SIX KILLED IN RACE RIOT AT CHARLESTON

By Associated Press. CHARLESTON, S. C., May 11.—Two blue-jackets and four negroes were reported to have been killed and a large number wounded, eight severely, in a race riot which broke out here late last night and continued until early Sunday morning.

The trouble was said to have grown out of the shooting of a sailor by a negro in a downtown pool room. In a short while, more blue jackets from the naval training station here and civilians joined in the fight.

For a time the rioters practically had possession of the downtown business streets. A negro barber shop on King street was almost wrecked and in several instances street cars were stopped by the trolley poles being pulled down and negroes on the cars were beaten up.

Blue jackets were rushed from the naval training camp to stop the riot and were armed at police station with riot guns. They were soon joined by marines. In the meantime a dozen naval officers running the risk of death from riot shots had forced a number of straying sailors to line up and were establishing order at various places.

DENY PRESIDENT HAS CHANGED ON FUME QUESTION

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 10.—Reports from Paris that President Wilson had committed himself to a proposal to settle the Fiume dispute by giving that port to Italy after 1923, were said in dispatches to the White House to be "absolute fiction."

It appears from today's advices that the president had not deviated in the slightest from his original stance in opposition to Italy's claim to this Adriatic port.

Other dispatches from Paris said the president would personally address congress and discuss the whole subject matter of the Paris negotiations immediately after his return to the States. It is understood that the president is being urged by his advisers to make a speaking tour over the country after he addresses congress.

There were indications in administration circles today that the president was seriously considering the advisability of mapping the suggested trip.

The White House is still without information as to when the president will cable his address to be read at the opening of the extra session of congress, but officials expected it next week.

NO DISCUSSION OF RIGHTS IN CONNECTION WITH PEACE TERMS WILL BE PERMITTED GERMANS

NAVAL TERMS OF AUSTRIAN TREATY NOW COMPLETED

By Associated Press. PARIS, May 9.—The naval terms of the treaty between the Allies and Austria, as now completed, are far more stringent than the naval terms in the treaty with Germany as the Austrian navy is completely extinguished.

The only craft of any kind which the terms give to Austria are those for use on the Danube but these will not be available outside that river. The terms are restricted to the surrender of the Austrian battle cruisers, destroyers and other ships without providing for the disposition to be made of them, which will be subsequently adjusted between the Allies and associated powers.

Reply to Delegation in Made by Premier Clemenceau the Chairman

Two Notes are Submitted to Allies in Answer to the Peace Terms.

By Associated Press. No discussion of their right to insist upon the terms of the peace treaty will be permitted by the allied powers. This is the reply which Premier Clemenceau, chairman of the peace conference, has made to the delegation representing Germany, which in addition to complaining about the stringency of the conditions, is seeking to obtain a general opening of verbal negotiations.

Germany's peace plenipotentiaries have submitted two notes to the allied and associated powers in answer to the peace terms they received Wednesday.

It is official reports from Berlin and Paris say that the notes were presented to Premier Clemenceau as chairman of the peace conference by Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, chairman of the German delegation, on Friday night. According to a Berlin report, the German answer declares the peace treaty has in it demands which no people could bear.

The reported answer of the German came immediately upon the issuance by the allied government of an announcement that it would make counter-proposals to the peace terms and that the German answer would be formal answer for a peace of honor. The German delegation has been in close touch with Berlin and is said to have received instructions from the home government.

The political situation in Germany is unsettled and there are reports that if the present government refuses to sign the peace treaty, it will be succeeded by one composed of independent States.

The council of four discussed Saturday, it was reported, the question of what to do if Germany should refuse to sign the treaty. It was said the discussion was for the purpose of being prepared for any eventuality, however remote it is believed, however remote it is believed, however remote it is believed.

Paris reports reaching Washington, still remains firm on the Adriatic problem and has not agreed to the proposal to give Fiume to Italy after 1923.

In a speech Saturday at the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences, the president said that America was ready to defend liberty wherever and whenever it was threatened. Friday night in a dinner address the president said that America was ready to defend liberty wherever and whenever it was threatened.

Some changes in the German-Austria peace delegation are reported from Vienna as a result of the departure of General Hottel, who was reported to have been in charge of the great army mobilization camp here since December, 1918, was today succeeded by General Hottel.

General Scott will take up his duties as a member of the Indian commission.

Plan for Action Should Germany Refuse to Sign

By Associated Press. PARIS, May 10.—It is understood that among the subjects discussed by the council of four at its meeting today was the eventuality of Germany refusing to sign the peace and what steps should be taken in that event.

It is said that no intimation that Germany should be taken such a course has reached the Allies but they are taking nothing for granted and the council of four is being urged by its representatives of the powers today by way of preparation for such an eventuality.

Following the introduction of strong-voiced resolution, "Commanding congressional investigation." Major Richard Foster of Kansas City, member of the general court, which convicted 135 conscientious objectors of the war, was named as chairman of the investigation.

A resolution asking congress to grant $500,000 to the Red Cross to help the war-wounded was introduced by a member of the Red Cross.

DEMAND INVESTIGATION INTO PARDONS ISSUED TO OBJECTORS

By Associated Press. ST. LOUIS, May 10.—An immediate investigation by congress of the war department's acts in pardoning conscientious objectors who were convicted by courts martial of violating the articles of war, was demanded today at the final session of its three-day caucus.

The caucus determined to take both matters directly to congress at the special session recently called by President Wilson.

DEPUTY COLLECTORS HERE LOOKING AFTER SPECIAL REVENUES

Stock and lease salesmen, also those who deal in royalties are notified by J. D. Carter and W. F. Whaley, deputy collectors for the Internal Revenue Department, now in Wichita Falls, that they must pay a tax as broker, and pay immediately the penalty for failure to pay being a fine of not more than $1,000 and a year's imprisonment, or both. Mr. Carter and Mr. Whaley can be seen at room 416, City National Bank Bldg. today and Monday, from 1 to 5 p. m.

The following notice is issued by these deputy collectors:
"Under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Laws, every person engaged in selling stocks, bonds or other securities is subject to pay tax as a broker, if such sales are made for others. Oil Lease are securities within the meaning of the law.
"It has come to the attention of the department that many persons engaged in the brokerage business in this locality have not made return and paid the tax, and we have been detailed by the collectors to make an investigation and report those who fail to pay the tax.
"Under these circumstances it will be to the material interest of persons selling stock, lease or royalties to see us at the address given below as the penalty provided for failure to comply with the law is a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year or both.
"The internal revenue laws also place a tax on the transportation of freight by motor power when in competition with railroads, and a tax on service cars. The department has been furnished with the names of persons engaged in hauling freight and operating passenger service cars. It will be to the interest of such persons to call on us and avoid further penalties."

OLD SETTLERS TO HAVE REUNION ON NEXT WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday of this week the Old Settlers' Association of Wichita County will hold its annual reunion. Place: Fires farm, east of Iowa Park. Time, the live-long day.
"A big gusher of old time hospitality" is being promised by Dr. J. F. Reed, president of the association, and by Mrs. Mamie Dale Brown and Mrs. Mike B. Cain, the entertainment committee. A baseball game is on the afternoon program, and a brass band will be very much "on the job" in keeping the old timers and the young folks properly attuned to the cheerful spirit of the day.
Speaking and recitations are also included in the day's entertainment. The principal speaker will be the Rev.

L. Sherrill, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, who has been asked to deliver an address on "The Western Boy at Home and in the Trenches." Dr. Sherrill enlisted in the Y. M. C. A. and was one of the first men in the United States to quit his "Y" position in order to wear khaki as an active fighting man. He saw service under fire at the Argonne and St. Mihiel, and few men are better qualified to describe the Western type of young manhood both at home and in army service abroad.
Any man, woman or youngster in Wichita county is welcome to the Old Settlers' reunion. The only requirement is a well-filled lunch basket for the big spread on the grounds, and a keen desire to have a good time; to remain young while checking up the years a-gone with those who have spent them.

SIR BARTON WINNER OF KENTUCKY DERBY

By Associated Press. LOUISVILLE, KY., May 10.—Sir Barton, Commander J. K. L. Ross' Star Shoot, Lady Sterling Colt, won the forty-fifth renewal of the Kentucky derby over a muddy track at Churchill Downs in handy fashion today, gained for his owner $20,825 and enriched the public to the extent of $720 for a $2 pari-mutuel ticket.

Sir Barton carried 110 pounds, 12 lbs. less than the top weight and was ridden by Jockey J. Loftus, who handled him in excellent fashion. Sir Barton, from the same stable, with P. Sande up, was second by a length from the leader, and a length away P. Danne's imported colt, Under Fire, finished third. Volcanite, lengths to the rear, led the remainder of the field.

The time, 2:09 4/5 for the mile and a quarter, was 6-2-5 seconds slower than the derby record.

Eternal, J. W. McClelland's Sweep-Hazelburke colt, regarded as a slight public choice, tired after going three-fourths of a mile and finished tenth. Index, the Harry Payne Whitney entry, upon which Eastern people were said to have placed their confidence, trailed the field after the first half mile, and finished last.

Mrs. J. D. Meredith, 1605 Eleventh street, had as her guests at dinner Saturday, Mrs. R. Y. Alexander of Oklahoma City and Judge and Mrs. Crose of Montrose, Colo. Mrs. Alexander is visiting Mrs. Meredith and Mrs. Edward Hardin, 1609 Eleventh Street.

The Comfort Car HUPMOBILE $1335 f. o. b. Detroit The Comfort Car Hupmobile owners expect much of their cars—especially in the matter of performance. Yet they will not expect nearly as much in the new Hupmobile as the new Hupmobile will give them. This applies to no one phase of performance, but to every phase. The Series "R" develops surprising power, more power—we are speaking particularly to Hupmobile people—than even the Series "N" had. We say "even" because you know all the Series "N" did, and is still doing in the hands of thousands of owners. Hupmobile owners this season will have even less difficulty in equaling the performance of any car—at any price, with any number of cylinders—in hill climbing on high gear and in pulling on high gear through sand and mud. The Series "R" in high gear and with a low throttle will approximate a man's walking gait and do it easily and maintain it indefinitely. From this crawl it will dart to high speed without jerking or choking. "Pick Up" under all conditions is remarkably rapid. Indeed, the car can almost be made to leap from under its passengers. This quick pick-up combined with its easy operating and oversized brakes gives a most satisfying flexibility. ROUND-UP PROGRAM
NEARING COMPLETION; INTEREST IS GROWING

"Cowboy Jim" Wilkes of Gainesville, "blew into" Wichita Falls late Saturday afternoon, and gladdened the hearts of the Chamber of Commerce committee handling the affairs of the Big Round-Up that opens here next Thursday afternoon. Wilkes who with the exception of a Buenos Aires cowpuncher known as the "South American Kid" has the distinction of being the only man in the world to attempt bulldogging from an automobile, has signed a contract with the Round-Up committee to "pull off" this dangerous stunt at the coming frontier days show.

Bulldogging, as cowmen understand it, consists of leaping from the back of a running horse to the neck of a frightened longhorn steer and dragging the animal to the ground by sheer muscular strength and agility without the aid of a rope. The trick is always a dangerous one, the cowpuncher running the risk of being horned by the steer or pinned beneath the animal, not to mention the danger of a violent fall.

Wilkes not only is a bulldogger of the old school, but he has added the automobile "wrinkle" to his exhibitions. An automobile, even under the guidance of a skillful driver, cannot approach a ducking, running steer with one-half the ease of a trained cow pony—and Wilkes is generally taking a long gamble with his health every time he tries the trick.

"Cowboy Jim" has also entered the bronc riding, steer riding, roping events and the maverick race. He is one of the finest all-around cowpunchers in the West, and his entry will add materially to the rivalry among the cowmen participating in the Round-Up contests.

Interest in the Round-Up is growing steadily throughout Wichita county, and it is generally believed that the three days of all-contest events will bring here a daily audience bigger than any gathering that has attended any similar frontier days exhibition ever staged in this section of the West. Owing to the great size of the new park constructed by the Wichita Falls Park Association, it will be possible to hold many events that could not be handled in the small arena space at the Fort Worth rodeo, and already more than 200 head of horses and cattle have been shipped here to be used in the various events.

In addition to the events of a contest nature, the committee has closed a contract with Virgil Kee rider and trainer of Kismet, the only horse in the world trained to jump a five-passenger automobile—filled with passengers. Kismet was one of the big features of the Fort Worth show, and his appearance here will add wonderfully to the spectacular nature of the Round-Up.

The final touches will be put to the big grandstand tomorrow. The stand which will seat 1,600 persons, was completed Saturday, except for a few minor details. The park and stand is only two blocks East of the railroad station, on East Seventh street, and its convenience to the downtown district will be a big factor in the success of the Round-Up.

ADMINISTRATION
AUTHORIZES TRAIN TO OKLAHOMA CITY

Direct connection with Oklahoma City will be secured by the first of June, according to W. H. Yeargin, division Freight and Passenger agent, the authority to operate the train having been received from the Railroad Administration, to begin as soon as the necessary schedule and equipment can be arranged for. While the only schedule that has been arranged is tentative and subject to change it is believed that the train will be operated according to the following schedule:

Leave Wichita Falls 7:30 p. m., arrive Frederick 10 p. m., arrive Oklahoma City early next morning. On the return, leave Oklahoma City 7 p. m., arriving here following morning. According to the new schedule three pullmans will be operated in addition to the day coaches. The new train will be a great time saving for travellers who, at present are compelled to lay over a day either in Fort Worth or Ringgold.

The matter of through service between Oklahoma City and Wichita Falls was first taken up by Charles E. Hall, president of the Oklahoma City Stockyards National Bank and chairman of the traffic bureau of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce. The co-operation of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce was obtained, and after more than a month of vigorous campaigning the desired results at last have definitely been promised.

The traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce also announced Saturday that on or before June 1st the Wichita Falls & Northwestern railway will operate the train leaving here at 2:15 p. m., all the way through to Elk City, Oklahoma, instead of only to Altus.

RAY TRIBUTE TO VALOR OF U.S. TROOPS

Marks Occasion Celebrating Capital Anniversary by the Japanese.

BRILLIANT LUNCHEON

Is Given by the Minister of War Tanaka in Famous Akuden Gardens.

TOKIO, Friday, May 9.—An impressive celebration of the fifth anniversary of the transfer of the imperial capital from Kyoto to Tokyo took place here today. The emperor and crown prince participated and the occasion was marked by a historic tribute from official Japanese to American Ambassador Roland S. Morris and through him to America to the value of the American army.

It took the form of a brilliant luncheon by Minister of War Tanaka in the famous Korakuen gardens and was for the purpose of commemorating the signature by Japan and America of the agreement for the administration of the Siberia railroad. In a large sense the function was regarded as epoch-making in the relations between Japan and America and as indicating the inauguration of closer harmony between the military and civil branches of the Japanese government.

High Minded Attitude. In addressing the assembly M. Tanaka said the world had already recognized the high minded attitude of America in the world war. "If America's citizens had not been loyal and if her national power had not been so great she could not have planned what she did. Even though she did not marshal her entire strength on the battlefield America must be regarded as the nation which humbled the enemy and reduced him to helplessness," he said.

Referring to the American-Japanese expedition to Siberia, he said, it had easily attained its original object and had subsequently co-operated with the Allies for the rehabilitation of Russia. He expressed the opinion that America and Japan were the nations most vitally concerned in Siberia.

Ambassador Morris Responds. In responding Mr. Morris said that M. Tanaka had "voiced the feelings in the hearts of all men as the supreme product of the war," and emphasized the new spirit of international co-operation. "No one," he declared, "dare ignore the intensity and significance of this feeling in the realization of which rest all of our hopes for an ordered national and international life. In the relations of Japan and America are found the first efforts to express this larger spirit of co-operation in the unselfish service of reconstruction. If questionings, even suspicious and distrust have arisen through differences of language, environment and methods, I rejoice that they have been met with a spirit of friendship and frankness and solved."

STATE GRANTS AUTHORITY FOR NEW RANGER BANK. AUSTIN, May 10.—The state banking board today granted certificates of authority to do business in Texas to the People's State Bank of Houston, capital stock $150,000, and the Texas Bank and Trust Company of Stanger, capital stock $100,000. Both are guaranty fund banks.

ELECTRA EMPLOYEES CITY MANAGER TO DIRECT AFFAIRS

Special to The Times. ELECTRA, TEXAS, May 10.—The city of Electra has, in a manner adopted the city manager plan of city government, and Mr. W. H. Lawson arrived last week to take up the duties of that office, being employed by the commissioners after a good many applications for the place were considered.

Mr. Lawson is a graduate of the University of Illinois and has had several years experience in that work as will be required of him here. He was for five years, until 1916 employed by the Cotton Company of Vancouver, B. C. and is highly recommended by them for the place here. He will have charge of all the improvement work that is contemplated by the city, both the engineering and expenditures, and will otherwise look out for the welfare of the city.

To improve Bank Building. The First State Bank has had an architect at work for the last week or two making plans for the remodeling of the interior of the bank and they will be accompanied by the removal of the Bank Barber Shop and the building of new vaults outside of the main bank building. The fixtures will be about the most elaborate yet installed in any bank in Wichita county. They will be of marble construction, and very heavy design. A marble wainscoting is also included in the plans. The floor space of the bank and workroom has also come in for its share of the planning and when the new fixtures are installed, the work of the bank will be greatly facilitated.

Buy Denver Hotel. It was announced this week that N. W. Self, W. P. Lincoln, Mrs. W. T. Martin and associates have purchased the Denver Hotel and the Crown Theatre, and will immediately begin the expenditure of several thousand dollars toward the remodeling and modernizing of the hotel and rebuilding and enlarging the Crown Theatre.

Mr. Self stated that an architect would be here this week for the purpose of making plans for the modernizing of the hotel. The lobby will be enlarged and all of the surplus space of the lower floor will be utilized and the dining room will be remodeled and reopened. Mrs. C. J. Howell has made a lease on the dining room and will open it as soon as the work of remodeling is finished.

The two upper floors will be modernized throughout, and Mr. Self stated that a feature of the new hotel will be a bath for every two rooms and running water in every room.

Among the other features of the lower floor will be a thoroughly modern barber shop.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS VOTE A NATION WIDE STRIKE BY 8 TO 1

By Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 10.—The result of the referendum question on the question of calling a nation-wide strike of electrical workers was announced today by C. P. Ford, international secretary of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, showing that the question was carried by about eight to one.

The vote was started about two months ago, when Postmaster General Burleson refused to consider the grievances of the men. The vote was completed today. "Out of the membership of 150,000, 97,000 votes were cast," said Mr. Ford, "and 87,000 were in favor of the strike."

Mr. Ford intimated that there still was hope of avoiding the strike, as he felt sure upon President Wilson's return from Europe, weight would be brought to bear upon Mr. Burleson, and the troubles amicably adjusted.

"THE FIRE FLINGERS" AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY
Dual role stories are of course not new to motion pictures, but it is seldom that one is seen in which the star is called on to play two such different characters as Richard Hatton and Richard Olwell in "The Fire Flingers," which will be seen Tuesday at the Majestic Theatre.

This adaptation of W. J. Neidig's Saturday Evening Post story, made by Universal, presents Rupert Julian first as a wealthy, profligate publisher, who is about to desert his wife for another woman, and later as a repentant ex-convict, who, to save his chum and himself from the electric chair, impersonate the publisher after the latter has been killed.

It is almost impossible to believe that the two men seen on the screen are the same. Every gesture, every attitude of Julian as Olwell, the publisher, speaks of wealth, arrogance, and assured position in the world. Olwell is a brute by instinct beneath the veneer that civilization has placed on him. He is cruel to his wife. The woman with whom he is to elope fears as much as loves him.

Hatton is at the opposite extreme of human nature. One pities him from his first appearance. His humbly, his voiceless resignation in the face of unmerited misfortune, his determination to make a man of himself and to see that his chum does likewise strike a note of real pathos. Among those supporting Julian are Jane Novak, Fay Tiacher, Clyde Fillmore and E. A. Warren. Waldemar Young, who plays the part of Julian himself directed the picture.

VIOLA DANA STARS IN "FALSE EVIDENCE" MONDAY
"False Evidence," from the pen of the distinguished authoress, Mary E. Wilkens, and in which Viola Dana is starred, will be the attraction at the Majestic Theatre Monday, and will show Miss Dana in a role rich in heart appeal and rare in humor.

She is seen as Madelon, a girl of the west who lives in a remote village, amidst the towering redwoods, where it is the primitive custom for parents to betroth their daughters at birth. As Madelon grows to beautiful womanhood, the promised bride of Lot Gordon, she finds that she has no love for him but loves instead his cousin, Burr. Being a high-spirited and passionate girl, she upsets the traditions of her race and refuses to marry Lot.

An unfortunate incident occurs which casts the suspicion of a terrible crime on Burr. Lot alone can clear his name and this he refuses to do unless Madelon consents to marry him. To save her lover's life she agrees, and as the day for her wedding grows near, she resigns herself to her unhappy fate. At the last moment, as she has given up all hope of a release from her hateful promise, and incident happens which changes the whole situation and gives her the freedom for which she has longed. The romance ends in her happy marriage with Burr.

The clever cast of players supporting Miss Dana includes Wheeler Oakman, Joe Kink, Edward J. Connelly, Pat O'Malley, Peggy Pearce and Virginia Ross.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN "SHIRLEY KAYE"
In "Shirley Kaye" which will be shown at the Plaza Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, Clara Kimball Young displays her versatility by creating a role different from the persecuted woman she has portrayed so often in the past. In this picture, from the successful play of the same name which is directed by Joseph Kaufman, Miss Young acts the role of Shirley, the vivacious daughter of Edgerton Kaye, president of the great Union Central R. R. He holds his position through his descent from "Private" Kaye who founded the line, rather than through any executive ability of his own.

T. J. Magon, the brusque financier from the East, ably delineated by George Fawcett, who bought the house next door to the Kayes; he cares not at all for the society life of the East, while his wife is worried by her many servants, but his "flapper" daughter years with all her heart to break into the society swim, where Shirley Kaye reigns supreme. "T. J." and John Rowson, his young associate—who incidentally hates all women, especially Easterners—secure majority of the proxies of Union Central shareholders, and the ousting of Edgerton Kaye is a matter of days.

With breaking heart, he tells his daughter of the impending blow—she rises to the situation; and how she plays the society game, combined it with high finance to save the family fortunes, is a stirring tale. At the same time, she finally wins the love of John Rowson, which brings into the story of American business and social life an absorbing thread of heart interest.

"THE TEST OF HONOR" AT EMPRESS MONDAY
There are few if any actors on the American stake whose faculty for making up to suit the requirements of his roles is developed more artistically than that possessed by John Barrymore. This is amply evidenced by him in his new Paramount photograph, "The Test of Honor," which will be shown at the Empress Theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

In portraying the role of a man who has served seven years in the penitentiary, Mr. Barrymore surprised his director, John Robertson, and his fellow players, in the production, by appearing in a make-up so gruesomely realistic that it caused everyone to gasp and shudder. His face, ghastly yellow from prison-pallor, was deeply lined, and shaded, so that it gave the appearance of being haggard and shrank under the eyes and cheek bones.

In some artful manner he gave to his throat a shrunken appearance, while the cords stood out pathetically from the muscles. His eyes conveyed that hunted expression of the convict, and his hair, naturally black, was powdered with white in streaks.

His hands, too, were not overlooked in the make-up, and so thin were the fingers that they resembled claws more than human hands. When his sister, Ethel Barrymore, drove up to the studio, he appeared in this strange make-up at the door, and the onlookers saw her gasp and grow pale.

Mr. Barrymore is splendidly supported, his leading woman being Constance Binney and Marcia Manon. The story is based upon E. Phillips Oppenheim's novel, "The Malefactor" and the picturization was made by Eve Unsell.

VIOLA DANA
IN
"False Evidence"

VIOLA DANA - Metro Star A 5-Act Metro Drama of the Redwoods.

A story of love and laughter, Romance and Adventure. Where a girl sacrifices her love to save her lover. A gripping story of life in the mountains. A romance of the breezy west—the story of a fiddler girl. A story that reflects the glorious hue of youth. Showing trials and tribulations of a daughter of tradition. Where the dark cloud of suspicion is lifted by love. Filled with mysterious music of the desert woods. How a girl of the woods won her heart's desire. A radiant story of young adventure. As fragrant as the breeze from the pine-clad hills. A romance of streams of pleasant groves. A story of love—sweeter than the wild bird's song.

The MUSIC is one of the best features of our excellent program—Orchestra in afternoon and night.

Pictures start 1:30—3:00—4:30—6:00—7:30—9:00.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

—IN—

"SHIRLEY KAYE"

All the world loves a lover—and also a good fighter. The Shirley Kaye whom Miss Young portrays will win the world's love doubly; for she makes a great fight against her own ignorance of finance to save her father, and in an even harder battle she overcomes Western prejudice against the effete East.

FRECKLE-FACE

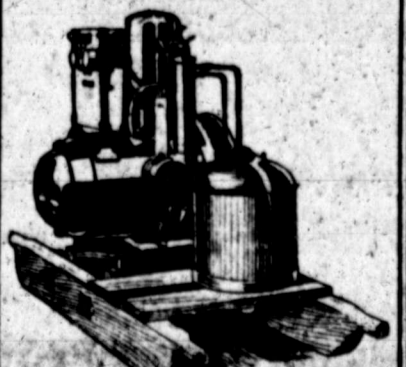

Now is the Time to Get Rid of Those Ugly Spots.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle face? Simply get an ounce of Othine double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

ANNOUNCING OUR PLANS FOR A LARGER AND BETTER STORE ANOTHER FLOOR WILL BE ADDED TO OUR BUILDING

About June 1st, contractors will begin work that will exactly double the present size of our store. We are adding another floor to our building and re-modeling the lower floor. This will give us one of the most modern stores in this section of the state. Our firm name will be changed on June 1st from Campbell-Anderson Co. to Anderson's. W. W. Anderson has purchased the interests of T. C. Campbell and will have associated with him as stockholders Mr. C. S. Mudd, W. H. Hamilton and Mrs. Jewel Harkins. All of whom have been actively connected with this store since we have been in Wichita Falls. The wonderful amount of business the people of Wichita Falls and this section of the state have favored us with has made possible our rapid progress and we promise in return a larger and better store. It is our purpose to give, at all times, the best possible values, the newest styles at the lowest possible prices. A little over a year ago we opened for business in Wichita Falls, and at that time asked you to help us make this store a credit to the city and in return we would give you a better trading place. You have done your part and we are putting forth our best efforts to do ours and solicit your support and trade in order to make this store what Wichita Falls is entitled to.

LAUNCH CAMPAIGN IN BEHALF OF THE GOOD ROADS BONDS

H. FINDLEY WELDON IS ELECTED
CHAIRMAN MANAGER FRI-DAY NIGHT.

VICE CHAIRMEN APPOINTED

Well Attended Banquet Is Held at Christian Church to Outline Plans.

Wichita county's campaign for the Good Roads Bond issue of one and a half million dollars was begun and H. Findley Weldon, campaign manager, at a Good Roads banquet held Friday night at the First Christian church, with the chamber of commerce as host. The various precincts of the county were represented, and the vice chairman from each precinct appointed, and a fund for carrying on the campaign was raised.

The organization of the campaign committee is to be perfected immediately, and an active campaign carried into each precinct, preparatory to the election, which will be held June 4.

C. C. Cabness was elected chairman for Burk Burnett, E. A. Dale for Electric and Fred Jacks for Iowa Park. Clint Wood and W. S. Curlee were named vice chairmen for the Wichita Falls precinct to assist Mr. Weldon. The plan of campaign and raising of the campaign fund were left to the campaign committees, with Mr. Wood as special chairman of the finance committee. Since there are only about three weeks remaining until the election, the committee appointed pledged immediate action.

Enthusiasm Is Manifested.

There was much enthusiasm manifested for the bond issue, and all the speakers felt confident that the measure would carry, that every citizen of Wichita county knows the great need of good roads, and knows that their lack is a deterring factor in the growth of Wichita county, but it was agreed that there would doubtless be some opposition, as there always was to any measure, and that this opposition must be overcome and the issue carried by an overwhelming majority.

Approximately one thousand dollars was subscribed to the campaign fund at the banquet, and additional subscriptions will be secured, the men at the Friday night meeting agreeing to underwrite the necessary expense and authorizing Mr. Weldon and his vice chairmen to make any necessary expenditures with the assurance that the money would be available.

Judge R. E. Huff presided at the meeting and first explained the issue. How that Wichita county when it saw that the road system and construction that it had planned would not meet the needs of the people in the various sections of the county, had cancelled the contracts, and had planned a system that would be built for the future. How to do this it was necessary to vote more bonds, vote to use the money gained from the first $750,000 bond issue, but the new issue at any one time. There is sufficient money from the old issue, he added, to carry on a road building program for permanent paved roads until October, he stated, and the new issue will not be used until then.

To Support State Issue.

In addition to carrying the Wichita county bond issue, Judge Huff stated, the campaign committee will similarly work for the $75,000,000 state road bond issue, which is to be voted on by the state this summer. This issue is to mean no more taxation, he explained, but will be paid out of the automobile tax paid into the state treasury.

"Wichita county of course won't get anything like what it pays in," he said, "but we will benefit, and consequently must work for the passage of this state road bond issue."

Following Judge Huff's talk G. Clint Wood was called on for a talk. The road question in Wichita county was one on which he was quite fully qualified to talk, he stated, since he had just returned from a trip to Burk Burnett and was in a bad humor over the roads.

The cost of repairs on the automobles in Wichita county for one year will more than pay for paving all the roads in the county," he said. "Every automobile that goes over these roads will have $610 to $1000 spent on repairs. Why it even takes $1,000 to keep a Ford up a year. You'll use up three in one year and at the end of the year couldn't sell them for $50 apiece."

Reid Is Speaker.

C. W. Reid, who has been a good roads enthusiast since first coming to Wichita Falls, and who was one of the factors in putting across the first bond issue two years ago spoke briefly. He stated it as his opinion that it would not be as difficult at this time to vote the $1,500,000 bond issue as it was to secure the three quarters of a million issue two years ago.

"Then we were facing war, drought and various other conditions that made that bond issue a task. It is vastly different today. There is more wealth in the county, and being produced by the county than ever before and there is also, because of these things, a greater need than ever for the good roads. If the mineral resources of the county are to be fully developed we must foster that development by making every section of the county accessible and we can do this only by building paved roads."

The election of Mr. Weldon as chairman, and the election of his assistants came after the brief formal talks, then Clint Wood began raising money for the expenses of the campaign, with his usual success.

C. C. Cabness of Burk Burnett, J. L. Parker and Crawford Sheldon of Electric, R. D. Eads of Burk Burnett, E. A. McCleskey, Fred Jacks and Jack Stevens of Iowa Park were among the out of town visitors at the banquet, representing the three other precincts in the county.

The banquet was served in the dining room of the First Christian church. The tables were beautifully decorated with baskets of roses, and the menu was exceptionally tempting, consisting of lettuce salad with Thousand Island dressing, turkey and dressing, creamed peas, creamed potatoes and hot biscuits, ice cream with fresh strawberries and a gelfood cake.

The ladies of the Christian church served the banquet, and were given a vote of thanks by the assembled guests, before adjournment. There were about one hundred business and professional men present.

JUDGE RAMSEY IS SPEAKER AT SCHOOL ON FRIDAY EVENING

DISCUSSES PROBLEMS OF INTEREST AT THIS TIME BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE.

INTRODUCED BY MR. KEMP

Praises Wichita Falls For Splendid Progress Made Since Last Visit.

Although much of his address was delivered by lantern light, due to the blowing of a fuse in the high school building, Judge W. F. Ramsey delighted the large crowd that was assembled in the high school auditorium Friday night by his informal discussion of present day subjects.

Judge Ramsey was introduced by J. A. Kemp as a public spirited citizen, speaking in particular of his excellent work as a director of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas, also of his courageous fight against the outstanding evils of the present day.

Opening his talk with what he termed an apology, Judge Ramsey explained why he had changed the subject in that when he was invited to address the people of this city he understood his audience would be chiefly business men and with that in view he had given his theme as dealing with reconstruction problems. Since he was favored with a mixed audience he announced his intention of "just talking" on subjects which he thought would interest his audience. The wonderful growth of Wichita Falls since his last visit over 6 years ago and his pleasure at seeing his old friends so prosperous and happy were mentioned, but the chief improvement he noted lay not in the material growth, in the wonderful homes and well built city, he declared, but in the change in the moral life of the community.

Lessons of the War.
That the greatest lesson taught by the terrible war which we have just "seen through," unity of all parties, classes and religions should be followed after a return to the days of peace was expressed by Judge Ramsey and while he did not advocate a union of all the churches, he suggested at least the various branches of the same denomination.
"The war has brought home some burdens and many added duties," said Judge Ramsey, "which we cannot and will not shrink. Among the new duties which the United States must enter upon is that of active participation in European affairs due to her prominent position in the League of Nations. Our long protracted isolation from the continent was rudely broken by the trip of the German Imperial messenger Deutschland, and we must no longer fool ourselves into believing we are entirely removed from Europe. "Before long," the Judge stated, "we will read of a 36-hour trip across the Atlantic by air."
The recent ratification of the prohibition amendment by 40 states and the favorable progress of woman suffrage movement both are, in the opinion of Judge Ramsey, evidences of a change in the moral life of the nation which is extremely gratifying, when we consider how foolish one was thought four years ago who said national prohibition and woman suffrage was possible.
A slight interruption occurred in the address when the auditorium was darkened, but the speaker didn't seem to be worried in the least, and remarked: "We are now in somewhat of a darkened condition, but soon all will be light and we will see things in their proper relation."
The address was preceded by a musical program by the orchestra of the high school and a vocal solo by Mrs. Lee Clark.

GREAT OLD REMEDY FOR SKIN DISEASES

S. S. S. Clears Skin of Eruptions—Drives Poison From the System.

Get it fixed in your mind that skin eruptions, Scrofula, Eczema, burning, itching skin, and all skin diseases are due entirely to impure and infected blood. If the trouble was on the outside of the skin, by simply washing and keeping it clean you could obtain relief—not even ointments, lotions, and salves would be necessary. Agree with us in this belief, and your trouble can be relieved—you can be entirely restored to health. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable treatment that you can secure from your own druggist—it is a blood tonic that will purify your blood and cause a most decided abatement of your trouble, and finally make you entirely well. Fifty years ago S. S. S. was discovered and given to suffering mankind. During this period it has proven its remarkable curative properties as a blood purifier and tonic, and has relieved thousands of cases of disease caused by poor or impure blood, and chronic or inherited blood diseases. You can be relieved, but you must take S. S. S. Take it if only pimples appear, for they denote bad blood, and may be followed by the sufferings from torturing skin eruptions. Therefore be sure. Don't take chances, don't use lotions. If yours is a special case, write for expert medical advice. Address: Medical Director, 258 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

ARE WE HELPLESS?

The business men of Wichita Falls are coming to a realization of the seriousness of the housing situation after a great deal of damage has been done.

There is enough wealth in Wichita Falls to have provided a house for every worthy family in the city and to have rented it to them at a reasonable rate.

It probably does no good to discuss what might have been done. But the situation that existed last month, the month before and for many months preceding exists today.

PUTTING THE RING IN THE BULL'S NOSE.

If a wild bull had broken through your fences, injured some of your family, trampled your crops and destroyed everything within his reach.

Germany, the bull brute among nations, broke down the fences of Belgium and France, raped the women, wantonly murdered children and the aged.

But even the bull ought to be thankful at the moderation of those he has injured. They might have killed the bull, you know.

ANTI-PROHIBITIONISTS MAY ATTACK SIGNIFICANCE

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, TEXAS, May 10.—Perhaps anti-prohibitionists may attach some significance to the fact that the first prohibition legislation in Texas, the striking of the local option provision in the constitution, was during the thirteenth legislature.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Uncle Wiggly and Bunty's Shoes

"Uncle Wiggly, I am sorry to trouble you," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper to the bunny rabbit gentleman one day.

"How do you think you would go to the store for me? Or are you too stiff? Is your rheumatism too bad?"

"Uncle Wiggly looked all around the follow stumpy bungalow before answering when he asked:

"Is Bunty here?" "Not just now," replied Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, trying not to smile. "Why do you ask?"

"Because I say I'm not too stiff and old to go to the store for you," she'll say I'm not too stiff to play tag with her. And I certainly am!" said Uncle Wiggly, positive like and emphatic.

"I don't want to move about quickly at all today. I just want to go slow and easy like

"Then you may," said Nurse Jane. "I only want you to go to the store for me and get Bunty's shoes!"

"What's that?" cried Mr. Longears, and he gave such a jump that his pink nose stopped twinkling.

"So I do. I'd have to go after Bunty's shoes if you didn't, and, really, I haven't time. But you don't have to take Bunty's shoes, you may hop as slowly as you like. I took her down and she tried on the shoes yesterday. I left them to be stretched. All you have to do is bring them home."

"Oh, that's all right," said Uncle Wiggly. "I like Bunty, and all that, but when I want to hop slowly, she wants to play tag and the like of that. I'll go to the store alone."

Away he started, leaning on his red, white and blue striped, rheumatism crutch that Nurse Jane had gnawed for him out of a cornstalk. And Uncle Wiggly had not hopped very far before he heard a voice calling:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly! Wait for me! Wait a minute!"

"My goodness me, makes alive and some peanut hash!" thought the busy rabbit. "I hope that isn't the Pippsawah or the Skuddlemagoon after me!"

He was just going to hide behind a tree when he saw that it was Bunty who was hopping along through the woods.

"Wait a minute, Uncle Wiggly!" she cried.

"Well, something is surely going to happen now," thought the bunny rabbit.

It did not take long for Bunty to catch up to Mr. Longears, for she was a lively little rabbit girl.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly!" she gasped. "I know where you are going! You are going after my new shoes. I heard Nurse Jane tell you! I was playing tag down behind the rain-water barrel. I didn't mean to listen, but I couldn't help hearing. Please take me with you."

"Well, what could Uncle Wiggly do? He didn't want to hurt Bunty's feelings, and he certainly was going after her shoes. So he said:

"Now, look here, Bunty! No tricks, you know! No making me hop up and down stairs to look at you try on new hats, you know!"

"Of course not!" laughed the little rabbit girl. "Besides, we are going after shoes today, and I don't have to try them on. Nurse Jane helped me buy them yesterday. I'll be good."

"And please be quiet—don't make me do any extra hopping today!" begged the bunny rabbit gentleman. My joints are too stiff."

Bunty had a funny little twinkle in her eyes as she hopped along with Mr. Longears. Soon they were at the shoe store and a nice rat gentleman handed Mr. Longears a neat package.

"Well, this isn't so bad," thought the bunny rabbit. "There's to be a trying on, too, in consequence, there can be no hopping up and down stairs."

With the shoe package under one leg, and holding Bunty's paw in his other one, Uncle Wiggly started back for the hollow stump bungalow.

"Can't we go any faster than this?" asked Bunty. "I want to hurry home and wear my new shoes."

"Oh, this is fast enough for my rheumatic joints," spoke the rabbit gentleman, contented like.

Bunty started to run backward.

"Why—why—where are you going?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Oh, I think the man forgot to put my laces in my new shoes," cried Bunty. "I must run back and get them. You wait for me, Uncle Wiggly."

"No, I can't wait!" said Mr. Longears. "I must go with you, to see that you don't get lost!"

"Back ran Bunty Bunty and back ran Uncle Wiggly. And when they reached the shoe store the rat gentleman said:

"Why, the laces are in the shoes!" "Oh, how silly of me!" said Bunty. "So they are! Now we must hop along fast. Uncle Wiggly, or it will be dark before we get home!" So, whether he liked it or not, Uncle Wiggly had to hop along very fast, and he did Bunty Bunty. But it's a good thing they did, for when they were at most at the hollow stump bungalow, out popped the bad Pippsawah, trying to get the new shoes.

And, only that Uncle Wiggly and Bunty were hopping so fast, the Pip might have caught them.

But he didn't! He was glad to say, and when Bunty Bunty tried on her new shoes they fitted perfectly, and Uncle Wiggly wasn't hardly stiff at all. And if the lawn mower doesn't try to cut a slice off the cake of soap for the coldfish to take a bath, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and Bunty's hair ribbon.

An Open Letter To People Who Don't Buy At P. B. M.

Yes—strange as it may seem to the people who know this store—there are many people in our community who buy no goods here—and that should not be, either for our good or for the good of the people themselves—

Of course, there are other good stores in Wichita Falls and different people like different stores. But just because John Smith is a friend of ours is no reason why we should not be a good friend of Sam Jones, as well.

This is too good a store not to be serving EVERYBODY IN THIS COMMUNITY, at one time or another. We don't have all the good merchandise there is; but we do have much that is TOO GOOD TO BE MISSED. We always have different patterns and different styles and kinds, that discriminating people should see before they buy.

So we are inaugurating a Special Event—

New-Comers Week

Beginning Monday morning and continuing until Saturday night, and every day, all week, we shall present offerings that will demonstrate why there should NEVER be a person in this city who does not buy goods at this store. There will be a valuable special offering each day. Some will be advertised, but many will not be advertised at all, they will be delightful surprises for those that visit our store on these days.

The Old Saying is: "The way to make a friend is to be one." We believe the way to make a friend out of a new-comer is to SHOW HOW GOOD A STORE WE HAVE, WHAT QUALITY MERCHANDISE WE CARRY, HOW COURTEOUS OUR SALESPeOPLE ARE when new-comers visit us the coming week. If you have anything to buy this month, this will be a wonderful week to secure it—AT THIS STORE.

OUR OLD FRIENDS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME, of course; and their enthusiasm over the goods to be offered will show new-comers what a well-liked store this is.

Welcome alike to Old Friends and New Acquaintances

DOHERTY AND PARTY PASS THROUGH CITY AT NOON SATURDAY

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED BANKERS AND BROKERS ARE INCLUDED.

WELCOME TO THE VISITORS

State That Mistake Has Been Made in Drilling Burkburnett Pool So Extensively.

"Where's them millionaires?" The question exploded from the mouth of a diminutive Western Union messenger at the railroad station Saturday noon, and it was answered promptly.

"Them millionaires" as the younger termed the 100 and more Eastern bankers and brokers who visited Wichita Falls yesterday on the "mid-continent special" made up by Henry L. Doherty and his associates of the Cities Service company, were very much in evidence at the Union station and on the downtown streets. Although they were able to spend only fifty minutes in this city, the visitors made the most of their brief stay; gave the business district of Wichita Falls a hasty "once over" and pumped a steady stream of questions at the local business men who welcomed them.

Arrive Saturday Morning. The special arrived in Wichita Falls early Saturday morning from Ringgold over P. & M. K. & T. and left here shortly afterward for Burkburnett. At Burkburnett the visitors made a foot tour of the city, inspecting many of the wells in the townsite, passing the hat for a man and his wife who had lost their belonging in a mud hole when a richly laden wagon collapsed—and even buying oil stocks. Everett Carpenter, chief geologist of the Empire Companies, was the one man who openly admitted he had "got his feet wet" with $10 worth of oil stock purchased from a street salesman.

"He may not have all the acreage he's advertising," declared Carpenter, "but I know the country, and there's oil in that locality, I'll swear."

Mistake in Drilling. The Eastern men were unanimous in their frank expression of belief that a serious mistake had been made in drilling the Burkburnett pool so extensively. They agreed, however, that such a policy undoubtedly had been necessary inasmuch as Burkburnett had been wholly the "small man's field."

None of the visitors were able to reach the new Northwest territory opened up by the Burk-Wagoner, Golden Cycle, Thrift No. 2 and United wells, but a great deal of curiosity was manifested and many questions asked of local oil men regarding the new field.

The pleasantest welcoming tribute said to the Easterners when they returned to Wichita Falls at noon was a "rose shower" provided by Mrs. C. W. Suder, wife of the active vice-president of the First National Bank. More than a dozen young girls, carrying baskets of Texas roses, greeted the visitors as they stepped from the train, and a general recess from business was declared while the roses were pinned to coat lapels.

The visitors left Wichita Falls at 12:30 headed for Fort Worth, to inspect the Ranger field.

PREPARING PROGRAM FOR COMMENCEMENT EVENING OF MAY 26

The commencement exercises of the class of 1919 of the Wichita Falls high school will be held at the Wichita Theatre Monday night, May 26th. Plans for an elaborate program are being worked out under the supervision of Miss Jessie May Agnew, head of the Music and Art Departments of the local schools and definite announcement of the program will be given out in a few days. The speaker of the night will be Dr. Randolph Clark, who is well known here as he has spoken at previous commencement exercises.

Those graduating this year are 64 in number, only 19 of which are boys. Of this number a good many completed the prescribed course necessary for graduation at Christmas examination but will receive their diploma at this time.

On Sunday morning, May 25th, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. Harry F. Draper of the M. E. Church at the Christian church.

POWER

KEEP power in mind when you buy a truck, for just one failure to pull through may cause a loss of hundreds of dollars.

Because of their vast reserve power, SERVICE Trucks "carry on" regardless of roads, loads or weather. They keep going when many others quit. One user says:

"You can see why we have such faith in Service Trucks when I tell you that on several occasions the trucks were unable to pull through the mud altho carrying no load and our Service Truck pulled them out. On the other hand, our Service Truck was able to pull through the same muddy sections with a load on it."

Get the facts about SERVICE before you buy a truck. Let us tell you why Service Motor Trucks offer more for the money. Upon request, we will send you catalog, giving full details of the five models—from 1 to 5 tons.

Compare Goodrich 375's with other Ford Car Tires

If you have not used these husky, de luxe tires for the Ford car, go at once to a Goodrich dealer and say to him, "Give me a Goodrich Three-Seventy-Five."

Compare it with an ordinary Ford-size tire, and you will find it bigger and burlier in every way.

As a matter of figures and measurements, it is an inch bigger on the circumference, and much thicker in the cross section—that is, a 31 x 3 1/2 inch tire.

That extra size means a finer looking, easier riding Ford car to begin, and a longer lived car and tires in the end.

Though "Three-Seventy-Fives" cost a little more at the outset, built to meet the special needs of the Ford car and bring out its known virtues, they soon reveal a greater dollar economy, which makes it the better buy in the long run.

HASKELL COUNTY HAS FURTHER DEVELOPMENT

HASKELL, TEXAS, May 10.—Oil development is active in Haskell County with a number of out of town people here wanting to get locations for deep drilling, in different parts of the county.

An Arizona syndicate is now buying leases to close up three blocks on which to put down as many wells. The Nichols well at Rule is now getting material on the ground preparatory to erection of derrick and rig.

The Tal King well is a derrick and getting machinery on the ground and the Old Glory well west of Sagerton in this county is drilling.

The Texas Cushing well on the Colbert ranch south of Haskell has rig and derrick up.

S. S. Kouri well No. 1 had 10-inch casing parted and this was connected today with steel nipple, and drilling resumed at 1,370 feet, and good showing of gas with rainbow of oil in the sand encountered at this depth, but as the well is to be a deep test well this gas was cased off and the under-reaming was continued to carry the 10-inch casing as low as possible, and which the drillers now hope can be carried to 1,800 feet.

S. S. Kouri well No. 2, on the G. R. Couch ranch spudded in and is now drilling in a 20-inch hole below 100 feet.

VERSAILLES HOLDS AN ATTRACTION FOR AMERICAN SOLDIER

DOUGHBOY HAS GREAT DESIRE TO SEE THE RENOWN PALACE OF PEACE.

MANY FLOCK TO THE CITY

Take Pride in Writing Letters Home from the Famous Hall of Mirrors.

Associated Press Mail Correspondent.
VERSAILLES, FRANCE, April 6.—That much discussed and still projected peace treaty has already been signed, sealed and delivered in spirit scores of times from the historic chateau here, if, indeed, the good intentions of hundreds of energetic young American soldiers count for anything. It would be difficult to find a Yankee warrior who, having got as near as Paris, has not come to Versailles to express his approval or disapproval of the place where the real treaty will be signed, and to subscribe his name to a peace document of his own for the folk back home. Having sought out the wonderful Hall of Mirrors, doughboy and officer alike invariably make their way to the table upon which it is said the treaty will be signed, and with much finking of fingers from leaky pens indite post-card memorials which begin:
"This is being written in the famous Hall of Mirrors in the Chateau of Versailles, upon the very table," etc., etc.

The doughboy is by no means alone in his desire to see the renowned palace in which the world peace will be concluded. Thousands of French people have been flocking to Versailles for many days on sight-seeing tours. In fact, Versailles has become a sort of Mecca which is drawing the nationalities of the world who wish to worship at the shrine of peace.

Pre-War Splendor.
All the pre-war splendors are rapidly returning to the palace under the practiced hands of expert workmen who are renovating the vast halls and replacing the priceless relics for the advent of the peace delegates. When the Germans were threatening Paris the Chateau was stripped of all portable valuables, which were taken to Bordeaux and other places for safe keeping. During the past few days ancient tapestries of untold value and furniture worth the ransom of a king have been reappearing in their accustomed places, and the dust of many months has been cleared away from walls and floors.

Today being Sunday people flocked to Versailles in great numbers, for it was the first really sunshiny holiday of the season. Hundreds of American officers' doughboys and nurses were among the pilgrims who filled the huge Chateau and overran the lawns and already green woods of the beautiful grounds.

The doughboy for once was seeing something which had no counterpart at home. The Woolworth building was higher but—well, they could hardly be compared after all, they were so different. His first impression was one of amazement at the grandeur and the thought came to him: "What a lot of money it must have cost." Then he got interested in art for art's sake.

Hall of Mirrors.
The Hall of Mirrors, where the treaty will be signed, held him long, as he gazed in awe at the myriad reflections and the superb decorations of the ceiling. He found his way to the exact spot where in 1871 stood the dais from which the foundation of the German Empire was proclaimed, and heard his guide say that for reasons of sentiment the table upon which the treaty will be signed would probably be located in the same place.

The great hall, the doughboy was told, will be reserved for the treaty making, but the ceremony will be witnessed from adjoining rooms by members of the press from many countries and by some distinguished guests. The wife of President Wilson will probably be one of those who will see the President and other delegates place their names to the most important document of history.

There was a little that the doughboy didn't see today. The apartments of King Louis the Fourteenth, and the Council Chamber of that monarch and his successors, all of which will be used for conference purposes, proved attractive to his imaginative mind. The boudoir of Madame de Maintenon, which also is to be sacrificed to committee work, drew many wise-shakings of the head from the doughboy, who said little but looked as though he could tell a great deal about the fair occupant of bygone days.

Gallery of Battles.
The Gallery of Battles with its painted history of the glories of France on the field of honor appealed to the boy in khaki immensely, perhaps because he himself had been living similar martial scenes over already historic ground. This gallery is to be assigned to the press of the world, the guide said. All the great paintings held the doughboy long, but the one which struck his fancy most was that of Washington and Lafayette standing in front of their headquarters before the battle of Yorktown.

"Why, if there ain't old George himself," explained one delighted boy in uniform, and in the ecstasy of his discovery he summoned all his pals forthwith to see "old George."

For the purposes of the conference some of the sacred rooms are being modernized, temporarily undoubtedly, by the installation of the telephone. For the first time in history, too, tea will be served to the delegates from a buffet that is being installed.

Just how many Germans will come to Versailles is not known, but plans are being made to accommodate about 200, including secretaries and servants.
"I guess the little old — Compa'ny, American Expeditionary Force, could handle that many boche, all right," commented one doughboy thoughtfully.

COUNCIL OF FOUR CONTINUES STUDY OF FUME QUESTION

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Friday, May 3. (Havas).—It is understood that the council of four is continuing its study of the Fume question on the basis of the agreement reached relative to the future status of the Saar region.

The Saar region, according to the terms of the treaty of peace presented to the Germans will be governed by a commission consisting of five members appointed by the league of nations. One will be French, one a native inhabitant of the Saar region and three representing three different countries other than France and Germany. After 15 years a plebiscite will be held to ascertain the desires of the population as to continuance of the existing regime under the league of nations, union with that section with France or return to German sovereignty.

MOUNTAIN CLIMBING IS TO BE FEATURED IN WILLARD TRAINING

Special to The Times.
LOS ANGELES, May 10.—Mountain climbing is going to be one of the mainstays of Jess Willard's training for the championship battle with Jack Dempsey. The big champion, who arrived here last week with a large staff of trainers, preparatory to starting the first lap of his training, has established his camp in a secluded spot outside of Los Angeles. The inclusion of mountain climbing in his regime of preparation is the champion's own idea and a phase of work which never has been used before by a champion preparing for a battle.

"It is the finest thing in the world for hardening the muscles and strengthening the wind," Willard declared.

Willard, who declares he will enter the ring at the best fighting weight he ever has attained, has been conditioning himself for several months for the hard training he is undergoing here, according to Ray O. Archer, his general business representative, who today revealed some of the details of Willard's training plans. From now on, according to Archer, the world's champion will undergo the most strenuous grind he ever has attempted.

Jobs brought with him to Los Angeles a complete gymnasium outfit, including a regulation 24-foot ring, weights, medicine balls, jumping ropes, etc., and for almost a week now he has been working conscientiously. He is using half a dozen busy sparring partners, and in addition to his regular work also is getting in a lot of hard riding and general strenuous exercising in connection with the making of a motion picture in which he plays the principal role.

"Willard is going to put in the stiffest two months' work of his life," said Archer. "He is in fine condition as the result of the training he has already done, and is confident he will enter the contest in better shape even than he was when he met and conquered Jack Johnson. He appreciates however that he has a serious battle before him, and he is taking every precaution to see that he is mentally and physically prepared to put on the best fight of his career."

"With the plan of work which he has mapped out for himself there is no question of Willard getting down to fighting trim and still retaining his strength in full measure. The work he has done already is showing big results and the heavy stunts from now on will shave him down as clean as a whistle. There is nothing like a life in the open, especially under a hot sun, to harden a man and Willard, for the next few weeks, is going to live right out of doors. Everything that he ever has done before will be used in his training work, and in addition, there will be a great many more stunts, notably the mountain climbing, which no boxer ever has undertaken seriously as a part of his preparation for a contest.

"This motion picture idea, for instance, is a brand new one. In it Jess is called upon to do a lot of rough riding and real scrapping with a band of Mexican outlaws, and these fights are going to be the real feature of the picture, of course, is incidental

HENRY FORD SUIT FOR A MILLION TO BE CALLED MONDAY

By Associated Press.
MOUNT CLEMENS, MICH., May 10.—Henry Ford's $1,000,000 libel suit against the Tribune Company of Chicago, publishers of the Chicago Daily Tribune, will go to trial here Monday before Judge James G. Tucker in the circuit court of Macomb county on change of venue from Wayne county (Detroit).

In the pleas counsel for Mr. Ford make repeated reference to the Tribune's trade mark, "The World's Greatest Newspaper," while the defendant's plea speaks of Mr. Ford as the world's greatest manufacturer of automobiles, and estimates his fortune in 1916 as at least $125,000,000.

"In the year 1915 alone the earnings of the Ford Motor Co. amounted to more than $50,000,000, or in excess of 2,500 per cent of its outstanding capital stock," says the Tribune plea. Reference to the plaintiff's wealth and position in the industrial world is made to show that his conspicuity and power made him a proper subject of newspaper comment.

The meat of the alleged libelous article was the headline of an editorial published by the Tribune June 23, 1916, as follows: "Ford is an anarchist."

The editorial was based on a special dispatch from Detroit, June 21, 1916, and published June 22 in the Tribune, to the effect that Ford employees who enlisted to serve against Mexico would lose their positions, that their salaries would not be paid by the Ford company, nor provision made for their families.

In the course of its defense as shown in its plea the Tribune invites attention to the fact that although this news dispatch was published widely in many other newspapers at the time the Tribune published it, no denial came from Mr. Ford in the interim before the publication of the Tribune editorial on June 23rd. On the 26th, however, Ford denied the story and the Tribune published that denial.

At the time of the alleged libel, and for a considerable period before, the relations of the United States with Mexico had been strained. Foreigners in Mexico had been murdered, their properties confiscated or destroyed; Villa the bandit had raided the American town Columbus, N. M., and all Europe was aflame with war. The Tribune was among the leaders in urging military training and preparedness, while Mr. Ford was at that time frankly a pacifist. Mr. Ford published whole-page advertisements in newspapers setting forth his views, one of them in the Tribune. The Tribune turned the money, $887.94 received for this advertisement, over to the Navy League to be used for patriotic service.

Mr. Ford first filed suit in the federal court at Chicago on Sept. 7, 1916, but this was withdrawn and the suit instituted in the circuit court of Wayne county. To give the state court jurisdiction Sam. Max and Henry Solomon, wholesale newspaper distributors doing business at Detroit, as the Solomon News Co., also were made defendants, they having distributed the Tribune in Michigan. Their status in the case is said to be purely technical.

The Tribune was granted a change of venue from Wayne county on allegations that owing to Mr. Ford's prominence there the defendants could not obtain a fair trial. Mount Clemens is about 17 miles from Detroit.

Notice.
 Mr. P. L. Campbell has severed his connections with the firm of Lee-Underwood & Co. The firm will be continued under its original name of Lee & Underwood, Lee & Underwood, Room 3 and 4, 624 Ohio Ave., 409-21c.

A. B. RICHARDS MEDICINE CO., Sherman, Texas

to the training for the big fight, but nevertheless, Willard is taking it seriously and it ought to make a whale of an attraction. It is his plan to divide his day between ring training and picture training; that is, he will fill in his mornings and forenoons with the medicine ball, boxing, fencing, jumping the rope, road work, wrestling, working the weights, mountain climbing, etc., while in the afternoon he will ride or fight before the camera.

"From now until the day of the fight he will maintain a regular schedule, getting up at an early hour in the morning and going to bed early at night. Except for the breathing spaces required by the training rules and meals, he will be working all of the intervening time, and he is feeling so good he looks forward to the strenuous campaign with pleasure.

"We have with us for this out-of-door training everything that could be gotten in the best equipped gymnasium in the country. Willard personally supervised the building of this portable gym, which includes a regular ring, punching bags, etc. We have plenty of food and water, a good cook, a physician, rubbers, sparring partners and others who are going to assist him in his work. Our camp, with the ring experts and the motion picture players, will be made up of more than 300 people; but that is nothing to the crowd that would have attended us had we gone to some suburban place to work, so we will have greater secrecy in our training than a champion ever has enjoyed since I can remember.

"Willard, as I have said, is tackling this fight with Dempsey as the most serious thing in his life. He realizes that Dempsey is a fast, strong and willing young fighter, and he is not going to take any chances with him in the matter of condition. He intends to go into the ring in perfect shape and to put up the same hard little he did to win the championship. He has no doubt of his ability to hold the title against Dempsey and all other challengers for some years to come, but he is honest with himself and honest with the public; and it is not his intention to risk losing his title and the confidence of the public by doing anything that would militate against him in the big test.

"The training which Jess has done up to date, together with the sparring he has done in exhibition for war relief organizations in the last year or so, has given him a good foundation for this heavy campaign and you can be assured that Jess will be as high and strong as an Indian giant on July 4."

SITE OF AMARILLO TESTS WAS LOCATED FOURTEEN YEARS AGO

By S. T. BISBEE.
 AMARILLO, TEX., May 10.—One morning about 16 years ago I was walking along the streets of Norman, Okla., where the state university is located. Two friends with me spoke to a man who passed us. He asked who he was. "Oh," said one, "that's Professor Gould. He teaches rocks and minerals to the students at the university."

Since that day I have seen a good deal of Charles N. Gould. When I first heard of him, the State University of Oklahoma paid him the princely sum of $400 for a year's work. And the work was not merely eight months, but represented 12 full months, field work calling for activity during the summer, without a penny of added pay.

Think of a famous geologist working for $1.10 a day! Dr. Gould foos away no time during these oil days that would sneer at. But that's how big men get started in life.

Today Dr. Gould commands high fees for his work in surveying lands that seem likely places to drill for oil. The big petroleum corporations employ Dr. Gould to travel far and wide in the search for rocks that indicate hidden petroleum wealth. It is my opinion that Dr. Gould has walked over more miles of anticline than any other man in this whole southwestern oil empire.

A few days ago I came to Amarillo to find out for the Western Oil Derrick something about the mysterious activities in connection with proposed oil wells in the Panhandle of Texas. The first man I met in the town was Dr. Gould. I asked him what was going on. He said he would drive me out over a few cattle ranches and I could witness the drilling rigs that are to play a vital part in the industrial life of the Amarillo field.

The John Ray Dome.
 We drove past an eminence. To me, a layman, it has no significance, so I queried the geologist about the thing which is known as the John Ray dome. I asked him when he saw it for the first time. I was amazed when he told me that he gazed on the John Ray dome 14 years ago.

I began to get interested. Had the Amarillo people known for 14 years that "oil rock" prevailed all around their town? Surely there must be some mystery about this thing.

"Tell me something about this formation," said I to Dr. Gould.
 Then Dr. Gould spoke in the calm tones which made him so well liked years ago in the class room at the state university. He spoke of rocks and anticlines and synclines and all the other magic words which are near and every day in the southwest where the world's greatest store of crude oil lays snuggled deep in the earth.

This is what Dr. Gould told me:
The Gould Story.
 "It was in June of 1915 that I first saw the big John Ray anticline north of Amarillo."

"I was teaching in the University of Oklahoma at that time and, during the summers, spent the time in working out water supply problems for the government. In 1904 I had traveled over the eastern part of the Panhandle and, when the university closed in June, 1905, came to Amarillo to work out the western part of the Panhandle county. With me were two students in the department of geology at the university, Tom B. Matthews and Eck P. Schramm.

 "We secured a camp outfit from John McKnight and started north toward the river. Along in the afternoon we crossed at the Lee crossing, about where the bridge is now, and camped that night at Lee's ranch where the J. Y. headquarters for the ford a ledge of white rock dipping under the river. The next day we took the road north past John Ray butte and, just east of the butte, near the head of the big canyon, we saw the same white rock capping the bluffs along the canyon. I remarked to the boys then that this must be a big anticline, otherwise how could the ledge be 500 feet higher on the hill than it was at the ford?"

Anticline a Curiosity.
 "This was before the relation of geology to oil had been thoroughly worked out. An anticline in those days had no particular significance, but was regarded as a sort of geological curiosity. So, when I came to write my government report on the region, Water Supply Paper No. 191, United States Geological Survey, I described this and two other anticlines which I found later the same season, and drew the maps and sections, all as a part of the regular routine, with out over thinking of oil. And, having 'embalmed it in the literature,' I promptly proceeded to forget all about it."

"I became busy with other things. The Oklahoma geological survey was organized and I became first state geologist. Later I resigned and engaged in professional work about three years ago Mr. M. C. Nobles came to Oklahoma City to get me to examine a body of acreage in southern Oklahoma. After looking over his property, I was able to find anything that justified drilling. On the way back on the train, we got to talking about the Amarillo country and Mr. Nobles asked me if there was not something in this region that looked good for oil. At first I told him 'no,' but later I happened to think of the anticline that I had seen north of town, more than 10 years previous. I told Mr. Nobles about it.

After I came out and we drove out and examined it. Leases were taken of R. B. Masterson, Leo Bivins and others; my associate, Mr. Robert S. Dewey, spent about a month with the plane table and alidade going over the property.

Outlining the Dome.
 "The result was a map which shows the outline of what we now call the John Ray dome, named from the prominent land mark, John Ray butte, near which the apex of the dome is located. The John Ray dome is one of the largest structures that I know of, being about 15 miles long, 8 to 18 miles wide, with a lift of 500 feet. 'I am willing to admit that it took some nerve to go out on a rocky hill along the bluffs at the head of big canyon, 200 miles from any production, and pile up a little pile of rocks, and advise spending $20,000 to $50,000 in a hole in the ground. As I told the men there, I did not know that there was any gas or oil in the ground at that place, but, as I then said, if there was any oil or gas anywhere in the Panhandle, it should be right at this spot, under the little pile of rocks. It also told the men that by drilling there, they were much more likely to encounter gas than oil."

"The world knows the result. The well encountered was at 1700, 1900, 2100 and 2300 feet. What more will be found, nobody knows. Most geologists and oil men, however, believe that oil should occur at a greater depth in wells drilled on the summit of the dome, and perhaps more oil in wells down the slope of the structure. But, as we all know, the drill is the only oil finder and until a number of wells have been drilled, we may not know what will really be found."

The Oil Prospects.
 When Dr. Gould expounded his reminiscence of the early day trips and the later ones, we came back to town. I asked old timers in Amarillo what the prospects were for oil and gas. They told me that Dr. Gould had piled up a few rocks out on the prairie and recommended that a drill be sent down there for gas. Amarillo now has the gas so much for geology.

Dr. Gould has named a few spots where oil may be found. The big companies are setting their rigs to find that oil.

Optimists in the oil game will tell you that Dr. Charles N. Gould has discovered a pool of oil that is likely to change the world map. Save this clipping and observe what happens at Amarillo before snow again flies in the Panhandle—Western Oil Derrick.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS TO MEET AT SWEETWATER

AUSTIN, TEX., May 10.—All municipal officials in the State, whether members of the League of Texas Municipalities or not are invited to attend the annual convention of that organization to be held at Sweetwater, May 14-15, says Capt. F. M. Stewart, secretary of the Bureau of Municipal Research of the University of Texas. Capt. Stewart is also secretary of the League.

Many men of note are on the program for papers and discussions on subjects of great interest to municipal officials. These speakers not only include several State officials but the mayors of a number of cities and towns of the State. It is said to be one of the most complete programs ever prepared for a State convention of municipal officials. Captain Stewart believes that there will be an unusually large attendance.

PROCLAMATION AS A REPLY TO PEACE TERMS

Is Issued by President Ebert and Addressed to the German People.

WILL MAKE PROPOSAL

Appeal Is Made to Stand Together for Preservation of the Government.

BERLIN, Friday, May 9. (Via Copenhagen)—Germany's reply to the terms of peace presented at Versailles on Wednesday will be a proposal for peace of right on the basis of a lasting peace of the nations, according to a proclamation to the German people issued here today by President Ebert.

Nothing Is More Precious than Your Eyesight

The old masters depicted the oval form as the highest type of the female face beautiful. But today the successful artist shows many types, each as beautiful as the other. There is one point, however, that all judges of the human face agree upon, and that is—the balancing up of its deficiencies. In glasses, our knowledge, skill and experience enable us to "build up" a flat face or low bridged nose so it is almost worth while for one to wear glasses for appearance sake only.

Art Jewelry Co. OPTICAL PARLOR, KAHN BLDG.

of the triumph of reason and right." The text of the proclamation follows: Proclamation Issued. "The first reply of the Allied to the sincere desire for peace on the part of our starving people was the laying down of unconditional arms and capitulations on the German people, having laid down its arms, non-establihed all the obligations of the armistice, hard as they were. Notwithstanding this our opponents for six months have continued the war by maintaining this blockade. The German people bore all these burdens, trusting in the promise given by the Allies in their note of November 11, that the peace would be a peace of right on the basis of President Wilson's 'fourteen points'.

"Instead of that the Allies have now given us peace terms which are in contradiction to the promise given. It is unbearable for the German people and is impracticable, even if we put forth all our powers. Violence without measure would be done to the German people. From such an imposed peace fresh hatred would be bound to arise between the nations in the course of history there would be new wars. The world would be obliged to bury every hope of a league of nations liberating and healing the nations, and insuring peace.

Counter Proposal. "The dismemberment and mangling of the German people, the delivering of German labor to foreign capitalism for the indignity of wage slavery and the permanent fettering the young German republic by the Gentile's imperialism is the aim of this peace of violence. The German people's government will answer the peace proposals of violence with a proposal of a peace of right on the basis of a lasting peace of the nations. "The fact that all circles of the German people have been moved so deeply testifies that the German government is giving expression to the united will of the German nation. The German government will put forth every effort to secure for the German people the same national unity and independence and the same freedom of labor in economical and cultural respects which the Allies want to give to all the peoples of Europe, save only our people.

"Our nation must save itself by its own action. In view of this danger of destruction, the German nation and the government which it chose must stand by each other, knowing no parties. Let Germany unite in a single will to preserve German nationality and liberties. Every thought and the entire will of the nation ought now to be turned to labor for the preservation and reconstruction of our Fatherland. The government appeals to all Germans in this hard hour to preserve with it mutual trust in the path of duty and in the belief in the triumph of reason and of right."

The proclamation, which was issued by the imperial president and the imperial government, bears the signature of President Ebert.

DELEGATES AT LIBERTY TO RETURN TO BERLIN

By Associated Press. PARIS, May 10.—The German peace plenipotentiaries are at perfect liberty to return to Berlin and consult their government if they desire so to do. It is reported in conference circles. Such a move, if made, would mean the breaking off of the negotiations. The Germans, it is said, enjoy entire freedom of movement and diplomatic immunity.

TALK OF A THIRD PARTY NOW HEARD AT THE CAPITAL

WESTERN PROGRESSIVES SHOW DISCONTENT WITH EXISTING ORGANIZATIONS.

IS NOT A BOLSHEVIKI MOVE

Suggested That Soldiers May Encourage Such a Plan As Is Proposed.

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—In considering the many possibilities of 1920, prompt Washington politicians are paying considerable attention to a question being heard more and more frequently as the weeks go by. It is this: Will there be a third party in 1920?

Members of Congress who have recently traveled thousand of miles through many states report that they have found third party sentiment in a number of places. One senator, for instance, was met in two widely separated western towns by delegations formed for the specific purpose of urging him to take the lead in formation of an "American party."

LEASES FOR SALE

An extra fine proposition for first class acreage around the East Wichita Oil Co., at very reasonable prices, and a fine prospect to make large returns on your money invested. Acreage selling now at low figures will bring from $1,000 to $10,000 per acre, as our well is going down fast and we are drilling day and night. So don't hesitate, but buy now. Also sit down and figure for yourself. The Burk-Waggoner Oil Co. paid $3,333.33 for every $100 invested. We would pay on the same basis, $3,333.33 on every $100 invested, on the 600-acre lease. So come and buy, before you are too late. And see me for acreage and royalty.

DEFENSE OF FRANCE TO BE SUBMITTED TO SENATE

PARIS, Friday, May 9.—It is stated in authoritative quarters that President Wilson's submission of the engagement for the defense of France by America will be submitted to the United States merely by the transmission of his letter to Premier Clemenceau agreeing to submit the subject to the Senate and will not embrace a treaty carrying out the en-agement. No treaty has as yet been drafted and such action will await the decision of the Senate for or against the proposal.

- 1 Level teaspoon salt
- 1/2 Cup shortening
- 4 Level cups flour
- 3 Eggs separated
- 4 Level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder.

THE GOLD STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Of Wichita Falls, Texas

Has 114 acres in nine leases, one of which is northwest of the Burk-Waggoner, south of the Parker, and east of the M. & P. Burk.

This is the location that we will begin drilling on as soon as the arrangements can be made, and there is no better location on earth.

We have two tracts in the Iowa Park shallow field, one near the Berne well, and one near the Zink wells; this tract has a well on each side in less than one hundred yards of it.

We agree to drill one well in the Burk-Waggoner neighborhood and two on the shallow field.

We have five acres in a direct line from the original Fowler well to the Golden Cycle, just northwest of Burkburnett, also 40 acres in the proven field of Petrolia, and three tracts near Charlie where there are 18 wells now going down within sight.

We have taken great pains and spent much time in the selection of these nine tracts, all of which were bought on their merit and with only one object in view, to make the company a safe and profitable investment for ourselves and the public.

We invite you to make every investigation you care to and when you find this to be the very best proposition that can be found and the safest place to put your money with the least chance to lose and the greatest possibilities to win, then buy some stock before it is all gone, for we don't believe it will last long.

PRESENT CONDITIONS ARE COMPARED WITH AFTER-WAR PERIODS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—"Perhaps no barometer holds so sure a sign of our advancing civilization than the success of efforts now being made to avert the hitherto inevitable hand-maidens of war—pestilence and famine," says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"One refutation of the 'Always has been therefore always must be' argument for war is the fact that civilized nations emerging from the greatest war the world has seen and averting the two other consequences always deemed inevitable—plague and starvation. True, nations which represent ancient civilizations also exhibit the old phenomenon; hence those peoples more highly organized economically not only must withstand the shock for themselves but must help feed other lands."

The bulletin quotes from a communication to the Society from Ralph A. Graves which gives a picture of past famines in England, in striking contrast to her present condition after the terrible strain she has withstood. The writer states:

"The story of famines in England has been a gloomy one from earliest times. At the beginning of the eighth century a dearth, which extended to Ireland, drove men to cannibalism. It was not until the reign of Aethelred and Unred, however, that such a famine prevailed as no man can remember, from 1004 to 1015.

"Those chroniclers who were wont to see bad conditions at their worst declared that half the population of the larger island perished. But it must be remembered that much of the mortality of this period was occasioned by the many diseases, the cholera and dysentery, and the latter being forced by the famine to retire from England for a time.

"Naturally the era following the advent of William the Conqueror, was one of wide-spread starvation and pestilence among the English peasantry. During the last thirty years of the eleventh century, nine were years of dire distress.

"So great was the dearth in 1069 that the peasants of the north, unable longer to secure dogs and horses to appease their hunger, sold them to their masters in order to be fed by their slaves.

"There were sporadic periods of sufferings during the succeeding reigns of William Rufus and Henry I. In the civil wars of Stephen's times, and under Henry II. But the next dearth which especially quickens the sympathy was that which befell the people in the days of Richard Coeur de Lion, the Crusader. There is a brief reference to the famine of this period in 'Ivanhoe.'

"Starvation was followed by a pestilential fever which sprang up from the corpses of the famished. Ceremonial burial was omitted except in the cases of the very rich.

"While backward seasons were contributing factors, the responsibility for the two great famines of Henry III's reign is to be laid at the door of the government itself. In the first of these (1235) 20,000 persons are said to have died in London alone. The suffering in 1257-59 was even worse.

"It was during this famine that England for the first time imported from Germany and Holland grain to alleviate the suffering of her poorer classes. The first ordinance in English history designed to curb the greed of the middleman was passed during this time of shortage in food supplies.

"Few English kings have lived through greater periods of distress than Edward II, who was scarcely able to secure food for his own immediate household when the heavy rains of 1314 spoiled the harvest. Everything imaginable was eaten—dogs, horses, cats and even babies.

"With the exception of the world war perhaps no other calamity that ever befall the human race can be compared with that of the Black Death and the accompanying famine, which afflicted all western civilization during the middle decade of the fourteenth century. Its toll has been variously estimated at from one-fourth to three-fourths of the entire population of Europe. Certainly it was not less than 2,000,000 people.

"Out of the situation which resulted from the impoverishment of the labor resources of the kingdom grew the first clash in England between capital and labor. The peasants became masters of the situation. In some cases they demanded double wages.

"Parliament hurriedly passed drastic laws in an effort to meet the new condition. Anti-loafing statutes, which also fixed wages at the scale paid a year before the first appearance of the plague, were enacted. Runaway slaves were to be branded with an 'M' as a perpetual sign of their faithfulness."

AMERICANS FIND MANY VALUABLES ON FRENCH SOIL

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 10.—American troops who have been working in the shell torn areas of France have been recovering many valuables of various sorts buried in the ruins. All these finds are turned over to the French Ministry of Finance which is endeavoring to discover the original owners of their heirs. All unclaimed treasures go to the state.

Members of the American Second Army Corps recently unearthed at Avoucourt a large number of French and Russian railway bonds which had lain in the cellar of a demolished home since the Germans first invaded the sector. The bonds were all in good condition and bore coupons of which had not been clipped since July, 1914. Whether the owner is dead or alive will be determined by the Ministry of Finance.

Among the valuables recovered are many belonging to ruined churches. Not infrequently when several churches in a town have been destroyed and such of them has lost similar treasures it is impossible to say who is the owner of the wealth recovered. In this case it is divided among them.

CHARGE BOLSHEVIKI WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR STRIKE IN SPAIN

Associated Press Mail Correspondent.

BARCELONA, SPAIN, April.—German propaganda and the spread of Bolsheviki ideas among the working men are, in part, blamed for the general strike which took place here last week. It is generally believed that the Germans have all along been working to create trouble among the Spanish laboring men. Their machinations during the war were exposed by the Madrid daily El Sol, which showed how the German Embassy was implicated in provoking labor trouble both in Barcelona and Madrid. It was reported two weeks ago that a wireless message had been intercepted asking that further funds be sent here for propaganda work.

The wealth which the war brought to this manufacturing district of Spain was not shared by the working people. While the cost of living steadily increased, wages remained unaltered or insufficiently increased. Bolsheviki ideals began to spread and were judiciously fostered by unidentified persons who provided funds and organization. All workers including clerks in offices were forced by threats to join the labor syndicate. Those who refused were warned anonymously letters and if they disregarded these warnings were murdered by masked men. The police failed to discover the authors of these crimes.

Strike at Light Plant.

The strike began among the employees of the light and power company and the city was left without street cars or electric lights. The government mobilized the strikers but the tramway conductors refused to take cars out under military orders
