers.

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, April 19.—Texas roads will not stand a volume of traffic by trucks of more than 2 1/2 tons capacity, says C. N. Avery, state highway commissioner of construction. He is of the opinion that trucks should be limited to this capacity and a fifteen mile an hour speed in order to conserve the roads. He thinks this will include 99 per cent of the vehicles used on Texas roads, and if it becomes necessary to use heavier trucks constantly over short stretches of road, this contingency could be met by special road construction.

The engineer says that one over loaded vehicle will do more damage to a road not designed to carry it than will hundreds of vehicles for which the road was designed.

MEMBERSHIP TRYOUTS IN SIGMA DELTA PSI

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, April 19.—Tryouts for membership in Sigma Delta Psi, the national athletic fraternity, will be held at the University of Texas April 24 and 25 and May 6 and 7. Membership in this fraternity, which was established at the Indiana University, is limited to male students eligible for university athletics and who are able to meet certain requirements in the following sports: pole vault, throwing baseball, 100-yard dash, low hurdles, jumps, high and

Acreage on the Street Car Line

We have ready for the market tracts of one acre each, on the street car line, just south of the Aviation station and between the dirt road and the street car line on the road to the Lake. Most of you know this property—it has fine elevation, lies well and is as productive as any soil, anywhere. It is producing now, and we can sell only subject to crop. You can buy one acre or more, and the prices are attractive.

There is a strong demand for suburban homes, where sufficient ground can be had for garden, chickens, cow, etc., and these tracts fill the bill exactly. Buy one or more—the terms are good—and you can reduce the cost of living by half.

We are ready to show you this acreage any day.

SIBERIA HAS BEEN HOME OF MANY OF MONGOLIAN TRIBES

RECENTLY HAS FORCED WORLD ATTENTION BY POLITICAL EVENTS.

BOLSHEVISM PLAYS A PART

Present Population of County is Estimated to Be Ten Million.

Associated Press Mail Correspondent.
OMSK, SIBERIA, April 12.—Siberia, which has forced world attention by reason of the important political events there, includes all the Asiatic possessions of Russia, with the exception of the trans-Caspian and the Caucasus regions and the government general of Turkestan whose capital, Tashkent, was captured by the bolsheviks and whose American vice-consul, Roger C. Trevelin, was arrested and left to languish in prison.
 Since the Mongolian invasion in the thirteenth century Siberia has been the home of many tribes, descended from that race. To the foreigner the Tartars are perhaps the most interesting. Their great center is Kazan, though the national Tartar council, which like Ukraine and other regions of Russia, seeks the developments of its "national aspirations," is now located at Petropavlovsk, not far from Omsk. This is on account of bolshevik terrorism.
 Followers of Mahomet.
 The Tartars are true followers of Mahomet and their mosques are found in almost every city. They are estiimated to number 1,600,000 in the districts of Kazan and Crimea. They are keen seekers after education and many Tartar boys and girls receive lessons in French, English and German from foreign instructors in places like Kazan, Samara and Ufa. The last two of these places were occupied several months ago by the bolshevik armies. The Tartars have an oval face, black eyes, placed obliquely and their skin is brown. Their costume is unusual, the distinguishing feature being their cap, over which is worn a tight fitting calotte, or skull cap.

 A considerable number of Tartars live in the Altai mountains on the frontier of China. They are still nomads and given over to idolatry. Many of them worship the sun.

Divided into Groups.
 The people of the Mongolian race inhabiting Russia, either European or Siberian, should be generally divided into groups. The Finnish group includes Finns, Estonians, Mordva and Cherepian. The Tartar group is composed of Tartars, and smaller tribal peoples.

RETURNING SOLDIERS ARE OFTEN AFFECTED BY FAMILIAR NOISE

By Associated Press.
DALLAS, TEX., April 19.—When a soldier just returned from duties overseas was treated at the emergency hospital here for a case of relapsed shell-shock caused by the loud popping of a motorcycle, Chief of Police John W. Ryan immediately issued orders that all persons operating automobiles and motorcycles in the city with mufflers open be arrested.
 A sergeant from Oklahoma collapsed on Main street after a motorcycle had just passed with the muffler wide open making a sound similar to half a dozen machine guns in action.
 Commenting on the effect that the noise has upon the nerves of shell-shocked soldiers, an overseas captain who happened to be near at the time, said: "The noise of an explosion produced by backfiring into the muffler very nearly resembles a bursting shell and men who have suffered from shell shock in nearly every case will lose control of his nerves at the sound."

utsk and Omsk. Americans are struck by the large number of Buriats and Tartars who are drivers of public droshkies. They seem to speak the Russian language indifferently and apparently hardly know the streets and the different quarters of the city. They are distinctly Mongolian in type and have flat noses.
 The present population of Siberia is estimated at ten million, as against a total Russian population of perhaps 150,000,000. Despite the numerous races and tribes mentioned above, the population of Siberia is mainly Russian, formed of peasants who migrated from European Russia when Siberia was reconquered and to some extent of the descendants of the unhappy people who were exiled to the frigid zone for political conspiracies and crimes.

In the province of Tobolsk, and generally in the north, even up to the Arctic ocean, are found the Voguls and the Ostiaks. They descend from ancient Finnish branch. Although in principle converted to Christianity, they have no real idea of the Christian religion and, as in ancient times, practice Shamanism, the religion of their ancestors. Still other tribes are the Teleouts in the plateaus of the Altai, the Buriats in the trans-Balkal district, the Manchus in the Amur, and the Samoyedes on the Arctic borders where they engage in the raising of reindeer.

TEXAS METHODISTS PLAN TO AID UNCLE SAM IN GREAT VICTORY LOAN DRIVE THIS MONTH

Special to The Times.
DALLAS, TEXAS, April 19.—Seven laymen now constitute the "Big Seven" of Texas Methodism as conference campaign directors in the Methodist Centenary drive for more than $5,000,000 to be given by 500,000 Texas Methodists towards the $35,000,000 fund the Southern Methodist church will raise in eight days, beginning May 18th as it's part of the $120,000,000 thank-offering of the whole Methodist church in the United States.

The "Big Seven" decided directing the Texas Methodist campaign, will also pitch in and help Uncle Sam put over the Victory loan drive beginning April 21st. They have passed down the word to every Methodist in Texas: "Stand by Uncle Sam and Woodrow Wilson! Buy Victory bonds to the last cent."

The Methodists of Texas last month decided to pool their entire resources and lend their whole strength as a body for the Victory drive. To make that drive doubly sure, they even postponed their own campaign, which had been scheduled originally this month, and their slogan is "Let every Methodist make a thank offering for Victory by buying bonds."

The "Big Seven" are:
Judge C. M. Smith, Dallas, campaign director of the Texas Annual Conference.
R. M. Kelly, Longview, campaign director of Texas Annual Conference.
J. T. Scott, Houston, associate campaign director of Texas Annual Conference.
Earle B. Mayfield, Austin, campaign director of West Texas Annual Conference.
Judge G. W. Barcus, Waco, campaign director of Central Texas Annual Conference.
Ira J. Ayers, El Paso, campaign director of New Mexico Annual Conference.
Judge John W. Woods, Abilene, campaign director of Northwest Texas Annual Conference.

Three of the seven campaign directors for the Methodists of the state are among the leading members of the Texas bar. They are Judge C. M. Smith, Judge G. W. Barcus and Judge John W. Woods who recently was a candidate for the office of attorney general of Texas.

In the Texas Conference the leadership falls on two of its leading business men, R. M. Kelly, the millionaire manufacturer of Longview and J. T. Scott, president of the First National Bank of Houston.

Heading the West Texas Conference campaign is Mr. Mayfield member of the state railroad commission and one of the best known public officials of the state. Mr. Ayers at El Paso, who territory includes part of Texas and the whole of New Mexico, for years has been a prominent government official on the border.

Assisting these laymen are a host of mission secretaries, district and church campaign directors, three-minute speakers who number into the thousands.

Speaking of the Methodist part in the great victory loan drive soon to be launched, Judge C. M. Smith said in an interview:

"Texas Methodists may be compared to an army working under orders, whether such orders come from their church or their country.

They are preparing to over-subscribe their quota at the proper time, which is after the Victory loan drive. Our difficulty now is to hold back the enthusiasts until the time for the drive.

During the Victory Loan campaign we will take our coats off and do everything in our power to make sure that Texas goes well over the government quota, which quota will be announced shortly.

Methodists are loyal. Ten per cent of our members 'joined up' when the call came.

Every Methodist in Texas will do his full duty to his country as well as to his church.

Our thousands of minute-men speakers over the state will speak in 2,500 Texas churches at the same time on the same topic which will be "The Victory Loan." This will be on April 20th, the Sunday before the Victory Drive begins. Material for three-minute talks on this patriotic subject is already in their hands, and they are planning to concentrate their best efforts on that day.

The Methodist Centenary will stand behind the Victory loan to the last man and the last dollar."

LETTERS OCCASION FOR ALARM AT THE BENTINCK CASTLE

Associated Press Mail Correspondent.
AMERONGEN, NETHERLANDS, March 21.—There was excitement and alarm at the Bentinck castle today when the mail brought two violently worded threatening letters to the former German Emperor William and, almost simultaneously a telegram was received warning him of an attempt to be made on his life.

The sixteen armed military policemen provided by the Dutch government at its own expense to guard the person of the fallen monarch were quickly mustered. Those off duty were roused from their sleep and received orders to patrol the grounds of the castle carrying loaded carbines. This watch was continued throughout the night, much to the discomfort of the Dutch gendarmes who would be delighted to learn that Herr Holenzollern had decided to seek shelter in another land.

Despite all the precautions taken to guard him, it is evident that there is frequent if not constant apprehension that some person might yet obtain entrance to the grounds of the castle by stealth or subterfuge and attack the former Emperor.

To ward off such a possibility, the steward of the estate has been given the daily task of making a thorough search of the grounds before the erstwhile ruler sets his foot therein on his daily journey to the woodshed.

The sanctuary of William III has become a prison without being called by that name and within its walls he spends much of his time in an effort to avoid comparison of his present position with his former greatness.

There seems to be small chance that he will seek another refuge. When he came to Holland he undoubtedly harbored the belief that his sojourn here would be brief and that his former subjects soon would recall him but thus far no whisper has come for him to return. He seems not to be wanted in Germany but the Hollanders are now hoping for his speedy departure as they are beginning to feel that his presence here is having a bad effect on their relations with the rest of the world.

Arrangements are being made at County Bentinck's castle for the continued sojourn of the German guest.

Do YOU think all flours are alike?

As a matter of fact, there is all the difference in the world between flours. Flour made from carefully selected wheat, by painstaking, scientific methods, in a big modern clean mill, is bound to be better than ordinary flour.

There may be no difference in the appearance or in the "feel" — but there is a difference in the baking qualities—in the oven results—which after all is what you buy flour to get. When you purchase Belle of Wichita you are sure of getting a flour of proven value.

Belle of Wichita FLOUR

Bakers Pride Flour
Compare the flavor — note the difference in the volume of your loaves when made from Bakers Pride, as against other bakeshop flours, and you will quickly be convinced of its superiority.
Its use means better satisfied customers for you.
Milled from hard wheat especially for the baking trade.

Belle of Wichita Cornmeal
Cornbread, corn cakes, and corn muffins made from Belle of Wichita Cornmeal have an individual appeal all their own. One you don't get from the usual cornmeal.
An oven test will justify the claim.
The skill and care put into the preparation of every sack of Belle of Wichita Cornmeal, means better baking results for you.

GENERAL MANUEL PELAZ COMING MAN OF THE HOUR IN MEXICO

By Associated Press.—General Manuel Pelaz is the coming man of the hour in Mexico, according to Captain R. H. Bruce, formerly an officer in the 3rd U. S. Volunteer Cavalry, the Rough Riders, who has just arrived in Dallas from Mexico. Incidentally General Pelaz was the cause of the changing of the route of the Dallas Trade Trip excursion to Mexico cutting out Vera Cruz and Tampico, Captain Bruce thinks. "The situation is not propitious for such things in Vera Cruz and Tampico just now, not because of banditry, but because the district is under the control of General Pelaz who does not recognize the Carranza government and runs the affairs of his section independently," Captain Bruce said. An official of the union says the situation is grave. "We are doubtful of being able to hold our members if the negotiations are protracted," he stated. EASTER 1919.

The lilac-time, and thoughts, sublime, Awake with beautiful bloom; Which we, to, in Christ-like way, Would place around each tomb Of our lost joys, our brave, true, boys, Who sleep across the sea; For Easter's gift will ever lift The dark uncertainty.

They are not dead; they still are led By life, and truth, and love; Arisen, they, to perfect day To fairer realms above. "There is no death," the lilac's breath Comes to a world new-born, Life cannot die, nor death deny, The Resurrection Morn.

The Master proved for those he loved, Which means both bond and free; That nothing can destroy God's man; His truth makes e'en death flee, And so, today, we humbly pray To have the stone removed; To roll from sight, the seeming blight, To know the promise proved.

In God's right hand, at his command, Is each dear soldier's weal; And like the blooms from winter's omb, They've awakened to the real. We will look up, e'en when the cup We hold with trembling hand; And thank God for the end of war, For peace that rules the land. —Alice Brown. Wichita Falls, Texas.

SCULPTURE

TEA

Tea is recognized by authorities who know it, as a mental and physical stimulant, as a refresher of the spirit, as an appetizer. ICED TEA is the most palatable, refreshing, invigorating and healthful of all Summer beverages. We have a full line of the pick of the season's tea crop. We particularly recommend our "WHO CAN BEAT IT" I and C Blend for iced tea.
