

FORD MAKES A FEW STARTLING REPLIES TODAY

Admits on Stand Being "An Ignorant Idealist," But Later Retracts.

SAYS NEVER HEARD OR READ OF BENEDICT ARNOLD

Much Time Spent in Reading Preparedness Speeches of President Wilson.

By Associated Press. MOUNT CLEMENS, MICH., July 16.—In a moment of petulance while on the witness stand today, Henry Ford, plaintiff in a $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune, admitted that he was "an ignorant idealist" subsequently he reversed himself.

This was one of the libelous charges made against him in the Tribune editorial, Attorney Elliott G. Stevenson, for the Tribune, had been asking questions to establish if possible that Mr. Ford as a matter of fact was ignorant. The witness said that he made the admission merely to stop the examination. Later when formally asked to admit that he was an "ignorant idealist" he declined to do so.

In the course of the examination Mr. Ford defined a traitor as "one who works against the Government," an idealist as one "who helps others to make profit," and evidently with Arnold's name in mind, described Benedict Arnold as a "traitor."

Much time was consumed in reading President Wilson's preparedness speeches in 1917.

FORD CONTINUES TESTIMONY IN CASE. MOUNT CLEMENS, MICH., July 16.—The witness, Henry Ford, testified today that his peace secretary, Theodore Delavigne, wrote for him, "I never heard or read of Benedict Arnold."

The witness, who is suing the Chicago Daily Tribune for $1,000,000 on a charge of libel, was examined by Elliott G. Stevenson, senior counsel for the defendant.

Mr. Stevenson quoted the phrase "same old scarecrow talk," and asked who that was meant. Ford retorted his familiar reply, "Delavigne wrote that." He added that the "scarecrow" was the professional agitator for preparedness.

"Your position was that they were advocating preparedness in order to profit by armaments," "Over-preparedness, yes."

"Oh, you are still talking of over-preparedness. But you deny that yesterday as anything in addition to what we had in 1915 or 1916," reminded the lawyer. He then referred to the use of the word "murderers" as applied by Mr. Ford to professional soldiers and those who make money out of war.

"Well, you were a murderer in 1917," suggested Mr. Stevenson. "Anything against the government," "I'll admit I'm an ignorant idealist."

"Why, Mr. Ford," said Mr. Stevenson in surprise, "if you admit that, I shall not have to ask you any more questions along this line."

"I'll admit it if it will close this talk. It is for the jury to decide, anyway."

"But if you admit there will be nothing for the jury to decide. The admission settles it."

Witness is Settled. Preparatory to this outburst by the witness, who was plainly nettled by the examination, Mr. Stevenson explained to the court:

"Your honor, the alleged libelous editorial in the Tribune referred to Mr. Ford as an 'ignorant idealist.' The questions are to show that he is in fact ignorant, and if he is an idealist and does not know the meaning of commonly used words, he is plainly an ignorant idealist."

The Tribune lawyer asked the witness a number of questions as to what he knew of the aims, equipment and distribution of the American army in 1915 and 1916, the witness having said yesterday that he had considered the force at that time adequate for defense.

ARE ALREADY WITHDRAWING THE DISMOUNTED CAVALRY

Texas Rangers Will Remain Until Situation is Definitely Settled.

By Associated Press. LONGVIEW, TEX., July 16.—Withdrawal of dismounted cavalry troops from the Texas National Guard continued here today without untoward incident, and preparations were made for terminating tomorrow the martial law edict in effect since Sunday, because of racial trouble between whites and negroes.

The eight troops of cavalry will be returned to their home stations by tomorrow, with the exception of approximately 40 men, who will remain a day or two longer, pending distribution to owners of the guns and other firearms taken up by the military Sunday and Monday.

Texas Rangers will remain here until the situation seems definitely settled. Twenty-two negroes were taken to Austin today in charge of the Nacogoches troop under Captain W. W. Lee. The negroes will be held there for safe keeping, pending a grand jury investigation.

Two of the white men arrested yesterday on charges of arson in connection with the burning of six negro houses Friday, after the clash in which four white men were injured, were released today and charges against them dropped, after they had convinced Ranger Captain W. M. Hanson that there was no ground for their detention.

The other seven white men arrested for alleged arson were released on bond of $1,000 each.

DECLARES STREET RAILWAY EMPLOYEES DUE AN INCREASE

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, July 16.—Declaring street railway employees clearly entitled to the wage increase granted by the war labor board, Guy B. Tripp, chairman of the Westinghouse Manufacturing Company, told the federal street railway commission here today that some basis of fares on a cost of service plan should be worked out.

Municipal ownership was believed by Mr. Tripp to be among the possibilities of the present situation. Questioned by members of the commission, Mr. Tripp said great fortunes had been made by street railway corporations in the past, but not through revenues from fares. A return was never paid on a five cent fare, he said, but "hopes were capitalized and hopes were sold."

He added that there was no question but that dishonesty in over-capitalization, stock manipulations and the use of corporate influence in the past were in a large measure responsible for the difficulties now being experienced by the "action" companies.

By Associated Press. PARIS, July 15. (Havas).—The French government will demand reparation from Germany as a result of the death of a sergeant major of dragons at the hands of persons unknown in Berlin, according to La Liberté. The incident occurred at the French embassy, where the officer was on guard. COUNCIL OF FIVE IS DISCUSSING THE RUSSIAN EMBARGO

By Associated Press. PARIS, Tuesday, July 15.—The council of five met this afternoon, its chief topic of discussion being the Russian blockade. There have been proposals that the powers shall allow ships to enter Russian ports under special permits, the United States has constantly insisted that there has been no blockade against Russia except such as is incidental to the embargo on imports to Germany. Consequently, the American delegates were not ready to take any action in the matter until instructions have been received from Washington.

It has been suggested that most of the Black Sea ports could be blockaded by the Benkine government, which is friendly to the Allies, but the supreme council has not decided to ask him to declare such a blockade.

A note has been received from Bela Kun, the foreign minister of the Hungarian soviet government, declaring that the Czech and Rumanian violations of the terms of the armistice with Hungary and that consequently Hungarian forces were ordered to cross the boundaries fixed by the armistice. The note claims that this order was issued in self-defense. The boundaries fixed by the armistice are so uncertain that the supreme council has referred the matter to a military commission for decision.

By Associated Press.

URGES ENFORCEMENT MEASURE BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Authority of Congress to fix one-half of one percent as the maximum alcoholic content of beverages in prohibition enforcement legislation is clear, Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, declared today before the Senate Judiciary Committee in answering recent statements of James Undermyer, counsel for brewers.

"To allow the sale of 2-3-4 per cent beer," said Mr. Wheeler, "would keep alive the liquor traffic and defeat the purpose of national prohibition." Thirty-three prohibition states and thirteen local option states, Wheeler said, have laws limiting alcohol in beverages. He challenged Mr. Undermyer to produce any court decisions denying Congress or state legislatures the right to make definitions.

Want Amount Limited. Mr. Wheeler told the committee prohibition advocates were not asking that possession of liquors bought before July 1, for personal use be prohibited; however, that they were suggesting amendments to limit the amount of liquors which may be stored in private residences so as to prevent homes from becoming speakeasies.

Another amendment advocated by prohibition leaders, Mr. Wheeler said, is a provision for getting liquors where it is sold illicitly. "Bootleggers will maintain their bases as headquarters without such legislation," said he.

Two other amendments were urged by the witness. To prevent bootlegging he asked that the committee add a clause making mere personal and family possession of intoxicants, such as the presence of a bottle in an individual's pocket, unlawful.

Mr. Wheeler also asked for sweeping search warrants powers suggesting that seizures be authorized without a warrant, or at least that warrants be issued without requiring testimony in support of requisites. Otherwise, he said, liquor might be removed before officers could act.

Senator Walsh, Montana, and other committee members opposed extension of distilled spirits now held in bond, said this amount was "all that is left in the country."

PRESIDENT TO ASK SENATORS TO CONFERENCE

Will Invite Republicans to the White House to Discuss the Treaty.

ESPECIALLY DESIRES A CONFERENCE WITH LODGE. WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Wilson has decided to invite republican senators to call at the White House to discuss the peace treaty and the League of Nations, Secretary Taft publicly announced today.

Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, was understood to be one of 15 republican senators with whom the President desired, especially to confer.

It was said that the invitation would not be limited to members of the foreign relations committee. The President was represented as being anxious to talk to all members of the Senate, republicans as well as democrats, and to answer any questions they might desire to ask.

It also was indicated that as the disposal of the foreign relations committee, he would not begin this tour of the country until the committee had had a reasonable time in which to decide whether it wished to confer with him.

President Wilson today inaugurated his plan of securing a number of joint sessions with republican senators and representatives.

Visitors included Senator Owen of Oklahoma, who asked the President's support of a bill authorizing the establishment under government supervision of a bank or banks to finance American export trade.

Francis Burton Harrison, Governor-General of the Philippines, spent a half hour with the President discussing Philippine questions.

Representative Rucker, of Missouri, another White House caller, asked the President to include Missouri in his tour of the country. He was told that the itinerary for the trip had not been decided, but that if possible the President would visit Missouri.

WANT TO LIMIT THE PARKING SPACE FOR CARS ON OHIO AVE.

PLAN IS FAVORED BY WICHITA CLUB AND WILL BE PRESENTED TO COUNCIL.

CURB BROKER IS DEFENDED

Declared by Speakers at Luncheon to Be An Asset to the City.

Clearing half the parking space on Ohio between Seventh and Eighth for the benefit of the curb stock market, was favored at today's luncheon of the Wichita club and will be presented to the council by a committee from this and other local organizations. The suggestion that some such arrangement be made came from J. L. Snider, cashier of the City National bank, who spoke of the curbs of the curb market as not only of benefit to the city, but an extreme attraction to visitors from other points. It was Mr. Snider's opinion that sufficient space for the curb brokers could be secured by the prohibition of automobiles parking on half of this space. The brokers to agree on their part to confine their activities to this space and not to encroach on the sidewalk. By this arrangement, it was pointed out, people on the sidewalk, which led to complaints against the brokers which resulted in the limitation of their activity by the police, could be obliterated. Provision for Curb Traders. Mr. Snider's suggestion that provision be made for the curb traders was seconded by W. H. Duke, who spoke of the importance of their activities from experience in promoting several oil companies operating in this district. Mr. Duke pointed out thousands of dollars are invested in the oil companies through the medium of the curb market by people coming here from a distance for a personal inspection of the various properties, rather than make their investments through the medium of agencies working at a distance, making the curb market a distinct asset to the oil business in this district. The matter will be presented to the city council by a committee, appointed on motion. On motion by B. F. Johnson it was decided that the matter be brought before the council by a committee appointed to work with similar committees appointed by the Chamber of

VISIT OF A PIONEER RECALLS EARLY DAYS IN HISTORY OF CITY

Wichita Falls' pioneer and postmaster, whose administration harks back to the time when the present city boasted of but four small houses, including the store, and the population numbered about 12 people, yesterday visited the office of Will T. Harris, county clerk. Mr. Harris, one of the three present residents of Wichita Falls whose experience goes back to the time when Steve Reynolds was postmaster and storekeeper here, the other two being Judge J. H. Barwise Sr. and Mrs. A. H. Carrigan. Mr. Reynolds, who was recognized with difficulty by Mr. Harris after an absence of more than 35 years, expects to be in the city during the coming week looking after property here. "Steve Reynolds kept a grocery store and was postmaster here during the years 1879 and 1880," said Mr. Harris in speaking of the visit. "The store was housed in a little one room frame shack, about 10 by 12. One of the four houses here at the time. The stock consisted largely of a generous quantity of Horse Shoes, Star and Drummond chewing tobacco, Bull Durham, papers and matches, and one case of canned peaches. "At that time we got mail twice a week. Steve, who was mail carrier as well as postmaster, made trips to Henrietta on Tuesdays and Fridays to get the mail, and on his return was greeted by the entire town, which composed the population at that time. Mr. Reynolds left here in the early eighties to make his home in Pike county, Illinois, and since has made his home in the North and Middle West. BUY THREE TRUCKS FOR ROAD BUILDING Three five-ton Wichita trucks, equipped with dump bodies, for use in the construction of the permanent highway system, have been contracted for by the county commissioners.

VISIT OF A PIONEER RECALLS EARLY DAYS IN HISTORY OF CITY

Treatment accorded customers by clerks and waiters in Wichita Falls business establishments was discussed at the noon luncheon of the Wichita club today, and the opinion expressed that it was of importance to the City of Wichita Falls that employers do all in their power to correct present conditions and see that all customers receive uniformly courteous treatment in local establishments. This question was introduced by W. S. Curlee, president of the club, who referred to numerous complaints from out of town visitors on this score which have recently been brought to his personal attention. "Lack of courtesy on the part of clerks and waiters, especially of soda fountains, and in several instances of dry goods stores, have been brought to my attention by people from outside within the past few days. There is no question that this condition speaks badly for the city, and incites visitors to go away and give Wichita Falls a very black eye, characterizing the people of this city as 'money mad,' lacking in common courtesy, and the like. I think that it is of extreme importance that this matter be brought to the attention of the retail merchants, and steps taken to remedy this condition." Among the visitors introduced at today's luncheon were L. H. Cullom of Ranger, guest of J. J. Perkins, and Major Edward J. Umlauf, formerly of the British Expeditionary forces, guest of W. R. Duke. Major Umlauf spoke interestingly of his experiences in the British service during the present war, in response to an enthusiastic request from the membership. Major Umlauf, who is a graduate of West Point, and formerly an officer in the American service, was in England on a special mission when the war broke out. Going into the British service he was made an officer in the Princess Pat's Canadian Light Infantry, being one of the sixteen survivors of the original organization. Later he was transferred to the Royal Air Force in which he served until shot down and incriminated by wounds received last October during the progress of the Meuse-Argonne offensive by the American First army. In response to a question as to the feelings undergone by an aviator being shot down, Major Umlauf stated that he could tell little, except what had afterward been told to him about it in the hospital. Besides a number of bullet wounds in the body, Major Umlauf sustained a fractured skull and had his hip bone shot away, being unconscious himself, and the machine landed in advance of the line of the observer, who, although seriously wounded himself, took control of the machine. An advance of the allied forces during the night carried past the wrecked machine of the wounded aviators, and they were taken from the wreckage by a Red Cross worker and Salvation Army nurse. England hardly knew that a war was going on in the early days, the major said, and the round of gaiety was hardly checked, until the return of wounded and maimed soldiers from France woke them to the reality of war. From this on, the conduct of the English people and especially of the English women in the war, was such as to arouse the admiration of himself and other Americans in the British service for the English nation. The major in concluding spoke of his disappointment, and that of other Americans in the English service, in not being able to secure a transfer to the American forces after the entry of the United States into the war.

FORD MAKES A FEW STARTLING REPLIES

 an educator and wanted to go to the United States senate."
 Witness interrupted.
 Mr. Ford interrupted to say: "I can get a man in five minutes to tell me those things."
 Mr. Stevenson started to ask questions about history but was stopped by Judge Tucker who said that subject had been sufficiently covered.
 "All right," said the lawyer, "now, Mr. Ford, soberly, are you not ready to admit that you are an 'ignorant idealist'; that is what is 'tribune' called you and your counsel declare that it is a lie."
 This time Mr. Ford returned a different answer, shaking his head slowly. He explained that his previous affirmative was merely to stop the examination.
 "Well, all right, Mr. Ford. Now I'll ask you what an 'idealist' is. You understand it?"
 Definition of idealist.
 The witness thought for a moment and then replied:
 "One who helps others to make a profit."
 "One who helps others to make a profit," echoed Mr. Stevenson slowly. "Is that your definition?"
 "Yes, that's about it."
 The lawyer smiled and said:
 "Well, Mr. Ford, I guess we will let the question of an 'ignorant idealist' rest right here."
 A speech by President Wilson at Kansas City in 1916 urging preparedness was read to the jury and the witness by counsel for the Tribune.
 "You characterized everybody who advocated preparedness as doing it for the purpose of making money out of it," asked Mr. Stevenson.
 "I advocated preparedness after we got into the war."
 "I was speaking about 1915 or 1916," explained the lawyer, and Mr. Ford added: "I was a murderer just as anybody else was."
 "You were a murderer?"
 "I was a party to it, one of the helpers."
 "One of the helpers of murder?"
 "Yes."
 There was a quickly smothered patter of applause as counsel finished reading the Kansas City address.
 Never heard of Benedict Arnold.
 Mr. Stevenson repeated the story of Benedict Arnold and his attempt to betray his country, but Mr. Ford said he had never heard of read of it.
 "Do you understand that it is the duty of a man who undertakes to educate the people, as you did, to pacify, to be educated himself?" asked the lawyer.
 "Yes, to an extent," answered Mr. Ford.
 Witness said he knew what the declaration of independence was but did not recall details.
 "I could read it if I wanted to know," he said.
 "By the way, what was the United States composed of before the revolution?"
 "Land, I guess," smiled the witness.

MASS MEETING AT NORTH SIDE CHURCH AT EIGHT TONIGHT

Residents of the North Side will hold a mass meeting in the North Side church at 8 o'clock tonight for the purpose of asking the school board for a school building for the coming year, and asking the city council for sewer connections and other matters relating to improvements on the North Side, according to an announcement made today. Speakers announced for this meeting include Judge P. A. Martin, president of the school board, A. E. Myles, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Rotary Club, and Rev. J. Pat Murphy, pastor of the North Side church.
 Property owners and parents of the North Side who have children of the school age are especially urged by Rev. Murphy to be present at the meeting.

HEAVY RAIN REPORTED ALONG THE NORTHWESTERN

Rainfall amounting to .65 of an inch, as the result of the light and intermittent showers of last night and this morning, was registered by the gauge on the Kemp & Kell building.
 Although showers of much the same character as those falling here were reported from several points in the adjacent sections of this State and Oklahoma, they seem to have been largely localized at all points, with the exception of the territory traversed by the Northwestern railroad, where good rains were reported all along the line. No rain was reported from points on the Denver, while extremely light showers were reported from the Valley and along the Katy to Whitesboro.

FOREIGN TRADE PRESENTS IMPORTANT PROBLEM.

The world trade situation is developing in a manner that will call for the best that American manufacturers and producers can offer.
 In a considerable part of Europe the Germans, on account of the antipathy in which they are held, can not hope for substantial trade within a generation or longer. They will be practically barred from all British countries over the world. They are, therefore, preparing to turn their attention to Mexico and to South America and there they hope to win markets that will in some measure recompense them for markets they have lost over most of the rest of the world.
 The preferential trade policy which the British Empire is developing will serve to restrict American trade with British countries, and America must turn to Mexico and South America as its nearest and best market. There can be no doubt but that the Germans will make a desperate struggle for these markets and that if the Americans are to win in the contest they must do so through sheer merit.

FAMILIAR CRY HAS BEEN RAISED.

That familiar cry, "The big interests are behind it," has been raised in connection with the shut down in the Northwest Burkburnett pool. It is a repetition of the same cry that was heard when the government sought to prevent waste by restricting drilling in the Burkburnett townsite pool last fall. "The big fellows are seeking to shut out the little man," was the cry heard then. It was uttered by many who sought only their own selfish ends and the little man has lived to learn the hollowness of that cry.
 It is true that big men, men big in vision, in achievement and with the interests not only of themselves but of the public and the whole industry at heart, are urging a shut down as the best method of correcting a situation that is admittedly serious. After the experience in the Burkburnett townsite it is unlikely that the cry against the big fellow will have much weight.

What has become of the movement for the building of a swimming pool and bath-house in the Huff-McGregor park? The benefits of such an institution these hot days would be almost beyond imagination. This was a good movement that ought not to be allowed to die or lag. Where is it resting or held up?

The Times has been hopefully waiting for the opportunity to report the first meeting of the charter amendment committee. So far it has met with disappointment.

THE WESTERN STATES HAVE OFFICIALLY ADOPTED THE 56" AUTO TRACK WAGON
 Neither too Wide nor too Narrow but Standard 56-Inch Auto-track
WEBER
 Bought by Farmers Because of Its Known Qualities
 REGARDLESS of all other considerations—the 60-inch wagon does not fit the road. Any advantages it might possess are offset by the fact that it is a stranger on its own roads. It rides the ridges, which causes broken axles, wheels and other parts, and the tongue whips about which is hard on the team.
 The justly famous Weber wagon is built only in 56" auto-track because this is the standard approved tread of automobiles—and the automobile makes the ruts in mud or soft roads. If the farm wagon is not made to follow the same path it is out of date for road service. Automobiles are increasing among farmers because they are a time-saving necessity, and every farmer who hasn't an automobile intends to procure one at the earliest opportunity.
 The Weber 56" auto-track wagon will do everything that the old 60" wagon would do. It will haul cotton bales as easily as the wide track wagon and the team can draw the load without having to pull every inch of the way. It lends itself just as readily to all kinds of farm work and in addition it fits the prevailing road tracks.
 Besides the auto-track feature the new Weber has the patented Fifth Wheel and the "Safety First" Swivel Reach Coupling—two advantages that are worth $20 apiece to the user during the life of the wagon.
 By all means see our Weber wagons before you buy. We can offer you something that will save you money and give you service.

FOURTH ARREST IN CONNECTION WITH PAY CHECK THEFT

MAN TAKEN IN CHARGE AT FORT WORTH MAKES A CONFESSION.

LARGE SUM IS OBTAINED

Two Are Held at Waco and One is Arrested Here, Sometime Ago.

With the arrest last night in Fort Worth of the last of a quartet charged with conspiracy engineered by Wichita Falls, to defraud the government by the theft of pay checks from the United States railroad administration, details of the character of the conspiracy as the most daring conspiracy in the history of the Northern department of Texas have been made public by federal officials.

T. Jarrard, a fireman on the Katy was arrested here some time ago on a charge of implication in the conspiracy, while two other men were held at Waco. The last, who gave the name of Earle B. Carmichael, and who has made a confession setting forth the details of the transaction was taken in Fort Worth last night.

Carmichael Gives Details. According to Carmichael's confession he arranged the details of the conspiracy with the others at Wichita Falls on June 30. The alleged theft was committed on July 1, approximately 20 pay vouchers of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railroad, amounting to approximately $6,000, being taken. The checks were cashed during the two ensuing days by Carmichael at Wichita Falls and Burbank, where, being not very well known, he had no difficulty securing the money. His procedure was to buy some article, affixing the check in payment, and securing the article purchased and the balance of the money.

Being frightened away from Wichita Falls, Carmichael stated, he went to Wolfe City, having at that time about $1,200. Five hundred was lost while at Wolfe City in gambling, following which he decided to go to Fort Worth, where federal officials, who were on the lookout for him, promptly took him in charge.

Jarrard, the local man, who is being held in the Wichita county jail pending a hearing, was the man who actually made the theft, according to Carmichael's confession. According to this statement Jarrard went to the paymaster's office to draw his check on the afternoon of July 1, and while the paymaster's back was turned for the purpose of noting the number of his voucher in a letter, Jarrard took about twenty vouchers from the pile on the paymaster's desk. These vouchers, ranging from $125 to more than $250 represented the monthly pay of stenographers, conductors and firemen of the railroad.

Jarrard will be given a hearing before J. L. Lantz, United States commissioner, late this afternoon, when the authorities expect to be able to produce Carmichael to testify for the government.

COMMISSIONERS COURT ADJOURNS THIS AFTERNOON

After a discussion of purely routine matters, the commissioners court reached an adjournment of the July session late yesterday afternoon. Important matters considered during the present session include the decision to merge the Electric road by contract instead of the county building the road itself, and consideration of the tax rate for 1919, which, although not fixed, it was found would be in the neighborhood of one dollar on the $100 valuation.

Market Report

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 16.—The cotton market opened barely steady at a decline of 24 to 40 points, and sold about 50 to 55 points net lower right after the call with October (closing 34.50 and January 34.25). Lower: Liverpool (cable), continued good weather in the South and reports that a large amount of shipping was being tied up by the strike of marine workers led to more or less general uncertainty, while there was also Liverpool and Southern selling. Wall street interests were buyers at the decline and there was scattered covering which caused rallies of 10 or 12 points from the lowest.

Prices broke to early low levels right after the publication of the week by weather report, but this was no more than expected and the market later rallied sharply on covering promoted by the higher temperatures in Texas. October sold up to 35.07 and January to 34.73 around mid-day, or about two points net higher to five points lower.

The cotton market closed barely steady. New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, July 16.—The decline in foreign exchange and the spread of the marine strike were responsible for large offerings in the cotton market today. In the first half hour of business prices lost 48 to 73 points under the selling.

LIVERPOOL, July 16.—Cotton spot in improved demand; prices easier. Good middling, 22.36; fully middling 21.86; middling 21.26; low middling 19.51; good ordinary 17.86; ordinary 17.33. Sales 6,000 bales, including 5,500 American. Receipts none. Futures closed irregular: July 21.36; October 21.23; January 21.10; March 20.97; May 20.81.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, July 16.—Favorable weather and bearish crop reports led to sharp declines today in the corn market. At first, however, transient scarcity of offerings made prices harder somewhat. On the bulge, commission house selling became conspicuous. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 3/4c higher, with September $1.95 1/2 to $1.96 and December $1.63 to $1.63 1/2, were followed by a slight additional gain and then by a setback all around to well below yesterday's finish.

At a level 50 to 75 points down, the market met heavy buying, resulting from the less satisfactory tone than expected of the weekly crop accounts from the government. Toward noon the trading months were unchanged to 11 points down, compared with the final prices of yesterday.

Reports of continued weakness in Texas foreign exchange market forced prices to lower levels. At 1:00 o'clock the trading months were at a net decline of 55 to 56 points.

The cotton market closed steady at a net decline of 68 to 86 points. LIVERPOOL, July 16.—Cotton spot in improved demand; prices easier. Good middling, 22.36; fully middling 21.86; middling 21.26; low middling 19.51; good ordinary 17.86; ordinary 17.33. Sales 6,000 bales, including 5,500 American. Receipts none. Futures closed irregular: July 21.36; October 21.23; January 21.10; March 20.97; May 20.81.

FOODSTUFF PRICES FALL WITH A CRASH WITH BLOCKADE OFF

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Tuesday, July 15.—Prices on all foodstuffs have fallen with a crash in Berlin, result of the lifting of the blockade. They began to show weakness when it was rumored that the embargo would be lifted but the real drop came when illicit dealers with concealed stocks brought them out in a virtual panic to unload before competing supplies entered Germany. Tons of provisions are being shipped in from occupied territories while everywhere in the city great stores of coffee, cocoa, butter, sausages and other supplies have massed their appearance. Coffee prices fell from an average of forty marks to below twenty yesterday and the product could easily be bought for fifteen. Other food prices were correspondingly cut. Restaurants however, still maintain absurdly high prices and apparently intend to continue to do so as long as possible.

WILL RECEIVE BIDS FOR WILBARGER HIGHWAY

Special to The Times. VERNON, TEX., July 16.—Following the lowering of the freight rates on concrete material between Vernon and Oklahoma, the county commissioners will on Wednesday, July 30, open bids on the paving of four and two-thirds miles of the Vernon-Oklahoma highway. The commissioners rejected all bids submitted on the same stretch of work last February because none of the contractors proposed to build with concrete. The matter of paving has been held in abeyance pending the action on the application to the United States railroad commission for lower rates from Oklahoma. This request was granted a few days ago.

ORGANIZE VOLUNTEER LIFE-SAVING CORPS

GOLVESTON, July 16.—An American Red Cross volunteer life-saving corps is being organized here. As soon as 15 men have passed the examinations application for a charter will be made and officers will be elected.

ANOTHER CONFLICT WILL FOLLOW SAYS NEW ZEALAND MAN

By Associated Press. VANCOUVER, B. C., July 16.—The world war just closed was not Armageddon; another conflict will follow, for the Germans are not regenerated, Premier Massey of New Zealand declared in a speech before the Canadian Club yesterday. He returned recently from the Paris peace conference. "Germany," he said, "has been given a great opportunity of rehabilitating herself and in a few months will be one of the first industrial nations of the world. I have been told, and I believe it, that German chemists are now at work and will be until the next war comes, to invent far more destructive methods for the crushing of their enemies than they employed in the war just ended."

GERMANS PLAN A SURPLUS TAX ON EXCESS CAPITAL

By Associated Press. WEIMAR, Tuesday, July 15.—It is reported that the government's new tax bill will include a surplus assessment on capital amounting to 30 per cent and also a drastic imperial income tax the receipts of which will be apportioned among federated states, according to their needs. Mathias Erzberger, minister of finance, is understood to be planning to centralize the nation's tax assessments, obviating the necessity for an individual tax in financing part of the federated state. An increase in the general trading tax, especially on articles of luxury, is also planned. It includes a 10 per cent levy on advertising.

HOLLAND AND BELGIUM ARE TO REVISE TREATY

LOCATE CORNER STONE OF OLD STATE CAUITOL

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, July 16.—Following the introduction of resolutions in the Texas legislature asking for the appointment of a committee to secure for the State the corner stone of the first permanent capitol of Texas, which burned in 1881, from a person residing in Denver, Colo., who was said to have possession of the relic, a stone bearing the inscription "Texas, 1854" was found in Austin. This stone is said to be the corner stone of the capitol which was bought in 1854, and it has been presented to the governor by a local newspaper man. The governor has asked the legislature for an appropriation to what disposition they wish to be made of the relic.

RIVER BED CLAIMS QUESTION OF MUCH GENERAL INTEREST

Special to The Times.
FREDERICK, OKLA., July 16.—Much interest has been aroused here in the action of a local company holding placer claims in the bed of Red River in sending a representative to Oklahoma City, to look after its interests.

The question of riparian rights in the controversy over the bed of Red River is now coming up as the possible determining factor in the fight for the lead in the bed of the river, says a local attorney.

"This is conceded," continued the attorney, "in the action of the school land commission in withdrawing 25 tracts from the sale it had advertised for July 15. But if the Indians, who have allotments along the bank of Red River, can hold the lead to the center of the stream, as seems to be the contention, in the restraining order of the federal court at Guthrie, then land owners along the river can also claim to the center of the stream."

"I have not examined the petition in the restraining order, but presume it is the contention of the Indian agent that the rights of the Indians hold to the center of Red River, inasmuch as the president's proclamation opening the Kiowa-Comanche-Asanche Indian reservation to settlement in 1901 clearly defined the boundaries of the reservation as reaching to the center of the main channel of Red River."

"I understand that the attorney for the school land department claims that the federal government has ceded to the state all remaining lands within the state not already taken up. Even if this were true, the question still remains: is the strip from the center of the main stream of Red River in Oklahoma? It is generally conceded that the Greer county decisions of the supreme court of the United States fixed the boundaries of Texas as the south bank of Red river, although it appears that the attorney general of Texas is contesting this decision. It is said the governor of Oklahoma has ordered the attorney general to meet this contention with a suit in the supreme court and proceedings have already been started, I have heard."

J. L. Mosby, who went to Oklahoma City Friday in the interests of the local company, said Monday that the affairs of the company had been placed in the hands of attorneys to meet the situation as best they know how; and he could not say whether or not the school land department would be restrained from leasing the remaining tracts it has advertised for sale tomorrow.

The whole controversy over the river bed claims has taken on so many angles that there is no certainty about their future status. The last information obtainable was to the effect that the school land department would proceed with the sale excepting those tracts affected by the Indian rights, which form practically half of the land advertised.

SEVERAL WELLS ON OKLAHOMA SIDE TO BE COMPLETED SOON

Special to The Times.
FREDERICK, OKLA., July 16.—Reports received by oil men in Frederick that the well on the Capps farm, being drilled by the Burk-Wagoner company, about ten miles northwest of Manitou, is down 700 feet and the drillers are confident that there is oil to be found at less than 2000 feet. The driller of this well brought in the Burk-Wagoner well.

Trouble has been experienced at this well. The derrick was skidded when the first hole was started and the well had to be started again. Rapid progress has been made the past few days in drilling and the well is expected to be brought in within two weeks. It was said if the present rate of progress keeps up.

Nothing definite was heard Monday from the Midhoma well, near Manitou, reported to have been brought in Saturday, but it was rumored that the drillers will go deeper in an effort to secure more than the 15-barrel production reported Saturday. Much confidence is being manifested in the territory in which the Midhoma and the Capps wells are located and leases are advancing in price.

Interested oil men in Frederick visited the Burk-Extension well Monday afternoon. Rapid progress is being made in drilling this well and oil men here said Monday morning they were confident the well would be brought in as a heavy producer within the next few days. This well has now passed the 1500-foot mark, it was said.

Lease men are sitting still here waiting the outcome of the drilling of wells now on the verge of coming in and should these wells prove to be heavy producers they are expected to be, it was said, leases will soar and Frederick field will be flooded with buyers to invest their money.

Oil men here are optimistic over the tie-up in getting the oil out of the Burk-Wagoner or West extension field and say that they expect the railroads to be able to handle the situation satisfactorily shortly. Should the Rock Island extend its lines to Frederick, as has been proposed, the situation will be greatly alleviated and the congestion will cease, it is thought.

REPORT NEW WELL ON THE FERGUSON LEASE

The Burk-Nett Vancleave Oil Co. is reported to have brought in another good shallow well on the Ferguson lease south of lower Park. The well is their Ferguson No. 4.

THIRTEEN CLERKS HANDLE WITH ONLY FIFTY LETTERS

By United Press.
LONDON.—(By Mail.)—Thirteen clerks to deal with an average of 40

letters a day, were among the discoveries made by Sir John Bradbury's Parliamentary Committee, inquiring into the over-staffing of government departments. The enormous staffs gathered by the various departments during the war became such a scandal that the Bradbury committee was appointed and even after scared officials had had time to clear out many of the "unnecessary ornaments," there are still plenty of "lumpets" holding on to soft jobs.

The Board of Invention and Research, mentioned above, is described as the worst case.

Which way is best—for you, your home and your family

COMMON SENSE, as well as true economy, today demands the banishment, once and for all of the old back-breaking, nerve-racking attempt to keep the home clean and healthful with the antiquated broom or sweeper. The much easier, more sanitary and now less costly method of suction cleaning has definitely put an end to time when much sweeping and dust raising were considered an indication of good housekeeping. The wasting of hours upon hours of nervous energy and strength, sweeping and stirring up and scattering of dust and dirt—and wiping it up again wherever visible, is today as useless as it is dangerous to your own health and that of every other member of your family.

OHIO-TUEC

not only sweeps but cleans

costs only a few cents a day to operate—and quickly saves its cost many times over. It enables any woman to do her home cleaning in a comparatively few minutes. The air suction generated by a high speed motor, sucks up every particle of dust and dirt in her home—all small ravelings, lint and other adhering particles. Yet no dust is raised.

The OHIO-TUEC attachments draw out every particle of dust from upholstering, draperies and other fabrics—clean the walls and search out and suck up every speck of dust from behind bookcases, cabinets and radiators.

With the OHIO-TUEC you can clean more thoroughly, as well as more quickly, easily and cheaply.

The OHIO-TUEC bears the endorsements today of more than 50,000 housewives. You, too, will endorse it very cordially when it has been in your home a month—you can get one today.

Names Are Desired

San Antonio, Texas, July 12, 1919. Hon. T. R. Orth, Wichita Falls, Texas. Dear Sir:

We are about to publish a book containing a history of the Texas State Council of Defense and a record of its war-time activities. A very valuable part of this publication will be the Texas Roll of Honor, consisting of the names of our Texas boys who gave their lives for liberty. The list will be divided according to counties, each county receiving due credit for its sacrifices.

We have tried through various sources to get the necessary information from your county, but so far have not been able to do so. As we are anxious to make this feature complete, and particularly wish to have your county represented, we are writing to ask you to furnish us with names of boys from your county who died in service. The time is drawing very near when we shall be compelled to finish this work. We therefore urge an immediate and favorable reply from you.

Thanking you and assuring you of our regard, Very truly yours, J. F. CARL, Secretary Texas State Council of

AN ADJUSTMENT OF VALUES

We are asked a good many times, "Why the high price of coffee?" There are, of course, many contributory reasons. Among them: The frost damage in Brazil last August. The fact that Europe has had practically no coffee for four years, and the surplus in the United States is practically nil. Prohibition is also a factor. But the REAL REASON is an adjustment of values among commodities. A few years ago Rio sevens sold for 5 1/2 cents per pound, so did cotton. Now cotton sells for above 30 cents and Rio sevens for twenty-two. Wheat used to fluctuate between sixty-five cents and a dollar, and is now two-twenty. So it stands to reason the Brazilian can't take the old prices for his coffee and get by. Coffee is still the cheapest commodity of consumption—and the last to advance.
